FOURTH GAME OF WORLD'S SERIES PUT OFF DUE TO HEAVY RAINFALL

More Than 20,000 Fans Are Disappointed; Looks As If
Sunday May Be Clear, But Probably Cold.

RUTH, INJURED, MAY BE UNABLE TO PLAY

Huggins Is Expected to Send
Carl Mays to the Mound
Against the Giants in the Contest Today.

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Oct. 8. (By the Associated Press.)—Saturday's world series baseball game was rolled up in a wet blanket at the Polo Grounds and put permanently to sleep early this afternoon. The fourth game of the series between the Yankees and Giants, officially announced as postponed on account of rain, will be played Sunday, atmospheric conditions permitting. Tonight the rain had ceased falling and it looked as if Sunday might be clear but probably cold.

The postponement was voted a sorry trick of the weather by the more than 20,000 eager fans who had reached the grounds before the rain began to fall at 1 o'clock, and the many other thousands who about-faced their journey to the ball park during the downpour in the hours before game time. It was decidedly unbecomingly also, to the business managers of the series, because of the necessity of honoring rain checks and the other complications which the disruption of the original schedule brought about.

Yanks Not Mourning.
In the Yankee managerial camp, however, there was no noticeable mourning over the break in the daily procession of contests. For the forenoon had brought the sad news that the team's most potent aggressive bat, the somewhat well-known "Babe" Ruth, would not be able to take part in the day's game because of an infected arm. The infection, caused by the season's tendency to sliding bases on top of a sore near the elbow, the heritage of a scrape of the flesh sustained in a slide to second late in the American league season, may keep him out of the game the remainder of the series.

Manager Miller Huggins of the Yankees had apparently not lost hope tonight that his fellow slugger would be able to get "in there" Sunday with at least a good share of his accustomed aggressiveness.

Postponement Welcome.
From the Yankee viewpoint, also, the postponement was welcome as giving Carl Mays an additional day for recuperation after his high class performance in the opening game Wednesday, when he blanked the Giants and started his club off on the two to one advantage in the series which it now holds. Harry Harper, the speedy left-hander, who pitched the Yankees' second game today, was looked upon as Manager Huggins' likely selection for the pitching assignment if today's game had been played, but it appeared certain.

SAYS THERE IS A PLOT AMONG THE RICH TO HAVE BOOZE LAWS ENFORCED ONLY AGAINST POOR

Judge Ben Lindsey Frees Two Men Brought Before Him on a Liquor Charge and Suggests That the "Uplifters" Center Their Attacks on the Wine Cellars of the Wealthy.

(By The Associated Press.)
Denver, Colo., Oct. 8.—On the ground that "it would be unjust to punish a lesser offender against the bootleg laws, while wealthy social leaders of Capitol Hill are allowed to have their wine cellars without fear of molestation," Judge Ben B. Lindsey, of the juvenile court, today freed Chester Lancaster and Clete Hinton, accused of giving young girls liquor to drink.

In a statement read in open court, Judge Lindsey charged that a conspiracy exists among the rich to have the laws enforced only against the poor.

"If we are to have jail sentences," said Judge Lindsey, "I would recommend that the law be applied to the men involved in the delivery of thousands of dollars worth of first-class booze—free of the poisons that in the booze of the poor are punishment enough." He followed, prosecuted and sent to jail.

"I would recommend that the society leaders and women of prominence who are interested in getting these laws enforced send

TODAY-MAYBE

The weather man took a hand in the scheduled fracas between the Giants and Yankees yesterday and there was nothing doing on the Polo grounds in New York, on account of rain. The other permits, a contest will be staged today, beginning at 12 o'clock noon, Albuquerque time, and the Morning Journal will give the fans the usual service by the game, the electric board and, in addition, announce the details by megaphone.

POISON FOUND IN BODY OF MEYER, CHEMIST STATES

Quantity Was Sufficient to Cause Death, E. R. Dooley
Testifies at Trial of Mrs.
Southard.

(By The Associated Press.)
Twin Falls, Ida., Oct. 8.—Previous testimony to the effect that the body of Meyer contained more than enough poison to cause death was corroborated by E. R. Dooley, city chemist of Twin Falls, testifying for the state in the case of Lydia Meyer Southard, charged with poisoning her fourth husband, Edward F. Meyer.

Mr. Dooley told in detail of his analysis of the specimens taken from the body of Meyer and the results obtained. A section of the liver weighing 29 1-2 grams yielded .09 milligrams of poison, and estimating the normal weight of the liver in an adult male to be 1,500 grams, the total amount of poison contained in the organ would be 5.58 milligrams. A section of the kidney similarly examined by the witness yielded .055 milligrams of poison, he said. Accepting the normal weight of both kidneys to be about 260 grams, the poison yielded of these organs was placed by the witness at 1.552 milligrams. A section of the heart, the witness testified that he recovered .162 milligram of the poison. In a section of the large and small intestine weighing 25 grams, he said he recovered .007 milligrams of poison. The experiment on a one gram specimen of spleen yielded the witness .062 milligrams of poison, from which he estimated that the entire organ would contain .1121 milligrams.

The conclusion of the witness as to the poison content of all the organs he examined, including the hair, was that these would contain 18.34 milligrams.

FOCH WILL BE GIVEN OPPORTUNITY TO SEE THE AMERICAN INDIAN

Washington, Oct. 8.—Marshal Foch will be given an opportunity during his coming visit to the United States to see the American Indian, whose fighting qualities as members of the American expeditionary forces in France he admires.

Arrangements concluded through Commissioner Burke of Indian affairs provided for a visit by the former commander-in-chief of allied armies to the Rosebud Indian reservation in South Dakota, the first week in November, after he has addressed the American Legion at its Kansas City convention.

TROUBLE EXISTS BETWEEN ITALY AND FRANCE AS WAR AFTERMATH

Hostile Demonstrations at Milan and Venice Show
Existence of Bad Feelings
Between Powers.

FRENCH BLAMED FOR VERSAILLES TREATY

Former French High Commissioner Claims French
Treaty of Italy in Past Has Just.

(By The Associated Press.)
Paris, Oct. 8.—A persistent tension between the principal sources of the French mission sent to participate in the Mount Tambora battle commemoration amply prove.

Whether on account of territorial proximity or racial relationship, differences between the French and the Italians throughout the last fifty years have been frequent and sharp despite France's decisive help in forming Italian unity.

When at Versailles, Italy became dissatisfied with certain decisions, the blame France, French soldiers at Fiume fell victims to this dissatisfaction. Agn today a French marshal is made the butt of popular anger. Italy invariably blames France for her every disappointment.

This is not only regrettable, but it is unjust. I can bear witness as a participant that France many times supported Italy's just claims at Versailles. As everybody knows, it was President Wilson who refused to recognize the treaty of London of 1915. M. Clemenceau repeatedly declared his readiness to execute the treaty. The result, however, was not the demanded execution of the clauses of the treaty, but the violation concerning Fiume, and Fiume, so passionately claimed by Italy, of course, was not the ally in 1919 but Italy herself in 1915 that gave Fiume to the Jugo-Slavs. Lacking the courage to confess this, Italy's ministers stirred up a movement of opinion from which France, being nearer than England or America, was the principal sufferer.

These facts are the real basis of the recent painful incidents in addition to Italy suffering from the same post-war differences as other countries, notably France. Certain political persons think it advantageous to minimize the victory and disregard public opinion. However, much Italy may have lost and suffered, no impartial person can deny her immense gains, including the Alpine frontier, Trentino and Istria to mention no others.

In the last half century, did the Italians in their wildest dreams expect more. Not only was national unity realized but complete security as well. These gains came from nothing. Everybody has forgotten them. This artificially created state of mind affects the whole Italian daily life.

I can conscientiously declare that France is not responsible for this situation. Moreover the French papers do not contain any such bitter, and frequently aggressive articles as the Italians publish against France during the war and the peace. The peace always have acted as Italy's firm friends and we do not deserve such reproaches. But despite all that Italy has done, we are anxious to improve our relations with our neighbors; to ourselves and to all of Europe.

My conviction is that such an improvement is possible only through mutual business interests. During the last twenty months we have been living just from day to day and the result is bad, whether we speak of Italy or Britain. There is need of frank discussion of special problems as well as general propositions.

Until the war Italy belonged to the triple alliance with Germany and Austria. She abandoned that combination in 1915 and the subsequent peace completely destroyed it. France should have been reflecting on this all of this time and not only on the fact that Italy once more within a systematized Europe. When a house is destroyed it must be replaced, else all will suffer. The making of war took four years. Will peace take as long?

MINNESOTA VARSITY BEATS NORTHWESTERN

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 8.—The University of Minnesota football team won its first conference start, defeating Northwestern University, 23 to 0, here this afternoon.

The game was marked by heavy line plunging by the Minnesota backs, which Northwestern was unable to check successfully. The passing game was used only occasionally.

FROST AS FAR SOUTH AS SHREVEPORT, LA.

(By The Associated Press.)
Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 8.—Heavy frost, covering practically all of Missouri, Kansas and Arkansas, occurred last night, the local weather bureau announced this morning.

The temperature here dropped to forty degrees. The frost extended as far south as Shreveport, La., and Memphis, Tenn., P. Conner, weather bureau head, said.

Heroes From Other Nations to Attend American Legion Meet

Leading officers in the American legion who will play important part at convention. Left to right, above, are: Robert H. Tyndall, national treasurer; E. J. Winslett, national commander; Thomas Goldingay, national vice commander, and Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant. Below are: Eben Putnam, national historian; Robert A. Adams, national judge advocate; John G. Emery, national commander, and Thomas J. Bannigan, national vice commander.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—The men who won fame for America in the world war and the heroes of other nations are going to meet one another at the third annual convention of the American Legion, which opens here October 21. Among the U. S. heroes will be the twenty-eight war veterans of the congressional medal of honor. From Europe are coming General Foch of France, General Diaz of Italy, General Jacques, Belgian hero, Admiral Beatty of Great Britain, and other notables. It is expected that delegates and visitors to the convention will number from 75,000 to 100,000 persons.

Belgian General Popular.
Of popular interest and appeal is the coming of Marshal Foch, the generalissimo of the allied forces in the war, to mingle with the men who did their part in helping him to make history. Idolized no less by the soldiers in the ranks than by the commonwealths of the world that have celebrated his genius and consecrated service, the great leader of men has a sincere way of requiring the fine things of comradeship.

Official notice that Lieutenant Baron Jacques of Belgium will attend the convention as the official representative of that country has been received by M. Georges Minckel, Belgian consul here from E. Gaspar, Belgian minister of foreign affairs. General Jacques is one of the most popular officers in the Belgian army. He first gained recognition in campaigns in the Belgian Congo. When general mobilization was ordered in the defense of Belgium at the beginning of the German invasion, he organized the defense of Vieux and played a hero's role in the battles of Liege and Antwerp. He was wounded twice at Dixmude, since the war he has been decorated by all the allied nations.

Admiral Beatty will be the honored guest from England. Sir David Beatty is the commander-in-chief of the entire grand fleet of the "mistress of the seas" and is known as the "infant prodigy" of England's naval forces.

Gen. Armando Diaz, commander-in-chief of the Italian armies, has been authorized by King Victor Emmanuel to accept the invitation of the American Legion to participate in the convention as honor guest from Italy. Italy's famous commander, the man who retrieved his country's military fortunes after the costly and amazing disaster of Caporetto in which the Austro-Germans captured more than 200,000 Italian soldiers and 700 guns, was the first shepherd of the great war.

Gen. John J. Pershing, Maj. Gen. Enoch H. Crowder and Rear Admiral R. E. Conant, all natives of Missouri, will have a homecoming celebration in connection with their visit to the convention. Leon posts from Laclede, Edinburgh and Hannibal, the respective homes of great military leaders, will hold special ceremonies of welcome for them.

CUT IN FREIGHT RATES EXPECTED AT EARLY DATE

Clearing Up of Railroad Situation
Generally Is Indicated;
Executives Confer
With President.

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Oct. 8.—Developments which were declared to pre-empt any reduction in railroad freight rates and a clearing of the railroad situation generally, came here today from several quarters. A group of prominent railroad executives conferred today with President Harding and Senator Cummins, republican, Iowa, chairman of the senate interstate commerce committee, and discussed steps toward freight rate reductions preliminary to the executives' meeting at Chicago, October 14.

Rate reductions also was the principal topic of the program at a meeting tonight of democratic and republican senators comprising the unofficial agricultural "bloc." Senators attending the meeting said there was a wide and vigorous demand for rate cuts, as imperative to the agricultural interests.

Cummins' Opinion.
Senator Cummins, after his conference with the railroad executives, said he believed they would adopt at their Chicago meeting, his suggestions for an immediate reduction of freight rates. No definite assurances to this effect were given him at today's conference, he explained, but he expressed the opinion that the reductions would be made by the carriers voluntarily.

The carriers would ask the railroad labor board to reduce wages or appeal to congress for legislation to meet the situation caused by the voluntary rate cuts, by the voluntary rate cuts in the conference included T. DeWitt Cuyler, representing a railway securities holders' organization; Samuel Rea, president of the Pennsylvania system; President Smith, of the New York Central; President Holden, of the Burlington system, and Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the Southern Pacific.

Reduce Rates; Reduce Wages.
The railway executives, said Senator Cummins, after the conference, "feel that the only substantial way to reduce rates is to reduce wages. They also feel that the wage fixing functions of the railroad labor board should be transferred to the interstate commerce commission, which has the rate making, or return, powers."

A group of prominent railroad executives, said he did not gather that the railway executives

YANKEES MUST FINISH SERIES WITHOUT RUTH

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Oct. 8.—Babe Ruth, champion home run slugger, was told by Dr. George D. Stewart late today that his injured arm, operated upon Friday, must be given at least a week's rest. This means that the Yankees' star, if the doctor's advice is heeded, will not appear in the remainder of the world series.

Ruth's arm was injured just above the elbow two weeks ago when he stole second base in a game with the Cleveland Indians. After the game Friday was made. He carried it in a sling when he appeared in the grandstand at the Polo grounds for today's game. Ruth admitted that if he took the advice of his doctor he would not play again this season.

"But my absence won't hurt the Yankees," he said. "It will only make them fight all the harder."

NOMINATIONS OF A NUMBER OF MINISTERS CONFIRMED BY SENATE

Washington, Oct. 8.—Nominations of a number of American ministers to foreign countries were confirmed today by the senate.

They were:
Lewia Einstein of New York, Czechoslovakia; John E. Ramey, Colorado, Nicaragua; John G. South, Kentucky, Panama; Edward E. Brodie, Oregon, Siam; Roy T. Davis, Missouri, Guatemala; Charles L. Kasey of Kansas, Finland; Willis C. Cook of South Dakota, Venezuela; Charles S. Wilson of Maine, Bulgaria; Laureis S. Swenson, Norway.

OLD SETTLERS PIN FAITH ON STORY OF MRS. O'LEARY'S COW

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Despite the decision of learned investigators that Mrs. O'Leary's cow did not kick over the lantern and start the Chicago fire fifty years ago tonight, because Mrs. O'Leary was sick in bed with a sore foot on that historic eve, Chicagoans today insisted on giving the acrobatic bovine a premier position in the semi-centennial celebration of the conflagration.

An alleged great-great-granddaughter of the original O'Leary cow and a collateral descendant of the genuine kerosene lantern play an important part in a fire week pageant in Grant park. And for the old time settlers their faith in the cow story remains unshaken.

GERMAN GIVEN A YEAR AND A DAY IN U. S. PRISON

Physician Enters Plea of Guilty to Charge of Illegally
Importing Narcotics;
Came Here in 1911.

(By The Associated Press.)
El Paso, Tex., Oct. 8.—Dr. W. J. E. Ruppstein, a German physician, was today sentenced to serve a year and a day at Leavenworth penitentiary following his plea of guilty to the charge of illegally importing narcotics. Dr. Ruppstein was arrested in Los Angeles some months ago while in possession of several hundred ampoules of drugs. Shortly after his arrest a suit case left here by the doctor was found to contain 1,150 ampoules of the same drug, the labels indicating it had been put up for use by the veterinary department of the Imperial German army.

Dr. Ruppstein told the court he had come to this country in 1911 and later had been employed by the government to combat bubonic plague in Porto Rico. Upon the entry of the United States into the war Ruppstein was interned and, following the armistice, at his own request, was deported to Germany, where he told the court, he was a member of the commission to transport livestock to France under the terms of the armistice. Early in the present year he arrived at Vera Cruz, Mexico, traveling thence to Los Angeles by way of El Paso.

TELEGRAPHER DEAD.

Sloux City, Ia., Oct. 8.—Death has written "thirty" for William H. (Bill) Staley, veteran telegrapher. He died early today after a long illness. He had worked the Associated Press wire in the Sloux City Journal office for twenty-six years. A widow and five children survive.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE WILL MEET WITHIN 2 OR 3 WEEKS

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Oct. 8.—A call is to be issued by Chairman George White tomorrow for a meeting of the democratic national committee to be held within the next two or three weeks, probably at Chicago. Democratic leaders with whom Mr. White conferred at the capitol today, said it would bring together prominent men and women party spokesmen from all sections of the country.

NEW STATUS OF DOMINIONS MAY BRING IRISH TO AGREE TO PEACE

One Essential to Success In Conference Is Removal of Irish Mistrust of Great Britain.

BRITISH SUZERAINTY MUST BE CONTINUED

Ireland Likely to Suffer If Separated Entirely From England, Now Its Best Market.

(By GEORGE P. BARNES, M. P.
(Special Wireless to Morning Journal)
(Copyright 1921 by Albuquerque Journal)
London, Oct. 8.—With the renewal of the Irish negotiations next week, it is to be hoped that the representatives of Sinn Fein will take into consideration the new status of the British dominions when they take a decision on a dominion status for Ireland.

I am afraid that the Irish people still have the old conception of the British empire, and that conception has given way to new ideas of a partnership with the dominions on a basis of equality. These new ideas had taken root before the war, but the war matured them and their application to Ireland has come in the sequence of events.

The one outstanding fact in the situation is that the Irish people have been endorsed by the practical, instinctive common sense of the newly enfranchised British people. Political party divisions have been dissolved. On that fact peace must be based.

The coming conference regarding Ireland has been hailed here with feelings of hope as well as relief. It is true that Prime Minister Lloyd-George has made it clear that British suzerainty is a defect condition in the situation, but that need be no bar to an agreement if the representatives of both sides will get down to a consideration of the practical issues involved.

The real ambition of Sinn Fein is a united and self-governed Ireland. The representatives of both sides can bring themselves into alignment as willing and true partners in the British commonwealth of nations. The fact ought to go far to bring about the consideration of conditions of ultimate unity. But an essential condition is a unity spirit.

Can Irish nationalism be given due expression within the empire, and if so can the road be cleared at the coming conference for the ultimate merger of the north with the south? These are the two main questions. It is the first time I believe that despite recent history, sentiment as well as interest will be determined an affirmative responsibility. Irish and British have had a common heritage of centuries and a large part of the British population, though of Irish birth, yet exercises all the rights of British citizenship. Their children are growing up as British subjects. A common heritage of tradition with the British race.

All of this tells against separation of Ireland from the empire. And now as to the question of interest. Irishmen, in the event of the severance of their country, would in Great Britain be aliens in an alien land and no longer be able to share in the domestic life of the empire. Ireland's best market would be jeopardized and the country would start its new career handicapped by a forfeiture of the many economic advantages that have come to it in recent years in common with other parts of the United Kingdom.

The second question really constitutes the first. How can provision be made for ultimate Irish unity? To Ulster there may come a great opportunity. Sir James Craig has just expressed in behalf of parliament, willingness to accept a new status for Ulster. This is a very hopeful sign. He said a few weeks ago that after a settlement between Great Britain and southern Ireland he would be willing to take part in the parity of Ulster with Dublin matters of common concern. Why not discuss these matters as part of the settlement? That was the big view. Will it rise to it? It makes it possible by the character of the proposals it puts forward and the spirit in which it submits them? It would be made a national political blundering on take part in the parity of Ulster with Dublin matters of common concern. Why not discuss these matters as part of the settlement? ## HARVARD BLANKS INDIANA SQUAD IN GRID FRAGAS

Hoosier Coach Attributes Team's Defeat to Rain Which Falls During Last Half of Contest.

(By The Associated Press.)
Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 8.—Harvard defeated Indiana today, 19 to 0. An eastern eleven in the making met a western conference team almost intact from last year and stopped it without great effort.

For the first two periods Indiana was content to kick every time it got the ball, with two minor rushing exceptions; this notwithstanding that Kyle's kicks were falling short. In the last two periods the Hoosiers, twice recovering Harvard fumbles, tried to go forward by rushes and by forward passes and succeeded to the extent of several first downs, but never to the point that score appeared possible.

Rain came down in sheets during the last half of the contest and to this Coach Jumbo Steinhilber, of the Hoosiers, attributed his team's defeat.

Except for a seventy-eight-yard run from an intercepted forward pass, made by Pitts at the outset of the fourth period for a touchdown and Harvard's last score, there was little in the play of the Harvard team today that stood out as noteworthy.

"An intelligent team," was Steinhilber's appraisal of his successful opponents.

The crimson's other touchdown was an individual effort also, Gehlke catching a short punt by Kyle and scampering twelve yards to the goal.

NEED OF ACTION TO STABILIZE EXCHANGE URGED BY ECONOMIST

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Oct. 8.—Need of government action to stabilize world exchange was urged by H. N. Lewis, economist of the American mining congress, at a hearing today before the house banking committee on a bill by Chairman McFadden, authorizing the president to invite Great Britain and France to participate in an exchange conference to be held here.

Rapid and extensive fluctuation in exchange has resulted in hardships to exporters and importers alike, causing cancellation of orders and return of goods, Mr. Lewis declared. The main problem for consideration by the conference, he added, would be elimination of speculation.

"Any benefits from the conference on limitation of armament in reduction of great expenditure will be lost if the exchange is not stabilized," Lewis said, "should be reflected in benefits of exchange of the countries affected. But under the present exchange system these benefits will be greatly impaired through speculation."

BUILDING PROGRAM.
St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 8.—A building program providing for the expenditure of approximately $1,000,000 for the Missouri state university at Columbia, was announced here today following a meeting of the board of curators of the institution.

Those who have visited our Store within the past few weeks express great surprise when they see the remarkable low prices we quote. They readily agree with us that our prices are about as near pre-war prices as we may expect. In fact some things are as low as they have been in recent years. If you contemplate buying a piece of furniture, rug, or linoleum come in and look through. We will take pleasure in showing you through the store.

GERMAN PEOPLE BUY U. S. MONEY AND SAVE IT UP

Only the richest persons can live from an income of investments and only the fortunate from their earnings. Therefore thousands who never dreamed of gambling are speculating today. The lower the mark sinks the more they fear the fate of the Austrian kronen which last year a Swiss brewery adopted as beer labels, being cheaper than new paper. This fear drives people to exchange their bank notes for stocks and bonds and foreign money and tangible goods. Many of those who are buying dollars and paying top prices for them are tucking them away in the cupboard, happy that they have something of stable value. Others are buying goods and hoarding them until price advances will enable them to sell at a profit. This boosts the prices of all commodities, while the money market, no longer drawing light from any golden sun, grows paler and paler. This cannot be cured by a political coalition of which half would abolish all capital and unearned income, while the other half complains that capital is getting but 3 per cent interest.

Some relief but wholly insufficient, would come from a thinning out of the army of German officials, a return to the simple life, and a refusal to purchase from countries with a high exchange rate. But would the world tolerate that? The present world condition resembles a lunatic asylum. The big nations are suffering with a plethora of raw stuffs and goods while they see their armies of the unemployed growing bigger and bigger because the countries which need their products cannot buy them on account of the adverse exchange rates. At the same time the nations suffering from low exchange rates are becoming dangerous competitors because of the low labor costs.

How much longer will the rulers of the world's economic destiny look on without doing anything? A decision not to trouble at all about Germany and little about Europe, does not abolish the need for this continent as paying customers. The treaty of Versailles affects also those who only partly ratify. Those who allow a nation to be forced to pay mountainous reparations cannot expect it also to buy a large amount of products.

sectionalism on the one hand, or by pushing extreme theoretical claims on the other.

One essential to success is a removal of the Irish mistrust of Great Britain. Irishmen may well question the sincerity of British statesmanship gauged by the past. But it is a matter of fact that British democracy is not a little ashamed of the past and is genuinely apprehensive of the possibility of a recurrence of the recent horrors. We are preparing now to meet Sinn Fein at least half way.

SEVEN DAYS IN LIP OL NEW YORK

By JESSIE HENDERSON

(Special Dispatch to Morning Journal)
(Copyright 1921 by Albuquerque Journal)

New York, Oct. 8.—Everybody said politics would be different when women got into it and here, the first crack out of the box, comes the Curran Medallion. The slap dash little campaign pin which sunk its owner into a coat of arms left two marks thereon long after election was over—this crudity has no place in the ladies' scheme of municipal contest. Instead, there has been a disc about the size of a small powder puff, hung on a long black silk cord and tinted with the colors blue, gold and white. The names of the candidates for mayor, comptroller and aldermanic president are printed across the medallion, which is being sold for a dime by the Curran committee.

These ladies, meantime, are grooming their lady speakers for the fray. The slogan in each campaign seems to be: On every corner a soap box and on every soap box a woman. Not a man can be found on either side who will at present admit that he ever thought women talked too much. Just as a French scientist has discovered the place of the house fly in the cosmos, so the political chief has found use for woman's "greatest gift." But, oh! What a fortune the ear-muff manufacturer could scoop in during the next few weeks, if he only dared.

Turning from the political to the ever-bubbling domestic cauldron: How is you ego-centric temperament? If you happen to be an ego-centric, guard the horrid fact from your husband or he may use it against you in the divorce court. Dr. A. H. Knapp, of the college of physicians and surgeons, in answering his wife's Reno divorce action, charges her with being ego-centric, especially since the divorce was granted.

What, by the way, is the last place in which you would look for gaiety? An orphan asylum, of course. Yet the Bales Orphan Home, Inc., is said by neighbors to be so gay and so late with music and dancing that it is a public nuisance. Five women brought complaint against the institution when they grew tired of being kept awake till long after midnight and courts are called upon to decide just how gay an orphanage can be. The names of the question is settled, other courts will be asked whether it requires $50,000 a year to maintain a man's dignity on Broadway. William Davenport, who does income tax, has declared to be $50,000 a year but, pah! who would scrape along on that? The extra $20,000 seems to have come in part from Mr. Brown's check book plus his imagination, for a large check given in exchange for a fast motor car was returned with "no funds" across its face. In Mr. Brown's possession when he was arrested were a number of hotel keys, but precisely what these had to do with any one's dignity has not yet been explained.

But, at any rate, the perfect husband has been found. He is City Magistrate John Kochenderfer, who gives $5,000 of his $5,000 salary to his wife. Three-fourths of a man's income is not, he says, too much for a wife to receive. He adds rather unnecessarily: "And our home is a happy one."

COTTON GIN AT ROSWELL BEGINS ITS FIRST RUN

Rooswell, N. M., Oct. 8.—Rooswell's first cotton gin began operations Friday. While cotton was grown in Chaves county last year in an experimental way, this is the first year an attempt has been made to grow it commercially. Though still somewhat in the experimental stage as to the best methods advisable, the results are now beyond question, and Durango cotton is for the time being the staple crop of the Rooswell country. Even though many of the growers now realize mistakes they have made this year, they will still make a better return per acre than they would have made any other crops. It is estimated that the local gin will turn out in the neighborhood of 700 bales this year. Next year's acreage will run from 2,000 to 4,000, according to the farmers. The gin is one of the best obtainable and was installed by local capital. Farmers and business men both have stock in the new enterprise and received financial backing from the chamber of commerce in order to get the industry started.

Dr. A. D. Crile, former president of the state college, who returned to Rooswell and bought a large farm here, believes the farming situation in the Pecos valley is now in better condition than it has ever been. He says the dairy industry will ride rapid strides in the next year, cotton and wheat will both become important crops, and that apples will continue to be a money maker for the growers who look after their fruit. The valley is shipping 500 cars of apples this year, which will bring into the valley in the neighborhood of half a million dollars.

FOURTH GAME OF WORLD SERIES PUT OFF DUE TO HEAVY RAIN

tain that with Mays given his three days rest, he would be sent in again against the Nationals tomorrow.

The Giants, who, with dander up and bristling with the confidence their volcanic outburst of hitting in Friday's victorious tilt had given them, strained at the leash and bemoaned the adverse weather. "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was on the cards to twirl for them today. The postponement, it was understood, would make no difference in Manager John McGraw's selection of a boxman for Sunday, and Douglas, benefited like Mays by an additional rest period, will without much doubt be in again against Mays tomorrow.

Ruth was out to the ball park today but was not in uniform and had his bad arm in a sling. He still favors also his strained leg, which has been giving him trouble for some weeks, and sorrowfully said he might not be able to play any more in the series. Should he drop out Huggins intends to play "Chick" Easter, the poverty stricken, in Ruth's accustomed place in left field, putting Fawcett in the leadoff position in the batting order, dropping Elmer Miller down to eighth place, and moving Schang up to Ruth's place as third man on the list. As for the ultimate result of the series there was no apparent lack of confidence in either camp. The edge in games is still with the American leaguers, with Mays, their star, ready to work again and Hoyt on deck for a try to repeat his winning performance of Thursday.

"We will win, with or without Ruth," was the sentiment of the Yankee players, although they didn't attempt to minimize the loss they would suffer should the "bambino" prove unable to get back into the game. They have been out-slugged by the Giants so far but their followers point to the records as showing that the celebrated Yankee attack never remains long in check and is liable to break out in force at any time. As for their fielding, it has been 100 per cent in all three games.

The Giants' quarters, too, ooze with confidence. McGraw's men regarding themselves are sure to capture the series, now that they have found their batting eyes, and proved their ability to slam American league pitching to the corners of the lot. Supporters of the Giants point out, also, in backing up this contention, that their favorites have been shown three twirlers of world series caliber—Douglas, Schang and Barness—whereas the Yankees have been able to produce only Mays and Hoyt as fit contenders. "Bob" Shawkey having proved a disappointment and Harper not having been tried, even as a relief man.

CUT IN FREIGHT RATES EXPECTED AT EARLY DATE

avored complete abolishment of the labor board but believed that the same federal authority which establishes railroad rates, or relations should also have power to establish wages. This would require amendment by congress of the transportation act and may be brought up later, after the Chicago conference.

Plan of Executives.
The railway executives at Chicago, the senator said, he understood would "call in representatives of agricultural, shippers, commercial and other organizations" to discuss the rate and wage questions. The carriers, he said, would probably seek the support of these interests in the event they should agree to reduce freight rates and appear to the labor board for wage reductions and to the interstate commerce commission for rate adjustment.

Reduction of passenger rates is not contemplated at this time, in the opinion of Senator Cummins, who explained that the pressing immediate concern for agricultural and all other industries was freight rate reductions. This sentiment was expressed at tonight's meeting of the senate agricultural bloc. Proposals for calling up the matter in the senate soon were said to have general endorsement among the bloc.

3 MEN ARE ARRESTED ON LIQUOR CHARGE

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.)

Rooswell, N. M., Oct. 8.—Strength was added to the belief that an "underground whiskey railroad" exists through Rooswell Friday when fifteen cases of good whiskey, valued at $3,000, was found in the automobile of George Hugh El Paso. As a result Carl E. Beckman and Roscoe H. Nickelson are in jail here, the whiskey is in the vault at the courthouse, and Bob Whittle, local negro, is under a $1,000 bond. Beckman and Nickelson are charged with transporting liquor in an automobile and carrying deadly weapons in the car used for that purpose. Shortly after noon Sheriff J. C. Peck received a tip that such a car had just passed through the city. He with deputies started in pursuit. They found the car, along with one driven by Whittle. A part of the liquor had just been transferred to Whittle's car. Both cars and the three men were brought back to Rooswell. The whiskey was not "home brew," but well known standard brands of the real stuff. This is the largest haul made in Chaves county since the eighteenth amendment became effective.

For many months it has been thought that much liquor was transported through Rooswell from El Paso to Texas and Oklahoma, especially to the oil fields. While some near arrests have been staged this is the first real haul of the kind the officers have ever made. The men get a preliminary hearing Saturday.

This delightful stimulating tonic helps thin, lifeless, faded hair to grow long, thick, heavy and luxuriant.

INDIAN FOLK LORE IS TO BE BROUGHT BEFORE PEOPLE OF ROSWELL

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.)

Rooswell, N. M., Oct. 9.—Indian folk lore will be brought before Roswell in a spectacular way next Friday night, when 300 school children will present a striking pageant "A Day With the Indians." It is the most pretentious pageant ever attempted in the city of Roswell. Instead of having the pageant in the city it will be taken to the country and be given along the Berrendo river, which is lined with large trees. Arrangements have been made to utilize the river or bank for seating the hundreds of spectators. Although it is scheduled to connect with a moonlight night, electricity will be used to bring out the features. Many of the dances of the various tribes will be given by the children in costume.

The pageant is being given under the auspices of the Federated Parents-Teachers' associations of the city and the Parent-Teachers association of the Berrendo school. The training is in charge of Misses Poirson and MacIntosh, instructors of music and physical culture in the city schools.

ROSWELL TO OBSERVE FIRE PREVENTION DAY

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.)

Rooswell, N. M., Oct. 8.—Fire prevention day will be observed in Roswell in an unusual way. Next Monday, the day set aside by President Harding and Governor Mechem as fire prevention day, is also Roswell's day for the monthly sale and auction for farmers and ranchmen. An elaborate all-day program has been arranged, starting in the morning with a parade of the juvenile band and the city's complete motorized fire department. The principal part of the demonstration will be one by Roswell's new fire pump throwing four streams of water over the court house dome. Following this will be an address by Judge G. A. Richardson, who will speak to the city people and farmers and ranchmen on co-operation and he will be followed by another speaker on the need of fire prevention. Many specialties have been arranged throughout the day to insure as large a crowd as possible for the ceremonies. The entire program is in the hands of the Roswell Advertising club.

KEMPENICH WAS IN MORIARITY AT NOON THURSDAY

G. V. Johnson, Salesman, Had Dinner With Eugene Kempenich Thursday Noon -- Was Planning Business.

That Eugene Kempenich, state highway commissioner, who was found shot to death in his bedroom at his Peralta home Friday morning at 9 o'clock was actually in Moriarity Thursday noon was established last night by G. V. Johnson, traveling salesman for the Gates Tire and Rubber company.

As far as is known by authorities, Mr. Johnson was the last man to see the state highway commissioner alive. The two men ate dinner together at Moriarity at noon Thursday. With this important fact established officials expressed their opinion last night that the auto tracks of Mr. Kempenich's car, which have been traced toward the mountains and which have caused so much speculation as to why he should have been in that section of the country, were made by his machine when he drove to Moriarity, taking the mesa and mountain road instead of coming to Albuquerque and taking the main Tijeras canyon road to Moriarity. The mountain road joins the main road part way into the canyon and is a much shorter route than coming to Albuquerque.

Plans Future Business.

"Mr. Kempenich seemed in the best of spirits when we had dinner together Thursday noon," Mr. Johnson stated. "The greater part of our conversation centered on business. Mr. Kempenich was a customer of our company and was planning his tire business for the fall and winter."

Mr. Johnson did not know where Mr. Kempenich went when he left him at the Moriarity hotel. It appears that he had an appointment with Frank Gwin, engineer of the highway department, but did not keep the appointment and Mr. Gwin, who was waiting for him to go and look at a stretch of road, did not see him while he was in Moriarity.

Why Mr. Kempenich went to Moriarity instead of coming to Albuquerque to meet his mother, who was returning from visiting his brother in Portland, Ore., is a question which is baffling the authorities and whose answer may throw considerable light on the shooting.

Other Developments.

Other developments of the day's investigation have only thrown more mystery upon the tragedy, but have caused a number of officials to be more strongly of the opinion that the bullet, which passed completely through his chest, entered his body from the back.

If this is the case, there is little doubt in the minds of several officials but that Eugene Kempenich was murdered. Further examination of the body yesterday morning revealed the fact that the bullet had passed completely through the spinal vertebra and with such force that an almost clean hole was made in the bone. The hole in the back of the body is a very small one.

BILLIE BURKE RETURNS TO THE STAGE; WILL STAR IN NEW TARKINGTON COMEDY

The wound in the chest is a large one and several ribs were shattered. The opinion was expressed in official circles yesterday that this being the case, there was little doubt but that the bullet entered from behind, or the spinal column would have been shattered instead of the bullet having the force to make a clean hole in the bone.

Other interesting facts regarding the case were learned yesterday from persons who viewed the Kempenich home shortly after the tragedy was discovered.

Car Stopped Suddenly.

The Kempenich car, as was learned Friday morning, was not put in the garage but was in a corral some distance from the garage. This is the first time the car had been put in the corral at night.

Heavy skidding in the sand near the wheels indicates that he drove the car up to the corral gate at a high rate of speed and attempted to drive into the open half-gate, but finding that it was not wide enough, clamped on the brakes suddenly, but still struck the other gate hard enough to dent it with the front of the car. This circumstance has been taken by some persons to indicate that he was in a great hurry to get to the house.

A partial explanation as to the dozen hairs which were caught between the revolver barrel and the ejector has been found through the fact that under the bed upon which he was shot, is a small pile of hair. Whether the hairs attached to the gun came from this pile, is of course, a question for conjecture.

When Mr. Kempenich took the gun from its drawer in the postoffice and placed it in his bed room about three weeks ago, he laid it on a shelf of a cabinet directly in front of a door which opens into the room. The gun was seen on this shelf every morning by one of his employees who came to clean the room.

Valencia county officials have been active in chasing down clues and have been assisted by employees of the highway department and local officials. A party headed by Frank Gwin, who was to meet Mr. Kempenich at Moriarity Thursday noon, is now attempting to trace his tracks through the mesa roads either to or from Moriarity and on any side roads he may have taken. The result of this part of the investigation will probably be known today or tomorrow.

SHARK FISHING PLANNED ALONG PACIFIC COAST

Will Be Turned Into Leather, Liver Oil, Fertilizer, Jewelry, According to Plans Announced.

(By The Associated Press.)

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 8.—Sharks in the waters along the British Columbia coast are to be turned into leather, liver oil, fertilizer, jewelry, and finally dollars, according to plans of Sidney Ruck, head of the Consolidated Whaling company, who has resigned to launch the new industry. Organization of the new company has been completed, and the reducing plant will be erected on the Alberni Canal.

Shark fishing, like whaling, is to be carried on along the west coast of Vancouver Island, where, Mr. Ruck says examination has shown that the huge sun sharks, some of them weighing two thousand pounds, race up and down in schools of thousands. Recently one of the coasting steamers reported running into a solid mass of the fish.

Fishing for the sharks will be carried on after the fashion of whaling with harpoons shot from guns.

Livers of some of the big sun sharks, which are 60 to 65 per cent oil, yield up to twenty gallons of the finest shark oil. It is used for medical purposes and lubrication of delicate mechanisms. Livers of the smaller mud sharks, found in the waters between the island and the mainland, yield about ten gallons of oil.

Teeth of sharks are in great demand for buttons and jewelry. It is stated, owing to a new find in neck ornament which recently developed.

The fins are almost pure gelatin. They are cured and sold to dentists, who use them in preparation of table delicacies.

Membranes and intestines are turned into gloves, glue and gut. blood and flesh into chicken food and fertilizer. The head is a solid mass of cartilage glue.

The most valuable part of the fish is the skin, which has the toughness of vulcanized rubber. The outer surface is as tough as leather. This is taken off by acid treatment, and the skin is tanned.

CORNERSTONE OF NEW EPISCOPAL CHURCH AT TUCUMCARI IS LAID

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.)

Tucumcari, N. M., Oct. 8.—The cornerstone of the new Episcopal church at the corner of Jackson and Aber streets, has been laid with Bishop Howden, of Albuquerque, master of ceremonies. The event was a red letter day for the congregation that had for twelve years been worshipping in the little mission room on Jackson street. The membership has made noticeable increase under leadership of the present rector, Rev. William B. Allen. The congregation anticipates its first meeting in the new church on Thanksgiving day. St. Michael's Sunday school, under direction of Mrs. F. S. Hinds and Mrs. Tim Hurley is preparing a pageant illustrating the one hundred years of domestic and foreign missionary activities of the church and the fifth anniversary of the woman's auxiliary.

TRADING IN LIBERTY BONDS OVERSHADOWS OTHER OPERATIONS

(By The Associated Press.)

New York, Oct. 8.—Trading in Liberty bonds again overshadowed all other operations on the stock exchange during today's short session. The 3 1/2's, second 4's and all the 4 1/4's registered their highest prices of the year and, in some instances, for a longer period at extreme advances of 25 to 200 points.

The 200 point gain was made by the first 4 1/4's, on comparatively small dealings, greatest activity being evinced by the third and fourth series of the coup. Victory bonds, especially the 4 1/4's also were active, but showed no perceptible change at the close.

Sales of Liberty and Victory issues approximated $4,000,000, or about 70 per cent of the day's business in all classes of bonds. This is exclusive of private or "over the counter" sales made by dealers.

BOWERS CHOSEN DISTRICT HEAD FOR KIWANIS

Albuquerque Man Re-Elected to Governorship; Gallup Gets Next Convention of Southwestern Clubs.

The lieutenant governor chosen are: W. H. Blair, of El Paso; Earl Drake, of Phoenix, and Byron O. Beal, of Roswell. Jack Martin, of Phoenix, was selected as secretary-treasurer.

The talks during the concluding day were on a high plane and much interest in the work of the district was manifested. Most of the delegates went out to witness the ball game which the Albuquerque team captured.

Two social events were held—an afternoon reception at the Country club and the evening dance.

HERE'S GOOD NEWS FOR THE HOUSEWIVES OF ALBUQUERQUE

There is great significance in the big order this paper has just received from advertising Calumet Baking Powder. This company has just given a contract for one of the largest and most vigorous advertising campaigns attempted in years.

This, coming at a time when merchants think business is slow and believe the outlook for the winter none too promising, really spells volumes.

Any company that spends such an enormous amount of money employs experts who study and analyze conditions before such a campaign is launched. The agents of the company enter the field to find out what's going on and to learn whether or not the time is ripe for a big advertising campaign. Evidently the investigators of the Calumet Baking Powder company found conditions in Albuquerque much better than the Journal thought they were and much more favorable, for never in years has this paper had the pleasure of lending its columns to such a big drive.

The action of the Calumet people is certainly a great lesson to all of us. It proves there is one thing greater than business depression and that is the "go get 'em" spirit. It is that spirit that is summing the country today and helping make this the greatest industrial and mercantile country in the world; it is that spirit that leads the country that is laboring under business depression out of the woods.

As soon as buying is resumed and people again begin to purchase freely, the wheels of commerce will turn and turn faster than ever before. So, optimism and the Calumet Baking Powder company display should certainly be an example for all of us who have something to sell.

And old preacher once said that the sounder his congregation slept the louder he talked until the very force of his voice held up their eyelids and made them listen, and just so it is possible for you—for any merchant—for any advertiser to win the attention of the public if you just talk loud enough.

STAR BATTER IN THE AMERICAN LEAGUE IS IN DOUBT; HORNSBY WINS HONOR IN THE NATIONAL

Some Statisticians Give the Crown to Cobb, While Others Say Heilman; Ruth Shatters His 1920 Circuit Clout Record and Sets a New Mark as a Run Getter.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Chicago, Oct. 8.—The baseball season just closed was productive of a number of new records, according to the unofficial averages which are released today and which include the games of October 2. "Babe" Ruth was responsible for at least three new records. The home run slugging of the pennant winning Yankees broke his own record for circuit drives made in a single season, by pulling up with 59 four-ply blows. In crashing out this string of runs Ruth shattered the mark of Garry Cravath for total circuit drives during his major league career. Ruth since coming into the major league has slammed out 163 circuit drives. The former mark held by Cravath was 117.

Ruth also boosted the American league record as a run-getter by registering 118 times, which exceeds his former mark of a year ago by twenty runs.

Sister's Record Shattered. The total base record of the American league established by George Sisler, of St. Louis, last season also was exceeded by the heavy hitting Yankee star, who in making 204 hits, rolled up a total of 455 bases. The former league record was 229.

There is much doubt as to who was the best hitter in the American league. Some statisticians in their unofficial averages give the honor to Harry Heilmann, the hard hitting Detroit outfielder, while others, among them the statisticians of the American league, say that Heilmann's home, Ty Cobb, is the champion. According to the unofficial averages compiled here by the league statisticians the Detroit pilot finished third place in front of his outfielder. The figures available here show Cobb finished with an average of .390, while Heilmann's mark is .357. According to these records Cobb finished in 12th place as a batter, 56 times and cracked out 197 hits. Heilmann's record shows that he played in 149 games, and made 253 hits in 605 times at bat.

Other statisticians have figured that the Detroit slugger was practically at the wire with .390, but when carried to four figures, Heilmann was figured to have a margin of .0003. Cobb's mark in this case was .3901, while that of Heilmann was .3904. According to these figures, Heilmann is credited with 215 hits while the figures which give the Georgia peach the honors, credit Heilmann with only 233 hits.

Hornsby's Average Is .399. Rogers Hornsby of the St. Louis Nationals, put up a merry race to enter the select "400" hitters who attained fame in the National league, but missed the goal by one point. Hornsby's final average was .399.

Jay Kirke, the first baseman of the Louisville American association established a new world's mark for his in one season, by breaking the record made by L. A. Miller of Oakland last season. Kirke made his 252nd hit as the curtain was rung down and beat the mark of the Pacific coast slugger by two hits. Kirke's record, however, was made in fewer games than that set up by the Oakland star, who made his mark in 129 games. Kirke played in 168 games.

The base stealing honors in the American league were captured by George Sisler of St. Louis, who swiped 22 bases, while Frank Frisch of the Giants, with 47 thefts, carried off the prize in the National league. In the American association Baird of Indianapolis had a runaway race for the honors, finishing far in front with 72 thefts.

PRINCETON-NAVY GAME FURNISHES LINE ON FUTURE

California Will Encounter Pacific Fleet Team This Saturday; Kentucky and Vanderbilt Meet.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

(Special Dispatch to Morning Journal) (Copyright 1921 by Associated Press.)

The eye not only of Princeton and Navy men but of football followers in general, will be fixed next Saturday on the contest between the team of Nassau and the naval academy at Annapolis. This game overshadows all the other and will furnish a direct line on important future matches, particularly as to how the navy is progressing toward its main goal, a victory over the Army and how Princeton is coming on for its game with Harvard and Yale.

Last year Princeton won after a good fight, 14 to 0, the Tigers showing the greater variety of aggressiveness. Coach Follwell has been whipping a weaker team, the Stanley Keck in Kansas City, in the hope of relieving that defeat. The Navy has been coming into better shape all the time but Follwell has no men equal to Stanley Keck in line of the back field and in view of Princeton's latent power as displayed in her games this year, it is doubtful if Annapolis can win. However, the contest against a team that has a great variety of attack should count heavily in the navy's favor later in the season.

Out on the Pacific coast California will encounter the team of the Pacific fleet and ought to make a better showing than they did against the Olympic club, which team, the writer is reliably informed, was much better than expected. Occidental will meet Southern California at Los Angeles next Saturday and this game will give an opportunity to judge how far the claims made by Southern California last year have materialized this season. The game between Stanford and the Olympic club will give a line on the probable strength of the Palo Alto men against California later.

Kentucky and Vanderbilt will meet at Lexington in a game for blood. Heilmann, at Pennsylvania, will have a chance to try out his shifts against Swarthmore, which team put up a pretty stubborn opposition to Princeton. Penn State made Lehigh and Cornell look like the able to win and still hold back something for his Harvard game on the ensuing Saturday. Washington and Lee will put up a good fight against Rutgers but Coach Sanford has a better team than last year. Brown, which has started none too well, will have to put up an exceedingly strong fight to hold Syracuse.

Yale takes on Williams and should be able to win and hold something in reserve for Army.

Prospects for a whirlwind season for the Lohas appear to grow better with every afternoon's practice. Jones, the Roswell acquisition, has shown unexpected ability with the forward pass and is also wielding a wicked toe in the punting department. With his ability as a broken-field runner, he is expected to prove one of the team's biggest assets.

Frank Greenleaf, who was all-southwestern tackle last year, is showing great improvement this year in the style of his play and will undoubtedly be the most formidable man on the line. All of the other men on the squad have been making fast progress and there seems to be little doubt that Coach Johnson has acquired an unusually capable squad of pigskin artists from which to choose his line-up.

In order to give the team a proper farewell when they leave for Colorado, the university students are to be present in a body at the station Thursday night. The dormitory regulations which require the students to be in their rooms early in the evening have been waived for Thursday night by Dr. Hill, so that all may be present for the ceremonies.

Civil jury cases will start in the district court tomorrow morning. The criminal cases have all been disposed of with the exception of the case against William L. Hunter, who will be tried on a bigamy charge Friday.

A number of the petit jurors were dismissed by Judge Hickley during the latter part of the week and a special venire of fifteen men were chosen to fill the number starting tomorrow. A number of cases will be tried before the jury during this term of court.

LOBOS GIVEN HEAVY WORK AS SEASON OPENS

U. N. M. Team to Leave for Colorado Springs Thursday Night to Open Season There on Saturday.

With only four more days of practice before the first game of the season next Saturday at Colorado Springs, Coach Johnson put the Lobos through their paces yesterday afternoon with three hours of grueling practice and scrimmages.

The squad of about twenty men will leave Albuquerque at 8 o'clock Thursday evening for Colorado Springs, where they are to play Colorado college. The names of the men who will make the trip will be announced by Coach Johnson within a day or two.

DUCK HUNTERS MUST RESPECT GAME REFUGE

Restricted River and Swamp Areas Will Be Posted Before the Opening of the Fall Bird Shooting.

Duck season opens October 16. Hunters should exercise the greatest care in not hunting upon any of the newly posted game refuges. The state game commission at a meeting held a few weeks ago closed considerable areas to fishing, big game hunting and bird shooting. The reason for the rule was to ultimately better the shooting by providing rest areas and breeding grounds where the birds could be safe from shooting.

Areas established on the Rio Grande river include river shooting from Luna to Santa Fe, the high water mark for two miles below the following wagon bridges in this vicinity: Cochiti, San Felipe, Bernadillo, Alameda, Boreas, Isleta and Los Lunas, Bolen and Socorro. Signs have been posted on both sides of the river for the restricted two miles. Persons can shoot in the lagoons off from the river in these areas but must not do river shooting.

The flat below the La Joya station in Socorro county has been declared a refuge starting on the Rio Grande commencing at a point two miles south of the Santa Fe depot at the La Joya station; thence south two miles on the west side of the Santa Fe railroad; thence west to the bluff and along the bluff two miles north, thence east one-half mile to the point of beginning.

This area only includes a portion of the La Joya swamp and while it provides a large area over which ducks and geese can be shot without violating the law, it leaves an even larger area, which can be used by the sportsman and which should prove a fine hunting ground as the birds will be going in and out of the restricted ground.

Any hunting within these rest grounds will constitute a misdemeanor and such persons will be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for not less than five days nor more than thirty days, or both such fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the court.

A slight difference of opinion exists on the bag limit in the state, the federal limit being twenty-five in a day and the state limit, under an old section, said to have been nullified, giving the limit as twenty birds. Federal Game Warden Britton, who attended the G. P. A. smoker Friday night at the chamber of commerce, stated that he believed the twenty-five bird limit had not been able to find a state law which did not appear to have been nullified which placed the limit at twenty. The question will be taken up with the game commission this week and settled before the opening of the season.

ADDITIONAL RUSSIAN PROVINCES CLAMOR FOR FAMINE RELIEF

(By The Associated Press.)

Riga, Oct. 7.—Several Russian provinces which up to the present have been considered self-supporting, now are clamoring to be listed for government aid because of famine. M. Kallin, head of the Russian central committee for famine relief, announced in a speech at Moscow today. Thus, the number of provinces in starving is nearly 25,000,000. Each fruitful parish, he declared, would be asked to furnish a carload of grain to aid the less fortunate districts.

BEAUTY CHATS

By Edna Kent Forbes.

WARDING OFF OLD AGE.

Many, many things bring on old age—too many of course to consider in so short a space as this. Mental and physical sluggishness, over-indulgence, not enough fresh air, indigestion. These are a few of the things that bring old age before its time—if old age may be said to have a "time" when it should come.

One successful exponent of youth prolonged into the eighth decade says that muscular activity is the whole secret of preventing old age—and of all I have read on this subject, this seems to me the most logical remark, and much simpler than transferring monkey glands! Old age is a breaking down of tissues, elimination ceases to be as effective or as great, the system literally clogs with matter that chokes it up. Muscular activity will break up these deposits, will stimulate the body's system of elimination of waste.

Be active! If you have your own housework to do, be glad of the exercise it gives you. And learn to form and may be heated enough to use in the massage, by simply rubbing it heated palm over it, or holding it before an electric bulb. It is very nourishing and can be used on any part of the body except the face, or any part of the to grow superfluous hair. This only applies to the exposed parts of the body, where a heavy oil might remain in the pores and collect dirt and soil, for it is this which causes this abnormal growth.

Bright Eyes: If you can keep your skin clean through the use of cream, hot and cold water, soap will not be needed; but if you do not succeed with this method, use any of the fine soaps that are in the market. An olive oil soap is good and the old-fashioned castile is one of the soaps that is supposed to be made from this oil.

BEBE DANIELS TO MAKE PICTURE ON HER AUTO ARREST

Bebe Daniels sort of up a tree regarding "The Wisdom of the Chinese," which she is reading.

Bebe Daniels, who was really truly arrested and thrown into the hoosgow for ten days out on the Pacific coast some time ago for traveling too rapidly in her Rolls-Arrow, is going to show her movie admirers just how it happened—and even who pinched her.

From Realist studios comes word that her next picture will be "The Speed Girl." It is written around that episode. Many of the characters who participated in her arrest and kept a watchful eye over her while she "wasted away" in jail will be in the picture. The press agent swears, however, that there was no intention of making any such photo when she was arrested.

Bebe has appeared in several successes recently. Her latest appearance was as one of the principal characters in the "Affairs of Anatol."

Nazimova has a new plan. Instead of making one big special in the future she will try her hand at a unit—furnish a repertoire film entertainment, much as a player comes to the stage with several sketches instead of one long play. Her first step in this direction will be to film Oscar Wilde's "Salome" and Ibsen's "A Doll's House." At present her plans are rather sketchy, but when she makes certain arrangements it is believed she will put into practice this idea, which has been in her mind some time.

For the first time in their long careers, Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks are showing in New York City in counter attractions in theaters side by side. Miss Pickford in "Little Lord Fauntleroy" at the Apollo and Mr. Fairbanks in "The Three Musketeers" at the Lyric, each picture drawing capacity crowds.

Doris Kenyon, who plays a leading role in "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford," is a fine singer. In fact, Victor Herbert, the composer, "discovered" her while she was singing in a Brooklyn church choir.

THE WOMAN HE MARRIED

By JANE PHELPS.

A CONTRETEMPS.

CHAPTER 108.

My party promised to be a success. The guests had all accepted, and what is more to the point had arrived. All but Juanita. She was invariably the last guest no matter what sort of a function she attended. I suspected her of doing this on purpose to make her entrance more theatrical.

It was only a little after nine, however, when she arrived. A little stamp of admiration went up when she appeared. Her gown of chiffon was made with several skirts, one over the other, from the deepest orange, her favorite color, to the faintest shade of yellow. She wore a gold bandeau confining her hair, and a long floating scarf of deep orange fell from one shoulder. Her stockings and slippers matched her gown. As usual she wore no jewels.

No one could deny or question her beauty. My heart almost ceased beating when I saw the look in Dick's eyes when he greeted her. Junior was standing beside me, yet even so I could not restrain a sigh as I saw a look pass between them.

I doctored with Junior, while Dick took Juanita for a partner. Everyone was very gay, and my party bade fair to be a success. People wandered all over the house, admiring, asking where I got this idea, that bit of color, or praising the ensemble. It was not my place as hostess, as well as designer of the decorations, to allow them to go unattended. I let them return to the dancing, however, without me, pleading a wish to look after the supper.

The study was dark when I passed the door, save for the faint glow of the reading lamp, although I was sure that only a short time before it had been as brilliantly lighted as the rest of the house.

Suddenly my heart stopped, and my ears fairly strained.

"You do love me, Nita, darling. I know it!" I heard a husky voice, love-softened, say.

There was a silence—a silence such as a woman might keep when she was uncertain, or when a word spoken would betray her heart and her love.

"Don't torture me, Nita! Say you love me and I will have the courage to end this horrible situation. I worship you, my beautiful girl. I can't live without you! Tonight you madden me."

It is not pleasant for a wife to listen to a declaration of love from her husband to another woman. It is not made easier to hear it when her duties as hostess compel a smiling face and gay manner. I felt sick, faint. I remained for a moment rigidly by the study door, then quietly returned to my guests.

I felt very lonely among that gay, laughing crowd, and motioned Junior to my side. I took his hand in mine and the touch of his warm strong fingers gave me courage.

"Where's father?" he asked after a moment.

"I don't know. Somewhere about I guess."

"Last time I saw him he was talking to Aunt Nita. They didn't see me, so I didn't butt in. Better look out, mother, or Aunt Nita will steal dad. He's hippy about her."

I knew Junior was only joking, yet his careless boyish speech hurt me.

"You mustn't say such things, Junior. I know you are joking, but others might take you seriously, and it would hurt your father."

Just then Juanita came into the room followed by Dick. She it once commenced to talk with Mr. Baker while Dick sought other guests. But they both flushed and Juanita was plainly excited.

"Don't let anyone know," I said to myself. "Keep up your courage, don't give way to your feelings. I felt unlike myself, as if I were masquerading. I laughed at nothing at all, and yet I felt that once or twice I caught Junior looking at me in amazement."

The supper gave me a little relief, as they were all too busy eating to notice that for a moment I slipped away. In my room I breathed a prayer for help, then returned and remained with my guests until they departed in the "wee sma' hours," declaring they never had enjoyed themselves more thoroughly.

Mr. Baker took Juanita home. I thought Dick looked disappointed when he offered, but he said nothing, and Juanita in her orange dress ravished him with a look she accepted the invitation.

I went up with Junior and talked a few moments. Dick had said directly to bed. Late as it was, I was not at all sleepy, so I sat by my window and tried to think, to plan.

"I can't ignore it any longer," I whispered to myself. "I must not go any farther. I must find some way to win him back before it is too late."

I wondered if ever a wife had been placed in the same position, and if so what she had done? I thought with a shiver of self-reproach that had I been the right sort of wife in the first place, Dick never would have known Juanita. Somehow, everything went back to those first years.

"I will fight her with any weapons, but Dick must not know I am fighting," I said as I finally arose.

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING

By LAURA A. KIRKMAN.

MORE ANSWERED LETTERS.

Entertainer: "I suppose you will think I am a little too previous, but I want to give a Halloween party this year and thought I would not wait till the last minute to ask for help. Is there any way that I could use my attic in such a party? I would like some unusual feature."

Answer: You are not a bit too early to ask questions about Halloween. I only wish all of my readers who desire such help would write this early. When a reader wishes an answer from me for some timely event, she should allow four weeks to be on the safe side—for, remember, I receive a great many letters and they must be answered in the order of their arrival. I would make your attic into a "Haunted House." Have it dimly lit with pumpkin heads and have a sheet stretched across one corner; behind this sheet have a person dressed in sheet and pillow case for a Ghost. This ghost will tell each guest's fortune in turn. The fortunes should be brief and cheerful, such as: "You will receive a letter containing good news." "You are on the verge of success." "You are soon to be married." Make them up to suit yourself—and to fit the guests.

Typical Housewife: "Can you give me a remedy for roaches?"

Answer: Plaster of Paris and flour mixed to a paste with water is one method of extermination; the paste is put in a saucer and when it is placed in another saucer containing water. The roaches eat the plaster of Paris paste, then go for the water and die.

Bride: "My kitchen is infested with ants. What shall I do?"

Answer: Soak a sponge in sugar and water and place it in a part of the kitchen through which you think the ants enter. The insects will become entangled in the sponge and can be killed by pouring boiling water over it. Often the number killed in this way is so large that the other ants forsake the dwelling.

Mrs. D.: "Kindly give me a recipe for Picallilli and tell me how to polish the nickel plate on my stove?"

Answer: Send stamped self-addressed envelope for my printed article entitled "What Every Preserver Closet Should Have." This paper includes Picallilli in its recipe. Nickel can usually be kept bright with hot soapy water, but when it becomes discolored it can be polished by rubbing with a paste of whiting or any fine scourer.

Constant Reader: "What will take paint off linoleum? Also what will take an ice cream stain out of a light blue satin dress?"

Answer: Remove the paint spots with either naphtha, turpentine, benzine or chloroform. These are dangerous fluids—the three former if used near heat or flame, and the last named if inhaled—so care must be taken in handling them. Ice cream has more or less grease in it (if the cream is rich) and this must be removed by soaking in cold water, with borax sprinkled on the spot, then washing in soapy water or pouring hot water through it. The spots ought to disappear with this treatment. Experiments with a sample of the satin before submitting the dress to this treatment. This is put a little cream on a sample, let dry, then soak, wash in cold soapy water, and let dry. If the color of the sample is unchanged, you can safely go ahead with the spots on the dress.

How Signs Of Old Age Creep Into Your System When The Iron In Your Blood Runs Low

For Want of Iron, You May Be Old At Thirty—Nervous, Irritable and All Run-Down—While at Fifty or Sixty, With Plenty of Iron in Your Blood, You May Be Young in Feeling and Brimming Over With Vim and Energy

IRON IS THE RED BLOOD FOOD

That Helps Strengthen the Nerves, Restores Wasted Tissue and Aids in Giving Renewed Force and Power to the Body. Physicians Explain Why Administration of Simple Nuxated Iron Often Increases the Strength and Endurance of Delicate, Run-down People in Two Weeks' Time.

Old age has already sunk its talons into thousands of men and women who ought still to be enjoying the springtime and summer of life simply because they have allowed worry, overwork, nervous strain, dissipation and occupational poisons to sap the iron from their blood and thereby destroy its power to change food into living tissue, muscle and brain. You will find plenty of people at 40 who are broken in health and steadily going downward to physical and mental decay while others at 60 are strong, active, alert and seemingly growing younger every year. One class withers and dies like leaves in autumn while the other by keeping up a strong power of resistance against disease may pass the three score and ten mark with surprising health, strength and vigor. But you cannot expect to look and feel young and vigorous unless you have plenty of iron in your blood, and physicians explain below why they prescribe organic iron—Nuxated Iron—to supply the iron deficiency in the weak, nervous, and run-down so as to build them up into stronger, healthier men and women.

When, as a result of iron starvation you get up feeling tired in the morning, prove, goes wrong, or you have pains across the back and your face looks pale and drawn, do not wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration, or until in your weakened condition you contract some serious disease, but add plenty of spinach, carrots, baked apples or other iron-containing fruits and vegetables to your daily food and take organic iron—Nuxated Iron—with them for a while and see how much your condition improves.

Thousands of people have surprisingly increased their strength, energy and endurance in two weeks' time by this simple experiment. But in making this test be sure that the iron you take is organic Nuxated Iron and not metallic iron or mineral iron which people usually take. Organic Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron.

Nuxated Iron represents organic iron in such a highly concentrated form that one dose is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating half a quart of spinach, or one quart of green vegetables. It is like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. At all drugstores.

TELL YOUR CHILDREN.

The mayor has issued a proclamation declaring today the appropriate annual occasion to emphasize the need of diligence and care in fire prevention.

All over the United States today the occasion is being similarly celebrated.

Twenty thousand needless deaths occur annually from burns or suffocation. A half-billion dollars worth of carefully and painfully accumulated wealth goes up in careless smoke.

Training can prevent the thoughtless act or the needless neglect which causes 90 per cent of our conflagrations.

Parents, teachers, preachers and all other leaders of thought and conduct can render a great service today by an intelligent discussion of this subject. Children with matches, adults with cigarettes, cellars and garages with accumulated rubbish, chimneys with cracks, are the most prolific sources of involuntary fire.

Talk it over at home today.

TEAM-WORK.

This community is suffering, to a degree, because of fractional strife. There is some lack of that cooperation and spirit of friendliness which every city should have in order to grow. We are not attempting to place the blame at this time. We merely are recording a fact.

The Journal does not attempt in this connection to place all of the responsibility on other shoulders. We have hostilities which are based upon moral issues and which must go on until special privilege and graft cease their arrogant professions. This in spite of the fact that we would love peace.

But there are other strifes in which the Journal is involved, which are utterly senseless and totally unjustified. We have tried in vain to be conciliatory in these cases. But it takes "two to make a bargain"—even a bargain to cease quarrelling.

Sensible men with decent purposes can always get together and settle their differences if they conclude that such a course is right and wise. An animosity so deep-seated that it precludes such a course is childish and is unworthy of us.

Albuquerque needs a state-cleaning week when all reconcilable differences between its citizens are wiped out and a new start is made. It would mean much to the future if the city if this could be accomplished.

Men who are quarrelling sometimes need the help of mutual friends in settling their difficulties.

It seems to the Journal that the churches and clubs of all kinds could well move in concert toward a few days set apart to bring this to pass. Team-work is impossible among enemies. Albuquerque needs team-work. The conclusion is inevitable.

A Kentucky man, candidate for jailer, who announces that if chosen he "will be the jailer of all the people," probably will not attain his ambition.

No 100 per cent American institution ever had to wear a mask.

DIVIDE THE BURDEN.

Adjutant General Henry Rolf Brown, commandant of the New Mexico National Guards, is attempting to secure the co-operation of employers in building up the guard organization. This he should have. Most members are employees. If loss of employment is to follow absence at the annual encampment, men can not join the organization.

General Brown asks that guardsmen be given fifteen days for encampment, with pay. This is reasonable. The rigors of the outdoor regime will make the men fit. Their efficiency will be increased. No one will lose any money on letting them go. Other employees will gladly do a little extra work in order to help.

He asks, in the event of service, upon call of the governor, that the differential in pay be absorbed by the employer. It should be. The men assume the added hardship of service for the protection of life and property in the state. Employers should share the burden.

Men loyal enough to join the guard should be the special objects of favor and solicitude by employers. This service is gratuitous. It is given for the public benefit. The burden should be divided.

Virginia's peanut crop is only half a normal yield. The return of the nickel bag is still further postponed.

THE NATURAL RESULT.

Former service men and officers who have been to the battlefields of France say they are scarcely able to recognize regions that less than three years ago they knew well. The scars of battle are fast disappearing. Much of this is due to the restoration work done by man, but nature has not been less busy. Where fields of grain have not been sown or gardens planted the daisies have carpeted the walls of the crumbling trenches. The rains of summer and the storms of winter have been at work obliterating the shell-holes and the gun pits. Grass grows where armed men tramped in the deep mud. Where the devastated land untouched wind and rain and frost and sun would in a few years restore the ground to much the same appearance it had before the Germans started on their invasion. When man assists nature the restoration is quickened.

Ellnor Glyn says all movie people are good, yet "all" is rather comprehensive under the circumstances.

MENACE OF KU KLUXISM.

Both the department of justice and the post-office department are making investigations of the Ku Klux Klan with a view to taking action against the organization in case it is found to be violating federal laws. Important functions of government are to afford protection to the people living under it and to administer justice according to law. Were the government to go after the Ku Klux as those mobocrats go after their victims, nobody would be safe from the private vengeance of his neighbors. It is to protect the innocent that the processes of legal justice are hedged about with rules which sometimes appear to favor criminals. In the long run, though, there is small reason for complaints against the results obtained.

With the Ku Klux it is sufficient that somebody in the secret circle of an oath-bound gang whisper a suspicion. There and then the band may decide upon punishment to be inflicted. The being who has been selected as the victim has no trial; legal proofs are not presented, and he is not afforded opportunity to make a defense. His accusers are his prosecutors, judges and the executioners of the sentence imposed. That is Ku Kluxism at its worst. In some instances it has taken its victims from the hands of the law because it thought the courts were not acting fast enough. The very deliberateness of the courts is, however, the guarantee of protection to the innocent. Could the Ku Klux have its way there would be an end of the rights which the constitutions of nation and states guarantee to every person.

Perhaps the federal authorities will find the means to abolish this law-defying company. If it happens that no federal statutes are being violated by the mobocrats, the individual states are not impotent to deal with it. It is for their governments to act swiftly and relentlessly against the Ku Klux.

It is not a comedy with which "Fatty" Arbuckle is now connected.

Our delegation to the armament limitation conference is truly a "Big Four."

Returning tourist says all of Europe expects our help. Gosh, are they never to be satisfied?

DON'T WANT THE K. K. K.

In calling for a quarantine against the Ku Klux Klan, Canadian newspapers show their vigilance and good sense. They say this is one thing they don't want to have imported from the United States, whence so many good things come. And we don't blame them. The existence of any secret organization which assumes to be an "invisible government" is a reflection upon the efficiency and integrity of the real government.

Loyal citizens in increasing numbers, having become aware of its true nature, are declaring they wish to have nothing to do with the Ku Klux Klan. It is now being made the object of investigation by our federal authorities. In various sections of the country private organizations have been formed to combat its secret activities. Good citizens don't like its looks. It is operating on a wrong, an un-American principle. And any such organization is not likely to last long.

THE SABBATH OF PAST YEARS.

Where is the Sabbath of my youth,
That calm, sweet, peaceful day,
When churchward all at early morn
Wended their quiet way.

And listened all intent to find
The straight and honest way,
At close of hymn so sweet, divine,
When all then knelt to pray.

The sweet, calm, peaceful Sabbath day
With years has passed and gone,
And now the streets of city ring
With whistle, shout and song.

Oh, Sabbath dear, could you return
Through all the misty years,
A benediction you would bring
And calm our deepest fears.

Sweet Sabbath day of long, lost years,
With hymns of love and cheer,
Help us again to know sweet peace,
And "read our little clear."

There is only the free, clear wind.

Again—again—passing over the stones of spring.

EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

ECHOES OF THE LONG AGO.

(From the Washington Star.)
The fifty-fifth annual encampment of the G. A. R. at Indianapolis suggests many reflections to a relatively small and steadily diminishing part of our people. The present encampment is a small one compared with those of thirty, twenty, even ten years ago. About ten thousand members of this patriotic soldier organization have joined the grand army beyond the skies since the last encampment, and many members still on the rolls of the G. A. R. are too infirm to make a journey to a distant city and take their place in the marching column or about those campfires where song and story of the civil war go round. G. A. R. encampments at Washington used to be as big and popular as the inauguration of a president, even when an inauguration ball was part and parcel of the ceremony.

As man counts time, a good many years have passed since Lincoln's first call for volunteers. Sixty years have gone by, and since the peace of Appomattox fifty-six years have been marked off. As nearly all the volunteers and others who entered the union armies were young men, those that are still among us are no longer young.

In the popular mind and imagination the civil war is a long way in the past. Generations have since then been born. What they know about the days of the states has been learned from reading history. Relatively few persons read history, fewer learn much about it, and still fewer remember what they learn. The United States has been a party to two wars and other periods of great stress since the days of Manassas, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, Shiloh, Chickamauga, Wilderness and Spotsylvania. One of these wars stirred us very much, and the other was the most stupendous the world has ever known, though our part in it did not tax our resources and emotions and entail such losses on us as the civil war.

Let us salute these veterans who assembled at Indianapolis, let our thoughts go out to these whose infirmities or cares keep them at home, and let us pause now and then to think of the hosts of them that are no more in the flesh.

"If I had loads of money existence would be sunny," the poor fish sadly moans; "I'm certainly disgusted with being always busted when other men have bones. The rich man has no sorrow; if he should try to borrow a grief 'twould be in vain; for money is the basis of all the joy that chases around this mundane plain." But when a man has riches his walls, in dismal pitches, assail the gates of misery, the covetous and greedy, but seldom meets with friends. And when we envy riches, while digging useful ditches or sowing helpful seed, our taste must be languid, so let us be contented, and labor and be good.

The hates of men revolt him, the eyes of envy lope him, and everywhere he finds he meets the whining needy, the covetous and greedy, but seldom meets with friends. ## UNCLE WIGGLY AND THE TANGLED VINE.

"This way! Over this way! Oh, come quickly over this way!"

Uncle Wiggly Longears, who was hopping through the woods one day, looking for an adventure, heard this cry. He almost dropped his red, white and blue striped rheumatism crutch, he was so surprised, and his pink nose nearly stopped twinkling.

"This sounds like trouble!" thought the bunny rabbit. Again came the call: "This way! Over this way!"

"Billie Wagtail, the goat boy. He is who is calling?" said the bunny gentleman, out loud this time. "I must help him!"

Uncle Wiggly listened to the sound, to tell whence it came. Making up his mind it was off to the left he turned that way and ran across a little open place in the woods.

But he had not taken more than three hops before, all of a sudden, he felt himself falling. Down he tumbled, his tail silk hat rolling one way, his crutch bounding off another way; and only because his pink nose was fast to his face that might have fallen off also, but it did not.

"Oh, dear me!" cried poor Uncle Wiggly, as he felt himself falling. "I'm caught in a trap; I'm afraid!"

But it was not quite as sad as that. It was only that the rabbit gentleman had hopped into a tangle of vines on the ground. The tangled vines had twisted themselves around the bunny's legs, causing him to fall.

"I must be most careful next time," said Uncle Wiggly to himself as he arose, moving his paws slowly so he would not fall again. He made his way from the tangled patch of vines and, a little later, he was out in a grassy glade, where he saw Billie Wagtail, the goat boy; Johnnie and Billie Bushytail, the squirrels, and Sammie Littletail, the rabbit chap, with Jackie and Peetie Bow Wow, the puppies.

"What's the matter?" asked the bunny of the goat. "Why were you shouting about 'over this way'?"

"Oh, I just wanted Jackie to throw the ball over this way, where I stood, so we could tag Johnnie Bushytail," answered the

GENERAL STRIKE WON'T OCCUR IS OPINION OF LEE

"Average Labor Leader Is Not Insane to the Extent of Not Recognizing Conditions," He Says.

(By The Associated Press.)
Cleveland, O., Oct. 8.—Prediction that there will be no general strike on the part of the railroad transportation brotherhoods was made today by William G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Mr. Lee based his prediction on his belief that "the average labor leader is not insane to the extent of not recognizing conditions as they now exist."

Asked whether he admitted the possibility of a strike on any one railroad, he replied that it was possible but he did not admit its probability.

Mr. Lee returned yesterday from Chicago, having supervised the canvass of the strike vote of more than 150,000 members of his organization, taken in protest against the 12 per cent wage reduction ordered by the United States railroad labor board effective July 1.

Mr. Lee declined to be a party to the joint strike ballot of the other brotherhoods sent out early in September, claiming nothing could legally be included in such a ballot according to the Esch-Cummings law except the wage reduction of July 1, since the labor board had not made a decision on other subjects mentioned in the joint ballot. Mr. Lee prepared and submitted a separate ballot for the train and yard men. The vote returned, he said, was in excess of 88 per cent in favor of a strike, with the following provisions:

"We further request that our membership on this railroad be authorized to withdraw from service on the same day and hour that the membership of either the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Order of Railway Conductors or Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen of this road is authorized to stop work, as a result of the vote taken by such organizations in connection with the wage reduction of July 1."

Hay is survived by his wife and baby son.

KLEINSMID TENDERS HIS RESIGNATION AS VARSITY PRESIDENT

(By The Associated Press.)
Tucson, Ariz., Oct. 8.—Dr. R. B. Von Kleinsmid, president of the University of Arizona, tendered his resignation to Chancellor John H. Campbell of the board of regents today. The resignation is requested to be effective not later than January 1, at the discretion of the board.

Either the offer of the presidency of the University of Southern California or the American University in Washington will be accepted by Dr. Von Kleinsmid, he stated, citing that he has declined the chancellorship of the Denver university. Purely personal reasons were accountable for the refusal of the Colorado offer, climate, altitude and other features being involved. A brilliant future is ahead of the University of Arizona, declared Dr. Von Kleinsmid, who stated, however, he believes its present expansion program is at an end temporarily and that its educational program will be tremendous. Which of the two offers named will be accepted, he admitted was exceedingly uncertain, the decision to resign as head of the Arizona school being reached only Saturday morning.

RETAIL FOOD PRICES SLUMPED LAST MONTH IN ALL BUT TWO CITIES

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Oct. 8.—Retail food prices during September were found by the labor department today to have declined in all but two of the cities in which it conducts investigations. Decreases amounted to 2 per cent in Minneapolis and Portland, Me., and 1 per cent in Atlanta, Philadelphia and Salt Lake City. San Francisco foods retailed at prices 2 per cent above previous findings, while in Dallas there was a fractional increase.

CITIZENS URGED TO OBSERVE FIRE PREVENTION DAY

The great need of care in preventing fire will be discussed in Albuquerque today at practically all churches and other gathering places. The day has been set aside throughout the United States in an effort to cut down the terrific loss of life and property through fire by bringing the attention of the people to the necessity for exercising care to keep from starting fires or allowing conditions to exist which invite fire.

Today is the anniversary of the Chicago fire in 1871 when the entire city of Chicago was wiped out through a cow kicking over a lantern. Governors of the various states and mayors of thousands of cities have issued a proclamation urging that people observe today with the end in view of saving life and property through fire prevention this year.

Walter M. Connell, ex-officio mayor of the city, issued a proclamation to this effect Thursday. The proclamation urged the observance of the day and that all persons remove any fire traps which may be located on their property.

C. OF C. DIRECTORS TO NAME TEACHERS' MEET COMMITTEES

Chamber of Commerce directors will meet tomorrow evening at the chamber at 7:15 o'clock to name the committees who have charge of the New Mexico teachers' convention to be held here Thanksgiving week. Special committees will have charge of each phase of the convention, and it is the desire of the chamber to get started in time to have all plans well made before the start of the conference.

The 1921 teachers' convention promises to be the largest in the history of the state, more than 4,000 teachers being expected. The usual attendance is between two and three thousand. The many important school questions which now confront the state and the individual school districts, are expected to prove of such importance in the minds of teachers throughout the state that but few will not attend the convention.

Meetings will be held at the high school auditorium and the armory and committee meetings will probably be held at the Chamber of Commerce parlors.

As there are several entertainments booked for tomorrow evening the directors' meeting has been called early enough to allow the members to complete the chamber business and still keep their other engagements.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

Is the Best They'll Answer Because—

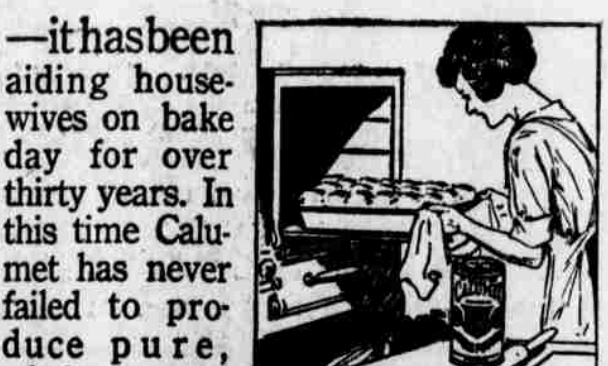

—you save when you buy it—moderate in price. Calumet is made with but one thought—to give the housewife the most dependable of all leaveners at the most economical price. When you order a pound of Calumet you get full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans—be sure you get a pound when you want it.

—you save when you use it. Calumet has more than the ordinary leavening strength—therefore you use less. Calumet holds this unusual leavening strength for months after leaving the factories—last spoonful good as the first. When a recipe calls for two teaspoons of baking powder, use two level teaspoons of Calumet and the result will be perfect.

—it has been aiding housewives on bake day for over thirty years. In this time Calumet has never failed to produce pure, wholesome and tempting bakings. There is a look of assurance on the housewife's face when she uses Calumet—she knows what to expect when she opens the oven door—perfectly raised, sweet and palatable food.

—the purity of Calumet is guarded by expert Chemists in the world's largest and most sanitary baking powder factories. Here every ingredient entering into it is tested for purity and strength. After the ingredients are combined they are again tested—and last by skilled chefs for baking qualities. Contains only such ingredients as have been officially approved by United States Pure Food Authorities.

SCOUT NOTES

Troop No. 2.

Say, Scouts of Troop 2, we had a like last Friday night. We went quite a distance past the Indian school and ate our lunch while Earl Watkins told us some fine stories. And say—we had some grand time.

We have had four meetings so far. Our assistant scoutmaster, Earl Watkins, has given us some very interesting first aid talks and demonstrations. All in all, we are learning something. If you are an old member come around Tuesday night at 7:30 at the Presbyterian church, or your names will be cancelled off the list. So have a good excuse for being absent at this meeting. Elections will be held if enough boys are present. So be there sure, and don't forget to bring 50 cents for re-registration in Troop 2, so we can get the troop charter right away. New boys are welcome.

JOE HARRIS, Scribe.

PETROGRAD IS HIT BY FLOOD; FIRE DESTROYS TELEPHONE STATION

(By The Associated Press.)

Moscow, Oct. 7 (By the Associated Press).—A dispatch from Petrograd today says that city is suffering from a flood, caused by winds which have driven the water up the Neva river into canals, reaching out bridges, flooding cellars and docks and hindering shipping.

While Red army workmen were busy trying to save property threatened by the flood, the dispatch said, fire destroyed the central telephone station, stopping all telephone service in the city. An investigation gave rise to the suspicion that the fire was of incendiary origin, the dispatch added.

8 MEN ARE ARRESTED FOLLOWING A RAID ON COLORADO DISTILLERY

(By The Associated Press.)

Denver, Colo., Oct. 8.—Eight men are under arrest here and at Littleton following a raid at midnight last night by federal prohibition agents on a ranch three miles south of Englewood, suburb. Officers said the distillery was one of the largest uncovered in Colorado.

The officers seized three 50-gallon copper stills and more than 3,750 gallons of corn and sugar mash. No other single raid in Colorado since prohibition went into effect has ever netted more than 1,500 gallons of mash, according to the officers.

George Rollins, whom federal agents say owned the ranch, was charged with operation of the plant.

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for colds, croup and whooping cough for almost half a century and has constantly grown in favor and popularity as its good qualities became better known. It is the standard and main reliance for these diseases in thousands of homes. The fact that it can always be depended upon and is safe and pleasant to take are greatly in its favor when it is wanted for children.

WHAT A LOCAL MAN HAS TO SAY ABOUT GODOWSKY

1001 East Central Avenue, Albuquerque, N. M., October 4, 1921.

Dear Mrs. Wilson:

So many people I have spoken to about the forthcoming concert have no idea of Godowsky's real position and standing in the music world. They think of him as "another of these pianists." I am taking the liberty, therefore, of sending you comments from Huneker's Steeplechase which it might be well to use in advertisements of the concert.

De Fachmann, one of the greatest pianists of all time, said: "Wait till you hear Leopold Godowsky play. We are all woodchoppers, compared with him!"

James Gibbons Huneker, America's greatest music critic, said: "A pianist who can win the hearts of the masses is a rare and precious thing. I think the people of Albuquerque should know who they are going to hear and what a wonderful thing it is that he can be heard. We'll probably never hear his equal during our lifetime, and I have the greatest admiration for yourself and the Fortnightly club for making it possible."

Sincerely yours,

KYLE S. CRICHTON.

LOCAL KIWANIS BASEBALL TEAM DEFEATS CLOVIS

Clovis Kiwanians, backing their ball team to take the measure of the Duke City Kiwanians, were forced to return home with the short end of a 12-to-4 score in a game staged at Barelas park yesterday.

While the baseball was a little below par at times, the players on both sides exhibited good sportsmanship and plenty of good nature.

Haynes, twirling for the Duke City crew, carmaged his opponents, standing them on their heads during most of the struggle.

HIGH PRAISE IS PAID GODOWSKY BY ABLE CRITIC

James Gibbons Huneker In Article in Century Magazine Gives Tribute to Artist Coming Here Monday.

Unusual praise for any musician is given to Leopold Godowsky, concert pianist, who is to appear in Albuquerque Monday evening, by James Gibbons Huneker, who ranked until his death as probably the best known of the music critics on the American continent, in an article which was printed by Century magazine, Mr. Huneker made the following comments with reference to Mr. Godowsky: "The single performance in March of Leopold Godowsky, with the New York Symphony orchestra, bordered on the uncanny; perfection was well-nigh achieved and economic standards of beauty maintained. Godowsky is on a pedestal apart; he is the super-pianist. Nevertheless, such an attribution entails well-defined limitations; to recognize these limitations gives us the clue. Godowsky is not a keyboard-thunderer. Godowsky never makes concessions to lovers of the sensational. Godowsky never offers bribes—the bribes of sentimentalism, particularly conventional Chopinesque sentiment. He avoids the avowed rubato, the hectic passion, and the usual "poetry" so much in vogue. He presents us with an objective picture of the classic Chopin.

There are critics and concert-goers who demand more Godowsky and less Chopin in a word, subjective interpretation, because the personal, the "human interest" is an element more seductive to the uncritical than an interpretation in which tonal balance is quietly interwoven with clarity in phrasing, which phrasing is related to the page, the page to the movement, the various movements to the synthetic whole. Intellect and temperament are in subtle accord. To drag in technical considerations would be an impertinence. It is there, that supreme Godowsky technique was displayed in high relief for those who had the leisure to analyze the silvery flow, as if from a Pleyelan spring, of the virtuoso's eloquence. The first allegro of Chopin's F Minor Concerto was shaped to suit its architectonic. No melodramatic emphasis, no morbid lingering on preferred phrases; it was the early Chopin we listened to the young lover, but also the shy, delicate poet.

TO RECRUIT WORKERS.—Riga, Oct. 8.—The Russian commissariat of labor has sent agents abroad to recruit foreign workmen for Russia, according to a radio message from Moscow today. The agents are going principally to America, the message said.

Dyspepsia is Man's Nemesis

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Have Turned Many a Grouch Into a Regular Good Fellow Again—Try Them

Indigestion makes people feel homeless, despairing, dependent and blue all over. It is only temporary.

You Just Know You're All Right After a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet.

porry, 'tis true, but while it lasts it's awful. Wise people keep a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets handy to prevent those attacks or relieve them when they come. And such people eat what the likes—pie, cheese, sausage, griddle cakes, pork and beans and other such supposedly indigestibles—without suffering from the acid, sour, bloating, gassy stomach due to dyspepsia. These tablets give the alkaline effect to thus sweeten the stomach and make it comfortable. Try them if you are subject to indigestion. You will find them on sale at all drug stores at 60 cents a box.

This realization should lead you to believe that an "extras" made of our bread are ideal.

DEMAND IS FAIR FOR STEEL; PIG IRON IN DEMAND

Copper Has Shown Improvement; A Better Business Has Developed for Wire and Other Products.

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Oct. 8.—There has been a fair demand for steel, mainly for sheets, which has enabled mills to increase operations and they are now running from 70 to 80 per cent of capacity, but on other sorts are working only about 40 per cent of capacity. There has been a fair inquiry for black sheets from the far east. Demand for wire products and tin plates has lessened.

The feature in pig iron was the closing of a big order to a New England heating concern. Consumers are fairly well covered for the moment but the trade is hoping for improvement in the near future. The output of pig iron in September was about 945,529 tons, against 954,192 in August and as more blast furnaces have opened, a greater output is expected in October.

Copper has shown improvement during the week. A better demand has developed for wire and other products and it is estimated that so far this month sales for export and home consumption have aggregated fully 25,000,000 pounds. Estimates of September sales are heard ranging from eighty-five to one hundred million pounds and it is believed that production of blister in the United States during September did not exceed 30,000,000, while imports were about 25,000,000. This strengthening of the statistical position has been reflected in the attitude of sellers, and it is reported that the association has advanced its price for electrolytic to 13 cents a pound.

Lead has been less active but firm, particularly as to future deliveries. Tin showed an improvement of about half a cent in value to an advance in sterling and more interest on the part of consumers. Zinc has been strong and advancing on continued good consuming demand.

BIG RECEPTION AT COUNTRY CLUB YESTERDAY; CARD CLUBS GALORE; GODOVSKY CONCERT MONDAY IS EVENT OF PRESENT WEEK IN SOCIETY

The era of the big reception when everybody does her Saturday afternoon best and greets everybody else that she knows for an exciting hour or two, is upon us. That of Mrs. Hope and her daughters at the Country club yesterday and the one which will be given by Mrs. Huning and Mrs. Macpherson on next Friday at Huning Castle, gives at least one affair to make each week memorable in society.

The other formal affairs of the past week were the last of the university sorority parties. Today is "big day," when invitations will be distributed to join the several groups. Receptions will be held at each of the sorority houses on the hill this afternoon for the new pledges. Now that this hectic rushing season is over there will be a temporary social lull on the campus during which study will resume its normal place in college life.

The club season is booming. Every organization in the city is going at full tilt, taking in new members, carrying out its winter program and being a useful social unit generally. Brides are becoming more popular than ever since the women have declared themselves in favor of the less serious kind to which animated conversation is a prerequisite.

MRS. HOPE AND DAUGHTERS RECEPTION.

The Country club was the scene of the first really big reception of the winter season yesterday afternoon when Mrs. W. G. Hope and her daughters, Mrs. Leslie and Mrs. Arthur Sisk were at home to nearly 250 friends. All afternoon automobiles threaded their way back and forth between the club and town bearing the guests to the affair.

There was a very representative crowd present at the party, including old-time friends of Mrs. Hope who have been residents of the city for a number of years, young society matrons, friends of her daughters, and many girl friends of the younger social set. The club rooms were beautifully decorated with daisies. The hostesses were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Jack Peterson of Los Angeles, a house guest and former school chum of Mrs. Sisk's; Mrs. E. D. Sisk, Mrs. Hugh A. Cooper and Mrs. Ernest Spitz.

In the dining room the tea table was presided over by Mrs. P. G. Cornish, Sr., Mrs. R. W. D. Bryan, Mrs. J. F. Luby and Mrs. A. B. Those who assisted in serving were Mrs. Frank A. Hubbard, Jr., Mrs. Martin Blumenthal, Mrs. Leopold Meyer, Mrs. Ralph Kelsner, Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. Catherine McMillen, Mrs. Evangeline Perry and Miss Margaret McCanna.

MONDAY'S CONCERT TO BE A HIT.

Music-lovers have awaited with considerable interest the announcement of the program which Leopold Godowsky, master pianist, will give at the high school auditorium tomorrow night under the auspices of the Fortnightly Music club. The concert will begin at 8:30 o'clock. The program follows:

I. (a) Thirty-two Variations, C-Minor (Beethoven). (b) Pastorale (Angeli). (c) Rameau's Rameau-Godowsky. (d) Rondeau en Muzette (Rameau-Godowsky). (e) Digue (Lully-Godowsky)—from "Renaissance."

II. (a) Sonata, Op. 5, 3-Flat Minor; Grave—Doppio Movimento; Scherzo; Marche Funebre; Finale: Presto. (b) Berceuse. (c) Posthumous Waltz in D-Flat (concert arrangement by Leopold Godowsky). (d) Nocturne in F-Sharp major. (e) Scherzo, B-Flat minor (Chopin).

III. (a) My Jests; (b) Maiden's wish, Polish songs (Chopin-Liszt). (c) March Wind (MacDowell). (d) Serenade, D-Minor (Rubinstein), from "Miniatures." (e) Study, A-Major (Poldini). (f) Old Vienna; (g) Valseau Paysage; (h) Terpsichorean Vindobona (Godowsky). (i) Dance of the Gnomes; (j) Tarentelle ("Venise e Napoli") (Liszt).

PHI MU RUSH DANCE AT THE TAMARISK INN.

In the glow of candle light and fire light on the rose and white decorations of the sorority, the Phi Mu dance at Tamarisk Inn last night was one of the prettiest and most distinctive affairs of the season. The occasion was the tenth annual rush party of the university chapter.

Dancing began at eight, or as soon after as all of the party and the orchestra, catered the moonlight drive down to the Inn, which is about six miles below the city. Programs of several leaflets with the Greek letters in gold on the cover announced twelve dances and four extras, all of which were feature dances.

The first extra was a rose candle-light dance to the Phi Mu waltz song, which was sung by the girls of the sorority. During the second extra rose and white crepe paper-hats of various patterns trimmed with the Greek letters were danced, and during the third cotillon favors pulled from a hanging basket were appropriated to raise a fearful but joyous noise. The fourth extra was "Honey, Sweet Honey."

The new big dancing room at the Inn with its lighted fireplace, French windows and great mirrors was simply decorated with rose candles and a few rose dahlias. Rose-colored balloons and the basket with the favors hung from the ceiling. A two-course supper was served at the conclusion of the dancing program. Dr. and Mrs. LeRoy S. Peters and Miss Edna Mosher were chaperones.

The guests of honor at the affair were Miss Margaret Spargo, Miss Olive Harden, Miss Newell Dixon, Miss Margaret Gaudin, Miss Norma Williams, Miss Dorothy Cameron, Miss Dorothy Wagner, Miss Edna Miller, Miss Geraldine Tully, Miss Elizabeth Shepherd, Miss Constance Walter, Miss Frances Andrews, Miss Mary Wilson, Miss Nellie Hess, Miss Margaret Phillips and Miss Velma Smith.

WOMAN'S CLUB MILK FUND PRAISED BY NURSE.

Free milk, contributed by the Child Welfare department of the Woman's club, has done much to save the lives of undernourished babies in the city and county, according to a report made at the business meeting of the Woman's club on Friday afternoon by Miss Gladys Harris of the Red Cross nursing service. Miss Harris told of many pathetic cases that had come under her care and attention.

She told of babies who had never had a bath in their lives, the mothers fearful they might take cold; of a child of four who had never cut any teeth, due to malnutrition, and of a family who could not afford screens to their house, who made a pair of lace curtains serve by tacking them securely to the window frame.

In most cases the people helped were very appreciative, especially when their babies would begin to show increase in weight. One man gave $10 to help in buying milk for other children after the advice and instruction in the use of his own child had accomplished so much. Miss Harris made a plea for more community interest in the work.

The social hour with refreshments served by the following members of the social committee: Mesdames M. D. Schumaker, Homer Ward and D. M. Stevens, followed the talk and later a board meeting was held, before adjournment.

CARDS TO AN AFTERNOON RECEPTION ARE OUT.

Invitations are being issued today to a big "at home" which will be given on Friday afternoon at Huning Castle by Mrs. Arno Huning and Mrs. D. A. Macpherson. A large number of friends are being invited to the affair, which promises to be one of the most attractive of the season. Huning Castle being the most delightful of places for any sort of entertainment.

CLUBS.

The Club Otrá Vez was entertained on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. T. G. Winfrey, 802 West Silver avenue. The program consisted of the recitation in Spanish of legends about various New Mexico towns. J. C. Espinosa acted as critic. The evening was a success and the program was well received by the club members for their excellent use of Spanish. A few Spanish musical numbers and refreshments completed the evening's entertainment.

A new bridge club was organized on Tuesday of last week at the home of Mrs. T. G. Winfrey, 802 West Silver avenue. In a search for a name that should be plain American it was decided to call it the Conversation and Bridge club, "C. and B." club. If it is desired to shorten it, note that conversation is placed before the game, thus proclaiming this group of women as particularly courageous in defying the tradition that conversation and bridge are incompatible. They maintain that bridge with them is a diversion rather than an obsession. From the personnel of its membership there is every chance that the conversation score will be high regardless of the score made in the game. Meetings will be held twice a month on Tuesday, Mrs. G. K. Angle being the next hostess. The following are members: Mesdames T. G. Winfrey, T. J. Mabry, Forrest Barner, G. K. Angle, C. Cameron, Meacham, C. M. Barber, W. M. Holm, S. B. Jones will later come into the club when two of the present members will no longer be in town.

The party was very informal and quite enjoyable. About 25 girls, accompanied by Mr. Dulce Knox and Mrs. W. A. Gekler, recreation secretary, attended the picnic.

The first meeting of the Tuesday Literary club this season was held at the home of Mrs. L. G. Rice on Tuesday afternoon. The program for the afternoon included the president's address by Mrs. Raymond Stamm and vacation reminiscences by the various members who had been away during the summer recess. An excellent paper on "Oral Interpretation of Literature," was given by Mrs. A. R. Stroup. The club voted to send their delegate to the State Federation of Women's clubs meeting in Roswell, this month. The next meeting will be held October 18.

The Fortnightly Music club concert at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening was much enjoyed by the good sized audience present. The program was pleasing, a list of the numbers being given in alphabetical finish that was a credit to the club. The program included pipe organ numbers by H. G. Bunjes, violin selections by Mrs. John D. Clark, vocal numbers by Miss Grace Storts and a reading by Miss Lois Stearns with accompaniment on the piano by Mrs. D. W. Faw. Mrs. L. B. Thompson played a piano solo as well as several accompaniments. The concert, which was the first of the season, was opened by Mrs. John W. Wilson, new president of the club, who spoke of the organization's program for the winter.

The Business and Professional Women's club will hold its regular dinner at the Y. M. C. A. on Monday evening at 6:15 o'clock. The regular meeting day has been changed from Tuesday. Miss Catherine Sexauer, director of the federal vocational training school, will give the vocational talk, telling of the work which the government is doing for the disabled service men. Music will be furnished by Dana Todd, who will play several violin numbers, accompanied by Miss Irene Westhausen. The attendance price will be given by Mrs. L. H. Chamberlin.

MISS DOROTHY FLEISCH IS VISITING HERE.

Miss Fleisch is a member by many here since the occasion of previous visits. She is an exceptionally attractive young woman with a considerable talent for music. Her singing has been greatly enjoyed by a number of Albuquerque friends on several informal occasions since her arrival here. A number of social affairs are expected to center about Miss Fleisch, one of the first to be a dancing party which will take place shortly at Castle Huning.

DANCES.

Miss Pansy Hicks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hicks, entertained some of the high school set at a jolly dancing party at her home at 515 West Roma avenue on Friday evening. Her guests were Miss Frances Blake, Miss Dorothy Wiesie, Miss Margaret Cook, Miss Eloise Borten, Miss Marabelle Mills, Miss Dorothy Bowman, Miss Lillian Behrman, Frederick Blake, Rudolf Sicker, Hugh Schulte, King London, Harold Johnson, Charles O'Kelly, Tom Sadler, Scott Knight, Ralph Payton, Ike Farmer and John Kingear.

Another of the "high school variety bunch" dances was held at the Woman's club building last night. A large crowd was present for the very enjoyable evening.

ALPHA DELTA PI GIVES DINNER AND DANCE.

A daintily served Japanese supper for their girl guests and an enjoyable dance at the Woman's club, to which men friends were also invited, comprised the "rush party" which the Alpha Delta Pi girls gave on Friday night.

The first part of the party, if you'll pardon the pun, was given at the chapter house at 111 South Columbia avenue at 6 o'clock. The house was attractively decorated like a Japanese bower for the occasion. About eight o'clock the escorts began arriving to take the girls to the Woman's club, where the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. The club building was also elaborately decorated. A two-course luncheon was served at the close of the evening. The hosts were Mrs. Thomas Hughes, patrons of the sorority, acted as chaperones.

U. S. WOMAN IS PRESIDING OVER GERMAN LEGATION

Baroness Wilhelm von Schoen.

An American woman, formerly Miss Catherine Birney, Washington society favorite, before her marriage, is presiding over the German legation at Warsaw. She is the Baroness von Schoen. The baron is the new minister plenipotentiary of the German government to Poland.

Mrs. George Simms, has gone to Springfield, Ariz., to visit her sister, Mrs. Paul Becker. She took her youngest daughter, Anne, with her.

Adjutant General Henry Rolf Brown came home from Santa Fe yesterday. He brought with him Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Giddings of Santa Fe, who are week-end guests at the Brown home.

Mrs. William Bucher of Hillsboro, N. M., and El Paso, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. S. Hopewell, during the week on her return from a trip to New York City.

The sleeve that is divided lengthwise into contrasting colors maintains its place, and the inner section is often cut in one with the underarm portion of the frock, and made in a sheer material. Sheer sleeves are quite the rule, and there are very interesting colors introduced in the sleeves of gowns that are otherwise black.

HARDINGS SELECT DATES OF WHITE HOUSE FUNCTIONS

(BY BETTY BAXTER.)

Washington, Oct. 8.—The winter's campaign is being mapped out by Washington society "generals" now that Mrs. Warren G. Harding has made known the dates for entertainments at the White House during the winter. Mrs. Harding and her social secretary, Miss Laura Harlan, realizing how important it is to prospective hostesses to know the social program of the White House as early as possible, very thoughtfully got together and worked hard over the matter and made the announcements earlier than usual. No entertaining in honor of the delegates to the armament conference was included on the calendar but it is safe to predict that at least one reception will be given by President and Mrs. Harding especially in their honor and perhaps a dinner or two, also. It is also probable that a series of musicales and informal tea parties will be given at the White House though they are not on the calendar either.

Only the dates of the state functions were announced and perhaps the one of the widest interest is the New Year's reception when anyone without an invitation and regardless of class, can go to the executive mansion and shake the president and the first lady of the land by the hand and rub elbows with the highest. President Wilson abolished the time-honored custom of holding open house on New Year's day, so the news of its revival is received with great gladness. I suppose that the reception will be patterned after those of the past when the cabinet members, the diplomatic corps, the members of the supreme court and other high officials head the line and are received first, the other guests coming in the order of their arrival. "First come, first served" though they usually have to stand in line for hours before reaching their hosts. And the line seems endless and generally lasts through the greater part of the day.

Those receptions are certainly an awful physical strain on the president and his wife, but they are perhaps the most interesting and colorful occasions of each year. The brilliant uniforms of the diplomats and of the army and naval officers, the red coats of the marine band, which always furnishes the music for these functions, and the gowns of the women and the variety of types of humanity gathered together there all tend to make it a never-to-be-forgotten scene. As New Year's comes on a Sunday this year, the reception will be given on Monday, January 2.

Mrs. Harding has already begun to receive callers by appointment every afternoon when not engaged otherwise, and she received several days last week a number of ladies of the diplomatic, official and residential circles. She began that pleasant custom almost immediately after going to the White House and continued up to the warm weather. President and Mrs. Harding have also resumed their nice habit of inviting people informally and at the last minute to have luncheon with them, usually people who are calling there for one reason or another about luncheon time.

The British ambassador and Lady Giddens are planning an elaborate party for entertaining this winter; the embassy will figure prominently in the season's entertainments.

Which reminds me that the Woodrow Wilsons are not planning to entertain at all this winter; they are not expected to take any part in society at all.

To free your skin from blemishes

—the right way

ASK a skin specialist why it is that your skin is continually breaking out with disfiguring little blemishes. He will almost certainly tell you that this condition comes from an outside infection.

Authorities on the skin now say that skin blemishes are generally caused by bacteria and parasites which are carried into the pores from outside, through dust and soot in the air. By the following simple treatment, you can gradually but thoroughly free your skin from blemishes:

EACH night just before retiring, wash your face with Woodbury's Facial Soap and warm water, finishing with a dash of cold water, and dry carefully.

Now dip the tips of your fingers in warm water and rub them on the cake of Woodbury's until they are covered with a heavy, creamlike lather.

Cover each blemish with a thick coat of this and leave it on for ten minutes.

Rinse your face thoroughly, first with clear hot water, then with cold.

Supplement this treatment with the regular use of Woodbury's Facial Soap in your daily toilet, to keep the new skin which is constantly forming free from blemishes.

Get a cake of Woodbury's today, at any drug store or toilet goods counter. A 25-cent cake will last for a month or six weeks of this treatment and for general cleansing use. The Andrew Jergens Co., Cincinnati, New York and Perth, Ontario.

Did you ever hear us say "Schilling's is the best coffee?"

No you didn't.

And you never heard us say it isn't.

Here's what we say:

There are several good coffees packed in vacuum-sealed tins, which is the only way to bring the full fragrance and flavor and cheer to your breakfast cup.

Two or three of these coffees are very fine, and Schilling's is one of those.

So why not try these coffees one after another and stick to the one you like best?

You get your money back if you don't like Schilling's.

ARTESIA

The Junior B. Y. P. U. of the First Baptist church enjoyed a hayride and a bonfire picnic on last Friday evening. About 25 members of the organization, chaperoned by Mesdames Cole and James, drove to the Cobble farm, east of town. The merry group enjoyed a bountiful supper of fried chicken, pies and almost everything good on a picnic of this type.

R. A. Eaton, "Uncle Dick," a prominent stockman of this place, was injured a few days ago when his horse fell on him. No serious results are expected. Mr. Eaton was bruised considerably, but is able to get around on crutches.

Mrs. E. E. Solomon left on Saturday night for Fayetteville, Tenn., where she was called by wire announcing the death of her mother, Mrs. M. W. Woodard.

Dr. J. W. Bruner, state secretary of the New Mexico Baptist convention of Albuquerque, spoke to a large audience at the First Baptist church on Sunday evening of last week. Dr. Bruner is making a tour of the state, visiting the Baptist churches before the first of November. A number of Artesia people are contemplating attending the state convention at Albuquerque in November.

Misses Kemp and Jeanne McCaleb, C. E. Newhouse and Coach F. C. Adams, instructors in the high school, spoke to the student body on Monday morning concerning the football game at Roswell on last Saturday. After the teachers had spoken, Clint Cole and Ralph Davis, members of the team, were called on for a few remarks. The student body is very enthusiastic over the prospects for a winning football eleven.

One hundred persons attended the American Legion dance on last Saturday night at the Legion hall. Visitors from the neighboring towns attended in large numbers. The Artesia five-piece orchestra furnished music for the occasion. The large hall, with three thousand feet of floor space, is an ideal dancing floor. John Runyan and Bun Muncy were the managers for this affair.

S. C. Albright, who was injured by a falling gate post on Tuesday afternoon, is very much improved. Mr. Albright was driving a team to a heavily loaded wagon when in some manner the team caused the wagon to strike the tail gate post in such a way that it fell on the driver. A long gash was cut across the top of his head. He was brought to Artesia, where medical assistance was rendered.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church enjoyed a delightful lawn party on last Friday evening on the church lawn. About 50 or 60 young people were present. Lemonade, wafers and an almost unlimited supply of watermelons were at the disposal of the merry crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Sipple, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sipple, Miss Hazel Sipple and Mr. Lee Myers have returned to Artesia after spending the summer months in Colorado.

Carl Manda, who has been playing baseball with the Calgary, Canada, team in the Western Canada league, has returned to his home in Artesia. The Calgary team won the pennant in the league. Manda played third base for the club.

Manley Smith left on last Sunday for Denver, Colo. He is to wed Miss Hazel Cleveland of that city. Miss Cleveland, a former Artesia girl, is well known among Artesia people.

Several auto loads of Artesia young people motored to Carlsbad last Friday evening, where they attended the benefit ball at that place. The Artesia orchestra furnished the music.

A large number of delegates to the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah grand lodges from Artesia attended the sessions at Tucuman during the week. Among those attending were C. Bert Smith, grand secretary; Ernest Hannah, Edward Stone, Jack Hastie, T. E. Henshaw and Joe Clayton. The Rebekahs who attended the grand lodge were Mrs. Lewis Story, Mrs. Ed Wingfield, Mrs. Clara Caraway and Mrs. C. Bert Smith, past grand of the state grand lodge.

Mrs. F. A. Manda has returned from a visit to her son, Harry, at Gallup, N. M.

VAUGHN

Fine autumn weather and the Vaughns are taking advantage of it to get in snug quarters before real winter puts in an appearance.

Ray Locke has about finished an up-to-date dugout on his claim and the family will soon remove there for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Elrod of Clovis visited their son, J. A. Elrod, and wife in East ward over Sunday of last week.

A meeting of the citizens was held in the Electric theater on Monday evening and a live chamber of commerce was organized.

Rev. Cochran, presiding elder of the M. E. church of this district, was in town on Friday last. He left on No. 21 in company with Rev. J. J. Richards for Albuquerque. Both later went to Artesia to attend the annual conference of the Methodist church.

The local lodge of the order of Odd Fellows was busy last week showing hospitality to the delegates who were en route to the convention of the grand lodge at Tucuman. A large delegation from our city joined the last party of visiting delegates and motored with them to the place of assembling.

Judge D. D. Clark is making a trip by auto to Reserve, N. M., where he has a son-in-law on a large ranch whom he will visit.

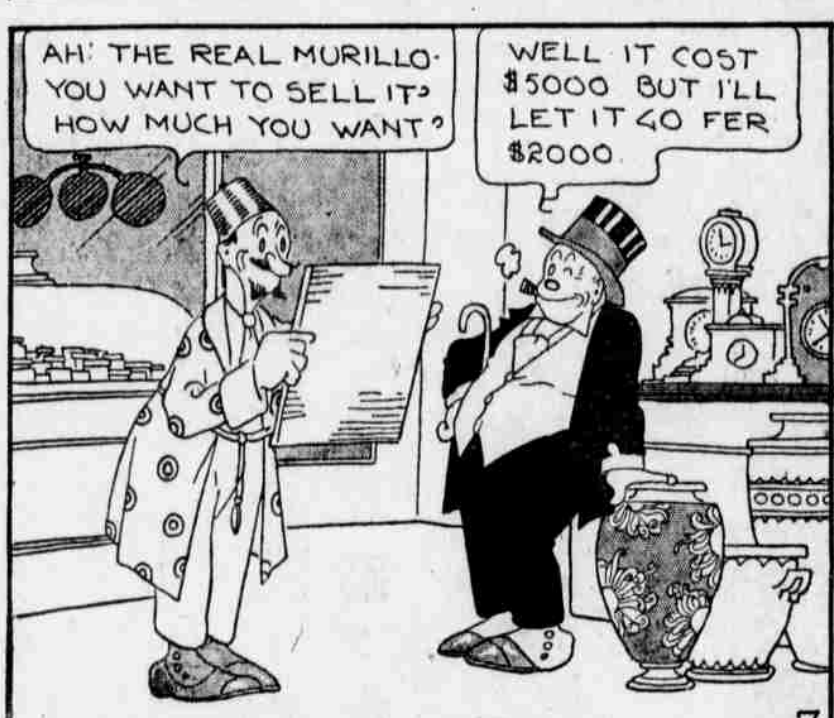

Miss May Weaver has gone to Wilburn, Tex., where she will teach in the public schools this year.

Dr. M. L. McLelland left Wednesday morning by auto for a two-weeks' absence in El Paso.

A boy gladdened the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sanchez in West ward on Saturday last.

How Better Than Pills?
The question has been asked, in what way are Chamberlain's Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is, they are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then, they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.
