If You Must Ride, Don't Let Your Feet Drag

A good sized group of fine boosters were out shoe leather, with excellent results, yesterday in the Chamber of Commerce drive. These men have their shoulders to the wheel and their toes in the gravel, pushing forward the chariot of progress.

Memberships come easily. The people are ready for this great popular movement in city building. What is needed is more workers who will help push the drive. It cannot stop until the goal of at least 1,200 members is reached. There should be many more members than that minimum.

The people should appreciate these men who lay down their private work and go out to labor on this public enterprise. But appreciation should take the form of participation. Every man and woman who will join in a grand drive to finish the work in a whirl of enthusiasm should be at the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 8:30 this morning. Every one who fails to appear, decreases by that much the probability of a sweeping and quick victory for Albuquerque.

This movement among the masses of the people, is the most significant thing in the history of the city. It means mass action, and mass action means irresistible power toward progress.

Are you indifferent, or doing nothing to help? Then you are adding a load to the chariot which other citizens are trying to push forward. Get off and help push, by becoming a worker. Don't ride while others toil in your behalf.

Are you "knocking" the project? Then you are not only riding, but you are letting your feet drag. If there are such, they are too few to count much.

It is the indolent, the indifferent and the "too busy" who are in sympathy with the movement but who, by inaction, insist upon riding, who make the load heavy to move.

Get off and push. Be at the Chamber rooms at 8:30 this morning.

If your circumstances are such that you must ride, don't let your feet drag. Meet the solicitor with a smile. Subscribe quickly and send him on his way with a light heart.

NO ONE CAN STOP US, BUT OURSELVES.

JAPAN SEEKS 70 PER CENT NAVAL RATIO KATO STATES

American Delegation Is Said to Stand Firmly on the "5-5-3" Plan Proposed By Secretary Hughes.

CONFERENCE MUST RECONCILE VIEWS

Japanese Delegate Declares the "10-10-7" Allotment Should Prevail; Navy Experts Will Meet Today.

Washington, Nov. 28. (By The Associated Press).—The arms conference is approaching its first great decision.

It was announced tonight by Vice Admiral Kato, chief Japanese naval expert, that Japan seeks a 70 per cent naval ratio. It also was announced with equal authority that the American delegation stood firmly on Secretary Hughes' "5-5-3" ratio proposal which means a 60 per cent status for Japan. The conference ultimately must reconcile these two views or accept one or the other to reach agreement.

Vice Admiral Kato said the 70 per cent ratio was the minimum necessary for Japanese security.

The American view is that 60 per cent for Japan is the maximum naval strength that could be ascribed in view of the American liabilities in the Pacific.

Naval Experts to Meet. Tomorrow naval experts of the five powers will meet.

They concluded their inter-group discussion of the American plan, so far as its major factors are concerned. Developments today and tonight indicated that they would return the matter to the conference delegates without recommendations for important modifications.

The American experts are satisfied that the original estimates of naval strength were correct. Presumably the Japanese group is prepared to continue its argument there for a "10-10-7" fleet ratio instead of the American "5-5-3" proposal. To what extent Japanese insistence may be carried in committee or later before the conference is still to be disclosed.

Vice Admiral Kato in his statement declared that the 70 per cent ratio was "the minimum strength required" for Japan's security. He added:

"People of all countries must be in full agreement as to limitation of armaments. Otherwise, even without an agreement, it might create an unpleasant feeling and defeat its purpose."

For competent American naval opinion, it may be said with authority that the "5-5-3" proposal viewed as the absolute maximum of concession to Japan, in view of American interests and liabilities in the Pacific. Naval opinion here holds actual security would

EUROPE 'BROKE' AND CAN'T PAY HER WAR BILLS NOW—VANDERLIP

Nearly Every Nation Admits Inability to Liquidate Its Debt to United States, Banker Declares.

RECOMMENDS A PLAN OF EASY PAYMENTS

Urges That the Money Thus Repaid Be Devoted to the Rehabilitation of European Civilization.

(By The Associated Press.) New York, Nov. 28.—Recognition by the allies of their eleven million dollar debt to America as a just debt, agreement by this country to easy payments and the money thus repaid to be used in rehabilitating Europe, was a plan proposed tonight by Frank A. Vanderlip, New York banker.

Mr. Vanderlip returned recently from Europe where he studied economic conditions. He said nearly every nation of Europe admitted inability to pay the debt.

The United States would be hurt as much by the rapid receipt of payment in the form of goods, he said, as the allied debtors would be harmed in making the payment.

"We need not look further than to contemplate merely the receipt of $500,000,000 a year of interest," he said. "If that came in the form of goods, our industrial situation would be upset."

As the first postulate in his plan, he said, he would lay down the principle that the allied debt was a just debt.

"I would want America to be both an intelligent and a lenient creditor," he added. "Terms of payment ought to be adapted to the means of our debtors."

"The crux of my plan would lie in the disposition of the payments. I would have America make a beau geste—a grand gesture in international relationships."

He demanded that the payment be made in the form of goods, and that the money thus repaid be devoted to the rehabilitation of European civilization. It is only through such rehabilitation that these debts can ever conceivably be paid.

"Everything the war has cost," he added, "everything an unwise peace is costing, can be recomputed and beyond that a great economic margin created. It can be helped and led wisely to handle its own problem. If the people of eastern Europe can be made to comprehend their economic unity, if they can be made to understand that in the welfare of all nations lies the highest prosperity of each."

Mr. Vanderlip said he believed it would be wise for us to devote all we receive to such purposes as I have suggested. It is possible, however, that there would be some economic restoration that would be converted from the original obligations of the allies to obligations representing material properties which we created and probably backed by the obligations of the governments of those countries. Where this economic development took place, the time might come when we would cease to make these sums revolving credits for European economic development. It would be further need for us to do so. Then the money would come back to us.

Great Possibilities. "I am firmly convinced that in the great catastrophe the war has brought, there has been created an opportunity which could never otherwise have arisen. The obstacles which have arisen in the path of European civilization can be turned into stepping stones leading to a position vastly better than anything Europe has ever known. The war has made a great awakening of millions of human minds. The possibilities that there are in society for realizing better conditions for all humanity are undreamed of. The opportunity has arisen to make these possibilities realities."

JURY NOT SELECTED IN A. C. BURCH CASE

(By The Associated Press.) Los Angeles, Calif., Nov. 28.—The fourth day of the trial of Arthur C. Burch for the alleged murder of J. Belton Kennedy ended with the jury still unselected, but with indications that the panel would be completed and taking of testimony begun tomorrow.

Of eleven persons in the jury box, temporarily passed, ten were women.

The defense has three peremptory challenges unused and the prosecution two.

Famous "Bloodless Surgeon" Is at Work on U. S. Children

Dr. Adolph Lorenz operating on an infantile paralysis case in New York. At the right is Dr. Henry W. Fraunthaler, chief surgeon of the hospital.

The wonderful hands of Dr. Adolph Lorenz, famous Austrian "bloodless surgeon," are already at work straightening the crooked spines, bones and joints of American children. To repay Austria's debt to America, the man whose skill at plastic surgery is known all over the world recently gave his first demonstration before a clinic in the Hospital for Joint Diseases. Dr. Lorenz attracted nation-wide attention eighteen years ago when he cured Lella Armour, daughter of too many kings who then was a cripple and whose case had been considered hopeless.

They said Governor Mechem had decided not to seek the governor's office a second time but this was not confirmed, as the governor left Saturday for Salt Lake City, Utah, to attend the meeting of the Western States Reclamation association. The governor was said to intend to follow in former Chief Justice of the Supreme Court Clarence J. Roberts' footsteps and enter the private practice of law after the expiration of his present term.

W. G. Sargent, of Santa Fe, former state auditor, also was said to be a receptive candidate for the gubernatorial nomination in the republican ticket.

Working on a theory of Private Detective Williams' which involves Mr. Harrington, Deputy Sheriff Banghart and others in the city have been shadowing Harrington for some time. As far as could be learned yesterday, any motive which Harrington might have for committing such a crime is remote to the farthest degree, coming from a crime committed some time ago in which it is thought Kempenich worked for the conviction of the man charged with it, who was a friend or relative of Harrington's.

Several other arrests are expected with a short time, all of them, it is understood, coming from the clew which the private detective is following. Mr. Williams, it is reported, was employed shortly after the death of Eugene Kempenich by relatives of the deceased.

The officers arrived in Albuquerque with their prisoner and immediately went on to Los Lunas, where he was placed in the county jail pending further investigation.

State highway commissioner at the time of his death, was found on the morning of October 7 on the floor of his bedroom at his Peralta home. He was lying on his back and a bullet was found to have passed completely through his chest. His revolver was lying under his right hand. Examination of the revolver proved puzzling, to such an extent that some people claimed it had been fired recently and others that it had not been fired for months.

The entire death was shrouded in mystery and many officials who have been connected with the case are still undecided as to how the tragedy occurred.

Visible Grain Supply. New York, Nov. 28.—The visible supply of American grain shows the following changes: Wheat decreased 2,134,000 bushels; corn decreased 622,000 bushels. Oats increased 28,000 bushels. Rye, decreased 364,000 bushels. Barley decreased 569,000 bushels.

FLEET LIMITING PLAN OF HUGHES IS WITHOUT ANY TECHNICAL FLAW

American Basic Offer of a "5-5-3" Naval Ratio Has Stood Every Test Applied By the Experts.

FULL COMMITTEE TO HEAR REPORT TODAY

Analysis of the Major Elements of the Proposals Have Been Completed; U. S. Officials Hopeful.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Nov. 28.—Definite steps toward principles of Secretary Hughes' proposals for a naval building holiday and naval limitation thereafter may result tomorrow from the meeting of the full committee of naval experts to which the task of detailed examination of the plan was referred.

The experts have completed their analysis of the major elements of the plan and it can be said authoritatively for the American group, that no technical flaw in the Hughes' proposals has been revealed.

American Basic Offer. The American basic offer of a "5-5-3" naval ratio between Great Britain, the United States and Japan, has stood, in American opinion, every test of fact applied by the experts. It embodied no mistakes or errors of calculations. And it is tonight, as it was the day Secretary Hughes announced it, the hub of the whole matter.

The American experts are expected to report that the basis of the fact underlying the American plan was stated. What action British or Japanese experts may take is not known. The report, however, will clear the way for action by the conference on the principles.

American officials are very hopeful that the attitudes of A. J. Balfour for the British group, and of Admiral Kato for the Japanese, will prove to have been acceptance of the principles of the American proposal. They were widely construed in that way at the time, but subject to an agreement as to the fact upon which the plan was predicated. In the American view, these facts have been sustained.

Next in interest to the "5-5-3" ratio proposal has stood the discussion as to the status of the Japanese fleet. It is a subject of secondary importance, provided any proposal for retention of the fleet did not alter the "5-5-3" standing as between the United States and Japan.

It was suggested informally that if Japan was bent on keeping the fleet, she might possibly negotiate an agreement to do so by offering to scrap instead, one of the four battle cruisers she would retain under the American plan.

One hundred marks a day is considered a fair wage for the average working man, skilled workmen and miners receiving considerably more, some as high as 200 marks a day, while the common laborer makes but 50 or 60 marks for eight hours.

Professors in the universities and school teachers maintain that they have not fared so well as the working man, receiving on an average of less than 25 marks a day.

Since the war, the Germans do not eat as much meat as formerly. Potatoes forming the principle article of diet. Dark bread in three pound loaves is sold for 7 marks, this being a mixture resembling rye bread as made in America. It is considered very wholesome and is eaten by many Americans.

Among them Maj. Gen. Henry T. Allen, commander of the American forces in Germany, who has it on his table at home at every meal.

SHORT SKIRTS, THIN STOCKINGS, LOW CUT WAISTS CRITICISED

Denver, Colo., Nov. 28.—Short skirts, transparent stockings and low cut waists "inviting the staring and lecherous gaze of men" came in for a condemnation last night at Trinity Methodist church which enjoys one of the largest congregations in the city, when the Rev. Loren M. Edwards made a sensational departure from his usual policy of non-criticism of existing institutions, preaching a sermon on the subject of "the idolatry of passion."

"We need to go back to the old time modesty in dress," the speaker asserted. "I am not trying to send you back to your grandmother's day, you understand. That is not my plea. But I want to emphasize the fact that familiarity still breeds the same old traditional contempt."

"If a husband of the woman whose costume is such as to invite the staring lecherous gaze of men—the gown impossibly low of bosom, scanty of skirt and stockings of almost incredible transparency."

Col. Whittlesey Disappears on Way to Havana

Hero of the Famous Lost Battalion Reported Missing from Steamship on Which He Sailed Saturday

(By The Associated Press.) New York, Nov. 28.—Lieut. Col. Charles W. Whittlesey, hero of the famous lost battalion, has disappeared from the steamer Toluca, on which he sailed Saturday for Havana, according to a wireless today.

News of the famous soldier's disappearance came in the following message received from the captain of the ship:

"Passenger named C. W. Whittlesey disappeared. Left several letters."

Officials of the United Fruit line, operators of the ship, confirmed the fact that the passenger was Lieutenant Colonel Whittlesey through his relatives.

Members of the Whittlesey's law firm were at a loss to account for his visit to Cuba. When he left the office of the firm Friday he announced his intention, they said, of attending the Army-Navy game Sunday.

His business associates declared his mind was clear and that he apparently was in good health otherwise when last seen. He seemed cheerful, they added, and declared they were unable to explain his seemingly strange action in going away without notifying them of his plans.

Apprehensive. The soldier's uncle, declared tonight Colonel Whittlesey attended the services for the unknown dead at Washington on Armistice day and had since appeared depressed.

Colonel Whittlesey, who was 36 and unmarried, lived in a bachelor apartment here. When he appeared at breakfast Saturday he brought a suit case from his room. He did not say where he was going.

The crisp, laconic reply: "You go to hell," hurried into the teeth of a German officer who called on him and his men to surrender, was the rhetorical battlefield classic which brought Colonel Whittlesey into fame.

Surrounded in the Argonne with his command, the First battalion of the 308th infantry. Seventy-seventh division, he had been cut off for four days without food or rest. All but eighty-seven men had been killed or wounded.

At dusk October 1, 1918, a blindfolded German bearing a white flag crossed the line and asked the Americans to surrender, "in the name of humanity."

A few hours after the messenger was sent back with Whittlesey's reply, an American advance took place and all were rescued.

His exploit was rewarded by President Wilson with the congressional medal of honor. After the armistice the German officer who demanded Whittlesey's surrender added to his laurels by publishing a statement extolling the American's courage.

Find Watchman Dead Under Pile of Oats

(By The Associated Press.) Montrose, Colo., Nov. 28.—Lemuel Heacock, a watchman at the Cashin mine near Paradox, Colo., was found dead under a pile of oats in his cabin here today. The doors of the cabin had been locked and a pool of blood lay on the floor.

Heacock had not been seen for several days. Today searchers climbed through a window and discovered the body.

The authorities believe some one killed Heacock to obtain a large sum of money he was known to have concealed in his house.

FATTY ARBUCKLE TELLS STORY OF HOTEL PARTY IN SAN FRANCISCO

Movie Comedian Relates Happenings at a Gathering Which Preceded the Death of Virginia Rappe.

DENIES INFLECTING INJURIES ON GIRL

Declares He Found Her on the Bath Room Floor, Whirling and Moaning; Her Talk Was Incoherent

(By The Associated Press.) San Francisco, Calif., Nov. 28.—(By The Associated Press).—Roscoe Arbuckle, motion picture comedian, spoke his first lines today in the tragic drama of what he has been the central figure since its inception September 5 last. Arbuckle told the story of the happenings at a party in his rooms at the Hotel St. Francis here which preceded the death of Virginia Rappe, one of those who attended. It was at this party that the girl received injuries which caused her death. The situation that formed the basis of Arbuckle's trial, now drawing to a close on the charge of manslaughter.

Defense Closes Case. The defense closed its case at 5:24 in a vain attempt to obtain admission into the record of a statement by George Glenn, house detective at the Hotel St. Francis, which it was contended, would exonerate Arbuckle of any responsibility for Miss Rappe's injury.

Every one concerned regarded today's developments as the principal episode of the drama. The expectation that Arbuckle would testify drew a large crowd for the morning session and word that he already was on the stand drew one of about the same size for the afternoon sitting of the court.

Due to the failure of the defense to qualify a witness it had summoned as an expert, Arbuckle took the stand and then set for him to do so. His direct examination was completed in ten minutes, his attorneys leading him over the ground to be covered in such a short time that it surprised many in the court room.

In a clear, loud voice, Arbuckle denied that he inflicted the injuries on Miss Rappe that have been charged against him.

"When I went into my room during the party to dress for an engagement I had with a friend, Mrs. May Taube, I found Miss Rappe on the bath room floor writhing and moaning," he said. "When I opened the door of the bathroom I struck against her."

Assisted Her All He Could. "I assisted her in the bathroom all I could. Then I placed her on the bed in my room and continued to assist her. She was moaning and writhing and nothing she said could be understood by me."

"Where was Mrs. Delmont?" he was asked by his chief counsel.

Mrs. Blandine Maud Delmont, a guest at the party, brought the original charge of murder against Arbuckle, which later was reduced to manslaughter after a trial.

"Mrs. Delmont appeared while we were trying to assist Miss Rappe. She told me to get away from Miss Rappe and I told her 'shut up' or I will throw you out of the window," Arbuckle continued.

Unaware of the Party. Arbuckle said he did not know that the party had been planned and that he did not know that it had become a reality until Miss Zay Prevost, Miss Rappe, Alice Blake, Alfred Zimmacher and other guests arrived.

"I wanted to get away," Arbuckle testified, "I danced for a while with Miss Blake and others. Virginia Rappe did not dance, although she ordered the music. She

MANY INDICTED FOR VIOLATION OF SHERMAN ACT

Fifty - One Individuals and 53 Corporations in the Window Glass Industry Must Stand Trial.

(By The Associated Press.)

New York, Nov. 28.—The federal grand jury late today returned an indictment charging 51 individuals and 53 corporations in the window glass industry with violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. J. M. Neenan, president of the National Glassworkers' Union, was indicted on a similar charge.

In naming President Neenan, the indictment charges conspiracy between the labor union and the glass producers to limit production, enabling defendants arbitrarily to maintain excessive prices.

The Johnston Brokerage company, an alleged selling agency, also was named. This agency, the indictment declared, was part of a price scheme to enable defendants to combine, to dictate terms of sale and to eliminate competition.

Indictment of Mr. Neenan, according to William Hayward, federal district attorney, will test the validity of provisions of the Clayton act and the civil sundries bill extending immunities to labor organizations under the anti-trust laws.

The corporation defendants include the leading window glass manufacturers of the United States and about two-thirds of the window glass industry. Among them is the Big Horn Glass Products company of Lowell, Wyoming.

The defendants are charged with a combination and conspiracy to suppress competition, to maintain arbitrary, excessive and extortionate prices, and to curtail production and supply of window glass.

For effectually carrying out the alleged conspiracy arbitrarily to fix excessive prices, it is charged an agreement was entered into with the labor union of the National Window Glass Workers, through Mr. Neenan, whereby the quantity to be produced annually by each manufacturer, the period within which the manufacturers were to operate their plants and factories, and the amount to be manufactured by each employee were predetermined and prescribed.

It is alleged that the employees did not engage their services to any manufacturer who did not sign the so-called "wage scales," and that when a manufacturer had produced the amount of window glass prescribed under the scale, the employees were withdrawn and that fines and penalties were imposed upon the employees by their union for agreement.

LANDIS TO ANNOUNCE DECISION IN RUTH'S CASE IN DAY OR TWO

(By The Associated Press.)

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Judge Landis, baseball commissioner, will announce his decision in the "Rube" Ruth case within a day or two, probably tomorrow, it was learned tonight. Ruth violated one of the rules of the major leagues by taking part in a barnstorming trip after the world series.

Judge Landis today received the questionnaire he sent Ruth in which the home run hitter's reasons for violating the rules are outlined. There was no official intimation as to whether the commissioner would impose the maximum penalty of suspension from baseball or merely fine the star of the New York Yankees.

The rule violated by Ruth was not a personal ruling by Judge Landis, but had been made by the major leagues before the judge became commissioner.

wanted a piano first but we brought in a phonograph. Arbuckle denied the truth of statements reported to have been made by him following the party that he placed a piece of ice on Miss Rappe's body. He had found the ice on the girl's body, he explained, but was taken to task by Mrs. Delmont for picking it up and thereupon put it down again.

Rush Court Room Doors. When the report that Arbuckle was on the stand was given general circulation hundreds rushed the court room doors. The court officials, defendant and counsel, had great difficulty in getting to their places for the afternoon session and the court ordered the doors closed as one means of checking the pressure.

At the conclusion of Arbuckle's testimony, the defense offered the deposition of Dr. Maurice H. Rosenberg, of Chicago, which said that in 1913 he treated Miss Rappe for a bladder ailment. Miss Rappe died as a result of a bladder rupture, said by the prosecution to have been caused by external force applied by Arbuckle. The defense alleges that the injury was the result of a chronic condition. The prosecution resisted its introduction.

Deposition Admitted. Court recessed for a half hour in order that Judge Harold Louderback might formulate a ruling. The ruling allowed the deposition. A cross deposition from Dr. Rosenberg was read by the prosecution. He admitted a ruling that he did not know the condition of Miss Rappe's health at the time of the Arbuckle party.

The depositions of Josephine Bath, of Chicago, nurse, a Virginia Warren, also of Chicago, were produced. The prosecution refused to make any stipulation as to whether the depositions should be introduced in whole or in part. The defense then declined to read them.

Rebuttal Testimony. Tomorrow the prosecution will commence its presentation of rebuttal testimony. This is expected to require two days. A complicating factor in the situation is the illness of Juror Arthur H. Crane, who was said by his physician to be so ill his attendance at further sessions may be impossible. Should he be excused, Stephen E. Hopkins, who has heard all the testimony as an alternate juror, will replace him.

List of Witnesses. The district attorney and his aides planned to settle tonight on the list of witnesses who will be called in rebuttal testimony. Subpoenas have been issued for a number of persons who have not been put on the stand, among them Louis Glaum, motion picture actress.

Counsel for the defense let it be known that they would put on no rebuttal witnesses "unless compelled to do so."

Expectation as court adjourned tonight was that the issue would be in the hands of the jury by next Thursday.

PROGRESS MADE BY CONFERENCE IS GRATIFYING

Japanese Delegate Looks for Ultimate Success of the Arms Cut Meeting Being Held in Washington

(By The Associated Press.)

Washington, Nov. 28 (By The Associated Press).—If Japan has a right to exist as a nation "she must be allowed to draw from China raw materials necessary for her national development," Baron Kanda, Japanese delegate, declared in an address tonight. Advantages of such an arrangement would not accrue to Japan alone, he asserted.

"What Japan wants," he said, "is a prosperous and stable China, well organized and able to both buy and produce, and equal opportunity there with all nations for commerce and industry."

The progress made by the conference, he described as "gratifying."

"Notwithstanding the apparent hitch, due mainly to Japan's proposal of modification of the naval proposals," he said, "I cannot but look with the greatest confidence for the ultimate success of the conference for the happy settlement of this question."

"Japan is neither self-sustaining nor rich in natural resources like the United States. We are shut up in a group of islands not much larger than your state of Montana, but with a population of sixty millions. We must obtain our means of sustenance from abroad and find manufactured products must find their way to overseas markets. We have reached that stage of development where a nation must industrialize to preserve its existence."

require a "10-5" ratio as against Japanese, owing to distances, probable causes of conflict and similar matters.

For that reason the American "5-5-3" plan is viewed as not only a written assurance of utter lack of any American purpose in the Pacific but also a legitimate Japanese interest, but as an assumption of a similar friendly attitude by Japan. On no other theory, naval officers, would the proposal be warranted, backed as it is by the offer to scrap or discontinue more than twice the amount of new tonnage Japan is asked to abandon.

Limited Steel Output. Reference by Vice Admiral Kato to Japan's limited steel output and shipbuilding facilities, as warranted her desire for a 70 per cent fleet status, recalled the original view taken of Secretary Hughes' "5-5-3" ratio proposal. That ratio, it is asserted, goes far beyond any attempt at the actual transfer of task of setting down in figures, estimates of naval strength relatively to each other.

It includes some allowance for American shipbuilding resources in the estimate for the relative strength at sea, officers say, for that as well as each battleship now afloat has its place in fixing a fair naval proposition now submitted to the Japanese, as cloaking hostile designs.

In other words, these officers contend, the United States could build and maintain against Japan, on a two to one or even a three to one scale if it desired. If it is to abandon that advantage, they add, to end naval competition, the sacrifice must be met to some slight extent at least, in the fleet ratio to be fixed.

70 PER CENT RATIO IS NECESSARY, SAYS KATO. Washington, Nov. 28 (By The Associated Press).—To safeguard properly the interests of Japan the ratio of 70 per cent in tonnage of capital ships is necessary, Vice Admiral Kato, president of the Japanese naval college and chief naval adviser to the Japanese delegation, said to the Associated Press tonight in an interview.

Vice Admiral Kato, who is regarded as the leading Japanese authority on naval strategy, declared that the main issue for the conference was the reduction of armaments burdens.

"Japan accepts this issue wholeheartedly," he continued, "and is prepared to scrap capital ships under construction and old battleships. The naval ratio is a question of grave concern to the security of the nations. I hope that the United States will accept the 70 per cent for Japan, which is the minimum of strength required for her security."

"People of all countries must be in full agreement. Otherwise, even though an agreement may be made, it might create an unpleasant feeling and defeat its purpose. To meet the desires of the Japanese people, I believe a 70 per cent ratio, as compared with the United States and Great Britain, is necessary."

The main issue in limitation of armaments is to relieve the burdens of the nations. Japan has shown her hearty accord to the idea, and has agreed to the wholesale scrapping of capital ships under construction, as well as old ships. This practically means that the great purpose of the conference has been attained.

"When you think about the sacrifice made by the nations represented, it seems clear that the degree of sacrifice is great for Japan. It means that it will be felt more keenly by us than by the United States, because our industrial and shipbuilding power cannot be compared to that of America."

The preamble to the American proposal says that "the United States believe that the plan safeguards the interests of all concerned. Let me emphasize again, that to safeguard the interests of the Japanese empire, a 70 per cent ratio is necessary. If the ratio of 70 per cent is accorded Japan, this does not mean the purpose of the conference is defeated, because the main purpose of the present meeting is limitation of armaments. The principle of tonnage is not the principal issue."

He contended that the capacity of Japan to replace her warships was infinitely less than the United States. Japan, he said, would be quite unable, with her present shipbuilding and industrial strength, and taking into account the paucity of her raw material, more especially steel, to engage successfully in competition as to the replacement of ships.

"For instance," he said, "do you realize that the yearly output of steel in Japan is only 800,000 tons, whereas in the United States it is almost 22,000,000 tons. Under these circumstances it is quite impossible for Japan to think of entering into any race with any strong industrial power in case any difficulty should arise. It would almost be better to abolish all capital ships. It would certainly be fairer to Japan, which is asking for seven ships to every ten of the other countries. The Japanese are merely putting forth a request that seems to me eminently fair and reasonable."

STEEL SLEEPERS TO BE PUT IN SERVICE BY PULLMAN COMPANY

(Special Correspondence in The Journal.)

Santa Fe, Nov. 28.—A. J. Conk, Pullman company agent at Albuquerque, today wrote the corporation commission steel sleepers would be put into service between El Paso and Denver on the Santa Fe and on the Pecos Valley line as the result of passengers' complaints.

Passengers said the lavatories were too small and when they had to stand in line waiting for their turn to wash they had frequently to choose between the ablutions and breakfast at Albuquerque. Cook said the steel sleepers had larger lavatories.

ZBYSKO WINS MAT CONTEST FROM LEWIS

(By The Associated Press.)

New York, Nov. 28.—Stanislaus Zbyszko, of Poland, successfully defended the world's heavyweight wrestling championship at Madison Square Garden tonight, defeating Ed (Strangler) Lewis, of Lexington, Ky. Zbyszko won two out of three falls.

Lewis obtained the first fall with a flying headlock after 17 minutes and 31 seconds. The second, a so-called rolling fall, went to Zbyszko after 21 minutes and 26 seconds. This fall was called when Lewis, in escaping from a half-Nelson and crotch hold, permitted his shoulders to strike the mat. Lewis protested the referee's decision and left the ring, but was induced by the state athletic commission to continue.

The champion won the third fall and match with a double arm-lock in 14 minutes and 55 seconds. The referee's decision in giving Zbyszko the second fall was loudly cheered by a large body of spectators.

Tonight's victory was the nine hundred and fortieth for the champion in his 23 years of professional competition. He was defeated only once, the late Frank Gotch, who quipped him in a match that lasted but six seconds.

In Uganda the person of the king is regarded as sacred. He is never allowed to walk outside of his own enclosure, but is carried on the shoulders of chosen men. The shoulders of these men are treated with reverence, and no man, not even a friend, is allowed to place his hand upon them in a familiar manner.

Just a subscription or two with their present great vote value—and especially the two, three, four, five and six-year subscriptions. These are the subscriptions that earn the big votes. One subscription for six years if turned in NOW will give any candidate in the race $60,000 regular votes, and also constitutes two clubs of $27 each, which gives 200,000 EXTRA VOTES, or a total of 260,000 votes in all for the one subscription.

These are the days when subscriptions count big for you. They will never count for as many votes again during the campaign. The result of your race—your success, or your failure—will depend almost entirely upon what you accomplish during the BIG VOTE PERIOD. Make the next five days count BIG for you; make the present big vote period win the prize of your choice.

BENNY CHAVEZ GETS DECISION OVER GONZALEZ

Trinidad Boy, Back in Old Form, Wipes Out Sting of Recent Defeat: Anaya and Corona Go 50-50.

Benny Chavez, back in his old time form, copped the 15-round decision from Sailor Gonzalez in the main event of the boxing card staged by Dan Padilla at the armory last night. He carried the fight in 14 of the 15 rounds and in the fourteenth floored Gonzalez for the count of 8, but could not put over the haymaker.

The fight was snappy from the first going. Benny taking the aggressive part and carrying it throughout the entire distance. His punches were terrific and he paid but little attention to Gonzalez's best efforts.

Through the first and second rounds both boys were slightly wild, but willing. There was not a dull in either round. Benny got his distance better in the third and heavy punches were exchanged. Benny flooring the Sailor for the count of 3.

In the fourth round Sailor started getting out of the way and from then it was a case of Benny meeting up with him around the ropes. Heavy punches were exchanged, Benny boring in constantly with a left jab and attempting heavy right swings which mostly missed their mark. The fifth was a repetition of the fourth and in the sixth, Gonzalez opened up a bit and stood his ground, but without much advantage.

The seventh round was a rain of blows, Chavez having a bit the best of the exchanges. Chavez' heavy slugging defeated the eighth, but in the ninth, Sailor came back, but with little advantage. Benny continued the chase for the next two rounds, landing a rain of jabs. The Sailor made a last attempt in the twelfth and failing to out over a dreamlander, lost any advantage he might have made in the round.

In the thirteenth, Benny knocked him to the floor and landed a rain of heavy blows. In the fourteenth he knocked him for the count of 9 and the bout ended in the fifteenth with Gonzalez still standing under heavy punishment.

Corona-Anaya Draw.
Rivaling the 15-round bout was the 10-round go between Kid Anaya of Albuquerque, and Johnny Corona of Stockton, Calif., which proved to be one of the most scientific and fastest bouts ever seen in the city. The boys were given a draw by the city boxing commission.

Both boys attempted to carry the fight in the opening round, but Corona, who has everything but a punch, beat Anaya to it and for the first four rounds showed a marvel of speed and action. These rounds were easily his.

The fourth round was probably the fastest round ever seen in a boxing match in Albuquerque. But little damage was done to either of the boys, but hundreds of blows were started on their way during the three minutes of action.

from then on carried the bout with but few exceptions. Corona, although showing a first class brand of boxing, was apparently exhausted. Much of this was undoubtedly due to the high altitude to which he is a stranger. The bout ended with Anaya showering blows under which it seemed Corona must wilt, but he didn't. Groggy, but game, he stood up and took everything that came his way and attempted to carry the fight.

Jack Brady knocked out John O'Reilly in the third round of a four-round "winner take all" bout and in the second bout, Young Herrera knocked out Bobby in the third round of a four-round go. The judges doubted the power of the flooring blow and decided that Bobby would not be in on the money.

C. OF C. DRIVE WILL CONTINUE IN CITY TODAY

Albuquerque Not Yet Half Covered and Already There Are More Than 700 Members; Need Workers.

"The chamber of commerce members' convention campaign will continue until every available man and woman power in the city is welded together in the new organization for the good of Albuquerque," declared Sidney Well, chairman of the rejuvenation plant, last night.

The three-day drive has netted more than 700 members to the organization. Due to the lack of sufficient workers, nearly half of the city has been covered. The response has been almost universal in the city, practically every person solicited, taking a membership. Subscribers have not been confined to the business district, dozens of persons in the residence sections applying for memberships. A flying committee in four automobiles were kept busy all day yesterday visiting persons in the residence sections who had telephoned asking for a salesman to come and sell them a membership.

The applicants are not confined to the city. James Springs, Ariz., and Alameda, appear to be the boundaries. Ranchmen are joining. Wives are coming to the chamber of commerce and signing up for such husbands.

One woman who signed an application for her husband stated that they had only been in the city for two weeks, but that they felt the first thing they should do was to join the chamber of commerce, the city whose climate had already worked wonders with her husband's health.

Many workers are taking out memberships for themselves and for friends in other states who intend to move here this winter in order to enjoy the climatic conditions of the city.

Workers who attended the noon day lunch yesterday, were surprised at the ease with which they signed up their prospects. Many reported signing every person that had been interviewed.

"Half of the men I started to sell Albuquerque to, ended by selling it even more enthusiastically to me," one of them stated.

"All we need to reach our quota is enough Albuquerque salesmen to visit the prospects," Sidney Well declared last night.

Taking advantage of the meeting at Labor Temple last night, a committee attended the meeting and put the proposition up to the members. Talks were delivered by Ed Swope, Robert Putney, Frank Butt, W. Graham, M. Sawtelle, Charles Roehl, Sidney Well and Earl Bowditch. The addresses met with great enthusiasm and practically all of the men attending the meeting endorsed the project as individuals. Many of them not already actively assisting, volunteered to assist in the work starting this morning. The committee will take advantage of several other various assemblies during the week in order to put the proposition up to groups at a time

YOU CAN'T TRUST CALOMEL AT ALL

It's Quicksilver, Salivator causes Rheumatism and Bone Decay

The next dose of calomel you take may salivate you. It may shock your liver or start home necrosis. Calomel is dangerous. It is mercury, quicksilver. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headache, constipated and all knotted out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without the poisonous side effects you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calomel! It can not be trusted any more than a leopard or a wild cat. Take Dodson's Liver Tonic and you'll be right up and making you feel fine. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless. It can not salivate.

Why Guess About It—When You Can Know About It?

Suppose a guide said—

"This way there's a safe and pleasant road to your destination, with no risks or troubles on the way," and—

"That way there's a road that a good many have stalled on and turned back from, but you may get through."

Which would you take?

Postum is a thoroughly agreeable and satisfying meal-time drink, and you're sure that it's perfectly safe for health. Coffee contains drug qualities which disturb and harm the health of many.

Postum or coffee? Which road?

Why guess when you can know?

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes. Sold by all grocers.

MORE ROOM NEEDED FOR THE YRISARRI SCHOOL CHILDREN

Attendance at the Yrisarri school in Cedro Canyon, thirty-one miles from here, has increased to such an extent this season that it becomes necessary yesterday for County Superintendent Irene Burke to rent a room near the building for the accommodation of a part of the pupils.

The room will be under the direction of Miss Marian Henry and will accommodate parts of the fourth, fifth, seventh and eighth grades. There are more than sixty pupils now attending the school.

Parents of the children have decided to assist in enlarging the school building and it is planned to have a community building day soon when the necessary addition will be erected to the present building.

BROKEN MACHINE IS CAUSE OF DELAY ON EAST CENTRAL WORK

Due to a breakage of one of the parts of the surfacing machine, the bitulth surface was not started on the paving on East Central avenue yesterday. The machine is being repaired and it is expected that work will be started this morning.

The surfacing will require about six days to complete and as the paving will be ready for use a few hours after the job is finished, Central avenue will probably be opened to traffic Sunday.

"Vags" are being used by the city in cleaning up the curbs and street and alley intersections along the new paving and a great amount of this work has been done at no cost to the city during the past few days. All vags who are sentenced to terms in the city jail are being used in the work.

LONDON GROPE IN FOG.
London, Nov. 28.—London was groping today in what is said to be the densest fog in twenty years. Telephone systems have been disorganized for four days, during which time the vaporous folds have spread over a wide provincial area.

FOCH INDUCTED INTO TRIBE BY MONTANA CROWS

"Ah-way-ko-ta-ba-che-chish" is the Name Bestowed on French Marshal by Indians at Billings

(By The Associated Press.)
Billings, Mont., Nov. 28.—"Ah-way-ko-ta-ba-che-chish" is the name by which Marshal Ferdinand Foch is known among the Crow Indians, into which tribe he was inducted by an elaborate ceremony at the Indian reservation here today.

The name means "Chief of Chiefs," which the Indians bestowed upon the French marshal by Chief Plenty Coups of the Crows. A drizzle of rain did not prevent the marshal from taking part in the ceremony nor visiting the Custer battle field.

Chief Plenty Coups of the Crows, with nearly 100 former warriors in gorgeous regalia at his back, invested the marshal with war bonnet, war shirt, fringed leggings and coup stick. Indian gifts were showered so plentifully on the marshal that the arms of orderlies and members of his staff were filled.

On the arrival of the train at Crow agency the marshal was welcomed by Solicitor Edwin G. Booth of the department of the interior, and Lieutenant Governor Nelson B. Storey. Following brief talks, the marshal and Chief Plenty Coups drew three puffs each from a ceremonial pipe.

At a twenty-five-minute stop in Billings speeches were made by Marshal Foch, Commander Hanford MacNider, of the American legion, Mayor William V. Beers and local American legion officers.

The next stop in Montana of any length will be made at Butte, where the train is scheduled to remain forty-five minutes.

PLOTTED TO DEFRAUD INSURANCE COMPANIES

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Nov. 28.—Alleged nationwide activities of an organization to defraud insurance companies, particularly those writing automobile risks, is behind the arrest Saturday at Philadelphia of Miss Hazel Whitaker, according to officials of the Automobile Underwriters' Detective bureau.

The case was put into the hands of the federal department of justice, officials said today, because of its scope. It has been under investigation for more than one year.

Washington, Nov. 28.—Suspicion of alleged activities to defraud automobile insurance companies which led to the arrest in Philadelphia of Miss Hazel Whitaker, was said today by Director Burns of the justice department bureau of investigation to be confined to members of the Whitaker family.

Federal investigation, he said, had not disclosed a nation-wide organization.

WOMAN ELECTED AS REGISTER OF COUNTY OF N. Y.

"It Is Impossible to Make Men or Women Moral By Legislation," Declares Miss Annie Mathews.

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Nov. 28.—There'll be no regulation of skirt lengths, no ban on bare knees, no outcry against the bobbing of tresses or the parking of corsets by her employees when Miss Annie Mathews takes over on January 1 the office to which she has just been elected as register of the county of New York—the richest political plum that has even fallen into the lap of a woman in New York, if not in the entire United States.

Not that the $12,000-a-year register-elect hasn't very decided ideas on clothes and all the allied arts so precious to women. Indeed, she has spent the greater part of her 40-odd years studying the clothes problem, first as dressmaker, then a designer and finally as an importing modiste.

But she has even more decided ideas on the question of personal liberty.

"I am opposed to all prohibition," she said.

"It is impossible to make women or men moral by legislation. The human race can be improved only by education that will make them appreciate the good and the artistic."

"If any of my young women employees ask for advice on clothes, I shall give it. And the most important thing I will tell them to wear is something appropriate for the occasion. A woman's business attire, or house attire certainly should be simple."

Busy herself at the time receiving congratulations at her campaign headquarters, Miss Mathews' attire emphasized her formula. A plain blue serge dress, softened at the throat by a bit of embroidered linen collar. Black high shoes. No jewelry. Copper colored hair simply coiffed.

"Skirt lengths, bobbed hair, the question of corsets or none," she went on, with a twinkle from behind her pince-nez glasses, "are largely matters of taste—and of figure. All this talk about depravity among young women makes me a bit weary. I believe the young people are as good young people as young people ever were."

"Of course there are and always have been extremists. But—well, I don't think I will be troubled with these, for I can tell a great deal about character by the clothes one wears. Yes, even the standardized clothes of men."

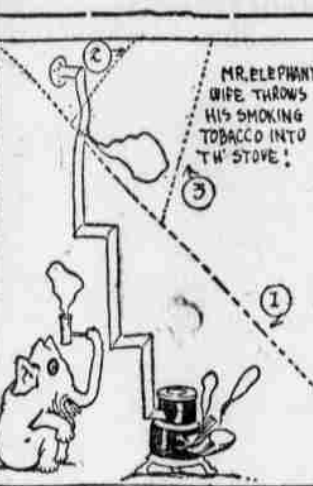

Miss Mathews enters on her new job of keeping the country's deeds, mortgages and leases with but one preconceived idea—that there shall be no prejudice either for or against any of her 150 employees because they happen to be a woman.

SAW MILL IN SANDIA MOUNTAINS REOPENED

One of the two saw mills in the Sandia mountains will be opened shortly by Mr. Goen, formerly of the firm of Goen & Adams, according to K. C. Kartheiser, Manzano forest supervisor, who has returned from an official trip on the forest.

The mill, which is located in Canyon David, a branch of Hell Canyon, has been idle for nearly four months. Mr. Goen will resume operations at once. The mill has been idle because of difficulties encountered by the purchaser who was forced to return the property to Mr. Goen. The mill has a capacity of 10,000 feet of lumber a day.

Five and ten dollar fines and costs were handed to a long list of traffic violators on the North Fourth street pike yesterday by Justice of Peace Desdario Montoya. WILLARD A. GUY DELIVERED GOOD SERMON SUNDAY

In an interesting sermon on Scriptural Stewardship, Rev. Willard Guy of the Broadway Christian church spoke as follows:

The Bible has much to say about the right use of money. The New Testament speaks very plainly of the principle of the kingdom. Some of the essential of Christian stewardship are mentioned in I Corinthians 16:2, which says: "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him."

This passage implies that Christian giving is systematic giving. There is a definite time to give, namely, "upon the first day of the week," which means that the giving was on a weekly basis. This is logical, as it is much easier for most people to give a small amount each week than to give a large amount once or twice per year. This fact is proven by the improved conditions in many churches that have adopted the weekly plan of giving.

Scriptural stewardship also implies individual giving. Who is to give? "Every one of you." This too, is logical, for we are related to the kingdom as individuals. Each one must have faith for himself. Each one must repent for himself. Each one must confess his faith in Christ for himself. Each one must be baptized for himself. Each must give for himself. One of us cannot perform any of these duties for another. Our relation to God is a personal relation. Here, then, is a serious weakness in many churches. They have failed to link up each and every individual with the financial program of the church. The harm resulting from this neglect can hardly be told. Not only does the church lose the support but these people lose the sense of fellowship in the work of the kingdom and also the joy that should be theirs in the hour of victory.

"Every one of you," God's program includes every man, every woman, yes, and every boy and girl who is a member of the church. The wise father will let his children give for themselves, thus permitting them to feel that they have part in the work of the church. How else shall these boys and girls be trained for future leadership?

Again, scriptural stewardship calls for proportionate giving. How much shall we give? "As God hath prospered him." Thus a definite portion of my income is to be set aside for God's work. The man or woman who is not a Christian, but who is devoted to Christian service. If you ask what per cent this should be, I reply, the Bible knows but one standard. The Bible says 10 per cent. The Jew of Christ's time knew nothing else. The early disciples had been taught from youth that this portion belonged to God. Therefore, when they became Christians, they still remembered God's law. They were no longer under Mosaic law, but still they realized their obligation to God and gave not less but more.

Boils and Pimples Are Danger Signals

They Denote with Unfailing Certainty a Weakened and Impure State of the Blood.

For Absolute Relief You Must Clear Your Blood of Waste Products.

Modern life, with its rich foods and lack of exercise, often advertises its effects by disfiguring the skin.

Acne, small abscesses and boils are all too common. To correct the basic trouble—waste products—the blood must be purified. Don't do your blood.

Just clean it out. Nature will do the rest. Pure, rich, red blood nourishes the body and fights off disease. S. S., the standard blood purifier and system builder, is the ideal remedy for skin eruptions. The effect of S. S. is to rid the system of the waste products which are causing the trouble. For over 50 years S. S. has been proven to be of unusual merit. Begin taking S. S. today and write for 56 page illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood"—free.

Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than ready-made cough syrup, and saves about $2. Easily and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never fails.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break severe coughs. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. more. So we read in the opening chapter of acts that not only the tithe, but their all, was consecrated to God. So the New Testament's ideal is, "Give as God has prospered thee." This is also logical, for we are partners with God, and a certain portion of the increase belongs to Him. "I have planted, Apollous watered; but God gave the increase." Thus, just common honesty demands giving God the portion that belongs to Him. Many who are honest with their fellowmen are robbing God, and withholding from Him his due.

But scriptural giving is also cheerful giving. We are to give "not grudgingly, or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver." I Cor. 9:7. One of the very happiest days in all the year should be the day in which the church raises its financial budget for the next year's work. It is always such a day when the people are sufficiently taught God's program for his church, and when they realize their relation to Him as stewards. The men who composed the teams that visited our homes last year testified that our people were ready and willing to do their part because they had been taught and knew what their part was.

Thus the principle of systematic stewardship is fundamental in New Testament Christianity and is a vital church principle. Most of our churches have frequently emphasized first principles but have often neglected second principles. First principles are important as they teach us how to come into the kingdom. But second principles are equally important since they teach us how to conduct ourselves as worthy citizens of the kingdom. The church that neglects either of these important phases of truth must suffer as a consequence. For scriptural stewardship is based upon a vital principle, namely, God's ownership of our lives. "Ye are not your own, ye are bought with a price." Therefore, all belongs to Him, our lives and all we possess. When once this fact is clearly realized, the money question will solve itself. The thing God desires above all else is to see your money, but you. When God possesses men, he will also possess the money. For love always gives its best. A young man, being called as a soldier in the late war, just before sailing for France, went to the bank and drew out all his small savings account and with the money, bought a ring for his sweetheart. When giving it to her, he said: "I wish I had had twice as much money, for you are worth far more than this." And so it is, love gives all, just as God in his infinite love gave us His all. His very best. He did not give grudgingly, or of necessity, but freely and willingly. Shall not we, children of God, follow the example of our Heavenly Father, and give, even as He has so abundantly given us?

START MOVE TO FORM LABOR ORGANIZATION

(By The Associated Press.)

Cleveland, Nov. 28.—A movement is under way to form a labor organization in America similar to the British labor party. It was indicated today, when the national executive committee of the socialist party voted to participate in a conference to be held later.

Communications sent to a number of groups by the socialist party following its last national convention have brought many responses favoring formation of a new party, it was said.

Groups which have been asked to participate are the farmer-labor party, the non-partisan league, labor unions and farmers granges and organizations. Each would retain its present organization, but would federate, and would endorse candidates nominated by the labor party.

A campaign for new members of the socialist party will be started in January.

ENACTMENT OF BONUS MEASURE IS FORECAST BY SENATOR WATSON

Washington, Nov. 28.—Senator Watson, republican, Indiana, discussed with President Harding tonight matters which may be included in the message to congress next week, upon which the president is working.

As his personal opinion, Senator Watson expressed the belief that "nothing in the world" could prevent enactment during the regular session of a bonus bill. One new source of revenue had become available, he said, through the announced intention of the British government to begin annual payments of approximately $200,000,000 on the war debt to the United States.

UNSIGHTLY NECKLACES.
Have you too many "necklaces"—I mean the ugly wrinkles which run around the front and sides of the neck, completely spoiling its appearance? If you have, you want to get rid of them at once for nothing spoils the appearance of the neck as much as these lines. If you sleep with too high a pillow or if you sleep with your chin pulled downward, these lines will be forming through all the hours of the night. The first thing you must do is to train yourself to sleep flat on the back with a very thin pillow or with none at all.

This smooths ugly wrinkles.

The next thing to do is to massage these wrinkles with a fattening cold cream, with olive oil, or better yet with cocoa butter. Cocoa butter is very heavy and very fattening. It is much too heavy for the more delicate skin of the complexion, but it is ideal for the throat or chest. The best way to use it is to hold a towel wrung from hot water over the throat until the pores of the skin are open and the skin itself is red and warm. Then heat the cocoa butter by holding it near a fire or candle flame and rub it over the skin. It cannot be massaged unless it is first warmed.

Then work the cocoa butter thoroughly into all these wrinkles, rubbing back and forth across them; that is, up and down the throat.

The cocoa butter will grow stiff because the skin is warm. When you have massaged thoroughly, wipe off what remains on the surface of the skin. This sort of treatment is most valuable if given at night before going to bed.

Pete and Peg: Your eyebrows will regain their softness if you brush them every day, always training them into the arched line that best suits the shape of your eyes. If some of the hairs remain stubby, use a small amount of vaseline on them before the brushing. As you have been shaving the brows so long, it will require perseverance to train them to lie in place.

Very Discouraged: With your height of five feet six inches you should weigh at least 125 pounds. You are only aggravating your condition by this excessive purging and should consult a good doctor. If you could take a vacation or have a complete change in your work, it would hasten your recovery; but whatever you do, stop dosing yourself and be guided by the advice of your physician.

EUROPEAN MOVIE STARS BEGIN TO VISIT OVER HERE

Miss Alma Taylor.

The first European movie star has arrived in Hollywood on a "reciprocity visit." For the past few months American film celebrities have been flocking to Europe and so it is not surprising to find at least one English film star in the American motion picture center.

She is Alma Taylor, said to be the most popular star of England and often referred to as the "British Mary Pickford." Miss Taylor will study American movie production during her stay here. At present she is observing in the Mar-shall Studios in Hollywood and she claims she is learning much from that well-known American producer.

Close-Ups.
Announcement that Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks will co-star in a picture which they are now making plans to produce in England, has just been made by A. C. Bergman, general manager of the United Artists corporation, who has just returned from a consultation with the stars in Paris. Work on the picture is to start early in January, it is reported.

Before starting his new picture after his return from Europe, Charles Chaplin has gone for an outing trip into the California mountains with a party of friends.

Rex Ingram and Alice Terry, who has played the lead in his productions, were quietly married at a historic Spanish house in Pasadena, Calif., by the pastor of the Hollywood Methodist church. Their honeymoon will probably be spent abroad.

Norma Talmadge's arrival in Los Angeles, where she is scheduled to make her future pictures, will be a notable event. Among those at the depot to meet her will be the mayor of Los Angeles, the city council and various world-wide film celebrities.

NOVEL HAT AND SCARF SET FOR WINTER SPORTS

These sets add real comfort to the sports suit which rarely boasts

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING

By LAURA A. KIRKMAN.

ANSWERED LETTERS.

K. M. B.: "Please tell me how to remove spots from pieces of ivory furniture which have been left near open windows?"

Answer: Do you mean real ivory or ivory-colored paint? Real ivory may be bleached by wetting with alcohol and water and placing in the direct sunlight under glass. This process being repeated until the desired degree of whiteness is obtained; but this bleaching is usually done when ivory has become yellowed, not to remove spots from it. If you refer to furniture painted ivory-white, washing with lukewarm suds of a good white soap, then rinsing with clean warm water ought to remove the spots.

A Yearly Contributor: "My brown leather dining room chairs are covered with white fluff from the clothing people wear who sit on them in the hot weather. How shall I remove this fluff and how prevent the chairs from sticking to clothing next summer?"

Answer: Remove the fluff with a little gasoline and paint the chairs with white shellac.

Mrs. T.: "I. Is it necessary to call on ones hostess within two weeks after attending her bridge party?" 2. If so, how many cards are left? 3. What other functions call for cards, and how many? 4. Just when does a woman leave her husband's cards beside the first call?"

Answer: 1. Yes. 2. One for the hostess. 3. A dinner, a breakfast, a luncheon, a musicale, an evening party of any sort (or an afternoon party), and after a wedding the guests call on the mother of the bride, and later on the bride herself. 4. Only after her husband has been entertained along with herself.

anything more than a plain, tailored flat collar which is not particularly conducive to warmth. Here is a simple hat and scarf set of bright blue cloth which has been transformed into an attractive novelty by the use of black wool applied in an odd manner to imitate fur. Deep bands of the wool embroidery trim the ends of the scarf and the hat which is a variation of the popular tam style is also trimmed with a wide band of the wool. The effect is that of astrakhan. The outfit is smart and easy to wear with a skating suit or frock.

POWERFUL LIGHTHOUSE IS JUST COMPLETED

(By The Associated Press.)
Paris, Nov. 28.—What is described as the most powerful lighthouse ever constructed has just been completed here. It is intended for the new air station at Dijon and has taken over two years to construct.

The beam of light thrown from two groups of lamps has an intensity of 2,000,000 candle power and the flash will be seen at a distance of nearly 200 miles. The whole fabric of steel girders on concrete piles will be transported to Mount Africa, (1,500 feet) nine miles from Dijon, where it will be set up permanently as a guiding light for the great airways to the east and south of Europe.

Its cost to the air company which ordered it is estimated at $60,000 francs.

INGROWN NAIL

Toe Nail Turns Out Itself if You Toughen Skin

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost overnight.

"Outgro" is a harmless antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions—Adv.

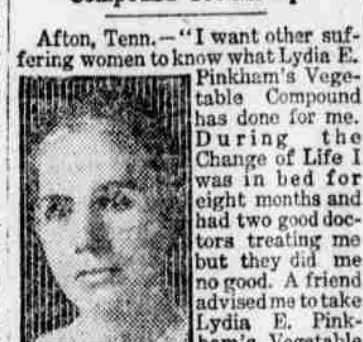

BLACK SMALLPOX HAS CAUSED EIGHT DEATHS

(By The Associated Press.)
Denver, Colo., Nov. 28.—The eighth death from black smallpox within two weeks was reported by the board of health. The victim was Miss Willie M. Carnes, 35 years old, a clerk in the business office of the Denver school board. Health authorities announced there were thirty-two cases of the disease in Denver.

In the last twenty years only nine persons have died of the disease in Denver, eight of these during the present outbreak.

IN BED EIGHT MONTHS

Cause—Change of Life. How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Got Me Up

Afton, Tenn.—"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. During the Change of Life I was in bed for eight months and had two good doctors treating me but they did me no good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did and in a short time felt better. I had all kinds of bad spells, but they all left me. Now when I feel weak and nervous I take the Vegetable Compound and it always does me good. I wish all women would try it during the Change of Life for I know it will do them good."

—Mrs. A. KELLER, Afton, Tennessee.

"Women from forty-five to fifty years of age should take warning from such symptoms as heat flashes, palpitation of the heart, smothering or fainting spells, or even before the eyes, and prepare their system for this perfectly natural change by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has helped many, many women through this trying period, just as it did Mrs. Keller.

4 SHIPS AND THEIR GRAIN CARGOES MEET FATE OF THE TITANIC

(By The Associated Press.)
Archangel, Nov. 28.—Romania has always hovered about the Bosphorus, but this time it has made through the Kara sea to get the products which the two Siberian rivers, the Ob and Yenisei, carry into ports that can be entered for only a few weeks in summer because of the floating ice in the Arctic and Kara.

So this year, when famine swept the Volga area, it is not strange that the Russian food commissariat turned its eyes toward the mouths of the Yenisei and Ob, and started a fleet through the icebergs in search of bread. Many small ships were commissioned. Some of them made the trip safely, but four ships, the Ob, Yenisei, Ila and Santa met the fate of the Titanic. The Yenisei and Ila each carried 2,400 tons of grain to the bottom of the ocean. The Ob and Santa had only very small cargoes. The crews escaped over the running ice and were picked up by icebreakers.

In all, 12,000 tons of supplies were gathered in the ice-bound ports, but less than half this amount is reported to have reached Archangel, where there is cruel disappointment among the population so sadly in need of bread and other raw materials.

AMERICAN DOG DERBY RACER'S BODY FOUND

The Pas, Manitoba, Nov. 28.—Searching parties, who have been scouring Moose Lake, have found the body of Walter Goyne, famous American dog derby racer, drowned November 15. Through the transparent ice, the body could be seen in eight feet of water sitting upright on the sled, partly covered by an elderdown robe. Stretched out in front were the nine racing dogs.

HOME RULE FOR POSTOFFICES IN CHINA ASSURED

All Foreign Systems Are to Be Withdrawn, Under An Agreement Reached at the Arms Conference.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—Taking its first direct action toward liberation of China from foreign influence, the arms conference agreed today on the withdrawal of foreign postoffices and postal systems from China.

The decision was "conditioned only by the maintenance by China of efficient postal facilities, including retention of the present domestic organization by which a French co-director general acts as advisor to the Chinese postal authorities, January 1, 1923, virtually was agreed upon as the date of withdrawal of the Japanese alone without holding final approval on that point pending consultation with Tokyo.

Constituting the first concrete application of the people of the Chinese administrative integrity as delineated in the "four points" of Elinor Root, the postal agreement is expected to be followed tomorrow by another providing for gradual abolition of the system of extra-territorial rights under which a dozen foreign governments have set up their own courts in China and by a discussion of China's request that foreign troops be quartered within her borders without treaty sanction be withdrawn.

The question of troop withdrawals may lead the delegates to some of the most troublesome questions of the Far East. Some forces which the Chinese declared are in China without authority, as Japanese quartered along the line of the Shantung railway and others are within the disputed territory of South Manchuria. Thus the negotiations promise to touch upon Shantung and Manchuria, the two most contentious areas of the conference, although it is considered likely that the real issues of these problems will be put over for discussion when the conference takes up railway leases.

Along with the foreign troop question the Chinese will ask for a consideration of the status of certain foreign telegraph and wireless systems which they declare exist in China without their consent. In Japanese quarters it was said that the Tokyo government was ready to withdraw its troops from the areas not covered by treaty stipulations when China could insure safety of Japanese mail and property within those zones. Since Japanese forces are more widely affected than those of any other nation by the Chinese request, the attitude of the Japanese delegates was taken as forecast at least a declaration of principle favorable to withdrawal.

A Year of Grace. Although the foreign governments are to have a year of grace

FAMOUS ACTRESSES OF YESTERDAY AND TODAY MEET AT ACTORS' BALL IN N. Y.

Mrs. Leslie Carter, left; Lillian Russell, center, and Elsie Ferguson, snapped at Equity ball.

These actresses, three of America's greatest stage celebrities in their respective days, met recently at the ball given by the Actors' Equity association in New York. Mrs. Leslie Carter, once noted for her emotional acting, has emerged from retirement for another season on the stage. Lillian Russell, queen of the stage in her day, devotes her time to her household duties and her beauty hints these days. Elsie Ferguson, one of the noted stage and movie beauties of the present day, is the third member of the trio.

In which to prepare for withdrawal of their postal systems from China, one feature of the agreement is expected to become effective when the conference confirms the section voted by the delegates today in committee of the whole. This section refers to the introduction of continental into Chinese territory through the foreign mails, and given Chinese customs authorities right to search mail they may suspect.

The search clause was understood to have been inserted after the Chinese had charged that large quantities of opium were being carried through China in the foreign post in contravention of the anti-opium law. The retention of the present French co-director was said to be stipulated solely in the interest of efficient operation of the Chinese postal system.

NOTED PAINTING IS EXHIBITED AT STRONG BROS.

A painting of great merit, "The Man of Galilee," by Carl Thomtany, is on exhibition at Strong Brothers' store on North Second street.

The picture, which cost the owners originally $50,000, and is now held by them at $70,000, measures eight and one-half by ten feet. It was exhibited at Marshall Field's store in Chicago for eleven weeks, at a cost of $250 per week. It has won the warmest praise from the most prominent art critics in the country. Plans are being arranged whereby school children and university people can see the picture, which is on exhibition all day and in the evenings until 3:30 o'clock. It came here from Denver, and its next exhibition place is Los Angeles.

The picture itself is painted to represent Christ after he has gone up into the mountain at Capernaum to pray. The figure is kneeling with the head bowed upon the arms. It is clothed in a softly tinted robe, upon which the light of the moon falls in quiet effulgence. In the distance is the sea of Galilee, and in the sky are several glowing stars. The arrangement of the picture for exhibition is most happy. It is set back within a dark colored shadow box, with lights overhead.

Carl Thomtany was born in Copenhagen, Denmark, in 1865. He began the study of art when a boy of fifteen. He studied in Paris under such masters as Jerome and Benjamin Constant, and he is a Grand Salon Medalist.

His greatest achievements are Biblical scenes and subjects. His "Two Marys at the Tomb" is in the Luxembourg palace, the property of the French government.

He maintains a studio in Joppa, and one in Copenhagen. The landscape in this picture was painted from sketches made in the vicinity of the Sea of Galilee, a glimpse of which may be seen glistening in the pale moonlight.

Carl Thomtany ranks first today as a painter of Biblical subjects.

CLASS 1 RAILROADS EMPLOYED 1,164,872 PERSONS LAST JULY

(By The Associated Press.)

Washington, Nov. 28.—Class one rails, comprising those which have monthly receipts in excess of $1,000,000, employed 1,164,872 persons in July 1921, at a wage cost of $214,333,333, according to a report published by the interstate commerce commission today. The report was the first of a series compiled under provision of the transportation act to show the aggregate number of employees, their classification, wages, working hours and other data.

Of the workers listed in today's report, 15,157 were classified as executive officials, receiving average monthly pay of $523. There were approximately 373,000 persons working on maintenance of way; 450,000 on maintenance of equipment and 259,233 on train and engine transportation service. Average rates of pay for 43 classes of employees, ranging from messengers to general managers, were found by the commission, the lowest being $52 a month.

THEATER FIRE TAKES TOLL OF FIVE LIVES

(By The Associated Press.)

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 28.—The death toll resulting from last night's fire in the Rialto theater was increased to five tonight when Miss Mabel Moran of Derby and Allen Keith, a Yale student, died from burns received when flames swept the crowded moving picture house.

Police tonight arrested W. L. Carroll, manager of the theater, on a warrant charging him with selling standing room admission in violation of the fire law.

The coroner after hearing witnesses at an inquest tonight, reiterated his belief that the fire started from burning incense which set fire to draperies used on the stage as a setting for the production of a film play.

The number of injured probably exceeds 125.

HOUSEKEEPER WAS IN MISERY

(By The Associated Press.)

Vermillion, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—The spectre of the guillotine hovered about the guilty little Verminville court room today as Prosecutor Goble, in summing up against Henri Landru, alleged murderer of ten women and a boy, drew a picture of horror and depravity.

Landru remained impassive. He did not flinch as the prosecutor punctuated each murder count with an impassioned appeal for the guillotine for the man he characterized "the greatest criminal of all time."

"I made no such statement," said Mr. Jennings. "Last evening a reporter of a Philadelphia paper telephoned me and asked for comment upon the dispatch regarding Captain De Joannis' resignation. I told him I had no desire to be quoted."

"I made no comment on Mlle. Landru's condition. I did not say she danced the night following her defeat to Mrs. Mallory. I did not say she quit and I said nothing with reference to the attitude of our organization."

The Popular "USCO" TREAD 30x3 1/2

THE American public knows that United States Tires are never marketed on "price."

People look to the makers of U. S. Tires for quality traditions. They do not want to see a policy of superiority nibbled away for the sake of a mere price appeal.

So we say this to all those loyal followers of U. S. Tires—

Do not buy the 30 x 3 1/2 "Usco" Tread because of its new price of $10.90.

Buy it because it is the greatest money's worth on earth today.

Buy it because of honest quality as against "bargain offers," "inside discounts" and "special trades."

An outstanding product—marked with the maker's name—the retail price quoted in plain figures.

A challenge to the tire-trader who would rather sell you an unknown tire on the basis of "so much off list"—and let you find out its real value afterward.

FORGED TO GIVE UP JOB AND QUIT WORK, HE STATES

"My stomach got so bad I had to quit work," but Edward Tanne, who has fixed me up so fine I'm back on the job every day now," writes Andrew Mironenko, 2131 Twenty-fourth street, San Francisco, Calif., a well known employee of the Eagle Tannery.

"I had a lot of trouble with my stomach for a long time. My appetite was poor, I bloated with gas and always felt distressed for hours after meals. A few weeks ago I was taken very sick with cramps and just had to go to bed."

"Well, after I got so bad off I decided to try Tanne, as some of the boys down where I work had told me about how it had helped them, and my first two bottles have done me so much good I think it is the best medicine in the world. It's wonderful how Tanne has improved my appetite, and I feel stronger and sleep much better than I used to. I never lose a day from my work on account of my ill health and I never miss a dose of Tanne, for I intend to take a few more bottles in order to be sure my work is well done."

PROSECUTOR SUMS UP IN THE LANDRU TRIAL

(By The Associated Press.)

Vermillion, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—The spectre of the guillotine hovered about the guilty little Verminville court room today as Prosecutor Goble, in summing up against Henri Landru, alleged murderer of ten women and a boy, drew a picture of horror and depravity.

Landru remained impassive. He did not flinch as the prosecutor punctuated each murder count with an impassioned appeal for the guillotine for the man he characterized "the greatest criminal of all time."

Second 4 1-4's 16 cents to $96.14 and fourth 4 1-4's 12 cents to $96.50.

Victory 3 3-4's made a nominal advance of 2 cents to par, that figure, however, being a new high for the year. Victory 4 3-4's duplicated their previous maximum of par on large individual transactions, including one block of $1,000,000 and another of $500,000.

The election results cannot be carried into effect until the supreme court has decided the injunction suit against the election now pending in which the legality of the franchise is questioned.

CALIFORNIA HEIFER IS GRAND CHAMPION

(By The Associated Press.)

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Lulu Mayflower, a college-bred heifer, entered by the University of California, today was named grand champion of the International Livestock exposition. Lulu is a blue roan of shorthorn and Angus stock and is two years old.

The new grand champion, raised almost entirely on barley, was moved to a new stall tonight where every comfort and convenience had been arranged. Grooms carefully arranged everything so that she would be at her best for the thousands of admiring visitors.

This is the first time a heifer has won the grand championship, the honor previously going to a steer.

PERSONS ADOPT 'DAUGHTERS' IN F.E.W. SCHOOL

Donating Scholarships to Indigent Pupils in the Institution Is Becoming Popular Philanthropy.

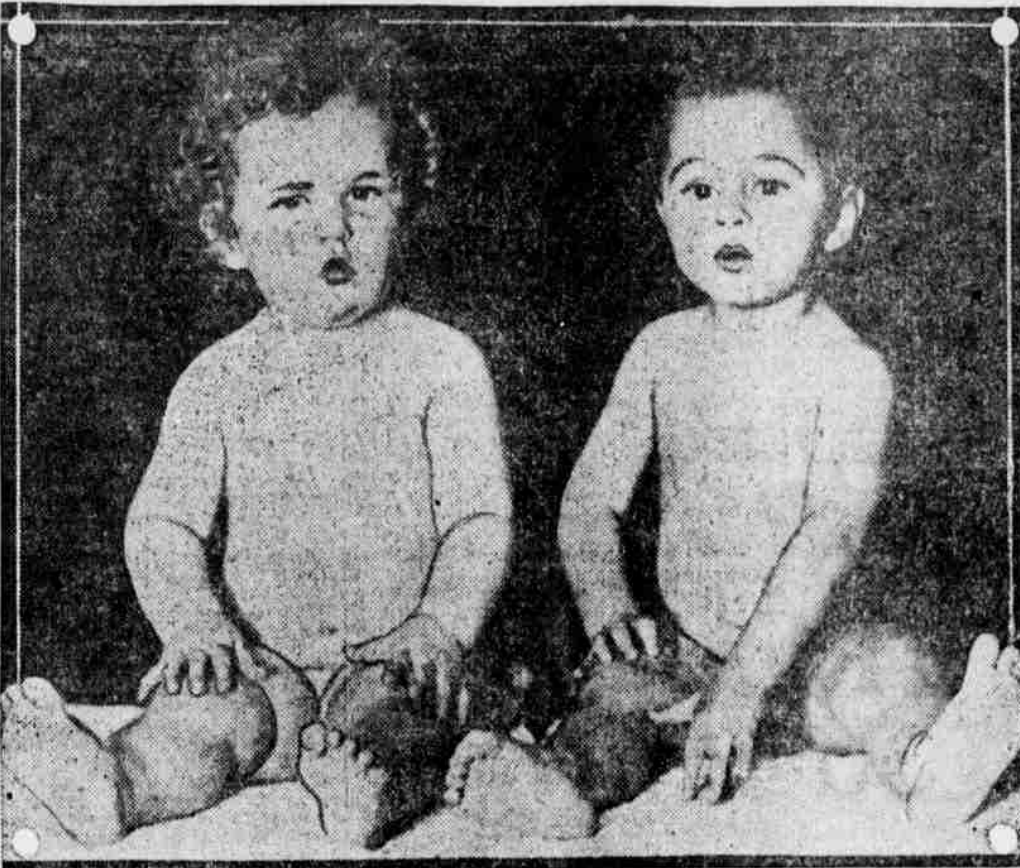

There is a movement on foot to interest several Albuquerque organizations and individuals in having "adopted daughters" in the Frances E. Willard school for girls to be located by decision of the members of the board of regents at a meeting next week. Two women in the city have pledged scholarships of $150 each. The Tennessee W. C. T. U. and Savannah, Ga. W. C. T. U. have each sent scholarships, the Business Woman's club pledged a scholarship last evening and the Woman's club pledged a scholarship of $100 last year. The Carlisle Woman's club also sent a generous contribution. Hugo Seaberg of Raton has donated two expensive lots to be sold and the proceeds used in the school building. Clovis W. C. T. U. and Raton union each had "adopted daughters" in the school last year.

Three women of New Mexico, each in different cities, have declared they have made, or will make their wills in favor of the Frances Willard school. One of these legacies is dependent upon the town selected as permanent location. It is expected that Miss Anna Gordon, the national woman's president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union that is organized in fifty countries with membership of more than a million women, will come to the F. E. W. school in New Mexico for reasons of rest when she has a vacation from arduous tasks.

It is proposed by the officials of the school to have a splendid demonstration of the Frances E. Willard school when the world's W. C. T. U. meets next October in Philadelphia. There will be pictures of the buildings and the students at work and in classes, examples of their handicrafts in needlework and cooking, with a bevy of Spanish girls in picturesque costumes to serve New Mexican delicacies, and Miss Elizabeth Garrett to come to New York to sing her own compositions on the general assembly program.

The class of girls to enter the school will be ambitious girls of good character who desire an education. Many will be able to pay the required fees, in order to provide for those in poor circumstances for whom provision should be made, specially orphan girls, the scholarship funds offered by organizations and individuals will take care of the expense, and each "adopted" daughter will know to what club or what person she looks to as sponsor of her education. These matters are to be worked out in detail when the school board meets.

In a recent letter received from Mrs. Solomon Luna, who is a member of the school board, she declared: "I am glad to see the people of New Mexico waking up at last to the worthiness of this most worthy cause—the education of girls in handicrafts as well as academic courses."

RUN DOWN AND SICKLY PEOPLE NOW REJOICING

Relief Afforded at Last Through the Untiring Efforts of Renowned Authority.

According to W. A. Garren, noted authority on health, fully 40 per cent of the people today are afflicted with what is commonly called "run-down" condition. The main symptoms or "warnings" of this complaint, he says, are lack of vitality and energy, nervousness, irritability, exhaustion, stomach trouble, indigestion, constipation, impure blood, weak back, headaches, etc.

These ailments are caused by improper nourishment which is the direct result of an abused stomach and clogged up intestines, liver and kidneys. Instead of getting all the health giving qualities in the food you eat, your system is starving. That's why you are weak, thin and sickly.

When you feel yourself unable to do the things which require strength and endurance; if you are tired all the time, no energy, nervous and despondent, you should use Garren's Tonic, the medicine which is now so successfully overcoming these complaints.

Garren's Tonic which is creating so much interest from coast to coast is made from those natural health giving herbs which enable your stomach to digest the food you eat, and vitalize your blood and nerves with the stamina which makes people strong.

Garren's Tonic is sold in Albuquerque by Alvarado Pharmacy and the leading dealers in every city.—Adv.

ADMITS HAVING HAND IN $28,000 HOLDUP

(By The Associated Press.) Detroit, Mich., Nov. 28.—Mistaking for detectives two fellow travelers on a Michigan Central train arriving here today, John Petekewicz, 17, confessed to them he had participated in the $28,000 pay-roll holdup outside the A. G. Walton and company shoe factory at Chelsea, Mass., last Saturday.

He turned over $5,000 in cash which he said was his share. "I know you are detectives," he told M. J. McDonough of Detroit and M. M. Coney of Chicago. They questioned him at length and the latter, beginning to suspect they were not officers, demanded the return of the money. They turned him over to the police.

REPORTED INTERVIEW DENIED BY PREMIER

Paris, Nov. 28 (by the Associated Press).—Premier Briand, aboard the steamship Paris on his way home, sent a message to the foreign office when informed of unfavorable comments in the British newspapers on an interview said to have been given by him before he sailed from New York. It said:

"I gave no interview of such a nature. Every word I said was imbued with the friendliest spirit toward England. I cannot understand how English newspapers attach such importance to distortions and fantasies with which the news is adorned."

ONLY 652 WOMEN OUT OF 2,500 REPORT FOR POLICE DUTY IN N. Y.

(By The Associated Press.) New York, Nov. 28.—The call to duty today sounded for the first time in the ears of New York's 2,500 women traffic police—called out, official orders said, to replace male regulars assigned to protect milk wagons during the milk handlers' strike.

But the day dawned cold with rain and, orders, nearly 50 per cent of the women cops reflected, said nothing about going out in the rain.

Pedestrians failed to find the turnout of "blue petticoats" quite up to expectations. A poll completed tonight revealed that 652 had reported and been assigned to busy corners near public schools.

PLAN OF EXCHANGING CORN FOR GOODS IS A SUCCESS, IS CLAIM

(By The Associated Press.) Madelia, Minn., Nov. 28.—"The Madelia plan" of the local merchants of accepting corn, delivered between November 26 and December 13 at 19 cents above the market price, has been declared a success. The decision to accept corn on account and in exchange for goods was adopted last week by the merchants. The merchants fixed a minimum of 40 cents for shelled and 35 cents for ear corn, and agreed to accept as high as 100 bushels from each farmer.

FRANCE SOON TO PRESENT VIEWS ON NAVAL RATIO

Delegation Will Ask for a Capital Ship Tonnage Equal to That of Japan Compared With the U. S.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Nov. 28 (by the Associated Press).—Proposals of the French delegation dealing with the French view of what their naval ratio should be under the American limitation plan will be presented at the first opportunity. This became known tonight following the return here of Admiral de Bon and his staff.

While no official forecast of the French view has been disclosed, the delegation is understood to be ready to ask for an aggregate capital ship tonnage equal to that of Japan as compared with the United States. Italian naval proposals which, like those of France, have been held in abeyance pending settlement of the status of the United States, England and Japan, are said to be based on estimates which call for a capital ship standing equaling that of France.

It is regarded as possible the French and Italian naval advisers may fail to agree as to the relative strength of the fleets of the two countries. The French view seems to be definite that Italian requirements would not be more than three-fourths of their own. Before the war, it was pointed out, French and Italian navies were on a 5-6 ratio, while today, as a result of France's inability to continue construction during the war it is only 7-6.

French naval experts consider their communications from France to Indo-China and their extensive Asiatic coast line as requiring a fleet as large as that of Japan, which has no such distant communications. The French near eastern interests, including their mandate over Syria, is another element in their naval estimates and they have besides a country bounded, as they say, by "three seas," the Mediterranean, the Atlantic and the North Sea.

France may not, it is said, be in a position now to build to the size of the Japanese navy but as naval operations are being fixed for a long period the French desire to have the right to construct a navy of 300,000 tons ratio. Italy, according to her experts, needs a navy sufficient to protect her coast extending for 4,375 miles along three seas, the Adriatic, the Ionian and the Mediterranean; her colonies in Northern Africa, the Red Sea and east Africa; her trans-Atlantic commerce. Since the collapse of Russia and the mining crisis in England, Italy has been obliged to import almost entirely from the American continent all the coal and iron she needs; one-third of the wheat she consumes and most of the raw materials.

Italy has come to Washington with the sincere desire of working for the reduction of both land and naval armaments, those close to the delegation said, but this can only be done if all the countries are ready to reduce their military forces proportionately. Italy would be ready to accept a reduction of her fleet on condition that that of France would be equally reduced. It was explained in order to obtain an equilibrium of naval forces in the Mediterranean.

New Five-Story Plant of the Cheek-Neal Coffee Company in New York—It Stands Next to the Bush Terminal, in Brooklyn.

Another link, and the largest, in the great factory-chain of the Cheek-Neal Coffee Co., producers of the famous "MAXWELL HOUSE" brands of Coffee and Tea, has just been added with the completion in New York City of the fifth plant. This massive, five-story, fireproof structure, with almost continuous walls of heavy light and ventilation, stands alongside the Bush Terminal in Brooklyn. This affords unusually convenient shipping facilities.

With the opening of this latest institution, the Cheek-Neal Co. is operating five big, complete coffee plants in widely distributed sections of the country.

Mr. J. O. Cheek, founder of the business and originator of the blends that have placed "MAXWELL HOUSE" to the fore, is president and general manager. The original plant, at Nashville, Tenn., is in charge of Mr. Robert S. Cheek, a vice president and son of the president.

The second plant put in operation was that at Houston, Texas, and is in charge of Mr. J. W. Neal, a partner in the company, and vice president.

The third plant, that at Jacksonville, Fla., is in charge of Mr. L. T. Cheek, and the fourth plant, at Richmond, Va., is in charge of Mr. James H. Cheek, both vice presidents and sons of the president.

The recently completed New York plant is under the direction of Mr. Frank Cheek, also a vice president and son of the president.

Each of these plants is equipped with the very latest and best machinery, including many appliances of original design. The coffee is carried through its various processes untouched by hand.

This great industry grew from a little coffee roasting concern in Nashville, where two small cylinders of meager capacity composed the equipment. The growth of the Cheek-Neal Company has been steady and consistent, constantly reaching into new territory. Few coffee concerns in the United States have reached the pinnacle achieved by the Cheek-Neal Company in blazing a path toward success.

Mr. Cheek and Mr. Neal are both Kentuckians. It is interesting to know that Mr. Cheek has associated with him in this business six of his eight sons. Mr. J. R. Neal, an only son, assists his father in the management of the Houston plant.

The Cheek-Neal Company has long been a believer in and consistent user of advertising. From small local advertising several years ago this concern has expanded its publicity efforts constantly, until today it is using national magazines, several hundred leading newspapers in every section of the country, including many of the metropolitan dailies, billboards and street car cards. Through everlasting publicity, backed by a worthy product, the great business of today has been built. With the opening of the New York plant another milestone has been passed, and plans for further increases and expansion are already under consideration.—Adv.

HOW ABOUT IT?

The Journal has agitated the national park question vigorously in order to determine whether or not the people in the north, central and southeastern parts of the state can be awakened to a realization of what is coming to pass. This paper has no interest in the matter beyond the general welfare. We certainly have no animosity toward El Paso and its environs and have no dog-in-the-manger attitude on this question.

It is the opinion of the Journal that the consummation of present plans in the south, unless there is modification or extension, will cut the main body of the state of New Mexico out of federal park benefits for a generation to come. This has seemed undesirable to the Journal. We have felt that the name of the state of New Mexico should not be used to bring about that which will be of minimum value to the state at large. This view is based upon our belief that two successive park propositions should not be put through congress and that one bill must cover the subject.

Whether or not the people involved wish to attack the problem of a park in the north is problematic. If they do not, we certainly do not wish to obstruct a park in the south merely to be obstructing for El Paso and the south because the people of the state of New Mexico will not move makes no appeal to us. What Secretary Fall and Mr. Hawkins may or may not be doing to the people on the Ruidoso concerns the people down there. It certainly does not concern intimately the welfare of the people further north.

Scattered across the state from Raton to Gallup are some of the finest pieces of scenery, some of the most unique historic ruins in the world. These should be preserved to the people of the United States and made accessible to them. Perhaps a series of national monuments and small national parks is what we need, connected by government roads. The Journal has no hard and fast program to which it is married.

If the people of the state will have representation at the park meeting in Las Cruces on December 2, it is possible that a combination plan can be worked out there which will be in the interest of all concerned. But without representation nothing can be done.

It occurs to us that every community in the upper part of the state should be represented at Las Cruces, and that these delegates should go there looking for a solution of the problem which will be just to all. How about it?

DESIRABLE.

It is reported that the national administration has agreed upon the policy of refunding our entire war debt into securities running for a longer term, thus lightening the burden on this generation.

This decision will meet with the approval of the people. While the war was going on there were excellent reasons for compelling the people to carry at least a third of the cost out of current funds. Not only was the money needed, but the sky-rocketing of fortunes had to be held down by excess-profits taxes, although this was successful only partially.

Now, with the war over and the benefits secured to our children, there is no reason why the pressure of payment should not be distributed over a longer period of time.

Such relief will facilitate regaining our economic keel.

BEATING "SWORDS INTO PLOWSHARES."

An important contribution to that popular psychology which will have large influence in bringing to favorable issue the deliberation of the limitation of armaments conference is made by Henry Ford in announcing his readiness to buy all the warships that are scrapped in the interest of peace. The Ford plan is to cut up the engines of destruction and transform them into implements of useful production and joy. It is a noble conception.

Though the people are convinced that sinking the world's navies in the deepest part of the sea would be of inestimable benefit to mankind, provided no more war craft were built, practical business sense cautions against such downright waste if there is any way to avoid it. We all remember the joy occasioned by the news that Germany was to be deprived of her navy, and which was followed by popular questioning of the wisdom of sinking the ships. Most people felt that so much good metal should be converted for the benefit of man, transformed, of course. But the only good that was derived from the German craft was in America's employment of its share as targets in demonstration of the efficiency of other war implements. We will not need to use the discarded battleships and cruisers thus, for being bent on doing away with war, we are not interested in developing new arms of offense or defense.

How better could we realize the ancient ideal of peace that called for beating swords into plowshares, than by recasting battleship materials into implements of agriculture, transportation and other aids to industry, art and science? It is not premature to consider how we shall dispose of surplus war craft. And it will help to the decision to reduce armaments if it be known that a double benefit will flow from it.

LIBERTY BONDS NEAR PAR

The gradual but steady advance in the prices of the various issues of Liberty bonds, indicated by the daily quotations, must be gratifying to government officials and others who advised the people to retain their holdings in these securities until general business conditions increased their value.

The early issues which were quoted a few months ago at from $82 to $85 are now quoted in the market at more than $94, while the Victory bonds are quoted within a few cents of par. Persons who sold their bonds in fear that they would go lower have themselves to blame for their lack of confidence.

Many purchasers of war-time bonds felt the necessity of disposing of their holdings, in most cases at a considerable loss, and for these persons there should be sympathy; but this feeling can hardly be extended to those who sacrificed their bonds in order to get ready money for doubtful investments or for the purchase of things which added little to their general welfare. Thousands were disappointed in their ventures in investing in government bonds, believing that the government could maintain the market value of the bonds at par.

The value of any evidence of credit consists of its earning power. The application of this principle to government bonds made them less desirable when compared with industrial and other stocks paying a higher rate of interest, resulting in depreciation of market value. Persons who held on to their Liberty bonds now see their value creeping toward par, and it would not be surprising if most of the issues sold above par before the time of their redemption arrives.

GOOD EXAMPLE FOR JAPAN.

Suspension by Great Britain of work on her four Hood-type battleships and the resolution pending in congress to suspend all American naval construction are facts for Japan to ponder, whether or not there is any deliberate design to influence her by example in the matter of armament limitation.

The British ships are not yet laid down, but that does not diminish the significance of the London decision. Money has been expended on them and costly preparatory work was under way. Suspension of these activities is most worthy compliance with the spirit of the popular movement for establishment of durable peace through eliminating the potential causes of war and limiting the means of prosecuting hostilities. It is laudable.

Naturally Japan has ideas of her own on how far it is safe for her to go in curtailing her naval strength. At the moment her request for more warships than would be permitted her under the Hughes plan make a distinctly bad impression. The Japanese representatives think she needs them for defense. Defense against what and whom? In order to make a case in support of her claim Japan will have to show substantial reasons for fearing any nation. Then she will have to demonstrate the ability of that country to attack her successfully. Her chief reliance for safety is her geographical position. The chief reliance for safety of others must be the limitation of any country's defensive forces to a point that, assuring adequate protection, they may not be diverted to aggressive offensive uses.

Possibly Japan advances her claim simply to draw out all the arguments, to enable thorough examination of the problem. Certainly any member of the conference who evinces a disposition to obstruct the fulfillment of the popular desire—the Japanese people's desire as well as that of westerners—will find itself in a decidedly uncomfortable position. Japan scarcely will run the risk involved in opposition.

Came up the mountainside,

And tucked the world inside.

EDITORIAL OF THE DAY

THE FORMIDABLE JINNEY.

(From Leslie's Weekly.)
People have laughed at the Jinney and talked vaguely of a time when the automobile might make the old-fashioned railway hustle, but in many parts of the more mountainous and inaccessible west this has already happened and the Jinney is no laughing matter.

The fight between the municipal car line and the Jinney buses in Seattle seems likely to be carried to the United States supreme court. All along the Pacific coast the spread of concrete or allied highways keeps cutting into the passenger traffic of the less mobile and often less convenient railroad.

The traffic manager of an interurban railway operating from Spokane, Wash., recently testified that one of their lines carried 300 less passengers a day than a year ago, and another 400 less. The buses had arranged their schedules so that they left just ahead of the interurban trains and had put their stations at the doors of the interurban depots. "If we had the patronage that is going to the buses," he said, in protesting against the granting of bus permits, "we should be on a paying basis."

At the same hearing a representative of the Great Northern stated that "if motor bus transportation is allowed to continue unrestricted, the company will have no alternative but to diminish service." The cost of operation of the Bonanza Ferry line is $2.98 per mile or approximately $300 a day. Our average revenue in June was about $160 a day, or a daily loss of $140. The monthly decrease in passengers on the Great Northern's Spokane-Newport branch, "because of motor bus competition," was sometimes more than 500.

Meanwhile farmers in the same western neighborhoods find freight rates so high that they have no profit left after their bulkier produce is shipped to market. A lot of factors enter into this muddle, but it seems plain, at least, that expenses must be cut down somewhere along the railroad line.

CHAOS AND THINGS.

There's a new new crisis every day, some new and ghastly evil, and people wring their hands and say, "Now for the great upheaval! Our native land! The coming wind will from its moorings drive it; this crisis has all others skinned, and nothing can survive it. Oh, yes, we have been scared before, our feet have often been chilly, but this new crisis at the door is bound to knock things silly. Now chaos comes, and no mistake, the future's bleak and foggy, and while our well-known bulwarks break, palladiums are groggy."

UNCLE WIGGLY AND JOLLIE'S CHEESE.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggly! You aren't going out in your automobile, are you?" asked Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy one morning as the rabbit gentleman tooted the horn in front of his hollow stump bungalow.

"Why, of course, I'm going out in it!" answered the bunny. "I haven't had a ride in a long time and I want a real exciting adventure today."

"But, Wiggy," went on Miss Fuzzy Wuzzy, "the last time you were in that auto you couln't get back. Something broke and you had to walk all the way down the Orange Ice mountain."

"Yes, I know I did, but I think my auto is running better today," said Mr. Longears. "I'm going to take a ride." So off he started in his automobile, the wheels of which had big, round bologna sausages for tires. There was a turnip for a steering wheel and what the rabbit wanted his auto to go extra fast he just sprinkled a little pepper on the sausage tires.

"Toot! Toot!" went the bunny's auto horn, and away he went. "I just know something will happen," exclaimed Nurse Jane, as she tied her long tail up in a bit of ribbon and started to dust the dishes and wash the piano.

Uncle Wiggly rode along and along in his automobile, over the fields and through the woods, the bologna sausage tires of his car going bumpy-bumpy! The bunny was having a fine time when, all at once, when he was a long way from home, he heard a rustling in the bushes.

"Now, it would be just like the Fuzzy Fox or Wozzie Wolf to try to get me now!" said the bunny. "But I have my auto and can easily get away from them—that is, if I can get nothing broken!"

Uncle Wiggly looked around a bit anxiously. The bushes rustled again, and out from amid them came Jollie Longtail, the mouse boy. He was pushing and rolling something around like a thick wheel, and almost as large as himself.

"Oh, Jollie! How you frightened me," laughed Uncle Wiggly, "but what have you there?"

"A cheese," answered the mouse boy. "My mother sent me to get a big, round cheese, and I have it here. Only it is so large that I have to roll it like a wheel, or a hoop, instead of carrying it."

"Will that hurt the cheese any?" Uncle Wiggly wanted to know.

"Gosh, no!" squeaked the mouse boy. "I've been rolling it for some time now, though I am still a long way from home."

"Well, you needn't roll it any longer," said Uncle Wiggly with a twinkle of his pink nose. "Get up into my auto—you and your cheese—and I'll ride home. Perhaps we may have an adventure on the way."

So Jollie and his cheese were soon seated in Uncle Wiggly's automobile.

Chicago Board of Trade.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Heavy falling off in the estimated exportable surplus of Australia, together with a record breaking low condition of the winter crop in Kansas did much today to lift the value of wheat. Prices closed unsettled but steady, with a general advance of 1 1/2 to 1 1/4 cts. Corn finished unchanged to 1/2 cts. off, oats unchanged to 1/2 cts. off and provisions unchanged to 1/2 cts. higher.

The wheat market was a broad affair, with a material increase of trade from the outside. Commission houses were especially active on the buying side, and were apparently much impressed by the Kansas state report showing a crop condition of 58.6 as against 88 last year and a ten-year average of 87. Later official sentiment was further stimulated by word that the leading British authority had reduced his estimate of the Australian surplus to 80,000,000 bushels, a cut of 20 per cent. A decrease in the United States visible supply was also a bullish factor, but the effect of this influence was diminished by announcement that the figures on the Galveston stock as given by the United States were correct, and that dry weather in southern Argentina and the smallness of the auto, and off they started. And in a little while an adventure happened. All at once there was a barking, coughing, sneezing noise, and out from behind a bush alongside of the road popped the Wozzie Wolf, clashing his teeth.

"Heh, heh, howler! A rabbit and a mouse!"

"I'm in luck! A rabbit and a mouse!"

"Step on it, Uncle Wiggly! Step on it!" squeaked Jollie.

"What do you mean—step on it?" asked the bunny.

"No, I mean step on the gas! Give her all she'll take! Shoot her along—I mean the auto!" cried the mouse boy.

"Oh, I'm dead! I know what you mean! I spoke the bunny. 'You want us to go faster!'"

"Of course!" cried Jollie. "Step on her!"

So, with his foot, Uncle Wiggly turned on the gas, and away he skidded the auto. But the Wolf ran along behind and was almost catching up when, all of a sudden, there was a cracking sound, and one of the wheels of the auto came off and all, came off and rolled down hill.

"Bumpy-bump!" went the auto, lurching sideways before Uncle Wiggly could put on the brakes. And when he did stop and looked back the Wozzie Wolf was very, very close.

"Oh, Jollie! What are we going to do?" cried the bunny. "I have lost my wheel, and we can't move. Yet, if we stay here the Wolf will come along and get us. What shall I do? Oh, for another wheel!"

"Here! Quick!" cried Jollie. "Take the big, round cheese!"

"What for?" asked Mr. Longears.

"To make an extra wheel for the auto," said the mouse boy. "The cheese is round like a wheel and will roll along and get us home safely."

"I'll do it!" exclaimed Uncle Wiggly. Quickly, with his rheumatism cure, he made a hole in the middle of the cheese. With Jollie's help, before the Wozzie Wolf arrived, the bunny put the cheese on the auto in place of the wheel that had rolled off. And then, just as the old Wolf almost had them, away rode Uncle Wiggly and Jollie once more, the cheese wheel twirling around as nicely as you please.

Soon they were far ahead of the bad animal, and a little later they safely reached home. And the cheese had such a hard run on it that the inside wasn't hurt a bit.

"I knew something would happen," said Nurse Jane, "and it did!"

"But no harm came to the bunny or Jollie, and if the jumping jack doesn't fall off the rocking horse and bump the milk picher on the nose, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggly and Jollie's jumbles."

THE MARKETS

(By The Associated Press.)

New York, Nov. 28.—Ralls and railway equipments continued to lead the further irregular price movement on the stock exchange today. The recent broad demand for high grade and speculative bonds was well maintained.

The general stock list met occasional setbacks, however, such minor specialties as chemicals, fertilizers, sugars and mail order issues giving way to incessant selling pressure. Sears Roebuck was comparatively weak because of rumors of a new issue of securities.

Trading for the long account was favored by easier money and a brief rally in foreign exchange from the morning's low quotations. International remittances reacted, favorably to unofficial reports that European bankers soon might meet to devise means of stabilizing their depreciated currencies in this country.

German marks were benefited more than any other quotation by prospects of remedial measures, sterling francs and all northern European rates cancelling their rally before the close of the day.

Buying of rails seemed to be based in part on better tonnage reports and the October statements for such systems as Atchafalca, St. Paul and the leading Pacifics and coalers, nearly all showed gratifying gains in net or operating income.

The cheaper rails lost much of their advance in the heavy realizing of the last hour. Sales, $75,000 shares.

The 5 per cent opening rate for rail money related to 4 1/2 per cent at noon, with an abundance of private offerings at 4 per cent. Brokers received large sums available for 30 and 60 day loans at last week's moderate concessions, but the market maturities held firm.

Liberty and Victory issues again contributed predominantly to the heavy turnover in bonds. Liberty second 4s at $5.88 and first 4 1/2s at $5.90, established new high records, and old Victory 3 1/2s at par. Gains of one to two points were made by various underlying railroad bonds. Total sales, par values, $2,650,000.

BUSINESSWOMEN
SEEK TO BRING
SCHOOL TO CITY

Club Endorses Invitation to
F. E. W. School and Pledges Scholarship for One Student.

The Business and Professional Women's club wants the Frances E. Willard school maintained by the Woman's Christian Temperance union at Belen to move to Albuquerque. Heartily endorsing the movement to bring the institution here and the pledge of one scholarship were made at the dinner meeting of the club at the M. C. A. last night. The club members will contribute $150 toward the education of a student for one year.

A report was made by the day nursery committee showing that several articles of furniture, rugs, stoves and chairs had been solicited from members of the club and from other local merchants for the upper floor. The club has pledged itself to furnish two bed rooms in the day nursery home to be rented to provide an income for the institution.

Members of the club, most of whom are actively interested in business in the city, were urged to join the chamber of commerce last night. Many of them who had not already done so, signed the pledge cards. Sidney M. Weil, representing the chamber of commerce, gave a short talk on "What the Chamber of Commerce Expects of the Women of the City." He outlined the reorganization plan and the need of many individual memberships for building up the city.

An entertainment program under the direction of Miss Louise Nichols was given after the dinner and business meeting. Miss Arla Keadley, a dramatic reader, gave a cutting from a one act play, "Spreading the News." Mrs. E. B. Moore sang a couple of solos and Miss Eunice Herkenhoff played some piano numbers. The prize, a can of white enamel, given by the City of Albuquerque, was won by Mrs. Martin Hayden. The next meeting of the club will be held at the Doris tea room.

Y. W. C. A. HOTEL
SECRETARY HAS RESIGNED POST

Miss Belle Breddlove, hotel secretary of the Y. W. C. A. since the hotel was first opened, has resigned her position and Miss E. E. Hickey has been appointed temporary secretary. This action took place at the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the association last night.

Miss Breddlove is forced to leave her work on account of ill health. She will leave shortly for El Paso where she will spend some time with relatives. Miss Hickey will act as manager of the woman's hotel in the Kober building until a permanent secretary is obtained. The board meeting was taken up with reports of Miss Marion Johnson, general secretary, and the chairman of the board, reports were given on the hospitality work, the travelers' aid, the recreation and club work and cafeteria and exchange department. Miss Frances Bothwell of Dallas, Texas, secretary for town associations in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico, attended the board meeting and offered valuable suggestions for carrying on the work here. PACKING WORKERS TO STRIKE AS A PROTEST AGAINST WAGE SLASH

(By The Associated Press.)
Omaha, Neb., Nov. 28.—South Omaha packing plant workers will be called out on a strike against a wage reduction within a week, was the prediction today of J. W. Burns, secretary of the local council of the American Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America. "I expect we will have a strike order the latter part of this week," he said. Burns declared that the order would mean that the non-union workers, or a great percentage of them. The reduction was effective today.

Burns said there are about 2,500 union packing house workers in South Omaha, but added that a walk out would include probably 4,500 men.

INTER-VARSITY BASKETBALL IS TABOOED U. N. M.

At a meeting of the athletic council of the state university last night, it was announced that the football season was not a success financially, and that as a result, the university would not participate in inter-collegiate basketball. However, the council urged the adoption of basketball within the university, and at the end of the season, a cup will be presented to the champion team of the student body. The financial situation was found to be much the same in the University of Arizona, which will probably not engage in inter-collegiate basketball either. The sixteen men who earned the letters this year were presented with sweaters.

The council granted permission for the use of football equipment for the game Saturday on the university field between two teams from the student body called the Yankigans and the Hoolligans. The same is supposed to be highly ridiculous. There will be bicycle races between the halves, and a safety-zone for winded players has been established. No student will be permitted to enter the game, however, without a doctor's certificate stating that he is physically fit.

VACHEL LINDSEY IS COMING HERE
FOR A RECITAL

American Poet Lionized
Abroad to Revisit New Mexico; Appeared Here
Two Years Ago.

Vachel Lindsay, prominent American poet, who appeared here two years ago in a recital of his own poems under the auspices of the Little Theater, is to return to Albuquerque. He will be here in the middle of December and will probably give another recital. Mr. Lindsay has spent much time abroad since his visit here, particularly in England. Both England and France proclaimed him as America's national poet, and in his work saw the youthful audacity and vitality of this country. His visit abroad caused quite a stir in literary circles of both continents. In spite of his lionizing in Europe Mr. Lindsay prefers the west. He expresses pleasure in getting back to the region which he prophesies will produce the real American literature of the near future. He has many friends both in Santa Fe and Albuquerque, who will welcome the opportunity to hear him again.

Mr. Lindsay is the author of "The Congo," "The Chinese Nightingale," "General William Booth Enters Into Heaven," and other poems which have been published in several volumes. His poems are best enjoyed when read aloud and are particularly effective when read by the author who accents, intones and dramatizes them.

HARP MUSIC AT THE LEGION Y. W. DINNER

The feature of the American Legion dinner given last night at the Y. W. C. A. at 6:30 o'clock were selections played on the harp by Mrs. W. C. Anderson. The artist played extremely well, and received much applause.

The members of the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion were present at the dinner. Following the program of music and toasts, a business session of some importance was held. John Fee was in charge of arrangements.

PRODUCTION OF

"The Lost Romance"

LOIS WILSON, CONRAD NAGEL, JACK HOLT, FONTAINE LARUE

A story of a million married lives, throbbing in the hearts of one wife and one husband.

Both yearning for the vanished thrill of sweetheart love. Both wondering why the passing years of marriage should steal away romance.

So, drifting apart, the man plunged into the world's affairs. The woman, in spite of her child and her vows, turned to an old-time lover.

Until the great and terrible thing crashed into their home! And taught them how true romance may live!

A picture with all the allurements and charm of William de Mille's "Mid-Summer Madness," yet finer and deeper far.
