DISTRICT COURT.

Suit Against City for Damages Decided by Judge Baker.

OTHER COURT MATTERS.

The case of Mrs. Anna Aldrich vs. the City of Albuquerque was tried in district court yesterday. Mrs. Aldrich sued for $1,000 damages, alleging that her property had been injured to that extent by the building of the Coal Avenue viaduct. There seemed to be some doubt as to whether the city was responsible. The plaintiff attempted to show that the damage inflicted as a result of building the structure was more than a consequential damage. Evidence as to the people's opinion of the value of the property before and after the building of the viaduct was ruled out unless negligence on the part of the city was shown. The plaintiff, in supporting the plea of negligence, attempted to show that the approaches to the viaduct were roughly and loosely constructed.

Engineer Pitt Ross' evidence as a witness for defense, went to show that the evils complained of as the result of negligence in construction, could not be avoided under any conditions and were nearly as pronounced before the construction of the viaduct as they have been since.

At the conclusion of the plaintiff's case, Attorney Stingle moved to dismiss on the grounds that plaintiff had failed to make a case. He argued that the damages were consequential, and that no negligence had been shown. The court agreed with the argument and the case was dismissed.

It is rumored that suit will be brought to compel the payment of certain sums paid out by the city council last year for damages, when the issues involved were precisely the same as in the present case.

In the case of George R. Bucket et al. vs. G. M. Bower et al., involving a valuable claim in the Cochiti mining district, the court yesterday morning dismissed the case for want of prosecution. Attorney E. W. Dobson for defendants, G. M. Bower, Dr. W. J. Hope and E. L. Medler.

The case of Richard de Palma et al. vs. Jacob Weinmann and Joseph Barnett, for $10,000 damages, growing out of the fall of the building occupied by Mr. Ruppe as a drug store, was called for trial, and preliminary thereto the defendants moved for judgment on the pleadings; when the plaintiffs asked leave to amend their pleadings, which was granted, and the defendants not fully prepared to go to trial upon the pleadings as amended, the case was continued until the next term of the court.

The court is now engaged in the trial of the case of Wallace Douglas against George L. Lewis, administrator, a suit growing out of a sale of land near Barileas to the plaintiff by the late C. W. Lewis, who warranted a title, which plaintiff alleges failed, the title being in the United States. The damages claimed aggregate more than $6,000.

PECULIAR FAD.

A Paralytic Hero, Who Has Traveled Extensively.

Leo L. Loeb, the young man of Denver who has been gaining much notoriety through the newspapers by his unique fad of collecting street car transfers and his wild ride down Ute Pass, is in the city today.

Mr. Loeb is a paralytic and earns a living for himself and a family of four others by selling soap. The young man has traveled extensively in Europe, South America and has made every state in the Union, besides many of the principal cities of Canada.

Mr. Loeb has a fad of collecting street car transfers, not that they have any specific value, but because it is the only collection of its kind in the world. "He will not take many" from the street car conductors here.

In his travels he has acquired more than 854 slips and tickets, which he will exhibit at the St. Louis exposition.

On August 5, Mr. Loeb made a mad and wild ride down Ute Pass, warning many of the impending destruction which quickly came in the wake of a cloudburst.

The wonder of the performance of this eight mile ride is doubly accentuated when it is considered that the young man has been a paralytic for twenty years out of his twenty-two of life.

POLICE COURT.

Chinaman in Court—Interesting Proceedings.

A Chinese complained misup was the only grievance in police court this morning. "He hit me first. He hit me on arm, and I hit him," were the only words in English spoken. An interpreter was called and the case investigated. The principal actors were Hing Lee, a stout young Chinaman, who was charged with beating and kicking an old man, Lee Hee.

The scene of the first act was at a little washie shop on Silver avenue. It would be impossible to go into details because we haven't had time to study the human phases of the Chinaman. It seems that Hing Lee and Lee Hee became involved in a quarrel and Hing Lee put Lee Hee in the clear. He struck the old man, knocking him down and then kicked him in the stomach, which interfered with his three meals a day.

Hing Lee was arrested several days ago, but the case was carried over because the Chinamen who were witnesses never showed up at the same time. When a Chinaman don't want to understand it is impossible to make him understand, unless there is money in it for him.

However, the case was settled this morning. Hing Lee had to pay a fee of $30 to get free. The old man, Lee Hee, is still suffering from the effect of his beating and kicking, but he will recover, and no doubt be able to do a bigger washing than ever before.

The judge did not go through the usual Chinese chicken ceremony in swearing, but gave them the just dues of the law for the offense committed.

CATTLE QUARANTINE.

Governor Otero, at Request of Sanitary Board, Issues Proclamation.

CATTLE MUST BE INSPECTED.

Territory of New Mexico, Executive Office, Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 23, 1902.

Whereas, it has been represented to the undersigned, the governor of the Territory of New Mexico, by the Cattle Sanitary Board of the said territory, that it has come to the knowledge of the said Cattle Sanitary Board, through investigations caused to be made by them that there are in certain counties in the state of Texas and below the United States quarantine line, and also in the states of Chihuahua and Sonora in the Republic of Mexico, cattle whose bodies are infested with living fever ticks (Boophilus Annulatus) that are known to convey and spread the deadly infection of Texas or splenic fever over the trails and pastures through which they pass, communicating to and infecting with the same the cattle with which they come in contact, thereby endangering the health and destroying the market for the same to the great damage and loss to the cattle interests of the Territory of New Mexico; and

Whereas, the said Cattle Sanitary Board has requested the undersigned, as governor, to issue his proclamation establishing the quarantine against such infected cattle along the boundary line dividing the Territory of New Mexico from the state of Texas, and the Republic of Mexico, as provided for in section 184, of the compiled laws of New Mexico of 1897; the same to be continued in full force and effect from the first day of November, 1902, to the fifth day of March, 1903.

Now, therefore, I, the undersigned, Miguel A. Otero, governor of the Territory of New Mexico, do proclaim and establish hereby a quarantine against cattle driving, conveying, transporting, or aiding in driving, conveying, transporting in the Territory of New Mexico during the time above mentioned, from the first day of November, 1902, to the fifth day of March, 1903, any cattle from any part of the state of Texas, Territory of Oklahoma, or the Republic of Mexico;

Provided, That any cattle that may be offered for admission to the Territory of New Mexico remain there or that they come in contact with New Mexican cattle that shall have been inspected and found to be free from fever ticks (Boophilus Annulatus) or contagious or infectious diseases, may upon a permit issued by the authorized inspector of the said Cattle Sanitary Board of New Mexico, and the payment of an inspection fee of 3 cents per head for such inspection, be admitted into the Territory of New Mexico as healthy cattle, if so found and reported to be upon such inspection.

Done at the Executive Office, this 23d day of October, 1902.

Witness my hand and the great seal of the Territory of New Mexico.

MIGUEL A. OTERO, Governor of the Territory of New Mexico.

By the Governor: J. W. RALPH, Secretary of New Mexico.

MILK INSPECTION.

Council Will Appoint Inspector of Milk, Weights and Measures.

FOR HEALTH OF CITY.

At the special meeting of the city council, held yesterday afternoon, at the office of City Clerk Harry P. Lee, no action was taken on the ordinance creating the office of milk inspector. The ordinance has not been prepared which fact delayed any action on the matter.

City Attorney John H. Stingle has been very busy at the court house ever since the last meeting of the council, and consequently it has been impossible for him to prepare the ordinance.

All the facts and circumstances pertaining to the creation of milk inspector's office were discussed by the aldermen.

Every councilman is heartily in favor of the proper precautionary measures in regard to the city milk supply. There is no doubt but that it will be passed by a unanimous vote.

When the new officer is appointed and his duties settled upon, it is very probable he will be more than a milk inspector, as the sentiment now is in favor of making him also inspector of weights and measures, and of food stuffs.

A committee of three, consisting of the city attorney, city physician and Alderman G. W. Harrison, were appointed yesterday to draw up an ordinance creating the office of inspector of milk, food stuffs, and weights and measures, and defining the duties of said office, the measure to be presented at an adjourned session to be held Monday night at the city hall.

On motion the council ordered crosswise timbers laid on the floor of the approaches to the Coal Avenue viaduct, half the cost to be paid by the city and half by the Santa Fe company.

"DR." JOHN J. PHELAN.

His Denver Wife, Neo Mrs. Dr. Bacon, Seeks a Divorce.

HIS EXTREME CRUELTY.

John J. Phelan, dentist, whose offices are in the Iron building, at Seventeenth and Arapahoe streets, is defendant in a divorce suit brought by Mrs. Ella Phelan, on the grounds of extreme cruelty. They were married last year. The complaint was filed in San Francisco, papers being served from the sheriff's office yesterday. Dr. Phelan says it is peculiar that his wife should swear that she was a resident of California for the past year, as he declares that she went to San Francisco only about two weeks ago, and that she had been living with him up to the time she left Denver.

The "Doctor" Known Here.

The above piece of interesting news, of local interest, was taken from the Denver News which reached this city last night and tells of certain facts as to the "doctor's" extreme cruelty, which is thoroughly well known here. "Dr." Phelan, known in Denver as a dentist, but while residing here, as a druggist, always bore the reputation of being the meanest, vilest and most unapproachable character in this city, and those who know his course here, his open, brazen front outlandishly exhibited by Mrs. Dr. A. J. Bacon and other women in the face of his wife and daughter, whom he afterwards deserted, pictured the future downfall of the men; and, although Mrs. Dr. Bacon seemingly courted the same notoriety while here, people pitied her, and, it is said, friends, who had formed her husband's acquaintance and knew of his frail health, pleaded with her to have some respect for his feelings and to cast aside the creature Phelan, but she spurned all these kind offers and when death closed her husband's eyes she married the man that hastened her loyal husband to the grave, and broke up, by his actions, a family here in Albuquerque.

The scene of John J. Phelan's peculiar infatuation for Mrs. Bacon, wife of the dentist who occupied a suite of rooms in the Grant building, is laid in Albuquerque. At that time Phelan conducted a drug store, very seldom, if ever, replenished with fresh drugs, at the corner of Second street and Railroad avenue. If Mrs. Bacon was not in the company of Phelan, the latter was always in the company of the woman, and of course, she having a husband living and he a wife and daughter in the same town, rumors of wrong doing and disregard for marital vows and decency were flying thick and fast throughout the city.

Finally, Dr. Bacon and wife left for Arizona, soon followed by Phelan, whose store had passed into other hands. Then the party were heard of in Denver, where Dr. Bacon opened dental parlors on an elaborate scale, installing "Dr." Phelan as manager. Bacon's health growing alarmingly bad, he was hustled off to Silver City. He grew worse and the faithless wife, accompanied by Manager Phelan, came after him. The invalid was carried back to Denver and inside of a few weeks he died. It is now supposed that Mrs. Bacon and Phelan then married in legal form, and it is now a certain fact that the woman, growing tired of him, seeks separation by divorce.

The first Mrs. Phelan, with her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Haynes, reside in this city, and both are divorced from their respective husbands.

DISTRICT COURT.

The case of Wallace Douglas against the administrator of the estate of Charles W. Lewis has occupied the attention of the court all day. The plaintiff's case shows that Douglas bought the land from Lewis for $5,333, in 1882, and received a warranty deed; that subsequently in 1884 the United States assumed ownership of the land and accepted entries thereunder and granted patents in due time to entrymen. Those entering the land were E. G. Ross and son, Arthur, and W. S. Burke, and the plaintiff himself. The court held as to the land entered by the plaintiff some forty-eight acres, the act of the plaintiff constituted an eviction under his title from Lewis, and the action not being brought within six years after such act the plaintiff is barred from a recovery for that portion which he entered. As to the balance of the land the court held the plaintiff to be within the statute. The defendants then raised the question as to the matter pleaded being recu-dicata, on the ground that an action on the deed had heretofore been prosecuted to a final judgment in the United States supreme court, which court held the plaintiff to have no cause for action. It being shown that the defendant relied upon a statutory warranty in that case, and not the covenant of warranty in the deed presented in this case, the motion to instruct for defendant was denied.

The defense is now being put in, which seeks to establish a perfect grant in the grantors of Lewis, from Spain, the land having been so held from time immemorial.

Quite a number of aliens were naturalized this morning.

Home for Released Convicts.

Fort Dodge, Ia., Oct. 24.—The Coffin home for released convicts, known by the name of "Hope Hall," was dedicated today with interesting exercises. The dedicatory address was delivered by Mrs. Maude Ballington Booth. Among those present were the wardens of the state penitentiaries and reform schools, members of the state board of control and numerous other persons interested in charitable and correctional work.

Mrs. Andrew Smith, who, with her husband, resided in this city a few years ago, came in from Los Angeles this morning. Mr. Smith died in Los Angeles a few months ago.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

Will Meet Tomorrow, and There Will be Music and a Free Ride.

PLENTY OF ORATORS.

The republican county convention, for the purpose of nominating a county ticket, will be held at the court house in the old town tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Delegates from the county precincts are arriving, and it is thought that when the convention is called to order tomorrow morning that every precinct in the county will be represented.

At 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning the first regiment band will play several lively tunes at the corner of First street and Railroad avenue, and a string of street cars, provided by Hon. F. A. Hubbell, will be there, ready to take the delegates to the court house.

A telephone message this afternoon from republican headquarters in the N. T. Armijo building, gave the news that Hon. R. E. Twitchell, of San Miguel county; Hon. E. A. Miera and Hon. F. A. Hubbell will address the convention tomorrow.

There may be a scrap, good naturedly, here and there, at the convention, and a few disappointed candidates, but the convention will wind up in a grand love-feast.

Order of Eastern Star.

The Grand Chapter of New Mexico of the Order of Eastern Star which convened Wednesday evening in its second annual communication in Masonic hall, Santa Fe, continued in session until a late hour, when the work of the order was completed and the communication was closed in ample form.

After the transaction of executive business the grand officers for the ensuing year were elected, which with the appointive officers, were duly installed.

The grand officers are as follows: G. and matron, Mrs. Jennie A. Boomer, of Raton; grand patron, Charles H. Spordler, Las Vegas; associate grand matron, Mrs. Lizzie Griffith, Socorro; associate grand patron, R. H. Ayers, Raton; grand secretary, Mrs. Minnie H. Miller, Albuquerque; grand conductress, Mrs. R. M. Williams, East Las Vegas; associate conductress, Mrs. Charles Maudslaw, Albuquerque.

All of the subordinate orders in the territory, with the exception of one, were represented, and the session was one of much interest to all in attendance.

The third annual communication of the grand chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star will be held in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Miss Jessie Hild, of Las Vegas, is here on a visit to relatives and friends.

OUTSIDE POLITICS.

Quadalupe County Named Republican Candidates—Change in Ticket in Taos.

DONA ANA REPUBLICANS.

Guadalupe Republicans. The republicans of Guadalupe county held their convention to nominate their county and legislative ticket on Monday, and put up the following good men for office:

For members of the council, J. S. Duncan and Charles A. Spiess; for representative, Celso Baca; sheriff, Martinez Seranno; probate clerk, Santiago Rivera; collector and treasurer, Fred L. Braun; probate judge, Florencio Garcia; assessor, Juan Clancy; superintendent of schools, Dr. Jackson; county commissioner, second district, Jose Pablo Martinez; county commissioner, third district, Jose Pablo Sandoval; surveyor, Roman Dodge.

The convention, as a whole, was harmonious. M. C. Baca, who wanted the nomination for council, bolted the ticket.

Change in Taos Ticket.

Chairman Malaquias Martinez, of the republican county central committee of Taos county, has announced that the committee has made the following changes in the republican ticket in that county: Higinio Romero to be a candidate for county commissioner from the third district instead of being a candidate for probate judge, and Lucas Dominguez to be a candidate for probate judge in place of county commissioner. This change was made with the consent of all concerned and has strengthened the ticket. The republicans of Taos are harmonious and united, have good and strong men for candidates, they fully expect to elect every man on the ticket by handsome majorities and give Delegate Rodey an increase of votes over the vote polled for him in 1900.

Dona Ana Republicans.

The republicans of Dona Ana county assembled in great force at the county convention at Las Cruces to attend the county convention. The gathering was harmonious throughout. The republicans are thoroughly organized and will elect their legislative and county tickets and give Delegate Rodey a big majority. The nominees follow:

Sheriff, Jose R. Lucero, Las Cruces; collector, Oscar Lohman, Las Cruces; assessor, Theo. Rouault, Las Cruces; probate clerk, Isidoro Armijo; probate judge, Marcial Valdez, Las Cruces; school superintendent, A. J. Fountaine, Mesilla; county commissioners, second district, Sam Geck, Dona Ana; third district, Agapito Torres; surveyor, Fred H. Piets, Las Cruces.

Bishop McPaul's Jubilee.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 24.—If the local opera house was as large as Madison Square Garden it would scarcely be able to accommodate the Catholics who have come from all parts of the state to attend the jubilee services in honor of Bishop McPaul. The visitors include many prominent priests and prelates, besides a large number of lay members of the denomination. The jubilee celebration proper takes place in the opera house tonight, when there will be addresses by Bishop O'Connor, of Newark, and other representative churchmen, together with an elaborate musical program. This morning religious exercises were held in the cathedral, followed by a big parade of local Catholic societies. The demonstration exceeds in magnitude the plans of its promoters and affords striking proof of the wide popularity enjoyed by the Bishop of Trenton. Further evidence, if such were wanting, was furnished during the day by the hundreds of messages of congratulations received by the bishop from all parts of the United States. Few Catholic prelates in this country enjoy a wider reputation than Bishop McPaul. He has been prominently identified with all the progressive movements in the church and was the originator of the idea to federate all the Catholic societies.

The report from Kansas predicting a republican majority of 40,000 seems a trifle optimistic, but when Kansas makes up her mind to do a thing she does it with a vengeance, and such a majority is not at all impossible.

The south half of the incorporated portion of Albuquerque, known as precinct 26, which is three-fourths of a mile wide and a mile and a half long, has the largest number of voters of any precinct in New Mexico. Two years ago this precinct cast 892 votes. This year the number will be close to 1,000.

MEXICAN SILVER.

At the City of Mexico the Mexican silver dollar has touched low water mark for outside or export use, being worth less than 40 cents on the gold dollar—an American dollar being the equal of $2.50 in Mexican money. The decline in silver does not effect the property of the country in the least, however. The purchasing value of a Mexican dollar for home product is as great as ever, but the decline in silver greatly reduces the volume of business with the United States. Mexico will produce this year 75,000,000 ounces of silver, a larger output of the white metal than any other country ever produced, and the high water mark of Mexican production. Fully 75 per cent of this silver will come from mines owned and operated by Americans.

COAL PRODUCTION.

The United States geological survey estimates the world's production of coal in 1901 at 866,165,140 short tons. The three great coal producing countries of the world are the United States, Great Britain and Germany. Austria-Hungary comes fourth, France fifth, Belgium sixth, and Russia seventh. The last country, notwithstanding its vast area, produces only about 6 per cent as much coal as the United States. Prior to 1899 Great Britain led among the world's coal producers, but during 1899, 1900 and 1901, the United States has made such remarkable increases in coal production, due principally to the unprecedented activity in the iron and steel and in other metal trades, that it now stands far in the lead of all competitors with a production in 1901 exceeding that of Great Britain by 47,965,538 short tons, or 19 per cent.

DESERT LABORATORY.

The arid region may receive some direct benefits from the great institution for scientific research which Andrew Carnegie has founded at the national capital with an endowment of ten millions of dollars. A Washington dispatch to the New York Tribune states that the institution has received a novel suggestion from Professor F. V. Coville, chairman of its advisory board on botany, who proposes, in view of the extensive investigations in applied botany now being carried on by the department of agriculture and the state experiment stations, that a desert laboratory be established. It is pointed out that no effective research in this line has been possible, nor has the project, to the knowledge of the board, been advocated by their scientists. If the Carnegie institution will devote a portion of its income to the establishment and maintenance of a botanical laboratory in some section of the arid region which covers so extensive an area in the southwest it will, it is urged, make possible a series of investigations which not only will add immeasurably to the practical knowledge of botanists and agriculturists, but which are essential to the rounding out of many scientific theories now partially obscure.

WASTING THE FORESTS.

The prediction of Professor John B. Leibig of the United States Geological Survey that the accessible forests of the country will not last another fifty years under the present drain of timber cutting, grazing and fires will be undoubtedly approved by every student of American woodlands. The drain has been enormous during the past forty or fifty years, and every successive year witnesses an increase. In many sections of the country where dense forests formerly existed not a tree has been left standing. The raid on the western forests is more vigorous today than it ever was. Nearly all the timber lands available have been occupied, and means are being adopted to convert the growing trees into commercial lumber.

Everything associated with the settlement and development of the natural resources of new territory is fatal to forest growth. These factors create new demands for the products of the forest, and nothing is being done to renew what the lumberman destroys. The wasteful methods of lumbering are unnecessarily shortening the lives of the forests. Against this there seems to be no remedy, for the logger looks upon the growing timber as merely so much merchandise which may be marketed profitably when handled on certain lines. He is unmoved by the waste and destruction these methods create. He is unmoved as to their effect upon the land itself or upon the wants of the community. Fires and other destructive agencies also make enormous demands every year, on the forest, and waste millions of acres.

Whenever a man deliberately does anything for revenge he acts unworthily. Revenge may be sweet, to a small minded man. But the one who can have revenge and puts it aside gets pleasure from the consciousness of being great enough to forego a revengeful act.

Citizens not already registered have until 9 o'clock tonight to qualify themselves for the privilege of taking part in the coming election. The two states that have women as superintendents of public instruction have found them so satisfactory that after two terms of service, both Mrs. Helen L. They told us the army was going to be increased and increased till it would rank with the imperial armies of the old world. And now it has been whittled down more and more till the final order was given out during the past week reducing the army to the minimum figures allowed by law. Now who would believe a democrat as a prophet or an alarmist any more?

In a brochure sent out by Becker T. Washington, the principal, it is shown that the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute at Tuskegee, Ala., is doing great work in teaching the colored people the things they need to know and can turn to account for their own good. This year, it is stated, the total enrollment is 1,384 and the average daily attendance is 1,218, the students coming from thirty states and territories and five of them from foreign countries.

Contagious Blood Poison

Is the name sometimes given to what is generally known as the BAD DIS-EASE. It is not confined to dens of vice or the lower classes. The purest and best people are sometimes infected with this awful malady through handling the clothing, drinking from the same vessels, using the same toilet articles, or otherwise coming in contact with persons who have contracted it.

It begins usually with a little blister or sore, then swelling in the groins, a red eruption breaks out on the body, sores and ulcers appear in the mouth, the throat becomes ulcerated, the hair, eye brows and lashes fall out; the blood becoming more contaminated, copper colored spots and pustular eruptions and sores appear upon different parts of the body, and the poison even destroys the bones.

S. S. S. is a Specific for this loathsome disease, and cures it even in the worst forms. It is a perfect antidote for the powerful virus that pollutes the blood and penetrates to all parts of the system.

Unless you get this poison out of your blood it will ruin you, and bring disgrace and disease upon your children, for it can be transmitted from parent to child. S. S. S. contains no mercury or potash, but is guaranteed a strictly vegetable compound.

60 PER CENT DIVIDENDS.

Remarkable Earning Capacity of Small Northern Road.

The Duluth, Mesaba & Northern railway, which has iron ore as the bulk of its tonnage, has just filed its annual report. The enormous prosperity of the road will be understood when it is noted that the company declared dividends of 60 per cent and distributed $1,507,000 among its stockholders. The statement fixes the dividend on the common stock at 15 per cent, but makes that rate apply to the last four years.

Gross earnings from operation last year were $3,755,416 and operating expenses were only $1,576,525. The net income amounted to $1,488,283. The surplus on June 30, 1892, was $3,581,591. All the earnings, with the exception of $100,815 from passenger business, came from the freight traffic.

For every job of work, there were a dozen applicants and this tended to reduce the compensation that laboring men could obtain.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Two Little Children Were "Playing House" and Built a Fire to "Cook Dinner."

The two children of James Scott, who lives about ten miles from Portales, were burned Saturday so badly that they died Sunday night. The children were 2 and 6 years old, and were out in the yard playing "keeping house." An old dry goods box served as the house, and in it the children built a fire to "cook dinner." Their clothing caught fire, and before their parents could reach them both were enveloped in flames.

WHOLE CREW WAS JAILED.

El Paso & Southwestern Men in Trouble at Agua Prieta, Mexico.

Further details of the recent killing of one Mexican and crippling of another in the yards of the Nacozari railroad at Agua Prieta have just reached this city, says the El Paso Herald.

A railroad man returning from there who was in Douglas at the time of the trouble, stated to a Herald reporter this morning that the El Paso & Southwestern switch crew at Douglas were taking a string of box cars over to the Mexican side, where they were to be placed on a side track, when, after crossing the international line and while going at a lively clip, they ran into two drunken Mexicans who were sitting on the ties, with the result that one of the men was killed outright and the other badly injured.

A singular feature of the accident was that the train men did not discover their accident until they had reached the Agua Prieta depot, which

CITY COUNCIL.

Water and Milk Fully Discussed by the Aldermen.

INSPECTOR TO BE APPOINTED.

City council met in regular session last night.

Many important ordinances were brought up and acted upon.

An important step was taken in regard to the general health of the citizens in the way of pure milk.

The city attorney was instructed, on a motion by Alderman Beaven, to have an ordinance prepared for the appointment of a milk inspector, setting forth his duties, salary, etc.

This ordinance is to be presented at a special meeting to be held at the city clerk's office tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

There is no doubt as to the passage of the ordinance as the council are heartily in favor of it.

Following this action the council discussed the sanitary condition of the city.

City Physician Elder presented an able report on the general health of the citizens. He stated that the number of cases of typhoid fever were not alarming, but there were enough to cause a general inspection of the sanitary conditions of the city. The two recent cases of typhoid were in localities where the water supply was from shallow wells. He said that the City Water Supply company were taking active measures to guard the purity of the city water supply.

Reference was made by Dr. Elder in regard to the condition of the sewers in some parts of the city and that action should be taken to sink all wells to a depth so that there would be no danger from contamination by water surface. He also recommended that samples of the milk sold by the city dairies be sent to Prof. Weitzel at the University for analysis. There is no evidence that impure milk has been or is being sold, but it is thought best to appoint a milk inspector as one of the precautionary measures to be adopted.

That the need of an inspector has long been present is evident, for the fact that more than 20,000 gallons of milk are used in the city every month.

The attention of council was mainly taken up by the discussion of health conditions, the routine business being very light.

A number of approved bills were presented by the finance committee. The list of bills were quite long, covering the current expenses of the city, and warrants were ordered drawn to pay the same.

The bill of City Engineer Pitt Ross for $5 for services in inspecting the Allison building on North First street was referred to the building committee. The building was recently declared unsafe on the recommendation of the engineer, and the building was repaired. The members are of opinion that the council should not stand for the expense of inspection.

Superintendent J. F. McNally, of the Santa Fe, sent in a communication recommending that the Coal avenue viaduct be insured by the city. The matter was referred to the building committee to report at the next meeting.

The property owners on North Walter street presented a petition asking that the council order sidewalks on the west side of the street from East Railroad to Tijeras avenues, with the provision that the city build a foot bridge across the arroyo near Copper avenue.

On motion of Alderman Harrison the petition was granted and the bridge ordered built at an expense not to exceed $60.

The reports for the city treasurer and clerk for the month of September were reported favorably by the finance committee.

The extension of the city sewer to the Mountain road, asked by the New Mexico Woolen Mills company, whose building is now in course of construction, was referred by the sewer committee back to the council for action.

Alderman Grunsfeld called attention to the fact that the mills are an enterprise likely to help the business interests of the city and that no concessions have been asked by them.

A motion that the city build the desired sewer at its own expense was carried. According to estimate given by the city engineer the cost will be $214.

The police committee made a favorable report on the petition of the members of the police force for an increase in salary and the document was ordered filed.

On motion of Alderman Harrison it was ordered that in the future all goods delivered to the several city departments be accompanied by an itemized bill.

An ordinance ordering cement sidewalks on the west side of Seventh street, between Gold and Copper avenues, was passed.

Council adjourned.

SMOTHER A COUGH.

You can smother a cough with your hand but you can't cure it that way. Some medicines only smother coughs.

Scott's Emulsion cures them. Old coughs and deep-rooted coughs can't be cured until the inflammation which causes them has been replaced by healthy tissue.

That is exactly the kind of thorough work Scott's Emulsion does. It changes the entire nature of the throat and lungs so that there is nothing to cough about.

GOOD STORIES.

The Expert Story Tellers Have Some Good Ones to Tell.

It is quite evident, after an evening's sojourn with the local story tellers, that the recent fair brought some crackerjacks from the outside precincts, and that they left some of their most interesting, fascinating stories behind them. This morning, a party of gentlemen, all of whom can tell a good story, met and recited some new tales they heard during the fair. To be heartless, the gentlemen located all the new stories here in town, putting a local coloring to them and therefore making the jokes doubly interesting. The "minnow" tale, in which a whale cut a big hole; the hotel joke and the man who made a bet of a plug hat seem to have the edge on all the other stories told as most interesting and realistic, and never fails to bring forth a good laugh. Ask any of the local story tellers for these new jokes. They are always willing to accommodate in that direction.

HONORS FOR CARNEGIE.

His Native Land Proud of His Remarkable Career.

St. Andrews, Scotland, Oct. 22.—Andrew Carnegie was today formally re-installed as rector of St. Andrews university in the presence of a large and brilliant assemblage, over which Principal Donaldson presided.

Mr. Carnegie's rectorial address consisted of a lengthy study of the comparative growth of the nations in the paths of industrial ascendancy with a striking commentary of their future. His speech was replete with notable statistics and important economic prophecies. Perhaps the most remarkable feature was an appeal to Emperor William to use his influence toward the eventual creation of the United States of Europe under the form of a political and industrial union. In this way alone, Mr. Carnegie declared, can Europe conquer the foreign markets or repel the American invasion.

There are a number of important matters to come before this meeting, among which are a report on train service, car service and service reports. GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

Annual Session Has Many Important Measures to Settle.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 22.—Many questions of great importance are to be considered and acted upon at the annual session of the Georgia legislature, which began today. Foremost among the matters to receive attention is the convict question. The present system of farming out the convicts to mine owners and others, which has of late years been severely criticized, expires in April, 1904. Several substitute plans have been suggested, but as the present system is a source of considerable profit to the state, there is a strong public sentiment in favor of its continuance. The child labor problem, the establishment of a circuit court of appeals and new banking laws are other matters that will receive attention at the present session.

C. C. Price, of Prescott, member of the firm of Carr & Price, is in the city. The two gentlemen are here for the purpose of establishing an office for financing big mine enterprises, being agents for the Prescott Realty company.

David Sulzer, the Santa Fe master mechanic between La Junta and El Paso, is in the city, and was a pleasant caller at The Citizen office this afternoon.

J. F. SULZER, Trustee. Dated October 22, 1902.

RHEUMATISM CANNOT BE RUBBED OUT

But a good liniment or plaster will often give temporary relief because it produces counter irritation or reduces the inflammation and soreness. But resort of external treatment can have any effect whatever upon the disease itself, for rheumatism is not a skin disease, but is due to an over acid condition of the blood, and the deposit of irritating matter or Uric Acid salts or sediment in the muscles and joints, and no amount of rubbing or blistering can dislodge these gritty particles or change the acid blood. Rheumatism often becomes chronic, and the muscles and joints permanently stiff and useless and the nervous system almost wrecked, because so much time is lost in trying to cure a blood disease with outside application, as doctoring the skin.

Rheumatism must be treated through the blood, and no remedy brings such prompt and lasting relief as S. S. S. It attacks the disease in the blood, neutralizes the acids, and removes all irritating or poisonous substances from the system.

S. S. S. strengthens and enriches the thin acid blood, and as it circulates through the body, the corroding, gnawing poisons and acid deposits are dislodged and washed out of the muscles and joints, and the sufferer is happily relieved from the discomforts and misery of Rheumatism.

External remedies are all right so far as they go, but they don't go far enough, and you can't depend upon them to do the work of a blood purifier, and those who pin their faith to liniments and plasters as cures are bound to meet with disappointment, and will be nursing a case of Rheumatism the greater part of their lives.

S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy, does not contain any Potash or mineral of any kind, and can be taken with safety by old and young.

Rheumatic sufferers who write us about their case will receive valuable aid and helpful advice from our physicians, for which no charge is made. We will mail free our special book on Rheumatism, which is the result of years of practical experience in treating this disease. It contains in a condensed form much information about Rheumatism.

Grand Royal Arch Chapter

Convocation at Santa Fe

Royal Arch Masonry had its beginning in New Mexico when Santa Fe Chapter No. 1 at Santa Fe was organized December 11, 1865. In September, 1868, a charter was granted to the organization by the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the United States, and until the forming of the Silver City Chapter No. 2 in the seventies, the Santa Fe Chapter worked alone. During the eighties the Las Vegas Chapter No. 3 at Las Vegas, Rio Grande Chapter No. 4 at Albuquerque, Deming Chapter No. 5 at Deming and Raton Chapter No. 6 at Raton were organized. Then followed Columbia Chapter No. 7 at Roswell and Socorro Chapter No. 8 at Socorro during the nineties.

In the fall of 1897, a preliminary meeting of Royal Arch Masons of the territory was held at Albuquerque. This resulted in a call for a convention. The following chapters were represented: Santa Fe Chapter No. 1, Las Vegas Chapter No. 2, Rio Grande Chapter No. 4, Columbia Chapter No. 7 and Socorro Chapter No. 8. This convention was called to meet at Albuquerque, February 19, 1898. The main work of the body was the formation of a constitution and by laws and the naming of the principal officers of the grand chapter.

The first annual convocation of the Royal Arch Chapter of New Mexico was held in Albuquerque, October 3, 1898. The grand chapter was duly organized by the installation of the grand officers previously named in the convention and the adoption of the constitution and by laws formulated there.

The second annual convocation was held in Albuquerque October 4, 1899. At this session a charter was granted to Silver City Chapter No. 9, located at Carlsbad.

The third annual convention of the Royal Arch Chapter was also held at Albuquerque October 17, 1900, at which session a charter was issued to Washington No. 10, located at Clayton.

The Masonic Banquet.

The banquet given Monday evening at the Palace hotel complimentary to members of the Masonic Grand Lodge, of the Grand Royal Arch Chapter, and of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar now in session in Santa Fe by Montezuma Lodge No. 1, Santa Fe Royal Arch Chapter No. 1 and Santa Fe Commandery No. 1, K. T., was well attended by the members of the fraternity, says the New Mexican.

Covers were laid for 84 and 78 were present, including seven ladies, members of the Order of the Eastern Star. An excellent menu was served, consisting of the delicacies of the season and appropriate musical selections were rendered by the Capital City band. Hon. Charles E. Easley filled the important position of toastmaster, which he did in a very happy manner. His address of welcome was responded to in well chosen words by Grand Master A. H. Harlie, High Priest Marcus Eldott extended a hearty welcome to the Grand Royal Arch Chapter, which was feelingly responded to by Grand High Priest L. H. Chamberlin. Sir Knight George W. Knaebel, E. C., welcomed the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar, and Deputy Grand Commander C. N. Blackwell, in the absence of the grand commander, answered with a neat speech. Brother T. J. Helm extended a welcome to the ladies of the Order of the Eastern Star, and Rev. George Selby, as proxy for Mrs. Boomer, replied. Past Grand Master J. J. Kelly, as proxy for Grand Master Eldott, E. A. Cahoon, ex-Governor L. Bradford Prince, Grand Lecturer W. H. Seamon, Past Grand Master Dr. Charles Bowmer, Grand Junior Warden Elect J. G. Fitch, and Rev. W. A. Cooper, for the clergy, were two other speakers.

The gathering was like a family reunion and the idea was expressed by several of the speakers that as Montezuma Lodge A. F. and A. M. was No. 1, the Santa Fe Royal Arch Chapter was No. 1 and the Santa Fe Commandery Knights Templar was No. 1, it was indeed the mother lodge and hence this gathering was like a visit of the many children to the old home. Another speaker, a visiting representative said that not only were the Santa Fe lodges No. 1 in number, but also in work. And yet another speaker called attention to the fact that Santa Fe cannot be No. 1 in respect to the Order of the Eastern Star, yet he hoped it would shortly be so in number. It was said also that Masonry is a power that rules the world. That Masonry knows no bounds, and that it creates and inspires a strong brotherly feeling. That a Mason may go where he may and he will be among friends.

The affair was unanimously conceded to have been one of great enjoyment, and satisfactory to all present.

Bishop Consecrated.

New York, Oct. 22.—The twenty-first council of the New York and Philadelphia Synod of the Reformed Episcopal church met here today and consecrated the Rev. Dr. William T. Sabine, pastor of the First Reformed Episcopal church of this city, to the episcopate. Dr. Sabine was recently elected to the bishopric to succeed the late Bishop Latine. He was formerly a priest in the Protestant Episcopal church in this diocese, from which communion he withdrew, because he thought the Anglican Communion was leaning too much toward the church of Rome.

Empress Augusta's Birthday.

Berlin, Oct. 22.—Today was the birthday of Empress Augusta Victoria, and flags were displayed on all the public and many private buildings. No court festivities were held in observance of the anniversary but her majesty was the recipient of numerous presents and congratulatory messages from the various courts of Europe.

DISTRICT COURT.

The district court was engaged all day yesterday in trying the case of Frederick F. Fisher against Coehli

Gold Mining company. The plaintiff was suing for $25,000 damages for injuries sustained by reason of plaintiff becoming entangled in the machinery of the defendant's mill. The machinery in the mill is alleged to have been imperfect. The evidence given by the plaintiff showed that he was employed in the capacity of carpenter, and was ordered to repair a chute in the mill, which necessitated his standing close to a shaft revolving at a rate of 150 revolutions per second. In performing this duty the plaintiff's trousers became entangled in a protruding clamp, above the shaft, which wound the plaintiff about the shaft, tearing the skin from his right leg from the ankle to the hip, breaking the leg and bruising his back, and from which injuries he claimed to have been crippled for life, and to have been prevented from following his vocation as carpenter. The plaintiff showed that the clamp used on the shaft was an unusual and crude one, and that by reason of the poor light in that part of the mill and the rapidity of the revolving clamps, the plaintiff was prevented from acquainting himself with the dangers of the place, to which he was sent to work.

The defendant endeavored to show contributory negligence of the plaintiff but all such evidence was ruled out under the state of the pleadings and the defendant's case was limited to an effort to show that the clamp used was the ordinary clamp used about such machinery, and that the place in which the plaintiff was sent to work was reasonably safe and was an ordinary hazard assumed by such an employe.

The jury took the view of the case as presented by the plaintiff and this morning returned a verdict for $5,000. Mr. Field represented the plaintiff, and Mr. Childers the defendant.

The case of Meliton Garcia against A. Chastoney was on trial this morning. The case involved the right to the possession of an unclaimed tract of land at Corrales. After progressing some time the plaintiff discovered that his theory of the case was not sound. And by leave of the court he suffered a non-suit. Gillett for plaintiff, and Field for defendant.

The case of Anna M. Aldrich against City of Albuquerque, in a suit of $10,000 for damages sustained to property during erection of viaduct, is being tried today.

A Typical South African Store.

O. R. Larson of Bay Villa, Sundays River, Cape Colony, conducts a store typical of South Africa, at which can be purchased anything from the proverbial "needle to an anchor." This store is situated in a valley nine miles from the nearest railway station and about twenty-five miles from the nearest town. Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of thirty miles, to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testify to their value in a household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these, within the past twelve months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be a record." For sale by all druggists.

The rush of eastern people to California has begun. The low rates from the east to California have started the rush earlier than in any previous year. The other day in Denver the Burlington turned over to the Rio Grande 142 California passengers, being the largest number of passengers delivered by one road to another, except on special excursions, for many years. The population in railroad circles is that the travel to California will be heavier this winter than ever before. The reasons for this is that the country is prosperous, the farmers have had enormous crops and money is more plentiful in the east and middle west than for many years.

Stricken With Paralysis.

Henderson Grinnett, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and completely lost the use of one arm and side. After being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without relief, my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles of it he is almost entirely cured.—Geo. R. McDonald, Man, Logan county, W. Va. Several other very remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known, however, as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and bruises. For sale by all druggists.

Santa Fe engineers and firemen of the eastern divisions will meet in Topeka November 8, to consider new rules and regulations and also to ask the company for an advance in wages. Several rumors have been afloat of late, to the effect that the Santa Fe engineers will get what they demand or "cause trouble." Albuquerque members state that this is all "tommy rot" and there is no prospect of trouble between their lodges and the Santa Fe. The engineers of the coast lines have already begun to hold their meetings, the engineers being in session in Los Angeles at the present time.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Saved His Boy's Life.

"I believe I saved my (nine year old) boy's life this winter with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says A. M. Hoppe, Rio Creek, Wis. "He was so choked up with croup that he could not speak. I gave it to him freely until he vomited and in a short time he was all right." For sale by all druggists.

Brakeman G. W. Yoakam, of Las Vegas, is laying off nursing a sprained ankle, the accident befalling him while alighting from a train.

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth, go at once to a druggist and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will make you well. They also cure biliousness, sick headache and constipation.

A Word to Travelers.

The excitement incident to traveling and change of food and water often brings on diarrhoea, and for this reason no one should leave home without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by all druggists.

RAILROAD NOTES.

The Hebron branch of the Santa Fe, up the country, has been completed. It leaves the main line at Hebron station about ten miles this side of Raton and runs to the Willow Gulch coal mines of the Maxwell land grant company.

The Mexican Central railway management has acceded in part to the claim of its engineers and firemen for an increase in wages and no strike is to occur on that road from that source. It is said that the increase amounts to about 30 per cent.

Passenger Brakeman James Dorman of Las Vegas, was told to bathe his crippled foot in tepid water, but was given a bowl of hot water into which he plunged the member, scalding it to the extent that he is unable for duty. Will Smith is on his run for the time being.

Get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets at all druggists. They are easier to take and more pleasant in effect than pills. Then their use is not followed by constipation as is often the case with pills. Regular size, 25c per box at all druggists.

Great Concert Assured.

Sousa, the incomparable leader of an unrivaled band, the composer of the most stirring marches to which the soldiery of the world have ever kept cadence; the first of American musicians to win international fame, prestige and success; the favorite equally in New York and London, Chicago and Paris, San Francisco and Berlin, is about inaugurating the twenty-first semi-annual tour of the great and famous band which bears his name. The tour will embrace about 125 towns in twelve weeks from New York to San Francisco and return, and will bring the band here for a popular concert on Thursday, October 30, at Colombo hall.

Natural Anxiety.

Mothers regard approaching winter with uneasiness, children take cold so easily. No disease costs more little lives than croup. Its attack is so sudden that the sufferer is often beyond human aid before the doctor arrives. Such cases yield readily to One Minute Cough Cure. Liquefies the mucus, allays inflammation, removes danger. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Cures coughs, colds, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung trouble. F. E. Mc Mahon, Hampton, Ga., "A bad cold rendered me voiceless just before an oratorical contest. I intended to withdraw but took One Minute Cough Cure. It restored my voice in time to win the medal." B. H. Briggs & Co.—J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

Congress of Land Agents.

Houston, Texas, Oct. 23.—The land and immigration agents of the Southern Pacific Railroad began a conference in Houston today with an attendance even larger than that at the similar meeting held some time ago in Galveston. The purpose of the gathering is to afford an opportunity for the exchange of views regarding the general development of the Southwest and the promotion of immigration of this section of the country. Following the close of the congress day after tomorrow the agents will start on a tour of the state, visiting San Antonio and other points.

Look out for Fever.

Biliousness and liver disorders at this season may be prevented by cleansing the system with De Witt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills do not gripe. They move the bowels gently, but copiously, and by reason of the tonic properties, give tone and strength to the glands. B. H. Briggs & Co.—J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

Indiana U. M. C. A.

Greencastle, Ind., Oct. 23.—A considerable number of delegates and visitors are here for the annual convocation of the Young Women's Christian Association of Indiana, which will be in session here during the next three days. Prominent among the speakers to be heard are the Rev. W. M. Tippy, of Indianapolis; S. D. Gordon, of Cleveland and Miss Conde and Miss Simms, of the American committee.

Forty Years Torture.

To be relieved from a torturing disease after 40 years' torture might well cause the gratitude of anyone. That is what De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve did for C. Hanev, Geneva, O. He says: "De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me of piles after I had suffered 40 years." Cures cuts, burns, wounds, skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. B. H. Briggs & Co.—J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

Virginia Veterans in Reunion.

Wytheville, Va., Oct. 22.—This town is gay with flags and bunting today in honor of the confederate veterans, department of Virginia, whose fifteenth annual meeting and reunion is in progress. The gathering was formally opened at noon today by Grand Commander Thomas W. Smith. The at tendance of veterans is gratifyingly large, many of them being accompanied by their wives and families. The William H. Terry camp of Wytheville is acting as host and has prepared an elaborate program for the entertainment of the visitors.

The Worst Form.

Multitudes are singing the praises of Kodak, the new discovery which is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by digesting what they eat, by cleansing and sweetening the stomach and by transforming their food into the kind of pure, rich, red blood that makes you feel good all over. Mrs. Cranfill, of Troy, I. T., writes: "For a number of years I was troubled with digestion and dyspepsia which grew into the worst form. Finally I was induced to use Kodak and after using four bottles I am entirely cured. I heartily recommend Kodak to all sufferers from indigestion and dyspepsia." Take a dose after meals. It digests what you eat. B. H. Briggs & Co.—J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

TRAIN HIT HIM.

Citizen of New Mexico Wants $15,000 From Santa Fe.

William H. Keller, of San Miguel county, this territory, has brought suit in the district court at Las Vegas against the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway company for $15,000 damages for personal injuries sustained by the alleged negligence of defendant. The alleged injuries were sustained by the plaintiff at Glorieta, where he went to meet a passenger on the train of defendant. Plaintiff alleges that while he was standing in the place where passengers are accustomed to stand, waiting for the train to pass, without any warning another train came dashing along at a fearful rate of speed, striking him, and bruising him greatly.

George Hofheins, Edward Smith, Edward Lemke and M. S. Cole are claimants. Location claims: Lot 1059, township 18 north, range 4 and 5 east, consisting of 28 acres.

Spent More Than $1,000.

W. W. Baker, of Plainville, Neb., writes: "My wife suffered from lung trouble for fifteen years. She tried a number of doctors and spent over $1,000 without relief. Mr. Owen Dunn, of Benton Ferry, W. Va., writes: "I have had kidney and bladder trouble for years, and it became so bad that I was obliged to get up at least a dozen times a night. I never received any permanent benefit from any medicine until I tried Foley's Kidney Cure. After using two bottles, I am cured." Alvarado Pharmacy.

THE TRADE MARK CHANGED.

Read to Santa Rosa Now the El Paso-Northeastern System.
Readers of The Citizen will notice that with this issue the advertisement of the El Paso-Rock Island route is changed to read "El Paso-Northeastern system."

This is the first fully official confirmation of the report published a few weeks ago that the name was thus to be changed and is calculated to dispel the belief that existed that the Rock Island system was to soon absorb the El Paso-Northeastern. "The management of the El Paso-Northeastern system requests," writes

General Passenger Agent Brown, "that no more rumors of the sale of this system be published without express authority from the management, as they are utterly without foundation."

The officials of the El Paso-Northeastern system say that from the start the trademark "El Paso-Rock Island route" has caused them trouble, owing to its leaving the impression on the public that the road bearing the title was a part of the Rock Island system. So to preserve their individuality and dispel the erroneous impression the management decided to change the trademark as occurs in their display advertisement in this issue.

"Watch the Kidneys."

"When they are affected, life is in danger," says Dr. Abernathy, the great English physician. Foley's Kidney Cure makes sound kidneys.

CAR SHORTAGE, NOW.

Another Way Found to Keep Up Price of Anthracite.

Roads east of Chicago expect a severe car famine as a result of the settlement of the anthracite coal strike. With the vast amount of grain and merchandise now being shipped traffic officials fear that they will not be able to furnish sufficient cars to transport the coal that is expected to be ready for shipment to the western markets within sixty days. Another feature is that the demand for cars in the anthracite trade will come at a time when cars are needed in the bituminous trade.

Danger in Fall Colds.

Fall colds are liable to hang on all winter leaving the seeds of pneumonia, bronchitis, or consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar cures quickly and prevents serious results, safe and sure, contains no opiates and will not constipate. Alvarado Pharmacy.

OWNERSHIP A SECRET.

Annual Meeting of St. Joseph & Grand Island at Hiawatha.

General Manager Raymond Dupuy, of the St. Joseph & Grand Island railway attended the annual meeting of the stockholders of the road, at Hiawatha, Kan.

Mr. Dupuy voted all proxies for directors except three, which are held by employees of the road in Kansas, in order to comply with the state law. While the Union Pacific interests are believed to have bought a controlling amount of stock, change in the management of the Grand Island will not take place for some time. Just who owns the road was not revealed at the meeting, as it was expected it would be, for the reason that orders have been given from New York that information on this subject will be divulged there only.

Never Ask Advice.

When you have a cough or cold don't ask what is good for it and get some medicine with little or no merit and perhaps dangerous. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar, the greatest throat and lung remedy. It cures coughs and colds quickly. Alvarado Pharmacy.

Length of Trips.

The 6,239,128 passengers carried over Santa Fe system lines the last fiscal year traveled in the aggregate 607,705,582 miles, or a little more than 95 miles per passenger. Considering the fact that so many made long trips to California, the percentage of "short trippers" must have been quite large to bring the average down to less than a hundred.

It has been found that express' journeys average only 50 miles, which fact effectually disposes of the musty joke about newspaper men riding on passes to save board bills. They apparently stay at home more than other folks do.

MINERS MEETING

Convention of Strikers in Session at Pittsburg.

ARBITRATION TO SETTLE STRIKE

Miners in Good Humor and Content Nearly at the End.

GLASS FACTORY BURNED AT PITTSBURG

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 20.—About 700 delegates of the United Mine Workers of America from the hard coal mining district of Pennsylvania met in the Neat theater today to act on the proposal to settle the long strike by arbitration. The convention was called by President Mitchell under the rules of the union to vote on the plan which he laid before it and later explained fully in a lengthy address. Previous to assembling the convention there were busy scenes at strike headquarters in the Hart hotel, from where the miners have been directed since the strike was called—125 days ago. Before 8 o'clock the miner delegates, the majority of them having arrived on the early morning trains, began to gather there. President Mitchell was the center of interest and until he left for the convention hall was always surrounded by his lieutenants and others. The final details for the meeting were arranged in his office this morning. The delegates were in the best of humor as they loitered about the hotel lobby. The feeling of the men was evinced in a brief conversation overheard when the delegates from distant points met. Said one: "Well, what do you think of the situation now?"

"Oh, we are here to finish it and I guess we will."

Every delegate whose opinion was sought felt that the convention would do whatever their national leader advised. There was general cheerfulness in the faces of the men which was reflected in the demeanor of the citizens of this prosperous city, and in which nearly 50,000 of the miners live and even the fine clear weather seemed to suggest peace and arbitration.

Among the late arrivals at convention hall was the national secretary-treasurer, W. B. Wilson, elected to be secretary of the convention with the secretaries of the three districts. He was of the opinion that the convention would end tomorrow and that the men would return to work on Thursday. He said the outlook for acceptance was bright, but that there were intimations among the assembling delegates that there were objections on the part of some to calling off the strike until positive assurance is had that all the men will get back the positions they occupied before the strike began. Although the time set for the meeting of the convention was 10 o'clock the doors of the theater were not thrown open until the clock struck that hour. It did not take the assembled delegates long to fill the place. After a selection by the orchestra, District President Nichols called the convention to order at 10:20 and ordered the call for the convention to be read. This was done. As is customary in conventions of the mine workers, the district secretaries acted as the committee on credentials. These secretaries had already completed their work, and when called upon by Chairman Nichols after the convention call had been read, the reports were made. While these reports were being presented a report was received that President Mitchell would not come to the hall from strike headquarters until after the convention had permanently organized.

It was 11:15 o'clock when the reading of reports was concluded, and as the business of the convention cannot go on until the committee on credentials makes a full report, a motion was made to adjourn until 2 p. m., and before the motion was put it was suggested the delegates be entertained by songs. This was adopted and for a brief time the big convention was turned into a social meeting. At 11:42 the convention adjourned until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

During the recess an expression on the outlook was sought from Mitchell. He shook his head and said: "I have nothing to say at this time. The outlook, in fact, the whole situation, is in the hands of the delegates. They ordered the strike and they must decide what course to pursue."

While President Mitchell is extremely non-committal in all he says there is not the slightest doubt in the minds of those at strike headquarters that he has any fear that the program he has in mind will go through. A leading delegate said after the noon adjournment that voting on the arbitration proposition probably would not begin until tomorrow forenoon and the session this afternoon would be devoted to speeches. He saw no reason at all to think that the convention would not vote to accept the arbitration plan and declare the strike off.

Mitchell and Wilson were elected permanent president and secretary respectively. There are 662 delegates present. Mitchell reached the theater at 8:30, shortly after his election as president. He was greeted with great cheer.

Count Warm Debate.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 20.—A warm debate followed the first vote of objection to the immediate adoption of resolutions to declare off the strike. In the course of this debate a motion was made to adjourn because persons not delegates were present. A hot debate occurred on this. A motion that a resolution to adjourn was killed by almost unanimous vote. A motion was then carried to exclude from the hall all but newspaper men.

STRIKE SITUATION.

Warm Debate on Resolution Declaring the Strike Off.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 20.—The convention decided to admit newspaper correspondents to the executive session. It was moved immediately after President Mitchell ended his speech that resolutions declaring off the strike be adopted. This immediately met with expected opposition of the engineers, who said they did not oppose President Mitchell's recommendations, but wanted very careful consideration. President Mitchell's speech was concluded at 2:53. Mr. Mitchell's statements in his speech favoring the acceptance of arbitration did not elicit great applause.

LAST DAY EVENTS.

Base Ball Game—Bronco Busting—Horse Racing—Indian Dances.

CLOSE OF 6000 WEEK.

The twenty-second annual territorial fair closed Saturday afternoon with a large number of visitors still in the city. Large crowds attended the sports at the fair grounds in the afternoon and witnessed the Indian dances on the streets in the evening. The last day proved to be one of the biggest days of the week. Floral hall was crowded with admiring visitors the larger part of the day.

Base Ball Game.

Nichols in the box for Albuquerque defeated El Paso with Lee in the box by the score of 7 to 4. It was the only occasion when the American-National stars outplayed Dale Gear's sluggers at every stage of the game.

Bert Vorhes' batting and a running catch made at a critical moment by Harry Bay were the most notable features.

Horse Racing.

The horse races of the week proved to be the best ever held on the local track.

The half mile event on Saturday between Lady Margaret, owned by Joe Barnett, and Bonnie Treasure was probably the most interesting harness event of the week to the people of the territory, as both horses are owned here. The stakes for the two best out of three heats was a wine supper. The Treasury won the first and second heats handily.

Trainer Maguire, who was here from George H. Estabrook's stables of Denver, with Stratton, drove Bonnie Treasure and the half mile track record was lowered to 1:05 4-5. The running event of the afternoon, a half mile dash, was won by Crozier in :54, with Lady O'Fallen second.

Broncho Busting.

The broncho busting contest came off Saturday and was won by Mert Wagner, of Jemez, with Frank Lake second. Both men had good buckers and it was hard to tell which sat the saddle the best. Wagner probably had the hardest bucker and after some discussion he was awarded first money.

The roping of wild horses by the Indians on foot proved to be an interesting feature of the afternoon. The spectacle of an Indian clinging to the end of a rope attached to a fleeing bronco, sliding over the ground while sitting down, at a great rate of speed, created considerable amusement.

The five mile relay race and gallinas race by Indians, were also amusing features of the afternoon program.

Indian Dances.

The Navajos repeated their Yelpechi dance Saturday evening to the pleasure of the people who thronged Railroad avenue. The fires were lighted early and had no more than got to blazing good when some seventy highly painted warriors appeared. They yelled, chanted and danced to please the bad Yelpechi, who was supposed to be lurking near in the darkness, for more than an hour.

The orderly manner in which the crowds conducted themselves must be commented on. Although a few pockets were picked and some houses were robbed, City Marshal McMillin and his staff of officers are to be complimented.

All trains leaving the city for the north, south and west Saturday night and yesterday, were loaded with homeward bound visitors.

The fair was a grand success and everybody seemed to have a good time.

PACER SHECAM.

The Fast Colorado Animal Purchased by Frank E. Sturges.

Shecam, the fast pacer, winner of the 2:13 pace in the fair meeting and one of the fastest horses ever entered in a local racing event, will remain in Albuquerque. F. E. Sturges bought Shecam after he was on the train to return to his former owner, J. I. Frank, of Denver.

After Mr. Sturges saw the horse win the pacing race Tuesday in three straight heats, he was interested and watched Shecam work during the remainder of the week. The result was his interest reached the purchasing point.

The price paid for Shecam has not been made public, but there is no doubt the figures were high. The horse has a mark of 2:11 1/2 and is considered one of the best animals in Colorado's long list of fast ones.

That Primrose came near going away with the Estabrook string Saturday night was a story among the horsemen last night. The little mare was sold to Maguire Saturday morning and bought back by Joe Barnett after she was loaded on the car with Minnetonka and Stratton.

The race meet closed with considerable satisfaction among the local horsemen.

UNION PACIFIC BOILERMAKERS.

They are Still on a Strike—Some interesting Figures.

According to the figures given out at the head office of the Grand International Union of Boilermakers and Iron Shipbuilders, which is in Kansas City, Kan., the lodge is paying over $1,500 per week in benefits to the striking boilermakers on the Union Pacific system. Over $30,000 has been paid out since the strike began and John Mc-

Broncho Busting.

The broncho busting contest came off Saturday and was won by Mert Wagner, of Jemez, with Frank Lake second. Both men had good buckers and it was hard to tell which sat the saddle the best. Wagner probably had the hardest bucker and after some discussion he was awarded first money.

The roping of wild horses by the Indians on foot proved to be an interesting feature of the afternoon. The spectacle of an Indian clinging to the end of a rope attached to a fleeing bronco, sliding over the ground while sitting down, at a great rate of speed, created considerable amusement.

The five mile relay race and gallinas race by Indians, were also amusing features of the afternoon program.

Indian Dances.

The Navajos repeated their Yelpechi dance Saturday evening to the pleasure of the people who thronged Railroad avenue. The fires were lighted early and had no more than got to blazing good when some seventy highly painted warriors appeared. They yelled, chanted and danced to please the bad Yelpechi, who was supposed to be lurking near in the darkness, for more than an hour.

The orderly manner in which the crowds conducted themselves must be commented on. Although a few pockets were picked and some houses were robbed, City Marshal McMillin and his staff of officers are to be complimented.

All trains leaving the city for the north, south and west Saturday night and yesterday, were loaded with homeward bound visitors.

The fair was a grand success and everybody seemed to have a good time.

PACER SHECAM.

The Fast Colorado Animal Purchased by Frank E. Sturges.

Shecam, the fast pacer, winner of the 2:13 pace in the fair meeting and one of the fastest horses ever entered in a local racing event, will remain in Albuquerque. F. E. Sturges bought Shecam after he was on the train to return to his former owner, J. I. Frank, of Denver.

After Mr. Sturges saw the horse win the pacing race Tuesday in three straight heats, he was interested and watched Shecam work during the remainder of the week. The result was his interest reached the purchasing point.

The price paid for Shecam has not been made public, but there is no doubt the figures were high. The horse has a mark of 2:11 1/2 and is considered one of the best animals in Colorado's long list of fast ones.

That Primrose came near going away with the Estabrook string Saturday night was a story among the horsemen last night. The little mare was sold to Maguire Saturday morning and bought back by Joe Barnett after she was loaded on the car with Minnetonka and Stratton.

The race meet closed with considerable satisfaction among the local horsemen.

UNION PACIFIC BOILERMAKERS.

They are Still on a Strike—Some interesting Figures.

According to the figures given out at the head office of the Grand International Union of Boilermakers and Iron Shipbuilders, which is in Kansas City, Kan., the lodge is paying over $1,500 per week in benefits to the striking boilermakers on the Union Pacific system. Over $30,000 has been paid out since the strike began and John Mc-

Neil, the president, says there is still plenty of money in the relief fund.

"There were originally about 240 striking boilermakers on the Union Pacific," said President McNeil yesterday. "Some of these have secured positions on other railroads. I would estimate that there are about forty of them working. By the provisions of our constitution all strikers who fail to secure other employment receive a weekly benefit. Married men are given $7 per week, while single men get only $5."

Besides the Union Pacific strike, we have other troubles, although all of the big railroad strikes, the Union Pacific alone excepted, have been decided in our favor. Our troubles lie mostly in the contract shops. In Minneapolis there are 25 men on strike; in Birmingham, Ala., 65; in Oil City, Pa., 24; in Buffalo, 40, and in Oswego, N. Y., 175. In Buffalo the men employed in the Lehigh Valley shops are striking, but all the others are employed in contract shops. Summed up, there are less than 600 boilermakers striking in the United States, which is a pretty good record, as compared with past years."

The boilermakers have an excellent system for raising a relief fund for strikers. Every month each member of the union pays 25 cents into the general fund, which is reserved for the relief of striking boilermakers. There are nearly 23,000 boilermakers holding a membership in the international union, so that the regular assessment yields nearly $6,000 per month for relief purposes.

The average increase in membership in the boilermakers' union is 1,000 per month. Since September 11 there have been 700 new names enrolled on the membership books in the headquarters of the grand lodge.

As far as is known, there are no new developments in the Union Pacific situation. McNeil said: "The Union Pacific is having an awful time with its engines. Trains are late and their rolling stock is in bad shape. It is only a matter of time when they will grant our demands and we are simply waiting."

STARVED OUT.

Many a garrison has been forced to give up the fight and hang out the white flag of surrender, when lack of food has weakened the men past all power to continue the struggle.

Many a man is similarly starved out of business. His digestion is impaired. His food does not nourish him, and for lack of strength to carry on the struggle he turns his store over to another.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It restores strength to weak, nervous, run-down men and women.

"About ten years ago I began to be afflicted with stomach trouble, also diarrhoea," writes Mr. Wm. Waters, of Austin, Mo. "In warm weather it grew worse, until it would throw me into a cramping chill. I was troubled so often that I sometimes thought my end had come. Tried many remedies, but they gave only temporary relief. In November, I got Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I got six bottles and took five in succession, then I would wait for a time and take one. Soon I found I had symptoms of the trouble coming back, so I took the sixth bottle and it cured me. I have enjoyed the best of health since, and the credit all belongs to your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I can't express my many thanks to Dr. Pierce for his remedy, for it did so much for me. Write me, and I will tell you more."

"If any doctor the above statement to them, please send me a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets clean the bowels and stimulate the sluggish liver."

Do not Expect Miracles.

If a cold, long neglected, or improperly treated has clutched you by the throat, you cannot shake it loose in a day, but you can stop its progress and in a reasonable time get rid of it altogether. If you use Allen's Lung Balm. There is nothing like this honest remedy for the bronchitis, asthma, and other affections of the air passage.

Mothers.

Who keep their children in good health, should watch for the first symptoms of worms, and remove them with White's Cream Vermifuge. It is the children's best tonic. It gets digestion at work so that their food does them good, and they grow up healthy and strong. 25 cents at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy.—B. Ruppe.

Theodore Roosevelt on "The Presidency."

Before his nomination for the vice presidency Theodore Roosevelt wrote expressly for The Youth's Companion an article on "The Presidency." It will be published in the number for November 6th, this being one of the remaining weekly issues of 1902 sent free from the time of subscription to every new subscriber who at once sends $1.75 for The Companion's 1903 volume. When this article on "The Presidency" was written no one could have foreseen or dreamed even that its author would so soon be called upon to take up the duties of the great office. For this reason what Mr. Roosevelt has to say possesses extraordinary interest, and will be eagerly awaited by persons of all shades of political opinion.

A twenty-eight page prospectus of the 1903 volume of The Youth's Companion and sample copies of the paper will be sent free to any address.

Murderers Receive Stern Justice.

Judge Benjamin S. Baker does not believe in being too easy on brutal murderers. At Albuquerque, Juan Armijo and Estanislado Sals pleaded guilty of murder in the second degree and threw themselves upon the mercy of the court in the hope that they would get off with light sentences. But Judge Baker sentenced the first to ninety-nine years and the other to sixty years in the penitentiary. A dose of justice of that kind imposed upon every murderer in this territory, even if he excuses himself on the count of drunkenness, or pleads guilty to a minor charge of murder, would soon put an end to gun plays and the carrying of stilettos.—New Mexican.

E. H. Bryan, formerly in the employ of the Santa Fe at Coyville, Kan., spent yesterday in the city and left last night for San Marcial, where he will likely enter the employ of the Santa Fe again.

J. W. Records, superintendent of motive power for the Santa Fe Central, has returned to Santa Fe.

After a pleasant visit among Missouri relatives and friends, James Polvy was noticed at his desk in the master mechanic's office this morning.

Masonic Grand Communication

Twenty-Fifth Annual Session at Santa Fe

From the New Mexican.

Organized Masonry took a foothold in New Mexico at the time of the American occupation. A military traveling lodge was organized at Santa Fe as early as 1847 in an Illinois regiment under a dispensation by the grand master of the grand lodge of Missouri. This traveling lodge was known as Hardin Military Traveling lodge. Col. John Halls, the grand master of Missouri, was at that time at Santa Fe with a regiment of Missouri volunteers. According to the records still in existence and which are the property of Montezuma lodge, No. 1, this traveling lodge worked for two years in Santa Fe until the close of the war with Mexico, the withdrawal of the United States volunteers and the establishment of Fort Marcy as a regular army post.

The grand lodge of Missouri, in response to a prayer of several of the members of Hardin Military Traveling lodge which had surrendered its charter, and a number of citizens of Santa Fe, on May 12, 1850, granted a charter to Montezuma lodge, No. 1, which afterwards became Montezuma lodge, No. 1, under the jurisdiction of the grand lodge of New Mexico.

It was ten years afterwards, in 1860, that Bent lodge, No. 204, was chartered at Taos by the grand lodge of Missouri. Five years later it surrendered its charter. Chapman lodge at Las Vegas received its charter in 1866 after several years of effort, which on account of irregularities in the work had been denied before and the name of the lodge ordered stricken from the records of the grand lodge. Aztec lodge at Las Cruces, Kit Carson lodge at Elizabethtown, Cimarron lodge at Cimarron, Silver City lodge at Silver City, and Union lodge at Fort Union were the other New Mexico lodges granted charters under the jurisdiction of the grand lodge of Missouri.

On August 6, 1877, pursuant to call, a convention of delegates from several lodges of the territory met at the hall of Montezuma lodge in Santa Fe to organize a grand lodge of the territory of New Mexico, the following lodges being represented: Aztec, No. 108; Chapman, No. 95; Montezuma, No. 109; and Union, No. 480. On August 7, 1877, the convention elected officers of the grand lodge, William W. Griffin, of Montezuma, No. 1, being chosen grand master. He was installed and the grand lodge of New Mexico was opened in ample form and declared duly organized.

During the session a constitution and by laws were prepared and adopted and on the night of August 10, the first communication of the grand lodge of New Mexico adjourned.

The first annual communication of the grand lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of New Mexico convened at Masonic hall, in Santa Fe, on Monday, January 6, 1879, Grand Master William W. Griffin presiding.

Since that date charters have been granted to twenty-four lodges, three of which have surrendered their charters, on account of taking part in the organization of the grand lodge of Arizona, another, owing to consolidation with another lodge, and the third on account of the abandonment of a mining camp in which it was located. This leaves twenty-one working lodges in the jurisdiction of the grand lodge of New Mexico, with a membership of 1,106.

The following is a list of the grand masters of the grand lodge from its organization in August, 1877, to 1902: 1877 to 1879, William W. Griffin; 1880, William L. Ryerson; 1881, S. B. Newcomb; 1882, Henry L. Waldo; 1883, John B. Wooten; 1884, W. B. Childers; 1885, Cornelius Bennett; 1886, Maximilian Frost; 1887, C. N. Blackwell; 1888 to 1889, W. S. Harroun; 1889, A. H. Moorhouse; 1890, F. H. Kent; 1891, C. H. Dane; 1891, Richard English; 1892, J. H. Kuhn; 1893, C. H. Spierdier; 1894, J. J. Kelly; 1895, James H. Wroth; 1896, Charles Bowmer; 1897, John W. Poe; 1898, R. C. Stewart; 1899, E. E. Day; 1900 to 1901, E. S. Stover; 1901 to 1902, A. H. Harline.

During its existence the grand lodge had but two grand secretaries, one of these was David J. ... steward; F. S. Davis, of Santa Fe, grand junior steward; J. P. McNulty, of Cerrillos, grand sword bearer; A. M. Whitcomb, of Albuquerque, grand Tyler.

LAS VEGAS.

Batch of Interesting Local Notes from a Neighboring Town.

Special Correspondence.

Las Vegas, N. M., Oct. 22.—Cleofas Romero, who was yesterday nominated for sheriff, was taken suddenly sick in the afternoon and is now threatened with typhoid fever.

Precedent 29, East Las Vegas, held the balance of power yesterday at the republican county convention, and it was their solid vote in a block which elected the nominees where there was a contest.

Mrs. Camilla A. de Rodriguez died yesterday of fever and was buried today. She was 60 years of age.

Jose L. Ramirez has recorded the Republican No. 1 mining claim in the Aguilar district.

Margarito Baca, who was sent to the penitentiary at Santa Fe for stabbing a man, died yesterday at the penitentiary. He was from San Miguel and the remains will be shipped there for interment.

Joe Holzman, who has been visiting his relatives and friends here, returned today on the stage to Fort Sumner.

Frank Dearth and bride will leave tonight for Relief, Ohio, where they will make their future home. They will settle down and try country life.

Dr. E. L. Epperson, superintendent of construction of the trolley line, left today for Chicago to look after some business matters. He expects to return in ten days.

M. E. Blake came in from his mines in the Pecos country yesterday and is very enthusiastic about the mining outlook there.

Michael Renahan arrived last night from Barstow, where he, with his brother, John, are working on the railroad and doing well. Mr. Renahan will be remembered as a former citizen of this city. He says his mother and sisters are at San Bernardino, Cal., and are also doing well.

Patrick Crowley is on the sick list today and unable to be on duty at Dick's.

Several young fellows who are employed at the Montezuma hotel at the springs, came down last night for a "time." They picked up a few "lady friends" and began tanking up. Naturally they got noisy and started to own the saloon, which was Mackel's place. They were requested to keep still, but refused and it is claimed one of them struck the elder Mackel in the face. Be this as it may, a row followed in which the ostentatious young fellow fell through one of the windows and screens, and got a good thumping over the head with a gun by the younger Mackel. The matter was compromised today by the fellow who started the row offering to pay for the damage he had done. Such ended the "time" the young fellows thought they were having.

The grim hand of death took as one of its victims this morning one of Las Vegas' most respected, honorable and cherished citizens. The news of the sudden death of Amos C. Schmidt, proprietor of the blacksmith shop and carriage works on Grand avenue, spread from mouth to mouth with unusual rapidity, and universal sorrow was expressed at the untimely taking away of an old friend.

Mr. Schmidt was, apparently, in his usual health this morning and was at work at his shop early. Shortly after 9 o'clock, he complained of a pain in his chest, and after he finished a piece of work in hand, he left the shop to see a doctor, saying he would be back soon. He never came back, but after getting the medicine and while sitting in the chair, gradually life began to fade away. He was laid tenderly on the bed, and expired shortly after 10 o'clock.

A. C. Schmidt was born at Labenkirchen, Germany, 58 years ago. At about the age of 19 he emigrated to this country and settled in Iowa. He began his trade of blacksmithing and followed up the construction of the Santa Fe railroad, arriving in Las Vegas in 1878, where he has since resided. He was married twice, the present widow having been Miss Louise Heyl, of Kansas City. They were married here six years ago last May, no children having been born to the union.

Mr. Schmidt has been a sufferer from asthma and heart trouble, and to the latter is attributed his death. He is known by all the old residents and has a multitude of staunch friends in the city. He possessed many noble qualities which endeared him to the citizens of Las Vegas, and his death is universally mourned. Undertaker Dearth has not yet announced the funeral arrangements.

There were about fifty of the members of the board of trade and representative citizens out last night at the city hall to hear the proposition of Eugene Fluke and Prof. J. G. Halapleus, of Santa Fe, regarding the furnishing of power and light to this city from the water power electric plant they propose to erect on the Pecos river.

President Brown called the meeting to order, and George P. Money acted as secretary. Mr. Fluke stated the proposition to the audience, and was followed by Prof. Halapleus. The gentlemen want a franchise from the city for the erection of the necessary plant and wires on the highways. They ask no taxes, nor any one to take stock. They propose to furnish power and light for anyone who may desire it at a price not to exceed 10 cents per 100 watts, which is just half of the present price. The board of trade, upon motion, endorsed the proposition and the gentlemen will ask for a franchise from the city at the meeting of the council tonight.

James J. Cox and Darby A. Day are up from the Duke city casting their hooks after business.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dick will entertain a number of lady and gentlemen friends at cards next Tuesday night.

Sol Spiegelberg returned this afternoon from his trip to Santa Fe, where he attended to some official business. H. M. Thurston is the new temporary night foreman at the shops.

Mrs. John Hickey, who has been visiting her brother, M. F. Murphy, today returned to Chicago via Denver.

Mrs. Cora Simms, wife of the boiler washer who was scalded to death about three years ago, was brought here today on a stretcher by Sheriff Campbell and taken to the insane asylum. She had been a bit off mentally for several years.

Mrs. D. Burkhalter and family returned yesterday from their extended visit with relatives back east.

Miss Jessie lifed left this afternoon for Albuquerque for a visit with relatives and friends.

Leo Loebe, of Denver, who stopped off here yesterday evening, left today for Albuquerque, where he will take treatment for paralysis, he being paralyzed upon the left side entirely.

Jerry Leahy came down from Raton today to look after some legal matters and talk to a few of the Elks.

Roy Fugate is here from Raton to be examined for total disability as far as railroading is concerned, he being hard of hearing. The Santa Fe surgeon examined him, which was done to enable him to get his insurance.

Tim O'Brien, the insurance jollier, left this afternoon for San Marcial.

P. C. Hoggsett and family left today for Los Angeles, where they will make their future home. Their household goods were shipped yesterday.

Testimony is being taken at the chief justice's chambers in the case of George S. Good & Co. vs. William H. Crawford, a suit brought in Colfax county growing out of the classification of the excavations made in a contract during the building of the Dawson railroad. Good & Co. attached Mr. Crawford's property for a sum of about $2,200, and Mr. Crawford has filed a cross claim in the amount of about $2,300.

CAR OF FINE HORSES.

They Travel in a Finely Equipped, Specially Arranged Car.

A car of fine standard bred horses from the Ellsworth & McNain stables, of Chicago, arrived in the city night before last, and have spent yesterday and today at Trimble's stable resting up after the long journey.

The car has traveled more than 3,100 miles and the horses are in excellent shape.

A special horse car of the Wells-Fargo Express company was used for the shipment.

Horses are afforded as much comfort and as many conveniences in these special designed horse cars, as the tourist receives from the elegantly equipped sleepers and parlor cars. The car measures sixty feet in length, divided into six sections of four stalls each, giving a capacity for twenty-four horses. The stalls are all lined with canvas padding so that there will be no danger of the horse injuring itself. One convenient feature of the systematic arrangement of the interior, is that stalls, feed boxes, etc., are all portable and can be removed or changed whenever desired. The stalls are just wide enough to admit the horse and the padding is arranged in such a manner as to support the horse against the motion of the car.

The doors at the side are fitted with a full screen door, furnishing complete ventilation. The ends and top of the car are also fitted with ventilators and will allow no draught. The water is carried in two large tanks with a capacity of 150 gallons each, in the top of the car.

Every comfort possible is furnished in the cars, and they are undoubtedly a great improvement over the old style express car or box car. Horse fanciers appreciate the value of shipping horses in cars that will not injure the condition of the horse in transit, which has formerly been the case. The horses are in charge of A. C. Donaldson, a horseman of considerable note. There are twenty-three horses in this shipment, the most of them in teams, ranging from 4 to 6 years old. Mr. Donaldson remarked that horses in transit require close attention, in order that they will not lose in weight and spoil their condition for sale. He had only one horse so far on this trip that gave any evidence of breaking up. But this morning the horse seemed much better. This horse was one of the most valuable in the car, and every possible attention is being given him.

The car will leave tonight for the City of Mexico. The shipment is being made to Edward Goudette, a prominent horseman of that city.

The Brick Question.

This morning, C. C. Hall, the strong man of Albuquerque, and C. H. Young, the division superintendent of the Wells-Fargo Express company, met at the depot, and commenced an argument as to the number of car loads of brick used in the walks in and around the Alvarado hotel. Mr. Young was positively certain that it took at least 200 car loads, while the powerfully muscular gentleman laughed at the assertion and declared with emphasis that it took not more than twenty-five car loads. The conversation growing heated, and fearing that Mr. Young would be wiped off the earth by the strong man, a Citizen representative was requested to ascertain the number of car loads. Contractor Anson was found and he figured it at between eighty-five and ninety car loads of brick were used in the walks in and around the Alvarado. Both agreed to submit to the verdict of the contractor, hence the bloodless conversation comes to an end through a third party.

Big Wool Purchase.

Wool buyers and sellers transacted considerable business here this morning. Over 125,000 pounds of wool changed hands and the deals made were very large.

Hon. E. A. Miera, of Nacimiento, sold 60,000 pounds to Vandewort Bros., of Boston.

The Albuquerque oWol Scouring mills bought 25,000 pounds of Elchwald Bros.

J. E. Morris bought 20,000 pounds of the Sandoval wool for A. J. Crawford.

The wool dealers are busy handling the many wagon loads of wool that are being brought into the city.

Will be a Pretty Home.

A residence of rare beauty will soon be built by W. J. Johnson, assistant cashier of the Bank of Commerce, at the corner of Ninth street and Tijeras road. The contract was let yesterday to Wallace Henselens. Architect E. B. Christy drew the plans. The exterior will be of a design different from any of the residences in the city. Broad, roomy verandas, and the exterior plans are of unique architectural beauty. The interior is planned for comfort and convenience, with spacious rooms, halls and staircase which are complete in elegance and style. The residence, when completed, will add to the attractiveness of the west side.

PLEASANT SIGHTSEERS.

They Were Here Last Night, Leaving for the East This Morning.

A special car arrived on No. 7 last evening, carrying a prominent party who stopped over and visited the Alvarado and all its interesting features, especially the Indian curio rooms.

The party were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ellis, of Chicago, the latter the daughter of President E. P. Ripley, of the Santa Fe; Messrs. J. S. Driver, E. D. McDougal and W. H. Merritt.

The party passed through the city several weeks ago on their way to the Grand Canyon and petrified forests of Arizona.

They had a glimpse of the beautiful sights around the Alvarado and promised to stop over on their return. The entire evening was spent in the Indian curio rooms. Curious, Navajo blankets, baskets and pottery were the attractions which held them until a late hour last night.

They expressed much pleasure by having an opportunity to see so valuable a collection of rare articles, and to visit so artistically arranged curio rooms.

The car in which the party traveled was a sight to behold, baskets, pottery, petrified wood and curios of every variety were piled high, which gave it the appearance of a traveling museum.

They departed this morning on No. 2, carrying with them a favorable impression of Albuquerque. They enjoyed their visit to this city as much as they did any part of the interesting points visited.

Indian Murderer to Hang.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Oct. 23.—Arrangements are being made at the state penitentiary for the execution tomorrow of Allen Walking Shield, the Indian murderer recently brought to the prison from Deadwood.

The crime for which Walking Shield, who is a notoriously bad and worthless Indian belonging to the Rosebud reservation, must suffer the death penalty was a dastardly one without any mitigating circumstances whatever.

It was committed last May, the victim being Mrs. Sarah Ghost Dance, an Indian woman. The motive of the crime was the desire of the murderer year-old daughter, of whom he was enamored, Mrs. Ghost Dance and her daughter, Emily, lived alone at an isolated spot on Little White river, on the northern border of the reservation, the husband and father having died some time before. Walking Shield called at the house at 3 o'clock in the morning and awoke the inmates by tapping on the window. The mother arose and asked the unknown what was wanted. The reply of Walking Shield was that he was hungry and wanted to pass the remainder of the night under their roof. The woman, true to the customary Indian hospitality, dressed herself, unlocked the door and had started to walk away when Walking Shield entered the room. Without giving the occupants of the little cabin the slightest warning he shot the mother twice in the back of the head with a double-barreled shotgun which he carried, scattering her brains about the room. He then assaulted the terrified girl and when he left the place he compelled the girl to accompany him. After several hours she succeeded in making her escape. Walking Shield was captured after an exciting chase, in which deputy marshals and other white officers and Indian policemen participated.

Mrs. Fiske's New Play.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 23.—Before noon every seat in the Palast theater had been disposed of for tonight when Mrs. Fiske will give the first presentation of her new play, "Mary of Magdala." The piece is to be one of the most elaborate stage productions of the season, requiring several car loads of special scenery and costumes and an acting company of 100 people. From Milwaukee the piece will be taken to Chicago, and after several weeks' engagement in that city, Mrs. Fiske will begin her annual season at the Manhattan theater, New York.

Dispersal of Belle Meade Stud.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 23.—Today marked the beginning of the end of the famous Belle Meade Stock Farm, the greatest of all the world's nurseries for the running horse, and for more than a century a familiar name among all persons who own or admire fast horses. Before the end of the present week it is expected that the entire stud will have been disposed of. This is in accordance with the decision of General William H. Jackson, who for more than thirty years has been master of the famous establishment. General Jackson has decided to permanently retire from horse breeding because of advancing age and ill health. The sale is being conducted by the Fagin-Tipton company. Altogether there are about 250 head of blooded horses to go under the hammer, including stallions, brood mares, and young stock. The stallions include a number of successful sires of race horses and the dams of many winners in both America and England.

A MULTI-MILLIONAIRE.

Reports from a Mexico Mine Make W. E. Nordieck Very Wealthy.

William E. Nordieck, manager of the western department of the Germania Life Insurance company of New York, with headquarters at Denver, is in the city, coming in from the south. In his mail this morning, Mr. Nordieck received a letter forwarded to him from Denver, giving him the glad tidings that the expert's opinion on his mine down in Mexico was very favorable. In fact makes Mr. Nordieck a multi-millionaire. The expert says that there are $24,000,000 in ore in sight, and in consequence, although the figures appear fabulous, Mr. Nordieck is stepping high today. The gentleman will hasten to Denver tonight, and after a short stay there will return and go to Mexico.

Eddie Zeiger Dangerously Ill.

Louis Zeiger arrived last evening from Kansas City. He was called here on account of the severe illness of his brother, Ed Zeiger, who came to Albuquerque during the fair and was taken sick with typhoid fever. His case is very critical and his relatives and friends are very much alarmed. The young man is stopping with his uncle, Ed Steiner. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zeiger, of El Paso, and his mother is expected to arrive from the Pass city tomorrow morning.

ANOTHER TRAFFIC ALLIANCE.

Rock Island, Illinois Central and Union Pacific Parties to It.

An Omaha dispatch says: According to the general opinion among Omaha railroad men, the Rock Island and the Illinois Central will shortly form a traffic agreement with the Union Pacific whereby the Harriman line will handle the traffic of the two former roads beyond their western terminus. A high Union Pacific official said that there already existed a tacit agreement between his road and the Illinois Central, and he stated that he believed a formal agreement between the roads would be practicable and of benefit to all parties. This kind of agreement has existed between the Union Pacific and the Northwestern for some time and has lately been established between the Harriman line and the Milwaukee.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 24.—Crack marksmen from many parts of the state are taking part in the ninth annual championship shoot of the Kentucky Gun club, in progress at Fountain Ferry Park. Shooting commenced at 9 o'clock this morning and in the first events on the program some excellent scores were made. The tournament will continue through tomorrow.

HE PROSECUTED THE STRIKERS.

In the A. R. U. railroad strike, H. B. Fergusson was employed as extra counsel to help prosecute the strikers. The Las Vegas Optic denies this plain fact. Every railroad man in this territory knows that Mr. Fergusson was so employed. The Citizen has a vivid recollection of that great strike, helping the strikers in every way to the bitter end. The court records of this county prove that Mr. Fergusson was employed to prosecute the strike cases.

The All-Star National players are: Manager and Left Fielder Fred Clarke, Pitchers Jack Chesbro and Jesse Tannehill, Shortstop Hans Wagner and Tommy Leach, of the Pittsburgh champions; Catcher Mike Kahoe, of the St. Louis American; Pitcher "Wild Bill" Donovan, of Brooklyn; First Baseman Jake Beckley, of Cincinnati; Left Fielder Dick Cooley, of Boston, and Second Baseman Jean De Montreville, of Boston.

Topsy Hartzell played left field for the Albuquerque team at the fair one year ago and was a great favorite. A large crowd would go out to see him alone.

Bernhard and Young, of the American, and Jack Chesbro and Tannehill, of the Nationals, are the four greatest pitchers in the world.

A series of games were played in Chicago and neither team can claim to be the winning team so far.

Albuquerque has every reason to feel honored by being recognized by Manager LaJoie in his selection of stopovers on their trip to the coast. Denver will be the only stop between here and Chicago. After the game here the teams will go to El Paso and will be there Sunday and Monday. If the reports circulated by eastern ball players who recently visited El Paso to their own and financial mortification that their plans are likely to be changed.

Leaving El Paso the All-Stars will go to the coast. Many stops will be made west of here so that they will reach San Francisco about December first. The California league season ends December 5th and then the All-Stars will commence a series of games in the different coast cities. From there they will go to Honolulu and return in time for the spring tournament.

That we are to have the honor of entertaining a party composed of the most prominent men in the base ball world should be appreciated by every citizen and we should show our appreciation by a support that will long be remembered by the All-Stars.

Umpire Joe Cantillon, who has won the reputation of being the greatest umpire in the business, according to the opinions of the ball players and fans, will accompany the teams.

The entire party is in charge of Manager LaJoie and telegrams have already been received from him confirming the date of arrival.

BIG ENGINES ORDERED.

Alton to Haul Fifteen Car Passenger Trains to World's Fair.

The Chicago & Alton is preparing for the World's fair. Alton officials have ordered plans drawn for fifty high grade passenger coaches for delivery before the opening of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition and has also placed orders for passenger locomotives for December delivery.

The coaches will be of the largest size, with a seating capacity of 100. Delivery will be secured one year from the date of contract. The Baldwin locomotive works has received the order for locomotives, the first delivery to be two powerful passenger engines, which will be given a thorough trial, preliminary to the placing of an order for twenty locomotives to be used during the World's fair.

Those engines will be the largest in use on roads in the middle west. They will be of the Prairie type, with six cylinder inch driving wheels. These engines are designed to haul fifteen car trains from Chicago to St. Louis without the usual change at Blooming-ton.

If the two engines are satisfactory, an order will be placed for delivery on January 1, 1904.

SAVED HIMSELF.

Nerve and Endurance Saved a Cowboy From Death on Rails.

A telegram from Trinidad to the Denver Republican, says:

Clinging to an air hose beneath a coach on a passenger train going at the rate of forty miles an hour, his foot on the brake beam and his body swinging from side to side in this perilous position for sixteen miles, is the terrible experience of C. C. Hale, a cowboy of Pikes, Texas.

Last night as Colorado & Southern passenger train No. 1, south bound, was pulling out of Folsom, N. M., Hale boarded the trucks beneath the baggage car and rode in this way until the car stopped at Grande. The train, however, made only a brief stop at that point and the cowboy thinking he had time to get off and rest his legs a moment, was knocked down between the cars as the train started.

He was rolled over and over, all the time vainly endeavoring to catch something to pull himself off the ground and prevent his being killed. The baggage and combination cars had almost entirely passed over him when his hands came in contact with the air hose of a coach. He clutched it with a vice-like grip and after several unsuccessful attempts succeeded in throwing his legs over a brake beam. He rode this way, swinging from side to side as the train rounded curves, and nothing but his endurance saved his life. At Mount Dora, sixteen miles distant, the train came to a stop. Hale was almost at the point of exhaustion but succeeded in making his feeble outcry heard by a brakeman, who dragged his bruised body from under the train.

He was placed in a coach and at Clayton was left in the care of the county physician. No bones were broken and his injuries are only bruises by being knocked against the brake beam, to which he clung with his knees.

The Classes of Freight.

No one has ever attempted to enumerate the various kinds of persons carried in passenger cars on a transcontinental railway—such as how many men, women and children; how many whites, negroes, Indians and Chinese; how many natives and foreigners, or how many democrats and republicans.

In the matter of freight, though, the various items carried are frequently tabulated, throwing side lights on the products, industries and wants of widely separated communities. The Santa Fe, for example, during the last fiscal year, carried 2,925,000 tons of agricultural products, 1,100,000 tons of animal products, 3,735,000 tons of mineral products, 1,000,000 tons of lumber, 1,700,000 tons of manufactured articles, 600,000 tons of merchandise and 500,000 tons of miscellaneous stuff. The most important items are in order named: Bituminous coal, wheat, live stock, lumber, stone and sand, merchandise, corn, ores, fruits and vegetables, cement and brick, flour and cotton.

What is dug out of ground equals what is raised on top of it. Animal products are nearly as important as manufactured articles. The least important item is tobacco. The shipments of household goods exceed those of liquors. Agricultural implements are on a par with wagons and carriages.

When you ship anything on the Santa Fe it finally gets into this annual round up.

General Manager H. R. Nickerson, of the Mexican Central, passed through the city last night in his private car, en route from New York to the City of Mexico.

Trains from the north were all late last night. The cause was due to the heavy passenger traffic. Many people are taking advantage of the colonists' rates, which are on sale until the end of the month. No. 1 was decidedly heavy last night, carrying thirteen cars and every one that carried passengers was crowded to the guard rails.

The mail car on No. 7 broke down up in the mountain district and two sections were made up, the first section arriving at 12 and the second not until 2 a. m. No. 1 reached the city at 11:25.

H. S. Van Slyke, live stock agent of the Santa Fe, with headquarters in El Paso, left for Deming, N. M., where he goes to make arrangements for the handling of fifty cars of cattle over the Santa Fe to Colorado.

A dispatch from Austin, Texas, says that while H. C. Ford, general attorney in Texas for the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient railway, was in the city the fore part of this week he made the statement that the reason the road he represents has done no more construction work in the state of Texas was that the line for constructing the line in Mexico is limited. Mexico does not stand any toyfoolery business when granting concessions and, as in all cases of the kind, the Orient road has to be finished by a certain time or the concessions granted to it are forfeited.

Edward Brossette, a mill employe, and Edward Benson, a fireman, both of Topeka, have demonstrated their ability as mechanics by the construction of three gasoline engines of eight, four and one-half-horse power. They are now building a fourth one, having placed the larger of those already constructed in a gasoline launch of the Kaw river and using the four horse power running the machinery in Brossette's work shop. The men built them just during spare hours and they have run successfully from the start.

Several Able Speakers.

Lawrenceburg, Ky., Oct. 24.—What promises to be the most interesting annual meeting in the history of the Eighth congressional district teachers' association was begun here today with a large attendance. The association embraces the counties of Shelby, Spencer, Boyle, Garrard, Anderson and Mercer, and all are fully represented. The two days' program calls for addresses and papers by several educators of note.

The threatened strike of switchmen employed by railroads in the twin cities (Minneapolis and St. Paul) was called off by mass meetings of members of the Switchmen's Union of North America. The conventions decided to adopt the offer of the railroads to grant 50 per cent of the wages of the advance demanded by men. Switchmen will receive 25 cents and foremen 35 cents a day more than heretofore. The wage advance will apply on the entire Great Northern and Northern Pacific systems.

King to Make State Entry.

London, Oct. 24.—King Edward is to make his state entry into London tomorrow, a part of the coronation ceremony postponed because of his majesty's illness. The route is being elaborately decorated and the pageant promises to be one of great brilliance.

NOT ENOUGH ENGINES.

Cars Cannot Be Placed Where They Are Most Needed.

Speaking of the car shortage, the Chicago Chronicle says:

The trouble with the western lines is not so much the lack of cars as it is the lack of proportionate number of locomotives to handle what they have. During the last year and a half there has been an enormous increase in the number of freight cars in use on the roads centering at Chicago. There has been as large an increase in the number of effective locomotives as the builders could turn out, but the motive power men have been outstripped by the car men in the race. It is believed by those conversant with the situation that the orders for locomotives now in the hands of the builders will remedy this condition.

Some anxiety has been felt over
