YANKS, WITH HOYT IN BOX, BLANK GIANTS IN SECOND GAME OF WORLD'S SERIES

CROWD SENDS UP MIGHTY CHEERS WHEN BABE RUTH STEALS 2 BASES

Never Before Has a Championship Fight Opened With Two Straight Shut-outs of Same Contestant.

CROWD TAXES CAPACITY OF THE POLO GROUNDS

Contest Is Replete With Rattling Plays and Tense Moments; Score the Same As in the Opening Fray.

New York, Oct. 6. (By the Associated Press.)—The New York Americans made world's series history here today, shutting out the Giants 3 to 0 in the second game of the struggle, leaving the New York Nationals runless after eighteen innings of play in the first two days of the city clubs' conflict. They did it by lively work on the bases and the best possible use of their few hits, supported throughout by the brilliant twirling of Waite Hoyt, their young right handed star. The score was the same as in the first game yesterday, Hoyt allowing the Giants but two puny singles.

Crowd Lets Itself Loose

Unlike the opening encounter, the game was played before a crowd that taxed the capacity of the Polo grounds and let itself loose at frequent intervals in zipping outbursts of enthusiasm. It had plenty to enthuse over, for the contest was a pitchers' battle between Hoyt and Art Nehf, who pitched stellar ball for the Giants, was replete with rattling plays and tense moments. Possibly the thing that most encouraged the followers of the Yankees, looking forward to the ultimate outcome of the series, was the splendid game pitched by Hoyt, who held the Giants to one hit up to the ninth. Never before had a world series opened with two straight shut-outs of the same contestant.

Hoyt's Pitching Is Tight

His air flight was spot's pitching and the Giants never had more than four men at the plate in any one inning. The nearest they came to the home plate was in the ninth inning when, Frisbie, hit one down, singled to right and went to second when Young gave a base on balls. He was on his way from second as a fast double play on Young and Kelly ended the inning and the game. The only other man to get to second was Nehf, who was given a base on balls and went down on an out.

Ruth in a New Role

Aside from Hoyt's marvelous twirling, the game revealed "Babe" Ruth in a new role—that of the demon base stealer. A role that seemed just about as popular with the crowd as his familiar one of home run king. The great bambino stole second and third in rapid succession in the fifth inning, and his clean pilfering of the far corner was greeted with the wildest strident of the series to date.

At the bat Ruth's record was colorless. He didn't once connect safely. Nehf appeared to pitch to him every time, but in trying to

HALF OF LEADERS OF DESERT HIM IN WASHINGTON

Washington, Oct. 6.—Urban Ledoux, who calls himself "Mr. Zero" and "The champion of the unemployed," saw half of his followers desert him today in front of the capitol.

The labor auctioneer of Boston Common came with his little army of unemployed, augmented by a sight seeing bus full of former service men from New York, appeared at the capitol to ask Senators Wadsworth and Calder to obtain permission for use of national guard armories in New York state for housing the unemployed. The senators told Ledoux their request was a matter for state action.

Then came the division in the ranks. Bud Taylor, leader of the new arrivals from New York, mounted the bus and addressed the men substantially as follows: "I'm tired and sick of following this fellow Zero around. It isn't doing us any good to pose before the camera; we are not moving picture actors. What we want is work. This chasing the cameras here is not getting us anywhere. If any of you want jobs come with me and we will do our best to land them."

Half of the party thereupon started with Taylor toward the union station while Ledoux and the remainder of his followers proceeded towards the White House for their daily visit.

Muscul Steals Home

Ruth's base stealing feat was performed late in the inning, and didn't result in a run. Not so, however, the surprise sprung by the next most celebrated slugger of "Murderer Row"—the late Mr. Muscul. This little Californian did nothing less than execute a clean steal of home in the eighth—duplicating McNally's feat of Wednesday. He did it by sliding for it, either for the pitch on which he tore in was wide and Earl Smith, the startled catcher, let it get away from him for a passed ball.

The giant routers got their chance again today to grow enthusiastic over the playing of the remarkable Frank Frisbie. This stellar performer undoubtedly prevented the score taking on a decidedly more lopsided aspect. He made a great catch of a sizzling liner by Muscul, labeled for two bases, with two on, in the Yankees' first inning, turning the smash into a double play. Then, in the third, he brought the crowd to its feet with his brilliant performance in grabbing up to the ninth. Never before had a world series opened with two straight shut-outs of the same contestant.

An Exciting Inning

Much of the excitement of the game was crowded into the Yankees' third inning. Schanz, started by sending a high fly to Baneroff. Baneroff squirmed and twisted to get under Hoyt's Texas leaguer but was unable to hold the ball. Peckinpaugh walked and, with two on, in the Yankees' first inning, turned the smash into a double play. Then, in the third, he brought the crowd to its feet with his brilliant performance in grabbing up to the ninth. Never before had a world series opened with two straight shut-outs of the same contestant.

The Yanks Scored Their First Run in the Fourth Inning

After Pipp had sent a high fly to Young, Ward got a hit on a slow bouncer to right. McNally hit to Nehf.

GREAT BRITAIN GRAPPLING WITH THE PROBLEM OF FINDING JOBLESS

Conditions Surrounding Unemployment Demand the Quickest Relief Possible at Cabinet's Hands.

IRISH CONFERENCE IS SET FOR OCTOBER 11

Washington Parley on Armaments and Far Eastern Questions Also Claims Leaders' Attention.

(By The Associated Press.) London, Oct. 6.—The Washington conference on armaments and far eastern questions took third place in the three important problems which faced the British cabinet at a council held today.

In official circles it is stated the three subjects which demand the government's attention are unemployment, the Irish situation and armaments, but of these unemployment is the more urgent. Officials are careful to point out that the three subjects are equally important, but that the conditions surrounding unemployment demand the quickest relief possible.

After unemployment there looms the new Irish conference of October 11, to which the cabinet must appoint representatives. The cabinet will then give full consideration to the Washington conference. It was learned the composition of the British delegation to the coming conference, with Irish leaders discussed, and it was understood the government would be represented by the following delegates:

Premier Lloyd George, Lord Bickenhead, the lord high chancellor; Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland; Austin Chamberlain, government leader in the house of commons; Sir Laming Worthington Evans, secretary for war; and Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary for the colonies.

ECONOMIC CRISIS IN BURGENLAND GROWING MORE ACUTE DAILY

(By The Associated Press.) Vienna, Oct. 5. (By the Associated Press.)—New complications today when it was learned the proposed conference in Italy had not been sanctioned by Great Britain. In government circles Italy's injection into the affair is being regarded in the same light as the efforts of Dr. Eduard Benes, the Czechoslovak premier, to settle the controversy through Herr Schober, the Austrian chancellor, both being without sanction.

The economic crisis is growing more acute with the fall in exchange. The populace is besieging food and clothing stores in anticipation of still higher prices. The price of fat has risen from 300 to 1,500 crowns per kilogram. Canned milk cannot be purchased. Merchants are withdrawing their stock and selling only one article to a customer.

FORMER PRESIDENT OF NEVADA BANK INDICTED

(By The Associated Press.) Carson City, Nev., Oct. 6.—A federal indictment of sixteen counts against Arthur Wither, former president of the Ely National Bank of Ely, Nev., was returned here tonight. Wither is accused of having defrauded the bank of over $20,000 and of having made false reports to the treasury department at Washington, D. C.

Wither, former mayor of Ely and prominent in democratic politics in the state, disappeared several weeks ago. He is believed by authorities to be in Mexico.

ADMITTING SETTING FIRE TO STOCK OF GOODS

(By The Associated Press.) Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 6.—Harry J. Hauser, deputy state fire marshal, returned this evening from Nelson, Nebraska county, where he said he had secured a signed confession from Francis G. Hartman, in which Hartman admitted he had set fire to his stock of goods and equipment in a photograph gallery in the city hotel at Nelson. Hartman, deputy Hauser said, made the confession to himself and the county attorney. He is in jail at Nelson.

TO PLANT MEMORIAL TREES FOR SOLDIERS

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Oct. 6.—Memorial tree planting this fall will break all records, according to the American Forestry association, which announced the opening of the plantings season today. The first big planting to be registered on the association's honor roll is at South Bend tomorrow when the women of St. Joseph county will plant memorial trees for the soldiers of that county along the Lincoln highway.

LASKER PLEADS FOR SUPPORT OF MERCHANT FLEET

U. S. Cannot Market Her Surplus Products Except With Ships Under Her Control, Says Lasker.

(By The Associated Press.) New York, Oct. 6.—Until America as a whole awakens to the fact that national economic stability is dependent upon the establishment of a national merchant marine, there can never be an American merchant marine, Chairman Lasker of the shipping board declared today in an address before the Associated Advertising Clubs of the world.

Reviewing the work of the present board during its existence of 16 weeks, he asked the "patience and indulgence of the country," declaring that if these were not given, the board would be forced to resign. He said the board was not the cause of the war, but the war, for the next generation, is dark indeed.

Importance of a Fleet

"Until the farmer in Kansas, the industrial worker in Indiana, the miner in Arizona realize," said Mr. Lasker, "that the regularity and volume of their daily wage is, in a measure, as dependent on the establishment of an American merchant marine as is the continuity of employment and the wage of the dock-worker in Baltimore or San Francisco, there can be no assured hope that the flag of the United States will be maintained as it should be on the seven seas. Sound economics accept as fundamental that national prosperity is based on continuity of employment at wages consonant with American standards of living."

"When surpluses accumulate, prices are demoralized and employment ends until the excess has been consumed."

"Generally speaking, the last 10 per cent of production makes the market and it is this last 10 per cent that we must insure disposal of to customers in foreign lands. Except with a merchant marine under our own control there can be no assurance of these essential markets."

The 16 weeks of work by the present board, he said, "have accomplished only a mere beginning but a real beginning of the foundation upon which a substantial structure of accomplishment, we hope, may, in good time, be erected."

"After 16 weeks we find ourselves with the framework of our human organization (accounting, operating, financial, legal and other departments) in place. (Continued on Page Two.)"

CONFERENCE OF METHODISTS IS ON AT ARTESIA

Approximately 150 Delegates and Out of Town Visitors Are Guests of the Pecos Valley Town.

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.) Artesia, N. M., Oct. 6.—The thirty-second annual conference of the New Mexico and West Texas conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, began in Artesia on Wednesday morning, with approximately one hundred and fifty delegates and out of town visitors as guests of the local church organization. This is the second time that the Artesia church has been honored by the annual session of the conference. In 1919, while Rev. J. Allan Ray was the local pastor, Artesia was the meeting place of the conference. Since that time a large and beautiful church edifice has been constructed. This facilitates the great task of such a meeting to a large extent. Rev. R. W. Davis, pastor of the Artesia church, and the stewards are doing everything in their power to make the conference interesting and provide entertainment for all visitors. The entire town is assisting in making all visitors feel welcome.

Bishop H. M. DuBose, presiding bishop of the four conferences in the eleventh district, will preside at this assembly. Many other denominational leaders of the great southwest will also be present during this session. An unusually large amount of business pertaining to the tasks of the Methodist denomination will be transacted.

The Methodist church building at Artesia will be dedicated before the conference closes on next Sunday evening. The drive to clear all debt on the structure, during the past year, is proving very successful. This event is of great interest to the entire populace of Artesia. Other matters of business include the appointment of a new pastor for the Artesia church, and the election of delegates to be elected to the general conference at Hot Springs, Arkansas.

The opening sermon was preached last evening by Rev. A. C. Douglas, of Gallup, N. M. Rev. L. B. Ellis of Ashbury church, El Paso, Tex., preached the sermon on Wednesday evening. Other ministers who will deliver sermons during the week are Rev. W. G. Gaston of Tucuman, N. M.; Rev. C. V. Williams of Tulsa, Okla.; and Rev. L. L. Thurston of the Methodist church at Lordsburg, N. M. The bishop will also preside at the morning business sessions. The board meetings will be held in the afternoon.

SUIT OF SPELLMAN AGAINST DEMPSEY IS GIVEN TO THE JURY

(By The Associated Press.) Redwood City, Calif., Oct. 6.—A dozen links of the chain of circumstances evidence whereby they hoped to convict William A. Hightower of the murder of the Rev. Patrick E. Heelan, Catholic priest of Colma, a San Francisco suburb, were hammered out by attorneys for the prosecution in Hightower's trial here today.

Chief of today's witnesses was Doris Shirley Putnam, whom Hightower had said he took for an automobile ride to San Jose, some distance south of here, the night Father Heelan was snatched away from his home never to return. The woman, then not yet married to Putnam, told of coming from Salt Lake City to San Francisco with Hightower, of their taking a room at a hotel, of Hightower's absence with an automobile the night Father Heelan disappeared and of her own infatuation with Putnam and eventual departure to Fresno with him. She denied every vital point of Hightower's story so far as it affected her.

BLUE SKY COMPANIES AND THEIR PROMOTERS TO BE INVESTIGATED

(By The Associated Press.) Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 6.—United States grand jury will be called upon to investigate the activities of "blue sky" companies and their promoters when it meets at Lincoln today. Attorney General Clarence A. Davis, who has been active in securing indictment of alleged violators of state laws at Omaha and is now in Lincoln, said today that he was anxious that federal prosecutors take action. "A movement was under way in Lincoln today for the summoning of a county grand jury for investigation of alleged fraudulent promotion schemes."

MRS. SPENCER WASN'T SLAIN, SAYS DOCTOR

Lakeport, Calif., Oct. 6.—District Attorney H. B. Churchill, taking the stand as a witness for the prosecution in the case of John A. Spencer, former clergyman in support of his wife, testified today that Spencer twice had offered him considerations to slacken his efforts to obtain a conviction in the case.

Spencer first offered him property valued at about $800, the district attorney said, and later offered him property worth about $1,000 and cash to the amount of $200 in addition. Churchill was the last witness called by the prosecution.

FORMER CASHIER OF OMAHA STATE BANK ARRESTED

L. M. Swindler Charged in Indictment Returned by Grand Jury With Conspiring to Commit a Felony.

(By The Associated Press.) Omaha, Neb., Oct. 6.—L. M. Swindler, former cashier of the American State bank of Omaha, was arrested today on indictments returned by a special grand jury which investigated stock and other transactions, charged with conspiracy to commit a felony and with borrowing money from the bank without first obtaining approval of its board of directors.

One of the indictments charges Mr. Swindler, Ward E. Shafer and Marion F. Shafer, both of Omaha, as officers of the American State building company, conspired to represent the corporation as solvent to purchasers of stock, and that they fraudulently represented that they had invested $250,000 in shares of the company's stock. The company was insolvent, it is charged. The other indictment alleges that Swindler, as cashier, and Marion F. Shafer, as president of the American State bank, unlawfully borrowed $14,456.21 from the bank.

Both Marion F. Shafer and his brother Ward E. Shafer, previously arrested, are charged with the same crime. Mr. Swindler furnished bond, as did the other two accused men. Mr. Swindler's arrest made the sixteenth as a result of the grand jury's $250,000 indictment. At the time of the investigation was made, today appeared before the Douglas county board of commissioners to report funds to aid in the prosecution of defendants. Decision to allow $10,000 for this purpose was reached.

Another Attack Is Launched Against the Extension of the Government Postal Savings Bank System; London Man Explains a Plan for International Credits.

(By The Associated Press.) Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 6.—A threatened split in the ranks of the American Bankers' association was averted today by announcement that the executive council of the organization had reversed an earlier decision favoring establishment of branches by national banks under certain conditions. He said there was "unavoidable conflict" between national and state bank divisions of the association on the subject.

REPUBLICANS IN CONFERENCE ON TAX BILL REACH AN AGREEMENT

Leaders Believe the Program Decided Upon Will Close the Principal Gap Within the Party Ranks.

SALES TAX PLAN OF SMOOT IS REJECTED

Utah Senator Serves Notice That He Will Speak at Length on His Proposal Some Time Next Week.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Oct. 6.—Republican senate leaders, in conference today, agreed upon a tentative tax revision program which they believe will close the principal gap within their party ranks in the senate and prove acceptable to the republicans in the house.

Main points in the program are an increase in the maximum surtax rate from 32 per cent to 50 per cent and repeal of the tax on passenger, freight and Pullman transportation. It is proposed to repeal the $2,000 exemption allowed corporations, which would mean an additional $90,000,000 of revenue from corporate sources, retain the corporation capital stock tax, estimated to yield $75,000,000 next year, and repeal the various so-called nuisance taxes, such as those on soda water, cosmetics, proprietary medicines and the like.

There also was said to have been a tentative agreement to increase the estate taxes so as to have a maximum of 40 or 50 per cent on estates in excess of $100,000. The present maximum is 25 per cent on estates of $100,000. Increased Postage Rates. Most leaders are understood to have favored the committee proposal for a flat tax of 15 per cent on corporation incomes, but there was some discussion of a graduated tax, with the rate 10 per cent on corporations having an income of $50,000 or less and 15 per cent on those with higher incomes. The question of increased first class postage rates and other matters are to be threshed out at a meeting of republican members of the finance committee to be called in a day or two.

In advance of this meeting, Senators Lenroot, of Wisconsin, and McCormick, of Illinois, are to draw up amendments embodying the proposed changes for presentation to the committee republicans. It is the plan to have the amendments presented on the floor as committee amendments, thus avoiding the expedient action on the tax bill.

In framing their program, the leaders considered and rejected the Smoot manufacturers' sales tax proposal and approved the committee proposal to repeal the excess profits tax as of next January 1. Active fights for the sales tax and against repeal of the profits tax are promised. Senator Smoot gave notice today he would speak at length on his plan next week.

FLOUR PRICES DECLINE

DECREASE IN UNEMPLOYMENT IN SEPTEMBER SHOWN IN SUMMARY ISSUED BY LABOR DEPARTMENT

On the Last Day of the Month 1,428 Establishments Had 18,050 More Workers on Their Pay Rolls Than on Aug. 31; Toledo Had the Greatest Increase in Employment.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Oct. 6.—A slight decrease in unemployment throughout the United States was reported for September by the department of labor in a summary of conditions made public tonight. On September 30, the department said, 1,428 establishments had 18,050 more workers on their pay rolls than on August 31, an increase of 1.2 per cent. In sixty-five principal cities, employment decreased in twenty-six, but increased in thirty-eight, and in one remained unchanged during the month.

The summary showed the percentage of change was greater in the cities reporting increased employment than in those showing decreases. The greatest increase in employment was noted in Toledo, O., with 24.1 per cent, while Portland, Ore., stood second with an increase of 21.7 per cent.

Chicago reported an increase of 1.15 per cent and New York showed a decrease of 2.2 per cent. Increases by industries were noted particularly in food production, textile manufacturing, nearly all metals, stone, glass, clay, lumber, chemicals and railroad shops. The industries reporting decreases included automobiles, leather and its products, paper and printing, and tobacco manufactures.

A CANADIAN CITIZEN, IN POOR HEALTH, ENDS HIS LIFE IN TUCSON

(By The Associated Press.)
Tucson, Ariz., Oct. 6.—Joseph Snyder, a Canadian citizen, committed suicide here at an early shot through his head. Snyder was born in Germany, naturalized in Canada and was 63 years of age.

As a prospector he has been in the Yukon district, Nevada, Cali-tically unknown in Tucson and it is believed there are no immediate relatives. A deposit slip carried in his clothing shows $10,000 placed in a San Francisco banking concern. An inscription made in a note book before the firing of the shot by which Snyder committed suicide states he suffered poor health, had no money and had been refused admittance to a hospital by the county physician.

Two Records Broken.
In addition to establishing a new world's series record of two consecutive shut-outs by the same team in the first two games, the gate receipts record established yesterday also went by the board.
The 24,939 spectators who witnessed the Yankees' second victory paid $115,320. This was more than six times the gate receipts in the second game of the 1905 series, which was the first played at the Polo grounds under the National commission rules.

By a strange coincidence the Giants lost that game to the Philadelphia Athletics on the same field and by the same score as that of today's contest. Chief Bender did the hurting for Connie Mack and it was the only game won by the Athletics in the famous shutout series. At that game, the first of the series in New York, 24,992 persons paid $119,985.

Division of the "Pot."
Of the $115,320 paid today, the players will receive $68,513;20;
the clubs $3,208;80, and the advisory board $17,298. If interest in the series continues and the play should extend to six or seven games a new total receipts record is almost certain in view of the high prices being charged for both reserved and unreserved seats at the Polo grounds. The present record for gate receipts is held by the 1919 series between the Cincinnati and Chicago clubs when $23,414 was taken in during the eight games.

INGROWN TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail grows naturally outward almost over night.
"Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists.

Liquidation) practically completed," the chairman explained.

Financial Reports.
"Financial reports are beginning to come in. On September 23 we had our cash statement as of August 31, the second cash statement that it has been possible for the new board to have since it took office. On the same date our operating account for the month of August was presented and three weeks ago the result of the inventory of all of the shipping board's materials and supplies (not including plants, ships, or accounts) was available for the consideration of the board and for the adoption of a policy for liquidation."

The American nation today is possessed of 1,450 ocean-going steel ships of about 10,000,000 tons deadweight, the speaker said, adding that he had considered only steel bottoms since "cardination" of all concrete and wooden hulls had been determined upon. He estimated the cost of the available fleet at $2,500,000,000, which, he said, could be entirely written off, as one of the major factors in the victory over Germany, "without owing one penny to the American people."

"It was because of this fleet," Mr. Lasker asserted, "that we were able to move the enormous volume of American manufacture and raw materials at a time when there was a shortage of world tonnage. It was because of these ships that our factories, farms and mines were able to operate at top speed when the boys returning from the front were seeking employment."

The speaker predicted that the shipping board "would no longer be a burden to the American taxpayer." Losses had been checked, he said, and not more than $1-000,000 a month would be required from now until the end of the fiscal year.

"The liquidation of the three and one-half billion dollars of the corporation's assets will, at any time, realize but a fraction of the original cost, because the fleet was built with understandable waste and high expenditure during war years," Mr. Lasker conceded. "The money loss in liquidation need not be considered, since it has already been written off in the cost of the war and, as best outlined, served a function in full value."

Shipping Has Suffered.
The shipping of all nations, he said, has suffered as a result of the loss of trade and the increase of construction since May, 1920,
"an excess of 20,000,000 tons of which has had the result of placing shipping in the ocean carrying market. Half the tonnage now laid up is under foreign flags, he added."

Mr. Lasker said the Jones ship bill had been framed with the evident purpose of removing disabilities suffered by American vessels as a result of the higher cost of construction and higher standards of maintenance in this country.
Declaring that there are many who "do not wish the country changed," the speaker demanded that "these hostile forces from within and without, sowing seeds of discord and distrust, be met and vanquished."

UNION OF TYROL AND BAVARIA IS BEING AGITATED

(By The Associated Press.)

Berlin, Oct. 6 (by the Associated Press.)—According to the Boersen Zeitung, which asserts that its information comes from authoritative private sources, there is a widespread movement for the union of Tyrol with Bavaria. It is being fostered through organizations with headquarters in Munich, Budapest and Vienna, and large supplies of rifles and ammunition have been smuggled over the Bavarian border to arm German sympathizers in Tyrol.

Formerly, the socialist organ, says it learns from Munich that secret organizations are working through regular couriers between Munich, Vienna and Budapest, and that they have recruiting stations in Innsbruck and Rosenheim. The informants of the newspapers assert that the ultimate aim of the movement is the establishment of a Catholic kingdom of Bavaria and Hungary, with Tyrol as the first part of Austria to be embraced.
Later Austria would be included in it.

Certain French officials are alleged to be interested in the movement, hoping to accomplish the separation of Bavaria from Germany.

Reports received here agree that the situation in West Hungary during the last few days has assumed a threatening character.

LUCKY BALDWIN HEIRS SETTLE THEIR DISPUTE

(By The Associated Press.)

Los Angeles, Calif., Oct. 6.—That a settlement had been effected out of court by the heirs of the estate of the late E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin, sportsman and land owner, became known today with the filing in the superior court here of an agreement between Mrs. Clara Baldwin, Stocks, daughter of E. J. Baldwin, and her two children, Albert F.
Snyder and Rosebud Doble Mullender, in which Stocker is required to execute deed for half the property inherited by her in favor of her children.

The agreement, which was drawn up June 1, 1919, ended litigation involving the estate said to be worth several million dollars and consisting of stocks, bonds and southern California real estate.
Mr. Stocker and her children engaged in litigation over the estate in 1919 when the children attempted to have a guardian appointed for their mother, who they alleged was incompetent to handle the property. The court declared Mrs. Stocker competent but the right to appeal was reserved.

Maxine Elliott is now the only actress whose name is borne by any
New York theater.

GENERAL BROWN SEEKS BACKING FOR N. M. PLAN

Asks Business Interests to Co-operate With National Guard During Coming Encampment.

A letter from Adjutant General Henry Rolf Brown outlining the New Mexico plan for national guard protection and asking the business men of the state to stand behind the plan, particularly to release employees for the annual encampment, has been received by Capt. Desmond Farrell of the headquarters troop.

Statements of the New Mexico plan printed on placards will be distributed today to local business men who will support the plan. It is an obligation for all men who have enlisted in the national guard to attend the annual encampment which will open this year on October 17, at Fort Bliss, and these should be released willingly by their employers, it is pointed out.

General Brown's letter follows: "It is about time to go to camp and we believe the training our boys will get in the two weeks given over to this outing and the good it will do them cannot be overestimated."

Every citizen of our state and more especially the business men are asked to get squarely behind the New Mexico plan and send every member of the national guard by letting them willingly and encouragingly go to this camp of instruction and physical benefit. Even though nations agree to disarm to oppose any invasion from extra territorial sources in case of any disaster; in case of any emergency in any community an organized force of trained and willing men is needed to bring order out of chaos. There is a sense of security in city, state and nation when its citizens are trained, organized and ready to help when the contingency arises.

The war department plan is for your safety in which the state joins in giving this security, so the request is made to all patriotic citizens to help recruit up all your units so that they may go to camp in full strength. Give the man who works for you the opportunity and urge him to go, for the eyes of the state are looking at you to see what your community is going to do. Do it right, help to make it a day of strength behind the man now that you may have to get behind some time and be thankful that you have him and that you were a part of the New Mexico plan, which is:

"We believe in the national guard and in the plans of the war department for the national defense. In order to facilitate the enlistment of our employees in the local organizations of the national guard we have subscribed to the following provisions:

1. National guardsmen in our employ will be given fifteen days leave of absence in each year with pay for the purpose of attending camp; this leave not to affect in any way the regular vacation privileges.

2. When called into active service by the governor of the state we will pay national guardsmen in our employ the difference between

USING JOURNAL FOR TEXT BOOK AT U. S. SCHOOL

Picture a dozen Spanish-American youths sitting in a circle, the top of each one completely concealed in an open Morning Journal. Some one is reading aloud, about the disarmament conference maybe, and a few are sneaking a glance at "Jiggs" or the sport page. This is a daily meeting of the current events class at the vocational training center for disabled service men for which free papers are furnished by the Journal office.

For half an hour each day the paper is methodically read and the contents intelligently discussed by each class under the direction of the teacher, Mrs. Clara R. Roberts. And the students go deeper than the headlines on the first page. Stories of national and state importance must be read carefully, for an oral quiz the subject of the story always follows.

One class hour recently was devoted to a general quiz of the disarmament and unemployment conference. This included questions on representation of nations, the qualifications of the delegates, names of the representatives, and probable benefits of the disarmament. Similar questions were asked about the unemployment meet and its consequences.

Local topics of interest are also studied, editorials are discussed and features are read. Although she is a woman, the teacher of the class does not pass up the sport page but leads a lively discussion as to the probable outcome of the world series. The comic features rather take care of themselves and it's a sad day when one of the boys has to miss "Little Benny" or "Jiggs."

their regular wages and what they receive in national guard pay.

3. The fact that the man is a national guardsman shall entitle him to preference—other things being equal—in securing employment or in case of reduction of force in retaining employment. Yours very truly,
HENRY ROLF BROWN,
Adjutant General.

SCHOOLS OF RUSSIA ARE DECENTRALIZED

(By The Associated Press.)

Riga, Oct. 6 (By The Associated Press.)—The decentralization of Russia's schools and denationalization of its theaters and moving picture houses was announced today by M. Lunacharsky, former Russian minister of education, who has reached Riga and is trying to proceed to Italy to represent the third international conference.

"The central government has decided to turn over the management of the schools to the local governments, which will maintain them by taxation," he said. "There will be a model curriculum, including subjects designed to develop a revolutionary conscience, but this will be merely in the way of suggestion that obligatory. Private schools will not be permitted."

Kiwanis club members wearing the blue and white badges from ten city clubs in New Mexico, Arizona and El Paso, will assemble this morning at 10 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce for the first annual district convention of Kiwanians.

District governor, Dr. H. M. Bowers, will formally open the convention, although he insists that everything is going to be as informal as possible.

Informality and fun, as a matter of fact, seems to be the keynote of the convention. Only one business session a day with an equal number of baseball games, luncheons, banquets and other entertainments constitute the program. Every attention that can be imagined will be proffered the visiting Kiwanians.

Delegates began arriving in the city last night from the southern part of the state. Each was met at the train by a reception committee headed by Frank A. Stortz and E. N. Boule. The Gallup and Santa Fe delegations are coming by automobile and members from Arizona are expected in on the early morning trains today. The town has been decorated with the Kiwanian colors and automobiles have been decked with the club symbols to be at the service of the visitors.

The officers of the district who will be present for the convention are Dr. Bowers of Albuquerque, governor; Royal W. Leacher of Phoenix, secretary and treasurer; Earl Drake of Phoenix, lieutenant governor; G. N. Bratton of Clovis, secretary; and P. V. Knickerbocker of El Paso, lieutenant governor.

The following Kiwanians arrived last night: Dr. D. Martin of Phoenix, Ariz.; Dr. A. L. Dillon, Clovis, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Swartz, Clovis, N. M.; Dean Clark, Chicago; W. R. Blair, El Paso; B. O. Beall, Roswell; M. H. Hunter, Roswell; and John D. Mull, Roswell.

PRESENT SYSTEM OF VOCATIONAL TRAINING WRONG

Veterans' Bureau Chief Tells President Harding It Needs
the Injection of Practical Methods.

(By The Associated Press.)

Washington, Oct. 6.—The present system of federal vocational training contains "decidedly too much of the ordinary" and needs the injection of practical methods, Director Forbes of the Veterans' Bureau declared in a report to President Harding covering his recent country-wide inspection of hospitalization and vocational training facilities.

Colonel Forbes characterized the system as "unmistakably and absolutely wrong," and expressed doubt whether "very many men have actually been rehabilitated by the government and have gone back to their respective communities as wage earners and as assets."

Exploit the Soldiers.

"We have farmed men out under this system," he said. "It is nothing short of crime and slavery to put men into some places they have been put. I am opposed to the sweat shop system and I do not propose to let more of the former service men be exploited by mushroom houses that have sprung up merely to exploit the soldier and get the government's money."

Government hospitalization of former service men was said by Colonel Forbes in his report to be nearly equal to the needs, except in certain localities, such as California, but he added that it would be necessary to continue expanding. Government hospitalization would continue to be a problem, he said, in contending that there could be no justification for the government for failure to push to completion the permanent program.

He reiterated the belief that a government vocational university for former service men and women would be in measure solve the problem.

Need for increased hospital facilities throughout California, especially for tubercular, mental and nervous cases, was mentioned. He objected to the association of former service men with insane wards of the state and asserted they were not receiving the "character and standard of treatment which they should receive."

The Palo Alto hospital should be abandoned or renovated, he asserted. The buildings were described as not being fitted for the work to which they have been put. Arrowhead Springs hospital near San Bernardino, Calif., is rendering "highly desirable treatment," he said, adding that while not recommending its purchase, he believed the institution to be worthy of consideration in that direction.

He said he had found a "very unsavory situation" in California with respect to certain contracts under which men were being given vocational training. These contracts, he added, would be abrogated as soon as possible and additional facilities obtained under the bureau.

KENTUCKY GIRL WRITES LETTER How She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sunnyside, Ky.—"I suffered for more than two years with my back and nervousness and was not able to do my housework. I took treatment from two doctors and they did me no good. Mother says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advised in the paper and I took about ten bottles. It has done me a great deal of good. I weigh 133 pounds and am in good health. I will gladly recommend Vegetable Compound to anyone who suffers with the trouble which I had, and you are welcome to publish my testimonial."—VELMA HENDRICK, Route 1, Sunnyside, Ky.

To many American girls life is a sufferer a heavy drag in consequence of illness, and every mother should heed the first manifestations, such as cramps, backaches, headaches and nervousness as Mrs. Hendrick did for her daughter, and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a fair trial. For over forty years this old fashioned root and herb medicine has been relieving women of just such troubles.

COLONELS DROP SECOND CONTEST TO THE ORIOLES

Ogden, Premier Pitcher, Twirls a Masterly Game and Baltimore Wins From Louisville, 2 to 1.

(By The Associated Press.)
Louisville, Ky., Oct. 6.—With Jack Ogden, premier hurler of the International league, pitching a masterly game, Baltimore evened up the series with Louisville, champions of the American association, in the second junior world's series game today, 2 to 1.

Ogden, who equalled the International league record by winning thirty-two games this season, was opposed by Ben Tincup, the Indian pitcher, who went through the American association season without a defeat.

Louisville scored its run in the seventh after Hallinger had rolled to Boley. Schepner slashed a single to left and Meyer followed with a single to right. Tincup struck out and Boley, in attempting to field Acosta's grounder, threw wild to second, allowing Schepner to score.

Tincup held Baltimore hitless until the fourth when the Orioles scored one run. Jacobson was passed. Holden singled to right and Bentley doubled to right field, scoring Jacobson.

Baltimore counted again in the eighth after two were out. Lawrey reached first on Herzog's error and raced home when Jacobson tripled to the left field bleachers.

The game was witnessed by another small crowd, the official attendance being 3,209 and the receipts $4,207.80.

The teams will be idle tomorrow. The third and fourth games of the series will be played Saturday and Sunday.

Score: R. H. E.
Baltimore...000101000—2 6 2
Louisville...00000100—1 6 3
Batteries: Ogden and Styles; Tincup and Meyer.

ARTESIA GRID SQUAD AND PORTALES TEAM WILL MEET FRIDAY

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.)
Artesia, N. M., Oct. 6.—The Artesia high school football eleven is training hard for the game to be played on Friday with the husky Portales high school eleven. Coach F. C. Adams is putting the men through a strenuous week of scrimmages and signal practice on new plays. The Portales high school eleven ways put out a strong team and is a contender for the championship of eastern New Mexico.

The local boys met the heavy Battery A team of Roswell on last Saturday. The soldier eleven won by the score of 49 to 0. They are the favorites in the Battery A-N. M. I. contest.

Clyde, fullback, and Yeager, halfback, are showing exceptionally high class football. Sterling, Bullock, Nickey and H. Cole are doing good work in the backfield. C. Cole, who filled the position of quarterback on last Saturday, may be out of the Portales high game on account of a split nose. However, Yeager can play quarterback as well as in the half-back position.

I. Klopfersten will be out of the game with a wrenched ankle. However, Sloan and E. Klopfersten are a strong pair of ends. Welsh, Davis, Morris, Jackson, Turknett and House will make a strong line to withstand the attack of the upper valley lads. Stoldt will probably play the pivot position, with Brown held in readiness if he is needed.

Both teams are hopeful of winning the game, and a close game is expected between these old rivals in thletics. Games have been scheduled with Roswell high school and Clovis high school for the near future.

VICTOR IN THE SECOND GAME.

Waiter Hoyt's advent as a Giant in 1915 while pitching for a Brooklyn high school put him in the baseball limelight. But he has had a long battle to win a place among the big league hurling stars. Was born in Brooklyn, September 9, 1893. Signed by Giants in 1915. Famed out, recalled under optional agreements and traded. Hoyt has played with the following clubs in the order named: Giants, Mt. Carmel, Hartford, Giants, Nashville, Newark, Giants, Rochester and New Orleans. Sold by New Orleans to Red Sox in 1919 for $2,500. Failed to get going last year or next and traded to New York Yankees with McNally, Harper and Senneff for Pratt, Ruel, Vick and Thormalen.

GOLF TITLE FOR WOMEN STAYS IN UNITED STATES

The Last Two of Seven Foreign Players Who Started in the Competition Monday Are Eliminated.

(By The Associated Press.)
Des Moines, N. J., Oct. 6 (by the Associated Press).—Today's matches in the national women's golf tournament decided that the title would remain at home, the last two of seven foreign players who started in the competition Monday being eliminated.

Miss Alexa Stirling, of Atlanta, the defending champion, defeated Mrs. Latham Hall, an American citizen by marriage, but playing from the Mid-Surrey club of England, one up, the champion taking the match at the home green as the result of a remarkable chip from the rough that carried forty-five feet to within two feet of the pin.

Miss Edith Leitch, sister of the defeated British champion, Miss Cecil Leitch, lost at the nineteenth hole to Miss Elaine Rosenthal, of Chicago. An uphill battle when victory seemed doubtful and better putting in the pinches featured the winner's play.

Miss Marion Hollins, of New York, defeated Mrs. F. C. Letts, Jr., of Chicago, conqueror of Miss Cecil Leitch, 4 and 3.

Mrs. Letts gave her best yesterday in eliminating the player who had been regarded as certain to take the title abroad, and was unsteady today.

The fourth survivor in the tournament is Mrs. C. H. Vandenberg, of Philadelphia, who today eliminated Miss Sara Fowles, of Pittsburgh, 6 and 5.

In the semi-finals tomorrow Miss Stirling will meet her annual battle with Mrs. Vandenberg, while Miss Hollins will play Miss Rosenthal whom she never met before.

Mrs. Vandenberg did not participate in the 1916 meet in which Miss Stirling won the championship for the first time. In 1919 Miss Stirling defeated Mrs. Vandenberg at the home green in the semi-final, and last year the champion was again victorious in their semi-final meeting, the score being two and one.

Miss Rosenthal has held the western women's title for several years. She has been an important factor in recent national tournaments.

WHITE SOX BEAT CUBS IN SECOND GAME OF SERIES

Speed Martin Is Batted to All Corners of the Lot in the Seventh; Red Faber Turns His Knee.

(By The Associated Press.)
Chicago, Oct. 6.—The White Sox of the American league gave their National league rivals a second beating in the series to decide the city championship, by winning 8 to 5, but doing so probably lost the services of Urban Faber, their pitching ace for the remainder of the series. Faber, in fielding Barber's grounder, turned on his knee as he retired the batter and had to be assisted off the field.

The American leaguers won the game in the seventh inning when they batted Speed Martin to all corners of the lot and caused his retirement. The game started as a pitching duel between Martin and Faber, the National's putting the first run across when Flack drove the ball over the right field wall.

After that both twirlers pitched air tight ball, until the fifth, when the White Sox launched their first attack. They continued the assault after Martin's retirement had little difficulty solving the offerings of the other twirlers.

The total attendance was 12,859; gross receipts $13,370. Commission share $3,095.50; players share $1,819.70; clubs share $4,574.80.

PETER MANNING TROTS FASTEST MILE RECORDED

Turns the Oval at the Lexington Track in 1:57 3-4; Arion Guy Lowers Record for Four-year-olds.

(By The Associated Press.)
Lexington, Ky., Oct. 6.—Peter Manning, Irving Gleason's great 5-year-old gelding, trotted the fastest mile ever recorded in a race against time when he turned the oval at the Lexington track in 1:57 3-4. Driven by Thomas W. Murphy the speedy gelding went the first quarter in :30, the half in :58 1-2, to the three-quarters pole in 1:23 and finished under the wire in 1:57 3-4. The new record clips a quarter of a second off the old mark held jointly by Peter Manning and Uhlman Uhlman trotting this mark three weeks ago at Syracuse.

Arion Guy, bay son of Guy Axworthy-Margaret Farish, also starting against time, clipped a second and a half off the world's record for 4-year-olds, when Murphy piloted him around the oval in 1:59 1-2. His fractional time was :30, 58 1-2, 1:29 1-2, 1:59 1-2.

The scheduled feature of the day's program, the Transylvania 2:05 trot, for a purse of $5,000, went to Grey Worth, in straight heats, with Perschope second to the grey gelding in both heats. Grey Worth was an easy winner in both heats. Fast time was made in the event, the first heat being trotted in 2:04 1-2 and the second in 2:03 flat.

The Cumberland, for 2:08 pacers, unfinished from Wednesday, resulted in a victory for Jimmy McKeown, the Ray Golding beating Walter K. in a stiff stretch drive in the heat that decided the event.

The other three events on the program were split heat affairs. Queen Abbe captured the decision in the second race after four hard heats, while Escotillo captured the third race, the 2:11 trot, by winning the second and third heats after Louise de Lopez had won the opener.

RATON TO CELEBRATE ARMISTICE DAY WITH PARADE AND SPORTS

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.)
Raton, N. M., Oct. 6.—A celebration to mark the armistice day last night by the Ex-Service Men's association of Colfax county to meet representatives of the local association in the armistice day celebration here.

The association met last night in the office of Miller and Zeller to complete the program for the observance of the world war's end. The details will be worked out between now and November 1.

The challenge for athletic competition is made to runners, motorcyclists, tug-of-war teams and trapshooters. Those accepting the challenge will be met by members of the Ex-Service Men's association.

Enthusiastic endorsement of the day's program as mapped out was voiced by the meeting last night. The association will invite every veteran in the county, whether of the world war or a previous war to take part in the parade to be held in the morning. The column will form in the park at the Carnegie library and move through the principal streets, downtown.

A speaking program will follow. Besides the military element in the parade, various organizations in the city will be asked to take part. The line will move promptly at 11 o'clock the time when the last shot was fired. The line will be sounded to announce the exact time the war ended and as the whistles begin to blow the parade will start.

Acceptance of the veteran's challenge should be sent to Fred J. Voorhees, president of the association. The president will be officer of the day, November 11, while Harry Miller will be the marshal of the parade.

Hurls Good Game. MEUSEL

Bob Meusel, pictured above, duplicated Mike McNally's stunt by stealing home in Thursday's game. He is the main reason why pitchers want to pitch to Babe Ruth ordinarily, because Ruth has been batting after Babe at better than a .300 gait. Broke into baseball in 1917 with Oakland and was obtained by the Yankees from Vernon in the fall of 1919. In 1920 he hit .323 and slammed out three homers for Huggins.

JOBLESS PARLEY WILL ASSEMBLE AGAIN TUESDAY

Woods Assumes Charge of Coordinating Emergency Employment Relief in Nation.

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Oct. 6.—The national conference on unemployment will reassemble next Tuesday instead of Monday, Secretary Hoover said today.

Committee members will meet Monday, he added, and it is hoped several of them will have completed their recommendations on permanent measures for combating unemployment and reviving business and commerce.

Deliberations of the manufacturers' committee were continued today, but little progress towards a report was made. It was said only minor questions were discussed, members declared, and the relation of wages and prices to a general economic basis still awaits consideration.

Colonel Arthur Woods, former police commissioner of New York, assumed charge of the central agency for co-ordinating emergency employment relief throughout the country today, and Secretary Hoover addressed a letter to all mayors asking their co-operation in putting immediate measures into effect.

Colonel Woods received a visit from Urban Ledoux and his traveling army of unemployed which, it was announced, will leave for Albany, N. Y., tomorrow, and expressed his willingness to aid them in finding work.

FEDERAL JUDGESHIP DECLINED BY KENYON

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Oct. 6.—Senator Kenyon in declining a federal judgeship in Iowa today, issued the following statement:

"I shall not be a candidate for appointment to the position made vacant by Judge Reed's resignation."

It is understood that while Senator Kenyon could have been appointed if he had desired, he preferred to remain where he believed he could be of greater public service. He is chairman of the senate labor committee and of the unofficial agricultural "bloc." Friends and associates generally, it was said, had urged him to remain in the senate.

Theaters Today

"B" Theater—The Reelart corporation star, Constance Binney, is the main star in "Such a Little Queen"; also presenting the last episode of "The Son of Tarsan."

Lyric Theater—The Goldwyn corporation picture, "Wet Gold," is being repeated today. It is an all-star cast feature and drew out a big crowd yesterday. It's Mermaid comedy of two reels, "Holy Smoke," is also being repeated.

Pastime Theater—"The Night Horsemen," with Tom Mix the leading star, is still at the Pastime, it being repeated today. The management is also repeating the "Fox News" pictures and the cartoon-comedy of "Mutt and Jeff."

Among the most interesting and pretentious scenes in "Such a Little Queen," in the palace courtyard, when the queen of the petty European kingdom inspects her royal guard.

Constance Binney, playing the title role, is seen in the uniform of a colonel of the royal regiment. As the troops march into the courtyard for inspection, the tiny queen, with her uniform blazing with military decorations, emerges from the palace, and inspects each trooper.

A company of extras was formed by the casting department, and trained in the sabre drill for this one scene. Elaborate uniforms of blue and scarlet, with short capes and shakos of fur were worn by them, and a very brilliant bit of action was thus added to the picture.

The decorations worn by the little queen are genuine decorations bestowed at one time and another upon various persons by various monarchs of old Europe, in the days when monarchs were more in vogue than they are now in the old world. These decorations have become the property of a New York collector of antique jewels and art objects, and were borrowed for Miss Binney's use in this picture, which is at the "B" today.

MIX THRILLS AGAIN IN FINE PHOTOPLAY, "THE NIGHT HORSEMEN"

To review a Tom Mix picture is always a pleasure because, while the writer is viewing the picture to tell the public about it, he knows he is sure of making a pleasure of business. The new Tom Mix picture which William Fox presented at the Pastime theater yesterday and which is being repeated today, certainly makes anyone forget business. It is thrilling. It is entertaining. It has what the motion picture folk call the "big punch."

It is so fast in its action that the lights go on and the show is over when you feel that you have been watching the picture for only a few minutes. Yet "The Night Horsemen" takes over an hour to show.

Mix does some wonderful riding—some spine-thrilling stunts. The story is novel—the romance holding.

"The Night Horsemen," by the way, is from Max Brand's novel "Wild Geese" and is a sequel to "The Untamed," in which Mix appeared a short time ago. His characterization of Whistling Dan is a splendid piece of work.

REVIEW OF "WET GOLD," A NEW GOLDWYN PICTURE, NOW AT LYRIC THEATER

Science, thrills and beauty abound in the new photoplay, "Wet Gold," was shown at the Lyric theater yesterday and is being repeated today.

At the first presentation of this picture by J. Ernest Williamson, who has made a specialty of underwater motion pictures, it was hard to say whether the novelty of seeing men act naturally at the bottom of the sea was more alluring than the struggle within the submarine or the horse race at Havana, Cuba, where the beautiful Aleene Burr sees her father's favorite colt beaten. This event leads the old southern colonel to back the hero—who is none other than Ralph Ince himself—in search of a hidden treasure that a band of pirates had hidden in an old wreck at the bottom of the sea.

A submarine is employed to reach the buried treasure, and the men are seen walking about on the ocean's floor in search of it. A struggle at the bottom of the sea is one of the most thrilling episodes ever filmed. Even more perilous, one of the actors was caught in the quicksand.

"Wet Gold" is being distributed by Goldwyn. It was directed by Ralph Ince, who also acted the leading part.

SEARCH INSTITUTED FOR A MOTOR YACHT

Los Angeles, Oct. 6.—Search throughout the Pacific has been instituted for the private motor yacht Speejaaks, with the party of Captain and Mrs. Albert Y. Goewen of New York on board, according to relatives of Mrs. Goewen. Sighting of a wrecked motor yacht off Cape San Lucas, Lower California, several days ago by the steamer Hattie Luckenbach has augmented fears for the safety of the Goewen party. Mrs. Goewen's relatives say.

Science, thrills and beauty abound in the new photoplay, "Wet Gold," was shown at the Lyric theater yesterday and is being repeated today.

At the first presentation of this picture by J. Ernest Williamson, who has made a specialty of underwater motion pictures, it was hard to say whether the novelty of seeing men act naturally at the bottom of the sea was more alluring than the struggle within the submarine or the horse race at Havana, Cuba, where the beautiful Aleene Burr sees her father's favorite colt beaten. This event leads the old southern colonel to back the hero—who is none other than Ralph Ince himself—in search of a hidden treasure that a band of pirates had hidden in an old wreck at the bottom of the sea.

A submarine is employed to reach the buried treasure, and the men are seen walking about on the ocean's floor in search of it. A struggle at the bottom of the sea is one of the most thrilling episodes ever filmed. Even more perilous, one of the actors was caught in the quicksand.

"Wet Gold" is being distributed by Goldwyn. It was directed by Ralph Ince, who also acted the leading part.

SEARCH INSTITUTED FOR A MOTOR YACHT

(By The Associated Press.)
Los Angeles, Oct. 6.—Search throughout the Pacific has been instituted for the private motor yacht Speejaaks, with the party of Captain and Mrs. Albert Y. Goewen of New York on board, according to relatives of Mrs. Goewen. Sighting of a wrecked motor yacht off Cape San Lucas, Lower California, several days ago by the steamer Hattie Luckenbach has augmented fears for the safety of the Goewen party. Mrs. Goewen's relatives say.

THE PROMISED HOUSE- WARMING.

CHAPTER 106.

I was amazed when, a few days after I had spoken of my taking a trip together, Dick had remarked: "Now that you have finished the house, Nan, what about that promised housewarming?"

"Why, I—I didn't suppose you cared to have it now."

"Why not?" A sweet accompaniment to the words. It seemed as if he had read my thought—that now he was too interested in Juanita to care for anything I could do.

"Oh, I don't know," I was embarrassed, afraid to show too much feeling for fear he would see the real reason why I had not mentioned the party for which I had been so keen a few months previous.

"Aren't ashamed of your work, are you?" This attempt to be facetious was unlike him.

"I'll tell the world I'm not!" I replied in the slang Junior had used so often on his last visit home. "No indeed, Dick. I am rather proud of what I have done. Aren't you?"

I asked the question, longing for the old hearty approval.

"Naturally, I am," was his answer.

"When would you like the party?" I asked, disappointed that he had not said more. I had put much thought, many hours of hard work, and a good deal of the money I had earned, into the decoration of our home. I had done it all, even to the tiling of the ceilings. And I knew we had a very artistic, restful home, even though it lacked the elegance of the Baker's, and the unusual effects that I had used when doing Juanita's home.

"We must have it soon," Dick replied, then I saw him bite his lip and flush. I knew it must have some reference to Juanita. I had learned to associate that flush with her. I knew I was right when he added in a hesitating way: "I may go on that yachting trip, you know—and then when I come back it might be—too late—or not convenient—or—something."

"Very well, I'll get out the invitations at once. I'll make the list and you can look it over. We only want those to whom we are indebted, or of whom we are fond. But I might forget someone."

I headed my list with Juanita. She had to be asked, and why not put her at the top of the list? It would help to show I had no suspicions, something I was finding very hard to hide.

EXODUS OF ACTORS STARTS TO EUROPE

Mary Pickford bidding good-bye on the boat to little Mary Pickford Rupp.

Mary Pickford and her famous husband, Douglas Fairbanks, are now on their way to Europe. They sailed from New York a few days ago. Many of their friends were at the dock to bid them good-bye. Among them was little Mary Pickford Rupp, daughter of the former Lottie Pickford and niece of Mary.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks style their present trip "a second honeymoon." Incidentally they will look over some settings for future movies. They intend establishing a home in Paris, where they can make short jumps to the other European capitals.

Close-ups. With Charles Chaplin already abroad, Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford going and some three or four other prominent stars planning to go to make pictures in Europe, it begins to look as if the invasion of the film industry is only beginning. The latest to announce her intention of making a picture on the other side, according to some gossip from the coast, is Ethel Clayton, who will sail as soon as she completes her present contract.

Sir Gilbert Parker, after a year in the Paramount studio in Hollywood, is in New York for a few days on his way to London. While he is away Agnes Ayres will make her stellar debut in "The Lady That Has No Turning," which Sir Gilbert wrote for her.

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING

By LAURA A. KIRKMAN.

REQUESTED PICKLING AND PRESERVING RECIPES.

L. L. Cucumber Relish: Twelve cucumbers, 6 onions, 4 red peppers, 4 stalks celery, 2 cups sugar, 2 teaspoons salt and vinegar. Peel and chop the cucumbers and onions and put through meat grinder or chop finely by hand. Remove all coarse strings from celery and chop. Mix these ingredients together with the sugar and salt and add enough vinegar to cover. Bring to boiling point, let boil a few minutes, then turn into hot, sterilized jars and seal at once.

Eyes: Green Tomato Preserves: Cut large green tomatoes in half, then quarter the halves. For each pound of tomato add 2-4 of pound of sugar and 1 lemon (all but seeds) thinly sliced. Put the sugar first into the preserving kettle with just enough water to dissolve it, then add the sliced tomatoes and sliced lemon and let come to a boil; simmer gently until the tomatoes are transparent and the syrup is thick. Seal in hot, sterilized jars at once.

WOMEN PUT ONE OVER IN LOCAL INSURANCE
OFFICE, MEN CONFESS

"Women are all right" in the home but they don't amount to much in business. This statement dropped at sometime or other by A. E. Bruce, local manager of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance agency, in the presence of two young ladies employed in his office caused him a great deal of trouble.

Miss Alice White and Miss Grace Schmitt, championing the capabilities of the fairer sex, demanded a proof of the statement. They went even further, demanded a trial and made their proposal definite. In self-defense, Mr. Bruce finally turned the business of the agency over to them for one week with the agreement that should their efforts result in the production of $100,000 in New Mexico during the week, he would not only resign his position, but give the entire office force and all Albuquerque agents a holiday and foot the bill for a picnic to the mountains. Did he lose?

CURIOUS MEANS USED IN ATTEMPTING TO SMUGGLE NARCOTICS

(By The Associated Press.)
Topeka, Kans., Oct. 6.—Curious means are used in attempting to smuggle narcotics into the Kansas state penitentiary at Lansing. Although no organized traffic in drugs has been known to exist in the penitentiary for some time, prison officials have been on the lookout, according to E. L. Barrier, member of the state board of administration.

Recently a large quantity of narcotics was discovered concealed in a package of rolled oats which appeared to be in the original carton. Towels are sometimes soaked in water saturated with drugs and then allowed to dry out when they are passed into convicts. Small quantities have been hidden under the postage stamp or under the sealing flap of a letter.

"Prison officials can tell when smugglers have been successful by watching the known addicts," said Barrier. "If they appear to be happy it is probably true. So long as the penitentiary has confirmed drug addicts with an intense desire to satisfy their habit, and there are persons on the outside willing to take a chance of making large profits, the prison drug problem will exist."

Since narcotics are strictly contraband in the penitentiary, dispensers are able to sell whatever they smuggle in at profiteering prices. "Dope" with a wholesale value of $20, it is said, may be retailed at $1 a "shot" for a total of $500.

NO MORE SHIMMYING WILL BE TOLERATED IN JUAREZ, ORDER

(By The Associated Press.)
El Paso, Texas, Oct. 6.—There'll be no more shimmying tolerated in Juarez.

What's more, no woman with a low waist line will be allowed to dance at all in public places.

This edict was issued today by Juarez Police Chief Pedro P. Pineda following a conference with Mayor Modesto Flores.

The new chief last night made the rounds of the cabarets in the city on the other side and admitted he was scandalized by the dances he witnessed.

"The women were almost nude," he told the mayor, "and the dances they did were—oh, terrible—against all morals and decency. I want your permission to stop this."

"How scandalous," exclaimed the mayor, "you have full permission to put a stop to all dancing that violates public morals."

So the chief says he is going to.

New York claims to have developed more women champion swimmers than any other city.

CONFERENCE OF OLDER BOYS TO BE HELD IN CRUCES, NOV. 24-26

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.)
Las Cruces, N. M., Oct. 6.—One hundred picked students at high schools in West Texas and New Mexico will attend the fifth annual conference of older boys in Las Cruces, November 24, 25, and 26. Eighty of the boys are from out of town.

The arrangement committee consists of Rev. O. C. Wilcoxson, pastor of First Baptist church; W. H. Broadus, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; G. B. Jones, superintendent of Las Cruces public schools; Rev. J. H. Reentama, pastor of First Presbyterian church; and Jack Turner, representing high school students.

The program includes a series of group conferences, and a number of illustrated lectures by prominent speakers, a banquet at the Central high school and an auto trip through the Mesilla valley.

Directors of the chamber have endorsed the conference plan and will cooperate in the movement along the lines recommended by the arrangement committee.

W. H. Day of El Paso, interstate secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Arizona, New Mexico and west Texas, and Gale Seaman, of Los Angeles, regional secretary for the student Y. M. C. A. on the west coast and northwestern states, met with directors of the Chamber of Commerce, and outlined the benefits to be derived from the conference. Mr. Seaman spoke of the Y. M. C. A. State college, saying that the organization has installed a secretary. More than half of the amount required to carry on the work for the year has been subscribed or otherwise arranged for.

FAVORITE GEORGIA MINSTRELS COMING

The popularity of the minstrel form of entertainment will never die as long as such companies as the Famous Georgia Minstrels of forty really clever and talented people provide the entertainment, they do for the popular press they do. A noon day parade will be given daily and the flashy appearance of the people and the "jazzy" music will start the tickets going. They are at the Crystal Opera house Sunday, October 9.

CHEAP SKATES.

Cheap skates are men whose idle lives no sane results are giving, who loaf and argue while their wives attempt to earn the living. While men of vim and merit chase around in high endeavor, cheap skates sit in the marketplace and trash stale themes forever. They play cheap games for cheaper stakes in joints where skates assemble, and talk of toll with hoos and rakes will make them flinch and tremble. Cheap skates are men who never pay unless through writ or judgment; their promises of yesterday but show what bun and fudge meant. They spoil their stand-off at the start, they mangle and behead it, and now there is no store or mart where they can buy on credit. Their children have to blush for shame, their wives as well, are blushing, while they, to play a checker game, through alleys dark are rushing. Cheap skates are chaps who have no pride, who'd rather loaf than labor, and smile when charity's supplied by some more thrifty neighbor. Cheap skates will borrow book or hen, they borrow things and break them, and never bring them back again unless the peckers make them. Cheap skates abound in every town, and rank not with its glories; they hold the shady benches down, and tell the shady stories.

The Iron Food for Vitality

She needs it—
"The Iron Food for Vitality."

True Beauty Food

is an "iron food" like raisins. Serve daily as a breakfast fruit for best results

Stewed Raisins

Brew for breakfast every morning and get your daily iron this way. Cover Sun-Maid Seeded Raisins with cold water and add a slice of lemon or orange. Place on fire; bring to a boil and allow to simmer for one hour. Sugar may be added but is not necessary, as Sun-Maid Seeded Raisins contain 15 per cent natural fruit sugar.

Raisin Pie

Men are quickly refreshed at night by a dessert like this.

A more delicious breakfast dish than stewed raisins served with cream never has been known—just try and see.

You'll want it every morning.

The food-iron of the raisins will be an every day supply, if this becomes your regular fruit dish. The blood absorbs the iron; and vigorous vitality, if you possess it, is thus protected. Where vitality is lacking, it is frequently restored in this delightful way.

The greatest charm of woman is vitality. Its signs are bright eyes, healthful energy and a pretty rose tint on the cheeks.

You need but a small bit of iron daily, yet that need is vital. Pale, tired women are given this attractive dish for breakfast at a famous sanitarium in Battle Creek. For physicians know that value of the raisin.

CROLLOTT DENIES HE DUPLICATED BALLOT ORDERS

States That His First Request Was Not for Definite Sum; Says Printers Claimed to Know Needs.

Fred Crollott, county clerk, yesterday denied the claim that he had placed a definite order with the Central Printing company for 17,115 official ballots on August 29, and that he had duplicated the order for official ballots on September 14. This is the claim made in the suit of the Central Printing company against the county to collect $893.25 for printing 34,231 ballots.

Mr. Crollott claims that he was told by officials of the Central Printing company that they knew how many to print and that he allowed them to proceed without stipulating any number. When he found by counting that the number was short, he requested additional ballots for the outside precincts, which, with the city ballots, brought the total to 34,231.

Mr. Crollott's statement follows: "I first told Tom Hughes we wanted the Central Printing company to print the ballots. He said he knew how many were needed and I said 'go ahead'."

"When he delivered the ballots for the precincts outside the city, I counted the registrations and the ballots they had sent for each precinct. I then made a list of how many were short in each precinct. I did not have the city registration books as the were in the hands of John Baron Burg, who would not let me have them as he was copying them. Burg agreed to notify the Central Printing company how many names there were in the city."

"When the ballots came, the outside precincts counted out exactly double the registration as required by law. Each sub-division in the city precincts had 2,000 ballots, making 20,000 for the city. I never told the printing company how many to print in the city. They were to get the correct number from Burg. District Attorney Ernest Garcia was with me when I gave them the number of ballots short for outside precincts."

They will meet again tonight at the Palace billiard parlor in a game of 125 points.

AN AMERICAN-BORN BECOMES POWER IN ADOPTED LAND

EMPERESS OF FRANCE

Among the men who manage transportation systems all over the world are many who began life in small American towns. Such a one is George M. Bosworth, Chairman of the Canadian Pacific Steamships Limited with headquarters at Montreal, whose ships sail from Montreal and Quebec to Europe and from Vancouver to the Orient. The man who fills this responsible post was born at Ogdensburg, N. Y., in 1858, and began his railway career as an office boy in his home town at a wage of $25 per month.

The story of his rise is that of other Americans who have reached high goals; hard work was his program and promotion his objective. After climbing several rungs upward in the States, he crossed to Canada in 1882 to become Assistant Freight Agent of the Ontario and Quebec lines of the Canadian Pacific. Promotions followed steadily until he now fills the highest post in the Company's steamship service.

Under his administration the Canadian Pacific boats did splendid war service, carrying troops—Anzacs, Americans and Canadians, to say nothing of herds of Chinese laborers to work behind the lines, and vast stores of munitions and foods. A number were sunk but the Canadian Pacific quickly replaced them and has since augmented its fleet until Mr. Bosworth has today thirty-two in operation and two building. Among these recently acquired are four ex-German ships, The Koenig Friedrich August, 9,600 tons, renamed the Montreal, operated in the Mediterranean service; the Prinz Friedrich Wilhelm, 17,500 tons, and the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, 25,000 tons, renamed the Empress of India and the Empress of Scotland, both being operated in the Atlantic service; and the Tirpitz, 19,300, renamed Empress of China, now being converted into an oil-burner, which will be placed in the Pacific service together with the Empress of Canada, Empress of Asia and Empress of Russia, which will enable the Canadian Pacific to maintain a fortnightly service between Vancouver and the Orient.

Mr. Bosworth is a great believer in oil-fuel, all of the new ships burn oil, and the other large passenger carriers are being converted into oil-burners.

ROTARIANS AND KUWANIS CREW DUEL ON DIAMOND

Baseball Game Between Two Clubs Scheduled to Open at 2:30 O'Clock at Barelais Field Today.

They will try it again! Smashing under the sting of two defeats by close scores, the Rotary baseball tilters will make a third stab at their deadly foes, the Kiwanian diamond artists.

The duel will be called at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at Barelais park and the proceeds from gate collections will be turned over to the Boy Scouts.

Somehow, the Rotarians feel they can turn the trick this time. They have heard rumors that the Kiwanis crew has secured a new moundman and has been upstaged in spots. Still they feel that it is their turn and that persistence will be rewarded.

The managers of both teams have agreed that the full nine innings will be played if it takes all afternoon. If worst comes to worst, the Rotarians will probably use the editor of a morning newspaper as pitcher and a certain lawyer as catcher and guarantee that the Kiwanians will not see the ball all night.

However, just to mislead the gamblers, Arthur Prager, manager of Rotary's team, announced the following lineup:

L. Cooper, c; C. Lemke, p; Van Atta, 1b; Prager, 2b; Dr. Cornish, Jr., ss; C. White, 3b; K. Baldrige, lf; G. Geake, cf; Ed Rose, rf; Barber and Peck, substitutes.

WHAT A LOCAL MAN HAS TO SAY ABOUT GODOWSKY

1001 East Central Avenue, Albuquerque, N. M., October 4, 1921.

Dear Mrs. Wilson: So many people I have spoken to about the forthcoming concert have no idea of Godowsky's real position and standing in the music world. They think him just "another of those pianists." I am taking the liberty, therefore, of sending you comments from Huneker's Steeplejack which it might be well to use in advertisements of the concert.

De Pachmann, one of the greatest pianists of all time, said: "Wait till you hear Leopold Godowsky play. We are all woodchoppers, compared with him!"

James Gibbons Huneker, America's greatest music critic, said: "A pianist who can win the heartiest admiration of such contemporaries as de Pachmann and Josef Lhevinne should know who they are going to hear and what a wonderful thing it is that he can hear. We'll probably never hear his equal during our life time, and I have the greatest admiration for yourself and the Fortnightly club for making it possible."

Sincerely yours, KYLE S. CRICHTON.

PLAN EXTENSION OF NEW RAILROAD INTO FARMINGTON

Santa Fe and Northwestern Will Amend Charter to Permit Line From Bernalillo to San Juan County.

Change in the charter of the Santa Fe and Northwestern railroad to permit the extension of the line from Bernalillo into Farmington will be provided for in an amendment which will be filed Saturday at Santa Fe in the office of the state corporation commission by George Downer, representing the road.

The former route of the railroad as set forth in the articles of incorporation was from Bernalillo to La Ventana. The new provision anticipates the construction of the road clear into the San Juan country, now inadequately served by line.

There has been a constant agitation for a railroad into the San Juan for a long period of years. With the announcement that the Santa Fe and Northwestern would build into Cuba, there was a renewed effort to lead a broad-gauge track into Farmington. The result of that agitation is probably indicated by the announcement that the Santa Fe and Northwestern will amend its articles of incorporation to permit the building of this road.

PRINCIPLE OF IRISH UNITY REITERATED

(By The Associated Press.) Dublin, Oct. 6 (By The Associated Press.)—The principle of Irish unity was reiterated today by Eamonn de Valera, Irish republican leader, in an address.

Ireland is naturally a unit, he declared, and any attempt to depart from the whole nation as a unit would lead necessarily to political absurdities. He asserted the dividing of Ireland did not get rid of minority problems, but multiplied them. He said the unity of Ireland was as much a fundamental principle as self-determination, adding that both were based upon right and justice.

SEVERAL CHANGES IN FOOTBALL SCHEDULE OF HIGH SCHOOL TEAM

Several changes have been made in the Albuquerque high school football card for the 1921 season. Santa Fe will play Las Cruces at Santa Fe on October 22. Las Vegas normal university will play here on Armistice day, November 11. The Indian school game of October 16 will be played in the morning and a game with Las Cruces at Las Cruces will be played on November 26, which closes the season for the A. H. S. gridiron team.

Three of the team have minor injuries but so far no one has been seriously hurt. Nathan Glassman has a bad hip and William Goodrich strained his arm. Badly in the scrimmage with the "varsity." In the last play of the scrimmage Wednesday night Charles Renfro again wrenched his knee. Aside from these few the team is in good shape.

James Reible is making good in the backfield and doing fine at punting, but as yet there is no good passer developed.

The lumber for the bleachers is all here now and the work on them will soon be completed.

BELIEVE AN ATTEMPT WAS MADE TO RELEASE SOME ONE FROM JAIL

(By The Associated Press.) Nogales, Ariz., Oct. 6.—What is believed to have been two attempts to gain entrance to the Santa Cruz county jail here in order to release some one held there, was reported to Sheriff George White by deputies sheriff today.

Deputy Sheriff Charles Jones said that while he was alone in the sheriff's office late last night, he heard some one trying to break open the door leading into the office from the hallway. He said he fired one shot which passed through the doors of the sheriff's office and of the office of the county board of supervisors. The bullet lodged in the wall on the opposite side of the supervisors' office. Immediately after he fired, Deputy Jones said, he heard some one running from the building.

Deputy Sheriff James Eaton reported he heard some one in the driveway alongside the sheriff's office early this morning, but that he could not catch the person who was there.

Sheriff White had taken special precautions to guard against an attempt to free any prisoners from the jail.

A number of prisoners escaped from the jail early in the summer, of whom some are still at large.

WILLIAM ROSLINGTON TO BE TRIED IN THE COURT NEXT SPRING

The embezzlement charge against William Roslington will not be tried until the spring term of the criminal court, Judge M. E. Hickey granted a postponement in the case yesterday. Roslington was found guilty of grand larceny by the jury in the district court yesterday and will serve a term in the penitentiary. He will be sentenced when the criminal cases are completely disposed of by the court. This will probably be within the next few days.

To Paint or Not to Paint?—and What Paint Shall It Be?

These are questions with the majority of property owners just at this time. Several factors must be considered; pride, profit, preservation, economy.

You will find happiness, satisfaction, pride in a newly painted home.

If a sale is contemplated, any real estate man will tell you that newly painted property will bring many times more than the cost of the paint; therefore, to paint is to profit.

If your property is being held for increase, or because it is a satisfactory home, its value tomorrow, next year, or ten years hence will be greater for proper painting—for good paint is primarily an agent of preservation.

But what paint shall it be? It should be an economical paint. This does not mean how cheaply can the work be done now, but rather, how many years of satisfactory service will it give?

Our 32 years successful paint manufacturing experience has proven conclusively that Western climates require that a higher percentage of white lead must be used with zinc oxide and pure linseed oil in order to assure longer life.

McMurtry Mixed Paints

are composed of the correct proportions of white lead, zinc oxide, pure linseed oil and the most durable and unfading coloring materials obtainable so that they DO have the longer life which is the vital factor in paint economy.

CONNELL ISSUES PROCLAMATION ON FIRE PREVENTION

October 9 Set Aside As Day for Impressing Upon Citizens the Need of Preventing Disastrous Fires.

October 9 will be fire prevention day in all cities of the United States. Albuquerque will observe the day in a number of ways as suggested by Walter Connell, chairman of the city commission, in his proclamation issued yesterday.

Life and property loss in the country during the past year has reached an appalling figure. Approximately 20,000 lives were lost through fire and $500,000,000 worth of property values destroyed.

The proclamation issued by City Commission Chairman Walter Connell follows:

Proclamation By the Mayor.
It is the custom throughout the nation to observe October 9th, anniversary of the Chicago conflagration of 1871, as Fire Prevention day, in which connection the governors of the several states and mayors of cities and towns issue their proclamations to emphasize the need for eliminating fire hazards.

Each year in this country several thousand persons are burned to death or maimed for life by fire and heavy toll is taken of our natural and created resources because many of us do not pause to count the cost of tolerating conditions that cause fire. Never in our history have we suffered so great a loss of life and property as within the last 12 months when approximately 20,000 lives were lost and $500,000,000 worth of property values were burned.

Therefore, I, Walter M. Connell, ex-officio mayor of the city of Albuquerque, do hereby proclaim Sunday, October 9, 1921, Fire Prevention day in our city, and call upon every citizen to join in its appropriate observance.

On that day it is proper that ministers of the gospel throughout the city arrange for addresses from pulpits and before Bible schools covering safety from fire. Let the first ten days of the month of October this year be known as a period for safeguarding against fire during which let us place our homes and business properties in order against damage or destruction by a careful examination and repair of chimneys and flues and heating and lighting apparatus and equipment, by making provision for the safe handling and storage of volatile liquids and explosives, and by clearing away rubbish and trash and other agencies that cause fire.

It is important that our board of education and teachers in all public and private schools inaugurate fire drills, and instruct the children in their care how to avoid fire. In co-operation with the chief of the fire department let all fire insurance agents, the Chamber of Commerce, Women's clubs, Boy Scouts, labor council and other organizations plan and execute appropriate activities to impress the need for fire prevention.

And henceforth let us set ourselves diligently and constantly to the task of eliminating preventable fire waste.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto signed my name and affixed my seal of office, on this the 5th day of October, A. D. 1921.

WALTER M. CONNELL, Mayor.

Chairman City Commission Ex-Officio.

Attest: ADDIE W. McAVOY, City Clerk.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE HELD BY ROTARIANS AT LUNCH THURSDAY

Rotary had its own district conference Thursday. When the club was called together for the noon luncheon, Dr. L. S. Peters, acting as president, announced that members of the club would conduct a meeting at which reports would be given after the style of a regular conference.

Dr. Hugh Cooper, presented first, acted as district governor. The following reports of city activities were given: Denver, Reuben Perry; La Junta, Arthur Prager; Pueblo, Carson Peck; Cheyenne, Kenneth Baldrige; Sheridan, Charles Barber; Casper, Wyo., John D. Clark; Las Vegas, Max Nordhaus; Roswell, Captain W. C. Reid, and Raton, Atanacio Montoya.

One of the pet hobbies of Queen Helena of Italy is collecting curling shoes and historic footwear. Among the historic items of her collection are the shoes worn by Mary Queen of Scots on the scaffold, a pair of rough wooden shoes which once belonged to Joan of Arc, and the dainty shoes once worn by the beautiful and ill-fated Marie Antoinette.

EXPLOSION IN GREAT CHEMICAL WORKS AT OPPAU, GERMANY. DRAWS ATTENTION TO BARRING POISON GAS IN FUTURE WARS

Upper photo shows small section of village of homes about plant at Oppau, wrecked by the explosion. Thousands were killed in these homes. Lower photo shows remains of huge gasometers which blew up.

The recent tragedy at Oppau, Germany, which resulted when gasometers at the great Badische chemical works blew up, wrecking the city of Oppau and surrounding towns and killing thousands, may be the means of bringing before the disarmament conference the question of eliminating poison gases in warfare.

It was the Badische works which produced most of the eighteen different kinds of deadly gases used by the Germans in the war. The plant was enlarged to meet the needs of the chemical warfare division of the German army.

GRAZING LANDS MAY BE VALUED AT $1 PER ACRE

District Court Upholds Commissioners in Tax Valuation Cut; Case Will Go to Higher Courts Soon.

Grazing lands in Bernalillo county will be placed on the duplicate at a valuation of $1 an acre instead of $2.25 if the higher courts sustain Judge M. E. Hickey in the decision he handed down yesterday in the case of the Bernalillo county commissioners against Felipe Hubbell, county tax assessor.

After hearing the petitions of several of the larger grazing land owners in the county several weeks ago, the board of county commissioners decided to reduce grazing land valuation for taxation purposes from $2.25 an acre to $1. Holding that the county commissioners were acting beyond their jurisdiction, Assessor Hubbell refused to grant the cut and the case was started by the commissioners to test their authority.

It was claimed by the land owners that they could not afford to pay taxes on grazing lands which were valued at so high a figure. The county assessor was granted permission to appeal the case to the higher courts.

HOFFMAN GIVES HIGH PRAISE TO GODOWSKY'S ART

Leopold Godowsky enjoys the friendship and the admiration of all of his colleagues in the realm of musical endeavor. Josef Hoffmann, as a rule a quiet and unobtrusive individual, waxed enthusiastic when Godowsky is the theme of his discourses.

The two are friends of long standing, with esteem and respect for each other's finer qualities, mutually of artistic interests and appreciations. Hoffmann is keenly sensitive of the identity of his friend's outlook upon art, music and the culture-trend of modern thought.

In an issue of "Vanity Fair" Josef Hoffmann writes eloquently about Godowsky. To quote: "A few days ago I was asked by a friend, 'why is it that everybody loves Godowsky?' I answered: 'Because his character is as true as gold and his art as pure as crystal. Little wonder that everybody that knows him and his art loves him.'"

"With this happy combination of high personal and artistic qualities Godowsky exerts a strong influence upon his fellow-artists. I doubt if there are many pianists today that have not learned something from him; I know that I did and am thankful for it. If Chopin is regarded as the spirit of piano composition, Godowsky represents it of the spirit of artistic expression, although his art aims still higher, since he is not only a reproductive artist, but a creative one as well!"

He also says: "Not only the popular but sometimes even the melodic and musical thoughts turn into poems of bewitching beauty when touched by his bewitching art. When we hear Godowsky play Johann Strauss' 'Elegance' (Kueschlehen, Wien, Wald, and Gessang, etc.), we cannot help wondering whether Strauss himself ever dreamed of such beauties of harmony and of such dignity of polyphony as Godowsky imports to them. Though a small man in stature Godowsky is a great master in his art."

RUSS AMBASSADOR TO JAPAN CEASES TO ACT

(By The Associated Press.)

Tokio, Oct. 4 (By the Associated Press).—M. Krupensky, Russian ambassador to Japan under the old administration in Russia and dean of the diplomatic corps here, has ceased to act. Japan's desire no longer to recognize him as the official representative of Russia is understood to be connected with the negotiations in Dairen of Japan with the far eastern republic of Siberia, which is likely to result in an unofficial representative to this country in case the representatives of the two countries in Dairen accede.

STOMACH MISERY, GAS, INDIGESTION, TAKE 'DIAEPSIN'

Take "Pape's Diaepsin" now! In five minutes your stomach feels fine. Don't bother what upset your stomach or which portion of the food did the damage. If your stomach is sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stinky lumps; head dizzy and aches; you belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just take a little Pape's Diaepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress. Millions of men and women to-day know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diaepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear. If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless antidote is Pape's Diaepsin, which costs only sixty cents for a large case at drug stores.

DR. HILL ADDRESSES H. S. STUDENTS AT IMPORTANT ASSEMBLY

An assembly introducing the members of the Scholarship society to the student body of the high school was held this morning at 10:30 o'clock. Maxwell Merritt, president of the society, opened the assembly by a brief address, putting forth the aims and ideals of the league. He next introduced Maurice Klein, baritone, who sang "Ole New Mexico," leading the students in the second rendition of the chorus. Margaret Bunn offered a piano selection which was satisfactorily played.

The formal address of the morning was given by Dr. David S. Hill, of the state university. His topic was "The Meaning of High School Life." In his excellent talk, Dr. Hill pointed out the various advantages open to high school students, and earnestly exhorted each pupil present to do as much as possible to induce other young people to come to school. In his speech Dr. Hill also mentioned the necessity of real scholarship, with its rewards and compensations.

Miss Dixon, faculty advisor of the society, delivered a talk which stressed the fact that the members of the society were not only proficient in their academic work, but also lead the school in their outside activities.

SPORTSMEN ARE INVITED TO THE G. P. A. SMOKER

Boundaries of New Game Refuges to Be Explained in Detail; Bring Map to Mark for Personal Use.

Sportsmen who desire to become conversant with the game rulings, which have recently been issued by the state game department, should attend the Game Protective association smoker tonight at the Chamber of Commerce. Large areas have recently been set aside as fish and game refuges. These include areas closed to big game and birds.

Hunters and fishermen who want to be on the safe side this fall and be sure they are not breaking the state laws, should make it a point to attend the meeting, as detailed discussion will be held on the refuge areas," stated an official of the G. P. A. yesterday afternoon.

Maps, which have been carefully prepared showing the closed areas, will be on exhibition at the meeting and the new rulings will be thoroughly explained. It has been suggested that each sportsman bring a map of his own to the meeting and copy the reserve boundaries in it for his personal use.

Aside from holding "school" on the new closed areas, a number of important matters will come before the meeting for discussion. Sportsmen are invited to attend regardless of whether they belong to the association. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

HON. JOHN CONWAY TO BE SPEAKER AT U ASSEMBLY TODAY

John V. Conway, state superintendent of public instruction, will be the principal speaker at the university assembly at 11 o'clock this morning. His topic will be "Rural Education in New Mexico."

Mr. Conway is considered one of the authorities in this country on rural education, having given the subject much study on account of the importance of this branch of education in such states as New Mexico, which have a large rural school system.

The assembly will be open to the public and special arrangements are being made to accommodate the down-town people who are expected to attend.

FOR A CONSTIPATED CHILD

A small dose of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin will bring quick relief.

MOTHER, when one of the children is constipated are you going to give the first laxative within reach? It is dangerous to do so. Some have been known to rupture the intestines of little children. Don't be beguiled by the outside sugary appearance. Look into the formula. Calomel is seldom necessary; salts, minerals, coal tar, never!

Unlike these, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is admirable for children, as it is for grown people, too. Mothers have been giving it to children for 30 years. They know it does not gripe, and is free from narcotics. The formula is on every package, and you can see it is vegetable, just a combination of Egyptian Senna and other laxative herbs with pepsin. Use it yourself and you will find it is not necessary to take it every day, nor to increase the dose, and that it is pleasant to the taste. Bottles can be had at all drug stores, and the cost is only about a cent a dose. Have no hesitancy giving it to a baby in arms. It is absolutely safe.

"THE TWILIGHT OF THE OLD DAY."

The evening paper continues to show the bad taste of unkindly discussing the private business affairs of its competitor, the publisher of the Journal. The public may reach its own conclusions as to the motive. We would call attention to the fact, however, that nothing was said by that paper concerning the sale of Journal bonds by Mr. Magee until after the Journal declared that it would support Senator Bursum. Then it promptly joined a few democratic papers in flings at us.

It was not the wish of the evening paper that this paper divide with it any honors for republican success. Its own selfish interests put in eclipse any interest it might have had in Senator Bursum's success. That paper tried in every way possible to drive the Journal to bolt Bursum. It was willing to jeopardize Bursum's chances in order to strike at us. The public is aware of the fact that the venom of the evening sheet had no effect on the course we pursued.

Ten days before the election the editor of that paper himself bolted Bursum and for four days absented himself from his office. Upon his return he refused to get into the harness again until John M. Sully came here from Gallup and ordered him to do so. This is an example of the evening paper's disinterested enthusiasm for Bursum. The Journal was right when it said that the evening paper was not wholeheartedly for Bursum.

This latter fact was further proven by that paper when it carried Secretary Fall's interview calculated to discredit Senator Bursum. That interview not only betrayed the evening paper's real attitude toward Bursum, but it proved the Journal's contention that Fall was not for Bursum—a statement which the evening paper had repeatedly ridiculed as wholly false.

At the moment of denying a breach between Fall and Bursum, the editor of that paper knew the facts and willfully misled the public, thereby preventing Bursum from getting the votes of many hundreds of anti-Fall citizens. Every conceivable plan to hurt Bursum while seeming to be for him was used. We wonder how this disloyalty appealed to Col. Breece, Charles Springer and several other men who put up about $5,000 for the evening paper, on its plea that it needed the money in order to send that paper free of cost to several thousand voters during the campaign, as a means of helping elect Bursum? The gentlemen who were "suckers" enough to put up their money were really in earnest in their support of Bursum. That money was worse than wasted. The only pleasing feature to the Journal of that rather undignified, but secret, hat-passing performance was that the First National crowd is reported to have been among those who "fell" for it. We rather enjoy watching them distribute their money.

Senator Bursum's friends are not bubbling over with enthusiasm over the treatment he has received at the hands of the evening paper.

That sheet calls us the "Dawn of the New Day." Again we express our gratitude to our contemporary for its kindness in crediting the Journal with the rapid improvement in conditions which is going on in New Mexico. We wonder whether that "Twilight of the Old Day," will see the inevitable swing of things in New Mexico and repeat its ways in sackcloth and ashes, in time to save it from the destruction toward which it is rapidly drifting. Its petty grafts may defer, but can not prevent the coming of the end. Only repentance and conversion to ideals of service to the people can save it.

MIGHT BE WORTH TRYING.

Like the "heathen Chinese" the German is wily and peculiar. Walter Rathenau, the German minister of reconstruction, points out that a readjustment of reparations obligations is necessary to save, not Germany, but the allies and their associates. He declares that Germany must continue her efforts to comply with the burden placed on her, but he warns the world that others will suffer more. The more Germany works, he says, the more others remain idle. He cites the value of the mark as proof that Germany cannot pay in coin and he weeps to contemplate what will happen to France, Great Britain and America if Germany pays in goods.

While the disappearing value of the mark is perplexing financiers, may it not be just the course sought by the Germans? It provides such a good excuse for their pleas for revision of the reparations terms. The rate at which marks are being printed naturally would make them worthless in comparison with gold, but for that to constitute a valid reason for sidestepping payment for the damages they inflicted on the world is to beg the question. It would be well worth while for the world to suffer some, if that were the only alternative, in order that Germany might be impressed with her inability to escape punishment by pleading the injury payment would do to others. We doubt not that France would willingly undergo the suffering that a few billion gold marks handed over by Germany would inflict.

German workshops are rushed with orders and large profits are reported. It may be that these profits are measured in paper money, but they are profits. They demonstrate that Germany is prosperous in a way. A nation that is working and making a profit has no cause to complain of poverty. Probably if Germany is pointedly advised that the declining mark is not an excuse for dodging her obligations her flat evidence of value will begin to appreciate.

OLD WORLD FEAR OF AMERICA.

Back of the expressions of hope that the limitation of armaments conference will prove an unbounded success in the matter of accomplishments of benefits to the world, which expressions are voiced by spokesmen of all countries that will participate, there is a note of reservation attributed by some keen observers to fear. This fear, they explain, is of American inexperience, American lack of understanding and American childlike inconsistency in foreign affairs.

This can mean only that they doubt the United States will play the diplomatic game according to the rules prevailing in the Old World. They say we have a lot to learn. Possibly we have. But are they the safest preceptors? Is there nothing they can learn? If Old World diplomats are coming to Washington to carry on as of yore it were better perhaps that they stay at home. Yet in our child-like innocence we have faith that the impressions we have received are not altogether accurate with regard to their intentions.

President Harding did not summon the conference with purpose to confirm the old rules and perpetuate the old set-up. The others know that and the fact that they have agreed to confer gives ground for confidence that they will at least carefully examine what America has to propose and not make their decisions until they have heard the evidence and the arguments. If they have not forgotten the world war they should be inclined to consider means of avoiding its like in the future.

FINDS ERROR OF ITS WAYS.

Quite the most astonishing news out of Russia is that which tells of the readiness of the soviet government to invite private capital back into business. It is new evidence of the tottering state of the bolsheviks and portends an almost complete renunciation of the deformed type of government which they have been trying to maintain.

While the soviet means to exercise control over railways, metallurgical, textile and fuel resources, all other business activity is thrown open to private capital for development. Soviet leaders admit that they bit off more than they can chew and assert that communism is a matter of slow growth.

This development is another invaluable contribution the Russian revolution has made to mankind. It is another instance of where failure has become a blessing in disguise. Without the Russian experiment, there would still be a steadfast group of persons in the world urging that communism should replace all other forms of existence. The Russians have robbed them of their last anchor.

It does not follow that Russia will swing to the right as far as it did to the left. That would be as great a calamity as the other has proven to be. The net result will be probably a nice balance between the extreme radicalism and the extreme conservatism. Russia may point the way for some reform in government, but if she does not, the world owes her gratitude for demonstrating the stupendous folly of communism.

Germany owes the United States over a quarter of a million dollars for the American force of occupation on the Rhine. When Germany will pay it is another matter entirely.

VERSE OF TODAY.

THE MINT.

Nature has made my mind a mint.
My thoughts are coins, on which I live;
The dies, with which I stamp my thoughts,
Trees, blossoms, birds and children give.

Sometimes my die's a homeless man,
Or babes that have no milk and perish;
Sometimes it is a lady fair,
Whose grace and loveliness I relish.

But all my love-thoughts, until now,
Were false to utter, and must cease;
And not another coin must pass
Without your image on each piece.

So you shall be my queen from now,
Your face on every thought I utter;
And I'll be rich—although the world
May judge my metal's worth no better.

—William Henry Davies.

EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

A BRIDGE FOR THE IRISH.
(From the New York Times.)

"Is this your ultimatum?" asked the lady in the play. "This is my ultimatum," was the answer. There have been so many "final" letters in the exchange between Lloyd George and de Valera that there may yet be another. But the British premier has done all that he can to make his latest the last. In it he states the unalterable determination of his government not to treat with Ireland as an independent and sovereign nation. This is "fundamental" to the existence of the British empire. At the same time, it will be noted, Lloyd George does not again ask the Irish leader to withdraw his previous notification that the Irish delegates could go to a conference only as the representatives of an independent sovereignty. He merely requests him to drop it and ignore it. Conference, not further correspondence, is what the situation demands, and the prime minister renews his invitation to a conference. In the language which he now uses Lloyd George has built an inviting bridge for de Valera and his colleagues. They are invited to go to London as "the spokesmen of the people whom you represent" with the aim of "ascertaining how the association of Ireland with the community of nations known as the British empire may best be reconciled with Irish national aspirations." Reasonable Irishmen can not ask more than that. If they put the matter to the test and fail, they will be no worse off than they were before. But to refuse even to discuss with the English, because of a shadowy technicality, would be worse than finding quarrel in a straw. It would be plunging back into war and misery for the sake of a mere form of words. The indications from Dublin are that de Valera will accept the offer now renewed to him. Any other way would be madness.

UNCLE WIGGLY AND THE FIRE.

Three times in one week Uncle Wiggly had hopped over the top of the Third Mountain, not far from his hollow stump bungalow, and he had seen a cute, beautiful, little house made of green bark. On none of his visits, however, had the bunny gentleman seen any one who might live in the mysterious house, and even the windows—made of golden, yellow leaves—were closed and darkened. At the back of the house was a wonderful garden and even now, the fall of the year, with winter soon to come, there were flowers in bloom.

"Well," thought the rabbit gentleman as he stopped in front of this queer house on his way home from the seven and eight store, "this certainly is a mysterious place! I wonder who lives here, or if it has just been built and the bugs, or animal folk who are to stay here, haven't moved in yet? I wonder!"

He walked to one side and peeped under the shutter, but it was so dark inside the house that he could see no more than the faint outlines of little tables and chairs and perhaps a piano.

"This surely is strange," murmured Uncle Wiggly in puzzled tones. "I'd give two carrot sandwiches and part of another to know who lives here."

But the more he wondered the worse it was, and the more the gentleman soon hopped over to his hollow stump bungalow. Nurse Jane was sitting on the porch.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggly!" exclaimed the muskrat lady housekeeper. "You have had a visitor. A young lady rabbit, whom I never saw before, called to see if you knew who lived in the little green bark house over on Third Mountain. Do you know?"

"No," answered the bunny rabbit gentleman. "I don't know who owns it, or who is going to live in it. But I'd like to. Have you seen the place, Nurse Jane?"

"I can't say that I have," answered the muskrat lady as she tied a new bow in the pink ribbon around her tail. "But what is that queer smell?" she suddenly exclaimed. "Something is burning!"

"I believe you're right!" the bunny uncle cried, jumping high in the air, he was so excited like.

"And the smell of burning seems to come from the Third Mountain, doesn't it?"

"Let me find out what and where it is," suggested Miss Puzzy Wuzzy, and she skipped into the bungalow to get her bonnet, so the damp air wouldn't take all the curl out of her whiskers. Oh, yes, Nurse Jane had whiskers and she was very proud of them.

Uncle Wiggly and Nurse Jane hopped along and soon they had reached Third Mountain. They saw a dark cloud of smoke rolling toward them, and, as they came closer, they saw what had happened. The dry grass at one side of the mysterious, cute little green house had caught fire from a choo-choo engine spark. The blaze in the dry grass was very near the silent little house.

All of a sudden Uncle Wiggly and Nurse Jane saw a strange happening. The ground at their paws, in front of them, began to swell and bulge upward and to either side as newly baking bread spreads over the edge of the pan in the oven. And this bulging lump of earth seemed to run right along, like a newly made path.

"My gracious!" cried Nurse Jane. "Are we going to have an earthquake?"

"Earthquake? No!" answered a squeaky voice almost at their feet. "I'm a ground mole, and this nice house I built is going to burn. I must save it!"

"I thought you moles all turned up a high ridge of earth as close to the fire as you can."

"I will!" squeaked the mole, and in a moment a ridge, or hill, of earth, appeared right in front of the burning grass.

"Good!" cried Uncle Wiggly, excited like. "Do it again!" The little ridge of earth became higher and longer. Back and forth, under the ground, the mole dug with his nose and claws, heaping up the dirt along his back until, at last, he had made a large mound between the house and the fire, with all the dry grass near it uprooted and buried.

"There! Now the fire will stop!" cried Uncle Wiggly, and stop it did, coming to the bottom of the hill the mole had made and dying out there because there was no more grass to burn.

"Thank you so much, Mr. Longears," the mole said, as he shook the dirt from his silky fur. "I didn't know you were a fire-rabbit. Now come in and I'll show you the house you saved."

And what a fine place it was—with bright beds and everything. The mole had Nurse Jane serve tea on a little table made of woven rushes from the brook.

Then Uncle Wiggly and Nurse Jane went home, glad that the mole's house was saved. And if the orange doesn't roll down the bread board and splash into the lemonade when it's trying to dance with the jelly cake, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggly and the tangled vine.

ways lived underground, in the dark, without any eyes," spoke Uncle Wiggly, looking all around.

"Well, I do live underground," squeaked the mole, which looks something like a large mouse, you remember. "I live in the dark beneath the soil, but I wanted a fine house to show my friends, even if I am almost blind and can't see it myself."

For moles, living so much in the dark, have no use for eyes, you know. But now my dear little house will be burned down! Oh, snicker! and the mole broke out through the ridge of earth he had turned with his snout, with his back, and with his strong digging claws. The mole came out where Uncle Wiggly could see him. "My house will burn!" sighed the mole.

"No, it will not!" shouted the bunny. "Follow me quickly!"

Around the side of the little house hopped the bunny with the mole following the sound of Uncle Wiggly's paws, and Nurse Jane coming behind.

"Now," called Uncle Wiggly to the mole, "dig down again and turn up a high ridge of earth as close to the fire as you can."

conditions, as evidenced by lower rediscut rates at Philadelphia and Minneapolis accounted for further relaxation at this center. On the exchange call loans opened and held at 4 1/4 per cent, with free supplies at 4 per cent outside.

Although the weekly statements of the British, French and German banks reflected strained conditions abroad foreign exchanges held or enhanced yesterday's rally for the most part. Extensive buying of sterling bills was attributed to Japanese interests.

With one exception, Liberty issues rose to best prices of the year on very large dealings. Victory notes easing slightly. Mexican government 4s and 5s featured the foreign group, rising 1 1/4 to 2 1/4 per cent respectively. Total sales, par value, $18,250,000.
