EXPERTS GIVEN JAPANESE DATA ON NAVY RATIO

"Existing Strength" Clause of Hughes' Proposal Seized Upon as a Basis for Asserting Claims.

Washington, Dec. 4. (By the Associated Press.)—Examination of memoranda submitted by Japanese experts during conferences with American officers on the naval ratio problem shows that the Japanese seized upon the "existing strength" clause of Secretary Hughes' proposal as a basis for asserting claims to at least seventy per cent of American naval strength.

The Japanese proposition was presented in three tables of comparison in none of which was allowance made for any ship under construction November 11, except the Japanese battleship Matsuda, rated by the Japanese as completed and by the American experts as 98 per cent complete.

According to any of the three calculations, the existing strength of the Japanese navy amounts to about 70 per cent of the American navy, (the Japanese communication said, "It is, therefore, the firm conviction of the Japanese experts that Japan should have at least 70 per cent of the navy compared with America's 100 per cent.")

The Japanese experts were verbally informed that the United States could not discuss "existing strength" on the basis of the Japanese construction. Discussion between the experts ended there.

Table one sets out a comparison based on pre-dreadnaughts and dreadnaughts of each power. It follows:

United States-Japanese classification, 32 ships; 22,500 tons; 100 per cent. American classification, 29 ships; 29,135 tons; 100 per cent.

Japan-Japanese classification, 25 ships; 15,050 tons; 75 per cent. American classification, 25 ships; 24,190 tons; 69 per cent.

Remarks: If battleships of over twenty years are eliminated in accordance with original proposal, the Japanese percentage will be 68 per cent.

Table two compared naval strength on the basis of dreadnaughts and super-dreadnaughts. It follows:

United States: Twenty ships, 52,650 tons, 100 per cent. American classification: Eighteen ships, 50,050 tons, 95 per cent.

Japan: Japanese classification: Thirteen ships, 37,020 tons, 70 per cent. American classification: Eleven ships, 23,400 tons, 67 per cent.

Table three dealt with dreadnaughts. It showed no disagreement as to tonnage figures or number of ships to be included. It follows:

United States: Twelve ships, 355,000 tons, 100 per cent.

Japan: Ten ships, 313,800 tons, 88 per cent.

Discrepancies in tonnage figures between American and Japanese calculations as shown were not traced out by the Americans, as none of the tables within the scope of possible discussion under the plan was referred to the experts.

They were taken as constituting presentation of a new policy and this view apparently was recognized later by Admiral Baron Kato in presenting the argument to Secretary Hughes and Arthur J. Balfour that Japan needs 70 per cent for national security.

The list of ships supplied by the Americans showed that the battleship Colorado, 88 per cent finished on November 11, only ten per cent behind the Matsuda.

PAY TRIBUTE TO WHITTLESEY IN SIMPLE SERVICE

(By The Associated Press.) New York, Dec. 4.—In a simple service, half religious, half military, more than 1,000 persons tonight paid tribute to the memory of Lieutenant Colonel C. W. Whittlesey, commander of the famous "Lost Battalion," who disappeared from a vessel bound for Havana a week ago today.

"His death was a battle casualty. The scars of conflict or the wounds of battle are not always of the flesh. We of the regular army have seen too often the results of mental strain."

Such, with a few words to illustrate Colonel Whittlesey's sensitive nature, which he said shrank from the harrowing experience in which he had played so heroic a part, was the eulogy of Colonel N. K. Averill, commander of the 38th Infantry.

He told how Colonel Whittlesey was found by telling the Germans to "go to hell" and of the emotional torture he endured while watching his men slowly perish from hunger, thirst and their wounds. Continuation of the sentimental suffering since the war, through ministering to suffering survivors, he said, hastened the breakdown.

"Major Whittlesey," he said, "not only ignored the German commander's message demanding surrender, but he ordered his signmen to hide the white panel, the flag used to signal airplanes, for fear that the enemy would take it for a flag of truce."

MORSE WILL SAIL FOR UNITED STATES TODAY

(By The Associated Press.) Havre, Dec. 4. (By the Associated Press.)—"Well, that settles it; I will sail tomorrow for home."

Thus spoke Charles W. Morse today when shown a despatch printed in newspapers saying that Attorney General Daugherty desired him to take passage on the first boat.

Mr. Morse said he had received no reply to his request to the attorney general for permission to remain in France until January 5, either from Mr. Daugherty or through the American embassy in Paris.

He added that as soon as matters were settled satisfactorily in Washington he would return to Europe, as he must see Professor Macchiafava, Italian specialist, regarding his illness.

(By The Associated Press.) Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 4.—Acting on an opinion by City Attorney Peterson that the legislative act legalizing bouts in Nebraska will permit the holding them in Lincoln regardless of a municipal law to the contrary, providing the city council by a majority gives its consent, the local American legion post today announced it will hold four bouts January 17. Promoters of the match say they have assurance a majority of the council favors boxing. The principals in the matches have not been announced.

ENGAGEMENT OF PRINCESS SOLVES PROBLEM OF BRITISH ROYAL HOUSE

Princess Mary and Lord Lascelles.

The engagement of Princess Mary to Lord Lascelles solves one of the main problems of the British royal house. The revolutions that followed the war swept away practically all the Protestant reigning families of Europe and the question of arranging suitable matches for British royalty has been extremely vexing.

Princess Mary was twenty-four years old last April. Her fiancé is thirty-nine years old and the eldest son and heir of the Earl of Harewood. The earldom was created late in the eighteenth century, although the family is one of the oldest in Yorkshire.

ARMIES AND NAVIES MUST BE LIMITED, IS T. R. MARSHALL'S VIEW

(By The Associated Press.) El Paso, Texas, Dec. 4.—The southwest has a finer climate than Florida and this vicinity has a climate superior to that of the Florida coast in many respects, said Thomas R. Marshall, former vice president, who was in El Paso en route to Phoenix, Arizona, to spend the winter.

Florida is too damp, compared to the climate of Texas, New Mexico and Arizona, he said, and this part of the southwest has peculiarities of health giving value which, if told to the world, would be sought by a certain class as the coast is by another.

Nations, Mr. Marshall said, must decide to limit armies and navies, either at the Washington conference or some other.

"The real reason the world war closed was because the United States has discovered a powerful gas, and so strong that an airplane load of it would kill every inhabitant in a city the size of El Paso," Mr. Marshall said.

The allies had no intention of bombing Berlin, but they had made plans to gas Wesen and that would have meant death to every man, woman and child in the place. In the modern war of science there can be no non-combatants.

Book Corner—About Writers and New Volumes

EARLY EFFORTS

Your Favorite Author Had Difficulties of His Own

"My Maiden Effort," Collected by the Authors League of America. (Doubleday-PAGE.)

The path leading to literary success is not always strewn with roses and is very frequently piled high with rocks. Your favorite author is ready to tell you so in the volume "My Maiden Effort," collected by the Author's League of America and published by Doubleday-PAGE for the benefit of the league's fund for needy authors. (There are those of us locally who are going to put it in for our share.)

Robert W. Chambers must have had an insight into what the other writers were going to say. He spins an unromantic tale concerning his first intrusion into the literary spotlight. He concludes with this cautionary remark: "Truth is mighty and, sometimes, it is told."

These words should be emblazoned on the cover of the book. Reading through the volume, one is struck by the fact that Daisy Ashford was a very mature writer when her life's work was done. To be sure, we have been considering her work as the labors of a child; but these contributors put her to shame. As Gelett Burgess points out in his introduction, the volume nearly became "a mere compendium of juvenilia."

There is much humor between its two covers. The writers have tried to produce some interesting bits of fiction about their many adventures in literary swaddling clothes. They have used the "sure-fire" formula which their literary apprenticeship taught them; they have made the reader laugh. Those who write novels in a serious vein release their accumulated humor. The realists spin the most fantastic yarns.

The volume is as inclusive as a dictionary featuring Harold Bell Wright, Laura Jean Libby, Mary Austin, Carolyn Wells and Owen Wister alike. From Charles Norris to H. C. Witwer is a big jump, but "My Maiden Effort" makes it.

Charity is seldom so productive of pleasure; the gentle reader fares better than the needy author. C. P. A.

PRO LAW REGARDED BY MANY AS A JOKE COMMISSIONER SAYS

(By The Associated Press.) Washington, Dec. 4.—Apathy of many citizens was blamed as a force preventing a better articulation of the prohibition law by Prohibition Commissioner Haynes in an address today before delegates of the Anti-Saloon league convention.

"Some seem to have the opinion," he said, "that the government is not serious, that the law is a joke, and that people prefer a laugh to a law. It is a strange sense of humor, when we laugh at the constitution."

Silence by "the great law abiding and law-upholding majority of our people," he declared, was sometimes misinterpreted by newspaper men and public officials as either indifference or disapproval of the law.

PLANS OUTLINED FOR WALKOUT OF PACKERWORKERS

Approximately 90 Per Cent of Those Attending a Meeting at Omaha Favor Strike Set for Today.

(By The Associated Press.)

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 4.—Nearly 2,000 of the 6,000 packing house workers of South Omaha attended a mass meeting today at which they were addressed by Jacob H. Davis, president of District No. 5, Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of North America, and other speakers. Final plans for the conducting of the strike of packing house workers which is set for 6 o'clock tomorrow morning, were outlined. When Davis asked those in attendance at the meeting their attitude on the strike he said approximately 90 per cent of the men held up their hands as a token that they favored the walkout.

The approximate number of men to be affected here is 6,000. The plants affected are: Armour & Co., Swift & Co., Morris & Co., Cudahy Packing company, and the Dold Packing company. Union officials declare the walkout tomorrow will be 100 per cent. Packing house heads repeated tonight that the walkout will be participated in by not more than 15 per cent.

Need for Order. President Davis today emphasized the need for order during the strike. He referred to the fact that extra police guards have been detailed for duty near the packing plants, but insisted that "we don't want to give them anything to do."

Union leaders tonight estimated that the strike probably will last six weeks. Packing house superintendents estimated all will be over within one week.

Col. L. E. Upton, chief of staff at Fort Crook, denied a report that the soldiers there are ready to be sent into the packing house district. He said no troops would be dispatched until civil forces had proved inadequate and a request for troops had gone through regular government channels. Things were quiet tonight and police were anticipating little trouble in handling the situation.

CLAIM 45,000 UNION WORKERS WILL STRIKE

Chicago, Dec. 4.—Union officials tonight announced that 45,000 union workers employed in packing plants would be on strike tomorrow in protest against wage reductions averaging 10 per cent authorized by plant assemblies under the shop representation plan in the packing industry. The strike was called by the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workers' union.

Spokesmen for the five big packers expressed the belief that 95 per cent of the workers will be on the job tomorrow and asserted that the walkout will not seriously affect operation. They said only a small per cent of the workers were organized and that positions made vacant by strikers will be filled immediately from the unemployed.

Along with these conflicting statements came the assertion of police officials that "law and order will reign at the stockyards tomorrow." Two hundred policemen have been assigned to duty there. Four largely attended meetings of packing employees were held today. The principal gathering, which was addressed by Cornelius Hayes, international president of the butcher workers' union, drew the largest attendance and an overflow meeting was held.

Mr. Hayes reiterated previous statements in which he condemned the plant representation plan, asserting that the so-called employees' representatives in reality designated by the packers and that if they advocated the interests of the workers in the plant conferences, they would lose their positions.

KILLED WOMAN FOR FIFTY DOLLARS, IDLE MAN CONFESSES

Mrs. Betty Sharples, her little son Clarence, and Thomas F. Catherwood.

Sound of mind and in perfect physical condition, but out of work and in need of money, Thomas F. Catherwood of Chicago has confessed that he cooly murdered Mrs. Betty Sharples, sister of his brother-in-law, to obtain $50, which the young woman, about to become a mother, had saved for Christmas presents. While Catherwood was murdering the woman her little son

Clarence, thirteen months old, lay in a cradle nearby. He was crying when the father returned from work and found his wife's lifeless body. Catherwood expresses no regret over the crime.

Theaters Today

"B" Theater.—"The Hell Diggers," with Wallace Reid, Lois Wilson and other stars, is being repeated today for the last time; also repeating "Cyclone Smith's Vow," with Eddie Polo as the star, and the interesting "Current Events" pictures.

Lyric Theater.—"The Son of Wallingford" is a big film feature and it proved a big drawing card at the Lyric yesterday afternoon and last night, with an all-star cast. It is being repeated today. The management is also repeating the comedy, "The Skipper's Narrow Escape."

Pastime Theater.—"The Man of Stone," with Conway Tearle as the leading star, is being repeated today; also repeating "All Aboard," with Harold Lloyd as the leading character, and the "Fox News" pictures.

KNOTTY PROBLEM SOLVED BY WALLACE REID IN "THE HELL DIGGERS"

Would you give up a big job if the girl you love is opposed to your work as a matter of principle?

That is the question that Wallace Reid, Paramount star, has to decide in his newest vehicle, "The Hell Diggers," which was shown yesterday to delighted audiences at the "B" theater and which is being repeated for the last time today.

Lois Wilson is the girl, and her father looks upon the young sailor as an enemy. However, the hero becomes interested in the case of his opponents and finally allies himself with them, which means a big struggle with a strong political corporation. The fight comes off in grand style, physically as well as politically, and the star puts it over in characteristic Reid style.

RESTRAINING ORDER. Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 4.—An order restraining John L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers of America, et al., from suspending or removing from office any of the officers of the District No. 14 or of the various local unions under jurisdiction of the district, was issued today by Judge Samuel A. Dew in Jackson county circuit court.

"STUNT" PERFORMER DEAD. San Francisco, Calif., Dec. 4.—Robert Hastings, 30, an aerial "stunt" performer, fell more than a thousand feet to death here today. He supposedly was unable to regain his grip on a strap on a parachute from which he had taken one hand.

COLORFUL ARABIA IS BACKGROUND FOR TEARLE'S PLAY AT THE PASTIME

"The Man of Stone," a new Selznick picture now showing at the Pastime theater, is well worth the praise which was accorded it last evening by an enthusiastic house, and which is being repeated today. Conway Tearle, who, with the charming support of Betty Howe and Martha Mansfield, carried the title role on his capable shoulders, has again turned a masterly characterization to his credit, as the British army captain in active colonial service in Arabia.

The picture is replete with action and local atmosphere. Hundreds of desert characters, camels and oriental paraphernalia literally saturate the scenes with their color. The spectator actually wakes up startled to find himself back in modern surroundings, at the close of the story. The picture develops its theme logically and steadily to a very fit and surprising climax.

Much there is that can be said in praise of the excellent selection and portrayal of the scenic background for this picture. It is realistic to a degree. There has been a lavish attention to detail, too, of the story. The picture develops its theme logically and steadily to a very fit and surprising climax.

UNUSUAL PICTURE IS "SON OF WALLINGFORD" NOW AT LYRIC THEATER

"The Son of Wallingford," which was shown yesterday at the Lyric theater and which is being repeated today, is an unusually lengthy picture. The production requires eighty massive sets, and 1,500 scenes. In addition to this it was necessary to construct an artificial lake 500 feet wide by 2,000 feet long at a cost of $20,000. A whole town, that of Whittier, California, was used for many of the scenes.

Ten tanks of oil, measuring 12 by 14 feet were used to get the light scenes, which were taken at night upon the lake of burning oil. The conflagration raged on the lake for days, sweeping heavenward in huge whirlpools twice the size of a man's body.

Elephants, camels, elaborate floats and banquet scenes were also used. The exploding of the ten tanks of oil made not only a spectacular scene but was filmed at a great risk on the part of the camera men and players.

Unusual lighting effects and colorizing have been used in the production. Green tints of scenes showing the closeup of burning incense, red lighting for the developing room and unusually pictorial titles are all the work of Mr. Chester.

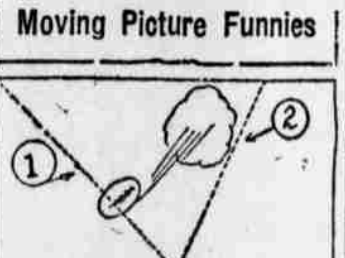

Bill, the dog that appeared with Charlie Chaplin in "A Dog's Life," now grown to elephantine proportions, is playing an important part in Marshall Neilan's "Penrod."

Alice Lake has bobbed her hair, but only for art's sake. The Metro star needed short locks for her chorusgirl role in "Hate," to be directed by Maxwell Karger, from June Mathis' script. But she says she will let her hair grow long again after she completes "Hate."

Nazimova, now heading her own productions, is producing a generalized version of Ibsen's "A Doll's House." The cast includes Alan Hale, Wedgewood Nowell, Nigel de Bruller, Florence Fisher, Elinor Oliver and Cara Lee.

Norma Talmadge's next film will be an adaptation of "The Duchess of Langeais." She is to start soon at her new West Coast studio.

ABROGATION OF ANGLO-JAPANESE PACT IS LIKELY

Extension of the Chinese Consortium Is Suggested by Nipponese as a Practical Substitute.

(By The Associated Press.)

Washington, Dec. 4.—(By The Associated Press.)—Extension of the Chinese consortium or its development into a more comprehensive agreement was suggested tonight by unofficial Japanese as a suitable and practicable substitute for the Anglo-Japanese alliance. Mutual abrogation of that convention by Japan and Great Britain is viewed as a possibility of the conference. It was suggested that the consortium be developed or merged into a great political agreement among the four or five great powers. The idea was based, its proponents explained, on the contention that any definite political agreement as to the Far East, including especially China, must during world reconstruction, give way to or be built up on economic essentials. In other words, it is contended that keen economic rivalries affect political stability and are liable to create friction and serious disputes necessitating conciliatory conference from time to time. This, it is pointed out, coincides with President Harding's suggestion for continued conference.

The Chinese four-power consortium of October 15, 1920, declares that the national groups composing it believe that the interests of the Chinese people can best be served by co-operative action in procuring for the Chinese government the capital necessary for economic reconstruction and improved communications. It is remarked that a particular political importance attaches to the agreement because the powers were able to make fairly definite arrangements with Japan concerning the so-called special interests of Japan in south Manchuria and eastern Inner Mongolia.

Declaration by Japanese delegates Friday that Japan had no intention of relinquishing her holdings in the Manchurian province of Kwangtung has been interpreted in some quarters as official notice that Japan intends to hold all her legitimately acquired interests in Manchuria and Mongolia.

The Chinese consortium has not yet been accepted by China and it has not yet operated. The British position as to the alliance was today summed up by British correspondents as emphasizing that England has no wish to desert an ally who so gallantly supported her in war time, but that in considering the renewing of the alliance she has to bear in mind strong antipathies in the United States as well as in certain British dominions.

PIONEER KANSAS PASTOR CALLED TO HIS REWARD

(By The Associated Press.)

Ottawa, Kans., Dec. 4.—The Rev. H. W. Chaffee, D. D., who died from apoplexy on November 26 at his home here, was one of the few survivors of his calling whose first pastoral duties in Kansas date back to the pioneer days of more than half a century ago. Dr. Chaffee entered the ministry in March, 1871. In those days the duties of the "circuit rider," as many of the Methodist pastors were called, were rigorous. As a rule they traveled on horseback, braving all kinds of weather and covering long distances between charges. At the time Dr. Chaffee took up his pastoral duties in Kansas all beyond the eastern third of the state was "the frontier" and in the eastern third, settlements were small, few and far between. There were no railroads across the state except the Union Pacific and the Santa Fe "system," consisting of twenty-seven miles of track with Topeka, the western terminus. Wichita was only a trading post.

Dr. Chaffee, during his long years of service, officiated in nearly every city in eastern Kansas. He held the position of presiding elder (the office now is officially known as district superintendent) in various districts. Several years ago he retired from the ministry and has held public office here as probate judge and later city commissioner.

Mr. Chaffee was one of the most widely known pastors of his denomination in the state and old time friends from all parts of Kansas gathered here to attend his funeral services. Among those who took part at the service was the Rev. Bernard Kelley, who perhaps is the only surviving Methodist minister in the state who had witnessed as much of history making in Kansas as Dr. Chaffee.

The funeral service was conducted by Dr. H. O. Holter, district superintendent. Among those who took part were pastors of other denominations who expressed their high esteem of Dr. Chaffee.

RUSSIA TO ASK WITHDRAWAL OF NIPPON TROOPS

Delegation Arrives at Washington From Chita to Appear Before the Conference on Arms Slash.

(By The Associated Press.)

Washington, Dec. 4.—(By The Associated Press.)—Russia appeared at the Washington conference tonight in the arrival of a special delegation from the Far East republic of Chita, to lay before the powers the plea of that government for assistance in securing immediate withdrawal of Japanese troops from Siberia. Other purposes of the visit, according to the delegation, are to open trade relations with foreign markets, and to secure recognition for the Chita administration.

There can be no development of the country or development of trade until Japanese troops are withdrawn, a statement. "The delegation hopes to be able to present its case to the conference in order to defend the interests of the Far Eastern republic."

The delegation is headed by A. A. Yuzikoff, adviser of the Far Eastern government on economic matters; B. E. Skvinsky, former vice minister for foreign affairs; P. N. Karavaev, economist and editor, G. J. Farman.

Chairman Yuzikoff in the statement claimed that the real reason why the conference between Chita and Japanese representatives at Darlen was a failure was because Japan refused to entertain the Chita suggestion that evacuation of Siberia be made a condition of the proposed trade agreement.

The delegation, he said, would aim to open trade relations with American business interests.

Let The Journal Be Your Christmas Guide

DO YOUR "shopping" at home—your buying at the stores.

BUT—There are so many, many wants to fill this coming Christmas. "How can I do my 'shopping at home?'"

THERE'S Mother—dear, old Mother, her hair shows silver-gray where once 'twas golden—for her it must be the best Christmas ever—

AND Dad, too—poor Dad, who usually gets a smile and "Merry Christmas"—for him, a regular gift this year—

AND Baby Betsy—it's her first real Christmas, she's 'most two years old—let's make her little heart just jump with joy on Christmas morn—

AND Brother Harry—and Sister Sue—and Aunts and Uncles, too—and friends, perhaps a score.

GOOD gracious—there's so many gifts to make and so little time to look around.

ELKS MEMORIAL SERVICE HELD AT LODGE ROOM

Impressive Ceremonies Memorialize Absent Brothers; Hon. Samuel A. Hughes Delivers Address.

Impressive services were held at the Elks' home last night in memory of the twelve members who died during the year. The ceremony was one of the most beautiful ever held by the lodge and hundreds of Elks, their families and friends filled the new lodge room where the service was conducted. Thirteen little girls presented the names of the twelve honored dead and strewed flowers on the altar in memory of the departed ones. The girls who took part in the ceremony were Maxine Mandell, Jessie Bergman, Cyrena Perse, Editha Elder, Mary Katherine Connell, Kathleen Weiler, Eleanor Marron, Barbara Elder, Sybil McLandress, Cleveland Sheridan, Maxine Nordhaus, Carita Lauderbaugh and Katherine Martin. After presenting the names for the roll call and strewing the altar with flowers, three of the girls took their places at the three altars typifying faith, hope and charity. The invocation by Chaplain William R. Walton followed the sacred march by the orchestra. The roll call of the absent brothers was next in the service. This was followed by a tenor solo, "My Redeemer, My Lord," by George Geake. Responses were made by the lodge officers and several selections were played by the orchestra.

Hon. Samuel A. Hughes delivered a short memorial address which was followed by a soprano solo by Grace M. Storer. The benediction was pronounced by Chaplain William R. Walton. The singers were accompanied by Mrs. D. W. Faw, and the Elks orchestra.

W. H. KRAPE, VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR; DIES AT THE AGE OF 90

William H. Krapp died at midnight Saturday at the ranch home of his daughter, Mrs. Henrietta Bailey, about three miles south of the city. The deceased was 90 years of age.

He was born at Geneva, N. Y., July 3, 1831, and while still a small child moved with his parents to Adams, Mich., and later went to live in Terre Haute, Ind., where he was married in 1850 to Miss Anna Briggs. He is the father of two sons and one daughter, who has given him constant attention during his declining years. His wife having died November 17, 1877.

He took part in the gold rush to California in 1850, making the trip overland. He became a member of the Masonic order in 1858 and was master of Blanchard Lodge of Peoria, Ill., in 1872. He later transferred his membership to Temple Lodge No. 6 and was a member of this lodge at the time of his death. He was also a veteran of the Civil war and served at the battle of Corinth in Mississippi.

For the past twenty-five years he has lived in New Mexico, making Albuquerque his home for twenty-one years of that time. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

WILLINGHAM, WHO ESCAPED IN PEN CAR, CAUGHT

Appelquist Nabbed After 4 Years of Freedom; State Prison Warden Brings Captured Convicts Here.

Charles Willingham, who escaped from the state penitentiary last July in one of the penitentiary automobiles, which he abandoned, was caught a few days ago at Fort Worth, Tex., and arrived here last night under the charge of State Prison Warden P. Jaramillo. He will be taken on to Santa Fe Tuesday.

Willingham was serving a term in the state prison on a charge of auto stealing when he escaped. He had been a trusty for some time and had been assigned to work around the institution as a driver. When making his escape, he was seen by several of the local police officers, but he left the city before notice of his escape was received by the local department.

"I might have known I couldn't get away," he stated last night when he arrived at the police station. He was sent up from Chavez county.

Harold Appelquist, another escaped convict, was also with the warden, who had made the trip to Fort Madison, Ia., where Appelquist had been caught after having escaped from the state prison in 1917. He was serving a sentence for burglary in that county when he escaped.

URGES APPOINTMENT OF A COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE CHINA

Washington, Dec. 4. (By The Associated Press.)—Appointment of a general international committee to investigate the Chinese situation and find a practical method of applying the Chinese financial corporation, was urged today by K. Mochinski, opposition leader in the Chinese diet.

In an effort to learn "what is China," he said, the committee should study how to establish a stable government in China in a spirit of sympathy.

HARVARD VICTORY HAS NOT DIMMED TAD'S BRILLIANCY

Yale's failure to overcome its jinx and defeat Harvard after the most successful season in years was a sad blow to the sons of Old Eli. But the Crimson victory has not hurt Jones' prestige or detracted from the wonders Jones worked with the Yale team this year. Tad had made a winning team out of only fair material. The team was young—many of the players being second year men. Against Harvard's veteran, perfectly developed machine Tad's youngsters fell.
