Territorial Topics

SAN MARCIAL.

From the Bee.
The lady girl of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hadley is quite ill.
Mrs. L. U. Morris is visiting friends at Rossville.

Mrs. Nellie Parrish and children are now residents of East Las Vegas.

Harry Addington, of Peoria, Ill., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Barton are occupying the residence of Mrs. Parrish at the foothills.

Mrs. T. F. Clay, of Las Vegas, arrived here last week to spend a month with her twin sister, Mrs. Caleb Anderson. The lady is not strong and a lower altitude is necessary at times.

One day last week a drummer struck town and H. Bonem, of the firm of H. Bonem & Co., volunteered to look at his samples. Fred Richards, the transfer man, offered to move the heavy sample cases over town at the regular charge of 25 cents per trunk. The drummer preferred to have the Harvey house porter lug them over at a cut rate. When Mr. Bonem learned this he refused to have anything to do with the drummer or his samples, and the cheap guy paid the drayage both ways and cussed the union spirit of our popular merchant.

HILLSBORO.

From the Advocate.
Lee Nations and Miss Ada Pague were married at Hermosa one day this week.

Guy Given and Henry Ogenorth left for Mesilla Park, where they will take another term at the Agricultural college.

Senator Warner Miller, the well known capitalist and mining man of Herkimer, N. Y., accompanied by his son, Max, arrived here. Mr. Miller is here on business connected with mining in this district.

Major J. E. Robertson, principal of our last term of public school, is teaching at Lynchburg, Va., and his daughter, Miss Annabel, is teaching at Norman, Okla. Major Robertson and his daughter are well known here, both having taught most successful terms of school in this district.

Dr. A. G. Brewer, of Utica, N. Y., arrived here last Friday. Dr. Brewer is the heaviest stockholder in the Hillsboro Gold Mining & Milling company, operating in Ready Pay gulch in this district. Dr. Brewer is president of the largest steamship lines on the northern lakes, and is interested in various parts of the United States and foreign countries. The doctor left for Tucson, Ariz., to be absent for a week in the interest of mining affairs in that locality.

SOCORRO.

From the Citizen.

Misses Merle and Mary Blinn have gone to Las Cruces to attend school.

Mrs. Kate M. Sleight took up her residence in the Wickham property Thursday.

Hon. H. O. Bursum made a brief stop in Socorro on his way from his sheep ranges to Santa Fe.

Mrs. A. F. Katzenstein returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Charles Tabac, of Clinton, Ariz.

It is reported that the Hardscrabble mine at Magdalena has received an order for twenty-five car loads of ore from the Cerrillos smelter.

W. M. Swisher has resigned his position as second lieutenant of company H. Sergeant O. R. Smith has been recommended for appointment to the vacancy.

J. S. Macfarlane, manager for the Becker-Blackwell company at Magdalena, has gone east on a business trip. He will visit St. Louis, Chicago, and probably New York before his return.

Monday's enrollment in the history of the School of Mines. With the usual percentage of increase the total attendance this year will reach 85 or 90.

Word comes to Socorro that Fred Davenport, who with his estimable wife spent some time in the city, is at Cerrillos in very poor health. This is sad news to Mr. and Mrs. Davenport's many friends in Socorro.

Mrs. C. T. Brown left for the City of Mexico. Mrs. Brown will visit other cities and points of interest in the southern republic before her return. She is accompanied by her niece, Miss Elsie Zimmer.

W. R. Morley came in Thursday from the Morley ranch and left for New York city, where he will coach the Columbia foot ball team. Mr. Morley will receive $5,000 for three months of service. He expects to return home in December.

C. B. Allaire, president of the board of directors of school district No. 7, San Antonio, was in town accompanied by Miss Daisy Westworth, who has accepted a position as teacher in the schools of San Antonio. Miss Westworth possesses excellent qualifications as a teacher and will doubtless give the patrons of the San Antonio schools good satisfaction.

DEMING.

From the Headlight.

Considerable wiring is being done in a number of the residences of the town and the darkness will hereafter be punctured by Deming electricity.

Several of the most prominent and popular young matrons of the city are contemplating chaperoning a large horseback party of young folks during the coming week.

The work on the Nordhaus & Son building will be completed by the last of this month if all goes as well as at present, and Frank says that it will be none too soon to suit him either.

Mr. and Mrs. Corbett spent Monday and Tuesday in Silver City, where Mr. Corbett has been called to attend a meeting of the board of regents of the college. Little Miss Guiney accompanied them.

Owing to the inability of the contractors to secure the iron front for the Clark & Co. block now in course of erection in this city, the work of construction is being badly delayed, much to the annoyance and inconvenience of all parties concerned.

W. M. Cornell, of Chicago, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Julia Cornell, arrived here on Tuesday and have rooms at Mrs. Shakespeare's on Pine street. Mr. Cornell seeks to better his condition of health, and may possibly engage in business here.

The band proposition is occasioning some interest among the "has been" and "willing to be again" musicians of town. Get together, boys, and form a musical organization. Little "Joey" Kelley says he is a star performer with the cymbals, and Morris Nordhaus has enough superfluous hot air to fill 'teenyteen bass horns.

SANTA FE.

From the New Mexican.
The grand lodge of Knights of Pythias will meet in annual session on Wednesday of this week. A large attendance is expected.

The monthly report of Marcelino Garcia, sheriff of Santa Fe county, was made to Probate Clerk Manuel Delgado Saturday in respect to the total sum of liquor and game licenses. The August collections amounted to $1,550.

Judge McPhee, commander of Carleton post, G. A. R., has received from Delegate B. S. Rodey a series of maps of the Chickamauga and Chattanooga battlefields which are valuable additions to the library of the post.

Ramon Archuleta died at Abiquia a few days ago. About forty years ago while herding sheep, he had his feet frozen, which made it necessary to amputate them, and ever since he has had to go about on his knees.

Mrs. Peterita Salas y Tudesque, wife of Jose G. Tudesque, of Lamy, died after suffering for nine years with paralysis. She is survived by her husband, two daughters and two sons, three of whom are married.

Rev. Antonio Fourchegu united in marriage at the cathedral, Miss Agapita Dominguez to Petronilo Griego. Donaciana Ortega and Dolores Gallegos were witnesses. The contracting parties were from Rio Tesuque.

Ambrosio Armijo, of Albuquerque, is visiting his nephew, George W. Armijo, and will remain in Santa Fe several weeks, he being a property owner in this city. It is probable that he will take a position with the Santa Fe Central railway company.

Mrs. Frank Andrews expects to leave for Torrance to join her husband, who is in charge of the mercantile establishment of the Pennsylvania Development company, at that town, next week. She shipped the furniture for their new cottage there overland today.

ROSWELL.

From the Record.

There is much complaint among the railroad men that children are allowed to hang around the depot and yards of the company. Parents should see to it that the habit of their children is stopped or some accident may come to them which will be largely their own fault, but for which the railroad employees will be blamed.

Hon. Jerry Simpson left for Wichita, Kansas, where he will join the Roswell exhibit car and accompany it through the state of Kansas. With the extensive acquaintance of Mr. Simpson throughout his old state, it is believed that his trip with that car will greatly assist in the advertisement of the valley.

Charles Sheppard, of Joyce Pruitt, had a narrow escape last week. He was driving at night and attempted to drive through the numerous piles of stone that now, and so long have almost blockaded South Main street, when his buggy wheel struck a big one, overturning the vehicle. Fortunately he was alone and, except damaging the buggy no harm was done.

The vast lumber interests of the firm of Lewis & Wells were sold this week to the Pecos Valley Lumber company, a new firm composed of Roswell capitalists. The new firm will have H. P. Smith as manager and Robert Kellahin as secretary and a president will be elected later, presumably Al Garrett, the sheep man. The members of the new corporation are H. P. Smith, James Sutherland, Al Garrett and Robert Kellahin.

SAN JUAN COUNTY.

From the Register.

Reid Adcock, brother of Mrs. Fred Stevens, has received an appointment to the University of Arkansas, at Fayetteville.

On Wednesday afternoon the marriage of Miss Elizabeth V. Thorne and Rev. J. McL. Gardiner was solemnized in the Presbyterian church.

The Porter-Ewell Mercantile company is having the work on its new building for its grocery department pushed as fast as possible, and expects to occupy it in a short time.

J. A. Browning brought his family to town from the ranch fifty miles east of town on Monday. They will live in town during the winter so as to send their children to school.

The Register is sorry to state that Miss Leila Coolidge has been ill since her arrival at Winnebago, Ill., to which place she accompanied the remains of her brother, E. M. Coolidge, some weeks since.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Smith left for their home at Fort Worth, Texas, after a visit of several months with G. W. Medley, Mr. Smith's half brother. They expect to return here to live in a few months.

Spivey Neatherlin, rural delivery mail carrier, has handled 25,100 pieces of mail matter on his route from March 1 to August 31, this year. He has cancelled $90.27 in stamps and traveled 4,212 miles on duty.

George V. Dailier, brother in law of A. J. Witteman, who is taking care of the ranch of the latter near the new station of Dexter, close to Lake Van, was in town Monday. He came from California recently and thinks the Pecos valley is good enough for anybody.

Blaine and Edgar Richey, sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Richey, have put up 100 tons of salt grass hay and are still at it. They also have 65 acres of Indian and Kaffir corn, Milo maize and sorghum to put up for the winter. The land in the neighborhood of Miller near which place their farm is located, is very productive and crops in that vicinity are fine this year.

CERRILLOS.

From the Register.

W. H. Coleman and wife were Santa Fe visitors.

Miss May Harney, who has been spending her vacation at home, returned to her school work at the New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts, Sunday evening. Her father, C. E. Harney, accompanied her as far as Albuquerque, returning Monday morning.

Lloyd T. Buell left for Boston, where he will enter the Massachusetts school of technology as a student of mining engineering.

Prof. B. F. Giltner had the misfortune to lose two fine mares Tuesday. They were running out on the range east of town and wandered onto the railroad track and were killed by a train.

SAN JUAN COUNTY.

From the Hustler.

W. M. Johnson, San Juan's King stockman, is home from the mountains where he has been looking after his fancy cattle.

Darby A. Day, of Albuquerque, general manager for New Mexico of the Mutual Life Insurance company, is here looking after company business.

The Pennsylvania company, which for a year and a half past have been engaged prospecting for mineral on the Navajo reservation in the Carlsbad mountains, have abandoned the work and discharged the men.

Unless the dates for holding district court in San Juan county be postponed a week, many of our prominent citizens who anticipate attending the Albuquerque fair, will be obliged to remain at home.

Thomas C. Graden and W. T. Kirkpatrick, of Durango, and General Hollister, of Denver, were visitors to this section this week. They inspected the orchards of George E. Allen and W. N. Knight, and pronounce them the best kept and most thrifty they have ever seen.

H. L. Andrews sold his undivided one-half interest in the 160-acre ranch some months ago purchased from L. W. Coe, to his business partner, J. A. Brothers, and Mr. Brothers in turn has now sold forty acres of the tract to George K. Griffin, consideration $2,000, the latter sale being made through D. J. Kennedy, of this place.

Dr. J. W. Coolidge and son, Carl, of Scranton, Pa., one of the largest owners of the Animas, La Plata and San Juan canal, accompanied by his brother, S. F. Coolidge, of Cripple Creek, were sojourning for a few days in this vicinity, looking after their property interests and eating melons and fruit. They departed for Durango Tuesday.

Dr. Coolidge has much faith in this section, his company having already invested over $100,000 in their canal project.

From the Times.

Dr. W. F. Lee and wife, of Beatrice, Neb., are here and have decided to locate and the latter will open up a dancing school.

David Callan died at his home in this city. He was a miner in the Silverton district for many years and made a small fortune there.

Juan B. Valdez, probate judge, was married to Solidad Aragon at the home of the bride's father on Tuesday. The event was celebrated by the usual festivities of dinner, dancing and music. Father Granmer performed the ceremony.

Ed Schurand was in from West Water Tuesday, brought in by the pending suit between himself and Dr. Coolidge et al., which was to be taken up by Referee Berry that day. Through the offices of R. C. Prewitt the parties were gotten together and a compromise effected and the case settled. The terms of the compromise have not been given out, but they are satisfactory to all concerned.

Aztec.

Charles Elliot and family arrived here Wednesday from Cheyenne, Wyo. They will look over the county with a view of locating and will probably make this their future home.

P. S. Lacey, who arrived here some time ago from Versailles, Mo., departed Wednesday for the latter place. He received word that one of his little children was very ill and was compelled to return.

Married, at the Presbyterian church by Rev. J. R. Cooper, Thursday evening, Miss Olie, the youngest daughter of W. A. Collins, of Largo, and Edward Smith, of Hastings, Colo. They departed this morning for Hastings, where they will make their future home.

Sheriff John W. Brown and Boone Vaughn passed through Aztec Saturday with Edgar Corkins, who was arrested in Durango on a complaint filed by W. B. Bonds, of Farmington, alleging that Corkins had secured his name to a note of $200 by fraud.

W. T. Kirkpatrick and T. C. Graden, accompanied by General U. S. Hollister, came down Sunday and put in several days this week, looking over the county. This was General Hollister's first visit to San Juan county. The gentlemen were all pleased with the progress the county is making and expressed themselves as believing the prospects for a railroad through the county in a short time was good. General Hollister is president of the Continental Oil company, and he and Mr. Kirkpatrick have but recently returned from a four months' trip to Japan.

CARLSBAD.

From the Argus.

The Carlsbad schools opened Monday with an attendance of 214 at the main school building.

Thieves entered the barn of George H. Webster, Jr., at the Vineyard stock farm and made off with a fine saddle and bridle.

W. C. Reiff has finished the scholastic census of this district and reports the presence of 401 white children of school age, 124 Mexicans and 14 colored. This is 79 more than it was a year ago.

A local capitalist is figuring on the erection of a large, first class rooming house, to accommodate a certain class of invalid visitors who do not like hotel life. It would be a good investment and is a needed improvement.

Farmers and horticulturists are requested to remember to bring in to D. B. Sutherland all sorts of products for the Roswell and Albuquerque fair exhibit. Any good specimen of fruit or vegetables will be appreciated, and accomplish the end aimed at.

District court opens at Carlsbad on October 6th, next, Judge D. H. McMillan presiding. A letter from District Clerk Griffith announces that he will look after the records in person, this term. The docket is quite light, with no cases of great importance. The season, therefore, should be short and not very costly.

A paper was circulated among the merchants and business men, this week, to raise money enough to defray the expenses of a grand free excursion of Carlsbad school children to the Roswell fair. The necessary amount was raised, and Friday, the 26th, will probably be the date chosen. Grown people can avail themselves of the trip for $1 the round trip.

Mrs. W. H. Hutchison, for four years the matron of the Eddy county hospital, tendered her resignation to the board of directors, last Saturday, which was accepted with regret. Mrs. Hutchison gives up the work because it is too onerous for her, since both her unmarried daughters, who hitherto assisted her, have secured employment elsewhere, and the board cannot afford to hire extra help.

A letter from Captain H. E. Berner, of the Roswell Military Institute, states that the school opened with 82 pupils, new arrivals coming in daily. The full quota of 100 students have made applications for admission, and will soon arrive. Captain Berner also states that the institute base ball team is stronger than ever and is practicing hard for the games with Carlsbad and Amarillo during the fair.

What might have been a fatal accident occurred to E. M. Delk, the truck gardener of Pocky Arroyo. His team became unmanageable and ran away with him, and it was only through the pluck of some pedestrians, who stopped the runaway, that serious consequences did not follow. Mr. Delk does not know the names of the parties who stopped the team, but desires to thank them most earnestly through the Argus.

GALLUP.

From the Republican.

Mrs. N. J. Reid has been quite ill this week. She is under the care of Dr. Harper.

John Shary has been confined to his room for several days on account of sickness. He is much better at present. Dr. Harper says he will be able to be out and around in a few days.

Dr. J. J. Pattee, the mine physician at Gilson, returned Thursday from his eastern trip, accompanied by Mrs. Pattee and daughter. While absent they visited Pueblo, Denver, Minneapolis, New York and Boston.

Martin Buckley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Buckley, of Weaver, died on the 10th instant of inflammation of the stomach. He was 7 months and 10 days old. W. F. Kuchenbecker furnished a handsome casket and the funeral was conducted by Undertaker Finger.

Messrs. W. P. Kuchenbecker, supreme representative; W. W. Riedon, grand master of exchequer; Joseph Kuhn and James Maloney, representatives of Gallup lodge No. 13, and W. L. Bretherton and Harry Fenton, of Cloverdale lodge No. 11, left for Santa Fe to attend to nineteenth annual convention of the Knights of Pythias of New Mexico.

Marguerite, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Young, celebrated her 8th birthday Monday from 5 until 9 o'clock. The children played games, etc., until they were called to partake of the goodies prepared for them. Ice cream, fruits, candy and cake were served after which Anna Hockett spoke several pieces also Marguerite Myers and Pauline Ries. Marguerite received many little gifts.

ALAMOGORDO.

From the News.

John Quinliven and his family have moved to El Paso and will make their home in that city in the future.

Miss Rapier, of this place, has obtained a situation as teacher in the schools of Chihuahua, Mexico, and left for there on Saturday.

Alamogordo Lumber company has given a contract for the erection of six four room residences for the accommodation of several of its employees. S. E. Peiphey has the building of those houses.

A great many strangers are coming to Alamogordo, some for pleasure, some to work in mills and shops and for the railroad, some to invest in town and farm property, some to spend the winter on account of failing health. Town property is in demand and more houses for rent are needed.

Mike Corrigan, who was shot at Cloudercroft, was brought down to the hospital last week. His right lung is in bad shape and an abscess formed where the bullet went through. He was operated on by Dr. Bryan on Sunday. He is in a critical condition. Dr. Bryan has hopes that he will recover.

George Harbin, of Waterloo, Iowa, president of the Rico Mining company at Nogal, has brought the Chas. Krause farm at Tularosa for $1,200. This farm contains twenty-eight acres with 800 fine young fruit trees just beginning to bear. He is negotiating for the purchase of some other fine orchards at the same place.

Water Cure for Chronic Constipation.

Take two cups of hot water half an hour before each meal and just before going to bed, also a drink of water, hot or cold, about two hours after each meal. Take lots of out-door exercise—walk, ride, drive. Make a regular habit of this and in many cases chronic constipation may be cured without the use of any medicine. When a purgative is required take something mild and gentle like Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by all druggists.

Want to Play Here.

Manager Martin, of the Santa Fe Central base ball club, is endeavoring to arrange a game with the Las Vegas Tigers to take place on the fair grounds at Albuquerque, Sunday, the 28th. He is writing today to Colonel Twitchell, manager of the Las Vegas team, and also to President O'Reilly and Secretary McCanna, of the fair association. The plan is to divide the gate receipts equally between the teams. He will no doubt secure, also, the same low railroad rate as prevailed to Santa Fe and Las Vegas. Manager

Martin will then invite the Vegas team to play a return game here some time in early October.—New Mexican.

UNVEILING AT GETTYSBURG.

Reunion of New York regiments and the Slocum Statue Dedicated.

New York, Sept. 18.—The New York members of the Society of the Army of the Potomac, under escort of the Seventh regiment, will leave here tonight for Gettysburg to attend the thirty-third annual reunion. The reunion will be of extraordinary interest this year as a feature will be the unveiling of the equestrian statue of General H. W. Slocum. The governors of New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey will speak, as will also prominent officers of the army. Besides the Seventh regiment of this city there will be in attendance the veterans of the Nineteenth infantry and five batteries of artillery, which served under General Slocum. The statue is erected by the state of New York, of which state General Slocum was a native.

Came Near Being a Cripple.

Josh Westhafer, of Logansport, Ind., is a poor man, but he says he would not be without Chamberlain's Pain Balm if it cost five dollars a bottle, for it saved him from being a cripple. No external application is equal to this liniment for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains and rheumatic and muscular pains. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by all druggists.

New York Man Weds in Berlin.

Berlin, Sept. 18.—A wedding in Berlin today of interest to Americans was that of Miss Margaret Seefeld and Ernest Kempton Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Adams, of New York. The bride is the daughter of Lieutenant Colonel Seefeld, of Berlin, formerly commander of the military district of the Grand Duchy of Baden.

A Communication.

Mr. Editor—Allow me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at nights. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my wife got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely relieved me.—W. S. Brockman, Baginell, Mo. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Resolutions of Regret.

At the regular meeting of Harmony lodge last night the following resolutions were adopted:
Albuquerque, N. M., Sept. 16.
To the Officers and Members of Harmony Lodge No. 17, I. O. O. F.
The undersigned committee, appointed to draft resolutions upon the death of our late brother, J. T. Barracough, beg leave to submit the following:
"Whereas, The angel of death has again visited our fraternity and taken from our midst 'to that undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler returns,' our brother, John T. Barracough.
Resolved, That we extend to the widow our heartfelt sympathy in this affliction, recognizing that in our late brother Barracough she has lost a kind and indulgent husband, and we a man possessing sterling qualities of friendship and charity.
Resolved further, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the lodge and published in the city papers.

O. A. MATSON, S. VANN, H. E. ROGERS.

District Court.

District Judge B. S. Baker announces that the Bernalillo county civil docket will be called up in his court Thursday morning at 9 o'clock.

The United States grand jury met in regular session this morning and returned several indictments.
The territorial grand jury is working slowly.

To Settle Tobacco Trade War.

New York, Sept. 17.—In the tobacco trade much interest is manifested in the conference of tobacco interests to be held today in London. The announced purpose of the meeting is an endeavor to settle the war between the American and British trusts which for some time past has demoralized the British tobacco trade. In well informed circles it is not believed that a settlement is at all likely to result from the conference owing to the firm attitude manifested by both parties up to date.

DEMOCRATS AND THE TERRITORIES.

The Denver Republican says: "There are three territories, close neighbors of Colorado, that are seeking admission as states. They are well qualified for state government, and in two of them especially the inhabitants have been denied that right for years. Yet the democratic state convention never said a word in its favor in its long platform and pretended declaration of principles.

"Was this neglect because the democrats were convinced that the admission of the proposed states would strengthen the republicans in the senate and the electoral college? That it would have this effect there is no doubt.

"But there is something more than representation in the senate and the right to participate in presidential elections involved in the highly important question of statehood for these territories. The people who are asking for statehood are intelligent, loyal, capable of maintaining state governments. They are entitled to the right to make their own laws, and Colorado should sympathize with them.

"The whole west is interested in this question. The development of the trans-Mississippi region calls for the perfection of local governments as speedily as possible. A territory is but a province of the national government. Its very existence as a distinct community depends upon the will of congress. A government of that kind in wide awake, intelligent American communities like New Mexico, Arizona and Oklahoma is not conducive to material development. The people should be permitted to organize state governments, and congress should pass an enabling act to this effect at the next session and before the Christmas holidays.

"The fact that the admission of these three territories would strengthen the republican party in the senate and the next presidential election is not sufficient reason for democratic opposition or indifference. The rights of the people should be considered and also the more rapid development of the proposed states."

VOLCANIC ERUPTIONS.

When a volcano begins active operations there is no way of predicting what the result will be, nor when its activity will cease. In a general way we know that a cone which is constantly active is not particularly dangerous. Take Stromboli for instance. It is a low cone on one of the Lipari islands, and has been in a state of moderate activity since the dawn of recorded history. It is some times called the "lighthouse of the Mediterranean" because its fiery glow is always seen. Then, too, we have learned that when a new volcano vent is opened, or when a volcano which has been quiescent for so long that it has been deemed extinct, awakes to action, the results are generally destructive.

Vesuvius is a notable historical example of this fact. From the dawn of recorded history it was deemed extinct. On the inner slopes of the crater vineyards were cultivated and there seemed to be no more danger from it than from any of the prehistoric craters that are so numerous in France, in the department of Auvergne. But Vesuvius broke out in A. D. 79, and overwhelmed Pompeii and Herculaneum. Its terrible awakening has been unparalleled within the present year by the terrific outburst of Mount Pelée, in the island of Martinique, which, in a moment, almost, overwhelmed the city of St. Pierre, with a loss of life which places it among the great catastrophes of history.

NOT A CANDIDATE.

At Las Vegas yesterday a representative of The Citizen had an interview with Hon. Charles A. Spiess, who has been favorably mentioned for delegate to congress by many friends in various parts of the territory. Mr. Spiess stated that he was not a candidate for delegate, and that his name would not be presented for nomination before the republican convention at Raton on October 10. This action on the part of Mr. Spiess is destined to bring about harmonious action in the republican ranks in this territory, and will greatly strengthen him with his party. Mr. Rodeny's friends think that his faithful service in congress deserves reward, and that he is entitled to a renomination, and the refusal of Mr. Spiess to be a candidate makes the selection of Mr. Rodeny as the republican standard bearer a certainty.

WHEN YOU CANNOT SLEEP.

When sleep shuns your pillow, do not resort to drugs. Find out the cause of the insomnia. It may be you have anxieties. If so, try to remove them. If they belong to your circumstances, retrench, economize, do without superfluities. If they are connected with illness, your own or another's, seek the best medical aid and trust in God. But avoid all powders and potions, all narcotics that induce an artificial sleep. Their tendency is cumulative and enervating. The small dose of today will be insuperable unless you increase it by a larger dose tomorrow.

Take all the outdoor exercise you can, or, if unable to exercise, get the freshest air in the house that you can, and have your sleeping room well ventilated. Retire about 10 o'clock, and take a tepid bath before retiring. A very vigorous person may induce sleep by a cold plunge, a thorough rub, and a quick going to bed; but this treatment would kill a delicate invalid, who could not react from the shock.

A glass of hot milk or broth and a biscuit taken before retiring often bring peaceful sleep.

DEAD SEA WATERS.

Scientific observation justifies the estimate that a daily average of 6,500,000 tons of water is received into the Dead Sea from the Jordan and other sources during the year, writes W. E. Curtis in the Chicago Record-Herald. During the rainy season the amount is very much greater; during the dry season it is, of course, very much less, but this average will be maintained year after year. There is no outlet and the level is kept down by evaporation only, which is very rapid because of the intense heat, the dry atmosphere and the dry winds which are constantly blowing down from the gorges between the mountains. This evaporation causes a haze or mist to hang over the lake at all times, and when it is more rapid than usual, heavy clouds form and thunder storms sometimes rage with great violence in the pocket between the cliffs, even in the dry season. A flood of rain often falls upon the surface of the sea when the sun is shining and the atmosphere is as dry as a bone half a mile from the shore. The mountains around the Dead Sea are rarely seen with distinctness because of this haze.

The waters of the Jordan, when they reach the sea, are as brown as the earth through which they flow—a thick solution of mud—but the instant they mingle with the salt water of the lake the particles of soil are precipitated, and they become as clear as crystal, with an intensely green tint. Carrying so much soil and having so swift a current, one would suppose that the sea would be discolored for a considerable distance, but it is not so. The discoloration is remarkably slight. The Jordan has quite a delta at its mouth, breaking into a number of streams and frequently changing its course because of the obstructions brought down by its own current.

STATEHOOD ADVOCATE.

At the recent annual meeting of the Trans-Mississippi congress at St. Paul, C. J. Gavin, of Raton, was elected chairman of the executive committee, and as that association advocates statehood for the territories, Mr. Gavin writes The Citizen that he will endeavor to have a delegation of the association in Washington to urge the passage of the omnibus bill by the senate. In order to do this the committee of which Mr. Gavin is chairman must have some support from the territory of New Mexico.

A GROWING INDUSTRY.

An expert special agent of the division of manufactures of the census office has just finished an exhaustive report on the manufacture of electrical apparatus and supplies throughout the country in 1900. Summed up, the report shows that there were 580 establishments in operation, in which $83,130,943 was invested. These gave employment to 40,890 wage earners, who received, during the year, $20,190,344 as compensation for their labor. The cost of material used in the manufacturing amounted to $48,916,440, and the value of the products, including custom work and repairing, aggregated $91,348,889.

WORK OF HUNTERS.

The New York Tribune estimates that more than 100 persons have been killed this fall in the hunting field, being mistaken for deer. The number of hunters who have been more or less severely wounded, of course, it is impossible to estimate, but the total can be nothing short of appalling.

The problem of protecting themselves against death at the hands of their brethren is something that has long vexed sportsmen in every country where big game is hunted. Years ago the fatalities of the hunting field were comparatively few, probably for the reason that hunters used single shot rifles and were more deliberate in firing, owing to their desire to make every bullet count. But the growth of the repeating rifle in favor has put deadly weapons into the hands of thousands of irresponsible persons. Every year sees many "tenderfeet" in the hunting field—men whose knowledge of the proper way to handle firearms is limited to a marked degree. These men, owing to their reckless habit of firing before making sure of the character of the object in view, have brought the annual fatality list into the problem class.

PRACTICE CHARITY.

Rev. Sam Small, for many years an eloquent evangelist and an able writer and speaker on public questions, recently yielded to temptation and became intoxicated. He is not the only one who has made that mistake, but the fact that he had for years been a total abstainer and had won distinction as a minister of the gospel has made him the target for cruel jests and the victim of malicious criticism. It is a sad commentary on human nature that those who themselves make no effort to set a good example, are often prone to exult over the fall of one who is striving to follow a high ideal. For two decades Mr. Small led an exemplary life and rendered valuable service to his fellows and this service remains to his credit; if in an unguarded moment he has been overmastered by an appetite once strong but long suppressed, let us be grateful for the good he has done, charitable toward his recent lapse and hopeful that he may yet have a long career of usefulness before him. If none but the innocent

EDITORIAL NOTES.

There are six million depositors in the savings banks of the country. The thrifty poor are getting richer right along in these days of prosperity.

If New Mexico expects to keep even with the states that adjoin it under the new irrigation law, it must keep up its work for statehood.

Colonel Bryan lost out in Iowa, but his platform was kindly remembered by the democrats of Idaho.

The professional jurymen in the territories are in luck. The pay has been raised from $2 to $3 per day.

Germany and Great Britain, while otherwise friendly, do not relish the intense American spirit of President Roosevelt's speeches.

The Las Vegas newspaper men had a strenuous time yesterday chasing the hundreds of elusive items connected with the big excursion to that city.

The full moon which occurs the 17th of September will be that wonderful thing, the harvest moon. For several successive evenings the moon will rise at dark, shedding across the earth during the whole night its mild beams. Most generally there is an hour's difference in the rising of the moon, but for a few days after the September full moon this will not be so.

In eight months of the present year the losses from fires in the United States have been $5,000,000 less than in 1901 and $22,000,000 less than in 1900.

The republican county convention of Valencia county will be held in Los Lunas on Monday, October 6. The convention will consist of sixty-four delegates and will elect twelve delegates from that county to the republican territorial convention, which will meet at Raton, October 10.

Complete returns from Vermont's election show that the total vote of 69,633 was the largest ever polled in that state. Of this number 31,778 were cast for the regular republican ticket, 7,280 were democratic votes and 2,458 were cast by prohibitionists.

PLEASANT CITY.

Las Vegas pleasantly entertained about 1,500 visitors yesterday. Excursion trains from Santa Fe, Raton and Albuquerque met at the Meadow City with hundreds of cheerful people, who were met at the railroad station by the Las Vegas with music and cheers of welcome. Nothing occurred during the entire day to mar the festive occasion. The Elks met each train and marched the visitors to one of the most elaborate lunches ever spread in any city in this territory. It was more of a banquet than a lunch and the liberality and enterprise of the Las Vegas Elks was highly appreciated by the visitors. In the afternoon several hundred of the excursionists visited the famous hot springs, located in a scenic canyon six miles from the city, while other hundreds visited the pretty parks of the place and then gathered at the base ball grounds, where Colonel Twitchell's trained veterans at the bat fell upon Colonel Martin's Santa Fe tigers and won a victory after a closely contested game.

The visitors from Albuquerque are pleased with their trip. They were so generously received and pleasantly entertained that they will be glad to have the opportunity of reciprocating, and hereafter whenever excursion rates can be secured Las Vegas can expect a crowd of friends from this city.

The gathering yesterday will do much to eradicate the ill feeling that has recently grown up between Las Vegas and Albuquerque. The two cities are mutually dependent upon each other in many ways, and their interests do not conflict in any way. Let's pull together in the future for the up-building of the future state, and the prosperity of its cities.

The New Mexican says that it looks as if Delegate B. S. Rodeny has a clear field for renomination.

The chances are favorable that Rodeny and Ferguson will be the opposing candidates for delegate to congress this fall.

That little row in republican circles as Santa Fe is merely scientific sparring for points.

Las Vegas will have a winning team in the base ball tournament at the territorial fair.

The socialists of this territory intend to nominate a candidate for delegate to congress.

In these days of volcanic activity the United States is able to point with pride to Mount Kilauwe, in Hawaii, which has burst forth into active eruption.

For the St. Louis exposition aerial ship competition, in which prizes amounting to $150,000 are offered twelve aeroplanes are known to be preparing.

During the past twelve years the government of Cape Colony has drilled about 2,500 artesian wells at various points for the development of agriculture. Three-fourths of these have tapped water, and they are now producing, by pumping, from 1,000 to 50,000 gallons each daily.

The anthracite coal troubles are resulting in the extensive substitution of crude oil for fuel. The recent trip of the steamer Monterey from San Francisco to Samoa and back proved its efficiency as fuel. It occupies less space than coal, takes fewer men in the furnace room and possesses steaming qualities superior to coal.

At last the factional fight in the Texas republican organization is ended, and all is harmonious. The result is due directly to President Roosevelt, who let the leaders of both sides know that he wanted results—that he cared far more for one republican elected from the state than for the success of any man or set of men in the organization.

At a conference of the Bernalillo county republican delegation to the Raton convention to nominate a delegate to congress, Hon. Frank A. Hubbell was authorized to represent the delegation in every way prior to said convention. Any agreements that he makes for the delegation in the interest of Mr. Rodeny's candidacy will be endorsed by the whole delegation. In unity is strength, and the republicans of this county are as one for Mr. Rodeny for delegate to congress.

In a recent speech at Ogden, Utah, Senator Beveridge said: "In the five years beginning with the inauguration of William McKinley the balance of trade in our favor was greater than in the entire century of the nation's life. It was not only greater than the combined balance of trade during all the rest of the century but it was nearly 600 per cent greater than the balance of trade in our favor during our entire history as a nation. Yet the opposition ask the people to repudiate that management of national affairs."

All talk of an extra session of the senate in November has been abandoned, and the president will devote his time to the preparation of his annual message to congress and in touring. As soon as he returns from his trip to the northwest, the president will start to work on his message to congress, and this labor will occupy most of his time until the first of December.

John W. Gates, who ought to know, declares there are only two men in the world richer than Marshall Field, the great Chicago merchant, whom he rates at $200,000,000. The two whom Gates puts ahead of him are John D. Rockefeller and Andrew Carnegie. The extraordinary thing about Mr. Field's wealth is that it was not made out of any monopoly or special privilege. ## TERRITORIAL FAIR.

The Optic Says That Las Vegas Will Be Good in the Future.

Forgiveness is better than retaliation. Let us "kiss and make up," is evidence of a sweet spirit, says the Optic.

The fellow who goes about always with a chip on his shoulder, ready to demolish a thousand imaginary adversaries, who appear before him at every turn in the road, or who carries upon his shoulders a sore head, or within an everlastingly disposition to eternally scrap at the least provocation, or no provocation at all, is not an individual to be loved, courted or envied.

As it is in the individual, so in the larger life of a municipality. While our neighbors down the road, sometimes laboring under a temporary aberration of mind, or editorial strabismus, have occasionally indicated tendencies to editorial hallucination, or newspaper rambles, or while suffering from such attacks have worked off the spell by a trade upon the Meadow city; nevertheless, in their cooler moments, when the spasm of unjust criticism has passed, and the sober, second thought has come, and Richard is himself again, the manly disposition to apologize ought to be exhibited, so turning all these little shots aside, let Las Vegas bear in mind the Territorial fair is approaching, and prepare to shake hands across the bloody chasm, with the Duke city, as it were, with a good representation at this annual exhibition.

The fair is going to be a territorial institution. Albuquerque enterprise and effort have made it what it is and all New Mexico should join hands at each recurring fall, to make the exhibit one creditable to New Mexico. Albuquerque is central and a good place on such occasion to renew old acquaintances and have a few days of recreation.

Why not a special train of jolly Las Vegas to visit the fair?

To Develop Kentucky Oil Industry.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 12.—A decided impetus to the movement looking to the general development of the Kentucky oil fields is expected to result from the conference called for this city today of all persons interested in the industry. A permanent organization is to be effected for the purpose of assuring co-operation and concert of action in the construction of pipe lines and refineries.

SANTA FE CONDUCTOR SHOT.

J. W. Finnell Wounded by Drunken Indian.

Conductor J. W. Finnell, of the Santa Fe, who was shot by a drunken Indian at Ponca City, Okla., a few nights ago and who has been brought to the hospital at this place, is doing nicely, says the Topinka State Journal. He had a good night last night and was feeling better than at any time since the shooting, this morning. Finnell was carrying on his train several Indians who had attended a circus at Berry and during the day had filled up on "firewater." They began quarreling and at Ponca City he had an Indian police board the train for the purpose of arresting them. As soon as the Indians saw the policeman they knew him and one immediately pulled a gun and shot, presumably at the officer, but struck Conductor Finnell. However, the bullet passed through Mr. Finnell and struck the man it was aimed at—the buck that fired the shot was arrested by the civil authorities at Ponca City and is in jail there. The wounded Indian policeman was taken to the reservation and will be cared for by the government physician.

The bullet struck Mr. Finnell's watch, which was in his vest pocket, and glanced outward passing through the fleshy part of his side. It is not considered a serious wound as it was not thought that the intestines were punctured.

NEW RAILROAD UNION.

Conductors and Brakemen on Western Lines Have Grievances.

The San Francisco Call says that the largest and most far reaching union in the history of railroads has been recently formed by the railroad conductors and brakemen on roads operating west of Chicago. The men are dissatisfied with the present rate of wages and will, in the immediate future, make a demand for an increase of salaries of 20 per cent. The Call is in a position to announce that this union will make a test case on one of the roads. Should its request be refused by railroad officials, the conductors and brakemen are able to tie up every road west of Chicago. The organization was perfected last June in Kansas City and W. V. Stafford, a passenger conductor of the Southern Pacific, residing in Oakland, was elected its executive head.

Circulars have been secretly passed around among the men and as a result every trainman has signed the request asking for an increase of 20 per cent, ties are what made Marshall Field a multi-millionaire.

and making other demands. Chairman Stafford of the executive council of the union, when seen, confirmed all of the above statements and added:

"Our organization is perfect. The circulars we have been sending out have been signed not only by himself, but by E. E. Clark, grand chief conductor of the Order of Railway Conductors, and P. H. Morrissey, grand master of the Brotherhood of Trainmen. We have every trainman in the country back of us and we will win our demand."

Manager James Agler, of the Southern Pacific, stated that he was fully aware that the organization had been perfected, but he refused to discuss the subject.

RAILROAD NOTES.

It is reported that work on the Cimarron River & Taos Valley railroad will be commenced in the near future.

Ed Reed, of the Raton shops, had the misfortune to get a toe cut off by a heavy piece of iron falling on it, and is laying off in consequence.

John Player, formerly superintendent of motive power for the Santa Fe, was always known on the western end of the system as "Champ John."

B. E. Hankrack, a brakeman with the Santa Fe, has been promoted to the rank of conductor. He has already made his first trip in this capacity.

Joe Koebler, brakeman and extra conductor, is carrying his forehead in a sling. He was struck by the arm of a mail crane, and his forehead deeply gashed.

Frank Delaney will leave Deming for Los Angeles, Cal., on or about October 1st, to accept a prominent and good salaried position on a railroad in that city.

John Cochran, Raton boilermaker apprentice, was working by a big pile of boiler iron, when the iron commenced slipping, catching his foot and mauling it so he had to lay off.

Locomotives 1018, 1020 and 1036 have been put in the shop at Raton, N. M., for electric headlights. Eight of the passenger engines running out of there will be thus equipped.

Engineer V. W. Ashbaugh, who has been running out of Raton, N. M., but who previously had an engine at Emporia, has resigned his place and is visiting in Kansas City for a time.

C. M. Woods, traveling freight and passenger agent of the St. Louis & San Francisco road, with headquarters at Denver, is in the city today, drumming up business for his popular road.

J. L. O'Brien, rate clerk for the Santa Fe at El Paso, Texas, has been in Emporia, Kan., for a few days visiting his family. Mr. O'Brien was formerly agent for the company at Emporia Junction.

The Rock Island at French, Colfax county, has the whole prairie covered with material and is doing lots of building. The Willow branch is now completed and trains are running, all of which speaks very highly for the resources of Colfax county.

The Talbott bridge gang came over the Raton hill the latter part of last week to help Williams' crew finish the new coal chute and tear down the old one at Raton. The work is progressing rapidly and soon Raton will have one of the latest pattern chutes and as good a one as there is on the Santa Fe system.

George Foster, a conductor on the Dawson branch of the El Paso-Rock Island lines, was killed recently by being crushed under a car. A Mexican threw a switch wrong, causing two cars to overturn. Foster was riding on one of them and his life was crushed out in an instant. If an American railroad man had done such a thing in Mexico the whole republic would have hunted him down and he would have been confined for months in a dungeon on a scant diet, before being given even to a preliminary hearing.

There was a wreck on the Mexican Central near Chihuahua, Mexico, recently which must have made business strong for the wrecking crew. Owing to heavy rains, an engine and three cars went down an embankment into a lot of slush that buried the locomotive up to its cab. One thing that is almost necessary to the successful operation of a wrecker is having a good foundation for the machinery and the men upon which to work. A few weeks ago when two sleeping cars were derailed on the Ottawa cut off of the Santa Fe there was considerable trouble for just this reason, that the earth, freshly graded and soaked by rain, sank beneath the lifting apparatus of the railroad men and the result was that a great number of wooden blocks used in straightening out tangles of this sort, had to be left behind because they were buried out of sight in the soft earth.

TOTAL ASSESSMENT.

The Rolls Show a Net Gain in Valuation of $1,656,945.

The total assessment of New Mexico for 1902 is $41,108,745, against $38,904,989 in 1901. The exemptions from taxation this year amount to $2,474,751, against $1,927,941 in 1901, leaving a net gain in taxable valuation during the past year of $1,656,945.

The assessment rolls of only four counties meet the requirements of the law, they being those of Bernalillo, Chaves, Grant and McKinley. The assessment rolls of two counties, Santa Fe and Rio Arriba, fail to show a summary of the different classifications of assessable property. San Miguel county leads in the amount of assessment gained since last year, it being now, according to the assessment returns, the richest county in the territory, having passed Bernalillo in that respect. The county gained $562,000. Santa Fe county made the second largest increase in wealth, $229,000; then comes Guadalupe with $212,000; Eddy $200,000; Chaves, $193,000; Taos, $179,000; Otero, $161,000; Sierra, $153,000; Luna, $122,000; Colfax, $85,000; Dona Ana, $78,000; Union, $61,000; Rio Arriba, $43,000; Socorro, $37,000; Mora, $18,000; and San Juan, $5,000. The counties that lost in wealth are Grant, $282,000; McKinley, $222,000; Bernalillo, $124,000; Valencia, $59,000; and Lincoln, $2,500.

The taxable wealth per capita in each county is as follows: Chaves county leading in that respect this year, the same as last year. The per capita assessment of Chaves county, exclusive of railroads and telegraph lines, is $286. Eddy second with $226 per capita, and the other counties as follows: Sierra, $216; Union, $231; Otero, $209; Lincoln, $248; Colfax, $228; Guadalupe, $230; Grant, $220; Luna, $216; San Miguel, $182; Bernalillo, $150; San Juan, $123; Dona Ana, $123; Santa Fe, $121; Socorro, $118; Valencia, $109; Mora, $94; McKinley, $66; Rio Arriba, $51; and Taos, $50. The per capita assessment for the territory is $210. If the per capita assessment of the territory were like that of Chaves county, which in the opinion of many, it ought to be, the total assessed valuation of New Mexico would be $140,000,000, and that of the different counties as follows: Bernalillo, $15,000,000; San Miguel, $12,500,000; Santa Fe, $9,000,000; Valencia and Rio Arriba each, $8,500,000; Socorro, $7,700,000; Dona Ana, $7,000,000; Taos and Grant, each, $6,600,000; Colfax, $6,500,000; Mora, $6,125,000; Union, $5,300,000; McKinley and Guadalupe, each, $3,200,000; Lincoln, $3,000,000; Otero, $2,900,000; San Juan, $2,750,000; Luna, $2,600,000; Sierra, $2,250,000; and Eddy, $2,125,000. As it is, the assessment return for each county is, San Miguel leading: San Miguel, $4,567,000; Bernalillo, $4,149,000; Colfax, $2,934,000; Chaves, $2,906,000; Grant, $2,904,000; Santa Fe, $2,269,000; Dona Ana, $2,165,000; Socorro, $2,105,000; Union, $2,021,500; Valencia, $1,967,000; Eddy, $1,932,000; Sierra, $1,552,000; Luna, $1,427,000; Otero, $1,288,000; Guadalupe, $1,250,000; Mora, $1,245,000; Lincoln, $1,223,000; McKinley, $950,000; Rio Arriba, $809,000; Taos, $606,000; San Juan, $616,000. It must be remembered that no railroads are assessed in San Juan, Otero, Lincoln and Guadalupe counties, as new railroads are assessed only six years after construction. In Chaves, Luna, Union, Grant and Dona Ana counties the railroad mileage is only assessed in part. Singular as are the discrepancies in the various counties in the per capita assessment, they are still more startling in the per cent of levied taxes collected, and strange to say, it is in the counties having the lowest per capita assessment that the ratio of levied taxes collected during the past year is the lowest, ranging from 40 to over 60 per cent.

Death of a Young Lady

Curtis W. Burnam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Burnam, passed from this life Monday morning, September 8, 1902, at 4 o'clock, surrounded by relatives who, with loving tender care had watched over her during a brief illness.

Curtis was a universal favorite, winning all by her sweet and gentle manner. She loved her parents, loved her home and will be greatly missed.

The profoundest sympathy of the people of Raton responds to the anguish of Mr. and Mrs. Burnam in the loss of Curtis, the third treasure in the short space of fifteen months.

Local Happenings

Hon. Silas Alexander came up from Socorro this morning.

County School Superintendent F. A. Hubbell was a passenger for Santa Fe this morning.

Louis Benjamin, with the Armour Packing company, has returned from a business trip south.

Dan Elliott, the roadmaster for the New Mexico division, and Frank B. Hock are in the city from Las Vegas. Mrs. R. B. Thomas and daughter, Miss Margarita, arrived from Magdalena this morning and are spending the day in the city.

Col. J. B. Wagstaff, who has been spending some months in Albuquerque as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Crawford, left yesterday for his home in Tennessee.

Col. J. Francisco Chavez, the territorial school superintendent, is in the city from Santa Fe on legal matters. He will return north tonight or tomorrow morning.

Raymond Morley, football coach for the Columbus university of New York, spent yesterday in the city as a guest of Roy Stamm and left this morning for New York.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold a social at the Salvation Army tent, corner Lead avenue and Second street, Monday evening, September 15. Ice cream and cake, 15 cents.

George Huhne, of St. Louis, has accepted a clerkship at the Golden Rule Dry Goods company's store and will take up the duties of that position Monday morning. Mr. Huhne comes well recommended.

Brother Botolph, of the St. Michael college, Santa Fe, and Brother James, of the boys' school, Bernalillo, are in the city today. They will return tonight, Brother Botolph stopping over for the day at Bernalillo.

J. F. Salter and wife, registering from Denver, are in the city. Mr. Salter attended the street fair and carnival in Albuquerque several years ago, and he and wife will probably remain until after the forthcoming fair.

Archibald Hilton, one of Albuquerque's oldest residents, left last night for the home of his boyhood days in Iowa. Mr. Hilton has been away from home about thirty years and has brothers and sisters that he has never seen.

S. W. Brown, a prominent citizen of the thriving town of Deming, accompanied by his wife and daughter, arrived in the city yesterday morning. Mrs. Brown and daughter continued east to St. Joseph, Mo., to visit with friends and Mr. Brown spent the day in the city.

Rev. T. C. Beattie has returned from an extended visit to his wife's old home in Chester, New York. The gentleman has gained some in avoirdupois and looks well and hearty. Mrs. Beattie will remain in New York some time longer.

Mrs. John S. Trimble and children, who were on a visit to southern California the past couple of months, returned to the city this morning, and are stopping with Col. A. A. Trimble, of the old town. The husband, John S. Trimble, will probably arrive here tomorrow morning from El Paso.

One of the interesting attractions which will occur at Las Vegas next Sunday will be the bowling match between the Las Vegas Gross-Kelly Grocery company's team and the Albuquerque Gross-Kelly Grocery company's team. The two teams are hot rivals when after business and they are likely to put up a hot game.

Roy McDonald, manager for the territorial fair base ball team, went to Las Vegas last night to confer with Col. Ralph Twitchell in regard to the Las Vegas team, which is coming to the fair. Manager McDonald will remain over Sunday at the Meadow city and catch for the Santa Fe Centrals in the game which will be played there tomorrow. Bert Vorhes and James Cosgrove will go up tonight to engage in the game also. Vorhes will play with the Centrals and Jimmie with the Las Vegas team.

Senator W. H. Andrews, president of the Albuquerque Eastern and Santa Fe Central railroads, came up from El Paso this morning on passenger No. 22, spent a couple of hours in the city and continued north to Santa Fe on passenger No. 2. Mr. Andrews says that the Santa Fe Central grading outfit will reach Santa Fe in about twenty days. When asked about the Albuquerque Eastern, Mr. Andrews said that the road would be built and that work would commence on it just as soon as the Santa Fe Central is finished.

Department Commander J. W. Edwards returned last night from Las Vegas, where he went a few days ago to reorganize the Grand Army of the Republic post at that place. Mr. Edwards reports having had a splendid trip and is well satisfied with the work accomplished. Sherman post No. 1, which for several years has been in bad working trim, was reorganized with twenty-four members. New officers were installed and four new members were taken in. ## DON'T LISTEN

To what people say when they would discourage your hope of exchanging weakness and sickness for perfect health. Women who have been invalids for years, scarcely able to be up half the time, and the other half in bed, have been made healthy, hearty women by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures the womanly diseases which undermine the strength. It establishes regularity, dries weakening, heals inflammation, cures female weakness.

"With pleasure I send a few lines to let you know that I feel much better than for eight years before taking your 'Favorite Prescription.' writes Mrs. Pierce Geise, of 22 West Philadelphia street, New York. 'I will recommend Dr. Pierce's medicine to every person who may inquire as to what it has done for me. I was troubled with female weakness and began to think I would never be well. If I had continued the treatment prescribed by my doctor I don't know what would have become of me. When your treatment was commenced my weight was 100 lbs., at present it is 140 lbs. My health is now as good as I ever was. My best thanks to you and my best wishes too, for what you have done for me.'"

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women. The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1000 large pages in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

go to Laguna tonight for more scholars for the same schools.

A gentleman writing to The Citizen Willard, on the line of the Santa Fe Central railway, says: "The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe cut-off crosses here. They have quite a number of engineers all along the line and say that the grading will commence very soon. The Santa Fe Central are working very fast and everything along the line is in good shape."

A. B. Sanford, who more than a year ago was cashier of the little red cat house, before the Alvarado was built, arrived from San Bernardino this morning and is spending the day in the city renewing old friendship. He will leave tonight for New York and other points east to enjoy a month's vacation. Mr. Sanford is in the employ of the Harvey people at San Bernardino.

J. W. Edwards, the territorial department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, is wearing a badge which he feels very proud of. It is what is known as a "three leaf clover" badge, and is the gift of G. K. Warren post and the Woman's Relief Corps. The badge was ordered through the South Second street jeweler, S. Vann & Son, and they gave it to the donors at cost figures.

H. A. Brackvogel, for years a general merchant and ranchman at Conea, Socorro county, was here the past few days loading his wagons with merchandise and supplies for his section of the territory. His postoffice address has been changed to Quemado. Mr. Brockvogel called at The Citizen office this morning, and stated that he was ready to begin his 180 mile overland drive to his business, and, as he remarked, "Oh, it is just over the hill here a few miles."

TRYING TO PREVENT FIGHT.

Courts of Kentucky May Enjoin Prize Fight at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 16.—Attorney General Pratt today filed suit for an injunction to prevent the contest between Terry McGovern and Young Corbett. The case will be argued Thursday.

It is expected that a decision will be handed down promptly in order that the status of the contest can be determined at once. Should the decision be against the match, the fighters' attorneys say the case can be taken at once to the court of appeals and pushed through in ample time for the contest. The petition alleges that the prize fight will bring together a dangerous assemblage of many thousands of persons which will have a demoralizing effect on the well being of the community and that the contest is contrary to the laws of the state.

District Court.

The territorial grand jury completed its organization yesterday afternoon and this morning settled down to work. A few indictments were returned this morning.

The United States grand jury went into session yesterday, but as yet have accomplished nothing.

In a ball game Sunday afternoon at the fair grounds between the Old Town Tigers and the Santa Fe Pacific shops team, the score stood 7 to 7 at the end of the ninth inning. At the beginning of the tenth inning a dispute came up and the game ended unsatisfactorily. Quite a sum of money was at stake on the outcome, and all interested have left the matter to Harmon Wynkoop for settlement. He will hear both sides of the question and give his decision this evening.

TRIP TO VEGAS.

The Meadow Town Filled With Excursionists Yesterday.

SANTA FE CENTRALS DEFEATED.

Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock the excursion train pulled out of the local station for Las Vegas with the Italian band playing ragtime music and with banners flying. More than 300 people were on board and it was the beginning of a most delightful day spent in the Meadow city. Six passenger coaches and a baggage car furnished ample accommodations and the ride was made pleasant by the comfort the excursionists enjoyed.

The first stop was made at Cerrillos, where quite a number of people were taken on. At Lamy it was learned that the train from Santa Fe had not passed that place yet and the train went on to Las Vegas, where the Albuquerque train, with Agent F. L. Meyers, arrived at 10:45 a. m. A train from the north with passengers from Raton and other points north arrived at the same time 1:50 strong.

All Las Vegas and a band met the visitors most cordially. Both the Las Vegas and Albuquerque bands made music.

About 12 o'clock the Santa Fe train, with banners bearing cheerful phrases flying and a regimental band playing "A Hot Time in the Old Town" arrived with 400 people on board.

The streets were crowded and music filled the air. Even the atmosphere was cheerful, and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves.

The hotels and restaurants were prepared and nobody went hungry.

The Elks entertained most royally. A delegation of Las Vegas lodge No. 408 met each train and headed by a brass band escorted the visitors to their bill, where an elegant banquet, with cooling beverages and Havanas awaited them in abundance.

The fire companies of both old and new towns kept open house and gave an exhibition drill. The Old Las Vegas team made two connections in seventy-five seconds. The new town team made one connection in thirty-five seconds.

Several hundred people took advantage of the free ride to the hot springs and spent the day at the beautiful, comfortable Montezuma.

The Ball Game.

The Santa Fe Centrals and the Las Vegas Blues crossed bats at promptly 3 o'clock and it is needless to say that the game that followed was a hot one.

Nearly two thousand people witnessed the game and the grand stand was filled to overflowing. Col. Twitchell's babies beat Billy Martin's pets by the close score of 9 to 8.

Fritz Harker, of Denver, went in the box for the Centrals and Charlie Rhodes did the twirling for the Blues. The Blues found Harker regularly and gave way in the fifth inning to Carl Fettus, Rhodes pitched a brilliant game.

The line up of the two teams was as follows:

Santa Fe Centrals—Shirk, third base; McGillivray, right field; Vorhes, second base; McDonald, catcher; Geo. Parsons, first base; Catron, center field; W. Parsons, left field; H. Alarid, short stop; Harker and Fettus, pitchers.

Las Vegas—Hale, left field; Moran, catcher; Harris, second base; Gross, third base; Cosgrove, first base; Nygren, short stop; Taylor, center field; Flaherty, right field; Rhodes, pitcher. The game by innings was as follows:

First Inning—Hale hit safe to first base and took second on a balk. Moran made a line hit past second base and Hale scored. Harris hit to pitcher and was thrown out at first. Gross flew out to left field. Cosgrove made clean hit and Moran scored on an error. Nygren forced Cosgrove at second.

Shirk called out for jumping across home plate after having three balls and no strikes, which was done in order to rattle the pitcher. The pitcher failed to deliver the ball and Empire York decided the batter out. A dispute ensued and the game was delayed for twenty minutes. Santa Fe refusing to play if such decision stood. Finally, the difficulty was settled and the game went on. Shirk resumed his place at the bat and took first on a hit and stole second. McGillivray struck out. Vorhes made two base hit and went to third on an error. Shirk scored. Vorhes scored on McDonald's sacrifice. Geo. Parsons made safe hit, stole second and was caught at third.

Second Inning—Taylor struck out. Flaherty made base hit and went to second on an error. Rhodes made base hit and went to third. Rhodes went to second and he and Flaherty scored on bad throw by McDonald past second. Hale flew out to center field and Moran was thrown out at first.

Catron took four balls. Parsons struck out. Alarid hit ball for three bases and Catron scored. Alarid caught at home. Harker fouled out.

Third Inning—Harris out at first. Gross made base hit but was caught stealing second. Cosgrove hit safe to first and went to third on passed ball. Nygren hit safe and Cosgrove scored. Taylor forced Nygren at second.

Shirk struck out. McGillivray flew out to third. Vorhes hit long fly to left field which was caught by Hale.

Fourth Inning—Flaherty went to first on bunt. Rhodes hit to pitcher and forced Flaherty out at second. Hale hit safe to first and was caught at second. Harris out at first.

McDonald out at first, G. Parsons flow out to third, Catron fanned.

Fifth Inning—Harker was succeeded in box by Fettus. Gross out at first. Cosgrove fanned. Nygren hit by pitched ball. Taylor also, Nygren forced at third.

W. Parsons, Alarid and Fettus each fanned out.

Sixth Inning—Rhodes struck out. Hale base on balls. Moran flew out to right field. Hale caught napping at first.

Shirk fouled out. McGillivray fanned out. Vorhes fouled out.

Seventh Inning—Harker bunted safely. Gross passed on balls. Cosgrove struck out. Nygren flew out to right field. Harris and Gross scored on McDonald's wide throw to second base to catch Gross stealing. Taylor base on balls. Flaherty out to second. Vorhes made a phenomenal catch on this play.

In the last half of this inning Santa Fe took a brace at bat, when McDonald led off with a two base hit; G. Parsons hit safe to pitcher and stole second. Catron went to first on error and McDonald scored. Alarid made base hit. Parsons caught at home. Catron scored. Fettus hit fast past first and Alarid scored. Fettus scored. Shirk out at second. McGillivray struck out. The Las Vegas team were apparently in the air and the Santa Fe rooters stamped. The scene on the grounds was indescribable.

Eighth Inning—Rhodes hit high fly to right field. Hale hit pop up to first base. Moran fanned.

Vorhes hit safe to center and stole second. McDonald and G. Parsons hit to pitcher and were out at first. Catron struck out.

Ninth Inning—Levi substituted for Harris and was passed on four bad ones. Gross hit safe. Nygren hit safe. Levi and Gross scored. Taylor out at first.

W. Parsons out at first, Alarid and Fettus both struck out.

TOWNS OF LAS VEGAS

BY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 16.—N. E. Peterson, familiarly known by the residents in the neighborhood of Eighth and Jackson avenues, as "Uncle," this evening lies cold in death as result of a 44-caliber bullet shot in his head by his own hand. The deed was committed about 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, at the residence of his mother-in-law, Mrs. S. A. Hume. Mr. Peterson has not been in good health for some time, being partially paralyzed on his right side. He was about 78 years of age and had been living the last two weeks at the ladies' home, though formerly had quarters at Mrs. Hume's. He has been quite despondent since the death of his wife, Mrs. Maymie Peterson, daughter of Mrs. Hume, in 1899. He grieved continually over his loss, and has gradually been getting more feeble. He felt he was becoming a burden to his relatives, and threatened his life almost every day. He was watched closely, and two pistols and a couple of razors have already been taken from him to prevent the deed he today accomplished. Mr. Peterson also bequeathed the loss of his wealth, he at one time being a wealthy resident of Chicago, and an acquaintance of Porter Palmer and George M. Pullman. He came here in the early '80s and at one time was the proprietor of the grocery now run by Ryan & Bloom. He was also at one time a resident at the Springs. Being of an active nature, his ill health and pain preyed on his mind so, he ended his worldly troubles today by sending a bullet crashing through his brain. He was in his usual spirits today, and nothing unusual was noticed in his actions. This morning he came down from the home to Mrs. Hume's, as he did almost daily, only this morning he carried a small satchel with him which seemed a trifle heavy. When he came up to the house he put the satchel on the porch, and pushed a chair before it. Mrs. Hume seeing him do it, but naturally thought it nothing very unusual, as he was rather queer in many things. He came in and said: "I have come down to spend all day with you, mother, and take dinner." About 10:30 he went over to the house of A. P. Buck to talk with him, and finally stayed for dinner, evidently forgetting his promise to take dinner with Mrs. Hume. When returning he met Mrs. Cora Archibald, his sister-in-law, and she asked him to come and go over home with her. He replied he would be with her in a few minutes, and slipping his valise on the front porch, started back around the house. He met a Mexican on the way, who asked him what he had in the valise, and he replied he had some dirty clothes he was taking to Mrs. Larson to wash, adding that he had more to get up in the barn, but he would be back in a few minutes. Later Mrs. Hume heard some one up in the barn and called out: "Who is there?" He replied: "It is me, Uncle." She then admonished him to be careful and not fall, and as she was walking toward the house from the barn, she heard a shot, and realized at once that he had just accomplished the rash deed he had threatened to do so many times. She ran upstairs and found him in a heap, leaning against a partition of the loft, the whole left side of his face blown away and the blood and gore all over him and forming a large pool on the floor. The ball, which was a large 44-caliber, entered the left side of the mouth, he evidently putting the muzzle in his mouth. The bullet broke his jawbones and came out at the back of the neck. The wound was a large ragged one, tearing the whole inside of his head, and death evidently had been instantaneous. Undertaker Dewitt was called and took the remains to his establishment. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Roy Clark came in this morning from Deuel's ranch at Fort Union with Edward Anderson, who needed medical attention. Mr. Anderson is a tenderfoot from New York, and yesterday, while trying to mount a lusty broncho, was hurt. When mounting, the horse started to run, before he was on. He jumped and fell, falling on the left side of his face, the ball breaking his glasses, which cut him severely below the eye, making three stitches necessary.

The faculty of the Normal university will tender a reception to their friends Friday evening at the Normal.

The Normal foot ball team have organized and began practice work.

Spaulding's Foot Ball Annual for this season contains an excellent half-tone picture of the Las Vegas Normal foot ball team.

Sister Mary Faber, of the Loretto academy, left yesterday for Santa Fe for a few days' visit.

Manager Twitchell says his team for the Gray Creek match next Saturday and Sunday will be the best he has ever gathered together here. Vorhes will hold down second, McDonald first base, and Lempe, "Pop" Eyer or Al Whittridge of the Denver team will do the Sunday playing if arrangements can be made. Flaherty will pitch Saturday's game.

Arthur Nygren, another of Vegas' crack ball players, will leave tonight for his old home in Illinois, where he will remain. Mr. Nygren is a most pleasant and popular young man, and many friends regret to see him leave Vegas.

Frank Springer accompanied his daughters last night on No. 8 to New York, where the ladies will attend Columbia university.

A. A. Jones went up to Raton last night to attend to a little courting.

J. S. Rhodes and wife will leave to

to this city, and he has now concluded to settle down some place in the southwest where the climate agrees with him and start a shoe factory. He wants to locate in Las Vegas if he can receive the small encouragement he needs. Albuquerque wants him to locate there, and has offered to subscribe $100,000 worth of stock to his enterprise. Mr. Bell is not looking for that amount. He wants to start on a smaller scale, with $25,000 capital and build up. He wants to invest, himself, $15,000 in the factory, and there are parties in town who want the other $12,000. What he asks of the city is a building 100x35 feet, two stories, frame or brick, free for five years with option of buying at the end of that time, and taxes free for five years until the factory can get on its feet. Considering the bonuses, spot cash, which other cities offer, this is a remarkably good offer for the city. A conference was had last night between Mr. Bell and the executive committee of the board of trade, and the proposition laid before them. They took until next Monday night to think over the matter and learn the opinion of the representative business men of the town on the proposition.

Mr. Bell, it is needless to say, knows his business. The factory he will start will employ between 150 and 175 men at the beginning and he wants to be able to get organized by December 1. He is investing his own money in the enterprise, knows whereof he speaks when he says he can work up a good business in the southwest, and is going to locate somewhere. What he wants to know, does Las Vegas want the factory on his liberal terms.

Hon. J. S. Duncan, wife and daughter, Miss Beulah, will leave tomorrow for Denver and Salt Lake City on a several weeks' trip.

Samuel Levy, one of the Santa Fe dispatchers, is taking a few weeks' vacation, which he will enjoy in Colorado.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the A. O. U. W. Real Estate Investment company last night, the following named were elected directors: Chris. Wiegand, A. C. Schmidt, J. H. Martin, A. F. Benedict, and Charles A. Spordler. The directors then elected the following officers: President, Charles A. Spordler; vice president, A. C. Schmidt; secretary, G. A. Rothgeb; treasurer, J. K. Martin.

The marriage of Miss Lizzie Crites to Jack Cordell will take place tonight at the home of the bride.

In the kidnapping item of Monday, Mrs. S. A. Douglas was mentioned as the mother-in-law when it should have been Mrs. S. A. Hume.

Winchester Cooley, son of M. L. Cooley, and his wife and baby, returned this afternoon to their home at El Paso, after spending several weeks here with their parents during the heated term of the El Paso.

Will G. Anderson, formerly of the Optic here, is now half owner of the Arkansas Traveler, published at Arkansas City, Ark. He has an option of the other half interest, and may buy out the entire plant later.

Mrs. C. R. Skelton arrived here this afternoon for a visit with her son, Richard J. Morrison, one of the hustling young Santa Fe firemen.

Will Stuart, the mining man who is developing the Old Blue mine, has been in town sick the past few days. He was able to return to the old mine today, however, and is pushing work on the development of his find with a force of ten men. He showed the reporter specimens of the ore taken from the mine. One was a black shale, and the other a soft clayish substance, both of which carried gold.

Mrs. C. L. Mann entertained a few friends at whilst last night. A jolly time was the program and a lot of refreshments.

S. K. Sydes was the recipient yesterday of a fine saddle horse from James E. Johnson, the range manager of the H. O. W. ranch. It was a birthday present to Mr. Sydes, which he appreciates highly. Mr. Johnson was Mr. Sydes' wagon boss, when Mr. Sydes was manager of the ranch, and the two men are close friends.

Mrs. Charles Hild continues on the sick list. She is suffering with rheumatism.

The Christian Endeavor choir of the Presbyterian church will begin practicing tonight to get in shape for the convention which meets in Las Vegas the latter part of December.

The two sons of Sorafin Baca, Trenquillina and Lorenzo, of Agua Zarca, are missing, and it is supposed the lads have run away to fight Indians. They came in yesterday morning with several burro loads of wood which they sold. They put their burros in some yard and have not since been seen or heard of. A search has been made, but the youngsters still remain in the dark.

The republicans in precinct 26, on the west side, will hold a meeting tonight in the school house of district No. 4, for the purpose of organizing a republican club.

J. E. Johnson, manager of the H. O. W. ranch, who has been here several days, has purchased forty-five head of saddle horses for the ranch from Jose Alvino Baca, and will take them down to the ranch near Logan at once.

Hon. Roman Gallegos, the county commissioner from San Jose, is smiling on his friends here today.

Harry Crosswick, one of the Santa Fe freight conductors, will leave tomorrow for St. Louis to enjoy his vacation.

Edward Sears, one of the Santa Fe engineers, will leave for his vacation trip tomorrow. He will go to Cincinnati.

Mrs. B. Brash yesterday entertained the Hebrew Ladies' Whist club.

Misses Minnie and Lottie Willis gave a most delightful party yesterday afternoon at their home. The ladies played whist, there being four tables in the play. Each lady was given a half-pound box of candy as a souvenir of the occasion and the partners were chosen by finding the numbers attached to a ribbon on a fine rose. Miss Mackay and Miss Kenderdine made the highest scores. Delicious refreshments were served, and on the whole, the event was one of the most pleasant that has been given for some time in the city.

Mrs. G. H. Hill, Watson, Quigley, Scudder, Pritchett, Jackson, Boncher, Chapman and Fugate left this afternoon on No. 2 for Raton to meet the grand president of the Ladies' auxiliary of the Order Railway Conductors, Mrs. J. H. Moore, of Toledo, Ohio. The ladies are having a school of instruction at Raton, convening tonight and lasting tomorrow. They expect to return next Friday.

Mrs. J. J. Schmidt, daughter, Miss Carrie, and son, Justus, left today for Colorado Springs, where they will visit and then go on east to New York.

Thomas Ross is proudly showing a couple of ears of his corn crop, grown at Romeroville. The corn is large, well cared and even grained, and is really quite remarkable for this year of drought. He has forty acres of it.

Miss Sadie Ross left this afternoon for Galena, Mo., on a visit back to her old home.

Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 18.—The republicans held a lively meeting in precinct 26, west side, last night. The meeting was held in the school house of district No. 4, and Manuel Gonzalez was chairman, and Florence Casaux secretary. The managers had music and it was a lively session. The meeting was called in the interest of the organization of a republican club in the precinct, and fifty-five names were signed to the list last night. The next meeting will be held at the Exchange hall Saturday night, when the organization will be perfected and by-laws adopted. Speeches were made by a number, and the meeting held until about midnight. There was a small crowd of obstreperous republicans, associated with a few unionists, who occupied a corner and kept up a howl. Some of their number made speech, the feature of which was that they did not want to see any of the present county officers re-nominated. This wing of bolters will try and pull off a meeting tonight at the St. Joseph hotel, and it is expected that Margarita Rondo will be the chief totem at this meeting, though he was not present at the regular meeting last night.

The Bacon democrats had a lonesome meeting last night at Monte Carlo hall. There were more lights in the hall than there were members.

The unionists will try and pull off a big pow wow next Sunday. Felix Martinez, of El Paso, is expected to be present and on exhibition for the benefit of the rabble. It is not decided yet just where they will pull off the circus.

The dance given by the East Las Vegas fire department last night at the city hall was fairly well attended and those who were present had a very pleasant evening. The music was good and the dancing enjoyable, on account of the hall not being crowded. The boys netted a little money on the affair, but not as much as was hoped.

The marriage of Miss Harriet L. Cikes to Owen Weldon Cordon, was solemnized last night at the home of the bride, Rev. Bourne tying the nuptial knot at 8:30. The happy couple, with Miss Pearl Wean and Joe Joqui, as bridesmaid and best man, stood in the bay window, which had been nicely festooned with ivy and sweet peas for the ceremony. The bride was attired in a white India linen dress and carried a bouquet of American beauty roses. The bridesmaid wore a blue silk dress and carried roses. After the ceremony the twenty relatives and friends present sat down to a splendid wedding repast and everything was merry. The bride and groom after the wedding went to their own cottage on Columbia avenue, which had been arranged for their occupancy. The groom is a painter at the shops and is a worthy young man. The bride is the daughter of W. E. Crites, the second hand dealer, and is a most estimable young lady. Many presents were given the couple and oceans of good wishes are given them by their many friends.

At a meeting of the regents of the normal university it was decided to forbid any more base ball games on Sunday in their park. The lease was for the summer, allowing games as the leeches desired, but during September, after the normal began, no Sunday games were to be permitted. The action last night the regents claim, was in line with the original lease.

Buffalo Bill's bill car No. 2 is here today, adding to the lithographic display of the wonders. There are fifteen men in the party.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bro'ne will entertain a number of friends tomorrow night in honor of the sixteenth anniversary of their marriage.

Mrs. A. J. Wertz and daughter, Mrs. B. Brooks, of El Paso, came up this afternoon from El Paso. Mrs. Wertz has been visiting there with her daughter some time.

Mrs. Cora Archibald is contemplating a trip to Europe. She will leave next week and will visit relatives in Scotland and Ireland.

W. H. Rhodes and family did not get to this city, and he has now concluded to settle down some place in the southwest where the climate agrees with him and start a shoe factory. He wants to locate in Las Vegas if he can receive the small encouragement he needs. Albuquerque wants him to locate there, and has offered to subscribe $100,000 worth of stock to his enterprise. Mr. Bell is not looking for that amount. He wants to start on a smaller scale, with $25,000 capital and build up. He wants to invest, himself, $15,000 in the factory, and there are parties in town who want the other $12,000. What he asks of the city is a building 100x35 feet, two stories, frame or brick, free for five years with option of buying at the end of that time, and taxes free for five years until the factory can get on its feet. Considering the bonuses, spot cash, which other cities offer, this is a remarkably good offer for the city. A conference was had last night between Mr. Bell and the executive committee of the board of trade, and the proposition laid before them. They took until next Monday night to think over the matter and learn the opinion of the representative business men of the town on the proposition.

off to Caney and Topeka, Kas., until on No. 8 last night. Mrs. Roberts, sister in law of Mrs. Griff Roberts, accompanied them east to her home.

Will H. Schultz, a former Las Vegas patriot, but now engineer on the Santa Fe branch, passed through here this afternoon with his family en route to Curtis, Wis., for a visit.

Hon. J. S. Duncan, wife and daughter, Miss Beulah, left this afternoon for a sojourn at Salt Lake. Mr. Duncan expects himself to return about the first of the month, but the family will remain a while longer.

There have been several changes in the round house in the last couple of days. George Walck, car inspector, has resigned and will accept work on the Missouri Pacific in Nebraska. Alex Wilson, ash pit man, has resigned and his place taken by Pablo Angel. William H. Robinson, machinist, has resigned and will go to Mexico. C. T. Halen, a fire borer, has also quit. William Burks and J. Casadas are new men on the repair track, being an increase in the force. At Lamy, car inspector John Loftus has also resigned. A couple of new car inspectors are expected from the east in a few days. The Santa Fe auditors are also checking up the tickets in the ticket office and making the change to the new agent.

The pay checks arrived last evening and made business good for the merchants last night. They all kept up a late and gathered in the streets.

Mrs. Mary Vasce and daughter, Miss Emma, are expected here from Moberly, Mo., today. They will make their future home in Las Vegas.

The Orator society committee will get together in a couple of weeks and finish up the business of last year and then wait until about the first of the year before beginning active practice work again. It is the intention of the managers not to have so large a society this year, but rather less, and better voices. The society will have about sixty or seventy-five in membership. Next year's festival will not have so many soloists as last, as the managers do not like the looks of a $400 deficit. It is figured to have more chorus work and less of the expensive solo work, which is probably just as well.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake of Wood, Ind. I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar and my lungs are now as sound as a bell. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Sold by Alvarado Pharmacy.

Mexicans Indicted.

Brownsville, Texas, Sept. 19.—The grand jury of Cameron county, has returned two indictments each against six Mexicans, charged with ambushing stage robbers last week, killing Ranger Roebuck.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

This Splendid Territorial Institute Opened With Large Attendance. BIG ENROLLMENT.

From Las Cruces Progress.

It has been a busy week at the college. Either students are entering a great deal more promptly than ever before or else this year's enrollment is going to be a record breaker of no small kind. At the close of business on the third day the total enrollment listed in the office of the registrar was greater than the enrollment in the first ten days of any previous year. Up to noon on Friday 156 students had duly been enrolled and classified and a large number of old students are yet to enter. It will not be surprising if the total enrollment for this new year runs close up to the 300 mark.

"Good times and prosperity" are not the chief reasons for this great enrollment. More than anything else it is due to the fact that the college is getting much more closely in touch with that class of citizens of New Mexico who need a practical and industrial education, and in this respect the college is fulfilling its mission better than ever before. This is shown by the heavy enrollment in those courses offered by the college which are of the above character. The stenography department, as in recent years, has attracted a large number of young men and young women both from this territory and outside states as well as Mexico; and the new two years' course established last year in practical mechanics has enrolled already about twenty students. These young men and young women taking these courses constitute a class who otherwise would not come to the college and who are bent on fitting themselves in as short a time as possible to fill positions as wage earners in respectable and lucrative callings. It is especially significant to notice this year the heavy enrollment of young Mexicans in the practical mechanics course. These young men, while in some cases not having received as good educational advantages in the past as might be desired, are all of them earnest and determined in their ambition to fit themselves as trained mechanics, competent to fill higher positions in life than they would be able to take without the advantages of this short course which the college offers. Indeed, it becomes more apparent each year that the advantages of the college are rapidly being recognized and seized by the native born people who are citizens of our territory and in this line alone the institution has a large field for good before it.

The extension of the work in domestic science heretofore provided and the addition of a thoroughly equipped department and a well trained instructor to teach the subjects of sewing, dress-making, and allied practical studies, have made up a woman's course in domestic science that is both complete and strong. The opportunities afforded to the young women of the territory for training themselves to become managers of homes have never been anything like that what they now are in the college.

Take Care of the Stomach.

The man or woman whose digestion is perfect and whose stomach performs its every function is never sick. Kodal cleanses, purifies and sweetens the stomach and cures positively and permanently all stomach troubles, indigestion and dyspepsia. It is the wonderful reconstructive tonic that is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by conveying to their bodies all of the nourishment in the food they eat. Rev. J. H. Holladay, of Holladay, Miss., writes: Kodal has cured me. I consider it the best remedy I ever used for dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. I was given up by physicians. Kodal saved my life. Take it after meals. B. H. Briggs & Co. and J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

District Court.

Very little was accomplished in Judge Bek's court this morning. The grand jury reported some true bills.

In the case of W. C. Leonard vs. Santa Fe Mercantile company, the court gave the plaintiff a decree for $44.60.

The Salazar murder case is being heard before the grand jury this afternoon. The Salazar murder case is one of the most important cases to come up in this term of court. It will be remembered that on the night of March 31, Placido Salazar received a knife wound from which he died at a dance house in the southern part of this city. Francisco Salas and Juan Armijo are charged with the killing.

21 Years a Dyspeptic.

R. H. Foster, 315 S. 2nd, Salt Lake City, writes: "I have been bothered with dyspepsia or indigestion for 21 years; tried many doctors without relief; recently I got a bottle of Herbine. One bottle cured me, I am now tapering off on the second. I have recommended it to my friends; it is curing them too." 50 cents at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy—B. Ruppe.

Enroute West.

New York, Sept. 19.—President Roosevelt left Jersey City on the Pennsylvania road for Cincinnati at 2:30 this afternoon.

Raised from the Dead.

C. W. Landis, "Porter" for the Oriental Hotel, Chanute, Kan., says: "I know what it was to suffer with neuralgia deed I did, and I got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment and I was 'raised from the dead.' I tried to get some more, but before I had 'deposited' my bottle, I was cured entirely. I am telling the truth too." 25c, 50c, and $1.00 at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy—B. Ruppe.

For Better Cities.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 19.—Delegates from all over the United States and Canada will compare notes on the improvement of cities, at the convention of the American League of Civic Improvement in this city next week. It is a comparatively new organization, as this meeting will be its second national convention.

The subjects to be discussed cover a wide range. Some of them are smoke abatement, outdoor advertising, signs and street architecture, the arts and crafts movement, and public recreation. The annual address will be presented by Professor Charles Zuehlke, of the University of Chicago.

Beware of the Knife.

No physician has advanced more rapidly of late than surgery, but it should not be used except where absolutely necessary. In cases of piles for example, it is seldom needed. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures quickly and permanently. Unequaled for cuts, burns, bruises, wounds, skin diseases. Accept no counterfeits. "I was so troubled with bleeding piles that I lost much blood and strength," says J. C. Phillips, Paris, Ill. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in a short time." Soothes and heals. B. H. Briggs & Co. and J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

A Good School.

The normal school is already one of the leading educational institutions of the southwest, and one in which the people of Grant county especially feel a great local pride. The addition of the gymnasium and laboratory building, the contract for which was let last week, will further increase the efficiency and advantages of the school.—Silver City Independent.

"I had kidney trouble so bad," says

J. J. Cox of Valley View, Ky., "that I could not work. My feet were swollen to immense size and physicians were unable to give me any relief. My doctor finally prescribed Foley's Kidney Cure which made a well man of me. Sold by Alvarado Pharmacy.

Hon. F. A. Hubbell, the territorial republican central committee chairman, has received a wagon load of campaign literature from the republican national committee, and the republican committees of every county in the territory will soon be receiving literature from Mr. Hubbell.

Mrs. R. C. McClure and daughter Miss Jean, of Santa Fe, are in the city visiting with friends. They will leave tonight for Silver City, where they will in the future reside. Mr. McClure is supervisor of the Gila forest reserve, and will make his headquarters in Silver City.

Clark M. Carr, who was at Santa Fe the past few days, came in from the north last night, and tonight will leave for his ranch near Fort Wingate. Mr. Carr says the American Lumber company, which recently secured timber lands in western Valencia county, have opened an office in St. Louis and are selling stock.

C. M. and J. G. Cowles, two brothers from Louisville, Ky., are in the city from San Francisco on their way home. They took advantage of the cheap Knights of Pythias rates and visited the Pacific coast, and had a splendid time. They formerly resided in Shelby county, Kentucky.

Leon B. Stern, proprietor of the Lion dry goods store, returned this morning from a month's trip east. Mr. Stern says that he was fortunate in securing a fine large stock of fall and winter goods. The eastern markets were crowded with buyers from western houses, but as he went east early, had little trouble in supplying his wants. Mr. Stern gained some in avoirdupois and says that he enjoyed the trip very much.

For forty years Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry has been curing summer complaint, dysentery, diarrhoea, bloody flux, pain in the stomach, and it has never yet failed to do everything claimed for it.

FAIR NOTES.

Lodges and Societies Asked to Help Out Parade.

The fair association is sending all lodges and secret orders of the city formal invitations, requesting them to assist by their representation in making the Montezuma parade a grand success. Each lodge and society receiving these invitations could easily respond, at a little expense, with an appropriate float or else with a delegation of lodge members in parade dress. The Elks and Eagles have already signified their intention in being represented in the parade by elegant floats. Several of the leading merchants have also decided to have floats.

It is now positively known that three base ball teams will compete for the $1,500 fair prize. Col. R. E. Twitchell, manager of the Las Vegas team, says that his team will be made up of winners.

Advertising car No. 3, which left here Sunday night, with Sect Knight and a couple of able assistants in charge, arrived at Silver City Wednesday night. Mr. Knight writes from that place that El Paso, Las Cruces, San Marcial, Rincon, Socorro and Magdalena had been billed and the people at those places were unanimous in saying that they were coming to the fair.

The El Paso Herald says: "The beautiful fruit exhibit in jars that has been such an attraction at the headquarters of the chamber of commerce for so long a time, will be shown at the territorial fair at Albuquerque next month. The fruit is from Mesilla Park and it was returned yesterday to that place and will be sent thence to Albuquerque as a part of the exhibit of the farming section thereabouts."

Moki Tea positively cures sick headache, indigestion and constipation. A delightful herb drink. Removes all eruptions of the skin, producing a perfect complexion or money refunded. 25c and 50c. Write to us for free sample. W. H. Hooker & Co., Buffalo, N. Y. J. H. O'Reilly & Co. and B. H. Briggs & Co.

Close of Revival.

The revival services at the Highland Methodist church came to a close last night when Mr. Williams, the evangelist, delivered his famous lecture, "The Last Romp with the Tiger." A large crowd was present to hear the drummer preacher for the last time and the service proved to be one of the very best of the entire series. The lecture was a powerful illustration of the power of God to save from sin. Mr. Williams gave a graphic description of his life as a drunkard, of his recovery through the Koeley cure, and subsequently through the calvary cure. These services in the Highland church have been the best that have been held there in many years. The church was in excellent condition for a revival when Mr. Williams came, and it gave him its undivided sympathy and support from beginning to the end. Under the efficient administration and wise leadership of the pastor, Rev. M. Hodgson, this has been the most prosperous year in the history of the church. During this conference year, which closes September 24, the membership of the church has been increased 60 per cent, and every financial claim has been met in full. The members of the congregation are all hoping that Rev. Hodgson will be returned to them for another year. At the close of last night's lecture two bright young men united with the church, and sixty-nine people signed pledge cards to abstain from and discourage the sale of intoxicating liquors and cigarettes. Mr. Williams will lecture tonight at Lead Avenue Methodist Episcopal church on "The First Romp with the Tiger."

Two million Americans suffer the torturing pangs of dyspepsia. No need to Burdock Blood Bitters cures. At any drug store.

DEAD BODY FOUND.

Reduced to a Skeleton and Identification Impossible.

Joe Burke, who has been visiting friends in Williams, informs us that a sheep herder in the employ of Captain Smith, found the body of a man a short distance from Selkman, says the Kingman Miner. The body was reduced to a skeleton and identification was impossible. In the clothes was found $300 in gold, some silver and currency, but nothing that would lead to the identification of the remains. The hat found near the body contained the name of a mercantile firm at The Dalles, Oregon. A bullet hole in the skull and a revolver beside the corpse told the tale of the snuffing out of this life. About two months ago a stranger left two grips at the Harvey house at Selkman and stated that he was going out on a short distance and would soon return. He never came back and it is supposed that the gruesome find was the body of this man. The same day a sheep herder for Skinny Welsh found the body of another man several miles from Selkman and a party has been sent out to make an investigation.

Fortune Favors a Texan.

"Having distressing pains in head, back and stomach, and being without appetite, I began to use Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes W. P. Whitehead, of Kennedale, Tex., "and soon felt like a new man." Infallible in stomach and liver troubles. Only 25c at all drug stores.

Dairy Topics Discussed.

Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 17.—At today's sessions of the annual convention of the California Dairy association papers dealing with the following subjects were read and discussed. Care of milk for manufacturing, scientific butter-making, creamery management, manufacture of cheese in California, modern dairy appliances.

For Over Sixty Years.

An old and well tried remedy. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

Discuss Per Diem Car Charge.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 19.—Transportation officials representing all the leading railroads of the country were present today at the opening of the special meeting of the Railway Transportation association. The meeting was called to order in the assembly room of the Hotel Ingham by M. J. C. Wrenns, superintendent of transportation of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Railway. The principal purpose is to discuss the practical workings of the per diem system of charging for the use of freight cars which was adopted by the railroads of the country some time ago. The system has been shown to have some imperfections in its practical operations and it is to remedy these and remove the causes for dissatisfaction on the part of some of the roads that the present meeting is held.

Not Doomed for Life.

"I was treated for three years by good doctors," writes W. A. Greer, McConellsville, O., "for piles, and fistula, but, when all failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me in two weeks." Cures burns, bruises, cuts, corns, sores, eruptions, salt rheum, piles or no pay; 25c at all drug stores.

FREIGHT TRAINS WRECKED.

Trains Collide in a Tunnel on Northern Pacific Road.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 19.—A head end freight train collision on a heavy down grade at the eastern end of the Northern Pacific tunnel through the Cascade mountains last night caused the death of H. S. Shaffer, fireman, and the serious injury of A. J. Dams, engineer, and brakeman, W. Oswald, was badly hurt. The blocking of the track necessitated the sending of passenger trains Nos. 4 and 6 over the Palmer cut off this morning.

Between Covington and Auburn No. 4 stopped to take water and No. 6 crashed into it. The baggage and mail car of the first train was telescoped, and H. L. Moore and F. E. Chase, mail clerks, and Charles Saurens, express messenger, were hurt, but not seriously. Several passengers were slightly hurt.

Acker's Blood Elixir positively cures chronic blood poisoning and all scrofulous affections. At all times a matchless system tonic purifier. Money refunded if you are not satisfied. 50c and $1. J. H. O'Reilly & Co. and B. H. Briggs & Co.

SOCIALIST ARRESTED.

His Own Father Accuses Him of the Murder of an Italian Count.

Vienno, Sept. 19.—It is reported that Tonio Murri, the well known socialist and lawyer of Bologna, Italy, who is accused of the murder of Count Von Martini, recently found assassinated in his house at Bologna, has been arrested at Ala, Austrian Tyrol. The motive of murder was first attributed to robbery. September 12th, however, Professor Murri, university professor, and Count Von Martini's son in law, denounced his own son, Tullio, as the murderer. The accused man, the dispatch added, admitted that the crime was committed after a brawl provoked by a family quarrel.

To Examine Railroads Here.

London, Sept. 19.—Among the passengers en route for New York today on the White Star liner is Lieut. Col. Horatio A. Yorke, chief inspecting officer of railroads for the Board of Trade. Lieutenant Colonel Yorke has been commissioned by the Board of Trade to prepare a report on the workings of American railroads, with the view of adopting American railroad methods in Great Britain. He expects to spend a busy month in the United States, as, in addition to reporting on the steam lines, he is commissioned to investigate the street railroad systems, elevated roads, subways and pneumatic and electric signaling. Lieutenant Colonel Yorke will confine his inspection chiefly to New York and its vicinity, but will visit Washington to study the trolley system of the capital.

Nothing Like Oil.

"In dealing with man, remember that a spoonful of oil will go farther than a gallon of vinegar." The same may be said of children. There is nothing so good for children as the old-fashioned castor oil. However much they may abhor it, it is their best medicine for disorders of the bowels. In the more severe cases of diarrhoea and dysentery, however, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy should be given after the oil operates, and a quick cure is sure to follow. For sale by all druggists.

A Surprise Marriage.

Monday evening a very quiet and unsuspected marriage occurred at the house of Father A. Rabeyrolle in Santa Fe. The contracting parties were John Reynolds, of Lamy, and Miss Agnes O'Donnell, of Santa Fe. The witnesses were Miss Mary O'Donnell and John Hampel. Miss O'Donnell came to Santa Fe about two years ago and during her stay has made many friends. The happy couple left for Lamy.

Five Trainmen Killed and Two Injured by the Accident.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 19.—Five trainmen were killed and two seriously injured as a result of a head end collision between the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh and Pittsburgh & Western passenger trains at Witmer station on the latter road about 10 o'clock today. A number of passengers were cut and bruised. The dead:

George Chingerty, brakeman; Wm. Benedict, engineer; Thomas Dugan, fireman; Fay De Moss, boiler-maker; Wm. Graham, fireman.

The injured are H. E. Chambers, engineer, Pittsburgh & Western train, may die; C. W. Crossman.

The accident is alleged to have been due to the failure to flag the passenger trains.

DIED FIGHTING.

Man Hung for Murdering a Man for Five Cents.

New York, Sept. 19.—Peter Herlia was hanged in the county jail at Hackensack, N. J., today for the murder of Barney Kanter, a butcher. Before his execution was accomplished Herlia made a desperate fight. He then tore off a piece of lead pipe and shouted that he would brain the first one that came near him. The hose was turned on him. Herlia put up his hands to ward off the water from his face. Deputy sheriffs then rushed in and overpowered him and securely tied him. His last words were: "Good bye all. Excuse me."

Herlia shot Kanter on March 4 last because the latter would not sell him 5 cents worth of dog meat.

THIRD DISTRICT COURT.

Mimbres Flood Sufferer Shot a Dead for Food and Was Indicted.

The grand jury in the Third judicial district found county affairs in good condition, but urge that the roads and streets should be put in better condition. The report says that 40 per cent of prisoners confined in the Silver City jail are held under the charge of insanity, and it is urged that the territorial legislature take some action to relieve the condition of affairs. William N. Waterman pleaded guilty to forgery, and Clarence Van Ness was found guilty of burglarizing a saloon. Domingo Ruiz, who shot a deer, was indicted for violating the game laws. It was explained by District Attorney Llewellyn that Ruiz is a poor man who lost everything in the flood and he had killed the animal to provide food for his family. He was thereupon fined $50 and the sentence was suspended during good behavior. Juan Rubio and Felix Torres were convicted of horse stealing.

UNDERFLOW WATER.

Tests of the Pumping Process at Experimental Station.

The experimental work in progress at the agricultural experiment station, Mesilla Park, N. M., was undertaken with the three following points in view, says Prof. J. J. Vernon:

First—The development of the water supply from the underflow in sufficient quantities for irrigation purposes.

Second—A test of the efficiency and economy of different makes of pumps.

Third—The determination of the cost of irrigating different crops by pumping, under varying conditions of drought.

So far as the test has been carried out some very interesting data has been obtained. One six inch well, forty-eight feet deep, with a slotted strainer, located in a twelve foot gravel stratum, furnished over 500 gallons of water per minute or something over 6,400 cubic feet per hour (1.77 cubic feet per second). At the end of a thirty hour continuous run there was no sign of a diminution of the water. During this run 6.3-10 acres of alfalfa were irrigated in twenty-three hours and forty-five minutes at a cost of about $1.30 an acre for fuel. This field had been irrigated on June 5 with river water, but had received no water from that date until irrigated by pumping on July 30, fifty-five days later. The ground was quite dry and cracked open to quite a depth. Since at this season of the year alfalfa is usually irrigated once in from fourteen to twenty-one days, it is quite probable that twice the quantity of water was required for this irrigation than would have been required under normal conditions. Taking this as probably true the cost of irrigating alfalfa would amount to about 65 cents per acre under normal conditions of dryness and frequency. It is no more than just that I should add that this was made with inferior fuel, and the cost is likely to be less rather than more. Later tests will demonstrate this point more fully.

Don't let the little ones suffer from eczema or other torturing skin diseases. No need for it. Doan's Ointment cures. Can't harm the most delicate skin. At any drug store, 50 cents.

IN SOUTH AFRICA.

A Flagstaff Man Tells of His Thrilling Experience.

R. J. Fox, who will be remembered by the old residents of Flagstaff, is now in Salisbury, Rhodesia, South Africa, says the Flagstaff Sun.

Mr. Fox left here six years ago for Alaska, and writes the Sun that he has had many exciting adventures since leaving here. On a recent trip to Lake Nyanza, with forty-eight natives under his charge, a lion entered the camp at night, carrying away one of the men.

There were no guns in the party and the lion scared the natives as well as Mr. Fox, who says the excitement turned his hair gray. Since that time he carries an arsenal when traveling over the wild sections.

He says the country around Lake Nyanza and along the Zambesi river is rich and productive. There are many wild animals, such as the elephant, hippopotamus, lion and leopard, and one of the sports is shooting this large game as they water at the rivers.

He has met a number of former Arizonians in that country, and from the tone of his letter he is evidently enjoying life in Africa.

In a postscript to his letter, which is dated August 2, 1902, he says that he would leave the next day on a six months' trip to Lake Tanyaneka.

ELKS WILL HAVE BIG FAIR.

Sits Near City Hall Selects and Committees Appointed.

Dates for the street fair to be given by the Elks have been set and are November 10, 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15. Headquarters have been opened up by the executive committee in a room over the State National bank and a committee consisting of John F. Klein, J. S. Morrison, Frank Carr, Charles Devlin, J. and George Ogden placed in charge. Collector P. F. Garrett has been made director general and H. B. Charnar, secretary and treasurer, while Charles F. Sawyer will be general manager. Mr. Sawyer is from Cripple Creek, where he conducted a street fair last year. The entire amount will be on a lot at the city hall—El Paso News.

Labor Troubles in Portugal.

London, Sept. 19.—A special from Lisbon says that there have been collisions between troops and strikers at Guarda, near Oporto, and a number of workmen were killed.

Will of Stratton.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Sept. 19.—It was announced today that the will of the late W. S. Stratton would not be read and filed for probate until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. The presence of a second and later will is talked of, but it is doubted today, else it would have been filed for probate before this time.

Was at Las Vegas.

J. H. O'Reilly, president of the Albuquerque Fair association, was in town yesterday. Mr. O'Reilly has a wholesale drug house in Albuquerque, a retail house, is himself an active insurance agent, an enthusiastic Albuquerquean, and now president of the fair association, the biggest thing of his kind in New Mexico.—Las Vegas Optic.

Will Distribute Funds.

Washington, Sept. 19.—Secretary Shaw announced before leaving Washington this afternoon for the west that during the week he had authorized the distribution of $10,000,000 in public funds among the banks throughout the country which have bonds available for security.

Declined Nomination.

Pittsfield, Mass., Sept. 19.—John C. Crosby today declined, for unknown reasons, to accept the nomination of lieutenant governor tendered him by the democratic state convention.

East Ohio Conference.

Cambridge, Ohio, Sept. 17.—About 350 ministers, together with a large number of church officials and other lay visitors, are here for the East Ohio conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which will be in session through the remainder of the week. The conference appointments will not be announced until Friday or Saturday.

Dr. J. C. Bishop, of Agnew, Mich., says, "I have used Foley's Honey and in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." Refuse substitutes. Sold by Alvarado Pharmacy.

Skull Crushed.

The little 6 year old girl of Mrs. Logan, colored, of Las Vegas, was holding the bridle of a burro in front of her home, North Grand avenue, about 6 o'clock last Saturday evening. By some means the burro became frightened and ran about sixty feet, dragging the child, around whose hand the bridle had become fastened. The head of the child struck a railroad tie and the back of the skull was crushed. Doctors were summoned and the skull was trepanned. The child has since been resting well and no apprehension has been had of fatal results.

Digests what you eat

This preparation contains all of the digestants and digesters of all kinds of food. It gives instant relief and never fails to cure. It allows you to eat all the food you want. The most sensitive stomachs can take it. By its use many thousands of dyspeptics have been cured after everything else failed. Is unequalled for the stomach. Children with weak stomachs thrive on it.

TOWNS OF LAS VEGAS

BY SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 12.—The "Trip Around the World" social given by the Methodist ladies last night was one of the most unique, as well as entertaining, affairs ever given in the social line in this city. There were about 225 tourists, and some $96 was taken in as fare. The first steamer, which happened to be a hay rack, left the Methodist church, United States, shortly after 4 in the afternoon. The United States was in charge of Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, and the church was beautifully decorated with flags, pictures of the presidents and otherwise was the nationalistic well displayed. Coffee and cake were the refreshments here. Twenty minutes was allowed at each place to see the "country" and get some of the refreshments at each place. The route from the United States was via way of Mexico, at the home of Mrs. Charles Schlott. Here tortillas, hot tamales and peppered dishes left no doubt in the tourist mind where he was. The flag of the country was displayed here, as at each country were the decorations such as to show the nationality, as well as the food served. The tourists next embarked across the Pacific in the rolling hayrack and arrived at China and Japan, told by Mrs. Ah Hing Westlung. The guests sat on the floor around the tea table and ate rice, with-out the aid of chop sticks. The long stretch to Germany was next made, and Frau James Robbins greeted the tourists and served them with pretzels, cheese, coffee and sauer kraut. To Italy and Benito S. Patti's was a short jump, and steaming spaghetti and coffee was enjoyed to the splendid singing of Miss Katie Backgale. It was a sea trip next to England, where her ladyship, Mrs. W. T. Treverton, ruled with a fair hand and had a real English dinner of roast beef and trimmings, with coffee and cake. It was not so far to Iceland and Greenland, which was ruled by Mrs. R. Studebaker. Ice cream and cake was the bill here, to which was added music by the band. The rate of 50 cents for the trip skinned Cook's agency to death. The trip was made without mishap, and will be long remembered by the tourists.

Three carloads of scoured wool were loaded here yesterday and seven today for shipment east. Miss Blake, daughter of Col. Blake, of Beulah, left last evening for Arizona, where she will accept a position in a school. W. B. Twitchell left today for the state of Michoacan, Mexico, where he goes in the employ of Prof. Frank C. Smith, of New York, the mining expert, to investigate some properties. This is a deserved compliment to Mr. Twitchell's capacity as a mining expert, for work he is to do for Mr. Smith is very important, and it will take him about two weeks. Prof. Frank C. Smith, of New York, who has been here several days looking over the mining outlook here and elsewhere in the territory, today left for his home, where he is at the head of a large company of capitalists. While with W. B. Twitchell down near the big Hamilton mine, he assisted Mr. Twitchell in prospecting one of the richest claims that has been staked for some time. It is only about a half mile from the famous Hamilton mine, which recently sold for $75,000.

Miss Pearl Goodall entertained a number of friends last night in honor of Arthur Nygren, who is shortly to leave the city, returning to his home in Illinois, where he will remain. A good social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served. Miss Mollie Kennedy is off from her position at Hild's, sick. A meeting of the creditors in the bankruptcy case of A. A. Senecal, is called for next Thursday morning at 10 o'clock before Referee S. B. Davis, Jr.

In the hearing before the referee in bankruptcy, S. B. Davis, yesterday, no creditors appeared in the case of William Standish and there will be no further meeting, nor will there be a trustee appointed. It is up to Mr. Standish now to apply to the court for a release. Miss Cora Gehring, of Albuquerque, will be the guest of Mrs. Mann on Sunday.

Died, last night at 9 o'clock, at the age of 36 years, Mrs. Martha Esquibel de Roybal, wife of Jose N. Roybal. The mother left four children and a sorrowing husband to mourn her loss. The funeral will take place tomorrow from the residence near the normal.

Master Willie Tipton had the misfortune to get his leg quite badly hurt yesterday evening while riding his bicycle up Bridge street near the horse house. The street was full of vehicles and he endeavored to cross, when he was struck by the rig of Mrs. Andrea Sena, knocked under the wheels and had his bicycle badly torn up, besides receiving the injury. He bravely tried not to cry, and bore his hurt like a man. He was taken home in John York's wagon.

The city council will make another try for a quorum tonight. The Young Ladies' chapter of the Episcopal church at their meeting yesterday at the home of the Misses May and Carol Ross, elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, Miss M. Harrison; vice president, Miss Louise Spierdeder; secretary, Miss Lottie Hayward, and treasurer, Miss Fitzgerald.

Mrs. Emma Vase, mother of Miss Vase, the school teacher, is expected to arrive here Tuesday next. At the gun club shoot yesterday, S.

R. Dearth keeps the badge with a record of 24 out of 25 birds in singles, and 9 out of 10 in the doubles. "Happy" Miller came next in the singles with 17 birds.

Will Stuart, the mining engineer, returned to the old mine today. He brought 1,500 pounds of ore in sacks in yesterday and will ship it at once to El Paso for a test. He has struck the bottom of the old shaft now, and is working on the vein proper and taking ore out for the dump. He sent a blacksmith's outfit out today, with more tools, and is pushing matters on the mine. He says he has lots of visitors now, and there are claims staked out all around in the neighborhood.

W. J. Lucas arrived here yesterday from Rincon, where he has been agent for the Santa Fe. He will accept the vacancy here caused by Agent C. F. Jones' resignation, and will take charge in a few days. Mr. Lucas is a most pleasant young man, is well known here and will make a success in his new position. He was formerly cashier at the freight house, some time ago, also has held the position as relief agent, filling in temporary vacancies along the line.

Mrs. D. Burkhalter and her two children left last night on No. 8 for Des Moines, Iowa, where he will make a visit with old friends.

Mrs. M. Solt and daughter, Lillie, left today for Lawrence, Kansas, where they will make their future home.

Hon. T. B. Catron came over from the territorial capital on No. 2 to attend to a little business and talk politics.

Mrs. G. H. Sweet and daughter went through here today from San Marcial en route to Topeka, where they will make their home with Arthur Sweet, who was trainmaster here for a few days a short time ago.

Mrs. Ely Green returned today to her home at Trinidad after a visit here with her mother, Mrs. O'Rourke.

Paul Whiting, one of the engineers on the Santa Fe, left today for New York to look after some patent business. Mr. Whiting is quite a genius in mechanics, and has patents on air brakes and conductor's punches.

Judge E. V. Long and Judge Daniels went up to Springer last night on No. 8 to attend to business matters there.

Fred Gray, who has been visiting his sister here, Mrs. A. R. Da Costa, left today for his home in Princeton, Indiana.

R. B. Mudge, the day clerk at the Alvarado at Albuquerque, returned today from a trip up in the mountains and will leave for the east soon.

Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 13.—Your correspondent called on Prof. Frank C. Smith to get his opinion regarding the general outlook in the territory, and especially in the vicinity of Las Vegas. Professor Smith is one of the leading mining experts in the United States, and came out here to look at some properties. In answer to inquiry as to what he thought of the outlook in this vicinity, he said:

"Well, there has been practically no development, but the outlook is very satisfactory. The formation of ore is due, of course, to natural action and the effects of igneous rocks, and where the rock is seen cutting into the ancient formations, or sediment rocks, one is apt to find ores and precious metals, and that I note here. As to the district at Teecolote, which I examined, I am inclined to think it is hardly of a satisfactory nature, but no doubt some of the prospects will pay, but the average is low. One's idea is, of course, to treat the whole dump when mining, and I am inclined to believe to do that would be risky. Still, there is no question that some of the ore could be treated profitably, no question whatever. It seems very strange to me that there has not been more prospecting done in the territory. One can go for miles and find nothing, while in most mining communities there are prospectors' cabins everywhere.

"I have been on the Pecos river part of the time, and there is no question about what could be opened there. That country is a paradise for prospectors, and I cannot understand why more development has not been done, as all the conveniences are at hand. Speaking of the region near Glorieta and the famous Hamilton mine, everything looks most encouraging. There are fine streams, timber, coal and everything a man could want. The coal in that district would certainly pay to mine; it seems everywhere and I think the outlook over the territory, as well as in Las Vegas' immediate surroundings, is good, and that there is a future for the mining interests of New Mexico."

Asked how, judging from the ores he had seen, would be the best way to treat the ores, he said:

"The oxidized ores in the sandstone formations, which predominate, should be leached. The other ores should be matted, as sulphated ores are easier handled this way."

Professor Smith did not leave until today for his home in New York, where he represents some large capitalists in an expert way. This was his second visit to Las Vegas recently.

C. L. Duran, the postoffice inspector, came in Saturday on No. 2, after a swing around the territory.

Faithers Gilbertson, Pouget and Le Guillon returned Friday afternoon from their trip to Watrous.

Rev. A. M. Lumpkin returned from his vacation trip Friday afternoon. He came direct from Roswell, but has been as far away from the fold as Hot Springs, Ark.

R. B. Rice, the city surveyor, and William Bloomfield went down to Rowe Saturday to do some surveying on one of the big mining claims near there, held by a local party.

Mmanuel Padilla escaped from the insane asylum Friday afternoon and no trace of him has yet been found. The fellow was a "trusty" and had been employed in the kitchen. He was from Valencia county and had been in the asylum several years.

Hon. Eugenio Romero left Friday evening for his camps in the Galinas mountains, to pay off his gang. He goes to Albuquerque, then overland sixty miles to Torcon, the home of his son, Sorapio, then on forty miles more overland to the tie camps in the mountains.

There was a large attendance at the reception tendered the new rabbi, Dr. M. Lefkowitz, late of Nashville, Tenn., at the synagogue Friday night. The doctor arrived on No. 7, which did not get in until 7 o'clock, and was taken to the church to get acquainted with his new congregation. Dr. Lefkowitz made a very favorable impression. He is a young man of great ability, and we predict much success for him in his new field of labor. There was a special musical program, but no preaching.

Judge E. V. Long and George P. Money applied for a writ of mandamus before Judge Mills Saturday morning, in behalf of the democratic central committee, against the board of county commissioners of Mora county, asking that the board change the precincts in Mora county as they were originally. They allege that four precincts have been abolished and divided among others, and they want the old order restored. The judge granted the writ temporarily, and it is up to the commissioners to show cause why the writ should not be made permanent. The hearing will take place in Raton in about ten days. The gentlemen also presented a list of democrats, asking that the minority have representation in each precinct on the registration board.

Gray Creek, Colo., ball team will be here Saturday and Sunday week. This team has a big reputation, and just recently defeated Pueblo.

Las Vegas, N. M., Sept. 15.—"Jimmy" Hume, the irrepressible, has gone and "done it," so Mrs. Hume, his erstwhile wife claims. She was inquiring of your correspondent last evening if he "had seen Jimmy," but he hadn't. She says that Jimmy has kidnapped her boy and broken faith with her again, and as she can get no satisfaction from Mrs. S. A. Douglas, his husband's adopted mother, she claims she is abetting her husband in the trouble making. Mr. Hume came and got the boy Saturday afternoon about 2 o'clock to visit with him, as was agreed by contract between the couple after the last fracas. He had not brought the child back by last night, and the mother thinks he has taken the boy with him to Romeroville, his home, and she is looking for vengeance now. This couple seem to be having more than their share of connubial infelicities. Each blame the other, so you can have your choice.

The attendance at the ball game yesterday was a record breaker, there being close to 1,250 paid admissions, with a cash drawer of close to $550, larger by about $50 than the game two weeks ago at Santa Fe.

Herbert Clark left today for Ann Arbor, where he will resume his studies in the university. He will be a sophomore this year.

Misses Eva and Ada Springer left today for New York City, where they will enter the Columbia university.

Louis Bishop left today after a few days' visit here for his home in Birmingham, Ala. He was employed in the freight office here about two years ago.

Del Chambers returned Saturday evening from his trip to Trinidad, and brought Mrs. Chambers and child home.

J. S. Nelson, Sr., who was formerly agent at the hot springs, arrived here yesterday to visit with his family. He comes from Ojo Caliente, Mexico.

James Flint left yesterday on No. 2 for Kansas City, where he will enter a medical school for the winter.

Capt. W. M. Steinwedell, of Quincy, Illinois, after a pleasant visit here with Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hendrickson, left yesterday for Denver.

C. R. Van Houten returned yesterday from Santa Fe, where he saw the sights of the Ancient City for a couple of days.

Bernard Appell took advantage of the excursion yesterday from Raton to return from his trip up the road.

Mrs. A. C. Whitford left last night for Sacramento, Cal. Her father went through on No. 7 from Newton, Kan., and she accompanied him west.

G. S. Good & Co. have brought suit in Colfax county against William Maggon. The suit is in attachment for the sum of $3,000, the amount due for tools, grading outfit, etc., sold defendant.

Santiago Aguilar died Saturday of appendicitis, on the west side. He was 60 years of age, and was buried yesterday.

Mrs. S. E. Mills and Mrs. E. H. Salazar took the stage this morning for Santa Rosa for a visit there with relatives.

Judge William J. Mills, Secundino Romero, Capt. L. C. Fort and Col. R. E. Twitchell left on No. 8 last night for Raton, where they will hold Colfax county court.

William White is on the indisposed list today.

Miss Emma Cote arrived here this evening from Chicago and will make a visit with her sister, Mrs. Jack Laubeck.

W. H. Kelly left this afternoon for Chicago, on a trip to combine a little business with a large amount of pleasure. Mr. Kelly will go on to New York and from there take the steamer for the City of Mexico, where he has a position in the treasury department of the Mexican Central.

E. G. Murphy left today for Denver and other points to enjoy a vacation and look after a few business matters on the side.

D. C. Ducler left this afternoon for a trip to New York City. He goes on a pleasure trip and to recuperate from his late sickness.

Hon. Charles A. Spiess went up to Raton this afternoon to help in the counting there.

A. Minnet returned this afternoon from a trip over the northern part of the territory. He reports business fair, despite the fact the crops are short.

Mrs. J. E. Richley entertained most delightfully a number of lady friends Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. J. J. Schmidt. The ladies played whist and enjoyed some splendid refreshments.

Benito Baca, of Gross, Kelly & Co., will leave this evening for Los Angeles to visit his mother.

Richard De Graffenreid, residing at Puerto de Luna had the misfortune last week, while at his ranch on the Yomo, to get kicked by a mule, breaking one of his legs.

Mrs. W. J. Funkhouser and family left today for Trinidad to join her husband, who has a position there. The family will make that city their home.

W. M. Lewis left this afternoon for Colorado Springs to attend the meeting of the Western Federal Directors' association, which convenes there. He expects to be gone about a week.

Jacob Gross, of Gross, Kelly & Co., departed this afternoon on No. 2 for his home in St. Louis. Mr. Gross has spent most of the summer here.

W. J. Lucas, the new agent for the Santa Fe, will begin checking in to his new position tomorrow, when the auditor arrives on No. 2.

Mrs. G. H. Marshall went up to Trinidad this afternoon to meet her sister and nephew of Dallas, Texas, who are visiting there.

Mrs. J. O. Sherman left this afternoon for Trinidad for a visit with relatives.

BARTON McCOACH.

John A. Barton and Miss Minnie McCoach Married.

The Methodist church of San Marcial was crowded last Sunday evening, says the Bee.

In addition to the regular members and attendants quite a large number of people entered the church portals to witness the incidents and ceremony connected with the marriage of John A. Barton and Miss Minnie McCoach. The principals appeared self possessed and conscious of the happiness in store for them by the sanction of their love in the sacred edifice with the impressive ceremony of the Methodist church. The costume of the bride was pure white, as was also that of her bridesmaids, Misses Beadie Hitchcock, Inez Aldrich, Lina Hockett and May Watkins. A number of little girls similarly arrayed acted as maids of honor. The Rev. Ed. Le Breton performed the ceremony. His pronunciation was distinct and the interesting points so well rounded that the congregation spoke their approval in kindly glances. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Conroy. The bride and groom are among our most popular and interesting young people and they have the best wishes of the entire community for their happiness and success in life.

FOR CUTTING TIMBER.

Cooney Mining Men to Be Arraigned Before Commissioner Newcomb.

Wm. Weatherby, Jas. Shannon, Ira Gregory, Frank Kramis, Harry Rhinehart, Wm. Spurgeon, John Clark and Albert Emerson arrived in the city, having been summoned before United States Commissioner Newcomb upon a charge of having unlawfully cut timber for mining purposes in the Cooney mining district, says the Silver City Enterprise. Some interesting facts are likely to be brought out in the trial. The timber was being cut for the Cooney shaft and for the large new concentrator and the proceedings will delay this enterprise, which means so much to Silver City.

MAN MISSING.

Rev. Arthur Teal, of New York, Sought for in New Mexico.

Gus Reiling, of Silver City, has received the following notice from James C. Horton, of the firm of Foxon, Horton & Gallagher, large wholesale druggists, of Kansas City. The missing man is a close personal friend of Mr. Horton. The notice reads:

Rev. Arthur R. Teal, a Presbyterian minister, left his home at Katonah, New York, August 12, 1902, and has not since been seen. It is thought that from overwork and study his mind has become unbalanced, and he is a gentleman of high character and devoted to his family, who are in the deepest distress on account of his disappearance.

He may have gone to New Mexico or Arizona, as he had been talking of missionary work there.

His height is about 5 feet 10½ inches, dark brown eyes and hair, (though quite bald for a young man), quite full under lip. Wore a Scotch tweed suit and straw hat with dark blue band.

Any information concerning his whereabouts will be thankfully received.

MINING HIS HOBBY.

On Other Subjects He Seems Perfectly Sane.

P. J. O'Halloran, who was taken to the asylum at Phoenix last week, has for some years been a familiar figure on the streets of Williams, says the News. His one weak spot seems to be on the subject of mines and he was continually broaching some scheme to our citizens. Recently he has been distributing advertising matter for the Thunder Mountain Mining company, in which he claimed to have 25,000 shares. O'Halloran some time since filed on a piece of what he claimed to be rich mineral land about a half mile west of town that was supposed to be rich in aluminum. It was later used as a dumping ground by the Saginaw & Manistee Lumber company, to which O'Halloran objected. In a conversation at the asylum with Attorney Stoves, he said that the company finally agreed to pay him for the use of the ground and then failed to keep the agreement. The impression he has been trying to give out at the asylum that he was railroaded there by parties who are interested in getting him out of Coconino county is all bluff. There may be some aluminum there, but where is the piece of land in which it does not exist. As for its worth as a mining claim—it has none.

REPORTS OF SUFFERING.

Postmaster Charles Dennis, of Mimbres, Says the "People Will Want for Bread."

Among a large number of letters and telegrams which have been received by Governor Otero regarding the destitution from the Mimbres river flood and the necessity of outside aid being promptly given, was the following received from Charles Dennis yesterday morning. Mr. Dennis is postmaster at Mimbres, and being on the ground, is qualified to speak from personal knowledge of existing conditions:

Mimbres, N. M., Sept. 8, 1902. Hon. M. A. Otero, Governor of New Mexico, Santa Fe, N. M.:

Dear Sir—As you are aware of the disastrous flood that swept the Mimbres river valley on the evening of August 29, I would respectfully call your attention to the wants of the people of this section of country. Without exception all crops are destroyed and many of the people will want for bread to eat this fall and winter. Cannot you do something in your official capacity as governor to help the distress of this district? Mayor Fleming and citizens of Silver City have done nobly for the present time, but the suffering people will need some aid from some source or there will be great suffering among the poor.

Please give your attention to this matter and oblige. Yours respectfully, CHARLES DENNIS, Postmaster.

WAS AT RATON.

Scott, Tom and Jerry Wers at Raton the Other Day.

With literature piled high in the car, with a sharp Barlow knife and a box of Faber lead pencils, H. Scott Knight, the renowned traveling agent of the territorial fair, made hay during the sunshine while recently on his trip to the northern section of the territory. He, with "Tom" and "Jerry" and the advertising car, dropped into Raton the other day, and here is what the Range says:

The advertising car of the territorial fair pulled into Raton yesterday morning, and Col. Scott Knight, the advance agent, was soon at work with his corps of assistants "papering" the town. The railway company shows that it appreciates the value of the fair, by furnishing a car and free transportation for bill posters over all its lines and by making a rate of one and a half cents a mile to those who wish to attend. The people ought to show as much interest in this matter as the railroad company, for certainly they have as much at stake in the matter of attracting new settlers and stimulating the development of our resources.

The railway company is making a special effort to attract people from the eastern states, and there will likely be a larger attendance of strangers this year than ever before.

This makes it a matter of business for our home people to show up the advantages and resources of the territory. We need settlers and we need capital, and that we have something worth coming for. But apart from the business idea of the matter, the sports and amusements at the coming fair will constitute attractions that will draw people from every part of the United States.

THE JEMEZ RESORT.

Guests Still at Springs—Hotel Arrivals—Interesting Items.

Special Correspondence. Jemez Hot Springs, N. M., Sept. 15.—The bath houses are still kept very busy, four wagon loads of campers having arrived yesterday. Block's stage comes in loaded most every trip.

A few days ago a sheep herder ran down two fawn and brought them in to sell to the visitors. He found a ready sale and went away rejoicing.

M. S. Otero is having a hard time feigning his huge boiler into the sulphur springs over the new road lately built. He has been on the road twenty-one days and still hasn't got there yet.

Wm. Berry, who was here for the last two weeks, left on the stage for home, well pleased with his outing.

Late arrivals at Block's hotel: Dick Heller, Cabezon, N. M.; John Pfeuger, Jack Gundelfinger, Lamy, N. M.; A. C. Edwards, Winslow, A. T.; Abel Fellis, San Rafael, N. M.; James Wood, Madrid, N. M.

L. A. Judt says business was never better. He wears a broad smile. Salmon, Unes & Abouseman, the store-keepers, are busy all the time, and consequently are happy.

Block's stage went out with a full load this morning. Francisco Perera, our postmaster, returned from Albuquerque, where he went to leave a half a dozen of his immense family of children in school.

The fourth crop of alfalfa is about ready for harvesting.

"CONSCIENCE."

A Large Crowd Greeted the Drummer Procher Last Night.

"Conscience" was the subject of Evangelist Williams' sermon last night at the Highland Methodist church and it proved to be one of his strongest deliverances.

Mr. Williams has proven himself "a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of God." He has stood squarely upon the word of God in all his work here, and it is not surprising that he has made a better impression upon the church and community than any evangelist that has labored in the Highland church for many years.

Only three more services and the meetings close.

The subject tonight is "The Tears of Jesus." Everybody welcome. Let large crowds hear Mr. Williams during these closing nights.

LABOR PROBLEM.

Serious Situation in Cotton Picking Districts of the South.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 13.—The cotton picking season is at its height in Arkansas, Mississippi and Tennessee, the season having begun fully two weeks earlier than usual. In view of the rapid opening of the crop there is a general shortage of labor and the problem promises to be a serious one for the planters. Some of the largest growers of cotton declare that they have never seen a time when there was such a scarcity as there is at present. The indications are that the picking season will be short this year. The fact that the crop is so much earlier than usual and that the weather has been so hot is accepted as a sure sign of this. Some of the crop authorities are predicting that the entire crop will be gathered before the Christmas holidays and that the bulk of it will have been harvested by the end of November, if not considerably earlier. This fact of itself tends to complicate the labor question still more, and should there come bad weather, the result would be very damaging because of the large amounts of cotton that would be caught in the field.

WAS AT LOS CERRILLOS.

Scott Knight has struck the town in his private car, not the private car that a New Mexican judge once traveled in and which has been celebrated in song and story, but Scott's very own; in which he makes his annual tour as advance agent of the territorial fair. He carries with him enough show bills and posters to paper all the dead walls in New Mexico and keep the people constantly in mind of the fact that the fair which begins at Albuquerque on the 14th of October is going to be the biggest thing of its kind ever seen this far west.

With the broncho busting, the Indian dancing, the fast horses once, the crackerjack ball players from the east, the sports are going to lay away over anything ever attempted before in the territory, and you will make the mistake of your life if you don't go.—Cerrillos Register.

HERE FROM SOCORRO.

What C. T. Brown Says About Mining Congress at Butte, Mont.

C. T. Brown, the Socorro mining man, came up from that place this morning and is spending the day in the city. Mr. Brown has just returned from Butte, Mont., where he attended the fifth annual session of the international mining congress. He reports the session successful in every respect. The United States government had four able geologists present, who read papers before the congress, treating on mining of the United States, and giving some excellent ideas.

The congress adopted a resolution petitioning congress against the passage of the Kearns bill.

The congress also adopted a resolution, tendered by Mr. Brown, petitioning congress to pass the Grosvenor bill, which relates to the government granting aid to the different mining schools of the United States.

Another important action taken by the congress was the changing of the name of that body. It will hereafter be known as the American mining congress instead of the international mining congress.

Mr. Brown says that the city of Butte treated the visitors most cordially. A free excursion was run out to the Anaconda smelting plant, for the benefit of the visiting delegates. The Anaconda, which is the largest plant of the kind in the world, kept open house and the visit was a pleasant one. At the Anaconda the ore is handled automatically from the car, through the different departments of smelting, and out to the cooling room as the pure metal.

The attendance at the congress was about 900 delegates.

Mr. Brown returned by way of Salt Lake City.

REBUILDING

The Broken Down Structure.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Repairs the Diseased Parts of the Human Body and Establishes Health, Comfort and Happiness.

Can we rebuild our pain racked, emaciated and wasted bodies? Yes, the work can be done, even though the spark of life glimmers but fitfully and feebly. This work of rebuilding can only be effectually accomplished by the use of Paine's Celery Compound, that marvelous medicine that has saved so many lives in the past.

Paine's Celery Compound, nature's fertilizer and builder, acts directly on the great nervous system, giving pure, vitalizing blood, nerve force, digestive vigor, refreshing sleep and increased weight.

Begin the good work of health building today. Take home a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, use it faithfully, and you will have cause for rejoicing and thanksgiving. Mrs. James Arthur, Spokane, Wash., a lady most helpless from cruel rheumatism and terrible neuralgia, and cured by Paine's Compound, writes thus:

"I have suffered for three years with neuralgia and rheumatism, and tried many different remedies which would give me only temporary relief. From last January and through the spring months, I suffered terribly. I could walk but a short distance, and some days not at all. I used Paine's Celery Compound and have not been troubled since. Before using the Compound my knees were so bad I could not get down or up, but now I can walk a mile or more every day, with no stiffness or lameness in the joints."

Investigation of Arizona Copper Deposits.

Dr. F. L. Ransome has just completed a comprehensive report on the geology and ore deposits of the Globe copper district, Arizona, for the United States geological survey. The region is dissected by a remarkable network of faults, of various geologic ages, and the occurrence of the ores is related to some of the older of these fissures. The copper ores hitherto mined in the district have been oxidized and are consequently free from sulphur, but the exploitation of the deeper sulphide ores is yet in its infancy. The district has produced in the neighborhood of 120,000,000 pounds of copper

COURT CONVENES

Second Judicial District Court in Session.

COURT OFFICERS WERE APPOINTED.

Able Charge of Judge Baker to the Territorial Grand Jury.

JUSTICE WILL START TO GRIND.

The United States court for the Second Judicial District convened at the court house this morning, with Judge B. S. Baker presiding.

The grand jury was sworn and charged, Louis Iffeld being made foreman.

The judge then appointed the following court officers for the United States side: Juan Anaya and Cornelius Murphy, clerk and bailiff; J. Felipe Hubbell, interpreter to the grand jury.

Territorial Side.
The territorial grand jury was sworn, and J. A. Sandoval was chosen foreman.

T. O. Mason, bailiff, and Seferino Crockett, interpreter.

The following are the instructions of the judge to the grand jury:

Gentlemen: You have been legally selected, empaneled and sworn as grand jurors for the September, 1902, term of the district court of the Second Judicial district, within and for the county of Bernalillo. For more than a thousand years, throughout the civilized world, has lived in some form and under some name the embodiment of the grand jury of today, having always had for its object the presentment for trial of violators of the law, doing their work in secret, so that the influence of wealth and position could not be present to prevent the presentment of the guilty, nor to force the presentment of the innocent. It is incumbent upon the court to instruct you generally what the law is, and your duties under the law; and where the instructions are not particular and exhaustive you can apply to the district attorney or to the court at any time for further instructions, or as to what the law is upon any particular matter.

In the main, it is the duty of you, as a body, to inquire into all violations of the law that have been committed within this county, or that may be prosecuted within this county, irrespective of persons. Your foreman is empowered with authority to administer oaths to the several witnesses that will appear before you. It is expected of the grand jury, that you will be controlled by evidence only that is produced before your body. The general rules of evidence will govern you in determining whether or not an indictment should be presented. You will consider none but legal evidence, and the best evidence in degree, when you are deliberating upon whether or not a presentment shall be made. You may consider hearsay, or secondary evidence, for the purpose only of assisting you in ascertaining or running down proper persons where legal evidence may be thus ascertained or found; but in all your deliberations you will allow no secondary or hearsay evidence to weigh with you one particle. You are not bound to hear evidence for the defendant, but it is your duty to weigh all the evidence submitted to you, and when you have reason to believe that other evidence within your reach will explain away the charge, you should order such evidence to be produced, and for that purpose may require the district attorney to issue process for such necessary witnesses.

It is the duty of the grand jury to present indictments against any and all persons when all the evidence taken together is such, as in the judgment of the several members of the grand jury, would warrant a conviction before a trial jury beyond a reasonable doubt. If any of your number know of any violations of law, or have a reason to believe there has been any offense of the law, it is your duty to bring the matter to the attention of the grand jury. In other words, it is the duty of the grand jury to investigate and carefully consider any charges of violation of the law from whatever source they may come.

You must be very careful not to allow your desires or inclinations to swerve you from returning an indictment where the evidence warrants. You should be equally as cautious not to allow your personal hatred or prejudices to prevent any person not fully warranted by the evidence.

You will allow no one to remain in your room during your considerations and deliberations upon any subject calling for an official act of your body; nor will you advise with any one as to what you should do except amongst yourselves. After a thorough and full consideration of all legal evidence before you as to whether or not a true bill should be found against any person or persons, it is your duty then to vote upon the question, and if twelve or more of your number are of the conscientious opinion that a bill of indictment should be presented, you will then request the district attorney to prepare an indictment in accordance with your desires, upon the back of which indictment will be the words "A true bill," which must be signed by your foreman, and by you presented in open court.

The first matters for your consideration will be to investigate the parties now in custody, having been bound by magistrates or justices of the peace to this court, to await the action of your body. If twelve or more of your number find a bill against these persons, then a true bill should be presented; if less than twelve of your number only think a bill should be presented, then the parties should be discharged, and you will so report your finding in these matters.

You will next consider any and all charges against persons who have been bound over to the district court and are now upon bond, awaiting the action of your body.

It will be your duty to inquire of any willful and corrupt misconduct in office of any of the public officers of this county. For purposes of use of the grand jury, or of any member, you will have free access to all public records of the county. Among other things, it will be your duty to inquire into whether or not the jail of the county is properly kept.

The law requires, as well as the good service of the grand jury, that all your doings be kept absolutely secret; all matters should be kept inviolate by every member of the grand jury; and, in fact, the law provides that if any grand juror shall disclose the doings of the grand jury while sitting, or even thereafter that they may be punished, in any sum not exceeding the sum of $50, unless such disclosure is made under due process of law.

The law makes it a part of my duty to charge you, and call your special attention to section 405 of the compiled statutes of 1897, which law provides in substance, that it shall be unlawful for any county commissioner, sheriff, treasurer, assessor, probate judge or probate clerk, or any other person who as principal, or deputy, holds any county office in any county of this territory to either directly or indirectly buy, sell, deal in or speculate in or with any certificate, warrant or other evidence of indebtedness issued by such county or by the territory of New Mexico, except such warrant or certificate that might be issued to such person. The law also provides in section 406, that it is unlawful for any mayor, councilman, collector, marshal, clerk or other person holding any office of appointment in any incorporated city or town in the territory, to either directly or indirectly buy, sell, barter, deal in or speculate in or with any such certificate or warrant of such incorporated city or town, except such as are legally issued to them; and a like provision is in the statutes for the clerk of the district court or his deputy in this meddling or intermeddling with orders or certificates issued by such officer.

It is my duty to call your attention particularly to section 1377 of the compiled statutes of 1897, wherein the law provides in effect, that if any person shall carry a deadly weapon either concealed or otherwise on or about the settlements of the territory, except upon his own premises or in the lawful defense of his person, property or family, it is a crime indictable under the laws of the territory. The law also provides that if any person shall draw a deadly weapon upon another, or if any person shall handle a deadly weapon in a threatening manner at or towards another, except in the lawful defense of himself, his family or his property, it is an indictable offense. The law upon this subject will be more particularly explained to you by the district attorney in case any such matter shall come before your body.

You are further instructed that if any person shall be found on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday, engaged in any sport, or in horse racing, cock fighting, or in any other manner disturbing any worshipping assembly or private family, or attending any public meeting or public exhibition, excepting for religious worship or instruction, or engaged in any labor, except works of necessity, charity or mercy, it is an indictable offense; and should any violation of this statute come to your knowledge or information, it is the duty of the grand jury to indict any and all such persons.

In case an interpreter is needed in the examination of witnesses or in your discussion of evidence, you will have one at your command, but in no event must the interpreter or any other person be in your room or within your hearing during your balloting, or determining whether or not an indictment must be returned.

It will be the duty of the grand jury to select one of your number as clerk, whose duty it will be to make and preserve the minutes of your proceedings, except your votes on indictments. Such minutes should be furnished the prosecuting attorney to aid him in drawing indictments, if you find any, in accordance with your findings. The law is a little lax as to when and how the grand jury shall carry on its proceedings. The grand jury, however, is under the supervision of the court, and I direct that your hours of labor shall be from 9 till 12 o'clock in the forenoon, and from 2 until half past 5 in the afternoon; and further direct that during all your hours of labor you work earnestly and honestly and as speedily as possible; and let me ask, that you make for ourselves an enviable record.

GOOD MAN DEAD.

Father of Hon. W. H. Jack Dies in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. W. H. Jack, of Silver City, received a telegram the first of the week from her husband, who is at Holyburg, Pa., saying that his father had died at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Mr. Jack, Sr., was 92 years old and was one of the most highly respected and influential men in the community in which he was a resident. Mr. Jack is survived by an aged wife and two sons, Hartley J., of Pittsburgh, Pa., and William H., of Silver City. The many friends of the Hon. W. H. Jack throughout the territory will sympathize with him in his loss.

THE BIG FAIR.

A Batch of Interesting Notes Regarding Territorial Exposition.

THE LATEST POINTERS.

The Santa Fe Railroad company will be represented in the parade by two or three fine floats arranged by the local shops employees.

The cowboy tournament is moving along nicely, and the best ropers and broncho busters in the country will be here to make sport for the masses.

A number of merchants are beginning to fix up for the fair. The front of the drug store of J. H. O'Reilly & Co. is receiving a new coat of paint.

There will be plenty of Navajo Indian dancing, and the show they will make on one of the principal streets of the city will be worth traveling a long distance to see.

The board of county commissioners appropriated $150 for an exhibit of the resources of this county. With $150 to his credit, any good man can make a fine display for Bernalillo county.

City Marshal McMillin is looking around for some good men for extra police duty. He has his optics on a few and will land them in advance before they otherwise engage their services.

J. H. Lightfoot, of Nogal, N. M., in a letter to the fair management, says he is getting up a fine mineral and fruit exhibit for the fair from Lincoln county, and of course wants space in the floral hall.

"We feel very grateful," said Colonel Twitchell, the base ball magnate and manager, "toward Albuquerque for helping us out last Sunday and as I have always borne a grateful reputation you can rely on 500 people from Las Vegas at the territorial fair."

The base ball committee, to secure funds to defray the expenses of the professionals to represent this city at the fair, has reached $200 in subscriptions, but must have $1,200 before closing the good work. That amount will be needed and every cent will be accounted for.

The ping pong editor of The Citizen says "that a ping pong tournament of great magnitude will no doubt be one of the attractions of fair week." This game is almost as interesting as checkers, still the ping pong editor of this paper says positively that everybody who plays it has a "hot time."

The art department of the fair will be under the management of a most thorough lady, who will have equally as thorough ladies as her assistants. Mrs. A. N. Kearn was in charge last year, and President O'Reilly has signified his intention to offer her the position again for the approaching fair.

P. F. McCann, secretary of the fair, and W. L. Trimble, the horseman, will leave tonight for Pueblo, where the state fair is in session this week. After seeing and conversing with the officials and horsemen there, they will visit Denver on territorial fair business. They will be absent a week or ten days.

Col. John Borradaile, who was recently named grand marshal of the trades' display and parade, is arranging a list of his aides, and will announce their names in a few days. He will call on the merchants shortly and hopes to persuade everybody seen to get out in the parade with an appropriate float.

The churches of the city have secured the use of the Salvation army tent for fair purposes, and will probably remove the tent from South Second street to the vacant lots corner of Gold avenue and Third street. Visitors to the city, especially church people, will find a royal welcome from the local church members at this tent.

El Paso will not have the famous Pittsburg team at the fair this fall, but the aggregation that will represent that city will be just as strong. Note these names: Delehanty, left field; Watt Lee and Adkins, pitchers; John Ganzel, first base; Farrell, second base; Coughlan, third base; Beville, catcher; Lewice, short stop; Nance, center field; Gear, right field. These players are the pick of the St. Louis, Washington, Kansas City, Milwaukee and Louisville clubs, and every one has a batting average of over .300. They are stars, and are out for the $1,000 first money prize. It was learned today, in connection with the above, that Las Vegas will also be represented by a professional club, and the team is likely to come from the top-notchers of the Western League.

A. H. Barkley, the Kansas City float decorator, has accepted the proposition of the fair management, and will be here in plenty of time to decorate the floats for Montezuma, and his daughter, who will be the queen of the fair. By the way, very little interest is being taken in the voting contest for queen. It must be remembered that no section of New Mexico is barred and The Citizen would like to see a move in the direction of queen voting at an early day.

J. H. O'Reilly, president of the Territorial Fair association, has returned to the city from Las Vegas. He went over on the excursion train but stayed over a day in order to talk about the fair. He found the people feeling friendly toward Albuquerque, and they say, taking into consideration the fact that Albuquerque sent 985 people to the Roosevelt Rough Riders' reunion a few years ago and over 300 excursionists last Sunday, that Las Vegas will send out a big delegation to the fair here in October.

The bids for privileges for fair week closed last night. The sealed bids were opened this morning and the privileges awarded as follows: Miguel Duran, bar, $220; Roberts and Wynkoop, program and score card, $120; F. W. King, peanuts, popcorn, candy and orange cider, $165; J. T. Carnes, lemonade, $25; bicycle rack, $10; George Harris, doll rack, $30.

A proposition was received this morning by the fair management from a Pueblo gentleman for the pool privileges at the fair. His terms appear to be very liberal, and in connection therewith, if he secures the privileges, he guarantees at least twenty-five horses from Colorado to the fair to take part in the trotting, pacing and running events.

Death From Consumption.

Yesterday afternoon, in a little adobe house on East Railroad avenue, Alfred Lindberg, surrounded by a grief-stricken wife and two helpless children, succumbed to a long standing case of the dreaded disease, consumption. The deceased, accompanied by his family, came to Albuquerque about a year ago from Chicago, hoping that in the change he might find relief. He was not strong and as the disease took deeper root the little work that he could do would not support the family and for some time they have been dependent on the Non-Sectarian Benevolent society. The funeral was held this afternoon from O. W. Strong's undertaking parlors. Interment was made at Fairview cemetery.

Death of Mrs. Duffy.

News is received in the city of the death of Mrs. Jeanette Duffy, for a number of years proprietress of the San Antonio hotel at San Antonio, N. M. Mrs. Duffy had reached an advanced age and was known by those who are in the habit of stopping at San Antonio, as "Mother Duffy." The funeral was held at San Antonio this afternoon. Three children survive, Mrs. David Anderson of San Marcial, Mrs. Taft of Silver City and Robert Duffy, a coal mine operator at Carthage.

AN INDUSTRIOUS LOVER.

That San Marcial Masher Causing More Trouble.

Our readers will remember that about a year ago a fellow named Isabel Baldonado, a thorough-going masher, had a row with one Francisco Chaves on the roof of the latter's house and how he knocked Chaves out and eloped with his wife, says the Bee. They were captured and brought back. Isabel was not prosecuted. Then Isabel objected to the attention Section Foreman Wilson was paying the woman. They exchanged shots without any serious results, but Wilson was cinched in the district court to the tune of several hundred dollars, while Isabel was fortified by smiles from all quarters. For some time the husband of the woman has been working at Cerrillos, and she has been in charge of their corn crop, stock and other interests. One day last week Isabel decided that the scenery around Cuchillo was peculiarly adapted for love with Mrs. Chaves, so they sold the corn crop, packed the woman's three kids in the wagon with other portable stuff, and slowly and happily made their way to the classical Cuchillo. Friends of the husband secured a warrant and the elopers were brought back the second time, but no criminal action has been taken against them. The woman is attractive and a good worker; Baldonado works occasionally and in appearance is not unlike General Miles. His specialty is love making with some other fellow's wife, and his countenance beams with delight when any reference is made to the Edmunds act. The abused husband is an industrious Indian, and he is due to make a grand stand play at any time in defense of his honor and home.

Beautiful Thoughts

The sweet, pure breath of the babe is suggestive of innocence and health. A mother's yearning for children is inseparable from a love of the beautiful, and it behooves every woman to bring the sweetest and best influence to bear on the subject of her maternity.

Mother's Friend

is popularly used. It is a liniment easily administered and for external use only. Pregnant women should try this remedy, it being undeniably a friend to her during nature's term of suspense and anticipation. Mother's Friend, if used throughout gestation, will soften the breasts, thereby preventing cracked and sore nipples. All muscles straining with the burden will relax, become supple and elastic from its continued application. All fibres in the abdominal region will respond readily to the expanding cover containing the embryo. Mother's Friend is applied externally during pregnancy. Of all reliable druggists $1.00 per bottle. Write for free book on "Motherhood." THE GRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., ATLANTA, GA.

C. F. Myers, who is the guiding spirit of the Post Hardware company and mayor of Albuquerque, was in town yesterday talking hardware and telling our people of the scope, grandeur and desirable features of the coming fair. Most of our citizens read the Albuquerque daily papers, and are well posted concerning the great attractions secured, and the negotiations under way for still greater things in the amusement line. Still the aggregation of wonders and the variety of the sport events are better understood when illustrated by the city's clever mayor. Every picture he draws means a bigger crowd and larger gate receipts, and a whole week of merry making for the thousands of people who are determined to be a small part of the great whole from start to finish. In a few weeks from now the great show will be due.—San Marcial Bee.

OF LOCAL INTEREST.

From the New Mexican, Sept. 13.

Brother Bofolph, of St. Michael's college, left last night for Albuquerque. He will return tomorrow.

Louis Iffeld, who has been visiting relatives in this city, was a passenger south to the Duke City this morning.

Hon. Amado Chaves and daughter, Catherine, went to Albuquerque last evening, where Mr. Chaves has legal business.

Mrs. O. C. Watson and child left this afternoon for Albuquerque, where they will visit Mrs. Watson's parents, Hon. and Mrs. Thomas Hughes.

General Manager W. S. Hopewell returned last night from a visit to Albuquerque, where he went on business connected with the Santa Fe Central railway.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Childers, of Albuquerque, have been the guests of Governor and Mrs. Otero at the executive mansion this week, and returned home this evening.

Adolph Woolner, of Peoria, Ill., who has been visiting friends in this city, in Las Vegas and in Albuquerque for the past three weeks, left Tuesday morning for his Illinois home.

Governor Otero today appointed President Luther Foster, of the Agricultural College, a member of the territorial board of education, to succeed M. E. Hickey, of Albuquerque, resigned.

Hon. F. A. Hubbell, of Albuquerque, chairman of the republican territorial committee, arrived here this noon, and returned home in the evening.

Hon. Solomon Luna, of Los Lunas, president of the sheep sanitary board, who has been in town for a few days on business connected with his duties as such president, will leave for home tomorrow.

Mrs. Louis Baer and little daughter, of Boston, who for the past three months have been visitors at the Staab residence, expect to return to the Hub of the universe the latter part of this month. Mrs. Baer is well and favorably remembered as the very charming and vivacious Miss Della Staab, and has many good friends in this city and in Albuquerque, where she spent her girlhood and part of her married life.

General and Mrs. Francis J. Torrance, Judge and Mrs. Henry Buhl and Miss June Torrance, of Pittsburg, Pa., who have been visitors in the territory during the past two weeks, having visited Santa Fe, Antelope Springs, and Albuquerque, left Thursday night for El Paso in their special car on their way home. Miss Eloise Deibert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deibert, of this city, went with them. Miss Deibert being a niece of Mrs. Torrance. She expects to spend the winter at the palatial Torrance residence in Pittsburg.

Department Commander J. W. Edwards, of the department of New Mexico, G. A. R., wants the names of all comrades who wish to go to Washington to attend the national encampment. All such comrades should either address him at Albuquerque or give their names and addresses to Judge McFie, past department commander. There will be reduced rates and it is possible the rate will be as low as a cent a mile. Such a rate will be made east of Chicago, it is certain. The grand parade will follow the route followed by the western armies at the time of the grand review at the close of the war.

Dr. F. O. Keyes is the proud possessor of a couple of interesting and valuable old newspapers, which have been handed down by several generations of his wife's family. The "Gazette of the United States" was printed on April 20, 1789, by John Ferro in New York city. The Ulster County Gazette is the name of the second. It was published in New York city, January 4, 1800. The papers are badly worn by much handling and are yellow with age.

Railroad Topics

The oiling of the track between this city and Gallup has been completed.

Dan Elliott, the roadmaster of the New Mexico division, is in the city today from Las Vegas.

Fireman Maloney is back at work after enjoying a thirty days' vacation at his old home in Newton, Kansas.

Machinist G. R. Craig and wife have returned from Chicago, where they went a month ago to visit friends.

The painters have finished with the new freight depot, the last coat of red paint having been put on yesterday.

W. J. Hanna, superintendent of the water service on the Rio Grande division of the Santa Fe, is in the city today.

The Santa Fe Pacific boys received their pay yesterday and the merchants report having enjoyed a good business last night.

William Mesplet, the new foreman of the Santa Fe planing mill at San Bernardino, has returned there from Topeka, and assumed charge of his duties.

The grading camp of the Santa Fe Central railroad is now about three-quarters of a mile from the United States Indian school, Santa Fe. Many Santa Fe people visited the camp on Sunday. The distribution of ties into that city was completed yesterday.

Trainmen Turn Cowboys.

Some Santa Fe men are telling an interesting story of an occurrence which is supposed to have taken place on the Southern Kansas near Colony a day or two ago.

A steer broke out of an end door in one of the forward cars of a stock extra. It fell across the draw bar between two cars and hung there. A brakeman saw it and stopped the train. He ran to the car where he had seen the steer but it was not there. Then he looked under the cars expecting to see the mangled body on the track. On looking around he saw the steer peacefully eating grass along the right of way. It was no easy matter for the train crew to catch it and the stock extra pulled into Ottawa just three hours late.—Ottawa Republic.

Colorado & Gulf Railroad.

Nothing more interests our people at the present day than the prospective railroad from Durango to Clifton, Arizona, a distance of 400 miles, passing through Farmington and traversing the great coking coal fields and oil, orchard, grain and vegetable areas of the San Juan, Animas and La Plata valleys on San Juan county, New Mexico, says the Hustler.

The prospect for the building of this road during the next year is brighter than ever and that Farmington is destined to be the commercial hub of the vast area named, is already manifest from the remarkable amount of business now transacted here daily. However, manufacturing is the crying need of the hour. With all our superb advantages and magnificent opportunities, packing houses, tanneries, creameries and a score of other industries could thrive with our present markets and cheap fuel. Melons and fruits, the most luscious in all the world, potatoes and cabbages, beans and all the other varieties of farm and garden produce, are abundant here and aid much in cheapening the cost of living expenses.

Viewed from whatever point one may, Farmington is in an exceptionally fine condition today, and that condition is certain to grow better and better, year after year for an indefinite period of time. The present and the future alike are golden. The days of bickering and strife for advantage, of croaking and back biting have passed. A new era is here and Farmington is bound to be the city on the San Juan.

Santa Fe in the Lead.

Western railroads are likely to be hampered this year by the handling of traffic, particularly freight, in that they will not be able to get the necessary motive power and equipment for that purpose. For months the great locomotive and car erecting concerns have been overrun with orders, and have been obliged, while turning out a greater product than ever before, to compel their customers to wait longer than was desired for delivery of machinery. It is the impossibility of the construction companies to build as fast as the orders come in. At the Baldwin works, Philadelphia, the largest engine building institution in the world, the Santa Fe is getting its Prairie freight type, the largest of any company that patronized that firm. And there are representatives of railroad companies not only from all over the United States, but even from Europe. So when it is stated that the Santa Fe has the biggest class of locomotives turned out in the Baldwin works, the comparison with the railroads of the world is favorable.

Want Engineers and Firemen.

A request was received at the Santa Fe shop office in this city yesterday from Superintendent of Motive Power Henderson, asking for six engineers and twelve firemen to take places on oil burning engines on the company's Gulf lines in Texas.

Bulletins were at once posted by Division Master Mechanic Park soliciting men to fill the request. Up to last evening the following had offered their services: Engineers F. J. Harall, Atherton and George Dorance and Firemen T. R. Bolan and Fred Worthington. Several others offered to go.

providing they would be allowed to return to this place in the new position proved distasteful to them. For the benefit of these a telegram was sent to Mr. Henderson in the afternoon, asking that men be allowed to go to the Gulf line on a ninety day leave of absence, which would, of course, give them the alternative of remaining or returning home. It is not believed that the request will be granted, as under such conditions, the men might give up their work just at a time when the company would need their services most. By men who have been located in Texas, the offer is looked upon as a good one. The pay is better on the Gulf division than here and living is considerably less expensive.

The Santa Fe has but lately introduced oil burning engines on that portion of its system, and must have experienced men to handle them, who will in turn have students under them whom they will instruct in the art of "stoking" an atomizer. It is said that California, more correctly southern California, is the only place where the necessary men for teachers can be secured.—San Bernardino Sun.

LADY HOBOS.

Has Beat Her Way Twice Across the Continent.

Not long ago there passed through Needles a couple of young hobos beating their way west, says the Eye. They were arrested by the town officers, when it was discovered that one of them was a woman and that they were husband and wife, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Faith. A few days ago the same pair went through here again headed east. Together they have toured the west in search of work since May last, and are now returning to Chicago, after having covered 3,700 miles of railroad on a capital of just 70 cents.

The two have been arrested eleven times, but in every instance, the sex of the young woman being divulged to the magistrate, has resulted in the immediate release of the couple. Mrs. Smith says that she has the material and that, with the assistance of a good writer, she is going to write it on her return to Chicago.

"I have ridden on break beams in clouds of dust, on blind baggage car in intense cold of the night, on top of passenger cars in hail storms of hot burning cinders, in box cars with none but hobos for companions. I have been put off trains in the midst of the Yuma desert; I have gone hungry until I had to take an extra hitch in my belt. I have taken pot luck with Indian sheep herders on the desert. I have picked fruit with men and earned a man's wages when I could get work. I have seen a depot burn with a man inside of it and unable to help him. All this I have done for love."

The pair were married a year ago in Chicago and will return to Mrs. Smith's home on a farm in the suburbs.

Trotter Still Alive.

E. J. Trotter, who was so fearfully injured by an explosion in one of the mines of the Hazleton group, near San Pedro, on the 15th of last month, and taken to the St. Vincent's hospital at Santa Fe for treatment, is still living and apparently has a fair chance now for his life. He was a robust man, over six feet tall, with a fine physique, which accounts to a large extent for his slightly convalescent condition. It is well nigh certain that he can never see again though he gets well. One eye was blown out and it is thought the other is surely destroyed. As yet he does not know that his eyes are lost and when his mind is clearer often asks that the blinds be raised that he may see. Friday some of his teeth that were giving him trouble were removed, and Saturday several pieces of small rock were taken from his forehead and head. He also suffered a fracture of the skull and the loss of one arm.

Legal Notice.

Last will and testament of Minnie Toepfer, deceased.

To George F. Wombacher, executor; Mary Toepfer, Jacob Toepfer and Frank Toepfer, minors, devisees, all residents of Mascoutah, state of Illinois, and to all whom it may concern:

You are hereby notified that the alleged last will and testament of Minnie Toepfer, late of the county of Bernalillo and territory of New Mexico, deceased has been produced and read in the probate court of the county of Bernalillo, territory of New Mexico, at a regular term thereof, held on the 2nd day of September, 1902, and the day of the proving of said alleged last will and testament was by order of the judge of said court thereupon fixed for Monday, the 6th day of October, A. D. 1902, term of said court, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day.

Given under my hand and the seal of said court, this 2nd day of September, A. D. 1902.

(Seal) J. A. SUMMERS, Probate Clerk.

Devices for Using Fuel Oil.

Washington, Sept. 12.—For some time past, and especially since the anthracite coal strike, the patent office has been doing a lively business in prosecuting inquiries and looking into the merits of inventions which patents are applied for, intended to be used for the production of both heat and power. Up to date there have been granted 1,280 patents for using oil as fuel; and for the use of gas and vapors, 2,700.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

Just How to Pronounce the President's Name a Mystery.

Just how to pronounce the name of our president is a matter that puzzles a great many people. His name has given rise to a greater variety of pronunciation than that of any statesman who has ever occupied the front rank.

The English people shied at "Roosevelt" when they first saw it in print, and Americans when they first saw "Theodore" were given pause, says the New York Times. Bonaparte changed the spelling of his name, and there are name purists who excite amusement by still spelling it "Bonaparte" and pronouncing it accordingly.

But for a man of world-wide fame, as the president of the United States must necessarily be in these days, there has never before been a case like that of "Roosevelt" to puzzle mankind. Even "Goethe" and "Pepys" were not so mystifying.

Elsewhere than in New York and in Holland and South Africa, where Dutch names are common, the greatest variations of the president's name are to be met with. People in England are at sea about it. On the continent almost every man has his own opinion on the subject. Here are a few of the vagaries:

Rosa-felt, Rosen-felt, Rooze-velt, Ruzy-felt, Ruzy-veld, Ruzy-felt, Ruzy-veld, Ruzy-felt, Ruzy-veld, Ruzy-felt, Ruzy-veld.

A few million people in England think the president is a Boer. Others say: "There's another one of those queer American names." In Germany people believe him to be a Jew descended from one of those families which took their names from objects in nature such as "Rosenfeld" and "Rosenstein." Many Frenchmen think he is a German, especially since he talked fluently in that language with Prince Henry, but spoke with Count Rochembeau in language which one of the French delegates described as "bizarre."

McCoy Athletic Park.

The New Base Ball Park Named in Honor of J. A. McCoy.

The principal promoters of the base ball sport in Deming have completed arrangements to enclose the base ball grounds with an eight foot fence, and are busy engaged setting out the posts. The area fenced will be 300 feet square and the grounds will be put in excellent condition as soon as the enclosure is completed.

The quartet of young enthusiasts who are "holding the sack" to guarantee payment for the improvements are: Albert Fields, manager; Ellis Williams, captain; Maurice Nordhaus, breeze pounder; Henry Rathel, bats 'em up on first, and "Doc," Byron, howlin' cyclone at tail.

These young men decided this week, together with others of the nine, to christen the grounds "McCoy Athletic park," in honor of J. A. McCoy, general manager of the Golden Cross and Eagle Mining company, hoping in a measure to show their appreciation of Mr. McCoy's generosity in donating a grand stand at the grounds for the comfort of those attending the games.

The boys deserve a great deal of credit for their enterprise in providing a suitable park where athletic sports of all kinds may be indulged, and also for their judgment in selecting such a merited name for the same.

We congratulate you, Mr. McCoy, and hope that when you play ball, you will make as many good "strikes" as you have in the Tres Hermanos district—Deming Headlight.

Sad Accident at Victoria.

Intelligence of a sad accident was received at Deming the other afternoon by wire, announcing that young Herbert Faust, employed at W. J. Wamel's ranch at Victoria, had been seriously injured, and requesting medical attention at once, says the Headlight.

Dr. McEllan drove to the ranch and found the young man in such a condition that he had him brought to the home of his widowed mother in this city Monday morning.

Young Faust jumped on a horse to ride to the railroad with a letter, and the horse ran into a closed wire gate, throwing the rider violently to the ground, the horse falling upon him. The force of the impact was so great that concussion of the brain resulted, besides being injured internally. He never regained consciousness, and died at 8:45 Monday night.

He was a lad of 16 years and just beginning to be a comfort and some support to the mother, when a sudden and tragic death intervened to silence a buoyant spirit and cut down in boyhood's happy day a congenial young man.

His father was killed by the caving in of a well in this city a couple of years ago, and now this sad, sudden death of her pride and joy seems a blow almost unbearable to the widowed wife and sorrowful mother.

The deepest sympathy of all the community is expressed for Mrs. Faust in her sad affliction.

New Peach Tree Disease.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 17.—"The Little's" is the strange name of a new disease which is threatening the peace of mind and the pocketbooks of fruit growers. It is destroying hundreds of acres of peaches in Michigan, and heroic measures are being taken by the federal government to eradicate the blight. It is predicted that many fruit growers will be practically ruined, as to eradicate the disease means the destruction of the entire orchard. "The Little's" is so called because the leaves and fruit of the tree attacked shrivel up. The peaches are about the size of marbles. Growth is dwarfed and the disease spreads from tree to tree with great rapidity.

LOST A HOUSE.

Judge Seamon Field Had One When He Went Away But It Is Gone Now.

Judge Seamon Field, of Deming, has lost a house. The judge owns a tract of land just east of Deming and on that tract stood a house. It was there when Judge and Mrs. Field started for California a few weeks ago, but it was not there when they returned a few days ago. Just how the house could be stolen without a wagon is somewhat of a mystery to the judge and a careful inspection failed to show any tracks. The house is gone and now Judge Field wants to know where it is and how it got there.

OFFICIAL MATTERS.

Land Office Transactions—Several Surveys Approved.

Homestead Entries—Escalante Aragon, Salado, 159 acres, Guadalupe county; Eugenio Gonzales Pinos Wells, 160 acres, Valencia county; Juan Gallegos, Pinos Wells, 160 acres, Valencia county.

Final Homestead Entries—Salomon Sanchez, Santa Rosa, 40 acres, Guadalupe county; Jose Albino Sena, Santa Rosa, 152 acres, Guadalupe county.

Surveys Approved.

Surveyor General Morgan O. Llewellyn has approved the mineral survey No. 1133 of the Edison mining lease claim in the Keystone district, Tacon county, in which M. K. Long is claimant. He approved also the mineral survey No. 1134 of the Goodhope group lease mining claims in the San Pedro district, Santa Fe county, comprising the Goodhope No. 2, Mountain King and Summit lots, in which T. B. Catron is claimant.

Territorial Fair Boomer.

Hon. Charles F. Myers, mayor of Albuquerque, was in Silver City last Thursday, booming the twenty-second territorial fair, which will be held in that city, commencing October 14. Mr. Myers is a jolly good fellow to begin with, but as advance agent he travels in the front ranks. He was only here between trains, but he saw more people and talked more fair than the ordinary man would have succeeded in doing in a week. Silver City would have been well represented at Albuquerque next month without Mr. Myers' visit, but as a result of it there will be many go who had not heretofore decided definitely—Silver City Independent.

A Parson's Noble Act.

"I want all the world to know," writes Rev. C. J. Budlong, of Ashaway, R. I., "what a thoroughly good and reliable medicine I found in Electric Bitters. They cured me of jaundice and liver troubles that had caused me great suffering for many years. For a genuine, all-around cure they excel anything I ever saw." Electric Bitters are the surprise of all for their wonderful work in liver, kidney and stomach troubles. Don't fail to try them. Only 50 cents. Satisfaction is guaranteed by all druggists.

Improvement at Electric Plant.

Among the improvements made by the Electric Light company is the installation of an induced draft, which will add greatly as an auxiliary to the large marine boilers just installed, by increasing their steam making powers. This is something new for cities of this size, and is made necessary for economy of operation, as the company has contracts for all the large power businesses of the city, and in order to properly handle this class of business must have the most efficient machinery that can be obtained. Connected with this is a large new water heater, which superheats the water before it goes into the boilers to make steam, thereby making a saving in the amount of coal necessary to heat the water.

Devoured by Worms.

Children often cry, not from pain, but from hunger, although fed abundantly. The entire trouble arises from indigestion, their food is not assimilated, but devoured by worms. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge will cause them to cease crying and begin to thrive at once, very much to the surprise and joy of the mother. 50 cents at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy—B. Ruppe.

Ball Game at St. Johns.

Captain C. C. Smith, of Fort Wingate, in command of company G, United States cavalry, spent Friday in the city. The soldier boys rigged up a ball team and our boys tried to entertain them on the diamond. There was some good playing on both sides. The soldier boys claim that most of their ball team was not with them, and the St. Johns boys did not have some of their best men in town. This accounts for the poor playing on both sides.

G. E. Waite pitched for the home boys, but owing to the fact that he has been sick for several days, his curves were not so swift as they usually are. Captain Smith played with his men, and in case of disputes always stood up for the right, no matter whom he favored. But the disputes were few and good natured and each side manifested a spirit of fairness and impartiality. The game passed off pleasantly, and at the end the St. Johns boys, who were the losers, loudly cheered the soldier boys. The score stood 13 to 17 in favor of the soldiers.

The entire crowd unanimously voted Captain Smith and his company as royal good fellows, and hope they may come again to our town.—St. Johns, Arizona, Herald.

Hordes of Flies at Las Vegas.

The pesky house fly is daily disposed of, in large quantities, in every place of business in this city. Tanglefoot fly paper, poisoned paper soaked in water, and insect powder blown upon them as they swarm upon the glass of windows, combine to take them off by millions; but Junot Minium takes the blue ribbon as a wholesale slaughterer. In his hide house, on Bridge street, west side, he sprinkles his fresh hides and pelts with poison powder, and every morning sweeps up a gallon and a half of dead flies. Fortunately the fly season cannot last much longer.—Optic.

A Whirlwind of Amusement.

Don't fail to see the latest thing in tramp plays, "A Chicago Tramp," which comes to the opera house Thursday, October 2, in a newly written comedy and both press and public speak of it in the highest terms. The company headed by W. H. St. James, is a strong one in every particular, high class specialties and vaudeville acts are one of the strong features, together with a well written comedy drama, makes a most enjoyable evening's entertainment.

On the March and in Action.

The brilliantly spectacular presentation of the "Battle of San Juan Hill" by Buffalo Bill's Wild West army and "Congress of Rough Riders" is in two parts. The first shows the American troops in a night halt en route, with soldiers' fun, some charming songs and a very effective camp scene. The second is the battle, reproduced with wonderful and thrilling effect. Of the hundreds of men engaged in this scene, quite a number served in Roosevelt's Rough Riders and were in that fight, while others, especially engaged for variety-sake, are veteran Cuban insurgents, who also fought there. Coming to Albuquerque in Buffalo Bill on October 3.

POLICE COURT.

A Man with Many Professions Sent to County Jail.

James C. Dona, a man of many professions, appeared before Judge Crawford this morning, charged with vagrancy. Dona must have come from "Graftville." He went to a dentist, represented himself as a dentist and borrowed a few cents. He went to a newspaper man, said that he was a newspaper man in hard luck, and he was loaned a few cents. He represents himself to an attorney at law, as a member of the profession, and borrowed a few cents. He even worked an insurance man. In each instance Dona got from 25 cents to $1, and in each instance he lost the money on the wheel. The judge thought that a man with so many callings would be a good man to keep around town. He will do sixty days in the county jail.

FLAG RAISING TOMORROW.

General Invitation to the Public to Visit University.

Tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock the new flag pole in front of the university of New Mexico will be decorated and dedicated with a splendid silken banner of the stars and stripes. An appropriate dedication program has been arranged. Hon. B. S. Rodey, delegate to congress; Department Commander J. W. Edwards and others will make short patriotic addresses. The members of the G. A. R. and the W. R. C. have been invited to attend in bodies. The Albuquerque Guards will be present and fire a salute.

REVIVAL CLOSES.

"Last Romp with the Tiger," Subject for Tomorrow Night.

Only two nights remain now of the two weeks' meeting at the Highland Methodist church. Tonight Mr. Williams will preach his farewell sermon and tomorrow night he will deliver his noted lecture, "The Last Romp with the Tiger." Mr. Williams' services in Albuquerque have been very helpful and they are greatly appreciated by our people. The prayers and good wishes of a large circle of friends and admirers will go with the evangelist and his good wife as they continue their journey eastward. Go and hear the farewell sermon tonight and the lecture Thursday night. Everybody welcome.

GALLUP SCHOOL.

Few Notes About an Excellent School of a Good Town.

The schools opened on Monday, September 8, very auspiciously with an enrollment of 249 pupils. The new teachers are Miss Josie M. Hawes, Miss Jeanette Ritchie and Miss Helen Blake. They all come very highly recommended and having had first class training and successful experience, will, without doubt, maintain the high standards of Gallup teachers. Miss McIntyre spent a pleasant summer among the mountains of Colorado, Miss McNellan visited her home in Minnesota, and attended the National Educational association meeting in Minneapolis; Mrs. Smith had an outing among the cliff dwellings, and Mr. Larkin spent the summer as an instructor in various county teachers' institutes in South Dakota. He also delivered his lecture on the "Land of Manana" before a number of institutes. The high school classes are considerably larger than those of last year and are beginning the year's work with commendable earnestness.

There is talk of some school entertainments this year. A cordial invitation is extended to the people of Gallup to visit the schools at any time.—Republican.

EXHIBIT CAR.

Of the Pecos Valley Now on a Tour of the States.

The exhibit car from this place, loaded with a splendid supply of fruits and vegetables, in charge of A. E. Page, left last Sunday for its trip through Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Iowa, to advertise the resources and products of the "Great Pecos valley." The big head line on the first page of the Register last Friday had given the citizens notice that it was to leave and crowds of people visited the car on Saturday, to see the magnificent array of fruits. Even those who thought they could not be surprised any more at anything they were likely to see in the vicinity of Roswell in the way of fine fruit, were astonished at the sight that met their eyes when they entered the car, while the large number of strangers who were there took exclaiming, "Just look there, will you?" "Say, just look at those peaches! Did you ever see like these?"

It would take a whole page of the Register to tell what was in the car and describe the decorations fully. On the outside of the coach, were two strips of domestic on one of which were the words, "The Great Pecos Valley." On the other, "Roswell, New Mexico, Exhibit Car." At one side was painted the picture of an artesian well and below it were the words, "One of Roswell's Artesian Wells; 2000 gallons per minute." Mr. Page took considerable advertising matter to distribute at the points where he stops, and the undertaking should do Roswell and the whole Pecos valley a great deal of good in giving the people abroad some faint idea of what is raised here.—Roswell Register.

SPECIAL TERM.

Of the McKinley Court Held Last Week.

Judge B. S. Baker, judge of the Second judicial district; G. V. Crosby, the efficient deputy clerk and his bright 4-year-old son, Master Robert Field Crosby, and Edward Newcomer, chief deputy sheriff of Bernalillo county, came out from Albuquerque Saturday morning and a term of court was held by Judge Baker.

The following named took out their first papers declaring their intention to become citizens of the United States later on: Mat Ruebio, Jake Jakovich, John Radoskovic, John O'Kumura, T. Sukki, Max Mancel, George Hauges, Dominic Berta, John Cumie, Sterana Narvaria, John Kuscaid, Dominic Besta, Mike Tarone, Duiz Val, Mat Starkovich, Frank Ruiz, Gaspar Rodasoric, G. Taniguchi, H. Sakano, George Cernia, M. Kasanovitch, Joe Starkovitch, Frank Cernic, Harry Sakamoto, Ceron Suninds, John M. Brown, Paul Ceverola, S. Stephy, John Sarlin, Gaston Bourimann, Jacob Gay, Charles Keppka, Alex. Kirkwood, George Milosovich.

Second papers were granted to the following named persons: John Mitto, John Vezzetti, William McSparron, E. Veyher, Lorenzo Rustayno John Jolestra, Dominqui Enric, Ant. Mattio, Neis Perrero, Bernardo Presbitera, Joe Bartello.

The court party returned home to Albuquerque on No. 8 that evening.

Farewell Sermon.

Evangelist Williams preached his farewell sermon at the Highland Methodist church last night from Phil. 1:27, "Let your conversation be as becometh the gospel of Christ; that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel." The natural divisions of the text were strongly enforced, and the service throughout was marked by unusual seriousness on the part of both speaker and hearers. Several requests of the prayers of the church and one man united with the church. The subject of the discourse tonight is "The Last Romp with the Tiger," and this is Mr. Williams' last discourse in the Highland church. Don't fail to hear him tonight. Everybody welcome.

Death of Lewis W. Lenoir.

Another one of the old-timers has gone from us—to that bourne from whence no one returns. Tuesday evening, Lewis W. Lenoir passed away, after a long and lingering illness, having been a sufferer with spinal meningitis and floating kidneys for several years. "Low," as he was familiarly known by his friends, arrived in southern New Mexico in 1872 and was postmaster, stage driver, cow-puncher, lawyer and miner during this time. He had a very fine legal mind, and up to within a few days of his death, was often consulted by the best legal talent at points in law.

His funeral was conducted from the home of Mrs. Charles N. West, by the Masonic lodge, of which he was an honored member, to the Masonic cemetery, where the solemn Masonic funeral services were held.—Las Cruces Republican.

Burkamp May Get It.

Bellevue, Ky., Sept. 18.—The republican congressional convention of the Sixth district was called to order this morning in the Balke opera house by Chairman R. P. Ernst of the congressional committee. Indications point to the nomination of William Burkamp, former member of the state legislature.

A New Jersey Editor's Testimonial.

M. T. Lynch, Editor of the Philadelphia N. J. Daily Post, writes: "I have used many kinds of medicines for coughs and colds in my family but never anything so good as Foley's Honey and Tar. I cannot say too much in praise of it. Sold by Alvarado Pharmacy."

ROSWELL STOCK NOTES.

From the Register.

Ed. Jones, a brother in law of W. T. Jones, the cattleman, is here from Valentine, Texas, on a visit.

R. F. Barnett has sold the remnant of his range horses to M. D. Winter, the deal having been closed last week. J. P. White came in from Kenna, having finished the shipment of a lot of cattle to Kansas City markets.

John Shaw returned from Kansas City, where he went with a train load of cattle belonging to himself and the Cass Land and Cattle company.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Johnson returned from their cattle ranch, fifteen miles north of Kenna, where Mr. Johnson delivered 105 head of cattle he sold to J. H. Gee.

Thos. Pridemore, range foreman for the El Capitlan Land and Cattle company, was here last week from Lincoln county and placed his two bright boys in the military institute for another year.

Rev. R. W. Johnston bought from J. H. Gee, of Kenna, last Saturday, 105 head of high grade stock cows. Among the number is twenty-five red polled heifers. These cattle Mr. Johnston will put on his ranch which he bought near Kenna from Mr. Littlefield.

C. C. Martin, the sheep grower, bought the residence property of S. H. Fox formerly owned by A. H. Rocka-fellow last week, and he and his excellent family, it is presumed, will soon become residents of Roswell.

John Richey, superintendent of South Spring ranch, has resigned his position to take effect October 1. He will move to Roswell and engage in the real estate and live stock commission business and looking after the ranch interests of himself and sons in the Miller country.

Clifton Chisholm, owner of the "Oasis" hog farm, will receive a 16-horse power Fairbanks-Morse gasoline engine in a few days, ordered for him by the Seay, Gill & Morrow Co. He will use it in grinding feed at his feed lots at the South Spring station on the Pecos Valley & Northeastern, where he is going to put up a thrasher and grinder to prepare the feed.

"I had kidney trouble for years," writes Mrs. Raymond Conner of Shelton, Wash., "and the doctors could not help me. I tried Foley's Kidney Cure, and the very first dose gave me relief and I am cured. I cannot say too much for Foley's Kidney Cure." Sold by Alvarado Pharmacy.

A Sad Disappointment.

Ineffective liver medicine is a disappointment, but you don't want to purge, strain and break the glands of the stomach and bowels. DeWitt's Little Early Risers never disappoint. They cleanse the system of all poison and putrid matter and do it so gently that one enjoys the pleasant effects. They are a tonic to the liver. Cure biliousness, torpid liver and prevent fever. B. H. Briggs & Co. and J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

SANTA FE COURT.

For Census Forgery Mariano F. Sena Gets Four Years in Penitentiary.

In the case of the United States vs. Mariano F. Sena, who was found guilty last week upon indictments of four counts charging him with forgery while chief clerk in the office of supervisor of the census for New Mexico, arguments upon the motion for a new trial were made Tuesday before Judge McFie. The court denied the motion and sentenced the defendant to four years and four days in the United States penitentiary. An appeal to the supreme court of the territory was immediately taken, and the defendant's bond was fixed in the sum of $5,000, which was furnished and the defendant released pending the action of the supreme court in his case.

On the territorial side arguments on motion for a continuance of the case of the Territory vs. N. E. Greshaw, charged with the murder of Edward Hull, were heard before Judge McFie and the motion denied. The case will be called today.

In the case of Marcus Eldott vs. George R. Bailey, a suit to recover on note for $123 with interest and costs, filed in the district court for Santa Fe county a few days ago, the defendant on Tuesday came forward and confessed judgment.

Long Delay for Disbrow. New York, Sept. 17.—Among the first cases to be considered by the Suffolk County grand jury which convened today is that of Louis A. Disbrow, the young man of good family who is charged with having murdered "Dimple" Lawrence and Clarence Foster, in Tiana Bay, last June. Disbrow has spent the last three months in the county jail at Riverhead, L. I., the efforts of his family and friends to have him admitted to bail being futile. If the grand jury should find an indictment against him there will be another long delay before he can be placed on trial unless a special term of court should be ordered.

Grand Duke Leaves Newport.

Newport, R. I., Sept. 18.—The Grand Duke Boris, who has been dining and wine during the past two weeks by Newport's high society, leaves today for New York, whence he sails tomorrow for Europe. The grand duke expresses himself as delighted with American hospitality. He says he had no idea of making such a long stay in this country, but the sights have been so bewildering and the pleasures so numerous that he now regrets that his engagements abroad make it imperative for him to depart.

GOLSON AND LEE.

Sam Golson and Bud Lee, men of iron nerve and retiring disposition, the kind that put in the shade the upstarts who depend upon whisky and luck to give them notoriety, passed through the country last week. Golson and

Lee are gentlemen, reserved and modest, and are men who help make the country safe to live in.

These men, though not officers, of the law, are nevertheless the terrors to evil doers, cattle rustlers and desperadoes on the frontier.

These gentlemen have been noted characters in the west for many years and Mr. Golson figures conspicuously in the west as an Indian fighter and frontiersman, and many a battle to the death has he had with the red white devils of the west.

In late years Golson and Lee have figured in many battles with cattle rustlers and no longer than last January they routed a gang of desperadoes, took their stronghold and made three of them do their reforming in the next world.

The report circulated some time ago that they "fled five robbers in a running fight was without foundation."—Portales Herald.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and Diarrhoea.

"Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Albany, Bradford County, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when editor Ward, of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one on the route. I made the trip successfully, and never felt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I bought a bottle of this same remedy, and this time one dose cured me." For sale by all druggists.
