NATION DISCLOSED.

The cowardly attempt of an assassin to murder President McKinley has shown the people of the whole country. But since the assassination of President Garfield had the people been as deeply stirred. The sympathy for the president is almost universal. The miserable being who perpetrated the crime unfortunately was not killed on the spot. No punishment can be meted out to him adequate to his cowardly deed.

The dispatches give hope that the president will recover. The wishes and prayers of a great nation are centered about the life of the efficient executive and all that can be done will be brought to bear to preserve his life.

Self-government is receiving a severe test in the United States.

Planned to Kill the President.

In a Dense Crowd, the Anarchist Fired to Kill.

After Greeting the President, He Fired Two Shots.

The Associated Press account of the dauntless deed to assassinate President McKinley is as follows:

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 6.—It was a few moments after a crowd of thousands were gathered in the great Temple of Music at the Pan-Am exhibit grounds that the cowardly assassin fired his shot.

The crowd was standing in the midst of a dense throng of people, and the assassin fired his shot.

FAIR PARAGRAPHS.

The Approaching Fair Being Well

Advertised by Santa Fe and Fair Officials.

BRIEF NOTES ABOUT ATTRACTIONS.

It is now a foregone conclusion, which was reached in conference yesterday afternoon, that there will be some interesting midway attractions and the secretary is using the wires to capture some of the very best attractions.

The Citizen has not been informed officially when the privileges of the fair will be put on sale, but plenty of time will be given to the public to get into the fair.

There will be some first-class privileges and concessions to be offered.

The newspapers of the territory, especially the Santa Fe, are to be commended for publishing the announcement of Secretary McKenna of the Territorial Fair association, regarding the advertising campaign.

What advertisements Albuquerque advertises the whole territory, and this kind of a notice is being well observed this year for the territorial exchanges.

At a recent meeting of the executive committee it was voted to give $50 for the best decorated float in the parade.

For the last few years these parades have been interesting features of fair week, and it is to be hoped that the fair will be a success.

The Santa Fe railway, through the Santa Fe Railroad company, has been advertising the fair and railroads to and from the fair.

The Chicago players have a novel way of getting good work out of their players. The night before the game takes place one of the bunch rushes to the hotel, some out of breath and makes a bee line for the bathroom. The next morning, when they go to work, they find the bathroom is full of water. The players are then told to go to work and make a good game. The players are then told to go to work and make a good game.

"Stars" met W. E. Martin's Santa Fe "Cyclones" and went down in a Waterloo fight in the arena at 25 to 1. The "Cyclones" had strengthened almost every position in the nine and when the disappointed "Stars" from Trinidad placed themselves for play on the diamond they ran up against a strong team to the extent that they were met almost professional team. To make a long story short, the "Cyclones" were outclassed at every stage of the game with Martin's excellent players taking the visitors completely at their mercy.

In a dispatch to Manager McGuffey of the Browns, W. E. Martin of the Santa Fe "Cyclones" asks for a game with the Browns. The visitors to receive 25 per cent of the gate receipts. This proposition will be considered at a meeting of the Browns, which will be held tonight.

"I had a running sore on my leg for seven years," writes Mr. James Forster, "and spent hundreds of dollars in trying to get it healed. Two boxes of Chamberlain's Salve entirely cured it. I am a subscriber to your paper."

Henry Braydon, Harris, North Carolina, says: "I took Chamberlain's Salve for a sore on my leg for seven years, and it was entirely cured. I am a subscriber to your paper."

Shiners Will Celebrate.
