THE SOUTHERN TOWNS.

Socorro, San Marcial, Las Cruces, Deming and Silver City.

LORDSBURG AND HILLSBORO.

AGGREGO.

From the Chief Clerk.

A. J. Bishop, of Gallup, is in the city visiting his daughter, Mrs. Kate

St. Michael.

Alfonso E. L. Moller, of Albuquerque, was in town the first of the week on a personal business in the territory.

Mr. J. C. Chavez, a prominent attorney of New Mexico, was in Socorro the first of the week on personal business before the circuit court.

Mr. W. B. Childers was in attendance upon the first of the week in his capacity as United States attorney. Mr. Childers had just returned from Washington, D. C., where he had important legal business.

The entertainment given at the home of Professor and Mrs. Jones for the purpose of raising money for a Christmas tree for the children was very successful.

Edward P. Shattuck, an old time resident and business man of Socorro,

was in town the first of the week.

Mr. Shaw left here in 1909. He is now proprietor of the Nevada Water works at Ventnor, Cal., and was on his way home from a business trip to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. McMillan arrived in Socorro on Saturday morning. The judge conducted a session of United States court last Friday, after which he and Mrs. McMillan, accompanied by their son, Ross, departed for Santa Fe.

SAN MARCIAL.

From the Bee.

Doc Nater is talking up the formation of a football team.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hilton, of San Antonio, have been blessed with an other son, born late last week, with Dr. M. H. McBurn in attendance.

G. E. Hoon has been to the postoffice to resign his position as postmaster at Otero, Socorro county.

The establishment of the office was a mistake, for the people over there generally patronize the San Marcial office.

P. W. Vaughn is home from a visit to old friends and old friends in northern California. He reports a time and his air of confidence and improved appearance tell the story of interest with refined people. It goes without saying that he did not lose sight of his future work and comfort, for he purchased a $60 saddle and a $40 set of irons.

Dr. G. C. Criswell was called to Hoselton to attend Oscar Wood.

Frank Nelson and Oscar were not enjoying a horseback ride, when the latter's saddle turned over and he was dragged over some rough ground. Aside from a bruise on his head and some scrapes, Oscar received no serious injury.

LAS CRUCES.

From Otero Daily Republican.

William Davis is back at the post office.

Dr. Hovee is expected home from the east in a few days.

T. D. Hunt, a young newspaper man from Santa Ana, Cal., is in town. Mr.

Hunt was in the city of the territory of Michigan of Numa Franger.

While the tomato vines have been injured somewhat by frost, the season at Roswell's ranching story has been told. That it will end soon, however, is probable.

Miss Lisa Davis, of Salem, West Virginia, died of consumption in the city. The lady came to Las Cruces last week, hoping the lower altitude and milder climate would prove beneficial.

A deplorable accident happened to Frederick, the 5-year old son of Dr.

Hilten. The doctor was returning from a drive and was about to climb on the back of the buggy, and was so unfortunate as to get his right leg caught in the wheel, breaking the bone above the knee. Dr. Lane and McConnell were called in to reduce the fracture.

From Rio Grande Republican.

Clemente Gamboa fell from a scaffold while plastering a room and broke two of his ribs.

Mrs. E. H. Alton, with her little daughter, arrived from the east to visit her brother and sister, F. H. Bascom and Mrs. M. F. Carroll.

The Hygiene school in Socorro, Mexico, was sold to a California company for $15,000, which is to be paid in installments. The first installment of $1,000 has been received.

Professor Lester of the Agricultural college, purchased two hundred acres of land near La Mesilla for $700. Several weeks previous he sold four acres of land at Mesilla Park to M. C.

Thompson for $300.

DEMING.

From the Herald.

John Hanson, who for so many years has been an employee of the railroad office at this point and lately ran the American restaurant here, came from Las Vegas and will spend several days attending to some business matters.

The duck hunters spoken of in our last issue, that went down to Palomas lake, had their entire crop of ducks washed, camp outfit and grub confiscated as soon as they crossed the line and only got it returned to them the next day, after they had been sent a long dispatch to the customs authorities at Juarez. In the mean time they were accommodated by Albert Lindau, the hotelkeeper, with life and a place for their heads. Only about fifty ducks were lost by the entire outfit.

Thanksgiving is Deming passed on in a quiet manner. Outings of the union services that were held in the Methodist church by the Methodist,

Presbyterian and Congregational congregations, there was no public giving of any kind. Turkey and other good things eatable were disposed of by our good people, and many poor people had reason to give thanks that they were remembered by those who were better supplied with this world's goods. Of course, a dance was held in the evening at the opera house, and everything else excepting it be ing a funeral ends with a dance whereat all enjoy themselves to the utmost.

From the Herald.

With the price of lead ore put down to 40 cents a unit in New Mexico, there should be a show for a smelter in Deming, independent of the trust.

And it is strange that nobody takes hold.

About three weeks ago a couple of Colorado men, while riding to Castillo Springs where they intend to start a saloon, drove a team from Cos Bion, livery stable nearly seven miles, giving one of the horses such a fever that it has since gone blind.

The other day when Mr. Cox attempted to lead the animal around by the forelock the hair came out, such a fever was raging in its head. Mr. Cox says the Colorado men will have to buy the horse from him.

An Ex-Legislator Dead.

Judge W. B. Bowman of Farmington died as the result of a runaway accident. The judge was on his way home from his brother, Charles Bowman, who lives at Pagan, Springs, Colo. when his team became unmanageable and ran away, throwing him out of the buggy. He had several fractures and his head was injured. After walking some distance to the home of a friend, he was taken to Durango, where, owing to his exposed and his injuries, he died of pneumonia. His remains were interred at Farmington. Bowman was a native of New York, was a lawyer by profession, came to New Mexico from Michigan, and served one term in the legislature. He was aged 66 years.

SILVER CITY.

From the Chronicle.

H. F. Knott, an employee at the smelter, is confined to his home with a severe attack of appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Aldridge spent four days last week at the Payson hot springs for the benefit of Mrs. Aldridge's health, which is considerably improved.

John H. Miller, of Phoenix, Wyandotte county, Kansas, writes this office concerning the whereabouts of Bernard Coffey, who was supposed to have been in Silver City, where he was any information concerning the young man will be gladly received by the above at the aforementioned address.

Mr. M. Stanley, the successful ranchman brought in last week a turkey gobbler which tipped the scales at thirty-two pounds. The big bird was brought by Paraguay, his scheduled prize upon his life were made by the heads of several large households where quantities in an important consideration of the make-up of the Thanksgiving dinner.

From the Independent.

The members of the local military company had a practice drill at the ball park which attracted quite a large crowd of spectators. Of course, the boys arose to the emergency and did their duty.

California, where he will remain for the winter months, returning to all the county office next fall.

Dr. C. Cunningham, an old time and highly respected resident of Grant county, died at the Sisters' assylum in this city after a lingering illness of several months.

At the time of his death, Mr. Cunningham was afflicted with cancer, but he bore his affliction bravely and without complaint, waiting for death to relieve him from earthly afflictions.

LORDBURG.

From the Liberal.

O. W. Stewart, who has been in the Hotel Dixie at El Paso for many weeks, where he came near dying from an attack of typhoid fever, came back to town the first of the week looking weak and shaky, but with hope of returning health in his checks.

Word comes from Socorro, Mexico, that Bert Alvord is dead. T. L. Van Daver was carrying the money for the pay roll to the Sonora Mining company at Tubutama, Sonora. He was attacked by two men, one white man and one Mexican, who shot him in the back. The other Mexican, Van Daver is said to have been shot in the breast and head. He was himself, but he brought in the payroll money.

Last Friday there was a serious accident in the Southern Pacific yard here. Just as the west bound train passed, which resulted in the loss of a leg by Vicente Ruiz, a passenger.

While the train was in the yard Ruiz was standing on the Santa Fe train

Lost Hair

It's risky, this losing of the hair. You may not get it back again. When the hair first begins to fall out use Ayer's Hair Vigor. It will stop the falling and will make new hair come in. And it always restores color to gray hair.

My hair came out badly and was fast turning gray. I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. It stopped my hair from coming out and completely restored the color.

At. Druggists. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Mrs. Hayes fell on a sharp edged rock, severely cutting her head, believing today to be a serious case. Mr.
Hayes sustained a few bruises, but escaped any serious injury.
The horse ran to Eighth street, and in front of the Kistler residence left the driver's seat. The horse was badly frightened, and the driver, who was on the National avenue, and thence south to Sixth street.
A latest report from Mrs. Hayes is that the cause appears to be a reported serious case.

OVER TWO THOUSAND.
Besides All Expenses, the Hospital Bazaar Will Net Nearly $2,000.
The members of the hospital bazaar will be glad to mention the fact that the bazaar, which was held at the home of the Sisters of Charity, was a success. The bazaar was held at the home of the Sisters of Charity, and the net result was nearly $2,000.
