'THE TIME, THE PLACE' HAVE WE MEN?

The hour for Albuquerque has arrived. What happens between now and Monday night will decide the future of the city and will have an immediate effect upon the value of every piece of property in the town.

Will our men rally to the call for cooperation? Have they the capacity for team-work in city planning and city building? If they have, we will go forward with great strides in the next year. If they have not, "finis" is written on the growth of the city. If this rally fails, we will settle back at ease for years. If it succeeds, we will make it a habit.

Albuquerque is the best city between Kansas City and Los Angeles and between Denver and El Paso. An undeveloped empire is all about us. But man must uncover and develop the wealth which God has given us. There is no dearth of opportunity. The place for a great city center here.

The sole question is whether or not we have the men to utilize these things. There is no doubt about our having hundreds of potential city builders. But the next four days must develop them into active, militant doers. After a while will not do. It must be done now.

This is a responsibility which can not be shifted to the shoulders of another. It is your responsibility, gentle reader. It does not matter whether you are a worker in the shops, in the building crafts, in the stores, or in the offices. Your property and your future are at stake. You owe it to yourself and to your city to get in the game.

At nine o'clock this morning the drive for members in the Chamber of Commerce begins. It is your duty to become a worker in the drive, if you possibly can. If you can not, you must greet your solicitor cordially and subscribe quickly. He is working for you. There is no advantage to him which is not equally an advantage to you.

There are no plural memberships. Each man can take but one. Corporations are barred. This is a "grass-roots" proposition, with no special advantage to anyone.

An experiment is being made in democracy in city building. Help make it a success.

Make up your mind at this moment that you will do your full part.

FAR EAST ISSUE FOR DEBATE BY DELEGATES TO ARM CONFERENCE

China May Quit Parley If View Advanced by British Spokesman Is Finally Adopted.

COMMITTEE OF WHOLE MAY NOT ARGUE POINT

Delegation From England Has Not Officially Approved Utterance; Problem May Hold Over.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Nov. 24 (By The Associated Press.)—The Far Eastern negotiations, complicated by a disagreement over the meaning of the four general principles adopted again will become the live issue of the armament conference when it resumes work tomorrow.

How acute the divergence of views over application of the four principles might become was problematical tonight, but the Chinese seemed to regard it as a fundamental obstacle to a complete agreement regarding China.

Some Chinese officials even went so far as to say there would be nothing left for them but withdrawal from the conference should an interpretation advanced in British quarters receive full approval of the powers.

The opinion held with apparent unanimity by all the delegates concerned, however, was that the issue would be handled as to preclude such an impasse at present. It was pointed out that the views at which the Chinese took offense were delineated by a British spokesman outside the conference and so far have not had the formal endorsement of the British delegation. These views were briefly, that the open door policy defined by the four principles included Chinese acceptance of the open door and the principle of the operation of railway concessions, a combination which the Chinese declare would mean virtual "internationalization" of China.

It was uncertain tonight whether the subject would come before the nine delegations meeting tomorrow as a committee of the whole or the Chinese were said to feel they could not raise the point with propriety, because views attributed to the British never had been officially before the Far East committee.

The specific subject selected for discussion tomorrow is China's request for abolition of the system of "territorial rights" under which the foreign powers have set up their own courts within China to maintain cases in which their respective nationals are involved. All nations have indicated their "sympathetic interest" in the Chinese request, although it has been apparent that even some Chinese delegates do not believe the present condition of the Chinese courts would make the change immediately possible.

Among some delegates there was a belief that the cases of Shantung and Manchuria might also be reached tomorrow, bringing the delegates face to face with some of the most complicated questions of the negotiations.

Meanwhile, naval experts will continue work on details of the American reduction plan and the land armament negotiations will wait for the more pressing topics to be organized to begin investigation of such collateral issues as airplanes, poison gas and the rules of warfare, but if a comprehensive plan for land armament limitation is to be worked out, it will be in a later stage.

WILDCATS ROMP AT WILL OVER INSTITUTE BOYS

(By The Associated Press.) Tucson, Ariz., Nov. 24.—The University of Arizona football team captured the undisputed southwestern championship when they completely overcame the New Mexico Military Institute team here this afternoon, 110 to 0. At no stage of the game did the heavier New Mexicans show formidable opposition and in but few instances were they able to make their first downs. The Institute team was unable to withstand the powerful offensive of the Arizona backs who ran the ball at will in every play. Sponaker, Hobbs and Ma... of the Arizona team were the stars of the game.

Godfrey, of the visitors, saw a broken leg in the first quarter. Linsley, Arizona tackle, suffered a broken leg in the same period.

C. OF C. DRIVE FOR MEMBERS STARTS TODAY

Two Hundred Albuquerque Boosters to Parade Business Section at 9 A. M. This Morning.

(By The Associated Press.) Albuquerque, Nov. 24.—The Chamber of Commerce drive for membership is under way today. The drive, which has as its object the securing of 2,000 members for the chamber of commerce, will last three days, today, Saturday and Monday.

The 200 campaigners have been formed into 100 "buddy" teams. Each team will be responsible for a certain territory in the city. Headed by a hand, the teams will open the campaign by marching through the business section of the city. Col. D. K. B. Sellers will be in charge of the "step lively" demonstration.

Every Albuquerquean will be given an opportunity to become a member of the chamber of commerce during the three campaign days. The annual dues have been cut from $30 a year to $12. The committee in charge of the rejuvenation of the chamber has decided that the Albuquerque chamber of commerce is for all Albuquerqueans and that all members should have the same membership and voting power. Plural memberships have been done away with and with them the privilege of electing a representative to the chamber has been taken to the point where every Albuquerquean who is interested in the growth and development of the city and New Mexico can afford to belong and take an active part in the chamber business.

The plans for rejuvenating the chamber have been decided upon at several mass meetings of Albuquerque business men and has been carefully worked out by a committee selected by Sidney Well, who was unanimously chosen rejuvenation director.

All of the teams will meet at the Y. M. C. A. building at 12:15 o'clock today and Saturday, where a buffet luncheon will be served and reports and general plans discussed. There will also be a meeting Monday noon, but it has not been definitely decided where it will be held.

CHICAGOAN KILLED.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Nicola Alamo was killed tonight by three men who drew revolvers and fired as he started to enter his home. Police believe his death marks a recurrence of the Nineteenth ward political feud in which more than a dozen persons have been killed.

TWO KILLED IN BELFAST RIOT; MANY INJURED

(By The Associated Press.) Belfast, Nov. 24 (By The Associated Press.)—Two persons were killed outright and eight were wounded when a bomb exploded this evening in a tramcar carrying a load of ship workers on their way to work. Throughout the day the city, which has been the scene of several outbreaks of bombing and shooting within the last three days, had been comparatively quiet.

Tonight two other tramcars were bombed, three persons being killed and a number seriously injured. This brings the number of deaths to twenty-five. Both the tram cars were loaded with ship workers.

William Smallwood, supposed to have been responsible for one of the bombs was arrested by troops but he has protested his innocence. The crowd made desperate efforts to reach him. His home is in the Ship Fein quarter.

Five shots were fired in a grocery store tonight, killing the proprietor and a customer.

CHINESE ISSUE LIKELY TO MEAN SPECIAL COUNCIL

New International Organ to Interpret and Execute Agreement Is Sent Possibility.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Nov. 24.—Looking toward a unanimous agreement among the eight powers respecting the unrestricted future of China, there is some speculation among members of the delegations as to how the terms of the armament agreement subject to approval by the respective governments might be best realized. The final convention or understanding is expected to contain some stipulations in detail, respecting tariff questions, the pooling of the operation of railway concessions, and other subjects. For this reason considerable informal inquiry has been made as to what sort of supervision could be set up to carry out the agreements and harmonize varying interpretations.

In this connection the question frequently is asked: Is all the after work of the conference to be done by notes and telegrams among the nine participating governments, including China, or is a new international organ to be created to observe, interpret and execute the agreement subject to approval by the respective members' governments?

The favorite suggestion, especially among minor members of the French delegation, is that an ambassadorial council might be designated, made up of the ambassadors and ministers to deal with Chinese matters in the same way the ambassadors' council in Paris disposed of questions arising out of the treaty of Versailles, not of sufficient importance to bring before a supreme council.

The council in Paris is a semi-permanent body, which usually meets once or twice a week some times more often, to take up current questions. Its decisions must be in accord with the policies of the various foreign offices. The ambassadorial taking part has the advantage of being able to discuss at a single sitting the position of the several governments without the long delays and more formal discussion by written notes and dispatches.

Another suggestion expressed quite informally in one British quarter was the possibility of the various foreign offices. The ambassadorial taking part has the advantage of being able to discuss at a single sitting the position of the several governments without the long delays and more formal discussion by written notes and dispatches.

YELLOWSTONE PARK VISITED BY 81,561 PEOPLE LAST SEASON

(By The Associated Press.) Yellowstone National Park, Wyo., Nov. 24.—The department of the interior, national park service, reports that 81,561 people visited the Yellowstone national park during the tourist season just closed.

The outstanding feature of the American tourist travel during the summer was the increase of 2,158 automobiles carrying 7,634 passengers.

Fully anticipating the tremendous growth in automobile touring the national park service was prepared to direct, in the interest of safety, the stream of motor cars as they toured the park highway and accidents were rare events.

A new approach road leading to the south entrance through the scenic Wind river valley and the Teton mountain region was opened in August and will probably be popular with park visitors. Also the Hoback canyon route leading to the Jackson Hole, thence to the south gateway was completed this year and will be ready for travel next season.

According to the report last visitors increased to 8,817 people under that of the record established during the 1920 season. The park officials attribute this decrease to higher rates and economic conditions of the country during the summer.

COLORADO UNIVERSITY BEATS MINERS 10-7 BEFORE 10,000 PEOPLE

Denver, Colo., Nov. 24.—The University of Colorado won from the Colorado School of Mines in a hard fought contest here today, 10 to 7, finishing the Rocky mountain conference football season undefeated by a conference team. More than 10,000 persons saw the game.

Colorado came from behind and won the game in the last period. Willard shot a pass to Franklin and the latter plunged over the line for the Colorado's first touchdown. Three miners managed to touch the ball after it had left Willard's hands but were unable to stop it. Willard kicked goal. One minute later Quinlan kicked a field goal but he has protested his innocence. The crowd made desperate efforts to reach him. His home is in the Ship Fein quarter.

Five shots were fired in a grocery store tonight, killing the proprietor and a customer.

Will Fighting Airplane Take Place of Battleships in Future?

Workmen demonstrating strength of the "Alula" wings of the new British aerial destroyer (above); the plane in action and a view of the "Bristol Jupiter" engine used in the plane.

Now that the leading nations of the world have agreed to scrap the bulk of their navies, added importance attaches to the development of the airplane as a fighting machine. The British have just perfected a new aerial destroyer which, it is believed, outclasses anything of the sort ever before produced. It is capable of attaining a speed of 150 miles an hour, has climbed 3,000 feet in 22 seconds. Its engine, which develops 450 horse power, can be stowed into two feet breadth of space.

DUKE CITY HIGH CRUSHED BY EL PASO GRIDDERS

Pass City Eleven Piles Up 65 Points to Locals' None; Is Worst Beating in Recent Years.

(By The Associated Press.) El Paso, Texas, Nov. 24.—Albuquerque's high school football team wilted under the heavy charge of the El Paso high school Tigers here this afternoon, and lost in their annual Thanksgiving day game, sixty-five to none.

El Paso completely outclassed the visiting players and in line plunging carried the Duke City players before them almost at will. The trick plays of the Tigers were also beyond the Duke City battlers. All in all, the Tigers had greater strength than the Duke City players. The score of today shows El Paso a far stronger eleven than Roswell high since Roswell won from Albuquerque last year by about half the margin in total score.

Al Unlig, of El Paso, was the outstanding star of the game today. The crack Tiger half back, working from the line, cut through the Albuquerque line and made three of the Tiger touchdowns.

Working the forward pass to keen advantage, the Tiger ends would skirt the line and immediately safety the stream of motor cars as they toured the park highway and accidents were rare events.

A new approach road leading to the south entrance through the scenic Wind river valley and the Teton mountain region was opened in August and will probably be popular with park visitors. Also the Hoback canyon route leading to the Jackson Hole, thence to the south gateway was completed this year and will be ready for travel next season.

ARBUCKLE READY TO TAKE STAND IN MURDER CASE

Medical Expert Testimony to Be Continued; Trial Likely to Be Concluded Within Two Weeks.

(By The Associated Press.) San Francisco, Calif., Nov. 24.—Continuation of defense medical expert testimony is scheduled for tomorrow in the trial of Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle, on a charge of manslaughter growing out of the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress.

Alice Lake, motion picture star, and at least nine others under duress, are expected to be present from Los Angeles prepared to testify, but the defense has not actually indicated whether it will call Miss Lake.

The defense is endeavoring to prove the injuries which caused Miss Rappe's death did not result from the attack Arbuckle was alleged to have made on her in his room in the Hotel St. Francis, but may have been purely internal or spontaneous in character. One defense expert testified on Wednesday that, under certain conditions, the injuries could be caused by hysteria, intoxication or shock.

No decision has been reached as to whether Arbuckle shall take the stand. Gavin McNab, chief defense counsel, announced today the defense attorneys said Arbuckle was "extremely anxious" to testify, but the advisability of his doing so had not yet become apparent.

Counsel for both sides indicated that, at the present rate of progress the trial would be concluded within ten days or two weeks.

TULANE GIVES CENTRE ELEVEN STRONG BATTLE

(By The Associated Press.) New Orleans, La., Nov. 24.—Tulane university gave the famous center college team a real tussle for top score today. However, the baffling aerial attack of the Tulane backs and the Greenbackers emerged victorious 21 to 0.

Herbert Covington was the star with "Red" Roberts and Tanner also shining for Centre. The Greenbacks managed to stop the great "To" McMillin, although the brain work of the plucky Centre was a feature of the contest.

CORNELL'S BIG RED TEAM BESTS PENNSYLVANIA

(By The Associated Press.) Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 24.—Cornell's big red team came out of a six-year slump today and defeated Pennsylvania, 41 to 0. The Ithaca team, who had not crossed the red and blue goal line since 1915, overwhelmed the Pennsylvania eleven, scoring six touchdowns.

To Eddie Kaw, left half back on Cornell's unbeaten team, goes the bulk of the glory. Five times he crossed Pennsylvania's goal line, and time and again he made dazzling runs through the Quaker team.

The heavy rain made the field a marsh. The light Pennsylvania backs were unable to get started, and were frequently thrown for losses.

UTAH AGGIES DEFEAT UTAH AND WIN ROCKY MOUNTAIN GRID TITLE

(By The Associated Press.) Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 24.—The Utah Agricultural college of Logan today won the Rocky mountain conference football title by defeating the University of Utah team here in their annual Thanksgiving game, the score being 14 to 3.

The visitors clearly outplayed the Crimson. Logan backs made consistent gains through the Utah line. The precise motion selected by the government as expressive of its views and which obtained the vote, requested the government to exercise vigilance in the strict execution of Germany's engagements, to take every necessary measure abroad for the preservation of the guarantees of France's claims and not to demand new taxation before maximum results were obtained from existing taxes.

PROBE GERMAN ABILITY TO PAY BILL OF ALLIES

Representatives of Reparations Commission Are Collecting Data on Country's Financial Status.

(By The Associated Press.) Berlin, Nov. 24.—A vast mass of material on German raw materials, productivity, labor, wages and the country's financial status is being gathered by the members of the reparations commission, the sub-committee of the reparations commission now in Berlin.

Almost daily consultations are being held with various government officials as well as financial and industrial leaders as to the resources of Germany meeting her $100,000,000 gold installment to the allied powers on January 15, and in some of these conferences Roland W. Hayden and Col. James A. Logan, the unofficial American representatives, are having a part. The second of four installments, another $100,000,000 is due next April.

Currency Inflation. The commissioners are expected to remain here until December 1 when they will go back to Paris to report to the full reparations commission. One of the most important phases of their investigation has been currency inflation and the decline of the mark. It is interesting to note that since the reparations payments began last May the outstanding paper money circulation in Germany jumped from 69,724,403 marks to 91,347,161 marks for the week ending October 21.

A comparison with pre-war issues shows even more pronounced by the extent of inflation. For instance, in the week ending July 25, 1918, the paper money issue aggregated only 1,043,850,000 marks. The same week of 1913 it was 1,826,920,000 marks and in 1914 it was 1,850,825,000. The week of November 6, 1918, it had jumped to 7,545,560,000. The same week a year later it was 10,402,740,000 marks and two years later it had gone to 16,959,260,000. The week of May 24, 1920, it was 27,236,480,000 and the same week in 1920 it reached 42,127,549,000 marks.

Proposed Loan. A recent statement by Dr. Friedrich Rosen, former foreign minister, that the amount of German property sequestered in various countries is sufficient to meet her reparations obligations has been the subject of discussion. The reparations commission has also been looking into the possibility of a loan to Germany. Baron Anthony Rothschild of London and German bankers regard a proposed loan of $500,000,000, in 3 per cent thirty-year bonds with amortization provisions, as a possibility.

But do not suppose that the matter is ended there. A great deal of work remains. It is no use reducing armaments at sea if we are still to complete the piling up or accumulation of vast armaments on land.

"An example must not be set by one nation, or even by two or three. It must be followed in proportion to their position and their ability by all. It is not for Great Britain to accept or submit to sacrifices while others pass them by. Another condition is that we who are the greatest armaments makers see communications are the longest, who defend coasts infinitely longer and more exposed than any other empire, who are dependent for our daily existence as a nation on the command of the sea—if we are willing to reduce our naval strength, let not other powers be allowed to build up other engines or instruments of attack, either in the air or under the sea, which may render our sacrifices nugatory and which, so far from leaving us in the proud position of having set an example may leave us in the perilous position of having incurred an undue risk."

GRAVES UNMOLESTED FOR YEARS OPENED BY DYNAMITE BLAST

(By The Associated Press.) Los Angeles, Calif., Nov. 24.—Graves unmoled for years, according to scientists, were jarred to daylight at Torrance, near here, when a blast of 100 pounds of dynamite pushed into the air the fossil of an Antilope, a creature that was a treasure find, especially so for a group of California scientists who visited the lime pits which have given forth molar of the two. They found, they added, the tiger, the giant sloth and other peculiar inhabitants of the jungle which existed hereabout a half a million years or more before Los Angeles was thought of.

A whole mass of interesting discoveries was made in the debris of the explosion. Scientists accumulated the fossils, which are being throughout the state. Something of the size of these prehistoric monsters may be gleaned when it is known that a tooth just a tooth, measuring about fifteen inches across the top and is from eighteen to twenty-four inches long.

FRENCH DEPUTY CHAMBER BACKS MONEY PROGRAM

(By The Associated Press.) Paris, Nov. 24 (By The Associated Press.)—The chamber of deputies tonight by a vote of 347 to 150 gave its support to the government on its financial program.

Discussion of the financial situation began November 8 and closure was voted tonight by a show of hands, preventing further speeches. The precise motion selected by the government as expressive of its views and which obtained the vote, requested the government to exercise vigilance in the strict execution of Germany's engagements, to take every necessary measure abroad for the preservation of the guarantees of France's claims and not to demand new taxation before maximum results were obtained from existing taxes.

CURZON WARNS FRANCE NOT TO FRUSTRATE WORK OF ARM PARLEY

Declares That if French Pursue Isolated Policy, She Will Not Hurt Germany Nor Protect Self.

(By The Associated Press.) London, Nov. 24 (By The Associated Press.)—One of the most outspoken warnings addressed by the foreign minister of one nation to another friendly nation was delivered today by Marquis Curzon of Kedleston to France. The British foreign minister declared if France pursued an isolated and individual policy she would not in the long run injure Germany and would fail to protect herself.

The address was directed primarily to the Washington conference, but it was clearly an intimation to France to the effect that country's attitude toward disarmament. It also applied with equal force to the French policy in the near east.

"Peace will never be achieved," he said, "if any one power tries to steal a march on another and conclude an arrangement on its own account."

He reminded France that her safety lay in the confidence of the world.

He cautioned France that she could not succeed by a revengeful policy toward Germany or by pressure by isolated actions to frustrate the work at Washington.

The speech was remarkable for the expressed determination to bring Germany into the comity of nations and for its enunciation of Great Britain's desire to follow the world which succeeded the war.

Alluding to the new struggling nations, he said:

"We are largely responsible for the new nations that are now making their way. Therefore, it devolves on us to do our best to curb their rivalry, help their progress and make them instruments of future peace."

"Disarmament enters the field of practical politics where the definite limit is placed upon the size of navies of certain great powers," said Lord Curzon, "and still more when one of those powers answers Germany's challenge and begins in her case by stopping construction of ships commenced. It fell to the lot of the secretary of state of America to give the lead, and it fell to the lot of our representative Mr. Balfour to follow."

"But do not suppose that the matter is ended there. A great deal of work remains. It is no use reducing armaments at sea if we are still to complete the piling up or accumulation of vast armaments on land."

"An example must not be set by one nation, or even by two or three. It must be followed in proportion to their position and their ability by all. It is not for Great Britain to accept or submit to sacrifices while others pass them by. Another condition is that we who are the greatest armaments makers see communications are the longest, who defend coasts infinitely longer and more exposed than any other empire, who are dependent for our daily existence as a nation on the command of the sea—if we are willing to reduce our naval strength, let not other powers be allowed to build up other engines or instruments of attack, either in the air or under the sea, which may render our sacrifices nugatory and which, so far from leaving us in the proud position of having set an example may leave us in the perilous position of having incurred an undue risk."

AMERICANS SEEK TREATY ON NAVY CUT AGREEMENT

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Nov. 24 (By The Associated Press.)—Whatever may be the view in other official quarters, at least a part of the American arms delegation believes that any resulting agreement on naval armament should be put into the form of a treaty.

Since the negotiations began intimations have come from high officials that the probable outcome of the naval discussions would be merely an international "understanding," not requiring senate confirmation. It has been suggested that "understandings" as to policy are well within the province of executive and that the detail of scrapping ships could be accomplished by an executive order emanating from the same authority which enables the navy to rid itself without appealing to congress of vessels it considers no longer useful.

But an indication that opinion might now be turning rather toward the formal treaty plan developed today when it became known that there is in the American delegation a tendency to look on a treaty as the only logical instrument to carry out conference decisions. One or two delegates are said to have strong convictions on the point, and to be ready to advise that so important an agreement ought not to be left in the diplomatic mist of an "understanding." The decision, as far as the United States is considered, is expected to rest with President Harding. Although it is known that nothing is to be done of the opinion of his representatives.

COLORADO UNIVERSITY BEATS MINERS 10-7 BEFORE 10,000 PEOPLE

Denver, Colo., Nov. 24.—The University of Colorado won from the Colorado School of Mines in a hard fought contest here today, 10 to 7, finishing the Rocky mountain conference football season undefeated by a conference team. More than 10,000 persons saw the game.

Colorado came from behind and won the game in the last period. Willard shot a pass to Franklin and the latter plunged over the line for the Colorado's first touchdown. Three miners managed to touch the ball after it had left Willard's hands but were unable to stop it. Willard kicked goal. One minute later Quinlan kicked a field goal but he has protested his innocence. The crowd made desperate efforts to reach him. His home is in the Ship Fein quarter.

Five shots were fired in a grocery store tonight, killing the proprietor and a customer.

ARBUCKLE READY TO TAKE STAND IN MURDER CASE

Medical Expert Testimony to Be Continued; Trial Likely to Be Concluded Within Two Weeks.

(By The Associated Press.) San Francisco, Calif., Nov. 24.—Continuation of defense medical expert testimony is scheduled for tomorrow in the trial of Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle, on a charge of manslaughter growing out of the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress.

Alice Lake, motion picture star, and at least nine others under duress, are expected to be present from Los Angeles prepared to testify, but the defense has not actually indicated whether it will call Miss Lake.

The defense is endeavoring to prove the injuries which caused Miss Rappe's death did not result from the attack Arbuckle was alleged to have made on her in his room in the Hotel St. Francis, but may have been purely internal or spontaneous in character. One defense expert testified on Wednesday that, under certain conditions, the injuries could be caused by hysteria, intoxication or shock.

No decision has been reached as to whether Arbuckle shall take the stand. Gavin McNab, chief defense counsel, announced today the defense attorneys said Arbuckle was "extremely anxious" to testify, but the advisability of his doing so had not yet become apparent.

Counsel for both sides indicated that, at the present rate of progress the trial would be concluded within ten days or two weeks.

CORNELL'S BIG RED TEAM BESTS PENNSYLVANIA

(By The Associated Press.) Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 24.—Cornell's big red team came out of a six-year slump today and defeated Pennsylvania, 41 to 0. The Ithaca team, who had not crossed the red and blue goal line since 1915, overwhelmed the Pennsylvania eleven, scoring six touchdowns.

To Eddie Kaw, left half back on Cornell's unbeaten team, goes the bulk of the glory. Five times he crossed Pennsylvania's goal line, and time and again he made dazzling runs through the Quaker team.

The heavy rain made the field a marsh. The light Pennsylvania backs were unable to get started, and were frequently thrown for losses.

UTAH AGGIES DEFEAT UTAH AND WIN ROCKY MOUNTAIN GRID TITLE

(By The Associated Press.) Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 24.—The Utah Agricultural college of Logan today won the Rocky mountain conference football title by defeating the University of Utah team here in their annual Thanksgiving game, the score being 14 to 3.

The visitors clearly outplayed the Crimson. Logan backs made consistent gains through the Utah line. BRAND CLAIMS OLD GERMANY IS LYING IN WAIT Asserts That Disarmament of France Would End World Peace and Would Tempt Teutons.

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Nov. 24.—Disarmament of France would end world peace and would be a temptation for imperialistic Germany to come back into power, Premier Brand declared here tonight in a farewell address to the American people. France, he said, wanted peace and wanted to live on amicable terms with a democratic Germany. "But the former Germany has not disappeared," he asserted. "She is still lying in wait, still plotting, still trying to revive hopes of revenge. She is still keeping an army in certain form."

"How could you expect France to disarm in such a situation?" he asked. "If France was unable to defend herself, democratic Germany would be government and the old imperialistic Germany would come back into power. If she weakened herself, it would end the peace of the world. France has not the right to desert the cause of democracy and peace."

"France has been fighting not for her security alone," he added, "but she has been fighting in the service of the civilized world. France has no right to desert its own cause or the cause of peace. What she wishes to see is a Germany with which she can maintain noble relations. She is only too anxious to have her voice heard on the other side of the frontier."

"France is a nation that loves peace and hates war," he continued, "and if there is one nation that wishes to have war erased from the world, I have a right to say that that is my country. You will never see France provoke another war, or to try to begin another war. France has an army—if she has an army it is because she is obliged to have one to defend her life, her importance, her liberty and her dignity. France has an army which is ready to serve the cause of the world by protecting its peaceful and democratic order in whatever form they may present themselves."

Referring to the Washington conference, he declared, he considered it "the greatest honor of my political life" to be a member. Whatever resolutions may be made, he added, they will mark a milestone of progress on the road to peace.

Premier Brand praised the loyalty of Americans of German descent who fought in the American army in France. He mentioned specifically the thirty-second division which, he said, had been characterized by one of the greatest French generals as the "Tiger division" because of the ferocity of its attack.

He made a special appeal to those Americans who were linked by ties of blood with the people of the central powers and urged them to tell the German people that they had nothing to fear from France. France, he said, awaits any gesture of good will from Germany.

Calomel salivation is horrible. It swells the tongue, loosens the teeth and starts rheumatism. There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic—a perfect substitute for calomel. It is a pleasant vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it won't make you sick and can't salivate.

Calomel is a dangerous drug, besides it may make you feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Your doctor says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tonic acts better than treacherous calomel your money is waiting for you.

Harry Carpenter Tells How He Was Losing Weight, Strength and Energy Until He Used Garren's Tonic

Mr. Harry Carpenter, who lives at No. 1313 Larimer St., tells Burrell, the young easterner who is introducing Garren's Tonic here, how he obtained relief from the effects of a badly run down condition with only two bottles of his medicine. "My symptoms were similar to many others who were weak, nervous and run down. My appetite was poor and I never had any desire for food. I was badly constipated and was seldom free from splitting headaches and had to take laxatives continually. Consequently I became very weak and languid and my strength whatever and I would get so dizzy I often had to take hold of something to keep from falling. I took everything that was recommended to me in the way of medicine but got no relief and finally Germany. She will do everything in her power to eliminate the causes of war and to assure peaceful relations not only between France and Germany but in the whole world.

"Why don't you speak across the seas to those that belong to your former country? Why don't you tell them to meet us and to do everything to restore normal conditions? Tell them that, and you will have nothing to fear from France."

"That would be an effort certainly remarkable and would be worthy of doing, and certainly if I had been a citizen originally coming from Germany, and having succeeded in America, in the country of liberty, I should speak like that. And I am quite sure that if all those men of good will joined in our endeavors, the fear that weighs upon the world at the present time would be finally and determinedly dispelled."

"Gentlemen, France, as I said, is lying in wait for any gesture of good will on the part of Germany. It is only ready to encourage her and to reconcile her and to help the men of good will that want to make her a noble democracy. We shall do everything on our side and everything in our power in order to discourage and avoid the reasons of war and to insure peaceful relations, not only between us and Germany, but in the whole world."

HEARNE WINNER OF SPEED TEST AT LOS ANGELES

(By The Associated Press.)

Los Angeles, Calif., Nov. 24.—Eddie Hearne won today's annual 250-mile automobile race on the Beverly Hills speedway by Tommy Milton, who came in second, took the lead in the race for points toward the national championship. Milton nosed Roscoe Saries out of the national content lead when Saries was forced out of the race at the 134th lap.

Hearne's time was 2 hours, 16 minutes, 45 seconds. Frank Elliott was third, Jimmy Murphy fourth, Harry Hartz fifth and Eddie Miller sixth. Four of the thirteen drivers were forced out at various stages. The track was slippery from showers which fell intermittently in the first hour of the grind but the racers kept right along at a speed which averaged, so far as the leaders were concerned, from 110 to 112 miles an hour. At one period the management considered calling off the race because of the danger from the wet track. The drivers took the banked turns at a rate that caused gasps among the spectators but no one was hurt and not a car was damaged.

Immediately after the race an announcement was made that another sanctioned meet would be held at Cotati, Calif., December 11 and that 500 points would be awarded to the winner there, thus holding the award of the seasonal championship prize in abeyance until that time. Today's results gave Milton 1,970 points and the lead and Saries in second place with a total of 1,940 points.

STATEMENT ON WILLARD SCHOOL IS CORRECTED

"The news stories in both local papers yesterday regarding the Frances E. Willard school for girls credited the school with having seventy-five students in the school at present and eighty-five others in the school for next year. This statement was intended to apply to the Harwood girls' school here. The Frances E. Willard school of the W. C. T. U. was closed the last week in May until the school could be housed in a permanent building of its own, and as this building has not yet been erected or purchased, the school has not yet opened this fall. This statement is made correcting an unintentional ellipsis of the name—Harwood school in the news reports in order that no data regarding the Frances E. Willard school may be misleading to one desiring to sponsor the cause of the institution represented."

HOME NEAR SHOPS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Fire which may possibly have been of incendiary origin completely gutted the home of Mrs. Chona Gabaldon, 516 East 1st street, shortly after midnight last night. The damage was estimated at about $1,500, none of it covered by insurance.

The fire started in the kitchen, a frame addition to the adobe house. Mrs. Gabaldon stated that there had been no fire in the stove since early in the evening. She declares that she heard footstep on the front porch a short time before the fire was discovered, and that she later heard some one walk around to the rear of the kitchen.

The house was already completely in flames when the fire department arrived, the alarm having been sent in from the Santa Fe shops by mistake so that it was necessary to drive back to the viaduct to reach the scene.

SUB CHOSEN CAPTAIN OF COLORADO ELEVEN

(By The Associated Press.)
Denver, Colo., Nov. 24.—Delbert Jack, substitute full back on the University of Colorado football eleven this season, was elected captain of the Silver and Gold team for next year at a meeting held here tonight after the game with the Colorado School of Mines.

Jack, one of the strongest substitutes on the Colorado team, has been used in nearly every big game played by the team this season. This is his third year at the university.

The fact that Fuleham, this season's captain, was a full back, has prevented Jack from showing to his best advantage this year.

Jack formerly starred on the Florence, Colo., high school team.

LOBOS WIN OVER AGGIES BY SIX POINT MARGIN, GRABBING VICTORY IN CLOSING MINUTES

Aerial Attack, Failure for Both Teams Through Most of Game, Finally Turns Trick; Calkins and Jones Star for Varsity; Mason Shines for Down-Staters.

By the narrow margin of six points, secured in the closing minutes of play yesterday afternoon, the University of New Mexico Lobos triumphed over the Aggies from the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts, thereby winning the state gridiron title.

It was as clean and hard-fought a contest as local followers of the fall sport can remember. For the first three quarters and most of the fourth, the two teams surged back and forth across the field, both trying the aerial attack with little success and the Lobos occasionally crippling the visitors' line for a fair yardage.

Then in the last ten minutes of play, the local gridder induced Lady Fortune to look their way. An intercepted pass forced the ball in Aggie territory. Punched and a long run carried it within the 20-yard mark. Two more punches placed it within nine yards of the goal. The Aggies were off-side and the ball was placed within four yards of the goal line.

The Lobos flung themselves toward the goal without result. Jones decided that the Aggie line was going to hold. He called for a pass which Blaine White captured and a touchdown had been achieved.

The game was slow up to the last quarter. Calkins played a dashing game throughout and Jones ripped off some good runs. Mason, Aggie quarterback, apparently outwitted him, however, aided by the strong work of Boykin.

Boykin's punting was not good in the first half, but during the last, he rounded into form and secured good distance. Calkins, who did some booting, also showed to advantage.

The Lobo line was the stronger and frequently broke up Aggie passes. The Aggies depended chiefly upon the aerial attack and put across several for good gains.

First Quarter.
The Aggies won the toss and Boykin kicked off to Jones on New Mexico's 20-yard line. Jones brought the ball back to the 35-yard line. Wilfley was sent through left tackle with a two-yard gain. Jones tried to crack the same spot but made no gain. Wilfley slashed through the other side of the line for another two-yard gain and Aggie followed with a punt to the Aggies' 20-yard line.

The Aggies exchanged the punt on the next play, but Boykin's punt went straight up and was recovered by the Aggies on their own 20-yard line after New Mexico fumbled. The Varsity was penalized five yards for offside. Fairly slashed his way through left for a six-yard gain. A forward pass was busted up by Calkins, but when the same thing was tried again Todor found the ball and got away for a short run with a net gain of eighteen yards.

An attempted rush through left tackle yielded no profit to the Aggies and they punted to Calkins on New Mexico's 40-yard line. Jones attempted a long pass to White, but it was incomplete. Resorting again to line play, Calkins was shoved through center for a two-yard gain. Calkins again carried the ball a short way through tackle, but on the next down Jones punted to Mason on the Aggies' five-yard line and Mason quickly returned it to the 20-yard mark.

With their hands on the ball again the Aggies attempted a forward pass which proved useless to them when they were penalized ten yards for holding. Boykin punted to Jones, who was downed on the 50-yard line. White completed a beautiful pass from Jones, and netted a 25-yard gain. Another pass to the other side was attempted but was incomplete. Wilfley went smashing through center for a three-yard gain and Jones made no gain on an end run which followed.

Another forward pass was tried, but Wilfley pulled it out of the air at the 50-yard line. New Mexico tried the same tactics, but failed to complete. Hernandez went flying through center for a four-yard gain, and Jones made three more through tackle. Jones punted to the Aggies 20-yard line, and Mason brought it back 10 yards. Mason tried a forward pass to Graham, but gained only two yards. Davis went around left end for six yards profit. Brooklyn fumbled the ball as he plunged through left tackle, and recovered it about where it had been before. Davis also failed to gain in an attack made on left tackle. Following this Boykin punted to Calkins at New Mexico's 25-yard line.

On the next play Calkins hurried over left tackle and advanced the ball four yards. A forward pass from Jones to Wilfley was incomplete. The quarter ended with the ball on New Mexico's 42-yard line.

Second Quarter.
The quarter opened auspiciously for the Lobos, with 20 yards on a forward pass from Jones to White, leaving the ball on the Aggie 35-yard line. Jones made a four-yard gain with a dash around right end, and Hernandez succeeded in gaining five yards by ramming an opening for himself through center. On the next play Greenleaf was sent around left end, but lost the ball when the Aggies upset him. The Aggies recovered the ball on their own 30-yard line.

Mason made five yards for the Aggies on their first play by a long run around left end. A forward pass from Boone to Todor was caught outside the lines, and netted nothing. Boykin went through center for four yards, and Mason made it first down by smashing through tackle for three yards more.

The next play of the Aggies was covered the Aggies fumble on his own 45-yard line. Jones went around right for four yards, and Calkins plunged center for seven more.

Jones started around left end but fumbled and Hernandez recovered. The Varsity was penalized five yards for offside, placing the ball on the 50-yard line. Jones lost some ground on an end run. A pass was incomplete. The next pass was intercepted on the Aggies' 30-yard line.

Boykin tried center but made nothing. A pass to Graham put the ball on the Aggies' 35-yard line. V. Hernandez intercepted a pass on the Aggies' 47-yard line. New Mexico's pass was incomplete. The Varsity was penalized five yards for offside. Jones gained a yard through center. Calkins punted to the Aggies' 50-yard line.

Mason went through center for three yards. A forward pass was incomplete. Calkins caught the next pass on the Aggies' 40-yard line. Popojoy gained nothing through center. Jones got around right tackle and landed the ball on the Aggies' 18-yard line. Hernandez plunged center for two yards. Jones made five more through left tackle. Fairly was injured and replaced by Vance. The Aggies were penalized five yards for offside.

Jones plowed through guard for three yards. Hernandez bucked the ball on the Aggies' two-yard line. Jones tried a left end run, but lost two yards. Jones tried a forward pass to White which was successful, and the Varsity made the first score of the game, with six minutes to play. Jones failed to kick goal.

The ball was returned to the center of the field for the kick-off, and Greenleaf kicked off to Mason on the latter's 20-yard line. It was returned to the 35-yard mark. A pass was incomplete. Two attempted passes were broken up by J. P. Popojoy. Boykin punted to Jones on New Mexico's 15-yard line, and Jones brought it out to the 35-yard mark. Popojoy slid off tackle for two yards. On the next play he went through left tackle for three yards. Jones went around left for fourteen yards, and prospects for another Varsity touchdown looked good. Greenleaf went around left end for five yards, and Calkins went around the other end without gain. Jones made seven yards through left tackle. Crisp was sent in for Har. A pass was incomplete, and Jones punted to Mason on the Aggies' 20-yard line.

The game ended immediately after Popojoy intercepted a forward pass on New Mexico's 35-yard line. The Line-Up.

BEAUTY CHATS

By Edna Kent Forbes.

RIDGES ON THE NAILS.

Finger nails that show a lot of ugly ridges are never pretty. Ridge nails always look old and overworked and badly cared for. And most women seem to think that nothing can be done about it. If the nails have been full of ridges for years only a little can be done, but with patience a certain amount of improvement can be expected. However, where the ridges are only just appearing an enormous amount can be done. And when I say "just appearing" I mean when these ridges have not shown themselves for more than eight or ten years.

These ridges can be filled off by using soap and a tiny piece of wet pumice stone. The hands should first of all be washed with hot water, then the pumice stone, wet in hot water and covered with soap, is rubbed gently back and forth over the top of each little ridge. When the nail is thus softened it does not take long to wear down each ridge until the surface of the nail is perfectly smooth. It must be done gently because you do not want to wear away the nail but only the ugly ridges.

Do not get discouraged at the scratched surface of your nail. Wash the hands again to remove the soap, then polish with a good polishing powder and a buffer. In a short time all the scratches will have disappeared and you will have a smooth nail with an unusually high gloss.

And that is all there is to the treatment except that as you have filed the nail by using so much pumice the best thing to do after you have polished it smooth is to wash it again to remove the polishing powder, and then to rub it thoroughly with cold cream or olive oil.

Anita: The one piece dress with simple lines will make you appear taller. Never use trimming which cuts up the height and do not wear very short skirts. Massage the ankles and feet, using a strong solution of Epsom salts. Neither a very high, nor a very low heel is a good choice, but one which is between these sizes, and broad, will be found best for comfort and service.

Anxious: You are merely unnecessarily developed, which is often the case with very young girls and a few years more changes all this, when they have completed their growth.

M. P. W. V.: I will be glad to send you a formula for an excellent hair tonic, if you send me a stamped addressed envelope.

Agnes: The recovery from a nervous breakdown is usually slow, but you can help by living out in the air as much as possible, keeping a cheerful attitude toward it and eating plentifully of simple and nourishing food. Such a condition is often overcome by sleeping out of doors, especially if the person must be confined during the day.

Mabelle: The yeast recommended is that which comes in cakes and the same as that used in raising dough.

OPPOSSUM MUFF AND SCARF ARE PRETTY

BY ELIOISE

Although the fur coats and wraps which are being worn by every woman today tend to put the fur set out of the running, there are still attractive sets to lure the woman who wears a cloth coat or suit. Beaver, squirrel, wolf, fox, broadtail, chinchilla, Australian opossum and fitch are some of the most used furs of this season.

There are many pretty sets made of the plain Australian opossum which rival the costly chinchilla in effect.

Here is one pictured. It has a large, round muff and a choker scarf. The scarf features long satin cash ends, which are finished with tails of opossum and which the smartly wherever the wearer wills. These sets make the plain cloth coat and suit look more dressy and fashionable.

Note the pretty hat worn here. It is a crown of black velvet with a scalloped brim of lovely black lace. The model is ideal for dress or restaurant wear.

without bothering about what you boys said.

"She's all to the merry, isn't she, Lonnie?" Malcolm asked in an aside.

"I'll tell the world she is!" replied Malcolm.

Margaret smiled when the four trooped into the house calling for Hannah, and cake. What a different Joan from the day before!

Either it was all sunshine with the child, or there was absolutely no silver lining to her clouds.

"You don't mind if we make fudge, do you, Mumsie? I know you don't, but Malcolm is so fussy. He wanted me to ask you."

"Thank you, Malcolm. No dear, make all the fudge you like. But don't make yourself ill eating it."

"First woman to sit in Kentucky general assembly."

Mrs. Mary Elliott Flanery.

Kentucky is to have a woman in the general assembly for the first time when the new assembly convenes in January. Mrs. Mary Elliott Flanery of Callettsburg will be the first woman member of the legislature in her state. She will take oath next January at Frankfort. In addition to this unusual honor Mrs. Flanery overturned a normal republican majority of 1,400 in her county and defeated her opponent by 255 votes.

This capable southern woman may have inherited her penchant for politics, for her grandfather, John Lile Elliott, was state senator for two terms. Elliott county, Kentucky, was formed and named in his honor. An uncle was Judge John Milton Elliott, who was assassinated while in the discharge of his duties as judge of the court of appeals at Frankfort in 1879. These southern women office holders are coming into the public eye with all the romance and southern background which attended their brethren in the olden days.

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING

By LAURA A. KIRKMAN.

THE HOUSEKEEPER WHO DRESSES SENSIBLY.

I am going to chat today on the subject of sensible dress. The more I look about me at some of the extremes of fashion the more convinced I become that we housekeepers should stand together for sensible dress.

Now, I don't mean by that that the housekeeper should not look as smart and up-to-date as any other woman. And I think this old world would be a stupid, monotonous place if new fashions were not created now and then, to give us variety. The only thing I'm "agin" is going to extremes in dress.

Let us look back over the history of dress, from the time of the early Egyptians, and note the tendency of the various eras toward either common sense or folly in silhouette, price and general design of costumes. The early Egyptian dressed very simply until the Asiatic conquests; after that a new standard of luxury was established and the dress of the people became as elaborate as it had been simple before—characterized by fancy headresses and much ornamentation.

The dress of the early Romans and Greeks was simple and beautiful in line. The early Gauls painted and tattooed parts of their bodies and wore animal skins until they then became Romanized, donning tunic and mantle, but their barbaric tendencies were manifest in color, ornamentation and abundance of gaudy jewelry. After the conquest of the Gallo-Romans by the Franks, however, in the fifth century, and the establishment of the French kingdom, a combination of Roman, Gallic and Frankish costume was adopted consisting of a tunic, short trousers, leggings and mantle. The eighth century was practically the beginning of the French costume, as we think of it today. Under Charlemagne (768 to 814) there were edicts against luxury, and heavier and more practical materials were worn. In the eleventh century, however, the "age of chivalry" started and silk, cashmires and velours were introduced by returning Crusaders. Buttons then appeared on dress for the first time. Then, at the last of the fourteenth century, came a period of pronounced extravagance in dress; doublet and hose were worn by men ("hose" being trousers and stockings in one), and the sleeves of the doublet were large and in some cases reached almost to the ground! In the sixteenth century hoop skirts appeared and also "Watteau" hats, laces, panniers and flounces; at this time Marie Antoinette occupied with Louis Sixteenth the tottering throne of France—and we all know the history of dress since that time.

Now, Reader-Friend, I am not trying to prove that unless we housekeepers insist upon sensible clothes, another period of extravagance in dress will necessarily break out as it did repeatedly in the history I have outlined. But I am arguing that we home women, of all women, know how much it costs just to keep a shelter over our heads and food on the table—and we don't want to see extravagant standards in dress established that would take money from the necessities of life. Designers create, and stores offer, what the public wants; they base their output on demand. So let's demand sane, conservative garments, so that the world may know that housekeepers, anyway, will not tolerate departure from common sense in fashions.

ADMITS HE'S ONE OF MEN WHO SHOT AND KILLED A POLICEMAN

(By The Associated Press.)

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 24.—Francisco Simental, 21, a prisoner in the El Paso city jail serving sentence for vagrancy, confessed he is one of the men who shot and killed Police Captain P. H. Phoenix and seriously wounded Capt. S. C. Houston on June 13, last. The officers were shot when they halted two roughly dressed Mexicans.

Simental, who had served forty-five days of a 60-day sentence, was not suspected of the murder until last night when he asked the jailer to send for the county prosecutor, to whom he made the confession in legal form. Simental said Fortunato Leyva, his companion in the affray with the officers, had been shot eight days later by a street car conductor he had attempted to hold up. Police records show that on the night of June 21 Conductor Buck Ament killed a Mexican who attempted to hold up his car and that a passport map out to Fortunato Leyva was found on the body.

Sins of diet often result in pimples and boils

A familiar fresh food corrects their basic cause

THE causes of pimples and blackheads (acne) are always found in lowered vitality, very commonly associated with constipation and digestive disorders," says one skin specialist, and he further says that "the repeated occurrence of boils should always be looked upon as an indication of lowered vitality."

Scientists now know that the real cause of the trouble may be some "sin of diet."

It is now generally acknowledged that the lack of one food factor called vitamin is largely responsible for the lowered vitality that so often brings skin disorders and blemishes.

Something to correct the basic cause of these complaints is clearly needed. Scientists have discovered it in the familiar little cake of Fleischmann's Yeast, for yeast is the richest known source of the food factor essential to perfect digestion.

Physicians and hospitals are therefore prescribing Fleischmann's Yeast as an addition to the diet. It yields remarkable results in the treatment of boils and acne so often due to sins of diet.

Fleischmann's Yeast is a highly digestible fresh food. Have it on the table at home and on your desk at the office. You will like its fresh, distinctive flavor, and the clean wholesome taste it leaves in your mouth. Eat from 2 to 3 cakes a day just plain or on crackers or bread. Within two weeks you should notice an improvement. Obsolete cases may require two or three weeks longer. If troubled with gas, dissolve the yeast first in half a cup of very hot water. This does not affect the efficacy of the yeast. Get Fleischmann's Yeast fresh daily from your grocer.

Send 4c in stamps for the booklet, "The New Importance of Yeast in Diet." So many inquiries are coming in daily for this booklet that it is necessary to make this nominal charge to cover cost of handling and mailing. Address THE FLEISCHMANN COMPANY, 701 Washington Street, New York City.

The need for scientifically tested yeast

Fresh yeast has been proved by recent scientific tests to be a valuable food for correcting run-down condition, constipation, indigestion and certain skin disorders. These original tests were all made with Fleischmann's Yeast. Beware of untested yeast-vitamins preparations that contain drugs or other mixtures. Fleischmann's Yeast (fresh) is a pure food, rich in vitamins, in which it measures up to the high standards set by laboratories and hospitals. The familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label is the only form in which Fleischmann's Yeast for Health is sold.

ACRES OF DIAMONDS

Dr. Russell H. Conwell has delivered his lecture, "Acres of Diamonds," more than five thousand times and in book form it has been widely read. It is a wonderful story with a pointed moral and, delivered under the force of his magnetic personality, leaves a lasting impression on the hearer.

A man in the state of Pennsylvania became infatuated with diamonds and obsessed with a desire for their possession. Mortgaging his farm, he went to South Africa in quest of a diamond mine. Failing in his search, after innumerable hardships, he was forced to work his way home. Upon his arrival he was amazed at receiving an offer of a fabulous amount of money for his mortgaged farm. A thick vein of coal—black diamonds—had been discovered on his farm and that which he had traveled so far to find had all the time been right under his feet, if he had but dug for it.

There are many Salesmanship Club members like the chap in Dr. Conwell's lecture. What a great opportunity right here at home for those who "dig in." Unlike the Pennsylvanian, no one is coming to offer them the equivalent of one of the awards with a value running into the thousands of dollars, but, like him, they can "dig in" and secure one.

Some members have made a good start, but— Well, let's forget how foolish we have been. With the good start we made, there is still ample opportunity to get back into line for an award if we but determine to do our utmost. With the Big "First Period" Vote Offer still in effect, we can run up a big score of votes before the close of the campaign and resume the place we should have held.

Your "Acres of Diamonds" are right at your door if you will but "dig in."

Great is the opportunity—greatest for those who realize that awards worth thousands of dollars are worth the hard work. Effort will get subscriptions to the Albuquerque Morning Journal, and these subscriptions will get the Big Vote. These votes will win the Journal prizes to be awarded December 22nd.

Get busy.

CLAYTON FALLS BEFORE RATON, SCORE 7 TO 6

Close Game at Raton Results in Defeat for Clayton; Game Is Scene of Several Disputes.

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.) Raton, N. M., Nov. 24.—In a close, loosely played game, Raton defeated Clayton by a score of 7 to 6. The game was marred by continual squabbling between the players and officials. The umpires furnished by Clayton seemed to know very little about the game. Clayton was penalized frequently for offside playing, although the game was otherwise clean.

Clayton anticipated winning the game, having defeated Raton in the first game at Clayton. This is their first defeat this season, thereby removing their chance for the state title.

The Clayton team pushed Cobell over the line for a touchdown at the end of the first quarter. The ball was played up and down the field several times before Clayton scored. They failed to kick goal, leaving the score 6 to 0.

The second quarter was scoreless but several excellent passes brought the ball to Clayton's 15-yard line when time was called. Time was taken out several times to settle disputes.

The second half began with a change of umpires. The game progressed more satisfactorily. Gillespie of Raton kicked off from the 40-yard line, resulting in the ball rolling over Clayton's line. Clayton failed to recover and Raton immediately fell on the ball. The referee decided a touchdown for Raton, which was disputed by the umpire. Gillespie kicked goal, making the score 7 to 6 in favor of Raton.

The last quarter was poorly played by both sides. The first part seemed to be Clayton's but Raton pulled together and held. Both lines did excellent work in holding their opponents. One of the most clever passes of the game was pulled off by Raton in this half, which netted them about forty yards. There was no score made.

NEBRASKA HANDS COLORADO AGGIES 70 TO 7 DEFEAT

(By The Associated Press.)

Lincoln, Nov. 24.—The University of Nebraska wound up its football season today with a 70-to-7 victory over the Colorado State Agricultural school. Nebraska excelled in every department of the game, using the forward pass frequently for gains. The single touchdown for the Aggies came late in the last quarter when a forward pass from Captain Swanson was intercepted by Halfback Fred Hartshorn, who nimbly dodged tackles and ran thirty yards over the Nebraska line. The Hartshorn brothers were the stars of the winning team.

LEGION LEADER SEEKS TO CHECK PARDON OF DEBS

Hanford Claims American People Ask No Leniency Be Shown Traitors During War.

(By The Associated Press.)

Mason City, Iowa, Nov. 24.—Hanford MacNider, national commander of the American legion, today telegraphed to President Harding protesting against the pardon of Eugene V. Debs. His message follows:

"The American legion of men and women who offered their lives to preserve the integrity of the country respectfully ask that no leniency be shown these traitors who stabbed them in the back while they were giving their all to their country. If pardon is granted to Debs or others fairly and justly convicted of treason or sedition during the time when the nation's very life was at stake, the lives of those American boys who lie on the fields of France and those who lie broken in hospitals and the homes of this country have been uselessly sacrificed and our service has indeed been given in vain."

THREE BOXES OF BONES OFFERED IN LANDRU TRIAL

(By The Associated Press.)

Versailles, Nov. 24.—Three more small boxes containing what the experts contend are human bones, were produced at the opening of court today and added to the box which was prominent in yesterday's proceedings in the trial of Henri Landru, accused of eleven murders and of cremating the bodies.

The bones, according to the experts, are from a human skull or skull fragment.

The defense argued that the bones were such that no expert could swear whether they were human or animal. It also argued that the bones had been found in the open air. An announcement of an open air meeting had been made by union officials at the ideal camp before they were summoned before Colonel Hamrock. Such meetings are prohibited under martial law.

Colonel Hamrock told McLennan that miners are not permitted to meet in any building at the ideal camp nor any other place on the company's property. He said that the only opportunity the miners had to hold meetings was to meet on property adjacent to the mine camp and in the open air. An announcement of an open air meeting had been made by union officials at the ideal camp before they were summoned before Colonel Hamrock. Such meetings are prohibited under martial law.

Search for weapons which have not been turned in by the miners is continuing. According to reports reaching the miners, several hundred rifles and two machine guns are believed to be hidden in the district around Valenciennes.

At last night's inquiry into the Oakview shooting, Louis Tice, one of the four men being held, was released.

McLennan said today that the matter of the strike would probably be brought to the attention of the international board of the United Mine Workers of America at their regular meeting in Indianapolis next Tuesday.

ORGANIZERS ARE ORDERED OUT OF HUERFANO AREA

Ban Will Apply While Martial Law Remains; Open Air Meetings Being Held by Miners.

(By The Associated Press.)

Walsenburg, Colo., Nov. 24.—(By The Associated Press.)—International organizers of the United Mine Workers of America were ordered today to keep out of all camps in the Huertano area while martial law is in effect. The order applies not only to miners of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company affected by the strike against reduction in wages, but also to all other miners in the county.

The order was given to John C. McLennan, president of District 15, and Robert Foster and Frank Hoffman, international organizers, by Col. Patrick J. Hamrock, adjutant general, in charge of the militia and state rangers here. The three union officials were brought before Colonel Hamrock after they had driven to the ideal mine of the C. F. and I. company and were notifying striking miners that a union meeting would be held there next Wednesday night.

Colonel Hamrock, addressing the union officials in the presence of newspaper men who accompanied the union men to the mine, declared that trouble in the 1919 had been caused by international organizers sent into the districts and that he did not propose to have a recurrence of the 1919-14 warfare.

Colonel Hamrock told the organizers that they were not permitted to interfere with the adjustment of grievances between union miners and officials of any coal mine. He said that when it became necessary for them to visit miners on this purpose, permission would be granted. An exception was made in the case of McLennan and Mike Lyndon, vice president of District 15, the colonel asserted that they might attend union meetings at mines and arrange for the distribution of strike benefits.

McLennan told Hamrock that miners are not permitted to meet in any building at the ideal camp nor any other place on the company's property. He said that the only opportunity the miners had to hold meetings was to meet on property adjacent to the mine camp and in the open air. An announcement of an open air meeting had been made by union officials at the ideal camp before they were summoned before Colonel Hamrock. Such meetings are prohibited under martial law.

LLOYD GEORGE WILL MEET ULSTER LEADER FOR FINAL PARLEY

(By The Associated Press.)

London, Nov. 24.—(By The Associated Press.)—Premier Lloyd George is to meet Sir James Craig tomorrow in what may be the last effort to induce him as premier of Ulster to discuss alternative plans, devised to protect Ulster's interests, to the proposed all-Ireland parliament, which the northern delegates thus far have refused even to consider formally.

Meanwhile Arthur Griffith, chief of the Sinn Fein delegation, went to Dublin tonight to consult with Eamon de Valera, Irish republican leader. Mr. Griffith was accompanied by Michael Collins, George Gavan Duffy and Robert C. Barton, his colleagues.

This visit is understood to be the result of discussions between the Sinn Fein and members of the British cabinet, at which Mr. Griffith and his colleagues are said to have made clear that they could not agree to swear allegiance to the British empire being by treaty as would be the case with foreign powers.

WHO IS A BOLSHIEV?

A business man of this city recently declared the Journal a bolshevik. This gentleman is a good husband and father, a fine provider for those dependent upon him, a loyal friend to those whom he loves, a respectable and respected citizen and one who lives up to his ideals of his duty.

The Journal, too, tries to live up to the highest ideals. Where, then, comes the occasion for this man to denounce us as ultra-radical? He was not angry; he stated the situation as saw it.

This man believes that the people as a whole are incapable of self-government. He believes that the "intelligent" few must keep such an ascendancy over the rest of us that the "ignorant" can be guided by the "wise." This is his philosophy of government. Alexander Hamilton frankly avowed such a view.

The Journal falls to agree with this man's mental processes. Kings and aristocrats have entertained this viewpoint for centuries. With the power in their hands it has been abused invariably. The theory is very fine. In practice, the power once gained is used for personal ends instead of the public good. Special privilege is this philosophy, bearing its unvarying and inevitable fruit.

Thomas Jefferson and Abraham Lincoln believed in a government "of the people, by the people and for the people." They believed this completely and sincerely. They knew that lack of education would lead the people wrong at times and compel them to retrace their steps to correct errors. But they believed that the remedy lay in general education and enlightenment, and not in taking the power away from the people. With their views on this subject the Journal is in agreement.

Few men can be given power without abusing it. Only by retaining the power to punish the use of public position for personal advantage can the people be protected against imposition.

Our government is devoted to ideal of equality, justice and humanity. But in practice, when the few gain an ascendancy, these ideals go into eclipse. Men seek and take special advantages which deprive the people of equality of opportunity, substitute rank injustice for justice and, in cold selfishness, forget our ideals of humanity.

These inequalities, injustices and inhumanities the Journal attacks in an effort to restore the equilibrium. But these attacks disturb the "private snags" which this man and his friends have established. If we would destroy the system of taxation, or the unconscionable coal combine, we are destroying "established institutions," according to the view of this friend. The enemy of special privilege is the enemy of the government, in his conclusion, whereas the exact reverse is true.

These inequalities, injustices and inhumanities must be stopped, if the institutions we love are to survive.

The people will love a government which actually affords them equality of opportunity, just and humane treatment. They will be contented and happy. But inequalities exasperate them; injustices anger them, and inhumanities make them openly hostile.

It is the man who grabs a special advantage, to the harm of the people, who angers men into damning a government which will permit it. Putting the man in jail may or may not be necessary as a quarantine against an infection of his ideas, but it is no cure. It does not reach the cause which sent this deluded man on a rampage.

The man who will seize and hold a special privilege is the real criminal. He is the violator of the spirit, if not the letter, of the law. He is the cause of the outbreak of those whose exasperations become too intense for frail humanity to endure.

Because the Journal sees that the cure for radicalism is a contented people and therefore attacks those having special privileges and special advantages to which they are not entitled and which result in inequalities and injustices, our good friends call us a bolshevik. We disturb the "cinches" of himself and his friends.

No one has ever seen a single radical word in the Journal. We believe in both the letter and the spirit of the constitution. We believe it offers humanity its greatest opportunity for happiness. But the fight can never cease to maintain the spirit of this great Magna Charta of liberty. Special abuses of its spirit must be assailed always if we would preserve it.

If our critic is not a bolshevik he and his friends who do things to make people angry at their government are the makers of bolshevik.

OUR GUESTS GONE.

As quietly as they came the teachers of the state have slipped back to their posts of duty. Suspending work for a few days that they may gather for a new inspiration in their tasks, they return home full of new plans and new enthusiasm.

In this body of teachers resides our hope for the New Mexico of tomorrow. Without an efficient educational system we will not grow and make progress. Their problem is an immense one.

Albuquerque profits from these conventions. Hundreds of teachers scattered in the homes of the city for a few days are an inspiration to our people.

The Journal wishes to help in every possible way in making a success of the work of this body of unselfish public servants. We wish to become increasingly an instrument for the dissemination of a love of education and of high ideals of citizenship.

WELCOME TO CAPTAIN GUEST.

Captain Guest, now in charge of the work of the Salvation Army at Roswell has been assigned to duty in charge of Albuquerque. The Rotary club of this city has been seeking this transfer.

Captain Guest is a magnificent type of the unselfish and intelligent Salvationist. His work at Roswell has attracted wide attention. He comes to Albuquerque followed by the affections and good wishes of all the people of Roswell. He will command the instant confidence of the people of this city.

Our problem here is a difficult one, constantly in need of energetic and intelligent management. Rabbi Bergman, who has dealt with our situation so efficiently, will find in Captain Guest an able ally in ferreting out the facts in each case of need and in extending a personal touch and sympathy which pressure of work has made impossible in the past.

With the coming of Captain Guest the Salvation Army will take on a new status with the people of this city. A cordial co-operation should be extended to him in his efforts to lend help and comfort. He will make no effort to supplant what has been so ably done, but will supplement it in a highly desirable and sympathetic way.

Bergman and Guest, each in his peculiar way, will make a great team for us in handling our sick and indigent problem. They should receive every support. Albuquerque welcomes Captain Guest.

DISARMAMENT AND BUSINESS.

In view of the consternation which the British government's order for cessation of work on capital warships caused in shipbuilding circles on the Clyde, where the contracts were furnishing work for thousands of men, it is a pleasure to note Judge Elbert H. Gary's prophecy that in the end disarmament will make for business prosperity. As chairman of the board of directors of a great corporation engaged in the manufacture of steel, the material which more than any other enters into arms and armor, his remarks are of extraordinary importance. "It means for the firm establishment and maintenance of peace can be found and generally assented to," he said, "it will mark an epoch of the greatest business prosperity, as well as the largest measure of happiness that the world has ever witnessed."

Judge Gary showed a spirit well worthy of the emulation of munitions manufacturers the world over when he said that even if disarmament causes a large decrease in steel manufacture, "no sane and right-spirited person would consider pecuniary interest as of any importance when discussing national or international welfare."

That suspension of work on the English battle-ships will throw thousands of men out of work is regrettable, but their welfare can not be permitted to stand in the way of the welfare of the English people and of the world. Sir Percy Scott, a naval expert, asserts that the British government's action will save the British taxpayers a hundred million pounds. The effect which it will have on the world's morale will be of incalculable benefit.

EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

THE CHINESE DEMANDS.

(From the New York Times.)
It is fortunate that, thus early in the conference, the representatives of China have been able to make a formal statement of the broad general principles which in their view must govern the relations of that republic to the other nations. The ten demands, or proposals, of China are general in their nature, and all the better for that. The greater includes the less, and it will be found that these principles, acknowledged and observed by the other powers, will safeguard China against infringement upon her independence, her territory and her liberty of action, of which she has had to complain, and will leave her free to work out her destiny in her own manner.

Her soil will be free from those who claim rights upon it which are incompatible with her sovereignty; privileges and concessions that are objectionable on like grounds will be canceled; other powers will not make treaties involving her interests without consulting her, as was done in the unfortunate Lansing-Ishihara agreement; she will not lease or alienate her territory, or accept in full the principles of the open door, and, as soon as circumstances will permit, limitations upon her political and administrative freedom are to be removed. This apparently will not only put an end to extrajurisdictional jurisdiction for the trial of certain offenses, but will free the Peking government from foreign pressure and influence that have hampered and infringed upon its freedom.

Whatever may be said in Washington about the willingness of our government to enter into a naval limitation agreement irrespective of a Far Eastern settlement, it is obvious that the two are inseparable. As Mr. Hughes pointed out in his opening address, the two matters can be dealt with simultaneously. What the announcement on the part of our government means, doubtless, is that the spirit of good understanding and agreement which now pervades the conference is so evident that the willingness of the interested powers to assent to a Far Eastern settlement that will assure peace and harmony may be assumed. It is of good augury that Japan and Great Britain, as well as France, have received the Chinese proposals with expressions of approval. It is to be hoped that this attitude of assent will be maintained, for the guarantees that China now asks are in the main indispensable to good understanding in the East, and therefore to the execution of the naval agreement.

AS THE PEOPLE VIEW IT

A Defense of a Park in the South.
Carlsbad, N. M., Nov. 22, 1921.
Editor Albuquerque Journal, Albuquerque, N. M.

Sir: The position taken in your editorial of the 21st instant regarding Secretary Fall's suggestion for a national park to comprise the Mescalero Indian reservation and Elephant Butte reservoir is certainly astounding and appears provincial and ill considered.

Let us try to keep personalities and prejudices out of the argument and analyze the proposition solely upon its merits. If this is done and the proposition is found to be unsound let's drop it; but if it can be sustained by practical analysis let us all get behind it, and support it, no matter what the interests are benefitted.

Admitting as we all must, that El Paso in the past has had too much to say in the purely private affairs of New Mexico, it yet remains a fact that we have a deep and abiding interest in the growth of El Paso and should be the last to object to anything that spells progress and development there.

It takes a vivid imagination and a narrow vision to call either the Mescalero Indian reservation or the Elephant Butte reservoir a playground for El Paso and not for New Mexico.

The scenic splendors and archaeological interests of northern New Mexico are not to be denied, nor are they envied or at all decry by the people of southern New Mexico. Tourist travel east and west is safe and assured for all time to come, and we need no national park to emphasize their attractions. But surely they do need to be made accessible from the south—even from El Paso.

For many years the writer has felt the need for New Mexico to be opened up to tourist travel from Texas and the southeast. Our state is entitled to a large share of the steadily growing tourist travel from this section which now goes to Colorado, because of no direct route to the mountains of New Mexico. The Bankhead National All Year highway is being rapidly constructed from Washington, D. C., through all the southern states and follows the Texas and Pacific railway. To get any of this travel a good road must be built from this highway through the mountains of New Mexico to the northern part of the state.

If the Mescalero Indian reservation is made a national park through state wide co-operation, the same co-operation will bring about a north and south highway through the Alamo, Sacramento and Lincoln forest reservations from the Texas line into the very heart of the state, thus opening up to us all an opportunity for almost unlimited tourist and summer visit or travel (the latter by far more valuable to the state) from the entire south.

A glance at the map will show that on the force of this argument and will also demonstrate clearly that a national park in the north—leaving as it will the road proposition from the south entirely in the air—will never bring to Santa Fe and Albuquerque and the north that southern tourist travel which is our largest undeveloped tourist resource. The climate argument is another sound basis for a park in the south.

It seems to the writer that there is no real conflict of interests in this matter between the two sections of the state. We are all equally interested in utilizing to the utmost the climatic advantages of the south and the scenic and historic treasures of the north. In any case, we can be of such mutual benefit as to get behind the national park movement as outlined by Secretary Fall.

The writer feels confident that an unpredicited analysis of the proposition in its full relation to the state at large will bring every live New Mexico citizen into line behind the national park as outlined.

We look to the Journal to reconsider.

STRIKING.

My nineteen children cry for bread, and I can't even give them a thing; I've made their lives a thing of dread, since I have struck for higher pay. I labored at the post-office mill with many more down-trodden men, and earned enough to pay my bills, and saved some kopecks now and then. Then came a man whose lungs were wretched, and showed us we were wretched; and slaves; all workmen were martyrs pale, and all employers merely knaves. He told us we would have to strike, or we would have had breakfast; no jobless now we hit the pike—there is a principle involved. There is a

UNCLE WIGGLY AND THE ALARM CLOCK.

"Goodness me! I'm late again!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggly, as he hurried down stairs in his hollow stump bungalow one morning.

"Why didn't you call me, Nurse Jane?" I promised to meet Uncle Butter, the good gentleman, at 8 o'clock, and here it is 9 and I haven't had breakfast. Why didn't you get me up?"

"I thought your alarm clock would call you with the tinkling bell it rings," said Nurse Jane. "Didn't you set it last night so it would awaken you?"

"Yes, that's so, I did," admitted the bunnies. "But the clock didn't ring and I slept right along!"

"Perhaps the clock is broken," suggested the muskrat lady. "Perhaps it is," sighed Mr. Longears, as he sat down to his breakfast of fried cracker and broiled honey cakes. "I'll look at it when I have finished eating."

And when the bunnies gentleman looked at the clock he found that it was worn out.

"I'll buy a new one," said Uncle Wiggly, and off he hopped to the jewelry shop.

"Here is a new kind of alarm clock," said the jeweler gentleman who kept the jewelry shop. "You set it for whatever time you want to get up, or go anywhere, and it will ring very hard, just like all alarm clocks. Or, if you wish, it will ring a little while, stop, and then ring again in a minute. Then it will stop and ring again in another minute, and so on, half a dozen times."

"What's that for?" asked the bunnies.

"Oh, when a bell rings that way, starting and stopping, it sounds like a telephone, or a door bell, and not like a regular clock. Some folks get so used to the ringing of their alarm clock that they sleep right through it. So we have this dingle-dangle kind, ring, stop, and on, so as to speak."

"I'll take it," said Uncle Wiggly, and then the jeweler jeweler showed the bunny how to fix the clock to make it ring and stop and ring again and stop and ring again, and so on.

"This is the finest alarm clock I ever had," thought Uncle Wiggly as he took it home to his bungalow. "Nurse Jane will laugh when she hears it tinkle and stop and tingle again. I'll wind it and set it to go off at about 5 o'clock this afternoon. That's the time, she said she'd be back from the movies." For Nurse Jane was out when Uncle Wiggly returned with the clock.

So the bunny set the alarm and sat down in his easy chair to wait for Nurse Jane to return and get supper. And, sitting there, it was so warm and cozy that Uncle Wiggly fell asleep.

"Most unpleasantly am I surprised," spoke the rabbit uncle. "I wish you'd go!"

"I'll go as soon as I've nibbled," growled the Bear, and he was just going to do this when, suddenly, a bell tinkled and rang. "Hum! Some one at the door!"

Longears thinking it was Nurse Jane, cried out:

"Oh, you've come back, haven't you? I have a surprise for you!"

"And I have a surprise for you, I think," answered a harsh voice. It wasn't Nurse Jane at all! It was the bad, bad Bear!

"Aren't you surprised?" asked the Bear, as he sat down in a chair by Uncle Wiggly and looked hungrily at the bunny's ears.

"Most unpleasantly am I surprised," spoke the rabbit uncle. "I wish you'd go!"

"I'll go as soon as I've nibbled," growled the Bear, and he was just going to do this when, suddenly, a bell tinkled and rang. "Hum! Some one at the door!"

Longears thinking it was Nurse Jane, cried out:

"Oh, you've come back, haven't you? I have a surprise for you!"

"And I have a surprise for you, I think," answered a harsh voice. It wasn't Nurse Jane at all! It was the bad, bad Bear!

grumbled the Bear. "I'll go see who it is, and maybe I'll nibble their ears, also."

He lumbered to the door, but no one was there.

"That's queer!" growled the Bear, coming back and sitting down again. But hardly was he seated than again the bell rang.

"Perhaps it was the back door! Sit still, Uncle Wiggly! I'll go! You may run out if you go!" sniffed the bad chap. He went to the back door, but no one was there.

"This is most strange and curious!" roared the bear. "A bell rings, but no one is at either door. I guess I'd better nibble your ears—"

But just then the bell rang again, and the Bear jumped up and down and roared:

"This must be fairy magic. No one is at the doors, yet the bells ring! First I know those invisible fairies will turn me into a cake of ice! I'll toddle along and come back to bite you another day, Mr. Longears!"

"You needn't trouble," laughed the bunny, and then the bell rang again, and away ran the Bear so frightened he could hardly move his stubby tail.

"Ha! Ha! That alarm clock, tinkling in its funny way, like a door bell, saved me!" said the bunny as he looked at the clock on the shelf. "I'm glad I bought it." And so was Nurse Jane.

SUTHERLAND IS WINNER OF TWO RIFLE SHOOT

Large Number Take Part in Annual Duke City Rifle
Club Shoot for Matson
Cup and U. S. Trophy.

R. G. Sutherland won both trophies in the Duke City Rifle club annual Thanksgiving day shoot at the club ranges. He took the Matson cup with a score of 135, which was four points over his nearest competitor, C. A. Hall. His score for the members government trophy was 139, four points above M. P. Sawtelle, who ranked second.

The cloudy weather proved a serious handicap for the shooters during the morning and the scoring was not up to the usual average. The afternoon was fairly bright, however, and a number of the members came back into their usual stride.

The members government medal can be won but once and as Sawtelle is a former winner, C. A. Hall was officially credited with second place.

The following is a detailed account of the firing at the various ranges. The rapid fire is ten shots in one minute, sitting or kneeling from standing and all other ranges are fired from prone position with no time limit.

The fashionable American women residents of Buenos Aires declare, are just two seasons ahead of New York. American women arriving in Buenos Aires in the spring, they say, can buy hats, gowns and shoes which they will find on returning six months later to the New York spring are "just coming in."

"Buenos Aires from the beginning has kept about three inches ahead of New York in shortening skirts," says the wife of an American business man who makes frequent trips with his family between the two cities. "The first time I came down here three years ago, I was quite shocked at the shortness of the skirts. The Argentine women were wearing. But when I got back to New York a few months later I found American women had also shortened theirs."

"They have been wearing almost knee high skirts in Buenos Aires for more than a year, but it was only on my last trip home this summer that I saw them in short. Argentine women refuse to be behind anybody in dress and I think the Parisian style dictators, recognizing the opposition of the seasons, give them a six months advantage."

Probably few people are aware that the wearing of a white dress by a bride is a comparatively modern custom, and that in most Eastern countries pink is the conventional color for bridal gowns.

THANKSGIVING SPIRIT IS OF
CO-OPERATION

Rev. H. S. Davidson Gives
New Interpretation to Festival at Union Church Services Yesterday.

The manifestation of a new spirit of public consciousness which looks to the welfare of the people is the expression of the meaning of Thanksgiving at the present day. This message was brought before the large congregation at the union churches yesterday morning by the Rev. H. S. Davidson, pastor of the Congregational church, who preached the sermon. The services were held in the Lead Avenue Methodist church.

"It is customary at the Thanksgiving season to give thanks for material blessings received," said the speaker. "To us, however, the festival means vastly more than that. It is a public recognition as a people of the need of religion in every walk of life. The new spirit is manifested in the disarmament conference. For the first time in history, nations as nations are recognizing a higher law than might. To come nearer home, the spirit is also manifested in the new mood which is taking possession of the people of our own city. We are getting together as a people, forgetting our differences, and if indications count for anything, we are on the eve of a genuine pulling-together which will mean a new Albuquerque."

"We are recognizing that the welfare of all is bound up in the welfare of each. A new spirit is taking possession of us that is destined to make our city what we all desire it to be. Have we not a reason to appreciate what the ancient Hebrew called 'His holy name' and what he interpreted as a power not our own working for human uplift and brotherhood and civic betterment?"

The union service of praise and thanksgiving was presided over by the Rev. F. E. McGuire, pastor of the Methodist church. Rev. C. R. McKean, Rev. T. F. Harvey, Rev. W. A. Guy, Rev. A. M. Knudsen, Rev. L. L. Gaines and Rev. C. C. Higbee participated in the services. An offering was taken for the city bureau of charities.

Lady Victoria Murray, sister of the Earl of Dunmore, has entered business as a dairy farmer.

BOXERS WORKING HARD FOR BOUT
MONDAY EVENING

Judging from the boxing seen at the training camps which have been established at both the Palace and the Ringling Brothers' billiard parlors, Dan Padilla has gathered together four of the fastest boys as main events for the Monday evening card that have ever exhibited at one time in Albuquerque. The card is a double-header, the Chavez-Gonzalez bout having the edge of five rounds over the Anaya-Cordova match.

Benny Chavez has done more training since Salier Gonzalez got the decision over him a few weeks ago than he has done in the past six months. He has reached the point where ten fast rounds don't even turn a hair or make him draw a long breath. As training partners he has used every one available from Ed Lewis, the middle-weight bruiser from New York city, who is looking for a bout here, down to humbled pounders. Lewis is going to have a fight without results and he takes Benny Cordova's wallop with a smile. Salier Gonzalez is going to have trouble landing a punch that will bring home the bacon.

Johnny Corona, who arrived here last week from the coast to meet Kid Anaya in ten rounds at the armory Monday evening, claims he has all the wind he will want. The effects of the altitude have worn off and he appears back to normal. He has been sailing Gonzalez's sparring partner at Ringling Brothers' billiard parlors every afternoon at 3 o'clock for the past week.

Kid Anaya and Johnny Corona stood on the scales last night and each of them just brought the beam up to the 122 mark. Johnny has a bit the edge of Anaya when it comes to reach, but don't carry as heavy shoulders or arms.

Benny Cordova was examined by two physicians last week and pronounced in perfect physical condition. He weighs 142 now but will easily make 150 for his next bout. Dan Padilla is casting about for a likely boxer to match him with within the next month.

Salier Gonzalez has a boxing system all his own. Benny Chavez spent eight rounds here a few weeks trying to figure it. Benny grins when any one asks him if he's solved the problem.

Kid Anaya stands up well in workout with Benny Chavez. The Monday evening bout will not be Anaya's first ten-rounder. He has demonstrated several times that he can travel that distance.

Johnny Corona is one of the prettiest boxers that has been in Albuquerque for some time. He appears to fight shy of clinches and does it all with his gloves at either close or long range.

A punching bag has been installed at the Palace Billiard hall for the boys. Benny Chavez appears not to like it and knocked it off its base half a dozen times last night. The boys got a punch.

Accompanied ladies will not be charged admission to the entertainment at the armory Monday evening. Special sections will be reserved for them.

Public work-outs will be held this afternoon and tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Ringling's and at the Palace hall both evenings at 7:30 o'clock.
