San Miguel County Teachers Oppose Change in School Text Books.

ARRESTS BY MOUNTED POLICE

National Guard Officer Resigns, Enforcing Quarantine at Taos Pueblo.

Governor Mills today appointed John L. Toole of Knowles, Eddy county, a notary public.

National Guard Officer Resigns. Captain A. Mendenhall of Company K at Clovis, of the First Regiment of Infantry of the New Mexico National Guard, has handed his resignation to Adjutant General A. S. Brooks. Captain Mendenhall has moved out of the territory and the resignation was therefore accepted.

Historical Society. At the annual meeting of the Historical Society of New Mexico, held in the rooms of the Society yesterday, it was determined, as the day was a legal holiday, to postpone the reception of reports, and other business, until the next meeting of the society and only to elect officers as required by the constitution of the society at that time. The following officers were then re-elected: L. Bradford Prince, president; William J. Mills, Frank W. Clancy, and R. E. Johnston, vice-presidents; E. A. Johnston, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Mary M. Victory, assistant secretary; John K. Stauffer, treasurer; Henry Woodruff, curator.

Opposed to Change of Text Books. The teachers of San Miguel county have informed Assistant Superintendent of Public Instruction Acasio Gallegos that they are opposed to a change in text books at the February meeting of the Territorial Board of Education. They favor a retention of the present text books.

Will Enforce Quarantine. Mounted Policemen Rafael Gomez and J. R. Busk are at the pueblo of Taos today to enforce the quarantine against smallpox, which the Indians are disposed to evade. A number of cases are reported among them.

Mounted Police News. The mounted police have been warned to be on the lookout for a one-eyed man who cheats slot machines with imitation nickels. Mounted Policeman Alexander Street has arrested John Craig at Tucuman for carrying a six-shooter. He also arrested George W. Julian, aged 18 years, on complaint of John Burns of Naravisa, Quay county, on the charge of horse-stealing. The horse was recovered near the Texas line and restored to its owner.

Territorial Funds. Territorial Treasurer M. A. Otero today received $25, bank examining fee, from Traveling Auditor Charles V. Safford, and $4.00 from Game Warden Thomas P. Gable.

Postoffice to Be Discontinued. The postoffice at Grande, Union county, is to be discontinued on January 14, 1911.

WOOL PRICES ARE HOLDING STEADILY

There Was Considerable Buying Both of Grades and Unscoured Territorial Stock.

Boston, Dec. 27.—Interest in the wool market has again turned to the territory product with considerable buying of both graded and original conditions. Though sales have been heavy prices have not been shaded. For fleece wools there has been a fair demand with prices holding steady at 29 for half blood Ohio. The largest sale in territory has been Montana staple at 62 to 63 cents clean, although Montana and Idaho half-blood have changed hands at 60 cents in considerable quantities. The Texas and California products are moving slowly.

TRAGEDY OF CHRISTMAS EVE

Young Man of Family Shot Down by Enemy Under Influence of Liquor

STUMBLER OVER BABY BUGGY

Frank Chaney Charged With Crime Was Lodged in Jail at Portales.

Special to the Santa Fe New Mexican. Portales, N. M., Dec. 27.—Alex Hamby, a young man living at Rogers, a country post office twenty miles southeast of Portales, was shot and killed Christmas Eve by Frank Chaney. Chaney is a man whose home is in that neighborhood, is about 60 years old and a bachelor. The two men had some trouble at a gathering the evening before and a personal encounter ensued in which Chaney got the worst of it. Chaney went home and got his gun and started on a hunt for Hamby. From reports, Chaney was under the influence of liquor when the trouble first started and he stumbled over Hamby's baby buggy which caused words that led to the fight last night. The two men met Saturday about one o'clock at the Rogers store and Hamby was shot once through the heart death ensuing instantly. Chaney has been brought to Portales and locked in jail. Alex Hamby was one of the finest young men in the community. He leaves a wife and baby and his parents and three brothers, who reside there and all are the very best of people. The community in general deprecates the deed.

ALL HOTEL WAITERS MUST BE HEALTHY.

Big New York Caravanseries to Require Physical Examination.

New York, Dec. 27.—The German system of supervising the health of hotel employees for the protection of guests is being put into force in the larger New York hotels. A large Broadway hotel employing 450 servants put the system into operation this week. The serving of food by infected waiters imperils the health of patrons, according to sanitarians. "The hotel guest," said one manager, in speaking of the innovation, "is at the mercy of the management of the hotel which he patronizes in respect to the selection of employees. A hotel ought to protect its guests from diseases just as any householder would protect himself and family. Only recently it was brought to my attention that a man and his wife and child who had been staying at a hotel, whose name should have been a guarantee for the utmost cleanliness, became infected with a horrible skin disease. It was learned that a scrub-woman who suffered from the disease had used a drinking glass in the guests' room. The disease had been communicated to a cut on his hip and thence to his wife and child." The question of requiring similar inspection of dining car waiters presents more difficult aspects to the health authorities attempting to solve the problem. They point out that congress should authorize a National Health bureau, as recommended in the president's message, one of the powers of which might be to supervise the sanitation of interstate carriers. Of the 450 employees in the first hotel to initiate the German system only twelve refused to undergo the physical examination. They were discharged.

STAIRWAY IS TORN AWAY

But Excited Italian Occupants Vacate House by Way of Fire Escapes and Roof.

New York, Dec. 27.—Two hundred occupants of a tenement in the Italian quarter of East Fourteenth street found their escape to the street cut off today when a "Blackhand" bomb exploded in the hallway and tore out the first floor stairway and broke every window in the building. The excited tenants who were pitched from their beds by the shock rushed for the fire escapes and roof and got out safely. Salvatore Cataloni, a lace manufacturer, told the police that he received several letters demanding a thousand dollars penalty or death and the destruction of his property would ensue.

MODEL CONVICT CAMP ON MOGOLLON ROAD.

Thirty-five penitentiary Prisoners Working on Seaton Hill Near Alma at Present.

J. L. Merriweather, territorial good roads engineer, spent last week inspecting the work being done on the Mogollon road by the territorial convicts. He found good progress being made and says when completed the road will be one of the finest in the territory. Work is now being carried on on Seaton Hill near Alma. There are thirty-five convicts employed at present and no trouble has been experienced with them since the work began. They are allowed a large measure of liberty, partly through necessity of circumstances, and only one has made an attempt to escape. This is accounted for largely from the fact that all the men are what is termed "short time men" that is, they are in prison for short terms of from one to two or three years, and as their terms are shortened by good behavior, all of them, without exception, work for the good behavior allowance and thus shorten their terms many months. Even if they escape, their liberty is very likely to be short-lived as they are almost certain of capture and they lose all their good behavior allowance, which in some instances amounts to months, and even years. Men are discharged almost every week, having served out their terms, and new ones are shipped in from Santa Fe. It has thus far taken over 100 men from Santa Fe to complete the work already done.

ITALY MAY HAVE STRIKE

Railway Employees Have Completed Referendum Favoring Violence

SABOTAGE WILL BE DECLARED

Machinery Is To Be Destroyed and Crippled and Authorities Harassed.

Rome, Dec. 27.—More than 90,000 railway employees in Italy have completed taking a referendum to determine what attitude they should assume in order to bring about an amelioration of their condition. The great majority of men declared in favor of a strike and "Sabotage." In France "Sabotage" indicates organized acts of violence such as the destruction or crippling of machinery or other property in order to enforce suspension of work. As adopted in Italy, probably the word is used in the sense of "embarrassment" the authorities in their work to restore communication over the railway line, the employees of which are on strike.

CAPTAIN BURBANK COMES BACK FOR A BRIDE

Returns From Away Away Philippines to Wed Miss Amelia Gutterman—Wedding Kept a Secret.

Captain W. A. Burbank of this city, although for the past 11 years he has been in the Philippine Islands, stole a march on his friends in this city Christmas day, when he and Miss Amelia Gutterman were very quietly married. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gutterman, by the Rev. James Gratton Mythen.

The bride has been a teacher in the public schools and has many friends here.

Captain and Mrs. Burbank will spend the holidays here and about the beginning of February they will start for the Philippines, where the bridegroom is captain of the constabulary.

A pleasing feature of the wedding ceremony was the presence of John Gutterman, brother of the bride, and who served in the regular army in the Philippine Islands, and he came back to attend the wedding.

Captain Burbank is stationed 400 miles south of Manila at Tacloban, in the province of Leyte. He says that the climate in the Philippines is much better than is generally supposed but that a man living there for any length of time must take proper precautions, one of which is to abstain from alcohol. Despite his long sojourn in the islands, the captain doesn't show any ill effects of a tropical climate, which many find so enervating after a long siege of it.

SALESWOMEN HAD TO GIGGLE

When Patrol Driver Exchanged Dainty Manicure Set for Curry Comb.

Chicago, Dec. 27.—This was "Exchange Day" at the big department stores, the day which Christmas presents not appropriate were exchanged for articles more suitable. From past experiences the store managers anticipated a rushing business and they were not disappointed. "About ten per cent of the Christmas presents are brought back for exchange" said one State street merchant. One of the early callers, a patrol driver at the Harrison street police station, brought giggles from the saleswoman by exchanging the manicure set his best girl had given him for a curry-comb and brush.

Federal Soldiers from Hot Valleys Cannot Stand Cold of Sierra Madre.

El Paso, Texas, Dec. 27.—A special representative of the Herald investigating the "Big Bend" region in Mexico across the border from Marfa and Alpine, says the rebels hold the entire region and can defend it against a large army, as it is protected by mountain passes. He says that the insurgents have old brass cannons to command the passes and are making their own shells at an old smelter. He declared that they are smuggling arms from Texas, equipping men and sending them to join the insurgents in the Sierra Madre region, west of Chihuahua. The insurgents, he says, expect that the cold weather in the high altitude of the Mexican soldiers who are accustomed only to the hot climate. Nicanor Griego, foreman of the Enrique Creel ranch, has been branded with the ranch brand and the entire ranch looted. The insurgents say that this was done by the ranch employees who were incensed at him.

TRAGEDIAN FREDERICK WARDE IS IN FINE FORM

As Brutus He Will Put Julius Caesar "Down and Out" in Third Act at Elks Tonight.

Frederick Warde, the great tragedian, arrived in the city shortly after noon today from Albuquerque last night where he played with his old time art, according to the Morning Journal, but before a rather small audience.

Mr. Warde spent this afternoon seeing the sights and dramatic experts say that he will be in fine form tonight to meet even the great Caesar and administer the rapier thrust that "shall set Rome free."

Mr. Warde plays the part of Brutus, of course, and the tragedy might as well have been named Brutus because Caesar is a star of the second magnitude. Mr. Warde's son will be seen as Cassius. His other son is business manager of the company and so far has refrained from twinkling in a triple stellar constellation before the footlights.

By the way, the curtain will raise tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

PENSION BILL IN CONGRESS

Passage Would Give New Mexico Veterans Million Dollars More a Year

W. H. ANDREWS WORKING HARD

He Has Secured or Aided in Securing Action on Five Thousand Claims.

A bill by Representative Sullivan granting pensions to certain enlisted men, soldiers and officers, who served in the Civil War with Mexico.

As it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That any person who served thirty days or more in the military or naval service of the United States during the late Civil War, or sixty days in the war with Mexico, and who has been honorably discharged therefrom, and who has reached the age of sixty-two years or over, shall, upon making proof of such facts according to such rules and regulations as the secretary of the interior may provide, be placed upon the pension roll and be entitled to receive a pension as follows: In case such person has reached the age of sixty-two years, fifteen dollars per month; sixty-five years, twenty dollars per month; seventy years, twenty-five dollars per month; seventy-five years or over, thirty dollars per month; and such pension shall commence from the date of the filing of the application in the Bureau of Pensions after the passage and approval of this act; Provided, That pensioners who are sixty-two years of age or over, and who are now receiving pensions under existing laws, or whose claims are pending in the Bureau of Pensions, in such form as he may prescribe, receive the benefits of this act; and nothing herein contained shall prevent any pensioner or person entitled to a pension from prosecuting his claim and receiving a pension under any other general or special act; Provided further, That no person shall receive a pension under any other law at the same time or for the same period as he is receiving a pension under the provisions of this act; And provided further, That no person who is now receiving or shall hereafter receive a greater pension under any other general or special law than he would be entitled to receive under the provisions herein shall be pensionable under this act.

Sec. 2. That the benefits of this act shall include any person who served the period of time therein specified during the late Civil War or in the war with Mexico, and who is now or may hereafter become entitled to pension under the acts of June twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and ninety, February fifteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-five, and the joint resolutions of July first, nineteen hundred and two, and June twenty-eighth, nineteen hundred and six, or the acts of January twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and eighty-seven, March third, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, February seventeenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, February sixth, nineteen hundred and seven, and March fourth, nineteen hundred and seven.

Sec. 3. That rank in the service shall not be considered in applications filed hereunder.

Sec. 4. That no pension attorney, claim agent, or other person shall be entitled to receive any compensation for services rendered in presenting any claim to the bureau of Pensions or securing any pension under this act.

Rule to Facilitate Passage. Resolution by Representative Cooper: Resolved, That immediately upon the adoption of this order the bill (H. R. 29346) "Granting pensions to certain enlisted men, soldiers and officers who served in the Civil War and the war with Mexico" shall be considered in the House, and after two hours of general debate the previous question shall be considered as ordered to the final passage of the bill.

Report of the Committee. The committee on invalid pensions, submitted the following report:

The committee on invalid pensions, to whom was referred House bill 29346, granting pensions to certain enlisted men, soldiers and officers, who served in the Civil War and the war with Mexico, having had the same under consideration, beg leave to report as follows:

This bill, if enacted into law, will grant to all persons who served 90 days or over in the Civil War, or 60 days or over in the Mexican war, and who have reached the age of 62 years, a pension of $15 per month; this is $3 per month more than is now allowed under the act of February 6, 1907; 65 years, $20 per month. This is a new rating. Under the existing age act, there is no rating between the ages of 62 and 70 years, and your committee thinks this is unjust to the soldier, and that in his declining years, with a majority of the veterans partially or wholly unfit to perform manual labor, there should be an increase allowed at the age of 65 years, hence the recommendation of a new rate of $20 per month; 70 years, $25 per month; this is an increase of $10 per month over the existing rates; 75 years of age, $36 per month; being an increase of $16 per month over the amount now allowed

RUSSIA RESUMES EXPULSION OF JEWS.

One Hundred and One Deprived of Right to Reside in the Capital City St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 27.—Expulsion of Jews, asserted to be in hiding in St. Petersburg, has begun, as a preliminary step, one hundred and one have been deprived of membership in the artisan guilds, thereby losing the right of residence in the capital.

under the maximum rate of the age act.

Congress in the last few years has become practically a pension bureau. With old age and its attendant infirmities creeping upon the survivors of both the Civil and Mexican wars, there is not a member of either branch of Congress who is not beset with hundreds of the most deserving and pitiable cases where the beneficiary is pleading for relief by special act, there being no existing law to cover these distressing cases. The pension committees of Congress, working by night and by day, have been able to bring relief to a few thousand soldiers, yet in comparison with the thousands who are still knocking at its doors for help, it is but a drop in the bucket. In this Congress alone there has been referred to the two pension committees of the House of Representatives, more than 20,000 bills for private pensions. Among this vast number are thousands of blind, paralyzed, bed-ridden, and pain-racked soldiers, with long and honorable records, whose cases can never be reached under the present system, and who will be obliged to pass their last days in misery and want.

Your committee feels that the time has come when there should be something done to relieve the pension committees of Congress from the tremendous amount of work that confronts them; that instead of taking up the few cases that the committees can possibly consider, all soldiers should be put upon an equal footing, and in their few remaining years of equal justice should be meted out to all. The so-called McCumber act of February 6, 1907, has proven a great blessing to the soldiers, but all must admit that it has not lessened the work of Congress in dealing with private pension cases. Your committee feels that the time has come when Congress should enact legislation that will reduce private pension legislation to a minimum; that specific rates should be allowed sufficient to care for the soldier in his old age, so that his last days may be days of peace and contentment; that a law should be passed with the rates sufficiently equitable and just that there will not be a demand or need of any general legislation along these lines for many years to come.

If anything is to be done further in the line of legislation for the soldiers it must come soon. The services they rendered can not be measured by dollars or cents, or by any pecuniary emolument, and the least this great nation can do is to see that they are comfortably cared for in their few remaining years. With over 100 of them dying every 24 hours, or at the rate of over 3,000 a month, the ranks are fast becoming depleted. The average age of the soldier is now between 65 and 72 years. Of the 450,000 on the rolls under the age act, nearly 300,000 are estimated to be between the ages mentioned above. These men are practically beyond the years of manual labor, and thousands of them, as every member knows by personal contact, are practically hopeless and helpless invalids. If the veterans are to be helped at all, they should be helped sufficiently so that they will not be obliged to appeal immediately to Congress for special legislation, in order that they may secure for themselves relief sufficient to purchase the absolute necessities of life. The country can afford to give this increase to the old veterans, as it has grown wealthy and powerful on account of the services they rendered.

ECZEMA ON HANDS FOR TEN YEARS

Were Raw All Over—Was Spreading to Body and Limbs—Used Cuticure and Was Cured—Also Cured Daughter's Eczema.

"I had eczema on my hands for ten years. At first it would break out only in winter. Then it finally came to stay. I had three good doctors to do all they could but none of them did any good. I then used one box of Cuticura Ointment and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent and was completely cured. My hands were raw all over, inside and out, and the eczema was spreading all over my body and limbs. Before I had used one bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, together with the Cuticura Ointment, my sores were nearly healed over, and by the time I had used the third bottle, I was entirely well. I had a good appetite and was fatter than I ever was. To any one who has any skin or blood disease I would honestly advise them to foot with nothing else, but to get Cuticura and get well. My hands, cured by the use of Cuticura, have never given me the least bit of trouble up to now. I cannot recommend Cuticura highly enough, it has done me and my family so much good. My daughter's hands this summer became perfectly raw with eczema. She could get nothing that would do them any good until she tried Cuticura. She used two bottles of Cuticura Resolvent and one box of Cuticura Ointment and in two weeks they were entirely cured. I have used Cuticura for other members of my family and it always proved successful. I recommend it to any one with eczema. After once using it you will never use anything else. Mrs. M. E. Fain, Speers Ferry, Va., Oct. 19, 1909."

Cuticura is the most economical treatment for eruptions of the skin and scalp. A case of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment are often sufficient to cure the worst case of eczema. Cuticura is sold throughout the world. Foster Drug & Chemical Corp., New York, N. Y.

THE DAILY ROUND UP.

THE OLD COW MAN.

(C. B. Clark, Jr., in Pacific Monthly.)
I rode across a valley range
I hadn't seen for years;
The trail was all so spilt and strange
It nearly fetched the tears.
I had to let ten fences down—
The fussy lanes ran wrong—
And each new line would make me frown
And hum a mournin' song.

Oh, his squeak, squeak, squeak,
Here 'em stretchin' of the wire;
The neater brand is on the land;
I reckon I'll retire.
While progress toots her brass horn
And makes her mother buzz,
I thank the Lord I was born
No later than I was.

There's land yet where no ditchers dig
Nor cranks experiment;
It's lovely, free and big
And isn't worth a cent.
I pray that they who come to spoil
May wait till I am dead
Before they foul that blessed soil
With fence and cabbage head.

But it's squeak, squeak, squeak,
Far and father crawls the wire,
To crowd and pinch another inch
Is all their heart's desire.
The world is overstocked with men,
And some will see the day
When each must keep his little pen,
But I'll be far away.

'Twas good to live when all the sod,
Without no fence or fuss,
Belonged in partnership to God,
The government and us,
With skyline bounds from east to west
And room to go and come,
I loved my fellow man the best
When he was scattered some.

But it's squeak, squeak, squeak,
Close and closer cramps the wire,
There's hardly play to back away
And call a man a liar,
Their house has locks on every door,
Their land is in a crate—
There ain't the plains of God no more,
They're only real estate.

When my old soul hunts range and rest
Beyond the last divide,
Just plant me in some stretch of West
That's sunny, lone and wide,
Let cattle rub my tombstone down
And coyotes mourn their kin;
Let hawes come and paw the mound—
But don't you fence it in.

For it's squeak, squeak, squeak,
And they pen the land with wire,
They figure fence and copper cents
Where we laughed 'round the fire.
Job cussed his birthday night and morn,
In his old land of Uz,
But I'm just glad I wasn't born
No later than I was.

Drew a Knife—William Mearns had A. A. Campbell arrested at Albuquerque on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon. Both are restaurant men.

Big Ranch Deal—The big Abren Rayado ranch, west of Springer, Colfax county, and containing about 35,000 acres, has been sold to the Hage-

Death of Aged Pioneer—Mrs. Hannah Mills, died at the home of her son, Attorney M. W. Mills, at Springer, at the age of 86 years. She was one of the oldest residents of Colfax county and arrived in Elizabethtown in 1868. She lived there two years, then ten years at Cimarron and thirty years at Springer. Mrs. Mills came of Quaker parentage and was born in the state of New York.

A Depraved Youth—Cleero Maldonado, a youth accused of assaulting women and girls, was sentenced to two to three years in the reform school at Springer by Judge John R. McFie at Estancia. He was indicted on three counts and he was sentenced on each but the sentences will run concurrently. After being sentenced, Maldonado made a dash for liberty from the jail, but Mounted Policeman John W. Collier brought him back after an exciting chase.

Boy Burglar Bound Over—Marvin Malone, aged 11 years, was arrested at Roy on the charge of entering the Floersheim Mercantile store at Roy and robbing it. His fourteen year old brother is also implicated but could not be found. The boy was bound over to the grand jury in $1,000 bond and was taken to Mora by Deputy Sheriff E. H. Bierbaum, who instead of placing him in jail will keep him at his home and give him schooling until the grand jury meets in March.

DR. T. H. H. ROBERTS ON THE CONSTITUTION.

He Defended Its Provisions in a Private Meeting of Methodist Official Board.

Informally addressing the members of the official board of the First Methodist church at East Las Vegas, Dr. Frank H. H. Roberts defended the constitution drafted for the new state of New Mexico. Dr. Roberts stated he had read the constitutions of all the states of the Union and those of many foreign countries, making an especial study of many of the documents. He said the constitution for New Mexico would compare favorably with all of them and that certain sections in it showed the touch of master hands. In particular he commended the system of taxation for New Mexico.

He said the constitution showed it had been drafted in the interests of the people of the state. Viewed from the point of a critic, Dr. Roberts said there were a few things in the constitution that he would prefer were different, but as a whole the document was a good one. Its adoption

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

ATTACK ON WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE.

According to Denver papers, a concerted effort will be made to disfranchise women in the Centennial state. It has been found that human nature averages the same among the women voters as it does among the male voters. Female suffrage has brought none of those civic reforms that had been predicted. Prohibition has failed to carry and some of the vilest and most corrupt machine politicians have been elevated to office either by, or despite female votes. The election expenses of candidates have greatly increased for it seems that the practical female political workers demand as much money to spend at the polls as do the men. Mrs. Francis W. Goddard, president of the Colonial Dames of Colorado, a leading woman's suffragist and political leader, has changed her mind and now comes out against female suffrage as follows in the Ladies' Home Journal:

"I have voted since 1893; I have been a delegate to the city and state conventions, and a member of the Republican state committee from my county; I have been a deputy sheriff and a watcher at the polls; for twenty-three years I have been in the midst of the woman-suffrage movement in Colorado. For years I believed in woman suffrage and have worked day in and day out for it—I now see my mistake and would abolish it tomorrow if I could.

"No law has been put on the statute books of Colorado for the benefit of women and children that has been put there by the women. The child labor law went through independently of the woman's vote. The hours of working women have not been shortened; the wages of school teachers have not been raised; the type of men that got into office has not improved a bit.

"As for the effect of the vote on women personally, I have known scores of women who worked for the Republican party one year and worked for the Democratic party next year, telling me frankly that 'the Democrats gave us more money.'

"Frankly, the experiment is a failure. It has done Colorado no good; it has done woman no good. The best thing for both would be if tomorrow the ballot for women could be abolished.

"MRS. FRANCIS W. GODDARD.
"President of the Colonial Dames of Colorado."

FRIENDS OF THE VETERANS.

The Republican party has proved itself at all times a friend of the veterans, of the men who in time of stress and danger offered their lives in defense of the nation. As the latest step toward the complete recognition of the claims of these veterans upon the nation, Congressman Sullivan has introduced a pension bill which the New Mexican has been assured, will become a law at this session of Congress. One of the most enthusiastic workers for its passage is Delegate to Congress W. H. Andrews, who since he represented New Mexico at Washington, has aided five thousand veterans in the Territory to obtain pensions or re-pensions and increases and something like a million dollars a year are paid to veterans in New Mexico. This new pension bill if it becomes law, will almost double that sum and at the same time give the veterans nothing more than what the nation owes them. The New Mexican on another page prints the bill and the report upon it by the committee of invalid pensions. A rule has been introduced which will assure the bill being taken up before March 4. This bill, if enacted, will grant to all persons who served 90 days or over in the Civil War, or 60 days and over in the Mexican war, and who have reached the age of 62 years, a pension of $15 per month; 65 years, $20 a month; 70 years $25 per month; and 75 years $30 per month. To carry out the provisions of the bill will take $45,000,000 a year but with the increased revenue coming from the Payne-Aldrich tariff and with a nation growing in wealth, this sum ought not to stand in the way of doing justice to the brave men who survive from the great wars fought half a century and more ago.

Charity covers a greater multitude of sins today than it did two thousand years ago. A professional swindler who bilked wealthy Americans out of a fortune, was acquitted in France last week, because he was kind and charitable to the poor. The spectators in the court room, so the cable said, were bathed in tears as the tales of his kindly deeds were told. It is one of the paradoxes of human nature that the hand which would rob a community is also the one that often is most liberal and generous in spending the ill gotten wealth.

The newspapers all over the country are making much fuss because a family was found in Pittsburgh, Pa., that is getting along on $1.35 a day. Santa Fe has several hundred families that manage to eke out a living on less than that and who would not be much wrought up over the saying attributed by his enemies to the late ex-President Benjamin Harrison, that a dollar a day is enough for any man.

IMPOSSIBLE IN NEW MEXICO.

One of every six voters in Adams county, Ohio, is accused of having sold his vote at the last election. A minister of the gospel, a man owning property worth $50,000 and men prominent in business circles, sold their votes for prices ranging from $7.50 to $20. This has been the practice for many years and one year, when the central committees had an usual large supply of money, $25 a vote was paid and the voters were placed in boats opposite the courthouse and knocked off to the highest bidder. The secret ballot was a farce. The man who sold his vote was taken to the polling booth by a worker who winked to the election judge who would open the "secret" ballot to make sure that the vote was "right," nodded to the worker who then paid the citizen. It is only this year that a "perverse" district attorney had 1,500 of these purchasable voters indicted and more than 500 of them will be fined and disfranchised for five years as a result.

Now comes also Mrs. Goddard of Colorado and deposes that many women voters of Colorado, one year sell out to the Republicans and the next year to the Democrats.

There is no especial moral to this, for conditions quite similar exist in many states, and in Mississippi and adjoining commonwealths, no bones at all are made about disfranchising one-half of the citizens by "law" because their skin is black and they are accustomed to vote the Republican ticket. But what right have people from those states to speak of alleged corruption in New Mexico, or of the initiative and referendum, or of the secret Australian ballot and of other measures which seem to go hand in hand with corruption and pollution of the electorate in other states?

ONE REASON FOR JOY.

New Mexico can indeed be grateful at this Christmas season that it did not make the mistake that Arizona made, the mistake the radical Democrats wanted to force upon this commonwealth. No wonder the Arizona Republican laments as follows: "The one notable feature of the discussion of the statehood question by the people responsible for the pending constitution is their refusal to discuss or consider the one question 'The constitution may be the greatest document ever written. It may be, as the proponents of the constitution are so careless of their own interests that they elect incompetent men to the legislature and will at the same time be so careful of their interests that they will judiciously legislate for themselves through the initiative. It may be that democrats of such crooked character will be elected to office—Arizona is not likely to elect men of any other party—that the recall is imperatively necessary to protect the people from their crooked officials.

"But of what consequence are these important facts, if this inspired constitution will defeat statehood?" "Of what avail will this constitution be under the territorial form of government?" "It is asserted by the governor, and we believe him implicitly, that the president will disapprove this constitution. The president's disapproval puts an end to all pending statehood legislation. Everybody of ordinary intelligence knows that there will not be another chance for statehood for years to come."

A SPENDTHRIFT NATION.

The dear people growl about the robber tariff, the heavy burden of taxes, the extravagances of a billion dollar government, and yet they will spend more for alcoholic drinks in one year than they pay in taxes for the support of all governmental agencies, local, state and national. They complain about the high cost of living and yet they spend more for beer than they do for life insurance. They are apt to criticize the schools and colleges for their limited endeavors and yet they spend more for tobacco than they do for all the public and private schools, colleges and universities taken together. They spend ten times as much for automobiles than they do for the public health and even the candy bill is larger than the cost of hospitals, poorhouses and asylums. It is not only the rich who expend millions for luxuries but the poorest contribute millions in the aggregate for objects that are far from necessary and much less desirable.

The best Christmas gift to the country is the announcement that the proposed strike of the engineers on western and southern railroads, which seemed so imminent, has been averted. The engineers will receive an advance in wages of $120 a year and since there are some fifty thousand of them, the railroads will have to make up an additional $6,000,000 in some manner next year, in order to make ends meet.

BEGIN PLANNING NOW.

It is never too early to begin planning your flower garden. Santa Fe should be a bower of blossoms every spring, summer and fall. A little care will do wonders in transforming unattractive yards into beautiful gardens. There is one garden in this city, where on Christmas day, its owner cut a bouquet of large yellow chrysanthemums, a bunch of blue myrtle and several California poppies. The chrysanthemums had the protection of a canvass during very cold nights, while the myrtle and poppies had no protection except being planted at the foot of a stone wall with a south exposure. Pansy blossoms protected by nothing else but a heavy litter of leaves have been picked in every month of the year. There is one home that has green ivy clinging to it in heavy masses to the roof all winter long. Roses, chrysanthemums and sweet peas yield especially grateful returns for considerate treatment. Portland, Oregon, has gained for itself the name of "City of Roses," because its humblest garden has its rose bushes and the proudest home is surrounded by them. Santa Fe can do much to make itself the most attractive residence city in the southwest by planting trees, shrubs and flowers and making beauty spots out of yards and gardens that are now bare and unattractive.

PRAISE FOR BALLINGER.

The western press as a rule understands very well the animus of the attacks upon Secretary of the Interior Ballinger for it has suffered from the same hands that are seeking to smite him. Says the New Mexican Homestead, of McIntosh, Torrance county, for instance:

"Last week Secretary of the Interior Ballinger overruled that decision requiring a homesteader to live 14 consecutive months on his land before commuting, a decision that would have made every homesteader away on leave of absence, return and starve out fourteen months longer on his claim. But Ballinger is a western man who thoroughly knows the needs of the pioneers, hence he saw at once that such a requirement would work untold suffering to the homesteaders and he speedily overruled it.

"Yet, it is a fact that he has been cursed and abused more than any man at Washington. The reason for this is that he is a true friend of the West, who has tried and is still trying to help the mountain states. This has earned the hostility of the Trusts and Wall Street grangers who flood the subsidized press with daily columns of abuse because, forsooth, the Hon. Richard Ballinger insists on being Secretary of the Interior of the biggest country on earth, whereas they want him to act solely as secretary for the interior of a Wall Street skyscraper.

CAUSE OF INSANITY.

Homer Folks, secretary of the State Aid Association of Colorado, in an address last week called attention to the disquieting fact that in the past ten years the population of the Centennial state has increased 47.5 per cent, but the number of insane has increased 103.9 per cent, making a total of 32,000 mentally deranged persons in the state, or more than the entire population of Albuquerque, Santa Fe, Roswell, Las Vegas and Raton together, an enormous total when it is considered that the population of Colorado is still 200,000 from a million. Figures of that kind give point to the prediction that three centuries from now all of humanity will be "bughouse." As to the causes of insanity, it is interesting to note that Dr. Folks ascribed twenty-eight per cent to the use of alcohol and drugs. He blames a large percentage on "loose" living. This disproves the statement of Dr. N. Allen Starr "that we work too hard," for hard work does not drive men crazy, in fact, it is at times the most potent preventative of insanity. However when "hard" work is combined with "loose" living, the human machine is bound to break down.

With eggs selling in Santa Fe from five to seven cents a piece, with the great majority of inhabitants of local poultry yards on an unbroken strike, it seems like a fairy tale to be told that W. Paul Stoechele of Santa Rosa, California, in the past nine months gathered 1,239 eggs from eight hens, and J. G. Cotton of the state of Washington in the same period 1,205 eggs from nine hens. There is something delusive, evanescent, when it comes to hen and egg statistics, but it is reasonably certain that hen nature like human nature averages the same the world over and depends much on the treatment it receives. If one hen can be persuaded to lay 155 eggs in nine months for the California man, that same hen with the same kind of treatment would lay that many eggs for a Santa Fe poultry raiser. The chicken industry ought to thrive in this locality but like any other industry it must be understood and must be well managed to show a profit.

The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway company has donated voluntarily $2,000 to the treasury of Curry county in lieu of taxes from which it was exempt. This was from a soulless and bloodless corporation which is denounced by street corner agitators who would have a spell of heart failure if they were compelled to contribute $1.00 poll tax toward the public schools or $3.00 road tax for better highways.

Despite some spectacular splurges, the rebellion in Mexico is practically crushed. It never had a chance to win and its main strength was in the press agent it employed to spread the news of its so-called victories. President Diaz still has firm hand on the helm of the government.

like illness, it is often necessary quickly to raise the temperature of a room. For instance, in those hours between midnight and dawn, when the day temperature has been allowed to drop, if you are called upon to get up, the room is chilly and cold. It takes a long time to start up a furnace or fire and raise the temperature by ordinary means.

You can instantly heat a room to any desired temperature with a

PERFECTION
SMOKELESS
OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

It quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. Has automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be cleaned in an instant. It has a cool handle and a damper top.

An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. It has a filler-cap which does not need to be screwed down; it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel. It is strong, durable and well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

Plays AND Players

Modern society dramas, farce comedies, melodramas, the so-called comic operas and the whole retinue of theatrical offerings have been presented in abundance for the past few seasons, they have come and gone; none or very few have been strong enough to stand a second presentation and none have been able to hold the public interest season after season but the grand old Shakespearean dramas have become classics and among the educated classes still have a hold and following when pre-

29th when the United Play company offers it with a New York cast, owes its fame as the greatest American drama of the age to qualities that make it entertaining to persons of every taste. Because of this general appeal it possesses greater popularity than any play ever known to the American stage.

"Paid in Full" is too expensive and sweeping to narrow its interest to any one class or set of persons. Its reach is universal. It pictures in bold colors the real existence of sented by an artist in an acceptable manner.

Recognizing this fact Manager Michael Stanton, of the Elks theater, has secured for tonight Frederick Warde, to whom no greater actor of Shakespearean plays lives today, in a splendid production of the greatest of all Shakespearean tragedies, "Julius Caesar," with all the sumptuous scenery, costumes and careful adherence to historical details characteristic of Mr. Warde's productions and supported by the best company of artists possible to obtain.

Paid in Full.

"Paid in Full" the Eugene Walter play that will be seen at the Elks theater Thursday night, December many men and women in every American city. If the lives of the persons in "Paid in Full" be not our own, they certainly are those of many we know, with whose struggles and purposes we have intimate understanding. The play strikes home; it grips our sympathies. No one can see "Paid in Full" and not feel its intense humanity. While the characters are real they are not commonplace. The persons are those of the kind who do things, whose actions go far in shaping many destinies. Mr. Walter has presented these persons with a vigor and distinctness that produce startling realism. He carries them through a story of absorbing fascination whose Interest is not once relaxed.

There is not a dull moment in "Paid in Full"; pathos and humor run side by side. Episodes of power and depth are accentuated by genuine comedy. The play is essentially an entertainment and it is the most amusing drama now before the public.

It will be presented here by one of the five companies that appeared in it in New York city, a feature that makes the engagement the more notable. Local playgoers should not miss this great play with its great cast.

HETTY GREEN'S SON
ON GOVERNOR'S STAFF.

Chief Executive of Texas Will Have a Millionaire and Plutocrat in Official Family.

Austin, Texas, Dec. 27.—E. H. R. Green, the son of and now the business manager for Hetty Green, one of the world's richest women, has accepted an office on the staff of Governor-elect Colquhitt. He will be a lieutenant-colonel and he will have his measure taken for a uniform, or, to be more accurate, for several fatigues and dress uniforms.

"Of course," said Mr. Green, "I have not made any fuss about accepting the office, but I shall be at the inaugural ball on January 17th; isn't that the date? Notwithstanding all opinions regarding my right to ride on railway passes and still be a colonel in the National Guard of Texas, nothing will prevent me from taking the job on the governor's personal staff. It is all right, for while I am in uniform, I am not riding on passes, and as there is no compensation to the office, I am told there can be no objection to my having a railroad pass. So there you are."

Mr. Green owns the Texas Midland railroad. He will stay in Texas until after Mr. Colquhitt's inauguration. "You may say for me that Texas looks mighty good, and that the financial conditions here are better than in the east. On the whole, Texas is worth everything that has been said about the state. Any man who could say what is causing the temporary depression in the financial circles of the east, and it was published in the morning, would be receiving by noon all sorts of inducements to come to New York at a salary greater than the President of the United States is receiving. But I think the New Year will bring conditions that are worth the while, so to speak."

TAKE CARE.

Remember that when your kidneys are affected, your life is in danger. M. Mayer, Rochester, N. Y., says: "My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse daily. I felt sluggish and tired, my kidney action was irregular and infrequent. I started using Foley Kidney Pills. Each dose seemed to put new life and strength into me, and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years." Sold at Capital Pharmacy.

BULLETIN OF AGRICULTURAL EXPERIMENT STATION.

The time of year is at hand when the rabbits will begin to do damage to young shade and fruit trees where they are not protected by some means. Considerable loss occurs each year by the rabbits girdling the trees. Painting the trunk of the trees with either of the washes mentioned in the following formulas will prevent the injury if properly done and in time.

Formula No. 1. Slack in water over night the quantity of unslaked lime needed for the work. In the morning add enough water to make a good thick wash. Stir the mixture well, and to each 2-1/2 gallons of the wash and two table-spoonsful of Paris green. Take care to mix well in the wash. Apply to the trunk of the tree with an ordinary paint brush; keep the wash stirred up so the ingredients will not settle to the bottom of the pail.

Formula No. 2. Slack the lime as above and stir in just before using in place of the Paris green from one-half pound to one pound of arsenate of lead to each pailful of the wash. A handful of salt added to the wash will make it stick better to the trunk of the tree. Apply this wash in the same manner as in No. 1.

Formula No. 3. Take equal parts of unslaked lime and cow manure and add enough water to make a thick wash, and apply with a brush. This makes a cheap and effective remedy to keep rabbits from gnawing young trees.

Formula No. 4. Make a wash of equal proportions of sulphur, stove soot, and unslaked lime. Put in enough water with these ingredients to make a thick paint. Apply with a brush in the ordinary manner.

It takes no extraordinary skill or practice to make and use any of the washes given in the above formulas. All the care that will be necessary will be to mix them carefully and apply in a workmanlike manner. In formulas 1 and 2, two ounces of strychnine may be added instead of the Paris green or arsenate of lead.

SOLDIERS FLOCKING TO THE FOREIGN SERVICE

Houston, Texas, December 27.—A problem that is causing some worry is confronting army officers at Fort Sam Houston: Within the next

Rosy as a Girl

Summit, N. C.—In a letter received from this place, Mr. J. W. Church, the notary public, says: "My wife had been ailing for nearly 12 years, from female ailments, and at times, was unable to leave the house. She suffered agony with her side and back. We tried physicians for years, without relief. After these treatments all failed, she took Cardui, and gained in weight at once. Now, she is red and rosy as a school girl." Cardui, as a tonic for women, has brought remarkable results. It relieves pain and misery and is the ideal tonic for young and old. Try it. At druggists.

Scene from "Paid in Full"

six months, at least 600 enlisted men of the Twenty-second infantry, now stationed here, will have served the term of their enlistment and will be discharged from the army. As a rule these men enlist again, either in the same regiment and company or in other regiments. Very few of the men now receiving their discharges are re-enlisting in the Twenty-second infantry, and the reason lies in the fact that in the foreign service the islands offer great inducements.

Fifteen years abroad is equal to thirty years' service in the United States. Another reason why the soldiers are flocking to the foreign service is that an increase of twenty per cent in their pay is allowed. They are given the same allowance for clothing as in the states, whereas the actual need for clothes is less. In the foreign service the annual maneuvers are dispensed with, and this is also a feature that pleases the soldier.

J. W. Greer, Greenwood, La., suffered with a severe case of lumbago. "The pains were so intense I was forced to hydromedic injections for relief. These attacks started with a pain in the small of my back which gradually became fairly paralyzing. My attention was attracted to Foley's Kidney Remedy and I am glad to say after using this wonderful medicine I am no longer bothered in any way by my old enemy lumbago." Sold at Capital Pharmacy.

SANTA FE ALL THE WAY

Santa Fe, N. M.

H. S. LUTZ, Agent

WISE COUNTRYMEN

Mrs. Cornsweat—Here is a letter from Cousin John, whose family was visiting us the whole summer. Mr. Cornsweat—I reckon that they've moved into a flat and can't entertain us this winter.

TOO HASTY.

Josh Medders—Don't never marry too hasty, Bill, like I did! Bill Swampy—Like you did! Why, you courted Sally Perkins for seven years before you married her! Josh Medders—Keenest, Bill! But I reckon now I wuz too hasty by about forty years.

ON THE LINKS.

Edith—You look tired, dear. Ethel—Tired! Why, I'm almost dead! I walked all the way out here from my house—fully half a mile!

FROM ARCHERY TO GOLF.

Once Cupid, the frolicsome laddie, With quiver and arrows would call, But he now takes a man for a caddy, And uses his heart for a ball.

SPOILED HIM

"Don't you think that for an ugly man Lucky is awful vain since he came back from his vacation?" "Yes; but you know he was at a summer resort for three weeks and was the only man there."

Guess.

He wanted a hat. His wife did, too. Which got a new hat? I leave it to you!

Something in a Name. "Pretty smart girl, eh?" "You bet she's smart. Why, last spring that gal trapped a half-dozen skunks down here in Poppleton's woods an' sent 'em to New York to be made up. Now she's got one of the finest sets of Alaskan sables you ever laid eyes on!"

IMPORTANT CONSIDERATION.

Caroline—So you do not believe in early marriages? You think a man ought to have made his way first, I suppose. Hobart—To tell the truth, what weighs chiefly with me is that the later one marries the less time one has to outlive one's illusions.

AFTER THINKING IT OVER

Mrs. Sleepyville—Come, George, get up. It's five o'clock. You said you wanted to get up early this morning and mow the lawn. Mr. Sleepyville (yawning)—Well, I've slept on it, 'n' changed m' min'. Snore! (Which, being interpreted, stands for a snore.)

GETTING INTO CONDITION.

Farmer Greene—Hurry up, Josh, and get into the cyclone cellar! Young Greene—Not a bit, pop! College opens next week, and this is a rare opportunity to get into condition for the preliminary football practice.

AFFLUENCE

Wicks—They say farmers are making plenty of money nowadays. Wages—Yes, why, up my way the farmers give diamond pins and rings as favors at their husking bees.

"I know a lot of silly men who think they're making money, and they're not. They're just getting rich by selling the farm."

Poor Man. Poor Henpeck never will be free, He never will, alas! For all his children are the kind That button up the back.

A Touching Affair. Griggs—I see that by using a stethoscope and a sensitive telephone key, with persons suffering from heart troubles, physicians can keep in better touch with their patients. Diggs—I wonder if the doctors will touch them harder or oftener—Tuesdays Stateman.

KEEPING RECORD STRAIGHT.

Oh, hobbie gown, Peach basket hair, And high-heeled shoes, And heaps of rats, We write these few Short lines to you To keep the record straight, we do. We long to have You understand We love the girls To beat the band, Not because they Wear things like you, But in spite of That fact, we do.

Men's Teeth.

"Your composition, as a whole," said the professor of literature, "deserves a great deal of praise, but I must object to the expression, 'as fine as hens' teeth.' It is not merely uncouth, but also suggestive of nature 'aking; for it is common knowledge that hens' teeth do not exist."

Some Kicking.

"That actress says she will earn enough money on the stage to put Manuel back on the throne of Portugal." "Makes a regular football of Manuel, doesn't it?" "How so?" "The revolutionists kicked him off the throne and she is going to kick him back on."

Exchange of Courtesies.

"Mornin', Riggs." "Mornin', Griggs." "I hope you're enjoying good health." "You don't suppose I could enjoy poor health, do you?" "You could if you were a new doctor in a strange community. Mornin'."

Not Reasonable.

"Why is it that blondes always have the preference over brunettes? It isn't fair!" "But can you reasonably expect brunettes to have a fair show?"

NO CHANGE TO AGREE.

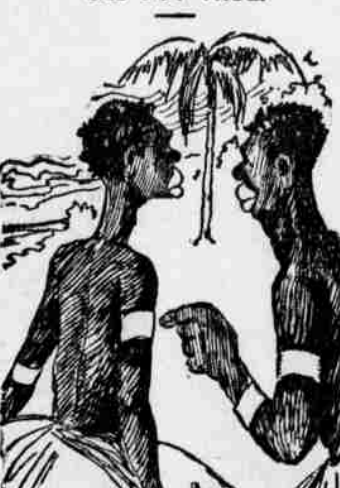

Judge—And is there no chance for an agreement? Foreman of the Jury (rising)—Waal, if your honor will give me back the gun that was took from me when we was locked up, I reckon I kin bring these here 11 onery critters to time in less than five minutes, but there ain't no chance for an agreement while I'm lackin' a strong argument.

WICKERSHAM TELLS THIS ONE.

Attorney General Wickersham is a great story teller. He brought the following tale back from the northwest and told it at the White House:

A man there was who was in mortal fear of his wife, especially when he indulged in spirits to excess and forgot to go home until the early hours of the morning. One night he drank until he became hilarious, and it was in the small hours of the morning that he reached his home. He gained an entrance without arousing his sleeping spouse. Shoeless he climbed the stairway, opened the door of the bedroom, entered and closed it after him without being detected. Just as he was about to get into bed his wife, half aroused from her slumber, turned and sleepily said: "Is that you, Fido?"

SAD BUT TRUE.

First Cannibal—I don't see why there should be so much talk about that story of Jonah and the whale. Second Cannibal—Neither do I; you and I have swallowed men ourselves.

The Philosopher of Forty. "There's only one thing worse than being busted," says the Philosopher of Forty, "and that is, not having credit."

Opened His Eyes. "How long has Biffins been view-ing with alarm?" "Ever since he became the father of twins."

FINDING A SOLUTION

"It's expensive to do your work well," sighed the serious young woman as she unpacked her trunk. "Grandmother used to tell us, Sue, that work worth doing was worth doing well," said the other young woman, reprovingly.

ONLY EXPLANATION.

"Just imagine doing all the buying and all the errands for thirty-five persons—all artists! Think of bringing back from town everything from tubes of paint to buckets of cement, besides thirty-five bundles of laundry, some to change, some to make change for and some to be forgotten!" "Who did all these things last year?" inquired her friend.

"Things ran themselves last year. That's why they wanted me to go this year. It looked good to me to draw a salary and camp out at the same time."

"After we had been there about two weeks I told the artists that the expenses were running too heavy. No one paid the slightest attention to my warning."

"Mr. Palette," I said when I could get a chance at him, "will you please look over these accounts?" "What do I know about business?" he said. "Just fix them up to suit yourself. Things never went so smooth before. Just look at that sunset. What color!"

"I found that the sun was usually sinking or rising or that the moon was taking an active part in the camp's affairs. So it was no use to go to Mr. Palette about business matters."

"Mrs. Brush, we'll have to cut out ice cream and other such luxuries—we're getting behind, I said to her. "Don't," she replied. "The children are so fond of those things. You're always worrying about expenses. The money will come from somewhere."

"After this I did not worry about expenses. If the others were willing to make up the deficit it was none of my affair. I began to enjoy the simple life and art education I was acquiring. Then the pump gave out! All the water was pumped up from a spring at the foot of the bluff. That pump had to be mended at once."

"Mr. Cobalt, just a minute. The pump has given out." "Well, Miss Sue, for your sake I wish I was an engineer—but I am only a painter. Maybe the water is too low or the pump is broken. I do not understand these practical things."

"Mr. Vandyke," I called as I saw him going toward the hills. "The pump—the pump!" "Not today," he said. "I am sketching the hills with the beautiful color among the trees. It's an ugly pump and would not make a pretty picture."

"But it won't work, Mr. Vandyke—it's broken." "Then go to the beautiful spring surrounded by old stones and mosses—so simple, so picturesque!"

"Here is where I gave up banking after the simple life. It looked to me like letting the other fellow worry. I sent to town for a man and found that the pump only needed a washer."

"Is all this why you came home a month sooner than you expected?" "No, my dear. At the beginning of the third month I again called Mr. Palette's attention to the steadily growing deficit."

"Always thinking of business!" he said. "The table has been excellent. Did you ever see such coloring in clouds? I must get my paints at once."

"But first, please, levy a poll tax or do something about these accounts." "Oh, they'll come out all right. We've only another month to remain here. You must come with us every year."

"Tell me where to cut expenses now, please," I begged. "How much is it? I hate accounts. Those russet colors—"

"We are short about $50," I said. "What! So much? Eh—let me see—that's about what we pay you. The simplest way out—and it saves figuring—is just to let you go. Saving your month's salary would just fix things. You have got everything to going so nicely that I think we can do without you—but you must come to us next year."

"So you paid the deficit?" "Yes. The simple life always has to be paid for by some one. Mrs. Brush said the money was bound to come from—somewhere."

Beauty. Beauty is relative. It is harmony discovered in comparisons. Remember beauty is not lost. The rose born to blush unseen adds to the beauty of the universe and the fabric of the eternal scheme.

COULD NOT DENY IT.

"I will ask you," said the lawyer, who was trying to throw doubts on the testimony of a witness, "if you have ever been indicted for any offense against the law?" "I never have, sir."

THE LAST TIME.

"I've been away And lost the thread Of things. Did Men-Eluk stay dead?"

Marjorie—Grace had her bathing suit made to order. Myrtle—Then she must have sent her little sister to be measured for it.

What Hath the Telephone Wrought! The elderly stranger, by invitation of the superintendent, was addressing the Sunday school.

"How many can tell me," he asked, "which is the longest chapter in the Bible?"

Many hands went up. "This little boy may answer," he said, pointing his finger at an urchin in one of the seats near the front. "Which is the longest chapter in the Bible?"

"Psalm double one nine!" shouted Tommy Tucker.

A Faulty Diagnosis. "The trouble with you," said the doctor, after he had removed his thermometer from beneath her tongue, "is that you have a subnormal temperature."

"I don't consider that a serious symptom," she coldly replied. "I am from Boston."

Catering to the Public. "See here," said the theatrical manager, "you'll have to cut out these old jokes."

"But what am I to use in their place?" queried the comedian. "Substitute some older ones," replied the t. m. "The public likes a change once in a while."

Conversely. "What is happiness?" was recently asked of John D. Rockefeller.

"Giving it," he replied, epigrammatically. "If that is so, how may we epigrammatize about unhappiness?"

Unhappiness, perhaps, is getting it or keeping it or getting it to give—Life.

A SEASIDE SUBSTITUTE. Helen—She's a great favorite with every girl here. Marjorie—Indeed! Why? Helen—Because she's so mannish-looking.

Revamped. There is so much good in the best of us. And so much bad in the worst of us. Why not call it an age of specialization And let it go at that?

Blank Verse. Foot—You published a summer seaside poem of mine last week. You pay according to the kind of verse, don't you? Editor—Yes, George, give the gentleman a blank check.

One Exception. "Jaggs says when there is occasion for it there is no man to whom he is afraid to show his teeth."

"I'll bet he hesitates about doing it when the dentist is getting his forceps ready."

Early in the Game. Neighbor—Is any one sick over at your house, Johnny? Johnny—Dad's allin' some. Neighbor—Is he very sick? Johnny—Not yet. Th' doctor only started t' come this mornin'.

ANOTHER WAY.

"Mr. Timid wants to borrow the lawn mower." "No; tell him we won't lend it, but if he needs exercise he can come over and cut our grass."

SHE WAS IN PRINT.

First City Boarder (at country store)—Isn't that a pretty country girl in the calico dress? I'll bet she's as good as she looks. Second City Boarder—You can't always put faith in everything in print.

EVER SINCE.

Virginia—I suppose you and Harry have been thrown together a good deal lately? Grace—Yes; ever since he got his new automobile.

BAD BOY.

Father (as he is about to lick him)—This is going to hurt me more than it's going to hurt you. The Boy—You're a liar!

NO PROBLEM AT ALL.

Clarence—I don't see how all my friends manage to get married so easily. Gladys—I suppose they find bigger souls than they are and then propose.

A Systematized Conscience. "Did you ever sell your vote?" asked one member of a suspected legislature.

"No," replied the other. "I let it out to a syndicate, took an interest in the business and draw dividends on it."

Modern Science. "Doctor, my baby sucks his fist continually. What is the matter with him?" "Madam, he has an advanced case of ichthyophagy."

"Mercy! What is ichthyophagy?" "A desire to suck the fist."

MINOR CITY TOPICS

THE WEATHER.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 27.—The forecast is tonight generally fair except rain in the south-east portion and colder, Wednesday fair, but in east portion, colder.

You will find the old reliable Bain Wagons at Goebels.

Insurance Man Arrested.—Edwin E. Forestall has been arrested at Phoenix, Arizona, and will be brought back to Albuquerque to answer to an indictment for embezzlement. He is an insurance solicitor.

Wedding Licenses.—The following wedding licenses were issued here: L. Clement Hanlon and Miss Elsie J. Preston of this city; Locarito Cajeta and Miss Tomasita Leyba, of Santa Clara.

Masonic Lodge Meeting.—Montezuma Lodge No. 1, A. F. & A. M. will hold its regular meeting this evening.

Train Late.—Santa Fe trains Nos. 10 from the south and 3 from the east, were about two hours late this afternoon.

Hearing Land Case.—Judge McFie today is hearing the case of Cristobal Gomez vs. Allen Enlum et al., involving a land dispute in Rio Arriba county.

Mr. Kaune Says, after you have one tasted Chase & Sanborn's pure coffees, none other will satisfy. He also calls attention to tea, and the best brand of flour in his advertisement today. Read the ad.

Big Edition of El Nuevo Mexicano.—Ten thousand extra copies of El Nuevo Mexicano were sent out today, each one to do missionary work for the constitution.

Probably the best exponent of the classic drama on the stage and who will be seen in the great scenic production Julius Caesar, at the Elks theater tonight is Frederick Warde.

Those Who Are Going to Receive on New Year's Day, will find some suggestions worth considering and of great interest in the advertisement in this issue for S. Spitz, the jeweler. Do not fail to read about his chafing dishes, coffee machines and table kettles. Makes entertaining easy.

Excellent Entertainment.—Those who attended the unique entertainment at the New Mexico School for the Deaf Christmas eve declare that it was most entertaining and showed the wonderful work performed by Superintendent Conner and his assistants.

Speaking Dates for Larrazolo.—The following speaking dates have been arranged for Hon. O. A. Larrazolo north of Santa Fe: January 18, Espanola, 7:30 p. m.; Santa Cruz 3 p. m.; January 19, Chamita, 3 p. m.; Plaza del Alcalde, 7:30 p. m.; January 20, La Joya 10 a. m.

Installing Lights.—The Santa Fe Water and Light Company is installing the new Tungsten lights on the Washington avenue and Palace avenue circuits and their brilliancy quite eclipsed the glory of the old sixteen candle power. Many more lights will be erected at an early date, it is said.

Christmas Charity.—Several gentlemen of town made up a purse of $14 for the widow of Matias Armijo of Canyon Road. It will be remembered that Mr. Armijo had his life crushed out a few weeks ago while working at the Arroyo Hondo dam construction.

Now that Christmas is past, you probably think of many to whom you wish to send a little New Year gift, with your greeting. The Santa Fe Trail Cario company, in their new ad in this issue, are telling you what they have for such a purpose; also calling attention to the Edison Phonograph as a means of entertaining your callers on New Year Day.

Died While Shopping.—Seventy-year old Thomas Giles, son of Walter Giles, of Kenton, died suddenly while shopping with his father at Barnharts store in Clayton. Heart failure was the cause.

Eugene Walter's four-act play of modern American life, "Paid in Full," which has been a success for over five months in Chicago and two seasons in New York, will be given for the first time in this city on Dec. 29.

The story of "Paid in Full" is said to be virile, appealing and distinctly original, and to be unfolded by a set of characters that are types of real life affluar to every one, and full of human interest.

Presbyterian Christmas Exercises.—The true Christmas spirit reigned last evening at the Yuletide exercises of the First Presbyterian Sunday school in which the Presbyterian mission schools participated. A program of carols and recitations was rendered and a brief address was made by Rev. N. B. Gilchrist, Superintendent A. R. McCoard had charge of the exercises. Each child was remembered with a gift. The attendance was large, the main auditorium being crowded to the doors. A congregational meeting was announced for tomorrow evening.

Mr. Warde Here Tonight.—No production of Shakespeare in late years has aroused so much enthusiasm and genuine praise as Frederick Warde's revival of "Julius Caesar" in which he is announced to appear at the Elks theater tonight. Mr. Warde is probably the most eminent exponent of the classic drama on the stage today and the best informed Shakespearean scholar.

The beauty of the performance lies in the fact that he is absolutely original in everything he does. His appearance in this city is a dramatic event of real importance.

Bound Over to Grand Jury.—W. R. Whitman, H. C. Gimson and Mrs.

Mary Gimson at Roy, Mora county, were bound over to the grand jury to answer the charge of larceny of a calf.

Santa Visits Postmaster, Burke.—The popular belief that Santa Claus really came to Santa Fe from Mount Baldy is well founded and Postmaster Burke is a firm believer in the theory, despite the fact that he is well aware where the packages come from the other 364 days in the year. Santa Claus made a preliminary skirmish around the city at midnight before Christmas, "getting the lay of the land and the location of the chimneys" it is said. He called on Postmaster Burke for a few pointers and left a fine fur lined overcoat, which Mr. Burke today is wearing to convince the young Thomases in town that Santa Claus really made plans to come to Santa Fe.

Yesterday a Holiday.—Yesterday the legal holiday in honor of Christmas which fell this year on Sunday, was observed with as much merry-making as Christmas was noted for its devotion. The weather was fine and those who did not spend the day in restful reflection or merry making around the open fireplace, or in answering letters and thanking gift givers, went out in carriages, motors or on horseback, while many pedestrians were also seen. The evening was rendered glorious for the young folks by a ball at the armory and the Christmas ball of the Woman's Board of Trade in Library hall. There were many dinners and parties and everyone ate candy throughout the day.

Curtain at 8:30 p. m.—The curtain for Julius Caesar at the Elks' tonight will rise at 8:30 p. m. Those who wish to see the performance are requested to be in their seats a minute or two before that hour or take seats at a convenient part of the program.

Gets Photos of the War.—Probate Clerk George W. Armijo has received three interesting photos from the seat of war in Old Mexico and it would seem that there is real war down in the republic without a doubt. The photos were sent by Mrs. H. Anderson who formerly resided in New Mexico. One is of General Navarro riding on his fiery steed and another is of the insurgents firing across a wall. A third is of some of the insurgents who were killed.

Funeral of Sabina Madrano.—The funeral of Mrs. Sabina Madrano who died of dropsy Saturday at the age of 56 years, took place yesterday from the Church of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The Akers-Wagner Undertaking establishment was in charge of the funeral arrangements. Mrs. Madrano is survived by one daughter.

Three Arrests Yesterday.—There are three men working diligently today cleaning sidewalks because they consumed too much alcoholic beverage yesterday. There were no arrests, however, Christmas day.

Christmas at the Episcopal Church.—The Christmas services in the Church of the Holy Faith, Sunday forenoon, drew a large audience. The musical program was ambitious and was carried out with artistic effect. Rev. J. G. Mythen preached a sermon that touched the hearts of his hearers. The church was strikingly decorated with green garlands while a large, beautifully adorned spruce tree remained from the Sunday school exercises of the afternoon before.

fore. Those exercises greatly pleased the children as well as the grown up folks who attended.

The grand jury returned 38 true bills and 12 no bills.

A Valuable Acquisition.—The Historical Society has just received a valuable acquisition, sent by C. H. Laidlaw of Fairview, Sierra county. It is a remarkable specimen of a stirrup, beautifully carved from hard wood, and entirely different in shape from any in the collection of the Society. It is the form of a Grecian lyre, about eight inches in diameter and is nearly three inches in thickness. It was found in a gulch running into Palomas creek, about five miles below Hermosa.
