The room is 60 by 90 feet and will prove of great service to lawyers who wish to consult the books at their disposal.

DROPPED PISTOL IN A BOX

Official Version of an Attempt on the Life of King Alfonso

EXPLOSION AT MALAGA, SPAIN

Mass of People Acclaiming His Majesty Panic Stricken and Stampeded.

Malaga, Spain, Jan. 7.—What is believed to have been an attempt on the life of King Alfonso took place during his brief visit here Thursday. The facts became known today. The king accompanied by Premier Canalejas, General Aznar, minister of war, and Arias Miranda, minister of marine, had arrived here en route for Melilla. At the railway station, his majesty was acclaimed by a great throng which joyously followed the carriage in which the king was driven to the palace of the governor general. Just as the door of the palace swung behind him after he had turned and acknowledged salutes of applause, an explosion in the crowd outside drowned the cheering. Before the alarmed and stampeded mass fully realized just what had happened, the king and his entourage were surrounded by a mob of men who had closed in about the spot from which the report arose. It was found that two persons had been slightly injured but no other damage was done. The official account of the incident says that the king and his entourage were in a box. A civilian dropped a pistol enclosed in a box. No further details were made public. Yesterday the king and party proceeded to Melilla in the royal yacht.

WAGON MOUND, MORA COUNTY, IS DOING WELL.

Five Car Loads of Beans Shipped—Homesteaders Are Sticking to Their Claims.

Stanley A. Foutz, attorney at Wagon Mound, who was in Santa Fe today on land office business, says that Wagon Mound is growing right along and all that it needs is the county seat, which however, Mora is not yet ready to surrender. The homesteaders who have taken up almost every quarter section around Wagon Mound are sticking to their land. Most of them raised good crops last season despite the drought. Only recently, five carloads of beans were shipped from Wagon Mound, several car loads coming to Santa Fe. The beans command five cents a pound f. o. b. at Wagon Mound and the farmers average 800 to 1,200 pounds an acre. The new opera house is almost completed at Wagon Mound, and several other new buildings are going up. The town is growing in population and the amount of business transacted.

FIRE INSURANCE AGENTS FINE FIRE FIGHTERS.

Sellers of Protection Dispensed Some Gratias at High Noon Blaze Today.

The spectacle of fire insurance agents fighting fire was seen at high noon today when the fire alarm turned in by W. H. Goebel brought out scores of people to the rear of the premises owned by the First National bank on the east side of the plaza.

The agents were Carl A. Bishop, of the O. C. Watson & Company, who represents a dozen or more of the leading fire insurance companies, and H. O. Snyder, superintendent of the agents of the Mutual Life Insurance Company. So well did they fight the flames, which started from hot ashes fanned by a south wind that they soon had the blaze under control. The volunteer firemen were prompt in answering the call and were on hand ready to lend assistance. The flames, however, were extinguished before they had a chance to spread from the fence and some debris in the back of the lot.

SIX DEATHS CAUSED BY POISONED BREAD

Grocer Emptied Flour Into What He Thought Was Sugar Barrel But Arsenic Instead.

San Antonio, Texas, Jan. 7.—Six deaths have occurred and many residents of the village of Telfener, Victoria county, are ill as the result of eating poisoned bread. Several days ago, the village grocer poured several sacks of flour into a sugar barrel. One of the first customers was Joe Brown, a negro. After the morning meal, the entire Brown family became ill, two children dying that night. Since then four others died in the town. The analysis showed that the flour contained arsenic. How the poison got into the flour has not been determined.

CARNEGIE TRUST COMPANY CLOSES

Ten Million Dollar Bank in Financial Difficulties

SUFFERED IN PANIC OF 1907

Former Secretary of Treasury Leslie M. Shaw Was President.

New York, Jan. 7.—The Carnegie Trust Company was closed this morning by the state superintendent of banks. It has a capital of $1,500,000 and deposits of $10,000,000. The institution was in serious trouble in the panic of 1907 and has never fully recovered. Its late president, Mr. Dickinson, died last year under peculiar circumstances.

Its Paper Was Good.

Philadelphia, Jan. 7.—Former Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw, who is now a resident of this city, is surprised to learn that the bank of which he was formerly president had closed its doors. He said the trust company's paper was all good when he retired as president and he had inside information that there had not been more than $2,000 loss on paper then held by the bank.

Shaw Retired From Presidency.

New York, Jan. 7.—The institution was re-organized in 1907 and after the retirement of Leslie M. Shaw from the office of secretary of the treasury he became its president. His connection with the bank ceased after a few months however, because of differences with the other officers of the institution.

Liquidation on Stock Exchange

New York, Jan. 7.—The notice of suspension brought a large crowd of depositors around the bank but they quickly melted away after reading the suspension notice on the doors. The suspension caused considerable liquidation on the Stock Exchange, but the decline was not large.

Depositors Will Be Paid in Full.

New York, Jan. 7.—The Carnegie Trust Company, was one of the largest banking institutions in the city but it often had been reported in a shaky condition and the suspension hardly caused a ripple in the financial district. The bankers said that depositors will be paid in full.

CARRYING NEWSPAPERS IN AN AEROPLANE.

Aviator Masson Reported Lost Alighted Twelve Miles From San Bernardino.

Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 7.—Dider Masson, the French aviator who left here this morning in a biplane to carry newspapers to Pomona and San Bernardino, sixty miles from Los Angeles, is lost somewhere in the mountains. He failed to reach Pomona and was seen steering the machine over the San Jose hills, miles out of his course. Hundreds of persons in automobiles are searching for the aviator.

Alighted for Repairs.

San Bernardino, Jan. 7.—A telephone message from Rochester, 12 miles west of here, says that Aviator Masson landed there shortly after 9 o'clock to repair his biplane and renew the oil supply.

CITY ATTORNEY GETS LIST OF ROAD TAX EVADERS.

One or Two Prominent Councilmen Are on List, It is Said. But Matters Not.

Those who have not paid their road tax have a surprise in store for them, but not a very pleasant one as the city attorney has been given their names and there is going to be something doing in court.

Mayor Seligman is determined to collect from every one or from no one and as many have paid their road tax, the others will be allowed to explain in court why they have not "come through."

It is amusing to note that one or two prominent councilmen are represented on the list of non-payers sent to the city attorney so it is said on good authority.

COLORADO STATESMEN INDICTED FOR FELONY

Secretary of State James B. Pearce and Frank Kratke Must Answer Charges.

Denver, Jan. 7.—Secretary of State James B. Pearce who recently was indicted on a misdemeanor charge, and Constable Frank Kratke, were indicted this morning by the grand jury on a charge of felony. Secretary Pearce, recently refused to permit representatives from State Auditor Keneshan's office to examine the secretary's accounts and it is supposed the indictment grew out of this controversy.

"WHO IS LOONEY NOW?" IS SERIOUS QUESTION.

JOHN BULL WILL MEET JONATHAN HALF WAY.

President Taft Revives Project for General Anglo-American Arbitration Treaty.

London, Jan. 7.—The project of reviving negotiations for a general Anglo-American arbitration treaty on the subject of which President Taft is sounding the Senate committee on foreign relations, attracts little interest here. Undoubtedly the British government would meet the United States half way. The general feeling however, is that the Senate may block the plan and English statesmen are not anxious for the repetition of the experience which was had with the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

THE "PARLOR MATCH" IS TO BE PROHIBITED.

Washington, Jan. 7.—The "Parlor" match is to be prohibited in the future if a bill introduced today by Representative Mann of Illinois becomes a law. The bill prohibits the transportation of white or yellow phosphorus matches under the penalty of a fine of $1,000 and imprisonment for three years.

ARTHUR SELIGMAN, T. B. CATRON.

APOSTLE OF A NEW LIFE

Is Hailed Into Court at Chicago on Charge of Disorderliness

A STRANGE RELIGIOUS CULT

Seems to Be the Invention of a Lunatic Asylum and a Brothel.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 7.—Evelyn Arthur See, self declared "Apostle of a New Life" in which all beings will be perfect, appeared in municipal court today to answer charges of disorderly conduct, following a police investigation of his apartments and his "absolute life" colony. Two girls one 19 and the other 17 years old, who admitted in court that they had for months been living with See unchanged also appeared in court on the same charges. Mona Reese, the mother of the girls was destined according to the plans of See, to be the mother of the first "perfect" child, she herself being almost perfect according to the cult of the teachings. The other girl Mildred Bridges was striving to attain that state of purity she declared that would place her on the same plane with the Reese girl. Mrs. Follis Reese, mother of Mona, is also interested in the colony and spent much time teaching its principles. She told the police that she approved her daughter's living with See as all were "perfect" and hence sinless.

Refused Counsel.

See in court, refused the services of an attorney, saying he had the counsel of God and would purify the court room. The hearing was postponed until January 12, and See refused to give bail.

Dr. J. M. Wilson of Wyoming Will Frank R. Gooding of Idaho Was Today Elected President

Portland, Ore., Jan. 7.—The National Wool Growers association will conclude its annual convention today, but before adjournment, the biggest day's work of the four will have to be accomplished. Dr. J. M. Wilson of Wyoming probably will be elected president, and Omaha seems to have the 1912 convention corralled.

Omaha Gets Next Meeting.

Portland, Jan. 7.—The other officers elected are: western vice president, George Austin of Salt Lake; eastern vice president, A. J. Knel-line of Chicago. The secretary and treasurer are to be chosen by the executive committee which includes Arizona, F. W. Perkins; New Mexico, H. F. ATTORNEY GENERAL DEFIES GOVERNOR OF TEXAS.

Austin, Texas, Jan. 7.—Another chapter in the political feud that exists between Governor-elect O. E. Colquitt and Attorney General J. P. Lightfoot developed today in the publication of a second letter which Lightfoot has just written to Colquitt. Lightfoot says in part: "I desire to say respectfully but firmly, that no policy of yours which runs counter to my duty as an officer, or which violates the mandates of the law, or the effect of which is to cripple the usefulness of this department in the enforcement of the law so as to permit special interests to plunder the people, and grabbers rob the school children, or liquor dives and gambling dens to destroy homes, shall be inflicted upon me, either before or after your induction to the office of governor."

WHY NOT MAKE IT UNANIMOUS?

More Than Ninety Per Cent. of Voter Favor Constitution

MANY BIG MEETINGS HELD

Las Vegas, Deming, Raton, Mora This Evening—Santa Fe Monday.

Three big statehood meetings were held last evening one at Las Vegas, another at Deming and a third at Raton. Says the Albuquerque Morning Journal:

It was announced yesterday by the members of the Non-Partisan Statehood League that out of 204 voters canvassed in the Highlands south of Central avenue yesterday, two hundred and eighty-six said they would vote for the constitution and eighteen said they would vote against it.

This is a trifle over ninety-four per cent for statehood and less than six per cent against.

The showing when announced yesterday evening proved surprising even to the most enthusiastic members of the league and has had the effect of injecting considerable more ginger into the already vigorous and enthusiastic campaign to make Albuquerque unanimous for the constitution. It was expected that the opposition in this particular section of the city would be more pronounced than in other localities. Taking as a criterion these 394 voters, one-seventh of the voting population of the city it is already evident that the sentiment for the constitution is overwhelming in this city. It is expected that the canvassers will finish up the work in precinct 26 today or tomorrow and the figures for the whole precinct will be awaited with considerable interest.

The big force of canvassers is doing its work well, carefully and thoroughly and it is declared that the total list of voters will be as nearly an accurate registration roll as it will be possible to secure. The voters are co-operating with the canvassers and in cases where they are not at home, all are leaving their names and sentiments with members of the family to be handed the canvasser. The job is being done in a workmanlike manner and the result of securing a true registration list in itself is a most valuable one.

"Make it unanimous" is already the slogan in this city and it is evident that wherever opposition exists it is going to diminish rapidly before election day. There is enthusiasm in numbers and many when they see the tide going overwhelmingly the other way will right about face before January 21 and cast their votes for statehood, greater Albuquerque and greater New Mexico.

One other interesting feature of the canvass is the discovery that partisan politics plays absolutely no part in the statehood sentiment in this city.

From present indications, Curry county will give a good strong majority for the constitution and early statehood. The few who were loud in their condemnation of the instrument, have largely conceded the county for statehood, and there will be no fight, it is understood now, either for or against the constitution. Democratic circles who were opposed to the constitution principally because of the absence of direct legislation have agreed that the best way to get this, and whatever other modifications or changes might be wanted later, is through amendment to the constitution. "Statehood while we can get it," is a fast growing slogan in this county, regardless of party, and it is not at all unlikely that Curry, the youngest county in the territory, will give a two to one vote for the constitution. All of the three Democratic newspapers in the county are in favor of early statehood through the present constitution, and the Republican organs are all for the constitution as written.

Tonight a big rally will be held at Mora, Monday evening, Santa Fe citizens will demonstrate that they are almost unanimous in favoring the constitution. On Monday too, a campaign party starts for Rio Arriba county. It includes Hon. H. O. Bursum, Hon. Nestor Montoya, District Attorney E. C. Abbott, District Attorney Alexander Read and Attorney Isaac Barth.

WEALTHY WOMAN SUES NINTH HUSBAND FOR DIVORCE.

Separated From Seven Predecessors While the Eighth Committed Suicide.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 7.—Mrs. Ellen Changrow, a wealthy Indian woman of the Umatilla reservation, is suing Nicholas Changrow, her ninth husband for divorce. She is divorced from seven husbands and another committed suicide.

BE ECONOMICAL WITH WATER

Manager Owen Says It Is Up to the Citizens of Santa Fe

SPIGOTS RUNNING AT NIGHT

Public Must Decide to Be More Careful Lest Supply Give Out.

Water is flowing from spigots, 545 in number in Santa Fe today, and Manager Owen of the Santa Fe Water and Light Company thinks that the citizens in the water famine has been proved.

Asked if he would appeal to the citizens of Santa Fe to be more economical with water and especially not to let their spigots run all night, simply as a protection to the pipes, Mr. Owen said:

"You know that it is impossible for us to keep a corps of 25 men running around town from house to house, seeing that the water is turned off at night. You know that if we had such a force, as soon as the inspector left the house, the spigot could be turned on again and as people here pay a flat rate, they feel entitled to use as much water as they please."

"Let it become a matter of pride as well as economy to stop this needless waste at night so that there may be more water to draw from during the day. It is a matter for the citizens to decide for themselves, remembering their past experience of a day or two ago."

"I have been asked many places down town where there is water when there is no water in the city. This was not palpable favoritism but owing to the fact that down town forms a kind of 'pocket' and has to be supplied first the pressure then sending the water to the higher points."

Asked if a special reservoir would not soon be constructed to guard against another famine, Mr. Owen said that it is true that he has made recommendation along this line to the board of directors of his company in New York and he hopes that some plan may be soon put in operation to ensure ample water for this city at any time of the year.

HUMAN RACE IS DEGENERATING RAPIDLY

Indoor Life and Indulgence in Intoxicants Are Said to Be Causes That Lead to Destruction.

Berlin, Jan. 7.—The latest figures gathered by the government show an increasing number of physically "unfit" throughout the empire. The inquiries of the French government show the same situation in Gaul—a growing tendency to physical degeneration. The figures from Italy and also from England point the same way. Alcoholism is blamed for this dying out of the race. Indoor life too, bears part of the blame.

In Italy out of more than 500,000 youths examined in the year, 122,000 were rejected as unfit. In Germany in the twelve months more than 34,000 were rejected as positively below standard, and a very much larger number was "put back" for further development. Two years ago in Italy out of 378,000 young men who became liable to military service only 103,000 were enrolled in the active army. Of these 96,000 were put in the "third category," so that less than 100,000 actually went into training. The figures for Germany tell the same story. The number of young Germans who reached in the year the age for military service was 527,000, of whom only 237,000 were actually enrolled in the army and navy, or less than 45 per cent.

STOMACH DISTRESS, GAS AND DYSPEPSIA WILL GO.

Heartburn, Sourness and Indigestion
Vanish and Your Stomach Feels Fine in Five Minutes.

As there is often some one in your family who suffers an attack of Indigestion or some form of Stomach trouble, why don't you keep some Diapiesin in the house handy?

This harmless blessing will digest anything you can eat without the slightest discomfort, and overcome a sour, gassy Stomach five minutes after.

Tell your pharmacist to let you read the formula, plainly printed on these 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will readily see why it makes Indigestion, Sour Stomach, Heartburn and other distress go in five minutes, and relieves at once such miseries as Belching of Gas, Eructations of sour, undigested food, Nausea,
Headaches, Dizziness, Constipation
and other Stomach disorders.

Some folks have tried so long to find relief from Indigestion and Dyspepsia or an out-of-door stomach with the common, every-day cures advertised that they have about made up their minds that they have something else wrong, or believe there is a case of Nervousness, Gastritis, Catarrh of the Stomach or Cancer.

This, no doubt, is a serious mistake.
Your real trouble is, what you eat does not digest; instead, it ferments and sours, turns to acid, Gas and Stomach poison, which putrefy in the digestive tract and intestines, and, besides, poison the breath with nauseous odors.

A hearty appetite, with thorough digestion, and without the slightest discomfort or misery of the Stomach, is waiting for you as soon as you decide to try Pape's Diapiesin.

THE DAILY ROUND UP.

LOVE.

(By Josephine Foster in Clayton Citizen.)

Love is the lasting memory of life.
Love doth obliterate all remembering
Of lesser things, as hate or bitterness —Before its golden eyes all things are gold.

Under its mystic touch forgot is strife.
Who lives with love at heart, lives unto strength.

Lives beauty, prayer with upward-poising wing
Lives harmony and joy and utterness
Of peace. The wars may clang and stormy seas may roll,

Within love's harbors they shall calm at length.
And love is love, if God, or man, or child

Inspire, what matter, so but Love is king?
A loyal subject gives his master first Homage and praise, and it is given to Love

First place and best—ah, follow then what may Love's power shall still the winds or waters wild.

Have thou no fear but that thou hast
not love;
Pay thou the price for this most priceless gem;

Lay on life's altar worlds and thrones and power—
Or hopes of them—spill life's red current glad

For but one pulsing of Love's tender heart,
Barter it all, if so thou gainest Love.
And if thou gain it not, ah, can I tell
From Love's fair heights how thou below may'st live?

I, who with Love God, man and child have crowned—
I, who have known the every bitterness within life's depths,
Abjure then, gain thou love,
Since none are barred who will to pay the price.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out, and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

STATEHOOD AND SCHOOLS

Apportionment Is Made and Amounts to One Dollar for Each Child.

Gentlemen: I herewith enclose the amount credited to the different school districts in Santa Fe county, from special taxes, liquor licenses, and general apportionment. You will also find the standing and balances up to date.

I hope that you will be careful not to run the school any longer than the amount credited to your districts justifies.

It is now time to be preparing four copies of the list of persons in your district liable to the payment of the ($1.00) one dollar poll tax. These lists must be posted in the most conspicuous places, in the respective districts, on or before the first Monday in February, 1911. Don't fail to do this, as we must endeavor to make a thorough collection during the present year.

On the 12th of February is Lincoln's birthday, and on the 22nd of February is Washington's birthday. Both these days are legal holidays. See to it that they are observed at the school house, as legal holidays. If possible have the proper exercises. Be careful not to issue the Teacher's last warrant for salary, until you are assured that the Teacher's Term Report has been delivered to the county school superintendent. This Manifest an interest in the school affairs of your respective districts, by frequently visiting the school house while the school is in session. Do your utmost to encourage the teachers' work. Upon the interest you take in the welfare of the school, teachers and pupils, depends the success of the same.

All friends of education, and particularly those desiring the betterment of the poorer school districts in the territory, have gotten in line for the constitution, and are working each and the nail for its progress. We are counting on you on the side of hope, progress, and education, and hope that you will help us deliver the goods on January 21, 1911. Don't leave a stone unturned, but try to induce your neighbors and friends to do the right thing at the right time, by casting their votes for statehood, and thus enabling us to acquire sufficient money to run our schools the proper length of time.

We have called a teachers' and directors' meeting to be held in Santa Fe high school, at 2:00 o'clock p. m., Saturday, January 14th, and hope that you will take advantage of the opportunity of becoming better acquainted with your fellow workers in the cause of education. JOHN MANGO IS WANTED AT HOME

Aged Father is Hoping for His Boy—Left Home and Has Not Been Heard From Since.

If there is a boy named Mango in Santa Fe—or anywhere this newspaper reaches—for that matter—and the boy is the son of John Mango, who lives in the town of Emporia, Kan., he had better sit right down and write a letter to his old father, who is grieving for him. Worse, the old man is ill and perhaps has only a few more weeks or months to remain with his friends and neighbors back in the town of Emporia, Kansas.

This information above comes to the editor of the New Mexican from a roundabout way from William Allen White, editor of the Emporia Gazette. White is the man who wrote the editorial, "What's the Matter With Kansas?" No less famous are his "Tales of Boyville."

William Allen White loves boys. His friends say he is a great big overgrown boy himself—a big with the heart and soul of a great man. He is interested in this Kansas boy. He says the father wishes to leave the boy some money, but does not wish to keep his estate unless he knows the son is alive. "It is a sad case of a kid going away and leaving his father and not knowing how much the old man grieves for him and thinks about him," says the creator of delightful "Boyville."

20 YEARS AGO TODAY
From the New Mexican of this date 1890.

Hon. M. S. Otero left for Bernalillo yesterday.

George F. Patrick, a well known Silver City attorney, is on a visit to the capital city.

Chris Sellman, one of Las Vegas's best known citizens, is spending the week in the capital.

Hon. Trinidad Romero, the efficient and popular U. S. marshal, is here attending to his duties as marshal at the supreme court session.

Hon. J. J. Bell of Silver City, who represented the counties of Grant, Sierra, Dona Ana and Lincoln in the 27th legislative assembly, is here on business before the supreme court.

Hon. Frank Springer, one of the most prominent members of the bar of New Mexico, and a highly respected citizen of Las Vegas, is here on legal business.

The election of Judge W. C. Hazeldine as president of the bar association of New Mexico is a proper and well deserved compliment. Judge Hazeldine is in the front rank of his profession; he is an able and honorable man; he is a patriotic and good citizen. Judge Hazeldine and the bar association are to be congratulated upon his selection.

Rev. James Crattan Mythen Tells of Principles of Organization.

(By Rev. James Crattan Mythen.)

John Wainwright says: "Save one man, you save one person; save a boy and you save a whole multiplication table." Theodore Roosevelt says: "If you are going to do anything permanent for the average man, you have got to begin before he is a man. The chance of success lies in working with the boy, not with the man." Bad citizenship is the deathgerm of the nation. That such germs have infected the nation, no sensible man will deny. We are not pessimistic enough to believe that the ravage of the germ has been such that the nation is diseased. However, the political history of the nation for the last twenty years has shown that the influx, through immigration, of men not capable of realizing the American idea of citizenship has had a deteriorating influence that has manifested itself in the political corruption, that all true Americans deplore.

Furthermore, the extravagant way of living of some of our richer citizens has percolated through all classes of society, until today our young men, with few exceptions, find no pleasure in the clean sports that are healthful. Unless there be excitement of the nerves, rather than physical nature, our young man of today doesn't feel that he is having a good time. Drinking and gambling, and betting on sports have taken the place of individual athletics, wherein normal amusement was to be found. The temptations of the city, however small, are great. The young man in business, at work, finds his leisure time a burden unless it be spent in a manner that to the mind of the physician or moralist is deleterious.

It is to find for the young boy growing up to manhood a means whereby a cleaner notion of sport, a more sanitary and wholesome idea of pleasure, that the American Boy Scouts have been organized. "Save the boy and you save the family; save the family and you save the Nation."—This is the principle upon which the scout movement has been founded. To inculcate, if need be, and to foster the chivalric ideal in our young boys, we must bring them together, and manifest to them, that being good means only to be decent and clean. We must help them to find themselves, that the good which is their natural inheritance may not be overcome by the bad, which unfortunately is also their natural inheritance.

We hear too much in these days of the natural resources of the nation. The most precious of the natural resources of the nation is its boyhood, because that is the nation itself. Any movement which aims to make the boy a better boy, a real boy, is a movement whose value cannot be estimated in dollars and cents. Such a movement will not only protect the boy himself, and give him a fair square chance, but will protect our womanhood, will sanctify the family life, will obviate much of the immoral contagion that is manifested by disease, and as a supreme result, will dignify God's greatest gift to man, life, by making it clean. These are deep principles, comprehending the whole philosophy of

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

DEMOCRATIC MUSIC.

The Democratic press of eastern New Mexico is playing a pleasing tune. It is patriotic songs that it is rendering and credit must be given it for the energy and practical unanimity with which it urges the approval of the constitution.

Sings the Democratic Melrose Enterprise, for instance:

"The constitution absolutely guarantees the limit on taxes which will make them lower than today. Why not statehood? We know there are a lot of good things that will come to us when the outside world learns that we are big enough to rule ourselves.

"From the present indications it might be figured that Curry county is going to give a big majority for the constitution. The people are going to forget politics this time and be patriots. It's our country we want to save!

"It should be remembered that we don't care a rap for the politician's wishes in this matter, but that we want that which is best for all the people. We all have to live under the proposed constitution—not just one party."

The Clovis Journal croaks the same tune in Curry county and the Democratic Roswell Daily Democrat declares editorially:

"As the days go by it becomes more and more evident that the constitution will receive a large majority of the votes cast. The people of the territory, irrespective of politics, are determined to have statehood, and they will take the best and quickest way to get it—Vote for it.

"New Mexico has less than ten people to the square mile of area. The way to help to fill out that area with more people is to vote for statehood. The admission of New Mexico as a state in the Union will do more to bring people to New Mexico than anything else that can be named. Our people deserve statehood and now is the time to get it. Vote for the constitution."

The Democratic Otero County Advertiser announces:

"In next week's issue of the Advertiser we will publish a letter from W. K. Stalcup, giving his reasons why he will vote for the adoption of the constitution. Mr. Stalcup is a thinker as well as a politician, and while the constitution does not present a purely political question Mr. Stalcup will vote for the adoption of the document. Mr. Stalcup, as ALL KNOW, is a Democrat, and his letter will be read with interest."

For once, Democracy in New Mexico is singing in tune, and there is not a discordant note of any consequence in the chorus of progress, prosperity and patriotism.

CHIEF JUSTICE POPE AND THE CONSTITUTION.

The Albuquerque Morning Journal, in commenting on Chief Justice W. H. Pope's endorsement of the constitution, says:

"No recent endorsement will strengthen the cause of the constitution more effectively in the quarter where it needs strengthening than the unqualified approval expressed by Judge Pope, than whom none stands higher as private citizen, jurist and lawyer, consistent and unvarying advocate of temperance, and a keen and active thinker on public questions."

Listen to what the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Mexico, Judge W. H. Pope, says:

"The constitution insures us in a reasonable degree the blessings of self government.

"I am especially impressed with the safeguards put about legislation and of the superiority which this state will give us over present conditions."

"It is difficult to conceive of more complete safeguards against oppressive legislation."

"I do not believe that eight trial judges are too many. I can hardly view as serious the claim that the judicial salaries are excessive. It is impossible to more than pay expenses upon the present judicial income."

"I cannot but believe illogical and illadvised the position of those who think the constitution should be rejected because some good things have been omitted. It drops the substance in seeking the shadow."

"I cannot believe that the Anti-Saloon League should by aiding to defeat the constitution, place upon the cause of temperance the partial burden for such a result. We should not refuse to erect the house because we cannot just yet have all the rooms in it we should like to have."

Judge Pope is a strong prohibition advocate. He is learned in the law, knows this constitution and knows New Mexico conditions.

What do you think of his opinion?

The New Mexican Mounted Police are more successful in apprehending robbers than are the authorities of Kansas where thirty bank robberies occurred the last three months and not one of the hold-ups has been arrested. The mounted police have this week put behind the bars three of the most dangerous crooks in the country who have successfully turned many a "trick", but escaped until they ran up against the New Mexican authorities.

THE BOY SCOUTS.

Santa Fe has no Young Men's Christian Association. It is too poor at present to think of erecting a building for such an organization, and even if it had the building, could hardly spare the funds to maintain it. In its place, the American Boy Scouts have organized, and are already doing splendid work. On another page, Rev. James Graham Mythen to whom the local organization owes its existence, tells of the principles that underlie the Boy Scout movement that is spreading like wildfire over Great Britain, Canada and the United States. It seems that soon there will not be a town in the English-speaking world without its Boy Scouts. It is a movement that grips the heart and the imagination, that appeals to boys and their parents, that is filling a distinct need and want. The problem of the boy is the most serious one of the day and whatever helps towards the successful solution of the problem must be welcomed, encouraged and energetically supported. The appeal for the Boy Scouts should not fall on deaf ears and the response should be generous and continuing, for the work if properly prosecuted will accomplish splendid results for the boys of Santa Fe.

ALL WILL BENEFIT.

Pinned down on one proposition after another, the few opponents of statehood, as a last resort, declare that they are against the constitution because under it the territory must assume the railroad bond indebtedness of Santa Fe and Grant counties, and that all taxpayers must contribute toward the relief of those two counties.

In the first place, the constitutional convention had no discretion in the matter of the railroad bond indebtedness of those two counties, for the Enabling Act makes provision for the payment of the debt. Not a cent will be contributed by any taxpayer in New Mexico, not even in Santa Fe or Grant counties. The state is to assume the debt only for the purpose of paying it from proceeds of a million-acre public land donation. These lands even at the minimum price of $3.00 an acre would more than pay three times the debt, thus leaving $2,000,000 at the lowest estimate for the public schools, not only of Santa Fe and Grant counties but of the entire territory. The tax payers of the territory will benefit, instead of lose, therefore, by the arrangement made in the Enabling Act for liquidating that debt, which was imposed unjustly by Congress upon Santa Fe and Grant counties.

Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic governor-elect of New Jersey, who has his lightning rod up for the Presidency, is playing palpably to the galleries when he shouts: "God defend us against compromise! I would rather be a knave than a coward." There are many crimes in the calendar of which the coward is not capable, but pity is the feeling that the strong man has for the coward, while the traitor robber, the murderer, the political highwayman are condemned, not pitied, though they are far from being cowards. As to compromise, politics is a game of compromise almost altogether and no government can exist any length of time without compromise. The admirers of Woodrow Wilson, and he has many among the Republicans, hope that he has been misquoted. The sentiment expressed belittles an ex-President of Princeton University.

Turn out to the non-partisan statehood meeting at the court house on Monday evening. Show your colors! Statehood means the lifting of a million dollar debt from Santa Fe county; statehood will mean renewed activity in Santa Fe county mines, irrigation works, industries, real estate. Statehood means that by 1920, Santa Fe will be a city of more than 10,000 and, perhaps, the metropolis of the new state. Who is there in Santa Fe who can afford to be against the constitution and statehood at this time? It is the psychological moment to give Santa Fe a boost that will lift it out of its rut.

There is a tide in the affairs of men, which taken at the flood, leads on to fortune; Omitted, all the voyage of their life is bound in shallows, and in miseries.

A dispatch from Nashville, Tennessee, says that Miss Lammie Davis, who has been appointed Governor Patterson's secretary, is probably the first woman in the United States to occupy this position. In New Mexico Miss Clara Olsen has held the position of private secretary to the governor for a number of years having served in that capacity, and very efficiently, Governors Otero, Hagerman, Curry and Mills. Preceding her, Miss Nellie Crane served as private secretary to Governor Otero. New Mexico has been setting the pace in more than one direction.

The New Mexican regrets very much that the Pastors and similar plays that date back several hundred years in their beginning are being neglected in Santa Fe. They could be made a great attraction for this city and at the same time an aid to devotion and knowledge. It is from such beginnings that the famous Oberammergau Passion play was fashioned. The rendition of that play this year brought to the villagers of the little German community $406,150, which to them means as much as a million dollars is to an American community.

Eight thousand tailors of Vienna, Austria, have gone on a strike for higher wages. Their wages are $4 to $5 a week, for sixteen to eighteen hours work a day. And yet, there are some people in the United States, and even in New Mexico, who advocate free trade.

WHY IS THE BOY SCOUT?

family, social, and national life. The Boy Scout movement is an emanation of this philosophy. It aims to plant the seed, nurture it, and to cultivate it, that this seed may become a rich harvest of good citizenship.

In Santa Fe, a committee of citizens, comprising: The Governor of New Mexico; Major Pilen, President of the First National Bank; Arthur Seligman, Mayor of Santa Fe; Paul A. F. Walter, Editor of the Santa Fe New Mexican; and the Rev. James Gratnam Mythen, Rector of the Church of the Holy Faith, have organized the American Boy Scouts. This organization aims to care for boys from ten to eighteen years of age. This is the formative period, the most important in the lifetime of a man. If the boys of that age can be carried through clean and honorable, they can face the world ready and able to meet it and conquer it. The Board of Education, of the city of Santa Fe, has set aside two large rooms, of which it has control, which are being fitted up as a Club room and Armory. The women of Santa Fe, in their several organizations have manifested keen interest in the movement. The Woman's Board of Trade, The Women's Guild of the Episcopal Church, and the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church, have each contributed $25.00 towards the furnishing and maintenance of the Scout rooms. That this work may retain a permanent character, and keep alive the interest and loyalty of the boys, there must be given them an adequate reason. If we are to keep the boys from the streets, and other places where undisciplined amusement is to be found, and bring them under trained and authoritative control, we have to make it worth while to them. Some financial support is necessary for this, not much, but some. We therefore appeal to our citizens who have at heart the welfare of the boy (and consequently of the girl) to do all they can to help make this movement a success.

We want to make the Club room attractive, as a Club room should be, and any article of furniture, such as rugs, pictures, chairs, etc. will be thankfully received. The Club at the present time is equipped with reading tables for current magazines, with a fairly good nucleus of a library, and with game tables. Through the kindness of some gentlemen in town, a pool table has been promised so there has been made a good beginning. The ultimate success of this work for our boys will depend upon the public spirit manifested by each and every citizen who feels the responsibility that should be his. Should there be any who have the means to give, Major Pilen, who will act as Treasurer, will be glad to receive any contributions. Some indebtedness has been incurred by the purchase of uniforms, some expense entailed by heating and lighting the rooms, and there are other incidental expenses which naturally accumulate.

The Scouts are being drilled in the manual of arms by Mr. Jack Garrett, whose training was received in the Territorial Military Academy. The boys show great proficiency in so short a time of training, and the effect of the military discipline will prove salutary in the physical bearing of the boy, in his learning to obey promptly and gracefully, and in his deportment towards his elders and superiors. This training alone is well worth whatever we may spend upon it, and when in addition it is the endeavor of the committee to direct and guide the leisure hours of the boy, the hours usually pregnant with much that makes for degeneracy, it would seem that the movement is worthy of generous support.

NATIONAL GUARD ORDERS

General Orders
No. 34.OFFICE OF THE ADJUTANT GENERAL,
Santa Fe, New Mexico,
December 31, 1910.

The following rules governing the management and use of armories are published for the information and guidance of all concerned:

1. Armories are intended primarily for military use. No armory will be used as a skating rink nor for any similar purpose. Armories may be rented for public gatherings or dances or similar purposes which do not injure the building nor interfere with its use by the National Guard. Armories will not be rented on Saturday night nor on company drill nights which are designated as follows:

Santa Fe, Monday ("F") and Wednesday ("E").

Albuquerque, Tuesday.

Las Vegas, Monday.

Las Cruces, Wednesday.

Roswell, Monday.

Silver City, Tuesday.

2. When armories are rented, a rental of not less than $15.00 per night will be charged, except that when entertainments are given by Companies the net proceeds of the entertainment will be turned over to the Treasurer of the Armory Board. When the net proceeds of any Company entertainment are less than $10.00, the deficiency will be paid by the Company giving the entertainment. Entertainments given by Companies will be under the direct supervision of the Company Commander. The Company Commander, or an officer designated by him, will be present at the armory during the entertainment and will see that order is maintained, that heating plant is properly taken care of, lights extinguished, and building securely locked after the entertainment is over.

3. One room in each armory, to be selected by the Company Commander, will be set aside as a store room for company property. The company property, when not in use, will be kept in this room and the room securely locked. Company commanders, being responsible for the company property, shall have exclusive control of the keys to this room. Renting of an armory does not carry a right to use of the property room. One room, to be selected by the Company Commander, will be set aside as a club room for the exclusive use of members of the National Guard. This room may be used as a cloak room on nights when armory is rented. Company Commanders should endeavor to make this room attractive by providing reading material, billiard and pool tables, games, etc. Funds for the support of this room may be raised by the formation of an association as provided in Sections 85 and 86, Chapter 101, Laws of New Mexico, 1905, and charging each member small monthly dues. Only members of the Company who belong to this association will be entitled to the privileges of the club room. Fines collected for non-attendance at drills will be paid into the club fund. This room will be properly lighted and heated and open to members of the association on Saturday nights, drill nights and such other nights as may be agreed upon by Company Commanders and the members of the Armory Board. Every effort should be made by Company Commanders to make the club room attractive to the enlisted men. An attractive club room should bring into the company a desirable class of recruits and make it easy to keep the company recruited to its maximum strength at all times.

4. A janitor will be employed for each armory. It shall be the duty of the janitor:

(a) To see that the armory is properly lighted and heated when it is used.

(b) To keep the building and grounds properly polished at all times.

(c) To report to the Secretary of the Armory Board any repairs needed to building.

(d) To see that armory is kept securely locked when not in use.

(e) To see that armory is not used for unauthorized purposes.

(f) To take up and return to the Secretary of Armory Board any keys to armory in possession of persons not authorized to have the same.

(g) To see that Chapter 145, Laws of New Mexico, 1909, in regard to intoxicating liquors is enforced.

(h) To see that the public property stored in armories is properly taken care of and not removed from building except by proper authority.

(i) To perform such other duties as may be required of him by the Armory Board.

5. Each Armory Board will meet at the armory on the second Tuesday of each month, when the Secretary will furnish the Board an itemized statement showing receipt and disbursement of armory funds during the preceding month. Company Commanders will attend this meeting. The Secretary of each Armory Board will furnish the Adjutant General a copy of the quarterly report to the Auditor. Funds collected for rental of armories will not be used except for payment of light, heat, repair, water and janitor bills of armories without special permission from the Adjutant General. In case the funds collected from rental of an armory in any month are not sufficient for payment of expenses of armory for that month, the bills, for payment of which no funds are available, will be sent to the Adjutant General with a statement showing receipt and disbursement of armory funds for month during which deficiency occurred. An effort should be made to rent armories often enough to pay current expenses. The Secretary of each Armory Board will report to the Adjutant General the rate charged the armory for water and light and salary paid the janitor.

6. Halls rented for the use of the National Guard at stations where there are no armories will be under the exclusive control of Company Commanders. These halls should be rented, when practicable, and the funds used to pay the expenses of the hall other than rent. Rent of these halls will be paid by the state.

7. All arms, clothing and other equipment issued to a company will be kept in the armory at all times, except that clothing may be removed from armory for purpose of being cleaned and pressed upon written permission of the Company Commander.

By command of the Governor:

A. S. BROOKES,
Adjutant General.

Official:

A. S. BROOKES,
Adjutant General.

THE FORUM

young from the demon of drink and its evil train. It is a world-wide curse, and when it has once fastened its fangs in a commonwealth and entwined itself in the political and social body, it is a heartbreaking struggle to loosen it.

Doctors and scientists are even predicting the extinction of the human race in a century through degeneracy. Does it not seem that New Mexico would—above all things else—provide every protection against this destroyer of all that is lovely and noble and true?

It is not hard to believe that the Great Car of the Prince of the Powers of Darkness is hovering low over the world, and the shadows from the bat-like wings of his myriad attendant spirits blot out the sunshine of happiness, charity and love from the land.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS.

Santa Fe People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home. It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills, for Santa Fe kidney sufferers, have made their local reputation. Proof in the testimony of Santa Fe people who have been cured to stay cured.

Pasquale Yanni, College St., Santa Fe, N. M., says: "In 1902 I gave a public testimonial in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills to the effect that they had cured me of a pain in my back, caused by disordered kidneys. My work obliges me to sit down a good deal and this weakened my kidneys, causing backache. While at work I suffered more intensely than at any other time and I was very anxious to find a remedy that would relieve me. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box and, to my delight, they soon fixed me up in good shape. During the past seven years I have had no need of Doan's Kidney Pills or any other kidney medicine."

WILLING TO WAIT.

He was poor, but otherwise honest, and she was an heiress—at least he thought she was. And away he had proposed.

"If I accept your proposal," she said, "how long would you be willing to wait for me?"

"Wait for you?" he echoed in surprise. "Why, what do you mean?"

"It's like this, George," she explained. "Father has invested every dollar he has in a Nevada silver mine, and he is going there next week to look after it. Of course I can't leave mamma alone. That is why I asked how long you would be willing to wait for me."

"Well, under the circumstances," answered the honest youth, "I will wait for you until we learn how the mine pans out."

Nothing Doing.

"Madam," said the kindhearted stranger, "I notice that your shoe is untied. If you will place your foot on this stone step I will be glad to do the tying."

"If you will tell me how I can place one foot on the step without accompanying it with the other I will gladly oblige you," said the lady.

And the philanthropist, looking more closely at the victim's scanty skirt, passed on.

Correctly Informed.

Todgers—Ah, count, let me introduce you to Mr. Saton.

Count—It is a great pleasure for me to meet a musician like you, monsieur. I hear that you and your family play ze music.

Saton—Me? Why, I don't know anything about music.

Count—Non? Zey tell me all round zat you play second fiddle to your wife.

GOT IT BOTH WAYS.

She—I only married you because I pitied you.

He—Well, everybody pities me now.

Provided For.

Some farmers now will settle down as contented winter boarders; for winter brings no fear to those Who took in summer boarders.

Seeing and Feeling.

Bill—Which do you think the most reliable sense, seeing or feeling?

Jill—Why, feeling, of course.

"Why so?"

"Well, when you look at a girl's foot you think it is dainty; when she steps on your toe you change your opinion."

—Yonkers Statesman.

The Advantage.

"I must say," complained the woman tourist, "that I don't understand why people come to this hotel—no scenery, no amusements, no good cuisine, no—"

"Pardon, madam," interrupted the host, "but we have ze gran-label to stick on ze luggage."—Everybody's.

Seeking Advice.

"I want to ask you for a bit of advice," said the insinuating man.

"What is it?"

"I want you to put yourself in my place and me in yours, and tell me how you would go about it if you wanted to borrow $10 from me."

Just Showing Off.

"That was a pretty hard note Mr. Clincher sent you."

"Yes," answered the debonaire debtor. "But he didn't mean most of it. He has just employed a new typewriter. When he dictated that letter he was showing off."—Stray Stories.

His Only Chance.

"If you'd only stop playing bridge for a few moments," whispered the man who was watching the game, "I'd ask you to be my wife."

"Wait until I'm dummy," suggested the fashionable girl.

She Got It.

Angry Old Husband—I won't give you one penny to buy that ridiculous-looking hat.

Cool Young Wife—Quite right. A penny wouldn't buy it. Give me $20.

Natural Reverses.

"The boa constrictor reverses the usual order of embracing, doesn't he?"

"How so?"

"He throws his neck around a man's arms."

Hence the Change.

"Why do you only keep a clerk for two weeks?"

"Well, you see it takes about that long for the girls to find out where a young man is working, and after that they're so busy telephoning him that you can't get any work out of him."

Literally.

"Here is a lot of suggestions from outsiders as to how to run this newspaper. See that they are carried out."

"Yes, sir," said the office boy, and, putting them all in a waste-paper basket, promptly carried them out.—Judge.

GREAT

First Kidnap—Made a rich haul today. I stole the little son of the woman.

Second Kidnap—You'll have to wait till next summer for the ransom.

First Kidnap—I know; but I intended to arrange to take it out in trade.

FROM EGYPT.

Tourist—This is a piece of stone chipped from one of the pyramids.

Jones—Yes, a chip off the old block.

NOT VERY WELL.

Staylright—Isn't it pretty late for you to be out of bed, Bertie?

Bertie—Sure, but as long as you and sis keep sparkin' on that lounge, ma can't get a chance to open it out and make up my bed, can she?

IN THE MUSEUM.

The Circassian Girl—I wonder whether the dwarf would lend me five dollars?

The Tattooed Man—No; I guess he's short.

OF COURSE.

The Giant (in the museum)—Where is "the Human Cannon"?

The Dwarf—The manager fired him!

A Stinging Answer.

New Method Parent—So you believe still in the rod by way of developing children?

Old-fashioned Teacher—I believe it is the natural way to make them smart.

Merely a Suspicion.

"If so many noblemen who come over here are broke, how do they manage to get across the water?"

"Don't know, I'm sure, but I've seen waiters on board trans-Atlantic liners who had quite an air."

MARY AND PANKY.

Mary had a little poodle. Its fleece was white as snow, And Mary took it with her. Most everywhere she'd go.

She carried it to town one day—Alas! poor Panky Poo! Somebody stole that dog away, She never did know who.

But Mary's father chuckled. When he had heard the news, And he found it very difficult, Just then, to have the "blues."

Because, you see, had paid a man To kidnap Panky Poo. She surely had been double-crossed, But Mary never knew.

NOSE WAS FIRST.

She—That nose tells the story.

He—Yeah, dear, but I had a much better one ready to tell you.

Wisdom of Billy.

Soon will the ancient, odorous goat Like for the cellar, dark, remote! There he'll defy the wintry storm, And eat the coal to keep him warm.

Way to Find Him.

"My wife and I are going to spend a few months with her people at Strong's Corners," said the meek little man, "and I want you to mail your paper to me—"

"Yes," said the clerk, "what's your name?"

"Well—er—to make sure, I guess you'd better address it: 'Mary Strong's Husband, Strong's Corners.'"

—Catholic Standard and Times.

A True Friend.

Hostess—I'm so sorry to hear that you and Gladys have quarreled.

Her Dearest Friend—Yes, darling, and it's all about you. She said that you were mean and untruthful; that you flirted outrageously with Jack Rakes; but when she said that you had your clothes made by a small local dressmaker, well! I really couldn't stand that!—Punch.

Troubles of the Newrich.

Mrs. Parvenu—John, that Mrs. Callor who was just here said she'd been having a bad attack of ongwes. What did she mean?

Parvenu—Something catchin', perhaps. Why don't you look it up in the dictionary?

Mrs. P—I did. I went through all the o's but can't find no such word.

Charged With Curiosity.

Mr. Bach—What is the reason you charge twice as much for my cuffs as you did formerly?

Laundress—Because you have begun making pencil notes on them.

Mr. Bach—What difference does that make?

Laundress—The girls waste so much time in trying to make them out.

UNDISMAYED.

The Theorist—Even though you seem successful for a time, you will find some day that you have not a friend left in the world.

The Politician—That's all right. It's a part of my business to see that my friends don't get left.

DANGEROUS DISGUISE.

"So yer put on dat automobile cap an' goggles to make people believe yer were a chauffeur! Did yer get many hand-outs?"

"No, but I got a lot of clubbing from de people dat had been run over by automobiles along de line."

Go To It.

The fly will soon be down and out. For winter quarters bound; But the auto speeder can be swiped. The whole end year around.

THE IRISH OF IT.

O'Rourke (down the well)—Shure, an' throw me down the ind av a rope.

O'Rafferty—There yez are. Can yer reach it?

O'Rourke—Is too short entirely. Pull it up an' throw me down the other ind.

HIGH PRAISE

First Mosquito—I'm going to the Swamphouse hotel; fine house!

Second Mosquito—Yes, indeed; I spent last summer there. Never had better meals in my life.

EVIDENCE OF EXCITEMENT.

Eastern Tourist—This is a pretty live town, isn't it?

The Native—You bet it is. We've got the biggest cemetery in Arizona, an' it's still a-growin'.

HURT MORE THAN FEELINGS

Mrs. Fondmar—When your pa spanked you just now, it hurt him more than it did you, I think.

Bertie—I'm sure it did; I had a shingle stuck in the seat of my pants.

A GROCER THROWN DOWN.

"Don't you believe that these eggs are fresh?"

"I wouldn't believe it on the affidavit of the hen that laid them."

His Weapons.

When Cupid goes a-hunting With a partner he would go; For though he shoots the arrow, 'Tis a girl who draws the bow.

The Laughing Matter.

"It was Dr. Johnson, wasn't it," asked a minstrel man, "who said, 'men always laugh in the same way?'"

"I believe it was," replied the manager of the theater, "and some people seem to think men will always laugh at the same jokes."

Are taking action, quick in results. A special medicine for all kidney and bladder disorders. Mary C. Abbott, Wolfeboro, N. H., says: "I was afflicted with a bad case of rheumatism, due to uric acid that my kidneys failed to clear out of my blood. I was so lame in my feet, joints and back that it was agony for me to step. I used Foley Kidney Pills for three days when I was able to get up and move about and the pains were all gone. This great change in condition I owe to Foley Kidney Pills and recommend them to anyone suffering as I have."

Might Not Be Alive

McMinnville, Tenn.—Mrs. Ocie Jett, of this place, writes: "I don't believe I would be living today, if it hadn't been for Cardui. I lay in bed for 27 days, and the doctor came every day, but it did me no good. Finally, he advised an operation, but I would not consent, and instead took Cardui. Now I am going about the house, doing my work, and even do my washing. Cardui worked wonders in my case. I am in better health than for five years." Cardui is a strengthening tonic for women. It relieves pain, tones up the nerves, builds strength. Try it. At your druggist's.

TOLSTOY'S POSTHUMOUS NOVEL TO BE PRINTED.

Powerful and Gruesome Literary Work That Is Left as a Testament to His Admirers.

London, Jan. 7.—Tolstoy wrote his last novel under a pressure that may have been a potent factor in his death. The manuscript was found among his papers after his demise. The public is anticipating its publication which is promised as soon as his executors can arrange for it.

The title is "Father Sergius." According to a Russian correspondent the novel is in Tolstoy's best manner and has a young guardsman moving in the highest St. Petersburg society as its hero. He falls in love with and is accepted by a brilliant society girl.

Soon after marriage he is dismayed and disgusted to find that she is the mistress of a certain high-born official of the Russian government. Such is the shock that he forsakes the world, and entering a monastery, assumes the name of Father Sergius. Slowly the bruised heart of the novice recovers sympathy with all creatures, and wonderful things about the spirit of man, aspiring, are then told by the famous Russian author, who gets to the quick of intimate experience.

Becomes Famed Hermit.

Father Sergius tries to identify himself with the soul of the universe, and in pursuit of perfection, quits the monastery for a lonely hermitage. There he indulges in self-mortifications, practicing all the severe rites known to the anchorites of old, till the fame of his holy life goes abroad far and wide.

The second part of the novel deals with the age-long struggle between the flesh and the spirit, out of which most of the world's tragedy has sprung, and it might well be entitled the Temptation of Father Sergius.

A blithe and pretty woman, sceptical of the hermit's invulnerability to passion, gets access to his sylvan cell, and in a scene of indelible art, makes the hermit's pulse clang in a very human fashion. Fearing lest passion should possess him, Father Sergius seizes a hatchet, and chops off a finger.

Meanwhile, his fame as a healer of the sick and the possessor of miraculous faculties has spread over a wider area, and sick and suffering are sent to his cell to receive his wonderful ministrations.

Receives Girl in Cell.

Among other pilgrims, a merchant brings his daughter, an attractive young girl, for whom the anchorite promises to pray night and day. The merchant retires, leaving the girl alone in the cell. Soon after he has gone, a terrible struggle ensues in the heart of the monk between promptings of the flesh and spirit, which culminate in the victory of the former.

When Sergius comes to himself he is a brutal criminal. Horrified at what he has done, Sergius cleaves the skull of the wronged maiden with the hatchet with which he had formerly chopped off his finger and conquered temptation. The last scene is as awful as the demented wanderings of King Lear, showing as it does the long-bearded monk, with his hair floating in the wind, walking aimlessly eastward, with a pilgrim's staff in his hand.
