Join HSLIC at ICPSR's Data Fair 2018 - "Data: Powered By You." We'll learn about current trends and best practices in data transparency, data activism, what to do with data, and more! October 1-5, entirely virtual and free to all. Learn more.

ICPSR's 2018 Data Fair focuses on the most important variable: you.

Data is in the news at a dizzying rate, reminding us that our choices in collecting and sharing data are of great consequence. Join us for the Data Fair, a series of webinars taking place October 1-5, to learn from thought leaders who will delve into important topics like:

data transparency

data activism

data in the community

what to do with data

and more

Since 2010, the ICPSR Data Fair has provided thousands of participants with world-renowned data training and resources. All for free, all virtual, and all open to the public.
