TWENTY-EIGHTH YEAR.

CARLSBAD, NEW MEXICO, FRIDAY, AUGUST 20, 1920.

NUMBER 40

BIG DELEGATION AT DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Last Saturday afternoon at two o'clock at the district court room in Carlshad, a large delegation of enthusiastic democrats from all parts of Eddy County assembled in County Convention to select delegates to the State Convention that meets in Las Vegas August 24th, and to transact such other business as came to their attention.

The first in order was the naming of a county chairman to succeed S. D. Stennis, Jr., who served the past term. Judge Jackson, of Artesia placed the name of Fred E. Wilson before the convention with the explanation that he was a young and progressive democrat who was entitled to recognition by his party. As there were no other nominations he was unanimously chosen as chairman of the Eddy county democratic central committee for the coming year.

J. C. Gilbert, of Artesia was unanimously elected secretary, succeeding C. P. Pardue of Loving. As this office was held by a citizen living in the south end of the county last term, it was proper that it should be given to the north end this year.

Resolutions upholding and lauding the Wilson administration were presented and adopted, and the nominees of the San Francisco convention endorsed.

After electing 26 delegates to attend the Las Vegas convention, with one half vote each, the convention instructed them to vote for Judge C. R. Brice as a candidate for supreme judge and for Robert G. Dow as the democratic nominee for congress so long as either of their names are before the convention for such offices.

Albert Blake of Artesia, and J. B. McGhee were chosen as the convention's choice for state committeemen.

Byron O. Beall, secretary of the state democratic central committee made the convention a short talk and asked for funds for the committee's publicity work in the state and received a hearty response from most all those present.

He stated that never before in the history of New Mexico was the republican party so badly split or that there were ever so many dissatisfied elements in their ranks in different parts of the state, and that so far every effort put forth by them to bring harmony in the party had completely failed. He is of the opinion that the state will go democratic by a big majority, and seems certain that victory is in sight if the Pecos Valley gets out a full vote at the general election.

Most of the delegates elected will leave here Saturday and Sunday in cars for Las Vegas, where they will imbibe some of the enthusiasm sure to be let loose there and come home better fitted for working for the success of the party this fall.

The following are the minutes of the convention as furnished by the secretary:

Carlshad, N. M., August 14, 1920. The County Democratic convention was called to order at two o'clock p. m. on Aug. 14th, 1920, by S. D. Stennis, Jr., chairman of the county central committee.

After a few remarks, Mr. Stennis introduced Byron O. Beall, secretary of the democratic state central committee, who stated his object in being present was to see if some funds could not be raised for state work. An opportunity was given and quite a few of those present contributed toward this fund.

The temporary organization was effected by the election of Judge Fred E. Wilson, of Carlshad, N. M., as chairman, and S. W. Gilbert of Artesia, as secretary.

J. H. Jackson moved that all democratic newspaper men present be made assistant secretaries, and

S. L. Perry, of the Carlshad Current, being the only one present, was asked by the chairman to come forward.

J. B. Atkeson moved that a committee on credentials be appointed. The chairman appointed J. B. Atkeson, G. M. Cooke, G. A. Shelton, Mrs. Geo. W. Batton and Mrs. C. D. Rickman.

J. B. McGhee moved that a committee on order of business be appointed. The chair appointed J. B. McGhee, Frank H. Richards, and E. L. Brewer.

The committee on credentials made the following report, which was adopted:

"We, your committee on credentials, find that there are no contests, and therefore recommend that all the delegates present, as shown by the credentials reported to us, be the duly elected delegates of the convention."

The committee on order of business made the following report, which was adopted:

"We, your committee on order of business, recommend that the temporary organization be made permanent; that the chair appoint a committee of five to suggest twenty-six delegates, with one-half vote each, to the state convention. That the convention take such further action as it deems proper for the ratification of the nominations made at the primary of Aug. 10th, 1920, as to county offices and legislative and judicial offices; and that any resolutions deemed proper by any delegate may be introduced, or the convention may take any other action deemed proper."

The following committee on resolutions was appointed:

D. G. Grantham
F. H. Richards
J. H. Bridgman
Mrs. Marvin Livingston
Miss Grace Cooke.

The following committee was appointed to suggest names of delegates to the state convention:

J. H. Jackson
E. L. Brewer
J. B. McGhee
Mrs. G. W. Batton
Mrs. C. D. Rickman.

The report of the committee suggesting the following names, was adopted:

The following resolution, offered by the resolutions committee, was adopted:

"We, your committee on platform and resolutions, duly appointed, do hereby beg leave to submit the following report:

"We, the democrats, in delegate convention assembled, at Carlshad, Eddy County, New Mexico, August 14th, 1920, again renew our pledge, faith and allegiance to those fundamental and eternal principles of democracy as originally enunciated by our first great leader, Thomas Jefferson, chief among which is contained in the maxim 'Equal rights to all and special privileges to none.' We believe this maxim, if rightly applied, is capable of solving many of the great questions of government that are now causing unrest and agitation to the minds of the American people."

We rejoice and congratulate ourselves today that we belong to a party that through many years of joy and sorrow, prosperity and adversity, internal and external conflicts, and in peace and in war, when in power, has so conducted

AMERICAN LEGION CARNIVAL

Despite the rain and threatening weather, large crowds have been in attendance at the American Legion Carnival which opened on schedule-time last Wednesday morning.

The Carnival grounds at the corner of Fox and Canal streets, had been put in first class condition for the occasion, and the booths and concessions received a liberal patronage from the start.

Being a home show, many of the features commonly present at such affairs, had been eliminated, and there was nothing to offend the most fastidious.

"Spellers" and barker cried out their wares and wheels of fortune whirled everywhere.

Honors were shared equally between the Midget, the Astec Mummy and Spiders, the Spider girl, who was gravely informed, was alive, and who inspired the greatest awe in the minds of the children who thronged to the booth. Music was furnished the early part of the afternoon, and evenings by the Carlshad band, the Roswell orchestra of five pieces playing for the dances.

The immense platform built and put in splendid shape for the dancers, was filled by devotees of the Terpsichorean art, until a late hour, each night.

The entire crowd, large though it was, seemed happy, and there were many who made the remark that it was the most cheerful bunch ever seen on a similar occasion in this city.

The affairs of this government, and influenced its action so as to merit the love, honor and respect and unstinted support of every good American citizen.

"We rejoice in the fact and are proud of the great leaders of our party in state and nation, and for the things accomplished and wrought during the last eight years of momentous happenings in these United States."

"Now, therefore, be it resolved by this convention:

"That we recognize in our great leader and president, Woodrow Wilson, and particularly in his policies and statesmanlike conduct during his two administrations, and during the world war, a wise, Christian-like and profound statesman, the peer of any that has ever preceded him and that we as democrats of Eddy county, do hereby express and tender him our unbounded faith, confidence and love, and applaud the heights to which he has led our nation among the nations of the world and trust that he may live many years to counsel and assist in our guidance for the betterment of humanity."

"Be it further resolved, that we endorse the policy and actions of our able and beloved Senator A. A. Jones and his faithful and able services in representing the people of New Mexico during the trying times through which we have passed and are now passing."

"Be it further resolved that we endorse the actions of our judicial officers of this district, the district judges and district attorney, in the faithful, courageous and lawful manner in which they have conducted the affairs of their office."

"Be it further resolved that we endorse the democratic, legislative, county and precinct officers in the conduct of their several offices, the same having been administered with courtesy and in accordance with law; so that there has not been any cause for serious complaint or any blot on the escutcheon of the county's honor."

"Be it further resolved that we endorse the platform enunciated by the democratic national convention at San Francisco, California, and hereby tender our most enthusiastic support to the nominees of that convention, Hon. James M. Cox, of Ohio for president and Hon. Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York; for vice-president."

"Be it further resolved that we, as tax payers, condemn the extravagance and misrule generally of the republican state administration."

"Be it further resolved that we condemn in unmeasured terms the conduct of the republican majority in congress for its cowardly attitude and conduct toward our great president. We also condemn the republican majority in the United States Senate in forestalling our advent into the League of Nations and, thereby, in so far as within their power, placing the United States in the attitude and category of every Bolshevik, non-progressive and insignificant nation on earth."

Respectfully submitted,

D. G. GRANTHAM, Chairman.
GRACE W. COOKE, Secretary."

F. H. Richards offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

"Be it resolved, that the delegates selected by this convention to represent Eddy county in the state convention to be held at Las Vegas, New Mexico on Aug. 24th, 1920, be, and they are hereby instructed to cast the entire vote of Eddy county for Hon. Robert C.

The lighting of the grounds was superb and something new in Carlshad. Four strands of electric lights, alternating with Japanese lanterns, strung across the platform, made a Fairyland, indeed.

The Wild West Show was one of the popular features of the week and the roping and riding was witnessed by a large and enthusiastic throngs who cheered the successful ropers and riders to the echo when a special good effort was made.

The result of the two days sport is as follows:

Woody Tullis made the best average for the two days on both the Breakaway and Calf Roping, and Barney Hopkins holds the best average for the two days on the Goat Roping.

Business houses closed yesterday afternoon and this afternoon that the clerks might attend the various sports offered for amusement.

The business men co-operated in every way with the Legion and the boys appreciate their assistance.

Special mention must be made of the free barbecue given yesterday by the Commercial Club, and which drew one of the largest crowds of the week. This part of the celebration was under the supervision of J. R. Boyd, a past master in the art of barbecuing meat and on this occasion he kept up his reputation as one of the best in the country. Eight heaves and twenty muttons had been prepared and with an abundance of bread, pickles and excellent coffee, was greatly enjoyed by the crowd of between 2500 and 3000 people who were present. There was an abundance for every one and a greater number could have been fed.

NOT SHRINKING VIOLETS:

Eddy county, on the edge of the state, is not a shrinking violet. When the democratic convention of that county has served notice that it wants two things from the state convention—the nomination of Judge C. R. Brice for the supreme court bench, and of Bob Dow, now district attorney, for congress. The Pecos Valley is like the solid south—too sure for the party. It is not necessary to give political plums in order to hold the boys, down there. —Albuquerque Journal.

A CARD.

I expect to close out my business in Carlshad by the first of September, and desire to express my thanks to the people of this place and vicinity for the patronage shown as well as for the many kindnesses which I have received at their hands. Wherever I go I will always carry with me pleasant memories of my stay in Carlshad.

I have a few pair of army shoes which I will close out at $3.00 per pair, if taken at once.

Very respectfully,
J. D. RIGGS.

T. J. Sanford received a telegram this week, telling of the death of a grand son at Sweetwater, Texas, Sunday at 4 p. m. The little boy, Paul, was nine years old and had been a cripple from his birth, but as is so often the case, was the idol of his father, whose grief is deep and almost unquenchable. Relatives here sympathize with the parents and others in their loss. Interment was made at Sweetwater Tuesday.

E. H. Williams, of Roswell, is in town this week as are many others from the Pearl of the Pecos, attending the carnival; and leaving today for a fishing trip to Black river. Mrs. Williams and children are at the home of Elmer Webb, she being a sister of Mrs. Webb.

Misses Frances and Lucy Seay, of Roswell, are visiting at the John Merchant home in La Huerta, this week.

A DOUBLE INTERMENT.

The bodies of two of the children of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jones, of this place, were brought from Burkburnett, Texas, for reinterment in Carlshad cemetery and were laid to rest here with brief services conducted by Reverend Glvan, this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Jones having decided to make their home again in this city, brought their beloved dead to rest here where they can visit the graves and care for them. Jim Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jones, was born in Dewey county, Oklahoma, September 21, 1904; died in Burkburnett, Texas, Nov. 12, 1919, aged 16 years, 1 month and 20 days. Helen Frances Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jones, was born in Eddy county, New Mexico, March 19, 1917, died in Burkburnett, Texas, Nov. 13, 1919, aged 2 years, 6 months and 6 days. Thus they rest side by side in the cemetery, "lovely were they in life and in death they were not divided."

OTIS NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. McIlvain spent Sunday afternoon at the Henry Tipton home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardy returned Sunday night from a visit with Mrs. Gage at Hope.

Mrs. Vernon Middleton returned Saturday from her visit at La Mesa. She reports crops as looking fine but was much disappointed in not being able to bring her sister home with her.

Mr. McMeikle, one of the contractors for E. R. Lang's new house moved his family to Otis this week so as to be near the job. We welcome them to Otis.

Mr. Ellsworth and Ethlyn are enjoying a well earned vacation.

A case in justice of the peace court this morning was the preliminary hearing of Mr. Webster accused of stealing a Ford car belonging to W. G. Crowder of this place. It seems the car formerly belonged to J. B. Morris who sold it to Mr. Crowder who drove it to Artesia the latter part of last month where it was stolen and later found at the Lassater place south of here where it was put by Webster. The question is whether the car found is the one that was stolen. Webster was given bail in the sum of $600 but at this time has not furnished bond yet.

Will Bloxom and wife have returned from a seventeen days trip to points in California, where they had the usual good time enjoyed by tourists in that part of the country. They saw large crowds everywhere they went the crowd at Long Beach the Sunday they were there being estimated as the largest ever seen on the Beach at one time. They had the pleasure of seeing Lucius Anderson and Frank A. Moore, both formerly of this city, but now living at Los Angeles, the former temporarily and the latter a permanent resident and an enthusiastic booster for California. Mr. Anderson is building a house in Los Angeles, and expects to be at home in Carlshad, in a month or six weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Bloxom visited at San Francisco, Ogden and Salt Lake City, and points in Colorado while they were on their trip, and had a splendid time everywhere.

A heavy rain fell in this part of the country the entire amount of precipitation being .82 inches, since the 16th, inst up to last night. So far as we have been able to learn, the rain extended to the east beyond Big Springs, Texas, to the north as far as Amarillo, and a long way westward.

The moisture was very welcome, to some of our farmers who had their alfalfa seed cut and in stacks, who will likely lose a good part of their crop, owing to that fact. Very little hay was down in the project, and the rain was decidedly beneficial to the late gardens and row crops. Now for a few days of sunshine for the cotton, and all will be well.

A pleasant social affair at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis near Otis last Sunday was greatly enjoyed by those fortunate enough to be invited. As usual at this pleasant home, an excellent dinner was served, and the entire day was delightful. Mr. and Mrs. Davis are making a success on their farm, but Ray says that farm life is a little more strenuous than life in an artist's studio.

Morning worship will be conducted next Sabbath at the Presbyterian church, and the pastor will preach on the subject of "Christ and the Crowd."

John Queen and Miss Josie were up from their home at Malaga Thursday.

CHRISTMAS TREE AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Juniors of the Christian Sunday School had a Christmas tree in the church yard last Sunday afternoon.

"A Christmas tree in August?" Yes, and a lovely tree it was, with all sorts of presents on it—dolls, books, toys, and everything usually found on the regulation tree of December 25th.

The children had exercises appropriate to the occasion, sang their little songs and had their recitations, previous to dressing the tree.

The secret of the whole observance is that the presents are designed for the little folk of Thibet from the Sunday school here.

They will be started on their long journey at once and will require the time from now until Christmas to make the trip.

The Christian church has a mission in Thibet, with Dr. Shelton in charge and Mr. Ogden, assistant missionary being a relative of Mrs. D. F. Sellard's mother, and the little Aurelia Sellards being the namesake of Aurelia Ogden.

This was certainly a novel way of interesting the children in that far off land, and if the little children of Thibet receive as much pleasure from their Christmas presents as the children of Carlsbad experienced in preparing the gifts, then all will be well repaid.

Boy Scouts of Troops No. 1 and 2 will make camp next week on Rocky Arroyo in charge of their scoutmasters, Reverend Lowery and Bert Rawlins, and will spend a week there. This will be the annual outing and the boys are all looking forward with pleasurable anticipations to the trip and the camping. An added interest to the occasion will be the presence of the Roswell boy scouts, who have promised to join our boys at the time.

Otto Engel, wife and son, are in town this week from their ranch attending the Carnival.

LABOR DAY TO BE OBSERVED IN CARLSBAD

A mass meeting is hereby called to be held at the fire hall, on Canyon Street Monday, August 23d., at 8 p. m. The meeting is called for the purpose of arranging a suitable program and exercises to be held on Labor Day, which falls on the 6th of September, next.

The day, while a legal holiday, has never been suitably observed in this city, but this year promises to be an exception.

Everyone interested in the welfare of the town is not only invited but urged to be present next Monday night.

The Ares brothers, four in number, of the big Ares ranch in the vicinity of Queen, have spent the week in town, attending the Legion Carnival and having a good time with old friends from various sections of the country.

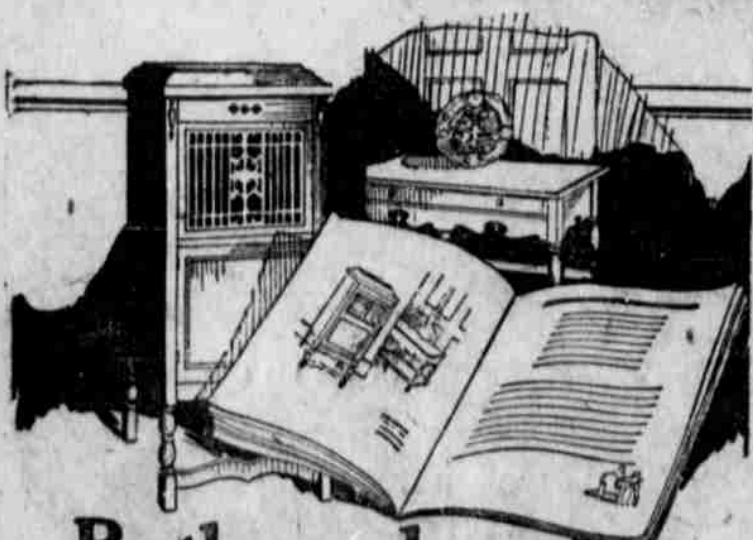

Judge J. B. Atkeson, of Artesia, was in town the first of the week, attending a legal business.

Mrs. John Snow left for her home in Denver last Monday, after a six week's stay in this city at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wallace. Her sister, Miss Georgia, accompanied her to the train for a three week's visit.

"Smookey" Bealls and family are spending the week in town. Mr. Bealls, who was for a time in the employ of Joyce-Fruit Co., is now engaged in farming near Malaga, and has good crops and an excellent prospect for the fall.

Miss Marian Witt has taken a position with the Joyce-Fruit Co. in their office, beginning this week.

LIFE IS GIVE AND TAKE PROPOSITION

No Man, Under Modern Conditions, Can Live Entirely Unto Himself.

EACH DEPENDENT ON OTHERS

Citizen Who Does Not Aid In Building Up Community Can Not Expect to Have Prosperity Himself.

(Copyright.)

There was a time in the world when a man could do pretty much as he pleased. What one man did was of little concern to anyone else, for it had little effect on anyone else. Those days are gone, however, and they never will return. Today, no man can live entirely unto himself. Life is a complicated affair under modern conditions. No one man in any community is entirely independent of all others in that community.

Organized society, in the form of governments, national, state and local, have recognized the new conditions and have decreed that every man must observe certain rules in his relations with his fellow men. He must not do certain things that would endanger the health of other people in his community. He must not do such things as would disturb the peace and quiet of his neighborhood. He must remember that he owes a duty to his community.

Not Question of Right.

A man may say that he has the right to spend his money where he pleases; that no one can stop him if he wants to buy his groceries, his clothes and his furniture in some city miles away from where he earns the money to pay for them. He is right. There is no law to prevent him from doing so, unless it is the law of self-preservation. The man who has the right to send his money away to some distant city instead of spending it at home, also has the right to send his children to that city to be educated in the schools, which his money helps to support, but he doesn't exercise that right. He sends his children to the local schools, the maintenance of which is made possible by the men who spend their money at home.

Life in any community today is a give-and-take proposition. A man can not take everything and give nothing and get away with it for any great length of time. He can not take his living from a community and give nothing back to help the other fellow make a living. If he cuts off the other fellow's living, he is bound eventually to cut off his own, for unless the other fellow has money to buy his labor or his goods he cannot make a living himself.

You may say that what you buy doesn't amount to much and the money that you send away to the mail order houses in other cities can not have any great effect upon the general business conditions in your town. Maybe it doesn't amount to much and maybe it won't have any great effect upon the community's prosperity in itself, but what will be the result if every person in the community, or half of them, or a tenth of them, take the same view of the matter. Your business, in itself, may not amount to much, but taken together with the business of a hundred others in the community, it amounts to a great deal. It amounts to the difference between a prosperous community and a "dead" one. It amounts to the difference, in the end, between good times and bad times for yourself and your own family. If you lived on a desert island, it would make no difference where you sent your money, because it would make no difference whether you had any money at all or not. But you are not living upon a desert island. You are living in a modern community. To do everything possible to build up that community is not only a duty which you owe to the community, but—more important still—it is a duty which you owe to yourself.

Taxes Will Increase.

You have children to educate. You want your community to have good schools so that your children may have the same advantages that the children in the big city have. If you live on a farm you need good roads over which to haul your products to market. You may say that you pay your share of the taxes out of which the school-houses are built and the roads constructed. Maybe you do pay your share, in proportion to the value of your world's goods, but where is the other fellow to get the money to pay his share of the taxes if, after you pay your taxes, you send the remainder of your money to some other community to help build their schools and construct their roads. The merchants of any community pay a very considerable part of the taxes collected in that community. Go to the tax books and you will find this to be the case. When the business of the merchant falls off and he carries smaller stocks and has less money in the bank, he pays smaller taxes, and as the amount he pays in taxes decreases, the amount you pay must increase if the schools are to be maintained and the roads kept up. It may be a man's own business if he wants to send his money to help build up the big cities where the mail order houses flourish, but it's poor business for himself as well as for everybody else in the community in which he lives.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. (Copyright, 1920, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR AUGUST 22

DAVID'S PRAYER FOR PARDON.

LESSON TEXT—Ps. 51:1-17. GOLDEN TEXT—Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.—Ps. 51:2.

ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—II Sam. 11, 12.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Asking God to Forgive Us.

JUNIOR TOPIC—How David Obtained Forgiveness.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What to Do When We Have Done Wrong.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Penitential Prayer in Christian Experience.

There can scarcely be any doubt but what the sin here meant is that which we studied last Sunday, namely, adultery and murder (see II Sam. 11 and 12). About a year had elapsed from the time of David's sin to his repentance. The Thirty-second Psalm graphically pictures David's state of soul during this time. It was a year of great soul-anguish; day and night he was lashed by a guilty conscience. In this psalm we see the path by which a guilty soul may return to God.

1. David's Cry for Pardon (vv. 1, 2).

It is well to note his conception of God. He saw him as a God of mercy and loving kindness.

1. "Have mercy" (v. 1). He knew that justice would forever separate him from God. Because he saw the mercy and loving kindness of God, he did not sink down under his weight of gloom and despair. Because Judas Iscariot did not see God as a God of mercy he went out and hanged himself.

2. "Blot out my transgressions" (v. 1). He was fully conscious how many had been his acts of rebellion against God.

3. "Wash me from my iniquity" (v. 2). He knew that it was not enough to have God blot out his sin, for his very person was defiled. He knew that in order to be clean he must be washed thoroughly, and that by God himself.

4. "Cleanse me from my sin" (v. 2). He was not clear that washing would make him clean, so he pleads with God to make him clean by whatever process is needed. He was even willing for fire to be applied, just so he could be clean.

11. David's Confession (vv. 3-5).

1. "I acknowledge my transgressions" (v. 3). He now makes a clean breast of them—he would hold back nothing. There is no way to peace with God but by a full confession of sin. No half-hearted dealing with sin will avail.

2. "Against thee have I done this evil" (v. 4). All sin is vitally and really against God. All our wrongdoing with our fellows is against God, for such deeds violate his laws. To heighten all this guilt he remembers that it was done in God's sight, thus showing disrespect and contempt for him.

3. "Behold, I was shapen in iniquity" (v. 5). He confesses not only to these acts of sin, but that he is by very nature a sinner.

111. David's Cry for Deliverance (vv. 6-9).

1. "Make me to know wisdom" (v. 6). He asked God that instead of heart wickedness he might be taught by God himself in his inmost nature.

2. "Purge me with hyssop" (v. 7). David seems to see that in order to be cleansed there is need of applying atoning blood. His prayer soars aloft on the wings of faith to the supreme sin offering, Christ.

3. Restoration (vv. 8, 9). He not only wants pardon, but restoration to the divine favor in Jesus Christ.

IV. David's Cry for Purity of Heart (vv. 10-12).

He realized that if his life was to be different, God must dispose his heart toward the right, so he cried for the Holy Spirit to not be taken away from him.

V. David's Vows (vv. 13-17).

1. To tell God's mercies to others (v. 13). The one who has experienced God's forgiveness at once desires to tell it to others.

2. To sing aloud of God's righteousness (v. 14). He saw that the application of God's mercy and loving kindness was on the ground of righteousness and justice. He had vowed to preach, now he vows to sing.

3. To show forth God's praise (v. 15). When the Lord opens a man's lips, then his lips shall sing his praises.

4. The reason assigned (vv. 16, 17). It is because the sinner has seen the supreme sacrifice, Christ, and with a contrite heart presents the merits of Christ Jesus, God's remedy for sin.

Mission of Every Christian.

The nearer we approach to God in our spiritual life and fellowship, the larger our sympathies for humanity, and the more universal our ministry in the world. The mission of Christ is the mission of every Christian. He came and lived and died to save the world. The disciple is not better than his Master.—Anon.

Miss Lu B. Hughes, county club leader, reports a fine time at the W. W. Galton home near Otis, last Tuesday. The sewing clubs of Otis and Carlsbad were present, at that time and had their regular meeting. The girls sewed, played games and sang their club songs, and had a general good time. A picnic was scheduled for the Hope Clubs last Wednesday but was postponed because of the inclement weather. Miss Hughes took the members of the pig and poultry clubs of Carlsbad to Rocky Arroya for a picnic several days ago. The boys swam, fished and enjoyed a regular picnic supper on the ground. The Loving and Otis clubs will have a picnic at the Galton place next Wednesday and are looking forward to the occasion with great expectations for a good time. The largest clubs in the county are those at Hope, the sewing and cooking clubs having twenty members and also having a pig and poultry club, which is in a thriving condition and of which we will hear more this fall at the county exhibit.

Please do not ask us to charge school boys. They must be sold for cash. STAR PHARMACY.

The death of Miss Mabel Wilson occurred Wednesday and the burial service will be held Saturday at nine-thirty at Mr. Thorne's undertaking rooms. Miss Wilson was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wilson and with her family was long resident of the valley. She was under the shadow of affliction for many years, and her departure at the last resulted as small surprise to her friends. She is remembered for her superior character and intelligence, and the loss to her home is too serious for words. Her father and mother specially, are desolate but are sustained by an unflinching faith. Besides, there are their daughter, Mrs. Wallace and son, Dwight, at home. Another daughter lives in Nebraska and a son in Roswell. The entire family is well known in the community and highly respected, and sympathy for them in their trouble is general and profound.

Mrs. Sallie Slaughter, formerly of Carlsbad, but for some time residing at El Paso, is again in the city. Mrs. Slaughter is a sister of Mesdames John and George Lucas, and a trained nurse of unusual skill as many of our people can testify and her announcement that she may decide to remain here for an indefinite time will be welcomed by all who know her.

The text for the 11 o'clock sermon is "I was sick". At night the subject will be "Why be Sick?" or how to be healed.

LOCAL NEWS

Previous to her leaving for Berkeley, California, to attend school, Miss Harriet Rose, of Loving, was an honor guest at a party given by the "Comrades" class of which organization she was a member. The party was given Monday night on the lawn at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rose, parents of the honored young lady. Games of all kinds were played and refreshments served about sixty guests. Miss Harriet certainly will carry with her pleasant memories of her home and friends in Loving.

"Johnnie" Riggs, the shoemaker, is preparing to leave town about September 1st, and may decide to remain away permanently. His shop has been rented to Mr. Adams, the proprietor of the little store in the Springs Hotel building who will enlarge his business, and needs a larger building. Mr. Riggs has a farm at Lamesa, Texas, and will pay a visit to that locality before deciding on a location. He has been in business in Carlsbad ever since his return from service in the army, and is one of the finest young men to be found anywhere, and the Current joins other friends in hoping he may decide to return here, but if not may be successful where he goes.

Paul Mahan and sisters, Misses Mahan, were visitors to friends in Roswell last Sunday.

Mrs. Edwin Stephenson left last week for a visit at Colorado Springs, where her son Clyde and family are spending the summer. She will probably be gone a month.

A baby boy came last Sunday to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watson, of Roswell. Mrs. Watson will be remembered as Miss Bobbie Bowden, a daughter of J. W. Ferguson, of Carlsbad. The Current offers its best wishes to "Charles Jr." and to the young parents as well, in which good wishes it is joined by a host of friends.

Twin boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pearson, Aug. 10, at the home of J. D. Merchant, in La Huerta. The mother of the babies is better known as Miss Eulalia Merchant, who, until her marriage to Dr. Pearson, was a resident of Carlsbad, afterwards removing to Roswell. Best wishes for all concerned are in order. The boys each weighed six pounds, and have received the names of Tom, Jr., and John Claib, the father, grandfather and great-grandfather being thus honored.

CATTLEMAN SHOT AT CORONA, NEW MEXICO

J. S. Gillespie, a cattleman, was shot at Corona several days ago by P. Luttrell, a farmer. The shooting took place in front of the post office at Corona. Luttrell was at once arrested and held pending an investigation. While the information was meagre, it has since been learned that the two men had been in earnest conversation when all at once Luttrell reached for his hip pocket and drew forth a revolver. The gun was fired, whether accidentally or not will be determined by the investigation, and Mr. Gillespie dropped to the sidewalk and expired almost instantly.

J. W. Gillespie was at one time captured and held by bandits in Mexico for $5,000 ransom.—Livingston Leader.

Mrs. Claud Farris left Monday on two months trip to the home of her sister at Obion, Tennessee, and later will visit her mother in Missouri and her old home in Kentucky. Her friends here are wishing for her the good time she anticipates and deserves.

THIS COUNTRY ALL RIGHT IN EVERY WAY

This country is all right in every way. It is second to none other on earth. It has immeasurable resources, developed and undeveloped, and our present national debt, a large part of it advanced money to other nations great as it is, is smaller than that of any other of the great powers. It will be paid, as in the past, long before due. Alas, big or little, will not disturb the American people, who will heretofore move forward in the even tenor of their way to our common destiny and heritage.—Byron Times.

What's done as much as anything else to fill up the movie houses

LOOK at the crowds that step out of their cars in front of the movies every summer evening.

The movie managers would be renting half of their theatres for store space, if it weren't for the automobile.

II

It is typical of Americans that they took to the automobile as a matter of course—just as they have to the movies and to every other great invention of the last half century.

And the same thing has happened everytime. Taking things as they come is a fine way to foster waste and extravagance.

As regards tires, the comeback is about due. People are pretty near through paying for something that isn't there when they look for it.

III

What a man pays for in a tire is quality—not a limited number of miles or the privilege of getting a rebate in case the miles don't come up to the limit.

U. S. Tires are guaranteed as to quality—with no limitation of mileage.

And that holds just as good for the small car tire as for the biggest U. S. Tire we've got. There's only one standard of quality with U. S.—and the size of the car has nothing whatever to do with it.

IV

We represent U. S. Tires in this town. You'll find it worth while to talk to us before you buy any more tires.

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:

In sandy or hilly country, wherever the going is apt to be heavy—The U. S. Nobby.

For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Uco.

Everett Grantham received a wire Monday telling him to report for an examination under Civil Service rules for admission as a cadet at the United States Navy Training School at Annapolis, he having received notice of his appointment a few days previous, and left Monday night. Aside from being the youngest graduate from the Carlsbad schools, Everett had one year at the State University at Albuquerque, and previous to that time, was stationed with the Naval Reserve at Mare Island, California, during the late war. Examination began Wednesday morning at Roswell in eight studies, and Carlsbad people, who are aware of Everett's attainments, have very little fear of him not passing.

Five Minute Chats on Our Presidents

By JAMES MORGAN

(Copyright, 1920, by James Morgan.)

JAMES MADISON

1751, March 16—James Madison born at Port Conway, Va.

1772—Graduated at Princeton.

1776—In Virginia legislature.

1780-3, 1785-6—In Continental congress.

1787—In constitutional convention.

1789-97—In congress.

1794—Married Dorothy Todd Payne.

1801-9—Secretary of state.

AS JAMES MADISON made a great name for himself before entering the presidency and added nothing to it while in the White House, it must be that he was a good deal of a man but not much of a president.

Like all the more famous Virginians, Madison was not of the highest aristocracy, but the son of a plain, well-to-do farmer in an outlying county. His early life was passed at Montpelier, the farm which his grandfather had wrested from the Indians; from it he drew his only private income and at last he was buried in its soil. He was dependent on his father until he was fifty, when the latter died and the place became his own, with 100 slaves, who continued always to address him simply as "Mister Jimmy."

Standing only five feet six inches and one-quarter inches, he was, with Grant the smallest of our presidents. Naturally thin and frail his zeal for study nearly wrecked his health while a student at Princeton college, where for months at a time he slept only three hours out of the 24. Unfitted for military duty when the Revolution came, he went to the Virginia legislature instead. Yet this seemingly broken-down young man was destined to be the longest lived of all the presidents, with the single exception of John Adams.

When a candidate for re-election to the legislature, Madison revolted against the old Virginia custom of setting up the drinks. His morality was mistaken for stinginess and the thirsty voters flocked to the capacious barrel of his opponent, who was elected. The defeated candidate had to wait a dozen years for his first chance to distinguish himself. Still no time was lost, for, while he was waiting, he diligently prepared to meet opportunity when it should come and made a close study of all governments, ancient and modern.

If Madison had not been crossed and blessed in love, posterity might not catch him on his human side at all and only yawn over this prosy, serious, staid, cool-tempered unaggressive, weakened, little great man. He was already a mature bachelor of thirty-two and a member of the Continental congress, when a sixteen-year-old girl in his Philadelphia boarding house was the first to touch a soft spot in his heart. A young clergyman who hung and sighed over her harpsichord cut him out, and he was painfully awakened from his first dream of love by a letter of dismissal which, for reasons unknown to this later generation, the young miss sealed with a pinch of rye dough.

Madison was past forty, and well into his Indian summer, when he became involved in still another boarding house romance at Philadelphia. Only, instead of a lady boarder, he fell in love this time with a landlady's daughter, Dolly Payne Todd, who was only twenty-six, had lost her husband and was living with her mother, "who received into her house a few gentlemen boarders." Among them was Senator Aaron Burr of New York. Madison himself was staying at another house, where he and two other future presidents, Jefferson and Monroe, were living three in a room.

There the fame of the pretty young Quakeress traveled to him, and he asked Burr—they were at Princeton together—to take him to see her. The match flamed up in the flash of an eye, and Dolly and her boy were borne away to Montpelier, where she proved her tactfulness and kindness by dwelling in peace under the same roof with her mother-in-law thirty-five years.

Why Brunswick Tires Win Preference

There are two main reasons—one, the name itself, which certifies superfine value—the other, that time tells the same story.

Thus reputation and performance unite in giving you all you expect—and more.

Yet Brunswicks cost no more than like-type tires. Many motorists would pay more readily, but the Brunswick idea is to GIVE the utmost, rather than to GET the utmost. And this has been true since 1845. You can appreciate what Brunswick Standards mean by trying ONE Brunswick Tire. It will be a revelation. You'll agree that you could not buy a better, regardless of price.

And, like other motorists, you'll decide to have ALL Brunswicks. Then you'll know supreme satisfaction from your tires—longer life, minimum trouble, lower cost.

Central Station Service Is the Fountain of Home Comfort

It supplies life to the "electrical servants" that make the wife happy and the home the essence of comfort.

It makes these things possible—

The Electric Fan, which brings happiness and comfort on the hottest days.

The Electric Light, which does away with eye strain and makes the home a place of joy in the evenings.

The Electric Appliance for the table, which prepares such dainty meals without fuss or running to and fro.

The Electric Iron, which makes the housewife sing through a task that used to leave her tired and hopeless.

The Electric Cleaner, which searches every nook and cranny for dirt and dust and makes no demands on the strength of the housewife.

The Electric Washer, which takes over the weekly deluge of washing and leaves the housewife free to attend to her other household and social duties.

Central Station Service makes all these things and many other things possible and the service is cheap and universally satisfactory.

We are your Central Station—call us up and let us tell you how our service can serve you. When you 'phone 115 ask for Mr. Clark; he is an expert on household "electrical servants."

They expect to set the things in the house and leave for a visit, wisely leaving the details of straightening up until their return. They have a pretty little home and here's hoping they may enjoy it for years to come.

Draper Brandley was six years old last Saturday and such a momentous occasion in his life could not be allowed to pass without some observance. Therefore, the usual pink and white cake, with its six candles and plenty of ice cream was forthcoming, and the company of several neighbor boys, of about the same age, will keep the day fixed in his remembrance.

Mrs. Weiss, having disposed of her household effects, which were stored in this city, left for her home in Pukwana, North Dakota, last Saturday, followed by the best wishes of a large circle of friends, gathered around her during the different winters she and her daughter spent in our midst.

BORN—Friday night, Aug. 13, to Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Haines, a baby daughter. May all happiness and prosperity attend the child of this worthy young couple.

Miss Mary Martin, niece of Mrs. F. E. Little, left this week for her home at Rockwall, Texas, after spending the summer in Carlsbad at the home of her aunt. The girls spent Saturday and Sunday at the hospitable Bush home, and had a pleasant visit. The same party was entertained at a dinner Tuesday night, and Miss Gladys Summerfield was a clever hostess to the quartet on Tuesday afternoon.

TEXAS WATER SUIT MAY BE ARBITRATED

Austin, Texas, Aug. 11.—Proposed institution in a suit by the state of Texas against the state of New Mexico for an equitable distribution of the waters of the Pecos river, as authorized by the Texas legislature may be avoided if plans now in progress are carried out, said Assistant Attorney General W. W. Caves, who has charge of the matter and who has just returned from Carlsbad, New Mexico, where he has been in conference with the New Mexico authorities.

Judge Caves said he found the state engineer and other officials of New Mexico more than willing to reach an amicable agreement on the proposition without having to resort to extended litigation. There are approximately 200,000 acres of fertile land situated in the Pecos valley, Judge Caves said, and of this acreage there are additional 30,000 unirrigated, and 100,000 more in which irrigation ditches have been constructed and the owners of the land are ready for reception of the water.

The construction of a dam by the federal government at Carlsbad is one of the contributing causes of the failure of sufficient water to flow into Texas. It was also found that there is not a suitable reservoir site in Texas where-in a sufficient amount of water could be stored for irrigating of 200,000 acres, but just across the state line into New Mexico there is what is known as the Red Bluff reservoir site which is said to be suited for an adequate reservoir, and the only stumbling block is that a man named Thorp has filed an application for a reservoir at Red Bluff and this is being resisted by the state of Texas.

In the event the Thorp application is refused, then it will be possible to carry out the plans for the establishment of a reservoir at Red Bluff, which will store a sufficient amount of water to irrigate the Texas lands.

MOTHER GOOSE BAZAAR.

The entertainment given by the girls of the "Ever Ready" class of the Methodist Sunday School last Monday night was seriously interfered with by the rain, but a good crowd attended considering the inclement weather, and the girls received a very liberal patronage.

Booths had been erected in the Sunday School rooms, five in number, and in these the various characters sold their wares.

"The old woman who lived in a shoe" had dolls of all kinds, which she offered for sale at reasonable prices. "Mistress Mary" sold candy, "Little Miss Muffet" sat on a tuffet and sold ice cream and cake and was well patronized. "The Maid in the garden" industriously hung out her clothes, and offered her wares for sale, she having handkerchiefs, aprons, and other necessities. "Little Bo Peep" was on hand but instead of her sheep she had charge of a fish pond.

Other members of the class rendered valiant service in different ways and deserve great credit for their helpfulness.

When their necessary expenses are paid the girls expect to have enough to pay their pledge for the benevolences of the church and a nice sum to put by for a start toward the new church building.

A. J. Rader was in from his ranch in Culberson county, Texas, the first of the week, coming for a visit with his brother, Kade, who is in Eddy County Hospital, recovering from a broken leg. He is getting along as well as the nature of the injury and his age warrant.

Richard Merchant, foreman of the San Simon ranch, came in from there last Monday and remained several days to take in the Carnival.
