DEMOCRATS MEET AND SELECT DELEGATES FOR COUNTY CONVENTION

Preparations for the democratic county convention which S. D. Stennis, Jr., chairman of the democratic central committee of Eddy county, called last week to be held tomorrow, August 14th, at two o'clock in the Court House at Carlsbad, was begun Wednesday at eight p. m. when a small but highly enthusiastic crowd of faithful democrats met at the court house to select delegates from precinct No. 1 to be present at the county convention.

On account of the rainy weather a lot were not present who otherwise would have come out, and the call was issued for the meeting that morning which fact was not known to many. However, a harmonious meeting was held and the list of eighteen delegates were selected which were as follows:

S. D. Stennis, Jr.
Fred E. Wilson.
S. L. Perry.
J. M. Dillard.
John N. Hewitt.
Roman Oshemus.
Geo. M. Cooke.
Jim Baker.
F. H. Richards.
Guy A. Reed.
Robt. C. Dow.
D. G. Grantham.
J. H. McGhee.
Mrs. Marvin Livingston.
Mrs. Harry I. Braden.
Miss Grace Cooke.
Mrs. Geo. W. Batton.
Mrs. C. D. Rickman.
Miss Willie Lovett.

The meeting was called to order by Dover Phillips, who stated its object and entertained a motion for permanent chairman. Fred E. Wilson was nominated and elected chairman and S. L. Perry secretary of the meeting.

The motion was made that all members present constitute delegates to the county convention and that the chair appoint four additional delegates to complete the eighteen required. Motion withdrawn after short discussion.

Then it was moved by Judge Richards that the chair appoint a committee of five to name delegates to the county convention and that six be ladies. Motion carried and the chair appointed the following on the committee:

F. H. Richards.
J. H. McGhee.
Guy A. Reed.
Robt. C. Dow.
D. G. Grantham.

This committee's report was adopted and contained the names as given above.

Moved by Judge Richards that those present at the county convention vote as a delegation unit. Motion carried.

Robt. C. Dow then caused laughter by moving that if Joe Bailey of Texas was voted on the delegation was instructed to not vote as a unit.

Adjournment was then taken.

Conductor Kinney Reed returned this week from San Antonio, Texas, where he had been for some time with Mrs. Reed, who has been ill there. Their friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. Reed is recovering, and prospects are excellent for her return to Carlsbad in a month or so. Her sister is with her, and the boy, Loren, is doing fine.

The Hotchkiss family, from Toyah, Texas, were visitors to Carlsbad and vicinity last week, coming to transact business and at the same time visit with old friends. The family spent most of the time at the Fisher home. The town, where elaborate preparations were made for their reception, the Fisher family and the Hotchkiss family being friends of long standing.

HAY TRADE CONDITIONS OF THE WEEK.

Western markets are showing some strength this week, due to small receipts. Trade, however, is slack, both East and West, and market conditions are governed by railroad deliveries. Consumption is at its lowest point at this season and in the East there is enough hay running and on hand at market points to keep the demand satisfied for several weeks more. New invoices are small, however, and stocks are working down. Reports to the Journal this week indicate a crop of good quality but with production below last year. The crop east of the Mississippi river is far from normal to 25 per cent short, according to location, but the West has a large crop this year and the mid-western markets are preparing for a big business.—Hay Trade Journal.

PICNIC ON ROCKY.

The home of Bill Jones, on Rocky Arroyo, was the scene of a very happy gathering last Sunday, that being the birthday of Mrs. Jones, and the friends from far and near congregated to do her honor.

A real dinner was spread picnic style in the shade of the fine old trees at the home and all enjoyed the barbecued beef and other good things provided so lavishly for their pleasure.

A sister of Mrs. Jones, Mrs. M. Beedingfield, of near Chickasha, Oklahoma, arrived Saturday, which was an added pleasure and a large number of relatives from different parts of the county were present, the following from Carlsbad:

Judge D. G. Grantham and family, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Woods, Leonard Jones and wife, John Hays and wife and his parents Mr. and Mrs. Hays, Hardin Clark and family, Carl Herring and wife, Mrs. Annie Moore and Willis, Sam B. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bulman and others.

In all, between seventy-five and a hundred persons were present, and all, and a host of others, unite in wishing for Mrs. Jones many more happy birthdays and a host of friends to cherish her throughout her life.

The success of the occasion is largely due to Mrs. Minnie Kilgore whose executive ability was largely responsible for everything moving off so nicely.

MARRIED.

Wednesday at the court house by Judge Richardson, Lee Magby and Miss Pearl Wallace were united in marriage.

The young people will reside in Dog Canyon, where the bridegroom has lived for a number of years.

The bride, who is an orphan, has made her home with the family of Wash Simpson for some time and is spoken of by all who know her as a good, industrious girl, having many of the characteristics that go to make the successful wife, and her friends here are extending best wishes for her happiness.

Lee Magby is well known to all the residents of the Queen country and is said to be a good industrious young man.

The Current extends congratulations and best wishes.

Mrs. A. A. Hatcher, who, with her twelve-year-old daughter, Jessie, are in the city from Oklahoma for climatic benefit, was taken to Eddy County Hospital for an operation Tuesday of this week. The operation was successfully performed and prospects for her recovery are excellent. Prior to the operation she was cared for entirely by the little daughter who had charge of the cottage and took the entire care of her sick mother. Where is another girl who could assume responsibilities like hers?

Rev. T. C. Mahan will leave tonight for a stay of about ten days in the country near Clovis, where he goes to conduct a meeting. This is the minister's first absence from his pulpit over Sunday since coming to Carlsbad.

RED CROSS MEETING.

The executive committee of the Red Cross met at the Thorne furniture store Monday morning, with Miss Tupper, a Red Cross representative, and worker of the State Health Department, to discuss raising funds to put in a health nurse for Carlsbad and this community.

At the meeting the school board was represented by Dr. L. H. Pate, Professor Donley and Supt. Brington, and the county by L. A. Swigart.

After full discussion it was decided that the Red Cross would undertake to raise $2300 with help from the school board and the city of Carlsbad to help employ a nurse for the next year.

This work is one in which every thinking person in Carlsbad and vicinity will be interested and a full cooperation of all the churches and other like organizations is expected.

Should an epidemic again visit this community the value of a public health nurse would be demonstrated, but not only in that event would her services be valuable. The competent visiting nurse will be of great assistance in looking after the physical needs of the pupils in our public schools, and in many places the school boards have engaged such persons for the purpose.

The meeting Monday was very enthusiastic, and while nothing of a definite nature was accomplished, the work was started, and at a later meeting the matter will be taken up systematically and pushed to completion. Much publicity will be required and a drive for funds will be made in November.

SCHOOL NOTES

Carlsbad schools will open September 6th. Some work has been done on each building during the vacation period and everything will be in order for the opening at that time.

The faculty of the High School is complete with the exception of teachers for the Manual Training and Domestic Science departments, which have not been selected, but applications for these positions have been received and are under consideration by the school board.

The faculty of the High School as far as elected at this time consists of Miss Bess Cahney, principal; Miss Van Wic, Miss Harvey, Miss Trainer, Miss Stagner, Miss Graham, Miss Gouens; Mr. Wallace, teacher of 8th Grade and of High School Athletics. Professor Wallace is a graduate of Pomona College, California, and was first lieutenant in the army, and the school was able to secure his service because of business interests near by.

At the Spanish-American school, Mrs. Sellards is principal; Miss Rubena Sumnerfield and Miss Ruth Duncan, assistant teachers.

Teachers for the Grammar school are as follows:

Mrs. A. A. Kaiser, principal; Mrs. Dillard, Mrs. Rodgers, Miss Pattie Witt, Miss Rhoda Harvey, (sister of Miss Lella Harvey of the High School faculty), Miss Lurline Mahan, (daughter of Reverend Mahan of this city), Miss Zada Mudgett, Miss Francis Wright (of Wisconsin, primary teacher), Miss Elizabeth Smith, teacher of music.

A request is made that all persons who desire to rent rooms to teachers telephone to Superintendent Donley at as early a date as possible. In the present housing conditions teachers may have some trouble in finding rooms and board, and patrons of the school and citizens should do their best to assist in procuring suitable accommodations for them. A number of the teachers will have to board and room this winter, and our people should, and doubtless will see that they are provided for.

Arthur Hoose will leave Sunday or Monday for Roswell where he will begin work in the wholesale store of Joyce-Fruit Company. The family will not leave at present, but will remain here until arrangements can be made for their housing, conditions in Roswell being about as they are here in regard to securing a house. Arthur is leaving Carlsbad with the best wishes of all with whom he has been associated as boy and man, and all join in wishing him success and prosperity in his new venture.

ROSWELL 2, CARLSBAD 1.

Carlsbad played another tight, extra inning base ball game at Roswell against that hard hitting bunch of players, which has been an outstanding feature in baseball this season. After Pitcher Brown for the locals had battled for thirteen long innings handily at the last by a bruised right hand, the Roswell players managed to get a run across home plate on two errors; one wild throw by Brown and one by Williams. In the first innings Carlsbad pulled out of tight holes by the excellent pitching of Brown and the faultless playing of his teammates. Carlsbad made its run in the fourth inning when R. Etz hit a fast line ball into left center which Jones was unable to field, allowing Etz to reach third base, who scored on Jerrell's timely single. Roswell evened up the score in the eighth when Cady got base on balls, Talbot hit to shortstop Williams who threw to second trying to make double play, retiring Cady and allowing Talbot to reach first. Talbot stole second and took third on second baseman Etz's error and reached home on Cavanaugh's sacrifice hit.

Both Brown and Oberlein pitched in fine form as only eleven hits were made out of 90 times at bat.

Monty was again on first base and played a mighty good game, making catches that were of the sensational type. Williams played well at short and Gerrells did some timely batting. A large crowd witnessed the game and quite a few fans from Carlsbad were present.

Friday, Saturday and Sunday Roswell will be here for three games and Wednesday and Thursday the locals will play here with Artesia.

W. C. T. U.

The regular monthly meeting of the local W. C. T. U. was held at the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon and a goodly number attended and manifested their interest in the work of the Union.

The president, Mrs. Mercer, presided and roll call was responded to by quotations from current topics of the day and scripture quotations.

After business matters had been discussed and plans laid for future work an election of officers for the ensuing year was held and resulted as follows:

President—Mrs. J. F. Bush.
Secretary—Mrs. F. E. Little.
Treasurer—Mrs. Oscar Mercer.
Delegate to the State Convention—Mrs. Oscar Mercer.

The Carlsbad Union has the honor of being the largest in the state and has nearly sixty paid up members.

They raised during the past year over a hundred dollars for the Frances Willard Home at Belen and have successfully conducted a mission among the Spanish-American children, and are among the most progressive of our women.

A large donation of supplies for the Girls Home have been received and will be sent there in time for the opening of that institution which occurs late in September.

The superintendents of the various departments will be appointed by the president and announced at next meeting.

A very beautiful attention to sick people was put in motion recently when a group of young girls, in charge of Reverend Sellards, visited the cottages in the western part of town and sang Sunday School songs for all who were able to hear. The sweet voices of the girls in such songs as "Shall We Gather at the River" and the "Sweet By and By" and others of a similar nature, would make any one—sick or well—feel more cheerful.

During the Carnival the Picture Show will begin each evening at 7:45.

PEACE KEYNOTE OF COX SPEECH OF ACCEPTANCE

Democratic Candidate Would Enter League, Immediately Ratify Treaty and State Interpretation of Covenant.

SAYS "BACK TO THE NORMAL" MEANS REACTION

Failure to Enforce Prohibition is Worse Than Law's Violation—Declares Present Congress Has Not Passed a Single Constructive Law, but Has Spent Time and Millions in Seeking to Make America's Military Triumph an Odious Chapter in History—Favors Repeal of War Taxes, Criminal Prosecution of Profiteers, More Adequate Supervision of Railroads, a National Budget System, and Woman Suffrage.

Here is a summary of the speech of Governor James M. Cox, Democratic candidate for president, at the notification ceremonies at Dayton:

League of Nations.—Would enter the league, immediately ratify the treaty and state our interpretation of the covenant in reservations as a matter of good faith and as a matter of precaution against any misunderstanding in the future. The interpretation to clearly show that the league is not an alliance and that its basic purpose is peace and not controversy.

Domestic Problems.—Would repeal war taxes; reduce federal taxation; suggests, in place of excess profits tax, substitution of volume of business tax.

Proteffing.—Promises penalization under the criminal law.

Labor.—Stimulate Americanization. Writ of injunction should not be abused. No necessity now for the drastic laws of war days; guarantee of free speech; recognition of the rights of the principle of collective bargaining. Child life of the nation should be conserved.

Agriculture.—Federal government should sponsor agriculture and food production. Farmer should be amply compensated for his work. Favors municipal markets. Regulation of cold storage. Would increase area of tillable land.

National Prosperity.—Objective should be decreased tenancy and stimulation of home ownership.

Food Supply.—More adequate supervision of railroads; utilization of waterways.

Financial and Commercial.—Extols federal reserve act and merchant marine. Would extend facilities for exchange and credit and stimulate foreign trade.

National Budget.—Favors a national budget system. Would reduce armament expenditures on entering league of nations.

Republican Ungenerosity.—Republicans failed to recognize that America had saved the world or to appreciate the struggles and sacrifices of those who, in arms or industry, helped win the war.

Present Congress has not passed a single constructive law, but spent time and millions in seeking to make military triumph an odious chapter in history.

Mexican Situation.—We have neither lust for their domain nor disposition to disturb their rights.

Disabled Soldiers.—Pledges immediate efforts to provide vocational training and favors employment of disabled soldiers of World War by Federal Board to supervise the rehabilitation of disabled soldiers.

Prohibition.—Any candidate for the presidency who says he does not intend to enforce the law is more unworthy than the law violator.

Woman Suffrage.—Strongly favored.

Official Responsibility.—Opposed to "government by party;" pledges service to the people as a whole.

Education.—Federal government should not encroach on local control, but rather should create an enlarged public interest.

Campaign Contributions.—No narrow divide line between the legitimate and the illegitimate, underlying purpose only determining.

Industrial Peace.—We want a change from the world of yesterday, from the old industrial world. We are at the "forks of the road." So-called "return to the normal" means "reactionism."

Dayton, O., Aug. 7.—In his speech of acceptance today Governor James M. Cox, addressing a great crowd, said in part:

"We are in a time which calls for straight thinking, straight talking and straight acting. This is no time for wobbling. Never in all our history has more been done for government. Never was sacrifice more sublime. The most precious things of heart and home were given up in a spirit which guarantees the perpetuity of our institutions—if the faith is kept with those who served and suffered.

"The country received with interest, to say the least, the announcement from Chicago, where the Republican national convention was assembled, that a platform plank, dealing with the subject of world peace, had been drawn, leaving out the Lodge reservations, and yet remaining agreeable to all interests, meaning thereby the Lodge reservationists, the mild reservationists and the group of Republican senators that openly opposed the League of Nations in any form.

"As the platform made no definite commitment of policy and was, in fact, so artfully phrased as to make almost any deduction possible, it passed through the convention with practical unanimity. Senator Johnson, however, whose position has been consistent and whose opposition to the league in any shape is well known, withheld his support of the convention's choice until the candidate had stated the meaning of the platform, and announced definitely the policy that would be his, if elected.

"Senator Harding makes this new pledge of policy in behalf of his party: 'I promise you formal and effective peace so quickly as a Republican congress can pass its declaration for a Republican executive to sign.'

"This means but one thing—a separate peace with Germany!

"No less an authority than Senator Lodge said, before the heat of recent controversy, that to make peace except in company with the Allies would 'brand us everlastingly with dishonor and bring ruin to us.'

"And then after peace is made with Germany, Senator Harding would, he says, 'hopelessly approach the nations of Europe and of the earth, proposing that understanding which makes us a willing participant in the consecration of nations to a new relationship.'

"In short, America, refusing to enter the League of Nations (now already established by twenty-nine nations) and bearing and deserving the contempt of the world, would submit an entirely new project. This act would either be regarded as arrant madness or attempted international bolshevism.

"These are fateful times. Organized government has a definite duty all over the world. The house of civilization is to be put in order. The supreme issue of the century is before us and the nation that halts and delays is playing with fire. The finest impulses of humanity, rising above national lines, merely seek to make another horrible war impossible. Under the old order of international anarchy war came overnight, and the world was on fire before we knew it. It sickens our senses to think of another.

Ratification First Duty.

"The first duty of the new administration clearly will be the ratification of the treaty. The matter should be approached without thought of the bitterness of the past. The public verdict will have been rendered, and I am confident that the friends of world peace as it will be promoted by the league will have in numbers the constitutional requisite to favorable senatorial action. The cautious may say that our platform reference to reservations is vague and indefinite. Its meaning, in brief, is that we shall state our interpretation of the covenant as a matter of good faith to our associates and as a precaution against any misunderstanding in the future. The point is that after the people shall have spoken the league will be in the hands of its friends in the senate, and a safe index as to what they will do is supplied by what reservations they have proposed in the past. Some months ago, in a contributed article to the New York Times, I expressed my own opinion of the situation as it then was. I reproduce it here:

"There can be no doubt but that some senators have been conscientious in their desire to clarify the provisions of the treaty. Two things apparently have disturbed them: First, they wanted to make sure that the league was not to be an alliance, and that its basic purpose was peace and not controversy. Second, they wanted the other powers signing the instrument to understand our constitutional limitations beyond which the treaty-making power cannot go. Dealing with these two questions in order, it has always seemed to me that the interpretation of the function of the league might have been stated in these words:

"In giving its assent to this treaty, the senate has in mind the fact that the League of Nations which it embodies was devised for the sole purpose of maintaining peace and comity among the nations of the earth and preventing the recurrence of such destructive conflicts as that through which the world has just passed. The co-operation of the United States with the League and its continuance as a member thereof, will naturally depend upon the adherence of the League to that fundamental purpose."

"Such a declaration would at least express the view of the United States and justify the course which our nation would unquestionably follow if the basic purpose of the League were at any time disturbed. It would also appear to be a simpler matter to provide against any misunderstanding in the future and at the same time to meet the objections of those who believe that we might be inviting a controversy over our constitutional rights, by making a senatorial addition in words something like these:

"It will of course be understood that in carrying out the purpose of the League, the government of the United States must at all times act in strict harmony with the terms and intent of the United States Constitution which cannot in any way be altered by the treaty-making power."

Helpful Additions Not Barred:

"Unquestioned friends of the League have made other proposals. Our platform clearly lays no bar against any additions that will be helpful, but it speaks in a firm resolution to stand against anything that disturbs the vital principle. We hear it said that interpretations are unnecessary. That may be true, but they will at least be reassuring to many of our citizens, who feel that, in signing the treaty, there should be no mental reservations that are not expressed in plain words, as a matter of good faith to our associates. Such interpretations possess the further virtue of supplying a base upon which agreement can be reached, and agreement, without injury to the covenant, is now of pressing importance. It was the desire to get things started, that prompted some members of the senate to vote for the Lodge reservations. Those who conscientiously voted for them in the final roll call realized, however, that they acted under duress, in that a politically bigoted minority was exercising the arbitrary power of its position to enforce drastic conditions. Happily the voters of the republic, under our system of government, can remedy that situation, and I have the faith that they will, at the election this fall. Then organized government will be enabled to combine impulses and facilities in the making of better world conditions. The agencies of exchange will automatically adjust themselves to the opportunities of commercial freedom. New life and renewed hope will take hold of every nation. Mankind will press a resolute shoulder to the task of readjustment, and a new era will have dawned upon the earth.

Federal Taxation.

"Federal taxation must be heavily reduced, and it will be done at once, if a Democratic administration is chosen in November. Without hampering essential national administrative departments, by the elimination of all others and strict economy everywhere, national taxes can be reduced in excess of two billion dollars yearly. Annoying consumption taxes, once willingly borne, now unjustified, should be repealed. The incomes from war-made fortunes, those of non-producers and those derived from industries that exist by unfair privilege may be able to carry their present load, but taxes on the earnings of the wage-earner, of the salaried and professional man, of the agricultural producer and of the small tradesman should be sharply modified. I believe that a better form of taxation than the so-called excess profits tax may be found and I suggest a small tax, probably one to one and one-half per cent on the total business of every going concern. It is to be understood that the term 'business' as used does not include income received by wage-earners, salaried men, agriculturists and the small business man who should be exempt from this tax. The profiteer and some of the highly capitalized units have used the excess profits tax as a favorite excuse for loading on the consumer by means of highly inflated selling prices many times the amount actually paid the government. A necessary condition to the national contentment and sound business is a just proportion between fair profits to business and fair prices to the consumer.

Would Halt Profiteering.

"The tribe of profiteers has simply multiplied under the favoring circumstances of war. For years, large contributions have been made to the Republican campaign fund for no purpose except to buy a governmental underhold and to make illegal profits as the result of preference. Such largesses are today a greater menace to our contentment and our institutions than the countless temporary profiteers who are making a mockery of honest business, but who can live and fatten only in time of disturbed prices. If I am called to service as president means will be found, if they do not already exist, for compelling these exceptions to the great mass of square dealing American business men, to use the same yardstick of honesty that governs most of us in our dealings with our fellowmen, or in language that they may understand, to suffer the penalty of criminal law.

"It has been my observation that the man who learns our language, yields to a controlling public opinion and respects our laws; besides, in proportion as his devotion to American life develops his interest in the impulsive processes of revolution diminishes. We must be patient in the work of assimilation and studiously avoid oppressive measures in the face of mere evidence of misunderstanding. The necessity for the drastic laws of war days is not present now, and we should return at the earliest opportunity, to the statutory provisions passed in time of peace for the general welfare. There is no condition now that warrants any infringement on the right of free speech and assembly nor on the liberty of the press. The greatest measure of individual freedom consistent with the safety of our institutions should be given. Excessive regulation causes manifestations that compel restraint.

Law Enforcement.

"The legislative branch of government is subjected to the rule of the majority. The public official who fails to enforce the law, is an enemy both to the Constitution and to the American principle of majority rule. It would seem quite unnecessary for any candidate for the Presidency to say that he does not intend to violate his oath of office. Anyone who is false to that oath is more unworthy than the law violator himself.

"Morals cannot easily be produced by statute. The writ of injunction should not be abused. Intended as a

When you were a youngster, did you ever make a trade, "sight unseen"? Of course you did. What boy has not risked his jackknife or his choicest marble on such a proposition and how often has he repeated of his rash deed when he discovered what he got in the trade? He generally found that the deal turned out to the advantage of the one who made the proposition.

There is a little of the gambling instinct in the blood of nearly every man, woman and child, but even the hardened gambler likes to get a "run for his money." The "sight unseen" proposition doesn't appeal to him in the least. There are thousands of people, however, who would be properly indignant if they were accused of being gamblers, who every day take a chance on the greatest gambling game in the world. And worse than that, they are risking their money on a "sight unseen" proposition.

When one of the thousands of persons who build up and keep up the great mail order houses of the country sends his money away to pay for some article that he has selected from the mail order catalogue, he is taking a chance on getting what he expects to get. The mail order house may be perfectly honest and still the purchaser stands a good chance of not getting what he expects to get. The mail order catalogues are filled with pictures that catch the eye. The descriptions are brief, as they must be when thousands of articles are to be described within the confines of one book. No matter how hard the mail order house might try to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, it would be an impossibility. The buyer is simply taking a chance.

Buying "Sight Unseen."

How much more satisfactory it is to walk into a store in your home town and ask to see an article which you may have seen advertised in your home paper. What would anyone think of your business ability or your common sense if you walked into a store at home and said: "I saw a picture in the paper today of a suit which I liked very much. Please wrap up one for me. Here's the money." The merchant would think that you were crazy, but that is exactly what you do every time you send an order to a mail order house. You buy "sight unseen" and you haven't a ghost of a chance of getting your money back if the article is unsatisfactory when it reaches you.

How different is the proceeding when you go into the store in your own home town to buy a suit of clothes, or a stove or a yard of ribbon. You may have seen a picture of it in the merchant's advertisement in the home paper and you know that, as the merchant is reliable, you can count on the goods being as he represents them in his advertisement. But does he ask you to take his word for everything? Does he hide the article behind the counter and tell you that you can't even see it until you buy it and pay over the money for it? Hardly. If the article is not already in plain sight on the counter, the merchant produces it for your inspection. If it does not exactly suit you, he has others that are a little different and that he is glad to have you inspect.

Get Merchant's Guarantee.

Then, if it is a suit of clothes you are buying, or a piece of dress goods or a pair of socks, you may ask if the merchant will guarantee that it will wear as long as an article of that kind could be expected to wear and he will tell you either that he will guarantee it or that he will not. If he tells you that he will guarantee it you will know that you will get your money back or another suit or another pair of socks in its place if it doesn't wear like it should, for the merchant, besides being an honest man in most cases, cannot afford not to make his word good. He is dependent upon your business and that of others in his own community and he cannot afford to misrepresent his goods.

After having all this opportunity to see what you are buying, you take your suit or your stove or whatever it is you buy home or it is sent home for you without any delivery charges, and after you get home and take another look at it and decide you don't want it after all, you send it back.

You are not buying something "sight unseen" when you buy from your home merchant. You don't look at a picture of an article in a newspaper, read a short description of it, go to the post office and buy a money order and send it to the merchant with the instructions, "Send me a suit of clothes"—a stove or whatever it may be—and I'll pay your delivery man 50 cents for delivering it to me."

There's a world of difference in the two methods of doing business and its not hard to figure out which is the best for the man who is doing the buying.

safeguard to person and property, it could easily by abuse cease to be the protective device it was intended to be.

"We should not, by law, abridge a man's right either to labor or to quit his employment. However, neither labor nor capital should at any time or in any circumstances, take action that would put in jeopardy the public welfare.

"We need a definite and precise statement of policy as to what business men and workmen may do and may not do by way of combination and collective action. The law is now so nebulous that it almost turns upon the economic predilections of the judge or jury. This does not make for confidence in the courts nor respect for the laws, nor for a healthy activity in production and distribution. There surely will be found ways by which co-operation may be encouraged without the destruction of enterprise. The rules of business should be made more certain so that on a stable basis men may move with confidence.

"Government, however, should provide the means in the treatment of its employees, to keep in touch with conditions and to rectify wrong. It is needless to say that in order to be consistent, facts should at all times justify the pre-supposition that the government employees are properly compensated.

"The child life of the nation should be conserved; if labor in immature years is permitted by one generation, it is practicing unfairness to the next.

Adequate Farm Profits.

"Farming will not inspire individual effort unless profits, all things considered, are equal to those in other activities. An additional check to depleted ranks in the fields would be the establishment of modern state rural school codes. The federal government should maintain active sponsorship of this. Rural parents would be lacking in the element which makes civilization enduring if they did not desire for their children educational opportunities comparable to those in the cities.

The price the consumer pays for foodstuffs is no indication of what the producer receives. There are too many turnovers between the two. The farmer raises his crop and the price which he receives is determined by supply and demand. His products in beef and pork and produce, pass into cold storage and ordinarily when they reach the consumer the law of supply and demand does not obtain. The preservation of foodstuffs by cold storage is a boon to humanity, and it should be encouraged. However, the time has come for its vigilant regulation and inasmuch as it becomes a part of interstate commerce, the responsibility is with the federal government. Supplies are gathered in from the farm in times of plenty. They can easily be fed out to the consumer in such manner as to keep the demand in excess of that part of the supply which is released from storage. This is an unfair practice and should be stopped. Besides, there should be a time limit beyond which perishable foodstuffs should not be stored.

"Our objective should be a decreased tenantry. With the period of occupancy uncertain, the renter strips land of its fertile elements, and each year diminishes our national assets. Under the operation of the federal reserve and the farm loan acts, encouragement has come to thousands who find that industry, character and intelligence are a golden security to the people's banker, the government of the United States. Multiply our home owners, and you will make the way of the seditious agitator more difficult.

Railroads and Waterways.

"Any discussion of the question of food supply leads very quickly to the closely related matter of transportation. There is no one thing which brings us so intermittently to critical conditions than the insufficiency of our transportation facilities. Both the railroads and the public are to blame. There has been no material addition to the total mileage in the last ten years, and the increase in terminals has been much less than required. At the beginning of the war the rolling stock was sadly reduced and inadequate. The public had not given in pay for service sufficient revenues on which credit could be allowed by the banks. Moral assistance was withheld because of railroad policies that did not bring approval. Many of these corporations had made themselves a part of political activities, local, state and national. Then there were more or less sporadic instances of stock watering operations, and the exploitation of utility properties for personal gain. Abuses were not general, but they (Continued on Next Page)

Peace Keynote of Cox Speech

were sufficient to bring the entire railroad system of the country in disrepute. The good suffered with the evil. When the transportation lines were taken over by the government, they were barely able to limp through the task of the day. Unity in operation, the elimination of the long haul, and the merging of every mile of track and terminal and every car and engine into a co-ordinated plan of operation, enabled the government to transport troops and supplies, at the same time affording, under great stress, a satisfactory outlet for our industries. It should be remembered in this connection that except for the motor truck which supplemented transportation by rail, and except for the great pipe lines which conveyed oil for commercial purposes, we should not, in all probability have been able to throw our deciding strength into the balance and win the war. Any attempt to discredit the federal operation of railroads during the years of grave emergency is unfair. In the case of those who know the facts it is insincere. Too much cannot be said in praise of those who directed this work, nor of the men who physically operated the lines under the discouraging conditions of poor equipment. But all of this is water over the wheel. The problem of the railroads is still with us. The government and the public should render every co-operation in the utmost good faith, to give thorough test to private ownership. The railroads have had their lesson. Government regulation is accepted now as not only a safeguard to the public, but as a conserving process to the utility. Financial credit is necessary to physical rehabilitation and it should be sufficient for the periods of maximum demand. We should not lose sight, however, of the vast possibilities of supplementary service by water. The Great Lakes and St. Lawrence navigation project, particularly, should claim the interest of the government.

Federal Reserve System.

"It is almost unnecessary to speak of the Federal Reserve system in connection with the winning of the war, as, next to the consecration of our manhood and womanhood itself, the greatest factor was the marshalling into one unit through the Federal Reserve banks of the stupendous wealth of America. To those of vision who look out beyond our shores into that commercial domain where we are so justly entitled to enter in a time of peace, latent power of the Federal Reserve system can be seen promoting in every quarter of the globe an ever-widening flow of American commerce. We will soon have a merchant marine fleet of 11,000,000 tons aggregate, every ship flying the American flag and carrying in American bottoms the products of mill and mine and factory and farm. This would seem to be a guarantee of continued prosperity. Our facilities for exchange and credit, however, in foreign parts, should be enlarged and under the federal reserve system, banks should be established in important trading centers.

Reduction of Armament.

"I am convinced after considerable study of the subject that the expense of the government can, without loss of efficiency, be reduced to a maximum of four billion dollars, including sinking fund and interest on the national debt. When we enter the League of Nations, we should at the same time diminish our cost for armament. To continue expenditures in either the war or the navy departments on a vast scale, once our membership in the League is assured, would seem to be a very definite refutation of the advantages of the world plan which we believe it possesses. An appealing fundamental in the League method, is the reduction of armaments. We cannot afford to do it, until other nations do likewise. If we do not enter the League, hundreds of millions of dollars must be spent for armaments. If we go in, and I believe the people will insist on it, then we can count on economies.

"The Republican leaders who have taken charge of their party and nominated its candidate, are no more possessed of the spirit of the hour than they were in 1912 when they precipitated a revolution within the rank and file of a great organization. If further proof were needed, the action of the present Congress supplies it. Not a constructive law can be cited. Money and time were wasted in seeking to make a military triumph an odious chapter in history—and yet it is not significant that after two years of sleuthing inquiry, there was nothing revealed in that vast enterprise, carrying billions of dollars in expense, upon which they could base even a whisper of dishonesty?

"The Mexican situation, trying to our patience for years, begins to show signs of improvement. Not the least of the things that have contributed to it, is a realization by the people of that country, that we have neither the lust for their domain, nor disposition to disturb their sovereign rights. Peace smiles upon the border and incentive to individual effort seems to be making a national aspiration.

Disabled Soldiers.

"I feel deeply that the rehabilitation of the disabled soldiers of the recent war is one of the most vital issues before the people and I, as a candidate, pledge myself and my party to those young Americans to do all in my power to secure for them without unnecessary delay, the immediate training which is so necessary to fit them to compete in their struggle to overcome that physical handicap incurred while in the service of their government. I believe also that the Federal Board of Vocational Rehabilitation as far as possible should employ disabled soldiers themselves to supervise the rehabilitation of disabled soldiers, because of their known sympathy and understanding. The board itself and all agencies under it should be burdened with the care of securing for the disabled soldier who has finished his training, adequate employment.

"The women of America, in emotion and constructive service, measured up during the war to every requirement, and emergency exacted much of them.

What your father?

They demonstrated, not only willingness, but capacity. They helped win the war, and they are entitled to the privilege of voting as a matter of right and because they will be helpful in maintaining wholesome and patriotic policy. It requires but one more state to ratify the national amendment and thus bring a long-delayed justice. I have the same earnest hope as our platform expresses that some one of the remaining states will promptly take favorable action.

Education.

"There must be an awakened interest in education. The assumption that things are all right is an error. The plain fact reveals two startling things, one, a growing decimation in the ranks of teachers and the other, the existence of five and one-half millions illiterates. The army of instructors has been more or less demoralized through financial temptation from other activities which pay much better. We owe too much to the next generation to be remiss in this matter.

Campaign Contributions.

"There will be no attempt in this campaign to compete by dollars with our opposition. So many people have been in the money gathering business for the reactionary cause that the millions already in hand are more or less a matter of general information. All that we ask is that both parties deal in the utmost good faith with the electorate and tell the plain truth as to the amounts received, the contributors, and the items of disbursements.

"The sort of readjustment which will appeal to our self-respect and ultimately to our general prosperity, is the honest readjustment. Any unfair adjustment simply delays the ultimate process and we should remember the lesson of history that one extreme usually leads to another. We desire industrial peace. We want our people to have an abiding confidence in government, but no readjustment made under reactionary auspices will carry with it the confidence of the country.

"The inconveniences incident to the war have been disquieting; the failure of the Republican Congress to repeal annoying taxes has added to our troubles. The natural impulse is to forget the past, to develop new interests, to create a refreshed and refreshing atmosphere in life. We want to forget war and be free from the troubling thought of its possibility in the future. We want a change from the old world of yesterday where international intrigue made people mere pawns on the chess-board of war. We want a change from the old industrial world where the man who toiled was assured 'a full dinner pail' as his only lot and portion. But how are we to make the change? Which way shall we go? We stand at the forks of the road and must choose which to follow. One leads to a higher citizenship, a freer expression of the individual and a fuller life for all. The other leads to reaction, the rule of the few over the many and the restriction of the average man's chances to grow upward. Cunning devices backed by unlimited prodigal expenditures will be used to confuse and to lure. But I have an abiding faith that the pitfalls will be avoided and the right road chosen.

"The leaders opposed to Democracy promise to put the country 'back to normal.' This can only mean the so-called normal of former reactionary administrations, the outstanding feature of which was a pittance for farm produce and a small wage for a long day of labor. My vision does not turn backward to the 'normal' desired by the senatorial oligarchy, but to a future in which all shall have a normal opportunity to cultivate a higher stature amidst better environment than that of the past. Our view is toward the sunrise of tomorrow with its progress and its eternal promise of better things. The opposition stands in the skyline of the setting sun, looking backward, to the old days of reaction.

"I accept the nomination of our party, obedient to the Divine Sovereign of all peoples, and hopeful that by trust in Him the way will be shown for helpful service."

Tuesday night the barn of C. P. Pardue at Loving was destroyed by fire and a loss of $9,000 was sustained, with in the neighborhood of $4,500 insurance. A bad feature of the loss, Mr. Pardue says, is the fact that he is unable to get any corrugated iron to rebuild. He lays the fire to cigarettes which he thinks some one might have thrown carelessly around the barn.

Attention is again called to the camp meeting which will begin at Queen next Sunday, the 15th, last under the leadership of Reverends Terry and Beauchamp. A number of persons are planning to attend from Carlsbad, and the lower valley will be well represented. The camp grounds are ideally located, and a 10 days stay in that pleasant retreat, hearing such sermons as will be heard at that time, will be a joy to be remembered.

The "Ever Ready" class of the Methodist Sunday School have adopted a novel plan to raise money for their share of the benevolence of the church. This will be a "Mother Goose" bazaar and it promises to be unusually interesting and the girls hope pecuniarily profitable as well. Mother Goose will be on hand next Monday evening and a number of her most famous characters. The "Maid in the Garden" will hang out her clothes in the most approved style, then there will be "Miss Muffett," "Mistress Mary" (quite contrary), and many others dear to the heart of a child, not forgetting the old woman who lived in a shoe and was not a victim of race suicide. They will have things to sell and are working hard this week to make their fair a success, though that will depend on the patronage shown them. The affair will be held on the lawn of the Methodist church, and will begin at 6:30 in the evening, in order that children may attend. Help these young girls in their efforts for a good cause.

Arledge in the mountains west of town. The Hays family remained there from Sunday until Tuesday, the others returning Sunday. Mr. Hays describes their experience in mountain climbing as rather strenuous and not conducive to foot racing for some days after. The party saw a deer and four wolves during their trip, and its novelty was enjoyed by all.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Morfeld of this city was christened at St. Edwards Catholic church on last Sunday after the ten o'clock service. The baby received the name of Eugene Rogers, the godparents being Wm. H. Mullane and wife.

REMEMBER the time the first automobile parade was organized? Even the good old torchlight procession had to give way before the advance of progress.

Tires are often sold the same way politics are.

The last people to wake up to what they are getting are the people who pay the bills.

The bills are getting too big these days in both cases. And the man who is feeling it most with respect to tires is the man who owns a moderate-price car.

The idea that the small car owner doesn't need a good tire is rapidly going the way of all mistaken ideas.

He needs it more than anyone else. It's part of our job, as we view it, to see that he gets it.

Our tire service starts with good tires—U. S. Tires. All sizes made to a single standard of quality—none graded down to the price of the car they will go on.

U. S. perfected the first straight side automobile tire—the first pneumatic truck tire.

The U. S. guarantee is for the life of the tire, and not for a limited mileage.

When we recommend and sell U. S. Tires we do so in the interest of greater tire economy. It is our experience that that is the best way to build up a sound and zable business.

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:

In sandy or hilly country, wherever the going is apt to be heavy—The U. S. Nobby.

For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Usco.

For front wheels—The U. S. Plain.

For best results—everywhere—U. S. Royal Cords.

STOLEN CATTLE FOUND IN MEXICO

Twenty head of cattle, stolen Thursday night from F. Norwood Hall's ranch at Noria, N. M., and taken across the border into Mexico by four cattle thieves, were recovered Sunday by a posse under Sheriff Felipe Lucero of Dona Ana County, New Mexico. The robbers crossed with the cattle at Monument 14.

Friday afternoon Mr. Hall, Police Captain W. A. Simpson, of El Paso and five Mexican soldiers detailed for the duty by Colonel Fox, formed a posse which combed the territory as far as Villa Ahumada.

Four hours behind Hall and his party came Lucero and his posse crossing Monument 14, following the tracks, and coming upon the stolen animals peacefully grazing.

According to Lucero, one of the four robbers left the party for a time and then returned and the four went off together. It is thought that the one which left may have been a scout and that the thieves made their getaway on learning of the posse behind them.

The cattle were driven to the Jaurez stock pens Tuesday afternoon.—El Paso Times.

The hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Floyd Hart at Dark Canyon Wells is always open to their friends, and many have taken advantage of the hearty welcome accorded them, and visited that nice place, where, under the trees and beside the lake, the heat is forgotten. A congenial party of old friends and neighbors met there last Sunday and spent the day, having dinner and supper there. Fried chicken with many other good things were enjoyed and delicious ice cream rounded out the menu.

Iron S. Rowe, the ball player, went up to Roswell on a business mission the first of the week, making the trip up in his car and leaving the car there to have it painted, returning on the train Tuesday evening.

Those enjoying the occasion with the little hostess were Miss Mary Martin, Miss Nannie Ervin Little, Laura Louise Barnett and Sadie Margaret Wheeler.

Mrs. J. W. Stephenson and her sisters, Mrs. McMillan and Lacy of Marble Falls, Texas, and a brother, Ed. Odiorne, of Austin, Texas, left Wednesday for Cloudcroft, where they will spend a few days before going to their respective homes.

Frank Davis returned from Omaha, Nebraska, last Sunday. He had been taking treatment of a specialist at that city for his eyes, which were in a most deplorable condition, and he was almost blind. We are glad to announce that he is now able to run the car and do many other things which were formerly impossible because of his poor sight.

Miss Harriett Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Rose of Lovins, who had been spending the summer at Bethany, Mo., came home from there and after a few days at the home of her parents, left for Berkeley, California, Tuesday, where she will attend school this fall and winter. The young lady graduated with the class of Carlsbad High School last May and was a good student. A lovely, unspoiled girl, Miss Rose has many friends here who expect to hear only good of her at Berkeley.

The Sunday School classes of Mr. Ellsworth and Mrs. M. L. Davis had a swimming party east of the river last night and all report a fine time. After enjoying themselves in the river, the young folks had a picnic supper which they also enjoyed.

Mrs. Henry Robb left Saturday for Tyrone, her home, after two weeks of business and pleasure combined in this city. At the last moment, her mother, Mrs. Reiff, decided to accompany her daughter but has promised to return to our town in the early spring and again take up her residence among her friends of other years. Mrs. Robb will teach again in the schools of Tyrone this winter, she being a fine instructor and up to date in her chosen profession.

Mrs. Claude Nelson left Tuesday of this week for Pomona, California, where her parents reside, and where she will visit.

Torpid Liver

Black-Draught "has no equal for headache, sour stomach, torpid liver and feverish colds," declares Mrs. Annie Whitmore, of Gate City, Va. "It is easy to take and does not gripe, as a lot of medicines do," she adds. "It is good to take in a hot tea for colds, or can be taken in a dry powder. I can't say enough for Black-Draught and the sickness it has saved us."

Thedford's BLACK-DRAUGHT

has been found a valuable liver medicine, in thousands of homes. "I do not use any other liver medicine," says Mrs. Mary O. Brown, of Europa, Miss. "It is splendid for sour stomach, a bad taste in the mouth or torpid liver. I keep it all the time, use it with the children and feel it has saved us many dollars in doctor bills and many days in bed."

Insist on the genuine—Thedford's.

The Most Welcome Tire That Ever Came to Market

Men Who Appreciate Superlative Values Prefer The Brunswick

In every great tire factory, the chief question is: "How much can we give for the money?" And the product depends on the policy adopted.

Every man who has become acquainted with Brunswick Tires knows that Brunswick standards are again evident. This famous concern—noted as a leader in every line it entered since 1845—has once more proved that its policy is right.

A perfect tire is simply a matter of knowledge and standards and skill. No secrets nor patents prevent making an ideal tire.

But standards come first. For in tire making there is vast room for skimping, for subtle economies, for hidden shortcomings. Makers without the highest standards don't build high-grade tires.

The Brunswick organization of tire makers includes a brilliant staff of technical experts. Not a man among them has spent less than 20 years in handling rubber.

Each is a master of his craft. And the new ideas they bring to the attention of Brunswick directors receive sincere consideration.

Every proved betterment is adopted unanimously.

The Brunswick Tire is a combination of acknowledged features—plus Brunswick standards of manufacture.

The result is a super-tire, the like of which you have never known before. The kind of a tire you will gladly join in welcoming.

Yet Brunswicks cost no more than like-type tires.

Try ONE Brunswick. We promise a surprise. And we feel certain that you will want ALL Brunswicks.

Then good tires will have a new meaning to you.

PECOS VALLEY HIDE & FUR CO.

Mary Elizabeth Mullane, the eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Mullane, is nursing a broken arm, caused by falling from her bicycle last Saturday. The injured member was treated by the family physician and Mary is getting along all right. She says she wouldn't mind the pain so much, but she has to give up her music, temporarily, at least.

Jack Foster with his wife and two children, from Nacona, Texas, arrived in town Monday. Dr. and Mrs. Foster, parents of the young man, have been in the city for some time, and they, together with the arrivals, and Misses Retta Reed and Eva Thomas, left Tuesday for Black River, where they expect to visit with relatives for some days.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hatfield and daughter, Miss Inez, were in town Tuesday from their home in the lower valley, where they have a large farm, having nearly a hundred acres in cotton and about forty in alfalfa, with a big garden to boot. Mr. Hatfield will not teach this winter, having much more congenial and lucrative employment, but Miss Inez has again accepted a position in the schools at Malaga, and will have charge of the primary grade there.

Miss Warren, of Marietta, Ohio, is a new comer to Carlsbad, and will likely spend the winter here. She has a position with the saleswomen of Joyce-Fruit Co., and is a very pleasant young lady to meet.

Charley Walter and family returned Sunday from their trip to their old home at Terra Haute, Indiana. Before leaving, Mr. Walter had a Gates tire put on and had it filled with good old New Mexico air. In the long trip of over three thousand miles Mr. Walter did not have any tire trouble, and reached home with the same air in the tubes he started with. Incidentally, they had a fine time while gone, with health much improved by their rest with homefolk in the "Hoosier" state. They left for the ranch Tuesday afternoon.

Will Ed. Carter was a lucky fisherman the first of the week, catching a 35-pound catfish in the river near town.

The county grader was put to work on the streets of the city the first of the week, and seemed to do good work, which was certainly needed. The streets were full of "chuck" holes which made automobile riding anything but pleasant, and which the grader has eliminated.

W. C. Bates had the misfortune to break his right leg while at the ranch last Friday evening. As the family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Bates and their daughters, were riding horseback down a draw, a man leading a brone met them and the brone, becoming frightened, crowded over against Mr. Bates and broke the ankle of his leg. The same member was broken about a year ago, and had never seemed quite strong since. Mr. Bates was brought to town by Mrs. Bates and daughters in their car, arriving here early Saturday morning when the fracture was reduced, and Mr. Bates is getting along as well as any one can with the same kind of an injury.

MRS. J. F. ALLISON DEAD.

Margaret Bonner DeLong was born Nov. 11, 1857. Was married to Rev. J. F. Allison Feb. 14, 1878. She united with the Methodist Episcopal church south, when a girl. She was always religiously inclined, and desired to be in some kind of Christian service; and for some years was with her husband engaged in the active life of the ministry. As long as her health permitted she was an active member of the Woman's Home Missionary Society. She was happiest when doing something for others. Sister Allison was of that happy disposition that won the hearts of all. She never worried other people with her suffering, though for a number of years she was afflicted. Even in her last illness she was so patient and hopeful that we didn't realize how ill she was until the day before her death. She was only confined to her bed a few days when her weary spirit took its flight to Him who gave it.

She fell asleep August 1, 1920, at three o'clock in the morning, to awaken in that beautiful land where there is no more sickness nor sorrow nor pain nor death. The funeral was conducted by the pastor, Rev. R. F. Davis, from the Methodist church, of which she was a faithful member, and the remains laid to rest in the beautiful cemetery of Artesia, New Mexico. —Artesia Advocate.

Alfred LaVelle, lineman for the Public Utilities Co., left Monday for San Antonio, Texas, where he will spend his vacation, returning in a couple of weeks.

"WHERE THINGS ARE NEW"

LAKEWOOD LOCALS

We are looking forward to and hoping for one of the best school terms in the history of Lakewood to begin on September 6. We had a splendid term last year, but we want to do better this, and if all of the patrons stand by the local board and the teachers, we will have a successful school term, but if they hang back and fail to do their whole duty it will be impossible for the board or the teachers to make it a success. The teachers are all employed, and are all ready for the work. Prof. R. D. Phillips is re-employed as principal, Mrs. R. D. Pulliam for the upper intermediate, Miss Bernice Lee will have charge of the lower intermediate, and Miss Mabel Keple the primary. This is a splendid faculty, and there is no reason why Lakewood should not have one of the best schools in Eddy county.

Don F. Lyman, an old timer in this community, departed yesterday for Abington, Ill. to visit with his family, other relatives, and old friends. This is the first visit Mr. Lyman has made to the old home in many years, and his many friends here hope that his health, which is not as good as it should be, may be greatly improved by the trip.

James Cunningham, formerly known here as "Little Jim," returned to the home of his parents at Portales Wednesday night, after spending some ten days in a very pleasant visit with friends here.

Ben Adams and family of Ozona, Texas, came in Tuesday, and will spend some time visiting with relatives and old friends here. Mr. Adams is a brother of our fellow-townsmen, R. G. Adams, and at one time lived here.

Tom Runyan of Carlsbad, who recently returned from an outing at Cloudercroft, was a visitor in Lakewood Tuesday.

Little Miss Josephine Cosper, of Hagerman, came in Wednesday for a visit with friends in the White City.

The West Texas Amusement Co. had an entertainment billed for Wednesday night, but the threatening weather prevented a sufficient attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones, of San Antonio, Texas, came in one day last week for a visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Jones is a sister to the Angel brothers.

Agent E. E. Bales moved during the past week to the Jim Cunningham place in the north part of town, and thereby found out just how much household goods he possesses.

Mrs. Emma Aldredge, of near Duncan, Oklahoma, came in Monday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Geo. McGonagill. It was a most happy meeting between these two sisters, as they had not seen each other in 20 years.

Lewis Howell and family returned one day this week from a visit of a week or longer, with relatives and friends near Roswell.

A. C. Crozier and family returned this week from a pleasant outing on the Ruidoso and the White Mountains, where they were married and formerly lived. They brought back with them a photograph of the old place where they first went to housekeeping.

Miss Clara Scott is attending a telepathy school at Roswell, going up a little more than a week ago.

BIDS FOR TRANSPORTATION

Malaga, N. M., Aug. 14, 1920
To Whom This May Concern, Greeting:

The Board of School Directors of Malaga School District No. 11, Eddy County, New Mexico, hereby advertises for bids for transportation of school children to the Malaga school as follows:

One conveyance for transporting school children from the Harroun ranch to Malaga and return.

One conveyance for transporting children residing in the community three to four miles west of Malaga from said community to and from Malaga school.

One conveyance for transporting high school students from Malaga to Carlsbad and return.

Transportation on all of the proposed routes will be to and from places designated, five school days per week for the school term beginning September 6, 1920 and continuing nine months of school, or for such part of the term as there may be a reasonable number of children in these districts to transport to and from school.

Bids for the proposed transportation will be received by John H. Burrows, Secretary of the Malaga School Board, up to 6 p. m. on August 25, 1920, and must be sealed proposals made in good faith after bidders have investigated all conditions of the proposed transportation, and contain manner and nature of conveyance, and the Board of School Directors reserves the right, by and with the co-operation of the County Board of Education, to reject any and all bids that are not deemed to be in the best interests of the Malaga School District.

JOHN H. BURROWS,
Secretary Malaga Board of School Directors.
