NUMBER 43

CELEBRATION IS CALLED OFF

County Health Board Orders Service Men to Not Hold Affair As Precaution Against Possible Outbreak of Influenza.

The celebration planned by the American Legion is off the boards. It died, so to speak, of the flu. That is, the health authorities of the county believe that the celebration and all other affairs which will bring in outside crowds should be given up.

This decision was arrived at Monday night by the health board after consultation with many people.

In the morning an important meeting was held in the office of the County Health Officer, Dr. L. H. Pate. It was attended by practically the entire membership of the Board of Health for Eddy county and by a number of members of the American Legion.

The meeting was called for the purpose of discussing the advisability of holding or of dropping the big celebration which has been planned by the American Legion, Bryan Mudgett Post, in view of the possibility of a devastating influenza epidemic.

The matter was discussed from all angles, and in the early session, no action was taken, other than to put before the American Legion the matter, as it appeared to the Board of Health. The Board of Health is a new organization. It came into being through the enforcement of a new health law, which was passed by the recent legislature.

The Eddy County Board was organized last week, and it immediately took into consideration the matter of the celebration, and the board consulted with several citizens regarding it last Saturday. Monday the same question was resumed, although at this meeting the board was joined by the Legion.

Dr. Pate, Monday, discussed the recent developments. It appeared that three cases had developed at Artesia, and one death had been reported at El Paso. Eight cases were said to exist at Fort Sumner, and it was also said to have appeared at Hagerman.

The health officer stated that the law was strict in that it would require a five days quarantine of all persons known to have been exposed, and strict quarantine of all patients ill of the disease. It appeared that greater danger was known to exist when large bodies of people were gathered together, such as would occur in a well-advertised celebration such as the American Legion plans, than would be present in a community affair, like a church, a school or a picture show.

As proof of how this danger is thought to exist, Dr. Pate read extracts of a letter from one of the state health authorities, stating that should a traveling amusement company play in Carlsbad during the celebration, it would be advisable to have each member examined daily and should a symptom of flu exist, to quarantine the entire company until all known danger had passed.

Various opinions were given by several speakers. Dr. Pate said, "Personally, I do not believe that we will have a recurrence of the flu epidemic, as we knew it last year, although we will surely have the usual number of respiratory cases from now until the early part of next year."

F. G. Tracy said, "The flu has broken out in Los Angeles, although on my trip home overland I heard little or nothing of it, until my arrival in Carlsbad."

M. C. Stewart said, "We want the members of the American Legion to know that it is not a personal feeling, for there is not a man on the committee but what wants the celebration to be pulled off, but we are acting for the good of the community."

W. F. McIlvain said, "The doctors of Texas have been asked to volunteer their services, and be listed, should an epidemic occur."

Johnny Hewitt, one of the committee sent to El Paso to secure the co-operation of the military authorities, and who, by the way, did secure a splendid endorsement from the general officer in command, said, "Gen. Howze did not mention the possibility of flu to us, when he told us that he would give us a band and an aeroplane flight, if possible."

Tom McLanathan said, "The men of the American Legion would be the first to abandon the celebration, should the flu threaten, but we want to know that there is a possibility of the danger, rather than a bare probability."

Frank Moritz said, "We would like to have the Board of Health secure information from Albuquerque regarding the celebration to be pulled off there on the sixteenth of this month, before it takes action on our celebration." Mr. Moritz also explained the action of the authorities at Camp Travis, who sent the men out on outdoor exercises after the flu had developed, and which resulted in a decrease of the flu. Mr. Moritz also said, "With the exception of the dances, we have planned our celebration as an outdoor affair, which, we believe, eliminates the danger from crowding people in buildings."

Charley Rarey said, "The Legion is willing to go home, if the authorities think it best."

Mayor Grantham did not express an opinion, as he was forced to leave the meeting early to attend court.

Major Rujac, Post Commander of the Legion, also spoke briefly, as his presence was required in court. Major Rujac said, "We all know that in the army, that in matters of health, the word of the doctor goes. I think it is a question for the medical authorities of the county and state to decide. The Legion will abide by the decision of the board."

The Board of Health was invited to appear before the next meeting of the Legion, and there discuss the question. It also developed that many members of the Legion had had extensive experience in caring for influenza patients in the camps, and it was thought a wise plan to secure the aid of these men so that, should an epidemic occur, all who had knowledge of nursing should be available to the community.

Frank Moritz outlined plans of the celebration, and as to what had already been accomplished. Mr. Moritz said, "We have secured a thousand dollars in contributions. We have been promised twenty beavers. The wild west showmen have put up a thousand dollars in prizes in their outfit. We have been promised all possible help from Fort Bliss by Gen. Howze, including a band, and a flight of airplanes, with a recruiting outfit and other help in the celebration."

At the conclusion of the meeting, one of the board of health committee said, "We appreciate your position as members of the Legion, and we want you to appreciate ours as members of the Board of Health."

NOTICE OF THE SESSION OF

THE COUNTY HEALTH COM-

MITTEE OF EDDY COUNTY

IN SESSION OCTOBER 10th

AND 6th, 1919.

The Public Health Committee, after considering and calling before them many of the business men and citizens of Carlsbad and members of the American Legion and doctors of the city and getting authentic reports that there were fifteen cases of influenza in Hagerman, some of which are very severe; three cases in Artesia, and four in Carlsbad, and on the advice of the State Department of Health to prohibit any public gatherings when people were expected to come in from a territory where flu is on the increase, the following motion was moved and seconded: "That we proceed to vote on the matter of permitting the American Legion to hold the Victory Celebration as contemplated October 15th and 16th, and the matter of any other public gatherings of a similar nature." The committee voting unanimously to discontinue any such gatherings for the time being, therefore, the American Legion is hereby instructed to postpone this picnic or celebration and that any other similar gathering of a large number of people from unknown communities be prohibited until such time as there seems to be no danger of spreading the epidemic of influenza.

The committee desires to express their appreciation of the loyal manner in which the Legion and citizens cooperate in preserving the public health and each and every member of the committee regrets the necessity of taking such action as stated above, but under the existing circumstances, there seems but one course to pursue.

PROCEEDINGS OF DISTRICT COURT

The regular October term of the District Court for Eddy County convened Monday, Nov. 10, at 10 o'clock, Hon. Sam A. Bratton presiding. The greater part of the morning of the first day was consumed in empanelling the grand jury. In his charge to the grand jury, Judge Bratton laid special stress on the duty of the grand jury to investigate thoroughly any violations of the prohibition law and the law against carrying concealed weapons. He stated that New Mexico is no longer a part of the "Wild West," and that the time has passed when there is any necessity or excuse for men going about armed with their forty-fives, in open violation of our laws, that the custom of carrying concealed weapons is the source of many killings and shooting scrapes that otherwise would never happen. In line with the nation-wide movement having for its object the reduction of the high cost of living, Judge Bratton also instructed the grand jury that we have in this state against monopolies and trusts or combinations in restraint of trade. He stated that contracts or combinations that shall operate to control or fix the price of merchandise or other articles of commerce are illegal, and that if the statutes along this line have been violated, indictments should be found.

Myron Clark was appointed foreman of the grand jury, and R. B. Armstrong and D. W. Lincoln were sworn in as bailiffs.

After the grand jury retired to take up their deliberations, the civil and criminal dockets were called and cases set for trial. There were only four civil cases in which a demand was made for a jury. These will be tried after the criminal docket is disposed of. The petit jury did not report until Tuesday morning, and the panels were not completely filled until Wednesday morning. It is thought that the petit jury will be held over the greater part of next week.

In the case of State vs. Jack Beach, charged with larceny of neat cattle, the jury Wednesday night returned a verdict of guilty. His punishment, which may be confinement from one to ten years in the State penitentiary, will be fixed by the court. Thursday was consumed in the trial of the case of State vs. Cecil Bearup, charged with assault with intent to commit murder, in which case the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, after having been out only a few minutes.

The grand jury made its final report Wednesday afternoon about six o'clock, after having found twelve indictments. It report was as follows:

Report of Grand Jury. To the Honorable Sam A. Bratton, Judge of the Fifth Judicial District Court of the State of New Mexico, sitting within and for the County of Eddy:

We, the Grand Jurors, duly empaneled, sworn and charged at this the October, 1919, Term of the District Court for Eddy County, beg leave to report as follows: We have investigated all matters brought before us or coming to our knowledge; we have examined sixty-six witnesses during our session, and have returned into Court twelve True Bills and four No Bills.

Through the committee appointed by our Foreman, we have made an examination of the court house and

VALLEY FARMERS MUST HAVE HELP IN COTTON PATCHES.

The cotton farmers in the lower valley have been very much exercised about getting their cotton picked, pickers being very scarce this year and the crop very heavy. At a meeting held Tuesday, it was deemed necessary that Mexicans be brought in from Texas if the crop is to be saved. Roy Dickson, who is running the hardware store of Roberts-Deaerborne company, at Loving, was selected as the best man to look after the matter, he being familiar with the language and also with conditions in that part of the country from which they expect to get the laborers. Accordingly, his employers here were telephoned to and the matter placed before them. Realizing the need of the farmers, Messrs. Roberts and Deaerborne, at some inconvenience to themselves, were glad to assist them in their time of need by allowing Mr. Dickson to go to Texas and endeavor to secure the needed help. He left on Wednesday morning, George Roberts taking charge of the store while he is gone. The spirit of co-operation on the part of Messrs. Roberts and Deaerborne is certainly to be commended and will no doubt be greatly appreciated by the people in the lower valley. Mr. Dickson will probably be away a week or ten days.

Rev. C. Ross Payne, of Albuquerque, will preach at the First Baptist church, Sunday, Oct. 12, both morning and evening. All are invited to attend these services.

The various offices and report as follows:

We had the various offices of a good condition and the books and records neatly and well kept. The Court room was found neat, clean and in order.

We recommend that new suitable tables and chairs for the use of attorneys in the District Court room and new desk and chair for the Court be provided.

In the jail we find the prisoners well fed and kindly treated; we recommend that the old quilts now being used as bedding for the prisoners be discarded and blankets be provided as bedding; we also recommend that the hole in the ceiling of the jail be repaired.

We find there are numbers of children who have been left fatherless and motherless and without homes by ravages of the late epidemic of influenza and recommend, if within the bounds of the authority of this Court, that some means and way be provided for their education and sustenance.

We desire to thank the various officials, the Court, the District Attorney's office and the Sheriff's office for their kind and courteous treatment of us during our session. Thus having completed our labors, we respectfully ask the Court that we be discharged.

THE GRAND JURY.

62 AIRSHIPS IN 5000-MILE RACE

Propose to Fly Across United States From New York to San Francisco, California, in Longest Race in History.

Minneapolis, N. Y., Oct. 8.—Forty-seven airplanes piloted, with one exception, by American military aviators, started from here today to blaze an aerial trail 5,000 miles across the continent and return in the greatest speed, endurance and reliability contest in history, while from San Francisco 15 planes took the air for the east. Five more planes will leave here tomorrow.

At sundown Lieut. B. W. Maynard, a Baptist minister and winner of the recent trip contest between New York and Toronto, had flown 549 miles from Minneapolis and landed at Chicago, while several other westbound contestants were resting overnight at Binghamton, Rochester, Buffalo, Bryan and Cleveland, control stations along the way. Eight accidents in which three persons were killed and one injured had been reported tonight to the headquarters of the American Flying club here, which is co-operating with the army air service in conducting the contest.

The only foreign entrant in the race, who were British, were eliminated before they had crossed the state boundary.

Major Crissey and Observer Killed.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Oct. 8.—Maj. D. H. Crissey and Sergt. Virgil Thomas, observers of Mather field, Sacramento, Cal., were almost instantly killed late today when the De Havilland Four airplane in which they were riding dived into a small pond near the Buena Vista landing field near here.

The aviators were just completing the first lap of the International Airplane Derby and were the ninth of the east-bound entrants to reach this city, the first overnight stopping place.

As the high machine approached the field Major Crissey was seen to signal a greeting to his brother aviators who had preceded him. He started to circle the field preparatory to landing. As he was completing the circle Sergeant Thomas was seen to stand up in the observer's cockpit and he, too, waved to those on the field. With the engine shut off the machine had started to turn into the straightaway before descending when it suddenly turned and dived, nose down, 150 feet into the pond of mud and water.

Aviators and spectators rushed to the scene and helped to remove the aviators. Both were unconscious when taken from the pond and both were dead when they arrived at a hospital.

Baptist Minister Leads Flyers.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 8. Flying in the remarkable time of approximately two miles a minute, First Lieut. B. W. Maynard, Baptist minister and overseas aviator, today led the westbound transcontinental fliers much of the way from Minneapolis to Chicago and was the only one to reach here. It was the first New York-Chicago aerial journey made between sunrise and sunset.

Driving a De Havilland four machine with a passenger and a German police dog aboard, the lieutenant, who recently won the Toronto-New York race, covered the distance of 810 miles in approximately six hours and forty-five minutes of actual flying time, or about nine hours and twenty-nine minutes of elapsed time.

RARE FISH MAY BE PUT IN NEW MEXICO WATERS.

If a suitable water can be found the forest service hopes to introduce the famous golden trout of California to the fishermen of New Mexico. This species, which is regarded as the most beautiful, and the gamest of all trout, formerly inhabited only one stream in the world, Volcano creek, one of the headwaters of Kern river, California, but it has been extensively transplanted by the California Game and Fish commission, with great success.

One of the important factors to be considered in introducing a new species is to avoid mixing the different species in the same water, and it is for this reason that the forest service is exercising great care in locating the stream which may be suitable for trying out the experiment here in New Mexico.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 12

FISHERS OF MEN.

LESSON TEXT.—Mark 1:14-20.
GOLDEN TEXT.—Jesus said unto them, come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.—Mark 1:17.
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL.—Matt. 4:18, 22; Luke 5:1-11; 14:13-24; James 5:19, 20.
PRIMARY TOPIC.—Helping others to know Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC.—Peter and John become workers for Jesus.
INTERMEDIATE TOPIC.—The work of a disciple.
SENIOR AND ADULT TOPIC.—Ways of winning men to Christ.

I. Jesus Preaching in Galilee (vv. 14, 15).

The reason why he changed from Judea to Galilee was the growing opposition to him. The fate of John the Baptist he accepted as foreshadowing his own death. The rejection of the forerunner meant the rejection of him whose advent he heralded. Prudence moved him to a more remote region, where he would attract less attention and be free from opposition. Besides this it gave less favored people an opportunity to hear the gospel, according to the prophetic word (Isa. 9:1, 2). It foreshadowed the gospel to the Gentiles.

1. What he preached (v. 14). The gospel of the Kingdom of God, which meant the good news of the near approach of the Kingdom of God, when the rule of God as predicted by the prophets would be realized. It should be carefully noted that the gospel of the Kingdom differs from the gospel of the grace of God.

2. How he preached (v. 15). (1) "The time is fulfilled and the Kingdom of God is at hand." This meant that the time had now come for the appearance of the Messiah and the establishment of his kingdom. (2) "Repent." This meant that the people should turn around, change their minds and attitude toward Christ the King and accept him as their King. This is a message which needs to be sounded out today. People should be called upon to repent of their sins. (3) "Believe the gospel." Then, as now, men need to believe the gospel of Christ's death for their sins and resurrection for justification (1 Cor. 15:1-4; Rom. 4:25).

II. Jesus Calling Disciples to Become Fishers of Men (vv. 16-20).

1. Who were called (vv. 16, 19). Simon and Andrew, John and James, two pairs of brothers. It is usually best to render the Lord's service in fellowship—in pairs. This is not only necessary for effective testimony, but for needed fellowship on the part of workers and protection of the witnesses. These all had previously been called to Christ for salvation; they had become his disciples (John 1:36-42). They are now called to service. This is always his way. We are first called to be disciples, then called to have fellowship with him in service.

2. From what they were called (vv. 16, 20). They were called from positions of definite service. God always chooses his servants from the ranks of the employed. The lazy man is not likely to have a call.

3. To what they were called (v. 17). To be "fishers of men." They no doubt had been successful fishers. The qualities which made them good fishers, namely, patience, bravery to face the storm and night, and perseverance which led them to toil all night, though no fish were caught, would make them good fishers of men. It requires patience, bravery and perseverance to win souls for Christ.

4. Their call to obedience (vv. 18, 20). To obey meant sacrifice, painful separation, to give up all business interests and leave their father behind. Regardless of the cost, they yielded prompt obedience. They gave up business and home, not even inquiring as to where their salaries were to come from. They put their trust in him who called them, believing that he was able to supply all their needs.

5. Their reward (v. 17). These four men have wielded wondrous influence in the world. Their names have become immortalized. Had they remained at their business they would only have been humble fishermen. When Christ calls let us promptly obey, for eventually it will pay. It will yield one hundredfold in this life, and eternal life in the world to come.

Preaching the Gospel.

If the church is to reach the masses of the people it will have to send, as did the prophets and apostles, fit men to tell the glorious gospel of the grace of God. What is more, those who cannot do this work will have to support and encourage those who can. The marching orders of the church are: "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

"For Thee."

With all the salvation of the world depending upon him, he has time and thought for each individual soul. Think of the vastness of his cares! yet the body of our Lord Jesus Christ was given for thee.—Selected.

Contagion of Heaven.

There ought to be such an atmosphere in every Christian church that a man going and sitting there should take the contagion of heaven, and carry it home to kindle the altar whence he came.—H. W. Beecher.

It's Judge Wilson Now.

Judge W. B. Robinson having resigned his position as probate judge, the county commissioners in session Monday, appointed F. E. Wilson to succeed Judge Robinson. The appointment meets with general approval. Mr. Wilson was endorsed by all the attorneys of the city, and by the prominent business men as well. He is eminently suited for the place, being a good, clean man and an excellent lawyer.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL PRICES OF MEAT IN CARLSBAD.

As the retail meat markets of Carlsbad have been accused of charging exorbitant prices for the meat they sell in the face of the recent drop in the price of livestock, the Current has gone to the trouble to secure wholesale prices which the markets here pay for part of their supply of meats and the prices at which they are retailed. The remainder of the meat supply is obtained by buying local livestock and slaughtering same.

On Monday, Oct. 5, carcass beef steer No. 1 was quoted by the Peyton Packing Co. at El Paso, which is the nearest shipping point, at 16 cents per pound f. o. b., that city, to which must be added 2 cents for express, 1 cent for burlap charges, 1 1/2 cents for icing charges, and 1/4 cent for drayage, which makes the beef cost, delivered in Carlsbad, 20 1/2 cents per pound. This beef is retailed today for from 20 to 40 cents per pound. When the high cost of living, advanced wages paid meat cutters, rent, ice, shrinkage, and the operating expenses, too numerous to mention here, are taken into consideration, it can be readily seen that beef must be retailed at somewhere near 40 cents for steak in order to meet necessary expenses. On this same date, hind quarters were quoted at 18 to 20 cents and steer loins at from 28 to 30 cents, and this class of meat is retailed at from 30 to 40 cents per pound.

Some classes of meat, such as soup bones and ribs, are retailed at less than they cost per pound wholesale; from 10 cents to 20 cents per pound; therefore, this loss must be made up on the higher classes of meats sold.

It is conceded that the cost of
but we believe in laying the blame where it properly belongs and not pouncing onto the retailer when he is not at fault. When the packing concerns lower the wholesale prices on their meats, the retail price in Carlsbad will drop accordingly. As it is, prices have dropped from 5 to 10 cents per pound from what they were over a month ago. Conditions as they exist at the present time render the meat markets helpless in bringing the price of meats down to where they formerly were.

FACTS ON THE ARCH ENEMY OF HUMANITY.

Tuberculosis kills producers—chiefly men and women between the ages of 16 and 45.

It claims workers—active men and women in the homes, the office and the shop.

It causes 150,000 deaths in the United States every year.

It costs the United States in economic waste alone about $200,000,000 annually.

More than 1,000,000 persons in this country are suffering from active tuberculosis right now.

It menaces every community,
every home and every individual.

AND YET TUBERCULOSIS
IS CURABLE AND PREVENT-ABLE.

It is spread largely by ignorance, carelessness and neglect.

The National Tuberculosis Association and its 1,000 affiliated state and local organizations wage a continuous winning war on tuberculosis.

The work of these organizations is financed chiefly by the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals.

losis from your door.

BAPTISTS PLAN RECONSTRUCTION PROGRAM

BODY CHARGED WITH DUTY OF OUTLINING HOW 75 MIL-LION CAMPAIGN CAN PROMOTE THAT TASK REACHES FIELD—DR. LOVE OUTLINES THE NEED AND ISSUES CALL

To make a general survey of the economic, social and religious conditions in Europe with a view to recommending to the Baptists of the South where and how they can aid most effectively in the reconstruction of that continent through the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, a commission, composed of Dr. J. F. Love, secretary of the Foreign Mission Board at Richmond, Va.; Dr. Z. T. Cody, editor Baptist Courier, Greenville, S. C., and Rev.
Everett Gill, missionary at Rome,
Italy, who is returning after a leave of absence in this country, and who will serve as guide and interpreter to the other members, is now in England for a conference with the Baptists of Great Britain and will go from there for an inspection of France and Belgium.

Another brief conference will be held with the Baptists of Switzerland, after which a trip will be made through Italy and a survey of the new republic of Czechoslovakia conducted. From Prague, capital of Bohemia, the commission will go into such parts of Russia as are open, and the foreign trip will be concluded with an inspection of Palestine, where the missionary work formerly done in Syria, Persia and Gallilee by the Illinois Baptist Association has been turned over to the Foreign Mission Board.

There are approximately 4,250 Baptist churches in Europe today, with 3,000 pastors and missionaries and 566, 800 church members. It is announced by the headquarters of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, and a considerable sum from this campaign will go toward succoring needy families of Baptists and others in the war-torn regions as was as in the propagation of the gospel and the establishment of Christian institutions there. It is announced.
Before sailing on the Adriatic on his European mission, Dr. Love made the following statement outlining the purpose of the commission:

"When the call came to help save promote and secure democracy in Europe there came a louder call to help save, promote and secure evangelical Christianity in Europe. That which alone will now preserve and perfect the democracy for which brave men have died on the battlefield of Europe is the Christianity of the New Testament. Southern Baptists can not longer profess New Testament Christianity and decline a challenge like that which is now presented to them to bear witness to their faith among the peoples of Europe. Our people never before faced such a challenge and such a responsibility.

Of course we can not go to the men and women of Europe who have been stripped of earthly fortune and reduced to direct necessity with a message of Christian love and brotherhood if we decline in our abundance to carry some substantial pledge of our love and compassion. Mothers will not be able to stay the crying of their little ones to hear us preach if we decline to practice the gospel of compassion and feed these little ones and build fires at which they can during the coming winter warm their frosted toes.
Southern Baptists are under the most solemn obligation to help relieve the want and suffering of Europe. But if there were no reconstruction work in Europe, Southern Baptists have motives numerous enough and strong enough to compel them to make a complete success of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign. I would therefore, as my parting word to my brothers and sisters of the South, implore them to give themselves to this campaign and carry it to a triumphant conclusion during Victory Week, November 30
December 7."

DEMOCRATIC ROAD LAWS.

It was Democratic legislation that brought to fulfillment the national demand for good roads. The success of that legislation in realizing the wishes of the country is of those improvements. But for exemplified by statistics covering the period from 1913, the beginning of President Wilson's first term, to September 1, 1919. In the six years there were constructed more than 15,000 miles of at-most perfect highways.

But for the assistance given by the federal government, the several states would have been unable or unwilling to bear the whole cost of those improvements. But for democratic laws no federal aid would have been forthcoming. The government is now matching with funds from the federal treasury every dollar that any of the states devotes to the building of its roads. In addition to the millions that have been voted for this purpose by democratic congresses, it is proposed to appropriate $100,- 000,000 to continue the work after 1921. Senator Sheppard, a Demoin this road legislation, which brought benefits to every section

THE RIGHT TO STRIKE.

Many labor leaders would maintain that any body of workmen would have the right to strike. Yet there must be some limit to it. Few people would claim that the army had the right to strike for higher pay while a war was proceeding. Not many people would justify the doctors in quitting work and refusing to visit sick people, until everyone paid them an advanced fee. Nurses would not be justified in quitting a hospital in a body because dissatisfied with wages and conditions.

There will probably be a test of opinion soon, on whether a body of men have the right to tie up the railroads by a strike. Railroad men no doubt have the right to quit individually any time they wish, but combining to take action that will threaten the whole people with the most terrible disaster is far different from an ordinary strike. It is a menace that the people are not likely to tolerate long.

There are a large body of men in this country who for the good pay now given trainmen, and assurance of hearing of grievances by an impartial court, would be willing to forego the right to quit work in a body. The present trainmen, if they could have time to think it over, and could escape from the influence of radical leaders, might quite likely assent to it as a proposition fair to everyone. If they were given representation in railroad management and a percentage of profits, as suggested in several railroad measures now pending, the public would never justify them in holding on to their right to strike in a body.

SOLDIER PEDDLERS.

It is complained in many parts of the United States that a good many ex-soldiers are being employed to peddle articles about the streets. People who have notions to sell may argue that the business will awaken sympathy and that the soldier peddler would work off a lot of goods that a relief in civilian clothes could not. Secretary of War Baker has issued a statement asking the people to sympathize with veterans who peddle on the streets, particularly those who wear their military uniforms.

There has been a strong feeling that a soldier's uniform ought not to be used for any commercial purpose. If all the soldiers attempted to wear their uniforms in their business positions, and a great many uniforms to help them in business, it could not help making the insignia of a soldier's service unpopular. People would hate to see it constantly thrust at them as an argument for them to buy when they did not want to. No this practice would detract from the dignity and honor in which the army is held.

The vast majority of the service men are now at work. The government and philanthropic societies have elaborate machinery for helping them. In these busy times any able-bodied and willing man who wants a job can get it. A man who has done dishonest, dishonest and faithless work would have more to demonstrate his serviceableness, than one who had sold goods on sympathy that people did not want.

PROTECTOR AND PROTECTION.

High prices and scarcity always go together. If the supply of any commodity is plentiful, the prices will be relatively low. But if the commodity is scarce, the protector has his business. Nothing can beat him but public sentiment, and that is often hard to organize.

This condition of scarcity is now seen all along the line in the necessities of life. Sugar is being dealt out in one-pound packages in a great many places, and not always to be had at that. Food stuffs are scarce. There are not the great reserves that used to exist.

In the case of many kinds of manufactured goods, the purchaser finds that the dealer is out and he has to wait to get what he wants. People get anxious and impatient and pay liberally to obtain what they need.

Any man with a grasping nature takes advantage. He sees people pushing for goods and anxious principally for fear the supply will give out. He works on their fears, and tells them that by next spring prices will be still higher. He thinks that in these times they will not mind an addition to the price, provided they get goods at once, and he takes on one more notch above a reasonable profit.

That condition will prevail until there is a reserve stock of all commodities on hand. Whatever tends to reduce production tends to make prices higher. The people who are working shorter hours than formerly, need to realize this. If they can not by efficiency methods increase their production, prices must necessarily go higher. To get reasonable prices, everyone must take hold and work with a will, and co-operate with all efforts to add to the general product.

CONGRESSIONAL INACTION.

When the Republicans elected their Congress last fall, great things were going to be done. The errors of the wicked Democrats were to be exposed. There was to be a clean-up of abuses and a new regime of efficiency was to be created.

Congress has now been in session over four months, and nothing has been done. A few desultory investigations have been started, but nothing of any significance has been uncovered. The Senate is all tangled up in a political fight over the League of Nations, and the world has been left in turmoil while these politicians have quibbled over hair splitting definitions.

The House has had plenty of time to lay out measures of constructive policy. The Republicans lack leadership. They were quivered at the start by the row between Gillett and Mann factions. This did not represent any clear cut difference of principle.

It was characteristically settled by giving the speakership to Mr. Gillett, who is called slightly more progressive than Mr. Mann, and then organizing the committees so that the stand-pat element had control. Nobody in the majority party has any program for social improvement, for reconstruction, or for harmonizing of the difficulties between capital and labor. No one seems to realize that the country is suffering from great industrial evils that must be remedied.

This lack of policy is in striking contrast with President Wilson's leadership. His active mind has never been satisfied to see great evils continue year after year without serious attempt at remedy. He attacks such evils courageously, and makes a definite attempt to overcome them. The people are watching the dawdling and squabbling.

at Washington with growing anger, and will soon demand that Congress do something.

CAPE AND COAT IN ONE

The grace of capes and the convenience of coats are joined in many wraps this spring. A happy combination is shown in the picture above where a short shoulder cape supports a long, loose coat, which falls in box-plaits from it. Beige colored velours is the material used, and the flat buttons set along the edge of the cape portion are covered with it. This coat has no collar, but a silk scarf is worn with it when needed. The coat is eight inches shorter than the dress skirt. There is a greater difference in length between coats and skirts this year than last owing to the arrival of skirts considerably longer than they have been.

roads are difficult to make, the general object being the provision of a machine movable along a selected roadway site, capable of the formation of wheel tracks in the course of its movement. A further object is to provide a machine capable of ready adjustment and interchange of parts for other purposes; for instance, it can be transformed into a freight car in a very short time. For the grading of roads the machine is self-loading and self-adjusting, automatically throwing the high side to the low side, whether at left or right.

DEFINITION OF ROAD TERMS

List of Technical Names Taken From the Program of the Canadian Good Roads Congress.

With the progress of road building there has come into use a number of terms more or less technical, but which should be well known. The following list is from the program of the Canadian Good Roads Congress:

Aggregate.—The mineral material, such as sand, gravel, shells, slag, or broken stone, or combinations thereof, with which the cement or the bituminous material is mixed to form a mortar or concrete. Fine aggregate may be considered as the mineral inert material which will pass a one-fourth-inch screen, and coarse aggregate the material which will not pass a one-fourth-inch screen.

Binder.—(1) A foreign or fine material introduced into the mineral portion of the wearing surface for the purpose of assisting the road material to retain its integrity under stress, as well as, perhaps, to aid in its first construction. (2) The course, in a sheet asphalt pavement, frequently used between the concrete foundation and the sheet asphalt mixture of graded sand and asphalt cement.

Bond.—The combined action of inertia, friction, and of the forces of adhesion and cohesion which helps the separate particles composing a crust or pavement to resist separation under stress. Mechanical bond is the bond produced almost wholly in a well-built broken-stone macadam road, by the interlocking of angular fragments of stone and the subsequent filling of the remaining interstices with the finer particles.

Water-Bound.—Bonded with the aid of water.

Cement.—An adhesive substance used for uniting particles of other materials to each other. Ordinarily applied only to calcined "cement rock," or to artificially prepared calcined and ground mixtures of limestone and siliceous materials. Sometimes used to designate bituminous binder used in bituminous pavements, when the expression "bituminous cement" (q. v.) is understood to be meant.

Cement Concrete.—An intimate mixture of gravel, shell, slag or broken stone particles with certain proportions of sand or similar material, cement and water, made previous to placing.

Course.—One or more layers of road material spread and compacted separately for the formation of the road or pavement. Courses are usually referred to in the order of their laying, as first course, second course, third course, etc. Also a single row of blocks in a pavement.

Crown.—The rise in cross-section from the lowest to the highest part of the finished roadway. It may be expressed either as so many inches (or tenths of a foot), or as a rate per foot of distance from side to center, that is, "the crown is four inches," or "the crown is one-half inch to the foot."

Sneaking Into Camp.

A private who had overstayed his leave one night sneaked into camp and was just on the point of entering the barracks when the sentry turned at the end of his beat. The private, who was closely watching the guard, realizing that he would be detected, also turned and acted as though he was trying to sneak out of camp. "Get back there; no man out tonight!" shouted the guard. Needless to add the private lost no time in obeying the order.

"Cakes and Beer and Washing Here"

Before a ramshackle house in a little New England village there used to hang this sign:

"Hiram, the widow's son, I hope,
"Can furnish customers with soap,
"Such as will make the washing day
"Pass off as pleasant, e'en as May.
"Cakes and beer, and washing here".

Hiram had the right idea. He knew that there were people who wanted what he had to sell. The difference between Hiram and the modern advertiser is that the former had to trust to somebody passing to see his sign. He could not bring his sign to everybody.

The modern advertiser with something to sell that he feels you want, saves you the trouble of going to his place to see about it. Readers of advertisements visit all the advertisers at a single sitting.

This is a service that those who advertise are rendering you, just as the clerks they hire, the deliveries they make, are service. They are saving your time, energy and money by bringing their establishments to you through the advertisements.

Read the advertisements with this thought in mind.

NIGHT AND DAY CAMP IS LIFE SAVING STATION

Tuberculosis kills 150,000 persons in the United States every year. These two women escaped. They are shown in the Night and Day Camp conducted by the St. Louis Society for the Relief and Prevention of Tuberculosis. They are among the fortunate ones because they knew how to take care of themselves when this great menace threatened them. They knew that the cure lies in plenty of fresh air, even if the temperature is away below freezing, sunlight, good food and rest under proper medical supervision. Tuberculosis is not only curable but is preventable as well.

The prevention lies largely in right living, in building up a strong bodily resistance. Eight out of ten persons are infected at some time in their lives, according to figures of the National Tuberculosis Association, the leading agency in the United States in the fight upon this disease. This organization is sponsor for the annual Red Cross Christmas Seal sale, from which the funds to carry on the work throughout the year are chiefly derived.

The girls are making excellent progress in their sewing and meet regularly every week.

Misses May and Lois Barrington came in Monday evening from Waco, Texas, joining their mother and other members of the family who have been here some weeks. The young ladies are granddaughters of Mrs. Bristow, of Carlsbad.

Mrs. Fred Nymeyer has come to town from their home at Eunice in order that their two sons, B. A. and Robert Bert, may have the benefit of our schools this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Jud Alston and daughter, Gladys, are in from their ranch home on the plains this week attending court, arriving here Friday evening.

MARRIED.

The Current learned only this week of the marriage of two of Carlsbad's well known and popular young people, Hugh Bunch and Miss Beulah Harbert.

The happy event occurred Aug. 25th, at Ocean Beach, California, where the bride and her mother and sister were spending the summer.

Mrs. Bunch is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Harbert and has been a resident of this city and vicinity for number of years, her father being the well known stockman, who has large interests in Eddy county.

Mr. Bunch is an employee of the Santa Fe, running in the northern part of the state, with headquarters at Willard, where they will make their home. He formerly worked on this division of the Santa Fe. Both young folk have many friends who wish them all happiness on their journey through life, the Current joining.

Mrs. Bunch spent a couple of days in Carlsbad last week, at the home of her parents, getting her belongings ready, and this is the first known of the marriage.

CARD OF THANKS.

The parents and other relatives of Daniel Dean Humphreys, whose tragic death occurred last week, desire in this manner to thank their friends for sympathy manifested and expressed during those hours. They also wish to thank all who sent flowers, those lovely messengers, which speak to the heart at such times as no words can do.

A Fish Story.

Henry Smith and Caspar Fosmark had the good luck to catch an immense fish the first of the week at the six-mile dam. The fish weighed forty-four pounds and was of the yellow mud cat variety. This is the largest fish reported caught so far this season.

"Dad" Dunnivant, who has been under treatment at Eddy County hospital for some time for pneumonia, has about recovered and will be able to be about in his accustomed haunts in a few days.

Mrs. Ward, who recently underwent a serious operation at Eddy County hospital, was able to be taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Leck, the first of the week, where she seems to be convalescing nicely at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Wright and son, Hobart, are expected to arrive in Carlsbad tomorrow, or Sunday, from Pawnee Rock, Kansas, where they have spent the summer since the closing of school.

Mrs. Bill Lusk, who has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Jones, west of town, will leave tomorrow for Globe, Arizona, where she goes to visit relatives.

Miss Mae Middleton and her uncle, Riley Dean, left Saturday morning for Uvalde, Texas, where Miss Mae has already entered school for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Knowles are down from their ranch west of Artesia attending court this week.

BIRTHS AND DEATHS MUST BE REGISTERED

Dr. L. H. Pate Appointed Registrar for This County with Authority to Name Sub-Registrars.

The visit of the stork is no longer to be a thing important in only the eyes of the parents of the new little man, but from now on an official record will be kept of births by the government. Official notice and record of births and deaths will be maintained from now on by the proper authorities.

Births.

Births must be registered with the local health officer or his representative within ten days by the physician, or midwife, and if there be neither, then by the parent, upon the form supplied by the State Commissioner of Health through the local health officer.

Stillbirths must be registered both as births and as deaths, and burial permits must be obtained.

Deaths.

From now on, says the Health Department, no dead body shall be buried or otherwise disposed of unless a permit therefor has been issued by the local health officer or his representative.

To obtain this permit, a death certificate must first be filed with the local health officer by the undertaker or person in charge of the body, which certificate must be made upon the form supplied by the State Commissioner of Health through the local health officers, and must give all the facts as to the death, the cause of death being stated by the attending physician, if there was one, and if not, by the health officer, justice of the peace or other proper official acting as a coroner.

County Health Officer L. H. Pate received the following letter from the State Department of Health at Santa Fe, which is of importance to the public:

Santa Fe, N. M., Sept. 29, '19

Dear Doctor:

There are enclosed herewith copies of the regulations recently promulgated by the State Board of Health relating to the disposal, interment, disinterment, and transportation of the dead, and to the reporting of deaths and births. One copy of each should be kept by you for reference and carefully studied; the others should be issued immediately to the physicians, midwives, and undertakers or other persons or firms selling caskets or coffins within your jurisdiction.

Certificates for the reporting of births and deaths are enclosed also. The birth certificates are to be issued to physicians and midwives and the death certificates to the undertakers and dealers in caskets or coffins, in your jurisdiction. Supplies should also be issued to all sub-registrars and the public should be notified where the certificates may be obtained. Care should be exercised in issuing the certificates and other blanks, each physician, undertaker, sub-registrar, etc., being given only as many as he will need for two or three months at a time.

The disposal permits enclosed are to be issued by the health officers and sub-registrars to undertakers or other persons in charge of the disposal of bodies, only on presentation of properly executed certificates of death.

The forms for monthly reports of sales of caskets or coffins are to be issued to the undertakers and other firms selling caskets or coffins in your jurisdiction. It is requested that you forward a list of such firms in your city or county to this office at once, in order that we may communicate with them with regard to these reports.

You will note that each health officer has been made registrar for his city, town, village or county, and that county health officers are authorized to appoint persons to act as sub-registrars (without pay) in certain districts where it is necessary for the intelligent persons, except physicians and undertakers. * * All such appointments must be submitted to the State Commissioner of Health for approval, and you are directed to nominate suitable persons at the earliest possible date, in order that the reporting system may be put into operation at once.

County Records Will Be Kept.

All certificates of both births and deaths are to be forwarded by the sub-registrars to the health officers not later than the third day of the following month. The health officers are to make copies of all certificates and forward the originals to the State Commissioner of Health not later than the tenth day of the following month. City, town or village health officers will file the copies with the county clerks, these copies to make up the permanent local records. All disposal permits received are to be filed by the health officer in his office. If it is desired to keep a record of disposal permits issued duplicates may be made and filed.

The provisions of these regulations are to be put into effect immediately, and you are requested to do everything possible to acquaint the public at once with the legal requirements and the necessity for strict compliance therewith. We shall look to you for the securing of prompt and com-

The International Convention of the Churches of Christ (Disciples) will be held in Cincinnati, Ohio, on Oct. 13 to 20th. The convention of last year, 1918, was to have been held in St. Louis, but the influenza situation compelled its abandonment. At the convention this year many important matters will be considered. It has been prophesied that 20,000 people will be in attendance, and that the convention will be even greater than the mammoth convention at Pittsburgh in 1909. This church is now one of the leading strong churches of this country, numbering about a million and a half of members. Many notable men are expected to be present at this convention. John Shuff, a leading business man of Cincinnati, has gone to England to induce the British Premier, Lloyd George, who is one of the brethren, to attend the convention. Rev. D. F. Sellards will represent the local church at the convention, having left here last Thursday night.

Ben Barnett has a badly bruised head and face which happened in this wise: As Ben and two boy friends were out on Rocky driving Sunday, the second wheel of the buggy broke and Ben was thrown out in front of the vehicle landing on his face and head. He was brought to town and a physician dressed his wounds, which were thought at first to be serious, but later proved to be only painful, and Ben hopes soon to be as good as new.

Mrs. W. T. Reed and daughter came in Saturday from their summer's visit to points in Texas.

CHAVES COUNTY ROAD BOND ISSUE CARRIES.

The $200,000.00 bond issue for county roads in Chaves county carried by a handsome majority at the special election held Tuesday, September 23rd, the state highway commission was advised this morning. The money will be spent on various important highways in the county that are not included in the state and Federal highway system. The north and south road through the valley will be put into good condition. This is a project that has been much desired for years. The plan has been to build a good road through Chaves and Eddy counties to connect at the state line along the valley to Ft. Stockton, at which point it would connect with the highway to San Antonio and the Gulf coast. This would provide a direct route out of southwest Texas into New Mexico.—State Record.

Next Scottish Rite Reunion To Be at Santa Fe.

Santa Fe, Oct. 8.—The executive committee of the Scottish Rite bodies for the Orient of New Mexico has selected November 12 to 15 inclusive as the date for the next reunion and conferring of degrees up to the thirty-second at Santa Fe, so it has been officially announced. The reunion at Santa Fe is to be attended by Masons from all over the southwest and degrees are to be conferred on a large class. Social features on a large scale are planned.

"You'd think it was expensive ceramic tile"

"MY UPSON-Fibre-Tile always keeps spotlessly white, clean and beautiful. Not like the ordinary imitation tiles—that crack, tear, loosen, crumble or yellow!"

"Its waterproofed surface is enameled like wood, and it is so strong, stiff and hard that it will last for years. Cheap imitations cannot give Upson service."

Avoid rough, soft, spongy imitations. They haven't half as many years of life as Upson, and cost much more to enamel. The little difference in price cannot measure the big difference in quality.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. Collin Gerrells and baby are spending the week with Mrs. Gerrells' mother, Mrs. Ollie Thayer.

N. L. Randolph, of the Peoples Mercantile company, after being on the sick list for ten days, was able to go to the store Monday morning.

Mrs. Mae Steele left Saturday for her home in Eastland, Texas, valley, after visiting friends in Carlsbad.

Dave McCollum and Collin Gerrells are among many others in town this week from Queen in attendance at court.

W. R. Shattuck and J. A. Kincaid came down from their respective homes in the mountains, getting in Monday evening ahead of the big rain.

Mrs. "Red" Stevenson and two children came in Friday from Breckenridge, Texas, for a visit with their mother and grandmother, respectively, and other friends.

Claud Richards, lumberman, banker, and politician, of Carlsbad, returned to the Beautiful yesterday afternoon, resolutely refusing all arguments to stay over and see the extra special doings at the Elks club last night—Saturday's Roswell News.

Miss Della Cowan, an experienced abstractor, from Mt. Vernon, Texas, came in the latter part of last week and is already at work for the Eddy County Abstract company. Miss Cowan is an old friend of L. E. Alexander, secretary of the company.

The pie sale given by the Boy Scouts of Troop No. 1, at the Purdy Furniture store last Saturday netted that organization the neat sum of thirty dollars. As almost everything was donated, the boys can add a nice little sum to their treasury.

L. A. Vaughn and wife, the lady a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Davis, of this city, came overland from eastern Colorado, arriving at the Davis home Saturday night. They recently sold their ranch in Colorado and may decide to purchase here should they like the country.

Mrs. C. O. Merrifield, who is visiting in Jackson, Michigan, has been very ill there with erysipelas according to a letter received Saturday from a sister of Mr. Merrifield at that place. Mr. Merrifield left for Jackson Tuesday night and friends here are anxiously awaiting further particulars.

The splendid farm of S. Webster in the Otis community was recently sold to a Mr. LeLattre, of Lake Charles, Louisiana. This is one of the best farms in this section of the country and while the sale price is not given the entire farm is one of the most valuable in the county and has been well kept up in every way. Mr. Webster retains the cotton crop and will not give possession to the new owner until that crop has been gathered. Mr. Webster's plans as to his future residence have not been announced.

C. N. Jones recently sold his ranch on the plains to the Lusk interests, together with about 1600 head of white-faced cattle, and returned with his family to their pretty suburban home west of Carlsbad last Friday. Sunday night Mr. Jones and son, Dallas, left on the northbound train, the former for Ute Park and Raton, where he has cattle on pasture which he will ship to market at Kansas City. Dallas has entered a mechanical school at Kansas City for a course in auto-mechanics.

This vicinity has been treated to another bountiful rain, which fell the first of the week, registering one and sixty-five one-hundredths inches by the government rain gauge at the Reclamation office. The rain was unaccompanied by any electrical disturbances whatever, which has been the case with all the rains this season. Now, if it will clear up and give the cotton farmers a chance to get in to their fields, everything will be lovely. Stockmen report grass and weeds taking on a rapid growth and everything looking prosperous for the winter season. The rain caught quite a good deal of hay down, many farmers having their fourth crop cut, which, of course, is damaged considerably.

Morning worship will be held next Sunday at the Presbyterian church, and the subject of the sermon will be "Heart Diseases". Sabbath school and Endeavor meeting will be held at the usual hours. Communion will be observed in one week.

HOME AND SCHOOL MEETING.

An interesting meeting of the Home and School association was held in the High school study hall last Friday night, and was well attended by patrons of the school and interested friends.

Mrs. R. M. Thorne, first vice-president of the association, presided and announced the purpose of the meeting, which was, principally, the election of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows:

President—T. C. Horne.
First Vice-President—R. M. Thorne.
Second Vice-President—Mrs. W. D. Donley.
Secretary—Mrs. F. E. Little.
Assistant Secretary—Mrs. Dillard.
Treasurer—Mrs. Horace Hutchinson.

A number of committees are to be appointed by the president, which will be given later. The 6th B grade, Mrs. A. A. Kaiser, teacher, had the largest per cent of parents present at the meeting and received the coveted half-holiday.

THE OZARK TRAIL.

The Ozark Trail convention, at Roswell, last week was a decided success and was attended by a number from the lower valley.

Previous adjournment as applicable, weighing one and a half lbs. was auctioned off, it bringing $130.00. This was offered to assist in defraying the expenses of the meeting, but Roswell refused to accept the money and it was turned over to the association. The next meeting of the body will be held at Pittsburgh, Kansas, in October 1920. Col. W. H. Harvey was re-elected president of the association; C. C. Cagle, of Roswell, first vice-president, and J. W. Corn, of Tucuman, second vice-president.

QUAIL SEASON OPENS ON NOVEMBER FIRST.

Owing to the circulation of the first issue of license books marked 1919, which were printed before the change in hunting seasons took place and which have been recalled, there appears considerable confusion about the dates in certain parts of the state. The game warden again calls attention to the new law which opens the quail season November 1 and closes it December 31. The deer season opens October 29 and closes November 5.

$4,800,000 TO BE RAISED FOR HOSPITALS

A modern hospital illustrative of the type of buildings Southern Baptists are employing in the relief of human suffering.

In their work of relieving human physical suffering Southern Baptists at present own and control fourteen hospitals and there are under course of construction and about ready to be opened at least two more, with considerable progress made toward the erection of others. All of these institutions are liberally patronized and are self-supporting but all of them need to be enlarged in order to meet the rapidly growing demands upon them. The demand for charity work is especially urgent and in order to enable them to thus render a needed service to those who are least able to help themselves as well as to provide larger facilities for the regular work the hospitals are doing the sum of $4,800,000 has been apportioned to them from the proceeds to be raised in the Baptist 75 Million Campaign.

This work of relieving the physical sufferings of men, women and children and thus putting them on the road to better health and larger efficiency and usefulness was begun within the bounds of the Southern Baptist convention in 1890 when the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium was opened in St. Louis. From a very small beginning in a residence with less than a dozen beds, this institution has grown into a modern institution with more than 300 beds.

Other Baptist hospitals in the South include Baptist Hospital, Muskogee, Okla.; Baptist Hospital, Miami, Okla.; Baptist Hospital, Cushing, Okla.; Baptist Memorial Hospital, Memphis, Tenn.; Georgia Baptist Hospital, Atlanta; Oklahoma Baptist State Hospital, Oklahoma City; Baptist Hospital, Columbia, S. C.; Texas Baptist Memorial Sanitarium, Dallas; Baptist Hospital, Houston, Tex.; Baptist Hospital, Alexandria, La.; Baptist Hospital, Jackson, Miss.; St. Louis Baptist Hospital, St. Louis, Mo.; and the Kansas City Baptist Hospital at Kansas City, Mo.

R. E. Tucker, county commissioner, from the third district, Eddy county, spent much of the week in town attending court.

L. A. Swartz left yesterday for his ranch in the Lovington vicinity where he expects to remain several days.

PRESIDENT'S APPEAL FOR ACTION IGNORED.

Two Months Pass Without Move by Republican Congress to Enact Bills.

Washington, D. C.—Fifty-eight days ago President Wilson urged Speaker Gillett, of the House of Representatives, and Representative Mondell, majority leader, to forego their proposed recess of five weeks, and enact important legislation for the control of the high cost of living. Seven days later (August 8) he addressed Congress and asked for laws to force the sales of hoarded foodstuffs, and to prosecute profiteers. Subsequently Attorney General Palmer appeared before the House and Senate committees begging them to act quickly so that he could run down and punish the guilty.

Up to this time Congress has not passed a bill carrying out the President's recommendations. An amendment to the food control act was put through the House several weeks ago and sent to the Senate where it was handicapped with a rider, added by Senator Ball of Delaware, dealing with rents in the District of Columbia. It is believed by friends of the President that the Republicans would kill the profiteering measure if they didn't fear public sentiment. The Ball rider is one way of choking it to death.

The postponement of final action on this amendment is costing the people of the country millions of dollars in profits exacted by gougers. The Department of Justice is helpless. It cannot reach the worst classes of profiteers. In an appeal of Chairman Hansen, of the House Committee on Agriculture, which first considered the profiteering bill, Judge C. B. Ames, Assistant to the Attorney General, on September 20, said:

"Will you pardon me for calling your attention to the importance of early action on the amendments to the food control act? If the matter of rents in the District of Columbia is likely to cause material delay, is there not some way by which it can be separated from the other amendments so that earlier action upon them may be taken?"

"Reports continue coming to this department indicating profiteering in shoes and other articles of wearing apparel. Pending the passage of the amendments the department is powerless to deal effectively with these reports."

"We are also advised that the Holly Sugar Corporation of California is placing the new crop of beet sugar on the market at $11.50 the prevailing price for the old crop. This being a case of individual action, and the new crop not being controlled by the Sugar Equalization Board, the Department cannot take effective action in the matter until the amendments were passed."

Pete Craft, of Clovis, is acting as relief agent at the Santa Fe station in Carlsbad during the absence of L. H. Hanzate, who is in Denver.

EDDY COUNTY READY TO BATTLE EPIDEMIC OF FLU

Health Officer L. H. Pate of Carlsbad Has Formed Efficient Organization for Use if It Is Needed.

Carlsbad, N. M., Oct. 5.—There'll be no epidemic of flu in New Mexico this fall, if medical skill, rigorous health laws and efficient administrators can prevent it. New Mexico is ready and so is Eddy county, for the state health department has ordered its county health officers to organize their counties into working units, and County Health Officer L. H. Pate of Carlsbad is firmly in the saddle with an efficient organization behind him. A recent mass meeting at the Carlsbad Commercial club afforded the personnel for the committees, which are organized and ready for work if the need comes.

"There is no influenza in Eddy county, despite rumors to the contrary," said Dr. Pate, Friday, "and I do not look for its return in virulent form this fall, nor for many years. Medical history for three centuries shows no recurrence of an epidemic in the year following its first appearance. We can trace their return in periods varying from fifteen to seventy years. And medical science would have labored in vain had it not proven that the human body builds up an immunity to disease. I found a singular immunity from the influenza last year in people who had had the disease in 1889. They did not contract it although frequently in constant contact with patients who were suffering from the disease in its virulent form."

"There is propaganda going on now, bolstered by the patent medicine proprietors. I have a postal card on my desk which states that the Maine health authorities expect the flu to come back this year in a mild form, but that this patent remedy rubbed into the nostrils will ward off an attack. Such a statement is absurd, and only the ignorant will be fooled by it. Our best men have not isolated the germ. There is a vaccine which will reduce the chances of serious complications arising, but there is absolutely no vaccine which will ward off the flu. The influenza germ has never been found. Our present methods of staining and microscopic analysis have not detected it. When it is found a vaccine will be made and influenza will be classed in the same category with measles, typhoid and smallpox against which we can and do guard."

The Eddy county health officer then discussed some provisions of the present health law, which is, so he said, a common sense measure.

"Had we had the present law on the statute books last year there would not have been so great a loss, for this measure provides for strict regulation during an epidemic,

A hurried trip was made from the ranch, bringing with them Mrs. Rufus Madero and little daughter, Mildred, for medical treatment, the little girl having an attack of acute indigestion and being in an alarming condition for several hours, but improving under the care of a Carlsbad physician.

Our townspeople are greatly gratified over the return to Carlsbad of Rev. Geo. H. Givan, as pastor of the Methodist church, as will be seen in another column. This will make Reverend Givan's third year in this charge. He is a scholarly man, a close thinker and student and a good preacher. Here's hoping and trusting that, aided by the members of the church, the present year will prove the most successful year of his ministry among us.

BUSINESS MEN IN HISTORY

Interesting Question as to Whether It Is Better to Be Owner or Employee.

The main object of life is doubtless to get something out of it besides trouble, and so any critical comparison of rival methods of earning a living cannot fail to be interesting to all men. The only ones not affected are the carefree hobo flitting from place to place and the wise lad who early in life took the precaution to marry the lovely daughter of the capitalist.

Now, about the matter of running your own business or working for some one else on salary and commission. If we go into history the testimony is somewhat conflicting, writes J. R. Sprague in Sunset. Moses was a salaried man for the Pharaoh corporation and did very well for himself. On the other hand, our old friend Bismarck, also a salaried man, built up a wonderful business for his firm, but, as so often happens, was thrown out of a job when he got along in years, and the young fellow stepped in and took over the business.

Among those who went into business for themselves, Mark Antony did well and would probably have become head of the world's greatest corporation if he had not got into fast company and wasted his time on wine suppers, houseboat parties, and so on.

Alexander the Great, strictly a business man with no foolishness about him, in ten years built up such a tremendous organization that he fretted because there were no more good-sized towns where he could establish branch houses. Napoleon, who was in business for himself, prospered exceedingly for a number of years and probably would have died rich except for an unwise second marriage and the fact that he tried to spread out too much for his capital.

We all know the outcome of the business owned and managed by William Hohenzollern. Interested creditors would do well to compare a Dun or Bradstreet report on his affairs made in the spring of 1914 with his rating at the present time.

See Stockyards First.

Jim, his father's pride and mother's joy, had been "over there" for nearly two years. Finally word was received that he had reached an Eastern port and would soon be heading for camp to receive his little red discharge chevron.

Eagerly the home folks had waited to welcome back their hero and planned to make the day of his arrival here en route to camp a big one.

At four o'clock one afternoon Jim's voice came over the telephone to his dad: "Leaving in fifteen minutes for camp."

Unable to understand the short stop-over, the father inquired the time of his arrival in Chi.

"Well, now, it was this way," explained the warrior: "We got in at nine o'clock this morning, but I had a couple of pals with me who had never seen the stockyards, and I took them out to show them the place."—Chicago Tribune.

His Girl.

Dewey was six and it was his first year at school. He remained after school each evening, not because of failing to get ideas, for Dewey had plenty of ideas and room for more, but for sufficient reasons he had a special permit to stay. This gave him good opportunity to confide in Miss O., his teacher, about his "girl"—and every little brown curl around his neck nodded approval to all he said.

On this particular afternoon, after the others had gone and all was still, Dewey, with wistful, big brown eyes, said: "Miss O., you can't guess who my girl is now?" as if he were accustomed to changing. "It's Margaret," and as he turned his head this way and that the little brown curls always assenting, he wailed deep: "I never knew what love was till I saw Margaret."—Indianapolis News.

Those Yankee Vandals.

A huge electric cross formed part of a German holiday celebration in one of the bridgehead towns. On New Year's eve a private had "fraternized" to the extent of several schnapps and was walking toward his billet when he came upon a small group of Germans.

"Nob-end," said the buck genially. "Schoen," answered the admiring German, looking up at the sign. The buck looked up. "Ja wohl." He straightened himself and charged forward. "She's erste classe. She's mine."

A friendly M. P. soothed a spattering burgomaster and escorted the souvenir hunter to his bunk.—Sergeant L. E. Warthman, A. E. F., in Judge.

Americans Led in Aviation Feat.

The first aviators to fly from or to the deck of a warship were Americans. Eugene Ely flew from the deck of the scout cruiser Birmingham on November 14, 1910, and on January 18, 1911, the same aviator in a flight made by him at San Francisco alighted on the deck of the battleship Pennsylvania. He then made a return flight from the deck of that warship. Other American aviators have since performed the same feat.

Stirring Incident.

"Did you find your first airplane flight exciting?" "I certainly did," said the venturesome citizen. "At the last moment friend wife rushed up and tried to prevent me from going and when the propeller began to whirl she did a nose dive into the arms of her nearest relative."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

USED MELTING POTS

TO BOIL HUN BONES

Atlanta Soldier Tells of Find in One of Last Charges of War.

"The most unique find we made, after our charge into the German lines, just before the armistice was signed, was a 'melting pot' used for boiling down the German corpses, and also a bone-crushing machine. Consequently, there were not many bones around, but a few skulls were here and there."

That is a remarkable statement made by Arthur MacKnight of the Forty-first battalion, Canadian Highlanders, in a letter to his father at Atlanta. Young MacKnight is twenty-three years of age. He was reared and educated in Atlanta and has been in France for several months.

Describing his first real "over the top" charge the young soldier writes: "The first thing I knew I was facing Hun machine gunfire, but just about from then on a dense fog came over the whole front, and then we could get right up on them before they would get a 'head' on us. Every Hun we came across had his hands up crying 'kammerad!' They were so thick in numbers that we could not shoot on account of our men being on the other side of them."

"As we came onto our first objective we could see the cavalry going ahead, and also our tanks. One time we had a laugh when one of our tanks got after a German general and chased him quite a ways, until finally he stopped and the tank crew took him a prisoner."

HIS DEED WILL GO DOWN IN HISTORY

The Abbot Thauliez of Cambrai is shown here talking with a Canadian officer in the streets of that city. The fearless act of this brave man will surely be remembered in years to come. Although he was threatened with death by the now defeated Germans, he stayed with a sick woman, thereby risking his own life in the procedure.

Elephant Trampled on Constable's Hat and Ate Attachment Papers.

The circus paraded and the happy crowd lined the sidewalks in a town near Youngstown, O. At the corner stood the village constable directing traffic. It was a great day until a puff of wind flipped the constable's hat under the elephant's foot. Squash! Injured official dignity sped the constable to the circus tent. He'd get revenge by gum! He carried attachment papers and laid them down near the elephant, which he was going to attach. Then he went to hunt the keeper. While he was gone the elephant ate the papers.

And the circus left the town that night.

HIGHER WAGES IN JAPAN

Economic Conditions in That Country and Siberia Improve.

Wages for every class of labor in Japan and on the Siberian coast have become considerably higher in the last year, according to G. G. Sudlock, canneryman, who has just returned to Seattle from a trip to the Siberian coast. He reached a point about 1,400 miles north of Hakodate, Japan, where he operated a salmon cannery for a Russian concern. He says economic conditions in Japan and Siberia have grown rapidly better recently.

Sudlock believes the Siberian coast, mile for mile, will produce as much salmon as the Alaska coast.

FIGHTING TUBERCULOSIS.

The National Tuberculosis Association has launched an extensive educational campaign. A recent health survey revealed a yearly death rate in the United States of 150,000 and there are today 1,000,000 active cases.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The night school for the session of 1919-20 was opened on Tuesday night at the High school building with an enrollment of thirty-four. The classes asked for are, Home Economics, Shorthand, Typewriting, Bookkeeping, Elementary and Advanced Spanish. To avoid conflicts it will be necessary to have the Spanish and Home Economics given on Mondays and Wednesdays and the commercial work on Tuesdays and Thursdays. All work will begin at 7 P. M. and end at 9 P. M. It is hoped that the clerks and business people who need a knowledge of Spanish will take advantage of the opportunity to enter the beginners' class where part of the hour will be question and answer about the business of our town. There is no expense to any course given at night school except for the books.

The reports of the teachers show the total enrollment of the Carlsbad schools to be 657. This is an increase over the total enrollment of last year of 58.

Rev. Buren Sparks, with Mrs. Sparks, were in town yesterday from Artesia. Mr. Sparks has been appointed publicity man for this section in the $75,000,000 drive put on by the Baptists of the United States, and his business here at this time was along that line.

THE MAGNIFICENT AMBERSONS.

room! Go on to the top of the stairs—go on!"

And when George had most unwillingly obeyed, she planted herself in his way, on the top step. "There!" she said. "The idea of your going in there now! I never heard of such a thing!" And with the sudden departure of the nervous vigor she had shown so amazingly, she began to cry again. "I was an awful fool. Do you suppose I dreamed you'd go making everything into such a tragedy? Do you?"

"I don't care what you dreamed," George muttered.

But Fanny went on, always taking care to keep her voice from getting too loud, in spite of her most grievous agitation. "Do you dream I thought you'd go making such a fool of yourself at Mrs. Johnson's? Oh, I saw her this morning! She wouldn't talk to me, but I met George Amberson on my way back, and he told me what you'd done over there! And do you dream I thought you'd do what you've done here this afternoon to Eugene? Oh, I knew that, too! Of course he went to George Amberson about it, and that's why George is here. He's got to tell Isabel the whole thing now, and you wanted to go in there interfering—God knows what! You stay here and let her brother tell her; he's got some consideration for her!"

"I suppose you think I haven't!" George said, and at that Fanny laughed witheringly.

"You! Considerate of anybody?"

"I'm considerate of her good name!" he said hotly. "It seems to me that's about the first thing to be considerate of, in being considerate of a person! And look here; it strikes me you're taking a pretty different tack from what you did yesterday afternoon!"

Fanny wrung her hands. "I did a terrible thing!" she lamented. "Now that it's done and too late, I know what it was! I didn't have sense enough just to let things go on. I didn't have any business to interfere, and I didn't mean to interfere—I only wanted to talk, and let out a little! I did think you already knew everything I told you. I did! And I'd rather have cut off my head than stir you up to doing what you have done! I was just suffering so that I wanted to let out a little—I didn't mean any real harm. But now I see what's happened—or, I was a fool! I haven't any business interfering. Eugene never would have looked at me, anyhow, and, oh, why couldn't I have seen that before! He never came here a single time in his life except on her account, never! and I might have let them alone, because he wouldn't have looked at me even if he'd never seen Isabel. And they haven't done any harm; she made Wilbur happy, and she was a true wife to him as long as he lived. It wasn't a crime for her to care for Eugene all the time; she certainly never told him she did—and she gave me every chance in the world! She left us alone together every time she could—even since Wilbur died—but what was the use? And here I go, not doing myself a bit of good by it, and just—Fanny wrung her hands again—"Just ruining them!"

"I suppose you mean I'm doing that," George said bitterly.

"No. She doesn't let anybody know, but she goes to the doctor regularly."

"Women are always going to doctors regularly."

"No. He told her to."

George was not impressed. "It's nothing at all; she spoke of it to me years ago—some kind of family failing. She said grandfather had it, too; and look at him! Hasn't proved very serious with him! You act as if I'd done something wrong in sending that man about his business, and as if I were going to persecute my mother, instead of protecting her. By Jove, it's sickening! You told me how all the riffraff in town were busy with her name, and then the minute I lift my hand to protect her, you begin to attack me and—"

"Sh!" Fanny checked him, laying her hand on his arm. "Your uncle is going."

The library doors were heard opening, and a moment later there came the sound of the front door closing.

George moved toward the head of the stairs, then stood listening, but the house was silent.

Fanny made a slight noise with her lips to attract his attention, and, when he glanced toward her, shook her head at him urgently. "Let her alone," she whispered. "She's down there by herself. Don't go down. Let her alone."

She moved a few steps toward him and halted, her face pallid and awestruck, and then both stood listening for anything that might break the silence downstairs. No sound came to them; that poignant silence was continued throughout long, long minutes, while the two listeners stood there under its mysterious spell; and in its primitive eloquence—speaking, as it did, of the figure alone in the big, dark library, where dead Wilbur's new silver frame gleamed in the dimness—there was something that checked even George.

Fanny Minster broke the long silence with a sound from her throat, a stifled gasp; and with that great compulsion of hers, her handkerchief, retired softly to the loneliness of her own chamber. After she had gone George looked about him bleakly, then on tiptoe crossed the hall and went into his own room, which was filled with twilight. Still tiptoeing, though he could not have said why, he went across the room and sat down heavily in a chair facing the window. Outside there was nothing but the darkening air and the wall of the nearest of the new houses. He had not slept at all the night before and he had eaten nothing since the preceding day at lunch, but he felt neither drowsiness nor hunger. His set determination filled him, kept him but too wide awake, and his gaze at the grayness beyond the window was wide-eyed and bitter.

Darkness had closed in when there was a step in the room behind him. Then someone knelt beside the chair, two arms went round him with infinite compassion, a gentle head rested against his shoulder, and there came the faint scent of apple-blossoms far away.

"You mustn't be troubled darling," his mother whispered.

ALKALI POISONING TO BE INVESTIGATED THIS WINTER.

The County Agent is just in receipt of a letter from the authorities at the U. S. Experiment Station at Saline, Utah, in which they state that they will again attempt to find out something about the disease which is commonly called "Alkali Poisoning," and which is due to the loss of thousands of dollars worth of stock every year, to the farmers and stockmen of the Pecos valley.

This investigation work was to have been started last year, but due to the "flu", and bad weather conditions at the time that the workers were here, it was postponed until some later date. After much persuasion, the Bureau of Animal Industry has decided to continue the work this year.

The letter stated that the investigators will be in Carlsbad about the 12th of October, to get the details of the work arranged for and get the work started. No definite plans were set forth in the letter, but the County Agent would like to have the names of any farmer or stockman in the valley who would be willing to co-operate in the matter. Further, if any one knows of a case of "Alkali" about that time, i. e., October 12, the County Agent would surely appreciate it if the matter be called to his attention.

Father Gilbert had the pleasure of witnessing the game of base ball which decided Cincinnati was the champion of the American league played at St. Louis, and left for Carlsbad on the first train. While going from St. Louis to Cincinnati he rode with that aggregation and was talking with an umpire by the name of Quigley to whom he expressed regret that it would be impossible for him to attend the world series games, whereupon Quigley opened his valise and presented Father Gilbert with the ball used in the deciding game at St. Louis. The ball was brought on to Carlsbad where it is being proudly exhibited to the priest's numerous friends.

Judge Robinson and family left for Tulsa, Oklahoma, Thursday morning, the judge having accepted the position of assistant to the city attorney and needing to be present in Tulsa by the 15th of the month. Their going is regretted by a large circle of friends.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS.

The first meeting of the Carlsbad Woman's club for the season was held at the club rooms in the library building last Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. Despite the threatening weather and the muddy condition of the streets and crossings ten members were present.

Mrs. F. G. Snow, second vice-president, presided. Mrs. Hemenway, who had been elected president of the club for this year tendered her resignation and Mrs. C. C. Sikes was elected in her stead. Mrs. John Lucas was made first vice-president. The other officers of the club are Mrs. George Roberts, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ryan, recording secretary; and Mrs. Edgar Atwater, treasurer.

A general discussion of the peace question, which is occupying the minds of the American people to the exclusion of almost everything else, was indulged in. At the next meeting the "League of Nations and the Peace Treaty" will be under discussion.

Several members who were on the program were unavoidably detained, but the meeting was quite interesting and the ladies are looking forward to a successful club year.

WHIST PARTY.

A whist party at the E. H. Hemenway home last Friday night was among the pleasant affairs of the week-end. Two tables of young folk participated in the games and dainty refreshments which followed. Those present, beside the host, Robert Hemenway, were: Miss Frances Moore, Mary Lee Newton, Helen Wright and Dorothy Ryan; Messrs. Clifford and Lytton Lewis, Charles Rarey and George Givan.

Fred Nymeyer, Mrs. Robert Leek and the Cowden Brothers were at the first of the week from their home near Eunice. They were detained here some days by the muddy roads, and also by the heavy rains which fell after their arrival in town.

J. A. Kincaid, the freighter, was down from El Paso Gap, coming Monday night.

5,000 Helpless Orphans in South Are Asking the Privileges of a Home

Baptists Are Providing For That Many at Present in Fifteen Institutions But as Many More are Waiting For Admission--The 75 Million Campaign Plans to Meet That Need.

A Group of Boys and Girls in the Tennessee Baptist Orphan Home near Nashville who are being cared for and trained for useful lives.

Does your heart go out to the worthy boy and girl bereft by the Grim Reaper of father and mother, and left alone in the world without the fostering care of those to whom they are naturally most dear in the world?

Then you will understand why Southern Baptists have established orphanages in fifteen states, are caring for 5,000 such children in those homes and training them for useful lives in the world.

But the need is far greater than the ability of these institutions to meet it. While five thousand children are being cared for in these orphanages, there are on the waiting list of these institutions fully five thousand more equally worthy, fatherless and motherless boys and girls who want the privileges which these orphanages afford but which must be denied them for the present because there is no room with which to shelter more of them.

So when the Baptist 75 Million Campaign was launched for the enlargement of the work of the denomination along general lines in an effort to meet growing spiritual needs in the homeland and throughout the world, the sum of $4,700,000 was apportioned to the orphanages, this sum to cover a program of five years, as the $75,000,000 sought in the campaign will be raised in cash and five-year pledges during Victory Week, November 30-December 7.

In the homes that have been provided for the orphan facilities are provided for giving regular schooling of the same character that is afforded in the public schools, beginning with the kindergarten and continuing to the tenth and eleventh grades in the high school. This work in the school room is supplemented however, with practical training along industrial and other lines. For instance, the boys are given courses in practical farm work on farms which have been purchased and are operated by the homes, livestock production, carpentering, tin work, plumbing, masonry, and the like, as well as courses in business for those who show special adaptation for that line of work.

The school room work for the girls is supplemented with the study of music, domestic science, stenography and the like. Large attention is given to the religious life of the children, also, and this is given emphasis in the daily chapel services, and in the Sunday School and preaching services on the Sabbath.

The orphan children respond readily to the opportunities and privileges afforded them and there have gone out from these institutions a number of the most useful men and women in the various states. While taking pride in the accomplishments of the boys and girls who are in the homes at present, as well as those who have gone out from there to make their own way in the world, the superintendent and teachers are saddened by the fact that there are so many other helpless children who ought to be aided but can not be by reason of the limitations of the homes.

Enlargements are necessary for all of the fifteen orphanages fostered by Southern Baptists which are located in the following states: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia.

SOUTH METHODIST PASTORS ASSIGNED FOR COMING YEAR.

Tucuman, N. M., Oct. 5.—After five days of unbroken sunshine both in the weather and the spirit of the conference, the thirtieth annual session of the New Mexico conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, came to a close with the reading of the appointments of the preachers on Sunday night by Bishop W. F. McMurry at the Methodist church of Tucuman.

While there has been a decrease in the membership of the church and ministry of the conference, and no new ministers applied for admission, the entire session has been marked by enthusiasm and religious fervor. Bishop McMurry has made an ideal presiding officer and has endeared himself to the members of the conference. Able addresses were delivered by prominent visiting ministers, and the keynote of them all has been the spirit of evangelism and the great evangelistic plan which has been proposed for a year of revival effort which shall reach every Methodist congregation in the United States.

The Women's Missionary society held profitable and enthusiastic meetings every day and its members were greatly inspired by the able discussions of Bible topics by Miss Cunningham of the Lydia Patterson Institute of El Paso.

Following an impressive talk the appointments of ministers to the several charges for the ensuing year were announced as follows:

El Paso District, Santa Rita, J. T. Redmon.
Roswell District—J. B. Cochran, presiding elder; Artesia, R. F. [unclear]; [unclear] circuit, J. H. S. Webb; Carlsbad, George H. Givan; Clovis, R. B. Freeman; Clovis circuit, W. A. [unclear]; Dexter circuit, W. B. Gilling; Elida circuit, J. L. Keller; Herman, H. W. Carter; Hope, W. L. Jenkins; Loving circuit, to be supplied; Lovington circuit, to be supplied; Odessa and Barstow, J. S. Rice; Pecos, Fred B. Faust; Portales, J. M. Stucky; Roswell, S. E. Allison; Sacramento circuit, to be supplied; Tatum circuit, A. J. Brown; Texico and Farwell, L. L. Thurston.

Transferred to other conferences—J. B. Bell and J. E. Fuller, elders, to Texas conference; D. Macune, elder, to Mexico conference; E. D. Lewis, elder, to southwest Missouri conference; Sam R. Hay, elder, to northwest Texas conference; Jerris Jenner, elder, to Pacific conference; W. W. Turner, elder, east Oklahoma conference.

THE GERMAN ATTITUDE.

In these days of turmoil Germany and her attitude has ceased to occupy the front page of the newspapers. The world has other troubles to think of. For the moment Hochland is down and out. Yet those people are very deep, and they require most watching when they are quietest.

It is said that a large section of the German workmen has signified a desire to work 10 hours a day. Now if Germany works 10 hours, and the other countries work only eight, and limit their production at that, the more industrious nation is the one that is likely to go ahead. It is quite possible that in the long run a nation can do more work in eight hours than 10. But it must look out carefully that it adopts all possible efficiency methods to keep up production.

Mathias Erzberger, one of the most slippery and wily of the German politicians, recently said, "Germany will do her utmost to fulfill the conditions of the peace treaty, and by hard work will try to regain the confidence and good will of her former enemies."

If Erzberger and other leaders keep up that talk and try to act on that principle, they will find that the world is long suffering and disposed to forgive.

The hypocrisy and treachery of the Germans has been such that the world is very suspicious and is waiting to be shown. Germany will have every chance to make good. If they show themselves capable of acting like white folks and human beings, they will reconcile former enemies. But to be really trusted, they must show that they are capable of understanding plain facts that are obvious to everyone else. If after the revela-

LAKEWOOD LOCALS.

The biggest dance of the season was given at Lakewood Inn last Saturday night. Disciples of Terpsichore from all of the surrounding country, from other Valley towns attended. Carlsbad was well represented.

The passenger train from the north, which has been from one to four hours late for several weeks past, fooled everybody Monday by coming in on time, and the Lakewoodites who had a pressing invitation to visit Judge Bratton that day, came very near getting left, while Judge Bratton, who had become so accustomed to its being late, didn't know until next day that it ever came at all.

Notwithstanding the flood and other drawbacks, there are hundreds of tons of tomatoes in the fields around Lakewood, and the canners are running full time. If the weather remains fair, so that the farmers can gather and deliver the crop, the canners will run steadily from now until frost.

Mr. Polk, a nephew of M. J. H. Lindsay, who has been visiting here, left Sunday for his home at Mason, Texas.

Uncle Lyle McDonald, of Amarillo, Texas, came in Sunday for a two weeks visit with his parents. Mr. Lindsay is in the employ of the Rock Island railroad.

Vernon and Roy Deventrum left Sunday for Gorman, Texas, where, we hope, they will make a fortune in the oil fields of Texas, and come back to Lakewood to spend it.

Dayton and Lakewood school ball teams played a game on the local diamond Friday afternoon, which resulted in a victory for the visitors, in a score of 14 to 10.

W. I. Johnson and Rudolph [unclear] were business visitors to Carlsbad Wednesday.

Mrs. Mabel Koppke, primary teacher in our school, visited at Carlsbad Friday, and at Artesia Saturday and Sunday.

T. G. Low Jitnel to Carlsbad Saturday and again Sunday.

C. W. Davidson, State Highway Engineer, and a Mr. Miller, of Roswell, were here Thursday, looking over the roads.

Bob Campbell, acting for Max Marshall, shipped six cars of sheep from here to San Angelo, Texas Saturday.

W. G. Cass and son are shipping a car of horses to some point in Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Webb went to Carlsbad Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Butler went to Carlsbad Wednesday to consult a physician as to Mrs. Butler's health.

Mrs. W. E. Knowles surprised her mother, Mrs. George McDonald, Wednesday, with a birthday party. A number of friends were invited and a most enjoyable time was had. Ice cream and cake were served, and there was music, picture-taking and many other pastimes engaged in.

EL PASO GAP ITEMS.

In excavating for his dipping vat W. H. Shattuck, of Effendale ranch found in a bed of sand and gravel an elephant's monstrous tooth or tusk, which measured six feet long and four inches thick. It is sure pure ivory. It was bedded in the gravel so that it was quite a job to take it out without breaking, but when it was exposed to the air, it broke into several pieces but it is some tooth.

E. E. Akers and J. H. Heartfield passed through the Gap a few days ago on their way to their home near Orange, N. M. They have been in the Texas oil fields, near Ranger, for several months. Their object in coming home just now was to investigate about the oil boom in Crow Flat.

Died at El Paso Gap, last Wednesday, Daniel, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Trav Humphreys, northwest of the Gap. The little boy was bitten twice by a rattlesnake on Tuesday evening, Sept. 30, as Mr. Humphreys was about fifty miles away from home, on a cow round-up. Just as soon as he got home on Wednesday morning, Oct. 1st, they started with the little one to a doctor at Carlsbad, but he died at 1 p. m., at the Gap. This is the first death at El Paso Gap.

Victor Lande came out on the mail car last Thursday. He came out to assist in the work on the Guadalupe Sheep company ranch, just north of the Gap. Mr. Lande is financially interested in the company and wants to set the ranch in good shape for the winter.

W. W. Simpson left his ranch last Friday for the City Beautiful. He will be absent from the ranch for several days.

H. N. Owen came in Monday from Carlsbad, with a load of freight for the Canyon.

W. R. Shattuck left his ranch, Effendale, for the City on the Pecos, Monday afternoon. He will be in the city for several days sight-seeing.

Mr. Jones Iribarne and his sister Mrs. Mulcer, of Southern France, brother and sister, respectively, of Michel Iribarne, who have been visiting him at his ranch near the Gap, will leave for Carlsbad in a few days, after spending a few days in the city they will go to Los Angeles, Cal.; then they will go to McKittrick, Cal., and visit John Iribarne, another brother; then sail to their home in France.

Everybody is busy these days clipping mohair. It will take about ten days to finish clipping in this vicinity.

President Wilson Improves.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Slow but continued progress over a period of five days has brought such an improvement in President Wilson that his physicians announced today that he was stronger than at any time since he was taken ill two weeks ago tonight.

Encouraged by the patient's progress Rear Admiral Grayson, the president's personal physician, let him sit up in bed part of the day.
