FIRST COUNT OF CREDITS IN SALESMANSHIP CLUB CAMPAIGN APPEARS TODAY—RACE NOW ON

Count as Published Today Includes the 5,000 Nomination Coupon and All 100 Free Credit Coupons Sent or Brought in Up to 6 O'clock Last Night; Glance at List Will Show Plenty of Room for "Live Wires" to Get in Game and Ride Away in Their Own Automobile December 22nd; 100,000 Free Credits on $27.00 "Clubs" Opens the Way to Success.

The first published count of credits in the Morning Journal's Salesmanship Club campaign was made last night and appears in this issue. This includes the regular nomination blank of 5,000 credits and the 100 credit coupons from each issue of the Journal, and which have been sent in by friends of those in the big campaign up to 6 o'clock last evening. The first count covering subscription collections will be made shortly and from now until the close of the "sales" race the credits will appear each day.

With the first publication Friday of the names of the men and women who have been nominated thus far in the Journal's Salesmanship Club campaign, crediting in the great race began.

The race is on and those who devote themselves most diligently will be the ones to receive the handsome automobiles, all the cash prizes, and the cash commission checks. All members should and probably will want to get busy at once. A FIRST SUBSCRIPTION COUPON will be found at the head of this article. Subscribers and friends who wish to nominate or help some candidate already in the race may also make use of this "FIRST SUBSCRIPTION COUPON." It gives 20,000 EXTRA credits when accompanied by the first subscription for one year. Old or new subscriptions count just the same.

If you have a favorite in the list of club members—or if you know of someone whom you would like to see get a big touring car December 22—help them get a real start by sending in your subscription for a year or two.

Right now is the time for those men and women who have been hesitating to enter. The present big credit schedule and the 100,000 EXTRA CREDIT OFFER is the biggest opportunity for credits that will be made during the entire campaign. The FIRST PERIOD opens the way to success for you.

You probably know that $27 worth of subscriptions are what is termed "A CLUB" and with every "CLUB" that a member secures, 100,000 extra credits are given in addition to all the regular credits on the subscriptions.

NO NEED TO HOLD THEM. In building these "clubs" members should observe that it is not necessary to hold back subscriptions until you have a complete "club." It is much better to turn in the subscriptions as fast as you can secure them. By doing this none are liable to get lost and the subscriber will get his paper promptly, and in as much as the campaign department keeps accurate records of every subscription received you will gain nothing by withholding subscriptions until the last.

When "THE FIRST PERIOD" closes the campaign department will total up the subscriptions each club member has turned in during the "first" and will issue a special credit ballot to cover the extra credits due. The regular credits are issued as usual when the subscription is turned in.

VEHICLE CREDIT HARVEST. The next few days should prove a veritable credit harvest for ambitious men and women who desire automobiles as their reward. Those who have not as yet entered the campaign have only to send in their name to get 5,000 credits as a starter, free.

Twenty thousand credits are given as a bonus, on the first subscription you turn in for one year, either old or new counts the same. That makes more than 25,000 credits to start. The first subscription will apply on the 100,000 EXTRA CREDIT OFFER also, NOW is the best time of the entire campaign.

You can achieve victory via the SPECIAL 100,000 route.

SEND IN YOUR ENTRY TODAY.

The arrest of Mrs. Margaret Sanger and Miss Mary Winsor, principal speakers at a convention of advocates of birth control in New York, started a riotous demonstration by the audience. Men and women in the hall hooted and jeered the police and formed a parade to the police station when the leaders were taken there to be booked. Mrs. Sanger is noted as an author on birth control. SCHOONER IS SUNK.

Boston, Nov. 19.—The five-masted schooner Sintram, a converted shipping board steamer, was rammed and sunk off Cape Cod by the motor ship David McKelvey in a heavy fog off Cape Cod last night. The Sintram's crew was rescued by the steamer.

WIFE TELLS STORY OF THEIR MARRIED LIFE

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 19 (By the Associated Press).—Confidence that Roy Gardner, convicted mail robber, would "go straight" if he were given a pardon and permitted to go out and seek work like any other man was expressed by his wife, who arrived here today from San Francisco. "Roy is not bad at heart and he is not lazy," declared Mrs. Gardner. She declared that she was not attempting to condone his crimes, but she admitted that she believed that Roy was not exactly normal mentally. She said that he committed his first mail robbery when he was "proke" and that his subsequent offenses all have been the result of need of food on his part. Mrs. Gardner declared she was confident Roy was not guilty of the assault charge had been preferred against him by state officials on complaint of a young Mexican girl. "He may have done wrong," she said, "but he is not capable of doing such a thing as that."

Roy won't go hungry," said Mrs. Gardner. "He is not lazy and he always has been known to be a good worker wherever he has been employed. It is not lack of ambition that has caused his present trouble."

Then she related the story of their married life.

"Roy always has been very kind to me in the five and one-half years we've been married (although we only lived together four years because of his being arrested)," said Mrs. Gardner. "He never quarreled. He never has given me a cross word. He r-ways got up with a smile and he went to bed with a smile. He was simply crazy about little Joanne, our daughter."

"I suppose if he hadn't been so good to me, I wouldn't be sticking with him now. Still, I know he'd stick to me if I were in trouble and it's up to me to do the same to him."

"When we were married he was working in Mare Island navy yard. Later he worked in the ship yards of San Francisco, where he was foreman of the welding crew. There he was so well thought of that when he left the boys gave him a banquet at which he was presented with a silver mounted wedding trophy. The boys also signed a big testimonial scroll, which I still have."

"After he left the ship yard, we

ADMIRAL SIMS WARNS AGAINST 'CONSERVATISM'

(By The Associated Press.)

Newport, R. I., Nov. 19.—Rear Admiral Sims, in delivering his annual address as president of the naval war college, today, discussed "Military conservatism," referring, he said, to that type and degree of conservatism "which has so often been responsible for defeat in battle and some times for national disaster."

"The rapid development of the submarine," he said, "and the airplane during the war, and the continuous development of both, and especially the latter, since the war, have shown these powerful weapons are still in their infancy, and that it will require the most careful, devoted and logical consideration on our part even to keep abreast of the developments in foreign navies, much less to anticipate them."

Asserting that our gunnery up to 1900 was so inefficient "that an equal force of ships of any navy could have inflicted upon us a most humiliating defeat," he added:

"In my opinion we are entering a period that may become still more dangerous if we fail to interpret the significance of the rapid development of fundamentally new weapons of enormous destructive power and of relative immunity to effective resistance by any means except a decisive superiority of similar weapons."

As has so often been the case in the past, through the superior vision of a Roosevelt, through the pressure of public opinion, overcoming the excessive conservatism of military minds."

opened a shop in Fresno, which we later sold. Then we went to Los Angeles, where Roy had a contract for 1,000 hot water tanks. After he finished that work Roy wanted to make a trip to Tia Juana to see the sights. He wanted me to go with him but I had the baby and I don't care much for that sort of thing anyway, so I told him I would go to San Francisco and visit the folks there while he went to Tia Juana. While he was in southern California he wanted to see Tia Juana, so he agreed to this plan.

"In Tia Juana he lost all his money gambling and then he committed his first mail robbery. For that he got his first sentence of twenty-five years. He was sentenced to San Diego. On the way from San Diego to McNeil Island he escaped from his guards."

"For one year after he escaped I did not hear from him but I was watching all the time by the officers. Then he telephoned to me at our home in Napa, Calif. Our talk was overheard. He wanted to see our little girl so I told him to come to the ranch in Gordon valley, which he did. There the sheriff chased him in the brush but he got away and went to Sacramento."

"A little later at Roseville he robbed a train and was captured. Then he got his second sentence of twenty-five years at San Francisco. As he was being taken to McNeil Island he again escaped but was recaptured three or four days later and taken to the prison where he stayed for two months and three weeks, when he again escaped."

RAILROADS JOIN IN CAMPAIGN TO REDUCE CROSSING ACCIDENTS

(By The Associated Press.)

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 19.—Prompted by the success of the American Railway association in its campaign of education to reduce accidents to automobiles at grade crossings, other railroads have enlisted in the movement and a drive is being planned for next year that will extend across the continent.

J. T. Broderick, superintendent of the safety department of the Baltimore and Ohio and chairman of the safety section committee of the American Railway association, is making arrangements for the national campaign.

The drive, according to plans disclosed here, will open on a specific day and there will be efforts to obtain the cooperation of automobile drivers. Unlike most nationwide campaigns, there will be no end to this one, it is promised, for its promoters regard it as unwelcome for railroads to cease even for a day their efforts to reduce accidents of this kind.

Many railroads will follow the plan inaugurated by the Baltimore and Ohio of watching the grade crossings to observe the motorists who fail to heed the warnings to be careful.

An estimate made by the Baltimore and Ohio's safety department places the number of automobiles in use in the United States at the present time at 9,000,000. Baltimore and Ohio records show that 4 per cent of the drivers are careless.

ILLINOIS IS A HAVEN FOR MISSOURI GIRLS WHO WISH TO MARRY

(By The Associated Press.)

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 19.—Illinois has become a haven for Missouri girls between the ages of 18 and 21 who wish to marry without parental consent.

Girls of 13 are allowed by the law in Illinois to obtain a marriage license without their parents' permission. The same law prevailed in Missouri June 20, when legislation was enacted requiring the girls to be 21 before they could be given licenses without the consent of their parents.

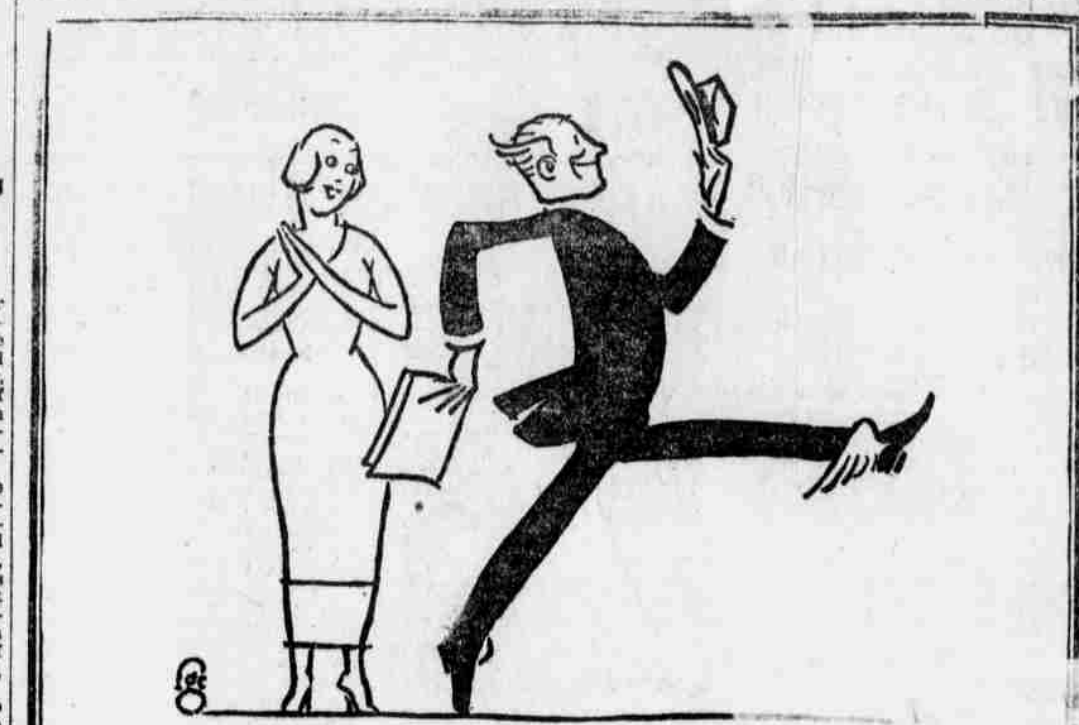

Many girls of Missouri journeyed across the river from St. Louis to Illinois cities with their intended husbands, but were refused licenses because the Illinois officials feared that marriages under the circumstances would be null in Missouri.

Collier Clerk Hoerr of Belleville asked Attorney General Brundage of Illinois for an opinion on the matter and the attorney general held that, inasmuch as the Missouri law does not specifically make void the marriage of a girl 21 without parental permission, licenses could be issued to Missouri girls.

WOMAN'S FACES DEATH IN 12-HOUR RIDE TO SAVE SON'S EYESIGHT

(By The Associated Press.)
Canon City, Colo., Nov. 19.—Facing death several times in a twelve-hour night ride through a snow storm and bucking snowdrifts on treacherous mountain roads, Mrs. W. A. Fisk, of Elktion, in the Cripple Creek district, reached here this morning in an automobile with her son, Lee, eight years old, who was dangerously injured in the eye Friday while playing with a neighbor boy.

When she arrived at the hospital here Mrs. Fisk was exhausted from her trying experience. Roads were partially blocked by snow drifts and many times the automobile nearly went over precipitous cliffs while the falling snow made it difficult for the automobile headlights to pierce the darkness ahead on the thirty-mile drive.

It is believed that the child's eye can be saved.

IDENTIFICATION BUREAU STARTED BY THE POLICE

Complete Identification System to Be Established by Chief Galusha This Week;
Bureau Is Not Expensive.

A complete identification bureau is to be established at police headquarters by Chief of Police Galusha. The system of records used by the largest police organizations in the country will be maintained and local officials will receive instruction in scientific identification from Pat Dugan, assistant warden of the state penitentiary at Santa Fe. Chief Galusha is already familiar with finger print identification systems.

Hundreds of cards carrying the description of criminals are received by the police officials each week. Occasionally one of the wanted men or women is picked up here, but due to the fact that to be sure of the arrest, scientific identification is necessary, many probably come into the hands of the police and are released.

Exhaustive records of wanted criminals will be kept at the bureau and the arrest of a suspect can be checked against the descriptions in the files. If the man does not appear in the local records, his finger prints and other scientific measurements can be taken and within four minutes after these descriptions are received at the Leavenworth identification bureau, it can be known if the man is wanted for any recorded crime or escape in the entire United States.

The apprehension of criminals is becoming a more scientific business each year. Chief Galusha stated yesterday, and complete and efficient identification bureaus are being established in nearly every city in the country. Up until recently these were only maintained by the larger cities.

HOUSE PLANS TO DISPOSE OF TAX BILL ON MONDAY

It Will Then Go to the Senate; Hope to Dispose of It So Congress Can Ad-journal on Wednesday.

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Nov. 19.—The tax revision bill came through its third rewriting today and will be returned to the house Monday. Republican leaders are hopeful that the final step in its enactment can be taken in time to permit congress to end its special session Wednesday.

Only five of the ten conferees have signed the conference report.

The democrats refused to sign and Senator Smoot, of Utah, republican, proponent of the sales tax, withheld his signature. He said it was his intention to study the bill to see whether it was any improvement over existing law. House leaders plan to put the bill through the house Monday so that the senate will have two days to consider it before the time tentatively fixed for adjournment.

In closing their work today, the conferees fixed the corporation income tax rate at 12½ per cent, the figure in the original house bill. This increases the present rate by 2½ per cent.

The conferees agreed to the original house provision relating to liquor taxes. This retains the present tax of $2.20 a gallon on distilled spirits, with a provision for an additional tax of $4.20 a gallon on such spirits diverted for beverage purposes.

BEAUTY CHATS

By Edna Kent Forbes.

PUTTING ON WEIGHT.

We talk so much here about reducing flesh that I sometimes think the thin woman must feel herself terribly neglected, particularly because it is so much more difficult to gain flesh than to lose it.

To gain flesh if you are too thin means that you must overcome any number of obstacles. You must stop worrying, if you belong to the worrying type; you must stop rushing about nervously, if you are nervous; you must make yourself rest if you are restless, and you must run the risk of indigestion by eating more than you want.

My sympathies are all for the thin woman. It is much harder to force oneself to take a nap than it is to do without one, and it is much harder to eat food you do not want than it is to turn away from the fattening dishes that tempt you. However, here are a few hints which the thin woman will find of great value.

Where you have a choice of food always eat the fattening dishes. Eat thick soups in preference to thin ones, eat the fat portions of the meat, partake liberally of sauces, and eat sweets and puddings as much as you can without overloading the stomach. This is the great danger in getting fat. The great danger is only an added tax on the system. Eat as much butter as you possibly can and cream whenever you can get it. Instead of coffee with hot milk in it, drink a cup of hot milk with a little coffee added. This tastes quite as good and is quite stimulating.

F. M. J.; Elsie W.; Embarrassed; Mrs. S. J. S.: In practically every case the bust will reduce of itself as the body is reduced. A large bust usually, though of course not always, means that the woman weighs too much. But young girls sometimes are over developed in the bust, though in every other way slim. But here there is no cause to worry because when fully mature the bust will be in proportion to the rest of the body.

Other bust reduction methods are difficult. Bathing with cold salt water makes the bust firm. I do not think it will reduce it, but it is valuable if you are reducing all over. Many women have told me that they have reduced the bust by massaging with spirits of camphor. This is used to dry up the milk when weaning a child, and its action then is to reduce the bust so much as to make it flat. The idea seems perfectly all right, only I would suggest that before you try anything of the sort you ask your physician what he thinks of it. The readers who have written me this say they have stopped using the spirits of camphor before the bust was flat; they only used it long enough to take off some of the flesh.

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING

By LAURA A. KIRKMAN.

"WHAT SHALL I SERVE WITH POULTRY?"

Last week I wrote upon the subject of what to serve with the various meats at a company dinner; today I am going to suggest vegetables and sauces appropriate to serve with the various birds.

With Chicken and Fowl: White potatoes in any form, glazed sweet potatoes, rice croquettes, hominy croquettes, chestnut croquettes, mushrooms, corn fritters, lima or shell beans, squash, onions, greens of all kinds, all of the summer vegetables, celery, cranberry jelly and one of the following sauces: chestnut sauce, celery sauce, cranberry sauce, curry sauce or oyster sauce.

With Turkey: White potatoes in any form, glazed sweet potatoes, onions, baked canned corn, turnip, cauliflower, Brussels sprouts, cranberry jelly or sauce, chestnut stuffing, oyster stuffing, old-fashioned sage stuffing, sausage stuffing, and celery.

With Squabs, Broiled or Roasted: Serve as the main course at a formal luncheon, serve only light vegetables such as fried potato balls, spinach in pastry shells (like tarts), asparagus on toast, peas in potato nests or creamed in ramekins, mushrooms creamed, string beans and currant jelly. But the squabs are served as the game course at a formal dinner, they should come upon the table either on buttered toast spread with a purée of cooked calves liver, or they should be served in a nest of chestnut puree. Green salads of any kind or salads in which oranges are the chief ingredients, may be served with the squab dish in this game course.

With Quail, Broiled or Roasted: Serve the same as above suggested for squabs.

Roasted Grouse or Guinea Chicken: Serve only delicate vegetables such as potato croquettes, sweet potatoes, French fried, asparagus tips on toast (the canned will do, with a cream sauce), string beans or peas creamed, celery croquettes, and bread sauce.

With Broiled Guinea Chicken: Serve the same vegetables as for Roasted Guinea Chicken, except serve currant jelly or currant jelly sauce instead of the bread sauce.

With Geese: Serve white potatoes in any form, onions, turnip, squash, cauliflower, Brussels sprouts, brown giblet gravy, apple sauce and celery.

With Domestic Duck: Serve onions always—either boiled or as a stuffing. Any of the vegetables served with Chicken and Fowl are appropriate to choose from for the other vegetables. Fried hominy and celery also suitable accompaniments.

With Wild Duck: A salad is generally served with wild duck, instead of vegetables. Or simply such greens as romaine, lettuce, or cress may accompany it in the game course of a formal dinner. If served with a salad, oranges should be the main ingredient of the salad, or cumquats. A delicious salad is a combination of sliced oranges, walnut-meats, lettuce and French dressing.

THE NEW GENERATION

By JANE PHELPS

MARGARET'S YOUTH IS IMPRESSED UPON HER.

CHAPTER 15.
Mrs. Thompson, Hortense's mother, gave a reception. Margaret was invited.

"What shall I wear?" she said to Joan, after reading the invitation.

"Your brown satin," Joan answered promptly.

"That is rather old—I wonder—"

"No, it isn't! And you look so sweet in it."

"Very well, I'll look it over."

"Mrs. Hayden, may I present Mr. Forrester, a great friend of ours?" Mrs. Thompson said. Then: "Please entertain Mrs. Hayden, Craig. He can if he will, Mrs. Hayden, he has been a great globe-trotter. But he's very distinguished to talk of his travels—usually."

"Do tell me of things you have seen, Mr. Forrester. It is my great ambition to travel as soon as my daughter can leave school."

"Your daughter?"

"Yes, she is 14 now."

"Pardon me, but you do not look old enough to have a daughter of that age."

They both laughed, while Margaret wondered why of late everyone and everything seemed to emphasize her youth.

"You are famous," as Craig Forrester told Mrs. Thompson when she came to them again and carried him unwillingly off to meet some other guest.

Out of Margaret's hearing he had questioned his hostess. She had satisfied his curiosity, adding that she did not approve of all of Margaret's views, but that she admired her greatly otherwise.

"Did you have a good time, Mumsie?" Joan asked upon Margaret's return.

"Delightful, dear." She had worn the brown satin dress with its collar and cuffs of yellowed lace, her hair done simply as usual. But some of the excitement of her talk with Craig Forrester still showed in her face, still shone in her eyes.

"You look so pretty, Mumsie."

If it was a concession, a wish to make up for her criticism of the previous days, neither Joan or Margaret mentioned it. Yet in a way Margaret felt hurt. Joan would tell her she looked well only when she wore old clothes, when staid colors, and combed her hair plainly. Try as she would, Margaret could not brush the hurt away. It was only after the child slept and she was sitting by her window that she thought of Craig Forrester's compliment, so seemingly honest.

"You don't look old enough to have a daughter of that age," he had said.

Margaret felt somehow comforted. He had admitted her personality. She surely had the right to develop that personality; she had the right to self-expression. In spite of Joan, regardless of her prejudices, she must take advantage of that right.

Craig Forrester called often on Margaret after that, and both consciously and unconsciously he helped her growing interest in herself—Margaret Hayden, not just Joan Hayden's mother.

Joan had had met, and she amused and interested him. Margaret had told him of her ideas, of her belief that children of the

BROWN MAKES BID FOR POPULARITY

By ELOISE.

Women who must watch their pennies get the most fun out of shopping. When they have made a purchase they get a real thrill if their money has brought them something practical and smart enough to make them well dressed.

The woman who makes one dollar do for two in her wardrobe gets more personal satisfaction in wearing her clothes than the woman who knows she has the only model of its kind in her set. If the woman with a slim purse needs a new gown she will not have to wait until after Christmas to get it at the holiday sales. She may buy it now in time to wear to holiday festivities, for if she sets a becoming mode which is durable she may wear it late into the spring.

That is, if she chooses brown she will be quite correct for late winter and early spring. In many of the lines shown by leading dressmakers brown promises to be the favored color for spring. Here is a spring model which is just one of many brown styles which will be worn during the coming season.

It is made of brown cotton crepe with rosettes and buttons of self-material. The skirt is plain and gathered. The full sleeves and heading of the skirt at the hips are lined with tangerine colored crepe. The effort is an attractive but simple afternoon frock.

right sort of parents can be trusted to do right if given freedom to express their own individualities.

Margaret could not tell whether Joan resented his calls or not. At times she would be graciously ladle to him, at others she would avoid him if possible, or speak shortly, then excuse herself and run away.

"I must make him help me assert myself," Margaret had said over and over. Time and time again she had taken the gray dress ready to shoulder the responsibility of hurting the child to whom she had devoted herself so assiduously, even though she could not understand why she should be hurt, either.

So Margaret waited day after day, each day feeling new life, new hopes, new aspirations within herself; waiting, longing for the expression she dared not give them because of her 14-year-old girl who, from her birth, had been allowed all the things that the mother denied herself.

Craig Forrester had finished his visit.

After he left Margaret thought with regret that he had not seen her in the gray dress.

"It will be out of style then," she said to herself, thinking of his words when he left her—

"I shall come back soon, Mrs. Hayden."

PHILANTHROPY WITH MUSIC AT WOMAN'S CLUB

By KORA HENRY-MEACHEM.

A disposition to promote the happiness of mankind was markedly evidenced at the Woman's club on Friday afternoon. It was philanthropy day and the silver offering was quite a generous one, but aside from the material evidence of a desire to help others the various contributors to the program gave their audience the most artistic performance enjoyed for some weeks at the club.

Mrs. P. K. Scheek, as chairman of the philanthropy department, arranged the musical program and Mrs. George Ruoff, leader for the day, graciously presented it.

Miss Dorothy Cameron, whose violin playing is always admirable, gave "Adoration," by Borowski, with Miss Norma Williams accompanying. Though encircled by the piano, the audience asked for more, to which she responded with Cadman's "Sky Blue Water."

Mrs. Jessie Wolf was particularly effective in a recitative of Thomas Aldrich's "Fond Lily," a legend of a Huron Indian maiden, who, when her lover had proven false, drowned herself in a lake, from which arose, at the spot where she sunk from sight, a beautiful pond lily. The story is rich in poetic imagery and given in Mrs. Wolf's soft voice, with the stirring strains of the southern speech, was music in itself.

Mrs. U. R. Cox at the piano accompanied with Mckrell descriptive music which completed the harmony.

Caruso's favorite, Caro Mio Ben was the first song number by Mrs. E. Jones. The number, "A Birthday"—a song of the birth of love—displayed to even greater advantage the wide range of her pure lyrical voice. Mrs. Jones' selections are always most original and some are different. Mrs. E. B. Moore accompanied Mrs. Jones.

Mariano Garcia, the 19-year-old son of the consul from Mexico, made his first appearance at the Woman's club and was most enthusiastically received. His piano solos were marvelous in power and execution. His first number, "Cantarella," by Liszt, was followed by the more familiar "Rhapsody No. 2" by the same composer, each so well given that a second encore was inevitable. When asked the name of this last which so well displayed his versatility, the young man shyly admitted it to be his own composition.

The Woman's club chorus, Mrs. E. A. Bradford directing, also gave a premier performance, singing three numbers quite creditably, in spite of a lack of complete rehearsals. Miss Helen Gurley was at the piano.

Mrs. A. B. McMillen sent the club a huge box of violets to be distributed among the members for their appreciation, for which gracious gift the club voted its appreciation.

A board meeting preceded the regular program, at which various matters of interest to the club were disposed of. Next week will be a purely social day and it is hoped all new members will be present and all old ones to help to make the new ones feel at home.

MOTOR PULLMAN BOASTS DE LUXE QUARTERS FOR LEGHORN HENS

Ensconced in their commodious sleeping quarters an even dozen blooded White Leghorns are motoring through New England. An ingenious truck body built on a Dodge Brothers chassis provides the locomotion.

The idea was worked out by the Henshaw Motor company, Dodge Brothers' Boston dealer, when the Charles M. Cox company, who distribute Wirthmire poultry feed, broached the subject. The truck body built was fitted out to allow elbow room for 12 hens and make a complete display of various grain, besides providing sleeping quarters for two men. The front part of the truck carries a dozen blooded White Leghorns, exposed to view, and a glassed-in partition on either side of the truck, divided in to 18 compartments, openly displays as many varieties of grain feeds.

With this complete outfit the salesman simply drives into the farmyard and prepares for a complete demonstration of comparative values of the various kinds of scientific feeds for livestock and poultry. Thus expert attention can be given to the particular needs of every farmer.

In addition to the sleeping quarters for two men the truck carries a full supply of cooking utensils and equipment necessary for camping along the route. A tent serves as an auxiliary rest room.

This unique truck, which is an excellent illustration of the wide variety of uses to which Dodge Brothers chassis is adaptable, is booked to visit fairs and exhibitions all over the country.

TRAVELERS' AID WORKER MEETS "SPICE OF LIFE"

Miss Katherine Turner.

If variety is the spice of life, Miss Katherine Turner has certainly tasted it in her work as big sister to the stranger within New York's gates. Miss Turner, who behind a desk in the Grand Central station as a representative of the Travelers' Aid society, she specializes in being a bridesmaid to strangers who make long trips by train or sea to meet their intended.

When she is absent from her desk she is very likely to be "standing up" at the wedding of some couple who have come to her from boat or train.

Mrs. Turner believes that being a bridesmaid to stranger couples is a congenial occupation which women have overlooked and she thinks it is a new specialty which may be developed. Standing up with these couples often means that the bridesmaid must find a hat to the bride and so Miss Turner tries to keep an extra hat on hand for such emergencies. Once a bride liked a borrowed hat so well she was allowed to keep it. The hat was the first the little foreign girl had ever worn. At the next wedding Miss Turner had to lend her own hat to the bride.

Women who come from overseas to meet and marry men whom they have never seen, men who come from out west to meet and marry girls they have never seen, men who have come to greet sweethearts from their home villages in some far-off land and girls who meet sweethearts they left at home are all among Miss Turner's clients and very often Miss Turner has to "pop the question" for the timorous man.

The people of Iceland are unusually long-lived, living to an average of 61 years.

Rosenwald's Fire Sale

Brings Lowest Price Levels in the History of New Mexico Merchandise

Our fire, which at first appeared to us as a business calamity, has turned out to be a blessing for New Mexico, inasmuch as it has brought merchandise prices down to lower levels than have ever before been seen in the state. Think of it! $400,000 worth of merchandise was placed in this sale. It is being sold for anything we can get for it regardless of cost or replacement value. Thousands of shoppers have advertised this sale to their neighbors over the back fences of Albuquerque. Thousands, who otherwise would go without are buying the things we need.

There Is Plenty For All

There is plenty for all. It is a physical impossibility to display adequately $400,000 worth of merchandise even on our acre of floor space, so we are forced to replenish stocks from our basement reserves between selling periods. There is plenty for all. Make a list of the things you need and keep coming for them until you get them. Clerks may tell you at one time that they are completely sold out of an item. At the next sale period this item will in all probability be replenished from our big basement stocks.

Everything In This Sale Is New and Seasonable

As the fire caught us with the largest stock ever displayed under one roof in New Mexico, including thousands upon thousands of dollars worth of merchandise purchased for Christmas selling, everything displayed is new, seasonable and saleable and ready-to-put-on.

Sales Conditions

Cash only.
No mail or telephone orders.
No approvals, exchanges or refunds.
No S. and H. Green Stamps.
Checks can be cashed only at the main office, second floor.

PLAN FORMED TO BOOST INTEREST IN CIVIC PRIDE

C. of C. Membership Campaign to Train Salesmen in Selling Duke City to Themselves and to Others

The campaign soon to be staged to renew the membership in the Chamber of Commerce and to rejuvenate that body will be more than a drive by the committee of "buddies" selling memberships," declared Sidney Weil, chairman of the reorganization committee, last night. "It will be a campaign whose real result will be the training of the '150 committee' in selling civic pride."

The details of the plan are being gradually worked out and will probably be perfected by the executive committee at its meeting at the chamber parlors Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The city is to be divided into blocks, following the drive, and each civic pride salesman will be made responsible for one block of the business district of the city. Civic pride is to be maintained in each block, and should any of the occupants of the block show a lack of spirit in civic pride as demonstrated by the Chamber of Commerce activities, or form an objection to certain plans or become discontented with results, it will be the duty of the salesman of that block to report the condition to the chamber board and see that immediate action is taken to remove this objection or to sustain it for the good of the chamber and the civic pride of the city.

"We believe that this block system will result in sustained effort on the part of the chamber to increase its activities for the good of the city and of the members in boosting the chamber work," Mr. Weil stated. "We are trying to devise a plan which will make the recurrence of the present condition an impossibility."

The request for ten subjects which the chamber should undertake during the next year has met with enthusiastic support and while dozens of subjects have been duplicated many times, there are already forty-one different activities suggested, all of them for the betterment of the city and community and within the sphere of Chamber of Commerce activities.

BROWN HEARING ON CENTRAL BAR CASE TO BE HELD MONDAY

The hearing on the injunction issued against Billie Brown and Alessandro Matteucci, proprietor and owner respectively of the Central bar in Old Town, was continued by the district court until Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Upon an information filed with the court by the district attorney's office and a complaint by the sheriff, an injunction was issued against Brown and Matteucci prohibiting the operation of the Central bar for such unlawful purposes as were alleged in the information and complaint. The parties were cited to appear in court yesterday noon to show cause why the injunction should not be made permanent.

The case is one of the first being started by the sheriff in an attempt to permanently close several places in the county said to be operating in violation of state statutes.

VIRTUALLY THE SAME STAFF TO REPRESENT AMERICA IN AUSTRIA

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Nov. 19.—The state department is preparing to employ virtually the same staff who have been representing the United States in Austria since officially as the American diplomatic and consular agents, under the peace treaty ratification which was proclaimed yesterday by President Harding.

Appointment of A. H. Frazier, United States commissioner to Austria, as American charge d'affaires ad interim is expected to be announced soon, officials said. The consular staff will be limited, probably not exceeding three men, it was said.

NITRATE PLANT DEAL GOING THROUGH—FORD

(By The Associated Press.) New York, Nov. 19.—"You bet it's going through," Henry Ford said today, regarding his proposal to buy and lease the Muscle Shoals, Alabama, nitrate and water power projects. The terms, he said, were up to the government.

SANTA FEAN ROBBED

THIN, FLAT HAIR GROWS LONG, THICK AND ABUNDANT

"Danderine" costs only 35 cents a bottle. One application ends all dandruff, stops itching and falling hair, and, in a few moments, you have doubled the beauty of your hair. It will appear a mass, so soft, lustrous, and easy to do up. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but real new hair growing all over the scalp. "Danderine" is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. This delightful, stimulating tonic helps thin, lifeless, faded hair to grow long, thick heavy and luxuriant.

A REAL COLLEGE CHORUS ON BROADWAY

Energetic press agents of musical shows often grow enthusiastic about "college girl choruses." Most of these, however, are somewhat exaggerated. But Broadway soon is to have a real college chorus. Vassar college girls are preparing to produce a little "Follies" of their own on the "gay white way," the proceeds of which will go to the Vassar endowment fund.

GREAT BRITAIN IS WILLING TO YIELD TO CHINA

Will Abandon Spheres of Influence and Exclusive Territorial Privileges, Her Spokesman Says.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Nov. 19.—Great Britain is officially on record as willing to abandon spheres of influence and exclusive territorial privileges in China.

Attention was directed by the British delegation spokesman today to a statement in the house of commons by Under Secretary Harmsworth, of the foreign office, who said:

"The policy of spheres of influence in China has been superseded by one of international co-operation and the further development of this policy will no doubt form one of the subjects of discussion at Washington."

This formal statement is regarded by the British delegates of the utmost importance in its bearing upon the proceedings of the conference. Secretary Hughes and Elihu Root laid the American views with respect to China's "bill of rights" before the other delegates, and after the heads of the other delegations had spoken, Dr. Wellington Koo, of the Chinese delegation, thanked the delegates for the sympathetic manner in which they had received the proposals.

When the committee adjourned Dr. Koo went to the conference office in the navy building and conferred with Elihu Root. Mr. Root said Dr. Koo had explained the situation with regard to China. In response to questions concerning how far the ten points presented by China represented the American policy on China, Mr. Root said some of the ten points were well recognized as American policy, some were new and others would be subject to a technical exposition.

MICHIGAN TRIUMPHS. Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 19.—Approximately 40,000 persons today saw Michigan triumph over Minnesota, 38 to 0, in the closing game of the western conference season. The game was played on a field ankle deep in mud but the Wolverines started after their opponents with a rush and the result was never in doubt. Michigan scored in each quarter.

Badges, symbolical of the name, are being supplied to many ships in the British navy.

DRAINAGE IS THE GREAT PROBLEM FOR BERNALILLO COUNTY, STATES COUNTY AGENT'S ANNUAL REPORT

Report Recommends Establishment of More Boys and Girls Clubs in the County as Nucleus for Future Agricultural Development; Scope of Work Shown in the Report.

Drainage of the Rio Grande valley in this section of the state is the chief recommendation made by County Agent Lee Reynolds in his annual report, which was completed Friday and has been sent to the state college, which will file a copy with the United States agricultural department.

Speaking of the recommendations for work of the county agent here, Mr. Reynolds states in his report:

"The county agent recommends that next year the bulk of the time be spent on drainage matters, as that is the one great question which confronts Bernalillo county in its agricultural lands."

A short review of the drainage progress in the county is contained in the annual report.

"Realizing the decided value of drainage to the county, the county agent has spent a great amount of his time during the year working on and talking drainage," the report states. "Meetings have been held with the chamber of commerce, the real estate board, the Rotary club and many private individuals in an endeavor to stimulate interest in the question."

County Agent Reynolds' report shows that thirty-two and one-half days last year were spent by him on drainage matters, which indicates the importance of the problem in Bernalillo county. He has made two drainage inspection trips down the river as far as El Paso. County commissioners accompanied him on one trip and large land owners in the valley on the other.

The need for drainage is indicated by the report which states that:

"Out of 20,000 acres of land that is susceptible to irrigation in the county, there are but 3,500 acres in actual cultivation, according to the assessor's books and not more than one-half of that is yielding crops it should yield, because of the waterlogged condition of the land."

Numerous committees of organizations of a civic character have appointed committees and it is expected that the co-operation of these with the county agent's office will bring the desired results.

More Clubs Needed.

The development of more boys and girls clubs is also recommended by County Agent Reynolds.

He states, as an example, that the county is in serious need of corn development and that in his opinion the best thing which can be done toward the development of corn is the establishment of clubs with their resultant rivalry among the boys of the county.

"We can reach the boys through club work," Mr. Reynolds states in his report, "and through them, we can reach the parents."

A corn club with several members was organized this year, but the results were not good, most of the boys losing their crop through various unexpected causes.

A number of types of corn were tried in the hope of getting a good comparison of results. The county agent started the tests with the club expecting to eventually better the corn crop of the county by more scientific cultivation of a type of corn better suited to the conditions than that which is mostly used now. The club tests will probably be continued next year under more favorable conditions.

Numerous other suggestions for the betterment of agricultural pursuits in the county and the development of more productive methods were suggested in the annual report.

The poultry association has also had the close co-operation of the county agent.

AMBULANCE AND FIRE TRUCK ORDERED FOR THE SANTA FE SHOPS

A motor fire truck and a motor ambulance will be added to the equipment of the Santa Fe shop's new fire station, according to arrangements made by the officials and fire company at a meeting held Friday evening. When the new equipment arrives, which will probably be about January 1, the shop fire house will be one of the best equipped in the country. The fire crew of the shop is well drilled and plans were laid at the meeting for an increase in the general efficiency.

The ambulance will be ready for service at all times and will prove a speedy means of getting any workmen injured on the property to the hospital without delay.

The Santa Fe fire company was organized many years ago and has played an important part in past fires in the city. Thomas Lawler, mill foreman, who was a member of the company twenty-five years ago, gave an interesting talk at the Friday night meeting. His remarks were reminiscent of the times when the city was protected from fire by the volunteer departments.

RELIEF FROM WORRY—

The man who has protected his family by means of life insurance ceases to worry, and if he is taken ill the relief from anxiety which his insurance will give him will aid him in effecting a quick recovery.

As soon as a man has laid aside from his annual income the moderate sum necessary to pay for his insurance, he can with a clear conscience spend the rest of his income freely, and thus avoid pinching himself in the effort to accumulate an adequate fund for future protection. In some cases life insurance is an absolute necessity—in all cases it is desirable.

W. C. T. U. WILL START ENGLISH NIGHT SCHOOL

To Open Classes for Adults
As Part of Americanization Program; National Worker Here.

Miss Theodosia Whiting, representing the national Women's Christian Temperance union in the department of Americanization, has passed a busy week in Albuquerque. Educators and leaders in mission and church circles have been interviewed and work outlined for night or afternoon classes for adults to learn English to be opened in the outlying districts.

Miss Whiting has made several addresses in the schools here and at the Presbyterian church, the Methodist Missionary society, the W. C. T. U., at St. Mary's school and the Sacred Heart school. Her theme in each address is "Be a Genuine Patriot," the point being to share the language of English with others who do not speak English.

At the reception tendered Miss Whiting by the local W. C. T. U. Friday at the Y. W. headquarters, Miss Whiting read an inspiring paper on the work of Americanization being carried on in the nation by the W. C. T. U., of which Mrs. Culla Vattner is the national head. Allie Silverstein of the oratorical contest class at high school, gave the original oration on "Americanization." Woodford Hefflin, also a recent contestant in the oratorical contest at the high school, gave his original oration on "The Problem of Illiteracy." Florence Blair of the high school declamatory class of contestants, gave a reading, "Only One of His Kind."

Mrs. Ralph Hill sang in lovely voice "Sweet Miss You," being accompanied by Miss Norma Williams. Miss Williams played two piano solos and held her audience to rapt attention. Mrs. M. L. Fox, who was listed on the program for a talk on "Reminiscences of Frances Willard," whom Mrs. Fox knew years ago, was not able to be present. Mrs. Thomas Harwood, president of the local union, was sick and not able to attend the reception. The vice president, Mrs. Albert Morris, presided.

Miss Whiting reported having started three night schools for adults in the mining camps of Navajo and Heaton, near Gallup. She will go from this city to Santa Fe for a week next Tuesday, then to Helen and Magdalena. In Carlsbad the state superintendent of Americanization for the W. C. T. U. has already established a W. C. T. U. mission school and neighborhood center, and if possible the national field worker will stop at Carlsbad to inspect this station, when she is en route to Texas and Louisiana.

DEMOCRATS MOVE TO UNSEAT NEWBERRY AS A MEMBER OF SENATE

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Nov. 19.—Democrat in the senate moved today to unseat Truman H. Newberry, republican, Michigan, whose election in 1918 is contested by Henry Ford, when Senator Walsh of Montana submitted a resolution which, if adopted, would make the seat vacant.

Mr. Walsh announced that when the question comes to a vote he would ask that his resolutions be substituted for that declaring Mr. Newberry elected, introduced by the republican members of the senate privileges and elections committee. Mr. Walsh's resolution would deny Mr. Ford's claim to the seat by virtue of his having failed to receive a majority of the votes cast. It would retire Mr. Newberry because of alleged "acts in gross and flagrant violation of the law."

GERMAN REPARATIONS INSTALLMENTS MAY BE POSTPONED BY ALLIES

(By The Associated Press.)
Berlin, Nov. 19 (by the Associated Press).—Future installments of German reparations may be postponed after those due in January and February are paid. If the allies are "convinced of Germany's sincerity," it was intimated semi-officially today after a final conference between Chancellor Wirth and members of the reparations commission.

The commission, which has been here several days, studying Germany's financial situation, returned to Paris tonight. It was said that the commission made it clear Germany must meet the January and February installments, but that future payments would be given further consideration.

Honey Party and Dance.

Honey, biscuits, coffee, jazz and a lively bunch was the unique combination that got together at the Woman's club Friday evening. Something different and plenty of pep is the motto of the A. B. C. students. Many of the alumni and present students and members of the faculty danced to the music of the irresistible jazz. For those who did not dance, cards were their share. About 12 o'clock home-made biscuits, like mother makes, with honey and coffee were served, and Oh! My! how fast those biscuits did disappear. After the refreshments the dancing continued until the wee sma' hours.

Thomas P. Boyd, who has just passed the final examination in his higher accountancy course, has been placed in the internal revenue office.

Miss Ila Schultz now has a steady position as secretary in the office of Mr. Sidney Weil, and is making good.

Our employment department has had a few calls for help the past month that it was unable to fill. The class recently started in Pace & Pace standardized course of higher accountancy, composed of Ramon Gonzales, Fred C. Carlson, Samuel E. Nelson, Norberto C. Padilla and William H. Lowrance, is doing splendid work.

Charles B. Weiss and Seth A. Carey have gone to the Colorado deer hunting; they have each promised us a hind quarter.

Students who attended the party-dance Friday night pronounced it the best and "premier" ever, and look forward to others which will be given during the winter season.

CHARL WILLIAMS UNABLE TO BE AT E. A. CONVENTION

A telegram received yesterday by John Mine from Miss Charl Williams, of Memphis, Tenn., states that Miss Williams is unable to attend the convention, as was originally planned. Miss Williams is president of the National Educational association, and was to address the convention several times. The message reads as follows: "I am suffering from a deep seated cold, and I am almost ill as a result of strain and anxiety due to the death of my father, my baby niece and my baby cousin, all within three days of each other. My father's death was the first bereavement in our family of eight, and our loss is a severe one. I greatly regret my inability to meet the New Mexico teachers in their state association; had thought until the last minute that I could make the journey. Please convey to them my most sincere wishes and ask for me their co-operation in behalf of the National Educational association. Faithfully yours, 'CHARL WILLIAMS.'"

ROMNEY'S DROP KICK WINS.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—A drop kick, booted between the Wisconsin goal posts by Milton Romney, Chicago's sophomore quarterback, scored a 2 to 0 victory for the Maroons today in an evenly matched brilliant display of western conference football. More than 3,000 people watched the game.

COLORADO VARSITY BEATS AGGIES' TEAM

(By The Associated Press.)

Fort Collins, Colo., Nov. 19.—The undefeated football eleven of the University of Colorado today added another victory to their string by winning over the Colorado Aggies, 19 to 0.

The victory came as a complete surprise after the Aggies had outplayed the State for three periods, both in line work and in punting and had offset the chief offensive factor of the State—brilliant passes—with some equally clever aerial work of their own.

All the scoring was done in the last quarter. Willard's place kicked the first three points. Short afterward, Loser of the Silver and Gold intercepted a forward pass on the Aggies' 35-yard line and ahot through the Aggie defense for a touchdown. Willard kicked goal.

PUBLIC INVITED TO SEE BOXERS WORKOUT TODAY

Benny Chavez and Sailor Gonzalez to Stage Free Workout; Boys Show Up Good for Coming Bout.

Sailor Gonzalez, who will meet Benny Chavez at the armory November 25 in the first fifteen-round boxing bout staged in Albuquerque for some time, will give a public workout this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Palace Billiard hall. Benny will work-out with Ringing Brothers at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The two boys appear to be in first-class condition and will enter the ring with not more than two pounds difference in weight. Gonzalez will probably tip the scales at 124 and Chavez at 122.

Sailor got the decision against Benny here a few weeks ago after a snappy twelve-round bout. Benny then went to Jemez Springs to rest up and take light exercise and has returned claiming he is in the best condition he has been in during the past two years.

"I believe I can give the Albuquerque fans the best exhibition I ever gave them and that I am in condition to get a decision over Gonzalez. I never felt better in my life," Benny declared.

Dan Parilla, who is promoting the bout to be held at the armory, stated last night that he had about picked the man who will be scheduled for a ten-round go with Kid Anaya as the semi-final of the evening. The card will open with a six-round bout, making thirty-one scheduled rounds in the entertainment.

The boxing commission has put its stamp of approval on the bout and physical examination will be made of the principals at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of the bout. The referee will be announced following a meeting soon to be held by the city boxing commission.

Ladies accompanied by escorts will be admitted free and will not be charged admission. Special sections will be reserved for the women fans.

Girls! Look Out

For soap and water when you wash your face. They invariably cause chapped skin, chapped lips and give your complexion a rough appearance. To avoid this use a good cleansing cream instead of soap and water.

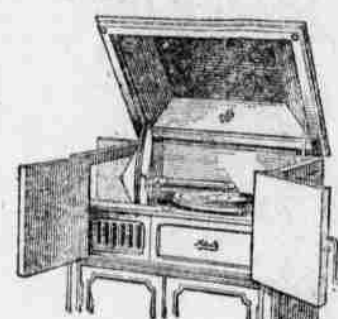

Night and morning cleanse your face, neck, hands and arms with Liska cold cream for a few minutes, then wipe off the superfluous cream with a soft cloth. (Note how thoroughly it cleanses the skin.) If you will follow this advice you won't have a chapped skin all winter, and your complexion and skin will be soft and velvety, and as beautiful as a rose.

There is no better cleansing cream than Liska cold cream, which can be purchased at toilet counters everywhere. If your druggist does not carry it ask him to get it for you. It's wonderful for cleansing the skin and protecting the skin from exposure to sun and wind.

It is put up in large tubes, the only sanitary way. You will never know that real skin comfort is until you have tried Liska cold cream and if you don't like it better than any cream you have ever used insist on the refund of your money. Thus you practically get a free trial without costing you a penny if you are not pleased.

It is on sale under the above guarantee at the toilet counters of all department stores and drug stores in this city by Briggs Pharmacy and Highland Pharmacy.

EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION'S EXECUTIVE COUNCIL MEETS IN HIGH SCHOOL IN TWO SESSIONS

Amendments Cause Long General Discussions; Nothing Definitely Settled Until Evening Meeting; Land Sales and Conditions Exposed By Morrow.

The executive council of the New Mexico Educational Association met yesterday in two sessions, morning and evening, in the high school building. Several committees reported on their work, and amendments were heard, resolutions and provisions and nominations for next year's officers of the council were made. C. Rhoads presided at the meetings.

John H. Vaughan, editor of the New Mexico School Review, made a report on the paper, and gave a comprehensive outline of the policy of the Review. He urged the issue that the paper should be in no way a personal organ, but that the bettering of school conditions in New Mexico be augmented by the support of the Review, which will start for the schools, elementary and higher, for their best benefit.

The report of the committee on reorganization of the association was read by Edwin D. Martin, chairman of the committee. The committee submitted a list of amendments to the constitution of the association, which were opened to general discussion. The morning meeting was unable to come to any satisfactory conclusions on the matter of amendments, and it was not until the council gathered in the evening that the amendments, with added suggestions from the council, were accepted.

The next speaker at the morning session was John Morrow, president of the school board at Raton, and a prominent attorney of that town.

Public Lands. Mr. Morrow made some very interesting statements on the subject of public lands. He asserted that out of the 8,000,000 acres of public lands, the proceeds of which were to be used for educational purposes, only 2,000,000 acres have been selected, and that as a consequence the remaining 6,000,000 acres are being fastidiously sold by private purchasers. He further stated that the most promising of the state agricultural lands were being bought up by the block of 40,000 or 50,000 acres, thereby depriving the state of its most profitable holdings. It was stated that land was being bought for $25 per acre, and being sold for $250 per acre.

Mr. Morrow further advocated the dividing of the lands into sections, and selling the alternate sections only, thereby allowing sufficient opportunity for the remaining sections to increase in value.

Favors Paid Secretary. The evening session was addressed by John V. Conway on some of the proposed amendments. Mr. Conway forcefully urged the adoption of the plan whereby a paid secretary should be engaged by the association for service all year round. He advocated the decision upon a sufficiently large salary in order to employ a "secretary with enough sense."

James Chamberlain of the Normal school at Silver City spoke to the assembly on the "Certification of Teachers," pointing out the necessity of employing only the most efficient and able teachers.

Harry Kent, president of the state agricultural college at Las Cruces, gave a talk on the necessity of making longer the terms of office of members of school boards, and hence doing away with the old system of making unnecessary changes.

The council elected Dean C. C. Hodgkin, of the state university, as president, and Mrs. Grace Bisby as secretary of the council for next year.

Amendments Adopted. The amendments as adopted by the council last night are as follows:

Amendment to article III: In addition to the annual membership fee the executive committee may levy an annual assessment upon the teachers of the state at the rate not in excess of $1 to each $1,000 salary.

This plan of assessment is proposed as one that will appeal to all teachers as just and fair. There is no reason why each teacher in the state should not pay a reasonable amount for the maintenance of his state association and such co-operation can be secured if proper precautions are taken before the assessment is announced.

Another proposition made but not endorsed by the committee is that an assessment be made of one-fourth of one per cent of each teacher's salary, and collected monthly.

Amendment to article VII: The secretary shall be chosen by the executive committee. He shall devote such a part of his time to the affairs of the N. M. E. A. and perform such duties as may be determined by the executive committee.

WAGE REDUCTION IS ACCEPTED BY PACKERWORKERS

Employees of Cudahy and Company at Sioux City Yield to Cut Decided on at Other Plants.

(By The Associated Press.)

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 19.—Announcement that the Sioux City, Iowa, employees of the Cudahy Packing company had decided to accept a wage reduction similar to that accepted by Armour & Co. and other packing house workers in Chicago, was made here late today by the company through C. A. Stewart, plant superintendent.

The action was taken through employees of the plant conference board, Mr. Stewart announced, adding that similar meetings in Kansas City, Omaha and Wichita, held today, were adjourned until Monday without final action being taken. He expressed the opinion, however, there was no doubt they, too, would accept a wage cut.

The cut at Sioux City was announced as follows:

For piece workers, 8 per cent; unskilled labor, getting 45 cents an hour or less, 7 1/2 cents; semi-skilled labor, getting 45 and 50 cents an hour, 5 cents; skilled labor getting over 50 cents an hour, 3 cents.

This with any reduction that may be taken at other points probably will be made effective November 28, it was stated.

J. W. Burns, secretary of District Council No. 5, Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America, today reiterated a statement made last night, that in his opinion his organization would not accept the reductions announced having been accepted by the plant conference organizations of Armour & Co. and other packing house companies.

NORDHAUS EXTENDS AN INVITATION TO MEN TO JOIN APOLLO CLUB

"All men who can sing, whether they know how to read notes or not, are missing a rare opportunity by not joining the Apollo club, which meets every Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the guild hall of St. John's church, corner Fourth and Silver."

Max Nordhaus, president of the Apollo club,

"Under the direction of a competent director and a most efficient accompanist, the club is in a fair way to become a force in the future musical activities of Albuquerque, inasmuch as its purpose is for entertainment at all civic affairs, conventions, etc. There is no city in the east but has at least one good male chorus, and the benefits derived from practice of this kind are many."

"New members are needed and there is no reason why a chorus of one hundred voices cannot be secured in Albuquerque."

A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to come to the rehearsals."

U. S. OILER AFIRE 40 MILES OFF CAPE HENRY

(By The Associated Press.)

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 19.—The United States oiler Alameda is afire about forty miles off Cape Henry, according to a wireless message received here tonight. The United States coast guard cutter Seminole answered the call from this port.

Philadelphia, Nov. 19.—All hands on the United States oiler Alameda abandoned the burning vessel, according to a wireless received by the Philadelphia navy yard tonight. The crew have been picked up by the steamer Bristol, which is standing by.

Four p. m. is said to be the latest hour of the whole twenty-four.

HAWKEYE ELEVEN LEADING RIVALS IN MIDDLE WEST

(By The Associated Press.)

Chicago, Nov. 19.—The standings of the big ten conference are:

Team	W.	L.	Tied
Iowa	5	0	0
Ohio State	4	1	0
Chicago	4	1	0
Wisconsin	3	1	1
Michigan	2	1	1
Indiana	1	2	0
Minnesota	2	4	0
Purdue	1	4	0
Illinois	1	4	0
Northwestern	0	5	0

Today's game not only established Iowa as supreme in conference circles, but gave the eleven virtually undisputed claim to the championship of the middle west. The Hawkeyes, besides winning five conference games and losing none, defeated Notre Dame, leading middle western team outside the big ten. Notre Dame defeated Nebraska and also the Army.

YALE BEATEN BY HARVARD BEFORE 55,000 PERSONS

Crimson Squad Rallies and Puts Over a Last Period Victory; Triumph Was Unexpected Generally.

(By The Associated Press.)

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 19 (by the Associated Press).—A Crimson victory marked the annual Yale-Harvard game today. The score was ten to three.

It was a last period victory in which a touchdown by Owen, a goal by Buell, and a goal from the field by Owen, gave the team of Captain Kane points which surpassed the three gained by Yale through the field goal of Captain Aldrich, kicked in the first quarter.

The Harvard triumph was unexpected generally, coming after a season of uncertainty for the Crimson eleven and of previously unbroken success by Yale. It caused an unprecedented triple tie in the standing among the "big three"—Princeton, the winner over Harvard, Yale, the tamer of the Tiger, Harvard, the victor over Yale.

This fourth Yale-Harvard game was played in the Harvard stadium before a crowd of almost 55,000. At the close Harvard adherents poured into the gridiron for a celebration.

With Yale leading three to nothing, the game turned in the third period on Buell's feat in running back, through most of the Yale team, a punt which he caught at mid-field. His dash covered thirty-seven yards, carrying the ball to Yale's twelve-yard line.

Opening the fourth period Buell advanced eight yards through a tangle of forward pass. A burst against the Blue line lacked inches of first down. Owen gathered strength for another assault and carried not only the down but the goal, plunging over the Yale forwards.

Charges of assault with intent to kill, which were placed against T. J. Armijo by Dave Armijo and then by T. J. Armijo against Dave Armijo, were dismissed yesterday afternoon by Justice of the Peace W. W. McClellan, who held the preliminary hearing.

It was alleged by Dave Armijo that T. J. Armijo lured him out into the sandhills and then hit him in the head with a bottle and shot twice at him. T. J. Armijo claimed he had been assaulted by Dave Armijo. Neither was bound over to the grand jury.

BEAVEN RETURNS AFTER BIG HAUL AT RATON AREA

(By The Associated Press.)

John Beaven, federal prohibition agent working under the state office here, has returned from Raton, where in a ten-day stay he succeeded in rounding up seventeen alleged liquor law violators. A number of stills and a quantity of wine, mash and whiskey was taken.

Milos Rochevich and Ella Vulanovich were captured two and a half miles east of Raton. A still was buried under a haystack. In Raton Mr. Beaven arrested Dick Grullich and Matt Tomich for whiskey sales. When John Pastore was arrested the officers seized two stills and 550 gallons of mash. Nine miles east of Raton, Josephine Sanchez, Joe Sanchez and Jack Yonich were arrested and a still and 100 gallons of wine taken.

In Raton Herbert Taylor and G. D. Duke were charged with the possession of a still. Joe Via was reported to be serving whiskey in a teapot. Giovanna Zanolis was arrested for alleged possession of a still and whiskey.

Steve Candor, living seventy-five miles into the Merino valley, was arrested. The officers reported the find of a still and whiskey buried in a field. Frank Tomasi was reported to have a vat in his cellar with a capacity of 667 gallons of wine. It was about a third full. Rosie Tomasi Amedel was also arrested for alleged wine making.

The stills and liquor are being shipped to Albuquerque.

CREIGHTON DEFEATED.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 19.—Under the forward pass for frequent rains, South Dakota Agricultural college football team gave the Creighton university of Omaha its first defeat of the season today, 7 to 0.

DIVERS NOT TO BE BARRED, SAY NAVAL EXPERTS

No Serious Proposal to Abolish Submarines Will Be Advanced at Conference, Is General Belief.

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Nov. 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—Submarines are certain to figure largely in deliberations of naval experts of the "big five" group now in progress. It is regarded as virtually certain, however, that the experts will find themselves in agreement that submarines have a very definite place in naval warfare, and that no serious proposal to abolish underwater craft will be advanced.

There may be some effort to limit the size of future submarines. But the limit agreed upon will not, unless all signs fail, prevent the use of submarines as fleet elements for operations on the high seas.

Many criticisms have been applied to submarines by British spokesmen here, but have come largely from laymen and not from naval experts. Investigation does not disclose that there is a difference of view between American and British naval officers as to the importance of fleet operations under water craft exercise. It is the use made by Germany of her submarines that is to be repudiated by civilized thought, not the weapon itself, the experts assert. It has been argued here that German employment of their U-boats did not realize the full possibilities of these craft. The overwhelming desire of the German admiralty to conserve the strength of this one naval weapon that could challenge British control of the seas, led to what American naval officers believe was a policy of avoiding battle except where all odds were in favor of the submarine, whereas a bold employment of the U-boats might have brought different results.

THE MARKETS

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Nov. 19.—Minor shares were conspicuous under pool speculators in today's inconclusive stock market, the favorites inclining to dullness, when not reactionary.

Junior oils absorbed a considerable part of the trading with minor rails, the latter including several cheaper concerns and cotton carriers. Seasoned transportation, industrial and specialties eased under week end realizing and occasional pressure. The latter tendency was noted in Bethlehem Steel and several popular motors, these proving susceptible to advices indicating further letdown of production. Sales 400,000 shares.

Weekly reviews of financial, commercial and railway conditions were mixed but pointed anew to long prevailing uncertainty. Pre-holiday trade at important distributing centers was reported as only fair and advices received by the American Railway association disclosed an increase in idle freight cars.

Gains ruled among Liberty issues and the general bond market retained or enhanced its recent advances among rails, utilities and several of the international group. Total sales, par value, $3,875,000.

An actual increase of loans and discounts by clearing house banks for the week of $52,000,000 measured the shifting of funds in connection with various new underwritings. The actual cash decrease was small, leaving excess reserves at a liberal margin over totals recorded in the corresponding period of recent months.

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE.

Chicago, Nov. 19.—After averaging higher through most of the session wheat broke sharply here today, carrying other grains with it. The results were net losses of 3/4c to 1c in wheat, 3/4c to 1/2c in corn and 1/2c in oats. Provisions were firm and generally higher.

Wheat started at a slight advance over yesterday's close but weakened early on advices that locust damage in Argentina was negligible. Supporting offers came out in May and started an upward movement which was helped by reports of good condition in the cash corn market. Both sides did some general evening up for over Sunday and so much sharp shooting developed that bearish news from abroad had no effect.

There was wheat sold, however, throughout the session and finally the offerings became too heavy for the local longs to absorb. The resulting slump knocked 2 1/2 cents off the high figures.

Corn had a strength all its own because seaboard interests paid 6 cents over December for Buffalo delivery and industries were good buyers of cash grades. Fluctuations in near options had no effect in cash trade. Oats merely followed other grains, moving in narrow limits.

Packers were out of the provision pits but strength in hogs at the yards and firm futures at Liverpool induced enough speculative buying to keep prices higher. Ribs led with a net gain of ten points, lard ranging from unchanged to 7 cents higher.

Closing prices:
Wheat—Dec., $1.07 1/2; May, $1.10 1/4.

Automotive engineers say that at least 80% of all motor repairs are preventable.

Steer Clear of this Expensive piece of Repairing

Cylinder reboring, like most "hard luck", has an avoidable cause

If it is advisable to prepare for war during times of peace, then most certainly it is wisdom to anticipate motor repairs while everything seems to be in good order.

Neglect and oversight are responsible for practically all motor breakdowns. Play fair with your motor and you'll get a long period of uninterrupted service from it in return. Constant, perfect lubrication is vital to the life of a motor. This is elementary, but motorists often ignore it, to their sorrow.

Poor oil breaks down at piston heat

There are many steps in the refining of motor oil at which its effectiveness may be seriously impaired without changing its appearance.

When it is finally used and comes in contact with hot cylinder heads and valves, it carbonizes quickly, does not lubricate efficiently. It may be the first cause of a long list of motor troubles, beginning with the loss of compression and not infrequently ending with a job of cylinder reboring.

Use Polarine for best results all the year

Fifty years of refining experience, selected crude stocks, the most modern refining equipment, carefully standardized methods of testing—all these combine to make Polarine the best motor oil that can be produced. Holds its "body" even at high cylinder-wall temperatures.

For your complete satisfaction use Conoco Gasoline exclusively.

PORTALES

The remains of Mrs. Frank Culberson arrived here Friday morning from El Paso, Tex., and were taken to the local funeral parlors until Saturday afternoon. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church at 2:30, the local order of the Eastern Star having full charge. Burial was made in the local cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lyons and children, who recently arrived here from Illinois, have decided to locate in Portales.

Announcement has been made here of the recent marriage of Miss Jeannette Bond of Plainview, Tex., but a former Portales girl, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bond, to Mr. Prentice Rossin. Mr. and Mrs. Rossin came to Clovis and were quietly married.

Mrs. Craig of Texico, N. M., was an over Sunday guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whitcomb. Misses Elizabeth and Maurine Priddy and grandmother, Mrs. E. E. Green, were over from the Wayland Baptist college at Plainview, Tex., where the girls are students, and spent from Thursday until Sunday in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Priddy.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Isen and children were Sunday dinner guests of Professor and Mrs. John Russell.

Mrs. Bessie Williams of Seminole, Tex., is visiting her sisters, Mrs. S. A. Morrison and Mrs. Mattie Mitchell, and daughter, Miss Hattie Mitchell, in Portales. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bromley are here from Oklahoma, visiting in the home of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Scott. Mr. and Mrs. Bromley were former residents of Portales.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bond have arrived from Plainview, Tex. Mr. and Mrs. Bond formerly lived here and have come back to make their future home here.

Mrs. S. P. Culberson of McIntosh spent last week with her old time friend, Mrs. Ellen Jones. Mrs. Culberson was for several years school superintendent of Roosevelt county.

The lad died with heart failure, a result of scarlet fever. The funeral services were held Monday morning at the Nazarene church with Rev. Cox, pastor of the Nazarene church, and Rev. Davis, pastor of the Methodist church, officiating. Miss Mary Jane Owen, aunt of the deceased sang a very appropriate solo. The pall bearers were Harold Holmes, Homer Fore, Clyde Fore and Glen James, playmates of the little departed friend. Interment was in Woodbine cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cole, Mrs. C. Bert Smith and Fred Cole have returned from Albuquerque, where they have been visiting for the past ten days. Rev. J. B. Wilde, who made the trip overland with them, returned by rail on last Saturday in order to be in his pulpit on Sunday.

will be applied to the installation of a heating plant for the church of the Sacred Heart. Among the persons in the cast are some well known amateur actors who have appeared in other successful Spanish productions. G. A. Contreras is the director of the play.

The C. U. P. club varied its program by holding dinner at the Dorris tea room on Tuesday evening. Thirty-one members were present. Mrs. G. A. Gekler acted as hostess. The club voted to make some bed repairs for the rest rooms at the Y. W. C. A. recreation center.

A new club, called the B. C. C. club, has been organized by the Misses Lillian Garcia, Betty Louvitski and Lillian Gonzales. These young ladies plan to entertain their friends during the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. A. B. Stroup addressed members of the Adelante club on the subject, "Should Women Enter Politics?" at the regular dinner meeting of the club at the Y. W. C. A. on Wednesday evening.

U. N. M. SOCIETY

The Alpha Delta were "at home" last Sunday afternoon at their new house at 1723 East Silver avenue to the women students of the university. A number of the girls dropped in to see the house since it has been remodeled as a fraternity home. Professor and Mrs. C. E. Carey were chaperones during the afternoon. Light refreshments were served. Robert Cartwright and Frank Revere were in charge of arrangements.

The "faculty ladies" were guests at a party on Thursday afternoon given by Mrs. C. E. Hodgins in honor of Mrs. B. F. Haight, wife of one of the new professors, and Mrs. Edmunds of Boulder, Colo., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. S. Rockwood. The afternoon was spent with fancy work and the exchanging of Christmas ideas. A delicious lunch was served late in the afternoon. Those present were Mrs. Haight, Mrs. Edmunds, Mrs. Rockwood, Mrs. C. E. Carey, Mrs. L. B. Heesler, Mrs. C. M. Rotta, Mrs. L. B. Mitchell, Mrs. R. H. Kirk, Mrs. R. W. Ellis, Mrs. O. L. Harrington of Cerrillos, Miss Mary Anne Cross of Denver and Mrs. Chalmers Bowers of Tucumcari.

The Alpha Chi Omega house party at the home of Miss Frances Andrews, a pledge, in Santa Fe last week-end was an event in Greek letter circles. When nine college girls go off in a bunch to spend three days they usually manage to make the most of their opportunities. There was dancing on Friday and Saturday evenings at the Andrews home in Santa Fe, a luncheon for the girls on Saturday, a trip to the Buffalo dance at Tesuque pueblo, sight-seeing about Santa Fe and a jolly automobile trip home. The girls who composed the house party were Miss Constance Walters, Miss Dorothy Stevenson, Miss Margery Cleave, Miss Mariette Lamb, Miss Florence

O'Hara, Miss Flora Chess, Miss Helen Jackson and Miss Lucy Clark. The Alpha Chi house will be full of out-of-town members during the teachers' convention. Among those who will be guests for this week are Miss Rebecca Graham of Carlsbad, Miss Joseph Harrington of Cerrillos, Miss Mary Anne Cross of Denver and Mrs. Chalmers Bowers of Tucumcari.

ORGANIZATIONS.

Among the social events of the N. M. E. A. session will be a luncheon to all visiting members of the State Parent-Teachers association at the Central Avenue Methodist church at Tuesday noon. The visitors will be the guests of the North Fourth street school P. T. A.

A "train social" was the novel form of entertainment enjoyed by the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor society on Tuesday evening following a business meeting. The members seated in train-coach arrangement were taken on an imaginary trip through the southwest by Horace Moore as engineer, Carl Prang as conductor and Miss Florence Reynolds as a guide. As a sight-seeing tour it was a revelation of the wonders of the country and the explanation of the names of places visited was illuminating to the travelers. Games appropriate to a train party were played after the journey and lunches brought by the travelers were consumed.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the St. Paul's English Lutheran church held two well attended sewing meetings the past week, one at the home of Mrs. J. W. Fredericks at 907 South Edith street on Tuesday afternoon, and one with Mrs. Brendell at her home at 701 South Third street on Thursday afternoon.

The Lutheran Brotherhood of St. Paul's church was addressed by the Rev. H. A. Anspach of Denver at its meeting on Monday evening. Mr. Edward Bierman rendered a violin solo. The lecture room of the church was well filled for the meeting.

A unique affair was the get-together social of the St. Paul's English Lutheran church in the social rooms of the church Tuesday evening. The every-member canvass of the congregation was launched on this occasion, and the response is reported to have been excellent. The men of the church were responsible for the refreshments, and the women extended them their grateful appreciation.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met with Mrs. E. L. Moulton of 129 South Fourteenth street on Thursday afternoon for the annual praise and thank offering. Hymns appropriate to the occasion were sung with Mrs. A. L. Blair at the piano. Mrs. F. L. Schneider and Mrs. Hugh Cooper were the leaders. Mrs. P. H. Rose spoke on "Some Reasons for Thanksgiving." Mrs. H. L. Hargreaves and Mrs. James J. Walsh gave some special piano solos and Mrs. L. G. Rice gave a reading, "The Best We Have." Mrs. Hugh Cooper read a paper on "Thank Offerings." Miss Vivian Scher gave a recitation, "The Three Givers," and Mrs. W. J. Wilson gave a reading on "My Thanksgiving Box." Ruth Virginia, Louise and Adah Shelton sang a song of Thanksgiving praise. The roll call responses were on giving and praise. A social hour was spent after the program. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. J. E. Franklin, Mrs. A. R. Kool, Mrs. D. F. Gill, Mrs. Neil Ferguson, Mrs. A. F. Keller, Mrs. T. J. Mahry and Mrs. E. W. Davis. The thank offering added $57 to the treasury.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Helen O. Bursum, wife of Senator Bursum, was a visitor in the city on Thursday. Her daughter, Miss Clara Bursum, remained as a guest of Miss Margaret Lee to take part in the Harris County wedding. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Henning and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gruehl motored to Santa Fe for a few days last week. Mrs. John Ricketts will leave shortly for California, where she will spend the winter. She has leased her home at 1329 East Silver avenue to Mrs. Guy, daughter of Mrs. Ernestine Schumann-Holnk. Mr. Guy is a patient at a local sanatorium. Mrs. Adah Pierce Winn arrived in the city on Friday from her home in Silver City to participate in the N. M. E. A. convention. She will be a guest of Mrs. Frank C. W. Pooler after the convention. Mrs. Lawrence B. Lackey, formerly of Albuquerque but now supervisor of music in the city schools of Santa Fe, will arrive here this evening to attend the state teachers' meeting. She will be in the city until Wednesday afternoon.

Winter modes stress slender lines and longer skirts. Fashion has generously taken care of the large figure, for one's proportions are slenderized by the long graceful panels, soft side draperies and longer hem line that dominate the season's tendencies.

Jockey Earl Sande, the brilliant western rider, is duplicating his spring success on the Maryland tracks at the meetings there this fall.

SCHOOL TEACHERS—WELCOME!

Will be the slogan of every citizen of Albuquerque during the Annual Convention of the N. M. E. A. Dances, Receptions, Auto Rides, Concerts, everything that can add to the pleasure and comfort of her guests. Albuquerque is arranging for them. Albuquerque will belong to the teachers during the convention.

IMPORTANT SERVICE OF BUICK IS HELP TO CATCH AUTO THIEVES

An important part of service to Buick owners is the assistance rendered by the Buick organization in recovering stolen cars. The scope of this work is as nationwide as Buick distribution and any Buick owner.

First—Report the loss of a car immediately to the nearest Buick dealer. Do not advise the Buick factory direct.

Second—Give all the available information possible to the Buick dealer. This should consist of chassis and motor numbers as well as make or other means of identifying the car.

Observance of these suggestions will expedite the work of locating the car and identifying it when it is discovered.

ROAD CONDITIONS

The New Mexico Auto Club, state headquarters at 210 North Fourth street, this city, has issued the following on the road conditions in the state:

The Santa Fe Trail from Raton Pass to El Paso is in very good travelable shape, a little rough in the vicinity of Wagon Mound and Gorieta. Between Santa Fe and El Paso, the road as a whole is fair to good.

The two roads west from Los Lunas, one via Gallup and the other via Socorro and Springerville are about on a par, some features in favor of one and some of the other, but travel need not hesitate going either way until the winter storms break, which is usually about December 1st, after which period, travel can take the southern route and avoid all snow.

The east and west road from Amarillo and Roswell to a connection with the northern and southern highways are all very travelable and now at their best and will be until the winter storms set in.

Quite considerable new road work is being done on these main state roads and which at times require short rough detours, but by careful driving should not inconvenience any one.

The New Mexico Auto Club will always bulletin any definite road conditions at their headquarters, office and are also prepared to answer telegrams or letters from all portions of the state.

A CHURCH ON WHEELS

One of the most unique bodies ever mounted on a Reo Speed Wagon chassis is that owned by the Rev. B. B. Williams, who has just returned to Rushford, N. Y., with his "church on wheels" after a trip to the Pacific coast and back, according to reports received by Mr. Brittain of the Paulin Motor company, local Reo distributor. It was on this trip west that Rev. Williams believes he established a record for economy in automotive transportation. He states that a distance of 3,700 miles was covered at a total cost of $182. This amount includes the total expenses for food, gas, oil, repairs and all incidentals in connection with the trip.

The truck body is 17 feet in length and seven feet wide, the height being six feet six inches. In spite of these unusual dimensions Rev. Williams states that they have experienced practically no difficulty with the exception of one or two occasions. At one time it was necessary to dig out a roadway beneath a railroad trestle in order that the Speed Wagon could pass under. "Often times we have encountered vehicles on extremely narrow roads and it seemed to be a puzzle as to how we were ever going to get by, but we have always managed to make it," states Rev. Williams.

This house on wheels contains every convenience and its equipment is complete. All the cooking is done on a gasoline stove in the rear of the truck. All of the heavy baggage is carried underneath, and in this way a remarkably even balance has been maintained. A curtain divides the truck into two compartments. There are not only chairs, bunks and carpets on the floor, but there is even a good size dresser and a large oil stove in addition to the gasoline stove.

According to Rev. Williams his Speed Wagon was not only his home, but he used it extensively in his religious work. The body was designed and built according to specifications which he himself drew up and he states that it has lived up to his expectations in every sense of the word.

In speaking of the trip from the Pacific coast Rev. Williams recalls many interesting incidents. The moments of his experiences would make excellent fiction. He has traveled in practically every state and he says his Speed Wagon has created unusual attention and favorable comment wherever he has been.

Another significant statement which Rev. Williams makes in commenting upon the performance of his Speed Wagon is to the effect that a total of 3,700 miles took only 220 hours of traveling time.

U. S. FIGURES SHOW AUTO'S POPULARITY

Published reports of Secretary of Labor Davis show that in 1920 of the cities of the United States during 1920, there were built 81,193 automobiles for one or two families, while during the same period there were constructed 93,121 private garages.

"When I read the report of Secretary Davis I was amazed," says W. C. Hoover, of the Hoover Motor company.

"It means that the American is not to be confined within the four walls of the house, even though it be a most elaborate mansion. To me it spells a great advancement."

"Travel is an education. A motor car is the means of travel that every family can afford. The man of the house can release himself from his daily tasks, bundle the family into the car and travel far and wide over a week-end or on a holiday and go back to work the next day full of renewed energy and efficiency."

"The automobile keeps the family healthy. It keeps them satisfied and is a most wholesome amusement."

Because of incorrect adjustment of the carburetor nearly one-quarter of all the gasoline used by motor vehicles is wasted in incomplete combustion.

MOTOR CAR EXECUTIVE ADVISES EMPLOYEES TO READ THE NEWSPAPERS

Stewart McDonald, president of the Moon Motor Car company, is a firm believer in the value received from the daily reading of newspapers. Recently he issued instructions that the following bulletin be placed on the factory bulletin board:

"I can not impress too strongly upon all the members of this organization the benefits to be derived from reading the daily newspapers and the trade journals."

"When I find a young man who has just started in the automobile business reading the automobile sections of the daily newspapers and the trade journals, I know at once that he is doing everything possible to keep accurately in touch with the industry and that he is really interested in the business and will eventually succeed. I feel it is safe to say that the big, successful dealers in our organization are those who keep abreast of the times in their territory by reading newspapers and trade journals."

"When an old employee stops reading the newspapers and trade journals, no better evidence can be presented to support the fact that he is losing interest in his work and slipping, because in my estimation the first signs of wavering interest in a man's work is when he ceases reading the automobile section of the daily newspaper and trade journals. His actions say that he hasn't the time nor the inclination to keep himself posted as to the happenings in the industry."

Rubber Tire Friction.
Never overload underinflated tires. The average sized tire, properly inflated and carrying a normal load, reaches a temperature of 140 degrees Fahrenheit just under the tread when run at 20 miles an hour speed. At 25 miles an hour the temperature is raised to 155 degrees.

Cause of Overheating.
If the engine shows too great a tendency to overheat the radiator is probably clogged and should be cleaned out thoroughly with hot water and washing soda.

SCHOOL NOTES.

North Fourth Street School. Children of the North Fourth street school represented the allied nations in their floats in the Armistice day parade. Eight cars were entered, each grade representing one nation.

The eighth grade, of which Miss Cecelia Murphy is teacher, represented America. A car loaned by the Hudson Essex company and driven by J. K. Humphrey was covered with red, white and blue fringe. In it rode five little girls and a diminutive Uncle Sam dressed in the tri-color.

The second car, representing England, was draped with English flags and streamers. The first grade pupils, whose teacher is Mrs. Elliott, rode in the car, which was driven by James Woodworth. Third in line was France, represented by the fifth and sixth grade pupils, of which Miss Grace Winfrey is teacher. French flags and Flanders poppies were the decorations used. Girls dressed as French Red Cross nurses rode in the car driven by E. J. Marchant.

Belgium was represented by the third grade, of which Miss Barbara Harris is teacher. Tiny Belgian girls rode in the flag-draped car driven by M. R. Jones. Italy was represented by the seventh grade and a part of the sixth, of which Mrs. Brown is teacher. Mr. Marlow drove a car full of pretty Italian maidens. Japan was represented by eight small maids of Japan from Miss Dorothy Bowman's primary room. Charles Banghart drove the car loaned by Sheriff Tony Ortiz. The fourth grade, of which Miss Leon is teacher, represented Spain in a car decorated with Spanish flags. County Agent Lee Reynolds loaned his car for this grade.

On the credit of the school's showing in the parade is largely due to Miss Cecelia Murphy, principal, whose idea it was to enter the cars representing the allies. The teachers of the school have expressed their thanks to those who helped to decorate the floats, to those who loaned their cars, and to E. L. Grose for the loan of a number of large flags for decorations.

CHILDREN'S SOCIETY TO GIVE PROGRAM.

An interesting program is to be given by the Junior Mission band of the Broadway Christian church this afternoon at 2:45 o'clock in the church. It is the custom of this church's society to give two "open sessions" during the year and grown-ups who have attended wouldn't think of missing one.

The officers of the society are: Fletcher Bowman, president; Helen Shartzer, vice president; Marjorie Hagaman, secretary, and Esther Horton, treasurer.

After the business meeting the following program will be given, with Isabel Guy as leader:

1. Hymn.
2. Prayer.
3. Responsive reading.
4. "The Southern Highlanders," Helen Shartzer.
5. A Missionary Quiz, the superintendent, Mrs. Mize.
6. The Yakima Mission, Carl Lett.
7. Hymn.
8. "The Damah Orphanage," Gwendolyn Edmunds.
9. Reading, "Jiminy in a Dime Museum," Esther Horton.
10. Piano Solo, Mrs. Lillian Rinehart.
11. Remarks, the minister, W. A. Guy.

Play, "Visitors from Ellis Island," Sam. C. C. Fergusson. Christianities, Miss Evelyn Broese. Miss Liberty, Martholouise Horton. Antonio Moreto (from Italy).

Madeline Thomas Bambino (from Italy). Billy Knight Lydia Varga (from Hungary). Nola Pitt Maria Slavina (from Poland). Helen Guy Miriam Salatan (from Armenia). Mary Kathryn Lyle Children from China and Japan. Roba June Mersfelder, Gwendolyn Edmunds, Clarice McSpaulen. American Children, members of the Mission band—Fletcher Bowman, Beryl Hayes, Ethel Pitt, W. D. Gravett, Martha Kathryn Sackett.

The children are supporting an orphan, so an offering will be taken.

CARLSBAD

A marriage of especial interest was that of Miss Dorothy Ryan and Joe N. Livingston, on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Presbyterian manse. Ceremony was performed by Rev. H. W. Lowry.

Livingston is president of the National Bank of Carlsbad, and has large holdings in the Livingston Cattle company. Mrs. Livingston is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Ryan, a girl of much charm and unusual beauty. They are at the Crawford hotel for the present, but after next week will reside in the beautiful Livingston home in Rio Vista.

Mrs. J. F. Joyce entertained with an informal tea at her home on Canal street on Wednesday afternoon, honoring two recent brides, Mrs. Joe N. Livingston and Mrs. Charles Montgomery, and Miss Margarette Roberts, New Mexico's princess at the Cotton Palace in Waco. Receiving with Mrs. Joyce besides these, were Mrs. J. W. Lamb and her guests, Mrs. Drake of Little Rock, Ark.; Mrs. Will Parks of Hot Springs, Ark.; Miss Eloise Lane, Mrs. Monroe Christian of Houston, Tex., and Mrs. Frank Andrews of Lamy, N. M. Presiding at the table were Mrs. L. S. Ryan and Mrs. S. I. Roberts. One hundred and twenty-five guests called from 4 to 6 o'clock.

The local talent Japanese opera, which was so successfully given in Carlsbad last week, was repeated in Hope on Friday night. In addition to the members of the cast, others attending the Hope rodeo celebration were Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Jackson, Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Glasier, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Stewart, Mrs. John Barber, Mrs. Holley Benson, Misses Marguerite Roberts, Laura and Margaret Breeding, Georgia Wallace, Messrs. Although no celebration was held here Armistice day, all business houses and the schools were closed so that everyone might observe the holiday. In the afternoon two fast basketball games, which were witnessed by a large crowd of townspeople, were played on the local court. The two teams of high school girls played first, the game being fast and interesting all the way through. The final score was 9 to 10 in favor of the O. B. team. Then came the clash between a selected team of town boys and the high school boys. Although the town team was superior to the high school team in size, the school boys far excelled in team work and scientific playing. The game being fast and interesting all the way through, but the town boys were outclassed, the high school boys being the final victors by a score of 31 to 2. The splendid manner in which both the boys and girls' teams played is due entirely to the efficient training given them by their coach, Prof. W. Fremont Osborne. Several match games will be played in the near future.

The Women's Auxiliary of the U. B. church gave a musical tea at the home of Mrs. C. L. Wensell last Saturday afternoon for the purpose of helping to reduce the church debt. The first part of the program consisted of operatic selections rendered on the phonograph. A short talk on the development of the opera was given by Mrs. C. R. Keyes. After a short intermission the following musical program was rendered: Piano solo, "Grand Valse," Mrs. Ray Burgess; vocal solo, "By the Waters of Minnetonka," Mrs. E. B. Sifford; violin obligato and piano accompaniment by Mrs. S. T. Sifford; Mrs. M. H. Howe; violin solo, "The Last Rose of Summer," Mrs. S. G. Taylor; ladies' quartet, by Mesdames R. Burgess, E. B. Sifford, F. Crocker and Miss Myrtle Howe. At the close of an enjoyable afternoon refreshments were served to more than forty guests.

Mrs. Emmett Allredge of East Las Vegas is spending the week here visiting her father, S. A. Turner.

Mrs. Hearn of Dawson, N. M., came in last Thursday and will spend the winter here with her daughter, Mrs. J. Paltenghe, and family.

At a meeting of the local board of education Wednesday night the $65,000 school bonds, which were voted about a year and a half ago, were sold to Fenwell-Phillips and company of Denver, Colo., at 99; this means Wagon Mound will soon have a beautiful new school building.

Morris Vorenberg returned to East Las Vegas Sunday evening after spending the week-end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Vorenberg.

Misses Lola and Lottie Dillard and Neil Bolt, all students in the local high school, spent the past week-end with their parents, who reside near Levy, N. M.

Miss Madeline Guy and her brother, Harold Guy, motored to Alton, N. M., Friday and made a short visit with friends, returning home Saturday.

The American Legion gave a very enjoyable dance at the Arcade hall Armistice night. Music was furnished by Mrs. R. Burgess at the piano and P. P. Martinez with the drums. Refreshments were served during the evening to the throng of people in attendance. The receipts totaled $28.55.

It's Nerve Force from Nuxated Iron that helps make STRONG, MAGNETIC, FORCEFUL MEN who make their own mastering presence felt the moment they enter a room.

NUXATED IRON

contains the principal chemical constituent of active living nerve force in a form which most nearly resembles that in the brain and nerve cells of man. It also contains organic iron like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. Organic iron enriches the blood and plenty of rich red blood means more nerve force, so that Nuxated Iron not only feeds what might be termed artificial nerve force to the nerve cells, it stimulates the body to manufacture a greatly increased supply of new nerve force. If you are weak, nervous or run-down, get a bottle of Nuxated Iron today, and if within two weeks' time you do not feel that it has increased your nerve force and made you feel better and stronger in every way, your money will be refunded, sold by all druggists.

WE EXTEND A HEARTY WELCOME TO THE VISITING TEACHERS. COME IN AND HEAR SOME GOOD MUSIC.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR THANKSGIVING

Roast turkey is no more essential for a real Thanksgiving than good music. Omit either and it is not quite a regular Thanksgiving. Nor is the savory smell of the crisp, brown turkey more inviting than the Brunswick, especially if it be the natural tones of the Brunswick. For Music makes for good cheer and happiness in the home—like sunshine on a cloudy day, it enters into every life, bringing gladness. Its ministering influence reaches every heart.

There are only a few days left in which to arrange for your Thanksgiving music. We urge you to come in this week and see and hear this wonderful instrument—the twinfour motor, "Ultona" all record producer, and the new all wood amplifier—three improvements in phonographs pronounced by many to be the greatest in years, are responsible for the wonderful tone of the Brunswick.

You need only to hear or play one of these wonderful instruments to appreciate its great superiority over the ordinary phonograph. We give a year to pay, without interest.

TEACHERS.

The teachers of the state are arriving for their annual meet. Albuquerque welcomes every one and wants each to have a profitable and pleasant stay in the city.

The Journal is more interested in the prosperity of the teaching profession than in any other line of endeavor in the state. To the degree in which the standards and enthusiasm of this body of unselfish servants can be elevated will the state prosper and develop.

No self-governing people can come into its own without an intelligent, educated and self-controlled electorate. The children of today are the citizens of tomorrow. Self-interest should prompt us to sympathy with the teaching profession. The preservation of what we have and the achievement of that for which we hope is dependent upon the intelligence and self-restraint of the citizenry of tomorrow.

Every concession which will make teaching more enticing to the intelligent should be made. If the profession can be made a crowded one by good salaries and satisfactory conditions, those crowded out will be the unfit at the bottom. If we fail to meet our conditions the dropping out will be among the more fit at the top.

A teacher is not simply a person. There are teachers and other teachers. Some are very good, some fair, others almost valueless. These deal, not with things, but with lives. Every child is profoundly impressed for life by his teachers. They can not be too good. The standards can not be too high.

New Mexico has an appalling problem of education. It should absorb the attention of our most intelligent, courageous and unselfish people.

Not only does Albuquerque profit commercially by the presence of the teachers, but their contact with our people gives our citizens a new impulse and interest in the vital problem of education.

APPARENT.

Nothing should be more apparent to the republican leaders than the necessity of clearing up the subjects of criticism against its officials in the state. We are speaking now of political expediency. Repression of unfavorable comment and public agitation is beyond the possibilities. Any such effort instantly increases the dissatisfaction of the people.

The republican party must take into account the awakened interest of people in public matters. The demand for decency and economy in public administration is growing from week to week. This wave will swallow up the party unless it meets the public demand for a thorough and honest investigation of the stewardship of its office-holders.

The auditing department of any state should be the great safeguard of the people. The man who heads such a department should rise head and shoulders above others in ability, integrity and courage. He should be so adequately supplied with competent help that he can keep abreast of what is going on in every department. He should be so above political control that fear of his criticisms will be ever present in the minds of politicians who handle public monies.

Such is not the case with the present traveling auditor. He has not the help necessary to do one-sixth of the work calling for him. Delay in audits invites laxness and irregularity. The people are not satisfied with Mr. Whittier and his work. He is not regarded as competent, and he is not considered free from political domination in his work.

The present law and supreme court decisions which make him the sole safe-guard of the public is an error which amounts to a crime against the people. There are earmarks which indicate this law to be the work of politicians to prevent independent audits.

Governor Mecham is not a party to any of this, we feel certain. But the duty is on him as chief executive of the state to find a way to correct it for the people. Inertia can make him a party to it by surferance. The people will charge all this up to republican administration. That party should show the people that it has the capacity to clean its own house. This is the way into the confidence of the public.

ENDING EASY MONEY.

One of the reforms proposed by the new national budget system, endorsed by the chairman of the house appropriations committee, would root out one of the time-honored laxities in federal finance. This is the custom that has grown up of authorizing continuing or permanent appropriations for certain purposes, bureaus or departments. They usually covered fixed activities, such as the continuance of programs carried on from year to year until completed.

Originally urged by administrative officials in the fear that congressional failure to appropriate each year might halt the work, they have been expanded to a custom that meant the appropriation of certain sums almost without investigation, just as a matter of routine.

This species of "easy money" invited abuse, careless spending and extravagance. Chairman Madden and Mr. Dawes have concluded to stop the practice. Hereafter each department will have to carry all its expenditures where they can be reviewed and investigated annually and must be before the appropriations are authorized.

The assurance of this annual overhauling will check any tendency to waste and demand that the need be expressly proved.

IMMIGRANTS' COMPLAINTS.

It comes somewhat as a shock, in view of the fact that little has been said in regard to it heretofore in this country, to find the British house of commons discussing with bitterness the complaints of British subjects that they have been subjected to hardship and indignity by American officials at Ellis Island on attempting to gain admission to the United States. Cecil Harmsworth, under-secretary of foreign affairs, speaking of the matter in parliament, declared that in the distressing accounts received of the conditions under which British subjects had been compelled to live at the immigration station were based on truth the strongest complaints to the United States government would be justified.

This is a serious matter and one to which the federal authorities should at once give their attention. If the complaints are unfounded they should be disproved without further delay. If it is true that immigrants have been ill treated and forced to remain for some time amid filthy surroundings, as charged, there should be a prompt remedying of the situation. It is just such incidents as these that frequently cause ill feeling to develop between nations.

"THANK YOU."

Postmaster General Hays is circulating throughout the service a communication from a patron of the New York office commending an employee who said "Thank you" in connection with the purchase of a two-cent stamp. The patron does not mention whether he himself said "Thank you" when he received the stamp, but he seems to have been overwhelmed by what should be a common act of courtesy.

A magazine writer recently characterized the metropolis as the "most ill-mannered city in the world." Perhaps he had just returned to the city of hustle from a trip to the lands across the sea, where, as one has said, the people "take time to be polite." Certainly the contrast between public manners in London and Paris and in New York has been noted by many of our most patriotic citizens after a brief stay abroad. The first not unpleasant shock sustained by the American visitor to London is when he hears the omnibus conductor say "Thank you" for each fare received. To be sure, from constant repetition and its inevitableness it comes to have a rather perfunctory sound, but it is pleasant nevertheless. He is surprised, too, to note the same courtesy from the waiters in even the cheaper restaurants and indeed from most persons who render him a service. They seem to thank him for the opportunity until, not to be outdone in politeness, he feels like responding "Don't mention it."

Of what use are these formal, time-wasting courtesies in a purely business transaction where there is no obligation on either side, some may ask. But these little acts of politeness do add a beauty and flavor to the dullness of ordinary existence that many persons welcome. However, courtesy should not be one-sided. A good deal of the rudeness on the part of those occupying positions where they come in contact with the general public may be merely paying it back in its own coin. Competition to see which can be first in saying "Thank you" would remove many a cause of friction.

SIMPLE PRAYER BEST.

In these days when it is not uncommon to hear a minister praised because of his "beautiful prayers," by "beautiful" being meant ornateness of phraseology, it is refreshing and timely that a clergyman has seen fit to declare that simple prayers, like that taught by the Founder of Christianity, are best.

Prayers hardly are a fit subject for studied oratory. Those that come from the heart not infrequently are marked by unconscious eloquence. But it is contrary to the spirit of Christianity that one should compose supplications to the Almighty with regard rather to what men will think of them than to how the deity will view them. And it is to be feared that it is the effect on the congregation rather than the effect on God which is in the minds of the authors of some of these elaborate prayers against which we are warned. Moreover, the effect of such prayers on the congregation is likely to be other than what the minister intended; for the very complexity of the language may divert the listeners' thoughts from God to the orator.

Christians have been counseled by the Supreme Authority on such matters not to pray ostentatiously, as the hypocrites do, "that they may be seen of men," but to address God in the simple, earnest way in which a child would present a plea to his father. And it would seem that that advice was intended to apply to public prayers as well as to those spoken in the secrecy of the closet.

VERSE OF TODAY

THE SPIRIT OF THE LEAVES.

Lemon-sold in the west
Behind the dun hill's crest.
And the sound of a voice that grieves
(Spirit of Fallen Leaves)
Sobbing—sobbing away
The ashen hours of day.

Will it ever come again
After joy-lit rising clear—
Youth and the joyous year?
(Hark, how she grieves and grieves,
Spirit of Fallen Leaves!)

Yea, for you know (and I)
Of the divinity
Of a sweep of mild May sky
Over us wide and high,
And a voice that laughs—not grieves—
Spirit of Opening Leaves!

EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

THE TRIUMPH OF THE COMMON MAN.

(From the London Graphic.)

The historic visit of General Pershing to lay the Congressional Medal of Honor on the tomb of the Unknown Warrior in Westminster Abbey, coinciding as it did with the poignancy of the unemployment problem, serves to remind us that the great war, more than any other war in history, meant the triumph of the common man and of his right to live. That is the most ironic feature of the war, for the whole purpose of its begotten was to trample the common man into a mere fraction among massed battalions and to blot the little nation out of existence.

Exactly the reverse has taken place, for today it is the poorest, the most unknown men, in the persons of the unemployed, who are absorbing the attention of statesmen, while the presence of the Sinn Fein ambassadors at Downing street stands for the triumph of clamant nationality, however much we may deplore it.

How different it all was at Nelson's death, which we are recalling today. So far from remembering all the men in his fleet at Trafalgar, it would be difficult to recall the names of all the crew on board the Victory when he died. Hardy we know, and some of his captains, but what of the ratings? The truth, of course, is that the common man has made up his mind that if he is to be commended for war the community must pay for it, if only in memory of him; for while it was the superman who was to rule the world, it is the Unknown Warrior who has touched our imagination. The Unknown Warrior lies in the Abbey and in the Pantheon, besides Napoleon himself, while the memory of those who were known are graven in imperishable stone on every country road, in every sort of sanctuary from Land's End to John o' Groat's. The practical bearing on actual politics is far-reaching.

THE FIRST ROUND WITH THE PHILISTINE GIANT

RIPPLING RHYMES

By WALT MASON.

SIGNS OF WINTER.

The trees stand naked in the woods, their leaves beneath them lying, and to the warmer neighborhoods the honking geese are flying. And I must quit my book and lay and occupations sweeten, and dig up miles of rusty wire, and wrestle with a heater. The skies are gloomy overhead, with swarthy clouds careering and all the goose-bone seems have said that stormy days are nearing. I wish the summer days were back, the sunny days and pleasing, for I must go and bank the shack, to keep the spuds from freezing. And I must take some liquid gold, you're a frost, and the roof together; oh, there are many things to do before the wintry weather. The frost falls white, the cold winds rant, and I am most dejected; for everything reminds my aunt of something I've neglected. "Now, go you forth," she cries, "with haste, ere snow is falling thickly; the cabbageheads will go to waste, unless they're garnered quickly. You haven't brought the popcorn in, the pumpkin vines are wilting, and you continue, with a grin, your everlasting lulling." And now I take my slender rod I've been so long in earning, and buy about a peck of coal to keep the home fires burning. The balmy days are gone and lost, still is the woodland chorus; oh, winter, winter, you're a frost, and you are all before us!

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS ABOUT YOUR AUTOMOBILE

Question: In a water-cooled engine, what is the trouble when the engine is overheated and the radiator remains cold?

Answer: This indicates a stoppage in the water connections between the engine and radiator, or a broken pump. The pump shaft is usually made in two pieces, held together by a pin, so that if the pump is obstructed that pin will shear off, thus preventing the blades of the pump from being damaged. Failure of the pump may be due to this pin having sheared off. If the water circulating system appears to be all right, the trouble may be caused by the fan belt slipping.

Question: What is the proper clearance between the valve stem and the valve tappets when the valves have been replaced after grinding?

Answer: The proper clearance varies with different engines, but usually ranges between four thousandths and eight thousandths of an inch. The clearance should be checked, of course, with the valve closed and the tappet all the way down, a sheet of paper or a card being used to test the clearance.

Question: A discarded battery can be made to operate the starter in a relatively short time by these new battery dopes. It will be strong for a few days, and then lose strength very quickly. Please explain how these solutions work.

Answer: Some of the so-called battery "rejuvenators" do renew the ability of a battery to start the engine in a short time. However, most of them operate by removing the outer layer of lead sulphate from the discharge plate and exposing a fresh surface of active compounds. The material which is taken off is forever lost and naturally the life of the battery is greatly shortened. In recharging a battery with a current of electricity, the way that is recommended by practically all battery manufacturers, this lead sulphate is reconverted to active material and is retained for further work. Avoid battery renewers if you want to get the longest possible life from your battery.

Question: How can a person fill the vacuum feed tank on a car when it has failed to refill?

Answer: Some cars have a vacuum pump on the dash for this purpose. When a pump is not provided, close the throttle, choke the carburetor and turn the engine over a few revolutions with the starter. If this does not fill the tank, sediment or dirt may have lodged on the air inlet and prevent it from closing.

Beware of a Persistent Cold.
When a cold hangs on week after week or when you contract a fresh cold before you are over the first one, there is great danger of some germ disease getting a start in your system. The average consumptive will tell you that "I had a hard cold last winter that was followed by a bad cough that I have not been able to get rid of," or something to that effect. Why take the chances of such a result when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds may be had for a trifle?

Bread is the most essential part of any lunch. But our bread should be the mainstay of your little daughter's lunch, because you realize the wholesomeness, the pureness and deliciousness that combines to make our bread. This realization should lead you to believe that sandwiches made of our bread are ideal.

Las Vegas

Tuesday evening the Woman's club of the city gave a brilliant reception for the teachers of the schools of Greater Las Vegas. The affair was held in the home of the Elks' club. Members of the Elks, the Rotary, the Kiwanis and the Commercial club were invited to attend. The reception was held in the lower hall and first floor of the home, while later during the evening the guests were taken to the second floor where a dance was in progress for those desiring to trip the light fantastic.

The Kiwanis club held its weekly luncheon Wednesday. Most of the members of the club were present. The attendance prize was won by Henry Blattman was won by David Rosenwald; a box of cigars, Dr. Tracy and Cecil McGlynn entertained the men during the hour.

The bazaar given by the ladies of the Immaculate Conception church during the past week proved to be a big success socially and financially. Each evening an entertainment was given after which dancing was enjoyed till shortly after 12 o'clock. Mrs. C. Nolan was general chairman of the bazaar, while a number of ladies of the parish church were assistants. Pretty booths were handled by the ladies and many lovely Christmas presents were bought there. Spanish dishes served in the refreshment booth during each evening were a delight to those more familiar with the dishes, while home-made candy, sandwiches, cakes, coffee and so on pleased the others. Among those who so delightfully entertained the audiences each evening were Mrs. Frank Strass, Nellie Parnell, Ida Harper, Charles Shank, Mrs. Stuart Seelye, Cecil R. McGlynn, Lucile Condon, the Little Groth girls, G. H. Kanady, Leslie Dean, Dr. Henry, the Normal chorus, Mrs. Colbert C. Root. All of these people appeared in solo or chorus in the refreshment booth during the bazaar.

Mrs. C. S. Loser entertained the members of her bridge club Saturday afternoon. An extra table was invited in compliment to Mrs. Bell Bacharach, who is to leave soon for Arizona, where she will make her home.

Mrs. W. G. Haydon was hostess Friday afternoon to a number of her friends. The afternoon was spent in playing bridge.

A number of the teachers of the Normal and the city schools left Saturday and several left today for Albuquerque, where they will attend the teachers' association convention which will be held there for three days.

Mr. and Mrs. John McNierney will leave next Wednesday for Santa Fe, where Mr. McNierney will be initiated in the fourth degree of the Knights of Columbus. George Herman, Bill McNierney, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Acton, Wild Trainor, Clifford Trainor, Mr. Carvill and C. C. Roberts are among those who will go to Santa Fe during the week for the exemplification of the fourth degree work of the Knights of Columbus.

The firemen of East Las Vegas are planning for their big annual masquerade dance to be held in the opera house on the 6th of December. Their prize list is better than ever and preparations are under way for a bigger and better affair than ever before.

A card party was given Saturday afternoon at the opera house in connection with the bazaar. About one hundred ladies were present to play five hundred and bridge. Mrs. Manzanera, Mrs. Jose Baca, Mrs. S. A. Clements and Mrs. Colbert C. Root had charge of the affair. They were assisted by twenty ladies, who acted as hostesses, and a number of young girls who assisted. During the afternoon Mrs. Katie Stapp played, as did Mrs. Muir, while Philip Delgado sang accompanied by Mrs. Root. The affair was most enjoyable.

Mrs. Helen Kelly has returned from Kansas City, where she went to attend the festivities of the American Legion.

Manuel Henriquez and Perry Eriksen have returned from their hunting trip near Fort Sumner. They were gone for several weeks.

E. Rosenwald and Son of this city showed their appreciation of the splendid work of the firemen of both the east side and the west side during the fire which recently completely destroyed their warehouse and threatened the main building by presenting both departments with a check for $100 each. The gift was most acceptable to the departments as they are self-supporting.

Dr. F. H. Crail has been named a member of the board of directors of the Mutual Improvement company to take the place of the late R. J. Taupert.

W. G. Rives and Miss Aileen Laird returned to their homes in Raton. They had been here to attend the funeral of Mr. R. J. Taupert.

Mrs. Charles J. Day has returned from Denver, where she was visiting her mother.

Miss Laura Crawford, who was seriously injured in the auto accident in which Lloyd Cooke was killed, is improving slowly.

W. H. Day, interstate secretary of the Y. M. C. A., was here during the past week to make arrangements for the New Mexico annual boys conference to be held here soon. Mr. Day's headquarters is in El Paso.

Word has been received in the city of the marriage of Mrs. Anna Simson to L. J. Pauley of Missouri. Mrs. Pauley was a favorite dance player here several years ago.

Lee Devine and Herbert Raynolds of Watrous expect to go to Santa Fe during the week to attend the big K. of C. affair.

HOT SPRINGS

The recent election on the question of establishing the county high school in Hillboro resulted in favor of such establishing the school. The vote stood 555 for and 281 against, a total of 836 votes cast. The total in this election is small compared with the total for governor last year, which was 1,313, or with the vote for congressman, which was 1,531.

Many friends of Hilmer E. James are glad to welcome him back from under a specialist's care and treatment, which resulted in a full restoration of sight to one eye. He returned last week very much improved in general health.

The cemetery on the east side has been greatly improved by being put under a neat woven wire fence.

The large Catholic church on Date street is not yet completed, but will be a handsome and commodious structure when finished. Among the buildings now in course of construction in town are: Snyder's new bungalow on Petain street and on Petain street; the two-story cement block business houses of Frank T. Baca and B. Jones on Main street; rooming house of Pink Davis on East Main street, and the rooming house of E. Bacchus on Petain street.

The village trustees recently passed an ordinance ordering all obstructions removed from the streets, alleys and parks before January 1. The occupants of lots on West Main street entered into an agreement, the north side with the government survey, providing that the occupants on the south side move and leave 50 feet for street purposes and the occupants on the north remain unmoved but to pay the proportionate part of expenses of moving back. Some delay in moving has been caused by certain parts of this agreement.

Senator Bureau, a few days ago, telegraphed Mrs. Nora Keith that she had been appointed postmaster for this place.

Dr. Steele, county health officer, lately notified some of the residents of the town to remove from their premises some of the nuisances of which their neighbors had been complaining.

Notices were posted asking for bids on furnishing a suitable building for postoffice use here, but it is believed that no bids were placed for consideration by the department. An up-to-date office room, adapted to the needs of the postoffice, in a central part of the town, was asked for, with no responses. This is a third-class office, and is a distributing point for routes to Las Palomas, Caballo and Arroyo, and to Cuchillo, Fairview and Chloride.

Some excitement in town was caused by the discovery of placer gold fields near the Cornwell ranch, now the property of R. J. Pankey, about forty miles north west of town. Many people went out from here to locate claims. W. A. Henley and sons have been working for quite a long time in that vicinity. Gold may be panned in almost any place in that part of the San Mateo mountains passing through to the west side of the range it is said, but nothing further has been discovered.

Mrs. Jean Barka, of the Hillboro public school, has lately exchanged positions with George Latham, principal of the Las Palomas public school. Each are now busy in their new positions.

The Animas game refuge, north-west of town, is now posted and all hunting therein is prohibited. Yellow-parkers of the forest service warn the hunter to keep off. Our citizens are glad that efforts are being made to preserve the wild animals.

John Oraker, who owns a string of hotels in the northern part of the state and in southern Colorado, will begin the erection of a hotel building here, on the corner of Foch and McAdoo streets, where he has two lots.

Jose Garcia, one of the substantial citizens of St. Johns, Ariz., and his sister, Mrs. M. Duran, with her son, Fred Duran, and his wife, spent several weeks here for the benefit of the two ladies' health. They left last week for visits with relatives in San Marcial, Socorro, Magdalena, Albuquerque and Gallup before returning home. In this part of the country, while a young man, Mr. Garcia, known to his many friends as "Chimayo," learned the livestock business.

A. F. Witsel, of the Hot Springs bathing works, is now in El Paso attending to some business matters. Mrs. Witsel accompanied him on the trip.

Four bath houses are now operating here, giving a variety of baths so that the afflicted may have a choice of bath for the special case.

Some one has suggested that the town needs better school buildings, better roads leading into it, and better methods of advertising the cure which these waters are capable of effecting. These are among the things needed, doubtless, and they will be secured shortly as business over the country proceeds to normal once more.

The rivalry between Hot Springs and Hillsboro, over state highway construction, has been turned into a healthy co-operative work, to secure for both towns all that can be obtained at the present time for the good of both.

At a picnic recently held at the mouth of Animas creek with the Rio Grande a working program was determined upon whereby everybody could work for the common good. And the recent visit of Governor Mechem to this vicinity resulted in help toward sound co-operative work.

STATE COLLEGE

(Las Cruces.) Dean John H. Vaughan, of the New Mexico State college, left on Thursday morning for Albuquerque, where he will attend the meeting of the teachers of New Mexico to be held there this week.

Norman S. Hodgland of Mesilla Park, a student at the college, has been ill and confined to his home for the past week.

The home economics club of the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts met Wednesday evening in Hadley hall and entertained the mothers of the club. A few members of the faculty and faculty wives attended.

The Y. W. C. A. of the college met in the gymnasium Thursday and had a very interesting meeting. Miss Effie Bell gave a talk on marriage and courtship in Japan.

Mrs. A. B. Sazo entertained a number of the community ladies at an afternoon tea at her home on College row Thursday afternoon. A very enjoyable time was had and refreshments were served.

Normal University

(Las Vegas.)

Two additions have recently been made to the Normal faculty. Miss Mary R. Tobey of Pueblo, Colo., has taken over the work of Miss May Rees in the training school, while Miss Rees is now teaching Spanish during the absence of Miss Marie Sena, who has been ill for some time. It is not thought likely that Miss Sena will be able to return for some time. Dr. David Bronstein, the recently elected Jewish rabbi for the Temple Montefiore in Las Vegas, has been employed for a special course in philosophy. Dr. Bronstein is an unusually valuable addition to the faculty. He will in all probability also teach history of education.

The Normal university will not close for the State Teachers' association, but will send a number of representatives who will appear on various programs. The rush of actual school work and the pressing need of out-of-town students to use every day of their stay here to the best advantage make a whole week's vacation an unwise thing at this time. However, President Wagner has arranged that the Normal shall be well represented at Albuquerque. Dean Carroon, Miss Birdie Adams, Miss Jeanette Inches, Miss Ethel Farrell, Charles E. Shank, Mr. McGlynn, Clark R. Persinger and Miss Ida Harper and Miss Selma Sizer will attend.

Term examinations will be conducted Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and school will be closed Thursday and Friday, opening with registration for the new term the following Monday.

Basketball, both for boys and girls, will be on deck very soon now. Normal and its already ready-made numbers about 20 players with first team possibilities, and Coach Miller expects at least that many out for the boys' team. A near future. Both teams will, of course, be wholly of high school rank, though it is possible that a college team may also be organized for local games.

Normal students have been active in the past few weeks as outside entertainers. Merilee Howe delivered an original reading on Armistice Day before the Woman's Civic league; Miss Viola Prackett sang a solo for the Armistice Day exercises at the Elks club; Miss Brackett and Miss Selma Sizer appeared in a duet at the Y. M. C. A. "show" entertainment where the Mr. Jenkins Melikian also presented a one-act play, "S. pressed Buttons." Miss Brackett and Sizer sang at a recent Kiwanis club dinner and composed a song especially for the Kiwanis; Miss Harper sang a duet and solo; and Mr. McGlynn sang a solo at the Catholic bazaar last week.

The Woman's club and the Rotarians were hosts at a pleasant reception and dance at the Elks' club Tuesday evening. Many Normal students and teachers attended.

Chapel Tuesday morning consisted of a splendid musical program in which the following took part: Misses Ida Harper, Viola Brackett, Selma Sizer, Dr. Henry.

McGlynn, Felipe Delgado and Charles E. Shank. The weekly chapels are proving especially interesting and valuable under President Wagner's plan of prepared programs on each occasion.

Miss Alleyene Crawford, with her mother and sister, left for her home in Oklahoma last Thursday, called home by the illness of her father. Miss Crawford was one of Normal's most popular students. Misses Irene Gake and Billie M. Cargo, victims of the recent accident at Romeroville crossing, are sufficiently recovered to be up and about. Miss Laura Crawford is now out of danger, but is still in St. Anthony's and is suffering considerably.

RATON

At a regular meeting of the Knights of Columbus held in K. P. hall Tuesday night, the following officers were installed: Grand Knight, John T. Murphy; deputy grand knight, Ernest Brunelli; chancellor, James J. Connelly; recorder, Joseph J. Jacques; financial secretary, L. J. Walsh; treasurer, Frank Gamm; judge advocate, W. R. Holly; warden, W. G. Walsh; inner guard, Tom Murphy; outer guard, August Slinco; trustee, Thomas McBrider; chaplain, Father Roger Aull. Timothy F. Murphy acted as district deputy installing officer. After the ceremonies a smoker and general good time was held.

Mrs. M. H. Stowe entertained at a bridge luncheon at the Elks' club Thursday afternoon, the luncheon commencing at 1 o'clock. About sixty guests were present. The color scheme was black and gold. A three-course luncheon was served.

The tax rates for Colfax county have just been received, according to the assessor's office. State taxes in this county will be an even $5 per thousand; general county taxes, $19.50; city of Raton, $19.50; and school district No. 11, $32.41-1-2. State and general county taxes amount to $24.69, an increase over last year of $1.69 per thousand. Total taxes per thousand, in the city of Raton, will amount to $41.43-1-2.

Mrs. J. T. Conway entertained a few women friends Wednesday afternoon in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. H. Hudson.

R. F. McQuillan and Walter Moore returned Wednesday from several days spent in Denver, where they went with a shipment of cattle. They report the Denver market was on account of excess supplies, as many as 11,000 cattle being received there in a single day.

The Hesperiian Literary club met with Mrs. A. H. Dardano on Tuesday afternoon. Roll call was answered by a discussion by all members on "Cities of the U. S." which was very interesting. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Parent-Teachers association met Wednesday afternoon in the high school auditorium. M. P. Roseberry, Julius Kuhnert, Miss Gertrude Norman and Mrs. Whitcomb addressed the meeting. The president, Mrs. Rufus H. Carter, made several announcements. Four delegates were elected to attend the state meeting at Albuquerque.

BELEN

Mrs. Cooley and grandson of Mesilla Park are guests of the C. P. Riley and K. A. Riley families.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wellman, Mrs. and Mrs. J. F. Linn, Carl Lindberg, Nelson Buckland and Miss Reynolds were Belenites who attended the Shrine activities in Albuquerque on Monday.

Sam Lewis and Mr. Norton took in the Scottish Rite performances at Santa Fe last week.

Mrs. Madeline John Becker, Jr., Hugh Wetmore and B. C. Becker spent Wednesday in Albuquerque.

Roy Buckland and Waite Keeney are spending three weeks in the Black Range country beyond Magdalena in search of big game.

The three Becker brothers, John, Jr., Louis and Ben, left Friday for a week's hunting trip in the Manzano mountains beyond Abajo.

J. E. Emonds and son, J. B. Emonds, left on Thursday for a ten-day hunting trip in the Mountaineer country.

The Misses Manville and Ruth Thurman were week-end guests of Mesdames Frank Fletcher and John Becker, Jr., on their way to the teachers' convention at Albuquerque from Silver City, N. M.

Owing to a slight injury received in a football game recently, Rev. Calkins will not be able to fill the pulpit at the Methodist church today.

Jasmin Chapter, O. E. S., entertained on Wednesday evening Mrs. Gertrude Lee Dills, grand worthy matron, from Santa Fe. About forty members were present to participate in the affair and assist in disposing of the refreshments served later in the evening.

Mrs. John Becker, Jr., and Mrs. L. C. Becker entertained their Sunday school classes on Friday evening at the home of the former with a taffy pull and party. Needless to say the boys and girls had a delightful time.

Mrs. B. C. Becker and Miss Reynolds were joint hostesses on Saturday evening at a pleasant party at the home of Mrs. Becker. Twenty ladies were present. After an evening spent with several interesting games a delicious plate luncheon was served by the hostesses.

Mesdames M. H. Tate and R. D. Fidler entertained the Lutheran aid on Thursday afternoon at the Tate home. The Lutheran Ladies' aid will hold its annual bazaar on December 8.

Mrs. A. Stephenson was hostess to the Methodist aid on Wednesday afternoon. These ladies will meet at the social room in the church on Tuesday to tack a quilt.

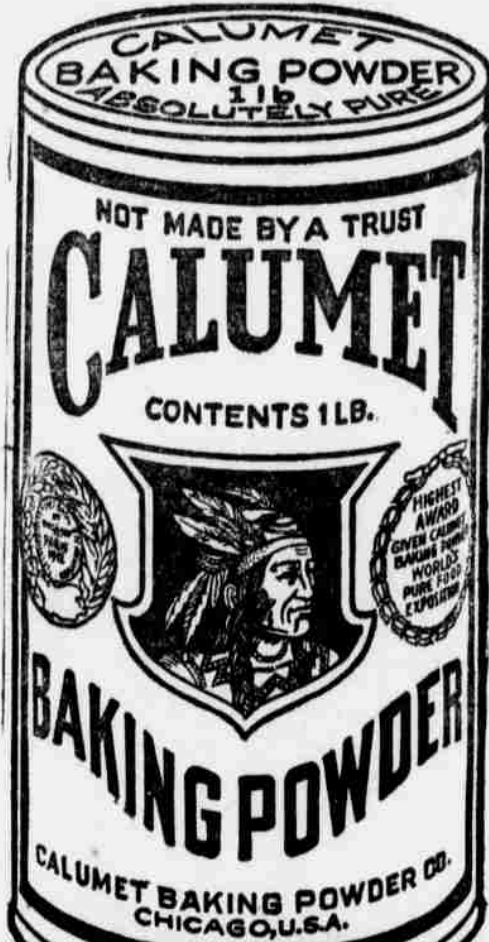

The ladies of the Episcopal Guild held a food and apron sale on Friday afternoon and realized a tidy sum for their treasury.

Belen teachers will attend the state teachers' convention at Albuquerque this week, so school is having a week's recess.

Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Cotton entertained at two dinner parties last week. The first was a quail dinner on Sunday evening when covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. P. Endles, Mr. and Mrs. B. Jacobson, and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Davis of Los Lunas. On Friday evening the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Abell, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sloan, and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Linn.

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

Test It Every Day Yourself—
Keep It On the Kitchen Shelf

It is the duty of every housewife to prepare and serve pure and wholesome food—at the most economical cost.

When you use Calumet you have no doubts—you know that it is pure in the can—pure in the baking.

Every ingredient used in the manufacture of Calumet is critically tested by expert analytical chemists. Every material must measure up to a definite standard of perfection.

After the various ingredients are combined it is again tested for purity—and last by skilled chefs, for baking quality.

Club members should keep in mind the fact that The Journal's Salesmanship Club campaign is a very short one. The "First Period" of the campaign—by far the most vitally important one of the whole event—is over December 7th.

Thus far more subscribers have voluntarily come into the office, paid their subscriptions and cast their credits for friends in the list of candidates than most of the club members themselves have brought in.

This should not be the case—in return for such mammoth gifts every club member should be willing to do their utmost in the short time that remains. Those who do put forth their best efforts certainly will be well repaid.

Wake up, club members—this is the time that subscriptions count the most. During this big credit period, get all the subscriptions you possibly can. This is the time to win the prize of your choice.

Wake up—time is flying fast—get busy!
