General Sherman's Report.

In consequence of the importance that will be attached by all citizens of the Territory to the report of Gen'l Sherman, which we published in our last issue, we regard it our duty to direct attention to it and express our approbation of its general tenor.

The report is confined to a discussion of the Indian situation, and we are pleased to say, the positions taken are identical with those which have for many years been held by the western people who have been in contact with the various wild tribes of Indians which roam over the country. The white man and the Indian cannot occupy the same territory at the same time, is one of Gen. Sherman's positions, and experience has proved it to be true to the letter. In this case the Indian must yield and give the lands up for cultivation and other uses of civilization. Another sound position. The government should place them on reservations and there keep and maintain them until they improve in condition sufficient to maintain themselves by their own labor. If the savages do not willingly and peacefully submit to these conditions the strong arm of the government to be used in forcing them to submission and obedience to the terms prescribed. This is the solution of the question which has so long vexed the government and which has been the cause of much war and even bitter dissension between citizens and officers in the east and citizens and officers in the Territories.

Now that it has been adopted and approved by the second highest officer in the Army and fully sanctioned by the highest military officer, and President elect, Gen'l Grant, we hope there will be no more trouble in the Departments and Congress in regard to its being made the permanent policy of the government towards all the wild tribes on the continent.

Gen'l Sherman is of opinion that in order to have an efficient execution of the Indian policy the management of it should be transferred from the Interior to the War Department. In regard to this proposition there is a diversity of opinion. In so far as we are concerned, we are in favor of the change and think in making it a most salutary reform would be effected in carrying out the details of the designs of the government towards the Indians. For many years we have been in the habit of looking upon the Indian as a wild, wretched creature, and are now most happy to be able to conscientiously second the suggestion of Gen'l Sherman and give the weight of our approval, whatever it may be, to the policy marked out by him in this respect.

Besides Gen'l Sherman's views in regard to making war upon refractory tribes, the above are the living practical points made by him in his report, and we feel quite satisfied that they will meet with the entire approval of the people who are most interested in them—that is to say, by the people of the Territories who under the existing conditions of things are kept in constant, and often unfriendly, contact with the wild Indians.

AMNESTY.—On the 25th of December President Johnson issued a general amnesty proclamation in which he says:

"Be it known that I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, by virtue of power and authority vested in me by the constitution, proclaim and declare unconditionally and without reservation to all and every person who directly or indirectly participated in the late insurrection or rebellion, full pardon and amnesty for the offense of treason against the United States or of adhering to their enemies during the late civil war, with restoration of all rights, privileges and immunities under the constitution and laws which have been made in pursuance thereof."

This, we take it, acquits all persons who were engaged in the rebellion of all criminality that may have attached to them under the constitution and laws of the country, but leaves them subject to the disabilities prescribed by the fourteenth section, or last amendment to the constitution. It is a full declaration of peace in so far as it is in the power of the President to make such a declaration. The favor that has been going on in regard to the trial of Jeff. Davis will be closed out by the proclamation, and those who have been making their abode in foreign lands will be enabled to return to their country, if they so desire, with impunity.

AN EVENT.—The fact that water has been obtained by digging near the middle of the Jornada del Muerto is an event that is well worthy public notice and record in the columns of the journals of the Territory. From times whereof the memory of man runseth not to the contrary the aridity of this plain has made it a terror to the traveler who found himself obliged to cross it and to the freighter whose teams had to endure the drought of the trip. This together with the expense to which all was subjected to attacks from the Indians gave it at an early day in the history of the country the name of Jornada del Muerto, or the journey of death.

To the enterprises of Jack Martin are we indebted for this success. Under discouraging circumstances and with limited means he reached a depth of eighty seven feet, when he struck a vein of clear pure spring water which rises in the well to a distance of twenty feet, which will afford all the water that may be required at the Aleman for the travel on the Jornada and establishes the fact that water may be found in the most unlikely localities.

THE INDIANS.—A delegation of the Chiefs were in the city last week with Maj. French, and a talk was had with them by the Indian Commissioner in presence of several of the Territorial officials, in regard to the Treaty that was made with them last summer under the auspices of Gov. Hunt, and others, at Colorado.

We understand that the tenor of the deliberations made by the Indians present, the names of some of whom were attached to the treaty, is, that they did not know the contents of the document but presumed at the time they were signing a paper of an entirely different character.

This raises a question of veracity between the officers who represented the Government on the occasion and the Indians, which we have no doubt will be properly investigated by the authority of the Interior Department.

PUBLIC RAILWAY, E. D.—On the fourth page to-day we reproduce from the Cincinnati Commercial of December the 5th an able and most intelligent article on the subject of the Union Pacific Railway, E. D. Now that the subject of granting further subsidy to this work is being considered in Congress it is gratifying to see such influential and distinguished journals as the Commercial advocating the policy of granting sufficient Congressional aid to enable the company to push their work speedily through to the Pacific coast.

BLACK KETTLE FIGHT.—On the fourth page of the present issue may be seen Gen'l Sheridan's Gen'l Order announcing the result of the battle between the Cheyenne Indians under the Chief Black Kettle and General Custer's command near Antelope Hills on the 25th November.

The result of the battle has been known to our readers several weeks but we here and now record this Gen'l Order, so that the Department Commander's appreciation of the conduct of the officers and men on the occasion may also be known to them.

This is the kind of war we all want. Especially is it a wholesome kind of war for the Indians and will have a strong tendency to make them have a great inclination towards peace.

THE REVEREND'S BALE.—Being a bachelor or in good standing we are most happy to announce that the last given at Gov. Michel's residence on Monday night last by that person was a most eminent success, and reflected the highest credit upon those who had his management in hand.

Less than this cannot in justice be said of it. More could not be said without making unparliamentary and invidious distinctions.

CHRISTMAS PASSED OFF QUIETLY and most pleasantly in our city this year. Our people enjoyed the season with a good degree of sociability and general friendly intercourse.

The first snow of the season, worthy the name, fell in our city on Tuesday the 29th inst. Although it reached a depth of three or four inches it disappeared from the plain in a very short time.

BILLIARD MATCH.—The billiard match which was played on Christmas night between Col. Watts and Mr. Paul Schwartz was conducted with the greatest order and decorum. The game was one thousand points, canon table, and for $1,000 a side.

The result of the play was: Watts 1001 points; Schwartz 545 points. Watts winning the game by 416 points.

Watts' average was nearly 14; that of Schwartz was a little more than 8. Watts' highest run was 134; that of Schwartz was 41.

Capt. E. D. Thompson was umpire on the part of Watts and C. C. Byers for Schwartz; Capt. Geo. T. Beall referee.

It is but justice to Col. Watts to say that he had no interest in any of the bets made on the game. He is an amateur player merely, and never hazards anything on the game.

YESTERDAY we were in receipt of the Arizona mail. The news is not of general importance from that Territory. The legislature had adjourned after having been in session thirty six days, and passing several useful laws.

Previous to adjourning they passed a resolution highly complimentary to Gov. McCormick, both as a citizen and officer.

U. S. Treasurer F. E. Spinner will please accept our thanks for copy of his annual report to the Secretary of the Treasury for 1892.

INDIAN BILLS. WASHINGTON, December 17.—The Indian committee of the Senate had a long meeting this morning, being the first of the season, for the purpose of considering the House bill transferring the Indian Bureau to the War Department. They finally came to the conclusion to report against this bill and in favor of making the Bureau a separate department, with a cabinet minister at its head, and one of the members was designated. It is understood, to draw up the report before the House bill. The committee have before them two bills looking to the creation of the new department, one introduced a few days since by Mr. Pomeroy, of which an abstract has been given, and the other introduced last spring by Mr. Henderson. The bills are alike in their general features but differ in their details. The committee will probably present a new bill of their own, employing certain provisions of both, with details of their own.

We confess our inability to see wherein the proposed new department would be an improvement upon the present arrangement for the management of our Indian affairs, unless it should be fortified and strengthened by being authorized to exercise war powers, which is not at all likely to be done.

In order to have an efficient administration of the Indian Department it is absolutely necessary that two objects should be accomplished. First the entire breaking up of what is known as the "Indian King." Would this be done by the establishment of a new department? Or would it not rather be made worse than it now is, under the new arrangement? We think it would. Secondly, the Indian must be made to fear, as well as respect, the power of the government. Would any army without such as is possessed by the new department effect this object any better than that which is now in existence? In regard to why so many complaints have been made? If so, we feel to see it. The two objects can be best and most effectually accomplished through the untrammelled power of the war department. Experience has taught us that the Indian tribes cannot be managed without the use of force and that a divided responsibility between the interior department and the war department has been a very impotent contrivance and operated altogether disadvantageously to the whites in all contests between them and the Indians. If this can be remedied at all, as we think it can, it will be done by concentrating the entire Indian business in the war department. In this we concur in opinion with nine tenths of the press of the Territories that are afflicted with Indian troubles and we are satisfied that the press express the public sentiment on the subject under discussion, and Congress should attach a proper degree of attention to it.

ELECTION LAW. The following is a copy of the act which has been introduced into the House of Representatives proposing a change in the time for holding the election for Delegate in this Territory.

It is to be held on the 1st of March, and it will pass soon after the legislature meets after the holidays.

AN ACT changing the time of holding the elections in this Territory for Delegate in Congress, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the Territory of New Mexico. Section 1. Elections shall be held in the various counties in this Territory on the first Monday in March in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty nine, for the purpose of electing a delegate to the congress of the United States from the Territory of New Mexico for the term to commence on the fourth day of March of said year, and said elections shall be in all respects held, conducted and proceeded with in accordance with the laws concerning elections in force in this territory; and thereafter elections for delegate in congress shall take place at the general elections in this territory of September next preceding the commencement of the term of office of such delegate.

Sec. 2. That the law of this territory in regard to the registration of the voters, approved January 20th, 1890 shall apply and be rigidly enforced in regard to the election authorized and required by this act. Provided, that the hours of registration in any county shall not receive pay as per diem, for more than three days services in registering voters and carrying the lists of voters at this or any other election.

Sec. 3. This act shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, and all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed so far as they conflict with or are in any manner contrary to this act.

THE MORENO MINES. In the Colorado Chronicle of the 24th December we find a communication from Elizabeth dated the 18th from which we make the following extracts which pertain particularly to the mining prospects in that region of country:

EDS. CHIEFTAIN.—Our quiet little mining town has been rendered still more desirable by the departure from our midst of many of the miners, during the last few weeks, and by the suspension of operations on the Moreno ditches, for the winter. All work upon claims, except the development of quartz leads, has ceased, causing thereby a general stagnation in all branches of business. Since the cessation of gold mining, many rich quartz leads have been discovered, promising in their appearance, and abundantly supplied with wide crevices of the richest quartz. Prominent among these may be mentioned the Pacific, Great Eastern, Great Western, Gray Eagle, Empire, and Europa. There seems to prevail but one opinion among the masses in regard to the future of this mineral region. That the gold is to be found in quantities that will pay, has long since ceased to be a question of doubt, for the yield during the past season, even with the limited facilities for successfully working the mines, will compare favorably with any hitherto discovered gold country. A large immigration is confidently expected another season from all parts of the country. Companies have been organized to commence spring operations on an extensive scale, and a general good feeling prevails in anticipation of a lively remunerative year for all those who cast their lot in the Moreno mines. Several new stamp mills have been ordered and will reach here as early in the spring as they can be transported from the end of the railroad. Two millars are already in successful operation, one belonging to Mr. Maxwell's company, on the creek, the other to Messrs. Bartholomew & Lowthian, near the mouth of Humboldt Gulch. The latter mill has not yet made a sufficient run to fairly test the quartz it has been crushing. The mill on the creek is still in full blast and is daily turning out a goodly amount of bullion. An eyewitness informs me that in a little less than two days running, twenty-six ounces were cleaned up. This, I am informed, is about the average yield, and the mine from which the quartz is taken is apparently inexhaustible.

The "Moreno ditch" will be completed early in the spring, in readiness to supply all the water necessary for gold mining. Thirty miles are already finished, and the remainder will be pushed vigorously forward to completion as soon as the weather will permit. It is a work of immense magnitude and reflects great credit alike to the projector and to the enterprising company engaged in its construction. Its completion will prove of incalculable benefit to the country, and is only another exhibition of the confidence placed in the vast mineral resources of this auriferous region.

From Mesilla. LA MESSILLA, Dec. 21th, 1892.

DEAR SIR.—Mesilla has been dull the past week. Gloom and sadness have prevailed in lieu of life and joy. First came the death of a little daughter of the late Dr. Fisher, both father and daughter having fallen victims to the small-pox then prevailing in this town. Next, the death of the daughter of Hon. John Lamon died on 12th inst., and on the 15th inst. Thomas Myers and John, eldest daughter of Hon. John Lamon, died. Mr. Myers was one of the parties engaged in the shooting difficulty some time ago, and died of the lockjaw from the effects of amputation of the right arm. His remains were followed to the grave by the largest concourse of Americans ever seen in this country. The sympathy of the entire community was enlisted in behalf of Judge Lamon and his family, and crowds of people from all the surrounding towns attended the funeral which was the largest ever seen in New Mexico. Friends and foes alike united in paying the last tribute of respect to the deceased, who had been in delicate health for some time. Writing of Judge Lamon, reminds me that he has resigned his position as Probate Judge of Doña Ana County, and the Governor has ordered an election for a successor, to be held on the 10th January. Mr. Daniel Fritzsche and Don Cristobal Escarate are spoken of as probable candidates either one of them will fill the office with honor to himself and credit to the county.

We have now a weekly coach between here and El Paso, which connects with the Santa Fe coach. Mr. R. H. Whitner is the sub-contractor for carrying the Mails between here and there.

X. Y. Z. DIED. In La Mesilla, on the night of 19 inst., JUDITH LAMON, the beloved daughter of Hon. John Lamon, aged 14th years, 7 months and 15 days.

The Great Ranch known by the name of Ojuelas situated within the County of Valencia and Territory of New Mexico, containing four thousand acres of land, conveniently adapted for cultivation of all kinds of vegetables such as Corn, Wheat, Oats and Potatoes, and all kinds of fruits can be raised as well, and no other can surpass it as a pasturing country, where Corn, Oats, &c., may be not needed to have animals in a very good condition. As for raising stock, no better can be found throughout the Territory of New Mexico. There is a spacious dwelling house containing ten rooms and two warehouses, one fine stable, two corral, in one of which can be put one thousand head of cattle; one tank attached to the said house, twenty-five feet deep and about a thousand yards in circumference, which can irrigate from three to four thousand acres of land. Four excellent springs within five hundred yards of the house, continually affording sufficient water to fill the Tank and supply the whole community. An abundance of wood and timber can be had in the neighborhood. To the above mentioned property will be given 2000 deeds and titles, and will be delivered in good order and condition. This property is valued at $5,000 00.

In Peralta, there is a small farm containing twenty-five acres more or less with house and a garden attached thereto valued at $300 00.

There is a tract of land in the precinct of Valencia, $420 00.
