On March 1, Puertos Mexicanos director Roberto Rios Ferrer announced that about 691 billion pesos will be invested in the nation's port facilities in 1991 as part of the "Permanent Export Promotion Program." (See article on new program, this issue.) Total cargo handled by the nation's ports (excluding oil, salt and gypsum) is expected to increase 6% this year over 1990. (Source: Excelsior, 03/04/91)
