BETWEEN HALVES, BUT THE GAME IS NOT OVER

In the calm of the Sabbath morning we are all resting from the labor of the past two days in the membership drive of the Chamber of Commerce. We can afford to lay aside secular things today and think upon spiritual values.

But it will do us good to think on the subject of good-will this Sabbath morning. No matter what some one has done to you, forgive it. It hurt your assailant more than yourself. Malice, hate, vindictiveness, are evil things and poison those who harbor them.

The spirit of co-operation may well be the subject of our Sabbath thoughts. We cannot afford that littleness of some, which would lead us to withhold co-operation because of petty differences.

Unselfish service is God's plan. We may well dwell upon it on His day. Unselfishness is enlightened selfishness. Our greatest ultimate benefit will come from doing things for the common good without seeking an immediate personal advantage.

Such thoughts will do our spirits good while we pause today. They will renew our strength for the rest of the game.

Tomorrow, with our bodies refreshed and our spirits rekindled, we will march down the field for a final score in our drive for members.

NO ONE CAN STOP US, BUT OURSELVES.

GALLUP MAN AND WIFE FOUND SLAIN ON FRONT PORCH OF THEIR HOME

J. W. BLACKWELL, JR., AND MRS. BLACKWELL ARE SHOT TO DEATH

Crime Apparently Committed Friday Night, Bodies Are Discovered Saturday Morning, Each With a Bullet Hole Through the Breast; Mystery Surrounds Double Slaying.

(By The Associated Press.) Gallup, N. M., Nov. 26.—Complete mystery shrouds the double slaying here last night of J. W. Blackwell, Jr., a mine clerk, and his wife, who were shot to death on the front porch of their home, according to the sheriff's office.

The bodies were discovered at 8 o'clock this morning by C. E. Upland, a friend of Blackwell.

The body of Blackwell was crouched down on his knees with his head resting in his folded arms, leaning against the two-foot wall around the porch. The corpse of Mrs. Blackwell lay prone a few feet away. Each had been shot once through the breast.

An empty automatic cartridge shell was found on the porch between the bodies.

Returned From Theater.

The couple, according to authorities, had just returned from a theater and had stepped on the porch when they were shot. Blackwell had removed his gloves and had a bunch of keys in his right hand.

The door was yet unlocked, and the house showed no evidence of having been disturbed when sheriff's deputies entered this morning.

Powder burns were found on the dress worn by Mrs. Blackwell.

A local dentist and his wife who passed the Blackwell residence last night in their automobile, told the authorities they saw a man and woman walking in the direction of the house, but a few minutes later, they told the authorities two shots were heard and they returned to the Blackwell home. They saw a woman, alone, they said, running down the street.

They notified the police, who searched the neighborhood with no results.

Saw a Man Running.

Neighbors of the Blackwells today corroborated the dentist's story of hearing two shots. One told the police he saw a man with a leather coat running down the street after he had heard the shots.

Blackwell came here with his wife from North Carolina about seven years ago.

ROBBERY MAY HAVE BEEN MOTIVE FOR THE CRIME

(Special Dispatch to Morning Journal.)

Gallup, N. M., Nov. 26.—J. W. Blackwell, Jr., and his wife were shot to death at their home here this morning by friends who came to their house. The bodies were found on the front porch. Each had received one shot through the breast which evidently had caused instant death in both cases. There was absolutely no sign of a struggle. The indications are that the couple were just returning to their home after having spent the evening out some place, presumably at the picture show, and that some one had come to their house and shot them as they were about to enter their home. Mr. Blackwell, when found this morning, held the house key clutched in one hand and from this it is believed that he was just in the act of unlocking the front door when he was shot.

It is believed that the incident took place about 10 o'clock Friday night, as several persons who live in that vicinity or were in that part of town last night, shot first in rapid succession at about that time of the evening. The doors of the house were securely locked this morning.

Mr. Blackwell was employed at the Navajo shaft No. 5 of the Gallup American Coal company, and was in the habit of riding each morning with a friend who also worked at that place, Clarence B. Uhlund, who found the bodies when he stopped for Mr. Blackwell this morning.

There is absolutely no clue of any kind about the place that offers any solution as to who might have committed the deed. One empty cartridge from a .38 automatic revolver was found on the porch.

It is absolutely no motive that can be advanced by friends of the murdered couple for the murder. Mr. and Mrs. Blackwell had been residents of Gallup for nearly ten years. They had been married about twelve years and had no children and lived in a house alone.

J. W. Blackwell, Sr., father of the murdered man, is a resident of the house about a mile from the scene of the crime. He knew nothing of the crime until informed of it this morning by friends.

One theory advanced is that robbery may have been the motive for the crime because Mrs. Blackwell sometimes wore some small diamonds. It is possible that robbers were in the act of breaking into the house and that they were surprised by the approach of the couple. Several persons passed the house about that time of the evening in automobiles and one person claims that he saw a man running away from the house. The location of the house is such that the front porch is almost entirely hidden from view by a banister and a high fence between it and the street, so that unless some one entered the porch the bodies could not have been seen.

The bodies were removed to the local undertaking parlors.

FINGER PRINTS BULK LARGE IN ARBUCKLE CASE

Defense Expects to Close Its Presentation of Evidence Monday; Court Adjourns Over Week End

(By The Associated Press.)

San Francisco, Calif., Nov. 26.—The defense expects to close its presentation of evidence in the Roscoe C. (Patty) Arbuckle case next Monday, it was announced tonight when court adjourned over the week end. Finger prints bulk large in today's proceedings. The prints in question were found on doors of rooms in the Hotel St. Francis, where Arbuckle gave the party last September at which Virginia Rappe is said to have received fatal injuries at the comedian's hands and as a result of which he is on trial.

Ignatius H. McCarthy, former investigator for the federal department of labor, was called as a finger print expert by the defense to controvert testimony offered by E. O. S. Heinrich of the University of California, a consulting criminologist. Heinrich had sworn that some prints on the door of the room where Miss Rappe was found were of the defendant and that these and others indicated a struggle between Arbuckle and Miss Rappe.

McCarthy's qualifications as an expert were under fire from the prosecution when court adjourned. He admitted he never had testified as such an expert before.

Another witness today was Philo McCullough, a motion picture actor of Hollywood, Calif., and Mrs. Florence Bates of Santa Ana, Calif., friend of Miss Rappe. Both testified they had seen Miss Rappe "double up" and tear at her clothing.

According to previous evidence, Miss Rappe did this at the Arbuckle party.

CRIMINAL TRIAL FACING BY SMALL ON NEW CHARGE

Is Charged With Manipulating State Funds Until He Diverts to Private People's Money.

(By The Associated Press.)

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—Governor Len Small, in his record as state under the fire of Attorney General Brundage, tonight faced almost identical charges.

In suits for accounting begun by the attorney general against five former state treasurers and their bondsmen today, the governor is charged with manipulating state funds until he diverted to private channels a million dollars or more belonging to the people.

Leutenant Governor Fred Sterling faces almost identical charges. December, the month when Governor Small's fight for freedom from criminal charges begins, will bring the service of summons in the criminal case at Washington, in the civil suits on him. Lieutenant Governor Sterling, State Auditor Russell, William Ryan, Jr., and E. E. Mitchell—all former treasurers. Summons will also be served next month on the 120 bondsmen of the former treasurers.

The civil suits against Small, Sterling and Russell, alleging shortage of over $2,000,000 in their treasury accounts, are scheduled to begin in Springfield in January. The suits against Ryan and Mitchell will be heard in Cook county.

They bring the total amount of state interest which Attorney General Brundage said was unaccounted for during the last twelve years, to approximately $2,500,000.

Governor Small is also defendant in both the Sterling and Russell suits as one of their bondsmen. Verne S. Curtis, co-defendant in the criminal case at Washington, is also a defendant in the same suits.

McMillin and Casey, PILOT STAR TEAM TO A 16 TO 0 VICTORY

(By The Associated Press.)

Columbus, O., Nov. 26.—"Bo" McMillin, Centre college, all-American quarterback, and "Eddie" Casey, Harvard all-American half-back, upheld their gridiron traditions today by piloting to a 16-to-0 victory a "rainbow" team composed of former star gridiron players from a score of universities.

The little Centre quarterback, circled the end, wriggled his way through opposing tackles across the field, and in an 84-yard dash planted the oval behind the goal. This play had been preceded in the first quarter by another touchdown by Casey, who ran thirty-seven yards.

The bodies were removed to the local undertaking parlors.

5 MEMBERS ALLEGED TRAIN ROBBER BAND ARE UNDER ARREST

(By The Associated Press.)

Terre Haute, Ind., Nov. 26.—Five men, two of them negroes, were held in $10,000 bonds today on a charge of being members of a band of train bandits who, on November 7, held up and robbed an Illinois central mail train at Paxton, Ill.

The men were lodged in jail here last night. They previously were arrested at Indianapolis November 11, in connection with the death of Steve Ferguson, supposedly one of their number wounded in the fighting during the robbery.

In the lineup today were James Hill, 25; Joseph Burnett, 20; Frank Wolfe, 19, all white, and Berne Jones, 25 and Garrett Osborne, 27, negroes.

BRIAND DIDN'T USE HARSH WORDS TO THE ITALIANS, IS CLAIM

(By The Associated Press.)

Rome, Nov. 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—Foreign Minister Delia Torretta today announced he had received a cable from Senator Schanzler, head of the Italian delegation at Washington, denying press dispatches from the American capital alleging Premier Briand of France had used harsh words to the Italian delegate in a committee meeting.

"No such incident occurred," the message read. "The discussion in the committee meeting was lively, but always correct. M. Briand used no language which could be interpreted as offensive to Italy."

FINE JUDGE $10 FOR ALLEGED VIOLATION OF THE TRAFFIC LAW

(By The Associated Press.)

Pasadena, Calif., Nov. 26.—Judge Page Morris of the United States district court at Duluth, Minn., today paid a fine of $10 in police court here on a charge of traffic law violation.

Judge Morris was arrested on October 26, the complaint reciting that he failed to stop and render aid to a pedestrian struck by his automobile. This complaint was changed today to one of failing to give a traffic signal and Judge Morris was given the alternative of paying a fine of $10 or spending five days in jail.

HUGHES' AID TO RESIGN JOB, BECOME MINISTER TO BELGIUM

Henry P. Fletcher.

Washington, Nov. 26.—(Special.)—Henry P. Fletcher, under secretary of state, will soon resign his place to become ambassador to Belgium. The understanding is here that Mr. Fletcher resigns with the consent of Secretary of State Hughes, who has a high appreciation of the excellent spirit shown by Mr. Fletcher since he has been in office.

Mr. Fletcher was a member of the Rough Riders during the Spanish-American war and entered the diplomatic service soon after as second secretary of the legation in Havana. Since that time he has been almost constantly in the diplomatic service, having been engaged in that work in China, Chile and Mexico. He resigned in February, 1920, when he was ambassador to Mexico.

Mr. Fletcher's services in the diplomatic corps has been excellent in every way. Although known to be a strong republican, he was appointed ambassador to Chile by President Wilson and later was made ambassador to Mexico during the time the Wilson administration was casting around for the best available man to bring order out of the chaotic conditions existing between the two nations.

RAILROAD WAGE DATA INCORRECT SAYS ECONOMIST

Figures Submitted by Carriers to the I. C. C. Are Branded as "Statistical Fallacies" By Expert.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Railroad wage figures supplied the interstate commerce commission by railway executives were branded as "statistical fallacies" by F. J. Warne, economist for the railroad brotherhoods, before the senate interstate commerce committee today.

He said some of the data was untrue and much misleading. High salaries of general officers and other executives were included in the pay rolls and in one instance the salary of $100,000 of one high official was included with wages of fifty-seven employees whose annual pay averaged $1,500. Warne charged. As a result executives' salaries were increased further to increase the averages," he said.

Mr. Warne stated that there had been an increase of $33,000,000 in the annual pay of general and division officers in the last five years, while the number of these officers increased only from 15,000 to 22,000. The effect, he added, was to show an increase in annual wages paid to the extent of $33,000,000 more than has actually been disbursed to the employees.

EXPECT REPORT EARLY IN WEEK BY EXPERTS ON LIMITING NAVY

Both the British and American Representatives Virtually Completed Their Work on Details.

"5-5-3" RATIO SAID TO BE CRUCIAL POINT

All Questions Relating to Auxiliary Craft Are of Collateral Importance Only, Say U. S. Envoys.

(By The Associated Press.)

Washington, Nov. 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—The problem of naval limitation, left in the background while the Far Eastern negotiations are developing the policies of the powers toward China, has been advanced to a point where it is assumed that a point of pre-dominating interest in the arms conference.

It was indicated today that both the American and British experts had virtually completed their work on details of the American plan, and would be ready to report early next week. Japanese experts had no similar announcement, but it was assumed they would not permit themselves to be put in the position of seriously delaying progress.

The "5-5-3" Ratio.

The crucial point in the discussions, as viewed by the American delegation at least, is the "5-5-3" ratio of capital ship strength. It was said positively that, in the opinion of the American spokesmen, all questions relating to auxiliary craft are of collateral importance only, and can be settled easily after an agreement on capital ships.

The American delegation has shown a desire to get back into the naval discussion when the work of the experts permits. The American experts are declared to be well satisfied with the progress in the Far Eastern negotiations, but impatient to get the naval negotiations on a footing.

Another of China's problems reached a virtual "agreement in principle" at a session of the committee of the whole devoted to a consideration of maintenance of foreign post offices and postal systems on Chinese soil. The delegates all agreed there should be a withdrawal of the foreign postal machinery under which conditions warrant, and a subcommittee, headed by Senator Lodge, drew up for later formal adoption a declaration of principle under which the committee would investigate conditions and withdraw when it considered it practical.

The report is to be presented to the full committee Monday, and another subcommittee will present a resolution declaring for a gradual abolition of the extra territorial rights in China which China's judicial machinery warrants. It is expected that the dispatch of an international commission of jurists to China to study the situation will be recommended in the report and agreed to by the conference.

The Postal Question.

In the discussion of the postal question, the Japanese are under doubt whether present postal facilities of China would fully meet the demands made on them should foreign systems be withdrawn. It was also said to have been suggested by some delegates that the Peking government might find difficulty in enforcing reforms which might be agreed to here, in view of the unsettled state of affairs in China.

The virtual decision to leave withdrawal to the discretion of each individual power was the result of President Harding's suggestion for a continuance of the conference plan in international relations.

It was a question of absorbing interest in private conversation between delegates.

Suggestion Endorsed.

Few would comment on it publicly, but the only hint as to the possible attitude of the other nations came from M. Viviani, of France, who endorsed the suggestion, saying it was not only a "high thought," but a practical one, and from a British spokesman, who declared an "association of nations" must be approached carefully.

WASHINGTON CONFERENCE HAS MARKED NEW ERA IN DIPLOMACY, SAY WOMEN

PUBLIC OPINION HAS FOUND ITS NEW WAY TO POWER, THEY STATE

Parley Is Affecting the Course of Statesmen Who Once Could Settle Everything Behind Closed Doors; They Have Faith in the Outcome of the Meeting, They Tell Lady Astor, Member of British House.

(By The Associated Press.)

Washington, Nov. 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—Conviction that the Washington conference "has marked a new era in diplomacy" is expressed by the four women members of the advisory committee to the American delegation in a letter addressed to Lady Astor, member of the British house of commons, made public tonight.

The letter, signed by Mrs. Charles Sumner Bird, Mrs. Katherine Phillips Edson, Mrs. Eleanor Franklin Egan, and Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, is in reply to a letter from Lady Astor transmitting the views of the women of England on the conference.

"This conference has marked a new era in diplomacy," the American women's letter says. "We now realize that in America, as in other countries, public opinion has found its new way to power and is affecting the course of statesmen who once could settle everything behind closed doors."

"We do not agree with those people who have lost faith in the outcome of this conference, who believe that nations having been selfish and having settled their disputes by war, must therefore continue to do so. These people are filled with suspicion and call for more armaments and increasing preparations for war, forgetting the spirit of fair and just settlement."

"We believe with you that the great war has taught us the need of peace and that no nation can stand by itself. We believe that if we want our type of civilization and culture to endure and to progress that this fierce race for armaments must cease. We all know that another world war would be more swift, more extensive, more destructive than the last, and might well be the beginning of the degeneration of our race."

"The conference was called three weeks ago. Already the decks have been cleared for action, all side issues brushed away and a conference of reaching proposals, of immediate limitation of naval armaments has been advanced by the United States and accepted in principle by the two other great naval powers, England and Japan."

Adjusting the Details.

"Now must come the vast and stupendous work of adjusting the details of these principles, of little by little moving the suspensions, the hatreds, the fears. . . . Nearly a million of the best of your manhood, as fifty thousands of ours fell fighting on the fields of battle. . . . It is for us to see that the task is finished."

HARDING PARLEY PLAN ENDORSED BY M. VIVIANI

Suggestion for a Continuation of International Conferences "High Thought" Says Frenchman.

(By The Associated Press.)

Washington, Nov. 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—President Harding's suggestion for a continuation of international conference to deal with world problems as a result of developments at the Washington conference, was endorsed today by M. Viviani of France, who said it was not only a "high thought" but a practical one.

The initiative of President Harding is of very considerable importance," he said. "It is a high thought and a practical thought. If the conference is the beginning of other conferences, this is an historic moment. It shall not be for France to stay away."

"Humanity for its happiness must solve problems of a universal character. The only universal remedy of means must be used."

"If any great nation should be missing in the cohesion of ideas and in the examination of solutions that would make them more difficult. The initiative of President Harding will allow the world to take part."

New York, Nov. 26.—The activity and strength of the investment situation, as expressed by this week's bond market, was a source of general satisfaction in financial circles.

Total sales of bonds on the stock exchange, without considering private transactions, was approximately $30,000,000 par value.

Liberty bonds and Victory notes contributed from 60 to 65 per cent of the operations. At their highest levels, which showed gains of 1 to slightly over 2 per cent, new maximums for the year were made by the tax exempt 3-1/2's, the second 4's and the 4-1/2's, while the two Victory issues repeated their previous high quotations on sales of odd lots.

CITIES JOIN IN HIRING EXPERT ON PHONE RATE

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.)

Santa Fe, Nov. 26.—City Manager James N. Gladding, Albuquerque, today wrote the corporation commission that Albuquerque, Cleveland and Roswell had subscribed $150 to bring the Oklahoma corporation commission's telephone rate expert here when the hearing on the rate increases made by the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph company resumed and asked if the commission could furnish the balance.

Hugh H. Williams, chairman, did not think the commission could. The contingent fund for the next fiscal year, which begins December 1, is only $2,500, he said, and part of this year's expenses would have to be paid out of this fund.

The hearing is to be resumed on December 12.

9 ARE DROWNED WHEN LAKE STEAMER SINKS

(By The Associated Press.)

Oswego, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Nine persons lost their lives when the lake steamer City of New York sank in Lake Ontario, off Stony Point, in a storm late yesterday. Five bodies—one woman and four men—were picked up today and brought here. The bodies were found in a yawl belonging to the City of New York. Nearby an empty boat bearing the steamer's name was drifting.

The City of New York left here Thursday bound for Trenton, Ont., with a load of phosphate.

10 VICTIMS OF GRIDIRON GAMES IN 1921 SEASON

The Death List Was Three Less Than in 1920 and Three Above the Toll of Two Years Ago.

(By The Associated Press.) Chicago, Nov. 26.—(By The Associated Press.)—Football claimed ten victims during the 1921 season, which closed with Thanksgiving day games, according to reports to the Associated Press today.

The death list was three less than 1920, and three above the toll of two years ago. Ten lives were lost as the result of games in 1921, twelve in 1920, eighteen in 1919 and fifteen in 1918.

As in former years, the majority of youths killed were members of high school teams. The figures apparently uphold the contention of football experts that proper training and physical condition greatly minimize the danger of the game, for only one of the players killed was a member of a college eleven. One was a semi-professional player, one a member of a naval team and the remainder were high school or sand lot players.

With one exception, none of the victims was more than 20 years old.

Floyd Watt, Villen, Ia., captain of high school team, dropped unconscious, dying later, November 14.

William Pritchard, Elizabeth City, N. C., 16 years old, died of injuries received in practice game, September 20.

Donald Davis, Emporia, Kan., halfback with Kansas State Normal eleven, died November 21 of internal injuries received in a game against Baldwin university.

Monroe Beatty, Bellevue, Pa., high school player, died October 17, killed in abdomen during practice.

Carlson Mangelback, Toledo, O., 17 years old, instantly killed November 17, playing in amateur game; neck broken.

Harry Johnson, Evanston, Ill., 15-year-old high school player, died October 24 from concussion of brain; injured during practice.

Francis Fricke, Flint, Mich., 18-year-old high school player, died October 19, killed in abdomen during practice.

Frank Nadeau, Lowell, Mass., 23 years old, died November 2 as a result of ruptured blood vessel at base of brain; was a member of a naval team.

Matthew Karyachich, Benwood, W. Va., 20 years old, died September 19 from injuries received in semi-professional game.

Edward H. Keck, Belleville, Ill., 20 years old, killed November 24, crushed in a mass play.

SLIGHT ADVANCE IS REPORTED IN COPPER PRICES

Steel Market is Barely Holding Its Own in Point of Activity and Values; Lead Remains Steady.

(By The Associated Press.) New York, Nov. 26.—The steel market is barely holding its own in point of activity and values. There is a slight demand for structural material while the railroad requirements furnish a steady business and there is some improvement in the demand for pipe.

The price of copper has advanced slightly, however, and a disposition by producers to shade prices as a means of keeping up the present rate of production gives the market an easier feeling.

Pig iron is very quiet with buyers indifferent. Prices are irregular with an easier tendency especially in relation to imports of more than 100,000 tons.

The demand for copper has been a little less general, but has continued in sufficient volume to encourage holders and maintain prices at a further slight advance.

A moderate export business has been reported on the basis of 13½¢ for electrolytic copper to New York.

Sales on domestic and foreign account for the month are expected to total between 125 and 150 million pounds. Casting copper has also moved stronger in sympathy with electrolytic but comparatively little business has been reported.

Lead remains steady. The position of Missouri operators has been improved through the impending cut in freight rates, and London cables have been more bullish.

Tin has eased off from the high end of the week, due to rather free offerings in prompt delivery.

Iron has been quiet. Production this month is expected to show an increase as several producers have started new blocks.

Demand for antimony continues quiet and the undertone has been rather heavy.

the attitude of the American congress had been expressed.

"Great Britain," said, "is most anxious to participate in any movement that would tend to the peace of the world, but obviously the president's suggestion is more or less an American domestic question, on which it would not be proper for the delegates to express an opinion until details have been worked out and congress has decided on some definite scheme that would have the full approval of the American people."

Developments today served to strengthen the possibility, however, that the plans for future conference might become a subject of formal consideration before the arms negotiations are concluded. It was pointed out that the opportunity would be presented when the Far Eastern discussions reach that part of China's ten points suggesting provision be made for future conferences to be held for the discussion of international questions relative to the Pacific and the Far East as a basis for the determination of common policies of the signatory powers in relation thereto.

GERMANY CAN'T PAY REPARATIONS WHEN DUE, SAYS DUISBURG

(By The Associated Press.) Berlin, Nov. 26.—(By The Associated Press.)—Councillor Duisberg, general manager of the Farben Fabrik, formerly of the Friedrich Bayer company, speaking today before representatives of the German chemical industry, said it would be impossible for Germany, from her own resources, to make her reparations payments, due January and February.

Denying that the German chemical industry constituted a war menace, he asserted that due to over-production in the chemical production and the winning consumption in Germany, the industry had fallen into a serious state of depression and that exportations had been seriously hampered by tariffs designed to protect infant industries of other countries.

A 66-year-old woman has died at Vile Platte, La., leaving 401 living descendants.

2 MEN ARE ARRESTED ON A LIQUOR CHARGE

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL) East Las Vegas, N. M., Nov. 26.—Mike Skiles and William Cullen, who are alleged to have been found selling liquor in a local hotel, were arrested here today by prohibition Officer David W. Snyder and assistants who drove in from Albuquerque in automobiles. The government men are said to have had agents here for several days gathering evidence. Skiles and Cullen are said to have operated at the hotel.

Have You a Friend in the Journal's Salesmanship Club?

Now is the time for you to help that friend who is a member of The Albuquerque Journal's Salesmanship Club.

If you will look at the standing of club members, published in today's paper, you will find your friend's name if he is a candidate for one of the fine awards of the club's campaign. He is now on the homestretch and your aid is never before.

If, in the early part of the campaign, you gave your friend a six month or a year's subscription, you can help him materially by making a further payment before December 7th. It will mean several thousand more votes for him if done before that date.

Help Your Friends Help Themselves

THEY'RE BEGINNING TO VOTE IN JOURNAL'S AUTO CAMPAIGN

New Interest in Albuquerque Journal's Salesmanship Club Seen—Many Inquiries Accompanied by Votes Being Received Daily—New Candidates Can Enter the Campaign Today and Lead in the Race in Tomorrow's List of Vote Standings.

Interest in the Albuquerque Morning Journal's $3,500 gift-saving campaign is increasing by leaps and bounds. Club members who have been away down in the vote standings suddenly have come to life.

A glance at today's totals will show that many are busy. Every day brings inquiries about the campaign, although the greater part of them are accompanied by votes from persons who, having been nominated, have thought it over carefully and decided that the opportunity of securing either a Studebaker Sedan, Studebaker touring car or a Chevrolet touring car and the hundreds of dollars in gold, and other prizes absolutely FREE, is too good to lose.

They are starting themselves on the road to success.

New Leaders Every Day. During the last few days, the campaign department has been flooded with votes sent in by friends for their favorite club members in the race.

Evidently some of the club members who have been less active in the past, have enrolled the help of their acquaintances and friends. Subscribers to the Journal when renewing their subscriptions or paying up their old accounts, invariably have a favorite club member in whose favor they cast their votes. We take this as an indication that there are to be some great surprises and shifting about in the vote standings from day to day.

Many Chances Coming. In fact, many of the club members who have up to this time been away down in the lists are now starting their campaign. In earnest, and if we are "good guessers" some of those who have been leading the field up to this time, will have to look out or they will be passed by. A little mathematics used will show any club member how to jump to the top of the list with a rush.

The following are just a few examples: A subscription to The Journal for six years at this time counts 360,000 votes; this constitutes two "Clubs," or 200,000 extra votes, making a total of 560,000 votes in all. Or, on two one-year and two two-year subscriptions this also makes two clubs and earns 240,000 votes in all. A little work done right now among your friends and acquaintances, on these long-term subscriptions will do wonders for any club member. Think it over and GET BUSY.

Last Call for New Entries. If you have not as yet sent in your nomination coupon, then get busy and send it in now, and participate in this great gift-giving campaign.

FRANCHISE ELECTION IS HALTED BY COURT

(By The Associated Press.) Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 26.—Judge James C. Hume, of district court today granted the injunction sought by Grant Van Horn to prevent the holding of the special street car franchise election next Monday.

Judge Hume in his opinion, which is full of humor, upheld the contention of the petitioner that the procedure of the city council in passing the proposed street car franchise was illegal. He held that "neither the city council, nor a majority of the voters, nor both of them put together, have power, over plaintiff's objection, to repeal the existing franchise ordinance," passed in 1916 which was supposed to remain in force for twenty-five years.

In the opening statement of his opinion on the case, Judge Hume said: "If vox populi is vox dei as some say it is, this is a suit in which the court is asked to shut God's mouth—some suit!"

The judge's order stopping a referendum, leaves the street car condition in a new muddle. In some quarters it was said service might be suspended again as was done by the court order last August.

NAME RECEIVERS FOR WILLYS CORPORATION

Toledo, O., Nov. 26.—Frank P. Konnison, vice president of the Ohio Savings bank, Toledo, and Clem O. Miniger, president of the Electric Auto-Lite corporation of Toledo, were today appointed receivers for the Willys corporation, manufacturers of automobile accessories. The appointment was made in the federal court here by Judge John M. Klilita and confirmed by federal judges in New York and Newark, N. J.

New York, Nov. 26.—John M. Willys, president Willys corporation, federal receivers for which were appointed in Toledo today, issued a statement here emphasizing the fact that it was not the Willys-Overland company which was affected. The latter company, he said, was a separate and distinct corporation and not interested in Willys corporation.

MY NERVES WERE COMPLETELY SHATTERED—I WAS WEAK

Wornout and "All In;" My Business Was Ruined; I Was a Failure in Life; All as a Result of Exhausted Nerve Force

How you may quickly help put new nerve force into wornout exhausted nerve cells, and remarkably increase your strength, power and endurance, often in two weeks time.

For sometime I had noticed that I was quite nervous and often annoyed very much by trifles. When I was under constant nervous strain, but I never thought that a strong, vigorous man like I was, could go all to pieces and become a physical and mental wreck. But one day this is just what happened to me, and very suddenly at that. Nature had given me such warning symptoms as a dull aching pain in the lower back part of my head, and sometimes a sense of fullness in the front of my head. Often I was restless and could not sleep well at night, and I noticed that I would get tired very quickly, but my principal warning symptom was nervous irritability and if I had given attention to it at the right time, I might have saved myself untold misery and thousands of dollars because after my nervous breakdown came about, I still tried to go on with my business and thereby lost nearly everything I had. I found out that exhausted nerve force not only ruins a man physically but mentally as well.

The above is a hypothetical case, which a physician says may well illustrate thousands which exist today. Homes are wrecked, children ruined; all through exhausted nerve force or neurasthenic conditions.

Very few people realize the awful suffering and terrible physical and mental torments which are caused by a depletion of the nerve-vital fluid.

In such cases it is often worse than foolish to take mere stimulating medicines or narcotic drugs, which only whip in an frantic, futile power for the moment, may be at the expense of your life.

What you need is to put more nerve force into your blood and more iron into your blood to help make new nerve force with which to feed your starving nerve cells. This is most effectively accomplished by the free use of Nuxated Iron. This valuable product contains the principal chemical constituent of active living nerve force in a form which most nearly resembles that in the nerve and brain cells of a man. It also contains organic iron like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. This form of iron will not blacken nor injure the teeth nor upset the stomach. It is an entirely different thing from metallic iron which people usually take. Nuxated Iron may therefore be termed both a blood and a nerve food, as it feeds strength-giving iron to your blood and the principal chemical ingredient of active living nerve force to your brain and nerve cells.

MORE C. OF C. WORKERS NEEDED TO FINISH MEMBERSHIP DRIVE BY 6 O'CLOCK MONDAY EVENING

127 Additional Workers Are Signed Up to Aid in Drive Tomorrow; 100 More Needed; 227 Members Now Enrolled Who Never Before Were Identified With the Organization.

The second day of the chamber of commerce membership drive, which ended with 227 members enrolled in the organization, is now well under way. Many persons who had heretofore been identified with chamber activities were also enrolled.

Although the result of the two days' work is very gratifying to the central committee, there is still a lack of workers in the campaign. The city has been divided into blocks and there are still 161 blocks which have not been worked at all. The campaign is now well under way and many of the committees are turning in 100 per cent memberships from their blocks.

Speaking of the spirit of the drive, C. O. Cushman, who came back from San Francisco to take part in the drive, declared yesterday that he had never seen the general boost spirit running so high in the city.

"Albuquerque seems to have taken on new vigor," Mr. Cushman said. "The general spirit, which I found upon my arrival here, promises well for the city. Hundreds of men are taking an active interest who for the past few years have been almost inactive in civic matters."

"I predict that if enough workers register at the chamber parlors Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock the campaign will be successfully finished by 6 o'clock Monday evening and the chamber will have a membership of 1,500. With such a membership of workers, Albuquerque will start at once enjoying a greater period of prosperity and development."

More Workers Needed.

The response to the solicitation for members has been almost unanimous among those who have been solicited, but there are not enough workers to cover the city and complete the drive by tomorrow evening and secure the quota of 1,500 members.

The seriousness of the problem was presented to the workers at the noon luncheon yesterday at the Y. M. C. A. and a committee of fifteen volunteered to go out after workers. The committee will start at 8:30 o'clock from the chamber of commerce. Practically all of the signers of the work pledge are business men who have not been on the working teams during the first two days of the drive.

This will bring the workers up to over 500 and it is hoped that others, who have not signed up as workers, will present themselves for work tomorrow. It is thought that the entire city can be covered by tomorrow evening.

The list of workers, most of whom are new in this drive, which was secured by the committee of fifteen follows:

L. C. Merfeldt, C. O. Cushman, Butts' Drug Store, Anthony G. Paulantoni, Tony Gotch, W. W. Still, Wm. M. Turner, Henry Gerber, Alex. James, Gust Kouslas, Ralph Putnick, C. A. Schumaker, George Hill, T. W. Roberts, D. C. Dadds, Woodworth, Rodney & Rodney, E. Richardson, E. C. Hanna, Neil McConney, R. N. Hobbs, A. G. Gray, Mr. Williams, Mr. Bachechi, Bro.

THREE CONVICTS AND FOUR BOYS IN STATE REFORMATORY FREED

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.)

Santa Fe, Nov. 26.—Three convicts in the penitentiary and four boys in the reformatory were pardoned today by Governor Mechem.

The convicts are Tom Simmons, grant county; Nicolas Mares, Valencia; Manuel Cheyes, Valencia; Mares and Cheyes were convicted of cattle larceny, but Simmons' crime was not shown in the pardon.

The boys are Antonio Jauriqui, Sierra; Gabriel Parra, Dona Ana; Earl Higgins, Bernalillo; Charles Michelback, Bernalillo.

Luis Carranza's pardon, granted September 17, was revoked when the governor learned he could not be deported to Mexico. The pardon was issued expressly for this purpose.

CAPT. HANS TAUSCHER ARRIVES IN NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 26.—Capt. Hans Tauscher, husband of Mme. Gadski, grand opera singer who left for Germany in February, 1917, with former Ambassador Bernstorff while under indictment in San Francisco for alleged violation of American neutrality, returned here today on the steamer America.

The indictment in San Francisco was dismissed November 1. Tauscher had been charged with connection in the so-called Hindin plot to ship arms and ammunition to India.

In 1916 Captain Tauscher, who then was representative of the Krupp company, was arrested here charged with having conspired to destroy the Welland canal in September, 1915. He was acquitted by a jury and in February, 1917, was given safe passage home. He served in the German army during the war and only recently was reported to be seeking United States citizenship.

FARMING IS NOT PROFITABLE IN ENGLAND, SAYS

Workers Decline to Take Over Valuable Land and Pay Their Own Wages Out of the Proceeds.

(By The Associated Press.)

London, Nov. 26.—S. F. Edge, a scientific farmer, offered some few weeks ago, to hand over farm land valued at £20,000 to a committee of his employees without cost, but subject to the proviso that they should pay their own wages out of the proceeds.

"It is announced that they have declined the offer, and Mr. Edge has extended it to any reputable labor body, such as the agricultural workers' union."

"The purpose of this offer," said Mr. Edge, when interviewed at his Sussex farm, "is to prove to the trade unions that farming, like every other industry, will only pay wages that are earned, unless they are drawn from capital. Agricultural laborers have been misled as to the profit a farmer makes from corn-growing or ordinary agriculture, and it was to teach them the truth that I made this offer."

"My employees on my farms, which have grown in the past two years from a modest fifty acres to some 2,000 acres, have not accepted my offer, knowing that they will make more money in wages than they could make out of the farm."

"I now suggest that one of the farms should be run on a co-operative scheme in charge of the workers and their unions. They would have to be an agreement that accepted methods of good husbandry be observed. It would be possible, of course, to enjoy several years of prosperity by taking everything possible out of the land and putting nothing back. The farm must be kept in good order, fences kept up, ditches drained, land fertilized and buildings maintained."

"What I am deeply concerned with is that the whole of the land of this country should be farmed at a profit, so that many more families may be employed on the land. Tens of thousands can be employed on pig-breeding, at present by far the most remunerative form of agriculture. We have immense areas of unproductive land. Why should we not connect unproductive land with unemployed people, and make the land produce pigs?"

A Paris newspaper inquired of its readers what attributes a Frenchman considers most desirable in his wife. The twenty thousand replies indicated that health was considered the most desirable quality. Then came courage, frankness, wit, fidelity, and cleverness in turn. The majority put wealth about half-way down the list, and, more surprising still, beauty was placed last of all.

HOW COLLEGE GIRL TYPE HAS CHANGED IN 50 YEARS SHOWN BY VASSAR PHOTOS

Miss Isabel Simpson, who represents the present type, and a photo of one of the Vassar students of the class of 1871.

"The college girl of today is so different from those of years ago," one often hears. Judging by the pictures above it is true. These photos from Vassar show the change since the class of 1871 graduated. Quite a difference between the modern flapper type bobbed hair girl of today and the demure, severely dressed miss of fifty years ago.

SOUTHARD TO ASK FOR A DIVORCE FROM WIFE

(By The Associated Press.)

Two Falls, Idaho, Nov. 26.—Paul Vincent Southard will ask for divorce from his wife, Lydia M. Southard, who was convicted in district court here of second degree murder of her fourth husband, Edward P. Meyer, and who is now serving a term of ten years to life imprisonment in the state prison.

Information to this effect came today to Frank L. Stephan, county attorney, who directed the prosecution of Mrs. Southard in a letter from Southard asking for state aid in her divorce suit.

"As my wife, Lydia M. Southard, has been convicted I am now going to get a divorce from her," Southard says in his letter. Southard was in constant attendance at court sessions while his wife was on trial and frequently expressed confidence in her innocence.

Southard is a petty officer in the United States navy and is stationed now at the submarine base at San Pedro, Calif.

SCOUTS WIN FROM ST. MARY 19 TO 3

Headquarters Troop Boy Scouts defeated the St. Mary team today at the Washington park football grounds by a score of 19 to 3. The game was one of the hardest the scouts have played this season.

The St. M. Y. team opened up strong and scored three points in the first half. That ended their scoring and the scouts piled up 19 points in the last half. The game ended with the ball in possession of the scouts on the St. Mary 29-yard line. Most of the gains made by the scouts in the last half were made by straight football, bucking and punting.

The game marked the close of the season for both teams. The headquarters boys have played a very successful season, scoring 123 points in their six games to their opponents' 12 points. The game scores follow: Menaul 6; Scouts 6; St. Mary 6; Scouts 6; Santa Fe Scouts 6; Headquarters Scouts 8; Menaul 0; Scouts 21; Santa Fe H. S. 0; Scouts 24; St. Mary 3; Scouts 19.

THUNDEROUS OVATION GIVEN MARSHAL FOCH IN THE TWIN CITIES

(By The Associated Press.)

St. Paul-Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 26.—Marshal Foch of France concluded a 24-hour visit in the twin cities tonight by receiving a thunderous ovation at a mass meeting in St. Paul. An admiring throng heard him eulogize the American soldier, and as he concluded he was given an ovation.

Tonight he departed for Bismarck, N. D., en route to the Pacific coast.

On every hand today, in his visits in both cities, the generalissimo was acclaimed by thousands. Speaking at a banquet in St. Paul tonight the marshal said: "Unified determination of the nations can achieve peace throughout the world as surely as unity of command brought military victory to the allies."

And once the nations that survived the war as leading powers have put their houses in order, he added, they will be in a position to establish peace universally by assisting in the restoration of order in Russia and other places where anarchy exists.

IOWA MAN IS HELD ON CHARGE OF RECEIVING STOLEN AUTOMOBILES

The agents declared that the automobiles had been sent here for disposal. They said additional arrests in other parts of the state are expected.

MOSCOW MUST BE SELF-SUPPORTING, DECISION

(By The Associated Press.)

Moscow, Nov. 26.—The Moscow city soviet, corresponding to the American city council, has decided that the city must be self-supporting and has published a schedule of new taxes for revenue purposes. Among them are:

For marriage applications, 15,000 rubles; divorce applications, 20,000 rubles; change of name, 100,000 rubles; application for Russian citizenship, 10,000 rubles; application for foreign citizenship, 100,000 rubles; permission to change residence, 1,000 rubles; tax on concerts, lectures, maintaining buffet, 50,000 rubles; tax on rubber stamps used by business firms, 100,000 rubles.

As the official exchange rate, on the day these taxes were decreed, was 100,000 rubles to the dollar, an American in Moscow, armed with a $5 bill, could get married, be divorced, change his name, change his residence a few times, lecture on his honeymoon experiences, change his citizenship and own at least one rubber stamp without paying another cent. The Russian central executive committee has ordered the commissariat of finance to arrange, within a fortnight, a budget showing the extent of the new taxes.

Throughout Russia together with a statement of the loss incurred from printing paper money.

GASOLINE CONSUMPTION REACHES HIGH RECORD

A Washington dispatch says: A new high record in gasoline consumption was established in August when 403,600,000 gallons were used, according to an announcement by the bureau of mines. Although the average daily production in August of 12,512,000 gallons was 855,000 gallons more than in July, total stock on August 21 amounted to 567,645,000 gallons, showing a decrease of 116,000,000 gallons during the month, according to the figures.

Exports of gasoline in August totaled 87,803,000 gallons or 75 per cent more than in July. Total production for the month was given as 121,577,000 gallons.

Human nature is always looking for something for nothing. Take men's clothes, for instance. Good woollens must be paid for. Every laborer must be paid for his efforts. In good clothes there is no such thing as "something for nothing." Everyone really believes this, yet hundreds of men in the country every day regret that they bought price tags instead of merchandise.

And really there is no necessity for this when stores like Eubank Brothers, for instance, sell well made, pure wool suits and overcoats for as little as $25—and guarantees them.

The Laundry

The public laundry is inevitable, necessary, desirable, and has come to stay. With the growth in number and business of the public laundry has come a study by the associations of laundry owners of the science of laundering. The laundry subjects the fabrics to no rougher usage than the home laundress does and usually gets the fabrics cleaner. The user injures many fabrics so that a trip to the laundry merely serves to bring out the injury. Sucking pins into cloth usually breaks a few fibers, which later give way during washing and start a hole. Catching a shirt waist on a rough place in the furniture, or bed linen on the corner of a spring, will cause a small tear or weaken a few fibers, which even gentle laundering will break and use as a start of a tear or a hole. Cutting bread on the table edge or drawing a knife edge or fork prongs over the tablecloth and napkins causes almost invisible injuries which the laundry is sure to make visible. Occasionally the fabric itself is at fault. The thread in one direction may be excellent, but in the "filling" may be paper or other inferior material. Knotted threads in the second quality of fabrics cause trouble as the knots stand out and get rough treatment in use or in ironing, tearing the thread and starting a fault which subsequent laundering accentuates. Cloth may be improperly dyed so that the chemicals used or the process of dyeing weakens the cloth appreciably. The laundressman causes damage in some cases, but usually the fault is with the fabric or with the use to which it has been subjected.

40,000 PERSONS SEE ARMY-NAVY FOOTBALL GAME

Notables From America,
Great Britain, France,
Japan and Italy Witness
Annual Classic in N. Y.

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Nov. 26 (by the Associated Press).—The spectacle of twenty-two mud-smeared huskies battling over a great lump of mud that was a football, held a crowd of nearly 40,000 persons spellbound through three hours of driving rain when Army met Navy at the Polo grounds today.

It was Navy weather. And with their indicators set at "full speed ahead" the midshipmen plowed through the sticky sea to a 7-to-0 victory.

Brush stadium sheltered scarcely half the throng that watched the skidding gladiators. The others, among them Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge, and notables representing America, Great Britain, France, Japan and Italy, sat in the rain.

The vice president and Mrs. Coolidge were among the earliest arrivals, sitting, for the first half, in a box on the Army side, and scornful umbrellas. The vice president wore a battered slouch hat and a heavy overcoat. Mrs. Coolidge was bundled in a heavy fur coat.

In a box on their right were Secretary Weeks and Mrs. Weeks, while on their left sat high military attaches of the foreign arms delegations. Most of them were witnessing their first football game. They were guests of General Pershing, but as he was unable to attend because of illness, Major General Harbord, deputy chief of staff, acted for him.

On the Navy side, to which Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge were escorted between halves, sat Admiral Koonz, chief of naval operations; Admirals Jones and Eberle, commanders respectively of the Atlantic and Pacific fleets, and Rear Admiral Clegg, and Benzon, Secretary of the Navy.

Goat Leads Navy Parade.
The stands were packed long before the midshipmen, in their long blue overcoats, marched in behind a band and circled the gridiron before taking their seats in the rainy-side cheering section.

They were led by the Navy goat, prancing along as if he sensed the victory to come.
The mud was so heavy that the midshipmen abandoned their drill, but they marched around the gridiron before climbing into their seats.

Scarcely were they settled when the Army players, heavily blanketed, trotted out and began warming up. They were greeted by a great roar.

A moment later the crash of the Army's band was heard and the gray clad West Pointers marched in behind their bravely-decked mule.

Then the Navy team scampered forth, and with the opposing gladiators in sight, the rival cheering sections opened fire.

It was a football-mad crowd that surged to its feet when play started and remained there standing until the last whistle.

And, despite the weather, it was a fashionable crowd. That is, it was fashionable until the rain had gotten in its work. Rich fur coats began to wilt. Gaudy millinery hung limp. Pumps and silk stockings were bedraggled and mud-smeared. Only the chrysanthemum worn by fair rosters seemed to thrive.

Crowd Cared Nothing.
But the crowd cared nothing. A few hoisted umbrellas and got themselves rapidly calmed down by those in the rear. Others improvised head coverings of newspapers. But the greater part stood unsheltered and forgot the rain.

The crowd was so intent on the players and the grotesque football over which they waged combat—a football that had to be massaged with a towel at every call of "time out."

The crowd went wild, along with the Navy cheering section when Navy smashed over its lone touchdown. It seemed to go even mad when the Army rosters when the cadets rushed down into the shadow of Navy.

And then, when Navy had broken the Army attack by intercepting a forward pass, the whistle blew and the crowd began pouring down on the field to see the midshipmen's snake dance. The cadets alone sat quietly in their places until the snake dance was over.

Western Players Predominate On All-American Grid Team

BY NORMAN E. BROWN.
The selection of an All-American football team this year presents a complex situation that never has occurred before. In years gone by the west was wrongly classed as producing an inferior grade of football, generally to that of the east. As a result only one or two scintillating stars of the west, whose work attracted prominence in the stories of the games, were given places on these All-American eleven.

This year the west unquestionably produced a better grade of football generally than did the east. The western eleven displayed more attacking power, as resourceful attack, as good defensive play and much more consistent playing on the part of teams and individuals.

Westerners Predominate.
To my mind western players deserve a majority of places, therefore, on this mythical team to represent the American colleges.

I believe "Whoops" Snively of Princeton and Brick Muller of the University of California are the greatest ends in the game today. Munns of Cornell approaches the nearest to their class. He might well replace either of them with little damage to the team. Myers of O. S. U. I would rank fourth.

Hanson of Cornell and Gulick of Syracuse at the tackles form a pair that not only are powers on defense but played an important part in the offensive work of their eleven. Hanson led the east in kicking goals, his total reaching around forty. Gulick's plunges and his work in interference on the attack were outstanding features of Syracuse's games.

The west has the call on the guard position with Dunne of Michigan and Pixley, O. S. U. giant, crouched there. These two with Wallace of Iowa State at center and the two easterners at the tackles would give the team an impenetrable line and one that would raise havoc with the opposition's defense.

Greene of the Army and Larson of the Navy, both captains of their teams, make a strong bid for the center position, but I believe the plucky player from Iowa State has the edge. Bauer of Penn State would be well fitted to sub for Pixley or Dunne.

Wealth of Backs.
From the wealth of wonderful backfield men produced this year one could well choose four or five sets of backs that would hold their own against any opposition.

"Bo" McMillan, the man who led the astounding little Center college team, is without a doubt the greatest field general of the present day. Critics who saw him lead off defensive and offensive play against Harvard which resulted in Harvard's first downfall in five seasons, agreed that he showed superhuman skill in handling the team. Second only to McMillan stands out Audrey Devine of Iowa.

CLAYTON CLAIMS ITS ELEVEN WON GAME AT RATON

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO MORNING JOURNAL.)
Clayton, N. M., Nov. 26.—The protested play by which Raton was granted a touchdown in the Thanksgiving game with Clayton at Raton was not a touchdown but a touchback, according to a decision of Coach Roy Johnson, of the University of New Mexico, and Assistant Coach Mather, of the University of Michigan. These authorities have just wired their decisions in response to Clayton's telegraphic request for an opinion.

Coach Mather cites rule 15, paragraph two of the football rules to substantiate his decision.

The play in question was on side kick over the goal line. On the strength of the decisions of these high authorities, Clayton now claims the championship of northern New Mexico and the right to play Roswell for the state championship.

NAVY GRIDSTERS DEFEAT ARMY IN ANNUAL CONTEST

Middies Win From West Pointers, 7 to 0; Game is Played in the Rain; Barchet Is Star Player.

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Nov. 26.—The battleships of the Navy eleven ploughed through the heavy seas of the Polo grounds today, battered the Army's fortifications in the rain, captured the annual service football classic, 7 to 0, and took the lead in the series. Since 1899 the Navy has won twelve and the Army eleven.

The Navy scrapped its airplanes on discovering early that dreadnaughts were more effective. It attacked with line plungers and end runs that resulted in an advance of fifty-three yards to a touchdown in the second period.

Barchet was the stellar battle center, the advance and indeed throughout the game. From his own forty-four-yard line he circled end on a kick formation twenty yards. Conron and Barchet alternated in carrying the ball off tackle from a tandem formation until the former smashed over, followed by King's goal. The progress comprised thirteen plays during which the Navy gained first down four times.

Army Threatens To Tie.
Out-rushed and out-played in the line, Army threatened to tie in the game as the result of the brilliance of French. Receiving a punt at his own forty-yard line, he ran it back ten yards and followed this with a twenty-eight-yard run around his right end with interference provided by a double shift of the backs to the right before the ball was passed. In two more plays he had put the ball ten yards away from the Navy's goal, but was thrown for a five-yard loss in attempting to repeat.

Here Hamilton, a substitute back, intercepted a forward pass and the thrust of a tie score was averted. Hamilton was tackled as he grabbed the ball eight yards from his own goal, and, although the Navy was penalized for off side, it kicked out of danger.

Navy had the Army on the defensive most of the game, twice having the ball within Army's twenty-five-yard line in the second period only to lose it. Most of the play in the third and fourth periods was in mid-field.

The Army had one real scoring opportunity besides that which was lost with the interception of a forward pass in the fourth period. This was in the first quarter when, after the first kick off, it carried the ball forty-one yards to the Navy's thirty-three-yard line, where the Navy compelled the Army to resort to an attempt to score by a goal from placement. Milligan failed, the ball going under the cross bar.

Smythe Starts the Thrills.
The advance that culminated in this attempt was the only exhibition of offensive power by the Army until the flag toward the end of the game. Smythe started the thrills on the first line up of the game by a twenty-yard run. French made one smash and gained nine yards and another that earned eleven, but these gains were partly offset by a fifteen-yard penalty for holding.

On its own twenty-yard line after the touchback, due to Mulligan's unsuccessful kick from placement, the Navy had its first chance of the game to display its offensive. After thirteen plays the ball twenty-two yards from the Army goal as the first period ended, only to lose it on downs shortly after the start of the second quarter. Two forward passes in Navy's try were grounded during this attack, and the Navy stuck mostly thereafter to straight football.

On the kick off after Navy's touchdown launch, the ball tuck forty-two yards to mid-field. Five more plays put the ball on the Army's twenty-yard line. Three plays made no progress and an attempt at a long pass ended in loss of the slippery ball on a fumble.

Illustrative of the mid-field stalemate in the third period, was the fact that the navy had the ball in enemy territory only twice.
The Navy earned first down thirteen times compared with the Army's five. The Navy attempted four forward passes. One gained five yards. The others were grounded. The Army tried five forward passes. Four were grounded and one intercepted.

VICTORY OF MIDDIES ENTHUSES HOME FANS
Annapolis, Md., Nov. 26.—Navy's triumph over Army in the annual football game today was received with wild enthusiasm among local fans. The result puts Navy one game in the lead, the Middies victory last year having made the series even at eleven each and one game resulted in a tie. The Middies will suffer the heaviest losses in years by graduation next June as six members of the team belong to the first class. Those who will graduate are: Captain Larsen, center; Frawley, right guard; King and Wiedorn, tackles; and Cruise and Koehler, backs.

SPEED IS PROMISED IN TWO MAIN EVENTS OF MONDAY BOXING CARD AT ARMORY; THEY ALL LOOK GOOD

Benny Chavez Boosters Claim He Is Still Featherweight Champion Timber; Sailor Gonzalez Doesn't Think So; Johnny Corona and Kid Anaya Will Go Ten Rounds.

The boxers for the double main event which Dan Padilla has scheduled for the armory Monday evening completed their training yesterday and will either taper off on light exercise today and tomorrow or will let well enough alone. Aside from several preliminaries which promise well, the card carries a 15-round go between Benny Chavez of Trinidad, Colo., and Sailor Gonzalez, the Albuquerque featherweight hope, and a 10-round event between Kid Anaya of Albuquerque and Johnny Corona of Stockton, Calif. There will be thirty-three rounds of boxing in all of the bouts travel their scheduled length.

All four of the main eventers look to be in the pink of condition and there seems to be no chance that any of them will fall in the physical examination by the city boxing commission physician Monday afternoon.

The boys expressed confidence in their ability to cop the bacon Monday night and the two bouts promise to be the fastest seen in the city in a number of years.

It has been a long time since two bouts of such importance to the sporting world have been scheduled in Albuquerque and the results will reflect throughout the featherweight boxing world.

Here They Are.
"I have worked hard and believe I am in as good physical condition as ever. If not better than in the past few years," declared Benny Chavez last night a few minutes after he had taken off his training gloves at his quarters at the Pacific billiard hall. "I intend to push the fight every minute and will give the fans the best there is in me and try to please them."

Benny Chavez needs no introduction to Albuquerque boxing fans nor to boxing fans anywhere in the United States. He has appeared in about 250 scheduled bouts, meeting the best of his weight class with a fair chance of winning.

Benny will weigh 122 at ring-side and in the past ten years has met and in many instances defeated the top notchers of his weight class. He has been a contender for championship honors several times and some of the old fans who knew him three or four years ago and have watched him training for the Monday night bout, claim he is still a contender of the first water.

Among the boys he has met are Johnny Kilbane, Ritchie Mitchell, Jene Delmont, Wop Flynn, Jimmy Fox, Eddie Campi, Battling Chico, Brannigan and Monty Attel.

"I expect to win from Benny Chavez Monday night," said Gonzalez stated after completing his training yesterday afternoon. "I am in the best of condition and if I lose I will have no alibi."

Sailor Gonzalez will step into the ring against Benny Chavez and will meet Benny's weight of 122. Sailor began his fighting career in 1917 aboard the U. S. S. Maine a few days after a younger and smaller jack tar dropped him badly in a free for all.

He soon capped the featherweight championship on the U. S. S. Maine and then took on the champs of many of the other battalions of the Atlantic fleet without a defeat.

He took the featherweight champion of Camp Kearney for a goal in February, 1918. He has had about seventy regular bouts, copping a decision here a few weeks ago from Benny Chavez.

Within the last few months he K. O'd Sammy Johnson at El Paso in the third round; got an eight-round decision from Battling Kruse at San Antonio; got a draw from Insurrecto Kid, and received an even break from Jack Myrick at Gallup and knocked out Joe Correto in the fifth round at Terlingua, Colo.

"I expect to beat Kid Anaya Monday night," Johnny Corona said yesterday. "And then I'll take on any featherweight in the southwest or from anywhere that the promoters can produce one."

Johnny Corona, who comes from Stockton, Calif., is 24 years old and will step into the ring weighing a fraction under or over 120 pounds. He began fighting in 1912 and in 1917 grabbed off the featherweight title of the Pacific coast.

He carried it around for a couple of years and then dropped it to Danny Nunes at San Diego in 1919.

He has had about 150 fights and is credited with eight K. O.s, making most of his wins on points. He has never been knocked out.

Among some of the boys he has met are Frankie Vierra, Gene Gilne, Jimmy Fox, Demon Rivera, Young Fontana, Frankie West and Bert Coffey.

"My fighting career has been very short, in fact I started to fight after I was married," Kid Anaya told some of the boys yesterday after he had squared away with his training. "I have only had four teen fights but I expect to win Monday night by a K. O. and from there I'm going on."

Kid Anaya is 21 years old and was born in Albuquerque. He has been fighting at around 118, but will step into the ring Monday night at 122. Of his fourteen fights, the Insurrecto Kid holds the only decisions over him, and Anaya has one decision over Insurrecto and one draw. Anaya has fought such boys as Dick Cody, Jokey Hamilton and several others of lesser fame.

Pete Herman, the former bantamweight champion, has been compelled to cancel all of his bouts for the present because of a broken bone in his right hand.

EDUCATIONAL EXCHANGE TO EXTEND FUNCTIONS

An extension of the functions of the Southwestern Educational Exchange to include employment bureau service for clerks has been announced by R. W. Crist, manager of the exchange. The exchange, which has its offices in the C. T. French building, has been in existence for the past eight years. It will now find employment for banks, office and bank clerks as well as teachers.

THE WAY OF THE 'VAG' IS HARD IN ALBUQUERQUE

Itinerant gentlemen of leisure are finding but little peace and calm in Albuquerque. The police have declared a campaign against them and the city manager has provided enough work to keep them busy and in good physical condition.

A thirty-day sentence on a "vag" charge does not mean just lying around and sleeping in jail. It means hard manual labor such as shoveling gravel.

A large number of "vags" are now at work in the city for the city and City Manager James Gladding reports considerable work done during the past week. A large number of the "vags" are assisting in cleaning up at the East Central avenue paving; others are helping at the dump grounds and others are working ten hours a day on the streets.

OYSTER SUPPER WILL BE GIVEN BY CHURCH

A big oyster supper, which will be attended by the entire congregation of the Congregational church, will be held at the church parlors on Thursday evening. The entertainment is to be given by the men of the church. William Bryce is chairman of the committee on arrangements, which is composed of J. G. Gould, Roy Schick and Frank Severns.

The modern Chinese woman is becoming a confirmed cigarette smoker. Seven thousand million cigarettes were imported into China last year.

CENTRAL AVENUE PAVING WILL BE FINISHED SOON

Paving on East Central avenue from Mulberry to High streets will probably be completed Saturday. It is planned to start putting on the asphaltic surface tomorrow morning and it is estimated that it will take about six days to complete the work. The paving will be ready for use as soon as completed.

The New Mexico Construction company was given the contract for the two blocks of paving and started work about October 15 under a contract to complete the construction within thirty working days. It being feared that freezing weather would stop construction unless the work was speeded up to the highest point. Considerable unavoidable delay was experienced and the city commission granted an extension of thirty days, making December 15 the date when the work must be completed.

Every effort has been made by the company to complete the job as soon as possible and the concrete work was finished several days ago and is now dried out enough for the surfacing. It is not known exactly when the paving will be done because the street car tracks as the City Electric company was granted the privilege of doing this work itself and was given until next spring to complete it.

THE PROPER LUBRICANT FOR YOUR FORD CAR

Proper lubrication is essential to economical operation of a Ford. Allow-grade oil cannot meet the special requirements of Ford lubrication and will cause wear on the accurately made parts of engine, clutch and transmission.

In the Ford engine one oil must lubricate three entirely different mechanisms. One oil must meet the requirements of the engine parts, the transmission gears and the disc clutch.

Do Not Use "Light" Oil.
For the engine proper oil should be heavy enough to resist intense heat, and thus prevent heavy carbon deposits and avoid boiling the water.

For the transmission gears, the oil should be extra heavy to cushion the gears and prevent noise and wear.

For the disc clutch the oil should be light enough to prevent danger to the operator from "dragging," especially when starting the motor in cold weather.

These three different conditions demand a compromise in the body of the one oil used. Light oil cannot efficiently lubricate the Ford engine, transmission and gears.

Use of unsuitable oil will soon cause even the highly efficient Ford engine to show certain undesirable effects. Automobile engineers have analyzed these results as: bucking or jerky engine, carbon and dirty spark plugs, engine knocks, overheating and loose bearings.

OBREGON LAUGHS AT REPORTS OF NEW UPRISINGS

Revolt in Lower California
Is Considered of Small Importance; "There Is No Need for Alarm," Says.

(By The Associated Press.)

Mexico City, Nov. 26.—(By The Associated Press.)—Revolutionary conditions reported recently in Lower California are considered of small importance by President Obregon, who received newspaper correspondents today and dismissed questions relative to these reported disturbances with a laugh.

"There is no need for alarm," he said, "as the uprisings are minor." President Obregon asserted a change of personnel in the national agrarian commission would be made soon. "The government agrarian law," he added, "is sound, logical and workable."

Some local newspaper men asked if it would mean the resignation of the minister of agriculture, Florentino Villarreal, but the president answered in the negative.

He dealt warily with the Washington conference and when questioned whether Mexico would accept an invitation, if extended, to participate in later sessions, he answered that the "form of such invitation would determine Mexico's acceptance."

Fletcher's Retirement.

Under Secretary of State Fletcher's possible retirement was described by the president as "the loss of a personal friend in the American state department." He added, however, that Mr. Fletcher "quite naturally has always viewed Mexico through North American eyes."

He intimated that extensive railroad improvements will be made by the republic, particularly on the west coast.

Among other points brought out in his conversation were that article 27 is still in "the process of amendment" by the chamber of deputies, that the railroad problems are on their way to solution and that the report of loans to Mexico by American and British bankers have not yet been extended.

WILLARD SCHOOL HAS AN OFFER OF $1,500 FROM A LOCAL WOMAN

One of the several offers from local citizens to induce the members of the Frances E. Willard school to select Albuquerque for the permanent location is the offer of fifteen hundred dollars dependent upon certain specified conditions. This is from an Albuquerque lady.

At the state convention of the Georgia W. C. T. U. there is to be an appeal for this school made by Mrs. Florence Atkins, national lecturer and organizer, who came to New Mexico in April, 1920, to secure funds for this school and succeeded in enriching the treasury of the school about fifteen hundred dollars at that time. Last fall the Savannah, Georgia, W. C. T. U., of which Mrs. Atkins is a member, sent a check for a scholarship to the Frances E. Willard school of $150. This and other scholarships contributed, are to be applied as the special fund for girls without means to get an education. Last year the Clovis W. C. T. U. adopted an orphan girl and sent her to the Frances E. Willard school, providing clothing and all necessary expense money. Clovis contributed more than one scholarship as the amount credited to Clovis is more than five hundred dollars. This young lady is now in the normal college at Silver City and gives promise of becoming a teacher of superior ability and character.

ELEPHANT BUTTE LAKE IS POSTED AS BIRD REFUGE

More Than 70 Different Kinds Are Afforded Protection;
Place Is an Ideal
Pleasure Resort.

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.)

Las Cruces, N. M., Nov. 26.—Elephant Butte lake, one of the attractive links of the national all-year park to be created in southern New Mexico, is generally conceded to be the largest artificial reservoir in the world. The lake is forty-five miles in length and has a shore line of 200 miles. The big basin is included in one of America's largest reservations for the protection of native birds.

The storage works, which are located seventy-four miles north of Las Cruces, form the fountain from which water is drawn, as required, to irrigate 180,000 acres of land in southern New Mexico, northern Texas and old Mexico. The dam, erected by the United States reclamation service at a cost of $5,000,000, is 306 feet in height, 1,585 feet in length and contains more than 600,000 cubic yards of concrete. The lake is situated in a desert district 4,400 feet above sea level and is surrounded by mountains. It is ideally located as a pleasure resort. Several thousand persons, including tourists from various parts of America, visit the lake annually.

Caballo Mountains.

The Caballo mountains to the south are within hiding distance of the dam. Geronimo's pass, named for the Indian chief, through these mountains, is ever a reminder to "the old times" of the terror carried by the mention of his name. The black range, a spur of the Rockies, is plainly visible from the butte near the dam. The picturesque San Mateo, rising abruptly from the plains to the northwest, is the habitat of deer, bear, wild turkey and other game. Thirty miles to the north is the Fort Cristobal range, the outline of which represents an Egyptian mummy.

The ruins of old Fort Mollate, one of the chain of strongholds on the Rio Grande occupied by federal troops during the troublesome frontier days, are within the reservoir, about an hour's ride north of the dam. In its time the fort was the gold mine of protection to settlers in that district from the ravages of the hostile reds. Evidence of the many encounters is given by shells and arrowheads found occasionally in the hills near the site of the fortified fort.

Extinct Volcano.

The outstanding and perhaps the most ancient landmark on the Rio Grande is the extinct volcano which, on account of its peculiar resemblance of shape to that of an elephant's head, is called Elephant Butte. This mass of volcanic rock, rising 400 feet above the old river channel, has been a guide to travelers for centuries. Today it is one of the many islands formed by the lake. The view at sunset is well worth the climb over the rough trail which winds from the bottom to the top. The flat top also affords an ideal spot for picnic parties.

The climate is mild and dry. In the spring months there is sufficient precipitation to bring forth the blooms of many varieties of wild flowers and to cause an awakening of all nature on the hills and in the valleys, the result of which is a gradual change from the desert gray to a decided touch of green, while along the banks of the river the tamarillo, mesquite and alamo clothe themselves in leaves to remain green until late in the fall. The annual mean temperature is about 60 degrees. The yearly rainfall is from eight to twelve inches. In 1920 there were 243 clear days, sixty-seven partly cloudy days and only fifty-six cloudy days.

Earth Cools Rapidly.
Owing to the high altitude and the cloudless night sky the earth cools rapidly after the sun sinks behind the hills. For this reason the hot, sultry nights so characteristic of the crowded cities, are unknown at Elephant Butte. A high temperature during the day is usually followed by cool nights and mornings.

Probably in no other part of America is there a more interesting virgin field for the study of bird life than exists in the lake district. The reservation, created by executive order February 25, 1909, comprises Elephant Butte lake and a narrow strip of land which forms its 200-mile shore line. Since 1912 the reservation has been posted and regularly inspected by officers of the United States biological survey.

The most important of the seventy different kinds of birds on the reserve are twenty-one species of waterfowl and two of wading birds. Fifteen species of ducks and geese were observed during a recent visit to the lake. There are three species of grebes, representing more than 1,000 individuals. Also the pelican, cormorants, blue heron, killdeer plover, belted kingfisher, sparrows, canon towhees, Arizona cardinals, white-throated shrikes, pipits, wrens, solitaires, quail, ruby-crowned kinglets and mountain bluebirds, western robins and thrushes.

"Lovers of song and game birds," says one interested in the district, "will not overlook the Rio Grande reservation. There every point of vision is within eye-range of mountains, rugged canyons, or parklike forests. The climate contains all the elements that benefit a physical condition: the need for renewed energy, or a brace without a reaction."

Substantial Buildings.
With the idea of making Elephant Butte a permanent resort, the United States reclamation service erected substantial buildings at the upper camp to house the officials during the construction of the dam and other storage works. These include fourteen three, four and five-roomed cottages, a hotel of twenty-two rooms with lobby, reading, billiard and recreation rooms and other modern facilities. There is also a mess hall with seating capacity for 100, a large office building, store, hospital and laboratory.

The buildings are of adobe brick plastered inside and pebble-dashed outside and are attractive and especially cool during the summer. They are lighted by electricity, have hot and cold water, sanitary sewer connections, fireplaces and sleeping porches. The cottages are located on a hill overlooking the reservoir, a half mile from the dam and a short distance from the swimming beach and boat landing. Nearby is a double tennis court. All parts of the resort are connected to the through highways by good roads, thus affording easy access for automobilists.

NEW ZEALANDER AT ARMS PARLEY

Sir John Salmond.

Sir John Salmond is New Zealand's representative at the arms conference. He was formerly secretary general of New Zealand and now is a judge of the supreme court of that dominion. He is fifty-nine years old and is reputed to have one of the most astute legal minds in the antipodes.

The principal attractions which Elephant Butte offers to those seeking recreation and rest are hunting with cameras, swimming and bathing, motor boating, sailing and fishing. There is always an abundance of large and small game. The swimming beach is only a short distance from the entrance. The lake is navigable for miles. The season is long and the water clear and warm.

Swimming and Boating.
The beach slopes gradually away from the shore, making it possible for children to bathe in safety. For expert swimmers there is no limit to the possibilities which the lake affords. Next in popularity are canoeing, motor boating and sailing. The lake is navigable for miles depending on the elevation of the water, and is from a quarter to three miles in width. There are several types of boats on the lake, from the row boat to high-powered motor boats, capable of making twenty-five miles an hour. Sailing, the most enjoyable of all sports, requiring skill and nerve to anticipate the force and direction of the wind, is not generally popular unless the navigator is a skilled sailor and an expert swimmer.

The lake is stocked with carp, cat and sun fish, or perch, and has recently been stocked with bass. Fishing is popular during the early morning and evening. It is no exaggeration to say that the surface of the lake on a summer's evening is literally alive with schools of both large and small carp swimming along with their fins and backs out of water.

Boating in the evening after the sun has dropped behind the hills and the cool breeze blows is a pleasure long to be remembered, especially if it so happens that a full moon rises during the cruise.

THE MARKETS

(By The Associated Press.)

New York, Nov. 26.—Trading on the stock exchange today was attended by greater activities, breadth and strength than on any day this week, the movement deriving most of its impetus from another brisk inquiry for rails.

Conspicuous features included high grade Pacifics and grangers at extreme gains of one to two points, also coals and shares of secondary or reorganized properties traversing the southwestern section.

Equipments and steels were stimulated by the buying of rails. Oil, particularly Standard Oil of New York, Mexican and California Petroleum, Pierce preferred and Middle States were firm to strong.

In the varied list of specialties American Woolen, Associated Dry Goods common and first preferred, American Tobacco, National Biscuit, American Beet Sugar and American Can were outstanding features, though yielding modestly on profit-taking. Sales, 475,000 shares.

Equal strength was shown by the bond market in which the Liberty series again were dominant, the 3 1/2's, first and second 4's and all of the 4 1/2's attaining new high records for the year at net 32 1/2's to 75 cents per $100. Total sales of bonds, par value, $11,575,000.

Notwithstanding the week's heavy shifting of funds, the clearing house statement showed an actual decrease of $2,250,000 in loans and discounts. The only other noteworthy change was a contraction of about $15,000,000 in cash, with consequent reduction of excess reserves to $14,556,000.

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—After a week start wheat rallied today and finished 1/2c net higher for December and 1/4c higher for May. Corn lost 1/4c to 1/2c, oats were unchanged to 1/2c lower and hard and soft wheat from 1/2c to 1/4c lower. January pork, the only live option in that commodity, showed a net gain of forty points.

Wheat's early decline was due mostly to easier closing prices at Liverpool, ascribed generally to receipts of Australian wheat. The usual Saturday evening up trades contributed to the shrinkage in prices but considerable bullish sentiment was in evidence on the break.

Towards the end reports came that partial failure of the rice crops in Japan and China would cause buying of wheat by those countries and about the same time a goodly portion of the local pit element found themselves short and started to cover. Sale of corn here for the seaboard but the samples market was generally lower.

Provisions had no support from packers and scattered selling affected hard and ribs beyond the usual limits for such transactions. Hogs were strong at the yards but prospects of big receipts in connection with next week's livestock show caused pit traders to disregard that factor.

Closing prices:

Wheat—Dec., $1.12 1/4; May, $1.13 1/2.

Corn—Dec., 46c; May, 54 1/2c.

Are having many inquiries in regard to feeding a milk cow. The following figures may help. A cow giving three gallons of milk per day can be fed at cost of less than 60 cents per day. To make it plain the feed cost would be less than 3 cents per quart. Selling the product as whole milk it would bring 20 cents per quart for the twelve quarts $2.40. Not a bad gross profit. If you had fed cows on that basis would be pretty nice business.—E. W. FEE.

Cold weather pointers for the motorist

You Should and Can Get Full Power in Cold Weather

GASOLINE that is good every month of the year produces just as much power in November as it does in June.

Conoco Gasoline isn't underpowered in cold weather to give it quick starting properties. When mixed with air in the carburetor, it vaporizes instantly and produces its full equivalent of power summer and winter alike.

The real test of gasoline quality is the range of boiling point fractions that it contains—uniformly. Chemists and technical experts attach little or no significance to the "gravity" test in this connection. This is why Conoco Gasoline is always sold on the basis of its range of boiling points. Its consistent volatility insures not only full power in cold weather but easy starting and full mileage as well.

There would be less engine "knocking" on the hills, fewer scratched cylinder walls and less spark plug fouling if everybody would use a gasoline that vaporizes and burns up completely. Conoco Gasoline does this—it is all power and no waste.

For the most satisfactory performance of your motor in cold weather use Conoco exclusively together with Polarine, the standard motor oil. Might as well buy them with Conoco coupons. Always keep a book of them in your car.

It had been planned originally to have the losing group give the rated with plants and flowers, and a number of games were played.

COUNTY WOMEN SAVED THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS THIS YEAR THROUGH THE HOME DEMONSTRATION WORK

Mrs. Maude Doty, Bernalillo County Home Demonstration Agent, Files Her Annual Report With the State College; the Report
Indicates the Great Scope of the Work.

Through the making of 391 various kinds of new dresses under the modern methods as demonstrated by the county home demonstration agent, women of 191 families in Bernalillo county saved $3, 122.20 during the past year, according to figures in the annual report recently completed by County Home Demonstration Agent Maude Doty. The report was sent to the state college yesterday and a copy will be filed with the federal agricultural department, of which county agent work is a department.
The home demonstration agent's office has been an active one during the year, but as it is fairly new in Bernalillo county many families do not realize the scope of the work
nor the advantages which will ac-cure through making use of the department for assistance in all types of household work.

Under the direct supervision of the demonstration agent, fifty-seven old dresses were remodeled
at a saving of $427.38.
One of the most popular types of service being done by the office is the making of dress forms which enable women to fit their own clothing over their own dress forms. During the year 58 of these inexpensive forms were made by the demonstration agent. The value of them, if purchased on the market, would be considerably more than $1,000 as shown by the report.
It is probable that persons for whom the forms were made assisted hundreds of other women in making them and that at least 1, 000 are now in use in the county.

Canning Projects.
The food canning project is one of the important endeavors of the home demonstration agent's office and great strides in this line were made during the year. Modern methods, as adopted by the federal and state experiment stations, are used by the office with the result that much of the work is taken out of canning and the result is an almost assured success.

One community canner has been established in the county its location being at Atrisco, where the entire community has canned thousands of cans of vegetables fruit and meat during the year. It is expected that many more such can-neries will be established this year.
The project has been carefully watched by home demonstration agents throughout the country and many are now being copied after the Atrisco model.

Under the direct supervision of the demonstration agent, thirty-four families in the county have canned 3,008 cans of vegetables;
brined 270 quarts of vegetables;
canned 523 quarts of fruit; 28
quarts of jam and jelly and dried 150 pounds of vegetables. All of this work was done under the latest scientific methods and all of it has proved a success. The information has been handed to hundreds of other women by those who received the personal assistance and instruction.

Girls' Clubs.
Girls' sewing and cooking clubs
have been one of the leading projects of the demonstration agent and several clubs have reached a high degree of efficiency. This is especially true, as the figures in the report indicate, of the sewing clubs at Barton and Armijo and the cooking club at Atrisco. In many cases the school children are now making their own dresses at little expense of money or effort.

Hot lunch systems have been installed at several schools. The one at Mountain View has been in operation for the past five months.
The school is equipped with a site sink and two gallons of milk for soup and cocoa are supplied daily by the Mountain View farm bureau. The plan was worked out but the teachers, mothers and Mrs.
Doty, who gave advice on the type of utensils needed and who demonstrated many of the recipes used for the lunch dishes.

At the Old Town school the home demonstration agent furnished the plans for a fireless cooker and assisted in making it and also suggested many standard recipes. The teachers have charge of the hot lunch there and serve an average of twenty-seven pupils a day at a cost of 3 cents per lunch.

The fireless cooker, while it is an apparently intricate utensil, nevertheless can be constructed at home with very little cost and great success. The annual report of Home Demonstration Agent Maude Doty shows that forty-one of these have been demonstrated and that seventeen were actually made and are now in service.

The scope of the work of the home demonstration agent covers almost every phase of home and school life, much attention being paid to such subjects as food selection, nutrition, serving of meals, baby care and general health and farm community uplift.

CIVIL SERVICE OPENS EXAMINATIONS TO 35
GOVERNMENT JOBS

An announcement has been issued by the United States civil service commission to the effect that competitive examinations for thirty-five positions have opened.

into three groups. The first is made up of those examinations in which competitors are not assembled, but are rated upon the subjects of education, training, experience and corroborative evidence. Applicants for these examinations are received at any time.

The second list includes examinations of the non-assembled type for which applications must be filed by a certain specified date. The third list covers examinations in which competitors are assembled for scholastic tests.

blanks can be obtained from S. H.

SANTA CLAUS TO VISIT ALL THE DISABLED BOYS

Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion Plans
Christmas Cheer for Disabled Soldiers' Families.

Santa Claus will visit every disabled former service man in New Mexico this year, Mrs. Belle Nye, state president of the Woman's auxiliary of the American Legion, announced yesterday. Mrs. Nye's plan is to send candy, fruit, cake and other appropriate gifts to those who are suffering from the ravages of war. She mentioned the matter to a number of other women at the American Legion convention held at Kansas City recently, which she attended as a representative of the Woman's auxiliary, and has already received the promise of aid from other states.

Mrs. J. W. McInturf, president of the American Legion auxiliary,
Coos Bay Post No. 17, Marshfield,
Ore., in a letter to Mrs. Nye said:
"You told me about your boys down there and how you would like for us to send candy or fruit cakes to help their Christmas alone. When I came home I brought this message to my unit and they were quite enthusiastic about it and are now working to get together as many of these goodies as possible to forward to you for these boys."

Mrs. Nye has also received similar assurances from auxiliaries in Kentucky, Iowa and Ohio, and additional letters are being received daily from other states.

"The object is to see that the disabled soldiers are not overlooked at Christmas time," said Mrs. Nye yesterday. "Also, as many of the boys are married and have children, it is our intention to see that the latter are remembered, as well as their elders.
Therefore, we want toys and other articles suitable for the kiddies.
In addition to remembrances for the grownups. Gifts need not necessarily be confined to auxiliary members or to former soldiers who are able to contribute to the cause, but anyone who desires may assist in giving Christmas cheer to the disabled soldiers and their families."

Thanksgiving Season Passes With Many Festivities

THE fatted turkey has been consumed, the added avoid-dupis has been danced off, the college spirit has been exhausted, the football game has been played, the Thanksgiving season has passed. It was a rather gay holiday, many dinners with their usual good spirit, and all-dances, teas and parties. There were actually as many dances that one young society bachelor realized his ambition of dancing every night of the week.

The university set has been in a particular whirl, revolving of course about the football climax of Thursday. The Sigma Chi concluded their annual homecoming week with a dance at the Pi Kappa Alpha house on Friday evening. The next important social event on the U. N. M. calendar is the Interfraternity Frolic to be attended by all Greek letter men in the city on next Friday evening at the Masonic Temple.

Just what there is about Thanksgiving that is conducive to matrimony, we are not sure, but cast an appraising eye over our wedding column, marriages of local and out-of-town interest and an important engagement to announce.

Miss Stearns is the next attractive young bride-elect on our lists.

COUNTRY CLUB IS GAY FOR THANKSGIVING.

The Country Club was easily the center of attraction for the society folk of the city over the Thanksgiving holiday. Throngs of people visited the club on Thursday afternoon, a pleasant place to go to dance and to tea after the football game, and a large crowd was present for the holiday formal dance of the night before.

There were probably 200 persons at the Wednesday evening affair, which made the club seem much too small for comfortable dancing. There were many beautiful new gowns in evidence and a number of out-of-town guests.

The party was one of the gayest that has been staged at the club for some time.

Coffee, tea and cakes were served to the afternoon crowd on Thanksgiving day. An orchestra played for the dancing throughout the afternoon. Mrs. Lester Cooper, assisted by Mrs. Frank A. Hubbell, Jr., Mrs. Hugh Dutton, Mrs. T. E. Whitmer, Mrs. Gillette Corbush and Mrs. Leopold Meyer, acted as hostesses for the occasion.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT OF MISS STEARNS.

The engagement of Miss Lela Mae Stearns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Stearns, to Benjamin Rupert Kennedy of Canton, S. D., was announced to a group of girl friends at a pretty appointed bridge-luncheon at the Stearns home on North Eleventh street yesterday afternoon. The wedding will take place here on December 29.

The romance between the two began about three years ago on the campus of Northwestern university, near Chicago, where they were students. Miss Stearns was graduated from the Northwestern School of Optics in 1919, and Mr. Kennedy took his B. A. degree in the class of 1921.

Miss Stearns first attended the University of New Mexico, where she became a member of Phi Mu sorority and later went to Northwestern, where she entered Zeta Phi Eta, an honorary oratorical sorority. She has been teaching English in the Albuquerque public schools for the past two winters and has frequently appeared here on entertainment programs as a dramatic reader.

Mr. Kennedy is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity at Northwestern university. He served overseas for nearly two years during the war, was wounded, and cited for bravery. Since his graduation from college he has been managing his father's large estate at Canton, S. D. He is a member of an influential family of that state. The couple will make their home at Canton and in Chicago.

The announcement was made yesterday at a 1 o'clock luncheon through the medium of place cards, each one of which told only a part of the story. Decorations were in pink and yellow with a four-course luncheon served by candle light. Monte Carlo bridge was played during the afternoon.

The guests were Mrs. George Farr, Mrs. Dave Weiler, Mrs. Arthur Sisk, Mrs. Kenneth Balcomb, Mrs. George Mitchell, Mrs. Harry Robinson, Miss Annella Howden, Miss Esther Howden, Miss Grace Stortz, Miss Florence Weiler, Miss Katherine Keleher, Miss Margaret Hibel, Miss Louise, Miss Margaret McCanna, Miss Hazel Hawkins, Miss Louise Lower, Miss Emma Ferguson, Miss Mary MacArthur and Miss Helen MacArthur.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT BY SCHUMANN-HEINK.

An announcement that caused no little ripple of excitement in fashionable and musical circles the past week was that Madama Enochine Schumann-Heink would give a Christmas concert here on the evening of December 26. The concert will be given in the Armory, and will be one of the most notable musical events of recent years.

The great singer is to be in the city during the holidays for a visit with the family. From to be attended by all Greek letter men in the city on next Friday evening at the Masonic Temple.

FAIR SEX IN PARIS DISCARDS DOLLS FOR MEOWING CAT TOYS

"Minouche" has made a big hit with the fair sex in Paris. The girls have quit carrying the dolls that were such a fad several months ago and have taken "Minouche" into affectionate arms.

"Minouche" is a toy cat. When a button in the back is pressed the cat opens its mouth with a loud meow. The photograph shows Miss Marjorie Rothchild, of New York and Paris, who recently returned to America with one of the new toys.

Evening dresses favor brilliant colors in laces, chiffon and chiffon velvet, and there is a notable lack of dull drapery for crepe satin and crepe de chine, crepe satin and crepe de chine hold a prominent place in fashions for afternoon wear, frequently combined with vivid-hued Georgette or chiffon for side drapery and flowing sleeves.

Picture hats are made still more picturesque by a poke shape suggestion, achieved by turning the brim up flat against the crown at the back and mousing a single feather trimming against the turning. Such hats are worn slightly tipped back on the head, the feather trimming at the back shooting out straight and not standing upward.

Simplicity of design and slender lines of outline are the combined forces that make for winter smartness. Color, too, is quite as important as the silhouette in entering to the mode. For street wear nothing is more fashionable, and surely nothing is more wearable, than black. It seriously threatens to disturb the long reign of navy blue as first choice in the scheme of modish colors. If black is not your color and you are moreover, weary of navy and other blues, there are wonderful brown shades and deep, rich reds, to select for your coat suit and street frocks. Grays are also very favorably spoken of, some of the newer wear, frequently a hint of brown or blue in them.

Most suit jackets are trimmed with fur, and the favored furs are krummer, Australian, opossum, beaver and squirrel. Seal is relegated to older folks again, youth now prefers some other felt for trimming purposes. Jackets are lined with soft colored silks or satins. Shades of linens are rich but subdued, and gray flowered patterns are going out of style.

Y. W. C. A. ACTIVITIES HOW TO HOLIDAYS.

The club and recreational activities at the Y. W. C. A. were either suspended or partly so this week, owing to the school vacation and the Thanksgiving celebrations. Committees from some of the girl reserves clubs met with their leaders and discussed plans, which will be presented to their various groups at their next meetings.

The upper class high school girls met on Wednesday with their adviser, Mrs. Arthur Sisk. Although only a few were present, they finished the work of dressing dolls for the Day Nursery, and after tea and cake was served, Mrs. Graham read a story to her sophomore girls on Monday afternoon. This group, too, was diminished because of the school holidays. The Wednesday morning class met as usual, and the tiny tots class was held on Friday morning instead of Thursday, for this week only.

The cold wind last Friday afternoon prevented any activities on the playground at the Indian school; but hereafter arrangements will be made for the girls to use the gymnasium when it is too cold to play outdoors.

There has been some talk of another gymnastic dancing class for small girls from five to seven years of age. There are already four little candidates for such a class, and if one or two more are registered such a class will be formed.

CAREFUL.

A semi-reliable rumor has it that pressure is being brought to bear on the governor to force the resignation or removal of Insurance Examiner Lineau of the banking department. This rumor says that the officers of a local insurance company are bringing tremendous political pressure to bear on the governor to accomplish this end and to do so at once.

The writer does not know Mr. Lineau. We have never seen him or communicated with him, by letter or through mutual friends. The rumors reach us from other sources. We do not know regarding the fitness of Mr. Lineau for his present position. On that score we express no judgment.

However, the particular insurance company which is bringing this pressure to bear is just now undergoing examination by auditors appointed to the task by Mr. Lineau. To force him out at this juncture would bring the insurance company under suspicion. No report giving the company a clean bill of health would be accepted by the public if the man now preparing it is forced to quit before it is given to the public.

Perhaps the move does not have for its purpose his removal. It may be that a show of influence is intended to convince him which side of his bread is buttered.

If there is no cause for serious complaint against the management of the company, Mr. Lineau should say so whether he likes that management or not. If there is anything really wrong, Mr. Lineau should say so, job or no job.

The governor can not afford to remove Lineau at this juncture. It would look bad. If he is unqualified, he should not have been kept so long. If he is qualified, he should be protected in doing his duty. A wait of a few weeks can do no harm, as far as the Journal can see.

Officials should move slowly in this matter.

FAITHFULNESS.

The Journal has no antagonism toward Jonathan H. Wagner, ex-superintendent of public instruction. The agitation now on concerning the handling by him of the finances of that department, is not a personal one. We will be glad to put the stamp of approval upon Mr. Wagner, if we can do so.

A state auditor, acting officially, made a report saying that Mr. Wagner kept no adequate records while he held that office, and that there were many thousands of dollars not accounted for on the face of his records. We assume that to be true, or the auditor would not have said so.

Mr. Wagner is now seeking, by the affidavits of people to whom he paid money and by duplicate receipts which he is procuring, to account for this money. Although such a proceeding is fraught with possibilities of fraud, we none the less hope that Mr. Wagner can account for the money and relieve himself of a record which shows improper accounting for funds.

None the less, if Mr. Wagner is protected against public criticism, that protection encourages others to be lax in their methods. That is one thing which, all official New Mexico right now, Wrong-doing or a laxity, which is its equivalent, has not been frowned upon sufficiently in this state.

If there is no serious offense in keeping records poorly, why is it an offense not to keep them at all? It becomes a question of degree. And if one keeps no records at all, why not another who has kept records, burn them so as to be on an equal footing with the man who has kept none?

This is a matter upon which public opinion must make itself felt. Men handling public monies must be made to know that to avoid humiliation they must be in a position, any hour, to show that they have been good stewards. Men handling public money are guilty of a moral, if not a legal crime, when their records are not so kept that they can account for every penny of it.

Perhaps Mr. Wagner should not be banished in disgrace. Further investigations will answer that. But he certainly is not entitled to escape bitter criticism for his negligence.

Thus public sentiment will raise the standard of fidelity of public officials.

A BAFILING MYSTERY.

The New York detective bureau has one more big "problem" on its hands. The publicity wing has made no formal statement of the full case, but following the big city's well known form, it may be concluded that the detectives are "baffled."

Somebody, at least it is supposed to be somebody, has been robbing detective headquarters. Twice within three months thieves have stolen right under the eyes and noses of the smartest cops in the world. True, the thefts do not amount to much as thefts. Nothing was taken but two fire extinguishers, but that is a mere detail in taste. It might as easily have been an overcoat from the back of an eagle-eyed servant of the law, or a pair of official gumshoes.

If such a case were reported to these same detectives they would unhesitatingly declare it "an inside job," smile, shrug their shoulders and go back to headquarters, but in this instance what can it be?

THE PEOPLE CAN BRING PEACE.

The historic gathering at Versailles in 1919 was a peace conference, assembled to formulate terms and conditions for the ending of a war. Why not make the assembly now in session in Washington the peace conference, which shall lead the way to the abolition of all war? Does this seem an idealistic dream? It is a dream that can be realized. It is for the people of the world to make this dream come true.

This meeting at Washington about the council table is not one merely of a handful of men, of individuals, but of the greatest nations of the world. When their representatives arise it is the voices of America, of Great Britain, of France, of Japan and the others that speak. They derive their mandate direct from the people. What is it we wish them to say? There is no doubt as to the answer. The dearest desire of the peoples of the earth today is for peace. No half-way measures will suffice. For humanity is sick at heart of war and all its works.

In his eloquent address at the opening of the conference President Harding, to whose noble inspiration this gathering is due, pictured a weary world "struggling for restoration, hungering and thirsting for better relationship, humanity crying for relief and craving assurances of lasting peace. Here in the United States we are but freshly turned from the burial of the unknown soldier, when a nation sorrowed while paying its tribute. Whether it was spoken or not, a hundred millions of our people were summarizing the inexcusable cause, the incalculable cost, the unspeakable sacrifices and the unutterable sorrows, and there was the ever-impelling question: How can humanity justify or God forgive?"

Everything worth while that humanity is able to accomplish springs from a vision. Who can doubt the nobility and breadth of President Harding's vision when he issued his call to the nations for this conference upon which the eyes of the world are now fixed. Fearing to outline too ambitious a project at first, his formal invitation, couched in terms of restraint, suggested for consideration "the subject of limitation of armament," in connection with which Pacific and Far Eastern questions should also be discussed." Contrast this formal, official call with his earnest, even impassioned words in denunciation of the most hideous evil that afflicts mankind and his fervent plea for peace, and we perceive the possibility, that can be made a fact, of enlarging the original purposes of this conference and making it the instrument for the attainment of the greatest aspiration of human beings.

Civilization today is at the parting of the ways. Such an opportunity has never been presented before to deal war and all its evils a smashing knock-out blow. Such an opportunity may not occur again. This is the time. God give the people of America and the world the determination to make their will and purpose known, and in no uncertain terms, and to DO IT NOW!

SELF-INTEREST AND HUMANITY.

In most communities a tuberculous person is a pariah. Other people are afraid of the contagion. They shun the sick man.

Albuquerque welcomes the tuberculous. From them we derive much of our revenues. From among those healed in our beneficent climate come our leading citizens. Albuquerque has thrived from these welcome visitors.

The locomotive firemen's committee, seeking a sanatorium location, thought well of Albuquerque for that institution because we welcome the sick. About one-half of the Chamber of Commerce committee of twenty-five which dined with the visitors stood up in response to a request for a showing of those present who came to Albuquerque for the benefit of the health of some member of the family.

Albuquerque should advertise her climate. She should also advertise her welcome to the sick. A leading clergyman, in an address the other day, said Albuquerque needed a heart of sympathy and kindness for the afflicted in our midst. We do. Common humanity demands that we take an interest in the sick of the community. Selfish business interest seconds the motion.

A HOME-OWNING NATION.

Nobody talks about bolshevik plots in the United States any more. The excitement about "radicals" has died down along with the rest of the war hysteria.

Now comes a report of the census bureau to tell the reason. Pretty nearly every other family in the entire country owns its own home. More than half of the home-owners have their property free from debt. Probably a considerable percentage of those listed as renters are young people who are looking around for a home to buy. Fine chance to get such people to experiment with any scheme of government which might weaken property rights.

And the best way to increase this national security is to bring about conditions making home-building and home-owning easier for the wage-worker.

VERSE OF TODAY

A SONG OF SEASONS.

Oh, holly for the Winter time,
And blossoms for the May,
Seek a flower in Summer's hour,
And who shall say you nay?

I'd a friend who gave me flowers
When the hills were green;
He has not a leaf for me,
Now the frost is seen.

I'd a friend who welcomed me
When the earth was warm;
He left me in the changing Spring
To the cloud and storm.

I'd a friend whose door was wide
To the wind and sun;
Knock, and you may knock in vain
When merry days are done.

Oh, roses in the Summer dusk,
And daisies in the morn;
Ask a flower in Autumn's hour,
And you shall have the thorn.

EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

VOICE OF THE YOUNG MEN.

(From the Philadelphia Public Ledger.)
The generation that is at the door demands its word in the matter of the limitation of fleets and armies and the problem of world disarmament. The cannon "fodder" of tomorrow's wars.

These young men have every right to be heard. It is the young man who suffers, fights and does the dying; the young man whose career vanishes in the smoking fronts and who comes back to the slow years of reconstruction after destruction has passed. When the conference has finished its work, that work will, for good or evil, affect the young men who are in the schools and colleges, at the desks, the benches and back of the counters today.

The spokesmen from forty colleges who met at Princeton look at this matter sanely. They are expecting no "millennium dawn," but they do ask that the present naval building program be suspended for all time and that existing fleets be reduced. They see what others have discovered, that the Far Eastern problems must be eliminated before disarmament can get forward.

The voice of America's young men spoke at Princeton. This and other nations of the six-power parleys will do well to heed its demands, warnings and opinions of the next generation. Their word and their day will come after ours, and it is for their future freedom and security that the conference meets. They will fight the next war and pay for it.

THE HAPPY MAN.

My neighbor's such a cheerful
skate I said to him one day,
How do you keep your smile on straight—
what makes you blithe and gay?
Although I am an optimist, and make of glee a fad, I have my grouchy hours. I wist, while you are always glad. My neighbor heaved a gaudy smile that split
his may in twain, and then sat down upon a stile, his gladness to explain. "I do not owe a rusty cent to any man on earth, and so I'm full of merriment, my soul is soaked in mirth. I don't believe that any man can know ecstatic
thrills, if he must walk the floor and plan to pay up ancient bills.

No creditors invade my den, to threaten, bluff or whine, and when I sell a cow or hen, the price I get is mine. And can I drive my new green boat, at none can say,
'By jing, he ought to pay me for the goat he bought from me last spring.' I cry, each morning when I rise, 'I owe no man a dime,' and then I sing and sweat the files, and have a gorgeous time. Each evening when to bed I go, I say, 'I'm out of debt,' and guardian angels whisper low, 'You are the one best

ROAD CONDITIONS

The New Mexico Auto Club, state headquarters at 216 North Fourth street, this city, has issued the following on the road conditions in the state:

The Santa Fe Trail from Baton Pass to El Paso is in very good travelable shape, a little rough in the vicinity of Wagon Mound and Glorieta. Between Santa Fe and El Paso, the road as a whole is fair to good.

The two roads west from Los Lunas, one via Gallup and the other via Socorro and Springville are about on a par, some features in favor of one and some of the other, but travel need not hesitate going either way until the winter storm break, which is usually about December 1st, after which period, travel can take the southern route and avoid all snow.

The east and west road from Amarillo and Roswell to a connection with the northern and southern highways are all very travelable and now at their best and will be until the winter storms set in.

Quite considerable new road work is being done on these main state roads and which at times require short rough detours, but by careful driving should not inconvenience any one.

The New Mexico Auto Club will always bulletin any definite road conditions at their headquarters office and are also prepared to answer telegrams or letters from all portions of the state.

GET-RICH-QUICK FIENDS YEARS AGO WORKED THE GASOLINE ECONOMIZERS

In the old days gasoline economizers were quite in vogue with the get-rich-quick fiends. They were much more common than they are now. One could buy them in powder, tablet or liquid form and probably administer them in some of the ways mentioned above.

As long as the car owner was very careful to have the carburetor removed from the engine cylinders, the valves ground and the carburetor adjusted, and then apply the so-called economizer to the fuel tank he was certain to get greater mileage, per gallon of gasoline. And no wonder!

The same thing applies to the present day storage battery "economizers," "recharging solutions" and what not, that are being sold as mysterious compounds and wonderful discoveries which recharge your storage battery in 20 minutes. Any battery service station can do the same thing by dipping a battery with strong acid—but they know the harmful effect of such treatment.

The surprising thing is the willingness of many people to pay fabulous prices, three to five dollars being asked for a single application of these dopes when most storage battery service stations would do the same thing for 25 cents.

There is nothing mysterious about pouring strong acid solution into a discharged battery and having it operate in 20 or 30 minutes afterwards. Any service station can do that, but the normal way to recharge a battery is to pass a current of electricity through it and avoid injuring it or shortening its life. The quick way is to pay three to five dollars for about 25 cents worth of strong acid—and then suffer the consequences.

KEEP SPRING SEATS WELL LUBRICATED

Many present day cars are fitted with springs mounted on seats that oscillate. These spring seats usually have some means of lubrication, but many car owners never take the trouble simply to turn up the grease cup provided. While it is not necessary to turn the cup each day it is advisable to give this part a little attention now and then. In cantilever suspensions the center bearing of the spring should be well oiled. Usually this bearing operates upon a small steel shaft extending out from the frame. In some cases a tube running transversely of the frame is used; either a grease cup or an oil hole will be found.

BUMPERS STOP MUCH DAMAGE TO YOUR AUTO WHEN CAR IS PROTECTED

"Few motorists realize the true advantage of bumpers on their car until it saves them the cost of smashed fenders when the car is fronted suddenly, or the machine behind rams into them," says P. N. McCloskey, of the McCloskey Auto company.

"Bumpers save motorists several times their cost each year. Not alone from the accidents which occur on the road, but while cars are parked, and this is when the most damage occurs. They are a big protection from careless drivers who are apt to bump into their cars, either when trying to get into a parking space or on driving out.

"Fenders, headlights, not to mention radiators, cost many times as much as a pair of bumpers, yet some motorists seem to be penny wise and pound foolish—they trust to luck. Then, when they have to pay a good sized bill for broken headlights, smashed radiators and bent fenders they crab because they didn't install bumpers on their cars.

"Most motorists who take out insurance install bumpers on their machines for the reason that front and rear bumpers cut down cost of property insurance. In fact the cost of insurance saved by having bumpers on your car will go a long way toward paying for a set of bumpers.

"If automobile insurance companies regard bumpers as such a protection to the car, motorists should well profit from this knowledge. For insurance companies do not base their calculations on guess work. They have the statistics which show conclusively that about 10 per cent of damage to automobiles can be saved by the installation of bumpers."

MISSOURI LAW MAKES STEALING MOTOR CARS A HAZARDOUS WORK

A St. Louis telegram of recent date, says: Motor vehicles are placed on much the same basis as real estate and the theft of them is made hazardous by the motor vehicle law, which became effective this month. The law revises all state statutes on motor vehicles and makes laws applied about the same in country as in city.

One of the provisions intended to stop automobile thefts is the requirement that each owner of a car obtain from the commissioner of motor vehicles a certificate of ownership which must be passed with each sale of a car just as a deed passes with a sale of real estate. No license plates may be issued until such a certificate has been obtained, $1 paid and all data by which the individual car may be identified, furnished. Every owner of a motor car in the state must obtain a certificate within four months after the law goes into effect.

The certificate is good until the car is sold. Then it must be indorsed with a warranty of title and transferred as a deed. The new owner must present the assigned certificate when he gets his license plates. In case the car is sold out of the state or dismantled, the certificate must be returned to the commissioner of motor vehicles. Sale of a car without transfer of the certificate is declared unlawful, fraudulent and void.

The police may require drivers of cars to establish ownership by production of the requisite certificate, and the commissioner of motor vehicles is required to help trace cars taken into other states.

Dealers must make monthly reports to the commissioner of all cars sold. Garage proprietors must keep a record of car owners and identification marks on all cars they store. Obliteration or altering a motor number is declared prima facie evidence of larceny. Garage owners are required to notify the police of such cases and to hold cars forty-eight hours.

SMALL ENGINES FOR 1923 500-MILE RACE

Announcement that the 1923 500-mile race on the Indianapolis speedway will be a competition between cars of maximum piston displacement of only 122 cubic feet inches has caused no little comment in automobile circles.

"This evidence of the further trend of motor manufacture toward smaller engines," declares Cortez Quickel, local authorized Ford dealer, "should be of especial interest to Ford owners. Last year the cars competed had a maximum cubic inch piston displacement, practically identical with that of the Ford."

"It shows that automotive experts have at last been forced to acknowledge that the small engine is just as efficient as the larger one, is much lighter in weight and surprisingly more economical in operation."

THREE-COLOR SIGNAL SYSTEM ADVANCED

The adoption of a uniform three-color signal system on highways, as they are used on railroads, is gaining rapidly throughout the country for the purpose of notifying motorists of various degrees of danger. Red lights and standards are put up to show first degree danger, such as railroad crossings, dead ends of roads and life bridges. Yellow lights and markers show second degree danger at curves and grades. Green indicates moving or traffic danger, to be used at road intersections.
