NEW YORK LETTER.

The Election Next Tuesday—Cost of Living Constantly Increasing.

AUTOMOBILES INTERESTED IN RACE.

New York, November 1.—Next Tuesday votes will be cast and New Yorkers, and the entire country, for all are interested in the result of New York elections, and know whether the Republican State is to drift into socialism, as the Republicans claim, or be gobbled up by trusts, as the Democrats retort. The election is now near enough for the usual biased predictions of victory, and the registration has furnished the prophets a basis for their several claims. The partisan indications are not very clear, as the decrease is about the same in Democratic and Republican strongholds. Where the Democrats find most hope is in the heavy falling off of the registration up the State, in the sections which the Republicans count upon rolling up pluralities to overcome the usual Democratic vote in New York City.

The managers of Bird S. Coler's campaign do not like the idea which the Republicans, even at this late day are industriously spreading through the State that he is a "muzzled" candidate. As a matter of fact Mr. Coler has presented some very important financial arguments in the speeches which he has made, and no one is better prepared to discuss the money question than he, occupying as he does an office in one of the largest banking establishments in Wall street.

Amid the very patent and not altogether pleasurable fact that the cost of living in New York, as elsewhere, has steadily increased during the past two years, much complaint is being made about the habit of both large and small tradesmen raising prices on the slightest pretext. The cause for the increase is often removed, but the prices of the edible continue high. For instance, the tomato crop a year ago was poor, and prices of the canned article were increased. This summer the crop was exceptionally good, but the housewife is still compelled to pay famine prices for the tomatoes. In nearly every article of food it is the same story. Another factor in the increased cost of living here is the higher rents. Notwithstanding the immense amount of building, the demand for houses and desirable apartments is exceptionally great and rents are up in proportion. Many economies must be practiced this winter, if the people of limited means are to get along with any degree of prosperity.

It is plain to be seen that the time is not far distant when Brooklyn will contain more inhabitants than Manhattan. The latter is more and more becoming the workshop of the city. People will do business in Manhattan, but have their homes in Brooklyn, Bronx, Staten Island, Queens and the suburbs of New Jersey. The latter will probably enjoy an immense expansion as a result of the Pennsylvania tunnel scheme. At the present rate of progress the next federal census will show New York to be a city of considerably more than 4,000,000 inhabitants. Lieutenant Governor Woodruff is responsible for the only bon mot of the campaign, and it is a bright one. Claiming that Democrats all over the State are deserting the candidate and platform, Mr. Woodruff says: "At the present rate of desertion Mr. Coler will have good grounds after election to commence suit for abandonment against the Democratic party."

New York is daily becoming more famous for the opportunities opened to young people—and old ones, too—to perfect themselves in certain trades and professions. A new trade school for girls is to be opened in a few days here under the direction of Prof. Mary Woolman, of Columbia university. Free instruction in sewing, drawing, business forms, etc., will be given. Although no leader of Tammany hall ever got on in such a sensational way as did Lewis Nixon, who said that he had to quit to save his self respect, Tammany has just honored him, as it has other leaders of the past, by hanging his portrait larger than life, in a conspicuous place in the wigwag in West Fourteenth street. The portrait is attracting considerable attention and in spite of his retirement, Mr. Nixon seems to be not displeased at the compliment thus paid him.

Another holiday will soon be added to the long list observed here. Sunday, November 9, "German Day," will be celebrated for the first time, when the United German societies of New York comprising more than 100 German organizations, will be represented in Madison Square Garden by 30,000 members of the allied bodies. The day will be celebrated in memory of the German pioneers and of what has been contributed by German-Americans to the progress of the United States.

New York city is a winner in a very important litigation involving millions of dollars of dock property, the title to which is traced back to the Donagan charter of 1686, which granted to the city all of the land between high and low water mark. Justice Stockler has just made two decisions upholding the city's right to water front property that was once under water. The first was denying the application of the Manhattan Ice company for an injunction to restrain the city from erecting a bulkhead on water land that the company claims at the water front between Forty-second and Forty-third streets.

cial district is planned, but this time it is not to be a skyscraper. It will be erected on Cedar street by the Mutual Life Insurance company, next to its tall building there, and in order not to interfere with the light and air of the latter structure it will be only three or four stories high. The new building, which is regarded as a sort of innovation in these days when scarcely anything except skyscrapers are erected in this city, will be a banking house and will be let to Harvey Fisk & Sons.

Much interest is manifested by automobilists here in the proposition for a run to the international exposition at St. Louis in 1904 and also in the projected run next year of 1,000 miles. For the latter the only obstacle seems to be in the finding of a suitable course. A run from here to Chicago, a distance of about 1,200 miles, is being talked of, and a trip to Montreal has been suggested, but the latter will not be taken probably on account of the poor roads and steep grades. There is every evidence here that the prejudice which was so rampant against the "devil" machines a few months ago, is gradually lessened. One reason is that on account of the vigilance of the police reckless driving through the streets is not so common and the running down of pedestrians and children is, consequently, less frequent.

Alabama Synod.

Sheffield, Oct. 31.—The Alabama synod meeting, which will be in session here until next Tuesday, has attracted Presbyterians from all parts of the state. This evening the opening sermon will be preached, followed by the roll call and the election of moderator. The regular business of the meeting, including the discussion of board reports and the consideration of the church work in all its branches, will be begun tomorrow and concluded Monday.

Divorces Granted.

In the district court this morning Virginia Heywood was granted a divorce from her husband, Richard Heywood, on the grounds of desertion and cruelty.

Ella Graves was granted a divorce from Frank E. Graves on the grounds of desertion and cruelty. She was given the control and custody of the minor child.

Friend of McKinley County.

Hon. Thos. Hughes, of the Albuquerque Daily Citizen, is the nominee of the Republicans of Bernalillo and McKinley counties for member of the territorial council. Mr. Hughes has been a member of the territorial legislature for several terms and has always worked hard and faithfully for his constituents and the welfare of the entire territory. He is a true and tried friend of McKinley county, and to his ability and faithful work the people of Gallup can thank themselves that they live in a new county and not obliged to travel 150 miles two or three times a year to transact business at the county seat. In many other ways Mr. Hughes has proved himself a friend of Gallup and McKinley county. Don't forget to give him a vote next Tuesday.—McKinley County Republican.

PIONEER OF PLAINS.

J. N. Irwin Dead—He Freight to New Mexico Years Ago.

J. N. Irwin, of the Irwin Bros. Commission company, died at his home in Kansas City of Bright's disease. He was 65 years old and in the '50s was a freighter, making many trips from Atchison, Kansas, to Salt Lake. Later Irwin and his brother, Dick, held beef and mail contracts with the government and made trips to Denver, Salt Lake and Santa Fe. N. M.

In 1857 Mr. Irwin went into partnership with his brother-in-law and together they started from Atchison with a train of freight wagons bound for Salt Lake City. At Rocky Ridge, Wyo., their train was stopped by soldiers under the command of Gen. Albert Sydney Johnston, then on their way to suppress the Mormon outbreak in Utah. The brothers continued their journey as far as Fort Bridger and turned their stock over to Lexington, Kincaid & Co., sutlers of Salt Lake. They made two other trips with goods to Salt Lake and for more than a year made their home at Salt Lake and managed a store. But they came back in 1860 and for six years were freighters across the plains, making trips to Denver, Salt Lake and Santa Fe.

They afterwards became government mail contractors and contractors for beef supplies for the army at the frontier posts. Later they hauled grain to forts in the Indian Territory and New Mexico. The brother was on the plains continuously from 1853 to 1871.

Which is Which? A couple of opposing candidates for congress were riding along the road during the campaign to meet a joint appointment at a back country seat, and it was dry, hot and dusty. At the foot of a hill they came upon a pleasant, cool-looking house with a woman sitting in the shade. They pulled up at the gate, saluted the lady, and the Democratic candidate said:

"Madam, can we get a drink here?"

"Air you a democrat or a republican?"

"I am a democrat, madam, and my friend here is a republican."

"John," called the woman to someone inside, "there's two gentlemen here that want a drink. Bring out a tin full of liquor and a tumbler of water."

IT WAS HALLOWE'EN.

How the Night Was Spent by the Jokers in Territorial Metropolis.

THINGS MOVED IN ALL DIRECTIONS.

Hallowe'en, with all its agreeable and disagreeable features, has passed, but the effects are still with us, many of which were not visible.

Regular and irregular police were in evidence on all streets, but they did not molest the crowds of masqueraders unless property was being destroyed.

Many signs have been taken from their usual places and placed in front of another's store, bicycle racks adorn telegraph poles, and boxes, tin cans and all kinds of rubbish are arranged in an artistic manner throughout the street.

For Hallowe'en the night was very quiet, many crowds were busy throwing corn, carrying away gates and obstructing porches, but they did not get unruly.

A band of some fifteen young men seemed to cherish the idea of terrifying the peaceful citizen, who remained within doors, by mysterious and blood-curdling Indian war dances. The whoops and yells were enough to frighten the most composed and fearless; but fortunately they traveled fast and these serenades were of short duration.

Late in the evening a bunch had delivered a large wagon loaded with boxes to a prominent place, and were running down the street like cannon balls, when they ran into another bunch of fellows, who made a grab for the runners. Supposing they were cops, there was a grand scattering. One of the favorites was captured and they returned to his rescue. They found on returning that the supposed cops were only another gang of celebrators and, well they had to be sociable and pay for the drinks.

There is many an angry man in our land this morning, who is mourning or otherwise for his departed sign, gate or porch which was spirited away in the night.

A crowd of small boys were caught pushing over a small shed before the officer who arrived on the scene could prevent it, but the fate of living in a small place was upon them, and they were recognized. The officer notified them that if the building was not replaced by tomorrow they would all be arrested. He stole back around that section in about a half hour and found them working and sweating, as if they were getting 50 cents an hour, replacing the building. In an hour it was in the same condition as before its tumbling experience.

A joke on one of the ever alert officers is always enjoyed by the boys. A gay bunch were being shadowed by a fly cop; they stopped him and quickly stretched a wire; hanging doors and and yelling down the street they flew, the cop made a dash after them. He hit the wire, and saying many things that were far from celestial, the air was full of blue streaks in his vicinity. The celebrating lasted until the wee small hours, when the evil spirits held an open air meeting and told of the experiences and doings of the night.

HALLOWE'EN SOCIALS.

Miss Berth Loebs, a charming and popular young society lady, entertained her friends in a most delightful manner at Miss Heimbeck's studio in the Commercial club building last night. As a Hallowe'en function it was complete in all its appointments. The hall was beautifully illuminated from the suspended Chinese lanterns and weird and ghostly jack-o-lanterns. Mrs. Rose Berry, clad in garments most befitting to witches, told the fortunes of the merry and gay Hallowe'eners. Dancing, music and a general good time produced a gay and mirthful atmosphere as the hours slipped by. Dainty refreshments and punch were served. As the hour drew near to 12 when the ghosts and witches play hither and thither, the gay party wended their way homeward, making many a window rattle with corn, gates were carried from the old gate post, and it was at a very late hour when all the merry masqueraders were dreaming peaceful dreams of an enjoyable Hallowe'en.

Ye wryches bydde thes attende ye froyde of gobylns on Hallow eve. Clad thyselfe in thes garbe of a ghost and enteringe thes realms of departed apyryts whysper in thes care of guardyan of gateway thes words: "Myste'ry and Death" thou wylt gayn admittance."

In response to the above summons twenty-five white clad goblins assembled at the Gold Avenue hotel last evening, the guests of Misses Coral and Ella Clyce. In the dim, flickering light of candles the ghostly shades greeted each other. Branches of autumn leaves artistically arranged gave a woody appearance to the rooms where music, games and dancing kept the spooks in a high state of glee till after the magic hour of midnight. In a secluded alcove a prophetic foretold the future to inquisitive spirits. A most enjoyable feature was the cutting of the great cake, at the banquet table, containing twenty magic gifts of fortune.

A delightful social event was the Hallowe'en social given by the Misses Morehead at their residence on South Broadway last evening. A large number of their friends were present and a most pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

Charles O. Hopping entertained a number of his friends at his home at 700 South Arno street, last evening. A very delightful evening was enjoyed by all those present.

Played Listless Game.

It was a generally disgusted crowd that returned from the ball grounds yesterday afternoon after witnessing the alleged contest between the All-National and All-Americans team. The game was listless and of little interest.—New Mexican.

The Albuquerque guards will not drill Tuesday night on account of their hall being used for voting.

The New Time Card.

The Topeka State Journal in commenting on the new fall and winter time card, says:

Many of the important changes mentioned in the circular are of interest to traveling men and of course it is part of the business of railroad men to be interested in them all. There are a few which will be news to the general public.

For one thing the Santa Fe has fixed its schedule so that California tourists can stop over at Albuquerque long enough to inspect the new Alvarado hotel, with its wonderful collection of Indian curios, and its Indian village. The through trains for the coast will make the following stops at Albuquerque:

No. 1, arrive at Albuquerque 7:15 p. m., leave 8:15 p. m.
No. 2, arrive Albuquerque 10:40 a. m., leave 11:00 a. m.
No. 7, arrive Albuquerque 10:— p. m., leave 11:45 p. m.
No. 4, arrive Albuquerque 11:59 p. m., leave 12:09 a. m.
No. 8, arrive Albuquerque 6:45 p. m., leave 7:30 p. m.

The schedule for the daily California limited for important points is announced as follows:

LOST A MILLION DOLLARS.

Reading Railway Suffers from the Coal Strike.

The September statement of earnings of the Reading Railway company and of the Reading Coal and Iron company combined shows a gross decrease of $2,645,006, compared with 1901. The coal and iron company receipts for the month were only $115,316, against $2,304,213 a year ago. The net loss was $1,069,337.

This is the most striking illustration of the loss of profits by the coal carrying roads since the strike began. In the months of July, August and September, the Reading companies lost in gross $7,323,903. Of this amount the coal company was responsible for a reduction of about $6,000,000. The net increase for the same period was $2,427,195.

It is estimated that with the May and June losses and those of the month the Reading earnings have contracted in the half year approximately $10,000,000.

BUYS THE CHENEY STOCK.

Santa Fe Owners of Frisco Stock Close Out Holdings.

The following statement was issued from the office of the St. Louis and San Francisco in New York Friday:

B. F. Yoakum and James Campbell, of St. Louis, have purchased the St. Louis & San Francisco holdings of the trustees of the Cheney estate of Boston. B. F. Cheney, who is one of the trustees, retains his personal holdings, which are large.

Neither Mr. Yoakum, who is president of the company, nor Mr. Campbell would discuss tonight the significance of the sale of the Cheney stock.

CHANGE THE SITE.

Edward Wilder Gives His Opinion About Kansas City Depot. The Kansas City Journal quotes Edward Wilder, treasurer of the Santa Fe, as giving the following opinion about the proposed Kansas City depot.

"I believe that there will be a new depot, but just when and where are still rather problematical. They seem to be getting into quite a snarl about it. The Santa Fe wants a new depot, but I am not able to say what they would prefer in the way of a site. It seems to me personally that this site would certainly have to be abandoned. The space here is altogether too limited. The tracks are getting all snarled up now. They ought to have a place where the passenger and freight tracks would not have to cross each other. You see, there are a number of freight trains going along here right now. It seems to me that out on the belt some where would be the natural place. Then they could have the passenger business all clear of the freight tracks and could bring all the freight business in this way. Now, understand, this is not official, but that is the way the matter appears to me."

RAILROAD NOTES.

Santa Fe Architect Charles F. Whitteley arrived from the west this morning.

The railroad well at Chaves is down 300 feet and a good body of water has been tapped.

The laborers in the Topeka store house have received a raise. They were getting $1.25 a day, but are now getting $1.40.

Judge Henry L. Waldo, solicitor of the Santa Fe railway for New Mexico, visited Santa Fe during the past week on legal business.

The Frisco completed the laying of rails into Marshall, Okla., Friday night and operated the first train into that city on the Denver, Enid & Gulf extension.

J. T. McLaughlin, of Albuquerque, a former county commissioner of Santa Fe county, and now treasurer of the Santa Fe Central railway, was at Santa Fe on business.

The Santa Fe is laying a pipe line from a Spring to Manuelito. The line will be about four miles long and when completed will give all the water they need for engine purposes. The water is of the finest quality.

Frank S. Gannon, third vice president of the Southern railway, has tendered his resignation to the company. Mr. Gannon's resignation was filed some time ago, when he started on a trip to the Pacific coast.

The Gallup Republican says: The first time in the history of the Santa Fe Pacific railroad she paid taxes on her road bed was in the year 1901. This is the direct efforts of Mr. Rodey and the Republicans of McKinley county.

Senator W. H. Andrews, of Sierra county, republican candidate for the council from Socorro and Sierra counties, and president of the Albuquerque Eastern and Santa Fe Central railways, left for the south and will vote tomorrow at Hillsboro.

George W. Andrews, former traveling passenger agent of the Rock Island at Fort Worth, later representing the company at Colorado Springs as agent, has just been appointed traveling passenger agent of the Pacific Coast company, with headquarters at Seattle, Wash.

President Cassatt and the officers of the Pennsylvania have completed the budget for 1903 and it comprehends the expenditure of $18,000,000 for betterments, exclusive of the work to be done on the proposed New York terminal. A large portion of this sum will be spent in track elevation and in track improvements.

S. T. Park, late division master mechanic of the Southern California division of the Santa Fe, with headquarters in San Bernardino, is now traveling for the Chicago Steel company. He has his headquarters in the "windy city," and has several states in his territory. His wife and child are in Washington, D. C., visiting with relatives.

W. H. Cooley, superintendent of the Santa Fe water service west of Albuquerque has resigned. Mr. Cooley has had headquarters in Winslow and has been in the service for some time. He is well known and popular from Albuquerque west. The position vacated by Mr. Cooley goes to D. A. Shope, superintendent of bridges and buildings, with headquarters at Winslow.

G. T. Nicholson, passenger traffic manager of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, sends a postal card to The Citizen, stating that the daily service of the California limited will be resumed Sunday, November 16. "As the new time card is not ready, exact figures cannot be given. Following is approximate schedule: No. 3 west leave Kansas City 8:45 a. m., Monday; arrive Los Angeles 2:10 p. m., arrive

San Diego 6:20 p. m., arrive San Francisco 11:10 p. m. on Wednesday. And on the same time for each and every other day during the week. The east bound daily schedule will be about as at present."</

RHEUMATISM

ACUTE AND CHRONIC, MUSCULAR, MERCURIAL, ARTICULAR AND INFLAMMATORY.

Some people have been suffering from Rheumatism so long that they can scarcely remember the time when they were entirely free from an ache or pain, and have long since forgotten the joys of a painless existence. They are at the mercy of every ill wind, and their misery is aggravated by exposure to cold or sudden changes in the temperature. They become walking barometers and most accurate in weather predictions, the increasing pains in muscles and joints foretelling the approaching storm or the coming of bad weather. It is from these constant sufferers that the great army of rheumatic cripples is recruited. Their bodies are worn out by the incessant pains and the joints become so stiffened and bent that they are at last compelled to give up or hobble about on crutches.

Nobody ever outlived Rheumatism; the disease never loosens its grip or leaves of its own accord, but must be driven out by intelligent and persistent treatment through the blood, for Rheumatism of every variety and form is caused by an over acid condition of the blood, and the deposit in muscles, joints and nerves of corrosive poisons and gritty particles, and it is these irritating substances that produce the inflammation, swelling and pains, which last as long as the blood remains in this sour and acid state.

To cure Rheumatism permanently the blood must be purified and invigorated, and no other remedy does this so well or so promptly as S. S. S. It refreshes and restores to the thin acid-sustaining properties. And when strong, rich blood is again circulating through the body the acid poisons and irritating matter are washed out of the muscles and joints, and the pains at once cease and Rheumatism is a thing of the past. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable medicine and does not derange the stomach like the strong mineral remedies, but builds up the general health, increases the appetite and tones up the digestion.

Through our Medical Department the pain-racked, despondent Rheumatic sufferer will receive helpful advice from Physicians of experience and skill without charge. Write us fully about your case.

Smelter Furnace Started—Rishworth Injured—Other Notes.

From the Register.

Mrs. Richard Green received the sad news, a few days ago, that her mother is quite sick and that, on account of her great age, there is little hope of her recovery.

President Thomas Brown and Secretary S. E. Maitland, of the Smelter company, were here from Trinidad, Pennsylvania, the first of the week, to see the smelter start up. Mr. Maitland returned Monday evening. Mr. Brown remaining for a couple of weeks to look after business interests here.

V. S. Rishworth was quite badly injured last week in a mixup with his fine driving team. He went into the stable between the horses to water them and in some way one of them was startled and jumped against him throwing him and the bucket against the other horse. This started them both to jumping and kicking, and when William got out of the way he found that his legs were injured so that he would have to go on crutches for a short time.

The copper furnace at the smelter started up on Monday morning and everything is now running smoothly. In walking through the works we noticed that the yard is well filled with ore, and Superintendent Hyde informed us that the lead furnace would be started as soon as it can be made ready. He also stated that the outlook is good and that, from present appearances, they will be able to run steadily from now on. On being asked as to the amount of ore being received he said: "The amount of custom ore coming in is fairly good and we are shipping some copper ore from our mine on the Pecos, and this output will increase as the work advances." In this connection he stated that they are in the market for all the ore they can get of a grade that will pay for treatment and give the miner a profit, either copper or lead. This should induce the people who have small mines, which have been idle for years, to work them again and sell the ore to the company, thus making a profit for themselves and increasing the activity of the camp.

INDIAN SCHOOL NOTES.

Colonel Tinker, a government inspector, spent the past two weeks inspecting the various parts of the school. He started for the Navajo reservation last evening. His wife remains at the Alvarado hotel during his absence.

Superintendent Collins is entertaining his mother and sister, Mrs. Smith, from Laguna, N. M., is also a guest of Superintendent and Mrs. Collins.

One of the most pleasant events of the season took place last evening when Superintendent and Mrs. Collins entertained the employees of the school. The entertainment was in the form of a Halloween party and all seemed to enjoy themselves very much.

The diphtheria epidemic has left us and we have not had a case for two weeks.

MANIFESTS UNNECESSARY.

Mexican Law Personal Articles May Go into the Free Zone.

The law which was passed by the Mexican congress last May went into effect November 1 relative to importation of articles into the free zone. Under it any person may take personal articles not to exceed $10 in value without having a manifest by simply going to the custom house and paying duty upon the goods.

LAS VEGAS LACONICS.

Short Paragraphs from the Capital of San Miguel County.

Special Correspondence.

Las Vegas, N. M., Oct. 31.—The Halloween party given by the Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church to the Epworth league of the Baptist church last night in the Sunday school room of the Presbyterian church was one of the most notable social events of that nature which has been given for some time. There was a large crowd out to partake of the hospitality and enjoy the merriment.

The room was decorated with pumpkins, cabbages, corn and jack-o'-lanterns and Miss Verky added to the weirdness by reciting some "spooky" pieces. The crowd hopped about floating apples, entered guessing contests, threw hooks for bits in the fish pond, that being the way partners were chosen for the refreshments, which were apples, nuts and popcorn.

It was late when the fun makers left for home and great credit is deserved by those who had the social in charge. E. G. Magruder is here from Paris, Mo., and will take a position at Goodall's drug store the first of the month. Waite Davis, who is the present clerk, will leave for Guadalupe county, where he will take up a homestead and engage in other business.

C. A. Shaler and H. H. Hartgerink, the two gentlemen who have been here from Waupep, Wis., trying to make some deal on the Montoya-Macates mining property, left today for Chicago, having been unsuccessful in bringing about a deal. The gentlemen offered $100 a month for the privilege of making investigations on the claims, finding out the water supply, etc., but the local parties who control the claims did not care to do business on that plan.

Mrs. H. S. Van Patten entertained a number of friends last night at bridge whist. Refreshments were served and a pleasant evening was spent by the fortunate ones present. Bridge is a new game for the city, but is very popular in England and the east.

R. C. Rankin left this afternoon for Lawrence, Kas., where he goes to bury a brother, who died a few months ago in the Philippines.

Mrs. J. C. Montgomery, who came here with her two children a year ago from Chanute, Kas., died last evening at 5 o'clock of tuberculosis. She had a sister with her during her last hours. Her husband has been notified and the remains will be shipped to her former home at Chanute.

Judgment rendered on the verdict of the jury in the case of Jones vs. Chas. Springer, in favor of defendants. This case was tried in November, 1901, to recover $75,000 for legal services performed by A. A. Jones in the Dawson case and the jury decided he was not entitled to anything.

Manuel Manzanarez, of Puerto Rico; Severino Baca, of Sapello, and Primito Escudero, of Las Vegas, came in yesterday on No. 2 from a campaign tour in the interest of the republican ticket.

Amos Kline and wife returned last evening from their extended trip at Tyre City, N. Y. Amos says he put on twenty pounds while away, but twenty pounds added to a man of his size means but little.

Charles Springer went up to Dawson last night, where he will attend the sale of the Horeeshoe pasture, which will be made by W. E. Gortner as commissioner. The sale is made in a partition suit of the pasture, which is a large one, and Mr. Springer has considerable interest in it.

Arthur Hoard, a creamery man from Fort Atkinson, and a believer in advertising to the extent of about $80,000 a year, who has been here with his wife for the past two weeks, left today for El Paso. He is out west for his wife's health.

Sister Sabina, the mother superior in charge at the sanitarium, will leave Sunday for Leavenworth, Kas., where she will remain. Sister Serina will be in charge after her departure.

LAS VEGAS.

Special Correspondence.

Las Vegas, N. M., Nov. 2.—There were safe blowers in town Friday night, and the safe in the brick air-chambered vault of Browne, Manzanarez & Co. bears witness to their skill. The job was certainly done by professionals, and there must have been at least three in the gang. They got nothing for their trouble, and if they had gained entrance to the safe they would have gotten only a small amount of change, some bills receivable and a few papers which would have availed them nothing.

Entrance was gained some time during the night by removing one of the panes of glass high up on the side of the rear wool house, they standing on a wagon to reach the window. Only one glass was removed, it being large enough to admit a man's body. They next drew out the staple in the iron covered fireproof door which leads from the wool house to the building proper, and then raised the glass window in the rear private office, admitting them to the rear of the brick vault. They had previously broken into the Las Vegas carriage works and taken some crowbars and other tools which they left behind. They brought in a large iron shaft on which were a couple of big cog wheels, which was used as a battering ram against the brick vault. Picks, hatchets and other instruments were used against the walls until an entrance large enough for a man to get his body through was made in the fire brick wall with aid of chamber. Their next move was to lift the heavy safety deposit iron case off the safe and put it on the floor. Then they took liquid nitro-glycerine, which was banked in with soap, making cups around the door, to which was attached a long fuse. The shot took off the thin steel veneer of the front door, blowing off the combination attachment and knobs. A hole was drilled in the top and a second charge set off, which sprung the door and wrecked the safe, but which did not open the door. Evidently they ran out of charges then, or else were frightened away, as they were unsuccessful in getting to the inside of the safe, which was a jail burglar proof about five feet high. The shots destroyed the safe's usefulness entirely and damaged some of the books, the entire damage being about $700.

No one heard the shots and there is absolutely no clue.

It is the general sentiment around town that Delegate Rodey's speech last night was next to unanswerable by the democrats. He straddled nothing but was frank and open on all questions. He was kind to his opponent, but showed explicitly that Mr. Ferguson had presented three bills to congress for the location of a post at Albuquerque, in addition to which he helped Rodey on his bill. If Ferguson presented three bills and Mr. Rodey one, who did the most work for the post going to Albuquerque? It is Hobson's choice, so vote for statehood, Mr. Rodey.

Delegate B. S. Rodey and W. E. Martin, his popular interpreter, accompanied by Hons. Charles A. J. Spess and J. S. Duncan, on the belated No. 1 this afternoon for San Miguel, where they held a big meeting last night.

Yesterday a large boy roped young Browne, and in falling he struck his elbow on a rock, snapping it. This sport is too rough for even young Americans, and should be forbidden at school, where it is practiced daily.

The Halloween social Friday night, given by the young men of the Normal to the young ladies and the faculty, was a most pronounced success. The mandolin club furnished music and ping pong and crockets furnished amusements. The hall was decorated

Pretty Children

"We have three children. Before the birth of the last one my wife used four bottles of MOTHER'S FRIEND. If you had the pictures of our children, you could see at a glance that the last one is healthiest, prettiest and finest-looking of them all. My wife thinks MOTHER'S FRIEND is the greatest and grandest remedy in the world for expectant mothers."—Written by a Kentucky Attorney-at-Law.

MOTHER'S FRIEND prevents nine-tenths of the suffering incident to childbirth. The coming mother's disposition and temper remain unruffled throughout the ordeal, because this relaxing, penetrating liniment relieves the usual distress. A good-natured mother is pretty sure to have a good-natured child. The patient is kept in a strong, healthy condition, which the child also inherits. MOTHER'S FRIEND takes a wife through the crisis quickly and almost painlessly. It assists in her rapid recovery, and wards off the dangers that so often follow delivery.

SWIFT CANINES.

En Route to the St. Louis Coursing Meeting.

A number of running dogs passed through the city Saturday night on their way to St. Louis to contest for the American Waterloo cup, which is under supervision of the American coursing board.

The races begin on the 8th of November, which will give the dogs several days rest before the contest.

The dogs were taken from the train here and exercised up and down the platform.

Among those that have a national reputation were Great Sacramento Blvd., twice winner of the John Grace cup, owned by Ed Walsh, of Sacramento; Rural Artist and Roman Athlete, both with good records, owned by J. H. Rosetter, of San Francisco; Aolis, a runner with many victories, owned by Geo. Malcolm, of San Francisco, who accompanied by the party on the trip; Black Coon, Pat Malarkey, Cloud Burst and Charlemagne Trout, owned by John Charlton, of San Francisco.

The dogs were perfect beauties and for athletic qualifications they were perfect. Their muscles on the legs were prominent and hard as rocks. Great care is exercised in the shipment that they will not lose for the contest.

Considerable interest is being taken by dog fanciers in the coming event, as the entries are from good kennels and the Waterloo cup is greatly desired by all the owners of fast dogs.

Believes in Expansion.

A few days ago Judge A. B. Fall, with Governor Otero and W. A. Hawkins, appeared before a Silver City audience. Both Messrs. Fall and Hawkins are candidates for the legislative council. The following extract of Judge Fall's speech will prove interesting reading:

Mr. Chairman, Ladies, Gentlemen and Fellow Citizens of Grant County:—I have come before you often in the past as a county, and have asked votes of democrats. Heretofore I have stood flat-footed upon the democratic platform. I was born a democrat. I was born in the great state of Kentucky. I knew nothing but democracy from my cradle to the time I cast my first vote. As I have grown older, fellow citizens, I have come to believe that partisanship is not so much. I am not a Wellington republican—I am a John T.

Morgan democrat. I believe in the greatness of this country. I am not for Mr. Bryan, and I believe that Theodore Roosevelt is one of the greatest men this country has ever produced. (Applause.) I believe in expansion and the retention of the Philippines. If expansion is not democratic doctrine, then Thomas Jefferson was not a democrat. If expansion was not democratic, what are we doing here in New Mexico today, and why is this country not the original thirteen colonies? The democratic party has invariably favored expansion up until Mr. Bryan nearly defeated it. I say that I am in favor of expansion; I am in favor of the retention of the Philippines and the building of the Nicaragua canal.

Honest old Dave Culbertson, upon being asked what he thought of this question of expansion and retention replied: "Why, darn it, we've already expended it!"

The people of the United States realize that we have already expended. Who is the democrat that, if Mr. Dewey had sailed away from Manila, would have been willing to have born the shame and disgrace of taking down that flag where it had once been planted? (Applause.)

The time is coming when we need a great deal less partisanship and a little more statesmanship. If being an expansionist makes me a republican, then I am a republican. I come before you not asking your votes as a republican or democrat, except in so far as statehood is concerned. Elect me, if you will, and I will discharge my duties as heretofore.

JOSE VIDAL MORA. VISITS LAKE AVALON.

Delegate Rodey Makes a Brief Inspection of the Irrigation System.

During his visit here last week, Delegate Rodey, in company with F. G. Tracy, general manager of the Pecos Irrigation company; E. B. Homan, of Nogal, republican legislative candidate, and L. O. Fullen, made a trip to Lake Avalon for an inspection of the irrigation reservoir, returning by the way of the Pecos river flume. This being the first opportunity Delegate Rodey has ever had to acquaint himself with the irrigation facilities of the valley, he was anxious to give as much time to them as possible.

Manager Tracy pointed out the features and explained the important points of the system, and the impression made upon Mr. Rodey was one calling forth expressions of surprise of the magnitude and admiration for the completeness and benefit of this system. Irrigation is now one of the chief public questions before the American people and congress, and it is important that New Mexico's delegate in congress should have intimate knowledge of the present systems of the territory and the possibilities offered for further works. The increased permanency to the system by reason of the new aqueduct soon to be built was outlined to Mr. Rodey and the immensity of the structure portrayed.

The delegate counted his trip to Lake Avalon a pleasant and very instructive one, and from his visit New Mexico will be given increased prominence in irrigation matters.—Carlsbad Argus.

THE CLIFFORD CASE.

Called This Morning and Continued Until 4 O'Clock This Afternoon.

The preliminary hearing of the case of William Clifford, charged with murder in the third degree, the result of the death of Leonard Dunning, who was run over by a carriage driven by Clifford, was called this morning, having been postponed from last Thursday.

The complaining witness, H. L. Dunning, asked to have the case continued from last Thursday until this morning, but he failed to appear and the case was set for 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Two witnesses for the defendant, who had made special arrangements to appear this morning, gave their testimony, as it would be impossible for them to appear this afternoon.

S. C. Berry, who was one of the occupants of the carriage at the time it passed over the boy, stated that he did not know they had run over anyone until told of it afterward, and that they were going no faster than other carriages which were coming and going. It seemed as if they were in a block and all were traveling at about the same speed. He said he noticed the carriage slow up, but supposed there was a jam of wagons. He stated that he was coming to the city and had seen the boy run in front of the horses, knocked down and run over. He stated that the horses were not running, but on the trot, and that the boy dashed out of the gate and ran right into the horses; that it would have been impossible for any driver to have pulled up the horses and avoided the accident. He said that it was a dangerous place and the wagons which were going and coming formed a jam there. He saw the boy get up and run into the house, but as to whether there was anyone at the gate or on the porch he was not certain.

The hearing of the case will be continued this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

A. M. Bergere, one of Santa Fe county's staunch republicans, is in the city. The city school board will meet tonight at the high school building.

Attorney John H. Stingle left last night for Belen. He will return tonight.

Santa Fe Watch Inspector S. T. Vann has gone south on a watch inspecting tour.

The Citizen acknowledges complimentary tickets to the Elks' street fair at El Paso, November 10 to 15.

F. H. Huey and C. D. Richardson, two bright young men of Kingman, Kansas, arrived Saturday night and expect to locate permanently in Albuquerque.

DISTRICT COURT.

This morning the case of Credad Aramijo de Baca et al vs. Adolph Harach was called for trial and plaintiff dismissed the bill of complaint, a stipulation being entered into that there should be no liability on the bond. The case has been pending for more than ten years, and involved a controversy over the right to the exclusive use of the word "Coyote" as a trade mark.

The case of the Colorado National Bank vs. Jesus M. Castillo, administrator, was heard upon motion, and plaintiff required to proceed and close all proofs within ninety days.

In Switzer, Pembroke & Co. vs. Loser & Lewinson, the plaintiff's attachment was dismissed.

In the case of Rosenwald Bros. vs. Santos Ortiz an order was made that defendant show cause why a receiver should not be appointed pending foreclosure of a chattel mortgage.

Safe Robbers Captured.

Ben Williams, special agent for the Santa Fe with headquarters at La Junta, arrived from the west last night on passenger train No. 8 and is laying over in the city on account of the delayed trains. Mr. Williams is en route from San Francisco to Canon City, Colo., and has with him one W. E. Burnham, who is suspected of having robbed a safe at Canon City of $300. The offense was committed last August and Burnham made good his escape until just lately, when he was located at San Francisco by Mr. Williams. This is another of Mr. Williams' good catches.

HON. BEN. W. BIBO.

A Few Words About the Newly Elected Assessor of Valencia County.

Hon. Ben. W. Bibb, the newly elected assessor of Valencia county, is widely known as a genial, intelligent and broad-minded citizen. Mr. Bibb came first to New Mexico in 1880 and located in Albuquerque. Later on he became a member of the S. Bibb Mercantile company, which has four immense stores and does probably the best business in the county.

Ben. W. Bibb received his education in the university of Cologne, Germany, and graduated there with great honors. Mr. Bibb speaks fluently five or six different languages, and is considered as

PAIN'S Celery Compound

Makes Permanent Cures in Chronic and Complicated Cases of Rheumatism

IT GIVES NEW LIFE TO HELPLESS AND CRIPPLED MEN AND WOMEN.

Professor Edward E. Phelps, M.D., L.L.D., has given to his profession a positive and permanent cure for all forms of rheumatism from which so many suffer in the autumn season. To the rheumatic, this truth should prove encouraging and comforting. Men and women suffering intense agonies from a disease that frequently stiffens the joints, cripples the limbs and renders its victims quite helpless, can be restored to activity, vigor and health, if Paine's Celery Compound be used for a few weeks. There is every reason why sufferers should pin their faith to this best of medicines. Your friends and neighbors have used it with success; the honest physician is prescribing it every day in cases where all other means have failed, and they are delighted with the happy results. Why hesitate, or doubt the powers, virtue and efficacy of the medicine that is curing thousands today? It is your only hope; your safety and life depend upon its use. Lissie Pierce, Folger, Tenn., once helpless and in a critical condition from rheumatism, writes thus:

"I had rheumatism so bad that I could not walk, and could not bear to have my legs moved; I often thought the disease would kill me. I commenced taking Paine's Celery Compound; I used two bottles and have not had the slightest symptoms of rheumatism since. I wish I could tell the whole world the good your medicine has done me. My mother, who had rheumatism for years, was cured by Paine's Celery Compound after using a few bottles. She can run now like a child and says she feels ten years younger. I could tell you of a dozen or more people who were cured by Paine's Celery Compound."

one of the best musicians of this territory. Besides his artistic and classical attainments B. W. Bibb possesses unquestioned commercial ability. His name connected with the S. Bibb firm is a guarantee of honest dealings. Ben has hosts of friends and is perhaps the most popular man west of Albuquerque. In choosing him for their assessor the citizens of Valencia county showed their appreciation to the manifold qualities of the gentlemen and meant to reward him for what he has done in the past for the party. The great number of votes cast for Ben. W. Bibb is a compliment to the gentleman, and all his friends rejoice in his success. The people of Valencia county can be proud of having as one of their officers one of the foremost men of this territory—a man who would do honor to a ticket in any great city of the union.

APACHES SUFFERING.

Through Their Own Doings as They are Too Lazy to Work.

Sergeant A. G. Penn passed through the city this morning on his way from the sub-agency, Apache reservation, Arizona, to Washington, D. C. He says that the Apaches are on the verge of starvation, that back in the hills they are attempting to subsist on cactus in its natural state. This in spite of the fact that the government issues them rations every ten days. These rations are about two-thirds that are issued to a soldier. Sergeant Penn says that the Indians are suffering simply because they are so shiftless, lazy and improvident. The range is good and there is plenty game. There is no more reason that they should suffer than any time in the past. They are too lazy to hunt, sit down, gamble and the government to feed them. If the issuing of beef is discontinued Sergeant Penn thinks there will be trouble.

Bronco Busting a Pastime.

The newshyos, with their ever active minds, have hit upon a new idea. Bronco busting is the new issue which occupies the gray matter of their cranium. If a new thought does not strike them at least once a week they are barred from the organization. A club with a lunch department and many social features was their long suit for a while, but those newshyos are especially ambitious and must have something new that is interesting and fascinating. They gave their first exhibition of daredevil riding on Gold avenue Monday night. Each newshyos must display his ability to ride the vicious, pitching and outlaw broncos which are used by the carriers in delivering The Daily Citizen to the intelligent reading public of Albuquerque.

What will be the next move of this active body is beyond our ability to say.

F. Dunlap is in the city from Winslow.

James Wilson, of the United States navy, is spending a few days in the city studying conditions on land.

SAN MIGUEL ELECTION.

Our Regular Correspondent Gives Returns Up Till Yesterday Afternoon.

Special Correspondence.

Las Vegas, N. M., Nov. 5.—The indications are at the time of making this letter, from the count that has so far been made of the precincts, twenty-five of them that the entire republican ticket will be elected from the flag down, but with reduced majorities. The fusion ticket has carried a number of precincts, and some of the largest precincts are yet to be heard from and it will be impossible to get an exact count before some time tomorrow. Rodey will get the county by an increased majority, his heavy running everywhere except in East Las Vegas being one of the surprises. It looks now like he will carry the county by 325 away from, though this may be cut down a few when some of the larger fusion precincts get their returns in. The election of the republican legislative ticket seems almost positive, and while the fusionists are making claims for a large part of the county ticket, the republican managers concede nothing and expect to pull the majority of the ticket through.

Guadalupe county will give Spiess and Duncan a majority of 550, and Rodey 500, so a telegram from there says, and that assures their election. Up to 2 o'clock this afternoon seventeen precincts had sent in their returns and they return a republican majority from twenty-five up to the hundreds. Following are republican majorities from the seventeen precincts: Rodey, 351; Spiess, 174; Duncan, 94; sheriff, Cleofas Romero, 208; probate clerk, Jaramillo, 154; county commissioner, second district, Ramon Gallegos, 147; county commissioner, third district, Rogers, 205; treasurer, Eugenio Romero, 185; assessor, Esquivel, 26; probate judge, Baca, 181; superintendent of schools, Quintana, 149; representatives, the three republicans have majorities over three fusionists of 397; assessor, Fresquez, 26. The seventeen precincts are as follows: 64, 62, 33, 26, 29, 9, 17, 56, 58, 61, 20, 44, 11, 7, 15, 5 and 4.

Besides the above precincts returns from El Macho, Colonia Arriba, Rowe, San Jose, San Miguel and Puerto Cito and that neighborhood report 200 majority for the entire county ticket, and 300 for Rodey, which practically assures the republicans the county. Pecos breaks about even, the majorities ranging from one to three in favor of the republicans.

There has been a great deal of scratching done in the county, and East Las Vegas, with her 264 straight republican votes, 156 straight democratic, 31 unionists and three independent republicans out of 742 votes cast, is beginning to get back to good politics again and voting straight. Many of the precincts carried by the fusionists from 20 to 25, gave Rodey a majority from 15 to 20. A special telegram to the Record from the chairman of the republican territorial central committee says Rodey will carry the territory from 5,500 to 6,000, and the prospects are for even more, and Mr. Rodey's re-election to congress and statehood for New Mexico is assured. Following are the scattering notes on the returns from the outlying precincts:

Uppertown—Independent republicans elect assessor; Sam Pate, commissioner; Apolonio Sena, probate clerk; R. B. Rice, surveyor.
Los Alamos—Seven to fourteen majority straight republican ticket.
Joya Larga—Six to eight independent republican majority.
Gallinas—Seventy to seventy-two independent republican majority.
Sapello—Thirty to thirty-four independent republican majority.
Rociada—A forty-one to thirty-eight independent republican majority.
Manuelitas—Rodey by seven votes and independent republican county ticket by ten to twenty-seven.
San Ignacio—Thirty-five to forty-five independent republican majority.
Tecolote—Forty-four straight republican.

San Patricio—Rodey by twenty-seven and independent republican county ticket three to four.
Hot Springs—Fifteen majority independent republican majority.
Los Yagiles—Fifty-eight independent republican majority.
Romeroville—Seven straight republican majority.

Following is the official votes of the four precincts in the two towns of Las Vegas:

Rodey gets the towns by 111 majority, getting a vote total of 151, overcoming the forty majority given Ferguson in East Las Vegas.

This gives the straight republicans this precinct from majorities ranging from 58 to 103.

This gives entire ticket to straight republicans.

BIG ROCK ISLAND ENGINES.

Coming West to Haul the Golden State Limited.
Two more of the monster compound engines which the Baldwin Locomotive works of Philadelphia has been building for the Rock Island, for use on its El Paso line, have come out west, says the Topeka State Journal. They tower up above the ordinary engines, and attracted considerable attention. They are equipped with four pairs of drivers, and weigh close to ninety tons each. The Santa Fe has held the record for big engines in this part of the country, but these engines are probably larger than the Santa Fe's Prairie type engines, although not so large as the big decapods, which were taken out for use on the mountains, and which hold the world's record for size. The new engines will be taken on down to El Paso "dead," and will be put into service there, possibly on the new Golden State Limited.

Jumped on a Ten Penny Nail.
The little daughter of J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and thrust one nail entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well known merchant of Forkland, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by all druggists.

WELLS DENIES IT.
Santa Fe Not Trying to Acquire Los Angeles Traction Company.
General Manager Wells, of the Santa Fe Pacific railway has denied the story that the Santa Fe is about to acquire the properties of the Los Angeles Traction company, which would give it an entrance to San Pedro. He said: "The Santa Fe is not intending to acquire electric railways in this territory. At least I have no knowledge that such a move is in contemplation, and I believe that I would know if such were the case."

Torrance, Nov. 3.—Work started this morning on this end of the Santa Fe Central railway. William Mulligan, contractor, moved in here last evening from Bisbee, Arizona, where he has been at work on a large contract of the Queen City Copper company and he has a perfect railroad outfit and is doing fine work. His brother, J. M. Mulligan, will arrive here tonight from Kennedy and will start to work immediately on his arrival. He also has a very large and complete outfit.
Frank Andrews, manager of the Torrance road, was on a business trip to Corona yesterday. He reports everything getting ready for the big election.
Water was struck in the company well, and it is said to be first class. It is quite a convenience for our city, as before our water had to be shipped from Alamogordo. Captain Gavin deserves great credit for his good work.
J. W. Records, master mechanic for the Santa Fe Central line, is in the city for the day. He will leave for Tucumcari in the morning.
E. Alexander and W. E. Hagan, officials of the company, spent a day in Torrance last week.
W. A. Bayer and J. E. Saint, both connected with the Pennsylvania Development company, were on a business trip over the line in the last few days.

The large well drill, nine miles south of here, was started up again under W. Wilson, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

The carpenters have completed a large powder and bunk house and are now working on a large water tank.
The engineer corps, under Major John Balcomb, have arrived and will be immediately put in the field.
The Best Remedy for Diarrhoea.

HE STRUCK IT RICH.
An American With No Experience But Plenty of Grit Won Out Down in Old Mexico.
According to a report in the Mexican Herald, the great success of Richard Wallace, an American, has won a fortune in the mines of Oaxaca that reads like a fairy tale, but he has $500,000 gold for his rich Zapotec mine in the Ocotlan district, and a company of capitalists have a fabulously rich mine.

The story goes that Wallace went down into Mexico not very long ago with a capital of $30,000, and with American pluck put it into the Zapotec mine. He knew nothing of mining and was made light of by the miners for his plans and lack of judgment.
He set to work in earnest, but as he sunk on the mine he had nothing but indications to go on. His money went gradually with each day and no bonanza. He was down to his last dollar and the last day's work that he was able to do. It looked as though luck was against him, and he was "broke."

The last dollar's worth of work at the end of the last day, however, brought forth a chunk of the white metal. The bonanza of the Zapotec mine had been struck and it was a bonanza sure enough.

Mr. Wallace did not more. He sold the property to a company of American capitalists a short time ago for the sum mentioned and left for the United States.

END OF THE SEASON.
Citrus Fruit Shipments Did Not Meet Expectations.
Citrus fruit shipments from southern California via the Santa Fe and Southern Pacific for the season of 1902 ended Friday night. The total number of cars shipped from San Bernardino by the Santa Fe aggregated 8,674. Last night's and tonight's freight will swell the number to about 8,685.

Santa Fe officials at this point state that the season's shipment has fallen short of the estimate made by the freight department men at the beginning of the year by 3,500 car loads. It is stated that the Southern Pacific hauled an equal amount of freight, it being customary to divide the traffic between the two roads. The freight officials of that route also overestimated the crop.

Thus the grand total for the number of cars shipped east from southern California amounts to about 17,400 cars and the shortage something like 7,000 cars.—San Bernardino Sun.

TRACK LAYING RESUMED.
Work on the Dawson Branch of the Rock Island Will Be Pushed.
Track laying on the Dawson branch of the El Paso extension of the Rock Island system has been resumed after a delay on account of bridges not being ready. The end of the track is now about thirty miles from Tucumcari. All material for the track has not arrived as yet, but is being shipped at the rate of several car loads a day. Fencing of the right of way has been commenced.

A Violent Attack of Croup Cured.
"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Filley, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by all druggists.

ROCK ISLAND PROJECT.
Plan to Connect Pueblo With Santa Rosa, N. M.
The Gazette says that Colorado Springs, Colo., is to have another outlet to the Pacific coast, as well as the new road which will tap the immense coal fields of Trinidad.

Within sixty days it is said contracts will be let for the building of 265 miles of railroad by the Rock Island system, connecting Pueblo and Santa Rosa, N. M. The Rock Island line from Liberal, Kas., which connects with the Southern Pacific at El Paso, Texas, runs through Santa Rosa, and the proposed line from Pueblo to Santa Rosa will be the connecting link in the Rock Island system between Colorado and the Pacific coast.

The Rock Island uses the tracks of the Denver & Rio Grande between Colorado Springs and Pueblo, and when the line from Pueblo to Santa Rosa, N. M., is finished, it is understood that the Rock Island will lay its own tracks from Colorado Springs to Pueblo.

DEAL IS COMPLETED.
Rock Island Applies to List Its Bonds and Stocks.
The Rock Island railroad has applied to the New York stock exchange to list $67,853,000 4 per cent bonds of 2002, and $47,497,800 preferred stock and $67,853,000 of common stock. This marks the successful culmination of the big reorganization plan which President W. B. Leeds, the Moore brothers, Daniel G. Reid, John W. Gates and the other western capitalists arranged.

To carry the deal through the Rock Island people created two corporations. One was the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad company, an Iowa corporation with $125,000,000 capital stock and $75,000,000 4 per cent bonds. The other was the Rock Island company of New Jersey, with a capitalization of $150,000,000, of which $54,000,000 is preferred and $96,000,000 common.

Under the plan as put through the stockholders of the old Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway company control the new Rock Island company and the new Rock Island company controls the new Iowa corporation. The stock will be listed at once and millions of dollars which have been tied up in the scheme for months were released today.

AN OLD ENGINEER.
John McCurdy Has Clean Slate for Fifty-four Years.
In the Railway Age for October, the "Inspector" says, among "things and other things," that John McCurdy, of Jackson, Mich., has been a locomotive engineer for more than fifty-four years.

John McCurdy, he says, is running an engine on the Michigan Central at the age of 75; that he began working for the road in 1848, and has continued in an uninterrupted term of service. He is one of the company's most trusted employees, and makes his run as engineer of the mail on the middle division as regularly as any man on the road. Next March he will have been in the employ of the Michigan Central fifty-five years. Railroad men consider his record nothing short of marvelous.

He began working for the road as carpenter; a month later was promoted to fireman; a year and a half later was made engineer on freight trains and nine months later was promoted to engineer on passenger. He has occupied this responsible position for more than fifty years, in which he has made 20,000 trips, ridden 2,000,000 miles in a cab and hauled, approximately, 4,000,000 passengers. In all these years, when a single fault of memory or lapse of judgment at any time would mean disaster, it is said that no passenger on his train has ever been killed or injured, and that he has never been responsible for an accident of any kind, and has never cost the company a cent. His record is absolutely clean. In other words he has worked for more than half a century in as exciting and responsible a position as man can be placed in and has never made an error.

The annual meeting of stockholders of the New Mexico Town company was held yesterday morning at the First National bank in Santa Fe. The old directors were elected as follows: H. U. Mudge, of Topeka, Kas.; H. L. Waldo, R. E. Twitchell, F. C. Fox and F. A. Manzaneros, of East Las Vegas; J. J. Pallen, J. H. Vaughn and E. C. Gortner, of Santa Fe, and W. B. Jensen, of Chicago. RAILROAD NOTES.

General Superintendent D. E. Cain, of the Santa Fe, passed through the city last night en route to El Paso.
Night Switchman J. C. King unfortunately fell from an engine in the yards last night and severely injured his knee. Although the injury is not serious Switchman King will be laid up several weeks.
J. N. Turner, the accommodating gentleman who recently succeeded Day Ticket Clerk J. A. Courtney at the local station, went to San Marcial last night to finish preparations toward moving his family here from that city. Night Ticket Clerk Carpenter is doing double duty in the meantime.
Joint agencies shortly will be established by the southwestern railroads in New York, Boston and other eastern cities, and also in the principal European capitals, for the purpose of turning the tide of immigration into the southwest. This move, says the Times, involves an aggressive competition with the northwestern roads, which have been carrying the greater proportion of west bound immigrants for several years.

Reports have been persistently circulated for some time past that E. H. Harriman was about to resign the presidency of the Southern Pacific road, and various persons have been named as his probable successor. Mr. Harriman gave a quietus to all these rumors today by issuing a statement to the effect that while he would be glad to be relieved of the onerous duties and responsibilities of the position there is no immediate probability of any change at present. There are insurmountable difficulties in the way of his doing so at this time.

Sensational developments are looked for at the session of the interstate commerce commission in Chicago on November 6, when the western roads will have to show why they are making lower rates on live stock from points west of the Missouri river than they are making from points east of the river. This discrimination against Chicago is being practiced by all the Chicago-Missouri river lines except the Santa Fe, which makes a lower rate east of the Missouri. The Santa Fe was named in the complaint, but it has been informed by the commission that its name would be stricken from the list of roads to be investigated.

W. J. Hanna, the busy water service man of the Rio Grande division, visited the local yards last night.
Santa Fe Watch Inspector S. T. Vann, Sr., returned this morning from an extended trip on the Rio Grande division.
C. M. Wood, traveling passenger traffic agent for the Frisco with headquarters at Bemis, is in the city looking after his company's interests.
L. E. Johnson, vice president of the Norfolk & Western railroad, accompanied by his wife and a party of friends, passed through the city last evening in private car en route west.

The L. E. D. Pool, Walker and Lock & Carroll outfits turned loose three train loads of cattle a few days ago on account of their inability to get cars. The stock was held at Riverside for five days and the animals began to show signs of distress on account of lack of feed. The managers decided to wait no longer for cars and let the cattle drift.

FOR THE WOMEN.

What the Ultra-Smart Folks of New York Are Wearing.

FALL AND WINTER STYLES.

New York, Nov. 7.—The old saying that there is nothing new under the sun must be relegated to the list of obsolete phrases at least as far as the fashions of the coming winter are concerned, for everything in the gorgeous array of the season's advance fashions now on exhibit in Gotham's ultra-smart shops is new.

Indeed there is novelty for everyone and with the novelty are combined exquisite taste and beauty. For two or three seasons there has been efforts exerted to put pastel tints and the "fade" shades in the forefront of popularity, but these efforts have met with comparatively little until this year. Now it is decided that not only will the pale tints be a la mode, but white, a new "shade" known as chalk-white, is to be the quintessence of smartness.

Of course this style has its strong points and its weak ones. Arguments advanced against its adaptability to unfavorable atmospheric conditions are convincingly off set by Dame Fashion's disciples with the response that it is "delightfully cleanable," and "shows absolutely no trace of having come under the influence of the cleaner's art."

One of the favorite wraps of mid-winter is the graceful, loose jacket of chalk-white cloth with a lustrous finish. This design is comfortable and voluminous and lends itself admirably to the rich treatment and luxurious materials which distinguish the wraps of this season.

For smartness and originality there is certainly nothing to excel these cloaks. They show the latest designs in trimming including fancy stitchings, embroideries, appliques, and the like, and the immaculate background of the materials afforded an excellent opportunity of showing off the rich materials employed in the process of ornamentation.

Women who do not take well to the idea of white gowns could not do better than duplicate their effect in more desirable colors. For instance take one of the mid-winter frocks in white wool crepe. The skirt is tucked transversely, from belt to hem and through the groups of tucks are alternated with bands of Russian lace through which gleams the silken lining. At the bottom there are three simple round-and-round tucks and these are piped with the narrowest of black satin bands, presumably for the sake of contrast, for they could hardly improve the beauty of the gown.

The blouse is tucked and outlines a loose Eton effect. It is applied with cream colored Russian lace and finished with a yoke of dotted chiffon. There is the faintest suggestion of a black satin girdle where the jacket ends. The sleeves fit tight to the elbow, branching out voluminously from this point and narrowing again at the wrist where they are gathered into graduated bands of the lace.

The novel feature of these sleeves is an applique of the Russian lace which almost covers the puffed portion, or the top part at least, being widest at the elbow and growing narrow near the wrist-band to fit in with the proportions of the cuff.

Such a gown could not be otherwise than bewitching, no matter what the color selected as long as the material was soft and pliable. In blue, Italian red, dull green or beige, trimmed with the same lace, or an imitation of Russian, the effect would be striking and pretty.

Winter for the New York woman of fashion is simply a synonym for a continual round of gayeties, for there are morning musicales, afternoon call-drives, matinees and reception, evening dinners, dances, theatres and balls, and it requires more than mere amittolia and an elongated purse to keep up with the "push," as they say in the much criticized "Smart Set."

Light colors in conjunction with fur are used for many of the three-quarter coats worn at some of these fashionable affairs. But even here there is something white, for the smartest of these coats are supplemented with raised applications in white cloth, the "fruit" designs, such as bunches of grape, cherries, etc., being at the moment a very special and very fashionable fancy.

There was a time when these rich embroideries and heavy effects were regarded as elegances to be worn only by married women, but this year every one is youthful, as provided for by Madame La Mode and there is very little indeed that is too "handsome" for the debutante of today.

Already novelties are arriving for the horse show which will soon take place. A specially striking gown is made of cream India silk of heavy quality elaborately embroidered in shaded yellow topazes made over a flame-colored chiffon skirt. The waist is embroidered at the yoke and top of the sleeves and has a canary colored satin belt. Over this gown, which is intended for an evening affair, will be worn a coat of white silk. Over it is fitted a loose, but complete coat of lace. The silk coat is edged with ermine and the long lace stoles which hang down either side of the front are caught in at intervals by brooches of paste set in old flint-glass. Nothing more extravagantly rich or more beautiful could be imagined.

Muffs and boas come in for a large share of attention this winter. Fur effects will not be popular for indoor wear, unless ermine effects are selected. The indoor muff may seem a paradox, but it is not. It is really one of the requisites of a fashionable evening outfit. In fact so fashionable have they become that the guest of a box party who dares go without her muff, have some other striking novelty to compensate for its omission. Large flower muffs are new and exceedingly dainty. There is no danger of their ever becoming common, because of their cost, hence their great favor among fashion's elite. Crushed and withered roses of all colors are employed in velvet foliage representing leaves in all stages of development and decay. For evening nothing is daintier or more desirable than the blush-pink rose, and embedded in masses of chiffon or lace or marabout feathers, it is a possession to be prized by any woman.

While almost anyone with natural taste and a talent for "manipulating" things to make ends meet can reproduce fashion's fancies at moderate cost, the woman who would have things as they appear in the shops must needs have a fortune to satisfy her wishes. The inventors of modes are wise in their own generation, but wickedly disconcerting to others, inasmuch as the constant struggle to look smart in garments of even quite comparatively youthful age is as constant as the march of time. The insidious introduction of up-to-date details which no process of disintegration or overhauling in older possessions can conceal from the initiated.

There are all sorts of belts, collars, jabots and cascades of chiffon or lace to smarten a bodice when the vulnerable spots begin to show signs of wear, but it is scarcely possible to convert a last season's frock into one of this year's modes.

Among the novelties in applique effects rings are popular, these are nothing more or less than the tiny brass circles—or any size preferred, for that matter—used so much in fancy work, covered with silk threads to match the color of the gown and sewed on in groups to outline fancy designs, or to break the monotony of a solid lace trimming. They are also stitched down both sides of the opening of bodices and ribbons laced through in corset design.

MAUDE GRIFFIN.

To the Public.

Allow me to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I can recommend it with the utmost confidence. It has done good work for me and will do the same for others. I had a very severe cough and cold and feared I would get pneumonia, but after taking the second dose of this medicine I felt better, three bottles of it cured my cold and the pains in my chest disappeared entirely. I am most respectfully yours for health, Ralph S. Meyers, 64 Thirty-seventh St., Wheeling, W. Va. For sale by all druggists.

WILL FIND A HOME.

Masonic Lodge Agreed to Look After a Young Boy Charged With Larceny.

There was an unusual case in the Fifth district court at Roswell on Saturday. Thomas Harris, who is but 14 years old, was charged with having taken $2,650, all of which, except the 50 cents, was returned. The case had been referred to Hon. G. A. Richardson for investigation and he reported to the court that the boy had run away from his home at Mineral Wells, Texas, on account of "too much step mother."

Judge McMillan said the case was properly one for a reformatory and not for a prison. He asked the Masonic lodge of Roswell to find the boy a home and this was agreed to. Sentence was suspended during good behavior. Le Grand Pratt, charged with murder, was acquitted, and the bond of Thomas Longacre, charged with the murder of a man named Carson at Portales, was declared forfeited. The bond was for $5,000 and ten residents of Portales are responsible. Longacre is supposed to be in Canada.

A Policeman's Testimony.

J. N. Patterson, night policeman of Nashua, Ia., writes, "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least half a dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. Before commencing its use I was in such a shape that I could hardly get up when once down." Alvarado Pharmacy.

Mr. Ingalls takes the title of general freight agent."

Heavy eating is usually the first cause of indigestion. Repeated attacks inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach, exposes the nerves of the stomach, producing a swelling after eating, heartburn, headache, sour risings and finally catarrh of the stomach. Kodol relieves the inflammation, protects the nerves and cures the catarrh. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia, all stomach troubles by cleansing and sweetening the glands of the stomach. J. H. Cured of Piles After 40 Years.
Mr. C. Hancy, of Geneva, Ohio, had the piles for forty years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. THE COCHISE DISTRICT.

Is Rapidly Coming to the Front as a Mining Region.

The Bisbee, Arizona, Miner has the following brief but forcible summary concerning the great copper belt of Cochise county, Arizona, which includes Bisbee:

Cochise county, in the southeast corner of Arizona, is rapidly advancing to the front rank as a mining district. Its copper mines are showing the largest copper ore deposits that have ever been found in any part of the world. The copper belt has been demonstrated now to be almost three to four miles in width, and is easily traced for sixteen miles north of the international boundary line and for several miles across that line into Mexico. About eighty new claims have been staked out on this copper belt during the month past. The greater number of these new locations were staked out near the Mexican line, south of Solomon springs. The locators of some of these were Otto Gosenhoffer, C. L. Beckwith, L. Overlook, Dutch Eaker et al. Several claims were also staked out most of the Copper Queen and Bisbee West.

Friends Remembered Them.

A few intimate friends of Fred B. McKeehan met in the United States marshal's office last night for the purpose of giving that gentleman a little send off in the way of a smoker. The affair was not quite what it might have been had it not been for the recent death of a son of United States Marshal Forsker. Mr. McKeehan's late employer, but was a quiet and enjoyable little meeting that filled its mission of regard and good wishes extended by those present to Mr. McKeehan, who will leave tonight for Nogales to take up the duties of his new position as Chinese inspector.

Mr. McKeehan and wife were tendered a silver tea set as a token of respect and remembrance. Mr. Horton Moore made the presentation speech in behalf of the friends. He spoke of Mr. McKeehan's ability and integrity as an officer and worth as a friend and said that it was with deep regret that Mr. and Mrs. McKeehan was soon to leave the city.

Mrs. McKeehan will not go to Nogales with her husband tonight, but will leave this evening for her old home in Ohio to visit with relatives until Mr. McKeehan can secure a home for them at Nogales.

GERMAN COUNTS.

Two Were Here Yesterday But Were Unknown.

Two German counts were visitors for a short time in Albuquerque yesterday. After an extended tour of Mexico they were wandering their way to the coast thence to Japan. Gentlemen hearing titles are usually fond of notoriety, and take special pains to make themselves known, but these gentlemen were simply tourists who were traveling to broaden their experience.

They visited the Indian curio rooms, purchasing some Navajo blankets, which they intend to use for steamer robes. A very valuable German shawl was left behind, being presented to the Indian blanket weaver. A rare present of great value could not have been appreciated more than was this shawl by the weaver and lover of blankets.

The identity of the distinguished gentlemen was learned from bits of their conversation in addressing each other in their native tongue.

Many prominent people have learned by experience that more enjoyment is secured by traveling in seclusion rather than by being subjected to the curious eyes and embarrassing questions of the inquisitive public.

Hives are a terrible torment to the little folks, and to some older ones. Easily cured. Doan's Ointment never fails. Instant relief, permanent cure. At any drug store, 50 cents.

FROM MESILLA PARK.

Foot Ball Game—Other Athletic Sports at College.

Special Correspondence.

Mesilla Park, N. M., Nov. 6.—Considerable interest has been aroused during the last few days due to the fact that final arrangements have been made with the Santa Fe Indian foot ball team to appear on the 15th.

The basket ball management have announced that the Albuquerque High School basket ball team will be here on Thanksgiving. The news has awakened interest in practice which has been practically non est for the past two or three weeks.

The Athletic board are endeavoring to arrange other foot ball games and a game with the Albuquerque Indians will be played on the home grounds some time during the next three or four weeks.

From newspaper reports it is learned that there are two or three teams organizing in Albuquerque and anticipate games with the Agricultural college. If these games are played it will soon be over and all available dates taken.

The attendance is still increasing and the enrollment is now 190. The statement made at the beginning of the year that this will be a record breaking year in the matter of attendance is going to hold good.

W. A. Herren of Finck, Ark., writes, "I wish to report that Foley's Kidney Cure has cured a terrible case of kidney and bladder trouble that two doctors had given up." Alvarado Pharmacy.

Charles Johnson, the popular road master of the Santa Fe, and Miss Hilma A. Lundin were recently married in Winslow. The Williams band turned out in force to welcome the happy couple on their return to that place.

A Startling Surprise.

Very few could believe in looking at A. T. Hoadley, a healthy, robust blacksmith of Tilden, Ind., that for ten years he suffered such tortures from Rheumatism as few could endure and live. But a wonderful change followed his taking Electric Bitters. "Two bottles wholly cured me," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year." A beautiful little paper styled "Our Homes," published at Nashville, Tenn., by the Woman's Home Mission society, costing only 50 cents per year, is one of the links that is instrumental in opening up personal communications with other societies that are scattered all over the land, giving every society an insight to the work that is being accomplished in cities, hamlets, mining camps and the remote mountain—work where the work is so different. Our Homes comes to all who reads its columns as a means of grace, as its pages are full of the work that is accomplished each month, which helps to strengthen and encourage our workers to feel more and more interested in our own self sacrifice and self denial. As every paper is instructive and impressive in every line of work the self sacrifice of some of our heroic women that are now in Cuba leading men and women out of darkness into the light of our Savior; a great deal of the money that is being used to build parsonages and homes for our preachers, also the boxes sent out to needy preachers is self denial money given by our titheers.

We have in every society more or less titheers. The first week in October was set apart by our home mission society for a universal week of prayer and self denial. Our society here observed the week of prayer. At the close of the week we found quite a liberal sum given, heard some very instructive leaflets and papers read on the free kindergarten work, also the work done among the Chinese in San Francisco and Los Angeles. We have a good working society of twenty members and nineteen titheers. When the report of our last year's work was read we felt encouraged and have set out on the new year's work strengthened by faith, believing God will lead us more into the light of our duties in our city. We distributed many leaflets, papers, Bibles, clothing and money in charity work. Our weekly prayer meetings have been a great spiritual uplift, and we still continue them with the thought that giving is the only way to spiritual living.

A BIG TORTOISE.

An unusual shipment was made recently from this port to London in the form of a very large live tortoise weighing more than 600 pounds, says the Boston Transcript. Experts who have seen this tortoise state that it has lived about 400 years, and its splendid condition upon arriving in Boston gives every indication that it will continue to live for a great many years yet. This monstrous species of testudinata measures sixty-four inches across the curvature of the back, and when its legs are outstretched and its neck extended the head reaches several feet from the ground. Walter Rothschild of London is engaged in collecting rare specimens of tortoise, and this is one among a hundred that have been sent to him by F. B. Webster of Hyde Park. They are added to his private museum at Tring, but he has given some specimens to public zoological exhibits throughout London.

GIRLS IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

For a century and a half after the public schools were established in America, girls were not admitted to them at all; in the latter part of the eighteenth century they were allowed to attend from April to October, the months when only the little boys were in attendance, and a cheaper and less competent teacher was employed. After the girls were given this extraordinary privilege of education the "fathers" of the various towns began concerning themselves within the amount of learning that the girls might properly acquire, says the Woman's Home Companion. On the records of one old New England town is actually entered this bit of report from the annual town "school meeting": "It is the sense of the meeting that the girls should not be taught the back part of the arithmetic."

KING CORN IS IN HIS GLORY.

All over the country the frost has held off to an unusually late date. In the south a very good cotton crop has matured, and in the north the corn has come to perfection in fine shape, so that the prices are gradually declining to something like old times. The great corn crop will be a blessing to the whole country. It will enable the farmers to greatly increase the supply and the quality of domestic animals, eggs, butter and provisions of all kinds. The new corn is just now beginning to reach the market, and should soon make its good influence felt. The present exorbitant prices for butter and eggs ought before long to be relieved by a plentiful supply from the interior of Kansas and Missouri.

ENGLISH SCHOOLS.

Forty years ago there was nothing in England resembling our public schools. Then, about 1870, the "board schools" were established by act of Parliament. This was a decided step in advance but still left much to be done, the board schools attracting pupils from the lowest ranks of the population only. A bill has now been introduced in Parliament which has for its object the placing of the entire public school system of the country under a single management. This has given rise to an exceedingly vindictive fight between the various religious denominations, the non-conformists, or dissenters, taking one side, and the members of the established church the other. So bitter has the contest become that the main issue has almost been lost sight of.

THE TRUSTS.

The New York Evening Post has received from forty-four professors of economics and kindred subjects in colleges east of Chicago replies to four questions propounded by it. Twenty-five out of thirty-three of the professors say that in their opinion the powers of congress to control or restrain trusts have not been exhausted by the Sherman law. Twenty-three out of forty-two favor amendments to the constitution to give congress additional power. Forty-one out of forty-three favor the reduction of repeal of duties on articles whose production in this country is controlled by monopolies. Twenty-four out of thirty-nine favor the appointment of a tariff commission to prepare changes for the consideration of congress.

PENNY POSTAGE.

A dispatch from Washington says: "Postmaster General Payne will discuss, it is understood, in his forthcoming report, the prospects of 1-cent postage. Postal revenues are now so large that the nominal deficit of the department is disappearing, at least upon the basis by which it is regularly computed. Mr. Payne will ascribe something of the credit for this improved showing to the Wadden regulations, by which publications without a bona fide subscription list have been excluded from the privilege of the second class rates."

"Mr. Payne will tell of other changes in contemplation, designed to effect economies in the service. One of these already alluded to is the substitution of some lighter material for leather in the mail bags."

"The department also intends to use the reference against raising the salary of post carriers above the present $1.00 a year; it will show that 1-cent postage must be hopelessly deferred if the increased receipts of the department are absorbed in needlessly high salaries on the rapidly extending rural routes."

ANNUAL OUTPUT OF FICTION.

From 8000 to 10,000 novels yearly appear from the world over. They are but a share of the earth's great stream of print, but they are the largest share. Japan contributes a round half-million—462 in 1895. There are a couple of hundred in India, letters in India still turning to verse in preference to prose, as in primitive Verdic days, writes Talcott Williams in the Review of Reviews. The Arab world has its scattering scores; in Egypt, three to five yearly; in Syria, a few dozen. Strange works they are. The fiction of the East harks back to the plain-spoken men who sit in the curving ring of listeners in the market place, telling tales as old as Hamu Rabbi and as new as the Arabian Nights in the hands of a child. Japanese fiction is a passing from the intermediate Chinese romance to fiction modeled on the European novel. In Northwest India Moslem Lucknow, on the appointed day, fills the street where the monthly numbers of the last romance come fresh from the press. One which has carried a modern hero through prodigies of valor in the Russo-Turkish war. For a decade past in India vernacular fiction, as in Arabic, is taking the place of the tale modeled on old classic examples. The world of the novel, like all worlds, is coming to be alike the world over.

Italy and Spain, between them, issue from 500 to 600 novels in a year, the larger country the larger portion. France, the world's schoolmaster in fiction, prints 600 volumes a year; Scandinavian Europe as many more, centering for publication at Copenhagen. Russia supplies, on an average, year by year, from 800 to 1000. Its vast millions are unlettered, but the appetite of its small educated classes, social conditions and the absence of libraries and newspapers stimulate reading. When the copyrights on Pushkin's poems expired the first twelve months saw 183 editions and a circulation of 2,000,000 copies. What English poet is likely to have this compliment? Each lesser tongue in Europe has its hundreds or two of novels, but the editions are small. A sale of 8000 to 10,000 copies is the limit of success for a new Hungarian novel.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

A correspondent at Las Vegas insists that Mr. Ferguson is in favor of that town for the military post. This is false. In his speech here Mr. Ferguson said that he was for Albuquerque for the military post. He was merely talking for votes at Las Vegas.

As a political leader "Col." Wm. M. Berger, of Santa Fe, is a signal failure. He has lost out on everything that he has undertaken during the past four years. He is a hoodoo, and has been kicked clear out of the republican party in Santa Fe county.

This is the banner republican year in this territory. In this county there is less opposition than at any previous election. Mr. Ferguson will not get 800 votes in this county. There will be about 4,800 votes cast in the county next Tuesday.

Everything the republican party has undertaken in the last six years in the nation, or in this territory, has been a success. Are the voters of a republic in the habit of turning down and punishing the elements and means of success?

That dispatch from San Marcial was correct. Several people have assured The Citizen that Mr. Ferguson was correctly quoted in the dispatch. The gentleman talks too much on both sides of various questions.

If the people of Gallup give a democratic majority, it will be notification to the republican members of the legislature that Gallup does not want the territorial miners' hospital.

New Mexico's coal production already exceeds its gold and silver output and ten years hence it will equal the production of all other minerals combined.

If Gallup goes democratic next Tuesday the bright opportunity of that town to secure the territorial miners' hospital will go glimmering.

The people of this city generally get together on questions affecting the public welfare. Vote for Rodey.

THE FARMER FAILS.

In health just as does the city-man, and he fails commonly from the same cause, "stomach trouble." The farm is a wholesome place to live; the farmer's life is a healthy life; but no external advantages can overcome the effects of a diseased stomach. When the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition are diseased, the food eaten is imperfectly digested and assimilated, and the consequent loss of nutrition results in physical debility.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food. It builds up the body with round flesh and solid muscle.

"I used ten bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and several vials of his Pleasant Pellets a year ago this spring, and have had no trouble with indigestion since," writes Mr. W. T. Thompson, of Townsend, Broadwater Co., Montana. "Words fail to tell how thankful I am for the relief, as I had suffered so much and it seemed that the doctors could do me no good. I got down in weight to one hundred and twenty-five pounds, and was not able to work at all. Now I weigh nearly one hundred and sixty and can do a day's work on the farm. I have recommended your medicine to several and shall always have a good word to say for Dr. Pierce and his medicines."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose, therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

we find it as pulvis, but another name for the papyrus creed of Egypt.

Tact is one of the evidences of a noble nature. It does not always proceed from the wise, the learned, the rich, the exalted, nor is it denied these. Tact is the expression of a right heart, and though it deal often with seeming trivialities, its victories are as real, its power for good as great, as any other human attribute. The man or woman with tact has an instrument of wonderful versatility. Tact will win when argument, entreaty, and brute force will not avail.

M. E. Porter went north this morning in the interest of the International Correspondence schools. He expects to be absent from the city about ten days.

PECULIARLY SAD DEATH.

Mrs. A. H. Lindsay Leaves a Husband and Three Small Children to Mourn Her Loss.

Rev. and Mrs. Alexander H. Lindsay, of Flemingsburg, Kentucky, arrived in Socorro about six weeks ago, expecting to remain here indefinitely if the climate should prove to be beneficial to Mrs. Lindsay's health. Only about three months ago the lady became afflicted with the dread disease consumption. The family almost immediately went to Arizona for the benefits that might be derived from the climate there, but it was soon found that still another change was necessary and the family came to Socorro. The patient seemed to improve somewhat after her arrival here and only the day before her death it was remarked that she seemed to be doing well. But on Sunday morning the end came so peacefully, so quietly, and so unexpectedly that a lady sitting in the room thought for some time that Mrs. Lindsay was only sleeping.—Socorro Chieftain.

NORTH HOMESTAKE MINE.

Work on This Property at White Oaks Will Be Actively Commenced at Once.

Louis G. Brockway and John G. Foster, heavy stockholders in the North Homestake mine, have arrived at White Oaks from their home in Lynn Massachusetts. They have announced the intention of the company to begin active work at once. There is rich ore at the bottom of the old shaft, which is 1,070 feet deep and a new shaft has been started in ore from the surface. By connecting the new shaft with the old one, the old works will be supplied with good air.

Indian Paper Suspended.

The Cherokee Advocate, the only newspaper ever printed for the Indians in the Indian language, has suspended publication. It had been printed at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, in the Cherokee strip, for the past fifty years and prior to that time it was published at New Echota, Georgia, where it was established in 1830. Lack of funds and patronage is the cause of discontinuance. The newspaper had been printed principally at the expense of the Cherokee government, which owned its own plant and office building. The circulation of its last issue was less than 200. The editor was a full blood Cherokee. With the death of the Advocate the Cherokee language will soon be forgotten, as it is not taught in the public schools of that tribe.

New Mexico Goats Win.

Mrs. M. Armour, of Kingston, N. M., took two prizes for Angora goats in the National Live Stock Show in Kansas City last week. D. C. Taylor, of Lake Valley, N. M., took one first prize and made the record sale of the show, selling the 2-year-old buck Aztec to A. Kemble, of Muscatine, Iowa, for $1,400.

BIG MONEY IN ONIONS.

Santa Fe Valley Farmers Should Pay More Attention to Onion Raising.

Prof. C. J. Crandall, the superintendent of the government Indian school near Santa Fe, informs the New Mexican that during the season just closed 11,000 pounds of onions of a first class quality were raised by pupils of the school upon a plot of ground three-fourths of an acre in extent. This would be at the rate of 14,000 pounds to the acre and at the price at which onions sell in Santa Fe, the product of an acre cultivated in onions would return the very net sum of $916.50 per annum. The cost of preparation, seedling and cultivating the onion crop on an acre is comparatively speaking small. This is a practical illustration of what can be done in the Santa Fe valley in raising cereals and vegetables and Santa Fe truck gardeners should heed this. Professor Crandall says that he has plenty of onions to last him during the winter and spring and until the new crop comes in next year, although there are on an average about 400 persons who are daily furnished with board at the government Indian school.

Charles Thayer Married.

Charles L. Thayer, formerly of Santa Fe and Albuquerque, now of Nacozari, Sonora, and Miss Margaret Dailey, of Port Worth, were married by Judge Ellis, of El Paso. They left for Mexico. Magistrate Ellis also married Charles E. Fischer, of New Mexico and Mrs. E. Dusenberry, of San Francisco.

MARRIES IN JAIL.

Trinidad Girl True to Sweetheart, Who Will Plead Self Defense in Shooting.

Samuel T. Jacobs and Miss Amelia Bundy were married in the parlor of Sheriff Clark's apartments at the county jail, Trinidad, Colo., Thursday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Hull, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church South, and was witnessed by relatives and friends.

The bride is 19 years of age and the circumstances surrounding this, the most important event in her life, affected here visibly. Jacobs is 25 years of age and will have to face the charge of murder at the next term of the district court. As a shift boss in the Ingallville coal mine, he shot and killed a Mexican miner—he claims in self defense—about two months ago. Despite the charge resting against him Miss Bundy, his life long sweetheart, decided to marry him on the day that she appointed before the commission of the alleged crime.

THE ART CLUB.

New Secret Society Organized—Aims and Purpose.

Societies and clubs for the promotion of general welfare, brotherhood, religious principles are being formed every day, but there comes to our notice in a secret manner, the news of the organization of a unique and peculiar club within the boundary lines of our city.

The Art club is the name of this new organization formed by five young gentlemen of the city. A secret society, it is, and different from other secret societies, not a name is revealed and very few of its principles can be learned. But a few caught with our ear at the keyhole may interest you.

Their religion is "The common sense of a common fellow." In the art line they draw salaries, draw checks, draw crowds of fun, and paint the town red. In the line of benevolence they comfort the afflicted and afflict the comfortable. Don't pay any old debts and let all the new ones get old as fast as they can. It is against their interest to pay principle and against their principle to pay interest. They contract debts and build hopes. Many other provisions are contained in the by laws, but as we informed you, it is a secret society, but if yours truly, Smitts, the detective, can reveal any more you shall be enlightened.

RODEY'S CAMPAIGN TOUR.

Held Rousing Meetings in Half Dozen Counties.

Delegate B. S. Rodey and W. E. Martin, of Santa Fe, who has accompanied him on his campaign tour throughout the territory during the past two weeks, passed through Raton yesterday en route to Las Vegas, where they addressed a republican rally last night. There was a great crowd at the Raton depot and Mr. Rodey addressed a very enthusiastic meeting in a well received and eloquent speech.

Mr. Rodey's campaign tour has been a continual ovation and it might be said a continued convincing oration. The largest and most enthusiastic political meetings held were those attended by Messrs. Rodey and Martin at the towns of Lincoln, Nogal, Alamogordo, Santa Rosa, Puerto de Luna and Clayton during the week.

The chances for republican success throughout the section which Messrs. Rodey and Martin traveled have greatly increased and are becoming better right along and in fact indicate a great republican victory.

The Rodey meeting at Las Vegas was a big affair and one that will make votes for the entire republican ticket from Rodey to the county surveyor.

BODY OF GIRL FOUND.

Mystery That Calls for an Investigation by El Paso Authorities.

Miss Kate Graham, 17 years of age, was found dead on the banks of the Rio Grande just above the Bisbee at 3 o'clock this afternoon, says the El Paso News. Miss Graham and her mother room at 312 Texas street. The daughter left there yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock, leaving no word as to where she was going. Her mother returned about 5 o'clock, but knew nothing as to why nor where the daughter had gone. She spoke yesterday morning about having to go to Las Cruces to attend court. No one accompanied her when she left the rooming house.

The body was found by Deputy Sheriff Ryerson, who telephoned to the city. He could not at once decide whether this was a case of suicide or murder. There were bruises on the body.

Miss Graham had lived in El Paso since she was 2 years of age.

SANTA FE CENTRAL RAILWAY.

ROAD TO FARMINGTON.

Work on Thirty-Nine Miles of Grade from Torrance Northwest Commenced on Saturday.

Mulligan Bros., contractors, of El Paso, Texas, commenced work last Saturday on the grade of the Santa Fe Central railway from Torrance northwest. They started with 100 teams and 150 men. They have a contract to grade thirty-nine miles, which they will push to completion very speedily, as it is very easy work and there is no heavy grading whatever and scarcely any bridging. On the northern end, from Santa Fe south, thirty-nine miles of grade are completed. This was the hardest and heaviest portion of the line, and from the end of it to Torrance it is light work. The construction of the necessary bridges along the line, large and small, has been going on for some time, and most of the bridges are ready for the ties and the track. There are three camps of graders, a few miles south of Moriarty, fifty-three miles south of Santa Fe, but their work will be completed during the coming week, and then the several camps will be moved south to join the Mulligan Bros. grading forces. The putting down of ties and laying of a track will commence between the first and fifteenth of December, and may be so commenced on the first of this month.

WHY STAY PALE.

A pity to see pale girls stay pale and dull when it is so easy to get Scott's Emulsion.

One of the best things Scott's Emulsion does is to give rich blood to pale girls.

The result of regular doses of Scott's Emulsion is an increase not only in the red color of the blood and in the appetite but in the good looks and bright manners which are the real charm of perfect health.

A. Morell was the name of the man fined $10 for maintaining a nuisance in the rear of the Los Angeles lodging house, instead of O'Reilly, as published yesterday. There had been several complaints from neighbors and different parties. The police are keeping a close watch on the place, and if it is not cleaned up another fine will be imposed.

Battle of Flowers.

Tucson, A. T., Nov. 1.—The fiesta season is up in Sonora. One of the greatest of these is to be the carnival at Guaymas, on which work has been started already, with the expectation of having the most gorge affair ever known in Mexico. One of the features is to be a battle of flowers, much on the style of the Roman carnival, participated in by the townspeople and visitors generally.

BELEN BRIVITIES.

Belen, N. M., Nov. 2.—The locating engineers, who have been working on the Santa Fe cut off for the past seven months, are now nearly through with their work. Mr. Stewart's party are nearly through at the Rio Puerco and Mr. Wallace are within a few miles of Belen.

C. E. French, who two weeks ago started overland for Colorado, decided that New Mexico was good enough for him and returned to Belen. From here he goes to Magdalena, and then expects to put in several months on a ranch southwest from there.

H. L. Bozeman, of Leavenworth, Kan., has accepted the position of head miller, at the Belen roller mills. William Owings, the former incumbent, resigned, and family have moved to Albuquerque.

Mr. and Mrs. John Becker yesterday celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. They were recipients of some very beautiful gifts.

Carl A. Huning, a nephew of Mrs. Louis Huning, of Los Lunas, and formerly an employee of Mr. Becker, who has spent the past three years in Germany, has decided to again take up his residence in the land of sunshine. He was accompanied by his bride and arrived in Belen the latter part of the week. He takes up his old position in Mr. Becker's establishment, and their friends, both new and old, extend to them their heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

Miss Frances Graves, of Albuquerque, spent Sunday here, the guest of her sister, Miss Kathryn Graves.

Injured Husband Runs Two Men out of Town.

There was another touch of high life in the Southern Pacific depot. A certain pair of drummers after causing trouble in a family, came here a few days ago and found the husband in business here. They immediately started in to talk about the old trouble and to crow over what they had done. The injured husband, of course soon heard of their talk and this morning the drummers had to go to the Southern Pacific depot and purchase tickets and get out of town. It was quite an interesting sight to see the way he forced them to buy their tickets. When he got them to the ticket window he picked up a stove poker that was lying handy and stood back of them and told them to purchase tickets, with which command they were mighty glad to comply. After they had bought their tickets, he then made them get on the train and stood guard outside where he could watch them until the train pulled out.—El Paso Herald.

Veteran Locomotive.

Old No. 1, called the "Tea Kettle," which pulls the Naco train, has quite a history. The oldest spinner in Arizona was chewing her infantile toes when old No. 1 was built. She has been towed to the scrap pile a dozen times, but when some new fangled engine broke down, they would fish up old No. 1, oil her rusty joints, roll her on the main track, and away she would go. In trying to start, she can't pull the hat off your head, but when she gets stretched out she is a swift old thing and when retired from service it is to be hoped the company will keep her in a little round house of her own for the good she has done.—Blaque Ro.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE.

"Zah Sah Moo" Wants a Small Boy to Earn "Many Cash."

A curiosity in the form of a letter came to The Citizen office a few days ago, and since then it has transpired that the same smart individual sent the same character of request to other newspapers. Enclosed in a long, narrow envelope with a strip of bright red crossing it lengthways was a sheet of delicate rice paper, note size, with the words "Store of Zah Sah Moo, Shanghai, China, Merchant in Chinese Curious" at the top. To the right of this superscription were a number of characters which our literary and ping pong editor was unable to decipher without the assistance of Chong Lee, the South Second street Chinese.

The body of the letter contains a request that the following advertisement be inserted in the paper and that the bill be sent to Zah Sah Moo at Shanghai. The quaint English is amusing, and the "much much" characteristic, "I want smart youth to sell my Chinese curios. If he catch much much business he earn many cash. If some American stamps send me for package postage, I send samples free. Zah Sah Moo, Shanghai, China, Shanghai, China."

The letter came addressed to "The Daily Citizen, Albuquerque, N. M.," which proves that the fame of this great moral daily has reached even to the Orient. The letter will be kept on file in this office, and if some American boy wants "many cash" he can call and read the letter for his own satisfaction.

Lordsburg's New School Building.

The new public school building in Lordsburg is one of the finest in New Mexico. The building is built of pressed brick, trimmed with elegant building stone and handsomely finished inside. It is furnished with the best school furniture, single desks, teachers' desks, globes, maps, charts, slate blackboards, library cases, etc. As it stands today it cost the district about $6,000, and with the exception of a few minor bills it is paid for.

ARIZONA'S GOVERNOR.

He Sends in His Annual Report with Recommendations.

The annual report of the governor of Arizona was received at the interior department the other day. It is a voluminous document, with interesting data and statistics regarding Arizona. In his annual report to the secretary of the interior, the governor renews his plea for statehood and makes the following recommendations: That, under the new Lands-Hansbrough act, the claims of Arizona for government aid in irrigation be fairly and carefully considered and extended so as to inaugurate in the territory the first of the great irrigation systems under that act; action to rejuvenate the depleted forests; increase in Indian school allowances; increase in salary of governor; increase in appropriation for Arizona national guard; proposition to improve the Colorado river and construct a levee from Yuma to the Mexican line to prevent overflow of cultivated land by the annual freshets, appropriations for purchasing sites for erecting public buildings in Arizona territory. The report places the total taxable property of the territory at $29,083,178.

WILL EXPOSE MINING FRAUDS.

Postoffice Inspector is Investigating Promoters of Fake Arizona Mines. A sensation paralleling that produced by a semi-official proclamation of Governor Murphy before he went out of office, denouncing certain mining frauds, is promised when E. L. McKee, United States postoffice inspector for the district of Kansas City, files suit and information against certain sharks who are preying on the people of the country, especially Missouri and Kansas, on the reputation of Arizona mines. McKee has been in Arizona personally investigating various frauds that have been reported to the government and declares that he has information that will send several so-called "promoters" to the penitentiary. He refuses to divulge names, however, for fear that some may attempt to escape. He is responsible for the statement that residents of Arizona are in nowise connected with any of the frauds into which he is probing.

The charge to be brought against the manipulators is the use of the mails for the sale of worthless mining stocks. In each instance they have used the most extravagant language in the description of what they call their mines, and in most instances the "mines" are mere prospects with little or no marketable values. In a few cases the stock companies have not even taken the trouble of providing themselves with prospects. It is regarded as quite likely that the exposure by the government will have an immediate and unpleasant effect on many worthy mining enterprises in that territory. The ultimate effect will be what Governor Murphy aimed at in his proclamation of denunciation—that of inspiring greater confidence in eastern investors when they see themselves protected from sharks.

EDWARD JOHNSON KILLED.

Returning Home in an Intoxicated Condition is Run Over and Killed.

A few days ago The Citizen published a dispatch from Gallup, giving briefly the news that a miner named Edward Johnson, had been run over and killed. The particulars are as follows, taken from the Gallup Republican:

A SIMPLE QUESTION.

Albuquerque People are Requested to Honestly Answer This.

Is not the word of a representative citizen of Albuquerque more convincing than the doubtful utterances of people living everywhere else in the union? Read this:

Mrs. W. C. Wood, (W. C. Wood, employed in the Santa Fe railroad shops) residence, 720 South Broadway, says: "When on a visit to Fall River, Mass., I learned that Doan's Kidney Pills had been a household necessity in that city for years. Naturally when a person has backache themselves and friends, acquaintances and relatives continually insist that a particular remedy shall be tried, you at least consent to take a course of the treatment. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they stopped an aggravated attack of backache, only one of many which had occurred in the past. When I came west I brought with me a dozen boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills long before they were so extensively known in California, as at present. I have not the slightest hesitation in publicly stating that I know from experience as well as observation that this remedy can be absolutely depended upon in all cases of kidney complaint causing backache, lumbago or other symptoms which follow in the wake of that far too prevalent annoyance."

Just such emphatic endorsement is plentiful in Albuquerque. Call at the Alvarado Pharmacy and ask what their customers report.

by being hit by a train. His body was cut in two at the waist and his remains badly mangled. The accident happened at the west end of the yards nearly opposite the brickette plant.

He had been here during the day and was considerably intoxicated, and after spending what little money he had with him, it is presumed he started to go home, and when he reached the west yards he was either laying on the track or knocked off by the passing train. When the pieces of the mangled remains were picked up and his clothing examined there was found on his person the broken fragments of a whiskey bottle, two razors, 5 cents in money and an order for $1 on Joseph Heffler.

He came here from Jenny Lin, Arkansas, some time during the early part of last year and until recently had been working at Gibson. He was about 43 years old. He had no money, except about $3 coming to him at Clarkville, and his remains were interred by the county, his funeral taking place Monday.

The Coroner's Inquest is Given Below.

We, the undersigned justice of the peace and jury, who sat upon the inquest held this 27th day of October, 1902, on the body of E. Johnson, found in Precinct No. 3, October 26, 1

Amendment of Articles.

James Sutherland, Harry F. Smith, Albert D. Garnett and Robert Kellahin, directors of the Pecos Valley Lumber company, with headquarters at Roswell, have filed with the territorial secretary amendments of their articles of incorporation designating an increase in capital stock from $20,000 to $25,000, divided as above into shares of $100 each.

Homestead Entries—Isabel Maes of Pinos Wells, 160 acres in Valencia county; James King, of Springer, 160 acres in Mora county.

Final Homestead Entries—Manuel Archibeque, of Puerto de Luna, 160 acres in Guadalupe county; Margaret M. Spratt, of Wagon Mound, 160 acres in Mora county.

Contested Entry Decided.

The contest of Luther M. Shely against Felipe Baca, over homestead entry No. 6,166, was decided Monday. The land involved adjoins Santa Rosa and is rapidly growing in value. It was held that the homestead entry was fraudulent in inception as within three months Baca sold the land to the Alamogordo Improvement company and it was added to the town site of Santa Rosa. The holding was in favor of Shely and cancellation of the entry recommended.

Capital Custodian Commission.

The capital custodian commission met in Santa Fe on Monday in regular monthly session at its office in the capitol building. Routine business was transacted and accounts were approved and paid. Instructions were given to the janitor in charge of the building to make all necessary improvements and to prepare the building and grounds for the holding of the sessions of the legislative assembly. The commission recently purchased a sufficient length of fire hose with nozzles complete for the purpose of using the same upon any part of the building from the fire plugs outside. There is also sufficient fire hose in the building to be used on each floor in case of necessity.

Land Commission.

The United States land commission held its regular monthly meeting Monday and transacted routine business. The commission also ordered the selection of 50,000 acres of grazing land in the Pecos valley in Chaves and Eddy counties to be charged to the appropriation of lands for public buildings at the capitol.

The territorial land commission was also in session. It approved a number of leases for school sections. The commission, having had the appeal case of Barreras vs. Trujillo, as to the prior right to lease the school section in the vicinity of Puerto de Luna, in Guadalupe county, under consideration for a month, decided to sustain the action of Land Commissioner A. A. Keen in holding that the lease should be given to Barreras, who had established prior right to the same.

DEATH OF MRS. E. A. CAHOON.

Occurred at Roswell and Was a Shock to Friends.

Died, Friday, October 24, 1902, at 3:48 p. m., Mabel Howell Cahoon, beloved wife of E. A. Cahoon, cashier of the First National bank of Roswell, aged 28 years, 11 months and 24 days, after a lingering illness of nearly five months. Mrs. Cahoon was born at Shelling, Cal., October 29, 1873. Her father, Major M. Howell, now treasurer and collector of this county, moved to Roswell with his family in 1887. She was a successful teacher in the public schools of Roswell for some time; the only photograph taken of the original public school building and the scholars as a group includes her picture as one of the teachers, standing among the children, by whom she was greatly loved. She was married April 26, 1894, to Edward A. Cahoon, at Merced, Cal. Three children have been born to them—Katherine, aged 7; Louise, aged 5, and little baby Mabel, only 11 weeks of age, at the time of the mother's death. Mrs. Cahoon was perfectly conscious and rational for three weeks before her death, and up to the Tuesday before her death, was apparently getting better. Her death was a terrible shock to all and particularly to her husband and the loving friends who had watched and hoped for her final recovery.—Roswell Register.

Prized His Wife.

A story is told of a Pennsylvania farmer who wore his old suit until every one was tired of it, and his estimable wife was almost ashamed of the husband who had been inside it so long. But one day he went to town to sell his produce, and while there he determined to buy a new suit and, happy thought, surprise Eliza. So he bundled a new suit into the wagon and drove homeward.

It was after midnight as he hurried toward home, and as a bridge over a river stood up on the wagon and "Eliza" and there the despoiled old suit in the water. When he reached for his new clothes, they were gone—and passed out of the stream. The night was cold and his teeth chattered as he hurried home. He surprised Eliza even more than he anticipated.

Dropped Dead.

William J. Fountain, familiarly known as "Uncle Bill," dropped dead from heart disease in the grocery department of Porter-Ewell's store on Saturday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. Mr. Fountain was about to make a purchase, when without any warning, he fell to the floor. His death was instantaneous. He had been complaining for several days with trouble in the region of his heart. The body was removed to the undertaking establishment of Clarence Ullery, and Judge Lea, the coroner, summoned, who deemed an inquest unnecessary.—Roswell Register.

Money and Politics.

Simple—I suppose the correct way to go into politics is to go in with a barrel of money?

Wise—It is not so much how one goes in, but how one comes out. Come out with a barrel of money, and you may be sure you are a successful politician.—Boston Transcript.

BRUTAL EXHIBITION.

A Bull Fight at Juarez Witnessed by Disgusted Crowd.

There was another brutal exhibition of how bull fights are not given, over in Juarez Sunday afternoon and as usual there was a good sized crowd in attendance, mostly visitors. Four bulls were killed and two horses were so badly injured that they had to be slain.

The poor horses were so feeble that when they entered the ring they could hardly stand and a Mexican had to run behind one or two of them with a whip to make them even move. The horses were either purposely starved to save the price of feed, as their doom was already known, or they were purchased from some party who had starved them to death through inability to get the forage to help them sustain life.

The fight was revolting beyond the ordinary and many of the Americans left before it was over. The bulls apparently had no more life than the poor horses, and only one of them showed the least bit of fight.

The fighters were also very clumsy, and had to make several thrusts to end the life of the animals.—El Paso Herald.

INCIDENTS OF THE WAR.

Interesting Features of the Recent G. A. R. Encampment.

A telegram from Washington to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat has the following regarding Gen. E. A. Carr, and will be read with interest by his many New Mexico friends:

One of the most interesting features of the G. A. R. encampment to the old soldier are the anecdotes and personal incidents of the war. At the reunion of the Thirtieth army corps in Sherman tent, October 9, Gen. Eugene A. Carr of the regular army was made chairman. In introducing the first speaker, ex-Gov. Joseph Fifer, of Illinois, and now a member of the interstate commerce commission, General Carr said:

"Private Joe needs no introduction. The old soldiers know him. He belonged to the Thirtieth Illinois, called the 'normal school regiment,' and they started out as a regiment of school teachers. Charles P. Hovey was the principal of the school and became the first colonel. He was a typical scholar. Lippincott was lieutenant colonel, and afterwards secretary of state of Illinois, but there were not enough school teachers to fill up the regiment and they had to recruit from others not quite so learned. 'Private Joe' will now make his speech, and you can judge from which class he came." Time may have silvered "Private Joe's" hair, but time has made no impression on his energy or his splendid vigor. His wonderful eloquence thrilled his hearers, and it was decided by the audience that Private Joe was a whole school house of teachers combined.

Next on the program to speak was General Carr, and after he had related the many deeds of the gallant Thirtieth corps, he noticed in the audience Sergeant Rowley of the First Infantry, and began to remember campaigns in Texas before the war.

General Carr said: "Sergeant, do you remember the two bear cubs we had that time we started out from Fort Cobb?"

Sergeant Rowley, blushing like sweet sixteen, stood up and said: "Yes, general, I don't know what became of them." Whereupon, another old soldier in the audience spoke out and said: "Well, I know, when they came back to the post, they ate up all my sugar."

The soldiers of the old army are fond of greeting Gen. Eugene Carr. He has always been their friend. When Frederic Remington visited General Carr's camp at Pine Ridge, he said: "I was well entertained and taken care of. General Carr is an accomplished soldier and a cultured gentleman, but his whole mind is absorbed in 'bacon and forage'—meat for his men, hay for his horses."

General Carr marched with his post, Ransom of St. Louis, parade day. He is one of their medal of honor men, and they gave him three cheers when he left the ranks, the regular army sent no better soldier to the civil war than General Carr. The Thirtieth elected him president of their corps for the ensuing year.

Ransom post and the Missouri commandery attracted attention parade day by their marching, uniform and splendid band. They may have been

"old soldiers," but they have not forgotten how to appear on parade, and may they live long and prosper, and let us see them all again in 1902 in the city by the Golden Gate.

A STRANGE BEING.

He was Nervous and Was Absorbed With Mind Reading.

A man with keen, restless eyes, long hair, and whose every movement indicated a nervous temperament, put up for the night at one of Albuquerque's large rooming houses a day or so since. His mind seems completely absorbed with mind reading, thought transference and psychic influences. He discoursed long, earnestly and eloquently on these subjects before retiring. The clerk said, after showing him to his room: "That man is so wrought up on thought transference that he is on the verge of insanity."

About midnight the clerk was roused from his dozing by a call from his friend of the soul power. Said he: "This room is so full of thought waves and they cross and conflict with one another in such a way that I can not interpret them, and they annoy and appeal to me so that I cannot sleep. Do you think I had better drive them out or move the bed to another part of the room and out of their sphere of influence?"

The clerk, thinking it would be the easier, advised that they move the bed. This was done and evidently had the desired effect, for nothing more was seen or heard of the man of psychic power till morning, when the clerk thankfully saw him depart.

Royally Bred Jerseys.

Gleekler's dairy has just received a couple of the finest bred young Jerseys of the Kinlock herd of Dr. Still, of Kirksville, Mo. The bull Guenon Lad 4th is by the imported champion show bull of the Island of Jersey, 1901. Guenon Lad 54,422 Imp. He was of the Golden Lad strain on both sides, the first prize winners over the island for many years. His dam is Laronitti of Ingleside, tested to make twenty-five pounds butter in one week and is to be entered in St. Louis Exposition contest 1904. The heifer Arden's Ruby is by the Duke of Arden of the justly famous Pedro strain, first prize winner at world's fair and sister of twenty-seven daughters over eighteen pounds in seven days. She is out of Lorne's Ruby of the well known St. Lambert, Tormentor strain. We trust that this may be only the beginning of interest in choice stock in this territory, and Mr. Gleekler is to be complimented in his selections.

Intemperance and Women.

London, Nov. 6.—The proceedings of the annual conference of the Women's Union of the church of England Temperance Society, which commenced today with Mrs. Temple, the society's president, promising to attract wide attention owing to the fact that the alleged growing intemperance among women has been chosen as the main theme for discussion. The conference will discuss at length the points brought out in Viscount Peel's address to the Women's union, some months since, at the close of the work of the royal commission on the licensing laws. The bishop of London, Sir Thomas Barlow (physician to the king) and Dr. Braughwaite are among the persons of note who have promised to address the conference.

Deutschland Resumes Service.

Golf at Atlantic City.

Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 6.—The fall golf tournament of the Country club at Atlantic City opened today under auspicious conditions. The tournament continues through the remainder of the week. The Atlantic City cup, won in 1900 by Walter J. Travis, and later by Findlay S. Douglas, will be contested for and there are also a number of other cups and prizes.

Ohio Valley Medics.

Evansville, Ind., Nov. 6.—Three hundred eminent physicians and surgeons are in Evansville for the annual meeting of the Ohio Valley Medical association. A two days' program has been arranged, calling for papers, addresses and discussions covering a wide range of subjects of interest and importance to the medical profession. The president of the society and the presiding officer at the convention is Dr. Frazier, of Marion, Ky.

Scab Sheep.

M. W. Stone, the sheep inspector for Chaves county and Ernest Johnson, of Hope, sheep inspector for Eddy county, returned last Friday from a four-weeks' tour of Lincoln county. They found a great deal of scab among the sheep and had from 60,000 to 70,000 head dipped "according to Hoyle," which means that a good job was done in each case.—Roswell Register.

Serious Accident.

Rolin Boren, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Boren, who works for his father out on the ranch, started out Tuesday afternoon to fix a wind mill. His horse ran away with him, threw him and injured his back and hips severely. Medical aid was summoned at once, and it is hoped that nothing serious will result. As the injuries are so painful to bring him home, he is out at the Highland ranch, thirty-five miles from town. It will be remembered that two children have been removed from this family by death within the last year.

and now the third meeting with this accident, the parents and relatives have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends.—Portales Herald.

AMERICANS HAD BEST OF IT.

Figures Show Its Attendance Was 585, 801 More Than the National.

In point of attendance on the games of the major leagues last season, the American league had all the best of it, and had no really poor cities, as was the case with the National league at Philadelphia and Boston.

The smallest attendance was at the league games in Philadelphia, where for several seasons the banner crowds had been seen. The St. Louis club drew the smallest number of people to a home series at Philadelphia, while the largest attendance was in the same city, where Boston drew 74,000 people at the American games.

The clubs supposed to give out the correct attendance were those at Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Washington, Boston, Americans, Cleveland and Detroit. At New York the crowds were estimated, and usually high. The Boston league gave out at least one-fifth more than was present. Brooklyn did the same. The St. Louis clubs swelled the attendance at least 10 per cent. Cincinnati often swelled, especially with the crowds present.

The following shows the total attendance of both leagues: American league attendance, 2,172,724. National league attendance, 1,586,923.

In favor of American league 585,801.

DISTRICT COURT.

The district court this morning was engaged in trying the case of Herbert Dionz, trustee in bankruptcy of Brady & Eakin, against Mattie L. Eakin, to subject certain property standing in the name of the defendant, to the payment of debts of Brady & Eakin, and the husband of Mattie L. Eakin. The case has once before been tried and reversed by the supreme court, and the contest is now over the property, which plaintiff claims to be the property of Mr. Eakin, while the defendant claims it as the separate property of Mrs. Eakin, acquired from her husband when he was financially in good standing.

Yesterday the court tried the case of David Taylor versus Jose L. Perea, sheriff, a suit brought in 1892 for unlawful attachment of five race horses valued at $5,000. The horses were attached as the property of George M. Miles, proprietor of the old Armijo house, when he failed in business. The case has been pending so long that all trace of plaintiff who hailed from Emporia, Kan., seems to have been lost, and defendants moved to dismiss the case on legal presumption of plaintiff's death. The court, however, heard the evidence, and therein found the issues for the defendant.

COLORADO ELECTION.

Legislature May Defeat Senator Teller and Elect Republican Senator.

Denver, Nov. 6.—According to the latest returns, the entire state ticket elected is republican by majorities ranging from 5,000 to 7,000, with the exception of Mrs. Helen M. Greenleaf, democrat, who appears to be elected by about 2,400. In the candidates for congress, Shafroth, democrat, has 2,455 plurality. Hogg, republican, 3,221 and Brooks, republican, 3,411.

Legislature May Be Republican.
Denver, Nov. 6.—The situation in reference to the legislative ticket is confusing. Returns last night and today have increased the number of republican members of both houses and as a result Teller's fate hangs in the balance.

According to the latest returns and with few exceptions, they are official, there will be thirty-six republicans and twenty-nine democrats, including Arapahoe county, in the house, and twenty-two democrats and fourteen republicans in the senate.

Senator Newell, republican, in the Twenty-fourth district, will undoubtedly be unseated as there can only be thirty-five senators. This would give the democrats one majority on joint ballot, with the Arapahoe members of the house. The house being republican may unseat the entire Arapahoe delegation, on charges of fraud in the city. This would give the republicans a majority on joint ballot and defeat Teller. On the other hand the democrats are claiming fraud in Huerfano and Las Animas counties and they will contest the election of the republican members of those counties.

DEATH OF VEST.

Son of the Missouri Senator Dies in Washington.

When the clerk next called at the room, soon after 6 o'clock, he found Vest dead.

PRESIDENTIAL TRIP.

President Roosevelt Will Visit Southern and Western States.

Washington, Nov. 6.—President Roosevelt will leave here next Monday at midnight and will not return to Washington until after the reception to Governor Luke Wright, of Tennessee, at Memphis, November 19. He will be present at the dedication of the chamber of commerce building in New York on Tuesday and Tuesday night will make a speech at the chamber of commerce dinner. The next day he will go west and south. The exact itinerary has not been announced, but it is believed that he contemplates a bear hunt in one of the southern states before going to Memphis. Upon his return he will stop in Washington only one day, as he accepted an invitation to attend the Union League club banquet in Philadelphia on November 22.

NEW EXECUTIVE OFFICE.

President Roosevelt Occupies New Business Offices.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 6.—President Roosevelt today began the transaction of business in the new executive offices adjoining the White house. A few finishing touches still remain to be put upon the building, but the interior is practically completed and the office force has been installed.

The president was in his office early but before he reached the public reception room it was well filled with visitors.

The president, however, was kept busy with Secretary Cortelyou until the arrival about 10:30, almost simultaneously, of Attorney General Knox, Col. Clayton McMichael, postmaster of Philadelphia, and the members of the civil service commission.

The president greeted them together and with Colonel McMichael, had extended consultation with members of the commission.

The president expressed to Colonel McMichael gratification over the results of the election, saying that next to New York the principal interest was in the Keystone state.

The members of the civil service commission would not state the nature of their business, but it is believed that charges of the violation of civil service laws in Pennsylvania was discussed.

PROVED INNOCENT.

Boston Man Falsely Accused of Murdering a Woman.

Boston, Nov. 6.—The gold watch of Clara Morton, the McLean hospital domestic, who was killed on Saturday, and for whose murder Allan C. Mason, is charged, has been found in a Boston pawnshop and the police are searching for the negro who is said to have sold it.

Chief of Police Watts does not conceal the belief that the negro murdered Clara Morton and that Mason is innocent.

As there have been a number of assault cases in this city in which the principal has been described as a negro, Chief Watts considered this new phase of the Waverly affair as very important. He said today:

"This let's Mason out of it altogether." The chief said he was using every resource of the police department to locate the negro and expressed confidence that he would be caught within forty-eight hours.
