A JOINT CELEBRATION.

Sixty-six persons, young, old and middle-aged, ate dinner at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mercer, west of the city last Sunday. The event was designed to honor the birthday anniversaries of two of the number, Oscar Mercer and Mrs. A. Moore, and what makes the affair more remarkable, it was about ten days ahead of the actual birthdays, but for various reasons it was held at the time mentioned. Mr. Mercer was quite surprised when the cars began to roll in and a little disquieted as he had only invited a neighbor and family to be present for dinner and doubted his wife's ability to provide for so many. However, when the guests began to unload he "tumbled" to the surprise, and accepted the condition as gracefully as possible. Presents of utility and beauty were given the honor guests some of which were for immediate use and others were to be handed down to posterity. The dinner, served cafeteria style, was delightful and if ever a table could be said to groan under the weight of good things this table could claim that honor. To add to other pleasures, ice cream, made by H. D. Hubbard, was served the entire crowd along with homemade cake, which brought the eating part of the day to a close.

Madam Mercer was the oldest person present, a little above 85 years, and the youngest, the baby of Nat Hiler and wife, aged about one year. The guest list is long, but the Current has been requested to give it entire. Edwin Stephenson, wife and daughter, R. C. Gorley, wife and son, Bobbie, Ray Davis and family, Nat Hiler and family, J. Floyd Hart, wife and granddaughter, Mrs. J. J. Kircher and daughter, F. E. Little, wife and son, Mr. and Mrs. Helye and three children and Mr. and Mrs. Haxton, of Malaga, M. L. Davis, wife and son, Kenneth, Sam Davis, wife and son, Mr. and Mrs. Hartley and Gertrude, Frank Shiveley, of Omaha, Nebraska, T. J. Rindell and sons, Mrs. A. Moore and perhaps others whose names we have forgotten.

Mr. Mercer was surprised on unwrapping one of his presents to find there a beautiful ring, with the Old Fellows three links which he prizes above anything he received, not alone for its intrinsic beauty but for what it stands, he being very proud of his affiliation with that body. All present joined in best wishes to the honor guests for many more happy birthdays.

Tell our advertisers you saw it in the Current.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roberts, of Lovington, were in town over Sunday.

Mrs. Cecil Searle and Miss Gloy left Monday morning for a few day's stay in El Paso.

Mrs. Dewey Harrison left Tuesday morning for a short visit with relatives and friends in Pecos, Tex.

Walter Craft and Joe Johns left overland for El Paso this week, Monday, on a business trip and are expected to return this evening.

Mrs. Walter Craft has been quite ill for several days but is better at this time. She was thought to be suffering from an attack of ptomaine poisoning.

J. R. Means was a business visitor to the city from his home at Hope the latter part of last week. Mr. Means has been a subscriber to the Current ever since he has been in this country.

Mrs. Edna Stewart left for her home at Lindale, Texas, Monday morning after a pleasant visit with her daughter, Mrs. Love, at the Palace hotel. Mrs. Love accompanied her mother as far as Pecos and then left for a visit of a few days at El Paso. She expects to return to this city the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Aubrey Gist and little son, Randolph, left for their home in Skull Valley, Arizona, yesterday morning. Mrs. Gist is a sister of Mrs. Wm. H. Mullane and a former resident of this city. She will be accompanied on her trip by young William Mullane who will go as far as El Paso with her. William expects to enter school in the Pass City, his parents, Jim Mullane and wife, having moved there from Van Horn, recently. Mrs. Gist and son will be met at Mesilla Park by her brothers who live near there and with whom she will visit for a week or so before continuing her homeward journey.

POWER OF DOLLAR IS EASILY SHOWN

Keep One Moving and See What It Will Do for Your Community.

PAYS MULTITUDE OF DEBTS

When It Is Sent Out of Town, However, to Pay for What Can Be Bought at Home It Is Gone Forever.

(Copyright.)

It is a rather wonderful thing, when you stop to think about it what one lone dollar will do, if it is kept at work. This has been illustrated in a striking manner on several occasions by means of a very simple experiment. If you want to see just how important a role a silver dollar or a dollar bill plays in the life of a community here is the way to do it. Just attach a tag to the dollar and turn it loose, with the request that every person who receives the dollar make a note on the tag as to how he received it. The result will be an eye-opener.

Here is the way it works: Smith, the lumber dealer, who first possesses the dollar, buys some groceries from Brown and pays for them with the dollar. About that time Jones, the plumber, who had done some work for Brown, sends his collector around and Brown pays the bill with this dollar. Jones owes Green, the printer, a small advertising bill, so he sends this dollar with possibly some others, to Green to pay his bill. Green had just put the dollar in his cash drawer when in comes Black, the milkman, to whom Green owes a dollar for milk delivered at his house. Green takes the dollar out of his cash drawer and pays Black. For some time Black has owed White, the carpenter, for some work done on his dairy house, so now he takes the dollar that Green has paid him and pays up what he owes White. White still owes for some lumber that he bought from Smith, the lumber dealer, so he takes the dollar and squares up his account with Smith. Smith now has his dollar back. Brown has been able to pay his plumbing bill. Jones has squared up with the printer, and so on, all around the circle.

What Might Have Happened.

Now suppose that Smith, instead of buying his groceries from Brown, had purchased them from a mail order house in a far distant city and sent his dollar to pay for them. Brown would not have had that dollar to pay Jones, the plumber; Jones could not have paid his printing bill; the printer would have had to stand off the milk man; White, the carpenter, would not have got the money for the work he had done for the milkman and Smith would not have got the money which White owed him for lumber.

This is all so simple that it requires no student of economics or professor of mathematics to figure it out. Anyone can see that when Smith sends that dollar to Chicago or some other city where the mail order houses flourish, that dollar is gone so far as Smith and Jones and Green and the rest of the people in Smith's town are concerned. That dollar will never come back to pay any bills in Smith's town. And the thing that stands out most striking, but is most often overlooked, is that Smith, the man who first spends the dollar, is hurt just as much when he sends that dollar out of town as is the home grocer from whom he might have bought his groceries.

Now just multiply this one dollar by a hundred or a thousand or ten thousand. One dollar may not seem to make much difference in the average town, but a thousand dollars or even a hundred dollars does make a difference. Just as one dollar will pay a dozen or a hundred small bills, a hundred or a thousand dollars will pay a dozen or a hundred big bills. When Brown, the grocer man, owes a thousand dollars and can't pay it, he is headed for the bankruptcy courts. When Jones, the plumber, can't collect the money which is due him from Brown or maybe a dozen Browns, he is headed in the same direction as Brown. And so it goes all around the circle until it hits Smith or a dozen Smiths who have sent their money out of town to add to the fortunes of the mail order men.

Buyer One Who Is Hurt.

Thus, it will be seen that this buy-at-home proposition is really a selfish one with the man who buys the goods. He is not hurting the home merchant when he sends his money out of town, any more than he is hurting himself.

Every sensible man knows that his livelihood depends upon whether business in his town is good or not. If business is not good, he cannot make a good living for himself and his family, no matter how hard he may work, and business cannot be good if the business men in the town are not making money. This is a plain business proposition for every man and woman in the community. By spending their money at home they are helping the home merchant only incidentally. They are butting their own bread. When they send their money to the mail order house, they are not only hurting the home merchant incidentally but—something more important to them—they are likely to be taking the bread out of the mouths of their own children.

IT'S A GREAT LIFE.

Crying isn't usually contagious, but it happened to be in the case of 99 youngsters in the primary class at the L. A. Casita school Tuesday day. New surroundings, new faces and the loneliness that a kiddie feels on his first day of school made the situation tense, and when one homesick little fellow started crying the rest joined in. Miss Vawter, primary teacher, was forced to call in older brothers and sisters from higher grades to help stop the bedlam of wails.—Clovis Journal.

R. F. Kaiser who has been superintendent of the Dexter schools for several years, has accepted the principalship of the Malaga schools for the coming year and is moving there from Dayton where they spent the summer. The two younger sons, Ben and Elwood will remain at Dayton and attend the Artesia High school.—Artesia Advocate.

Mrs. P. F. Brown and little son, the lady a cousin of the Jones brothers, of this vicinity, left for their home in Weatherford, Texas, Tuesday morning. They had been here for some weeks for the benefit of the lady's health she being a sufferer from asthma, and she improved so much during her stay that she contemplates returning and making her home here in the future.

REV. SPARKS LEAVES.

After a pastorate of more than four years of the Baptist church, Rev. Burren Sparks has accepted the pastorate of the first Baptist church at Santa Fe and will leave with his family on the 16th for the capital city.

The call to Santa Fe comes in the line of advancement. The church there is in a flourishing condition and has material on the ground for building in the city. In the building of this new church, Rev. Sparks will have an ample field for his abundant energy and Artesia wishes him much success in his new field.—Artesia Advocate.

The rural schools, as well as those of the city, are all running and in excellent order at this time. Some difficulty was experienced at first in securing enough teachers for all the schools in the county, but that difficulty was overcome and all are now supplied. We hope to print a directory of all the schools in the county and the names of their teachers in a future issue of the Current.

LOCAL NEWS.

Rev. F. W. Pratt was a business visitor to Roswell several days this week.

Bob Gushwa, of Dayton, was a business visitor to the county seat the first of the week.

Mrs. Henry Bulman and son came in from the ranch and will be in town for the winter, at their home on Greene Heights.

Miss Lorene Powell has taken a position with the National Bank of Carlsbad beginning her work the first of the month.

Carl Johnson, of Roswell, was down from there on a business trip the last of the week, returning to his home Sunday morning.

Mrs. L. P. Evans nee Miss Mary Walker, came down from her home at Artesia Tuesday for a short visit with friends and to attend to business matters.

Born, Tuesday morning, Sept. 14, to Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thomas, at their home in west Carlsbad, a baby daughter, the first child in the family. May good luck attend her and her parents.

Clarence Horne left this week for Staunton, Virginia. Clarence is one of the graduates of Carlsbad high school with the class of 1920 and the school he enters is the same in which two other Carlsbad students graduated: Hon. Carl B. Livingston and Sam Bittling.

Mrs. Emma Settle, daughter of Mrs. R. J. Boatman, returned to her business in Kansas City, Saturday, after a pleasant stay with her mother in this city. This was Mrs. Settle's first visit to the beautiful and she made many friends here who will be glad of a return visit which the lady has promised to make in the coming holiday season.

Claude, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brown, will leave tomorrow night to enter the Harvard school at Los Angeles. Claude has been his father's right hand man in the Star blacksmith and woodworking establishment and will be greatly missed in that and other industries of the town, he being a member of the Boy Scouts and also of the Carlsbad band. Here's wishing him success wherever he may go.

Charlie Hobbs, wife and child, after a pleasant stay with relatives and friends in this city, returned to their home in Carrizozo, New Mexico, the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sheelin, of Kansas City, came in from there last week and spent several days with the family of Harvey Fisher on their farm south of town, continuing their journey to Los Angeles Monday night. This was their first visit to the valley and Carlsbad and they were well pleased.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Crawford returned from a summer's visit to the north, getting in Friday. Mrs. Crawford visited with her sister in Ohio and with other friends and accompanied Mr. Crawford to Grand Rapids, Michigan, where the furniture for the new addition to the Crawford hotel was purchased.

Don't Jazz Your Stomach —Drink Schlitz

IN the mad rush to produce new beverages at a rapid pace, many breweries are turning out "two-day" drinks—made in literally a trifle over twenty-four hours.

These beverages are not aged properly. They will ferment in your stomach—cause biliousness and interfere with all the foods they meet. Don't jazz your stomach—insist upon thoroughly aged Schlitz.

Schlitz undergoes a complete fermentation—lasting from eight to twelve days. Then it is aged in tanks of enameled glass until it is thoroughly matured.

Schlitz is a fully fermented drink, with the alcoholic content afterward reduced to the limit prescribed by the Federal Government, but with none of that delicious aroma and flavor, produced by fermentation, removed.

It cannot ferment in your stomach. It will not cause acidity nor flatulence. It will not make you bilious. Schlitz is delicious, sparkling, healthful and satisfying. Try it at dinner tonight.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Teacher of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(© 1920, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 19

EVILS OF INTEMPERANCE (TEMPERANCE LESSON).

LESSON TEXT—Prov. 23:31-35, 36.
GOLDEN TEXT—The drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty.—Prov. 23:31.
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Dan. 1.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Keeping Our Bodies Strong.
JUNIOR TOPIC—What Strong Drink Does to the Drinker.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Deadly Foes in Disguise.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Alcohol—False Claims and True Charges.

I. A Father's Wise Counsel (vv. 19-21).

1. What it is (v. 20). "Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of flesh." This means persons who meet together for the express purpose of drinking intoxicating liquors and eating purely for the gratification of their appetites. Wine bibbing and gluttony usually go together.

2. Reason given (v. 21). "The drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty." Intemperance in drinking and eating leads to ruin. Poverty inevitably follows in their wake.

II. Woes of Those Who Indulge in Wine (vv. 29, 30).

The miseries attached to the drunkard's life:

1. The awful pain which causes one to cry out "Oh!" Many, indeed, are the pains which men suffer because of strong drink.

2. Sorrow—the remorse which causes one to cry out "Alas!" Many are the expressions of bitter regret which daily come from the lips of the drunkard. Sometimes it is the sorrow of poverty of himself and family—clothed in rags and half starved; sometimes it is the sorrow of following a broken-hearted wife to the grave and seeing his children scattered among strangers.

3. Contentions—strife and quarreling. Much of the fighting among men is directly caused by their passions being inflamed by strong drink. The drunkard man is always ready to take offense, as well as to give it.

4. Rabblings and complainings. The winebibber complains of everything; ill luck, broken fortune, ruined health, loss of friends, of fate and of God.

5. Wounds without a cause. These are wounds which might have been avoided—from fightings in which a sober man would not have engaged, and from accidents which are purely the result of intoxication.

6. Redness of eyes. This has reference to the bloodshot eyes of the tippler which renders dim his vision.

All these woes come upon those who tarry long at wine (v. 30). Those who frequent the places of drinking soon are tarrying long at wine.

III. The Attitude Enjoined (v. 31).

Look not at it. Do not put yourself in the way of temptation. The only safe attitude toward strong drink is total abstinence, and the only sure way of total abstinence is not to even look at it.

IV. The Drunkard's Bitter End (vv. 32-35).

1. The acute miseries resulting (v. 32). "It biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder." Strong drink, like the poison of the serpent, permeates the whole system and ends in the most fatal consequences—the bitterest sufferings and death.

2. The perversion of the moral sense (v. 33). (1) This excitement causes the eyes to behold strange things. This denotes the fantastic images produced on the brain of the drunkard. Since unbridled lust always goes with wine drinking, no doubt it is true as the Authorized Version has it, "Thine eyes shall behold strange women." Drunken men do desire and rave after unchaste women. (2) "Thine heart shall utter perverse things. His moral sense being perverted, his utterances partake of the same. He tells lies—his words cannot be relied upon. Any one who has had dealings with a drunkard knows that his statements cannot be relied upon.

3. He is insensible to danger (v. 34). The drunkard is unsteady; his brain reels to and fro. He is footsore, even as one who would lie in the top of a ship's mast where there is the greatest danger of falling off.

4. He is insensible to pain (v. 35). The drunkard is utterly ignorant of what happens to him while under the influence of strong drink. Many bruises and wounds the drunkard has which he cannot account for.

5. His abject bondage (v. 35). After all his suffering, sorrow, and disappointments, he goes on as a bond slave to follow the ways of sin.

6. Hell at last, for no drunkard shall inherit the kingdom of heaven (1 Cor. 6:10).

Melancholy.

Melancholy sees the worst of things—things as they might be, and not as they are. It looks upon a beautiful face, and sees but a grinning skull.—Bovee.

Thinking and Speaking.

Think all you speak, but speak not all you think. Thoughts are your own; your words are so no more.—Delany.

Miss Inez Harrington, local and society editor for the Lovington Leader, recently resigned her position with that paper, and has gone to Texas for an indefinite time. The change was made necessary owing to the health of Miss Harrington's mother which required a lower altitude. Miss Harrington got out a good, new local page and her successor will have to hustle to sustain her reputation in that respect.

Treasure Island

BY ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON

A roaring romance for boys and girls
'twixt nine and ninety!

Wicked pirates and buried gold.
Deeds that make the blood run cold.
Tallest tale that e'er was told!
Yo-ho-ho, and a bottle of rum!

Played by a perfect including SHIRLEY MASON and LOU CHANEY, the man whose marvelous acting was one of the sensations of "The Miracle Man" and "Victory."

Mrs. Driner and two sons and her daughter, Mrs. Simon and son, left yesterday for Malvern, Arkansas, their former home. They have had a series of illnesses in the family through which they have passed successfully, however, with the exception of Mr. Simon, whose health is much impaired and who will remain in Carlsbad for a time. They feel especially grateful to their friends among the Baptist people who have cared for them during their sickness and assisted them in returning to their homes, preparing a lunch for them on their way, and otherwise manifesting an interest in their welfare and have many good things to say of the kindness shown them here.

Mrs. Margaret Jones and son, Jasper, have returned from a visit in Texas, and are keeping house in the cottage across from the Methodist church, and Jasper has entered school.

The Carlsbad steam laundry is now in running order, the long delayed motor arriving last Thursday night. Every particle of machinery has been overhauled and much new installed until now they are able to care for all work entrusted to them. Mr. Elam has had years of experience in the laundry business and guarantees satisfaction in every respect. See his advertisement in another column of this issue of the Current.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Grogan and two daughters returned Friday night from a business visit to Dallas, Texas.

Albert Johnson and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lapsley were in town from their home on Black river last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Stament returned Monday to their home at Fort Worth, Texas, after a visit with the family of Chris Walter and J. Grogan.

David Sellards, a graduate of Carlsbad high school with the class of 1920, left Thursday of last week for Roswell and the New Mexico Military Institute, which he has entered for the school year.

Martin and Cocke, well drillers, have just brought in a new well at the Rocky Arroya school house, which is said to be a fine well of good water and which was much needed. The well is only 68 feet deep.

Fancher and Luther Bell left for Los Angeles, California, last Wednesday night, all arrangements for their admittance to the Harvard school at that city having been made shortly after their graduation from Carlsbad high school last spring.

Mrs. Shepherd, of Lovington, was a guest of the Palace over Sunday, leaving for Anson, Texas, Monday.

Billie and J. D. Merchant left for Los Angeles, where they have entered school leaving this week, Wednesday night.

Miss Gertrude Runyan and Miss Helen Wright left Wednesday night for school, Miss Runyan for Eureka Springs, Arkansas, and Miss Wright to Ames, Iowa.

Clifford Lewis left this week for Ames College, Iowa, for the school year. This is the same school from which his father, C. C. Lewis, and his uncle, John W. Lewis, were graduated.

Judge John W. Armstrong has received official notice of his appointment as assistant prosecuting attorney of this district to fill the unexpired term of Judge J. S. Osburn. Mr. Osburn will enter private practice, specializing in criminal law.

The local reporter of the Current is under obligation to Mr. and Mrs. Matney for a lot of the nicest tomatoes we have seen this summer. They are fine, large specimens of uniform size, weighing about half a pound each and of an excellent flavor and were grown in the Matney garden, east of the river.

Frank Kindel and wife were visitors to Roswell last Sunday, going and returning the same day.

Mrs. Elbert Tedford is visiting with her kinsfolk in various parts of Oklahoma, leaving the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Garrett, of Lovington, spent several days in town the latter part of last week and the first of this.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Jones and J. Stitts, all from the northern part of the state, visited the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Hoag, at Malaga, over Sunday, leaving on the return trip Monday morning.

Mrs. J. J. S. Smith and niece, Miss Lucille Jackson, left Tuesday morning in their car for their home at Edith, Texas. The Smith family and Miss Jackson lived for a long time at Rocky Arroya and afterward in La Huerta before removing to the Texas town.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Woodard, cousins of Mrs. C. T. Adams and L. A. Swigart, who have been visiting their relatives in this city for ten days past, left Tuesday morning enroute to the western coast for the remainder of the summer. Their home is in Akron, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ball, of the lower valley, are making preparations to go to California for the winter. They had intended leaving last Saturday but the rain at that time put an end to their plans for that day. They will go overland and make their home in Riverside, for the winter. The Current will follow them.

The wife and three youngest children, two boys and a girl, of J. K. Macaron, arrived in Raton from Mt. Lebanon, Syria, a city about 45 miles from Beirut. They had been on their way two months and upon their arrival here, the meeting of the travelers with their loved ones whom they had not seen for seven years was a pathetic one. The father didn't recognize the children as they were little more than babies when he last saw them. Mr. Macaron is engaged in the mercantile business with his son on North First street and the family will reside in Raton.—Raton Reporter.

Mrs. John Prickett is enjoying a visit from her grandfather, Mr. Beckwith, of California. The gentleman is in his 90th year and is on his way to the home of his daughter, in Wamega, Kansas, to celebrate that anniversary. The Prickett family plans to accompany him from Carlsbad and spend a couple of weeks at the old home. While they are there a family reunion will be held, as is their custom each year.

Victor L. Minter left Friday night on his annual vacation which he will spend this year in the eastern cities. He will represent the state of New Mexico at the session of the Grand Lodge, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, which convenes at Boston. He also expects to visit Washington, his former home, as well as New York and Baltimore, and will be gone in all about five weeks. On the return trip he will stop at Alliance, Ohio, for a visit with Mrs. Minter's family, and will make a flying trip to Gallup, New Mexico, before returning to Carlsbad.

Madam Frederick is on the sick list at present and her children, Mr. and Mrs. George Frederick, who were spending the summer in Michigan, and Wisconsin, were apprised of her condition by wire the first of the week, arriving home yesterday.

E. M. Kearney this week moved his family into the house he recently bought on Main street. He has had the house replastered and the walls tinted and new floors laid throughout; a new bathroom has been installed and now the Kearney family will have one of the many commodious and pretty homes in Carlsbad and its nearness to the business part of the city makes it the more desirable.

Jesse Wheeler recently received word that his son, William A., had just taken his examination and passed and now has the rank of First Class Mechanic in Uncle Sam's air forces. Young Wheeler is now at Long Island but will be stationed at some other place in the near future. The advancement of any of Carlsbad's boys and young men is always a gratification to us and the Current congratulates Will on his deserved and hard earned success.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Means, of Artesia, but enjoying a wide acquaintance in this city and at Queen, where they lived for some years, will leave the coming week for Dallas, Texas, where Mr. Means will enter the university to prepare for the ministry of the Methodist church. They leave a large circle of friends here and at Artesia, Hope and Queen to wish them well in the new work which Lewis has looked forward to for years and for which he is so evidently called.

Quite an unfortunate accident occurred Wednesday morning about six miles north of town on the road to Artesia, when the car in which Walter Ralph and C. C. Searle struck a hole in the road while going at a high rate of speed. Mr. Ralph was driving and the car turned clear over and resulted in Mr. Searle having a broken collar bone and Mr. Ralph suffering some severe cuts about the head; the car was also injured considerably. The gentlemen were both rendered unconscious and laid in the road for some time until passers-by brought them to town where their hurts were attended to.

F. L. Dearborne, of the Roberts-Deaborne Hardware Company, returned Tuesday night from Clovis, where he had been for some time looking after the affairs of the company.

Mrs. Leslie Bates and baby boy came in this week from a month's visit with Mrs. Bates' sisters in Houston, Texas, and with friends and relatives in Dallas.

John R. Joyce left for Manlius, New York, Wednesday night where he will enter St. John's school which he attended last year. A rule of the school is that pupils who make good are invited back again and John R. is one so honored. He was graduated from the school last year but this year will take an elective course, consisting of higher mathematics and probably stenographic work, which will be of benefit to him in preparing for college later. John R. has had a very advantageous summer, spending a month in Camp Devens, Massachusetts, with the R. O. T. C., and spending the week-ends with his mother in Boston. John R. was at home only one month this summer but had a delightful time while here and returned to his school with pleasant anticipations as to the year's work and the Current, along with other friends, hopes they may all be happily realized.

Sam Vaughn, of Denison, Texas, is a new arrival in Carlsbad, coming to take a position with Joyce-Pruit company in the ladies' and children's shoe department. Mr. Vaughn is experienced in his line of work and comes with gilt-edged references and will no doubt be a valuable addition to the personnel of this popular house.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Swigart left Friday for a brief visit with friends in Roswell, returning Sunday to their home in this city.

WYATT-BRICE.

A wedding of state-wide importance was solemnized at the first Baptist church Wednesday evening of last week at eight o'clock when Miss Gladys Brice, eldest daughter of Judge and Mrs. C. R. Brice, became the bride of Dillard Wyatt, Rev. W. R. Hill, pastor of the first Baptist church reading the beautiful ring service which united the lives and fortunes of these interesting young people. The ceremony was witnessed by about three hundred friends and relatives of the families. The beautiful auditorium of the church was effectively decorated in green and white. Tall plants and ferns banked the altar and masses of lovely white dahlias were used. White canvas carpeted the chancel and aisles, and broad white satin ribbon caught with clusters of white dahlias and ferns roped off the pews for the close friends and relatives of the bride and groom. Prior to the entrance of the wedding party Miss Alma Pearson, violinist, played with orchestra accompaniment, while white ribbons were drawn down the entire length of both aisles, and as the music fell into the strains of the bridal chorus from 'Lohengrin,' the wedding party entered. First came the ushers, Messrs. Rufus McConnell, Laurie Vanchelet, Guy Blackwood and Willard Prager, followed by the bridesmaids, Misses Sadie Cooper and Helen Rapp of Santa Fe. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Evelyn Brice, sister of the bride, followed by the dainty little flower girl, Dorothy Dow, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram M. Dow, in a frilly frock of pale blue organdie, carrying a white basket from which she threw pink rose petals. The bride entered on the arm of her father and was met at the chancel by the groom and his best man, Curtis Hill, and Rev. Hill, who read the impressive service, the bride and groom kneeling on a white satin pillow for the pastoral benediction. During the ceremony the violinist played softly on muted strings with piano accompaniment, the orchestra swelling into the stately Mendelssohn wedding march, as the party left the church. The bride's gown was of heavy white satin combined with rose pink and duchesse lace, with a long train. She wore her white tulle veil trimmed with orange blossoms and carried a colonial bouquet of bride's roses tied with a shower of white ribbons in which were caught orange blossoms. The bridesmaids and maid of honor were gowned in orchid tulle, made in bouffant apron fashion, over silver net, in which were caught garlands of wee roses, and silver ribbons. They wore picture hats of orchid tulle and roses and carried colonial bouquets of half blown pink Killarney roses and white sweet alyssum. An informal reception at the Brice home followed the wedding and here the same color scheme was carried out in a wealth of white blossoms and green. Misses Gladys Jolly and Frances Bear served punch on the wide porch from a flower laden table, as the guests arrived, and receiving in the living room with the bridal party were Judge and Mrs. Brice, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dow, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Jaffa, Mrs. Wyatt, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller, of Clovis, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Kerr of Carlsbad, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith, of Houston, Tex., Mrs. Eva Cooper, and Mrs. Earnest Malone. Mrs. Brice was gowned in a creation of fillet lace over ashes of roses satin and wore a black picture hat. Pink and white ices, small cakes, and pink and white cream mints were served from a beautifully appointed table in the dining room by Misses Charlotte Wilson, Eleanor Bedell, Ruth Hervey and Laura Ballard, Mrs. Oliver H. Smith presided over the registry on the porch and as each guest registered he received a white box containing a piece of the wedding cake. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Sadie Cooper. Cutting the wedding cake was a feature of the evening, Miss Eleanor Bedell cut the first, and Miss Sophie Church, the button. Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt left on the evening train for a short honeymoon trip, but would not tell where. The bride's going away gown was semi-tailored, in a modish shade of brown with accessories to match. They will be at home to their friends at the Brice residence on their return. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith of Houston, Tex., guests of Judge and Mrs. Brice, Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller of Clovis, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Kerr, of Carlsbad, guests of H. J. Hagerman, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Harkey and Miss Myrtle Harkey of Carlsbad.

THE COTTON OUTLOOK.

Mr. Larsh finished work on the cotton gin this week and will be ready to take care of the cotton of Artesia. It has been quite a task to install the machinery, but everything has been done in tip top shape. The cotton crop is going to be a surprise to everyone. Unless Jack Frost makes an extra early call this fall and that is not probable there will be oodles of the fluffy cotton brought to the gin. Mr. Larsh says some fields around here are as good as he ever saw in his life. If this year's crop comes up to expectations we may expect a large acreage next year as the crop had a very backward spring to contend with. The soil is as good as lay out doors. Ed. Stone has a patch close in that is excellent and it never has been irrigated. With a normal amount of rainfall and dry farming methods we could raise a large amount here.—Artesia Advocate.

Mrs. Genevieve Blevins returned from a six months stay with her mother and a sister, recently deceased, at Topeka, Kansas, getting home Tuesday afternoon. Her mother, Mrs. Morgan, accompanied her and will make her home with Mrs. Blevins in this city.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL LEVY, 1920, FOR PECOS WATER USERS' ASSOCIATION.

Resolved, That the estimate and probable cost of salaries and other office expenses amounting to $2,000 including the expenditure of $8,000.00, for cement lining of portion of Black River Canal, making a total of $10,000.00, at 40c. per acre based upon the present acreage subscribed in this association. Whereas, The Secretary of the Interior by public notice dated Feb. 20, 1920, has levied upon each acre of irrigable land, whether irrigated or not, the sum of $2.00 per acre which will permit the delivery of not more than two acre feet of water per acre; for first acre-foot per acre additional the sum of 50c., and for further quantities 75c. per acre-foot. An additional charge of 15c. an acre-foot will be made for water used in the winter season beginning at the close of the irrigation season and ending March 10, which water would otherwise waste over the spillways at Lake Avalon.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the sum of $2.00 be levied against each share of capital stock of said association, and a like sum of $2.00 be levied against each acre of land held in trust by said association for the first two acre feet of water whether used or not by each shareholder in said association for each acre of land, and a further sum of 50c. for each third foot of water, and for further quantities 75c. per acre-foot. An additional charge of 15c. an acre-foot will be made for water used in the winter season beginning at the close of the irrigation season and ending March 10, which water would otherwise waste over the spillways at Lake Avalon. This levy to be for maintenance; to meet the charges levied by the Secretary of the Interior of the United States against the lands admitted to water under the Carlsbad Project, which have complied with the requirements of the Reclamation Extension Act, and for those not accepting such act, a sum equal to the public notice affecting the same.

Be It Further Resolved, That there is hereby levied against each and every share of the capital stock of the Pecos Water Users' Association an assessment of 40c. per share and a like sum of 40c. per share against each acre of land held in trust by said association to meet the necessary expenses, etc., of said association.

Be It Further Resolved, That there is hereby levied against each share of the capital stock of the Pecos Water Users' Association an assessment equal to 6 per cent of the balance due upon each share of capital stock in said association at the time of filing acceptance of

The Secret of a Superlative Tire

The whole question of a super-tire is a matter of principles. For there is nothing exclusive in the industry. No patents, no secret formulas prevent a conscientious maker from building the best.

But cost and competition modify ideals. The Brunswick idea is to pay perfection's price and get it.

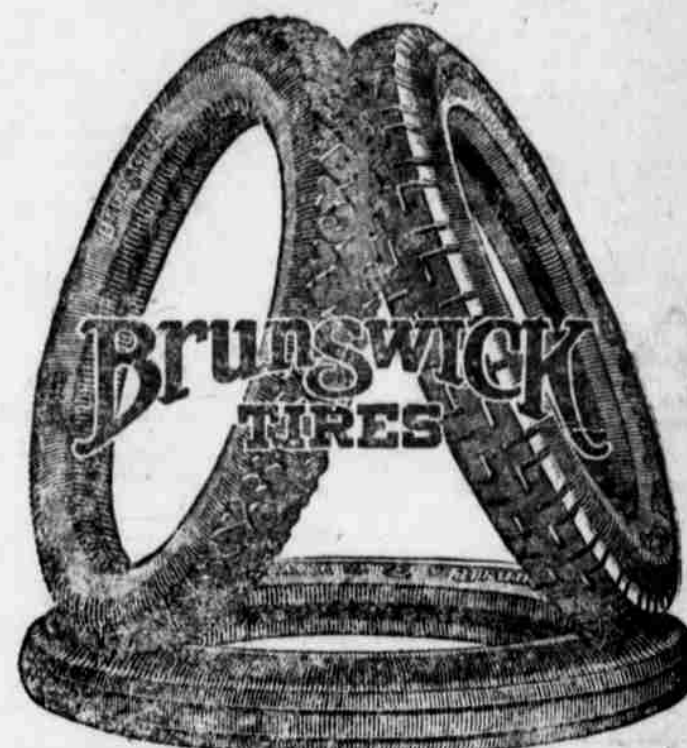

That has been the Brunswick policy since 1845. And it accounts for the growing preference for Brunswick Tires. Motorists expect the utmost from a tire bearing the name of Brunswick—and get it.

You, too, will be convinced by your first Brunswick, that here is an extraordinary tire, and that more money cannot buy a better.

Better tires of their type are impossible—or better tubes. That we guarantee.

Try ONE Brunswick—learn how it excels.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Oille Thayer is spending the week at the beautiful Thayer ranch in the mountains.

Collin Gerrells, came in from his home in the Guadalupe Wednesday on a brief visit, mostly business.

Marvin Livingston, wife and baby daughter, left in their car Sunday morning for the home of Mrs. Livingston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, at Globe, Arizona, and expect to remain there some weeks.

Mrs. Henry Muldrow is convalescing slowly from an attack of pleuro-pneumonia, from which she has been a very sick woman for the last ten days. Her many friends will be glad to learn of the improvement in her condition which has been very serious.

Miss Sweetie Mae Hunch, of Weatherford, Texas, spent a three week's vacation in this city the guest of friends and left for her home this morning. Her friends here enjoyed her visit extremely and hope so much time will not elapse ere she returns.

Mrs. J. C. Wilson left Wednesday morning for her new home at Loving, joining Mr. Wilson, who has been there for some weeks. They expect to make a permanent home in the little suburb, and will receive a warm welcome from the hospitable people of that community.

Willoughby Hegler and Green McComb came in from their respective ranches for a load of supplies the middle of the week. Both gentlemen ranch near Frijoles, where Mr. Hegler has a fine flock of angora goats from which he shears extra good fleeces. He, in company with other flockmasters in that section of the country, is waiting a more satisfactory price before disposing of his staple.

Little Cecile, the ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Eaker, will leave tomorrow for the state school at Alamogordo. The little girl will be met at Pecos by a friend of Mrs. Eaker, who will assist her in changing cars at that place, and one of the teachers from the school will meet all who go from this part of the country and accompany them to the school. Cecile is delighted with her school and is learning rapidly.

here is applicable to both parents and children alike, and to husbands and wives as well: "Whoso careth not for his own and especially for those of his own household  is worse than an infidel," and becomes a traitor to those who should be his dearest ones on earth.

This subject also has a slight application to school and educational life. No teacher can wield a very great influence over the pupil for good if she does not have at least a "Teacher Love" for the children under her control. Neither will she be able to lead the student on to great advancement unless she is able to secure in turn a "Pupil Love" for the teacher. Only when these are mutual can there be a proper understanding, a congenial relationship and rapid advancement. Happy is the student and thrice happy should be the teacher when each shall learn that like begets like in the school room as well as in nature.

It has a larger application to faithful and loyal American citizenship. No citizen can be true to America until that citizen first loves the laws, the institutions and government of America better than any other nation under heaven. There can be no divided love for America and be a true American citizen.

In carrying out this thought it reaches its culmination in being faithful and true to our Lord. No person can ever be faithful and true to God who does not first love Him with all the heart, with all the mind, with all the strength and with all the soul. Just as a woman's love for her husband, or a man's love for his wife must be the first and highest over every other man or woman, or it is infidelity, so our love for God and his kingdom must permeate every fiber of our triad being and there in every pulse of our existence or it is hollow mockery and hypocrisy. He that loveth not for God is against Him, and he that gathereth not with Him scattereth abroad. If any with Him scattereth the love of the Father is not in him. We must be able to see from the very depths of the soul, Holy, holy, Lord God Almighty: I love and most ardently adore Thee.

The Holy Bible not only teaches but warns us that he that is not for God is against Him; and he that gathereth not with Him scattereth abroad, and if any man love the world the love of the Father is not in him. The love of God being first and highest over all love for all persons and all things it deepens and heightens and broadens the heart so that it has more abundant room to hold all love in harmony with God. And then we can be able to say, "Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty! I tenderly love Thee and most ardently adore Thee." The crowns of happiness here and the crowns of life hereafter are promised to those only who are faithful and true.

The county commissioners have decided to do away with the county club work of the Boys and Girls clubs after this year. Miss Lu Hughes is the very efficient leader for this county, and the club members are inconsolable over the loss of their beloved leader. When it is known that there are enrolled for this year in the club work of the state over 2,000 boys and girls, some idea of the importance of the work may be obtained. These 2,000 are working on the farms or in the rural homes of the state on some definite piece of agricultural or home demonstration work.

Seventeen girls and boys are attending the high school from points in the lower valley. The trip is made daily in the fine new truck, provided for that purpose which is an Oldsmobile and driven by Edward Rosson. Distance from high school is no excuse for non-attendance in Eddy county. These pupils, despite the ten mile journey, are among the best in their respective classes.

Mrs. Claude Nelson came in Saturday from a month's stay with her parents in Pomona, California. She brings the good news that the health of her mother, Mrs. Pierre, is much improved since her residence in that state.

Judge C. R. Brice came down from Roswell last Friday afternoon and heard several civil cases while here, one of which was a habeas corpus case in which a Mr. Webster was the defendant. He was released under the habeas corpus act, but was immediately re-arrested on the same charge. Webster stayed in jail about a month without being legally arrested and it is said he will seek damages on that account. Judge Jones and Major Hujac were Webster's attorneys and the case attracted a great deal of attention.

Miss Effie V. Hart will leave Monday for Sulphur, Oklahoma, where she will teach art in the deaf school. Miss Hart had the same work last year and her being again chosen shows her value as a teacher. Miss Collett will have charge of Miss Hart's home this winter and will remain in Carlsbad.

C. L. Schultz and wife were up from their home in the farming district below town the first of the week, shopping and transacting business of various kinds while in the city.

Goodyear Tires for Small Cars Are Popular Because Economical

There is nothing but disappointment in buying cheaply made tires that are announced as wonderful bargains at a few dollars each and then fail after brief terms of service.

Get exceptional mileage at exceedingly low cost in Goodyear Tires, of the 30 x 3-, 30 x 3½- and 31 x 4-inch sizes, built of Goodyear-selected materials and with Goodyear skill and care.

Due to their precise manufacture in the world's largest tire factory devoted to these sizes, their quality is most economically produced and therefore most economically employed.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires; ride farther and fare better.

30 x 3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50
30 x 3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available? $4.50

THE STAR PHARMACY

KIND WORDS TODAY.

Rev. Geo. H. Givan.

Come speak my friend, come speak to me
While life is sweet and dear;
Do not withhold kind words from me—
Blissful words of hope and cheer.

If one kind word you have for me
Do not wait till I am dead;
But while I live let some one hear
Praise you'd heap upon my head.

My heart is waiting, longing friend
For helpful words from thee;
And if you'd cheer my aching heart
Let me know you care for me.

Unlock your heart, unseal your lips,
Let thoughts their freedom find;
For thoughts and words in prison cells
Cannot refresh an anxious mind.

Let not morrow's setting sun
Find your thoughts still hid away;
But bring them out and pass them on,
Give your words of love today.

FAITHFUL AND TRUE.

Rev. Geo. H. Givan.

No woman can ever be faithful to her husband if she is in the least infatuated with another man. No man can be true to his wife while he admires another woman. To be fit subjects for matrimony they must each stand first in the other's affections; and to lead a congenial and happy married life together no love or admiration for any other man or woman on the face of the earth should ever be allowed to creep into the heart of either for a single moment, for no heart ever was created large enough to tenderly love and ardently admire more than one person at a time. And whose looketh on any other person for an unfaithful or unholly purpose hath committed a most grievous sin already in the heart.

And it is impossible for parents to take the highest and best interest in their children if for a single moment they think more of the children of some other parents than they do of their own. Mother love and father love with all its tenderness and kindness and helpfulness must be lavished first upon our own offspring, none of our bone, flesh of our flesh and blood of our blood, or the very name of parental affection becomes an awful mockery. My own child must stand absolutely first in all my affections for children, no matter how cultured, intelligent or beautiful the children of others may be either in my own eyes or the eyes of the world. Mine must be mine first.

My father and my mother must stand out preeminently over and above all other fathers and mothers in all the universe and receive the highest admiration that I, as a child can bestow upon any father or mother in the world. Thousands of parents may be as good as mine but they are not mine and to allow myself to love them above my own is base ingratitude of the basest kind. A passage of scripture
