HARDING LAND-SLIDE BREAKS ALL RECORDS

TWENTY MILLION VOTES CAST ACCORDING TO ESTIMATES. HARDING HAS SIX MILLION LEAD.

Returns Show 394 Electoral Votes for Harding, 124 for Cox With 13 in Doubt.

New York, Nov. 4.—With definite returns lacking from only a few states, Senator Warren G. Harding today has been swept into the presidency by the greatest popular majority in the history of American politics. Incomplete returns today gave Harding 394 electoral votes, Cox 124, with 13 doubtful.

As tabulation of returns was completed today, the Harding landslide was seen to be greater than it had appeared even last night when the great republican sweep from coast to coast became manifest.

The most optimistic predictions of republican national chairman Will Hays were exceeded in practically every instance. The women vote swayed the totals to unprecedented proportions and made the Democratic defeat appear all the more overwhelming.

Harding, when he assumes the presidency March 4, 1921, will go into office with a senate and house of representatives republican by wide margins, according to the returns to date.

The republicans gained seats in both the upper and lower houses.

It was estimated that the total vote cast was more than 20,000,000 and that Harding polled nearly 6,000,000 votes more than Cox. This broke all records for political land-slides. The records show that prior to yesterday no state ever gave a presidential candidate more than a 500,000 plurality. This was surpassed in New York, which gave Harding a probable lead of more than one million; by Pennsylvania where the republican candidate has a margin of more than 700,000 and in Illinois where Harding's estimated plurality is about 800,000. Harding's margin of victory in Ohio was estimated at 400,000. Other states rolled up unprecedented pluralities for Harding. California, whose vote four years ago decided the Hughes-Wilson contest in favor of the latter, appears to have gone for Harding by more than 100,000.

HAY TRADE CONDITIONS OF THE WEEK.

Markets are in a better position this week than last and some report higher values with trade in sellers favor. Prices reached bottom levels last week and there has been a general recovery. The rail movement of hay is small and this has created the strength more than the demand which is unusually light. Producers are not selling and whether this will reduce deliveries and sustain prices is still to be seen. It is questionable, however, for grain and feed prices will regulate hay values to a large extent. It is suggested that hay has been out of line with grain for several years and that now it may not decline as rapidly as other feeds.—Hay Journal.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

Sunday school at 9:45 A. M. Sunbeams at 3 P. M. B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 P. M. Preaching at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. Rev. J. E. Nicholson, of Loving, will preach at the evening hour. There will be baptismal services at the close. The interest in the Sunday school still continues and we want every pupil present and on time next Sunday. T. C. MAHAN, Pastor.

SCHOOL NOTES.

The Senior class entertained the Junior class with a Halloween party at the home of Chas. C. Eaker, Saturday night.

The house was artistically decorated in crepe paper, black cats, witches and Jack O' Lanterns. The guests came masqued in sundry fashions. Each guest was invited to have their fortune told. They were blindfolded and led backwards down the stairs into the cellar where they had many exciting adventures. Various other games were played, including rock, bobbing for apples, and the race for a marshmallow. Refreshments of hot chocolate, doughnuts, apples, and marshmallows were greatly enjoyed.

The Freshman class gave a masquerade party on Saturday, October 30th, at the High school building celebrating Halloween. The Domestic Science rooms were decorated in witches, black cats and pumpkins. About eleven o'clock pumpkin pie and cocoa were served. Every one had a delightful time and left hoping to have another one soon. The invited guests were Misses Graham, Hughes and Mesdames Cunningham, Lucas and Williams.

Students at the High school building cast 135 ballots for Cox and 54 for Harding in the practice voting last Friday.

Considerable interest in the voting was evident. The purpose was not to take a straw vote or increase partisan interest in the election, but to supply training in practical citizenship. Consequently the voting was made to conform as nearly as possible to the official process. Sample ballots were secured and only one ballot out of the total number was ruled out as defective by the election boards. State and local results were very similar to the vote for president.

All necessary supplies for a card index system for the High school library have been received and will be installed in the near future. Fifty new books were received during the last week and the magazines received regularly are: World's Work, Literary Digest, Pan American Union, Current Opinion, American Popular Mechanics, Outlook, National Geographic, Current History, Pathfinder, and Youth's Companion.

3,643 WERE REGISTERED FOR ELECTION IN THIS COUNTY.

The following official figures of the registration in Eddy county for the election Tuesday were furnished by the county clerk:

Malaga precinct	219
Hope precinct	445
Lakewood precinct	146
Loving precinct	183
Artesia precinct	782
Dayton precinct	123
Queen precinct	102
Otis precinct	264
Cottonwood precinct	172
Carlshad precinct	1202

Total in county.....3643
Just how many of these are women could not be ascertained as the law does not provide for the segregation of the registered voters but it is computed by those who are in the "know" that the ladies' proportion is about 50 per cent.

THE METHODIST CHURCH.

Sunday school will open at 9:45. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered in connection with the morning worship. Preaching by the pastor at the evening hour.

GEO. H. GIVAN, Pastor.

First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Roswell, N. M., announces a free lecture on Christian Science by William D. Kilpatrick, C. S. B., of Detroit, Mich., member of the board of lecturership of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist of Boston, Mass., Thursday evening, Nov. 18, 1920, at eight o'clock, at the Masonic Temple, Pennsylvania Ave. and Fourth street. The public is cordially invited to be present.

A County Library Book Wagon.

A number of states successfully operate book wagons for the circulation of reading material in the rural districts. The American Library Association includes the needs of the rural communities in its Enlarged Program which is the backbone of its "Books for Everybody" movement. The A. L. A. hopes some day to see book wagons in every state and is pledged to advocate such service.

BORN NOV. 2 - AND ELECTED NOV. 2: HARDING HALOED.

November 2 is a lucky day for Warren Gamaliel Harding. On that day, in 1865, he first blinked at the light. On that day, just 55 years later, he was elected president of the United States.

In there any connection between the date of his birth and his success? Astrologers place great importance on birthdays, as indicating the influence of the planets on human affairs. They believe that the particular and relative positions of the heavenly bodies, at the time of birth, affects a human being's whole life.

Harding's election confirms the prediction of 10 astrologers in the October number of "Astro," a monthly devoted to this subject.

On the well known other hand, it goes against the prediction of five astrologers in the same magazine. Help yourself.

NEW MEXICO GOES REPUBLICAN.

A heavy vote was polled in Eddy county last Tuesday at the general election. As usual the county gave a majority for the democratic candidates, but the state went republican. The entire state ticket was elected by the republicans according to the latest information received here. Just how much the victory was is not known at this time. A heavy vote was polled over the entire state.

PREPARE NOW TO LAY PLANS FOR FIGHT IN NOVEMBER, 1921. COX MADE GAME BATTLE.

Leaders Believe No Democratic Candidate Could Have Won War Reaction Halted.

Dayton, Ohio, Nov. 3.—Democrats all over the nation today began to reform their lines following the crushing defeat of November 2. They believed the reaction following the war was such that no Democratic candidate could have won this year, and they believed that when the American people have had an opportunity to appraise the achievement of the Wilson administration in the light for four years, Democratic victory will be assured in 1924.

One thing seems certain the Democrats will never send a candidate out single-handed to battle as Cox battled this year. The Democratic organization was never more than a shadow. Not until three weeks ago did it render the slightest aid to Cox.

Telegrams today poured in on Governor Cox. They began to arrive last night when it became certain that the landslide had carried Senator Harding to victory.

Francis J. Heney of California, wired: "This is only the battle of the first Marine. I hereby enlist as a private in the ranks to fight until victory is won."

Hundreds of other telegrams congratulated Cox on his game battle, hailed him as the fearless champion of his party and said he was the only man to continue the policies of the stricken Wilson.

The gameness of Governor Cox in the face of certain defeat will live long in the memories of the rank of close friends and newspaper correspondents who received the returns with him. On the street below a crowd of 15,000 men and women were receiving returns posted by Governor Cox's newspaper.

It was for the most part made up of Cox adherents, but there was a large number of Harding supporters in the crowd. Upstairs Cox smoking his inevitable cigar smiled, chatted with men and women who came to hail him as proudly as if he were elected rather than defeated. Governor Cox deeply appreciated their tributes. His spirits were as high as if he had just won instead of losing the greatest office in the gift of the American people. Newspaper men who had been with Bryan, Parker and Hughes when they were defeated contrasted their dejection with Cox's spirits. Nearly every man who greeted Governor Cox told him that he had merely had his occupancy of the White House postponed for four more years.

SENIORS ENTERTAIN JUNIORS.

About twenty of the Junior class were entertained by the Seniors last Saturday night with a delightful Halloween party at the home of Charles C. Eaker. Everyone came masked in different costumes from dainty Martha Washingtons to fierce-looking cowboys. The charming young hostess, Miss Lillie Mae Nelson, met them at the door, blindfolded each, and led them, one at a time, down the basement stairs where they were put through a very mysterious "Thirty-third" degree and had their fortunes told in a spookified manner. LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. J. R. Linn was taken to Eddy county hospital last Saturday and underwent an operation at the hands of local surgeons from which she is recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cantrell were in from their ranch on McKittick, Tuesday and returned the same day after transacting business.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Livingston and daughter, Kathryn, have returned from a stay in Arizona, at the home of Mrs. Livingston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones.

Mrs. R. S. Benson returned recently from a summer's stay in California and a later visit to friends in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. George O'Connor returned the first of the week from their honeymoon trip to El Paso and have gone to housekeeping in the bungalow of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur House, on Halagueno street.

The Comrades class of the Methodist Sunday School at Loving had a very successful affair celebrating the feast of "All Hallow's" Thursday night of last week. The net proceeds amounted to $50.00 which will be put to good use in the work of the church.

J. F. O'Donnell, advance agent for the Carnival that is soon to be put on for the benefit of the State Hospital, was in town the first of the week making arrangements for the place, time and other necessary things to be considered.

W. T. Wells and wife are newcomers in Carlsbad, who are interested in the oil development of the country and will be here for the winter if suitable accommodations can be found.

Ed. Burleson is in town this week from his ranch at the foot of the mountains.

A gay time was enjoyed at the Chris Walter residence on West Fox street, of this city, last Saturday night, that being the fourteenth anniversary of the birthday of Miss Alice, and a number of her young friends being invited to enjoy the occasion with her. Hallowe'en features were in evidence the guests being greeted by a mammoth Jack O' Lantern upon entering the home and other decorations were in keeping with the spirit of the day. The young people danced to the music of the violin and piano, and played many games suitable to the occasion, for Miss Alice, despite her fourteen years, is still enough of a little girl to enjoy a merry game. Ice cream and cake formed the refreshments and a happy time was reported by all who were present and all who know Alice are united in wishing her many pleasant returns of the happy anniversary.

Among many pleasant observances of Hallowe'en was the party of the "Kindness" class of the Methodist Sunday School at the home of their teacher, Mrs. Walter Craft, on North Canal street. The rooms had been made festive for the evening by a judicious use of cut flowers and Hallowe'en decoration and suitable refreshments were served the dozen or so of girls who compose the class.

The band concert given Sunday afternoon by our local musicians was well attended and greatly enjoyed by town people. A much larger crowd would have been present had not some confusion in regard to the hour prevailed. Those who were present speak in high praise of the music and promise a larger attendance next time.

A number of the members of the Baptist church of this city were in attendance at the Fifth Sunday services at Loving last Sunday. These meetings began on Friday night and continued until Sunday night with good congregations and much interest shown.

FORTUNES MADE WITHOUT EFFORT

Profits of Stockholders in Mail-Order Houses Stagger the Imagination.

CUSTOMERS SUPPLY CAPITAL

One Man Makes More Than $250,000 on $25,000 Investment in Nine Years—Hundreds Like Him.

(Copyright.)
There is one way to make money by dealing with the mail-order houses but it isn't by buying goods from them.

The man who thinks he is making money by buying his goods from mail-order houses has only to read of the amazing profits made by some of these big corporations to realize that all the money is being made by the man on the other end of the deal.

The stockholder in a big mail-order concern tells not and neither does he spin, but he piles up his money so fast that it makes the ordinary man's head swim to read about it. Here is the experience of the stockholder in one of the large mail-order concerns, as told by a reliable financial journal. It gives a glimpse into the inside workings of the mail-order business that should be of interest to those who have made such things possible.

How the Game Works.

In 1908 this man bought 600 shares of stock in the mail-order corporation in question when the stock was selling around $40 a share. The 600 shares cost him a little less than $25,000. In 1911 the company declared a stock dividend of 33 1/3 per cent. In other words the company after paying cash dividends regularly, had accumulated a surplus profit of one-third of the amount of capital invested in the business; but instead of distributing this profit among the stockholders the company kept the money in the business and issued stock for that amount to the stockholders. By this action 200 more shares of stock were issued to the man who had originally bought 600, increasing his holdings to 800 shares, without his having put any more money into the business.

Another stock dividend of 50 per cent was declared in 1915 and this added 400 shares more to his holdings, giving him 1,200 shares in all. A third stock dividend of 25 per cent was paid early in 1917, bringing this man's stock holdings up to 1,500 shares, still without his having paid in any more money. And this 1,500 shares of stock, cash dividends of $5 a share are now being paid. This investor therefore is now receiving $12,000 a year from his original investment of about $25,000, and as the stock is now worth around $150 a share, the present market value of his stock is $225,000, giving him a profit of $200,000, in addition to cash dividends which he received during nine years, amounting to many more thousands of dollars.

Only One of Hundreds.

This is the story of just one small stockholder in one mail-order concern. A profit of more than $215,000 made by one small stockholder in nine years on an investment of less than $25,000! It reads like fiction but it is financial history. There are hundreds of other stockholders in this and other mail-order corporations, some of whom have made millions while this man made thousands. Add the profits of all these stockholders together and the result is a sum that staggers the imagination.

Small wonder that the men who own the stock of the big mail-order houses can live in palaces, ride in the highest-priced automobiles, own private yachts and buy $100,000 paintings. But who has furnished the money to pay for the palaces and the automobiles and the yachts and the $100,000 paintings? The people in the country and the small towns who have kept an endless stream of money flowing into the coffers of the mail-order houses have made all this possible. Their millions of dollars have gone to the big cities to build up these great concerns. Their millions of dollars have provided the automobiles and yachts and other luxuries for the stockholders in these corporations.

Present From Mail-Order Buyers.

These men who have piled up such big fortunes in the mail-order business have not even had to pay for much of the stock from which they are now drawing princely dividends. The people in the country and the small towns, generous souls, have bought it for them. This is shown in the case of the stockholder just mentioned, who originally invested. The generous mail-order buyers have made him a present of $215,000 worth of stock and he has not had to turn his hand over to get it. He has never even had to so much as write a letter to get it. The generous mail-order buyers have handed it to him on a golden platter.

There's money in the mail-order business without a doubt, but it's on the side of the man who does the selling and not the one who does the buying. If you must do business with the mail-order house, buy some of its stock and let the fellow in the next town buy your automobiles and private yachts while he struggles with the hard times that come from draining his town of the cash that goes to keep you in luxury.

NOTICE.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Methodist church in Carlsbad next Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, and at the conclusion of the meeting refreshments will be served by a committee in charge of that part of the entertainment. An interesting program is being prepared and all will be made welcome.

While walking along the street Tuesday little Loren, the 7 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Cunningham, of La Huerta, picked up a roll of bills. The little boy and his mother came on down to the current office and put in an advertisement telling of the find and asking the loser to prove his property. On the way back to town they learned that the money was the property of Lyle Henderson, a clerk in the employ of the Mercantile grocery company. The little fellow promptly gave it up and when asked as to his idea of a reward, replied: "Oh, you needn't give me anything." Mr. Henderson, however, insisted on giving him a reward of five dollars, and both finder and loser were happy over the outcome. There was $45 in the roll.

Mr. and Mrs. John Prickett and daughter, Annie, returned Wednesday from a visit to the old home at Wamega, Kansas, where they went more especially to attend a reunion of relatives which is held each year on the birthday of Mrs. Prickett's grandfather, Mr. Beckwith. The usual party was called off this year owing to a death of a relative, but a pleasant time was enjoyed with old friends. Mr. Beckwith left Kansas a few days before the Pricketts in order that he might have time to reach his home at Riverside, California, in time to vote. Mr. and Mrs. Prickett went from the train to the polls before going to their home.

LOCAL NEWS.

Maek Campbell was in town from his ranch sixty miles out last Saturday. Mr. Campbell and wife are planning to move to Carlsbad for the winter about the 20th of this month.

Sam Montgomery returned Sunday night from a trip to Roswell where he spent a couple of days on business.

Born, to Rev. and Mrs. Barb, formerly of Carlsbad, but now residing in Texico, a boy baby, Oct. 11th. Friends here will join in heartfelt best wishes for the boy and his parents.

Mrs. Sadie Cheatem is spending the week with friends and relatives in Loving, going down Tuesday morning.

Was a wild, wild night last Saturday at the Hardin Clark home on Greene Heights. Spooks and goblins held wild revelry at that time and indulged in many and various old time Halloween stunts and made up in noise what they lacked in numbers. In the crowd were the four Clark girls, Helen, Julia, Ursula, and Nettie, Irma Lion Grantham, Nadine Hughes, Evelyn Kireher, Frances Joy and Henry Foster, May Dishman, and Allen Reed. After they had played all the games they wished, Mrs. Clark served cookies and cocoa to the crowd and the happy affair ended.

At the Ira J. Stockwell home Sunday was served a wild turkey dinner, said fowl being a trophy secured while Mr. Stockwell was on his recent hunt. The bird was pronounced very tender and toothsome and cooked to perfection and with the other good things provided made a feast worth while. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hays, Mr. and Mrs. Woodard and J. R. Stockwell and Mrs. Stockwell joined the younger Stockwell family at the dinner.

Judge Grantham returned the latter part of the week from a trip to Lovington where he went on business.

HONORING A VISITOR.

Among many other pleasant events of last week was the party given by Mrs. W. G. Donley honoring Mrs. George Roberts of Clovis who was spending the week in this city, her former home. The Halloween idea was carried out in the decorations which consisted of pumpkins filled with beautiful autumn flowers, and in the napkins, where the idea was stressed in colors and designs. Delicious refreshments were served to the guests, all of whom were close friends of the honor guest, Mrs. Roberts, and were as follows: Mesdames Myron K. Clark, Frank Kindel, H. A. Roberts, T. E. Rodgers, D. Jackson, and Misses Hughes, Lovett, Roberts, Linn and Cooke.

Elbert Tedford, leader of Carlsbad band, has under consideration the forming of a girl's band and is meeting with much encouragement in his efforts looking toward that end. Any person wishing to join such an organization may learn all details by calling on Mr. Tedford. The idea is a fine one and other towns not nearly as large as Carlsbad have such organizations and such a band would prove an asset to the city and the Current will do all in its power to help the project along.

ARMISTICE DAY.

A Proclamation by the Governor
Setting Aside November
11th as Armistice Day.

On the 11th day of November, A. D. 1918, the armistice between the warring armies of the allies and of the central empires of Europe was effected, and the last shot in that bloody and destructive war was fired, thus practically putting an end to the terrible struggle. That the part taken by our armies in Europe was the deciding factor in bringing that struggle to an early conclusion; after our entrance into the conflict, it is known to every one the world over, and is a matter of just pride and satisfaction to us as Americans. It is fit and proper that this date be ever held sacred in the memory of every true American, not only in remembrance of that happy occurrence, but also, and very fittingly so, in recognition of the part that our country and our brave soldiers had in securing the happy termination of the conflict.

With this end in view, I, O. A. Larrazolo, governor of the state of New Mexico, do hereby proclaim Thursday the 11th day of November, A. D. 1920, to be a legal holiday, known as ARMISTICE DAY, and direct that our flag be displayed on all public state buildings, and school houses throughout the state; and I respectfully invite the members of the clergy throughout the state to hold special services in their respective churches and places of worship, in thanksgiving to Almighty God for the blessings of peace granted to us by divine providence through the instrumentality, in a large measure, of our armies; and ask our people throughout our commonwealth, and the school children in the school room, to hold public meetings and other ceremonies and festivities as they may plan and devise, with a view of celebrating that day and of keeping fresh in the memories of old and young the noble participation that we took in that memorable conflict, and the eternal debt of gratitude that we all owe to the brave and loyal young Americans who defended the name and honor of our common country in the battle fields of Europe, where many of them rendered the last full measure of devotion to their country, and there now lie as noble victims sacrificed upon the altar of liberty and popular free government.

Done at the executive office in the city of Santa Fe, state of New Mexico, this 23rd day of October, A. D. 1920. Witness my hand and the great seal of the state of New Mexico.
O. A. LARRAZOLO, Governor.
MANUEL MARTINEZ, Secretary of State.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bulman are happy over the birth of a son October 23rd at their home on Greene Heights, Carlsbad. May the little boy heal the mother heart which mourns the loss of a young son a few months ago.

A CHANGE.

Wm. Stranahan, of Kansas City, on Thursday purchased the half interest in the Artesia Advocate of J. S. Knowles. Mr. Knowles retired on account of ill health and departed yesterday for a trip to New Orleans, Washington, D. C., Canada, west to Seattle and San Francisco, thence to join his family in Pasadena. While Mr. Stranahan owns a half interest in the advocate he will not be in Artesia for the present at least. He is a brother-in-law of J. R. Hoffman who will have charge of the Advocate as editor and manager.—Artesia Advocate.

Twenty-two boys in various styles of regulation Halloween costumes were entertained at the Black home in North Carlsbad last Friday night. They were of the ages of ten to twelve years and consisted of the boys belonging to Mrs. Little's Sunday school class who were the guests of the Sunday school class taught by Mrs. Black. After all were tired of the fun the boys were treated to a weenie and marshmallow roast and each boy was served a quarter of pumpkin pie. This last part of the menu proved most delightful as if there is anything the average young American is fond of it is pie. The boys of Mrs. Little's class greatly appreciate the hospitality shown them on this occasion and announce a return of the favor along about Thanksgiving time.

Miss Minnie Morgan left her home the first of last week and after a short visit with her brother, Will, near Otis, expected to go on to Sterling City, Texas, where she will visit a sister, Mrs. C. N. Daugherty, returning in her home at Hagerman in a couple of weeks.

Johnny Riggs made a flying business trip to Roswell last Saturday night, returning Sunday.

Tired

"I was weak and run-down," relates Mrs. Eula Burnett, of Dalton, Ga. "I was thin and just felt tired, all the time. I didn't rest well. I wasn't ever hungry. I knew, by this, I needed a tonic, and as there is none better than—

CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

"I began using Cardui," continues Mrs. Burnett. "After my first bottle, I slept better and ate better. I took four bottles. Now I'm well, feel just fine, eat and sleep, my skin is clear and I have gained and sure feel that Cardui is the best tonic ever made."

Thousands of other women have found Cardui just as Mrs. Burnett did. It should help you.

THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

ALL ARE AMERICANS.

We are all Americans. And all of us who are genuine Americans believe in Democracy. We accept the mandates of our peers. A majority of those peers have elected William G. Harding President of the United States.

William G. Harding is as much the chief executive of the Democracy as he is of the South.

When he was convinced of his election, he uttered a prayer to God. Students of Christian philosophy say there is no danger in a praying man. Perhaps William G. Harding is not as bad as he was painted by party zealots.

At any rate, he will be the President of the whole of the United States, and every man who is not so narrow minded that his ignorance is criminal hopes this country will prosper as it has never before prospered, and that the coming administration will be a success.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS DEAD, ASSERTS BORAH.

Washington, Nov. 2. — Senator Borah, of Idaho, one of the irreconcilable opponents of the League of Nations covenant, issued a statement tonight saying: "I regard the election as a triumph for nationalism and the death of the League of Nations."

DISCOURAGES INFLATION.

Secretary Houston has stated flatly that the U. S. Treasury would not be a party to withholding any commodity from the market to maintain artificially high prices. Agricultural interests have been arguing that to meet the falling prices of farm products, the War Finance Corporation should be revived in order to loan money to producers to hold the crops. Secretary Houston explained that the War Finance Corporation could obtain money only from the U. S. Treasury and that if the corporation were to loan money the treasury's borrowings would have to be increased and the government would have to call on the people continuously for more money. It would be an endless circle of borrowing from the people to hold up the prices of crops which the people would have to buy.

The process would be like trying to fatten a dog by feeding him a chunk off his own tail—some day there wouldn't be any dog left. Conditions are re-adjusting to a normal basis in a very satisfactory manner and Secretary Houston is to be commended for refusing to sanction artificial means of stimulating prices at the present time.

Interest in work

The craftsman of a former generation was keenly interested in quality and quantity of work. He bragged about the fine shoes he made or the fine potatoes he grew and much of his reward came from the satisfaction he got from high class work.

The complaint is often heard now, that multitudes of people are not interested in the quality or amount of work done. They do not feel pride in its excellence. Their aim is to get by, to satisfy the requirements enough to hang on to their job. The pay envelope is the only reward that counts.

People who work for such ends may obtain plenty of employment in rush times when work is abundant. But slack times always come and the first workers to be laid off are always the clock watchers who never take interest in their work.

Prosperity and Decline.

Some one said the other day that prosperity carries with it the seeds of its own destruction. "When we become prosperous," the speaker went on, "we are inclined to become ultra conservative, a little lazy, and often self centered. The man who has his way to make in the world is usually willing to risk his shirt to do something big, while the man who made his pile is not so inclined."

A certain degree of poverty is good for people, or at least it tends to develop their initiative. The rich man's son has everything handed to him without effort. He does not feel it necessary to cultivate excellence of any kind, save perhaps in golf or tennis. He loaf around the fraternity houses at college, while other boys are digging into the basic facts of technical science. He may slip through life easily enough as the result of his father's dollars. If reverses of fortune comes, he finds he is not equipped for life.

These truths apply particularly at this time to the United States. This country is richer than it was before the war. Its debts are more than offset by the leading financial position it has attained. Prosperity is far more general than ever before.

Over in Europe, the nations are nearly bankrupt. Some of them are quite so. They have every spur to work. The result will be to stimulate ingenuity in every line of industry. All kinds of business will be so systematized and organized as to provide the maximum of efficiency.

It is not going to be an easy matter during the next few years for rich and prosperous Americans to compete with people who feel so keenly the spur of ever driving necessity. America has a leading position now but it is going to take untiring ambition and earnest endeavor to retain it.

ROBERTS - DEARBORNE HWD. CO.MARRIAGE OF ONE OF CARLSBAD'S GIRLS AT GLOBE, ARIZONA

From a Globe, Arizona paper we learn of the marriage of Miss Lura Barron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Barron of this city to Gordon Moreland, of Miami. The event occurred on Sunday, October 27th at Globe, where the bride has been employed as a stenographer since leaving Carlsbad a year and a half ago.

She received her education in Carlsbad schools later taking a commercial course and working at various times for different lawyers in the city. A young lady of much charm of manner, kindly and courteous to all whom she met, she has the best wishes of a host of Carlsbad friends for a long and happy life with the man of her choice. The clipping from the Globe paper follows:

The marriage Sunday of Miss Lura Barron of this city and Gordon C. Moreland of Miami, was the culmination of a school-day romance which began back in New Mexico from where both came to this district.

The couple were married by the Rev. Archer, the ring ceremony being performed. Only a few close friends of the bride were in attendance.

Miss Barron has been a resident of Globe for the past 18 months and came here from Carlsbad, New Mexico. She is well known among the business and professional girls of Globe and being a stenographer by profession, soon became well known among the business people here. She has been employed for several months as secretary for Fredrick A. Shaffer.

Mr. Moreland is better known in Miami, having resided there for some time, but also came from New Mexico.

Miss Barron was secretary of the Business and Professional Girls club of Globe.

PROPERTY RIGHTS.

Many people look at property rights as if in some way they were opposed to human rights. But property rights were established because they benefited humanity. If a man was allowed to collect what property he could by lawful industry, it was an incentive for him to save money and to serve the people well. When he saved money, he accumulated a fund which could be used to create industrial plants and railroads and all the machinery of modern production. The more he saved and invested in such enterprises, the more the general public prospered.

If he saved a large property, it was commonly because he had been exceptionally efficient in some business. He had been able to produce some commodity cheaper than other people, so that he could sell large quantities of it at a profit. His gain was for the benefit of the people.

If property rights are taken away, as they have been in Russia, you stop rewarding thrift and industry and enterprise. No one any longer has any motive for practicing economy, or for developing superior skill and efficiency.

If exceptional efficiency is not recognized, humanity sinks down to a dead level. It is the best policy for all to allow special rewards for efficiency and skill, as these qualities are used in service of the public, and benefit everybody. The nations of the world that are run on a communistic basis never make any advance. If the right to hold property and to keep safely what one has obtained by honest means, is not maintained, enterprise is checked, no incentive is given to anyone for superior service to the public. But when the right of private property is carefully upheld, people compete to see which shall serve the public the best.

Rev. Geo. H. Glavan and wife returned Sunday from a lengthy visit at Stephensburg, Kentucky, and other places in the Blue Grass state.

The many friends of Mrs. Bert Rawlins will be glad to know that she is convalescing nicely from a serious operation which was performed last Sunday at Eddy County hospital, and all join in hopes of her early recovery.

E. P. Bujac entertained the Bridge Club at her home in La Huerta last Friday afternoon. Members of the club and the following substitutes for absent ladies were present: Mrs. Fernie Albright, Mrs. Dusen, Mrs. W. S. Moore, Mrs. Miles Stone and Miss Margaret Breeding. A salad course was served and all enjoyed the afternoon. Mrs. E. G. Tracy making high score and receiving the club prize.

Mrs. P. F. Simonds, of Chicago, is visiting in Carlsbad, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Roy Waller.

A Factory Sale of Cole's Hot Blast Ranges will be held at Thorne's Furniture Store the 11th, 12th and 13th of November.

Walter Rehder, and wife and little daughter Catherine, arrived in Carlsbad Sunday from Graham, Texas, their home, which they left the Wednesday previous. They found the roads pretty rough, but otherwise in fair condition. The gentleman is a brother of Mrs. L. V. Wallace, who is spending the season at the W. H. Mullane place west of town and is a paper hanger and painter in his home town; they are well fixed for camping having a large tent and a good car in which to travel around. After a week here they will move on further and spend their vacation in the open. This is their first visit to the valley and they are much pleased with it from every standpoint.

Remember the sale of Cole's Hot Blast Ranges will be held at Thorne's Furniture Store the 11th, 12th and 13th of this month.

Do not forget that the date for the Factory Range Sale is the 11th, 12th and 13th of November at Thorne's Furniture Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ares and Albert Ares are in the city and will remain here a few days. Albert says the little boy, Paul, is growing beyond belief.

Walter Glover came in from his ranch in the mountains yesterday and remained overnight. He reported a rain and snow storm which they experienced at the ranch about ten days ago but says moisture is always acceptable at his place.

Among many other pleasant observances of Hallowe'en was a neighborhood party at the home of Miss Eva Thomas, last Saturday night, which was especially enjoyed by the boys and girls present. The young folk played various games and finally pulled taffy until a late hour. Those present were Retta Reed, Pauline Johnston, Pearl Forehand, Marian Hoose, and the young hostess, Eva Thomas; Elliott Reed, Joe Richardson, William Mercer, George Reed and Fred Weldon.

EL PASO GAP ITEMS.

El Paso Gap, N. M., Oct. 26.—Old man Mr. Hitter-or-mies returned to our vicinity last Saturday night from Alaska where he spent his summer vacation. He came well prepared for his winter work for he had plenty of water, snow and ice. At first he gave us a good shower bath. Then he opened the snow faucet. Next he turned on the air pressure, and by 12 o'clock Saturday night there was a terrible blizzard raging on the mountains. But at this writing (Tuesday, the 26th, instant) the sun is shining nice and bright and the snow is melting fast. About 12 inches of snow fell, but in places it was in drifts 5 or 6 feet deep. All travel was suspended from Sunday morning until Tuesday.

Jim Etcheverry left his ranch north of the Gap for Carlsbad the first of last week, going down after supplies for the ranch.

Bautista Barbara left his ranch west of the Gap for his home on McKittrick Draw last Wednesday. He will move his family to his ranch in West Dog Canyon just as soon as the weather will permit.

S. T. Lewis of Crow Flat, has moved his family to our vicinity in order to send the children to school which speaks very highly for our school this year.

T. C. Love, wife and son, Sam, spent several days hunting in the mountains south of the Gap and returned to Carlsbad Friday afternoon. They had the usual hunter's luck.

There was a party of hunters from the beautiful city on the Pecos (but the writer did not learn their names) who were camped at the foot of the mountains south of the Gap and three of the party got lost Saturday and were out in the blizzard until they found their way into camp. They were sure cold and hungry. They broke camp immediately and hit the road for Carlsbad. They, too, had the hunter's luck.

The young people of Dog Canyon pulled off another big stunt by giving a box supper and dance last Friday night at Mr. Selbay Cox's place south of the Gap, which was a grand success. Queen and all parts of the country was well represented. They danced all night and went home bright and early in the morning, all wishing that they could enjoy another dance soon.

Mike Iribarne came over to the Gap last Saturday night and was caught in the blizzard and he was a star boarder at Gap until Tuesday afternoon.

Selbay Cox returned home from Carlsbad last Wednesday. He took down his fall clip of mohair. He smelt the blizzard coming, so you bet he did not stop on the road to swap jack knives or play marbles with the boys.

Wednesday.—No mail yesterday. Don't expect we will get any mail today for the roads are very bad.

PRICKETT-KERR

The marriage of Miss Nell Kerr and Herbert B. Prickett was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, October 24th, at the Grace Street, Episcopal church, El Paso, the Rev. Mr. Fuller Swift, rector of the church officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Smith were the only friends present to witness the ceremony.

Miss Nell is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Kerr and is a young woman of charming personality. She completed her education at the Texas Woman's College, Ft. Worth, and is an accomplished musician and an elocutionist. Miss Nell was teaching in the El Paso public schools at the time of her marriage.

Mr. Prickett is a member of the corps of entomologists sent here by the government two years ago to eradicate the pink boll worm from the border of Texas. He is a young man of pleasing appearance.

This popular young couple are at home now at the Leavell Apartment house.

The Enterprise, with a host of friends extends congratulations and good wishes to this happy couple.—Pecos Enterprise.

Judge D. G. Grantham left yesterday morning for the home of his mother, at McGregor, Texas, called thither by a telegram announcing her serious illness. Mother Grantham is over 81 years of age and it is feared she can not recover. A sister of Judge Grantham, Mrs. Thomas, who lives near Corsicana, is also very low with a cancer from which her recovery is doubtful.

This Xmas let it be a Furniture Aristocrat

Get this Xmas guide- book to Period Furniture

Come in and let us give you a copy of "Edison and Music". Tells about the chief period designs—what they look like, what they stand for. Pithy descriptions. Beautiful illustrations. Just the information you want.

Let us show you what an exquisite thing a phonograph cabinet can be.

Every New Edison on our floor—no matter what its price—is encased in a genuine period cabinet.

Period Furniture is the world's most exquisite development of furniture. It originated in the 16th, 17th, and 18th Centuries. Europe was ruled by a Gorgeous Aristocracy. Fine living was the ideal of the day. An unparalleled race of artists, architects, and designers built palatial living-places for kings and nobles, and furnished them. The palaces of the nobility became treasure-houses of fine furniture. It was called the "Golden Age of Furniture."

So Mr. Edison had his designers go back into the manor houses of England, the chateaux of France and the castles of Italy. They adapted 17 designs from historic masterpieces. They preserved entire "the character and feeling of the best periods" in these superb phonograph cases for the modern American home.

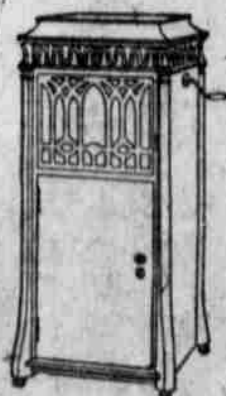

No matter which Edison cabinet you choose, you get both the arts that make your house a cultured home—music perfectly RE-CREATED and furniture of purest period source. What finer gift for all the family?

LOCAL NEWS.

H. F. Madera came in from the beach yesterday on a business trip.

Y. R. Allen and C. C. Sikes went out yesterday morning on a hunt going to the Upper Black river section and leaving town about four o'clock in the morning.

M. B. Morfeld, manager of the Joyce-Fruit store in this place went up to Roswell Tuesday night on business for his firm and returned to this city on the afternoon train yesterday.

Armistice Sunday is to be observed in Carlsbad at the Armory, Sunday the 14th that being the nearest to the day. The Bryan Mudrett Post of the American Legion will have charge of the services which will consist of special music and an address by a local man. The complete program is promised for next week's Current.

The American Legion call attention to their dance which will be given the night of the 11th and for which occasion the famous Lucia furnish the music. This musical aggregation has been secured at considerable cost by the men of the Legion and they should have and doubtless will have a liberal patronage.

Frank Kindel and Will Ed Carter left Tuesday of this week on a hunting trip going to the point of the mountains and hoping to get a deer.

Ed Lamb and wife who have been living in Carlsbad for some weeks have decided to move to their ranch in the northern part of the valley for the winter, at least.

Geo. Givan, son of Rev. and Mrs. Givan, is in town, coming several days ago. George has been working in a bank at Glendale, a suburb of Los Angeles since leaving Carlsbad. His friends regret that his leave of absence is so short that it will prevent them doing anything for him in a social way, he expecting to leave here on the return trip tomorrow.

Ed Burleson was down from his ranch Tuesday and remained in town until yesterday. Mr. Burleson gave a good account of his part of the country saying everything was moving along in good shape and that Last Chance had the finest and best school they have ever had in that district. Thomas Pickens is the efficient teacher and the pupils and patrons are delighted with his teaching. He is especially fine in mathematics and has the happy faculty of teaching the children in his charge how to study.

Judge S. I. Roberts left last night for a week's stay in Clovis, where his firm has business interests.

Mme. Uvesel at the Palace Hotel until the 10th, instructs in palmistry, hours 10 A. M. to 11 P. M. Agent for line of ladies Sanitary goods.

Mrs. Paul Mahan left Tuesday night for Roswell, having been called there by the illness of a friend of hers, Miss Pyffe, whose condition is reported as serious.

The condition of Mrs. Bert Leck who has been ill for over a week remains critical in the extreme and her many friends are very uneasy about her.

Assistant District Attorney Armstrong and his stenographer, Miss Gladys Neveger, left Wednesday night for Roswell where they go to be in attendance on the session of District Court now in progress. District Attorney R. C. Dow was prevented from attending by reason of the serious illness of his baby daughter.

Madam Minter had one of her attacks of apoplexy which she has been troubled with for some time, the first of the week at her home in the Lowenbruck family, and was taken Wednesday night to the Hospital for treatment. The many friends in church and social circles are grieved at the illness of this most estimable woman and hope for her an early recovery.

H. D. Hubbard shipped five of his fine turkeys, four hens and a rooster, to parties at Hot Wells, Texas, who are desirous of improving their flock. The birds are of the Mammoth Bronze variety and are certainly beauties, one of them, a young tom, weighing 21 1/2 lbs.

Solicitors are expected to go around and represent the needs of the City Cemetery to our people starting the first of the week. The finances of the Cemetery Association have been at a low ebb for some time and conditions have now reached a point where something must be done. The sale of lots and the digging of graves do not provide sufficient funds to pay the caretaker and as said before, affairs are becoming desperate. Later on a play is to be staged for the benefit of the association, but funds are needed at this time. The membership fee is two dollars a year and it looks as if every woman in Carlsbad could at least pay that amount to care for the place so dear to us all. If the committee misses any person, he or she will confer a favor by leaving their dues at the Thorne Furniture Store, Dr. Boatman's office or with Mrs. Moore at the Current office.

JUNIOR H. Y. P. U. OBSERVE HALLOWEEN

Friday night of last week the Junior H. Y. P. U. and some invited friends went masked for a frolic at the home of Mrs. McFarland on Canal street.

On entering each was ushered into the witches cave, where the old witch and her little daughter served grape juice from a pot hanging over red embers, the only light in the cave. After leaving the guests were ushered into a fairy chamber beautifully decorated in blue and white, where each received a prophesy of their future hidden in a peanut shell which was presented by a fairy queen on her throne. The Gypsy fortune teller in her booth did her part also. Afterward they were ushered into the living room which was decorated in black and yellow real Halloween colors, while black cats, bats and other eerie objects abounded. On the piano was an immense Jack O' Lantern presented by Lewis Gordon which was much admired and appreciated.

Ghost stories were told in semi-darkness and games were played. Afterwards all formed in line and marched through the kitchen where each received a cup of hot chocolate cookies and fruit.

Late in the evening Mrs. Ellison came in and did some palm reading but the hour being late, she promised to finish at the next party. All present left for their respective homes at 11:30 feeling that they had a pleasant evening.

The following were present: Margaret and Raymond Hilson, Evelyn and Jeanette McFarland, Rena Bristow, Effie Mae Cowden, Florence Seavey, Evelyn McIntosh, Thelma Neveger, Dorris and Lois Perry, Katherine Simmons, Thelma Boatright, Helen Barrington, Nell and Connie Chilcoat, Alice Robbins, Alta Angel, Gladys Summerfield, Fromena Leck, Callie Bartlett, Rena Ellison, Ben Barnett, Ralph Maanah, Harold Toffelmire, B. A. Nymeyer, Francis Weaver, Wilber Barrows, Lewis Gordon, Thomas Sale, Elmer Forehand, Wallace Vest, Walter Beach, Preston Oliver, D. C. Ellison, Meadames McFarland, Nymeyer and Collins.

DIFFUSING LIGHT IN ASIA

Christian Missionaries Firmly Behind Independence Move, Though Not Directly Responsible for It.

No picture of the independence movement or of Korean life in any aspect is adequate that does not include the church as one of its high lights, observes Nathaniel Pfeffer in Scribner's. Now, even the Japanese have withdrawn the charge that the movement is exclusively Christian and that it was instigated by American missionaries for American political purposes. But it is true that the Korean Christians are a unit in its support, that the majority of its leaders are Christian, and that the originating impulse is largely Christian.

And that is only natural: First, because the Christians are the most influential class in Korea, and, second, because conversion to the church necessarily means contact with Western ideas and Western thought. And those necessarily means the development of a spirit that cannot and will not endure subjection to the iron military rule of an alien conqueror.

In that sense Christianity is responsible for the unrest in Korea and in that sense the Christian church is the enemy the Japanese have to fight. And that will be increasingly true as time goes on, for Christianity is making rapid strides in Korea, the more rapid for the part the Christians have played in the rebellion.

Her Collection of Bargains.

There had been a war wedding and now Mr. Juggins was busy earning something to foot the bills with. So he handed all his savings over to his wife with the remark:

"Look here, Hilda, my dear, you go shopping and get a home together. New stuff is very dear, but you'll manage all right if you go to sales and things. You're a good bargain hunter."

She was. But he had forgotten that to the real huntress of bargains lowness of price appeals rather than utility. Otherwise he wouldn't have been so surprised at the results.

In the kitchen they have a filing cabinet, three chairs, more or less whole, and an old desk. The dining room isn't bad, only the chairs don't match, and the dining table is one leg short. In the bedroom there are beds, of course, and in addition a collapsible boat, a patent plow, several assorted German helmets and other souvenirs, two stepadders, a zinc bath and only one hole in it, and a folding settee which won't unfold.

Encourage the Swallow.

If you want to free the neighborhood of mosquitoes encourage swallows to make themselves at home, says the American Forestry association of Washington. These birds feed almost entirely upon obnoxious insects and they will do much toward protecting orchards and other trees from insect pests. No better investment can be made, therefore, than some houses set out for martins and other swallows. Of the blue swallows the purple martin is the largest, the male being entirely blue above and below, while the female is blue above with a gray breast. Swallows are highly migratory, most of them spending the winter in South America.

Yesterday being the day for the regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary society, about a score of ladies belonging to the Methodist church met in the parlors and transacted business of various kinds. Preparations for the "White Elephant Sale" are about completed and the sale will be held the 19th of this month in the Armory. Plans embrace a bazaar and luncheon which will be held at the same time. A number of features not usually found in an affair of this kind are contemplated and an interesting and pleasant occasion is promised. See display ad in this issue of the Current.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jones came in Wednesday evening from Hot Wells, Texas eighteen miles from Van Horn, where they went for the benefit of the waters for the relief of a bad and persistent case of eczema which Mr. Jones has suffered from for a long time and which seems to be entirely cured. Mr. and Mrs. Jones left Hot Wells at 6 o'clock Wednesday and arrived here at 8 o'clock in the evening, staying an hour at Van Horn, Texas, and having no tire trouble whatever either going or coming. They expect to return there later in the season for a longer stay as much like the place and the water very much.

As we go to press we learn that Mrs. Bert Leck is holding her own, which is about all that can be said of her case.

Five Minute Chats on Our Presidents

By JAMES MORGAN

(Copyright, 1920, by James Morgan.)

MARTIN VAN BUREN

- 1837—Martin Van Buren inaugurated eighth president, aged 54.
- Revolution in Ontario.
- Revolution in Texas.
- The Seminole war.
- 1840—The sub-treasury law.
- Van Buren defeated for re-election.
- 1844—Defeated for nomination.
- 1848—Free soil candidate for president.
- 1862—July 24, died at Kinderhook, N. Y., aged 79.

THE most notable event of Van Buren's administration was the occurrence of one of the great panics from which in the nineteenth century the country regularly collapsed every 15 or 20 years, as in 1819, 1857, 1873 and in 1893. Those periodic prostrations always followed wild debauches in speculation, but since it is convenient and consoling to blame some one else for our own sins, the president invariably has been made the scapegoat in each period of hard times.

No doubt Jackson's removal of the public deposits from the United States bank caused financial disturbance and his distribution of the federal surplus among the state treasuries also was disturbing. The government, the banks and the people generally had all merrily joined in sowing the wind, whose harvest was the whirlwind of 1837.

The nation had been indulging in the first of its big western booms. The river steamboat aided to open up new regions, where mushroom states, in ambitious emulation of New York and its Erie canal, ran wild in appropriations for the building of canals. Van

Martin Van Buren.

Buren was the first president-elect to ride in a train even part of the way to Washington, and the expansion of the steam railway system was beginning to inflame the national imagination.

When the day of reckoning and remorse came; when bread riots broke out; when laborers stood in line near New York to get jobs at a wage of $4 a month and board; when banks suspended payments in coin, and when business houses were tumbling into bankruptcy, the bankers and business men, who had always been violently anti-Democratic, turned upon Van Buren and pointed their accusing fingers at the White House. The foremost man of business in conservative New England, Abbott Lawrence, did not hesitate to hint to a public meeting in Boston, the incendiary suggestion that the time might come for forcible resistance to the government, when the crew, as he said, would have to mutiny and seize the ship of state.

Van Buren faced the gale without bending. He rose above political maneuvering and the temptation to flatter the mad passions of the hour—and—received an attitude of man-

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR—RED CROSS SUNDAY.

The Red Cross organization, chartered as such by the national congress, is one of which the American people should be and, I have no doubt, are justly proud. The charitable and humane work that it has done in our country is so great as to be almost impossible of description; the work that it accomplished among our people, and the people of Europe, during the great World War is generally known to us all, and we feel that through its agency and operation America has become known to the outside world more affectionately and gratefully than by almost any other means or agency of our nation. Wherever poverty, want, suffering or calamity of any kind afflicts any part or portion of our common country, there the beneficent and helping hand of the Red Cross is immediately felt. In our state, the unusual floods on the Rio Grande last spring and summer destroyed the homes and the crops of many of our people in the lower section of that stream, so that a great many families lost their all; immediately, the Red Cross came to our assistance, and through its efforts and assistance ministered to the want and needs of the flood sufferers. In the Mountain Division of the Red Cross, comprising the states of Utah, Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico, it has 169 chapters organized, forty-seven Red Cross public health nurses are on duty. Nearly $425,000 has been expended in relieving families of soldiers and sailors, and also of needy civilians during the past three years; 16,000 ex-service men registered with the Bureau of After Care, who are receiving assistance or information in regard to government compensation, government insurance, or vocational training; 420 Junior Red Cross auxiliaries, with an enrollment of 78,955 school children, are teaching the lesson of service to the youth of America. It is organizations of this kind that deserve and should receive the unstated support and assistance of our people.

The annual Roll Call of the organizations will be held this year on November 11 to 25, and in compliance with the request of that organization, I, O. A. Larrazolo, governor of the state of New Mexico, do hereby proclaim Sunday, November 14, 1920, to be observed as RED CROSS SUNDAY on which day I invite the people of our state to show their genuine appreciation of the good work done by that organization by renewing their subscriptions thereto, and by adding new ones to the membership thereof, and otherwise to do all in their power to facilitate and further the great work of the American Red Cross in our state.

Done at the executive office in the city of Santa Fe, state of New Mexico, this 28th day of October, A. D. 1920.

Witness my hand and the great seal of the state of New Mexico.

O. A. LARRAZOLO,

Attest: MANUEL MARTINEZ, Governor, Secretary of State.

All kinds of legal blanks for sale at Current office.

terful inactivity!

The president did call congress in extra session, but only to recommend the adoption of the sub-treasury system. The banks having failed, he proposed that Uncle Sam, like a third old woman, should lock up his money in the bureau drawer. And the economic folly of the sub-treasury was persisted in until the establishment of the federal reserve system.

It was equally weather all around, with the costly Seminole war dragging its slow course through the malarial everglades of Florida; with embarrassing revolutions on both sides of us, in the revolted Mexican province of Texas and in Ontario.

The defects of the Democratic ticket in the oft years plainly foreshadowed the ill-starred president's own defeat in his candidacy for re-election in 1840. No prophet was needed to write the refrain of the popular campaign song of the Whigs:

Van! Van!

Is a used up man.

Nevertheless Van Buren remained in active politics 10 years. For still another 10 years he lived on in retirement at Lindenwald, his country estate in his native village, where he died in the midst of the Civil war.

Matt. 6:33.
ADDITIONAL MATERIAL—Mark 10:
34-35; Luke 12:3-4; 12:32-33.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Our Heavenly Father's Care.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Jesus Teaching How to Pray.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—
Golden Rules for Living.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—
Counsels for Daily Living.

Having set forth in the previous chapters the standard of righteousness, Christ now exhibits the underlying principles which control the heir to the kingdom.

I. As to Giving (6:1-4).
Doing alms before men is not condemned, as that would contradict
Matthew 5:16, but the doing of them before men to be seen of them. To seek publicity in doing our alms is to miss the reward of our heavenly Father.

II. As to Praying (6:5-13).
1. False prayer (vv. 5, 7). This consists (1) in praying to be seen and heard of men (v. 5). (2) Using vain repetitions (v. 7). This does not mean that we should ask but once, for we have examples of Christ and Paul praying three times for the same thing (Matt. 26:39-46; II Cor. 12:7, 8), but the using of meaningless repetitions.

2. True prayer (v. 9). Since prayer is a transaction of the soul with God, we should have a real desire for fellowship with the Father, then go and meet him in secret.

3. The model prayer (vv. 9-13). This involves (1) right relationship—"Our Father" (v. 9); (2) right attitude—"Hallowed be thy name" (v. 9, 10);
(3) right spirit—"Give us our daily bread," "Forgive us our sins," "Lead us not into temptation" (vv. 11-13).

III. As to Fasting (vv. 16-24).
The Lord knew the temptation which would befall his children in their pilgrimage here below touching worldliness, and the anxiety to which it would lead; therefore, he sets forth the proper attitude toward them:

1. The nature of earthly riches (vv.
16, 21). (1) Uncertain (vv. 16, 20).
Earthly treasures corrode, or are taken from us. (2) Seductive (v. 21). Christ called riches deceitful (Matt. 13:22).
It is not wrong to possess earthly treasures, but when earthly treasures possess us they become a snare.

2. The effect of earthly riches (vv.
22-24). (1) They blight the moral and spiritual perceptions (vv. 22-23). When the heart is upon earthly treasures it is taken off God. (2) They render null and void all service (v. 24).

IV. As to Faith in the Heavenly Father (vv. 25-34).

1. Be not anxious about food and clothing (vv. 25-28). Because (1) it shows distrust for God (v. 30). (2)
It is useless (v. 31). Anxiety can bring nothing. (3) It is heathenish
(v. 32). Those who have not learned to know God may worry over temporal affairs, but those who know him as a loving Father should be free from care.

2. Be anxious to seek the kingdom of God and serve him (vv. 33, 34).
This does not forbid proper forethought in making a reasonable support for one's self and family.

V. As to Censorious Judgments
(7:1-12).

1. The sin and folly of censorious judgments. This does not forbid us making an estimate of the lives of those about us, for "by their fruits ye shall know them;" neither does it prevent us from administering rebuke to those who deserve it. It rebukes that readiness to blame others and to magnify their weakness and errors.

2. The duty of discrimination in dealing out holy things (v. 6). The gospel should be preached to all, but there should be discrimination, for "dogs and swine" have no comprehension as to holy things.

3. Qualification for discrimination
(vv. 7-12). (1) A life of prayer (vv.
7-11). A life of prayer is a requisite for rightly divining the word of truth.
(2) A disposition to treat others as one would be treated (v. 12). Confu-sus set forth this principle negatively, but only the Christ could do it positively. Between the negative and positive sides of this rule is found the difference between heathenism and Christianity. No man can live this rule unless he has been born from above and abides with Christ in the school of prayer, till he becomes like him.

What God Requires.
What God requires is an undivided will—a yielding will, desiring only what he desires, rejecting only what he rejects, and both unreservedly.
Where such a mind is, everything turns to good, and its very amusements become good works. Happy indeed is such a one.—Fenelon.

When Death Comes.
When death, the great reconciler, has come, it is never our tenderness that we repent of, but our severity.—
George Eliot.

LOCAL NEWS

David Sellards, who is attending school at the N. M. M. I., came down from Roswell for an over Sunday visit with home folks and friends, returning to Roswell Monday night.

J. T. Bolton spent much of last week at the home of his sister, Mrs. Davidson, in Roswell coming home Sunday.

Frank Moritz came down from Roswell Saturday, where he has established a fine business and remained here over Sunday in order to cast his vote, leaving for the Pearl of the Pecos Tuesday night. His son Art, accompanied him on the return trip.

Tom McLanathan came down from Roswell Tuesday afternoon and remained here the rest of the week in charge of the sign painting shop other members of the firm going to Roswell for the week.

M. N. Cunningham left for the Texas oil fields Wednesday morning, with a load of honey which he expects to dispose of in that locality, his objective point being Ranger and nearby towns.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETING.

The Woman's Club will hold its regular fortnightly meeting at the club rooms next Tuesday, November 11th the date having been changed in order that the members might attend the election last Tuesday. The hour is 3:30 and the following program will be given:

Local Government, Forms, Offices and Functions, Mrs. T. E. Williams. Municipal Laws and Their Enforcement, Mrs. Judkins. Music, Miss Linn. Review, "The Harvest," by Mrs. Humphrey Ward, Mrs. Sellards. Roll Call, Current Events.

Mrs. Hatcher and daughter, Jessie, who have been occupying one of the Dishman cottages since last spring, left for their home at Platt, Oklahoma, Wednesday morning. They came here for the benefit of Mrs. Hatcher's health as it was thought she had tuberculosis. Examination revealed the fact that such was not the case and a surgical operation was performed which gave the necessary relief and Mrs. Hatcher went to her husband and children practically well. She wished the Current to express her grateful thanks to the people of Carlsbad who had been so kind to her and her daughter during their stay here and to assure them that they would never be forgotten.

Lucius Anderson returned in time to vote last Tuesday, coming from California, where he had been since the early spring. While in Los Angeles he built a house on land which they purchased while on their visit to that city two years ago. The home is in the Southgate Gardens, a beautiful addition to the city, which is growing in population and value by leaps and bounds and bids fair to be one of the most beautiful of the city's many attractive residential suburbs.

Sixteen members of the Friday Afternoon Club met at the home of one of their number last Friday night and gave her a real old fashion surprise. The honored lady Mrs. E. Purdy, appreciated the compliment and a pleasant time was experienced, nearly every member of the club being present and each lady having the pleasure of inviting her husband, and all going masked. Real Halloween refreshments "pumpkin pie and such like" were served and the evening passed merrily by.

Mrs. C. C. Sikes is anticipating the coming of her mother and sister, Mrs. and Miss Howell, from Ocilla, Georgia, who will probably spend the winter here at the Sikes home. Both ladies have visited in Carlsbad and will be warmly greeted by friends made on the occasion of a former visit as well as by friends of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Sikes.

DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT.

New York, Nov. 2.—George White, chairman of the Democratic national committee, conceded Senator Warren G. Harding's election at 11:30 o'clock. White also conceded that the republicans will have control of the next house of representatives. White said:

"The abandonment by some of the most prominent republicans of the league of nations which they helped to construct has been successful.

"The people have succumbed to the confusion wrought by these distinguished men and to the misrepresentations of those who would not and did not understand the league of nations.

"I hope it may be rescued from the political morass and be saved to mankind.

"No one has any occasion for bitterness. What the whole people decide the whole people must accept. The Democratic national committee abides by the result cheerfully, if with foreboding.

"Senator Harding is the people's president. In this election Republican propaganda has been shrewdly directed to induce the descendants of six European nations to make as six European nations instead of one nation. They have persuaded these Americans to vote with their thoughts across the seas instead of on this country.

"Our common task must be to recognize these groups again.

"The fate of Irish freedom has been settled adversely. Men and women of Irish blood have voted for the candidate who declared the Irish question to be a domestic problem of Great Britain in which we have no official concern. With their support the American people have returned the Irish problem to Downing street.

"They have endorsed, sad to say, a separate peace with Germany.

"For the first time in eight years the republican party is face to face with the task of constructive legislation and more than that the republicans are in a position to build the country has been asking a republican congress for two years in vain.

"They must change a negative record in a prospective one and in this task they have the best wishes of all who love their country.

"As the national chairman of a party which is and always has been for America first, I have sent messages of congratulation to Senator Harding, Governor Coolidge and to Mr. Hays. I wish them success."

Will Hays, the republican national chairman, read the conceding statement by White and refused to make any comment.

STATEMENT OF REPUBLICAN CHAIRMAN.

Will Hays, Republican national chairman, issued the following statement shortly after 10 o'clock:

"Precisely as has been the case in every instance since the foundation of the republic, the American people, when confronted with a grave decision, have decided rightly. The returns seem to indicate an unparalleled majority. It is an extraordinary degree of agreement on the part of the people as to whom they want to conduct their common affairs and the course they want them to take."

COX CONGRATULATES HARDING ON ELECTION.

Dayton, Ohio, Nov. 3.—Governor Cox today sent his congratulations to Senator Harding thus formally conceding his defeat. His message follows: "In the spirit of America, I accept the decision of the majority, and tender as the defeated candidate my congratulations, and pledge as a citizen my support to the executive authority in whatever emergency might arise. (Signed) 'JAMES M. COX.'"

Dr. Eisler, wife and daughter, Dorothy, arrived in town about noon and have announced their intention of remaining. The doctor purchased land in the Otis section a year ago and they will reside there.

LAKEWOOD LOCALS.

The election passed off very quietly here last Tuesday. There were 146 registered voters, but only 96 of these cast their ballots in this box. There were a number registered here who transferred and voted in other places. The result here was about two to one in favor of the pure principles of democracy, except in the case of Robert Dow, who led his republican opponent by five to one. The result of this election in Lakewood is about like it ought to have been throughout the nation.

Willis Pierson and family moved Thursday to Roswell. Mr. Pierson is a professional well driller, and is employed near the Chaves county capital.

All of the hunters have returned from the mountains. Some report no luck, while others were successful. Among the latter we may mention J. H. Baker, his son, Elmer, and Carl Millman, who brought in two fine black tail bucks, and Red Howell and party, who we learn, brought in the venison.

Judge J. W. Armstrong, Judge Lamb and Mr. McGhee spoke upon the issues of the day at the school auditorium Friday night to a full house. They made the necessity of entering the League of Nations very clear, and especially is this true of Judge Lamb, who made his argument so plain that a ten year old child could understand it, and just how anybody could fail to agree with him is one of the unsolved mysteries.

Will Truitt came in from the ranch the first of the week to spend a few days visiting with homefolks, and to cast his ballot on Tuesday.

Judge J. W. Dauron and T. G. Low were business visitors to Artesia Thursday afternoon.

A. C. Crozier, G. H. Sellmeyer and T. G. Low went to Artesia on business Wednesday.

There is a 2,000 foot capacity well rig standing on the siding here, but nobody seems to know who the owner or owners are. It is practically a new rig, and came from some point in Kentucky.

Just where it will be placed is not known here, but it is accepted as another evidence that the Lakewood oil field is gradually but surely becoming known and will become the center of a great oil boom at no far distant day.

The Illinois people have all been hunting in the mountains, and as soon as they recover from the effects of venison eating we may expect to hear some good news from them.

Sam Ross and family departed Wednesday night for Turlock, California, where they expect to locate. Mr. Ross has been a citizen of this section for many years and his friends regret his leaving.

Doc McAleer went to Carlsbad Wednesday to deliver the ballot box and election returns to the county clerk.

Doc was not quite so jubilant after his return as he was before he went.

OTIS NEWS.

Miss Fay McMickle from Oklahoma City, Okla., arrived Sunday afternoon for a visit at the home of her brother, J. W. McMickle.

Allen Tipton is suffering with an injured hand.

The E. R. Lange new home is nearing completion. They are very anxious to get moved into it.

A bunch of boys were out Halloween Sunday night. All the pranks in the neighborhood are laid to them. Beware boys!

At the election here Tuesday the republicans lead the democrats in the Otis precinct for president 77 to 45. There seemed to be quite a bit of interest shown at the polls.

We learn with regret of the serious condition of A. N. Pratt, who has been quite ill for two days. The current joins other friends in hoping his illness may only be temporary and his recovery speedy.

Conductor Warren Gossett has been unusually cheerful and smiling even for him, who is never morose or gloomy, and inquiry reveals the cause to be the birth of his first grandson and namesake, Warren R. Ott. The baby is the son of Lieutenant and Mrs. H. N. Ott, and was born November 2nd at Riverside, California, where Lieut. Ott is employed in government air service. Mrs. Ott will be remembered as Miss Violet Gossett, who a few years ago was a school girl in Carlsbad schools, where she was a popular student, beloved by teachers and schoolmates alike. May her little son live and prosper and be worthy the name he bears.

Mrs. Elsie Ferris has accepted a position in the T. C. Horne Dry Goods store and began her work there the first of the month. She will have charge of the ready-to-wear department and brings a wide experience to that work. Mrs. Ferris is a very capable saleslady, justly popular with all and is a valued acquisition to the selling force of that popular store.
