NUMBER 41

CARLSBAD'S SCHOOLS TO OPEN SEP. 6

REPAIRS MADE ON BUILDINGS AND FACILITY ABOUT COMPLETE

The Carlsbad City Schools will open the sixth of September, and the number of new students reported indicate that the enrollment will be nearly two hundred in the high school alone.

The faculty has been completed, except for a teacher of manual training and the board hopes to have one secured by the opening date.

The first grade teacher will be Miss Frances Wright of Traverse City, Michigan. Miss Wright is a graduate of the Normal at Duluth, Minnesota, and her recommendations are the best.

Miss Lurline Mahan is another of our grade teachers, and is the daughter of Rev. Mahan of our city. Miss Mahan is a graduate of the San Houston Normal, Huntsville, and her two years of experience enabled her to offer very satisfactory recommendations.

Miss Zada Mudgett is one of our home girls, who graduated from the Normal University in June, and her three years of work in the schools of the county assure us of good fortune in securing her services.

Miss Rhoda Harvey is a graduate of the Normal of Mayville, North Dakota. She has had six years of experience and is a sister of Miss Lella Harvey of the High School faculty.

Miss Edyth Buie comes to us from Boulder, Colorado, where she has been a student in the University. She is a graduate of the West Texas State Normal School and has done one year of teaching, before entering the University, where she has been two years.

Miss Jeanette Anderson of Malaga, comes to us from the El Paso city schools, where she was assistant principal in one of the ward schools. Miss Anderson is a graduate of Normal College of Texas, and has had five years of experience in the El Paso schools.

The other members of the Central school faculty were here last year, and are as follows:

Miss Pattie Witt, Mrs. T. E. Rogers, Mrs. Wilma Dillard and Mrs. A. A. Kaiser, who becomes the principal of the Central school.

The Spanish - American school will have three teachers, all of whom live in our city.

Mrs. D. F. Sellars will be principal and has spent the past summer in the University of Southern California, taking courses which prepare her for this particular position.

Miss Rubena Summerfield and Miss Ruth Duncan will be the assistants, and each have a speaking knowledge of the language.

Miss Cora Gouwens has been spending the summer in the University of Chicago, and again will teach in the departmental work of the seventh and eighth grades.

Mr. Bruce Wallace, of Dayton, will also do some departmental work of these grades, besides being in charge of the athletics of the High School. Mr. Wallace is a graduate of Pomona College, California, and served as director of athletics and military drill in the El Monte High School after being released from the army where he was a first lieutenant. Other business interests nearby make it possible to obtain his services for this year.

Miss Elizabeth Smith will have charge of the music and is a graduate of the State Teachers' College of Colorado.

Miss Grace Cooke, of Carlsbad, will be employed as Industrial Art teacher for work in the first six grades.

Miss Caroline Jones, who is a graduate of the A. & M. College of Oklahoma, will be in charge of the Domestic Science of the High School.

Miss Beas Chaney will be principal of the High School. Miss Chaney is a graduate of the Teachers' College of Missouri, and has been superintendent of the schools at Concordia, Missouri, for the past two years.

All other positions in the high school faculty will be filled by the teachers who were here last year, all of whom are well qualified to fill the positions and their services during the past year were entirely satisfactory.

Carlsbad is fortunate to have a man so well qualified as Professor Donley in charge of the schools.

Our schools have always had a high standing among the educational institutions of the state, and under his able leadership, and the active co-operation of the patrons, the schools will have a still higher position among like institutions of learning.

Let's all get together and boost for the schools, the most important factor in the upbuilding of Carlsbad.

COMPULSORY SCHOOL LAW AND VACCINATION RULE TO BE ENFORCED.

All the public schools of Eddy County will open for enrollment on Monday, September 6, 1929, and the work for the school year 1929-1931 will begin.

Including the independent districts, about ninety teachers will be required for the county this year.

All children between the ages of six and sixteen years of age, unless excused for legal reasons, will be required to attend school, and provisions are being made for the enforcement of the compulsory law.

Teachers will make a weekly report of children residing in the school district who are of school age and not in school.

Violations of the compulsory law are punishable by fines of from five to one hundred dollars for not sending children to school, and from five to fifty dollars for employment of children of school age while school is in session.

Children who have not been successfully vaccinated are required to be vaccinated under the New Mexico health laws under penalty of from ten to one hundred dollars, and teachers and school officials are required under law, to see that the provisions of the law are enforced.

If, for any reason, children are not in physical condition to attend school or to be vaccinated, parents should present satisfactory reasons to the superintendent of the city or county wherein the student resides, to avoid legal action and possible cost of court action.

Children between fourteen and sixteen, if regularly employed, under necessary conditions, may be excused from attendance at school by the superintendent, if, in his judgment, such excuses are warranted.

Teachers and parents have no legal authority to determine who may or who may not be excused from school attendance.

The state has provided for the education of all its children and has safeguarded their interests by the enactment of rigid laws governing attendance and protecting their health, and it intends that these laws be enforced within reason.

LOVING POST OFFICE ROBBED TUESDAY NIGHT

The post office at Loving was broken into and robbed of some twenty-five dollars in money, and a number of small articles, among others, a wrist watch and a number of knives. The robbery occurred Tuesday night, and entrance was effected through the back door, a piece being cut out, making it easy to unlock the door.

The office is in the same building as the Roberts-Deaton Hardware Company.

The sheriff is working on the case, and we may expect developments in a few days.

DEMOCRATS OF STATE HOLD CONVENTION

ROBT. C. DOW, OF EDDY COUNTY, GETS NOMINATION FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL OF STATE

Hanna demonstration lasted fourteen minutes. Vote on Patton 237 1/2, Brice 210 1/2.

The complete ticket as nominated by the Democratic state convention in session at Las Vegas this week is as follows:

Governor, Richard H. Hanna, of Santa Fe.

Congressman, Antonio Lucero, of Las Vegas, former secretary of state.

Associate Justice of Supreme Court, Harry L. Patton, of Clovis, former attorney general of New Mexico.

Lieutenant Governor, Captain Atwood, of Roswell, a former resident of Artesia.

Secretary of State, F. C. De Baca, of San Miguel county.

State Treasurer, Harry Slack, of Gallup, McKinley county.

Land Commissioner, H. L. Kerr, of Luna county.

Superintendent of Public Instruction, R. S. Tipton, of Otero county.

Attorney General, Robt. C. Dow, of Carlsbad, Eddy county.

Corporation Commissioner, Geo. Perrin, of Vaughn, N. M.

Presidential Electors, R. L. Young of Dona Ana county; J. B. Priddy, of Roosevelt county; and Serferio Martinez, of Colfax county.

Eddy county was honored by the selection of one of her foremost young democrats, Hon. Robt. C. Dow, as a candidate for the office of attorney general. Eddy county's delegation was instructed for him for congressman, but there was a real need for a lawyer of his ability to make the race for attorney general, so he was prevailed upon to permit his name to go before the convention for that office.

The delegates of Eddy county also worked hard for the nomination of C. R. Brice for supreme judge, but could not get the required number of votes to elect him, Harry L. Patton, of Clovis being nominated because he is a strong man over the state, having been elected attorney general, and because there was a feeling that Curry county was entitled to recognition.

The placing of an Eddy county man on the ticket will serve to bring out a large democratic vote in the Pecos valley this fall and more strenuous efforts than ever before displayed will be made by the party in Eastern New Mexico to cast a large vote at the regular election.

The delegation from this county to the convention was small on account of the rainy weather prevailing the first of the week, which scared out those intending to go in cars, but the following list of delegates were there to cast Eddy county's 13 votes:

S. D. Stennis, Jr., Carlsbad.
John W. Armstrong, Carlsbad.
Fred E. Wilson, Carlsbad.
Robt. C. Dow, Carlsbad.
Guy A. Reed, Carlsbad.
J. B. McGhee, Carlsbad.
S. L. Perry, Carlsbad.
Dr. M. P. Skeen, Artesia.
W. G. Hartell, Artesia.
J. H. Jackson, Artesia.

Democrats of New Mexico, over 600 strong, formally launched their

BOY SCOUT LOCAL COUNCIL

McLean Wilson, field agent for the Boy Scout work, coming from New York, but with headquarters at present in Dallas, was in town Monday and Tuesday, and under his direction, a local council was organized.

The Council is made up of a body of substantial citizens committed to take a special interest in boys of the adolescent age, and to promote the life and activity of the Scout organization.

The men include the Scout officials, and altogether they are as follows:

D. M. Jackson, H. I. Braden, A. N. Pratt, Will Purdy, W. H. Merchant, R. M. Thorne, W. A. Craig, Clarence Bell, J. F. Joyce, Fred Wilson, E. Hendricks, Dr. W. F. Glasier, Dr. M. B. Culpepper, Bert Rawlins, Wilmer White, Robert Finlay, Rev. F. W. Pratt, Rev. D. F. Sellards, Rev. Geo. H. Givan, Father Francis, Rev. H. W. Lowry, Rev. T. C. Mahan, S. L. Perry, Victor Minter, Prof. W. G. Donley, E. V. Albritton, Carl Livingston, T. C. Horne, Walter Craft, and E. A. Roberts.

Of these Prof. Donley was made president, Will Purdy first vice-president, Bert Rawlins second vice-president, Rev. F. W. Pratt third vice-president, D. M. Jackson secretary, Carl Livingston treasurer, Rev. H. W. Lowry commissioner.

The vice-presidents are each chairmen of active committees. The first is charged with organization, administration and finance; the second with camping, leadership and training; the third with the court of honor, civic affairs and educational publicity.

The commissioner has general oversight. The meeting of the full council will be held regularly only once a year, and the interest in the meantime will be left to the executive committee.

Under the new arrangement the Scout life is expected to function better than ever before.

campaign of 1920, when they opened the state nominating convention in the Duncan opera house at Las Vegas, Tuesday morning. There were more than 600 delegates present to cast the 448 votes of the convention and every one of them showed the enthusiasm they will display during the coming campaign when it is confidently expected to sweep the state for their party. The number of women present did not exceed 100 and they took a keen interest in everything that went on, being given places of honor on the rostrum. The central committee chose the following temporary officers to preside at the opening meeting of the convention: Chairman, John F. Simms of Bernalillo; chairwoman, (Continued on page four)

ALASKA HAS VAST WEALTH

UNITED STATES AT LAST BEGINNING TO AWAKEN TO THAT FACT.

Alaska's supply of heat is at this moment the outstanding hope for a lasting answer to the coal question in America, and by winter the first effects of the timorous tapping of our great northern treasure-house should be felt.

Small mountains of the highest grade of coal are heaped up at Chicaloon, and construction crews under the direction of naval officers are rushing work on a washing plant so that the coal may be transported to Seward and made available for the Pacific fleet.

The million-dollar job under way at Chicaloon affects every household, every industry in the United States.

It promises the independence of the Pacific coast from eastern fuel sources and the ultimate end of the costly shipment of fuel thru the Panama Canal and over the continent.

The navy is about to make use of a few pinches of natural wealth so vast that surveys and explorations and estimates thus far made have revealed only a small percentage of it.

Present activity in the eastern Matanuska coal field presages the awakening of America to the real value of her last frontier.

Transportation of coal to New-castle, the classic example of economic folly, has for years been duplicated on a large scale in the shipment of coal and fuel oil to Alaska from the states and from British Columbia.

The United States Geological survey says, in analyzing coal prospects in Alaska:

"It is therefore probably safe to say that the minimum estimate of Alaska's coal resource should be placed at 150,000,000,000 tons, and that the actual tonnage may be many times that amount."

Such an array of ciphers makes but a hazy impression on any mind that does not function as an adding machine, but the next statement of the government is more comprehensible:

"These figures indicate coal resources far in excess of the original coal supply of Pennsylvania."

The governors of six New England states last month assembled reports on the fuel outlook and were faced by the realization that the Pacific coast made demands on eastern coal, requiring 50-day round trip journeys for the coal.

At the very time the detailed information was published, there was shipped through the Panama canal in one week, for navy use, 13,745 tons of the highest grade coal.

In seeking the explanation of Alaska's long sleep, with an entire population of but about 53,000 including 23,000 natives, two predominant factors are encountered.

The chaotic invasion of Alaskan affairs by 12 governmental bureaus, overlapping, conflicting and confused in function and authority.

A rigid conservation policy prompted by the costly experiences of the United States with exploiting corporations that have grabbed natural resources and have exploited them, regardless of general welfare.

The beaureaucratic government is the fault of no one in particular. Administrative questions are passed from Alaska to Washington and back again, frequently with stop-overs at Seattle, until the maze of red tape completely throttles many a pioneering plan.

The conservation policy has kept capital, big and little, out of Alaska.

Leasing laws, including the new lay for the opening of the oil fields have not met Alaskan needs, it is asserted.

Two bills now awaiting the consideration of congress, are destined to open the way for settlement in Alaska; the Curry bill in the house and the New bill in the senate. From these measures it is expected to shape legislation which will give to Alaska a government of its own; a territorial commission of Alaskans, empowered to bring in the settlers and capital necessary for the conquest of the last frontier.

Rev. Mahan, pastor of the local Baptist church, returned last night from the northern part of the valley and will preach at the usual hour next Sunday morning. There will be no evening service the pastor and others expecting to attend a meeting of the B. Y. P. U. at Artesia at that time.

BUYER PROTECTED BY ADVERTISING

Manufacturer Must Maintain Quality of Goods Bearing His Name.

HIS REPUTATION AT STAKE

Man Who Buys Standard Brands From Local Merchants Knows That He is Getting Full Value for His Money.

(Copyright, 1917, Western Newspaper Union.) Time was when advertising did not occupy the place in the world of trade that it does today. It has not been so very many years ago that the people were suspicious of advertising. They were inclined to believe that the merchant was trying to "fool" them with his advertising, that he exaggerated the value of the merchandise he advertised and took that method of trying to get them to buy goods that he could not sell by the old established methods of merchandising.

Those days are gone. The public now realizes that it is the greatest beneficiary of advertising.

Advertising has done more in a decade to establish certain standards in merchandise than could have been accomplished in a hundred years by any other agency. The manufacturer who a few years ago merely made and sold clothes now makes and sells the Blank brand of clothes. The man who formerly just made hats now makes Blank's hats. And so it is with everything that one buys today. The manufacturer, by his advertising, has built up his business around a trade name and if he is to continue in business he must protect that trade name by maintaining such a high standard of quality that people, when they buy his products will know just what they are getting. The consumer, when he goes into a store today, does not buy merchandise blindly, with the HOPE that it will prove to be worth the money. He buys standard goods that bear the trade-mark of the manufacturer and that are backed by the reputation not only of the merchant who sells them but the manufacturer who makes them. This has been brought about by advertising.

No Reputation to Protect.

All this applies to the retail merchants as a class but it does not apply to the mail order business. The man or woman who buys goods from a catalogue house is not protected by the manufacturer of the goods for the reason that most manufacturers who sell goods to the mail order houses do not place their names upon the goods and therefore have no reputation to protect.

The great majority of articles listed and illustrated in the mail order catalogues are included in what is known among manufacturers as "stencil" stuff. These articles bear the name of the mail order house which sells them instead of that of the manufacturer who makes them. It can readily be understood that any manufacturing concern which turns out goods that do not bear its name or trade-mark is likely to be a very unreliable institution. It is not building up any reputation on the quality of its goods for its products have nothing to distinguish them from the products of any other concern. With no reputation to sustain and no chance of creating a general demand for its goods the only concern of a manufacturing institution of this kind is to make stuff as cheaply as possible in order to obtain the largest possible profit on its products.

Same Price World Over.

These facts are chiefly responsible for the generally prevailing idea that the home merchants do not sell goods as cheaply as the mail order house. They do sell the same quality of goods that the mail order house sells as cheaply as the mail order house sells it but they cannot sell the standard, guaranteed products of responsible manufacturers at the same price at which the mail order house sells its nameless, unbranded merchandise. Standard goods bearing a registered trade-mark sell for the same price the world over and the manufacturer's guarantee stands back of them when they are sold in the smallest village in the country just the same as when they are sold in the stores of the largest cities.

This is what the national advertising of the manufacturers has done for the consumers of the country. It has enabled them to go into their home stores and buy merchandise which they know from past experience or from the reputation and guarantee of the manufacturer will give them satisfaction. They are not buying blindly and hopefully when they buy from the merchants in their home towns. They are buying with the knowledge that they are getting their money's worth. When they buy advertised brands they are getting double protection, that which is afforded by the responsibility of the retail merchant and that which is given by the reputation and guarantee of the manufacturer. When they buy the unknown brands of goods that are offered by the mail order houses they are getting neither kind of protection.

There are about 22,000 deaf and dumb persons in the United Kingdom, between 3,000 and 4,000 residing in London.

YOU CAN'T DO BETTER ANYWHERE

Students are now beginning to come to us from the "big" schools because the "big schools" are too crowded and too expensive. They cannot give students personal interest or attention, and we are no longer able to give them the best of instruction. The first two years of college work are the same in the "big" school and the smaller one, except that they are better taught in the smaller one. You will get more for your time and money by taking the first two years of your college work in the schools of your own state. The New Mexico State Normal's

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. F. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(Copyright, 1920, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR AUGUST 29

BEGINNING OF SOLOMON'S REIGN

LESSON TEXT—1 Kings 1:1-31.
GOLDEN TEXT—The fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.—Job 28:28.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Solomon's Choice.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Solomon's Wise Beginning.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Choosing the Best Things.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—True Wisdom and How to Get It.

1. Solomon Anointed King (1:1-40).
David had hitherto failed to show the people who should be king after him (v. 30). He is now stirred to action by the combined appeals of Bathsheba and Nathan. He immediately sent for the faithful three, Zadok, Nathan and Benaiab, and bade them to anoint Solomon king. They speedily executed their commission and soon the people shouted "God save king Solomon!"

2. Solomon's Acts to Establish His Kingdom (1:41-2:46).
Coming to the kingdom at such a time as this, he noted certain dangerous elements, which, if allowed to develop, would weaken if not destroy his rule.

1. Adonijah placed under surveillance (vv. 41-43). Though he had attempted to usurp the kingdom, Solomon placed him on good behavior. In this treatment, Solomon displayed both clemency and dignity, which are praiseworthy in a ruler.

2. Adonijah executed (2:13-25). Solomon ordered him executed because he made an underhanded effort to become king.

3. Abiathar removed from the priesthood (2:26, 27). This man had joined Adonijah in his plot of usurpation. Solomon removed him from office and appointed Zadok in his stead.

4. Joab executed (2:28-35). Joab, too, was a party in Adonijah's rebellion. Beside this he had treacherously murdered his rivals in the army. He was succeeded in the generalship by Benaiab.

5. Shimei executed (2:36-46). Shimei had deserted David and joined his enemies, even bitterly cursed him. Solomon first paroled him and confined him to Jerusalem, but when he broke his parole he had him executed.

III. God's Gracious Offer to Solomon (3:1, 5).
Solomon made a lavish sacrifice to the Lord. It was not that the Lord cared for the number of animals, but the attitude of the man's heart toward him. "Ask what I shall give thee" placed very wide possibilities before the king. God, as it were, signed blank checks and turned them over to Solomon to fill in any amount that his heart desired.

IV. Solomon's Wise Choice (3:6-9).
The Lord's gracious offer brought the king face to face with the responsibility of making a choice. God so deals with his children that a choice must be made by everyone. Solomon was keenly sensible of the difficulty and the responsibility of his position. David was a great king. For a young man to take up the work of an illustrious father and push it to completion is a most difficult task. Besides all this, the disturbing elements set in motion by the usurper, Adonijah, were to be dealt with. In his reply to God he pleads that he was not king as a result of his own choosing, but because of God's loving kindness. All who have been called of God to fill positions of honor and trust can truly exercise that same boldness of faith. When called to positions of honor and trust we should not become high-minded and vain, but humbly present ourselves before God for help.

V. God's Unstinted Gift to Solomon (3:10-15).
Solomon's speech pleased the Lord. The Lord is always pleased when we place ourselves before him in such attitude. Solomon got more than he asked for. Because he put wisdom first, God saw that he could be trusted with material good, also. Christ taught the same thing when he said, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."—Matt. 6:33. He that puts God and spiritual things first in time and importance can be trusted with temporal things. That which God promised him above what he asked was riches, honor and length of days. All who feel the lack of wisdom can go to God with confidence (James 1:5). God blessed Solomon with a singularly comprehensive mind (1 Kings 4:29-34). He was a botanist, zoologist, architect, poet, and a moral philosopher. When we ask what God wills, we shall surely get what we ask.

To Cheer Thee on Thy Way.
Neither hurrying nor slackening, but sure of thy great and glorious destiny, walk thou; and presently all around thee shalt thou see the similitude of him who thou seekest: He shall send a multitude of messengers in advance to cheer thee on thy way.—Edward Carpenter.

Common Sense.
Common sense is, of all kinds, the most uncommon. It implies good judgment, sound discretion and true and practical wisdom.—Tyron Edwards.

Why Trifle With Green, Unripe Drinks? Drink Schlitz—It Is Aged

YOU would not eat green fruit—fruit which is unripe. Yet unless you exercise care you will drink an unripe beverage—and suffer consequences.

There is a tendency today to cheapen and hasten beverages to meet a quantity demand.

Schlitz is not rushed. It is a scientific product—not a trifling concoction of the moment.

The years of experience and the hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of equipment that made Schlitz famous is making the Schlitz of today.

Schlitz is thoroughly aged—fully ripe. Then it is cooled in plate glass rooms, in filtered air.

The final step, after bottling and sealing, is sterilization by Pasteur's process—through which it is impossible for any germ to exist.

When we say Schlitz is pure we mean also that it contains no living organisms—no bacilli—nothing to cause fermentation in your stomach.

Drink Schlitz today. The Brown Bottle protects it.

DEMOCRATS OF STATE HOLD CONVENTION.

Mrs. C. L. Collins of Union; secretary Byron O. Beall of Chaves; assistant secretaries, Mrs. M. C. Brown of Sierra, Florencio C. de Baca of San Miguel; sergeant at arms, Fred F. Kahnt of Bernalillo; Democrats of New Mexico "as representatives of the oldest political party in the United States, sustained by the consciousness of duty in our government well done both in peace and war, approach the impending conflict with enthusiasm," said John P. Simms, of Bernalillo county, temporary chairman in the opening paragraph of his keynote address. A fair sample of the enthusiasm to which the keynote referred was exhibited when Simms faced his large audience to begin the address which severely took to task the Republicans, particularly as regards the state administration of affairs; and extolled the virtues of democrats from President Wilson down.

Wednesday morning the convention was an hour late owing to the fact that the delegates were auto riding over the city and surrounding country as the guests of the chamber of commerce. The session was devoted to reports of the committee on credentials, rules and order of business and permanent organization.

Antonio Lucero of San Miguel county was chosen as the permanent chairman. Mrs. C. L. Collins of Union county chairwoman, Byron O. Beall of Roswell secretary, and Mrs. L. B. Brown, of Sierra county, assistant secretary. Antonio Lucero then eloquently addressed the convention.

Wednesday afternoon United States Senator A. A. Jones, of Las Vegas, addressed the convention defending vigorously the covenant of the League of Nations and the acts of President Wilson. He urged that the Democrats wage a strong fight in their home districts in defense of the League of Nations and accused the Republicans of willingness to surrender the destiny of this country to the German people.

Resolutions of sympathy were sent to the Republican women of Bernalillo county who were refused permission to take part of the county caucus early this week. The widow of Ex-Gov. E. C. de Baca appeared at the convention and was given an honorary position.

Wednesday afternoon and evening the nominations began and it was decided on motion of John W. Armstrong, of Carlsbad, that the convention stay in session until its work was completed if it took all night. The session lasted until two o'clock the next morning before the nominations were disposed of.

The platform adopted at the convention recommends sweeping changes in the laws of New Mexico as they effect the conduct of government, education, the administration of the public lands and the handling of labor questions. The platform, running about 2,500 words, contains many specific promises to the electorate of New Mexico. Among the governmental changes is demand for the enactment of a law requiring all political parties in the state to select nominees for county offices and delegates to state and district conventions by primary elections. The convention favored increasing the pay of members of the state legislature to an amount sufficient to pay living costs. It demanded that the state be redistricted for legislative purposes in accordance with present population. The repeal of the present workman's compensation law and the passage in lieu of a measure modeled after the Ohio law is asked. The platform asks that the demands of labor be met with sympathy, justice and fairness to the workingman, but with a realization of the paramount interest of the public. An eight-hour day and a minimum wage for women and girls in all industry is favored.

The platform asks the repeal of all tax legislation passed by recent republican legislatures and a complete revision of the whole taxing system. The mine tax law is particularly condemned. The administration of state lands by a bipartisan board is favored with the recommendation that the remaining public domain be relinquished to the state under proper administration.

The republican administration is scored for failure to include the subject of better salaries for teachers in the call for the special session held this spring. The democrats pledged their support to a salary schedule based upon proven efficiency with a minimum of $1,200 yearly. Higher salaries and qualifications for county school superintendents and free text books in grammar grades of public schools are asked. The removal of state institutions and public schools from politics and the passage of a special levy to maintain the higher institutions of learning are asked in the platform. The party is pledged to a program of adequate legal and financial provision for a strong state department of health and efficient local health administration. Efficiency and economy in the administration of public affairs is asked.

To that end, the party demands the abolition of all useless offices and lists the twenty-two mounted policemen, eight gasoline inspectors and twenty-nine "gubernatorial proteges foisted upon the counties as superintendents" as deserving special attention. The passage of a comprehensive budget system to include all state expenditures is asked. Liberal and effective laws for the care and rehabilitation of disabled veterans are favored as are measures to give aid in land settlement, home building or vocational training to ex-service men and women.

The convention took a square stand against the repeal or modification of the Volstead act. It asked that a non-partisan board be created to protect and conserve the wild game of the state. The women were congratulated upon their enfranchisement and a demand was voiced that the constitution of the state of New Mexico be changed to allow women to hold any office under the same restrictions as now apply to men. The platform adopted at San Francisco was endorsed, as were the nominations of Cox and Roosevelt.

CAMP SMITH, BLACK RIVER.

Editor Current:

If you have failed to see the Boy Scout camp at the Julian Smith place you have failed to see the greatest sight of the season. Twenty-five tents and forty-five of the jolliest, happiest boys one ever has the pleasure of seeing. The Carlsbad boys have as their guests Troup No. 2 of Roswell under Scoutmaster J. P. Childress. They are a dandy set of genuine Scouts and know how to live in camp life.

A regular program is being carried out and the boys are under regular military rule, and carry out the program to a T.

The boys are in charge of Scoutmasters Childress, of Roswell and Rawlins and White of Carlsbad, assisted by Mathewson. Mathewson is directing the military work and the swimming—training the boys to be expert swimmers and life savers.

The boys have a splendid cook and he is putting up the good chuck. All the boys are well and happy and when Claude Brown, our bugler, sounds taps, they are a happy bunch that rolls in.

A SCOUT.

WANTED.—Room and board by school girl from Monday night until Saturday of each week. Phone 42N or call at Current office for information.

C. H. Ross, of Pecos, stockman, is a visitor to the city this week, registered at the Palace hotel.

The old fashion spelling match advertised by the Methodist ladies, for last night was only slimly attended. Those who spelled demonstrated the need of such a meeting, many going down to defeat on words in general use. Mrs. C. H. Dishman was the star speller. A lot of fun and much real good was accomplished and as a series of such "spells" may be given in the near future. Punch and wafers were served those present.

Richard Edgar, of Roswell, is in town this morning. Mr. Edgar is manager of the Singer Sewing Machine company of Roswell and has entire charge of the business of that company in this section of the country.

J. W. Jones is in town from the ML ranch this week.

J. G. Usery this week sold to W. C. Cogburn two cars of unbroken horses at $45 around. The animals will be shipped to McJador, Texas, to the Matador Land & Cattle company, for use as cow ponies.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Jones and Dallas, came in from the northern part of the state and are again at home at their residence west of the city.

Dean Smith and family are expected to arrive in Carlsbad the first of September to take up their residence with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fisher and son, Albert, and Mrs. Kircher and daughters, left for Hope to attend the celebration early this morning.

ROSWELL VS. CARLSBAD.

Three of the prettiest games that have been played in the valley were played in Carlsbad last Friday, Saturday and Sunday, with Roswell.

The teams were very evenly matched. Roswell taking two out of the three games.

The games were all good and showed signs of big league ball all the way through, and were a pitched battle from beginning to end.

The score for the three days was: Friday, 1 to 0, in favor of Roswell.

Saturday, 3 to 0 in favor of Carlsbad.

Sunday, 2 to 1 in favor of Roswell.

The series of the year have all been good games and every one seems to be pleased with the class of ball that the teams have been putting out this year.

Labor day celebration will probably close the very successful base ball season for Carlsbad. There will probably be a series of games between Pecos and Carlsbad here on that day and a big dance at night, given by the base ball club.

OTIS ITEMS.

Mrs. Terry Baaham left for her home at Barstow Saturday after visiting at the Bert Slesse home.

Our school has been cleaned and painted, also new screens and is now ready for the fall opening.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dusen, former residents of Otis, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Moberly. They will remain in Carlsbad if they can find a house.

Mrs. Mabel Polk and Miss Rebecca Graham returned Saturday from their trip east. The young ladies attended school at Columbia University, New York, this summer, specializing in different work, and returned via the Great Lakes and Chicago, coming from there to Carlsbad. Both report a profitable and pleasant summer and are ready to take up their school work. Miss Graham as one of the High School faculty, and Mrs. Polk as teacher of the primary grades in the school at Lovington.

Claude Brown left for Roswell Wednesday night where he went to pitch two games for the Roswell base ball team which played Plainview.

Mrs. W. H. Mullane and daughter, Mary, left Saturday for Alpine, Texas, where Mrs. Mullane's two sisters, Mrs. McCaleb, and Mrs. Mary Barnes, have been stopping for some weeks, during the convalescence of the former from a bad case of pneumonia, coming to Alpine from their home at Carlsbad. Another sister, Mrs. Aubrey Gist, who has made the trip to Alpine for the purpose of being with her sisters will be an added pleasure for Mrs. Mullane. Mrs. Gist who formerly resided in this city and at the ranch in the Guadalupe valley will be remembered by many of our people, who will be grieved to learn that she is entirely blind, with very little hope of her ever regaining her sight. The meeting of the four sisters will no doubt be a happy one.

Mrs. L. O. Pullen was a guest of Mrs. Allen-Stewart during the Legion Carnival, returning to Roswell Saturday night.

City Attorney Guy A. Reed is in Santa Fe this week on legal business.

Mrs. Asa Edwards and sisters, Misses May and Alice Johnson, left for Roswell Monday night, and after a visit there will go to Clovis, where Mr. Edwards has been transferred and where they will make their future home. While their residence in this city has been of short duration, they had made many friends, and best wishes for their health and prosperity accompany them.

Leo Williams, brother of Mrs. Geo. Bond, of this place, has been a visitor in Carlsbad for some time, leaving for Deming, New Mexico, Wednesday morning. Mr. Williams has so much improved in health that he expects to return and take up his permanent residence in Carlsbad.

The family of O. J. Smith, having sold their property here to Mrs. Lloyd, left Wednesday for their new home in Mesquite, Texas.

Dr. L. D. Jones, who recently came to Carlsbad from Fulton, Kentucky, for the benefit of the climate for his wife's health, has decided to remain here and has opened up an office in the James building. The doctor is a graduate of the University of Tennessee, and was one of the many medical men who went overseas during the great war. After his return he was stationed for a time at a government base hospital at Camp Grant, Illinois. The doctor is a very pleasant man to meet socially, and will no doubt be a valuable acquisition to the medical force of our town.

J. C. Wilson and wife came in last night from Pecos where Mr. Wilson has been engaged in business for a number of years. They expect to make their home in Loving, he having accepted the position of cashier in the new bank recently organized in that city.

A round dozen of Carlsbad girls were entertained at the Presbyterian manse last Wednesday night, in honor of Mrs. Warren Weaver, who leaves for the north next Sunday. The guests were all old friends of the honoree and enjoyed being with her at that time.

LAST YEAR'S LAND BOOM

The average increase in farm land values in this country during the year 1919 was greater than the total increase that took place in the fifty years from 1850 to 1900. The consensus of opinion appears to be that last year's boom was of no benefit either to farmers or the country.

About two-thirds of the profit in the states where the advance reached a feverish stage, was gathered in by speculators in cities and towns.

It was rather natural that land prices should advance last year, considering high prices for food products, but the top prices for farm help were not reached until this year. Some people who did buy farm on the top wave of land failed to figure on the high peak of labor yet to come.

Department of Agriculture investigations show that the average worth of tenants in 60 counties where last year's boom was active, was only 12 per cent of the value of the average farm capital. It is not going to encourage a tenant to buy a farm if you ask him eight times as much for the property as he can pay down himself.

Speculation has its uses to some extent, since it enables a man who really needs to sell property, to get a reasonable price for it. But it leads the people to devote their attention to trading when they ought to be producing.

Many of the people who have made money out of land speculation are likely to settle down and do nothing, thus subtracting their efforts from the production of the country.

Land speculation drives buyers into sections where land is relatively cheap and untouched by any craze, and it discourages people from becoming farm owners and increases the amount of capital that must be tied up in food production. All these factors reduce agricultural output.

Mrs. E. A. Roberts and little son, returned this week from their visit to Dulce, New Mexico, where Mrs. Roberts' father, M. S. Groves, is manager of a large lumber company. They report a pleasant summer among the pines.

Fred Nymeyer was in from his ranch near Eunice the first of the week and remained for several days.

JOINT MEETING OF CATTLEMEN

CALIFORNIA URGES TWELVE STATES TO DISCUSS PROBLEMS.

Request that New Mexico cattlemen make arrangements to participate in a joint cattlemen's meeting of representatives of 12 states at Salt Lake City on October 28, 29 and 30 has been received by Frank Clark, Chief Inspector for the Cattle Sanitary Board, from the secretary of the California Cattlemen's Association at San Francisco.

The circular received here is one of a number which are being sent to the leading cattlemen of western states, asking if such a time and place would be convenient for a meeting. Whether the meeting will be held, as desired by the California Cattlemen's Association, will depend upon the replies from the other states.

The states included in the meeting would be New Mexico, Arizona, Colorado, California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Texas, Washington, Wyoming and Utah. The purpose of the meeting, if held, will be to take up the questions which it is believed are of mutual interest to cattlemen from all the western states.

It is pointed out that one-third of the cattle of the country are in the states named, although only one-tenth of the population is with in these bounds.

Questions which the California cattlemen wish to take up are:

A law of action whereby the seasonal surplus supply of cattle from the various states can be gauged; the preparation of a schedule by which a more steady supply of cattle would enter the various eastern and middle western markets; national legislation matters pertaining to federal financial aid; enactment of state or federal legislation toward the eradication of tuberculosis in range cattle and the elimination of tubercular cattle entering our markets; action tending to withhold from prime cattle markets half fat cattle and feeders, preventing glutting other states with feeders; a closer cooperation between state associations with respect to food and other conditions; effort to re-establish the branch offices of the U. S. bureau of markets; policy of campaign having as its object stimulation of consumption.

Mr. Clark will take the matter up with other cattlemen before making a reply, but said this morning that if the meeting was held New Mexico would be well represented.

W. C. T. U. MEETING.

An all day meeting of the Carlsbad Union was held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Oscar Mercer, west of town, and proved very interesting and enjoyable to all who were privileged to attend. The real purpose of the meeting was to tie the bed comforters for the Frances Willard home for girls which will be formally opened in September, at Belen, New Mexico.

A quilt had been quilted some days ago, and four comforters were tied at the meeting on Tuesday.

In addition, a pair of pillows had been given, and other gifts of linen and various articles needed for the home.

A sumptuous dinner was served at the noon hour, the ladies each contributing and the result was a table full of everything in the way of eats that could be thought of, a mammoth platter of fried chicken occupying the place of honor. The dinner was served cafeteria style, and if any one went away hungry it was not the fault of the hostess or her helpers.

The following ladies were present and young and old worked with a will to accomplish the work laid out for them:

Mrs. Madeline White, F. E. Little, Robert Gortley, J. J. Kircher, V. O. McCollum, Dishman, Dible Clark, M. L. Sam and Ray Davis, Singleton, Stockwell, A. Moore, J. F. Hart, and Mercer.

Mention must be made of the presence of "Grandma" Mercer, eighty-five years of age, who enjoyed the day as much as the younger people.

Mrs. Oscar Mercer, who is president of the Carlsbad union, requests all who have promised anything to the home, to have their donations at the Methodist church at the next regular meeting of the organization, that all may see what has been donated.

Madam Thorne left Wednesday night for a three month's stay at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fisher, in Topeka, Kansas. Mrs. Thorne's home has been rented and will be occupied while she is away from town by Mrs. Boston Witt and daughter, Miss Marian, who will come from Lovington the first of next month. Mrs. Thorne will be greatly missed, especially by the Wesley Bible Class, which she has taught for several years. During her absence Mrs. D. G. Grantham will take her place as teacher.

Mack Fletcher who ranches near Artesia, was in town the first of the week on a business visit.

A. J. Rader was in from his ranch on Castle, in Culberson Co., Texas, coming to visit with his brother, Kade, who is still confined to his bed in Eddy County Hospital, suffering from a broken leg the injury being sustained some weeks ago.

W. E. Cass and family were in town yesterday from their ranch west of Lakewood.

EL PASO GAP ITEMS

Old Mr. Hittermies, the weather man, is still grinding away with his ice plant. He says he will make this the coolest August that has ever been recorded, but I think it will warm up in a few days, for Mr. Hittermies has failed to get any more snow from Pike's Peak, so it is likely that he will have to shut his machine down for a while.

Mike Iribarne came up from Carlsbad last Friday, bringing several men out with him to build up his pen and get everything ready to dip his sheep. He will commence tomorrow (Thursday) morning it will take him about ten days to dip his sheep.

Mr. McCue, the sheep inspector, came out yesterday and will see to it that Mr. Iribarne's sheep are well dipped.

Mrs. Ora Ahles and family returned home from Crow Flat after having had a general good time at the barbecue at Orange.

Fred Cox, Cland Bain and Alfred Daugherty returned from the picnic and barbecue at Orange. They had an extra good time and danced so much that they were "all in" when they got home.

Mr. Frank Ellis and James H. Houser of Shreveport, La., passed through the Gap on their way to Carlsbad. They said the next time they toured this part of the country they would sure bring their overcoats. They were sure "shaky" when they arrived at the Gap Sunday.

C. B. Nored, the trapper, is sure thinking out the bob cats and coyotes. He has 32 notches on his gun in three weeks.

Jim Etcheverry returned to his ranch north of the Gap Monday, after spending the week end in the beautiful city on the Pecos. We thought Jim never would get thru telling about what a good time he had at the Carnival. He said they pulled off a big stunt, and we suppose they did, for they always do things up brown in the city beautiful.

Lee Magby and wife arrived at the Gap Monday. They were on their way to W. A. Magby's in west Dog Canyon.

Scibay Cox will build two or three large cisterns on his Texas land over in west Dog Canyon. He has extra large goat sheds to catch the water.

Ross Middleton and wife returned from the camp meeting at Queen. They report a good camp-meeting and several joined the church.

This section certainly owes a lot to the automobile

LOOK at it just from the business standpoint, compared with, say, ten years ago—or even five.

Everything speeded up—made easier. Nearly every business man depending on the automobile to transport himself and his products.

II

That is one reason, perhaps, why more attention is being paid to tires—why tire costs are being figured closer and people are beginning to look for better tires.

We believe that people are entitled to better tires—the best they can get.

Not only the man with the big car, but the man with the small car, and the medium sized car.

III

We represent U. S. Tires for that reason—because their policy is the same as ours—every tire as good as you can get it, regardless of the size of the car it is to go on.

It was that policy which led to the introduction of the straight side automobile tire, the pneumatic truck tire.

And you can't beat it.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. James Talk left Carlsbad Wednesday night for the purpose of attending the annual sheep sale which will be held at Salt Lake City, Utah, the last of this month. They were accompanied by their son, Junius, and will probably extend their trip to points in California.

A picnic held at the Lewis Angel ranch northeast of town Wednesday was attended by about one hundred and fifty, mostly neighbors and friends of the family from Lakewood and this city. A splendid dinner was served and all enjoyed the day.

Among those who went down to Black river to visit with the Boy Scouts were the families of R. M. Thorne, Joe Cunningham, J. F. Hart, M. L. Davis, F. E. Little, V. O. McCollum and others.

Mrs. T. C. Horne has for her house guests this week, her father, W. W. Brashers, and her sister, Mrs. J. U. Blanchard and two children, all of Gunnison, Mississippi. Both visitors have been in Carlsbad and will no doubt enjoy meeting with old friends.

Mrs. Sam Hughes, of Dog Canyon came down from there with her mail carrier Tuesday night, and will visit here with her mother, Mrs. Owen, for a while.

J. D. Merchant is at the home of his parents in La Huerfana, coming from Los Angeles, where he has been attending military school.

Mrs. Sam Batton, one of the very efficient salesladies at the T. C. Horne store, is enjoying her annual two weeks vacation, beginning last Monday.

Mrs. T. J. Kindel and son, John Leslie, returned last night from a visit to relatives and friends in Weatherford and Mineral Wells, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth James and son, Buster, who had been attending the Carnival and visiting friends in town, left for their home at Cap Rock last Saturday. Accompanying them was Mrs. John Lowenbruck, of Los Angeles, who has been visiting here, and who will spend a couple of weeks on the ranch, probably leaving there for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. George McClure are spending part of the week on a visit to relatives in Hagerman.

Mrs. Reagan Middleton and two children, Mr. and Mrs. James Tulk and Millard, came in the first of the week from the Tulk ranch on the plains. They say there has been plenty of rain on the ranch and everything looks fine.

Mrs. M. F. Chaytor and her niece, Miss Lucile McNeeley, left Wednesday morning for a vacation which they will spend in Texarkana and other cities in Texas and Arkansas. They expect to be gone a couple of months, leaving the Palace Hotel in charge of Mrs. Will Lucas, who will look after everything and keep things moving with the same system and order as Mrs. Chaytor.

AMERICAN LEGION CARNIVAL CLOSSES.

The Carnival put on by the local post of the American Legion came to a close last Saturday.

Good crowds attended and the booths were well patronized. The bad weather of the first of the week prevented a large attendance from out of the city, and numerous other causes worked a hardship on the boys, and the consequence was that they are behind some with their finances.

However, the automobile and the electric washing machine have not been drawn, and it is hoped they will be able to lift the indebtedness.

Walter Pendleton was the lucky man who received the $1,200 diamond.

As a celebration, the carnival was a success, and it is a matter of regret that it was not a success financially.

Artesia Lodge No. 28, A. F. & A. M. has extended an invitation to the local Masonic lodge to assist in the laying of the corner stone of the Baptist church at Artesia, August 28, at 10 a. m. A special communication will be convened at Artesia at that time.

Miss Zada Mudgett left last Tuesday night for Chicago, to attend the annual convocation of her sorority, the Delta Sigma Epsilon, which is being held there this week. Miss Mudgett was the selected delegate from the Normal University at Las Vegas, delegates being sent from each State Normal in the United States, which have a sorority of this letter. The sessions of the sorority are to be held in the La Salle Street Hotel in Chicago. Miss Mudgett was joined by a girl friend at Kansas City and the remainder of the trip was made in her company. The appointment of Miss Mudgett is a decided honor in which Carlsbad shares, she being the only young lady from the State to be so designated.

J. P. Childress and family, of Roswell, came down from there Monday night, and spent the week in the city visiting friends. Mr. Childress is with the Scouts out on Black river, he being Scout Master of the Roswell boys.

Everett Grantham returned from Roswell last Saturday after having taken a civil service examination in that city for admission to the Naval Academy at Annapolis. Mr. Smith has another claim to the esteem of Eddy county citizens, he having married one of Carlsbad's sweetest and most popular girls, Miss Florence Owen. His new position will be a little different to his present one as county agent, in addition to doing county agent work, he will also have charge of the agricultural work in the schools at Mesa. BOY SCOUTS ENJOYING A PLEASANT OUTING

The Boy Scouts from Roswell, some twenty in number, came down from there Monday afternoon, and were joined by the Carlsbad Boy Scouts to the number of forty, or thereabouts, and were taken in cars to the Julian Smith ranch on Black River, Tuesday morning.

The Roswell Scouts spent the night in the Armory, having been provided with bedding, etc., to make them comfortable.

Provisions enough for a regiment were conveyed by truck to their destination, as were their bedding and tents.

The scouts are well fixed for camping, a good cook from Roswell being in charge, and different boys were detailed for K. F. duty.

Yesterday was designated as visitor's day and a number of parents and friends of the boys went down and took dinner with them. The visitors carried with them cake, and other fainting, which pleased the boys greatly.

RAILROAD SERVICE

Many people who have to dig down to pay 20 per cent more for railroad fare, and additions to prices sufficient to pay 33 per cent more freight rates, will wish they were back before the war, working for $15 per week, but with prices on a normal level.

However, if the people want railroad service they must expect to pay what it costs. You can't run workshops, if the railroads cannot deliver the materials on time. And it is not much use to raise food products, if the farmers can't get stuff delivered before it spoils.

For every dollar saved by keeping railroad rates down, the American people have lost many dollars through the deterioration of railroad equipment.

But now that the railroads have been given a large increase in rates, they must remember that the principle of private operation is on trial. If the roads are not operated efficiently, and in a way to give the people their money's worth, there will be an irresistible demand to have the government take possession of the roads and operate them permanently.

Certain practices of old-time railroad operation are of course impossible under the new law. The speculators cannot use them as a means of private enrichment without corresponding service to the public, since railroad dividends are now limited by law. But even if the roads are honestly operated, they may be handled on such unprogressive lines as to make the service costly.

The government should offer the railroads at low rates sufficient funds so that they can buy all the equipment needed and the roads should at once accept such offers of credit and extend their facilities as much as the traffic requires.

Every man in railroad employ should go to the limit to operate traffic efficiently. The cars should be kept moving, the vast number of cars needing repairs should be attended to and put to work. Costly duplication should be cut out, and shipments should be forwarded by the most direct routes.

If the people can get prompt and progressive service there will be no great kick on the new rates. But if the managers and workmen lie down and are content with old and worn-out methods, they are likely to find their business turned over to the government, and their jobs made subject to the harassing uncertainty and political pulls of government operation.

TRAGEDY IN INCREASED GIRTH

Man May Smile at His Rotundity, but to Woman It Is a Matter of Terror.

A fat man is usually a jolly sort of an individual who accepts the world as the same sort of a joke as the world considers him. Girth may worry a man occasionally because it is an annoyance, but with the modern woman it verges upon tragedy. As physicians—if they would talk freely—can tell you, it is a worry to them that frequently leads to ruined health, insanity or the grave, the New York Sun says.

It is possible for a man to grow fat gracefully. At least he can subdue his habits, stop running for trains, give up his golf and spend most of his time in ponderous poses. His tailor can easily arrange his clothing into well known and accepted lines.

The case of the woman is different. Fashion binds her as with a chain. There are no stylish frocks for stout women. The fashion calls for slim figures and trim ankles. Waists and hips are taboo. There are no sleeves capable of concealing overfed arms. Man can adapt his clothes to his figure, but woman must adapt her figure to the clothes or else shamelessly admit that she cannot wear what is fashionable.

It was not always so. In another generation the stout woman had a well-defined place—the "dowager type." It was sometimes called. The woman who made the best biscuits and cooked the most savory chicken was always a rotund sort of person who never minded it when people came unexpectedly around at dinner time. She was the one children flocked to for sympathy and the one who seemed to make the world brighter wherever she went.

INFLUENCE IN JAPANESE ART

Bird Motive Present in Every Creation, With Its Exquisite Form, Color and Motion.

Perhaps no nation so closely lives to the ideal of that bird lover W. H. Hudson, in so far as its feathered citizens are concerned, as the Japanese. In the art of the island kingdom the bird influence is almost supreme. Not alone in pictures which are bird motives, but throughout their art, to whatever realm it goes, these motives are present, even when they do not dominate. The dip and recovery, the stately flight, the alighting, every motion of the beautiful airy creatures has inspired in Japanese art its exquisite flowing line. In decorative art the form, color and motion of birds contribute even more.

Japan abounds in bird life, of interest to the people as to the artists, while to sportsmen it is a delectable country. The empire stretches its length of islands north and south, and the forests give shelter to many varieties of four-footed wild beasts, including big game, which attract sportsmen from all over the world, but the bird world is the most various and attractive.—New York Sun and Herald.

Peculiar Mud Geysers.

The mud geysers of the Salton sea, California, came into existence recently, and cover a little more than two acres. They are so-called mud volcanoes and are various-sized caldrons of hot mud.

Some of them first appear as small springs and others develop with loud explosions which tear holes in the earth from four to ten feet wide and to a depth of ten to twelve feet.

Salton sea is about 205 feet below the level of the sea, and until a few years ago was dry. From 1904 to 1906 water was diverted into the basin by the irrigation canal from the Colorado river, and it became a lake.

Since the stopping of the flow of water into the lake it has been rapidly sinking, and the mud geysers have reappeared in the same vicinity in which they existed before the lake's formation.

The geysers are supposed to be an accompaniment of earthquakes.—Kansas City Star.

Appreciation of the Potato.

In this country the chief and practically only interest in the potato today is as a vegetable for the table. We are greatly surpassed in this use by Europe, and Germany in particular. In that land the average annual per capita consumption was seven bushels in normal times, while our own was two and a half. The laborers of eastern Germany ate 17 bushels per annum. The other European countries are, as a rule, far above us and the diet of many an Irishman is said to be potatoes and spring water—for breakfast, dinner and supper. In addition to this direct consumption uses of the potato largely unknown to Uncle Sam are for flour starch, dextrine, glucose and alcohol.

Birch's Many Uses.

No tree is more useful to man than the birches—the red birch of the South, whose seeds fall into the mud in low waters and germinate to hold back the waters of the streams from tearing away the banks; the yellow birch, like that which Burroughs "shaved by fire," the black birch, so useful for its beautiful wood; the cherry birch, of the same wonderful loveliness and whose inner bark gives the essential oil of wintergreen and the peculiar perfume to what we call "Russia leather," the popular-leaved birch of which Lowell writes so beautifully, and the canoe birch.—New York Times.

The Whole Secret of A Better Tire

Simply a Matter of the Maker's Policies

This you will realize—once you try a Brunswick—that a super-tire is possible only when the name certifies that the maker is following the highest standards.

For tire making is chiefly a matter of standards and policies—cost plus care. Any maker can build a good tire if he cares to pay perfection's price.

All men know Brunswick standards, for Brunswick products have been famous for 74 years.

Formulas, fabrics and standards vary vastly in cost. Reinforcements, plies and thickness are a matter of expense. And these variations affect endurance. It rests with the maker how far he wishes to go—how much he can afford to give.

For there are no secrets nor patents to hold one back.

To ascertain what each maker offers one must analyze and test some 200 tires—as our laboratories have done.

Then it is a matter of combining the best features and building according to the highest standards.

Once you try a Brunswick you will understand how we have built model tires, regardless of factory expense.

Yet Brunswick Tires cost you the same as other like-type tires. Our saving is on selling cost, through our nation-wide organization.

We realize that you expect more from Brunswicks, and we assure you that you get it. ONE Brunswick will tell you the story.

And then you'll want ALL Brunswicks. No other tire, you'll agree, gives so much for your money.

It makes these things possible—

The Electric Light, which does away with eye strain and makes the home a place of joy in the evenings.

The Electric Appliance for the table, which prepares such dainty meals without fuss or running to and fro.

The Electric Iron, which makes the housewife sing through a task that used to leave her tired and hopeless.

The Electric Cleaner, which searches every nook and cranny for dirt and dust and makes no demands on the strength of the housewife.

Five Minute Chats on Our Presidents

By JAMES MORGAN

(Copyright, 1920, by James Morgan.)

A FUGITIVE PRESIDENT

1809—James Madison, inaugurated President, aged fifty-seven.
1812—(June 19) War declared.
1814—(Aug. 24-27) In flight from the British. (Dec. 28) treaty of peace.
1817—Madison retired from Presidency.
1826—Rector in University of Virginia.
1829—in constitutional convention.
1836—(June 28) died, aged eighty-five.

BUT for the smiles of his blooming Dolly, Madison's administration would be a desert without an oasis, over whose dreary expanse the weary biographer would wander athirst for human anecdotes. Her bubbling spirits relieved the austerity of Jeffersonian simplicity and won her a popularity that has been equaled, if at all, among the mistresses of the White House, only by Mrs. Cleveland. Unless Grant must be excepted, Madison is the only president who found the presidency an antithesis to his career. One of the really great law-givers of the nation, he was without executive force.

With a weak cabinet, this gentle, sweet tempered, peace loving scholar found himself adrift on the turbid sea of the great Napoleonic wars. Perhaps it was no longer possible to keep us out of the war when at last the United States was the only neutral left in the civilized world. But certainly it was no time for a fair-weather sailor.

After 20 years of kicking and cutting from both sides in the European conflict, bullied by England and led to by Napoleon, the country was sore all over when the "warhawks" of congress, under the youthful Henry Clay, seized the tiller of the ship of state from Madison's irresolute hand and recklessly pointed the vessel straight into the teeth of the storm. The seaboard East was sore for peace and at that time the military section was the new West, where the Tennesseans and Kentuckians, Indians and Ohioans were lustily shouting "On to Canada!" Overborne by their rash counsels, Madison consented, as he said, to "throw forward the flag of the country, sure that the people would press onward and defend it."

Without competent civilian military leaders, without financial credit, without war equipment, the people could not press onward, as any history of the dismal war of 1812 will tell you. Even the capital was left undefended, and Madison, "in a little round hat with a big cockade," ran about in helpless bewilderment as the British marched upon Washington.

With the invaders entering at one side of the defenseless town, the president fled at the other. As he turned he saw the flames shooting up behind him, he fled faster and farther. While the British commander was blowing out candles on his dinner table that he might feast in the light of the burning White House, its fugitive master was hiding in a forest but 25 miles away.

After an absence of three days, a heavy-hearted, shattered, houseless president returned to view the charred walls of his official residence and of the capitol. At every turn he was greeted by ugly mutterings of the general disposition to make him the scapegoat for all the national shortcomings in a war that had been thrust upon him. But with victory at New Orleans and the return of peace, the voice of the faultfinder was drowned in the hum of sudden prosperity. And in the closing days of his administration Madison was cheered by many assurances that his countrymen were not forgetful of the 40 years that he had served them in pure devotion.

Like John Adams, he emerged from his retirement to sit in the constitutional convention, of his state, when the aged statesman closed his active public life, as he had opened it, with a sentiment of humanity for the slaves.

HAY TRADE CONDITIONS OF THE WEEK.

Markets, both east and west, are steady to higher this week under reduced holdings and light offerings.

The recent influx of hay and consequent reduction in price kept further shipments back until now up and a better feeling prevails.

New hay is arriving at nearly all points, but its condition is still unsatisfactory. A good crop of hay well housed is reported from the markets have been cleaning nearly all sections, according to correspondence appearing elsewhere in the Journal this week, which confirms the prediction that prices this year will hinge on the ability of railroads to handle the commodity.

Mrs. S. P. Page returned the latter part of last week from a brief visit to Cloudercroft.

What is the big idea?

MEN have all kinds of reasons for liking Spur Cigarettes. Some like them because they're mighty classy-looking—that brown-and-silver package is an eye-winner. Some like them because the paper is crimped—no paste to taste. Some like them because they're a full-packed cigarette—nothing "skinny" about them. Some like Spurs because they're twenty for twenty cents—the rock-bottom price for the highest possible quality.

But what they all shout about and pass along is that they have found at last a cigarette with that good old tobacco taste that lingers in the memory.

Yes, sir, you can sure taste the good Oriental and home-grown tobaccos—and that's the big idea back of Spur Cigarettes.

Now, folks, just don't wait, but try a package of Spur Cigarettes today. It's not as though you were buying a limousine. And if you do find in Spur the cigarette you have been wanting—something that just strikes the spot—it will be the best buy you've made since Hector was a pup.

"WHERE THINGS ARE NEW"

BUSH-LOWENBRUCK

At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. G. Lucas, Wednesday at 6 p. m., occurred the marriage of Miss Gladys Bush and Dan Lowenbruck, Rev. H. W. Lowry, officiating.

The wedding was strictly private only the immediate relatives of the families being present. The wedding of these popular young folk comes as a surprise to their many friends in this city, although their engagement was an open secret.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. J. G. Lucas, and has spent much of her life in this city, where she was a graduate from our public schools, finishing with honor, with the class of 1919 and later attending a finishing school for young ladies at Staunton, Virginia.

Mr. Lowenbruck has been a resident of our city for many years, and is one of our substantial business men, being a partner with his brother in the U. S. Meat Market, and an industrious and capable young man.

Both have the best wishes of their friends for a long and happy life. The current joining in the felicitations of many others.

The annual picnic of the Wesley Bible class was held at the Methodist Sunday school rooms last night, and was well attended. An elegant supper was served, and afterwards a handkerchief shower was given Miss English, whose birthday occurred a few days previous. Rev. Givan made a short talk expressive of the love all feel for Miss Kate and everything was very informal and pleasant.

Please do not ask us to charge school books. They must be sold for cash. STAR PHARMACY.

The Methodist Sunday school will hold a picnic at Dark Canyon wells Wednesday afternoon of next week, that being the first of August. They will meet at the church at 2:30 o'clock, where cars will be in waiting to take them out to the grounds. A good time is anticipated.

"Even as the nation entered the lion entered the war for an ideal, so it has emerged from the war with the determination that the ideal shall not die."—Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Little Paul Morfeld had the misfortune to run a needle into his foot, with rather bad results, yesterday. The surgeon had to put the young man under an anaesthetic to remove the needle, which had broken off in the little foot. This was successfully accomplished, and the four-year-old is as chipper as before the accident.

CONGRATULATIONS.

America's woman's suffrage has scored final victory after a fight of 150 years duration, the most persistent, persevering, indomitable struggle for a principle recorded in history.

Not in the world's annals has there ever been such a demonstration of the result of "Keeping Everlastingly At It."

She wouldn't be happy till she got it—and we sincerely trust it will prove all she hoped it to be—and that American womanhood will wield the influence for good in the shaping of the affairs of the nation that it has in making the American home. It is a wonderful triumph that has wonderful possibilities for the country.

"The further he goes along, the plainer Mr. Harding makes it that if he is elected he will be just the kind of a president the senatorial cabinet needs in its business."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

New Mexico has forty-eight national banks with 148 deposit accounts for each 1,000 inhabitant. This compares with 294 depositors for each 1,000 inhabitants in Wyoming, which leads all the states in the union. For the entire United States there were 196 deposit accounts for each 1,000 population or approximately one national bank account for every 5 1/2 of the population.

BANQUET FOR DAD.

"Everybody about this place gets praised except the father of the ranch," said a friend of a certain family last week, when visiting the family.

"Just think how nobly he works; how patiently he serves his family; how pleased he is to take them out on a camping trip, and put up tents, cart out supplies to the camp every night, use his car for a taxi line for visitors and the family to run back and forth into town as well as providing the money for for luxury of the camp life and vacation for the entire family. No, he doesn't expect to be praised but he richly deserves it. He is a prince. And I bring my bouquet to the father of the family."

And to these sentiments the mother of the family echoed a fervent "A-men."—Ex.

"Our opposition is to the things which once existed, in order that they may never return. We oppose money in politics; we oppose the private control of national finances; we oppose the treatment of human beings as commodities; we oppose the saloon-haunted city; we oppose starvation wages; we oppose, rule by groups and cliques. In the same way we oppose a period or a comma in our national life."—Franklin D. Roosevelt in acceptance speech.
