RAILROAD LABOR BOARD ISSUES NEW RULES GOVERNING SHOPMEN EFFECTIVE ON DECEMBER 1ST

Predict Economies in Operation and Increased Efficiency of $50,000,000 a Year; Recognition of the "Open Shop" On All American Traffic Lines; 400,000 Men Affected.

(By The Associated Press.)
Chicago, Nov. 30.—Economics in operation and increased efficiency, estimated to reach $50,000,000 a year, and recognition of the "open shop" on all American railroads, were forecast tonight in the promulgation of revised working rules governing railroad shop employees by the United States railroad labor board.

The new rules become effective tomorrow, December 1, and take jurisdiction over approximately 400,000 men immediately although a still larger number will be affected when the normal traffic conditions are restored.

Far-reaching Changes.
Far-reaching changes in the rules which supplant the national agreement made during federal control, were designed to afford a basis for permanent stability in the railroad shops of the country and were declared by members of the labor board to be the most important work yet done by the board and of much greater significance than any decision in the past, even including the wage scale adjustments.

Large economies are expected to result from revision of the classification rules, which were made more elastic, and hereafter will permit members of certain crafts to do minor jobs previously done by members of other crafts. Statisticians attached to the labor board estimated that economies in operation, increased efficiency and larger output would approximate $50,000,000 a year.

Non-unionists Recognized.
Provision for the representation of minorities who may have grievances is another important item of the new rules. Under the national agreement, negotiation for employees was placed almost wholly in the hands of labor organizations, with the result that the railroads and many industrial and civic institutions declared that the agreement forced a closed union shop on the roads. Non-union men found it impracticable to attempt to bring their grievances before the board and as the rules worked out, union officials handled the cases, taking their precedent from the national agreement negotiations in which union officials acted for the employees in drawing up the agreement under federal control.

"The principle of the open shop established by the new rules," a statement by board members said, "will in fact be more theoretical than practical at the present time, since a large majority of the railroad shops are unionized and the existing unions are recognized by the board and transportation act as representative of the majority."

Rigid Rules Relaxed.
Most of the older working rules sanctioned by the experience of years, are preserved in full effect. Many of the more rigid rules, however, were considerably relaxed in favor of the roads, although the recognized rights of the men are fully protected under the principle of collective bargaining and union recognition is retained, as contemplated by the transportation act.

The rules controversy dates back to May 1, 1920, when the railroads emerged from government control. Strenuous objections to the national agreement were made in a hearing which began January 10, 1921. After several months of testimony, the rules were referred back to the individual roads with instructions to negotiate such new rules as they could with their employees to replace the federal government rules.

Elastic Classifications.
The majority of the changes effected by the new rules is in the classification of the work to be performed by the various crafts. Almost without exception, these classifications are made more elastic. Under previous agreements with the shop crafts, including the national agreement, it has been the custom to define each of the various types of work belonging to each craft.

The carriers have complained that the national agreement set up in such minute detail the classification of duties that work not requiring specialized skill in any craft was assigned exclusively to a particular craft. For example work not requiring a mechanic's skill was assigned to a skilled mechanic, thus making efficient and economical operation impossible, according to the railroads.

The rules effective today broaden the scope of each craft's work. The machinist working on running repairs may connect or disconnect any wiring, coupling or pipe connections necessary to repair machinery or equipment. This work was previously assigned to electricians and sheet metal workers only. Under the new rules, engineers, firemen and crewmen are not prohibited from making repairs to equipment on the lines of the road as they are qualified to perform. The new rules thus allow train operators to perform repair work even though it is ordinarily considered shop mechanic's work.

Boiler Makers' Help.
Boiler makers' helpers under the new rules are given the job of removing and replacing grates. Under the national agreement, this work was assigned to journeymen boiler makers.

The classification of the work of the sheet metal workers, electrical workers and car men has been changed to allow some of the work previously performed by them exclusively to be done by their helpers and to mechanics in other crafts where the needs of the service require it. Under the national agreement car men were exclusively assigned to wrecking crews. Under the new rules, wrecking crews exclusive of engineers, will be composed of car men, where sufficient men are available, but when needed, men of any class may be taken as additional members of wrecking crews.

Another important change affecting car men is that it allows common laborers to dismantle wooden freight cars hereafter. Under the national agreement, only qualified carpenters were allowed to do this work. About 68 per cent of the country's freight cars are built of wood. The new rule permits employees getting $3.25 to $5.00 a day to do work previously required to be done by car men receiving $5.84 a day.

New Type of Apprenticeship.
An entirely new rule promulgated by the board, for the first time, creates a new type of apprenticeship to be known as "special apprenticeship." Previously there have been only two kinds of apprentices in the skilled shop crafts, regular and helper apprentices. Regular apprentices are youths entering the service between the ages of 16 and 21 years and serving four years apprenticeship, and helper apprentices are youths entering the service between the ages of 18 and 24, who have had a technical school education, and they will be required to serve only three years apprenticeship before becoming journeymen mechanics.

Special apprentices are to be selected from young men between the ages of 18 and 24, who have had a technical school education, and they will be required to serve only three years apprenticeship before becoming journeymen mechanics. Rules which required certain standards of force and equipment to be maintained for doing certain kinds of work have been modified and some discontinued, thus eliminating the expense of maintaining unnecessary men on the rolls. Other rules have been changed to allow the use of forces assigned to particular classes of work on other work, when there is no work of their particular class to be performed.

Many of the rules are highly technical in character. Much time was spent on the rules regarding electrical railroads, which at present apply only to a few roads like the Pennsylvania and New York Central, but which will become of increasing importance as the electrification of the steam lines proceeds.

Shop Crafts Involved.
The six shop crafts' employees involved are the carmen, sheet metal workers, machinists, blacksmiths, boiler makers and electrical workers. They were represented at the rules hearings by the following organizations: Brotherhood of Railway Carmen of America, International Alliance of Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers, International Association of Machinists, International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths, Drop Forgers and Helpers, International Brotherhood of Boiler Makers, Iron Ship Builders and Helpers of America, and the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. All these are affiliated with the American Federation of Labor and are enrolled in the railroad employees' department of that organization.

The national agreement, supplanted today by the new rules, was entered into with the employees by the United States railroad administration September 20, 1919. From the first it was strongly criticized by the railroad management and others because they contended it imposed uneconomical methods on the railroads, limited the discretion and control of the management and greatly increased the cost of operation. The railroads also complained that they were not making the national agreement which they declared was "wished on them" by the railroad administration. The employees have maintained that a very large part of the national agreement had been put into effect on various railroads, prior to federal control, by the voluntary act of the managements, and that it fairly represented concurrent enlightened thought of the carriers and employees as to working conditions and rules.

Two Previous Decisions.
In two previous decisions the board directed the twenty-four shop crafts mainly concerning overtime pay. Today's decision practically completes the rules for these crafts, with the exception of a few minor matters on which an agreement is probable. These the board has referred back to the roads and the employees for settlement by them.

WOUNDS RECEIVED IN GUNFIGHT ARE FATAL
(By The Associated Press.)
Bisbee, Ariz., Nov. 30.—Nick Farrell, rancher, died this morning from wounds received yesterday afternoon in a gun fight with J. P. Chapman, another rancher. The altercation took place in what is known as the West Huachuca country, where Chapman, a pioneer rancher in this section, surrendered to a deputy sheriff following the shooting. He declared that he fired five shots at Farrell after Farrell had severely beaten B. Lewisby, and then fired at Chapman.

Conrad Nagle has deserted the Laasy lot, temporarily at least. He is now Alice Lake's leading man.

PAY SCALE MORE PUZZLING THAN A FEVER CHART

Russian Workmen Get So Many Rubles a Month, Bread, Free Car Rides, Clothing and Shoes.

(By The Associated Press.)
Moscow, Nov. 30.—(By a Staff Correspondent of the Associated Press.)—The Russian wage scale under present conditions is more puzzling than a fever chart. Every workman tells a different tale. Apparently the standard wage for an average workman at the present time is about 60,000 rubles a month, which at the time of writing is roughly equivalent to 50 cents. This is the wage of a workman employed by the government. But in addition there is a great variety of perquisites, if he gets them.

"I am supposed to get a pound of bread a day, also free car rides in the morning and four and seven in the afternoon. I am also supposed to get a clothing and shoe allowance, but I get the orders for these things, and find that the supply is exhausted," one workman who is employed with the American relief administration explained to the Associated Press correspondent.

"Oh, yes, I get some free theater and concert tickets, too," he added.

When pressed to tell whether that was the entire amount of his income, the man admitted that he held two jobs under the government and sometimes got bread at two places. He knew of men who held three jobs and managed to keep themselves on three government payrolls. That was the only way it was possible to get enough to live on.

It is apparently very easy to hold a government position without giving many hours to the service, and consequently the positions are held by a considerable extent for the purpose of getting rations. Government employees engage in all other sorts of work. They run shops, sell their belongings in the markets, deal in wood, drive cabs and take real estate commissions.

LEADER OF THE BAHAI MOVEMENT, ABDUL BAHU ABBAH, DIES IN SYRIA
(By The Associated Press.)
London, Nov. 30.—Abdul Bahu Abbas, leader of the Bahai movement, died at Haifa, Syria, Monday, according to a dispatch to the London Times.

Abbas Effendi, known as Abdul Baha, was born in Teheran, Persia, May 23, 1844. He was leader of the Bahai movement, which has as its aim world religious unity. The Bahai belief is said to be that universal peace is possible only through harmony of all religions. The Bahais teach that all religions are basically one; that differences in them have arisen through corruptions of theology and dogmas.

He visited the United States in 1912. He was the third of the leaders of Bahaiism. For many years, because of his teaching he was a prisoner of the Turks and Persians.

BIG 'FIRST PERIOD' IN JOURNAL'S AUTO CAMPAIGN ENDS WEDNESDAY

Votes Are Pouring into Campaign Department as Interest in Journal's Big $8,200 Salesmanship Club Campaign for Studebaker Sedan, Studebaker Touring Cars and Hundreds of Dollars in Gold, Increases by Leaps and Bounds—Who Will Lead in the Vote Standings Tomorrow is the Question Heard on Every Side—Votes Alone Will Win These Prizes and Right Now is the Time to Get Them by the Thousand.

Wednesday night, December 7th, at Ten O'clock, at that hour will end the biggest and best credit offer in The Albuquerque Journal's Big "Everybody Wins" Salesmanship Campaign. After that time Less credits will be given on each and every subscription secured by candidates in the race.

Get in every subscription possible before that time and take every advantage of this big, liberal offer. The different prizes will no doubt be won by the candidates who do the most during the present vote offer. The "SECOND PERIOD" vote schedule starts next Thursday morning and will mean less votes for you.

A NECK AND NECK RACE.

The race at this time is truly a neck and neck affair; no candidate has a lead that cannot be easily overcome by any willing worker in just a few hours of real sincere effort. Votes are the only thing that count in this campaign, and it is going to take plenty of them to win; better have a million too many, and win the prize of your choice, than to lose out by a few thousand.

Journal gifts are to be awarded to those who can show the—those who show energy, pep, and ambition. Winners won't get anywhere in the campaign but the winning workers will. This is truly a race for "live wires."

"BIG THREE" EXPERTS CANNOT AGREE ON THE JAPS' NAVAL STRENGTH

constituted a question of policy, not of fact.

For the American delegation, the situation was described authoritatively as an agreement of the experts as to points of difference. These include minor questions relating to percentage of completion of ships under construction, whether battleships over twenty years old can be included in estimates of modern navies, and similar points. All of these, in the American view, are minor because they are questions of fact.

Point of Difference.
The major point of difference, however, the Japanese proposal to disregard ships under construction in calculating naval strength, is viewed as a matter of policy and a suggestion that is not open to debate so far as the United States is concerned. Neither the American government nor the American people will consent, it was stated, to scrap fifteen capital ships, averaging 50 per cent complete, on which more than $330,000,000 has been paid out as the equivalent of Japan's four new ships to be scrapped.

On every other possible basis of calculation considered by the experts, Japan could show not even the 60 per cent ratio proposed for her in the American plan. Application of the capital ship tonnage measurement to fix the ratio itself, is a wide concession to Japan, it is said.

Tabulations Gone Over.
On the basis of the figures presented by the Japanese proposal, which include ships under construction, her ratio was about 59 per cent and to reach that would be permitted to include two pre-dreadnaughts more than twenty years old, while the United States would discard all ships over twenty years old. Various tabulations were gone over by the experts and even as Japan's ratio fell below 60 per cent. To meet this condition, the Japanese put forward their suggestion that only ships afloat be counted in estimating naval strength, since in that way alone the estimate of 70 per cent could be attained. Both American and British experts balked at this and a final recasting of the tabulations by the Japanese, presented today, added nothing to the situation.

Japs Are Silent.

Admiral Baron Kato, active leader of the Japanese delegation, refused to throw any light on what his group planned to do. In view of the authoritative statements from the American delegations that the 70 per cent ratio suggestion would not be entertained, it appeared likely that any compromise offers from the Japanese were in order.

PROHIBITIONISTS TO CONTINUE TO WORK AS A POLITICAL PARTY

(By The Associated Press.)
Chicago, Nov. 30.—The prohibition party will continue to work as a political party along the same lines as in the past, its national committee decided today.

Sentiment was against changing the party's name and enlarging its major issues or for closing its affairs.

The committee voted for deportation of aliens convicted of violation of the prohibition laws and disfranchisement of citizens for the same offense.

It called on the government to ask foreign nations to prevent exportation of liquor to be used in the United States in violation of the prohibition laws, and to solicit their co-operation in detecting and punishing such violators. The next election work the party will undertake was laid out for California, which votes in November, 1922, on a law enforcement measure.

The party decided to get into the fight and to support former Congressman C. H. Randall of Los Angeles for re-election.

Prohibition work that Virgil G. Hinehaw, chairman of the party, did in Austria, Czechoslovakia and elsewhere in Europe last summer, was approved.

BEST WAY TO REVIVE STRENGTH AND ENDURANCE

Many "Run Down" People Become Discouraged Because They Follow Wrong Course

There is only one way to revive lost strength and endurance. No matter what you may think or believe about this, it is true. Do you know what is necessary for a robust body, strength and endurance and a wide awake cheery appearance? Let's see.

First, you must have strong nerves, healthy and firm tissue, blood rich with iron and vitamins and a keen active brain. Second, you must get plenty of fresh air and sunshine. And third, your stomach, liver, kidneys and intestines must act freely and fully.

Then it is true that the only way to enjoy robust health, strength and endurance is to get your stomach into shape so that the gastric juices can digest the food you eat, and take the iron and vitamins from it to be assimilated into your blood by the intestines. With your

SHIPMATES TELL OF LAST HOURS OF WHITTLESEY

Lawyer Is Believed to Have Leaped Overboard About Midnight Saturday; Real Motive Still a Secret.

(By The Associated Press.)
Havana, Nov. 30.—Lieutenant Colonel G. W. Whittlesey's shipmates of the Toledo told now the commander of the famous "Lost Battalion" spent the last hour of his life, before leaping overboard to still the haunting voices of the past.

But while they recounted the last words and actions of the famous American soldier whose "Go to Hell" flung at a German officer, won him the applause of the world, they came no nearer to revealing the real motive for the deed.

This, it is thought, must wait on revelation of the contents of nine letters left by him on his state-room bunk, which Captain Grant, master of the Toledo, said he would place in the mails.

The latest story of the lawyer's disappearance is that he leaped overboard about midnight Saturday, the first day out from New York, on the voyage which none of his friends knew he had planned.

For nearly two hours after dinner Saturday evening, Colonel Whittlesey sat discussing the war. A Maltese, a Porto Rican merchant, said his new acquaintance had none of the bearing of a man with a heavy load on his mind. On the contrary, he declared, Colonel Whittlesey spoke of the war with apparent calmness. Shortly before midnight, he said, the former officer, announcing he was about to retire.

That was the last time any passengers were certain of having seen Colonel Whittlesey. On Monday his absence, until then ascribed to a sudden sickness, was remarked and a search revealed his bunk undisturbed and the letters lying on the counterpane.

63 POUNDS AND MORE WILL RACE BETWEEN HALVES

A new feature has been announced to take place between halves of the Hoolligan-Yannigan football game at the university Saturday.

It will consist of a footrace between "Spike" Civerola, weight 63 pounds, and Howell Faw, weight somewhat more. A suit of leather B. V. D.'s will be awarded the winner, it is announced, and the management is pulling for Civerola, as leather is high. Separate lanes will be ruled off on the cinder track to prevent Civerola getting in underneath where Faw cannot see him.

The Hoolligans of the state university went into rigorous training yesterday. All forms of athletics were prohibited to the Hoolligans yesterday by Coach George White, and a rigid diet of camels and beechnuts on a foundation of cream puffs and French pastry has been prescribed.

The Yannigans are still exerting themselves violently every night on the football field, and it is feared that the unwanted exertion may do much to injure their chances in the combat Saturday. They have formed a training table, however, and gallons of ice cream soda are consumed at every meal. Beefsteak and all other injurious luxuries have been banned.

The management is contemplating building extra bleachers to accommodate the record-breaking crowd which is expected, and will provide paper napkins in which spectators may park their gum when the game becomes highly exciting. Doctors will be on hand to take care of persons who swallow their excitement.

Saturday's conflict will be the umpteenth annual occasion of the affair, and will be on a grander, more splendid scale than ever before. No one is able to give a good reason for the continuance of the affair except that some folk seem to enjoy it. An improvement in the conduct of the battle is to be noted in the fact that a real air and rubber football is to be used, in place of one stuffed with rags as on former occasions.

TRADE-MARK SELECTED

Announcement is made by the board of directors of the Albuquerque Co-operative Dairy association of the selection of a trade-mark, following a several weeks' city-wide contest for a suitable design to be placed upon all their products, and for which a cash prize of fifteen dollars was offered.

The emblem chosen was selected from an assortment of several hundred and was submitted by C. B. Beyer. It consists of a circular device—the outer circle containing the slogan "Pure as the Sunshine" and the inner the letters A. D. A. worked into a monogram. As soon as the proper cuts can be secured the new trade-mark will appear upon all Albuquerque Dairy products, containers, wrappers, etc.

FEAR COLLAPSE OF CONFERENCE ON IRISH PEACE

Only a Miracle Can Avert a Break-Down of Negotiations and a Renewal of Warfare, Both Sides Say

(By The Associated Press.)
London, Nov. 30.—(By The Associated Press.)—All government business is giving way to the gravity of the Irish question. Both government and Irish circles express the feeling that only a miracle can avert collapse of the conference, and renewal of warfare.

It had been intended to hold a cabinet council tonight to consider the report of the committee, but this was postponed to permit the special cabinet committee dealing with Irish affairs to assemble.

Lord Birkenhead, due to speak at a political meeting in Liverpool, was obliged to stay in London. He sent a message of apology, explaining that his absence was owing to "grave public affairs."

A spokesman of the Sinn Fein declared that there was no intention of the Sinn Fein to alter its attitude towards either the unity of Ireland or allegiance to the crown. Representatives of the Sinn Fein denied the statement of a London paper that the Sinn Fein had consented to agree to a plan whereby Ulster could contract with an all-Ireland parliament, retaining her independence rights until or unless she decided to join the new parliament.

Whatever the result, Mr. Lloyd George will go to Washington. It was stated at Sinn Fein headquarters that such a move by the premier would not be viewed with patience or without suspicion, for the reason that if Irish-American support was weakened in consequence of the premier's visit, the Sinn Fein might be forced to modify its demand, on which it feels now in a position to persist.

The impossibility of maintaining the truce longer after the breakdown of the conference is realized. The view expressed by Sinn Fein leaders is that there would be no formal denunciation of the truce, but it would "quickly decay." It is pointed out that such a move by the premier would not be viewed with patience or without suspicion, for the reason that if Irish-American support was weakened in consequence of the premier's visit, the Sinn Fein might be forced to modify its demand, on which it feels now in a position to persist.

MEXICAN CITIZEN TAKEN TO EL PASO FOR DEPORTATION

J. F. Harn, United States Immigration inspector, will leave this morning for El Paso with Jose Guerrero, a citizen of Mexico for deportation. Guerrero was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Charles Banhart on November 6.

According to the story which Guerrero told Mr. Harn, he has been in this country for about two years, spending most of his time in Chicago, the Nebraska penitentiary and cities in the east.

He was arrested by Charles Banhart on one of the roads north of town, after a long ride. Guerrero was taken to the police station and then to the Immigration office, where he was held for a few days. When arrested he was carrying a complete camping outfit, a .44 caliber Winchester rifle and a .38 caliber revolver, with a belt of ammunition for both weapons. His peculiar actions had frightened persons whom he met, and it is believed that he may not be wholly sane.

He entered the United States in 1919 at a point near Eagle Pass, Tex., without a passport. It is not probable that he could have secured a passport at that time, since passports are not granted to persons likely to become a public charge.

STIFF? SORE?

A lame back, a sore muscle or a stiff joint often is considered too lightly by the sufferer. It should be remembered that backache, rheumatic pains, stiffness, soreness, a swollen skin and puffiness under the eyes are symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble—and these certainly should not be neglected.

Foley Kidney Pills

help the kidneys eliminate from the system the poisonous waste and acids that cause these aches and pains. They act promptly and effectively to restore worn, overworked or diseased kidneys and bladder to healthy, normal condition.

J. E. Simmons, 400 E. 5th St., Portland, Ore., writes: "I was troubled with backache, urinary trouble. I tried Foley Kidney Pills and will say that I highly recommend them to anyone troubled in that way, as they are excellent."

CAPTAIN GUEST HERE TO DIRECT SALVATION ARMY

Accompanied By Wife, New Leader of S. A. Forces Arrives in City; Roswell Regrets His Departure.

Captain R. G. Guest, accompanied by his wife, his brother-in-law, W. H. Smith and by Mrs. Smith, arrived here from Roswell yesterday morning and the captain has already started his efforts for the local Salvation Army. Captain Guest was extremely active in Salvation Army work in Roswell and made a notable record there.

"I simply want the people to use me," said Captain Guest. "I have to work, I cannot come to tell me what they want done. Ordinarily, the Salvation Army merely tells a community to provide the ways and means of meeting a difficulty. The Salvation Army turns the difficulty over to us; we will solve it if possible."

Captain Guest was busy yesterday getting in touch with other organizations doing similar work.

Prior to his departure from Roswell, a big meeting of Roswell Rotarians was held to wish him well. At it, Will Robinson, editor of the Roswell News, declared that Captain Guest had saved the Roswell Elks $1,000 yearly by the close watch he kept on individual charity cases.

The following resolutions were passed by the Roswell Rotarians with reference to Captain Guest:

"In view of the fact that the headquarters of the Salvation Army have deemed it necessary to transfer to other fields of activity that good Rotarian, Captain Richard Guest, the Roswell Rotary club wants it to be known:

"That we don't approve of the action of the Salvation Army, and feel sure that it will have mighty hard scratching to find a man who can maintain the high standard of the Army here which has been set by Captain Guest, and that Roswell is positively injured by the change. The knowledge that the Salvation Army is an independent body and can order its men where it pleases has no bearing on this sentiment."

"Second, We express in this way our appreciation to Captain Guest for the help that he has been to us personally and collectively, and to the humane work in Roswell. It is more to leave such a record behind than to have him go to a place where he can do no good. To have so systematized and governed the giving impulse in a town this size requires just as much real ability as to have done those other fine things."

"Third, That we wish Rotarian Guest and his Rotarian long lives of continued usefulness and happiness in the service of others, and want them to know that we will love them forever. If some day they can come back home they will find every hand in Roswell stretched out to them and Rotarian Guest's place waiting for him in the Rotary club."

ALL IN FAVOR OF KNICKERS SAY "AYE"

They are showing knickers everywhere, but it can scarcely be said yet that they are wearing them everywhere. The time has come, however, for women to make their decisions concerning the knicker-socker suits. The coming spring is to be the first official open season for knickers for women. Merchants are in the situation of a love sick youth pulling daisy petals. They are saying, "They'll wear 'em, they won't wear 'em."

Meaning designers and manufacturers continue to make them. Here is a new model made of the newest fabric on the market, trellis. The knickers are made on the bloomer style and the coat is a plain tailored model with a flat, knicker collar, pockets, shoestring belt and long lines. Note the soft hat to match. Woolen hose and walking axioms complete the knicker costume.

FAMED PAINTING DRAWS LARGE AND IMPRESSED THROGS; OVER 4,000

"The Man of Galilee," the valuable painting which is being exhibited at Strong Brothers' building, has drawn great crowds since its installation.

Tuesday saw 1,500 people view the picture, up to 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Then the count was lost. On Wednesday 2,000 people entered the building to spend silent moments before the great painting.

"In all of this great crowd," said Harry O. Strong, "there has not been one unfavorable comment about the picture. I have seen people actually emotionally moved by it. Busy merchants have left their occupations to see the picture four or five times each."

All of which surely indicates that Albuquerque people are able to appreciate extraordinary art, and the experiment of bringing the picture has not failed. Mr. Strong said last night that the picture would be kept for two more weeks.

ELEPHANT BUTTE ELECTION TO BE HELD ON DEC. 6

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.)
Las Cruces, N. M., Nov. 30.—Two contests are announced at the biennial election of the Elephant Butte irrigation district, called for December 6, when nine directors, representing as many districts, are to be chosen. Albert S. J. Eyrar has retired in favor of F. J. Rigney in the Chamberino district, and B. Romig retires in favor of George Benvie in the Hatch-Rincon district. Competing candidates have been nominated in the Herino-Anthonio and San Miguel-La Mesa districts. The nominations as filed and approved by the board are as follows:

Division No. 1—Garfield-Arrey, L. F. Elliot.
Division No. 2—Hatch-Rincon, George Benvie.
Division No. 3—Dona Ana, J. W. Taylor.
Division No. 4—Las Cruces, H. H. Brook, president of the district.
Division No. 5—Mesilla and Mesilla Park, P. W. Barker.
Division No. 6—Berino-Anthonio, F. J. McKamy, S. G. Kilgore.
Division No. 7—San Miguel-La Mesa, D. R. Rodriguez, Lee Harlan.
Division No. 8—Chamberino, F. J. Rigney.
Division No. 9—La Union, J. E. Reinburg.

Directors elected from the even numbered divisions this year are to serve four years. The others will serve two years. Thereafter the directors are to be elected as their terms expire for four years, thus establishing a rotating board. The business of the district is of such a nature that it would be unwise to have an entirely inexperienced board at any time. This change will also prevent radical or drastic changes of policy without ample and fair consideration.

More or less the same administration has been responsible in the last four years for many revolutionary and far-reaching changes. The district has been created and put on a sound basis, effectually establishing the public ownership and distribution water backed by the power of the state—an accomplishment of a magnitude as yet but little realized.

The next four years will probably see as many, but not of such radical legal and administrative nature. The changes will be more in the nature of improved and extended water service, increased economies and refinement of methods and practice.

In addition to the routine functions of water service there are a number of large development problems coming up, chief among which is the adjustment of the financial relations between this project and the United States in regard to the delivery of water to Mexico. This is engaging the time of the president of the district almost exclusively and is a subject of greater magnitude and complexity than the average farmer realizes. At this time the district has a good fighting chance to get a much more equitable and just settlement out of the United States.

Bankers say that in two or three years the bond market should be in such condition that the power at the Elephant Butte dam can be developed at enormous direct and indirect benefit to the project. The financial situation is the only real difficulty at this time. Even the delay is working all the time to make the proposition more attractive at the start and the demand for power, upon which the success of the first few years depends, is growing rapidly.

The proposal to make a national park out of the Elephant Butte lake in conjunction with the Mesquero Indian reservation is one of extreme value and importance to the water users. The plan would be of incalculable benefit to the project.

OWNERS OF THEATER HELD WITHOUT BAIL

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, Nov. 30.—Sylvester Rosenthal and Samuel Moskowitz, owners and contractors of the American theater in Brooklyn, which collapsed yesterday, burying nearly 50 workmen, today were ordered held without bail when they were arraigned on charges of manslaughter.

Later, however, Supreme Court Justice Kelly granted a writ of habeas corpus and the pair were released on $15,000 bail each.

Search of the ruins continued, resulting in discovery of the seventh body. Eighteen injured are in hospitals.

CANADA'S WHEAT HONOR IS LOST TO U. S. GROWER

Montana Man's Grain Tests
63.6 Pounds to the Bushel and He is Crowned King at Chicago Show.

(By The Associated Press.)
Chicago, Nov. 30.—America wrested the wheat championship from Canada tonight when George Kraft, Bozeman, Mont., was crowned 1921 wheat king at the international grain and hay show, for which $10,000 in prizes was awarded by the Chicago board of trade.

Kraft takes the title from J. C. Mitchell, of Dahinda, Sask., who had held it for two years. Mitchell was runner up this year. Kraft's wheat tested 63.6 pounds to the bushel and Mitchell's wheat tested 64.7 pounds, the smaller kernels giving greater weight.

The winning wheat was grown in the Gallatin valley of Montana from part of a prize sample grown by Seeger Wheeler of Canada.

John W. Lucas, of Calgary, Alta., again is holder of the grand championship oats sweepstakes. His new variety is called "Victory." The oats weighed 45.4 pounds to the bushel.

J. W. Workman of Maxwell, Ill., won the grand championship corn sweepstakes.

The International Livestock Exposition announced winners of the cups and ribbons offered by the institution of American Meat Packers for the "best bred" carloads of livestock. Prizes were awarded to 32 breeders. They included: Beef cattle, Shorthorns, McGeorgie Land and Livestock, Hooper, Wash., first and second; Herefords, John Imboden and Sons, Decatur, Ill., first; C. D. Casement, Manhattan, Kans., second.

Sheep: Hampshire, McGregor Land and Livestock, Hooper, Wash., first and second; Hampshire, Iowa Farms, Davenport, Ia., second.

Boys and Girls' clubs: Shorthorns, Josephine Garden, Wapello, Ia.; Hampshire, Jennie E. Turner, Dewitt, Ia.

Fully a third of the Clydesdale horses entered today were from Canada, and W. E. Donald, owned by C. E. West, of Regina, Sask., was named senior champion stallion.

J. A. Morrison, of Basildon Park, Reading, England, broke into the rankings when one of his Hampshire sheep won the blue ribbon for ewe lambs.

The Duke of Sutherland won an award with a sample of alfalfa from his ranch at Brooks, Alberta, and also captured a prize for his sample of hard red spring wheat, as did the duchess of Sutherland.

Among leading awards today were:

EVERYTHING READY FOR PARK MEETING

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.)
Las Cruces, N. M., Nov. 30.—Everything is in readiness for the mass convention in the Las Cruces armory next Saturday, when the Southwestern All-Year National All Park association will come into being. Several hundred delegates are expected from Texas, Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas.

Frank T. French, chairman of the local organization committee, says that cities and towns in New Mexico and Texas alone will send more than 200 delegates.

The convention will be called to order by Judge W. A. Hawkins of Alamogordo, chairman of the organization committee. Senator H. B. Holt of Las Cruces will deliver the address of welcome and present Governor M. C. Mecham of New Mexico as chairman. Dr. A. D. Crile of Roswell will read the resolution to establish and locate the new public playground in southern New Mexico, taking in the Mesquero Indian reservation and Elephant Butte lake and dam. Afterward the various officers and committees will be elected and appointed.

Senator Holt, head of the reception committee, will be assisted by twenty local prominent business and professional men. R. P. Porter will have with him a similar number as members of the entertainment committee. The ladies of the Methodist church will serve a chicken pie dinner. This will be followed by a smoker at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

WOOD-FORBES REPORT

FILIPINOS ASSERT

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Nov. 30.—Recommendations embodied in the Wood-Forbes report on the Philippines has the tendency of "practically nullifying the power of the Philippine senate in case of disagreement between that body and the governor general," J. C. Deveyra and Isaura Gabaldon, resident commissioners, declared in a statement.

"To a subject people like us," the statement said, "the power of the Philippine senate to confirm or not to confirm appointments submitted to it, is a bulwark against possible tyranny on the part of the governor general. Under the circumstances, therefore, we cannot surrender it."

The commissioners "recognized in the authors of this report a lofty interest and profound sympathy for our people," but they refused to accept the conclusions of the report "because they are contrary to the ideals and aspirations of the Filipino people."

HE TRIED TANLAC TWICE WITH GOOD RESULTS, HE SAYS

"I have tried Tanlac twice now, and as it has done the work both times, I don't hesitate to recommend it," declared Olaf E. Forsberg, of 794 Merchant St., Los Angeles, Cal.

"Two years ago," he continued, "my health just seemed to break down all at once. My stomach took on men and the little I did eat soured and caused a gnawing pain in the pit of my stomach. I went down hill rapidly and got so weak I could hardly keep at work. I had decided to try Tanlac, and by the time I finished my third bottle I was a well man and feeling as fine as I ever did. I gained thirty pounds in weight and was strong enough to tackle any kind of work."

"This was two years ago, and I enjoyed the best of health up to about three months ago. My stomach got affected by a cold and I didn't care to eat much and felt drowsy and stuffed-up all the time. Tanlac fixed me up again and I feel as fit as ever. I can eat anything I ever could, in fact, I can hardly wait for mealtime to come. I have picked up ten pounds and couldn't ask to feel any better."

Tanlac is sold in Albuquerque by the Alvarado Pharmacy and all other leading druggists everywhere.

PLANTING TREES IN HONOR OF EX-SERVICE MEN, IS CRUCES' PLAN

(Special Correspondence to The Journal.)
Las Cruces, N. M., Nov. 30.—"Plant a tree in honor of every Ex-Service Man in Las Cruces" is the slogan of a committee of seven appointed by C. E. Knight, president of the chamber of commerce, to work out plans to beautify the residential streets in Las Cruces.

The committee consists of Capt. Charles Hill, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Duck, L. E. Freudenthal, Mrs. Herbert W. Yeo, A. P. Barnard and Samuel Dean. Mr. Duck, who is chairman, assisted materially in making clean-up day here a success.

Four hundred, and forty men went out from Las Cruces during the world war. Some of them did not come back. Their memories are to be perpetuated by metal tags on stately trees. Planting of trees is to begin early in February.

It is expected that all the trees will be planted at the same time. Arrangements are being made to have them watered from the town system without cost to the property owner.

The plan to plant trees to be named after ex-soldiers was brought to the attention of the chamber of commerce by Capt. Hill and met with enthusiastic endorsement of all the directors.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep.

The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

4 AVIATORS KILLED IN PLANE COLLISION

Lawton, Okla., Nov. 30.—Four army aviators, two officers and two privates, were killed today when the two airplanes in which they were practicing combat duty, collided at an altitude of 2,000 feet, and crashed down a half mile east of Post Field, Fort Sill, Okla.

The dead are Captain Loomis, Lieutenant A. T. Lanfall and Privates Tubbard and B. A. Smith.

As the airplanes struck the earth, their gasoline tanks exploded, enveloping the wreckage in flames. Ambulance attendants were unable to reach the bodies until after they had been charred beyond recognition.

According to officers, the two machines had been in the air for some time when they attempted to execute a difficult maneuver. They swooped toward each other their wings met and both airplanes fell in a helpless tangle.

BEAUTY CHATS

By Edna Kent Forbes.

DEVELOPING THE ARMS.

There is one way to develop the arms, and that is by exercise. Of course, if you are too fat, a reduction to proper weight will bring the arms to better proportions. If you are too thin, by gaining flesh you will make the arms more shapely. But if you are within ten pounds of your proper weight, and have not beautiful arms, the only thing for you to do is to exercise.

If you will play tennis almost every day next summer, I can practically promise you will be rounded to firm muscled, attractive arms at the end of the season. If you do not want to wait until next summer, as you probably won't, you might try indoor gymnasium work, with dumb-bells, Indian clubs and paraphernalia like that.

If you have no gym and can't make up a class of enthusiasts among your friends, you can do wonders by yourself. If you will practice a few exercises every day.

First, stand with the arms straight out in front of you and the fists clenched, draw back the hands to the shoulders, tightening the muscles and resisting yourself as much as possible. This is splendid for the arms. Repeat it 20 times. Do it again holding the arms out at each side and drawing them back to the shoulders. Do this 20 times.

And do not despise housework. There is an enormous amount of beauty exercise to be gotten out of housework, if it is intelligently and energetically done. Sweeping for instance is not only good for the arms, but for the shoulders as well. If you stand fairly straight while using the broom.

Redhead: As your skin is so oily, you will not be likely to overdo the use of benzoin. The amount of benzoin to be used depends upon the action when dropped into the water. If the water becomes milky with a drop or two, you have attained the proper proportions. While benzoin is an excellent as-or or not you should put up your hair. As you are above the average size for 16 years, you could be wearing your hair in a coil. But the way you have been arranging it around your face will be your most becoming choice, whether it is confined with a barrette and hanging loosely, or done up in the back.

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING

REQUESTED RECIPES.

Some of my Reader-Friends have written to ask me to print the following recipes:

Salmon Loaf: Open a can of salmon, free it from skin and bones, and chop finely. Mix with 1/2 beaten eggs, 1 cup of fine bread crumbs, 1 tablespoon of chopped parsley (if you have it), 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 tablespoon of melted butter and salt and pepper to suit individual taste. Turn this mixture into a greased baking pan and bake in a hot oven for 20 minutes.

Thousand Island Salad Dressing: Rub 1 hard-boiled egg through a sieve and mix it with 2 tablespoons of finely chopped raw onion, 1 small cooked beet finely chopped, 1-2 cup of mayonnaise salad dressing, 1 tablespoon chili sauce put through a sieve, and 4 tablespoons of whipped cream. Chill before using. (This is such a rich dressing that it is usually served with plain lettuce or romaine, no other ingredients being necessary in the salad. It is especially dainty for a company meal.)

Easily Made Mince-meat (without brandy): 1 cup cooked and chopped beef, 1 cup seedless raisins, 1 cup dried currants, 1-4 cup shaved citron, 1 cup brown sugar, 1-4 cup molasses, 2 cups chopped apples, 1 cup of the water in which the beef was simmered, 1 teaspoon of salt, 1 tablespoon ground cinnamon, 1-4 teaspoon mace, 1-2 teaspoon cloves, the juice and grated rind of 1 lemon and 1 orange, and 1 cup of boiled cider. Mix all these ingredients and cook them, all together, until the apples look transparent, then cool before putting it into the pie crust. Or if you wish to store it for future use, turn it from the fire, into hot jelly glasses which have been boiled 10 minutes in clear water; seal with melted paraffine when cold. (One jelly glass will fill 1 pie crust.)

Clam Chowder: Dice a two-inch square piece of salt pork and fry it with 4 large sliced onions, then strain off the liquor. Cut the necks from the soft parts of 1 quart of shelled clams and chop the necks finely. Cut 6 large raw and pared potatoes into small pieces and put these potatoes together with the chopped clam necks, the pork liquor, and 2 quarts of boiling water, into a large saucepan to simmer for at least three hours. A half hour before serving time add 6 Boston crackers which have been broken small and soaked in 1-2 pint of milk. Ten minutes before serving add the soft parts of the clams. Thicken all with a little flour stirred to paste with sweet milk. Season to taste with salt and pepper and the very last thing, add 1 large cup of hot, strained tomato juice. (In some parts of the country the addition of the tomato juice is in disfavor—so the housewife may add it or not, as she wishes. Many people believe that it spoils the clam flavor. Rhode Islanders, however, believe that a clam chowder is not a clam chowder without it.)

A Pepper Relish that Can Be Made in 45 Minutes: Stem 12 large green peppers and 12 large red peppers. Peel 6 large onions. Put peppers and onions through the food chopper, then boil them 10 minutes in water to cover. Drain off this water, cover the vegetable mixture with 3 cups of vinegar, add 1 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon each of ground cinnamon and salt, and let boil 20 minutes, when it is ready for the table. I recommend this relish as the easiest to make and the most delicious.

HERMIT FOR 19 YEARS ENDS HIS LIFE WHEN PURSUED BY A POSSE

(By The Associated Press.)
Mahomet, Ill., Nov. 30.—Harry J. Davis, 59 years old, who lived in a cave and had been a hermit for nineteen years, committed suicide yesterday afternoon when pursued by a sheriff's posse seeking to arrest him on a charge of thievery. He shot himself in the breast as he stood hip deep in a small lake, while the posse beat the brush about the shores.

After being accused of murder nineteen years ago, Davis drew himself away from his fellow men. He roamed the shores of the Sangamon river. Last Monday night a store at Lodge was robbed. The sheriff started out to arrest the hermit, who fled from his cave into the timber.

Davis had gone to the lake and attempted to wade across it. He heard pursuers behind. Ahead of him across the lake he saw other members of the posse. Then he killed himself.

FRINGE SLEEVES ARE PARIS IDEA

BY ELOISE.
Although sleeves are the important part of all the newest gowns, there are few creations which can boast such unusual sleeves as this new frock of Paris design. The lines of the frock are simple enough in themselves. It is the trimming which gives the eccentric touch to the frock.

Silk crepe of a dead leaf brown is the fabric used. It is draped loosely about the figure and gathered at the waist line with a sack of wooden beads of dull red and russet tones. The silk fringe of a slightly darker brown blending with the crepe forms a skirt trimming and the unusual sleeves of the long fringe falling from the armholes may be called sleeves.

Although the skirts hang at an even length it has the effect of the uneven bottom because the crepe is cut in points and the fringe is put on evenly. The frock is designed for formal afternoon or dinner wear.

WINTER WORRIES.

Winter brings its own diseases, calling for a change of pills; when the climate ups and freezes, there's a brand new set of ills; so I put away the bottles that the summer saw me buy, for the frigid winter throbbles all the ailments of July. And with jubilant emotions to the pharmacy I scoot, and buy up new pills and potions, hoping they are worth a hoot. Thus the winter time is giving satisfaction manifold; for a change makes life worth living, and it's routine makes us old. Every form of stern endeavor should be mixed with harmless play; doing one old thing forever takes one's pep and vim away. I was tired of taking bitters for my sunstroke and my hives, summer dope that human critters must consume or lose their lives; now I have my winter ailments, rheumatism, croup and flu, with the usual derangements of a wishbone or a chew; ailments more or less distressing, foreign and domestic ills; but I count it quite a blessing to confront new kinds of pills. There is always something cheering, in this happy life we lead; always some attraction nearing, if we only give it heed. When the cold no longer pleases, and the winter seems a grind, spring will usher in diseases of a new and piquant kind. Novelities are to us troubling, always something new and strange, and the old world goes a-whooping down the ringing grooves of change.

JOAN IS ANNOYED.

CHAPTER 27.
"Oh, how lovely!" Joan exclaimed, bending over the roses. "Aren't you the extravagant Mums!" she added as she kissed Margaret, who held the unopened note in her hand.

"No, I was not extravagant, dear. I did not buy them." Margaret felt her face grow hot, although she had tried to appear and speak in a casual manner. "Who sent them? Is that the note that came with them? Do read it or let me. Don't stand holding it." She reached for the note.

"I'll open it," Margaret slowly tore the end of the envelope and extracted a card.

"In remembrance of our rose and gray luncheon," she read, her cheeks now crimson.

Joan's young face grew serious. What did it mean? American Beauty roses, her mother blushing like a girl!

"What is it? Who sent them?" Margaret noticed that "mother" and slowly, carefully tore the card into tiny fragments.

She could not hope to escape an explanation should Joan see the allusion to the rose and gray luncheon.

"The roses are from Mr. Forester, dear. He called on his way to the train."

"You must have been awfully nice to him to have him send those to pay for calling on his way in the train," Joan replied sarcastically, and a bit impudently.

"I always try to be nice to anyone who calls."

"I haven't noticed anyone else sending you flowers."

"Come, help me put them in vases. They are so lovely we must not let them wilt."

"I don't care to help. I don't like men sending you flowers as if you were 18 years old. It—well—it—doesn't look nice."

"Joan!" Margaret had seldom spoken in so severe a tone. "I won't have you talk like that. I have a right to receive flowers from anyone I choose. I am not too old for flowers, even if you seem to think so."

"Of course you aren't too old for flowers—no one ever is. But it is so silly to have a man send them to you. I suppose that florist will tell about it, and the girls will be asking me when I am to have a new father, and a lot of other pleasant questions about you!"

"Don't be vulgar—and silly, Joan."

"If it was all right why did you tear up his card? There was something on it you didn't want me to see. Perhaps you were ashamed to let me see it?"

"Joan!"

"Very well, Mother. Remember what I told you. If you bring a man here I'll either kill myself or run away." And with the air of an outraged queen Joan flung out of the room, leaving Margaret standing in the middle of the floor, the tiny card scraps in her hand, and Hannah looking on sympathetically, while the neglected roses seemed to reproach them.

"It ain't right noways, Mrs. Hayden. No, it ain't! You is not old, and Miss Joan should not talk so." "Hush, Hannah! It is my fault. I—ever have curbed her, never shall. But, oh, Hannah, I don't feel old—at least I didn't until Joan came in. What would she have said if she had caught me playing it was evening in that dress, with the candles lighted and the shades drawn?"

"You looked lovely."

Still shuddering at the thought of what 14-year-old Joan would have said, did she know of the last few hours indiscretions, Margaret more carefully hid the box containing her dress and accessories. It would never do, now that Joan knew Craig Forester had been there, to allow her a glimpse of that box and its contents.

But not even Joan's disapproval, her feeling that she had disgraced herself in her daughter's eyes, could take from Margaret the delight she felt in arranging her roses; or her pleasant thoughts of the giver.

"I wonder if he will write," she asked herself as she put part of the roses upon her writing table, the remainder in the music room. Joan still peevish, was on the porch pretending to read.

"If he does I must not let Joan know," she added, then felt angry with herself that she, the mother, should feel she must hide anything so innocent. "I don't care if she does know!" she added fiercely.

Sacramento, Cal., Nov. 29.—In a report filed here today with Governor Stephens through Will C. ## FINANCIAL AID FOR RUSSIA TO BE SOUGHT HERE

Intention Is to Supply Food and Seed Grain for the 15 Million Starving Persons in Famine Zone.

(By The Associated Press.)
Riga, Nov. 30.—The United States government soon may be asked for funds, probably as a government loan to be controlled by the American relief administration with which to supply food and seed grain to provide for the 15,000,000 of starving persons in the Russian famine district.

A loan under plans informally discussed by the relief administration in Russia would not be made to the Moscow government, but to the provincial governments in the famine region, guaranteed by the central government to be repaid at the next harvest.

The amount of the loan would be about $50,000,000, which the relief administration investigators say would be sufficient to save virtually the entire famine situation. The plan was brought to Riga by Walter L. Brown, European director of the relief administration, from Moscow.

"We are getting full cooperation from the soviets," said Mr. Brown. "Soviet cooperation is satisfactory but naturally we encounter delays and difficulties."

"However, our feeding of the starving is growing by leaps and bounds as Director Haskell's organization sets into full swing. We are feeding about 700,000 persons."

GERMAN REWARDED BY GREAT BRITAIN FOR DARING RESCUE

New York, Nov. 30 (by the Associated Press).—There is a saying of the sea that England never forgets a service rendered a subject. This was borne out today when it was learned that the British consulate had bestowed on a German merchant marine officer a silver loving cup and medal earned by a daring rescue in 1914.

In February of that year, the British steamship County of Devon capsized on her way from Norfolk to Rotterdam. For three days her captain and 24 members of her crew pitched in raising seas.

The German tanker Deutschland was first to sight the hapless Britisher, whose crew had jumped into the sea. Disregarding danger, a boat in command of the Deutschland's first officer, Ernst Harzmeyer, rescued the British crew.

Then came the war. England and Germany were enemies five years.

Early this week there came into New York the tank steamer Vista with Harzmeyer aboard. He was invited by Captain Gloucester Armstrong, British consul general, to visit his office and was presented England's testimonials.

LETTERS MAY EXPLAIN DEATH OF WHITTLESEY

(By The Associated Press.)
Havana, Nov. 30 (by the Associated Press).—What compelling motive sent Lieutenant Colonel C. W. Whittlesey, commander of the "Lost Battalion," overboard into the sea only a few hours out from New York Saturday night may be revealed in letters to members of his family and business associates, which he left for Captain Grant of the steamer Tolosa to deliver.

Nine of these letters were in the captain's possession when the Tolosa docked tonight. He also received a note from Colonel Whittlesey, which he declared he regarded as confidential.

"I can say, however, that from all appearances the act was premeditated," he declared.

C. OF C. WORKERS CLOSE DAY WITH 937 MEMBERSHIP

The plan adopted Tuesday evening by the central committee of the Chamber of Commerce to be put into practice yesterday was a success. The plan called for the distribution of the workers in such a manner that all of the people engaged in the professions and business would be visited.

At the close of the campaign yesterday, the report showed subscriptions totaling 937.

"We fully expect to have 1,000 members by this noon," said Sidney M. Weil last night. "However, the work is dragging. Many of the workers do not report for duty until noon some days, and until everyone is on hand promptly each morning, the campaign will continue to drag."

Mr. Weil further stated that the drive for new subscriptions needed many more workers, in order to make the goal of 1,500 members. "We shall not stop until we have gone over the top," said Mr. Weil.

WHOLESALE RELEASE OF PRISONERS ISN'T ASKED, SAYS FRANCE

Washington, Nov. 30.—The demand for "general amnesty" does not mean wholesale release of prisoners from federal prisons, Senator Francis of Maryland, declared tonight in a statement setting forth the purpose of the joint amnesty committee of the American Civil Liberties union. The movement, he declared, had for its object, "the pardon of political offenders only; those convicted under the espionage law and other war laws of expressing opinion against the war."

FIVE DAY FARM COURSE STARTS HERE DEC. 12

County Agent Lee Reynolds is Arranging Program Covering All Phases of Farm and Dairy Work.

Plans for the agricultural short course to be held here starting December 12 are being completed by County Agent Lee Reynolds. The course will probably last five days. The program, which will include addresses and demonstrations by experts of the extension service of the state college, is practically complete.

Dairying, poultry, home economics and horticulture will be included in the course. Mrs. Maude Doty, county home demonstration agent, will have charge of the home demonstration work.

Letters have been sent to practically all of the Bernalillo county farmers advising them of the coming course and urging them to take advantage of the opportunity for scientific instruction and demonstration.

Meetings will be held at the parlors of the chamber of commerce and it is probable that home demonstration work, such as canning, will be conducted at the Atresco cannery. Similar courses are to be held in several New Mexico counties this year under the auspices of the state college.

AGRICULTURAL BLOC IS PREPARED TO KILL SALES TAX PROPOSAL

(By The Associated Press.)
Washington, Nov. 30.—Representative Dickinson, republican of Iowa, issued a warning tonight that the house agricultural bloc was prepared to kill any plan for adoption of a sales tax as a means of raising revenue to pay the soldiers' bonus. The bloc, he said, would place nothing in the way of the bonus measure itself, but would content itself with defeating efforts to raise the money by the sales tax. He declared sufficient votes were on hand to eliminate the tax if it were attached to the bonus bill.

The bloc leaders have half a dozen forms of taxes which they will offer as means of raising the needed funds for a bonus, according to Mr. Dickinson. He mentioned among these, taxes on gifts, liquor, inheritance and community property.

His warning aroused comment among house members, some holding it was a step toward ending house action by special rule which has limited debate and it has been charged, permitted few and sometimes no changes in measures as brought in.

$7.50 IS TAKEN FROM 'CUB' BY A LONE BANDIT

"Well, I just had an experience," said Paul G. Horgan, cub reporter on the Morning Journal, as he rushed into the office about 3 o'clock last night.

"Well, get busy and write it up," replied the city editor.

"But I was held up," Horgan managed to stammer.

"Go on, quit your kidding," exclaimed the city editor. "Who would be so foolish as to hold up a newspaper man? They never have any money. Of course," mused the c. e., "maybe they held you up in a dark section of the city and couldn't see who you were."

"That's just what happened," replied the cub. "I was going to a dinner party about 7 o'clock. On sixth street, between Tileras avenue and Marquette avenue, a man stepped out of a dark alley or from behind a fence and ordered me to hold up my hands. I didn't argue the point with him. I had $7.50 in silver in my right lower vest pocket and a $10 bill in the watch pocket of my trousers. He took the $7.50 but overlooked the bill. He then turned and evaporated."

Mr. Horgan reported the matter to the police, but was unable to give a description of the holdup man, as there were no street lights in that vicinity and it was very dark.

FOREST GRAZING LANDS PRODUCE MUCH LIVESTOCK

Through the issuance of paid grazing permits to stockmen, the forest service of the United States department of agriculture not only secures for the government a considerable sum of money, but transforms into a marketable product weeds and grass that would otherwise be lost. In addition grazing reduces the fire hazards in the forests, according to district forest service officials.

At the International Livestock exposition to be held at Chicago, November 26 to December 23, the department will show, through graphic illustrations just what is being done in the production of beef and mutton in the national forests and what the grass and weeds amount to when turned into meat.

In one year, it is estimated, the national forests turn out approximately 200,000,000 pounds of lamb and mutton and 500,000,000 pounds of beef. Many lambs are born in the forests and leave them only when they are ready to be shipped to market. The 14,500,000 sheep and cattle that move into the forests every spring are drawn from a wide area of surrounding territory, and in the fall they pour out in great streams to such central markets as Chicago, Kansas City, and Omaha, where they are turned into meat products that go to all parts of the country.

DUKE CITY SHOPS OF SANTA FE MAKE MOST MODERN ENGINE REPAIR PLANT IN THE U. S.

The most magnificent and most modern equipped locomotive repair shops in the United States, the newest and largest on the Santa Fe railroad and the second largest of any shops west of Chicago will be ready on March 1 to give employment to 1,120 mechanics. The new million dollar shops being erected here by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad were thrown open yesterday to members of the Kiwanis club and their guests for a tour of inspection.

The visitors expressed themselves as being amazed at the enormity of the plant and its facilities, no idea of the extent of which can be obtained from outside inspection. D. E. Barton, superintendent of the shops, J. R. Leveider, superintendent of the installation of the machinery and other officials acted as guides through the shops, explaining the present status of construction and describing machinery yet to be installed.

Imagining a great cube, light and airy, 604 feet long and 243 feet wide and 92 feet high, studded above with monster cranes and below with dark engines, with vistas through the tall metal supports to the white glass walls which enclose the entire space. That is the first conception of the main shops building, not nearly equipped as yet.

The north side of the building is left open for the nine overhead cranes which will be installed while the south side is divided into two floors for special shop work, apprentice class rooms and locker rooms. Three elevators and four stairways serve the upper floors. The entire building is heated by two enormous hot air furnaces overhead and is lighted by electricity.

Two cranes of the nine ordered have arrived and are being installed. One of these has a span of 65 feet and a carriage the entire 604 feet of the shop. It has a capacity of fifteen tons. The king of cranes, the largest built, is yet to be installed. It will have a 92-foot span and a capacity of 260 tons. It will be able to lift a locomotive into the air nine feet and out and locomotives and move it to any part of the building.

The shop will be conspicuously equipped with the usual connecting belts, each piece of machinery having its own electric motor. The machinery is all of the latest models, some of the pieces never having been used by the Santa Fe railroad. One of these is a grinding machine for piston rods and another to grind to one-thousandth of an inch, the first ever used by the company.

On the south side of the building are a number of special work shops, the electrical repair room, a tool manufacturing shop, a brass room for making the numerous small fittings on a locomotive, the air room where all air parts are repaired and tested out, and the workmen's lockers and study rooms.

For the accommodation of the workmen and apprentices are large rooms on the second floor. One is a school room which will be fully equipped with desks and study tables for the students in the apprentices school, of which there will be about 150 when the shops are going at full capacity. Here the boys will be trained in mechanical drawing and other technical knowledge needed for their trade in all departments. This training will be given at the expense of the company. The room beyond is a locker room for the workmen, equipped with a thousand steel lockers and many rows of lavatories with hot water.

In the center of the main floor, connected to all departments is the tool room where about $250,000 worth of implements will be kept under lock and key. These will be checked out to the workmen as needed. Eighteen thousand dollars worth of new tools have been ordered for the new shops and will be delivered within thirty days. The blue print room equipped with large perpendicular racks for the filing of blueprints under an accurate reference system, and a sub-store room occupy the lower floor on the south side. The sub-store will carry small quantities of supplies, such as various grades of oil, from the main store house.

The new power plant which is being installed south of the shops building will be the largest on the Santa Fe system. The work has been retarded on the power plant because of delay in giving the contract, thus postponing the opening of the shops for several months after January first, the original date set. In the new power plant there will be five additional boilers, making a total of nine. These will be automatically stoked.

The four standing smoke stacks will be supplied by one large one of reinforced concrete 244 feet high, with a diameter of 29 feet. The new habit shop south of the main building, connected with it by tracks, is nearing completion, and another special building east of that is yet to be constructed. It is estimated that the shops will give employment to 1,120 men besides the common laborers who will be employed. This applies to the locomotive repair shops only. When the shops begin operation it will bring about 800 more families to the city for shop employment and probably 400 more families in consequence of the first great influx.

The Santa Fe shops are maintained for the purpose of repairing railroad locomotives, a large item in the operation of the engines. The estimated repairs on all locomotives on the Santa Fe system in 1920 amounted to $26,556,641, the average repair on a single locomotive being about $12,310 annually. Although each trip necessitates some repairs, the round trip between Albuquerque and Las Vegas, resulting in necessary repairs of at least $1.10, the great expense occurs when the engines receive their general overhauls, periods of from 18 months to three years.

The Santa Fe system has concentrated its repair equipment at intervals along the road. The shops at Fort Madison, Ia., have a capacity of 16 engines, those at Topeka, Kans., 36 engines; at Santa Fe, N. M., 9 engines; Cleburne, Tex., 23 engines; San Bernardino, Calif., 39 engines; and Albuquerque at the top of the list with a capacity of 44 engines. The old shops had a capacity of 23. Some of the machinery from the old shop here which is now inadequate will be distributed to some of the smaller shops.

Attend the Red Star Oil Store demonstration at Raabe & Mauger's today.

MILK SUPPLY IN CITY REGISTERS HIGH IN TESTS

Dairies Supplying Albuquerque With Milk Are Complying With Spirit of New City Milk Ordinance.

Complying with the spirit as well as the letter of the law as prescribed by the new city milk ordinance, practically all of the dairies which supply milk for the city made high sanitary scores last month. The monthly inspection was completed yesterday by Dr. J. F. Docherty, county health officer, and many of the dairies received almost perfect grades.

A grade of 85 is about the highest that a dairy can make unless it is equipped with special machinery such as is in use by the Albuquerque Co-operative dairy, which received two additional points for this reason.

The following table shows the bacteria count of the samples taken at random from the milk brought here for distribution and the general sanitary score, which is based on methods and results:

POTATO STORAGE PLANT PLANNED FOR FLAGSTAFF

Potato Growers in the Coconino district of Arizona are making scientific plans for caring for their crop next year, according to R. D. Jones, assistant district forester, who returned yesterday from attending the Coconino county farm bureau meeting at Flagstaff. A potato warehouse will be constructed this winter and all potatoes will be graded and stored before being stored.

The district around Flagstaff is adapted to potato growing, Mr. Jones stated, and it is expected that they will soon form the main crop in that section.

Word of the county agents was greatly praised at the farm bureau meeting.

"When we first got a county agent we thought we couldn't possibly get along with him and his methods," one of the delegates stated. "Now that we had him for a couple years, we find we couldn't get along without him," he added.

The farm bureau is planning many activities for the coming year and farm work has been greatly increased, according to Mr. Jones, due to the recent farm loan law passed by the Arizona legislature, and which is just beginning to function.

Brown is charged with having received deposits for the bank when he knew it was insolvent. Reid is alleged to have falsified records of the bank in connection with alleged shortages. Brown and Reid will be given preliminary hearings here Friday.

Ribbon or Convertible
Bracelet for $45

Why Your Tiny Wrist Watch Refuses to Keep Time?

A TINY wrist watch that will not keep time is an expensive piece of jewelry. It soon doubles its cost in repairs. It vexes you every time you look at it.

It probably was built abroad—for show, not for service. It was much cheaper than a Waltham. You didn't know that the smaller a watch, the more it costs to make. Greater skill, greater care, if it was made to keep time.

How should you know? You're not a watch-maker. But no watch is better than its "works". And fine feathers do not always make fine birds—at least, not in watches.

You can buy exquisite Waltham Wrist Watches, the works of which are smaller than a dime. They are built to keep time, as long as you live. Of course, they cost more. We've told you why. But they soon save the extra cost in repair bills wasted on watches made for show.

Ask your jeweler. He knows Waltham Watches.

CONFERENCE AT WASHINGTON AT DELICATE STAGE

American Spokesmen, However, Express Confidence That An Amicable Settlement Will Be Reached.

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Nov. 30 (by the Associated Press).—The 5-5-3 naval ratio and the long debated problem of Shantung today ushered the Washington conference into a period of increasing delicacy. Japan's formal request for a 10-10-7 naval strength, as compared with the United States and Great Britain, was taken under consideration by the naval "big three" with the American attitude of determined opposition remaining unchanged.

In her latest request Japan proposed to abandon the yard stick of existing strength and measure the new ratio on a basis of national security. Under that plan her 10-10-7 suggestion would be acceptable to neither the United States nor Great Britain.

The same differences were discussed in the three-cornered subcommittee of naval experts, without result.

Finally giving up the effort to reach a solution on a technical basis, the subcommittee adjourned sine die.

Shantung, over which China quit the Versailles conference, got into the negotiations through an offer by Secretary Hughes and A. J. Balfour to use their "good offices" in helping Japan and China to compose their differences.

The suggestion, accepted by the Japanese and Chinese, was made after China had indicated her intention to bring the subject before the conference.

Meantime, in spite of the growing pressure of opposing views, American spokesmen declared their confidence that both the naval and Far Eastern questions would be brought to an amicable solution adhering to the principles laid down in the 5-5-3 ratio and the American "four points."

COUNTY SECURES INTEREST UPON SANDOVAL BONDS

Phil Jagels, a member of the county commission of Sandoval county, arrived in Albuquerque yesterday and delivered to A. G. Simms, chairman of the Bernalillo county commissioners, a check for $1,500 to meet the June payment on the $50,000 bond issue which this county has.

At the meeting of the commissioners here Tuesday, it was decided that a special effort would be made to collect the June interest on the bonds. It was voted that the local commissioners would go to Bernalillo for that purpose. Apparently the Sandoval county commissioners found that their funds would permit the interest payment.

Another payment of $1,500 is due in December.

MUGGSY KEEPS COMMISSIONER BUNK OUT OF THE MOVING PICTURES

GET THIS FINE CAR

IN 7 DAYS

Live hustlers have the opportunity these next seven days to practically "cinch" the big grand prizes.

For there are just seven more days of the big votes—seven more days that you are given the greatest number of votes for every subscription secured. This means that you must do your "level best" these next seven days. And, if you try, you can increase your vote score by leaps and bounds.

Just a few subscriptions—IF YOU GET THEM NOW—will make an amazing difference in your standing in the vote column. For that matter, newly nominated candidates with no votes to their credit could easily climb to the top of the list in these last few "Big Days."

You can't delay—every minute you delay means that much good time lost. And time during this Big Vote Schedule, is vitally important—too important to waste.

Live contestants will certainly make the most of their opportunities now. The wonderful opportunity to "sew up" the big touring cars during these last few days is too good to neglect. Those who do work—the ambitious candidates who use their utmost energy will be rejoicing next month.

The big $8,200 prize campaign is for WORKERS—the big prizes will go to the ones who deserve them. Are you going to be the proud owner of one of these touring cars or one of the other large cash prizes? If you want to win one of the bigger awards—MAKE A WHIRLWIND SHOWING THESE NEXT SEVEN DAYS.

What $54 In Subscriptions Would Count

One six-year subscription ($54) counts..... 360,000
This constitutes two clubs..... 200,000

—or—

Three two-year subscriptions ($54) counts..... 90,000
This also constitutes two clubs..... 200,000

Total credits given for this arrangement..... 290,000

—or—

Six one-year subscriptions ($54) counts..... 72,000
This also constitutes two clubs..... 200,000

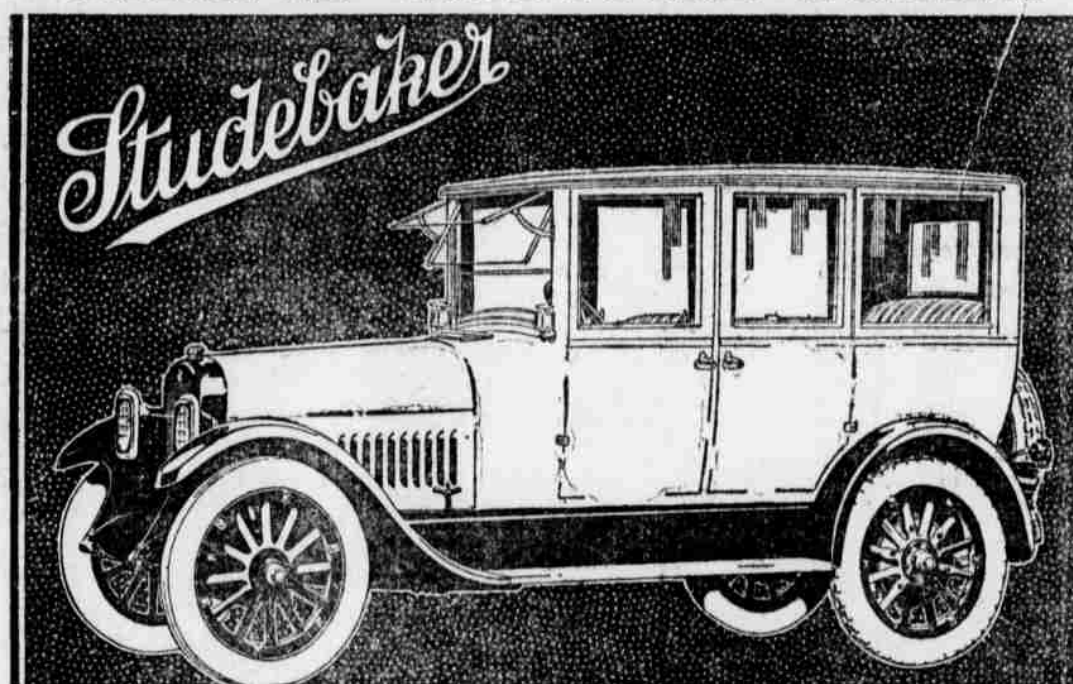

Total credits given for this arrangement..... 272,000

Remember that the present Big Credit Schedule will never be repeated or extended. AFTER TODAY—only 7 days more is your FINAL chance to get the greatest number of credits for every subscription you secure.

Don't sit back with your hands folded while some one else is working and taking advantage of the final days of the Big Credits—JUMP INTO THE CAMPAIGN YOURSELF NOW—DETERMINED TO WIN!

BASEBALL PARK MAY BE CONSTRUCTED ON
STURGES-KENT TRACT

Members of the city commission discussed at their regular meeting last night the possibility of the construction of a baseball park on the Sturges-Kent tract which the city has purchased for the laying out of water supplies. Trees are to be planted in the tract and the commissioners favored the idea of permitting the construction of a grandstand and the laying out of a diamond for use during the baseball season.

The question of trees in McClielan Square was also considered.
City Manager James X. Gladding was instructed to proceed with the stocking of the park with suitable shade trees as rapidly as possible.

A new city ordinance, raising

Santa Fe officials made necessary on account of the death of several by the railroad here yesterday.

The place of J. D. McCarty at San Bernardino who was made di-place.

R. S. Goodrich, trainmaster between Albuquerque and Gallup place will be taken by O. W.

Schlueter, chief dispatcher at Win-sloe, Ariz.

The place of assistant to the chief engineer at Los Angeles held by the late W. H. Oliver, will be taken by W. W. Kelly, division engineer. Mr. Kelly's place will be taken by M. B. Clark, division engineer at Needles. H. H. Tinsdale, trainmaster with jurisdiction between Winslow and Selli-man, is to
