

11-30-1901

Albuquerque Weekly Citizen, 11-30-1901

T. Hughes

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/abq\_citizen\_news

---

Recommended Citation

Hughes, T.. "Albuquerque Weekly Citizen, 11-30-1901." (1901). https://digitalrepository.unm.edu/abq\_citizen\_news/387

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the New Mexico Historical Newspapers at UNM Digital Repository. It has been accepted for inclusion in Albuquerque Citizen, 1891-1906 by an authorized administrator of UNM Digital Repository. For more information, please contact disc@unm.edu.

IMPORTANT CABINET MEETING.

Stapp went out to Rociada today. Harry Roseberry will be married. Miss Katie Dunn, daughter of Mr. Mrs. Richard Dunn, of Rociada, Wednesday of this week. Bert Adams and mother, Mrs. Dalley, will be among the attendants from Las Vegas.

Has Returned.
Hon. W. B. Childers, the United States

Mrs. Freeman alleges neglect on the part of the company in putting up stovepipe which she claims came apart and caused the fire. She claims and settled since last November. I received a large influx of population from the disappointed boomers in Oklahoma last July and August, most of whom settled and got work building the new railroads or in the new mines or took up ranches. The territory has at least 10,000 more Americans in it now than native Mexicans, although the latter are the very best kind of citizens. Statistics recently

Source: Journal of the American Statistical Association, 93(463), 1998, pp. 1039-1052.

A Chance
IF YOU AC

Fluke, 6; V. Romero, 4.
Doll: Stella Trimble, 13; Mary David, 16; Anita Rubbell, 1; Steven Parling, 10.
Solid silver toilet set for the most popular lady in Albuquerque—Mrs. A.
Grunfeld, 92. Miss Estelle Lewinson,
54; Mrs. J. W. Crumpler, 23; Miss
Anita Palladino, 16; Mrs. L. R.
Thompson, 5; Mrs. B. Hfeld, 3.
For the first time, Dr. John Tascher,

In the past two months the Gold Bond mine, situated between Kingman and Fort Monave and twelve miles east of the Colorado river, has been sold to a company of eastern capitalists. O. P. Paine, formerly general manager of the Cochiti Gold Mining company in Albuquerque, and Director Bailey, of the same company, negotiated for the deal, and already they have on the ground a hoisting and air com-

F. H. Bailey is the new district manager of the Swift & Co.'s packing company, Kansas City, with headquarters in this city.

_____

Next month is the holiday month. Advertisements planted now will yield an abundant harvest.

W. A. Lewis, representing the St. Louis Coffin company, was in the city selling on the local undertakers.

George C. Bowman, United States gauger, has returned to the city from a gauging trip to the fruit distilleries at Belen.

ouris
King of Fashion
in colors and varying widths of trim,
1, or raw edges.
H. ROELOFS & CO.,
Philadelphia, U. S. A.
Keep patterns without our trade-mark.

Mr. Felipe Romero, wife of Dr. F. B. Romero, returned last evening to her home in El Paso, after spending a few days visiting her sick brother, Dr. Romero, who is now reported out of danger.

J. F. McCrory has returned from his trip to El Porvenir and is now at the Montezuma hotel. He states that the business in this section has increased in the past few days, and not a considerable number have been freighted out previous to this. As the supplies for this section all come through El Paso, the business men here may look for a considerable increase in business of this section.

L. C. Parker, one of the largest property owners of this city, will leave for El Paso tomorrow morning.

has been completed in the city, the work of extending it up the canyon beyond Hot Springs will commence.

"EAST LYNN'S" LAST NIGHT.

Produced by a Good Company at C. Colombo Hall.

The drama of "East Lynne" was presented last night at the Colombo an extended trip to England.

The normal school Thanksgiving vacation will commence on the 25th and last until Dec. 3.

HOSPITAL BAZAAR NOTES.

Handsome Presents Being Received.

Opening Evening, Tuesday, November 26.

play was acted in manner fully up to the expectations of the audience, and in keeping with the advance notice given by the program of the management. The play is one that is familiar to the majority of theatre goers, and is always new, treating of love, hate and jealousy, and incidents of the life of the famous queen, the character of Lary Isabel, as portrayed by J. W. Bennett, the well known general merchant and Indian trader of Houma, La., is well acted. A Navajo blanket to Mrs. Dr. Wroth, a gift for the bazaar. The blanket was weaved by an old Navajo squaw who took many months to accomplish it. The blanket will be raffled off at the bazaar next week.

place of actress Richard, was a miniature of the woman. Her support, generally speaking, with the exception of that given by Mr. Humphries, who was cast in the title role, was by Sir Francis Levison. The gentleman is fully capable of carrying the part if he were more closely to the text of the play, eliminating the exaggerated levought to improve be original; nor should Mr. Humphries be permitted to attempt translations into Spanish until he shall have mastered the "Glance" period of his study of that beautiful language. The costumes worn by Misses Stoddard and Benrimo were rich and beautiful.

SAN PEDRO SOCIETY.

This important department, and which collected together some of the finest brains of the city, was ably represented. While the lady never used a handled the weed in any shape, she by natural instincts she knows a good cigar from a bad one, and says her books will contain nothing but the genuine stuff.

Col. Martin S. Tierney, who brok-

George Larnard and Ed. Grunfeldt Present at a Musical.

[illegible]

Plams, Mesdames Carruthers and the Sullivan and Amelia Tutterman, Messrs. Grunsfeld, Leonard, Kaufman and Golding.

Free Methodist Meeting.
Rev. Oliver Gornall, of the Free Methodist ministry, has engaged the German Lutheran church, which is located in the city of New York, to hold a series of meetings in the city of New York, to be held in the city of New York.

The Citizens has also received a letter from the State Department asking for a "complete and candid" look-out for a possible spy.

the two consigned to Brooks, Tex. and Hill country, a twelfth man and girl in each pair. They left Fresno, Cal., some time last July, en route to some town in New Mexico, and travel overland in a large camp wagon. The Examiner made a close study of the files, of course including the worthy father and mother, and a general write up on the remarkable case.

INDIAN SCHOOL NOTES.

The general health of our pupils is good and no serious sickness is in our midst.

A number of changes are billed for the near future, as some of our pupils have had the matrimonial bug buzzing for some time and they have resigned to accept more agreeable positions.

Turner, alias Mac Short, who was a student at Tucson, A. T., and brought home charges of rape, the mailman legally, seems to have been caused by a family quarrel, and from the following article it is quite likely that he and his wife will also stand trial in Colorado for the same offense.

The Denver Republican on the subject says:

Our nurse, Miss Adel Norman, has her aunt visiting her now. The aunt is a very elderly lady, nearly 90 years of age. She came here in December, when Mrs. Norman will accompany her to Chicago.

A goodly number of our people went to Colorado hall last evening and enjoyed the entertainment very much.

The good work of reparation is going on and many of the walls and ceilings are being repaired.

Received no notice of the arrest of Albuquerque, N. M., of Mrs. Jennie Turner, of Denver. Inspector Smith then has been entrusted with the duty of going to her home to see if her husband a letter that might have been justified by his treatment of her, but which was of the sort the government does not grant the right of transmission.

The University basketball team are billed to play a game with our girls basketball team. An interesting time is expected.

Mrs. L. A. Richards has her daughter, Jennie, visiting her at the present time. The young lady is so charmed with the country that she has decided to remain here.

A telegram to the Republican announced the arrest, which was said to have been accomplished in Tucson, Arizona. Inspector Sullivan did not believe the arrest had been made in the town stated. "It must have been in Albuquerque if at all," he said, "for I have never heard of anyone being arrested in Arizona, and I have been taken to Albuquerque without a main for some time. She is a bright and attractive young lady and is quite popular among the students on the social side of the school home.

Rumer has it that our boys are to play a game of football with the team composed of the Guards on Thanksgiving at the school. It is a possibility. If this is the case our boys will try to win the best to keep up their record of a victory.

Our rustling industrial lecturer is improving the grounds and is preparing the farm for next season's planting. He has also greatly improved the road between the school and Fourth street by grading and leveling the same.

SILVER CITY NOTES.

Interesting Paragraphs.
Special Correspondence.
Silver City, N. M., Nov. 22.—The marriage of Miss Mattie C. Carpenter, who is the daughter of Mrs. Samuel Carpenter, who owns large cattle interests in the state, to Mr. J. W. Burnside, of this city, ex-collector and treasurer of Grant county, and who is Clifton Copper company will take place at Park ranch, the home of the host on Thanksgiving day. The couple will make their future home in Silver City, where they have numerous friends.

Charles and Roy McDonald, the hustling insurance team of the Mutual Life Insurance company, have been in the city for some time.

and have written a book on business in insurance. Mrs. Sullivan is a member of the Grand Lodge of Elks who entertain their ladies on the evening of December 6th, and a committee which has the affair in charge is preparing a royal feast for them.

Mr. W. H. Watson last Thursday delivered a very entertaining and interesting lecture on "Law-Making" to the members of the Commercial club.

Max Schultz, one of the oldest merchants of Silver City, announces that on account of his poor hearing he will retire from business on the first of January, and will close out his entire stock.

The number of patients at the United States sanitarium at Fort Hayard is daily growing larger, and the figures

It is thought that in a short time the sanatorium will be filled to its fullest capacity by the soldiers who have contracted lung troubles while serving in the Philippines.

Considerable activity is reported in the Negros mining district in the past few weeks and a number of the large mines and mills have either start-

Adolph Blumer, Grand Mound, Ia., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in my family and I think it is the best cough cure on the market. I would not be without it in my home, as there is nothing so good for coughs and colds. Alvarado Pharmacy.

Subscribe For The Daily Citizen,

ALONG THE RAILS.

Paragraphs of Interest About Railways and Shoppers.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

J. W. Francis, the stockholder at the Winchester 10 and 12, has received his dividend after a tedious litigation. He is now in the city.

Bartholomew, of the Southern Union, has been to San Bernardino to be received into the church. She was taken as far as Danbury by Engineer A. J. Wood.

Master Mechanic Parks of the Winchester division says he can use to good advantage about ten more locomotives if the company would furnish them to him.

Miss Mary Penny of Gallup has been visiting with Mrs. J. W. Painter of Winslow for several days. Miss Penny is the daughter of a conductor on the second division.

Torrellio Corvay, a Pueblo Indian employed by the railroad company at Williams, was so unfortunate as to have his foot run over Thursday. Dr. Taylor dressed the injury.

Mrs. Rhodes and little daughter, wife of Engineer C. E. Rhodes, have returned to Needles from Pasadena where they have been for several months with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Lufford, wife of Engineer Harry Lufford, left Needles for Blue Bay, T. where she will spend the winter with her sister. Harry Lufford is now in the city.

I. E. McVine, formerly night operator at the Williams depot, before the late strike, has again resumed his duties. He is now in the city.

Steel is being received for the Pecos railroad, to be built between the California and Santa Fe lines. The steel is being received from the Pecos and Colorado rivers. It is said that the Pecos district is living up to this new road will greatly facilitate mining enterprises there.

James T. Pinn, brother of Mayor Pinn, arrived in Winslow from Mayburg, Penn., and has accepted a position with the railway company there as a conductor. The mayor had not seen him for fifteen years and the first question he asked him was if he was a democrat.

Allen Hunt, the new agent at Winslow, is well known having filled the position of chief clerk to Superintendent Hibbard for several years, and needs no introduction to the people of this town. Harry Gregory is acting as Mr. Hibbard's chief clerk at present.

Several new steel bridges are being put between Kingman and Mellen. The bridges are being put in the way of building abutments and grading up for the stone work. When these bridges are completed the Santa Fe Pacific will have a smooth piece of track to run over.

The St. Johns Ship says: The length of the proposed new railroad from Durango as shown by the recent survey is 144 miles. The grade is much less than was expected or even hoped for. The building of the road means the opening up of a vast amount of valuable new country to settlement, and this is an omen that it will be built.

The Williams News says: George Swanson, who has been identified with the Santa Fe Pacific for many years, and who has been located at Seligman since it has been a division point, has been glad to announce that he has been promoted to the position of chief conductor, and there are some who fit the position so well or more more. His many friends congratulate him.

Three men were derailed at Kingman last Wednesday morning at the coal chutes, by the spreading of the rails. The wreck train was sent from the road, but was not able to get to the chutes. The men were killed and the engine was damaged.

The children are looking forward anxiously to Thanksgiving, when they will be treated with turkey and other good things furnished by Uncle Sam. The school is preparing for the day.

The children are looking forward anxiously to Thanksgiving, when they will be treated with turkey and other good things furnished by Uncle Sam. The school is preparing for the day.

The children are looking forward anxiously to Thanksgiving, when they will be treated with turkey and other good things furnished by Uncle Sam. The school is preparing for the day.

The children are looking forward anxiously to Thanksgiving, when they will be treated with turkey and other good things furnished by Uncle Sam. The school is preparing for the day.

The children are looking forward anxiously to Thanksgiving, when they will be treated with turkey and other good things furnished by Uncle Sam. The school is preparing for the day.

The children are looking forward anxiously to Thanksgiving, when they will be treated with turkey and other good things furnished by Uncle Sam. The school is preparing for the day.

The children are looking forward anxiously to Thanksgiving, when they will be treated with turkey and other good things furnished by Uncle Sam. The school is preparing for the day.

The children are looking forward anxiously to Thanksgiving, when they will be treated with turkey and other good things furnished by Uncle Sam. The school is preparing for the day.

The children are looking forward anxiously to Thanksgiving, when they will be treated with turkey and other good things furnished by Uncle Sam. The school is preparing for the day.

The children are looking forward anxiously to Thanksgiving, when they will be treated with turkey and other good things furnished by Uncle Sam. The school is preparing for the day.

The children are looking forward anxiously to Thanksgiving, when they will be treated with turkey and other good things furnished by Uncle Sam. The school is preparing for the day.

The children are looking forward anxiously to Thanksgiving, when they will be treated with turkey and other good things furnished by Uncle Sam. The school is preparing for the day.

The children are looking forward anxiously to Thanksgiving, when they will be treated with turkey and other good things furnished by Uncle Sam. The school is preparing for the day.

The children are looking forward anxiously to Thanksgiving, when they will be treated with turkey and other good things furnished by Uncle Sam. The school is preparing for the day.

Bald?

Then you starved your hair. What did you do that for? When you saw that your hair was falling out, why didn't you use Ayer's Hair Vigor? It feeds the hair, gives it vigor, stops it from falling, makes it grow, and always restores color.

"I was almost bald before I began using Ayer's Hair Vigor. In a short time my hair began to grow again, and now it is thick and heavy."

Mrs. L. Copeland, Alhambra, Pa.
B. Alhambra, Pa. E. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

The prisoners will be given a few days' respite in which to raise the required amount before being consigned to the Tombstone Jail—Blaine Review.

How to Stop a Newspaper. The following from an exchange gets to the point in a few words that it is worthy of reprinting for general information of the public:

"This paper is like merchandise. It is for sale, and you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

MR. BLAINE AGAIN.

This Time He's Up in Oklahoma With 17 Cows' Cattle.

Mr. Blaine, the cattleman from Texas, is in the city, and he is just as smooth and successful as ever. The latest of the gentleman came from Oklahoma. This time the time cost about $1,500. Mr. Blaine (the country) shortly after his departure, and he is still singing his "Have you seen Bill?" song successfully.

Located in that country are a large number of wealthy cattlemen, who are warm friends of W. W. Cox. When Mr. Blaine made his appearance here as the representative of the cattle of New Mexico, who had sent him out there with a bunch of cattle, but unfortunately he had run a little short of money, and he was forced to go to the cattle and expect to make the deal in a day or two. Would not some one help him out? Why not?

The prisoners will be given a few days' respite in which to raise the required amount before being consigned to the Tombstone Jail—Blaine Review.

How to Stop a Newspaper. The following from an exchange gets to the point in a few words that it is worthy of reprinting for general information of the public:

"This paper is like merchandise. It is for sale, and you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

When you hear a man blowing about not having been able to stop his paper, you can stop it as you please. It is not a right of the public to be informed of the doings of the world. It is a business, and you can stop it as you please."

NEW MEXICO TOWNS.

Gallup, Clayton, White Oaks, Carlsbad and Elizabethtown.

FARMINGTON AND LAS VEGAS.

GALLUP.

Alex. Blevins returned home after a six weeks business trip to Virginia. A force of graders have been at work for the past ten days on a side track for the Bernalillo oil company.

Money is being freely offered here for the Bernalillo oil company strikes oil in the next two hundred feet.

Grocery. Page has purchased the Robinson property adjoining his hotel on the corner of Second street and Railroad avenue.

C. G. Goules, one of the directors of the Gallup oil company, has a force of men at work on their property doing the annual assessment work.

Patrick Kennedy, who has been in town for the past year, left for California in the fall. He will spend the winter on the coast.

Five Italians got mixed up in a scrap here and were arrested by the marshal. Three of them paid fines and the other two cleared themselves.

Dr. Edmondson made a flying trip to Pasadena, California, this week, in charge of a patient who was taken sick at Winslow. The doctor was on No. 3 in the collision at Franconia, where seven men were killed and several injured.

We are sorry to announce the death of Grover Hains, the ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hains. He has been in the city for several weeks and has received a fair amount of attention that loving hands could give. His death occurred on the morning of the 21st.

CLAYTON.

G. V. Gayer is now installed as bookkeeper in Herstein's large mercantile establishment.

Cecil Thompson is making "hay" while the sun shines, and it is a good alfalfa hay, too, worth $11 per ton. Green, Blackwell & Co., the great western mercantile firm will put in the new town of Tucuman, New Mexico.

Mrs. R. G. Popham, wife of a prominent attorney of Marengo, Iowa, will spend the winter in Clayton. She is coming here to escape the extreme cold weather of that state.

The Baptist parsonage is completed and will soon be occupied by the pastor, J. Allen Johnson, who has been in the city for some time. The structure is a handsome one and is a source of satisfaction to those who have undertaken the task of supplying the vacant place with a comfortable and commodious home.

J. E. Curran, founder of the Clayton Enterprise and about fifty other patriots, at another pretty arranged dinner at the Hotel Clayton, on the 21st, to the new town of Tucuman, New Mexico.

Harry Gellacher and his cousin, Miss Jennie Malcomb, arrived from Illinois, Harry has been in the city for some time, and his cousin, Miss Malcomb, returned with him for a visit.

H. A. Gross, Walsenburg, Colorado, came to the city for the record of his son, who was killed in the war. Mr. Gross lived here for two years, and he has been in the city for some time.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

NEW MEXICO TOWNS.

Gallup, Clayton, White Oaks, Carlsbad and Elizabethtown.

FARMINGTON AND LAS VEGAS.

GALLUP.

Alex. Blevins returned home after a six weeks business trip to Virginia. A force of graders have been at work for the past ten days on a side track for the Bernalillo oil company.

Money is being freely offered here for the Bernalillo oil company strikes oil in the next two hundred feet.

Grocery. Page has purchased the Robinson property adjoining his hotel on the corner of Second street and Railroad avenue.

C. G. Goules, one of the directors of the Gallup oil company, has a force of men at work on their property doing the annual assessment work.

Patrick Kennedy, who has been in town for the past year, left for California in the fall. He will spend the winter on the coast.

Five Italians got mixed up in a scrap here and were arrested by the marshal. Three of them paid fines and the other two cleared themselves.

Dr. Edmondson made a flying trip to Pasadena, California, this week, in charge of a patient who was taken sick at Winslow. The doctor was on No. 3 in the collision at Franconia, where seven men were killed and several injured.

We are sorry to announce the death of Grover Hains, the ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hains. He has been in the city for several weeks and has received a fair amount of attention that loving hands could give. His death occurred on the morning of the 21st.

CLAYTON.

G. V. Gayer is now installed as bookkeeper in Herstein's large mercantile establishment.

Cecil Thompson is making "hay" while the sun shines, and it is a good alfalfa hay, too, worth $11 per ton. Green, Blackwell & Co., the great western mercantile firm will put in the new town of Tucuman, New Mexico.

Mrs. R. G. Popham, wife of a prominent attorney of Marengo, Iowa, will spend the winter in Clayton. She is coming here to escape the extreme cold weather of that state.

The Baptist parsonage is completed and will soon be occupied by the pastor, J. Allen Johnson, who has been in the city for some time. The structure is a handsome one and is a source of satisfaction to those who have undertaken the task of supplying the vacant place with a comfortable and commodious home.

J. E. Curran, founder of the Clayton Enterprise and about fifty other patriots, at another pretty arranged dinner at the Hotel Clayton, on the 21st, to the new town of Tucuman, New Mexico.

Harry Gellacher and his cousin, Miss Jennie Malcomb, arrived from Illinois, Harry has been in the city for some time, and his cousin, Miss Malcomb, returned with him for a visit.

H. A. Gross, Walsenburg, Colorado, came to the city for the record of his son, who was killed in the war. Mr. Gross lived here for two years, and he has been in the city for some time.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.

For the prize sold, the vote is as follows: Stella Trimble, 12; May David, 12; and H. A. Gross, 12.