A few minutes later Sheriff Secrist had the twain under arrest and at 2 o'clock they were brought before Justice Watron who imposed a fine of $25 on Jose Baca, who seems to be the one who made most of the disturbance. # COMPULSORY ARBITRATION.

Referring to the proposal of arbitration as a means of settlement of the Pennsylvania coal strike, Justice Shiras says:

"Arbitration is the logical method of settling troubles such as this one, which affects the general prosperity and comfort of a great section of the country. The method and enforcement of this arbitration is a subject for the lawmakers of the nation; but arbitration itself is logical."

Justice Shiras also endorses the principle of compulsory arbitration, which he considers to be justifiable and warranted by the demands of public necessity.

Upon this subject he says:

"There is now one great difficulty standing in the way of an arbitration law. Many of the labor unions are not incorporated. Until they are no law can be made binding, as no contract or agreement could be enforced upon them, while the operators, on the other hand, could be held liable. Incorporation of all labor unions is the primary step toward the passage of an arbitration law. The unions must be responsible for the carrying out of an agreement, and until they are there is little hope for compulsory arbitration of labor troubles."

IMPROVEMENT IN CITIES.

In many American cities associations have been formed for their improvement along artistic lines, and already good results are seen. But progress will be slow until public sentiment is awakened and people of all classes see the value and the importance of municipal art in accordance with good standards.

Americans traveling in Europe are filled with delight at the numerous works of art seen in both large and small cities, especially on the continent. But too many of them seem to conclude that these artistic adornments must needs be confined to the old world, and that in order to see good examples of municipal art one must continue to visit Europe.

There is no reason why residents of American cities should not accomplish as much for their home places as European municipalities have achieved. It is to but a slight degree a question of time, for many of the works of art seen in Europe are of modern production.

OCEAN CABLES.

In the half century since the practicability of submarine telegraphy was demonstrated, the electric wires have invaded every ocean except the Pacific. Nearly a score of wires have been laid across the Atlantic, of which no less than thirteen now successfully operate between the United States and Europe, while three others span the comparatively short distance between South America and the African and South European coast lines. Throughout the Indian ocean lines connect the far east with Europe and America via the Red sea, the Mediterranean, the western coast of Europe, and the great trans-Atlantic lines. The Mediterranean is crossed and recrossed in its entire length and breadth by numerous cable lines, and the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean sea are traversed in all directions by lines which bring islands and colonies into speaking relations with each other and with South America, Central America, the United States and thence with Europe, Africa, Asia—the whole world. Along the eastern coast of Asia cable lines loop, from port to port, and island to island, relaying messages overland from eastern Europe via Russia-Siberian land lines and forwarding them to Japan, China, Australia, New Zealand, the Straits Settlements, Hong Kong, and the Philippines and receiving others in return. South America is skirted with cable lines along its entire border save the extreme south, where they are brought into intercommunication by land lines. Along the entire coast of Africa, cables loop from place to place and from colony to colony, stretching along the entire circumference and penetrating the interior by land lines at various points.

STOPPED THE ROW.

It took a big washout at Silver City to stop the row between the two newspapers. It is probably true that the press is somewhat like women, who in their hours of ease are coy, uncertain and hard to please, and variable as the shade, but let a great trouble come to the community and all bickering on the part of the newspapers at once ceases and they stand shoulder to shoulder for the common good. The Citizen has regretted the newspaper controversy at Silver City, and hopes that the good feeling now prevailing between the papers of that place will be kept up.

THE AMERICAN FARMER.

The American farmer is the greatest man in the world. A "combine" with a capital of one billion dollars is a great thing because it is a combine, but one billion dollars relatively to the capital of money, brain and brawn in this country is not at all a great thing. Farmers simply stagger and fall down when the attempt to represent the great foundation wealth of America is made in agriculture.

There are all, when we attempt to combine that wealth, very much in the position of the Irishman who had to look several times in order to see the tall building—taking it little by little. One section of the view is the information, entirely accurate, that the farmers of Minnesota and the Dakotas have received $300,000,000 for their products this year. Another is that the corn crop of the state of Kansas this year will be $20,000,000 bushels. Still another, that $1,000,000 is the lowest estimate of the loss in one year in the single territory of Oklahoma the other day—the rain having checked the progress of a fortnight's dry spell. In a single year the milk cows of the United States yield a product equal in value to one-half of the capital of the steel trust—and there are more cows at the beginning of the new year than there were before.

HOW TO ADVERTISE.

John Wanamaker, who is both an advertiser and a newspaper publisher and therefore competent to speak from either standpoint is credited with the following: "There is only one way to advertise, and that is to hammer your name, your location, your business, so constantly, so persistently, so thoroughly into the people's head that if they walked in their sleep they would constantly turn their faces toward your store. The newspaper is your best friend in spite of your criticism. It helps to build up the community that supports you. When the day comes that your newspapers are dead, the people are near the edge of the grave with no one to write their epitaph."

COMPLICATED CASE.

The saloons at Santa Fe are kept closed on Sundays—that being a holy and judge fearing town. Last Sunday a crowd of thirty excursionists from Albuquerque and Las Vegas broke into one of the saloons and put barkeepers in charge and bought the whole stock of liquor on hand. So there you are, and who is to be indicted?

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Winslow Mail has been greatly improved and shows decided signs of prosperity.

San Juan county will have one hundred wagon loads of exhibits at the territorial fair.

The public schools of New Mexico begin this month and will show largely increased attendance.

San Juan county will hold a successful county fair at Farmington on September 17, 18, 19 and 20.

Col. J. F. Wilson, of Prescott, will be the democratic nominee for delegate to congress from Arizona.

The taxable property of Luna county for this year is $1,396,673.65, an increase of $112,265 over last year.

There are thirty-eight forest reserves in the United States, embracing forty-six millions acres of land.

Canada has a practically untouched forest three or four thousand miles long and seven hundred miles wide.

The first thing Las Vegas must do to become a political center is to quit sending divided delegations to territorial conventions.

The democrats are not short of good congressional timber. This city has several democrats deserving of the honor of a nomination.

Dr. Nathan Boyd has remained in Washington this summer looking after territorial interests. He is a faithful friend of New Mexico.

Within a few years the Rock Island will have branch roads from the main line in this territory to Las Vegas, Albuquerque, Socorro, and Las Cruces.

The Citizen again wishes to remark that Delegate Rodey will be nominated by acclamation at Raton. He deserves that much at the hands of the republicans of New Mexico.

Las Vegas deserves to have a National league base ball team at the territorial fair. That city has the most enthusiastic crowd of base ball rooters to be found anywhere.

Bernalillo and Valencia counties give nearly all the republican majority in New Mexico. This is why these two counties should have something to say about republican politics and candidates.

"I notice," says the Alfalfa Sage, "that the little countries are the ones that are constantly assuming the most threatening and warlike attitude. It's the same way with small dogs, and diminutive men."

"Col." Wm. Berger, not satisfied with his record as a crude and chronic failure in New Mexico, has gone to Denver, where he prevailed upon Walter Davis to elaborate his political pipe dreams in the Post.

Granite is the lowest rock in the earth's crust—it is the bed rock of the world, and shows no evidence of animal or vegetable life; it is the parent rock from which all rocks have been either directly or indirectly derived.

The republicans of Arizona are somewhat in the position of the democrats of New Mexico. All the prominent republicans in that territory mentioned for delegate to congress are anxious that the other fellow should run.

Col. Sellers, of San Juan county, is a much more practical man than his namesake, Col. Mulberry Sellers. Our Colonel Sellers expects to make millions by the development of San Juan county, and he will do it when the Albuquerque-Durango railroad is built.

Judge A. A. Freeman, of Carlsbad, is a reliable republican. He is somewhat of a chronic kicker because he smokes an old black cob pipe, which keeps his liver in bad condition. The Citizen happens to know that the Judge is a much better man than appears on the surface.

This city has added 1,000 to its population this year.

"Let's keep on kicking." is the platform of the democratic party.

The Citizen is the largest, best and cheapest daily newspaper in New Mexico.

Neckties are the next addition to the long list of articles manufactured from wood pulp.

The New Mexican in several paragraphs intimates that some one is trying to "down" that paper.

Charron: He who receives a good turn should never forget it; and he who does one should never remember it.

Congressman Lacey can find an excellent location for a government reservation in the vicinity of Wall Lake, Iowa.

Arizona has a total assessment of $29,083,177.57, an increase of $229,246.29 over the assessed valuation of last year.

The politicians of the territory are of little benefit to the newspapers, and a paper that lives by political support is not a newspaper.

Preparations are being made for the coming of $250,000 per month in subsidiary silver for the Philippines at the San Francisco mint.

Sixteen thousand, four hundred laborers on an average find employment daily at the docks and principal wharves in London.

As the Chinese rebels are being executed at the rate of 1,000 a day, it is predicted that the rebellion will not last more than a year.

St. Louis makes one-sixth of the shoes manufactured in the United States and is fifth among American cities in shoe production.

They are already beginning to heap abuse upon Charley Spies, one of the territorial papers asserting that he is Castro's candidate for congress.

The stairway leading to the tower of the Philadelphia city hall contains 598 steps, and is said to be the tallest continuous stairway in the world.

The postoffice department uses a considerable quantity of string in the course of a year. With rigid economy it can get along with 30,000 pounds.

If the democrats want to nominate a candidate who will stir up things they should combine on W. S. Hopewell. He would make Rodey stay up nights during the campaign.

The manner in which the president and the conventions of his party are handling the trust question will render it difficult for the democracy to find an issue in that subject.

The strike situation in Pennsylvania is growing steadily worse, as was perhaps to have been expected. Bloody scenes may be expected this month in the coal region of that state.

San Miguel is the banner democratic county of New Mexico. That county will have twenty-three delegates in the democratic convention which will convene in this city on October 13.

The first great labor day parade in this country was in Boston on July 4, 1788. The war of independence had been over for five years, but no general government had been established.

President Roosevelt says that congress should have control of the trusts, which really appears to be an improvement over the present scheme by which the trusts control congress.

The republicans of McKinley county expect to re-elect Alex Bowie to the territorial legislature. Mr. Bowie was a faithful representative two years ago and accomplished much for his county.

The Silver City Enterprise well deserves its name. It was washed out by a flood a week ago and comes out on time with its usual interesting pages of matter. Long may it flourish.

There will be 135 delegates in the Bernalillo county convention, which is called to meet in this city September 13. The two precincts in this city will have forty-two delegates in that convention.

This true sentence is from the Denver Republican: "The best way to get rid of bossism in any political party is for the individual members of the organization to do their duty by asserting themselves in the precincts within which they reside."

The last of the original Hoe firm of newspaper press builders, Peter S. Hoe, is dead. That family has left behind it an industrial monument that will last longer than many of the ornate statues that rear themselves on the green sward of America.

The Rev. "Sam" Small became drunk in Battleboro, Vt., this week, while on a temperance lecture tour. He admits he was drunk and says he has no excuses to offer. It is a sad downfall, and at the same time as effective a temperance sermon as he ever delivered.

Except for the twenty-seven miles of water transit across Lake Baikal, a traveler may ride by rail all the way from Paris to Vladivostok on the Pacific. This is a result of the completion of the great Trans-Siberian railroad with its connection across the Chinese province of Manchuria.

Nearly every state and large city in the country is making some movement to aid in stamping out of consumption. Massachusetts has a well established sanitarium at Rutland, in that state. Vermont is considering a project of the same kind. The New York legislature has made two appropriations, aggregating $15,000, for the construction of a consumptives' sanitarium in the Adirondack region. The New Jer-

The Raton Range says: "Hon. Chas. A. Spies, of Las Vegas, is reported in the Las Vegas Record to be a candidate for delegate to congress. Mr. Spies is a good man, but the republicans of New Mexico are satisfied with Mr. Rodey and he will be nominated by an overwhelming majority."

Speaking of the excursions to Santa Fe from Las Vegas and Albuquerque tomorrow, the New Mexican says: "It is a proof that the antagonism which was supposed at one time to exist between the three big towns of the territory has given way to a feeling of brotherhood, amounting to the recognition that the advantage of the one is to the benefit of all."

The Las Vegas Optic insists that The Citizen recently boldly appropriated a column article from that excellent paper without giving proper credit. If this is so, it was certainly not intentional. The Optic is so well filled with paragraphs suitable for

The Tierra Amarilla Republican says the aspirant who has the temerity to endeavor to wrest the republican nomination from Delegate Rodey may not, when he emerges from the conflict, be in good shape to sit for his photograph, but he will possess the deeply imprinted wisdom born of reckless dalliance with a buzzsaw and pile driver.

The site of the lost Indian city, Mascontens, which was reported as having 20,000 inhabitants in 1675, has been determined by the labors of Thomas Clithero, of Portage, Wis., now extended over many years. The descriptions of the Jesuits in the course of the seventeenth century, closing with Marquette and Joliet in 1673, are said to have been verified.

Several wagon loads of fruit has been shipped to Santa Fe, Cerrillos, Bland and San Pedro the past few days and sold at good figures.

Ignacio M. Peres, one of our merchants here, is having his store fixed up in good shape. The carpenters and masons are busy putting the building in shape for the accommodation of the increasing business. The store is to be enlarged and all windows, doors, etc., are to be new and the entire building replastered and remodeled. Mr. Peres came here less than four years ago and by strict attention to business and by his unswerving honesty and fair dealing he has built up a trade he can well be proud of. Such men are what are needed to make a community prosperous. Mr. Peres is secretary of the school board here and also road supervisor.

People are now commencing to talk politics and the fun will soon commence. Good reports are coming in from the mining camps near here.

THE CLIFF DWELLERS.

Congressman Lacey and Delegate Rodey Visit Proposed Park.

WHAT THE DELEGATE SAYS

Delegate Rodey and Congressman Lacey last week spent several days examining the ruins in the proposed Paríto Cliff Dwellers' national park near Española, about fifty miles northwest of Santa Fe. The delegate says that he has never seen the ancient ruins at Uxmal or Palenque in Central America, but he is sure they cannot surpass the ruins he has just examined in New Mexico. He is enthusiastic in his statement that the new national park will be one of the greatest wonders in the world. He says to drive up one of the valleys and see the tens of thousands of doorways cut in the soft volcanic tufa cliffs reminds you of sailing up the Hudson river and looking at the square windows in the skyscrapers, only that the cliff dwellers have but two or three rows of windows or doors, while the skyscrapers are dotted clear to the top. He states that an American who goes to see Herculaneum or Pompeii, or any other of the old cities or ruins of Europe before he has seen these tremendous monuments of a former civilization or semi-civilization of the stone age in his own country is guilty of an impropriety. He states that a syndicate that would in some manner build a road in to these ruins, or construct trolley lines to them, and then advertise them fully, would make a fortune. He thinks there cannot be anything on earth less as extensive as these ruins are; that there are thousands upon thousands of rooms cut into the rock, covered with picturegraphs, and smutted with the smoke of years inside; that there are dozens of communal buildings, now in ruins, which, in their prime, consisted of from seven to fifteen hundred rooms each. That the pathways on the tops of the mesas leading to the several stairways have been worn in several instances as much as two feet deep in the rock by the moss-cased feet of the people who lived there; that they were certainly a people of the stone age, as there is not anything but fragments of stone tools, pottery, flint and cora grinding stones left.

F. Demotte, a Santa Fe Pacific fireman running out of Albuquerque, N. M., has brought engine 725 to Topeka shops for an overhauling, says the Topeka Journal. In an interview Demotte says that the large locomotives which the Santa Fe has put in service recently on that part of the system have displaced 62 per cent of the men; a big locomotive that can pull half as much more than the smaller type, of course decreases the number of required crews and thus cuts off the number of employees.

TO BE DEPENDED ON.

Because it is the Experience of an Albuquerque Citizen and Can Readily Be Investigated.

A stranger lost in a large city would place far more dependence on the direction given him by a local resident than the guidance of another stranger like himself. This is a natural consequence; it's like a ship in a strange port—a trusty pilot familiar with the harbor is always called upon to bring her safely to her moorings. So it is with endorsement; we doubt the sayings of people living at distant points because we can't investigate, but public expression of local citizens can be depended on for 'tis an easy matter to prove it. Evidence like the following is beyond dispute:

J. W. Gertig, bookkeeper, residence 408 West Coal avenue, says: "When I lived in Mansfield, Ohio, several years ago I had an attack of lumbago. Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended by residents of Mansfield in the papers of that city and I went to the drug store kept by a friend of mine, named W. Barton, for a box and commenced the treatment. A continuation of it for some time stopped the attack and for several years there was no recurrence. Some six months ago I noticed pain in my back and knowing what Doan's Kidney Pills had performed when they first came to my notice, I went to the Albuquerque drug store for a box. The treatment was just as effective as it was when I first used it in Ohio. This to me positively proves that Doan's Kidney Pills can be depended upon."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

JOY OVER RAIN.

Farmington District Welcomes a Deluge that Breaks the Long Drouth.

The past few days this section has been visited with the heaviest rains for several years, says a Farmington dispatch to the Denver News. All summer a terrible drought has held this section in its territory, but when the rains came it was with such rapidity that considerable damage was done, although gladly welcomed by all.

At Flora Vista the public school building was completely demolished by the waters from an arroyo that left its old bed and placed the school house in the center of its newly-selected course.

As the daily stage to Durango was going north Saturday with Henry Newton as driver they came to an arroyo that usually is dry, but on this occasion was running a considerable volume of water, but apparently not too much to ford. He drove in and found that where the road had formerly been a hole fully six feet deep had been washed out. When the stage struck this it went over and the driver and two passengers found themselves in the water. The mail sack and much fruit aboard was carried away as was also a satchel containing $250 belonging to Mr. Harris, one of the passengers. A search party returned the next morning and found the mail sack and a part of the fruit, but the satchel is still missing.

All the rivers are full. But most of the irrigating ditches of the county have been badly damaged by the floods and are not carrying water, but no crops are suffering as the ground was well soaked up by the rain.

Special Correspondence.

Silver City, N. M., Aug. 29.—The city still has a large force of men at work in the arroyo recently washed in Main street by a big flood in putting in brush and sandbag dams to help fill up the ditch and also to break the force of the floods if any more should come. By some lucky chance this side of the divide has had no more heavy rains since last Sunday to cause a flood, but it has been expected any day. From the indication and clouds that come every afternoon it will undoubtedly come, and it is a grave question what will happen.

DEATH OF ROUAULT.

Son of Theodore Rouault, of Las Cruces, is Dead.

After fighting for four long weeks against typhoid fever, Ernest, second son of Theodore Rouault, succumbed to one of the rare complications of the disease, namely perforation of the small bowel, which immediately caused peritonitis to ensue.

Operative measures were instituted, one of the best surgeons of the southwest, as well as two local physicians doing their utmost to tide the patient over the crisis, but the dread disease was of too virulent a type to be conquered.

On Wednesday evening fortified with the last holy rites of the church, Ernest peacefully gave up his soul to his Maker.

The subject of this notice was deservedly popular with his teachers and fellow students and gave promise of an unusually bright future, and while it is most regrettable that he should have been cut off in the days of his youth, yet it may be said of him that "being made perfect in a short space he fulfilled a long time; for his soul pleased God."

The funeral took place Thursday morning to the Parish church, where a solemn requiem high mass was celebrated by the curate for the repose of his soul. Rev. Father Lassaigue sang the Libera and pronounced the absolution. The interment took place in the Catholic cemetery, a long cortege wending its way to the last sad rites. Requiescat in Pace.

The Unhappy Burden Bearer Must Make Choice.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Takes Away the Load of Disease, and Leads to New Life, Health, and Happiness.

The unhappy victim of disease and suffering who has just dragged through the summer, and who is now racked with suffering and almost a physical wreck, must make immediate choice of two paths. One leads to increased miseries and certain death, the other to new life, health, and happiness.

The use of Paine's Celery Compound is a necessity for all who seek the path of health and long years. Victims of rheumatism, neuralgia, kidney disease, liver trouble, dyspepsia, nervousness, and blood diseases quickly and surely find new life, vigor, and strength in Dr. Phelps' medical prescription—Paine's Celery Compound. It builds up the system, purifies the blood, braces the nerves, and regulates digestion as no other medicine can do. John C. Rowan, 137 E. Winfield street, St. Paul, Minn., says:

"Some six years ago I suffered with rheumatism in my knees so painful I could get no relief, and I had to rub them for a moment's ease. Paine's Celery Compound cured me and eradicated the disease from my system. I had also been afflicted with kidney disease as most railroad men are, and I had catarrh so bad that my head ached and my eyes were inflamed with continual pain, and I could retain nothing but liquid food on my stomach. Today, thanks to Paine's Celery Compound, I think I am as healthy as any man that stands on the globe."

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

The People of Deming and the County Should Act at Once.

In an interview with J. H. O'Reilly, president of the twenty-second territorial fair, to be held at Albuquerque on October 14 to 18, he said that the fair association wishes it distinctly understood that the fair is exactly what the name indicates—a territorial fair, and of territorial interest and benefit. While most of the members of the association reside in Albuquerque, they invite and solicit the cooperation of all citizens interested in the welfare and progress of New Mexico. He referred particularly to Luna county, and of the showing it could make in minerals and fruits, and of the results it would bring by placing this, the youngest county in the territory, before the people of the United States.

We suggest that the county commissioners make an appropriation and select one man to collect an outfit that will be representative of our products. If this cannot be done, it would be an easy manner to raise $200 by subscription among the business men of Deming.

Why not this matter be taken up by the Business Men's association? There is certainly no better way to advertise our county and town than in the manner above suggested.—Head light.

She was in California, when the news reached her of her husband's illness and she took the first train out, which happened to be No. 2. The train was traveling too slow for her, so at Winslow, Ariz., she ordered a special consisting of one of the fast engines, a baggage and a coach, boarded and whizzed away east as fast as steam could carry her. The price paid for the train was $1,000, and the road was cleared. The crack engineers were given the run and arrangements made at eating stations for lunches to be put up ready so as to not delay. REUNION NOTICE. Effort to Get the Fifteenth Army Corps Together.

Department Commander Edwards has received the following letter regarding a reunion of the Fifteenth Army Corps:

Washington, D. C., Aug. 30, 1902. "I can not speak of the Fifteenth Army Corps without a seeming vanity, but as I am no longer its commander, I assert that there is no better body of soldiers in America."—General Sherman. (Report of 19th December, 1863).

Reunion Committee, Fifteenth Army Corps—J. E. Hart, chairman; F. M. Taylor, vice chairman; A. D. Gaston, secretary.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 25, 1902.—Comrade: The committee from the resident members of the Fifteenth Army Corps, to which has been assigned the duty of preparing for a reunion of the old corps during Grand Army week, hope you will be with us on that occasion that we may clasp hands and "touch elbows" as in the days when you helped to make such glorious history for our country and the Army of the Tennessee.

Our old corps commanders have all but one passed to "fame's eternal camping ground"—the ranks are thinning, the line shortening—but let those of us who remain meet once more to do honor to the old corps, so famous, not only for its historic achievements, but also for such names as Sherman, Logan, Blair, Osterhaus, Steele, Smith, Hazen, and the other "gallant leaders of brave men."

We promise you a soldier's welcome, and that the local organization here will do everything possible to make your visit to the national capital thoroughly enjoyable and the reunion a complete success.

Please notify us of your acceptance, and when you arrive report at once at Camp Roosevelt, south of the executive mansion, at corps headquarters—"carriage box and forty rounds"—where you will find comrades to receive you. Fraternally,

J. E. HART, Chairman.

D. T. KIRBY, I. E. KIRK, J. S. ROY, A. D. GASTON, F. C. FOSTER, Committee on Invitation.

NEW CITY LIGHTS.

City Council Says Where They Shall be Placed.

ALL DOGS MUST WEAR TAGS.

The city council last night selected as the locations of the new electric lights the intersections of the following streets:

First street and Railroad avenue. First street and Copper avenue. First street and Marquette avenue. Second street and Coal avenue. Second street and Railroad avenue. Third street and Bacon avenue. Fourth street and Copper avenue. Fourth street and New York avenue. Fourth street and Marquette avenue. Tenth street and Railroad avenue. Twelfth street and Railroad avenue. Broadway and Coal avenue. Arno street and Highland avenue. Arno street and Gold avenue. 14th street and Carroll avenue. Walter street and Gold avenue. 1st street and Railroad avenue. Fourth street and Fruit avenue. Fourth street and Marble avenue. Fifth street and Coal avenue. Fifth street and Tijeras avenue. Seventh street and Railroad avenue. Eighth street and New York avenue.

A petition from property owners on Copper avenue, asking that sidewalks be laid from First street to Third street was referred to the committee on streets and grades.

A petition from the advance agent of Buffalo Bill's show, asking for a special license for the show was denied, as the council thinks the city needs the money as much as the show.

It was also decided to do away with the garbage cart now in service, as the city is under no contract for its use. The regular teams and wagons will be used and the expense of the extra man and team saved.

Dogs were considered and it was decided a duly licensed dog must wear his tag. The city poundmaster will in the future be allowed 20 per cent of all dog licenses collected.

The city marshal presented his report for the month of August as follows:

Number of arrests ..... 100
Meals served ..... 139
Fines collected ..... $505

The report of the city clerk showed licenses collected to the sum of $1,034. Of this amount the dog tax department brought in $304, which goes to show that the present poundmaster is doing his duty according to the law.

The city treasurer reported the balance in the city treasury on September 1 was $6,163.28.

Plumbing Inspector E. B. Crispy reported the city plumbing establishments as conducting their operations according to law.

The city attorney reported regarding the porch on the Armijo building at Silver avenue and Second street. That the city had power to determine the extent to which sidewalks may be obstructed or encroached upon; that by ordinance No. 37 it had so determined; that said porch had been rebuilt in violation of that ordinance; that therefore the porch might be abated as a public nuisance; also that any adjoining property owner specially injured thereby might maintain an action to abate such nuisance. The report was received and filed, but no further action was taken.

Electrical Inspector Hotelling complained that the Electric Light company has been putting in connection without first securing the permit required by law. He also said he had not been notified promptly. The superintendent of the company differed from him but Alderman McMillan acted as mediator and the mayor ordered the ordinance enforced in the future.

The petition for an extension of the sewer main in the district bounded by Sixth and Eighth streets and Roma and Perfecto avenues was denied. The petition for the abatement of a dance hall on North Broadway as a nuisance was tabled as an officer has been detailed to watch the hall.

The grievance committee had two or three matters up. Residents of the Highlands complain of wheelmen and women using the sidewalks instead of the street and a warning is sounded. Attention was called to the high rails and outstanding ties of the street railway track. The committee believed them to be dangerous and instances were cited where rubber tires have been split by them. The city attorney was authorized to investigate and take such action as may be necessary.

The council decided it would be unwise to repeal the license ordinance as it has the power to grant a special license.

J. M. Moore spoke of the matter of opening Seventh street from Marquette avenue to Tijeras road. Mr. Moore was advised to secure the deed of the necessary ground to the city and the street committee will report at the next meeting.

NEW LIVERY STABLE.

L. E. Carey Has Moved on to Silver Avenue.

L. E. Carey, is the proprietor of the new livery, feed and sale stable on Silver avenue, between First and Second streets. Mr. Carey bought the stable formerly owned by J. W. Ward, located at the corner of Third street and Gold avenue, after spending that for a short time found that it did not fill the requirements of his trade and to enlarge it was necessary to move to another location. The new stable is equipped with a nice lot of horses and some good rigs.

Mr. Carey was compelled to leave his home at Independence, Kansas, and come to Albuquerque on account of his wife's health.

Police Court.

J. W. Ward appeared in police court this morning, charged with the serious offense of being the owner of four unlicensed dogs. Judge Crawford decreed that if the said dogs were produced at court in two hours, the case would be dismissed. Ward disappeared in quest of the poor defenseless dogs.

Erwin Cameron, formerly employed as hostler at Trimble's barn, was arrested yesterday morning for being drunk and disorderly. For this offense he got five days in the city street service. This morning he appeared before Judge Crawford, charged with stealing a watch from Frank Rose. The evidence was complete and the accused was given sixty days in the county jail.

MILE A MINUTE. Mrs. Drake Hurrying to a Dying Husband in Denver.

About 3 o'clock this morning an engine with two cars attached passed through the city at an unusual rate of speed, bound for Denver. On board was Mrs. Drake, of Denver, who was hurrying as fast as steam could carry her to the bedside of a seriously ill husband.

Mrs. Drake had been spending the summer in California and was on her way home on passenger No. 2. At Winslow the lady received a telegram stating that her husband was dying. She immediately made arrangements for a special train to Denver at a cost of $1,000, which was cheerfully agreed to. THE FIRST MEETING.

Revival Services Last Night at Methodist Church.

The drummer evangelist was greeted by a full house last night at the Highland Methodist church and never did an evangelist begin services anywhere with a brighter prospect of success. The large audience listened with rapt attention, while the preacher unfolded the truth as contained in the beautiful parable of the wise and foolish virgins, as recorded in the gospel of Matthew 25:1-13. The sermon was a powerful appeal to Christians to be more zealous and useful in showing the beauties of Christianity in their words and actions, and it carried lessons with great force to those who are not yet Christians. Mr. Williams is a strong preacher of a pure gospel, apt in illustration, and supremely happy in his loved employ. At the close of the sermon a large number went forward and knelt around the altar in earnest prayer, that they may have their lamps trimmed and burning when the heavenly bridegroom appears. A young man who had wandered away from the fold asked the prayers of the church, and after a season of prayer in his behalf he professed seeing faith in Christ.

The subject tonight will be "No Room for Jesus." Song service begins at 7:45 and the sermon at 8 o'clock sharp. Everybody welcome.

"Now good digestion waits on appetite, and health on both."

If it doesn't, try Burdock Blood Bitters.

C. W. Landis, "Porter" for the Oriental Hotel, Chanute, Kan., says: "I know what it was to suffer with neuralgia deed I did, and I got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment and I was raised from the dead. I tried to get some more, but before I had 'deposited' my bottle, I was cured entirely. I am telling 'de truth too.' 25c, 50c, and $1.00 at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy—B. Ruppe.

Cattle Buying.

Capt. J. A. La Rue, secretary of the territorial cattle sanitary board, with office in this city, says that while considerable buying of feeders has been done for Missouri, Illinois and that immediate section, the buying for Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa has not yet begun, nor does he think it will begin until the crops have been harvested in those three localities. The result is that little or nothing is just now doing in the movement of cattle. He expects buying to be quite active in the fall.—Las Vegas Optic.

Plute Indian Killed.

The Indians having accomplished their heinous work took the body some distance away and covered it up in a brush heap.—Mojave Miner.

Pretty Valley in Grant County Almost Ruined.

LOSS IS IRREPARABLE AND HEAVY.

From Silver City Independent.

The most disastrous flood which ever visited southwestern New Mexico swept down the fertile Mimbres river valley, in the eastern part of Grant county, Friday night. It was attended with one fatality, and the total loss, taking everything into consideration, is estimated to be about $150,000. Fully 250 people are destitute, and temporary measures are being devised for their relief. As in the case of the Silver City flood, a large proportion of the loss is irreparable, or practically so.

It was more of a cloudburst than anything else. Friday afternoon black storm clouds gathered on each side of the river, in the upper section, and about 4 o'clock met at a point almost directly over the valley. A terrific downpour of rain followed and a large body of water commenced running. The storm was general in character and extended over a wide area of country. Later, on the different canyons, and water courses emptying into the Mimbres, swelled that already overburdened stream to such an extent as to far exceed all previous high water mark records.

It was about 8 o'clock in the evening when the main body of water commenced to come down and from that time on during the greater part of the night the river was a raging torrent, sweeping before it everything with which it came in contact and creating a scene of desolation.

The ranchers living along the river were on their guard as a result of the preliminary flood and when it became apparent that it was no longer safe to remain in their homes, most of them sought refuge on high ground, where they remained until morning. As it was one life was lost. J. D. Anderson, father-in-law of Oscar McCarty, who has a lease on a part of the Gooch ranch, was drowned in an effort to save some of his property. He had waded down into comparatively deep water, when a huge wave swept down upon him, carrying him to his death. The body was recovered the following morning.

The valley in question extends for a distance of about thirty miles along the entire eastern portion of the county. On both sides of the stream during almost its entire course are ranches and farms, about 20,000 acres in all being under cultivation. It is the best farming section in the county. There are perhaps fifty different ranch properties in the valley, and out of this number not a single owner escaped without loss.

Prior to Friday the most severe flood which has ever been known on the river occurred September 7, 1900. The losses sustained at that time were heavy, and practically destroyed all the crops for that year, besides doing much damage to property. Friday's disaster was much greater than that of 1900. Water marks show that the torrent was from eight to ten feet higher all along the valley, and the river was out of its banks on an average of half a mile on both sides.

The trouble could not have occurred at a worse time of the year. The crops were just on the eve of harvesting and were bountiful. Corn, beans, chili and alfalfa, the principal products, were just maturing and the late fruit had just commenced to ripen. Small garden produce was in the same state. While some of the orchards escaped serious injury, the food products were almost without exception totally ruined, and the loss not only falls heavily upon the individual owners, but upon Grant county as a whole. Many of the ranchers were Mexicans, and the results of their year's labor were ruined in a few hours, leaving them without sufficient means for their immediate necessities.

In many places the force of the current completely changed the bed of the river and cut out new channels over what was before valuable agricultural land. Large portions of the banks were cut away and churned into loose soil. Thousands of valuable fruit trees were torn up by roots and scattered along the stream.

Persons from the valley say that the scene beggars description. What were golden fields of grain and corn are now waste deposits of mud and sand, with not a spear of vegetation in sight. Huge boulders, uprooted trees and all kinds of debris are scattered along indiscriminately and everywhere is to be seen the force and quantity of the flood waters. It will require a tremendous amount of labor and a large expenditure of money to even partially restore the valley to its former prosperous condition, and it will be years before the evidences of Friday's disaster are completely eradicated.

STREET RAILWAY BONDS,

They Are Bobbing Up Right Along Although Absolutely Fraudulent and Illegal in Every Respect.

Major R. J. Palen, president of the First National bank, of this city, has of late received several inquiries as to the validity and legality of the bonds issued by the so-called Santa Fe Street Railway company, which bear an endorsement to the effect that the city of Santa Fe guarantees the entire interest on them. As far as can be ascertained the men who were in the fraud, issued $100,000 worth of these bonds bearing interest at six per cent for twenty years. According to the endorsement, which is certified to by the then mayor and city clerk, the city is bound for that amount of interest, but in law and in fact the endorsement is valueless. Major Palen has answered these inquiries informing the applicants for information that the bonds, coupons and endorsement are illegal in every respect and advising the persons applying for information to have nothing whatever to do with these worthless papers.—New Mexican.

DAMAGED BRAKEMAN.

Sues White Oaks Road for $40,000 on Account of Defective Ladder.

L. S. Ryan has filed suit in the district court against the El Paso & Northwestern Railroad company and the El Paso & Northwestern Railroad company for $40,000 damages for personal injuries sustained when working as a brakeman on defendant's railroad. The plaintiff alleges that he was injured while in the line of his duty in July last when working as a brakeman out of El Paso and to and beyond Alamogordo, when he undertook to ascend a box car by means of a ladder attached to said car and that it broke and he was thrown between the cars. He alleges that the reason of his fall was that the ladder was old and defective and that the defendants had knowledge of such facts while plaintiff did not.

Plaintiff avers that from said fall he was so injured that his mind has become impaired, as was his sight, and is paralyzed on one side. He says his injuries are permanent and he is to tally incapacitated for work. He attributes his injuries entirely to the negligence of defendants in not having said car equipped with a strong and safe ladder.—El Paso Herald.

Outlaw Murdered.

The Clifton Copper Era says: The body of a Mexican was found on the mesa about seven miles east of Clifton this week, which was afterwards recognized as that of Sr. Sotora, the leader of a tough gang of Mexican outlaws, who have been operating in this and adjoining counties for some time past. About a year ago Sotora stole a couple of horses from Guadalupe Lerma, who resided several miles up the Frisco. He took the horses to Santa Rita, where he sold them. The Era has information that Sotora was killed by members of his own gang for $200, which he had on his person at the time. His death will not be regretted.

Fully one-half of the force of workmen for the Colorado Fuel & Iron company at Fierro, Grant county, have been laid off for an indefinite period, and the output of iron ore has been materially decreased. The company has been doing considerable development work, however. It is now running in three tunnels which will be completed in two months. Ore will then be had at a lower level and the handling of the ore cars will be greatly expedited. The incline railroad to Union Hill will be abandoned above the Mother Lode tippie, and all ore mined from the lower levels will be lowered through a shaft to one of the tunnels.

A happy surprise party was given in honor of Albert Miller on Tuesday night at the n-w residence of Robert Miller, 1520 South Third street. The young folks present were May, Hazel and Eddie Gelring, Mary, Frankie, Annie and Eddie Dye, Gladie Wilson, George and Clifford Peres, Willie Ross, Mabel and Jessie Truswell and Polonio Armijo. Refreshments were served.

Bolas vs. Lariat.

The "bolas"—three metal balls united by long thongs—which the Uragrayon Guachos in Buffalo Bill's Wild West use for all the purposes for which cowboys and vaqueros employ the lariat, seems to be a very effective implement, but likely to be even more abrupt and painful in action if used vigorously, than the rope. Those balls are liable to hurt when their whirling stops. But it is interesting to see how the thing works, in the hands of its masters. Buffalo Bill's Wild West will be here on October 3.

Awnings Are Used.

Railroad avenue is a continuous announcement of the fair. As Buffalo Bill has monopolized the bill boards, every awning on the street has been utilized and each one announces the fair and date.

Croup.

Usually begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, (the child will cry for it) and at the first sign of a croupy cough, apply frequently Ballard's Snow Liniment externally to the throat. 50 cents at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy—B. Ruppe.

MINING DEAL CLOSED.

Leland Group in Mohave County Sold to Outside Capitalists.

A dispatch from Los Angeles says that Thos. Ewing has sold the entire Leland group of mines in Mohave county, Arizona, to Oscar A. Turner, of Nevada, and John W. Woodside, of Philadelphia, for half a million dollars cash down.

Immediately on closing the deal orders were issued for the further development of the property at a cost of not less than $175,000. The new company will open up the Leland and build a double track tunnel on the vein 3,000 feet in length through the Leland mountain at a depth of 800 feet. Two great mills will be built that will reduce at least 400 tons each daily, and when the contemplated railroad is built into the district the total shipment of ore will be 1,000 tons daily.

Development work on the Leland has been going on rapidly for the past ten months and there is now in sight several hundred thousand tons of ore. It is strictly free gold, the values are easily recovered and the ore bodies are very large. The cost of mining and milling will not exceed $1 a ton, leaving everything above that figure profit. There are three great veins running through the nine locations that comprise the property, varying in width from three to twenty feet, and extending out for a mile in length. The prospectors are men of wealth, Turner being the king of the Territorial mines in Nevada.

TOWNS OF LAS VEGAS

BY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Las Vegas, N. M., Aug. 39.—Pedro Padilla, while returning from Los Conchas yesterday, picked up a 5 year old boy, who was found roaming after a herd of cattle on the plains, and some twenty miles from any ranch. The youngster would not divulge his name, or anything about himself, and tried to get away when caught. His shoes were about worn off and his clothes very ragged. He also did not appear starved. When he was asked where he lived, he said on the plains. Mr. Padilla took the boy home with him and is waiting for developments. It is most probable the youngster has tumbled out of some overland wagon and was not missed, and being used to the plains, was not worrying about himself or his situation.

Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 1.—It was with infinite sadness that the friends of Griffith M. Roberts, and they were legion, learned yesterday of his succumbing to the grim hand of death at his home on Railroad avenue. Mr. Roberts died at 9:25 yesterday morning, after passing a night of suffering. He was unconscious when he passed away, but sometime before was conscious and made the plans for his funeral, told his wife how to arrange his business matters and bid some of his friends good bye.

Mr. Roberts had been sick about a week, he giving up work a week ago tonight, and went home and to bed. He had been a sufferer with hernia for some time, and the rupture became acute, necessitating an operation last Wednesday. He rallied after the operation, but could not gain strength. Another operation was performed Friday for an obstruction of the bowels, but little benefit was derived. His suffering at times was intense, but he bore it bravely and made a brave fight for life.

Mr. Roberts was born in New Cambria, Mo., but had for many years been a resident of Las Vegas. He was at one time on the police force of Las Vegas, but had for the last three years been a faithful employee of Essinger & Judell. He was a one time chief of the fire department here, and at the time of his death held the important office of captain in the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks. There are few men in the city who had as many friends as "Giff." He was familiarly known and as well liked as he was well known. His death takes away a friend from many.

Mr. Roberts was particularly liked by newspaper men, he aiding them nearly every day in their work of gathering the news. Mr. Roberts was of Welsh descent and was 43 years old. The funeral services were held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the family residence, R. V. Congo Selby conducting the services. The Elks lodge turned out nearly their full membership, who were in the city, to do honor, a last and one, to their comrade. The Las Vegas military band accompanied them on their march to lay at rest, in the Masonic cemetery, their old friend and companion. The funeral was a very large one, and the floral emblems beautiful.

CIMABUE MADONNA.

The San Miguel Church at Santa Fe Has Genuine Pictures.

Two weeks ago the two rarest paintings in the new world were photographed for the Delver Post. These masterpieces are the annunciations of the Blessed Virgin, painted by Giovanni Cimabue in Florence in 1287. They are above the altar of the old San Miguel church of Santa Fe, built in 1582. They were taken down for dusting and the Post man snapped them. The one which was reproduced in a recent issue of that paper hangs to the right of the altar. It is perfectly preserved, except that it bears a scar where pierced by an Indian arrow head in the frightful massacre of 1680. The Spanish inhabitants of old Santa Fe flocked to the old church for protection and an Indian climbed to one of the high windows and shot his arrow through the master painting before a Spanish bullet brought him from his perch to the ground, thirty feet below. The two paintings each bear the name of Cimabue, the father of the Florentine renaissance, and the date of 1287. That they are genuine is absolute since they are marked by the indisputable Cimabue coloring, a yellow glow, which characterizes many of the old master's famous paintings.

The other is much finer in detail than the one to the left and the expression is much more perfect. These paintings belong to the world's most appreciated art treasures.

"St. Joseph's bell" is one of the oldest bells in the world and by far the oldest in the United States. It was wouled in Spain in 1356, before there was an America or before the old world knew of that world across the mysterious seas. This bell weighs 780 pounds and is marvelously pure and sweet in tone. For more than three centuries it has rung the angelus at the angels' hour of prayer in old San Miguel church. In its day it has many times sounded the alarm at the approach of the red warriors, who came with their savage death. In 1872 the bell came down with the tower in a storm, but it was in no wise impaired because of its great weight it now rests within the closed doors of this sacred old edifice.

FERGUSON FOR DELEGATE.

Democratic Chairman Marron Announced His Choice at El Paso.

Ex-Mayor O. N. Marron, of Albuquerque, chairman of the territorial democratic committee of New Mexico, stated at El Paso to a News reporter concerning the political complexion of New Mexico:

"I do not think the democrats of New Mexico will make an issue of statehood in the coming campaign. They are all in favor of it and do not want any fight along that line. But I will tell you this much, the democrats of New Mexico have no intention of endorsing the nomination of any republican for territorial delegate. They recognize that they will have a hard fight to elect any nominee whom they may put up, but I think the democrats of New Mexico will elect their nominee if they put forth the proper efforts.

Personally, I am in favor of Hon. H. B. Ferguson for the nominee, but there are a great many candidates already mentioned in the race. The convention will be at Albuquerque October 14, and the candidates I have heard mentioned are ex-Mayor Money, of Las Vegas, Judge Laughlin, ex-Delegate Joseph, Neil B. Field and H. B. Ferguson.

County Assessments.

The assessment returns for the year 1902 of the counties of Santa Fe and San Miguel have been filed with Territorial Auditor Sargent. Both show an increase over the year 1901. San Miguel county to the amount of $560,000 and Santa Fe in the sum of $230,000. These increases are but natural and just. So far increases are found in five of the counties that have filed their assessment returns with the auditor, namely, Santa Fe, San Miguel, Sierra, Luna and Otero and a decrease in one, viz., the county of Valencia. The net increase up to this time reported amounts to over $1,100,000. If this ratio keeps up the increase for the year 1902 over the year 1901 will be between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000.—New Mexican.

TOWN OF MORIARITY.

Just Sprung Up on the Line of the Santa Fe Central.

A petition for the creation of a new precinct has been presented to the board of county commissioners of Santa Fe county, signed by about sixty citizens living in and near the new town of Moriarity, in the southern part of that county, and about fifty-five miles south. Moriarity will be an important station on the Santa Fe Central railway when the road is completed. The Pennsylvania Development company has a large wholesale and retail mercantile establishment there, which is in charge of J. C. McDonald, who is also the postmaster. The mail is supplied by star route from Chilili, twelve miles distant, but railway mail service will be had as soon as the track reaches there, which is expected will be some time in October. The town now consists of the large store and warehouse of the Pennsylvania Development company; a cottage for the officers of the Santa Fe Central railway for use when they are in town; a good substantial school house, 25x50 feet, erected by the Santa Fe Central railway people and presented to the town; a blacksmith shop and a dozen houses.

There are a dozen ranches, owned by sheepmen, within a few miles of Moriarity and within the past six months many homestead entries have been made from ten to fifteen miles from that place. The finest of water can be had by digging wells at a depth of fifteen to fifty feet. The town bids fair in a year to be an important commercial and stock center. A good deal of the timber and lumber, necessary for the construction of the Santa Fe Central railway, is being brought there and received by the officials. This station will be the junction of the Santa Fe Central railway and the Albuquerque Eastern railroad, this of course adding much to its importance and chances for speedy and constant growth. The Santa Fe county commissioners have the petition for this new precinct under consideration and it is expected will act upon the same on September 4th next, when they meet in Santa Fe and that favorably.

PRIZES FOR BASE BALL.

Senator Grady, of New York, Will Give the Boys $1,000 in Gold.

Senator Thomas P. Grady, of New York, who is a great lover of base ball, makes the following announcement, which will enrich the pennant winning players in the amount of $1,000 in gold. Senator Grady says he will give $250 in gold to the captain of the pennant winning team; $100 to the man making the most sacrifice hits; $200 to the man making the most timely hits, to be decided by the captain of the team; $100 to the pitcher making the best average; $100 to the man who leads the team in batting; $125 to the best infielder, to be decided by the captain; $125 to the best outfielder in the league.

NO FAKE SAYS CORBETT.

Champion Hotly Denies Reports That Fight is Rearranged.

In regard to the "fake" stories sent out from Boston and New York, Young Corbett said:

"If I intended to lay down, do you think Honest John Kelly, Eddie Burke the Considine brothers and others would back me in the coming fight? Not much. These men will not bet a $10 note but thousands."

Then Corbett said he would rather beat McGovern than be president of the United States.

"The cry of fake is getting to be a common thing nowadays," continued Corbett, "but I will have none of it in mine."

For the present Corbett will do his gymnasium work in the Cincinnati bowling pavilion. In one end of the large room is stationed all the apparatus that is to be used. The rest of the week will be devoted to outdoor exercise. Commencing next Monday Corbett will do indoor work, consisting of ten to twelve rounds of boxing, punching the bag for half an hour, skipping the rope, dumb bell exercise and wrestling.

Young Corbett has split his right hand in catching a hard thrown ball, but the wound is expected to heal by the end of the week. He did a ten mile run today, which practically closed his training.

Jealousy between Trainers George Newhouse of Chicago and Harry Tut-hill of New York resulted in Newhouse severing his connection with the camp.

Terry McGovern, former feather-weight champion, accompanied by his brother Hugh, Trainer Charles May-hood, Ed Cain and Joe Humphreys, have arrived in Cincinnati. Pat Amman an ex-pugilist, Frank Newhouse of Denver, Joe Dacey, Mark English and Jerry Hanrahan awaited the arrival of Terry and his men.

"I do not intend doing any training for ten days yet," said Terry, as he climbed into an awaiting vehicle, which conveyed him to the training quarters at the Norwood Inn.

"How many rounds will I finish Corbett in?" he repeated.

"Well, that's a difficult question; but I'm in the best of health and if I don't whip him there will be no excuses."

RUBE WADDELL'S BIG OFFER.

Brooklyn Talk of $1,000 Bonus and $500 Monthly Salary Rejected.

Charles Ebbetts, of the Brooklyn National league club, through Frank Haddock, of Pittsburgh, it is stated, has offered Rube Waddell, the star pitcher of the Philadelphia American league club, a bonus of $1,000 to jump his contract for this season and $500 a month salary for the rest of the season. He also, it is said, offered him an additional $1,000 bonus to sign a Brooklyn contract for the season of 1903 at a salary of $500 per month. Waddell, as is understood rejected all offers and informed Manager Mack of Mr. Ebbetts' flattering inducements. Waddell left for Cleveland with the Philadelphia American league team, which holds Waddell's contract for 1903.

WANT 20 PER CENT INCREASE

Concerning the proposed general demands to be made for more pay by trainmen west of the Mississippi river, the Milwaukee Sentinel says:

"By September 15 the large railway systems of the country will be confronted with a demand by 100,000 members of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen for an increase in wages which will mean an additional outlay of $1,000,000 a month for wages by railroads in the country, or the alternative of a strike which will eclipse in its extent all previous strikes, including the demonstration of the American Railway Union in 1894. The demands, which have been formulated, but not yet presented, are for an increase of 20 per cent in wages."

Engineer Harry Preston, of the Santa Fe Pacific, and wife left for a trip to Canada where they have friends and relatives. They will be gone several weeks.

Five million dollars will be expended in terminal improvements by the railroads entering St. Louis in anticipation of world's fair business. All the roads entering the city use the one great passenger station, which covers eleven acres and

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES

Almost $40,000,000 have been raised by the churches of the United States, Canada and Great Britain as the result of the efforts entered into in the closing years of the nineteenth century. It was intended to signalize the opening of the new century by the raising of special funds for the removal of church debts, the endowment of educational institutions, the extension of the church, foreign and home missions, and other phases of religious activity. More than half of the amount named has been raised by three religious bodies of the United States; the Methodist north, Methodist south and the Presbyterian north, the first named leading all other bodies with a fund which now amounts to $17,000,000. This sum has been raised since March, 1899, when the plan was approved by the general conference. Twenty million dollars is the goal, and it is stated by Rev. Dr. E. M. Mills, who has been in charge of the movement since its inception, that the fund will be closed, with the full amount raised, before the close of this year. Of the $17,000,000 already raised, nearly $8,000,000 goes toward the removal of church debts, $7,000,000 to church colleges and seminaries, and the remainder for the support of aged ministers and to various church charities.

How the Movement Started.

The twentieth century fund of the Presbyterian church north was inaugurated at the general assembly of 1900, where a committee was appointed to present the matter to the churches and to secure their co-operation in the raising of a special fund for the furtherance of various denominational objects. No sum was named as the goal of the endeavor of the committee, the purpose being to secure as large an amount as possible without impairing the regular incomes of the churches and the benevolent boards. The committee reported to the general assembly in New York in May last that it had secured a little over $7,500,000. The Methodist church south set out to raise $1,500,000 and the entire sum was secured several months ago. Canadian Methodists and Presbyterians have both been working on twentieth century funds, and both have secured the sums desired. The Methodists aimed at the raising of $1,000,000, but succeeded in getting $1,250,000, and that before any other branch of the Methodist church in the world had completed its fund. Canadian Presbyterians also set the sum of $1,000,000 as a goal, but met with such success that their fund now reaches nearly $1,500,000 and may pass that amount before the end of the year. About $600,000 of this sum goes to aid the educational and missionary work of the denomination, and $900,000 will be used to reduce church debts.

Large Special Funds.

The largest special funds raised by religious bodies in Great Britain are those of the Wesleyan Methodists and the Congregationalists, the former having secured $4,500,000 and the latter $3,500,000. The Baptists completed their fund a few months ago with $1,250,000, and the United Methodist free churches secured $520,000; $200,000 more than they were working for. The Calvinistic Methodists of Wales are striving to secure $500,000, of which $400,000 is already pledged. A few other religious bodies, both here and abroad, have smaller special funds, but those named are the most important. It is the common testimony of those in charge of the raising of these funds in all the denominations that no effort in years has met such hearty response or has had so marked an effect in uniting the members of the different bodies. Without exception, the twentieth century funds have been secured without reducing the regular contributions for denominational causes.

Free Church of England.

Rev. F. B. Meyer, the great leader of Free church movements in England, in this country for a month to attend the Northfield conference, declares there is no foundation for the opinion current in the Episcopal church in America that the missionary societies in the Church of England are likely to be changed from a voluntary to an official character. There has been some talk of enlarging voluntary missionary agencies among American Episcopalians, and friends of the board of missions, an official body, have raised the cry that the tendency in England is to have the church itself do its missionary work, instead of unofficial societies, and that for Americans to foster the plan proposed would be to put it out of line with general Anglican tendencies. Mr. Meyer is a Free churchman, but well acquainted with affairs in the establishment. There is occasionally heard, he says, a word or two among Presbyterians and Baptists that missionary societies ought to be official bodies, and high churchmen in the establishment argue the same way, but few things are less likely to happen than that the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, the oldest missionary society in the world, and which founded the Episcopal church in America; or the Church Missionary society, the largest missionary society in the world, will be abolished, modified or superseded. Eugene Stock, the well known lay missionary secretary, has also expressed himself to the same effect. Mr. Meyer is not particularly hopeful over the financial outlook for mission society support in England during the next decade, as war taxes are pressing heavily on the people.

Methodist Lay Workers.

The Methodist Lay Workers' Institute, which was organized early last year in New York as a local movement, has met with such general favor that its plan has been extended and district Institutes will be started this fall in many centers of the country. The object of the Institute is the education of the lay members of the church in methods of service. A course of home studies is provided, which is divided into three heads: a training course for personal workers, a training course for teachers, and a training course for leaders. Bible study is a part of each course, but along different lines from other courses. In that the purpose of the Institute courses is to teach not so much the contents of the Bible as to present the Book of God's revelation of His plan of salvation. Individual students can take the courses of the Institute without connection with district organizations, and in every particular the machinery of the scheme is of the simplest. There are no salaries, no office expenses, printing and postage being the only things requiring outlay and these are provided by discounts on the text books used in the courses. Bishop Andrews is president of the Institute, and John Jay Robinson, of New York, the secretary.

Head of Augustinians.

Father Thomas Rodriguez, general of the Augustinians, and supreme head of the order, is now on his way to this country, having sailed from Italy last week. It will be Father Rodriguez's first visit to the United States, and it is rumored that his visit has to do with some plan of replacing the Augustinian fathers now in the Philippines with American members of the order. Just before sailing, Father Rodriguez said that no definite plan could be made while negotiations were pending between the United States and the Roman authorities, and that the friars in the Philippines would have no difficulty in resuming their work if it were possible for the civil authorities to maintain order. The father visited the Philippines several years ago, traveling all through the islands, and says that the friars are not hated by a majority of the natives, but only by that faction which wants to be left without law or order. It is said that Father Rodriguez brings with him a book written by an Augustinian in which statements of Governor Taft are confuted, and that he will perhaps arrange for its publication in English.

Presbyterian Missions.

The Presbyterian board of foreign missions is to undertake the work of enlisting the interest of the people of the denomination in the cause which it represents, a long somewhat different line from those heretofore followed. The new work is a result of the interest taken in the work of the board by John H. Converse, of Philadelphia, and E. A. K. Hackett, of Fort Wayne, Ind., for these men, knowing from their own experience the interest that can be aroused in the mission cause when properly presented, instructed the board to secure a suitable man who should give his entire time, as a special representative of the board, to the work of interesting individual men and women in the work of the Presbyterian church in foreign lands. The board has therefore secured David McConaughy, well known as a successful Young Men's Christian association secretary in this country and in Indiana, and Mr. Converse and Mr. Hackett are to pay all his expenses incident to the work.

Plan of the Work.

The work which Mr. McConaughy will do is planned along similar lines to that of the famous money raiser of the international committee of the Y. M. C. A., W. E. Lougee, with the difference, however, that while Mr. Lougee labors almost entirely to obtain gifts from individual contributors, the main object which will be kept in view by Mr. McConaughy will be the arousing and enlisting of interest directly in the cause of missions, as it is felt that increased contributions will follow increased interest. The financial side will not be neglected, however, and those interested in the work will be asked, some to support a missionary, others to provide a mission station or school, and others for even larger gifts, according to their means. Mr. McConaughy begins his work in September and will make his headquarters with the officers of the foreign board in New York.

PECOS CITY TO SAN ANGELO.

Surveyors Will Soon Be Locating the Line to Fill the Gap.

The talk of the Santa Fe extending its Pecos valley line from Roswell to P. Paso and the filling in of the gap between Pecos City and San Angelo has been revived, and it seems that there is really "something doing" in the latter.

The Pecos Valley News, published at Pecos City, says that a few days ago two representatives of the Santa Fe were in that city and drove from there over the contemplated route to San Angelo as far as Fort Stockton. They stated that they wished to buy a few good teams for the use of the surveying corps, which would be there within two weeks and begin locating the line. They expressed themselves freely, venturing the opinion that the Santa Fe would soon close up the gap between Pecos City and San Angelo.

This would give the Santa Fe a shorter route between the gulf and the Pacific coast. Now that surveyors are soon to be placed in the field it seems to be almost a certainty that it will be built.

A BIG STRIKE OF WATER.

Found by the C., R. I. & P. Road at a Depth of 349 Feet.

A big strike of good water has been found in the C., R. I. & P. railway well in Tucumcari at a depth of 349 feet, says the Alamogordo News. In drilling no rock of any kind was encountered, and the water was found in coarse conglomerate gravel, evidently the bed of a subterranean river, as the gravel found is worn round from water friction, and interspersed with shells of various kinds.

In thirty minutes the water had risen 200 feet in the well. The quantity seems to be inexhaustible and the quality excellent. This strike of fine water will be received by the railroad company with no little rejoicing, as the company has expended vast sums of money in drilling and exploring for water along its lines in this county. It means much for Tucumcari and will be both a boon and a boom of incomparable value to our town. It may result in bringing railroad shops of various kinds to this place.

This well, together with the well recently opened by the Tucumcari Electric Light & Water company, settles the water problem favorably in this part of the country for all time to come, and great rejoicing by property owners in Tucumcari is the result.

INDIAN SCHOOL OPENED.

More Full Blood Children Present Than Ever Before.

After a lapse of two months' vacation the school resumed work again today. During this vacation all the employees and most of the children have been to their homes or have been sight seeing in various parts of the country. The school opens with about 225 children present.

During the summer months the superintendent has made a great effort to secure full blood children for the school and his efforts have borne fruit and now there is a larger per cent of full blood Indians in attendance than there has been for years.

There has been a number of changes among the employees of the school, some have resigned, others have been transferred to other schools in the service. School opens with five literary teachers and eighteen other employees ready for duty.

The following changes are noted: Mr. Schanadon, Mr. Lee, Miss Wallace and Miss Warren go to Riverside, Cal.; Mrs. Adams goes to Lawrence, Kan., and Mrs. Lawry and Miss Brokaw have resigned. It is to be hoped that the new employees, who fill these places, will be as efficient as those who have left.

For these lectures Mr. Baumgardner has seventy-five superb views of the disaster which he will use to illustrate points in his lecture. The lecturer will stop at all stations along the system where reading rooms are maintained.

AMERICAN LEAGUE MOVE

Hiring Players for a Ball Team in Gotham in 1903.

Manager Clark Griffith, of the Chicago American League base ball club, has signed Williams, Selbach and Gilbert of the Baltimore club for next season, according to a World dispatch from Baltimore. These players are said to understand they are wanted for an American league team to be placed in New York next year.

New York Wants It.

For more than three months it has been the ambition of the American League owners to establish a base ball club in Greater New York, says the Herald.

Since the early part of July residents of the borough of the Bronx who thought a professional base ball club might thrive there have been in correspondence with the American League officials, asking their co-operation toward such a movement.

They are said to have been encouraged to the extent that if they will provide the grounds, the American League will provide the players. Grounds which are suitable are hard to obtain, but a site is now said to be under consideration and plans are being matured for its purchase.

Sues for Injuries to Cattle—Quite a number of suits have been filed recently by shippers against some of the railroad companies for injuries to cattle in transit.

Friday last, Urnston Baird and Patterson, of El Paso, filed two more of these suits against the Santa Fe, making three to date, and it is reported that they have two more.

Both suits were filed in the El Paso district court, one in Judge Goggin's department and the other in Judge Walthall's. The cattle were shipped in both instances from El Paso to Custer, Mont., one shipment being 697 head and the other 769, and on May 11, and May 30, 1901, respectively.

In the first shipment, it is alleged that twenty-six head were either killed or in a dying condition when they reached Denver, the point of transfer and fifty-four in the second. It is further alleged that these cattle were all steers worth $20 per head and besides those lost were hurt from being knocked about and poorly fed and watered so that they had to be sold at a sacrifice. Particular complaint is made about the two trains being needlessly sidetracked and the pens at Las Vegas, N. M., being small and muddy and the stock being unable to get feed, water or rest.

Damages to the amount of $1,862 is claimed in one case and $1,580 in the other.

Miss Jennie Sichter has returned month's visit at Denver, Colo.

Brides

Are always "beautiful" and always "happy" according to the society reporters, and in this case the report is mostly true. There may be unhappy brides in fiction, but there are few in real life. But how hard it is to look upon many of the wives we know and believe that they were once beautiful and happy. Pain, the result of womanly disease, has marred beauty and undermined happiness.

Beauty and happiness are both restored to the sufferers from womanly diseases by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures the pain-producing ills peculiar to women, establishing regularity, drying weakening drains, healing inflammation and ulceration, and curing female weakness. It restores roundness to the sunken cheek and plumpness to the shrunken body.

"I have thought for some time I would write you and tell you of the great improvement in my health since taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" says Mrs. H. A. Jones, of Forest, N. C. "When I began its use I was a physical wreck, and had despaired of ever having any health again. Could not sit up all day, and was so weak I could not walk one quarter of a mile. I noted a great improvement in my health before the first bottle was used. Was suffering with almost every pain that a woman is subject to; had inflammation of ovaries, painful and suppressed periods, and other symptoms of female disease. After taking six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' I felt like a new person. Can ride horseback and take all kinds of exercise and not feel tired."

If you are led to the purchase of "Favorite Prescription" because of its remarkable cures of other women, do not accept a substitute which has none of these cures to its credit. If you are looking for a perfect laxative try Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

COCHITI MINING DISTRICT.

Plenty of Good Rains—Accident at Woodbury Mill—Ill With Typhoid Fever.

Special Correspondence.

Bland, N. M., Aug. 29.—The man in charge of the New Mexico weather seems to have taken offense at certain statements made by me a couple of weeks ago in my letter to The Citizen, in which I complained somewhat of the drought then afflicting the Cochiti district. I wish to offer the aforesaid weather man a most humble apology and to state that there is no lack of moisture in this district, and that if a drought ever did exist in this vicinity all recollection of it has been completely washed from the memory of the oldest inhabitant. At present the common solution in Bland is: "This is damp, wet weather we are having." Yes, we are having plenty of rain, but the climax was reached on last Sunday evening, at which time a heavy cloud hurrying toward Kansas, no doubt intending to reach the Sunflower state in time to participate in the popular convention, when just over Cochiti canyon, collided with another cloud of the same dimensions, rushing toward the Pacific coast, there was a general smash up, both clouds seemed to lose their buoyancy and fell to the ground in a heap. Then, either becoming disgusted with their surroundings, or actuated by a desire to reach Albuquerque in time to attend the open air meeting of the Salvation army, both clouds rushed madly down the canyon toward the Rio Grande. Considerable damage was done to crops at the little town of Canada and the big well from which Woodbury was supplied with water, was pulled up out of the ground and was last seen floating down the Rio Grande toward Albuquerque. A suitable reward will be paid for its return.

A number of miners went down to Woodbury on Wednesday. They will sink a well to take the place of the one carried away by the flood.

A painful and what might have been a serious accident occurred at the Woodbury mill on Friday last. Mr. Woodbury, who is engineer at the mill, in attempting to throw the fly wheel in order to throw the engine off center, had his leg caught and badly crushed between the wheel and masonry. Dr. Denny dressed the wound and the patient is doing as well as could be expected. Mr. Woodbury is an aged brother of R. W. Woodbury, owner of the mill.

Ben Coleman, a former resident of Bland, who spent the past six months in Old Mexico, returned on Saturday last. Ben says Bland is all right and that he is glad to get back and will remain and grow up with the camp.

Miss Mac Sebben, who for some time past has acceptably filled the position of deputy postmistress at Bland, left on Sunday last for Bland, where she goes to accept a position as teacher in the public school.

Anson Smith, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Smith, of Bland, while visiting with friends at Buckman, was taken ill with typhoid fever and is said to be in a dangerous condition. Mrs. Smith is certainly having her share of trouble, she having lost a bright little daughter from the same disease a few weeks ago.

Mr. Merrinan, who is interested in "The Bland" lodging house, came up from Albuquerque and spent a few days in Bland last week.

Prof. Bullock and wife, who spent the past month visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John G. Cranger, of Bland, returned to their home in Colorado on Sunday last.

Mrs. H. M. Reed, on account of her illness from typhoid fever, has resigned as postmistress at Bland and B. H. Shaw is now in charge of the office.

Deputy Sheriff J. H. Overhuls came over from Buckman on Saturday last, bringing with him Charles Stein, arrested on a warrant issued by Justice of the Peace B. H. Shaw, charging him with breaking open a stable and taking possession of a horse held by the officer under writ of replevin. The matter was settled by Stein giving up the horse and paying costs.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when editor Ward, of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully, and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy, and this time one dose cured me." For sale by all druggists.

Agricultural College Students.

The following students from this city will attend the fall and winter terms of the Agricultural college at Meville Park: Miss Sarah Meyers, John D. Hughes, Oscar Goebel and Walter Wehmann.

Fortune Favors a Texan.

Mining Man Killed.

Word comes from Parnall of the frightful death of Mr. Stein, the assistant superintendent of the famous Prieta mine in the suburbs of the city. Mr. Stein, while on duty, fell from the ladder to the bottom of the shaft, a distance of 300 feet. In his descent one of his feet caught in a ladder and was detached from his body, it lying beside his corpse when he was reached. He was so horribly mangled that he would not have been recognized had he been found on the highway.

Take Care of the Stomach.

The man or woman whose digestion is perfect and whose stomach performs its every function is never sick. Kodai cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach and cures positively and permanently all stomach troubles, indigestion and dyspepsia. It is the wonderful reconstructive tonic that is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by conveying to their bodies all of the nourishment in the food they eat. Rev. J. H. Holladay, of Holladay, Miss., writes: "Kodai has cured me. I consider it the best remedy I ever used for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. I was given up by physicians. Kodai saved my life. Take it after meals. B. H. Briggs & Co. and J. H. O'Reilly & Co."

Horse Thieves Caught.

Last week the Register stated that Sheriff Higgins was in the mountains after horse thieves. Friday he returned, having in charge Arch Mitchell and Randolph Spencer, whom he captured at the Copeland water on the north side of Capitan mountain, where they had stopped to water their stolen horses. Last Monday night three valuable animals were stolen in the neighborhood of Roswell, one from the Medley ranch, one from N. V. Morley and the other from Max Holcomb. Mitchell and Spencer had disappeared and were at once suspected, consequently a warrant was issued for them. Sheriff Higgins divined their destination and fortunately for him, they had gone by Eden valley, while he cut straight across the country, overtaking them Thursday morning. They had the horses, some of which were well packed for a long journey but all were captured and returned to their owners. Spencer, it is said, was a cook at the Slaughter ranch, while his pal was a farm hand.—Roswell Register.

We sell the greatest of blood purifiers, Acker's Blood Elixer, under a positive guarantee. It will cure chronic and other blood poisons. ### Free Seed Distribution.

The distribution of free seed by the agricultural department, which will be the largest ever known in the history of the government, was commenced today, three months earlier than usual. The congressional seed distribution is becoming more popular each year, and this year the enormous number of 40,000,000 packages of seed, weighing about 1,000 tons, will be given free to the farmers throughout the country.

A Boy's Wild Ride for Life.

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 18 miles, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, cough and colds. W. H. Brown, of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma, but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night. Like marvelous cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis, coughs, colds and grip prove its matchless merit for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at all drug stores."

Damage at Santa Rita.

Some damage was done at Santa Rita by Friday's flood, but not nearly as much as was at first reported. Ernest's road house was partially washed away, the waters taking the dancing platform and the front part of the building. Some small frame structures at Santa Rita were also damaged, but the actual loss in the camp was small.—Silver City Independent.

A Parson's Noble Act.

"I want all the world to know," writes Rev. C. J. Budlong, of Ashaway, R. I., "what a thoroughly good and reliable medicine I found in Electric Bitters. They cured me of jaundice and liver troubles that had caused me great suffering for many years. For a genuine, all-around cure they excel anything I ever saw." Electric Bitters are the surprise of all for their wonderful work in liver, kidney and stomach troubles. Don't fail to try them. Only 50 cents. Satisfaction is guaranteed by all druggists.

Buildings Demolished.

With commendable enterprise the owners of the buildings damaged by last Sunday's flood have at once started the work of tearing them down so that they will not remain an eye sore to the city. The damaged part of the Rosenberg building was demolished last week, and but little remains of the Enterprise structure. The Hinman warehouse is meeting a like fate. The owners of damaged property who are not sufficiently public spirited to inaugurate this work on their own responsibility should be made to do so immediately by the city authorities.—Silver City Independent.

Not Doomed for Life.

"I was treated for three years by good doctors," writes W. A. Greer, of McConville, O., "for piles, and fistula, but when all failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me in two weeks." Cures burns, bruises, cuts, corns, sores, eruptions, salt rheum, piles or no piles. 25c at all drug stores.

Territorial Fair.

The preparations now going on for the coming territorial fair, which is to begin at Albuquerque on the 14th of October next, leave no doubt of the fact that it will be the most attractive and enjoyable entertainment ever given in New Mexico. To say nothing of the hundreds of taking features to be presented in the arena and in the halls, the outside exhibitions, which are free to all, without money and without price, to be given in public places under the electric lights every evening, will be well worth all it will cost to go from any part of the territory.

With our present railway facilities it is a "long call" from Roswell to Albuquerque, but this will likely be the last chance you will ever have to attend a territorial fair, for the next exhibition will probably be a "state" fair.—Roswell Register.

Feet Swollen to Immense Size.

"I had kidney trouble so bad," says J. J. Cox of Valley View, Ky., "that I could not work. My feet were swollen to immense size and physicians were unable to give me any relief. My doctor finally prescribed Foley's Kidney Cure which made a well man of me. Sold by Alvarado Pharmacy."

Apaches Getting Restless.

A dispatch from Phoenix says that for some months past Apache Indians have been securing permission to leave the reservation, until now there are about 300 there. Settlers in that vicinity are complaining of their trespassing on melon and grain fields, and their threatening language when driven out. The settlers have petitioned the governor's aid in securing their return to the reservation, as they

Wants Irrigation Franchise.

It is said that the Socorro Investment and Promotion association will make an application to the city council for a franchise to grant it the right of way to lay irrigation pipes along the various streets and lands of the city for the purpose of conveying water from its pumping plants for irrigation purposes, and also for an electric light and power plant. The company will also pump water to the east side of the Rio Grande to irrigate the now arid lands of that section.

Nothing Like Oil.

"In dealing with man, remember that a spoonful of oil will go farther than a gallon of vinegar." The same may be said of children. There is nothing so good for children as the old-fashioned castor oil. However much they may abhor it, it is their best medicine for disorders of the bowels. In the more severe cases of diarrhoea and dysentery, however, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy should be given after the oil operates, and a quick cure is sure to follow. For sale by all druggists.

Rich Mineral Discovery.

Last week one of the greatest bodies of ore ever found in a Mohave county mine was broken into on the 300-foot level of the C. O. D. mine thirty feet west from the shaft. As the drift is carried forward the wonderful richness and extent of the strike becomes more apparent. The ore runs about 680 ounces in silver and $16 in gold. The ore body is a mass of silver nuggets and wire silver.

A Communication.

Mr. Editor—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at nights. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my wife got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely relieved me.—W. S. Brockman, Bagwell, Mo. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Heyday Dance.

The members of the Heyday club of Helen, anticipate giving a dancing party on Saturday night at the club's quarters. The party will be given in honor of Miss Anita Gustave and J. H. Becker, both of whom will leave in a few days for the east, where they will attend school during the coming winter. The Heyday club people are royal entertainers and it is needless to say that the coming party will be enjoyable.

Water Cure for Chronic Constipation.

Take two cups of hot water half an hour before each meal and just before going to bed, also a drink of water, hot or cold, about two hours after each meal. Take lots of out-door exercise—walk, ride, drive. Make a regular habit of this and in many cases chronic constipation may be cured without the use of any medicine. When a purgative is required take something mild and gentle like Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

New Railroads.

It may be about time to ask what will be the effect upon New Mexico after awhile of all this railroad construction going on in Oklahoma, says the Pueblo Chieftain. That section is having more railroad construction than any other in the country, and it is but natural to suppose that some of those roads, not satisfied with mere local traffic, will presently begin to stretch out toward the mountains and the Pacific coast. They will be prospecting for openings in the coal fields of New Mexico and Colorado and the scenery in both—for the fact has come to be known that scenery is one of the most profitable assets of the west. Among the various new lines, the Fort Smith & Western is now in operation from Fort Smith to Crowder City, where it crosses the Missouri, Kansas & Texas, and through service will soon be inaugurated. The road is in operation for eighty-three miles and has contracts for hauling 6,000 cattle.

Came Near Being a Cripple.

Josh Weathera, of Logansport, Ind., is a poor man, but he says he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle, for it saved him from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this liniment for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains and rheumatic and muscular pains. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by all druggists.

Due Credit Deserved.

In yesterday's account of the ball game, Lynn Shirk was given credit as having played second base, and accordingly given credit for some good plays made by the second baseman, in catching a high center field fly and in taking in a half line drive back of the first base. Bert Vorhes, of Albuquerque, played second, and should have the credit for the plays mentioned. Also it should have been stated that three safe hits were made by the Santa Fe Centrals instead of two.—New Mexican.

A Sad Disappointment.

Ineffective liver medicine is a disappointment, but you don't want to purge, strain and break the glands of the stomach and bowels. DeWitt's Little Early Risers never disappoint. They cleanse the system of all poison and putrid matter and do it so gently that one enjoys the pleasant effects. They are a tonic to the liver. Cure biliousness, torpid liver and prevent fever. B. H. Briggs & Co. and J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

Narrow Escape from Drowning.

Friday evening Conductor Henry Miller, of the Whitewater branch train crew, stepped on a loose board on bridge No. 4, near Spaulding, and was precipitated into the water below which was about six feet deep. Fortunately the accident was witnessed by others of the crew, and he was hauled out, after having sunk twice.—Silver City Independent.

Santa Fe District Court.

In the United States district court yesterday afternoon, Judge McFie sitting, the first demurrer in case No. 1689, the United States vs. Mariano F. Sena, was overruled and motion to dismiss the case was denied. The second demurrer is being argued this afternoon.

Both the United States and territorial grand juries are engaged in examining the cases submitted to them, by the attorney for the United States, W. B. Childers, Esq., and by the attorney for the territory, E. C. Abbott, Esq.

Beware of the Knife.

No profession has advanced more rapidly of late than surgery, but it should not be used except where absolutely necessary. In cases of piles for example, it is seldom needed. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures quickly and permanently. Unequaled for cuts, burns, bruises, wounds, skin diseases. Accept no counterfeits. "I was so troubled with bleeding piles that I lost much mood and strength," says J. C. Phillips, Paris, Ill. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in a short time." Soothe and heal. B. H. Briggs & Co. and J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

Pecos Valley Exhibit Car.

The plan to secure a car from the Santa Fe Railway company in which to send an exhibit of the fruits and other products of the Pecos valley through Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and probably Iowa, has been consummated and the Chamber of Commerce and the Roswell club are now getting everything in readiness to start it out as soon as the exhibits can be gathered and the advertising matter printed.

Ingering Summer Colds.

Don't let a cold run at this season. Summer colds are the hardest kind to cure and if neglected may linger along for months. A long siege like this will pull down the strongest constitution. One Minute Cough Cure will break up the attack at once. Safe, sure, acts at once. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. The children like it. B. H. Briggs & Co. and J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

Ancient Arizona Cave Dwellers.

William McFadden, a well known cattleman, has reported the discovery near his home, in the Sierra Ancha mountains, in Gila county, of a great cave, evidently once the habitation of the ancient cliff dwellers of the region. The cave, probably a natural one originally, had been subdivided into eighteen large rooms. The entrance was behind a large clump of brush. At the extreme rear was found an open shaft of artificial construction. The floors, though covered with the dust of ages, had once been of hard packed and smooth clay. Broken pottery is everywhere. In one of the rooms was found a skull, probably dating back to comparatively re-

The Foraker cattle is variously estimated at from 1,000 to 2,000 head and Saturday's deal includes all. The stock will be shipped to the California market.—Silver City Independent.

Big Exhibit at the Fair.

Press dispatches indicate that the Hyde Exploring Expedition will make another grand display at the Albuquerque fair, rivaling their effort of last season. In all its lines and as a money bringer to San Juan county, the Hyde company is entitled to the first place. No other institution has ever done as much to develop the county, nor to direct the attention of the outside world to its resources. Organized as a scientific expedition, its field was not a mercantile or commercial one, but it gradually drifted into the latter and in it has since remained. Its owners have been free with their money, and the result of the entering of this company has been much substantial improvement for the county and more particularly for the town of Farmington. That Farmington has been assisted by the Hyde company, all are bound to concede, and we have heard no kicking about, either.—San Juan
