FAIR BALLOTS, HONEST COUNT

Governor Issues Proclamation to Assure Square Deal at Polls

VILE CHARGES ARE DENIED

Twenty-Thousand Anti-Balots Were Distributed in Calfax County.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

Whereas, an election is to be held on Saturday, January 21, A. D., 1911, to determine whether or not the Constitution recently prepared by the Constitutional Convention, which assembled at Santa Fe, shall be accepted or rejected by the qualified electors of this Territory, and,

Whereas, in order to assure a perfectly fair election, the peace officers and District Attorney of each district are hereby instructed to inquire into any complaints which may be entered before them of any fraud or intimidation or violation of the election laws, and vigorously prosecute any one who may be guilty of a breach of any such laws.

Done at the Executive Office, this, the 20th day of January, A. D., 1911.

Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the Territory of New Mexico.

WILLIAM J. MILLS, Governor.

Attest: Nathan Jaffa, Secretary of New Mexico.

A copy of this proclamation was telegraphed to every district attorney.

GOVERNOR WILL VOTE IN VEGAS

Leaves This Evening to Cast His Ballot For the Constitution

IS CONFIDENT OF RESULT

Officials Will Have Holiday Tomorrow But Will Work For Statehood.

Governor Mills has returned from a statehood campaign tour during which he visited Alamogordo, Tularosa and Carrizozo. He spoke in Alamogordo and Tularosa, and would have delivered an address in Carrizozo had he not arrived there too late to do so. He was much impressed with the enthusiasm manifested for statehood and said today that he was confident that the constitution would be carried by a good majority. The governor will leave tonight for Las Vegas, where he votes, and tomorrow he will cast "a straight ticket" for the constitution. He will likely return to Santa Fe tomorrow evening.

Notaries.

The governor today appointed the following notaries public: Malaquias Baca, Delavan, Union county; Eugenio Romero, Mora, Mora county; Felix D. Ortega, Lumberton, Rio Arriba county; Albert Field, Deming, Luna county; Ella F. Elliott, Las Cruces, Dona Ana county; Edward Pennington, Deming, Luna county; Joseph Des Georges, Taos, Taos county; P. F. Campbell, Las Cruces, Dona Ana county.

For the Treasury.

Territorial Treasurer M. A. Otero has received the following sums for the treasury: From J. S. Edwards, treasurer of Curry county, $3618.67; from Game and Fish Warden Gable, $2.50.

Arrested at Deming.

Captain Fred Kornoff of the Mounted Police has received word that the days of the cowboy on a war path are not yet over. Harvey Barksdale and Ames Keith, both of Deming, were arrested by Mounted Policeman Beal for fighting. Both were fined.

Holiday Tomorrow.

Tomorrow will be a holiday at the capitol and at the federal building as the governor's proclamation will be observed to the letter. The territorial and federal officials are apparently for the constitution to a man and will work hard to get out a large vote tomorrow. Everywhere in the capitol and federal building officials were heard today expressing their belief that the constitution will be carried tomorrow by a handsome majority and especially in Santa Fe county from which a big debt will be lifted by statehood.

Land Restored to Entry.

The United States land office at Las Cruces today received instructions from the Secretary of the Interior restoring land in the Alamo national forest to the public domain.

MORE SHIPS FOR THE NAVY

Census Bureau Announces Population of Deming to Be Almost 2,000.

Special to the New Mexican.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 20.—The senate committee on public lands reported favorably the bill which has passed the House granting title as homestead land segregated from the Refugio Colony Grant, Dona Ana county, under regulations of the secretary of the interior, of about nine thousand acres.

A strong combination is forming in the House to place wool and live stock on the free list. New Mexico needs two senators quickly to protect her many interests. The population of Deming is 1,864 as against 1941 in 1900.

New Orleans Beats San Francisco.

Washington, Jan. 20.—By a vote of nine to six, New Orleans was selected today by the House committee on expositions as the site of the Panama exposition in 1915. The bill giving recognition to New Orleans was referred to a sub-committee for changes and it is expected that the appropriation will be granted.

Substantial Increase for Navy.

Washington, Jan. 20.—Two battleships, two colliers, eight torpedo boat destroyers and four submarine boats constitute the increase for the new year under the action of the House committee on naval affairs today.

The battleships are to be of 27,000 tons each.

LABOR FIGHTS AGAINST THE THIRD DEGREE.

Samuel Gompers Calls it a Survival of the Brute Power of Barbarism.

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 20.—An appeal to organized labor of the country has been sent out by officials of the American Federation of Labor to use its influence to secure legislation forbidding the "third degree" to secure confessions from prisoners. A copy has been received by the trades council of this city. The letter, which is signed by Samuel Gompers, describes the practice as having no warrant for existence, "except the brute power of barbarian and tradition derived therefrom," and that the practice should be stopped.

SHARP FIGHTING IN CHIHUAHUA

Insurrectos Lose Large Number in Killed and Wounded in Encounters

INDIAN TRIBE JOINS REBELS

Two Sanguinary But Fruitless Attacks to Take Baquircio.

Parra, Chihuahua, Jan. 20.—Following a fight on Sunday at Baquircio, this state, in which seven rebels were killed and ten wounded, the rebels re-attacked the town on Tuesday, leaving 14 dead and two wounded. The federalists lost two wounded. Reports that the Tuhuarimi Indians had joined the insurrectos are confirmed, as many in both of these fights and seven killed on Sunday are Indians. Sixty cavalry were sent from here yesterday to reinforce the small command at Baquircio.

Meetings Tonight.

This evening Probate Clerk George W. Armijo and Frank Owen will address a mass meeting at Pojoaque, northern Santa Fe county. Mass meetings will be held for Precincts Nos. 17 and 4 at the Manderfield hall and for Precinct No. 3 at the house of Simon Vigil.

SANTA FE WILL ROLL UP BIG MAJORITY FOR CONSTITUTION

Everyone, from Governor Down, Is Enthusiastic For Opportunity Presented Tomorrow To Let the United States See That New Mexico Wants Statehood and Is Fit For It --Polls Open from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. All Federal, Territorial and County Offices Will Be Closed All Day and Stores in Afternoon.

STATEHOOD WEATHER TOMORROW.

I take pleasure in announcing that the forecast for tomorrow, Election Day, is generally fair, as it will be tonight, although colder weather in the eastern portion is predicted for tomorrow.

CHARLES E. LINNEY, Weather Observer.

WHERE TO VOTE TOMORROW.

The polls will open at 9 a. m. tomorrow and close at 6 p. m. The voting booths are:

- Ward 1, Precinct 3: Victor Garcia's house, Canon Road. The judges are Severino Alarid, Andres Sosa and Severiano Rivera.
- Ward 2, Precinct 4: Office of Justice Ricardo Alarid, De Vargas Street. Judges are Canuto Alarid, Pablo Griego and Pedro Quintana.
- Ward 3, Precinct 17: Manderfield's Hall, Galisteo Street. The judges are J. S. Garcia, Ignacio Romero and Hilario Sandoval.
- Ward 4, Precinct 18: House of David Gonzales, Palace Avenue. The judges are Manuel B. Salazar, Ramon Armijo and one judge to be selected.

All day tomorrow the voters of Santa Fe and of New Mexico will have the opportunity to go to the polls and swell the majority for the constitution which will open the doors of statehood.

There is enthusiasm all over the territory for the rise of tomorrow's sun over the Sunshine State for that sunrise is to be the dawn of liberty.

But particularly in Santa Fe and in Santa Fe county is tomorrow the greatest day in the history of the city and county for the adoption of the constitution is looked upon as the breaking of the shackles of a debt that has hung over the property interests of this city and county.

It is regarded therefore by the citizens of this city and county as a PLAIN DUTY to be at the polls early and leave no opportunity pass to roll up a big majority for the constitution which it is believed by those who have studied the question, will surely be passed by New Mexico before 6 p. m.

A representative of the New Mexican today interviewed many business men on the duty that awaits Santa Feans at the polls tomorrow. Officials, federal, territorial and county were also questioned and from the governor down, everyone was enthusiastic for the constitution.

Plenty of Opportunity.

There will be no excuse for anyone not voting tomorrow, except owing to dangerous illness. Delegate in Congress William H. Andrews was sufficiently patriotic to make a trip of 4,000 miles to vote for it and Governor Mills will leave this evening for Las Vegas to cast his ballot. Several Santa Feans who had planned trips, are waiting a day over to vote for the constitution and more than one called out of town, will hurry back today or arrive by noon to cast a ballot "for the constitution."

What Will Santa Fe, do tomorrow? Listen to a few expressions:

Governor Mills: "I hope that the citizens of Santa Fe and of New Mexico, have read the constitution, and that they will vote as their intelligence suggests. I MYSELF SHALL VOTE FOR THE CONSTITUTION. I shall leave tonight for Las Vegas, and return tomorrow."

Major R. J. Palen, president of the First National Bank: "I shall vote for the constitution tomorrow. I think it is the duty, the interest, and ought to be the pleasure of all Santa Feans to do so."

Postmaster E. C. Burke: "I am for the constitution 'from the drop of the hat.' You will see me out legging for it from morn until night with special carrier No. 4 (that's Mr. Burke's horse)."

H. F. Stephens, cashier of the U. S. Bank and Trust Company: "Of course I am for the constitution and I hope Santa Fe county will vote for it unanimously."

L. B. Vickroy, merchant: "It is the voters' duty to put in all tickets for the constitution. Vote early and as often as the law allows, boys!"

E. E. Meier, engineer in charge of the Arroyo Hondo Project: "I shall be in town to vote for the constitution, like every other man who wants statehood and the benefits it will confer."

W. O. Connor, superintendent of the School for the Deaf: "I shall be in early to vote for the constitution."

Leo Hersch, merchant: "I am for the constitution, and in my opinion voter of Santa Fe county who ought to be so."

TWO SENATORIAL DEADLOCKS

Judge Alton D. Parker Takes Hand in New York's Bitter Fight

THE COLORADO SITUATION

Triangular Scrap for Toga Among Various Wings of Democracy.

Albany, Jan. 20.—The third joint ballot for United States Senator today resulted in no election. Many had been paired and had gone home over Sunday. Sheehan lacked eleven votes of majority.

Parker Takes a Hand.

Albany, Jan. 20.—Assemblyman Saunders of Columbia County, who on Wednesday changed his vote from Sheehan to Alton D. Parker, today received a letter from Mr. Parker in which the latter said that Mr. Saunders and others who voted for him, could do him a favor if they voted for Sheehan. Mr. Saunders said the letters would not change his attitude nor that of others, who voted for Parker.

Deadlock in Colorado.

Denver, Jan. 20.—With the first ballot for U. S. senator to succeed the late Senator Hughes, scheduled for next Tuesday, appearances today indicated a three-cornered fight between Shafer or the "Platform" Democrats. The adherents of former Governor Alva Adams and friends, and Mayor Speer of Denver, Democrats, with their strength, are so equally divided that no election seems possible during the early days of the balloting.

Platform Democrats Insist on Pledges.

Denver, Jan. 20.—The Platform Democrats insist that the pledges of the last Democratic state platform be carried out before the senatorial election take place. An interesting development was the announcement by Lieutenant Governor Fitzgerald today that in the event of Shafer's election, he would insist that Governor Shafer remain in the governor's chair at least until the fall or until the pledges are carried out by legislation.

ANDREW CARNEGIE SETS LOOSE ANOTHER 10 MILLION.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—It was stated last night at Jack Johnson's residence, that the heavyweight champion has been matched to meet Al Kaufman in London some time in April for a twenty round bout.

PAUL MORTIN DIES SUDDENLY

Stricken With Cerebral Hemorrhage He Does Not Regain Consciousness

HAD BEEN PLANNING VACATION

Had Served in Cabinet as Secretary of the Navy Under Roosevelt.

New York, Jan. 20.—The business and financial world in general and life insurance circles in particular are slowly recovering from the shock caused by the sudden death last night of Paul Morton, president of the Equitable Life Assurance Society and Secretary of the Navy in President Roosevelt's cabinet. Mr. Morton was stricken with cerebral hemorrhage in the lobby of the Hotel Seymour and did not recover consciousness. His health had been bad some time and he was to have sailed for Europe on a vacation next month.

His Career.

Paul Morton has been a visitor in Santa Fe and some years ago was a pleasant caller at the New Mexican office. He had many warm friends in New Mexico and was much interested in the development of this commonwealth. He served as a vice president of the Atchafalaya and Santa Fe Railway Company from 1896 until he resigned to assume the portfolio as secretary of the navy under President Roosevelt. He was much interested, both as an official, director and stockholder in the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company.

Mr. Morton was born at Detroit on May 22, 1857, and was therefore 53 years old. He was a son of the late Sterling Morton of Nebraska, the latter having been secretary of agriculture under Grover Cleveland and inaugurated Arbor Day. He began his career with the railroads as clerk in the land office of the Burlington and Missouri River railroad at Burlington, Iowa, in 1872, and was advanced to general freight agent of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy. He was president of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company at Pueblo, Colorado, the Southern Iowa railroad and the Illinois Western. He became third vice president and then second vice president of the Santa Fe system. He was the center of a strenuous political controversy as a member of President Roosevelt's cabinet on account of his connection with the railroads. He resigned to accept the presidency of the New York Life Insurance Company and completely reorganized it.

CABINET HOLDS A MEETING

Outline King's Speech From Throne and Legislative Program.

London, Jan. 20.—The cabinet held its first meeting today for the purpose of drafting the king's speech from throne and a program of its legislation for what promises to be a historic session of parliament. The militant suffragettes thickly dotted Downing street determined to remind the ministers that their demands are urgent as ever. One banner suggested that Home Secretary Churchill be imprisoned. The active young bearer of this conviction, eluded the police rushed to the home secretary when he appeared and using the banner as a lance attempted to knock off Mr. Churchill's hat. The police quickly cleared away demonstrators.

BUBONIC PLAGUE HAS REACHED CHINESE CAPITAL.

Americans and Europeans Are Leaving Country and Native Physicians Throw Up Hands.

Peking, Jan. 20.—The bubonic plague, which has been devastating Manchuria has apparently at last reached the Chinese capital. One death from the dread disease occurred in the missionary hospital today.

Americans Leaving China.

Peking, Jan. 20.—A number of Americans and Europeans, most of them women and children are leaving the country. Chinese physicians have to a large extent surrendered the command of the fight against the plague to missionary physicians.

NINE FATALITIES IN VIRGINIA COAL MINE DISASTER.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 20.—Five men were killed, four fatally hurt and seven received minor injuries from an explosion of dynamite or gas in the Gayton mines fifteen miles west of Richmond today. Seven injured are still in the mine twelve hundred feet below the surface.

IT IS UP TO NEW MEXICO

President and Congress Ready to Admit Territory to Statehood

THERE WILL BE NO DELAY

Democrats Have No Thought of Opposing Constitution as Formulated.

Andrews' Epigrams.

"Every man who has the material welfare of New Mexico and his own personal interest at heart should be out Saturday and vote for the constitution."

"I have no particular business at home just at this time except to cast my vote for the constitution."

"We have fought a long time for statehood and against obstacles which have seemed insurmountable."

"Absolutely the only thing that stands between us and final admission to the Union on March 1, is the adoption of this constitution."

"We have always had bitter enemies in Congress and they remained our enemies up to the day they read the constitution as adopted by the constitutional convention. Since that time they have become our firm friends."

"There is absolutely no opposition in either branch of Congress to the constitution as it now stands."

"Even the New England Congressmen and the New England newspapers who have always looked upon us as a bunch of wild Indians, admit we have formed AS GOOD A CONSTITUTION as exists in New England."

"Arizona, by going to extremes and adopting all laws available has alienated its best friends in Congress and even many of the Democratic members declare the constitution in many of its provisions as un-Democratic and unsatisfactory."

"From all I can learn the majority for the constitution tomorrow will be large. * * *

Delegate W. H. Andrews arrived in Albuquerque at noon yesterday having come all the way from Washington in order to vote for the constitution."

"I have no particular business at home just at this time," said the delegate yesterday afternoon, "except to cast my vote for the constitution. I consider the adoption of this constitution by a large majority the most important thing that has ever been done and that can be done for the material welfare of New Mexico. We have fought a long time for statehood and against obstacles which have seemed practically insurmountable. Now we have statehood in our hands. It is up to us. Absolutely the only thing in my judgment that stands between us and final admission to the Union on the fourth of March next is the adoption of this constitution."

"When the statehood act was passed some misgivings were expressed among members of Congress and eastern newspapers as to the wisdom of admitting us and as to our ability to form a proper constitution. We have always had bitter enemies in Congress and they remained our enemies up to the day they read the constitution as adopted by the constitutional convention. Since that time they have become our firm friends. There is absolutely no opposition in either branch of Congress to the constitution as it stands. In fact, it receives the most favorable comment on every hand. Even the New England Congressmen and the New England newspapers who have always looked upon us as a bunch of wild Indians admit that we have formed as good a constitution as exists in New England. They are ready to approve it. All we have to do is to adopt it. Should we fail to adopt it—but I hesitate to believe any such contingency possible and I would not undertake to predict at this time what the result will be."

Arizona's Mistake.

"Arizona, by going to extremes and adopting all the laws available, has alienated its best friends in Congress and even many of the Democratic members declare that the constitution in many of its provisions is un-Democratic and unsatisfactory. The statement that Democrats in Congress will oppose approval of the New Mexico constitution because there is opposition to the Arizona constitution, is absolutely unfounded. I have talked personally with many of the Democratic members and all to whom I have spoken are agreed that the New Mexico constitution is sound and that it deserves and will receive immediate approval upon its adoption by the people."

"I have seen President Taft's Albuquerque speech quoted as an argument why this constitution should be turned down and a new constitution submitted. President Taft meant to advise the people of New Mexico to think well about their constitution and

HAPPY RESULTS.

No wonder scores of Santa Fe citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after years of suffering. Public statements like the following are but truthful representations of the daily work done in Santa Fe by Doan's Kidney Pills.

Toribio Rodriguez, 110 Johnson St., Santa Fe, N. M., says: "Two and a half years ago I gave a statement for publication in regard to my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills. Today I am stronger in my praise of this remedy than ever. I suffered greatly from disordered kidneys, the pains in my back being so acute at times that I had to stop work and sit down. The trouble steadily grew worse and I rarely knew what it was to be free from an ache or pain of some kind. Soon after I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, my pains and aches disappeared and my back became strong."

Opportunity Knocks Tomorrow: Will

Master of Human destinies am I;

Fame, love and fortune on my foot-

Painful.

There is no spectacle more disagreeable, more painful than that of a man who has held the respect and esteem of the majority of his fellow citizens and who has been useful to the commonwealth to no mean degree, stooping to unworthy methods to gain an end whether his underlying motive be selfish or sincere.

We cannot attempt to explain the attempt at deception by word juggling which appeared with flaming headlines in an evening paper Wednesday. Quoting a section of the amendment article whose plain meaning could not possibly be misunderstood, a deliberate attempt is made to beguile and attack this self evident meaning to confuse some voter.

We have shown it up once. To thoroughly expose it we quote again

HON. L. BRADFORD PRINCE
Making Campaign Tour in Rio Arriba County.

the third section of the amendment article:

Sec. 3. If this constitution be in any way so amended as to allow laws to be enacted by direct vote of the electors, the laws which may be so enacted shall be only such as might be enacted by the legislature under the provisions of this constitution.

That is—as a blind man could see—laws enacted by direct legislation, in case we put a direct legislation amendment in the act, must be such as the legislature could pass. The legislature may pass laws such as are made possible by the constitution; the people, if they are allowed to make laws direct, must do the same.

Laws passed by people or legisla-

tu must be constitutional.

Neither the people nor the legislature may disregard the organic act.

And this ingenious statesman tells

us this means that the only way to

amend the constitution is by calling

a convention to revise it.

There are only two explanations of his action. We shall not repeat them.

The public may draw its own conclusion.

Militia Exemptions.

The evening Iconoclast recently

had the temerity to mention the mil-

litionists, the influence one would draw from Mr. Chews' letter is that all Corporations for six years are

exempt from taxation; if he will read

the Article in question he will see that it reads as follows: "The legislature may exempt new railroads;

new sugar factories, new smelters,

reduction works and pumping plants

for irrigation work for NOT MORE than six years after their establishment." Does not the same legal

mind of the gentleman grasp the difference and see that the matter is thoroughly in the hands of the legislature WHO MAY exempt them six years.

Would not the people of White Oaks

be willing to see a railroad built to

their coal deposits, and a reduction

plant or smelter established at Rob-

son or Coyote, and would they not be willing to see them exempt from

taxation for a few years to enable

enterprises started, and in what way

would such enterprises harm the owner of a homestead?

His objection to Article XII, Sec.

2, is that it provides for the sale of

some of our school lands donated

under the enabling act, and he is in favor of leasing the land for five years and holding it until it will be worth as much as the school lands of Minnesota. Inasmuch as the Enabling act provides that the land so

donated cannot be sold for less than

$2 per acre it is not at all probable

that it will be grabbed up by speculators but that there will be lots of

it left for many years to come. It hardly looks reasonable that any one would vote against Statehood

on such immaterial points as these

unless as we predicted in last week's communication that the gentlemen

who oppose Statehood out and out

are only looking for some excuse to fight the Constitution. However, the great mass of the voters of New Mexico both Democratic and Republican

without any axes to grind will demonstrate by their votes on Saturday,

January 21st that they are satisfied

with the constitution and they will

vote for Statehood by an overwhelming majority.

NEGRO MAKES NOVEL

PLEA IN POLICE COURT.

Maintains That He Was Just Passing

Through City for Work But Luck

Turned Against Him.

San Antonio, Texas, Jan. 20.—(Job-

ert Child, a Louisiana negro, made

the most unique plea for liberty yesterday morning ever heard by the police judge. This plea and the fact that Child had two dollars, saved him

from a turn on the stone pile. When

the charge of vagrancy against the

negro was called, he stated his case

as follows: "I come all the way from

Houston over to Santa Fe to get work.

I walked most of the way. Jes a few miles outen de town I falls in wid

some fellows, and de say, 'come on,

Santone people is just fallin' ober

demselves givin' jobs away.' Bout

dat time a train hove in sight and

whistles, and I gits off de track and flows it ter go by. Them fellows

grabbed onto it, but it went by too

fast fer me. I come on to Santone

by myself. Fust thing I know, a police stops me and I says to him, I beg your pardon, Mistah Police, give me a chance to pass through your city.' He says 'nixy' and he brings

me up ter de station, and here I is.

Luck is plumb agin me. When ole

luck hits achn you, you might as well

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

VOTE!

Everyone entitled to vote should go to the polls tomorrow unless illness incapacitates him. Whether you are for the constitution or against it, you should record your ballot. The man who stays at home at such a crisis is a traitor. This is an ugly word but it applies to you if you do not cast your ballot unless serious illness will not permit you to leave your bed. And you will be not only a traitor, but a coward, if you avoid your plain duty. What do you think of the man, who, when his country is attacked by a foe, either from the outside or from within, who is not willing to rush to its defense? That is exactly what others will think of you if you do not vote tomorrow. A greater battle will be decided than any that has ever been waged in New Mexico. Upon its decision depends the welfare of future generations and you cannot afford to shirk or to hide until after the fray is decided. Your vote counts as much as that of any leader, or of any officer, as much as that of the president of the United States himself. Says the Albuquerque Morning Journal, with the same thoughts in mind:

Tomorrow the people of New Mexico will vote on the question of remaining a territory, or becoming a state of the union. It is not hard to tell what the result will be. A fifty-year fight does not incline a people to throw away victory when it is in their grasp.

But it cannot be too strongly impressed on the citizens of New Mexico that they MUST VOTE.

Don't leave it to your friends, and neighbors to assure statehood for New Mexico; the question comes home to you personally; it affects your own pocketbook—it affects your own personal rights as an American; it means prosperity and happiness for you.

More than that, New Mexico citizens are not now deciding merely their own destiny; they are deciding the destiny of their posterity for unnumbered generations.

We are not acting solely for a third of a million people; we may be acting for several millions. New Mexico will support them; they are bound to come; the land of opportunity is the beckoning to them and the lure of the sunshine and of fortune is bringing them. Under statehood they will come by myriads.

A majority of a few thousand may save the day; an overwhelming landslide will do more; it will forever establish New Mexico's standing among the states of the union. It will be the final, unswerving, compelling irresistible demand of a sovereign people for their rights; it will remove the last loop hole of opposition.

Tomorrow, Saturday, January 21, 1911, is the crisis-day in New Mexico's illustrious history. Let us make it a red letter day by the greatest demonstration for popular rights ever seen in the United States.

A majority means that we get in perhaps by a squeeze; a landslide means the triumphal entry of a new state into the union. It will forever demonstrate our sturdy Americanism, or our patriotism and our independence. New Mexico needs your vote tomorrow. You cannot afford to have it said that you had no part in her regeneration; no part in her vindication before the country; no part in the building of a new state; no part in welcoming the dawn of a new era in the southwest.

Get out and vote. Vote with a right good will and with an enthusiasm which will infect your neighbor; and get every man you know to do the same.

LIFT THE BURDEN!

Perhaps you own a little home. It is assessed at $500. At present a mortgage of $250 rests upon it on account of the railroad bonded indebtedness of Santa Fe county.

The bondholders can come in and collect that mortgage; they can take your house if you do not pay cash. They can force your assessment up from $500 to $3,000. This is no idle threat, no joke. The law is on the statute books under which they can do it. The law was drafted originally by their attorney. They went to congress and validated the debt and that law to clinch their stronghold.

If your county officers refuse to obey the mandate of the court they "shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine and by imprisonment in the territorial penitentiary for a period of not less than one year nor more than ten years and shall forever forfeit the right to hold office under the laws of this territory."

Read Sections 343 and 344 of the Compiled Laws of 1897 for yourself and see how every contingency is provided for, how not a single loophole is left for the taxpayer to escape paying that million dollars when it is ripe for judgment and part of it is already in the form of judgment as the court records show. The bondholders have been merely waiting to gather it all in at once on the day when the last bond and the last interest coupon falls due, for they are getting interest on their judgments while they wait, better interest than the average county or municipal bond pays nowadays.

These two sections of the New Mexico law are incorporated in the validating act of congress. They even provide for a receiver for the county, in case of necessity who shall "discharge such neglected or unperformed duty or duties and shall immediately enforce the performance thereof." Notice the word "immediately"? And what is that duty? Not only to "make a special tax levy" but also "adequately to assess property and levy and collect taxes for such interest." Notice again the words "special tax" and "adequately assess" and "collect," not merely "levy."

In other words, the law does not only go to the tax levy, but also to the assessment, and the tax levied shall have the force of a special tax. That is the thing that is hanging over Santa Fe; that has frightened away capital; has prevented development; has kept people from building homes and business blocks; has dumped Santa Fe in the small city class, and has been the wet blanket on enterprise and progress.

Fortunately, the situation is not hopeless. By your vote tomorrow in favor of the Constitution, you can help lift that burden from the shoulders, not only of the present taxpayers, but from the shoulders of every man, woman and child in Santa Fe county, for they all suffer from the lack of development and growth of this, the most attractive city on the American continent.

THE QUESTION OF TAXES.

The tax rate and the taxes are high enough in Santa Fe. They are too high. Under a proper assessment they would be considered confiscatory.

You can help lower the tax rate by voting for the constitution and statehood tomorrow. Statehood will bring a gift of lands worth at least $26,000,000. That will help some in a state whose expenses do not reach $1,000,000 a year, will it not? But there are other helps. The constitution abolishes the fee system. That will help pay your county expenses. It will compel the Santa Fe Pacific to pay its proportion of taxes. The large land grant owner, under the constitution, will have to pay taxes in the same proportion that the small land owner must pay. That will help some more.

Within a few years, there will be no school taxes to pay, the grant of school lands will take care of them. It will in addition furnish free text books for your children, build a modern school house in every school district and give each child, no matter how remote the district in which it lives and how poor its inhabitants, at least five months of schooling every year, while in the cities and larger districts it will mean ten months a year. It will mean manual training schools and other school advantages that New Mexico today lacks but cannot afford under existing conditions.

The territory now pays one-half of the salary of the governor, of the judges and pays in addition district clerks and fees to the territorial secretary. To continue in the territorial form of government will mean an increase of taxes, either in the form of increased assessment or increased tax rate. The territory will need the same things that the state does but it will get no substantial lift from Congress and is bound by laws and precedents which will not enable it to tap those other sources of revenue that the constitution and statehood make available.

A vote against the constitution is a vote for higher taxes.

A vote for the constitution, means a reduction in taxes and yet, the conferring of public benefits that are now unattainable.

Under the cloak of prohibition, a few persons in New Mexico, according to dispatches from Washington, are bombarding President Taft and Congressmen with telegrams, besmirching the character of the people of New Mexico and their representatives, declaring that saloons dominated the constitutional convention; that the saloons own the legislatures and that the political leaders and the officeholders are servants of the saloon. That is going pretty far in characterizing 327,000 people in a commonwealth in which human nature averages as high as it does in Pennsylvania and Massachusetts. If not a little higher, and such methods will act as a boomerang that will unfortunately injure a cause that otherwise has much to commend it.

A vote against the constitution tomorrow is a vote against temperance, against law enforcement, against decency, for New Mexico cannot have these things until its people are their own master. Under the territorial form of government they are no more than serfs given a certain degree of self-government by the tolerance of an indifferent Congress, that changes its moods with every election.

TWO TICKETS FOR EVERY VOTER

Owing to pro-constitution leaders and officials, tickets "for" and "against" the constitution were printed in equal numbers in both languages in every county and not only enough to give one ticket of each kind to every voter, but enough to supply the voters of two or three bigger states than New Mexico. These tickets will be paid for by the United States, on approval of Territorial Secretary Nathan Jaffa, who has asked every pro-constitution clerk to print a sufficient number to go around, and to print them in equal numbers of each kind. In Santa Fe, for instance, one industrious woman was today distributing broadcast tickets "against" the constitution, which had been furnished by Probate Clerk George W. Arnold upon request of Territorial Secretary Nathan Jaffa, both being Republicans and advocates of the approval of the constitution.

Despite these facts still another drawback appears in the attempt to force into the minds of the ignorant the ridiculous notion that it is the duty of the probate clerk to print ballots "at the county expense" for use in non-partisan elections or to take orders on the subject from any political committee whatever. Any citizen, and especially any lawyer, Republican, Democrat, Socialist, Prohibitionist, Faddist, or what you will, can read as he runs Section 18 of Chapter 105, of the Session Laws of 1905, and plainly discover, if he did not know it before, that the probate clerk is not required to print ballots for any other than elections "For Public Officers in which the elector or any of the electors within his county participate."

The like provision occurred in section 3 of Chapter 127 of the Laws of 1905. It is only with reference to elections of "public officers," that "the printing and distributing of all ballots mentioned in this act (Laws of 1909, page 255, section 18) shall be done under the supervision of the chairman of the county committees of the county in which any such election is to be held."

No statutory provision is made by New Mexico for the printing at public expense of the ballots to be used at bond elections and other non-partisan elections. The question at every such election is one to be answered, "Yes," or "No," or in some equivalent simple form. The proposed constitution is very clear on this subject. Any voter can WRITE his own ballot tomorrow "For a Constitution," or as he pleases, "Contra a Constitution," or "Against the Constitution," using both languages.

Besides the proposed constitution allows every voter to use a printed ballot. He can print it himself, or have any one else print it, or apply to the benevolent Tribune-Citizen, or Summers Barhart, or either political central committee. But lead pencils and paper are cheap and easy. No county is required to print non-partisan ballots, and it is due to Secretary Jaffa and Attorney General Clancy, to the remnant left of the $100,000 appropriated by Congress to help us to immediate Statehood and Independence, and to the pro-constitution leaders of both parties, that all citizens, whatever their political preference, whether the dignity of a state or the degradation of a Territory, are indebted from saving them the enormous trouble and expense of writing "PRO" or "CON" on a slip of paper.

There is no constitution that was ever formulated which takes such extended care and gives such general recognition to the claims of the laboring man.

It provides for an eight hour day on all public works. In other states it has taken a long and bitter fight to secure this for the laboring men and in the majority of states it has not yet been provided.

It specifically adopts the federal laws protecting the railroad employees. It does away with the fellow servant law. It makes specific provision for the protection of the miners.

Where is the fundamental law that from the beginning included such sweeping provisions for the working men's benefit?

At present the governor of New Mexico before he vetoes or approves a law has one eye upon Washington and another eye upon the men who secured his appointment. If you must have both eyes upon you, the people, and be assured, the successful politician is always in a hurry to do what he thinks will make him solid with the people.

The Arizona constitution is as radical as the Radicals dared to make it; the New Mexico constitution is safe and sane at the same time progressive. Yet, the Democrats! El Paso Times condemns both, which illustrates incidentally what a constitutional convention that tried to please everybody would be up against.

A vote for the constitution is a vote for freedom, a vote for independence, a vote for your fireside and your children.

Are you a Tory or are you a patriot? Your vote tomorrow will classify you.

Your vote tomorrow will either break or rivet the shackles that bind New Mexico.

Vote for the Constitution
Tomorrow.

IT IS UP TO NEW MEXICO.

adopt one under which they could live prosperously. This has been done by the convention and I am satisfied that it will be approved by the people and there is no question in my mind or in the mind of any one else familiar with the situation that it will receive the same approval from the President of the United States.

"From all I can learn the majority for the constitution will be large and I am very glad to know this because, the people of New Mexico in voting on their constitution, have been placed in a curious position, unique in the annals of our country. Heretofore every state constitution submitted upon admission, has been submitted in connection with an election for state officers. The principals contained in the constitution have been obscured by personal issues. The merits of the constitution itself, have seldom been discussed. With us there has been no issue but the constitution. It has been thoroughly discussed and analyzed by all thoughtful people and its approval is the final guarantee of its merit. Every man who has the material welfare of New Mexico and his own personal interest at heart should get out Saturday and vote for the constitution."

Returns Sunday.

Delegate Andrews was interviewed on the telephone today by Postmaster E. C. Burke. Mr. Andrews said that he expects to see the constitution carry by at least fifteen thousand majority. The delegate stated that he expects to return to Washington Sunday, and therefore it will be impossible for him to visit Santa Fe or any other city. He has a good deal of business to attend to in Albuquerque today and tomorrow, and every moment of his time will be taken up until he starts back for Washington. Add Statehood—

Albuquerque Meeting.

Delegate W. H. Andrews, who returned yesterday from Washington, and other speakers will address a meeting at Albuquerque tonight and plans will be perfected for the busiest day tomorrow since the league was organized. A grand final effort will be made to bring out every single vote in the county and city and see that every man in favor of statehood casts his ballot at the polls. There is plenty of work to be done at the last minute and it is the desire to bring right home to every voter the importance of his own individual vote.

It will be a big meeting; there will be enthusiasm to burn; the final day's campaign of the non-partisan statehood forces will be outlined and every man who is interested in a big majority for progress and self-government will be on hand. Delegate Andrews fresh from Washington will have some things to tell the people that will raise the enthusiasm to the top notch.

Denial From Raton.

Raton, N. M., Jan. 20.—Great indignation was aroused by a copy of the Tribune-Citizen of Albuquerque which reached here this afternoon, charging that an attempt was made in Colfax county to suppress the printed ballots against the constitution. Probate Clerk E. G. Twitty has been too ill to be at his office, but on Thursday a committee called on Deputy Clerk A. L. Boyle asking for tickets against the constitution, or whether they would be permitted to get a facsimile stamp of the signature of Clerk Twitty to be printed on ballots against the constitution. Mr. Boyle immediately secured this permission and telephoned the printers to permit this committee to have the form and facsimile signature. He had no ballots to give out as he had acted on the instructions of Territorial Secretary Jaffa and had not only had printed an equal number of ballots for and against, 20,000 of each form, in both languages, but had also distributed them, sending them to each precinct in proportion to population, with the election supplies. In other words, there are 20,000 ballots against the constitution distributed among the 4,000 voters of Colfax county, allowing each voter at least five ballots. That the committee of anti-statehood men waited until Thursday after the ballots were distributed to make their demand seems to have been a delay for a purpose. The polling places had been furnished with an abundance of ballots of both kinds and the probate clerk simply obeyed the law and the instructions of Territorial Secretary Nathan Jaffa as he understood them.

Open letter to Tribune Citizen. To the Tribune Citizen, Albuquerque. Dear Sir—I see by your paper of January 20th, in the third column on the first page, you say that I and other prominent members of the Republican central committee hatched up the disfranchisement scheme, and that Sena simply attached his signature to the Republican central committee letter. You also say that I advised that it was not necessary to issue any tickets, except those in favor of the constitution, that the others could scratch and write against the constitution if they wanted to, that I did this in the non-partisan committee. I wish to say to you that your statements in regard to me are absolutely and entirely false and without any foundation whatever. I have never been at any meeting of the Republican central committee. The question about the ballots was discussed. In fact, I have not been at any meeting of that central committee since the convention adjourned. In our non-partisan committee I never gave any such advice or made any such statement as you speak of. I always understood that the secretary of the Territory would order the ballots printed for and against the constitution and see that they were distributed, and I never stated in any committee, or anywhere else, to any one, what you state with reference to my having said that the persons who want to vote against the constitution

THE FORUM

A Fervent Appeal.

To the Editors:

January 21, 1911, will be as much honored by future generations of New Mexicans, as July 4th, 1776, is honored by the Republic at large; because on that auspicious day a new Star will be added to the glorious American Constellation, and we who have waited so long for recognition as Citizens will at last stand up in the full panoply of free Americans, equal in every respect to all other of our fellow countrymen. Apart from the mere financial gains that will accrue to us by the adoption of the Constitution of our new State, there are other and higher motives which animate every good and true man among us—and there are the dignity, and sovereignty, which distinguishes Americans above all other people on earth. A moment's consideration will convince us how highly we ought to esteem those exalted privileges. When we realize the momentous fact, that every drop of heroic blood that has been shed by our patriotic soldiers from the first clash of arms at Lexington and Concord to the very memorable day when Lee surrendered his brave army at Appomattox Court House—when we consider that every widow's broken heart, and every helpless orphan's moan, and tears were shed and endured for the sole purpose of establishing and perpetuating the priceless Liberty we now enjoy, it surely is our duty to show by our votes tomorrow, that we highly appreciate the fruits of the sublime sacrifices, that brought them into existence. A man who has no pride in being an American Citizen, is not worthy of that proud title, and I earnestly hope that such a contemptible creature cannot be found in New Mexico. Let us take or grant that there are clauses in the instrument that will be voted on tomorrow, on which there is difference of opinion, I deny that that is a good reason for voting against it; every constitution in the result of compromises, and some times many of them. The great National Constitution, which is acknowledged by all men as the greatest political document that ever issued from the brain of man, was the result of many months of debate, and compromises that would have been thought impossible when the convention first assembled; but those mighty men (God forever bless their memories) sacrificed their own sentiments and feelings like self-sacrificing patriots, and trusted to future generations to rectify anything they pleased; and to enable them to do so, provisions were incorporated in the instrument. In pursuance of these provisions fifteen amendments have been added to the original constitution. Following the wise example of the Fathers of the Federal Constitution our Convention has incorporated wise provisions for the amendment of the Constitution of the New State, and as they follow as near as possible the provisions of the National Constitution, (which has stood the test of a hundred and twenty-four years) they could not be improved on. Let, then, every man who can walk or be carried to the polls, be there and cast what will be the proudest vote of his life, and when the sun sets on January 21st, our bright Star will be gleaming in the firmament of the Republic, never to set for all the years of the future.

Why Not Let it to the People?

Santa Fe, N. M., Jan. 18, 1911.

In an editorial in the New Mexican of the 18th, the prohibitionists are accused of using wrong tactics in their fight against saloon domination, and of losing many friends by their blindness to patriotism, good citizenship and every other consideration, including the welfare of the cause they are urging, even STOOPIING so far as telegraph President Taft and Members of Congress, trying to blacken the reputation of New Mexico and its people.

The tactics of the prohibitionists may look wrong to those not in sympathy with them, but they are the tactics followed by their organization for many years (and they have been in a measure successful), and that is to fight the saloon at every point in the road. If politics or politicians affiliate with the saloon it is not our fault. It is the great evil from which the saloon derives its power that it is always found entrenched in politics and you cannot fight it without coming in contact with the political powers. You find it figuring in every convention, in every election, in every movement where its domination is likely to be affected.

We see no lack of patriotism in desiring a constitution that protects the children and homes of the people of New Mexico instead of the legalized liquor traffic; we see no lack of good citizenship in desiring enforcement of our laws, or desiring honest election laws that will enable the people to express themselves at the polls, as the ballot is the only means the poor man has to secure any law against the saloon traffic.

We bitterly fight the saloon and the interests that enabled them to defeat STATE PROTECTION for the children of New Mexico. Prohibitionists do claim to be the friends of the people: friends of the children and of the poor and down-trodden.

We consider it sentimental weakness that extols the efforts and the

SCROFULA HEREDITARY BLOOD POISON

Scrofula is a disease manifested usually by a swelling and ulceration of the glands, especially about the neck. It is almost entirely hereditary in its origin, being the drops of remains of some specific blood poison. Where the blood is greatly weakened by the scrofulous poison, the disease attacks other portions of the system besides the glands, and then we see its effects in weak eyes, poorly developed bodies, running sores and skin diseases, especially on the scalp, catarrhal troubles, etc. Scrofula usually makes its appearance in childhood, though manhood or womanhood may be reached before the poison progresses to the stage of outward manifestation. S. S. S. is the general cure for Scrofula. It is a blood purifier without an equal, and it cures this destructive blood poison by removing every trace of the infection from the circulation. S. S. S., in addition to cleansing and purifying the blood, assists the stomach and digestive members in the creation of new blood corpuscles and other nourishing matter for the circulation.

S. S. S. increases the restorative powers of the system and by strengthening and building up the vitality, allows nature to make a perfect and lasting cure. Book describing the disease and any medical advice sent free to all who write.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

philanthropy that only takes care of the product of the saloon, but has not the courage to strike at the root of the evil and seek to exterminate the cause. It may be patriotic to treat with the enemy; to meekly submit to their arrogant domination, around us every day; with our eyes open to the flagrant violations of the law practised in every city and town where the saloon exists, in New Mexico no more than in any other state, for it is so wherever it exists—we would consider ourselves recreants and cowards to lay down our arms and fail to protest to the last ditch.

We consider the president of the United States a ruler over us just as much as any other class of citizens, and that our right to telegraph or write him should be undisputed.

The papers have stated time and again that Congress has full power to amend either the constitution of New Mexico or Arizona any time before its ratification, and we think we are fully within our rights to ask them to amend the proposed constitution of New Mexico so as to provide STATE PROTECTION for the people against the ravages of the licensed liquor traffic.

It is well known by those who attended the constitutional convention that the saloon traffic was fully represented; that it did dominate all matters pertaining to prohibition measures and that saloon men WERE placed on every committee to which such bills were referred. We claim there was not the slightest chance for the people to be heard and their petitions were disregarded; that common fairness and regard for the wishes and rights of the people would have led them to at least submit this measure to a vote of the people and it is a matter that vitally affects all people, and the only reason that can be ascribed for their not doing so was a fear that it would carry.

We deny in toto that we have ever struck at the people of New Mexico, and we also affirm that we have never failed, intentionally, to strike a blow at the greatest enemy of New Mexico, and not only of New Mexico, but of the world.

It is useless to say that fighting the liquor traffic is fighting statehood. If it were then we would be fighting it, but we do not believe that statehood and liquor traffic are synonymous, neither do we believe statehood is impossible without the aid of the saloon.

We believe that every man and woman who is a real friend of the people of New Mexico and a friend of temperance would be rejoiced if Congress would amend our constitution so as to include prohibition.

Part of the state is and will be under prohibition, and if the United States is within its rights in protecting the Indian from the degradation and debauchment of the saloon, we do not see why it should not be equally within its rights in extending the same protection to all its wards. Surely the children of the Caucasian race should be of equal worth with the children of the Indian race, and should be allowed to claim equal protection whether they get it or not.

We do not deny the right of Judge Fope, or Hon. C. R. Brice, or Mr. Skeen to hold their own opinions and to follow them, but we certainly claim the same right, as well as the right to appeal to any power for aid, that is legitimate, honest and able. If any one can show where we have exceeded our right, or where we are not trying to do what we believe is for the best welfare of New Mexico and her people—whom we have never traduced in any word or manner—we would like to have them do so.

Against the enemies of New Mexico we think we should speak and protest. We want statehood, and we think we have a right to believe that it can be as easily obtained without saloon assistance as with it, as that foot has been accomplished by other states.

REPORT OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, all members present.

In the matter of Dorothy Anderson, in Precinct No. 3, for the 1909 assessment, it appeared that the same being a double assessment, having been assessed against Hans Anderson, the Collector and Treasurer, is hereby directed to correct his tax rolls for the year 1909, as to show only one assessment against said property, and to strike out the assessment against Dorothy Anderson, and it appearing that the property having been assessed too high, and having been called to the attention of the Board, the District Attorney is hereby requested to have said assessment adjusted, by the Court, granting the said Hans Anderson the exemption of $200.00 and the total assessment to be $50.00.

In the matter of the applications of Wild Animal bounties, the Board being in doubt as to the claims that should be paid first, the Board directed the clerk to arrange all claims in conformity with Chap. 104, Laws 1909, approved March 18th, 1909. The Board then took a recess until Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock a. m.

The Board met at 9 o'clock a. m., January 4th, 1911. Present Hon. I. Sparks, Chairman, Alfredo Lucero, Commissioner, George W. Armijo, Clerk.

The quarterly accounts for the quarter ending December 31, 1910, were examined and approved, and the Clerk instructed to issue warrants for the same.

CONVALESCENTS

After a long wasting illness, convalescents require nourishing food that will not overtax the digestive functions—and in the way of a strength-restoring and vitality-making tonic, we know of nothing that equals Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic (without oil.)

Vinol creates an appetite, re-establishes good digestion and helps the daily food to make rich blood, form flesh, strong muscles and impart new life and vitality to every organ in the body. We ask those who need a strength and flesh building tonic restorative to call at our store and get a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that if it does not help them we will refund their money without question. And Whereas, the Board of County Commissioners have this fourth day of January 1911, appointed Doctor David Knapp as County Health Officer, of the County of Santa Fe, under the terms and requirements of said law.

Now therefore, this contract made and entered into between the Board of County Commissioners for the County of Santa Fe, Party of the First part, and Doctor David Knapp, of City and County commissioners for the County of Santa Fe, party of the Second part.

Witnesseth, that for and in consideration of the conditions and requirements herein after specified the Board of County Commissioners, does hereby name and appoint the said Doctor David Knapp to be the Health Officer for the County of Santa Fe.

It is here agreed between the parties hereto that the said Dr. David Knapp, shall receive and be paid the sum of fifty dollars as an annual salary in the nature of a retainer, and shall be paid a reasonable sum for special services rendered at the instance and request of the said Board and as agreed under the duties of his office, and Law governing the same.

The second party agrees not to charge for services except as first authorized and ordered by the said Board.

In witness whereof the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals this 4th day of January A. D., 1911.

DISABLED.

In a certain camp a battalion was being instructed on "How to take a convey through open country." One company was told off to represent a convey, the men being instructed that they were to represent horses, cows and wagons.

After being halted a short time the advance signal was given and the convey moved on, but the major noticed that one man continued to lie down, and, galloping up to him in a rage, said: "Man, why don't you advance?"

The soldier replied: "I can't, sir."

Major—You can't? What do you mean?

"I'm a wagon," said the soldier, "and I've got a wheel off."—Tit-Bits.

A GOOD SUBSTITUTE.

The Bugs—My! this is fine. It reminds me of Niagara.

Quite True.

"What do you think that madcap Gladys said when I persuaded her to read Dante's 'Inferno' to improve her taste?"

"What was it?"

"That it was such a pity there were no postcards in those days, for pictures of Dante's journey would have been such hot stuff."

Making Her Suspicious.

"What makes you so dissatisfied with your bouquet?"

"I'm afraid it doesn't look well on me."

"What in the world makes you think that?"

"Every woman I know says it looks just lovely on me."

THE FIRST BALLAST.

Captain Noah—Here, trim the boat; she's leaning to the starboard!

Mate Ham—Come, boys, shove the elephants to the port side.

DREADFULLY GOOD SWEARER.

Mr. Saintley—That parrot I bought of you last week swears dreadfully.

The Bird Man—You surprise me. I thought he was quite an expert.

Convincing Testimony.

Evidence given at the inquest on a traveler found dead on the bank of the Maranoa river (Queensland):

Witness—I passed the camp in the morning to work. I noticed the bottle of whiskey was full. I thought the man was asleep. When I returned in the evening and the bottle of whiskey was still full I knew the man was dead.—Sydney Bulletin.

Thrill.

"Let's go down and see the Hinky Dink burlesquers. Living pictures to-night!"

"What's the price of admission?"

"Oh, fifty cents will get you a good seat."

"Pshaw! I can buy a magazine for a dime that contains at least a dozen union suit advertisements."

The Onlooker.

"That man doesn't play billiards, I presume?"

"Not at all."

"I was sure he didn't. He seems to know so much about how every shot ought to be made."

Saw One.

"Did you see Naples when you were in Europe, Mrs. Gottalotte?"

"Let me see! We saw one Naples, I think. Are they more of them?"

A GREAT DEAL

Estelle—Does Miss Scads spend much in charity work?
Edith—Oh! yes. It was only the other day that she paid $100 for a slumming gown.

VICTIM ALL RIGHT

Knicker—You look tired. What's the matter?

Bocker—I've been a victim to neu-ralgia for four days.

Knicker—Did you have it so severely?

Bocker—I didn't have it. My wife had it.

TOO BAD

Mr. Knocker—I had little faith in the curative properties of your medicine.

The Agent—But it cured you?

Mr. Knocker—Yes, of even the little faith I had in it.

NOBLE WOMAN

Mrs. Brown—Only think, John! Mrs. Jones has left her drunken husband and gone home to her mother!

Mr. Brown (sighing)—Ah! A woman will do anything for a man who drinks.

Hasty Exit.
Oh, friend, when you "butt in," And then you feel in doubt, The wisest plan is just turn 'round calmly butt right out.

No Takers.

"Clarence, you don't realize what it is to have all your career before you. I'd give forty years of my life to have your chances."

"Of course you would, Uncle Benjamin. You'd be glad to give forty of your years to anybody that would take them."

leged to be engaged in a fight on the Tribune-Citizen Dies Hard.

Driven to the wall, says the Albuquerque Morning Journal, the local evening paper, a cornered rat is seeking the last refuge of the defeated
and howling "steal" in a final frantic endeavor to make capital against statehood and progress.

Wholesale lies are now being circulated to the effect that an exploded
"daring plot" is in evidence to prevent people voting against the constitution.

It is alleged that ballots against
the constitution are not available in Santa Fe county. As a matter of fact ballots for and against, printed in regular form and bearing the signature of Probate Clerk George W.
Armijo were distributed in Santa Fe county a week ago. Samples of these ballots secured by a traveling man in Santa Fe a week ago are on exhibition in the Morning Journal office;
if anyone doubts that they have been distributed this office can publish an affidavit to that effect at any time.

Yesterday in Corralles and Madrid,
Santa Fe county, Ramon Sandoval,
a Democrat, opposed to the constitution, has distributed the anti-constitution ballots.

The statement that the ballots have not been printed and distributed in Socorro county is likewise a bald lie.
Thousands of ballots against the constitution have been distributed in that county, an equal number of each kind
being printed.

The statement that ballots against
the constitution have not been printed or distributed in Valencia county
is a bald lie; an equal number of each kind were printed and are being distributed as fast as possible.

If in any section ballots against
the constitution have not been widely distributed, it is because neither voters
nor any party organization would receive them, having no use for ballots
against the constitution.

They have been printed according to law and distributed in San Miguel
county; a statement to the contrary
is a lie. So far no trustworthy advice
have come from any county to the effect that anti-constitution ballots
were unavailable. These statements
from whatever source are the last report of the defeated scoundrels, anarchists and anti-statehood men who will adopt any measures to vent their spite and chagrin at the prospects of an overwhelming majority for a new star in the flag.

The cry of "steal" is the final desperate howl of the man who sees defeat staring him in the face. It finds utterance only in an alleged newspaper which has become a stench in
the nostrils of all decent people in New Mexico and whose campaign of asinnity and falsehood has alienated
the support of the few Democrats
whose party this organ was at once thought to represent.

The howl of "steal" is a lie pure
and simple.

Lincoln and Otero Are All Right.

Probate Clerk George W. Armijo returned last evening from a campaign
in Lincoln and Otero counties for statehood. He considers it the most remarkable and successful campaign
in which he has been ever engaged.
He made addresses in seven precincts
and everywhere he found that there
was misunderstanding of the provisions of the constitution caused by misrepresentations diligently circulated by those opposed to statehood.
These misunderstandings were cleared
away and these precincts are almost solid for the constitution. Ex-
Governor George Curry was with Mr.
Armijo on this trip. At Alamogordo, Otero county, one of the finest and
biggest meetings of the campaign
was held. An invitation had been extended to George E. Moffett and other opponents of the constitution to be present for a joint debate but they failed to materialize. Mr. Ar-mijo declares that the addresses made
at that meeting by Governor Mills, Judge A. B. Fall and W. A. Hawkins
were the most logical and most convincing he had ever heard. At Tularosa a similar meeting was held at which Mr. Armijo spoke in Spanish.
At Carrizozo, there was unbounded
enthusiasm and Governor Mills was given an ovation. Judge G. A. Richardson of Roswell and Judge A. B.
Fall were the leading speakers at that meeting. On the Lincoln trip, splendid service for the cause of statehood was rendered by Manuel Aragon, William Brady, George W.
Barber and Octaviano Perea as well
as others.

Anonymous Warfare.

Enemies of the constitution and
statehood have taken an underhand
means of carrying on their campaign against the adoption of the proposed fundamental law for the new state. "Railroad Men and the Constitution," is the title of a little pamphlet they are distributing.

A perusal of the circular would lead one to believe the railroad men
are against the constitution. There is no signature on the pamphlet, however, nobody seeming to be willing to stand sponsor for it. The pamphlet states that the railroad men's committee had not announced itself as satisfied with the constitution, but
states that a great majority of the railroad men are not so well pleased with it. A list of laws, pure legislation, is cited to show the constitution
is defective, because it contains none
of these measures.

The pamphlet is plainly a democratic scheme to fight the constitution. Railroad men about town are denouncing it as a misrepresentation
of their position regarding the constitution. They assert it is not the policy of railroad men to issue statements without the endorsement of the majority of their fellows. They are free to say it is a scheme unworthy of decent men in any walk
of life.—Las Vegas Optic.

Meetings at Melrose.

Two statehood meetings were held at Melrose, Curry county. One was addressed by J. T. Mabry and the other by Judge C. M. Compton.

"I have never been able to figure out how Samson made anything by pulling down the house on the Philistines and himself." Judge William H.
Pope, chief justice of the supreme court of New Mexico
and temperance leader.

Jurist Repeats Strong Admonition to Voters.

Some time ago the New Mexican published a long communication from Chief Justice William H. Pope of the New Mexico supreme court, urging prohibitionists and temperance advocates to vote for the constitution and statehood and strongly endorsing the organ act which will be submitted
to the people for ratification tomorrow.

Unscrupulous opponents of state-
hood have endeavored to circulate
the story that it was unauthorized.

For the purpose of personally convincing a few of the temperance people who doubted the authenticity of the article, H. S. Lithgow of Albuquerque, a well known church and
temperance worker wrote to Judge
Pope for confirmation.

His letter follows. It is most important in view of the fact that no
one man has done more for the cause
of temperance and prohibition in New Mexico than Judge Pope.

His opinion carries great weight
with the wiser and more far seeing advocates of prohibition who want
the substance and not the shadow.
Not only this, but through his long experience as lawyer and jurist Judge
Pope knows constitutions and knows
this constitution. He has endorsed it unreservedly and urges every pro-
hibitionist to vote for it, recognizing that statehood at this time the strongest
aid to the success of the temperance
cause. Read his letter:

Roswell, N. M., Jan. 17.
Mr. H. S. Lithgow, Albuquerque.
Dear Mr. Lithgow—I hasten to reply to your letter of yesterday. The interview in the New Mexican of January 4, was, of course, authorized by me. Indeed, I was so anxious that I should not be misquoted by a reporter, that I wrote out every word
of the article and it was printed precisely as written. I appreciate your referring to myself personally.

I believe that in our support of the constitution we are proceeding on lines calculated ultimately to help the temperance cause. I have never been able to figure out how Samson made
anything by pulling down the house
on the Philistines—and himself. Opposition to statehood at this time by friends of prohibition impresses me
as equally profitless.

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

W. H. POPE.

Campaign in San Miguel.

Seven votes for one against is
the ratio in which the citizens of Em-
plazado will vote Saturday at the election at which the proposed constitution of the new state is to be adopted
or rejected. After addressing the people at some length in regard to the constitution last night, A. T. Rogers, Jr. and F. O. Blood asked that a straw ballot be taken. When the result had been determined it was found that the voters favored the adoption of the constitution in the ratio of seven to one. A good sized crowd
heard Messrs. Rogers and Blood.
Mr. Rogers made the principal address. From the standpoint of a lawyer he discussed the various provisions and articles of the constitution, showing the document to be a meritorious one. Mr. Blood spoke briefly on the advantages of state-
hood and what it would do for the advancement of New Mexico. Other meetings were held last night in nine
or ten precincts of the county by the constitutional campaigners. Good reports will continue to come in from the speakers. Everywhere they are receiving the most courteous attention and are finding the people friendly to the constitution. It was intended last night by Judge Clarence J.
Roberts, S. B. Davis, Jr., and D. H.
Leahy to drive to Cherryvale, thirty-
five miles northeast of Las Vegas,
and hold a constitutional boosting meeting. However, the weather was threatening and the trip was abandoned. The party will go to Cherryvale this evening. Judge Roberts,
S. B. Davis, Jr., A. T. Rogers, Jr., and
F. O. Blood are planning a trip to Las Vegas to speak favoring the constitution.—Las Vegas Optic.

Meeting at Espanola.

The Statehood meeting held at Espanola on Wednesday evening was
the largest ever seen in that section,
fully 300 persons crowding into the school house. All shades of political opinion were represented, and the audience was enthusiastic as well as attentive. The meeting was called to order by Hon. J. Amado Lucero, who announced that the opening
speech would be by Hon. L. B. Prince
in English, followed by Hon. O. A.
Larrazolo in Spanish, and that neither
would be interpreted. This plan
worked admirably, not only in saving
time but in the effectiveness of the addresses; and could be adopted with advantage in other places.

Governor Prince congratulated the people, that at last the day of political freedom was at hand; that the right of self-government, which was
the fundamental right of every American citizen, was at last to be enjoyed by New Mexico. It was for self-government that the Americans
fought for eight years under Washington and his generals and the Mexicans for eleven years under Hidalgo, Morelos, and other patriots.
While it had been necessary to argue
and labor with Congress for half a century, it could not be possible that argument was needed with the New Mexican people themselves. He likened the Territory to the heir of a great estate which had been unjustly
withheld from him by his guardian
for many years, and said, while it was necessary to argue with the guardian
to induce him to do justice, yet it

surely did not require argument with
the heir to have him accept his portion. He drew a vivid picture of the contrast between the self-governing Americans in Colorado, and the same man when he crossed an imaginary line into New Mexico and suddenly found himself deprived of the dearest right of the citizen.

Mr. Larrazolo commenced by re-fering to an anonymous circular

that was being distributed through Rio Arriba county, and exposing its misrepresentations. He took up one by one the objections which were being urged against the constitution
and conclusively showed that they were without foundation. He elo-quently denounced the argument
that statehood would entail additional taxation, and which would measure the value of liberty by the dollar
which it cost. To gain that liberty
our forefathers had expended, not only dollars, but their blood and their lives. He warned the native people of New Mexico of the dangers of delay; the present constitution secured
their rights and those of their children forever; but in a few years an adverse immigration might prove as unjust as the people of Arizona, if statehood was now withheld.

The meeting was a success in every
way. From Espanola the campaign
party proceeded to Chama, Alcalde,
La Joya, Velarde and other points.

MINE WORKERS MAY WITHDRAW FROM FEDERATION.

Split is Threatened in Forces of Over Charter.

Columbus, Jan. 20.—The annual convention of the United Mine Workers of America today adopted a resolution protesting against the action of

the American Federation of Labor in refusing to grant a charter of affiliation to the Western Federation of Miners with all the rights and privileges now enjoyed by the United Mine Workers and threatening to withdraw from the American Federation and to form a close alliance with the Western Miners.

May Withdraw.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 20.—One of the big fights of the convention of the United Mine Workers is scheduled for today. The delegates are determined that the American Federation of Labor grant a charter to the Western Federation of Miners. The American Federation is said to favor
granting a charter, but wishes to restrict the power of the Western Federation so as not to have jurisdiction
over the engineers and others who work in mines. The United Mine Workers have adopted a resolution to
withdraw from the American Federation of Labor if the latter does not admit the Western Federation of Miners without restriction.

Federation Wins.

Washington, Jan. 20.—Executive council of the American Federation of Labor today decided to grant a charter to the Western Federation of Miners on the same basis as that granted United Mine Workers of America.

People are judged by the company they keep, they are also judged by the furniture in their home. If you have good furniture, you need not be ashamed of the opinion others may have of you. It is a mark of culture to have a nicely furnished home.

Our Installment plan, will help you to furnish up in becoming style.
