SHERIFF PANNED FOR ATTEMPTING TO STOP PARADE

Grand Jury Reports On the Fight at Lorena, Texas, Resulting in One Death and Injuries to Nine.

(By The Associated Press.)
Waco, Tex., Nov. 5.—Criticism of Sheriff Bob Buchanan and his deputy, M. Burton, for the manner in which they attempted to stop a Ku Klux Klan parade at Lorena, near here, on the night of October 1, was contained in the final report today of the McLennan county grand jury. No indictments were returned. The jury declared, however, it was not attempting to defend the Klan. One man was fatally stabbed and nine others seriously hurt in the fight.

The section of report dealing with Sheriff Buchanan said:

"The sheriff went to Lorena with the avowed purpose of stopping the parade and so announced on his arrival. The citizens had gathered to witness the parade and some of the most substantial ones offered to be responsible for the lawful conduct of the Ku Klux Klan, but the sheriff refused to accede to their request, declaring that there would be no parade unless they marched over his dead body."

"We desire to go on record as severely condemning the methods employed by Sheriff Buchanan and Deputy Sheriff Burton."

JAP CABINET RESIGNS AS DIRECT RESULT OF PREMIER HARA'S DEATH

Tokio, Nov. 5 (By the Associated Press.)—The Japanese cabinet resigned office after a meeting of the members held this morning. The resignation of the cabinet, which came as a direct result of the assassination of Premier Hara yesterday, will not cause any immediate change in the government, as the ministry, in obedience to imperial injunction, will continue in office until further notice from the throne.

There will be no change in policy, either diplomatic or domestic, especially with the Washington conference on limitation of armaments and Far Eastern problems. Acting Premier Uchida stated:

"The delegates will put forth their best efforts for the sake of world peace, in pursuance of the fundamental policy on armaments limitations already laid down in the name of the government," he said.

Viscount Uchida will take up the affairs of the ministry of marine, to which Premier Hara had been giving attention after the departure of Admiral Kato, the head of that ministry, for the Washington conference.

HARDING ASSAILED FOR HIS STAND ON SOLDIER BONUS BILL

taxation that will make the people pay; that wealth will not bear its share. That is the declaration and it comes impudently and brazenly from the head of the fiscal department of this government. He ought to be retired for making this sort of declaration."

Senator Watson took sharp issue with Senator La Follette's interpretation of Mr. Mellon's testimony before the senate finance committee when the tax bill was being drafted. "I did not say and the secretary did not say and I do not think any possible construction placed upon his testimony in fairness can lead him to say that he was in favor of the evasion of taxation by the rich. It is not conceivable that the secretary would come before a high committee of congress and advocate evasion of taxation."

Senator La Follette was arguing for his amendment, proposing that tax returns be made open to public inspection, which was rejected, 35 to 33.

The senate also rejected, 39 to 28, another amendment by Mr. La Follette providing for taxes on estates ranging from 1 per cent on the first $50,000 to 50 per cent on estates over $50,000,000. Another amendment by the same senator exempting securities held by them, was also rejected.

Should the tax bill be passed by the senate Monday it would not reach the house until Wednesday as that body adjourned today until that time.

REED AMENDMENT IS REJECTED BY SENATE

Washington, Nov. 5.—By a vote of 28 to 25 the senate rejected tonight the Reed amendment to the tax bill proposing to enact the soldier bonus bill and retain the excess profits as a means of financial adjustment compensation for former service men.

Three republicans, Capper, Johnson, Kenyon, Ladd and La Follette supported the amendment and two democrats, Glass and Myers, voted against it.

Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee, announced that if the Reed amendment was voted down he would offer an amendment providing the refunding of the debt incurred by the government during the war and the use of $2,000,000,000 of the interest in refunding the cost of adjusted compensation.

Senator Jones, democrat, New Mexico, accused the republicans of attempting to delay the bill "until in the end they have forgotten about it."

which are an outgrowth of the old European spirit would be forgotten in the enthusiasm of such a splendid constructive work. The people who yesterday were enemies would be united tomorrow on the peace front. They would learn to know, to understand, and to esteem each other in this common work of civilization. The Washington conference would commence with deeds—not hollow words—and would be instantly exalted above the generally negative work of the league of nations and find the path to reasonable and just world constitution.

HOUSTON POST IS SUED FOR $80,000 DAMAGES

(By The Associated Press.)
Galveston, Tex., Nov. 5.—Counsel for Very Rev. J. M. Kirwin, vicar general of the Catholic diocese of Galveston and president of St. Mary's seminary at La Porte, Tex., today filed a libel suit against the Houston Post. Damages of $80,000 are asked, $40,000 as actual and $40,000 as exemplary. The action is based on a story which appeared in the Houston Post of October 8, last, dealing with an address delivered by Father Kirwin at the funeral of a soldier who was killed in France during which he had been compelled to repel the assault of an officer.

More telegrams and letters in support of his illegal hanging charges also were permitted another photograph of what he said was an army gallows in France which had been smuggled into this country by a Huntington, W. Va., private.

"Apparently there were as many gibbets as hospitals," said the senator who for the first time gave the name—Clifford L. Ayer, Jr.—of the man he said had told him of hearing from a gallows guard that twenty-one soldiers had been hanged without court martials.

Telegrams from Ayer.

He presented a telegram from Ayer, stating that an affidavit was being forwarded for the use of the special committee that will meet next Monday to determine procedure in the investigation of the senator's charges.

Another telegram presented by the senator was from George Carborough, Aaron, Ga., who said he served in the 605th engineer corps and declared Mr. Watson's charges of illegal hangings were true. Senator Watson said this witness would appear before the committee and "face the nabobs of the general staff."

The senator read another telegram which asked that the senate investigation include "the case of Albert Purcell, of Cincinnati," about which the informant said he had been able to learn nothing from the war department. The witness said Purcell's death occurred at a camp at San Antonio, Tex.

William Gibbons of Cleveland, had written Mr. Watson said that he had two photographs, one taken before and the other after the hanging of a soldier against whom the writer said the charges lacked definiteness.

MINE OPERATORS ARE PERMITTED TO SLASH WAGES

Colorado State Industrial Commission Terminates Its Temporary Order Restoring the Old Scale.

(By The Associated Press.)
Denver, Colo., Nov. 5.—The Colorado state industrial commission today terminated its temporary order restoring the wage scale in effect prior to September 1 in Huerfano and Las Animas counties in mines operated by the Colorado Fuel and Iron company.

This action permitted the company to put into effect wages inaugurated September 1, last in which reductions were approximately 20 per cent.

The commission announced it found that the company had an agreement with its employees to reduce wages, but the commission, in its finding, did not go into the fairness or unfairness of the wage reduction. The wage reduction on September 1, last, resulted in a ten day strike in a number of mines of the company. The strike was ended by a temporary order of the commission.

Members of the commission stated today that the miners would not be violating the state industrial law in the event they strike as a result of reductions in wages should such reduction follow today's decision.

The decision of the commission specified that the reduced wage may be put into effect only at the mines where "an agreement was reached between the company and the employees," specifying eleven mines in Huerfano and Las Animas counties. These are Walsen, Robinson No. 1, Robinson No. 2 and Ideal in Huerfano county and Morley, Sopris, Frederick, Priero, Toller, Berwind and Tabasco in Las Animas county.

Five mines of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company in Huerfano county are not affected by the action of the commission. These are Cameron, Lester, Pictou, Kehler No. 1 and Kehler No. 2. All mines operated by the company in Las Animas county were found by the commission to have had agreements for the reduced scale and at these mines the lower scale may be put in effect at the option of the company.

None of the company's mines in Gunnison and Fremont county was affected in the controversy. No other mines in the state are affected by the order of today, members of the commission stated. Petitions of the Pikes Peak Mining company in El Paso county and the Victor American Fuel company for similar reductions will be heard and action taken separately. It was stated, The Victor American company asked for a reduction in wages between the Colorado Fuel and Iron company and other competitors. The industrial commission took jurisdiction in the dispute between the Colorado Fuel and Iron company and Las Animas county had walked out in protest against the reductions. After a two day hearing at Walsenburg, the commission ordered the former scale restored pending a full investigation.

UNEMPLOYMENT DURING OCTOBER DECREASED

(By The Associated Press.)
 Washington, Nov. 5.—A decrease in unemployment occurred during October, the labor department reported tonight, estimating 1.01 per cent more workers were on pay rolls October 31 than September 30. The estimate was based on reports from 1,428 firms and was reinforced by findings that unemployment had decreased in forty-four out of sixty-five cities.

Industries reporting increased unemployment included only automobile manufacturers, paper and printing, and a few classified as miscellaneous. Manufacturers of food products, iron and steel, textiles, metals, chemicals and tobacco, on the other hand, increased their forces as did railroad shops. "Reports from 231 principal industrial centers indicate public improvements are absorbing some of the common labor that is rapidly being released from agriculture, commerce and seasonal activities," F. I. Jones, chief of the United States employment service, said in the report.

Let Our Up-to-the-Minute Trucks Give You Service

Our big plant has grown from a small beginning to its present proportions as a natural result of the increasing needs of our city. Are you availing yourself of all the service we can offer? If not you are losing and we are too.

It is not necessary for us to speak at great length as to our steam laundry work. It is the best that modern equipment and methods can offer.

But not all appreciate what we can offer in our newly added departments. We not only do dry cleaning of all classifications with the utmost skill, but handle many phases of this work that is usually not to be had outside the larger cities. We clean fancy lamp shades, auto seat covers and leather coats. We clean upholstered furniture and the interior of enclosed cars without removing the fabrics.

Our rug cleaning department is gaining new business every day, and with the addition of our hat cleaning and blocking equipment just received, there is little in which we cannot answer every need. What day shall we call?

ALLEGED CONFESSION IS BARRED BY LANDIS

(By The Associated Press.)
 Chicago, Nov. 5.—Judge Landis today barred the alleged confession of Edward Geirum, on trial with "Big Tim" Murphy and two others as the alleged driver of the car used by the bandits who staged the $355,000 Dearborn station mail robbery. The judge sustained a claim of the defense that Geirum had been coerced into making the statement.

"I am forced to sustain the objection of the attorney for the defense, but I do with no degree of enthusiasm," Judge Landis said. "Geirum is the most willing perjurer I have seen. How he has escaped the penitentiary is a source of astonishment to me."

 London, Nov. 5 (By The Associated Press).—Negotiations on the Irish question are temporarily in abeyance, while the British government is addressing itself to the business of bringing Ulster into the conference between representatives of the British cabinet and Sinn Fein Ireland as was originally proposed by Premier Lloyd-George. Sir James Craig, Ulster premier, at Mr. Lloyd-George's request, met the premier and Austen Chamberlain, government leader in the house of commons today. An official communique issued after the conference merely mentioned the names of the conferees who also included Sir Robert Horne, chancellor of the exchequer.

RATON DEFEATS NORMAL SCHOOL; SCORE, 27 TO 6

Fast Game at Raton Proves
Disastrous for Las Vegas
Team; Gillespie and Hursh
Are Individual Stars.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL.)
Raton, N. M., Nov. 5.—Colfax county high school defeated Las Vegas Normal again today by a score of 27 to 6.

The first quarter opened with Normal kicking off to Raton. The quarter was well fought by both sides. Gillespie made the first touchdown for Raton, after twelve minutes of play, and kicked goal. After the first touchdown, Raton kicked the ball and made a run of about seventy-five yards for a touchdown, which was the only one made by Normal. They failed to kick goal, and Gillespie tried several drop-kicks without success. By straight line plunges and pretty running, Raton pushed Odell of their team over the line for the second touchdown in the first quarter. Gillespie failed to kick goal.

In the second quarter the ball zigzagged through the field, neither side scoring. Time was called with Raton in possession of the ball within ten yards of the line. Several good forward passes were pulled off by Raton, netting good distances.

The third quarter was also scoreless, but developed into passing and kicking. Excellent passes and kicks were made by both sides. In this quarter, as well as running down punts. The kicking of Hursh was the feature of the quarter.

The last quarter was not so well played by the Normal men. Ferguson was taken out on account of injury. Murphy of Raton carried the ball over for the first touchdown of the quarter, with goal kicked by Gillespie. Greecey followed Murphy with a touchdown from the one-yard line. Gillespie kicked goal again. The Normals were unable to hold the heavy line plunges of Greecey and Odell, although their line was the heavier. Raton was on the way down the field for another touchdown when time was called.

The game was clean and well played by both sides. There were only three minor penalties inflicted. The heavy Norm 1 line seemed unable to hold the lighter but faster Raton boys, especially Odell and Greecey. Gillespie at quarter back for Raton played a stellar game and used good judgment in calling plays. Hursh played the best game for the Normals, and showed that his boot was good when it came to punting.

The Normals' team and student supporters were entertained during the day, and in the evening a special dance was arranged for their benefit. There was a large parade before the game. Several other interesting features were arranged for last night.

IOWA FOOTBALL SQUAD
TRIMS GOPHERS, 41-7

(By The Associated Press.)
Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 5.—Out of Iowa, a youth of slight stature, came today, and added by several other energetic young men, wove a heavy cloud of gloom that settled tonight over Minnesota's home coming day.

For this young man—Aubrey Davine—captaining the Hawkeyes, darted and squirmed his way through the Minnesota warriors with such frequency that the Iowans trimmed the Gophers, 41 to 7.

MICHIGAN AGGIES VICTORS.
East Lansing, Mich., Nov. 5.—The Michigan Aggies outplayed the University of South Dakota today and won, 14 to 6. The Farmers accepted but two of half a dozen scoring chances, although they kept the ball deep in South Dakota territory during the game.

CORNELL DEFEATS COLUMBIA.
New York, Nov. 5.—Cornell rolled 34 points against Columbia in the first two periods of today's game, but was played to a standstill in the last two quarters. The final score was 41 to 7.

M'GILL UNIVERSITY IS DEFEATED BY SYRACUSE
(By The Associated Press.)
Montreal, Nov. 5.—McGill university, playing its first game of American college football in forty-one years, displayed a flashy attack and stiff defense against Syracuse today and held the visitors to two touchdowns. The final score was: Syracuse, 13; McGill, 0. Because of McGill's inexperience, even her most ardent supporters had looked for a large Syracuse score, but the McGill eleven, light and fast, sailed into Syracuse at the outset and by end runs and line rushes carried the ball into Syracuse territory time and again, only to be held for down or lose the muddy piskin on a fumble.

McGill had been practicing the American game for only two weeks,

CALDWELL PACKS SLEEP MAKER IN LONG RANGE ARM

Gorilla Jones to Give Public
Training This Afternoon;
Both Boys About Ready for Bout Nov. 10.

There was more snappy boxing seen at the Moose hall last night when Walter Caldwell gave a public workout than has been seen in many entire programs in Albuquerque during the past few years. Caldwell went through his paces, shadow boxing, rope skipping, at which he is a past master, and five rounds of boxing. With Heavy Burroughs of El Paso as a sparring partner, Caldwell showed considerable speed for three rounds and in the next two rounds with Danny Welcher showed that, in spite of his slowness, he packs a wallop that can carry a six-footer off his feet.

This came as a surprise to some of the spectators, for the blow was not a premeditated slumber aider, and indicated that although Caldwell is not heavily muscled, the power from his long arms and body is terrific. He is nearly 6 feet 4 inches tall and weighs around 175 pounds.

When he meets Gorilla Jones at the armory on the night of November 10 in the main event of the evening, boxing fans will see a struggle between two men whose style of fighting is entirely different. Caldwell favors to send his punches from a distance so that the leverage of his length will put the necessary snap into his blows. Jones on the other hand, carries more muscle and is a clever fighter, packing sleepers in both gloves even in short arm jabs. He also packs a long range wallop, but this it will be effective against Caldwell's reach is doubtful.

Jones will train at Moose hall this afternoon at 3 o'clock and the fans of the city are invited to witness the performance free of charge.

JAPANESE BUSINESS MEN WANT NOTHING SO MUCH AS PEACE, SAYS

(By The Associated Press.)
Chicago, Nov. 5.—Business men of Japan want nothing so much as peace and prosperity and a chance to recover from the costs of war and the burdens of war taxation.

N. Yatsushiro, one of a party of Japanese business men visiting the United States, tonight asserted in an address.

The twenty-three Japanese business men in the party arrived in Chicago yesterday.

"We have no vain hope of expanding our exports to this country without increasing our imports from the United States," he said. "We can sell to you only to the extent that we can buy from you. We want trade—two-sided trade—not merely exports."

"Some common agreement must be reached by which business interests of east and west may take advantage of the unparalleled opportunities that are opened wide in the Far East," he said.

CORNHUSKERS DEFEAT PITTSBURGH, 10 TO 0

(By The Associated Press.)
Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 5.—The University of Nebraska came out of the west today, invaded the lair of the Panthers and by weight crushed the University of Pittsburgh team. The Cornhuskers outweighing the Pitt players man for man, played a wonderful driving game and won, 10 to 0.

Pitt never seriously threatened the westerners, who, using a flying wedge of five men through center, crashed through for many good gains.

WILDCATS TRIM N. M. AGGIES BY 31 TO 0 SCORE

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL.)
Las Cruces, N. M., Nov. 5.—The New Mexico Aggies went down in defeat before the Arizona Wildcats this afternoon by a score of 31 to 0.

The Aggies team was on the defensive practically the entire game after the first exchange of the ball to the Arizona eleven.

Both teams used practically their entire supply of substitutes, the Aggies finishing with only one man of their original lineup.

At the start the Aggies made good headway against the famous eleven from Tucson. They went down the field for three striking downs and got within easy striking distance of the opposing goal, only to fumble and lose the ball. Arizona took their chance and started an offensive open field and end run. They went down the field time after time to their goal. The Aggies at this stage in the game began to slow up and had to call time on account of injuries. Quarterback Mason, probably the stellar man of the eleven, was knocked unconscious after the fourth down and was unable to call a signal until told by the captain in the execution of plays. He was moved from place to place as the play went.

Brookshire, Davis, Hare, Boone, Will Graham, Tudor, Coleman, Fairley and Buell of the A. and M. were all taken out of the game on account of injuries. Sionaker was the only Arizona player injured. McClellan, Hobbs, Manza and Marshall starred for Arizona. The much famed Sionaker did in no way live up to his reputation for being the superior man on the Arizona team and was completely outclassed in many ways by his capable substitute, Marshall.

The Aggie line was superior to Arizona. Miller started for the Aggies and was the best lineman on the field. Fairly, Boykin, Boone, McGarry, Charles and Smit starred for the Aggies. The work of McGarry is to be more than admired. He substituted for Mason at quarterback when he could only bend one leg. While Brookshire was in the game Arizona failed to gain ground by exchanging punts.

Roughness featured the game. Hardly a play started without a roughness penalty. The referee, unless it was necessary to call time out for some man, Marshall and McClellan led in the gaining of yardage for Arizona and Fairly and Davis for the Aggies. Miller kept up the spirit of the Red and White eleven and holds much credit for the rally in the third quarter.

FORBES IN FAVOR OF SPENDING $5,000,000 AT FORT BAYARD, N. M.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL.)
Santa Fe, Nov. 5.—Miguel A. Otero, Jr., department commander of the American legion, today announced C. B. Forbes, director of the veterans' bureau, declared he favored spending $5,000,000 at Fort Bayard, N. M., or abandoning the place, as he did not believe the $450,000 award by the White commission sufficient.

The legion convention at Kansas City in a resolution called attention to conditions at Fort Bayard, said to be deplorable, and urged that they be remedied and John G. Emery, former national commander, wrote Forbes, demanding that action be taken after calling attention to a report on conditions at the hospital by Donald Miller, alternate national committeeman, which said authorities at Washington were gravely negligent in granting and adjusting compensation for sick ex-service men and in furnishing sufficient quarters for them.

Emery recommended that tented and heated be provided to relieve congestion at the hospital that adequate personnel, including doctors and nurses, be furnished and that a permanent contact man be detailed to the place to handle the claims of incoming patients.

THE NEW GENERATION

By JANE PHELPS

JOAN WINS HER BET.

CHAPTER 6.

Often Margaret felt the barrier of non-comprehension she was beating against. But as often she refrained from making any complaint either of or to Joan. The girl's girlish air of sophistication was amusing. She did nothing she was not perfectly willing to talk about with her mother, although at times Margaret knew she felt it unnecessary and foolish.

There was nothing about living, about life, that frightened Joan. She grasped it with both hands and looked it squarely in the face. "Stands what?" Margaret inquired.

"Her mother's interference. Hortense daren't call her soul her own. She hardly dares breathe without asking if she may. I'd run away if you treated me like that." The long, thin 12-year-old legs swung back and forth from Joan's perch on the edge of the table.

"What does her mother do to which you object?"

"Everything! It's you can't do this or you must do that until I should think Hortense would tell them she would do as she pleased. You never try to make me do things, Mumie, why?"

"Perhaps because I think it is better to let you decide for yourself. Perhaps because I had too much of what Hortense has in my own childhood."

"Poor Mumie! But you know better than to try to boss me, don't you? I wouldn't stand for it. Why, Hortense's people treat her as if she hadn't any brains, or any sense. It's insulting. You say times have changed, Mumie. We girls aren't like the wishy-washy girls who used to be afraid to play games for fear they would spoil their complexion and who thought of nothing but beauty."

Then after a moment:

"I think, Mumie, I shall begin to smoke."

"Yes, Joan?" Margaret was shocked, terribly shocked. She must not allow Joan to smoke, but how prevent it?

"A lot of the girls smoke—most of them are a little older of course. But I might as well commence now. Of course I shall anyway when I am a year or two older."

"The greatest objection to smoking is that it stunts a girl's growth," Margaret knew how intensely Joan longed to be tall. She tried to smile from the top of a door to stretch herself, and go through all sorts of gyrations to increase her height.

"Really?"

"Yes, dear. Doctors are all agreed upon that point. After one has their full growth it hasn't that effect of course."

"I guess I'll wait then. I can't afford to lose an inch of height for the sake of a cigarette. I'm sorry though, I think it's awfully sporty to smoke."

"A great deal more sporty not to—under the circumstances."

"I guess you are right, Mumie."

The 12-year-old legs ceased swinging, and Margaret heard nothing more about smoking.

"I wonder what she will want to do when she is really grown up?" Margaret said to herself. "I am afraid I shall find her rather difficult at times."

On Joan's thirteenth birthday she declared to Margaret:

"Mumie, I'm through."

"Through what, dear?"

"School."

Agghast, Margaret looked at the slim young thing sitting on the edge of the bed. She had gone in with her birthday gifts as soon as she heard Joan stirring. At Joan's reply to her question she gasped.

"Through school at 13?"

"I have been thinking I would stop for a long time," Joan went on in her assured manner. "but I hated to bother you about it. I just hate everyone there. If you will send me where there are no boys, I won't mind going a year or two longer. But those silly things in pants make me tired. They think they know it all, and just because they are boys."

Margaret breathed freely once more.

"Very well, dear, you may go to Miss Carey's school."

"Bully for you, Mumie! You always come up to scratch. I shall win my bet."

"Yes, but?"

"Yes, I bet Hortense $5 I would leave school and go to Miss Carey's."

Margaret once again reminded herself that Joan might be difficult at times—as she grew older.

KNITTED FROCK IS NEW FOR WINTER

(BY ELOISE)

The knitted frock which always seemed something of a risk because of its liability to stretch and lose its shape has been developed this year in such a way that it is neat and trim as any cloth frock. This frock pictured here shows what attractive styles may be made up in this new knitted fabric. The fabric is knitted closely so that it does not stretch and sag and it has body to it.

This model is made up in brown. There is a plain gathered skirt, a Bramley blouse with kimono sleeves and the fastening is in the back. Neat little pocket edgings, sleeve seams, cuffs and youthful, round collar are made of tan duvetyne. The frock is suitable for school or business wear and is warm as well as attractive.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS REPORT OF CONVENTION

BY KOHA HENRY MEACHAM.

Some of the outstanding things in Mrs. J. C. Gould's report of the state federation meeting at Roswell last month, given on Friday at the business meeting of the Woman's club, were that Albuquerque is too modest in the matter of asking for honors and in the future, delegates from the club will go to the federation meeting united in purpose and with a definite program of what they want to present. The Albuquerque Woman's club is the only woman's club in the state that owns its own building; it has added seventy-four new members in the past year, bought a new piano and a safe and has contributed $108 a month to philanthropy.

Dr. Margaret Cartwright, in reporting on clubs of the state, stressed the very original and praiseworthy "school of opportunity" as developed by the Woman's club at Gallup and operating in the public schools there. A separate school is maintained for children whose education has been delayed, by sickness or otherwise, where they may study with special help and without embarrassment and overcome their handicap.

The idea of a county federation, as obtained in some counties, was especially commended as a means of better co-operation in club life. The salient features of the federation brought out the fact that all clubs are active in civic matters, striving to bring about a better citizenship as well as being centers of philanthropic and cultural activity.

T. G. Winfree's enthusiastic report on the social side of the federation was read by Mrs. C. C. Meacham and proved very absorbing. Many mental notes were taken on what Albuquerque might do for the club visitors here next year, in the way of hospitality.

Two Woman's club members distinguished themselves in an artistic way at Roswell. Mrs. S. R. Miller, who sang on the concert program, and Mrs. Inez Westlake, who exhibited embroidery and stenciling on dresses and hangings at the Carnegie library and which drew much admiring comment.

A hot meeting followed the club meeting, during which refreshments were served by Mesdames C. O. Clark, J. A. Rich, C. A. Watson, Homer H. Ward, and T. P. Harlan, members of the social committee.

The club voted to have no meeting on next Friday, Armistice day.

NEW LIGHTING EFFECT FOR YOUR HALLOWE'EN CELEBRATION TONIGHT

A holiday that children and young folks like to celebrate is Halloween, derived from All-hallowe'en or feast of all hallows. It will be celebrated with much merry-making; with parties in which goblins and sprites figure together with decorations of Jack-O'-lanterns, black cats with fiery eyes and other oddities, are a popular form of entertainment.

Pumpkin-colored crepe paper is used on the dining room instead of table cloth, with a long strip of black paper from end to end of table. In the center is a huge pumpkin face illuminated with an electric lamp. The cord comes up from floor outlet and connects with the lamp. Festoons of miniature lamps are also used effectively as table decorations.

In the center of the darkened living-room is the witches' cauldron underneath which is the electric fire, made of a group of colored electric lamps supplied with current from center floor outlet. Over the lamps is a clever arrangement of twigs and branches while a bit of incense supplies the smoke.

MRS. HAROLD ABBOTT GIVES BRIDGE PARTY

Mrs. Harold E. Abbott, who is spending the winter here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mandell, entertained at bridge on Friday afternoon. Her guests were Mrs. David Weller, Mrs. Forrest S. Barner, Mrs. Sol Benjamin, Mrs. Sidney Well, Mrs. Julius Mandell, Mrs. Mike Mandell and Miss Betty E. Kleindorf.

Mrs. Forrest Barner entertained four tables of bridge on Wednesday afternoon, at her home in the Stern apartments.

The way that I, personally, have found around this trouble is to brush the lower crust with the white of an egg before baking. This gives excellent results. Will you publish it so that housekeeper who asked that question may see it? I do the same with custard pies."

PIONEER WOMAN SUFF WORKER IS DEATH'S VICTIM

Rev. Dr. Blackwell, 96. An Ordained Minister, a Near Friend of Susan B. Anthony, Passes Away.

(By The Associated Press.)

Elizabeth, N. J., Nov. 5.—The Rev. Dr. Antoinette Louisa Brown Blackwell, aged 96, believed to have been the first woman ordained to the ministry in this country and a pioneer woman suffrage worker with Susan B. Anthony died here today.

One of the last surviving women active in the early fight for suffrage, the Rev. Antoinette Brown Blackwell was noted also for having been the first woman ordained to the ministry in the United States.

She was born of Puritan ancestry at Haverhill, N. Y., May 20, 1825, and became a school teacher before she was 16 years old. Graduated from the theological school of Oberlin college in 1850, a license to preach was denied her on account of her sex but she won such renown as a speaker that in 1853 she was ordained as the pastor of the Congregational church in South Butler, N. Y. In 1855 she resigned because of ill-health and subsequently entered the ministry of the Unitarian church.

The following year she was married to Samuel C. Blackwell. They had five children with one of whom, a daughter in Elizabeth, N. J., Mrs. Blackwell made her home in recent years.

Mrs. Blackwell was widely known as a writer on religious, philosophical and scientific topics. Her book, the "Philosophy of Individuality," published in 1893, was said to have advanced theories which have since been largely accepted by physicists. The principal idea of the work was the hypothesis of "a persistent individuality in each of the ultimate units of conditional being." Classifying matter as "motion" she maintained that such a premise involved the conclusion of "inexhaustible evolution." She was credited by some as having originated the theory of a "rhythmic atom," a development of vortex atomic action, indicating that atoms are governed by the same law as the stars and planets.

Thus she insisted that while the motions of atoms were "mutually entangled and compacted," each system maintained its own essential identity and changed only in form. In higher organisms, Mrs. Blackwell held, "the mind becomes a factor in evolution, co-operating in every physical process connected with its own sensibility, directing the physical change—by directing its own process."

Mrs. Blackwell was a member of various associations for the advancement of women and of a number of philosophical societies. Her first lengthy literary work, "Studies in General Science," was published in 1868. It was followed by a novel of American life entitled, "The Island of Life," and "The Sexes Throughout Nature." Later she wrote "The Physical Basis of Immortality."

WOMAN KILLED WHEN STAGE TURNS TURTLE

(By The Associated Press.)

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 5.—Mrs. Buck Stauson of Chandler, Ariz., was instantly killed and several other persons were seriously and possibly fatally injured this afternoon when a large automobile stage bound for this city from Tempe, ten miles east of here, overturned a mile and a half west of Tempe.

Mrs. Stauson was one of the thirteen passengers on the stage when it overturned.

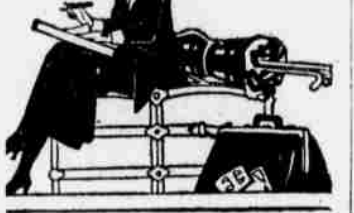

Leland Pew, driver of the stage, which was operated by the Union Station line of this city, was seriously and possibly fatally injured. He was unconscious when picked up after the accident.

Passengers on the stage said that when the accident happened the stage was traveling at an ordinary rate of speed. They said it was passed by a milk truck and trailer going in the same direction and that the trailer struck the left front wheel of the stage, causing the accident.

The injured passengers and Mrs. Stauson's body were taken to a hospital in Tempe.

Among the injured were: Charlott McDouglas, sister of Mrs. Stauson, slightly injured; D. L. Bellow, Flora Phew of Tempe, Howard Phew of Tempe and two Indians, one of the Indians was said to have received internal injuries.

The shrimp industry of Louisiana employs more than 20,000 people.

Within the last few years the Bed Spring De Luxe has revolutionized double deck coil spring construction and become the most popular high grade bed spring on the market.

Note the magnified section in the above illustration. This method of tying makes them absolutely noiseless, more durable and infinitely more comfortable than any spring heretofore sold at any price.

Depressing one coil or line of coils does not disturb the level of the Spring elsewhere because connections are elastic.

When two persons of unequal weight occupy the bed the De Luxe springs conform to each individual load, leaving a high, level space between them.

Get Back Your Grip on Health

Every man and woman is born with just so much nerve force or nerve capital—some with more than others. Thousands inherit weak nerves because their nerve force has been squandered by their ancestors.

Your system can only make or create about so much nerve force every twenty-four hours, and if from any cause you use it up faster than it is made, you are bound to become a nervous bankrupt with all its terrible tortures and alarming symptoms.

In such cases, it is often worse than foolish to take stimulating medicines or narcotics.

drugs. What you need is to take something to put more nerve force into your nerves and more iron into your blood. This is most effectively accomplished by the free use of Nuxated Iron. This valuable product contains the principal chemical constituent of active living nerve force in a form which most nearly resembles that in the brain and nerve cells of man. It also contains organic iron like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. This form of iron will not blacken nor injure the teeth nor upset the stomach. It is an entirely different thing from metallic iron which people usually take. Nuxated Iron may therefore be termed as both a blood and a nerve food as it feeds strength-giving iron to your blood and the principal chemical ingredient of active living nerve force to your brain and nerve cells. At all druggists.

JOURNAL STARTS A SALES TRAINING PLAN

SALESMANSHIP CLUB STARTED BY MORNING JOURNAL; CHANCE TO GET ONE OF FIVE MOTOR CARS

Opportunity for "Live Wires" to Demonstrate Salesmanship Ability Among Friends and At the Same Time to "Cash In" on Dreams of Owning an Automobile—Five Motor Cars Head List of Gifts; Fifteen Cash Gifts; Hundreds of Dollars in Cash Commissions to Be Distributed in Novel Plan.

THE MORNING JOURNAL DOES THINGS

The Foregoing Statement Made By a Prominent Albuquerque Business Man and Booster, Came to the Attention of the Publishers of the Morning Journal Upon the Completion of One of the Many Improvements to This Newspaper Some Time Ago--For Some Reason Those Words Have So Engraved Themselves Upon the Minds of the Publishers That They Have Become a Motto and a Constant Inspiration for Truly Doing Things--and Doing Things Worth While.

The Morning Journal believes that it is a newspaper produced in a plant that is a credit to the community. Indeed, it is told that no city the size of Albuquerque in the United States boasts of so modern equipment or a newspaper so metropolitan.

The Albuquerque Morning Journal believes in its field, believes in its army of friends and believes in the future of the state of New Mexico. And because of this faith the Morning Journal is doing things--and doing things worth while.

A Great Opportunity. Pursuant to this progressive view the Morning Journal today makes an announcement of vital interest to every man, woman and child in the field covered by this paper. And to those who participate in this enterprise, the announcement today will be the source of no small income in the next few weeks, for spare moments.

It is with pride and pleasure of course, that the Morning Journal can review its past and the progress made in the past few years, but as progress can never be satisfied, it is with this gigantic Salesmanship Club Gift Distribution as outlined on other pages of this issue, that the Albuquerque Morning Journal hopes to reach out and add many new friends and readers to its already large circulation.

The only thing that is asked in return for these innumerable large awards in that our people throughout the state interest themselves during their spare moments, during the next few weeks, telling their friends about the progress made by this newspaper, what it stands for and what it means to them, and to interest them in becoming a part of this institution, which is here to further the better interests of the entire state of New Mexico.

No Person Barred. Anyone is invited to enter and share in this gift distribution--men, women, boys and girls--for there are plenty of prizes for everyone entering. The Morning Journal will see to it that everyone participating is well paid. When you become a participant in this enterprise you are assured of a prize that will pay you more for your spare moments than most lines of endeavor for months of hard work.

The amount of your award--the prize you win--whether it be the 1922 Light "6" Studebaker or eral months duration, but will extend over a period of only a few weeks, closing on Thursday, December 22. Think of being able to secure in less than seven short weeks prizes and awards that would ordinarily require months, yes, even years, of self-denial and savings to acquire. And there are given to you in exchange for a little of your spare time and interest.

This Salesmanship Club campaign will be made interesting and more profitable by the fact that it is something new and different than anything similar ever inaugurated in this state. The gifts are not only high in material value, and dollars and cents, but are in keeping with the broad and liberal lines along which the entire gift distribution plan has been drawn. Ambition and energy are the only requisites for success in the enterprise.

No Something-For-Nothing Idea. This is no something-for-nothing plan, neither is it a charitable undertaking on the part of the Albuquerque Morning Journal. It is a business proposition pure and simple. Its object is to advertise jointly this newspaper, the progressive firm from which the handsome prizes cars have been purchased, to secure new and renewal subscriptions, and last, but not least, to win a welcome for the Albuquerque Morning Journal in every home in the field covered by this newspaper.

Three Election Districts. In order that the big list of prizes may be equally distributed all over the territory covered by the Morning Journal, the management has provided three complete and separate lists of prizes for each of the three districts, 1, 2 and 3--giving club members in either district equal opportunity for the handsome motor cars. There are two wonderful cars as prizes at large, then there are three cars for the districts--one for each district. When the winners of the two prizes at large have been determined there will still be one car for each of the three districts, as well as a complete and separate list of cash prizes for each of the three districts.

Then a special fund has been set aside to give each and every club member a cash commission check in the form of salary, equal to 10 per cent of the amount of subscription collections they turn in providing they do not win a prize.

Cash Prizes. Perhaps you are ready for a car--in which case you may cash your prize and spend the money represented in travel, or a nucleus for an education or for anything you may desire. Nearly twenty-five hundred dollars is pretty fair money for which to "cash in" your spare moments during the next few weeks--moments which otherwise would be lost.

Figure It Out for Yourself. How long would it take you to save enough out of your earnings to purchase a car of these values, any one of the five cars awaiting you in The Albuquerque Morning Journal's Salesmanship Club? Figure it out for yourself and you can readily see the opportunities The Salesmanship Club offers.

Help and Assistance. ## OPINIONS ON MEDICAL BEER QUESTION DIFFER

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Nov. 5.--Another difference on the question of medical beer developed today between the internal revenue bureau and the prohibition commission.

The treasury's new regulations covering the use of beer for medical purposes place no limit on the number of prescriptions a physician may write. However, according to prohibition commissioner Haines, the prescription rules, which have been in force for some time and limit a doctor to 100 alcoholic prescriptions every six months, are still in effect and despite the beer regulations that maximum will be maintained.

On the other hand, internal revenue officers declared that the opinion of former Attorney General Palmer legalizing use of beer as a medicine had overruled the prescription regulations as it held that the treasury might limit the quantity or the frequency of alcoholic medicines, but not both. The question from the standpoint of the regulations will be definitely settled soon.

DARING DAYLIGHT HOLDUP. New York, Nov. 5.--Another daring daylight holdup was staged in New York yesterday when two armed men snatched a $5,000 payroll from two employees of Sahel and Schapp, Brooklyn clothing manufacturers, as they left their automobile and started to enter the plant. The thieves escaped.

SAYS DEATH OF HARA IS GREAT BLOW TO JAPAN

Ambassador to United States Says the Tragedy Will Not Interfere With Plans for the Conference.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Nov. 5.--Baron Shidehara, Japanese ambassador here, told correspondents today that the assassination was a great blow to Japan. He added that it would interfere with the Japanese plans for the conference. He then issued this statement:

"The untimely death of Premier Hara is not only a grievous loss to his personal friends and official associates, but to the entire country to which his devoted and faithful services have so long been dedicated."

"A great and good man has been taken from Japan at a time in her career when he could least be spared. His plans and purposes for his country were high in the noblest sense, and his leading work in shaping her attitude towards the approaching conference was destined to prove of great benefit to mankind."

"To carry forward the Pacific policy to which Premier Hara has been committed will now be a just and worthy tribute to his memory."

UCHIDA ASSUMES POST OF ACTING PREMIER

Tokio, Nov. 5 (By the Associated Press.)--Cablegrams expressing horror over the assassination yesterday of Takashi Hara, the premier, poured into Tokyo today from the capitals of virtually all nations. The attack made on M. Hara was made by a demented youth, and there is no definite knowledge as yet that it had its genesis in the political rancor which actuated bitter assaults upon M. Hara and his government in the recent past.

Viscount Uchida, former Japanese minister to the United States and foreign minister in M. Hara's cabinet since 1918, has assumed the post of acting premier, pending a possible reconstruction of the government.

Newspaper comment on the premier's death was generally expressive of profound sorrow, but some journals speculated on its political significance. The Asahi Shimbun said that the tone of the premier's character was some distance behind the progress of world ideas but that his end was most glorious because it rendered his greatness still greater.

The Asahi anticipated a temporary period of political instability and stressed the importance of seeking an awakening by the people.

The Kokumin Shimbun said Premier Hara's policies were "unpopular," but that does not alter the fact that his death merits profound national sympathy.

The Yomato Shimbun observes that the maintenance of the present position of the Seiyu ai party was out of the question and that the premier's death threw a large shadow on the political horizon.

UNIVERSITY WEATHER STATION PROVES GREAT ASSET TO CITY; C. OF C. ASSISTS IN UPKEEP

Albuquerque Weather Reports Contained in Daily Federal Bulletins and Published in Many Newspapers; Chamber of Commerce, Which Provided Stations, Broaden Its Use.

"Albuquerque weather is one of the city's greatest assets," declared D. B. McKee, secretary of the chamber of commerce, "and as a result the university weather station is proving one of the most valuable assets in letting people all over the world know of our weather."

The station was installed in 1918 by the chamber of commerce at considerable expense, only the finest instruments being used in the assembly. The bureau has been in constant operation since that time, and is a quasi-federal official station. Aside from furnishing the local territory with daily weather reports, the weather conditions in detail are wired to the federal station at Denver twice a day and appear in the daily federal weather sheets which are distributed throughout the country and posted in conspicuous places in such federal buildings as postoffices, forest service stations, and other federal bureau offices.

The territory covered by the reports is gradually increasing until now, aside from the Albuquerque weather heading the federal reports, it is also appearing at the top of weather reports in many of the leading papers throughout the country. A campaign is to be started by the chamber of commerce this week to have the local weather listed in all of the largest newspapers in the country.

In many instances a report from the weather bureau at the university is the cause of persons and families moving to Albuquerque. Many letters are received by the bureau and by the chamber of commerce asking for the weather report of the city for the past year or eighteen months. The bureau answers these letters, sending the official report.

Two wireless towers have now been erected at the university and it is planned to make the institution the wireless sending station for New Mexico weather conditions at regular intervals. This report will be used to good advantage by the Denver forecasting bureau in arriving at its forecast for state weather.

The university bureau is well equipped, having tested apparatus for obtaining the precipitation, humidity, temperature, wind direction and rate and the sunshine periods. On several occasions the weather bureau has given assistance to business in this section of the state, a few days ago the bureau received an inquiry from a bridge company which wanted to know the heat variations here preparatory to figuring on the cost of heating concrete construction.

J. Sharp, a senior at the university, is now in charge of the bureau and spends about two hours a day reading and computing the data and in sending his telegraphic reports to the federal stations and preparing his reports for the local newspapers. At the end of each month, he prepares a complete report for the government. The chamber of commerce co-operates with the university in providing the salary for the station expert.

MANY AUTOISTS ARE STILL GOING WEST

More than 1,000 autoists from eastern states passed through Las Lunas last week going west, according to a check made at Los Lunas. There were 255 cars from eastern states driving west. But fifty-six out-of-the-state cars were traveling east. A number of the tourists are headed for California, but stated they were going to Phoenix and Tucson for the winter.

All of the cars passed through Albuquerque on their trip. A large number of western tourists either spend several days or weeks in Albuquerque or remain here for the winter.

ANOTHER SLASH IN THE PRICE FOR CANDIES

The New Mexico Candy Kitchen has again cut the "High Cost of Candy," as announced in the city papers. The proprietors state effective at once, a reduction of from 12 to 20 per cent on home-made candies has been made, and in their ads. they give a partial list of the candies receiving these reductions. The New Mexico Candy Kitchen is preparing for a big candy trade during the coming holidays, and want the local people and the many visitors to take advantage of their cut in candy prices.

12 COMMERCIAL PLANES ENGAGE IN AIR CONTEST

Carry Loads of Various Weights and Fly more than 200 miles around a fixed course at Omaha.

(By The Associated Press.) Omaha, Neb., Nov. 5.—Twelve commercial airplanes carrying various weights participated in the Larsen trophy race on more than 200 miles around a fixed course here today as the principal attraction of an air show at the Municipal airport.

The course was eight times around a route from here to Love, Iowa, and return. Results of the contest were not announced tonight, however, the contest committee in charge finding it would be necessary to have to check on the various planes. Weight carried was one of the factors, time made and general efficiency were elements figuring in the basis on which the "ships" participating will be judged. To the winner to be announced Monday will go the Larsen trophy and $3,000 cash. Second and third places will receive $2,000 and $1,000 respectively.

Those who participated were: E. D. Bahl, Lincoln, Neb.; Buck Weaver, Wichita, Kans.; D. H. Robertson, Philadelphia; N. D. Trindle, Cleveland; C. S. Jones, New York; B. H. Pearson, New York; Eddie Stinson, New York; Max Goodenough, Hempstead, L. I.; H. H. Beech, Wichita; Clyde Horsham, Ransom, Kans.; H. G. Lewis, New York, and F. A. Donaldson, Spirit Lake, Iowa.

Pearson, Stinson and Goodenough were piloting planes belonging to John M. Larsen, of New York, donor of the trophy. The plane piloted by Pearson, carrying six passengers, including Mr. Larsen, was forced down just before dark near Love, Iowa. None of the passengers was injured and the plane itself escaped damage.

The plane piloted by Robertson was forced to land on the third lap without injury to the plane or to Robertson and his passenger, J. F. Sevier, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Toward the end of race darkness came on and huge bonfires were lighted around the field to guide the aviators to the landing. Two other contests were held, an acrobatic event, won by J. H. Smith, of Grand Island, Neb., and a parachute jump in which W. H. Manion, of Nelson, Neb., took first. Parker Cramer, of Bradford, Pa., was slightly injured about the head when he landed from a parachute leap among the trucks and airplanes parked at the south end of the field.

A ball for visiting aviators tonight concluded the air congress.

MEN OF CHARACTER ARE ON PRO STAFF, HAINES SAYS IN A STATEMENT

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Nov. 5.—The field staff of the prohibition enforcement force comprises "men of character and caliber who serve from the motive of patriotism," Federal Commissioner Haines declared today in a statement.

"These men have faced death, scorn and temptation," he said. "They are sleepless in vigilance, unswerving in loyalty and fearless in doing their daily tasks in the same manner in which the English sing of their men who advanced in Flanders. They go as heroes and gentlemen."

50,000 PERSONS SEE PRINCETON HUMBLE HARVARD

Elevens Battle for Three Periods Without a Score; Victory Finally Perches On Tigers' Banner.

(By The Associated Press.) Princeton, N. J., Nov. 5.—Princeton, defeated Harvard, 10 to 3 today in one of the most thrilling and spectacular games played by these teams. More than fifty thousand rooters were present.

The elevens battled for three periods without a score. Then as darkness neared, the Crimson team took the lead on a field goal only to be overtaken shortly after by a Princeton touchdown, the result of a long run. Not satisfied with the slight advantage, the Tigers made the victory sure by adding a placement goal. The defeat was Harvard's first by a Princeton team since 1911.

Standing above all others in the story of the victory was Ralph C. Gilroy, of Haverhill, Mass., half-back of the Tiger squad. All afternoon he played the game up to the limit and when the score stood 3 to 0 against his team, he picked a forward pass out of the air, hurled by "Whoops" Snively, a Princeton end, and dodged and ran sixty-three yards for a touchdown, as the Princeton fans went wild. Captain Keck kicked goal.

Gilroy's score came later in the final period.

Harvard's three points came when Fullback Owens after one try at a field goal, booted the pigskin squarely between the goal posts. The three points looked big but the Tigers, as football history will show, are never defeated until the final whistle blows. Gilroy's touchdown followed soon afterward. Not satisfied Princeton players elected to try a placement goal and with Louie holding the ball, Capt. Keck made good, raising the score to 10. The Tigers now felt safe and home rooters began to sing the Princeton song of victory. The remainder of the game was without incident.

Although most of the excitement was jammed into the final period the first three quarters had their thrills. Each side had excellent opportunities to score and each missed by the narrowest margins. Princeton's victory breaks a tie between the two teams that has existed for two years. In 1919 the teams played a 10-to-10 tie and last year each scored 14 points. The two teams have played twenty-three games, of which Princeton has won twelve and Harvard eight. Three games resulted in ties.

Any candidate who remains active through the campaign, making a regular report, but fails to win one of the prizes offered, will participate in this commission feature. Think of it! One-tenth of every subscription you collect goes into your pocket if you fail to win a prize. This arrangement assures compensation to all candidates, and means there will be no losers in this race! Could anything be fairer or more liberal than this?

To Our Readers

The Albuquerque Morning Journal in putting on this great Salesmanship Club circulation campaign, positively guarantees fair and impartial treatment to every club member who enters and takes an active part in the campaign. This is easily the most liberal prize offering ever made by a newspaper in this state, and it now rests with the enterprising hunters of this territory to get busy and enter their names and secure a share of all the big prizes to be awarded. This is YOUR OPPORTUNITY to secure, without a single cent of cost, prizes that would take you years of savings and self-denial to acquire. Here they are offered to you ABSOLUTELY FREE for just a few weeks' work, during your spare time. The wise candidates will send in their nomination coupons at once and be among the first in the field. REMEMBER—Everybody wins in this campaign—there will be no losers—and your prize can be just as great as you wish to make it. This is positively the best spare-moment opportunity ever offered to the readers of the Albuquerque Morning Journal.

The Plan is Brief

The object of this distribution is two fold; primarily to increase the already large subscription lists of the Journal, to collect arrearages and advance subscriptions from present or old subscribers, and at the same time to afford our friends and readers an unparalleled opportunity to profit, in a big way, through their spare time during the next few weeks. So it is a plan that works both ways, and to the ultimate good of all concerned. In order to gain this end quickly and advantageously the most valuable and attractive list of prizes ever offered by a local newspaper in this section of the country, has been made ready for distribution among those who participate most heartily.

The plan adopted is the fairest and most impartial conceivable. There will be no "double vote" offers, extra prizes given, or any other inducements whatever inaugurated during this competition. Neither will there be any long term subscriptions accepted. The plan of the campaign is straight forward and simple, and is fully outlined in this announcement.

Let it be understood at the very outset that this is not a "beauty" nor "popularity" contest, a strictly legitimate competitive proposition for enterprising men and women, and boys and girls, and one in which no element of chance enters. One feature of this competition is the fact that there will be no loser in this race.

Early Start Means Easy Finish

The advantages of an early start are manifest. Not only do you have the FULL SEVEN WEEKS in which to secure the winning credits, but now and up to and including Wednesday, December 17, you will receive the maximum schedule of credits on subscriptions. Then, too, the first in the field will undoubtedly get the "cream" of credits and subscriptions, while those who put off entering until a later date will have to take what is left. Don't lose valuable time waiting to "see what the other fellow is going to do," but pitch right in and show the "other fellow" how to do it.

How Credits are Secured

The next step is to call on or write the campaign department for a free working outfit consisting of a special receipts book, sample copies of the paper and other information relative to launching an active campaign. Thus equipped, you have but to go to your friends and neighbors, relatives and acquaintances and have them clip the free coupons from their papers and pay up subscription to the Journal through you. THAT'S ALL THERE IS TO IT. However, you will not win anything unless you make the start; and while it will not be a very difficult matter to capture one of the big prizes, nevertheless it is neighbors, relatives and acquaintances and have them clip campaign the same as any successful business man plant out his work for a season, and above everything else, let no one discourage you, but stick to it to the finish. Anything worth having is worth striving for. Seven short weeks and you may be riding in your own automobile.

It takes credits to win and credits are secured in two ways: First, by clipping the coupons appearing in each issue of this paper. Begin gathering them NOW. The only restriction placed on voting coupons is that they must be deposited at the campaign department on or before the expiration date printed thereon. Get your friends to save these coupons for you—they all count. The other and safer way to get credits is by securing new and renewal subscriptions to the Journal. On each subscription turned in a certain number of credits are issued, the number varying according to the amount paid, whether old or new subscriptions, and during which "period" same are received at the campaign department—see schedule of credits below. So, you see, the more subscriptions you secure the more credits you can get and the better your chances are to secure one of the capital prizes.

Rules and Regulations

1. The campaign officially opens now, and will extend over a period of seven weeks only, closing on Thursday, December 22.

2. Any person over 14 years old, who is of good moral character and is a resident of one of the districts, married or unmarried, old or young, is eligible to compete in this Salesmanship Club campaign. Children under fourteen years of age are only allowed to enter with the consent and assistance of their parents or guardians.

3. No salaried employee of the Journal, or members of the employee's immediate family, can enter to compete for any of the prizes. The Journal reserves the right to reject any nomination.

4. Any candidate once nominated and not wishing to continue in the race must notify the campaign manager in writing within five days after his or her name appears in the printed list.

5. Candidates are not confined to their own particular section in which to work. They may take subscriptions anywhere. Candidates may have anyone, anywhere, work for them.

6. The credits in this campaign are free. Credits are issued on new and old subscription payments to the Journal. Cash must accompany all subscriptions where credits are issued.

7. Credits cannot be purchased in this campaign. Every dollar accepted through the campaign department must represent a subscription payment.

8. Credit ballot issued on subscription payments during the campaign, may be held in reserve by the candidate or can be cast and polled at the discretion of the candidate.

9. Credit coupons for different amounts will be printed in each issue, which, when neatly filled in, and brought or mailed to the campaign department, will count for the number of credits printed thereon.

10. No statement or promise made by any representative or candidate, varying from the rules and regulations as published in the columns of this paper will be recognized by the campaign department.

11. The list of candidates nominated, together with the number of credits turned in for publication, will be published from time to time. No candidate may publish more subscription credits during any one twenty-four hours than 25,000 credits above the leader of the previous day. This ruling is only temporary and is made to encourage the proper reservation of credits by the candidates.

12. Credits are not transferable, and no candidate can withdraw and give her credits to another candidate.

Should a candidate withdraw from the race his or her credits will be cancelled at once.

13. The winners of the prizes will be decided by their accredited credits, said credits being represented by credit ballots issued on subscription payments, and from the free credit coupons clipped from the paper.

14. In the event of a tie, contestants who tie will receive prizes of equal value.

15. In the case of a typographical error, it is understood that neither the publishers of this paper nor the campaign manager, shall be held responsible except to make the necessary correction of the same.

16. Every candidate who enters this campaign is an authorized agent of the Albuquerque Morning Journal, and as such may collect arrearages and past due subscription payments from present subscribers to the Journal, as well as payments from new subscribers.

17. The Journal guarantees fair and impartial treatment to every candidate who takes part in the campaign, but should any question arise the decision of the management will be absolute and final.

18. There will be a number of prizes awarded in the campaign besides a ten or cent cash commission on all subscriptions to all ACTIVE non-prize winners, but it is distinctly understood that in the event any candidate becomes inactive, failing to make a weekly cash report, he or she will, at the discretion of the management, become disqualified and thereby forfeit all right to a prize or a commission.

19. To insure absolute fairness and impartiality in the awarding of the prizes the campaign will be brought to a close under the "sealed ballot box" system. During the entire last week of the race, a ballot box—locked and sealed will repose in the vaults of an Albuquerque bank where candidates and their friends will deposit their final cash collections and reserve credits. When the race has been declared closed a committee of local business men who will act as the official judges in awarding the prizes, will take charge of the ballot box, break the seals, unlock the box and begin the final count of the credits. In this way, no one, not even the campaign manager, can possibly know the number of credits held by any candidate until after the judges have made the final count, which precludes any possibility of favoritism, and guarantees fairness to the minutest degree.

20. The Journal reserves the right to amend the rules of the campaign if it becomes necessary, for the protection of the interests of both the club members and the newspaper. In accepting nominations, candidates agree to abide by the above rules and regulations.

How to Enter the Campaign

The Match Trotting Race—Horse Against Horse.

Swimming Girls Making Big Splash in the World of Sports

By MARTHA COMAN.

WOMEN are making a big splash in the world's swimming pool. Almost daily some aquatic achievement is chronicled and sets the public marvelling at its daughters, and the thought has recently crossed more than one serious mind that men had best look to their laurels if they are to escape having the highly prized crown of glory snatched from their brows.

It is hardly fair, perhaps, to catalogue these mermaids as women except for the purpose of sex distinction. Many of the year's record breakers have barely entered their teens, and the foremost among these athletic young persons is still under 20. That's a situation for some of the old pessimists who don't believe in sports for women to contemplate.

All these facts go to show that swimming is particularly suited to girls. They take to the sport like the proverbial duck, not the ponderous farm reared variety that waddles down to a brook for provender, but like the wild creature that rides for hours on the crest of waves or skims gracefully over a smooth lake surface, occasionally making a clean cut dive or soaring into the air to drop again upon the dappled blue waves.

The modern young woman is of this type of creature. She has achieved her water education in less than a generation; one might almost put it at a decade. Two decades ago it was a rare thing to find more than half a dozen really expert women swimmers at a watering place. Then onlookers watched with interest and curiosity when a girl actually swam more than half a dozen strokes. She was the exception, not the rule.

Now it isn't a matter of her being able to swim that attracts attention to the modern girl, but rather whether she can swim as well as her brother or better.

Where floats several hundred yards out from the sandy beach used to be monopolized by accomplished youths, they are now shared by attractive mermaids. And it might be mentioned right here that the mermaids do not often tag along behind their male companions on the swim out to the raft. Sometimes they have been seen to call out the very best that the youths can offer in speed and perfect form.

Have Made Rapid Advance in Art

Within the Last Ten Years

It's a long stride—or stroke, to be technical—that these girls have made in a comparatively short time. Boys used to have it pretty much their own way at the seashore or mountain lake resort. And they pursued a tantalizing and teasing programme that may have had something to do with the sudden spurt the feminine swimmer has made in getting herself thoroughly accustomed to aquatic exercises.

The mischievous brother's greatest moment of the day was when he succeeded in ducking sister or sister's school chum, or diving suddenly and upsetting her by seining her by the ankles. His accomplishment was greeted with screams of laughter and splashes of helplessness. Now the young man who attempts a similar attack is more than likely to find himself unceremoniously poised on his head in six feet of water or dragged down spluttering until he is glad to call "quits."

Last Ten Years Sees Remarkable Advance of Sex in Speed and Distance Racing as Well as Diving—Little Girls as Well as Young Women Gain Aquatic Honors

The law of self-preservation was never more strictly followed than in this particular realm, and it's a wise young man who now attempts any tricks unless he is willing to take his punishment good humoredly. As for distance swimming, the world is beginning to learn that woman does very well in these contests. She is seriously coming forward as man's rival in this field of sport. She has learned the trudgeon crawl perfectly and is as much at home in the water as any college youth.

One of the most picturesque and satisfactory of the recent swimming events for girls, one which has startled the public out of its belief that however attractive and earnest women may be in an athletic sport they can never quite equal men, was the race from Point Breeze, L. I., to the Brighton Beach Baths, a distance of approximately three and a half miles. Miss Ethelinda Biebtrey, who is just 19 years of age, was the victor, and is now permitted to add to her already notable list of titles and trophies the women's national long distance swimming championship.

That in itself is a noteworthy triumph. But there is another phase to the race which emphasizes the increasing number of really excellent girl swimmers we have and their amazing youth. It has been said that they hardly master the trick of creeping before they begin to crawl through the surf. And still another astonishing feature of the young women's race was the fact that twenty-five experts competed for the title.

Race Drew Twenty-five Competitors

Who Spent Hour at Swimming

Think of being able to call out twenty-five mermaids, each and all qualified to enter such a race! Nothing like it could have happened a dozen years ago. There wouldn't have been that number of water nymphs on this side of the Atlantic or on this continent who could keep active in the water for that length of time. Miss Biebtrey made it in 56 minutes and 27 seconds. Such is the progress made in the most beneficial and healthful of outdoor sports.

According to the official timekeeper Miss Biebtrey cut almost more than a minute and a half off the record established nearly ten years ago by Miss Elaine Golding, who was considered at that time the last word in distance swimming for women. Miss Golding's record was pronounced remarkable, just as Miss Biebtrey's is now considered an admirable victory.

In ten years, so has the feminine swimmer developed, it is easy to clip a record. In another decade Miss Biebtrey's record of to-day may be trimmed down by an equal figure, and a score of years hence the world may see women actually abreast of the best men swimmers.

Miss Biebtrey, the flaxen haired member of the New York Women's Swimming Association, has attained the distinction of being called the foremost woman swimmer in the world. It is an enviable position she occupies at the age of 19. She has already to her credit several Olympic honors, not to mention various other swimming honors. When she stepped out of the water at Brighton Beach at the end of the interesting race she turned to see her closest opponent, Miss Charlotte Boyle, 100 yards behind. That was tremendous satisfaction to the victor, for Miss Boyle is a splendid swimmer. She came in only one minute and thirty seconds behind the winner and only four seconds behind the record time established by Miss Golding in 1912.

Miss Boyle, who was an Olympic team member, is more conspicuous in short speed races. During the summer she created a new world's record for the 150 yard dash at the Brighton Beach pool. Her time was one minute, forty-nine and four-fifths seconds, which is three and four-fifths seconds better than the record of the former world's champion, Miss Hilda James of Liverpool, England, who raced it in one minute, fifty-three and three-fifths seconds. The third to finish was Miss Margaret Woodbridge of the Detroit Athletic Club, who came in 150 yards behind the winner and was crawling in excellent form.

The twenty-five nymphs in the recent distance race ranged in age from 10 to 19. This fact alone is astounding, and all but one completed the entire course. One of the 10-year-olds gave up midway and was taken to the finish in a boat. But several of the other girls of just ten summers brought fame and glory to their sex by battling with the waves and making really commendable time.

Among these was Miss Kathryn Brown of the New York Women's Swimming Association, who luckily fought her way to eighth place at the finish line. In her own class she was pronounced a victor and received as great an ovation as Miss Biebtrey. To the 10-year-olds went the real honors that day.

Miss Helen Briscoe, aged 13, though far down the line, was by no means last, and when she slipped out of the water at Brighton Beach she showed no effects of the long, hard pull.

That twenty-four out of the twenty-five entrants completed the three and a half mile course speaks volumes for their regard for and interest in the water sport, and it draws attention to the special qualifications of women for swimming. One wonders if they are not approaching the time when they will run a close race with young men and boys of equal age. The only way to find that out would be to have a mixed contest and then discover which has the greatest staying powers.

Experts will tell you that while nature endowed men with greater physical strength she was considerate in bestowing upon women remarkable powers of endurance. Nowhere does this attribute show to greater advantage than in swimming.

Endurance of the Weaker Sex

Offsets Greater Physique of Men

It is admitted by scientists and physical culture experts that women have certain advantages in the water sport. A subcutaneous layer of fat serves as an insulation against cold, and their body structure is lighter. What the slim curved body of the mermaid lacks in power it adds, therefore, in quickness of movement and in endurance. Then consider diving as it is adapted to women and girls. No one will deny that any feminine diver presents a far more interesting picture than a man as he prepares to leap from the springboard. A woman presents beauty and grace, but that is not all the points in her count. She is often just as good a diver as a man.

You have only to watch little Miss Aileen Riggan, an Olympic champion, do a swan dive at the Brighton Beach pool to be confirmed in this belief that women stand apart from men in the art of diving. Miss Riggan is a diver first and a distance swimmer second, and her arrival fifth in line from Point Breeze on the day of the girls' marathon was considered excellent. She trailed along happily behind Miss Helen Wainwright, a fifteen-year-old member of the New York Women's Swimming Association.

To go back to Miss Biebtrey's swimming honors, it may be mentioned that during the summer she captured the fifty yard national championship to add to her string of brilliant achievements.

All these girls, who serve to illustrate the rapid headway the sex is making in swimming proficiency, are Americans. Recently a Danish girl, Miss Mille Gade, arrived from her native land to have a try for American swimming honors. She came with all sorts of medals and honors, including the highly prized Carnegie hero medal, and allied herself with the Harlem Y. W. C. A. as swimming instructor.

Miss Gade's first spectacular feat was to swim around Manhattan Island, a distance of some forty miles. While she did not succeed in making a record, she showed rare power and endurance and proved herself a worthy contestant in all distance events. Her next swimming venture was to stroke her way from Albany to New York, some 153 miles.

Another remarkable example of the strength of girl swimmers is seen in the recent exploit of Miss Marion Goebel, a Washington Irving High School pupil, who swam across Long Island Sound at College Point, and, not content with this daring test of nerve and strength, the fifteen-year-old girl returned to the starting point towing a canoe containing three persons. The weight of the canoe and the occupants totalled around 520 pounds, which Miss Goebel managed to handle easily by means of a harness fitted over her back and around her waist.

Last year she performed the difficult feat of swimming three miles with her hands and feet shackled. Previous to that test she swam a distance of six miles in the Sound with her hands tied behind her back. Miss Goebel is the daughter of L. Goebel, the coach of the Morningside Athletic Club girl swimmers.

New York has developed more women champions than any other city, swimming record compilers state. This city has held the national team championship for seven consecutive seasons, and it stands alone in Olympic honors. Members of the New York Women's Swimming Association were responsible for the capturing of eighteen of the twenty-seven points with which the United States won the Olympic swimming championships at the last big international meet.

Indoor Pools Prove Popular,

Even on the Coldest Days

When the outdoor swimming season is closed there are numerous indoor pools where girls may continue their practice for speed and endurance. Already these centres have proved so popular that on the coldest of winter days swimming enthusiasts stand in line for a long time waiting their turn at the pool. There are never enough pools to accommodate all the enthusiasts, but each year, as the sport grows in favor, the number is increased.

The right way to teach a child its first swimming strokes does not depend on any hard and set rule, swimming experts assure us. The younger the better, they say, adding that the notion that a child under six should not go near the water is now considered old fashioned. At the age of three and a half years girls learn to keep themselves afloat in a swimming pool, and even acquire good strokes. Boys learn earlier, generally speaking, apparently inheriting a fearlessness of the water.

After all, the crawl, which is considered one of the most difficult strokes for a grown person to master, particularly if he or she has been brought up on the breast and side strokes, comes as naturally to children as creeping does.

It is not unusual for instructors, after giving a child out of the pool a fair idea of the sequence of swimming strokes, to drop the youngster into the shallow end and suggest that he crawl back. Not infrequently this mile of humanity manages to do it, somewhat after the fashion of an animal, and you see that it is instinctive with him.

That's the beginning for him, and when followed up by perfecting the stroke the child has laid a solid foundation for a swimming career.

Great War Taught Value of Wood And Urgent Need of Reforestation

NOT until the United States sent 2,000,000 of her sons to France was the importance of forestry appreciated as it relates to war. The greatest forestry lesson in the history of the world was taught in the camps and on the firing lines. "It would not be a difficult thing to convince any member of the A. E. F. that wood is a vital part of the national defence and indispensable in the achievement of victory in war," said a member of the faculty of the New York State College of Forestry at the Cranberry Lake summer camp recently.

It would be impossible to defend ourselves against military attack without forests as it would be without powder. Our record as an undefeated nation could not have been attained without trees and plenty of them. As much as any other agency trees have won and have maintained our independence.

What would the Allies have done if France had not conserved her forests and long ago planted her denuded lands with trees? The bridges, the battos, the trussing and battresses of the trenches and dugouts, the barracks, the great warehouses, the fires that warmed the billets and hospitals and over which the army food was cooked, the railroad ties, telegraph poles, entanglement stakes, camouflage, pickets, docks, corduroy roads and cars and ships, all were products of the forest.

A ton and a half of wood was used for every American soldier that went over seas. More than 450,000,000 board feet of timber and more than 650,000 cords of fuel wood had to be produced. In the St. Mihiel offensive 70,000,000 board feet of timber were needed every thirty days. About thirty-one thousand men in the American army were employed in connection with the manufacture and supply of these great quantities of wood in France. Twenty-seven large mills and sixty small mills were cutting 2,000,000 board feet of lumber every day at the time the armistice was signed. With these facts in mind every American purely as a matter of patriotism should become a forest conservation fan for life.

Cattle Association Puts
Blame of Decreased Meat
Consumption on "Propaganda."

"Meatless days," which were necessary through the period of the war are blamed to a great extent for the decrease in the per capita consumption of meat in the United States at this time, according to A. C. Williams, assistant secretary of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle association and editor of the Cattleman, published at Fort Worth, Tex.

While the "meatless days" are blamed for a great part of the decrease, several other factors enter into the decline, according to Mr. Williams. Among these are advertising of certain patent medicines which need to be believed their aches and pains are due to eating too much meat. The propaganda of the "dairy interests" and the manufacturers of so-called "meat substitutes" is also blamed for a part of the decline in meat consumption.

"Food value considered, I believe meat is about the cheapest food product one can buy," Mr. Williams stated in a letter received yesterday by the state cattle association.

Writing of the relative digestibility of the various types of food, Mr. Williams calls attention to the table contained in Farmers' Bulletin No. 142 of the United States department of agriculture.

GREAT BRITAIN'S PREMIER SEES HIS NEW GRANDCHILD

Mrs. Carey Evans and Flunyd.

Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain recently saw for the first time his newest grandchild, the second daughter of Mrs. Carey Evans, Lloyd George's daughter. Mrs. Evans brought her family, including little Miss Flunyd, to the Downing-street home of the premier to a gathering of the family.

CITY CAN GET A NEW GUARD UNIT BY SHOWING PEP

Adjutant General Henry Rolf Brown Will Award Additional Units Upon His Return From Washington.

Indications are that Albuquerque will be awarded the new motor transport unit to be added to the state guard, provided the position meets with the co-operation of the chamber of commerce and the local business men.

Adjutant General Henry Rolf Brown will decide about the matter upon his return from Washington, where he will attempt to secure information on the entire allotment of units for the state for 1922.

In a letter received by the chamber yesterday from the adjutant general, he stated that he believed Albuquerque was the logical place for the establishment of the motor transport unit, one of the most important of the new troops.

Speaking of the possibility of the unit being placed here Adjutant General Brown stated:

"I will not only expect the co-operation of the chamber of commerce, but of the entire business community in order to make this a successful organization."

Aside from the advantages accruing to Albuquerque through having two units of the federalized national guard stationed here, the financial advantage to the city is considerable. Aside from the amount of the payroll, each unit spends many thousands of dollars for operation and equipment expenses. The motor transport company is one of the most costly to maintain of all the various types of troops.

Many merchants have already advised the chamber that they will co-operate in securing the troop for the city and will urge their employees to become identified with the organization.

RELIGIOUS CENSUS OF CITY BY THE PASTORS TO BEGIN THIS WEEK

The work of taking a church census of Albuquerque will probably begin on Monday or Tuesday, it was announced yesterday by the Rev. W. A. Guy, who is chairman of the Ministerial Alliance committee which is undertaking the canvass. The committee will meet on Monday to make the final arrangements for the canvass.

It has been agreed that each minister in the alliance will devote one-half day a week to the work of canvassing the city. They will keep working until the canvass is completed when the names received will be distributed among the several churches, according to the preferences expressed by the citizens. This is the first religious census for four years. The committee in charge is composed of the Rev. W. A. Guy, the Rev. A. M. Knudsen and the Rev. F. E. McGuire.

NEW TENNIS COURTS ERECTED ON COPPER

Two new tennis courts have recently been erected by the local councils of Catholic Men and Women. The courts are situated on Copper avenue, between Fifth and Sixth streets.

The courts are open to the public, and have been erected as a part of the council's program of community building. A nominal charge is made for the use of the grounds, which is received by the several boys who keep them in good condition.

The grounds are kept locked while not in use, but the key may be obtained at any time at the residence of Harry Strong, which is immediately next to the courts.

OLIVER IS FOUND GUILTY.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 5.—A. A. Oliver was found guilty by a federal jury today of complicity in the robbery of a Missouri Pacific mail train here August 18, 1920, in which $25,000 in cash and a large amount of Liberty bonds and jewelry were obtained.

Switzerland is electrifying her railways, to save importing coal.

STATE BAPTIST CONVENTION TO OPEN HERE 8TH

All Sessions of Convention To Be Held in Central Avenue Methodist Church --Expect 300 Attendance

The Baptist convention of New Mexico will convene in Albuquerque Tuesday night, November 8. The Central Avenue Methodist church has tendered the Baptists the use of its building and all the sessions of the convention will be held there. Meeting will be called to order by President Bureau Sparks, of Santa Fe, who was elected in last year's session at Roswell. The annual sermon will be preached Tuesday evening by Dr. W. R. Hill, pastor of the First Baptist church of Roswell. Daily sessions will be held 9:30 to 12 a. m.; 2 to 5 p. m.; 7:15 to adjournment.

More than one hundred messengers have already notified Secretary Spencer, and the local committee of definite time of their arrival. This indicates that the attendance will be unusually large. Three hundred messengers and visitors attended last year in Roswell, and this year will surpass last year's records. The local committee continues their efforts to find sufficient homes to offer free entertainment to all who come, and they are meeting with success.

The Women's Missionary Union, auxiliary to the state convention, will meet in the First Baptist church, Broadway and Lead Tuesday morning, November 8, and continue in session during the day. Mrs. W. C. James, president of the Women's Missionary Union, auxiliary to the Southern Baptist convention, whose home is in Birmingham, Ala., will be one of the main speakers in the meeting.

The state laymen's convention will be held in the auditorium of the Central Avenue Methodist church, beginning Monday night and continuing through Tuesday, or the time for the convention to convene.

The annual banquet of the King Teachers' association, which is an organization composed of Sunday school officers and teachers in the Baptist churches of New Mexico, will be served by the Y. W. C. A. in the banquet hall, Second and Cooper, Thursday evening, beginning at 5:30. The time of the banquet has been changed from Wednesday evening because of the banquet hall's being engaged. Arrangements have been made for one hundred plates and the room will be filled to its full capacity. A number of distinguished denominational men will be present at the banquet and make interesting talks.

The state mission board of the convention, composed of twenty-nine men, will be called in special session the book room of Baptist headquarters in the Farmer building, Wednesday afternoon, 5 o'clock for the purpose of hearing and adopting the annual reports submitted by Secretary J. W. Brainerd. The report will be read to the convention in the evening session. It will doubtless be one of the most interesting ever read to a New Mexico convention, both from the standpoint of accomplishments during the past year and plans for future program. It will include every department of the work under the supervision of the secretary. The Sunday school, Baptist Young People's Union, Women's Missionary Union, Baptist New Mexican home business evangelist, co-operative work and supplying mission, foreign missions, state missions, work among the negroes, home at Portales, and Montezuma college.

ARTESIA

A large number of the members of Mrs. Morris' Sunday school class of the Christian church, and a few friends, enjoyed a delightful Halloween party at the home of their teacher on last Saturday evening. This group of girls spent the evening in playing games and having a good time in a "spooky" way. The following were present: Ella Brown, Annie Frances Jackson, Nellie Dawson, Edith Garrett, Nellie Jones, Anna Bruce, Gladys Cole, Florence Conner, Dorothy Alexander, Elaine Feenster, Thelma Alexander, Bethel Jeanne Stagner, Gwinn Martin, Glenn Polk, Gladys Morris, Ruth Morris and Clara Sperry.

The Artesia Library association gave a benefit tea at the city library on Saturday afternoon and evening. The witches, goblins and other weird Halloween creatures were very prominent. The building was very artistically decorated for the occasion with weird scenes and lanterns. A fair amount of money was realized to be added to the library fund.

Miss Grace Keinath was hostess to a merry group of the high school set on last Saturday at her home in the western part of the city. About fifteen boys and girls were present to enjoy the festivities of this Halloween party. The guests were all in masquerade costumes. After playing many interesting games, the young people were served apple cider and doughnuts.

Mr. and Mrs. Gail Hamilton are the parents of a nine-pound girl. The girls' basketball team from the Junior High school defeated the High school freshman girls in a very interesting game of basketball on Wednesday afternoon by a score of 8 to 1. The smaller girls from the Westside school were better "shoots" in ringing baskets. The Junior girls are to meet the High school team soon.

On Monday evening a large number of the High school football boys and their young lady friends enjoyed a wienie roast at the spring north of Artesia, returning to town the group spent the remainder of the evening at the home of Mrs. Mansell.

A large crowd of Artesia people and many visitors attended the masquerade ball given at the American Legion quarters on last Saturday evening. The hall was artistically decorated for the occasion with many jack-o-lanterns and streamers. The costumes were very unique and amusing. Miss Ruth Roach, dressed as a Spanish dancer, and Oscar Sammelson, as a Chinese coolie, won the prizes. Miss Alma Norton, as a butterfly, and Harry Wells, as a joker, won the second honors. Gail Hamilton's Jazz Hounds furnished the music for the occasion.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church enjoyed a Halloween party and social at the church on Friday evening. About fifty young people were present. Many games were played on the church lawn. Pottery, apples, cocoa and cookies were served by the "spooks" who brought terror to the hearts of the guests. The Junior Epworth League also had a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clayton.

The High school students held a rally and general pep meeting at the assembly hall during the first of last week. The editorial staff of the school annual, mandarin, in behalf of their department of the year-book. A report by members of the football team was made, concerning the 35 to 0 victory over the N. M. I. Junior team on last Friday. The coming game with Roswell high school on next Friday was discussed.

A large number of the ladies of the town met at the home of Mrs. J. C. Flores on Monday afternoon to sew for Mrs. N. R. White, whose home was totally destroyed by fire last week. About ten women were present.

Mrs. Hazel Bliss and Miss Agnes Feenster left for Ranger, Tex., on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Bliss will join her husband at that place.

A large representation from the Baptist Young People's Union attended the Pecos valley association meeting at Roswell on last Sunday. Fred Cole and Gertrude Baber, president and secretary of the organization, were accompanied by Grace Langston, Zanilda Mann and Mary Alice James, who were speakers on the program. Others who attended the meeting were Misses Alice Dunn, Virginia Atteberry, Nellie Jones, Elizabeth Solomon, Lois Burns, Effie Glover, Mrs. Bertha Mitchell, Messrs. Louis Cole, Clint Cole, Paul Rogers, Howard Privitt, Ben Dunn and Ralph Bixler. Fred Cole was elected vice president for the next year.

The Artesia boys who were members of Troop E of Carlsbad have returned from the encampment at Fort Bliss.

Mrs. H. A. Stroup, president of the Artesia Woman's club, and Mrs. G. R. Brainerd, delegate to the Woman's Club Federation of New Mexico, attended the tenth annual session of the federation at Roswell last week. Other Artesia women attending the meeting were Mesdames M. F. Ferriman, Murray Schenck, Frances J. B. Atkinson, S. W. Gilbert and John Lowrey.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Widney returned from their honeymoon trip to Dallas and other Texas points on Thursday. They will be at home on West Main street.

STATE COLLEGE

(Las Cruces.)
A new study hall has been installed in the engineering building for the benefit of the pre-college students. This is operated under the care of an employee, who gives all of her time to this. The roll is called each hour and all absences reported the same as absences from class.

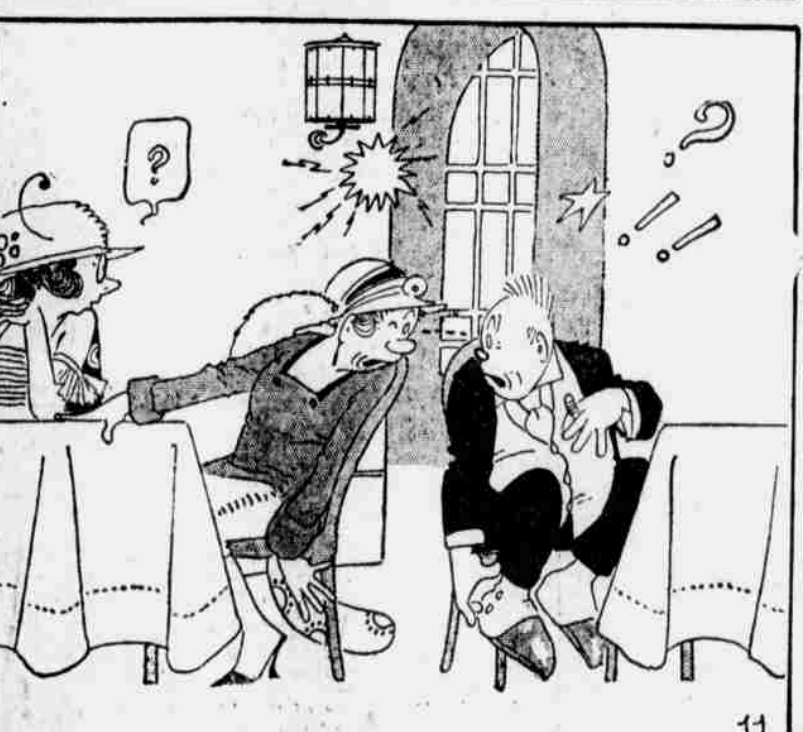

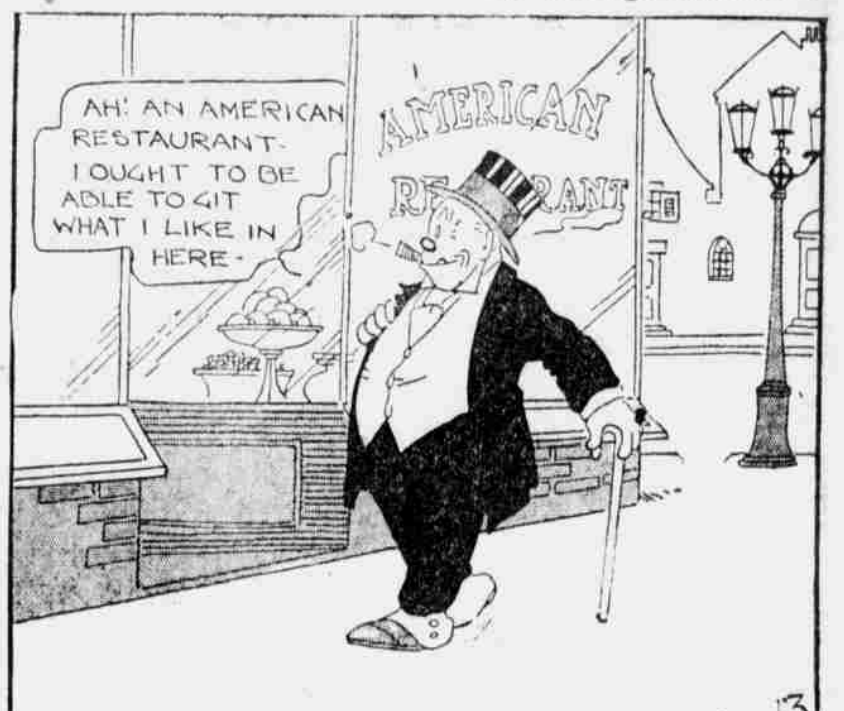

Miss Dorothy Yoast has been confined to her home in Mesilla Park for the past few days on account of sickness.

A very enjoyable affair was given by the Progress club of the college at the O. C. Snow ranch west of Mesilla Park on Tuesday evening. Numerous games and refreshments were served. The house was decorated with pumpkins and other Halloween decorations.

LAST VESTIGE OF HALLOWE'EN CLINGS TO SOCIAL AFFAIRS OF THE WEEK; ANOTHER WAVE OF ROMANCE AND ENGAGEMENTS SWEEPING OVER CITY

ANNOUNCEMENTS of the engagement of two Albuquerque society girls—Miss Lorna Lester and Miss Anne Earle Harris, who are to be married in the near future—are among the events of the week. It is only becoming, of course, to put on our best smile of good wishes and to hide our long face of regret at their inevitable departure from the ranks of gay young things about town.

Halloween parties with all of their customary pranks and make-believe have continued through the week, particularly in clubs and other organizations where something special in the way of a jollification is desired every so often. Children's Halloween parties were exceptionally numerous.

The second front of the fortnightly club in its artists' course is the coming concert of Richard Bonelli, the young baritone, who will sing at the High school auditorium on Tuesday evening. Next in line comes a musical party with all of its attendant ceremonies and the annual ball of the American Legion, which will be the grand finale of the day.

LORNA LESTER ENGAGED TO NEW YORK MAN

Mrs. Felix Lester has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Lorna Lester, to Richard Purser Huddleston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Huddleston of Pelham, N. Y. No definite date has been set for the wedding, but it will probably take place here in the early spring.

The romance began last summer in the mountains above Santa Fe, where the young couple met. Miss Lester was spending the summer at Tesuque with her family and Mr. Huddleston came to Bishop's Lodge from New York in June. Mr. Huddleston changed his mind about going back east so soon and came to Albuquerque, where he is making his home with a friend, Major Benjamin Nabb. Nabb's family have taken the Conner house for the winter.

Miss Lester is an Albuquerque girl in whom the city takes particular pride. She is a petite young person of exceptional beauty, well marked talent as a violinist. She attended school here, went to a finishing school in Washington, D. C., and later studied violin under well known instructors in California.

Mr. Huddleston attended Tulane university at New Orleans, La. He served overseas nearly two years during the world war as a lieutenant of infantry, distinguishing himself in the service. He is now associated in business with his father in New York as the export manager of a mahogany manufacturing concern. The young couple will leave for the east immediately after their marriage and will make their home at Pelham, a suburb of New York City.

CHILDREN'S HALLOWE'EN PARTY IS NOTABLE

The big Halloween party and dance which Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Connell gave for their little daughter, Mary Catherine, at their home on West Copper avenue on Monday evening was the event of the week among the younger generation.

It was a pretty affair, as children's parties are always, with the dainty frocks of the little girls and the dress-up suits of the young gentlemen. The beautiful Connell home with its carnival decorations of orange and black made an effective background for the festivities. The party began with a "spook march" to music played by Mr. Nedie Kavanaugh. Dancing followed and games were played through the evening. Mrs. Connell was assisted in entertaining the young guests by Miss Betty and Elizabeth Wiley, Miss Erna Ferguson and Miss Grace Borradaile.

The guests at the party were Elizabeth and Maxine Nordhaus, Sibyl McLandress, Grace Robinson, Jane Huning, Ethel and Mary Moulton, Betty Chase, Edna Rosewald, Catherine Martin, Elizabeth Elder, Angela Ruth Coons, Maxine Mandell, Dorothy Anne Webb, Susie Sheridan, Margaret, Harriette and Eleanor Mann, Della Slager, Isabelle Hernandez, Helen Nelson, Dorothy Strong, Winifred, Ruth and Helen Stamm, Jack Brand and Bob Henning, Fritz Jimmy and Bobby Allen, Hugh Dutter, Arno and Stanley Rosenwald, Robert and Danny Macpherson, Robert Nordhaus, John Barber, Fred Huning, Clay Pooler, Frank Moulton, Junior Matson, Stacker Leopold, Pete Peters, Allen and Billy Stamm, Allen and Ted Chase.

MRS. WAHA ENTERTAINED BY FRIENDS HERE

Mrs. A. O. Waha of Portland, Ore., who is spending several months here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Simms, of North Eighth street, is the charming excuse for a number of social affairs which are being given by her friends here. During her residence in Albuquerque several years ago Mrs. Waha was one of the most prominent young society matrons, being the lively center of what was known as the "forestry set." When her husband was transferred to the forest service of the north-west her departure left a real vacancy in social circles here.

Mrs. J. T. McLaughlin entertained a number of Mrs. Waha's intimate friends at an informal bridge party on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. W. B. Childers, who is another former Albuquerquean back for a visit, was also a guest of honor at the affair. Four tables of bridge were played during the afternoon and a group of friends dropped in later in the afternoon for tea.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mullen gathered a few of the early "forestry set" about them for a turkey dinner on Wednesday evening in honor of Mrs. Waha. The affair was given at their ranch north of the city. The guests were Mrs. Waha, Miss Grace Borradaile, who is visiting here from California, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. W. Pooler, Mr. and Mrs. Aldo Leopold and J. C. Kirchner.

Miss Erna Ferguson entertained informally at luncheon at her home on West Marquette avenue on Friday for Mrs. Waha and Miss Borradaile. A small group of intimate friends of the two were present. Miss Borradaile is a guest at the home of Mrs. Walter M. Connell this week.

MISS ANNE EARLE HARRIS TO BE MARRIED SOON

The engagement of Miss Anne Earle Harris to Elmer H. Carr, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Carr, of Captain Jerry Counts of Los Angeles, was announced yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Tom Danahy, who has been living at El Paso with another married sister.

The marriage will take place here on November 21. The announcement was made at tea time through the medium of little blue bird notes which told of the betrothal. Captain Counts is a member of the corps of engineers in the U. S. army. He is a West Point graduate who took his engineering work at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Boston. He is stationed at Los Angeles.

Miss Harris has been a popular member of the younger set in Albuquerque for several years. She attended the state university here in 1918 and became a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma society. She has since been a frequent visitor here at the home of her sister, Mrs. Rogers, although she has been living at El Paso with another married sister.

Plans for a quiet wedding here on November 21 are being made by the bride-elect. Miss Harris arrived here from El Paso on Thursday. Captain Counts will arrive in the city on November 19 and the young couple will leave immediately for their honeymoon in the west. They will make their home at Los Angeles.

MISS CARR IS HONORED AT A LUNCHEON

Miss Virginia Carr was guest of honor at a luncheon given by Mrs. Louis Hoff on Wednesday at her home. The affair was a linen shower for the bride-elect, whose engagement to Theodore Van Soelen was recently announced. Those present were Miss Carr, Mrs. Eugene Carr, Mrs. Clark M. Carr, Mrs. Robert M. Carr, Mrs. E. B. Jamison, Mrs. W. B. Childers, Mrs. Albert G. Simms, Mrs. John Simms, Mrs. J. W. Elder, Mrs. Leopold Meyer, Miss Edith Childers and Miss Katherine McMillen.

Not only one's jewelry but also one's frock trimmings are now of platinum. Black canton crepe frocks have platinum beads in straight rows around the neck, on the sleeves and in long panels on bodice and skirt. The effect of the platinum beads on black is very stunning; at a little distance the rows of beads look like insets of silvery gray.

EVENING WRAP HAS UNEVEN HEM

FASHION NOTES

More convenient and more charming in line than any coat are the capes which this season follow the lines of Spanish shawls. In fact this type of wrap has almost superseded the heavy fur model as the accepted mode for evening wear. There is something most alluring in the way a graceful woman can wrap herself up in the folds of a voluminous cape which is entirely lost when the same woman dons a coat.

The designer of this particular model used chestnut colored crepe bearing a formal design of gold beads and weighted down with two heavy gold tassels. The bottom of the cape is uneven to conform with the new idea of what is correct. It is shorter in the front than in the back, and is cut in two deep points in the back to which the tassels are fastened.

Each season sees its special hat that is the fashion craze. This autumn it is the blocked silk bonnet—of hatter's plush model as plain as a pipstee, stiff as a hat can be. But, oh, so smart! Wherever you see a millinery window now, you see, among the new models in velvet and feathers, one of these black as black, stiff as stiff, Knox saleros—the very latest word in tailored smartness for autumn.

With the autumn has come again the corset, but fortunately it has returned in a new guise of soft fabric lightly boned. The most fashionable one this season is that of soft elastic, which answers the purpose of a corset and gives the suppleness of freedom to which the new voters and pseudo-voters have grown accustomed. The very newest device which has come with corsets is the separate brassiers, which buttons onto the corset, holding it firmly and precisely in place.

GRIS TO GO "RED CROSSING" ON ARMISTICE DAY

Society girls, college girls, business girls, school girls, old girls, young girls, just every girl who has the right spirit will be called upon to go "Red Crossing" on Armistice day for the purpose of taking the "Red" roll call. It's going to be the girls day with the whole downtown section as their field and every person on the street as a potential member. Red Cross officials have appointed Miss Erna Ferguson as chairman of the girls' brigade and have turned over the downtown section of the city to her workers. Each girl will be designated by some insignia as a roll call worker.

DELEGATES ARE CROWDING INTO CAPITOL CITY

(Special Correspondence to The Journal)
Washington, Nov. 5.—Delegates and more delegates. They are coming, not in ones and twos but in battalions. One meets them at every corner, stepping out of elevators, chattering from motels with bags and baggage, in the theaters and tea rooms. By the middle of next week the various delegations will be complete and after that the deluge.

Dinners, receptions, balls—at the White House—at the Pan-American union with the Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes as hosts—at the various embassies and legations. Why, when the program is well under way we won't have time to breathe.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Hughes, who are the guests this evening at dinner of the Argentine Ambassador and Mme. Le Breton, gave a dinner on Thursday evening for the American delegates. But except for these and the opera on Tuesday, with an occasional party among the cabinet hostesses, a tea and a couple of luncheons, all of feminine society has been entirely occupied with putting the finishing touches on its conference wardrobe, a task that was so suddenly but pleasantly interrupted last week.

Yes, there are only six more days in which to hang curtains, polish floors, put new draperies in the guest rooms, make your modiste promise for the ninety-fifth time to have at least two of your evening frocks ready by the eleventh, and to see whether the new cook can make good mayonnaise and chicken patties, and if the new maid knows how to serve liquors and cocktails.

Such are the tasks of the Washington hostesses, especially those in official life, for as I've said before, their program is well under way, and now that the President and Mrs. Harding have announced a dinner for the delegates at the White House on the twelfth and the announcement has come of the series of dinners which the secretary of state and Mrs. Hughes will give, beginning November 17, the ball has started to roll.

The dinner nearest at hand is one for the admiral of the British fleet and Countess Beatty, which the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Denby will give Tuesday night. It will be nice to have Lord and Lady Beatty with us again so soon. Lady Beatty, as you know, was Miss Ethel Field, daughter of the late Marshall Field, and as the daughter of the late Marshall Field, Lord and Lady Beatty will be in the center of much entertainment.

For the debutante, who prefers to be a big fish in a little pond, Washington has no place this year—for the pond is assuming very large proportions and compared to the monsters who swim therein, the young miss about to make her bow is a tiny minnow. With the pleasant taste still on her lips from her last week of the brilliant season to come and the still in her bones of having brushed elbows with Marshall Field, General Diaz and other big game, little Miss Debutante has become reconciled to being a mere minnow and is looking forward to it with all the fervor possible.

Miss Evelyn Wadsworth, pretty daughter of Senator and Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, who entertains a great deal, will just take wing unawares at her mother's parties, but will no doubt figure conspicuously among the younger set.

which were prepared for their amusement. The rooms were elaborately decorated with black and orange streamers and wall panels with the appropriate black cats and witches to lend the mystery. A grand march opened the celebration, after which guides escorted the guests through the chamber of horrors and other exhibitions. Bluebeard, with his shining butcher knife and flowing beard, displayed the heads of several of his victims hanging by their hair from the wall with red ink blood dripping from their chins. Some of the other side shows, whose details are far more gruesome than we can mention, were hugely enjoyed, after the first shock. Dancing and games were enjoyed throughout the evening. At the close of the program a burlesque pantomime, "Lady Vere de Vere's Romance," was given. Cider and doughnuts were served later. The party was one of the most successful that has ever been given at the association headquarters. Miss Priscilla Newcomer was chairman of the entertainment committee. Miss Rae Dorsman was in charge of the decorations and Miss Antonette Chauvin was the chairman of the C. U. P. club entertainment committee.

ST. JOHN'S AUXILIARY GIVES TABLEAU

The first of a series of monthly educational programs by the Women's Auxiliary of St. John's church was held on Wednesday evening at the Guild hall. The subject was the "Heritage of Our Fathers," and traced the history of the church in the colonies in short talks and tableaux.

It will be nice to have Lord and Lady Beatty with us again so soon. Lady Beatty, as you know, was Miss Ethel Field, daughter of the late Marshall Field, and as the daughter of the late Marshall Field, Lord and Lady Beatty will be in the center of much entertainment.

A tableau representing delicious education was given in which Mrs. G. K. Ankle personated Martha Washington, surrounded by slaves. Mrs. R. P. Donohoe gave a graphic description of the general survey of the needs and activities of the church, which are to be exemplified in these meetings throughout the year.

This was followed by a beautiful Red Cross tableau expressive of social service in which Mrs. Donnell posed as "The Greatest Mother of Them All" in a most accurate reproduction of the famous poster of that name. Seated below the central figure were two very attractive Red Cross workers, one knitting, the other winding bandages. Misses Rosalie Furry and Grace Channing assumed these roles, and little Paul Ziegler admirably posed as the miniature wounded soldier in "The mother's" arms.

The slaves in the Martha Washington tableau were represented by Matilda Raymond, Josephine Havard, Richard Holbein and David Mitchell.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Katherine Farrell, Mrs. J. T. Newhall, Mrs. J. D. Waters and Mrs. E. A. Bradford.

DELIGHTFUL DANCE AT HUNTING CASTLE

The young society folks of the city who consider a dancing party in the charming ballroom at Hunting Castle just about the nicest entertainment imaginable were guests of Mrs. Arno Huning there on Friday evening at an affair given in honor of Miss Dorothy Fleisch of Chicago. Miss Fleisch is an interesting visitor for several months at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Walton. About seventy guests were invited to the affair. Delicious refreshments were served late in the evening. Mrs.

QUEEN CHEERS SOLDIERS WOUNDED IN QUELLING MOROCCAN INSURRECTION

Queen Victoria of Spain is spending much of her time now as did the royal women of most European countries during the World war. She is visiting the soldiers of her country who have been wounded in the Moroccan war, fighting to preserve Spain's last colonial possession. This photo, taken recently, shows her during a visit to the bedside of a wounded warrior at San Jose.

Huning was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Walton and Mrs. Reuben Perry.

U. N. M. SOCIETY

The Alpha Chi Omega are holding another of their jolly informal teas at the chapter house this afternoon. This is one of a series of Sunday afternoon "at homes" which are characterizing the Alpha Chi social program this winter. The patronesses will be guests of honor this afternoon. Miss Dorothy Stevenson will be in charge of the entertainment. Miss Helen Lindsey of Portales has been a visitor at the Alpha Chi house for several days.

The second get-together dinner of Pi Kappa Alpha pledges, actives and alumni of the city will be held this evening at the chapter house on East Silver avenue. Talks and smokes will follow the substantial part of the evening's entertainment.

The Equineclub club, which is the girls' dormitory organization on the campus, gave a rather novel Halloween party at the girls' gymnasium on last Saturday evening. The big room was decorated in cornucopias, ghosts, pumpkins and like things suggestive of the season. The dancing program was varied with feature dances and contests for partners. Apples, sweet cider and doughnuts were served as a finale to the evening.

A Halloween house dance was given by the Phi Mu actives and pledges last Friday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Chasler, Misses Elvina Millick, Lillian Patton, Clarissa Parsons, Ruth Hefflin, Margaret Gussdorf, Margaret Sparzo, Bertha Lee Payne, Geraldine Tully, Nell Hess, Dorothy Wagner, Velma Smith, Edna Miller, Newell Dixon and Octavia Johnson, and Messrs. Perkins Patton, Pat Pugh, Dudley Snyder, George White, Dale Snyder, Roy Hickman, Dick Culpender, Edward Horman, Richard Anzic, Marshall Wilson, Ervin Betts, Ogle Jones and Will Hale.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

The Tuesday evening meeting of the C. U. P. club was not so well attended as usual, probably on account of the Halloween festivities of the evening previous. However, one or two interesting propositions were made to those present by Miss Jessie Short, the club president. If there is a sufficiently large number present at the next meeting—twelve to fifteen, anyway—some extra food times can be arranged for the following Tuesday. From now on every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoon from four to five will be a special hour for the different girl reserve groups. On Monday afternoon afternoons, the girls will meet with Mrs. Graham. Last Monday their business meeting was followed by discussions of plans for a "Thanksgiving party." The fifth and sixth grade girls meeting on Tuesday afternoon, are learning to lead and command their own group, either from the ranks or on the side while "teacher" takes her place with the rest. At first it was hard to keep from giggling, and to speak a loudly enough for all to hear, but now the youthful "instructors" can sing out "For-ward, March!" with all the snap required—and the lines respond most willingly, but with a surprising readiness to turn critic if the leader happens to make a mistake.

Girls from the seventh and eighth grades will have the floor on Wednesday afternoon. Their first meeting will be on Monday when Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Gekeler will meet them for the first time to talk over their reorganization. It was a small but brightly-eyed and frolicsome lot of little maids from the third and fourth grades that gathered on Thursday. They played games and learned how to dance the "Children's Polka" and the "Danish Dance of Greeting." Last Friday a fresh-man group met with Mrs. Lasseter at her home to complete their organization. Hereafter they will meet on Tuesday at the association. They will have a pre-nuptial and program of their own.

A change of program for the children's dancing classes will give the little tots a quieter hour on Thursday morning at nine-thirty. The older class will then meet at nine-thirty on Saturday morning. Miss Essie Gill, a member of the recreation committee, helped Miss Franzene of the Girls' Welfare home last Saturday to bring the girls in to town to see the circus parade.

Tri-S Club.

The Tri-S club, a newly organized group of convalescent club, had a picnic Tuesday on the banks of the Rio Grande near Barajas. Nine girls went in automobiles from the Y. W. C. A. headquarters at 4 o'clock. Supper consisted of venison, bacon and eggs, tomatoes, coffee and fruit. The girls were very enthusiastic over their new organization, which is conducted under the guidance of Miss Knox of the hospital department of the Y. W. C. A. The club will meet weekly and have two services each month. At their meeting Friday, November 4, they worked on pen-pants for the Red Cross for Armistice day. The officers of the club are Miss Jean Stahl, president, and Miss Gippie Lovelace, secretary and treasurer. The members are Misses Grace Clough, Evelyn Bihaur, Sarah Fly, Ruth Mount, Constance Price, Florence Knorr, Frances Miller, Mary Harrison and Mrs. Lillian Evans.

HARMONY.

A discord is nerve-racking; harmony soothes. To be in step, with the band playing, makes the march easy.

Discord is demoralizing and destructive. It prevents us from marshalling our thoughts or organizing our conduct. We exhaust our energies and our health to no purpose.

Discord brings death. It destroys mental peace and poise. Presently the organs of the body are at war and refuse to function harmoniously. Unless we can rise above our mental environment and compel the re-establishment of harmony, our usefulness, perhaps our life, approaches the end.

Right and wrong are forever at war. He who would be right will not be able to live at peace with wrong. But he can view it objectively. He can keep in harmony with God's beautiful, harmonious universe and can hear the angels of peace forever sing, though he be giving battle for righteousness. He can fight without hate, for the sake of the principle of right involved. But with malice, hate, vindictiveness and retaliation preying at the evil directors of our minds, we are undone.

Harmony is as essential to community life as to private life. Discord brings paralysis and death. The keenness of competition is healthful. The bitterness of strife destroys. A community must "get right" with itself if it would prosper.

The institution which gets out of harmony with its community is doomed, unless steps are taken to restore its contact. Malice can not preside at its council table except as the cynical symbol of death. What frail creatures we are! In spite of repeated object lessons we refuse to sense the menace of malice.

ROOT VS. LLOYD GEORGE.

Liberals of radical tendencies are excited over the proposal of Premier Lloyd George to attend the armament limitations conference. They point out his "lack of principle," "uncanny powers of persuasion" and his general capacity for "bamboozling" his associates in such a conference.

These critics are unduly excited. Lloyd George is no superman, although a very capable politician, if not a statesman. But he is going up against Elihu Root and Senator Underwood instead of Woodrow Wilson. This is said in no spirit of criticism of the high purpose which actuated President Wilson at the peace conference. The very actuated nature of his ideas was his undoing in the struggle with the wolves of practical politics of the European school of diplomacy. Wilson meant what he said. His associates did not. Wilson was sincere; they were coldly conniving.

Elihu Root is the greatest piece of cold intellectual machinery that America has produced in this generation. His mind is inexorable in its processes. Sentiment never influences him. That explains his lack of popularity among his countrymen, although they have always believed in his marvelous ability. Had he the disposition to dissemble possessed by Lloyd George, he would be a greater politician.

Elihu Root will look on Lloyd George with unblinking eye and read him through and through. No sophistries or arts will get by his uncanny powers of analysis. Lloyd George will be "stopped" when he encounters Root. That very able mentality and astute politician, Senator Underwood, a democrat, will be Root's ally in analyzing political maneuvers. Lloyd George will feel no one.

We would regard his presence in Washington as fortunate. Before disarmament can make progress the far eastern muddle must be adjusted. Without Lloyd George, Japan must yield. The former should be here where evasion will be more difficult because of the close-range negotiations. Perhaps England's economic dilemma will bring the premier here in a state of mind which will facilitate a favorable result.

SEEING AMERICA FIRST.

While there was a large influx of American tourists into Europe last summer—and the sight of the Old World are not to be despised—it is gratifying to note, also, growing appreciation of our own wonder spots. The superintendent of Yellowstone National park reports that 81,247 persons visited the park during the season which ended September 20. Of these 55,771 came by automobile. Yosemite National park had about 10,000 more visitors than Yellowstone, and has taken the lead among the national parks in attendance. This is not surprising; California makes a stronger appeal to tourists than Wyoming, Montana and Idaho. Most of the visitors to Yosemite also came by automobile, but railroad travel to the park showed an increase, too.

The motor car obviously is inducing Americans to "see America first." Europeans have often expressed amazement that so many people from the United States have crossed the ocean before they had visited the celebrated scenic regions of their own country. It is a reproach to us that this should have been; for it indicated that we held the natural wonders with which the United States is endowed in lower esteem than was warranted. The fact is that few European countries can offer scenery so attractive as may be found within our own borders. And it is not necessary to go far from home to find picturesque mountains and forests and streams. Anyone who has the slightest regard for these things will find delight in a tour of our own state. It is a patriotic duty to become acquainted with our own country, and it will be found to be far from an irksome duty.

PLEDGES REDEEMED.

With 14 Democratic senators voting for and 13 against ratification of the treaty of peace between the United States and Germany, it is seen that the senate's decision was not arrived at along exclusively partisan political lines and that the opposition which it had sought to rally on account of such considerations did not materialize.

While ratification was naturally an administrative measure and accomplished in redemption of the pledge of President Harding which was so heartily approved at the polls last November by the American people, it is gratifying to find representative Democratic senators in such numbers joining with their Republican brethren in authorizing an act not merely right and sensible in itself, but possessing an important bearing on the country's general welfare and prosperity. The anomalous, embarrassing situation which has existed so long after our late associates in arms made their own peace with the central powers was directly due to President Wilson's insistence on entwining the league of nations covenant with the treaty of Versailles.

"I promise you formal and effective peace," said Mr. Harding in his speech accepting the Republican nomination for president. "Then we may turn to our readjustment at home and proceed that hoped-for world relationship which shall satisfy both conscience and aspirations and still hold us free from menacing involvement." And his next sentence dealt with another related question which is on the eve of being given practical consideration: "I can hear in the call of conscience an insistent voice for largely reduced armaments throughout the world, with attendant reductions of burdens upon peace-loving humanity."

The first pledge has now been redeemed. Peace is ratified. The second is in process of fulfillment. Mr. Harding has kept the faith.

WHY SHOULD WE WORRY?

The death of former King Ludwig of Bavaria is reported. There is this much to be said for him that when he abdicated he made himself inconspicuous. He at least knew when he was down and out. Yet abdication may have been a relief rather than a sacrifice. He came of a race more noted for madness than for any other trait. Monarchs of Bavaria have repeatedly fallen under the spell of insanity. Sometimes madness cost their subjects dearly, but so ingrained in the latter was reverence for kingly rule that they endured when endurance was not a virtue.

However, the theory of monarchy with its insistence on marriages only with "royal" blood is a promoter of insanity and physical weakness. The various kingdoms of Germany have been for centuries in the business of providing marriages for other princes. However, royal relationships do not count heavily when national interests are involved. The mad kaiser hated England with no less violent hate notwithstanding he was a grandson of Victoria. Family ties are easily snapped when ambition is thwarted. Notwithstanding that kings go mad and those not so held by inequities are becoming anachronisms, a few nations still cling to them as figureheads. Reverence for the past is the mainstay of monarchy. It gives those who prefer to be subjects some one to whom to look up.

VERSE OF TODAY

THE ANNIVERSARY.

The mighty tides of fate still ebb and flow,
 The mighty moons of fortune wax and wane,
 Death and disaster out of pleasure grow
 And God's high ecstasy returns again.

Some green, delightful cases are found
 In the enormous desert of despair,
 Some lovely acres of enchanted ground,
 Some sunny regions of celestial air.

But that which grows where nothing flourishes,
 And that which blooms where ruin else would be,
 And that which heals the sting of even death
 Is love—and I love thee and thou lovest me.

EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

WHO WON THE PEACE?

(From the Minneapolis Tribune.)
 The French insist that while America "won the war she lost the peace." Who, then, did win the peace? Every nation victorious as well as vanquished, complains that it failed to win the peace. The United States is dissatisfied with what it got out of the peace. So is France, Britain, Italy, Japan, Poland, Greece, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Rumania and Turkey.

More and more the world is beginning to see that the day of the victorious war is over. Such is the costliness of modern war that the gains of victory cannot possibly balance the losses sustained in the fight to achieve victory. The victor and the vanquished are both losers; the only difference is that the loser loses a little more.

In one sense, we may be grateful for the fact that nobody did win the peace. We wish it might be universally comprehended that a victory in and of itself is impotent to produce the results desired. Pre-war Germany might have had less appetite for the 1914 plunge had it understood that, no matter what the outcome, Germany was bound to lose.

Germany, more than any other country, had been educated into the opposite belief. The "short, profitable war" had become a national enterprise with Germany. She had known the experience of a short, profitable war alike with Austria and with France, and had failed to discern the fact that times had changed and that the short, profitable war was now an anachronism.

In the practically universal dissatisfaction over the Versailles peace, then, there may be something on which to base future hopes. From that the fact may be deduced that a victorious peace cannot bring satisfaction.

It would be well, indeed, if less emphasis were laid upon the follies of the peace-makers at Versailles while more emphasis was laid on the fact that no peace was possible which would give satisfaction upon the follies of the peace-makers at Versailles did, to be sure, make about as sorry a mess of things as it was physically possible to make. But looking a little more deeply into the subject, it is perfectly apparent that no peace could ever have recouped the losses sustained by the victors. In other words, it was obvious in November, 1918, that the victors could not have their victory because there was no victory to be had.

If a triumphant peace is futile, then a triumphant war is futile, and if a triumphant war is futile, then there is no reason d'être for war at all. Nobody wants to go to war only to emerge a loser. Of course war will recur despite the growing understanding that the rewards of peace can never equal the costs of the adventure. But the more the futility, the emptiness, of victory is comprehended, the less, therefore, must be the enthusiasm for the undertaking. Versailles was a great object lesson in illustrating the hollowness of victory, and, perhaps, it may assist the growth of antimilitarist sentiment merely because it has made that point so mercilessly clear.

SURPRISE VISITORS.

When I decide to visit friends I write and tell them so; and if from them a roar ascends, I wilt, and do not go. "We have the flu to beat the band," my cousin wrote me back, when I informed him that I planned to visit at his shack. "The swine flu has us in its grip," replied my loving niece, "so do not make your threatened trip, but let us die in peace." And thus I give them every chance to dodge impending war, when I in pomp and circumstance, to their abodes would go. If they desire to have me there, they'll let me know. I wot, and if they don't it isn't fair to interrupt their lot. For I detest the giddy guys who visit unawares, who think it cunning to surprise poor victims in their lairs. I have a grist of ancient aunts who play this ghastly trick, and when they come my spirit pants to do things with a brick. Oh, one must rail at spiteful fate, and wring his hands and rant, who sees a taxi at the gate discharged with a withered aunt. She has a birdcage in her hand, and earmuffs on her ears, and well he knows that she has planned to stay for seven years. If she had only written him that she was breaking loose, he might have had a broken limb, or other good excuse. If you invade another's home uncalled, unadvised, there is a puncture in your dome that should be vulcanized.

Weather. Unknown.
 Sports. The new drug store opened last Saturday with a big line saying, Special Today a Free Ice Cream Soda with each 50 Cent Purchase, and Puds Simkins and Ed Wernick went around ringing everybody's doorbell they knew and asking if they wanted any free erands to the drug store for anything, the result being Puds Simkins got 13 ice cream sodas and Ed Wernick got 17. Puds being the only one got sick, one reason properly being because he took a different flavor each time and the other reason properly being that 13 is a unlucky number.

NOT BLOOD MONEY
BUT BREAD MONEY

A wife sometimes shrinks from life insurance because she thinks it gives her an interest in her husband's death. Not so. Life insurance simply provides for the family when, by reason of old age or death, the bread-winner can no longer provide for them. A man who denies this protection to his family fails to realize the gravity of his responsibilities.

Don't put it off any longer. Make arrangements to secure this protection now—while you are in good health. Full particulars and sample policies will be sent on request.

THAT the Ford One-ton truck does more for the farmer or the merchant is proved by the great number of them now in daily use—that it does this at less cost is shown by the actual figures—a smaller first cost and a much lower expense for operation and upkeep.

The Ford One-ton Truck has proved a great money saver, as well as a labor saver. It has solved the problems of economic transportation between the farm and the city.

The Ford One-ton truck has all the merits of the Ford car, with added strength for greater capacity. The worm drive of aluminum bronze gives unusual and positive power at a very low cost.

Come in and let us show you how the Ford One-ton Truck will help you and save you money in your work.

IMPORTANT

We are prepared to furnish the Ford Truck equipped either with Standard or Special Gearing. The Standard Gearing gives the truck a maximum of power. The Special Gearing increases the speed of the truck from five to seven miles an hour, converting it into a Fast Delivery Car.

Normal University

(Las Vegas.)

The department of drama, under the direction of Mr. Charles E. Shank, presented a very delightful one-act play, "Suppressed Desires," at the Shriners' Halloween party Monday night, repeating the performance at chapel before the student body Tuesday morning.

The opera house reception of the girls' Friendly society at the dorm last week was an unparalleled success. The parlors and hallway were decorated in true Halloween style. Guests were shown over the entire building, and music and punch served to entertain them on their return to the ground floor. Most of the student body and a great number of town people attended the reception. After the reception Miss Adams and the girls were invited to the Elks' masquerade ball, where a second good time was enjoyed.

Miss Marie Soma, professor of Spanish, has returned temporarily to her home in Santa Fe on account of illness. Miss Soma has not thoroughly recovered from a recent attack of grippe. During her absence Misses Osmond, Fulgenti and Llesse are handling the work of her department.

The Normal this week suffered the loss of Miss Helen Lindsay from the position of secretary of the institution. Miss Lindsay has been appointed postmaster at Portales and has returned to her home county to take up her new duties.

By the employment of a special device low-temperature cooking process investigators at the University of Illinois have succeeded in obtaining a good grade of coke from coal which seemed devoid of any coking property.

Las Vegas

The Las Vegas Knights of Pythias have presented a solid gold medal to Charles Bunch, keeper of seals and records, showing that he has been a member of that order for 25 years. Mr. Bunch is said to be one of the best exemplifiers of the degree work in the state. This medal has been adopted by the Knights as a means of recognizing faithful service among its members.

Monday night ghosts and goblins, witches and black cats were everywhere in evidence on the streets of Vegas. Miss Louise Hammond entertained a number of her young friends at a dinner party at her home, after which the small guests were taken around to the homes of friends and parents to show them what real bad ghosts the little ones might be.

The Shriners were hosts to their friends at a delightful Halloween party in their club rooms. Early in the evening a short program was given. Miss Selma Sizer sang accompanied by Mrs. Colbert C. Root. Miss Ida Harper, Miss Dorcas Carson and Jennie McMillan appeared in a playlet entitled, "Suppressed Desires." Miss Harper also danced. After the entertainment the room was turned over to the guests who were masked and dancing was enjoyed till late.

The young men of the city, who a few weeks ago started to obtain members for a club, "The Kiwanians," have reached the requisite number, which is fifty, and will next week organize and be a full-fledged club. Henry G. Coors, Jr., of Albuquerque, will be here to assist in the formal organization.

Brewer and Eugene Vigil for having the best "hard times" costumes. A number of Halloween costumes were in evidence and together with the "tacky" ones added much to the merriment of the occasion. The ladies of the Santa Clara church served lunch during the evening, the proceeds of which amounted to more than $50. A very large crowd danced to music furnished by local talent until a late hour.

Don Vicente Mares was a Vegas visitor the past week-end, returning home Saturday afternoon.

Neil Bolt and Milton Schultz, members of the Junior and freshman classes respectively, of the local high school, spent the week-end with their parents at Levy.

Mrs. Joe Wertheim came in a few days ago from Carlsbad, N. M., and will visit here for some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Vorenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bentley were hosts at an informal dance given at the Frye hotel on Thursday evening in honor of the former's sister, Miss Nan Virginia Bentley, who is here from Missouri making a visit. The occasion was Miss Bentley's twenty-first birthday, and the cutting of a birthday cake, lighted with 21 candles, was one of the most enjoyable features. For those who did not care to dance, cards were provided, so everyone spent a very pleasant evening. At midnight refreshments were served to about forty guests.

REFINEMENTS IN THE DODGE BROS. COUPE IDEAL FOR WINTER

Dodge Brothers improved coupe, which may now be viewed at the salesrooms of J. Korber and company, local Dodge Brothers dealers, is obviously a car which will contribute much to the reputation of the makers.

The outstanding feature of the car, after its motor and substantial appearance, is a minute attention to all those details which cater to the comfort and convenience of the motorist. One feature certain to win approval during cold weather is the body heater placed flush with the floor directly in front of the passenger seat. This heater is adjustable for summer or winter weather, so that by means of a convenient lift control the heat can be regulated. In summer the lever is dropped back to normal and the heat passes out through the exhaust pipe.

Disc wheels, done in black enamel with cream stripes, enhance the appearance of Dodge Brothers coupe and bring out to advantage its substantial lines. Other refinements are anti-rattlers which hold the windows firmly in place and prevent vibration, and weather strips in the doors, affording extra protection in unpleasant weather. The shopper need not worry when she parks her car and leaves it crammed with parcels, for both doors are Yale lock equipped.

With the adjustable steering wheels, the driver of the coupe may enter it with ease from either side, and by means of a latch the wheel can be thrown up out of the way while getting in the car and then thrown back into normal position when ready for driving.

The interior appointments will satisfy the most fastidious, combining rich mohair velvet upholstery with natural black walnut garnished moldings and richly tufted handles for raising and lowering the windows. The Dodge Brothers motor, with its reputation for endurance and economy, has not been changed.

A MESSAGE OF MOTOR JOY TOLD IN HABITS OF BIRDS AND ANIMALS

A message of joy has just been sent out to the owners of closed cars by the representative of a large rubber company, who finds the basis for his cheer in his study of the instinctive habits of birds and animals. The outlook for an old-fashioned winter is not disturbing to the owners of a closed car, he says, adding that there are so many indications of an early winter "that by Christmas every one will have become accustomed to sliding through the snow drifts."

These indications are told succinctly as follows: "Migratory birds that usually wait until late September to seek the warmer climes started south in large numbers in August. The fish in northern New York state that a year ago were disputing themselves near the surface have already sought the deep water. In the zoological parks, he bears have been yawning for weeks, showing they feel that the time for their long winter sleep is close at hand."

"From Montana comes word that the birds went south in early August, the beavers have already built their dams and the Indians predict a long, bitter winter."

"The trappers in Canadian forests have reported to the government that fur-bearing animals are covered with heavier coats than for many years, and the guides in the Adirondacks state that the birds that stay in the north through the winter have a thicker covering of feathers. In the corn belt it has been noted that the sheaves are thicker than usual."

Hence, closed car owners need not be disturbed because "it is a fact well known to tire engineers that tires wear much better in cold weather than in the summer time. Heat is the worst enemy of tires, and the extra wear and tear that a tire gets in bucking the snow and ice is more than offset by the saving arising from decrease in heat

He Got a Willard

A chap who travels a lot tells me that some places he goes the kids learn to say "Ford" before they can holler "Mama." Take one that's real bright, and he can make a noise like a Ford motor before he surprises the folks with "Bow-Wow" and "Choo-Choo!"

An old timer in one of these Ford paradises was in all kinds of trouble. His Ford cut up something awful. Finally it struck him that his battery must be a little off, and believe me it was—not enough juice in it to crank a coffee mill.

When the light broke in on him that way, he hit for the nearest battery place—and as luck would have it he was almost next door to a Willard Service Station. Right there was where he and battery quality got introduced.

He'd never heard that there was a Willard Ford-Size Battery that would make a Ford hit like a twin six—but he knows it now. And the fellow that tries to make him see any other kind of a battery for that Ford is going to be up against a genuine job.

Your Ford Deserves a Willard

Because so much unusual performance is expected from a Ford, the wise driver is never satisfied with a battery of anything less than Willard Quality—and there's no need to be satisfied with less. Because there's a genuine Willard Battery made in Ford Size—and it sells at a surprisingly low price.

Willard Batteries have for years had a reputation as high-quality batteries—and today they're better than ever. Willard plates are extra rigid to prevent warping—active material is hard, to stand the jolt and jar of service on short-wheelbase cars. There are dozens of refinements made possible by Willard's long experience. And this is the kind of battery you need for your Ford, at a price that you would pay for much less quality!

The Still-Better Willard and the Even-Better-Than-That Willard

There are, in addition, two other types—the Willard Threaded Rubber Battery and the Willard All-Rubber Battery—which for a few dollars more give you all the super-quality that goes into batteries for the higher priced cars. And these super-batteries are not too good for the Ford. You'll say so when you get the prices.

The Willard Threaded Rubber Battery. That's the battery used as standard original equipment by the builders of 188 makes of cars and trucks, who believe that battery insulation is important. For a slight additional first cost you are freed of later re-insulation expense.

The Willard All-Rubber Battery. Rubber inside—Rubber outside. Plates are protected by Threaded Rubber Insulation. Has Monobloc (one piece) Rubber Container, in which sides, partitions and bottom are a solid piece of leak-proof, damp-proof, acid-proof rubber. The small additional cost fades away when you think of the satisfaction of having a Willard All-Rubber Battery. Begin to investigate the Willard Battery right now. Ask some of your friends who have Willard Batteries on Fords and on larger cars what they think about them. Come in! It's a safe bet you'll be agreeably surprised when you find WHAT THE PRICES ARE.

VITAGRAPH STUDIOS ELIMINATE LOSS BY INSTALLING DODGE CAR

Waiting for "props" when the waiters are motion picture stars at six-figure salaries is expensive recreation, the managers of big western studios have discovered.

"It is not hard to illustrate how valuable time is in the making of movies," says Bill Smith, superintendent of transportation for the big Vitagraph studios near Los Angeles. "Before we bought our present delivery equipment one of our directors was on location and telephoned in for something he needed very badly. Ordinarily the run to the location would have consumed only twenty-five minutes, but the equipment we had at that time took an hour and a half. This comparatively short delay, however, cost us $400 or $500 in salaries and expenses, so it is absolutely essential that we have dependable delivery equipment."

"We have forty acres of ground, and when one considers that at any spot a director may call in for 'props' for immediate use, it can be seen that we must be prepared to

ROAD CONDITIONS

The New Mexico Auto club, state headquarters at 210 North Fourth street, this city, has issued the following on road conditions in the state:

The roads throughout all portions of the state are as good as at any time of the year. All roads are passable and there is no sand or mud which will bother the tourist.

All roads are somewhat rough and chunky where they were wet during the fall rains.

The roads and weather are as a rule safe for tourist travel until about Thanksgiving.

The State Headquarters of the New Mexico Auto Club will bulletin any change in these conditions at the club office. Any one desiring information concerning any definite road or roads may have same along with maps by calling at the club office.

deliver the goods without the slightest waste of time."

The big motion picture studio now has two Dodge Brothers cars in constant use, and according to Mr. Smith, they are so adaptable to various uses demanded of delivery equipment in the motion picture industry that they are indispensable. "For the speedy delivery of anything from an envelope to a piano give me Dodge Brothers siren business car," is Mr. Smith's way of putting it.

In Persia the wedding service is always read in front of a fire.

IF YOU WANT TO KNOW, JUST ASK F. MCLOSKEY OF WILLARD AGENCY

"How can that little glass 'do-flitter' tell whether a battery is fully charged or not?" dubiously queries some fair lady motorist during the day's work at the average battery service station. And many a man would like to know more about the same subject, but he does not like to confess his ignorance—his curiosity is not quite so keen.

The explanation is simple indeed and very reasonable when one gives it sufficient consideration. It happens that the sulphuric acid used in a battery solution is heavier than water alone, and the hydrometer used for battery testing merely indicates the relative weight of the solution compared with the weight of pure water.

When a battery is discharged, a great amount of the acid in the battery solution has combined with the lead compounds in the plates. Naturally the solution is weak in acid and the float rises deep. But when the battery is fully charged and the acid is in the solution—the solution has become heavier—and the hydrometer float rises high.

The Willard Storage Battery company and man, other manufacturers recommend the regular and frequent testing of batteries with the hydrometer. Unless a battery has been meddled with by some inexperienced person, this makes a reliable test of the state of charge.

COLLEGE STUDENTS STUDY MOTOR CAR WORK AT KENOSHA

First hand study of the automobile factory has come to be part of the curriculum of the modern university. This is true particularly of middle-western schools owing to the proximity of the motor car industry.

One hundred and fifty students of the Milwaukee School of Engineering came to Kenosha on special cars last week and, headed by instructors, went through the great plant where the Nash Six is built practically complete from bearing to bodies. A similar group of students, bent upon knowledge of how automobiles are built came two weeks ago from Purdue university. A delegation from the University of Wisconsin is scheduled to arrive in Kenosha November 16, while students from the University of Illinois and the University of Iowa also are expected at the Nash plant this fall.

Practically all of these schools have made the inspection of the Nash factory an annual feature of their regular work. The most of them were represented by delegations last year.

Students who visit the Nash plant express interest in the diversity and completeness of the factory equipment; many of the machines are built specifically for Nash requirements. They are interested also in the orderly manner in which the work of building the Nash Six progresses. They are shown how the raw material enters the plant at one end and how each operation proceeds on the "straight line" production method until the various parts are assembled into the finished car. In the modern Nash foundry, students are shown how tons of molten metal are molded into rough castings and in the forge shop they see the powerful drop-hammers shape the various parts for assembly into the finished product.

As practically every part in a completed automobile is subjected to a different sort of strain or stress the visiting delegations are shown how formulas worked out by Nash steel experts are put into practice in the heat treating department. There the steel parts are heated and quenched and heated again, each receiving a specific treatment for strain or stress. It will be called upon to withstand in the finished car.

WHY CORD TIRES GIVE BETTER MILEAGE

There are two well-known classes of tires—the square-woven fabric and the cord tire. In the square-woven fabric tire the threads in each ply run in both directions, alternating over and under as in a piece of ordinary cloth. In the cord tire, the threads or cords in each ply run parallel.

Since square-woven fabric cannot be thoroughly impregnated with rubber at the points where the threads cross, flexing at these points will cause a sawing action and the generating of internal heat. It has been demonstrated very clearly by experiment, according to the United States Tire company, that when the temperature resulting from internal heat reaches 230 degrees, vulcanized rubber crumbles into minute particles. This ultimately causes a blow-out. A heat of 265 degrees is not an uncommon temperature in a tire when driven at a high speed; this is particularly true of large truck tires.

In the case of cord tires, each thread is embedded in the rubber compound and the internal friction is reduced to a minimum. A brief summary of the advantages derived from the use of cord tires would include easier riding, due to greater resiliency; saving of gasoline and oil; saving of machinery, and more miles per dollar.

Protect your Ford engine from this abuse

THE Ford has a remarkable engine, compact and finely made. When overheating, excess carbon and pounding bearings tax temper and pocketbook, it is nine chances to one that you have been using inferior oil.

Under the intense heat of the engine, ordinary oil forms great quantities of black sediment. Sediment has no lubricating value. It causes premature wear which will cut the life of your engine in two.

You can eliminate engine trouble from this source. Sediment is reduced 86% when you use Veedol, the lubricant that resists heat.

Drop in today and let us fill the crankcase of your Ford with the proper grade of Veedol. There is no oil like Veedol for reducing repair expenses.

Every product we handle carries a guarantee.

Automotive engineers say that at least 80% of all motor repairs are preventable.

There's Rarely any Excuse for Burnt-out Bearings

Don't blame the bearings if you use any and all kinds of oil

No automobile manufacturer is going to equip his product with poor bearings. He couldn't afford to. Why then is the job of replacing burnt-out bearings a common one in the average garage?

The cause of practically all internal motor troubles, including badly worn bearings, can be traced to either an insufficient quantity of oil or an inferior grade of oil.

Be sure that the quality as well as the supply of your oil is right

Two makes of oil may look and feel exactly alike. But one will hold its "body" or consistency at high motor temperatures for a long time and the other will break down and lose its efficiency quickly.

This is only one illustration of the great difference there is in oils, due to the various degrees of skill with which they are refined and the different grades of crude petroleum from which they are obtained

Always look for a "Polarine" sign when you want motor oil

The manufacturers of Polarine, The Perfect Motor Oil, were pioneers in petroleum refining.

They have made motor oil from the early days when the automobile was in its infancy.

Why experiment when you can be sure—by using Polarine, The Perfect Motor Oil? Sold at every Continental Service Station and by Continental dealers almost everywhere.
