TWENTY-EIGHTH YEAR.

CARLSBAD, NEW MEXICO, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1920.

NUMBER 46.

SENATOR JONES TO SPEAK HERE NEXT WEDNESDAY

JUDGE HANNA AND PARTY WILL ALSO SPEAK IN EDDY COUNTY FOLLOWING WEEK.

County Chairman S. D. Stennis, Jr., of the Democratic central committee, has received word from state headquarters of the Democratic state central committee, that Hon. A. A. Jones, who now represents New Mexico in the United States Senate, will be in Carlshad on Wednesday, October 6th, for the purpose of delivering an address to the citizens of Eddy county.

The local chairman has secured the Crawford theatre building for this engagement so the crowd will be comfortably seated during the address.

This is very gratifying news to all in this section who have not had the opportunity of hearing Senator Jones discuss the political issues of the day. His address at the convention at Roswell was masterly and convincing. He has a way of putting each proposition before the voters which causes them to think deeply before casting their votes.

Judge Hanna, democratic candidate for governor of New Mexico, will also speak here the following week. With him will be several different speakers and candidates who are traveling together on a tour of the state.

Senator Jones will also speak at Hope at 2 p. m., Thursday, October 7th. At Artesia on Thursday evening of the same day.

The democrats of New Mexico are quite certain that the state will go democratic this election as the opposing party is split open and controlled by the bosses. Betting in the northern part of the state offers two to one that the democrats carry the state, with no one to call them.

Eastern New Mexico and Eddy county gives their support to the democrats by large majorities but the speaking has been arranged to inform the voters especially on national issues and to stimulate an interest among the rank and file of the party so they will turn out at the election and cast their vote. On account of the primaries here settling the contests among all candidates for county officers, the voters have been careless in the past about getting out to the general election and casting a full vote. This year every effort will be made to persuade this section to poll as large a vote as that recorded in the primaries.

EIGHT "FLU" CASES REPORTED IN STATE.

The first cases of influenza in the state this fall have been reported to the state health department from Taos and Valencia counties. Each county has reported four cases. The health department has predicted that the number of influenza cases this year will be fewer and milder in the expected recurrence of the epidemic.

Let Something Good be Said

James Whitcomb Riley

HEN over the fair fame of friend or foe
The shadow of disgrace shall fall; instead
Of words of blame, or proof of trus and so,
Let something good be said.

Forget not that no fellow-being yet
May fall so low but love may lift his head,
Even the cheek of shame with tears is wet,
If something good be said.

No generous heart may vainly turn aside
In ways of sympathy; no soul so dead
But may awaken strong and glorified,
If something good be said.

And so I charge ye, by the thorny crown,
And by the cross on which the Savior bled,
And by your own souls' hope of fair renown,
Let something good be said!

RED CROSS EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE HOLDS MEETING.

The meeting of the executive committee of the Red Cross held at the Thorne furniture store at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, was well attended and very interesting. Twelve persons were in attendance and various plans were made looking toward the coming "roll call" which is to be inaugurated on "Armistice Day", the 11th of Nov. The roll call will be presented at the same time as the call for funds to employ a public health nurse. Miss Grace Cooke has been appointed chairman for the drive, she to appoint her assistants. Further information will be given as the plans formulate.

CLUB NEWS.

Thursday of next week will be club exhibit and achievement day at Hope and an interesting time is expected by the clubs and their leader, Miss Lu Hughes.

A club exhibit and achievement day program is to be given at the Cottonwood schoolhouse this afternoon. Especial interest has been manifested in the raising of full blooded pigs by the boys of this community and the girls have shown an equal interest in the sewing club. It is regrettable that the club work will be dropped in this county with the beginning of the year. Miss Hughes, club leader, has gotten the work in hand splendidly this year in spite of serious handicaps at the beginning, and the boys and girls, as well as their parents, regret its discontinuance. Miss Hughes has been offered a position at State College for the beginning of the year but has not yet decided whether or not she will accept it.

The clubs of Carlshad, Otis and Loving will hold their annual exhibit at the High school building Friday, October 6th. Exhibits will be made in sewing, poultry and pigs. The articles on exhibition are to be in place from ten o'clock A. M. to four o'clock P. M.; prizes and club pins will be awarded at three o'clock. Every one is urged to come out and see what the boys and girls have accomplished along these practical lines.

The cotton picking season started last week on the project and much cotton has been delivered at the gins at Loving, Otis and Carlshad. It is said, however, that the outlook for the cotton farmer is not the best in the world; market conditions being bad and no offers being received. To add to the other troubles many of the pickers yesterday struck for higher wages, they now receiving $1.50 per hundred pounds. A grower from Big Springs, Texas, is in the city offering an advance on this price and many are leaving for that place. An improvement in the market is expected and it is hoped that shipments may begin the first of the week.

HAY TRADE CONDITIONS OF THE WEEK.

Offerings of hay are ample at nearly all markets this week and values are easy. Hay was diverted to eastern points by the recent lack of trade in the west and now eastern markets are well supplied. Some new hay was purchased at the high figures that seemed to be justified, at the moment a few weeks ago, but now shippers are holding off and are shipping only the stock they have on hand. The car situation has eased up during the past 30 days and little complaint is now heard regarding the inability of railroads to supply equipment. Only the better grades of hay are wanted and more care should be exercised in loading straight cars for whenever the market is critical a few bales of off grade hay will reduce the value of the whole car.—Hay Trade Journal.

OPENING OF THE WOMAN'S CLUB.

The first meeting of the Woman's Club for the current year will be held at the club house next Tuesday afternoon, October 5th, at 3:30 o'clock. The following program will be carried out:

President's address, "The Importance of Citizenship," Mrs. Hemenway.

Music, Mrs. Jackson.

Political Parties in the United States, Mrs. Atwater.

Nominating Methods, Mrs. Dillard.

Roll call, Current Events.

It is hoped that every member will be present. Attention is called to the change in the hour from 3 to 3:30. This was made in order that the members who are teachers may be prompt in their attendance. Several items of business will come up, one of which will be the election of a delegate and two alternates to the meeting of the State Federation at Tucumcari October 12, 14 and 15. The Club now has fifty active and twelve associate members, with more applicants on the list.

SOME LEMON.

B. A. Nymeyer was "handed a lemon" the first of this week which was so far ahead of the ordinary fruit of that kind that it deserves a special mention. The lemon is one of 21 grown by Mrs. John Draper, Mr. Nymeyer's daughter, on a tree in her front yard at Hebbroville, Texas. The tree from which it was plucked is a small one about six feet or perhaps a little more in height, and the fruit is of the Ponderosa variety. The lemon weighed one pound and one ounce and measured the same both ways around—thirteen and a half inches. It wouldn't take many of this size to make a pitcher of lemonade, which is what Mrs. Draper advised her father and mother to do with it.

TWO FAST BASE BALL GAMES

Two of the best baseball games of this season were played in Roswell last Sunday between Carlshad and that team which resulted in a score of 1 to 0 and 2 to 1.

In the first game an easy grounder was sent to Third Base—man Fessler, whose foot slipped, causing him to fall and allowing Cady safe on first. Then Berry came up and hit a long drive over the right fielder, scoring Cady and winning the game. In the second game Carlshad started out strong with four hits in two innings which netted one run. If it had not been for errors they would have shut the opposing team out. Henderson at second base dropping an easy fly ball with two men out.

As it was these were two games any team might be proud to even lose and the boys did exceedingly well when it is considered they had no outside players.

Pitcher Brown did some excellent work, time and again striking out the strongest batters when men were on bases.

These two teams will play a game here next Sunday at Firemen's park, which will be the last game of the season.

BROWN WELL AGAIN SPOUTS FORTH OIL

The Brown oil well in Northern Eddy county, six miles southeast of Artesia, got on one of its rampages last Tuesday evening and blew up. This well flows oil at all times and if the pipe is shut off for too long a time the pressure becomes too great and the oil and gas breaks out.

Lee Vandagriff and a friend were at the well when the event occurred. The first premonition was a rumbling sound, deep in the earth, quickly followed by a terrific roar, that could be heard a mile, as the oil and gas escaped through the pipe which had been snapped off by the pressure, at the surface of the ground.

Lee says the gas, oil and water formed a sort of mist that fell and covered the ground all around. He says that at least 50 barrels of oil escaped.

Wednesday quite a number people from Artesia and other places in the county went out and saw the results of the explosion. All agree that a tremendous pressure had broken restraint as the large iron pipe was snapped as easily as you would a twig.

We are hopeful that something will soon be done so that this well can be controlled and the oil pool lying below drawn upon. No one who has visited it doubts but that a large amount of oil is beneath and only awaits proper development.—Artesia Advocate.

SHE WAS ONE OF THE PIONEERS.

The mother of Noel Johnson, editor of the Penasco Valley Press, was buried at Hope last Sunday. Her husband died a few years ago. She was a woman of estimable qualities and was well known throughout this country as she had lived in the Penasco valley for half a century. When she first came to Roswell there were but a half dozen adobe houses in the place and she was instrumental in starting the first Sunday school at that place. Fifty years ago there was little here that would appeal to any one, least of all to a woman who likes neighbors, a home and its associations. The pioneer's wife who gives the best years of her life in transforming a desert into a settled prosperous country knows full well the "Price of the Prairie".—Artesia Advocate.

GOOD ATTENDANCE AT N. M. METHODIST CHURCH CONFERENCE.

Las Cruces N. M., Sept. 28.—The New Mexico conference of the Methodist church, south, convened in Las Cruces this morning, Bishop Dubose having arrived on Tuesday and preached the opening sermon to a large and interested audience the same evening. Several preachers in addition to the New Mexico preachers are visiting the conference with the anticipation of being appointed to some charge within its boundaries. Rev. J. B. Cochran, the presiding elder of the Roswell district, and Rev. Sam Allison, of Roswell and Geo. H. Givan, of Carlshad, have arrived.

There is the prospect of a good conference season. Dr. Stonewall Anderson, the secretary of the general conference board of education, is present and will put before the conference on Thursday the proposed educational drive which is a part of the great campaign of Methodism. It will in all probability be carried out on the same plan as that drive and it is hoped with the same success.

MARKETS NEEDED
BY THE FARMERS

Presence of Thriving Cities Near
By, Important to Residents of Country.

MERCHANTS DO THEIR PART

Town and Rural Community Are Dependent Upon Each Other—Cooperation Alone Brings Prosperity to Both.

(Copyright.)

Residents of towns and cities everywhere are beginning to realize more acutely the fact that, except under very unusual conditions, their communities will prosper and develop only in proportion to the prosperity and development that comes to the farming sections which surround them. Realizing this fact, commercial clubs and chambers of commerce have in recent years been devoting as much of their attention to developing the country districts as they have to securing new industries and attracting new residents. They know that as the country about the towns becomes more thickly settled and as the farmers become more prosperous the more money will be spent in the towns and the faster these towns will grow. It is largely for this reason that the residents of the towns and cities have been doing more and more to aid the farmers in growing bigger crops and in improving marketing conditions. The towns and cities have contributed more and more liberally toward the building of good roads in the country districts and have paid a large part of the expense of maintaining agricultural experts to assist the farmers in growing bigger crops and getting more money out of their crops when they are placed on the market.

Not One-Sided Proposition.

But this is not a one-sided proposition. If the city is dependent upon the country, so is the country dependent upon the city. What the farmer raises is worth absolutely nothing to him unless he can sell it at a price that will pay him a fair return on the money and time invested in its production. The farmer, without markets, would be in the same fix as a storekeeper without customers. In almost every case the farmer is dependent upon the nearby town or city for a market for at least his perishable products.

In the language of the street, it is a fifty-fifty proposition. The town needs the country and the country needs the town. The farmer needs the assistance of the storekeepers of the town in securing a market for his products. He needs the assistance of the storekeepers of the town in getting good roads over which he may haul his products without losing more time than the products are worth. He often needs the assistance of the storekeepers in helping him over a period of financial stringency.

Storekeeper Needs Farmer's Trade.

On the other hand the storekeeper needs the business of the farmer. He does not ask the farmer to sell him his products on credit even though at the time he may be hard pushed for cash and may need more credit badly. He does not ask the farmer to help him build a sidewalk in front of his store. He does not ask for the business of the farmer provided that he can sell the farmer the goods he needs at as low a price as he can secure them for elsewhere.

But does he always get the farmer's business? Ask the mail order man in the big city or ask the postmaster or the express agent in any town or city in the country. They could, if they would, tell of thousands of dollars sent away to the big cities to pay for goods that could be purchased just as cheaply and much more conveniently in the nearest town or city. These thousands of dollars, when sent to the mail order houses in the big cities, never come back. They do not help to build good roads past the farmers' houses. When the next crops are harvested, the mail order man won't buy any of the farmer's products. The potatoes, the tomatoes, the melons and other things that the farmer raises may lie and rot upon the ground so far as the mail order man is concerned.

No Credit From Mail Order Man.

The mail order man won't sell the farmer 2 cents' worth of goods on one day's credit no matter how badly the farmer may need the goods or how little ready cash he has to pay for them. If the farmer's house burns down, the mail order man is not going to sell him any lumber on credit so that he may build another home. He will take what cash he can get the farmer to send him and there his interest in the farmer ends. If the farmer has no money to pay for what he needs, the mail order man will find others to help swell the stream of delinquency which is building up his great fortune and helping build up the great city in which he lives. Let the home merchant help the farmer when he needs it. And the local merchant does help the farmer as long as he can, but there comes a time when he cannot. He cannot make money without customers. Without the legitimate profit that he makes from his sales he cannot "carry" the farmer over the rough spots, he cannot contribute to the good roads funds, he cannot pay the farmer cash for his products!

BAPTIST CHURCH.

All the usual Sunday services will be held in regular order next Sunday. The special meetings are being held each night at 7:30 with growing interest and increasing crowds.

Herbert Reynolds, of Dallas, Tex., a song evangelist of marked ability and broad experience, is with us and is rendering splendid service. Come and hear him. Come and get warmed up yourself. Do you not need it? Come and bring your friend to church and to Christ. Come and be converted. Let's make Carlsbad religious indeed.
T. C. MAHAN, Pastor.

Everett Beach gave a house party and dance at his home on Black river last Friday which was pronounced one of the very nicest entertainments ever given in that locality so noted for its hospitality and neighborliness. A number attended from town and all are quite enthusiastic in their descriptions of the good time shown them.

John Wake has material on the ground for the erection of a garage on his lots in the south part of town. Later he expects to build a residence for the use of himself and family.

Dale Hewitt, the little five-year-old boy from the north part of the county who has been under treatment at the Eddy county hospital for snake bite, is improving rapidly and will soon be able to leave for his home. At one time his life was despaired of but the excellent care given him by physicians and nurses has brought him through.

The new home of the E. B. Lang family in the Otis neighborhood is fast nearing completion and will be one of the most commodious and convenient houses to be found anywhere. They will have eight rooms and bath with various built-in features which are not always found in a suburban residence.

Rufus Madera was in from his ranch seventy-five miles southeast of town the first of the week. Mrs. A. J. Richmond, the mother of Mrs. Madera, who has been impatiently awaiting his coming, after visiting at different places in Texas, accompanied him to the ranch.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

OF REV. P. H. FITZWATER, D. D.,
Teacher of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago.
(© 1920, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 3

THE BIRTH AND CHILDHOOD OF JESUS.

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 2: 1-15.
GOLDEN TEXT—Thou shalt call his name Jesus; for he shall save his people from their sins.—Matt. 1:21.
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Isa. 7:14-16; Micah 5:2; Luke 1 and 2.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Wise Men Visit the Child Jesus.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Child Jesus Escapes From a Wicked King.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Coming of the King.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The King Comes as a Little Child.

Since we now have six months of study in the Gospel according to Matthew, every teacher should grasp the book as a whole and present each lesson in its relation to the central purpose of the book. The central theme of Matthew is Jesus Christ the King—the fulfiller of the Messianic hope.

I. The Birth of the King (1:18-25). The Messiah was to be the seed of a woman—the son of a virgin (Gen. 3:15; Isa. 7:14). This was fulfilled in the birth of Jesus. The genealogy as given in Matthew 1:1-17 shows his legal right to the throne; but had he been that only, he could not have been the Savior from sin. He must be both human and divine (Isa. 9:7). The Messiah was begotten by the Holy Ghost and born of the Virgin Mary, thus becoming Immanuel, which term means in all its fullness, God for us; God with us; God in us.

II. The Magi Seek Israel's King (2:1, 2).

The King had a most heartless reception. The kingdom was not ready for him. His advent was heralded by a star which guided souls from a foreign nation to seek and worship him, pouring out their gifts to him. These wise men were either Arabian or Persian astrologers, students of the stars. The appearance of an unusual star attracted their attention. Perhaps they were acquainted with the famous prophecy of Balaam (Num. 24:17). Doubtless through the influence of the Jews who remained in Chaldea, or the direct influence of Daniel extending to this time, they had become acquainted with the hope of a Messiah. The light they had was dim, but they lived up to the best they had. To those who set upon the best light they have, God always gives more. To those who refuse to act upon the knowledge given, God not only refuses to give more, but brings into confusion that which they already possess (Matt. 23:28).

III. Herod Seeking to Kill the King (vv. 3-8).

The news brought by the Magi struck terror to Herod's heart. He was not alone in this, for all Jerusalem was troubled with him. The news ought to have brought joy. A glimpse at the social customs in and about Jerusalem at that time, will enable us to understand why this news brought uneasiness to the people. They were living in the greatest of luxury. Fine dresses, sumptuous feasts, fine houses, etc., led to gross immorality. We can thus readily see why Herod and all Jerusalem should be troubled. They did not want a Savior who would save them from their sins; they wanted to continue in them. Herod demanded of the priests and scribes information as to where Christ should be born. They soon were able to tell him, showing that they had a technical knowledge of the Scriptures, but no heart for the Savior set forth therein. The luxuriousness of the wealthy, the frivolities of the fashion-loving, and the gross immorality to which they lead, make Jesus Christ unwelcome in many quarters today.

IV. The King Found (vv. 9-12).

The Magi having obtained the desired information, started immediately to find the King. As soon as they left the city, the star which had guided them from the East appeared again to lead them on. When they found him, they worshiped him. Note God's overruling providence in all this. Hundreds of years before, the Prophet said that Christ should come forth from Bethlehem (Micah 5:2). God so ordered that Mary should be brought to the city to give birth to Christ. God ordered that the Magi should depart another way, thereby defeating Herod's wicked purpose. The gifts of these wise men, God put into the hands of Joseph and Mary before going to Egypt. Doubtless they served a good purpose in meeting their expenses during their stay there.

V. The King Protected (vv. 13-15).

To escape Herod's wicked aim, God directed Joseph to take Mary and the child Jesus and flee to Egypt. In obedience to the heavenly vision, he went and remained until Herod's death.

In Giving Alms.

In giving of thine alms inquire not so much into the person, as his necessity. God looks not so much on the merits of him that requires, as to the manner of him that relieves. If the man deserve not, thou hast given to humanity.—Quarles.

Think of Our Own Sins.

So long as we are full of self we are shocked at the faults of others. Let us think often of our own sins, and we shall be lenient to the sins of others.—Fenelon.

Out of the visit of James M. Cox to the west has come a knowledge of where the candidate stands on matters that vitally affect the Pacific coast. He has not failed to express himself on any point. He has very definitely outlined his position on the Japanese question. He says that God intended that the fathers of America should be white men, that the republic was built on this ideal and that this ideal must be maintained and those not disposed to subscribe to this ideal have the privilege of going back whence they came.

On the Irish question he points out that under article eleven of the covenant of the League of Nations Ireland will have the right to bring its case before the nations of the world and he will, if elected president, see that the issue is brought before the League.

"I shall endeavor to meet all reasonable desires for proper reservations which are offered in sincerity," says Cox. "My heart is in this fight and I will put forth all effort to make any reasonable concession to win in order that we may secure membership in the League for America".

Cox stands for progressive legislation as against Republican reactionism. He stands for the League, is right on the Japanese question and points to his achievements as governor of Ohio where labor is solid for him. He is a candidate who answers every question asked him even by hecklers, and the people know where he stands on every proposition.

The fur display in the south window of Joyce-Fruit's store is one of the most attractive seen in this city for some time, and is the result of the artistic taste of Miss Mallard, the milliner, employed by that firm. The autumn leaves in their subdued colors form a beautiful background for the display of the different furs with which Miss Mallard loves to adorn herself. The prevailing modes of dress make furs almost a necessity to the well dressed woman and she would indeed be hard to please who could not be suited in style and price with the wonderful variety shown in this collection.

BROWN—SUMMERFIELD.

The marriage of Claud Brown and Miss Rubena Summerfield which occurred last Saturday at 4 P. M., at the Methodist parsonage, comes as a surprise to the many friends of the young people in this city where both are well known and popular, the bride being the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Summerfield and the bridegroom being manager and pitcher of the Carlsbad baseball team. The Rev. Givan pronounced the solemn words that united these young folk in the bonds of matrimony, the witnesses present being the bride's mother, her aunt, Miss Filson and Frank Kindel.

Mrs. Brown needs no introduction to the people of this city, she having lived among us for the past nine years, coming with her parents to this place from Missouri when a child of ten years of age and graduating with honor from our schools with the class of 1919. After her graduation she made a lengthy visit to friends near Kansas City, going from there to Silver City, where she spent the past summer at the State Normal. She had been elected teacher of one of the grades of the Spanish-American school and began her work with the beginning of the school year; but the little blind god, who frequently interferes in such things, (Cupid by name), upset all her plans, took a hand in the game and she is now a happy bride.

Mr. Brown has only been a resident of Carlsbad for about eight months, but in that length of time has gathered about him a select circle of friends who speak in high terms of his many excellencies of character and prophesy a brilliant future for him. His home is in Birmingham, Alabama, for which city he and his bride expect to leave the first of next week, making a short visit to different cities in the south enroute. After a short stay at the maternal home, they will return to Austin, Texas, where both plan to enter the State University to complete their education.

May all good attend Mr. and Mrs. Claud Brown and may their lives be filled with happiness, is the wish of all who know them, the Current adding its felicitations.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The Carlsbad schools have been opened just one month and on next Tuesday the reports for all students will be issued. Parents should make investigation if any child fails to bring home a report card. After due examination the card should be signed by parent and returned to teacher.

The San Jose school in the near future will be supplied with water from the town system. Drinking fountains, which have been a long needed improvement, will be installed. Mrs. Rubena Brown has tendered her resignation as teacher in this school, and will be succeeded by Mrs. Elizabeth Bush.

A school has been opened in La Huerta with Mr. Clark Walker in charge. Mr. Walker has done teaching and Americanization work in many parts of the United States and comes well recommended from positions in California.

Miss Julia B. Hughes, a sister of Mrs. T. E. Rogers of the Grammar school faculty will begin work as a new member of the High school faculty on Monday. Miss Hughes has an A. B. degree and has completed a secretarial course at Columbia University.

The large enrollment in the High school has made necessary more classes and special attention will be given to students in the Freshman class. Statistics show that the greatest per cent of failures occur during the Freshman year. The causes assigned are, lack of interest, due to the youth of student; lack of cooperation of parents shown by failure to require home work; large classes, and lack of attention of teacher to individual pupil. During this year the High school faculty will endeavor to reduce the failures of Freshmen to the minimum. The class has been divided into three sections for each required study and assigned to teachers specially prepared in these courses. Parents will receive special notice from the superintendent regarding any unsatisfactory work and conferences will be held with these students to determine their special needs.

The night school was opened on September 20th, and courses in typewriting, shorthand, bookkeeping and Spanish are now offered. The enrollment in the courses is as follows: Spanish 15, typewriting 15, bookkeeping 5, and shorthand 10.

SOUTHERN AUTO
COMPANYTO THE BASEBALL FANS OF CARLSBAD.

Last Sunday Roswell fans witnessed two of the fastest games of base ball that have been played on their ground this year. The first game was 1 to 0 and the second 2 to 1, Sunday, Oct. 2, will close the ball season for Carlsbad. So now the ball fans will begin to look forward to the season of 1921 for their great national sport. There is not a doubt that the fans of the Pecos valley will be able to see the same fast base ball again that has been played here this year. We are sure that everyone has been pleased with the efforts the boys have put forth this season in order to place before the fans of their town a class of base ball that has not been shown here for a number of years. The boys, as everyone knows, have been working under a handicap all the year of trying to play ball and hold down their jobs at the same time. So when we attend the games between Carlsbad and the Roswell sluggers and see the fighting spirit that the players show by holding Roswell to extra innings in most games, then we appreciate our club as we should.

We want to thank the business men of the town for the hearty co-operation given to the ball club this year in a financial way. Then we want to thank the very faithful fans for their confidence in the team by always filling the park. We don't think that Carlsbad has even one fan that was not for the team all the way through, win or lose. We also thank the firemen for the help they have given us in fixing one of the finest parks in the whole Pecos valley. They hope to build a few additions to it next year; then we will be able to say for sure that it is the best in the valley.

I just want to say a few words in regard to my appreciation of the things that my friends have done for me here during the season. I have played ball in a number of towns, and want to say that I have never found a place that I like better than Carlsbad. The people here have been so nice this summer that it seems as if there is simply a welcome in Carlsbad that is not shown in every town in the west. I sincerely hope that the success in base ball will continue to grow and that next year your club will come out pennant winners in the Pecos valley league, which I am sure will continue on through the season of 1921. Let's don't forget that the Carlsbad boys have done one thing in base ball this year that is far more important than the winning of a pennant, and that is, to win for Carlsbad the honor of having put out a ball club that knows how to play clean sports. Win or lose, the boys have never been known to play dirty ball.

We want to say goodbye to the club and to all our friends and our best wishes are with you always for success in life and in base ball. We are leaving for the south the first part of next week. I am,

Yours sincerely,

CLAUD R. BROWN.

Brunswick Principles In Fine Tire Making

The reason you are interested in the name on your tire is that it identifies the maker. By knowing the maker you can judge his ideals of manufacture.

The only secret of a super-tire lies in the principles of the maker. His standards decide the quality. For there are no secrets in the tire industry.

What you get depends on what is behind the name on your tire. Brunswick, as you know, means a very old concern, jealous of its good name. Since 1845 the House of Brunswick has been famous the world over for the quality of its products.

The Brunswick Tire is all that you expect—and more. Your first one will be a revelation. You'll agree that you've never known a better. And you'll tell your friends. So spreads the news among motorists. The Brunswick is the most welcome tire that ever came to market.

Try one Brunswick Tire. Learn how good a tire can be built. And remember, it costs no more than like-type tires.
