MAIN BENEFIT TO VERY RICH

There are two classes of people who get relief in the way of income tax under the Fordney tax bill: The person with an income between $2,500 and $5,000, the exemption being increased from $2,000 to $2,500.

The allowance for dependent children is doubled and the person whose income exceeds $66,000 a year. There is no relief for the person whose income is between $1,000 and $66,000. There will be no quarrel over their increase in the exemption of the small income taxpayer, even though the motive for making it may be solely in the nature of a political bid, but even this concession is of no benefit to the 1,731,000 persons reported by the Department of Labor to be out of work at this time.

As the bill stands there is no real relief for anybody this year with the practical certainty of a big deficit staring the government in the face at the end of the fiscal year.

TAX TINKERING

Men with incomes of over a million a year are to have their tax rate reduced more than half. Those whose incomes are under $4,000 are not to be lowered and those above that amount are to be raised enough to make up for what Uncle Sam will lose by reducing the taxes of those with incomes of more than $20,000 a year or a million a year. That is quite in line with the methods of the little handful of financial and political bosses who pull the strings of our government. Puck and Judy show. Nothing off the bottom; move on the middle and half off the top.

The makers of our tariff and taxes are great believers in at least so much of the Bible as says "to him that hath, to him shall be given. From him that hath not, from him shall be taken away, even that which he hath."

People of State Have Confidence In Hanna, Democratic Nominee

Santa Fe, N. M., August 31.—The nomination of Richard H. Hanna, New Mexico Democracy's standard bearer a year ago, as candidate for the United States Senate at the election to be held September 20, has met with the general approval of the state. No other citizen is better qualified to represent the state. An uncompromising and indomitable fighter for real democracy in New Mexico as against the Republican machine oligarchy, Hanna is a figure round whom the best citizenship of New Mexico regardless of party can rally with enthusiasm. His energy and virility are infectious and his consistent record his sturdy honesty and political integrity are known to everyone in New Mexico.

Richard H. Hanna went before the people as candidate for Governor in 1920 and told the voters that the Republican pledges of progressive legislation, of a direct primary law, of a reduction in taxes, of an adjustment of the tax burden and economy and efficiency in government a fake. He told them that the Republican organization would "pack" the state senate with reactionaries who would protect their interests and emasculate any proposed tax reform until it was only a shadow without substance. He told them that H. O. Bursum would be appointed U. S. Senator by Mitchem, if the latter were elected. He told them that there would be no real abolition of useless offices and no change in the type of office holders if the Republicans won the election, but that lame ducks and party leaders would be given the jobs.

Judge Hanna told them there would be no reformation in the state land office system whereby that department of the state government has been maintained as a formidable weapon to influence votes.

All that of which Judge Hanna warned has now taken place. It is particularly fitting that he should again go before the people to present the conclusive proof of all the charges in 1920. The killing of the direct primary law and other proposed modern legislation and the proposal of a "joker" constitutional amendment which the republican organization itself is now preparing to defeat, the appointment of H. O. Bursum as senator in direct contravention of the will of the voters, the appointments of incompetents and political derelicts to important offices, the raising of taxes and failure to reduce the cost of government, the protection of wealthy corporations by a "packed" state senate and the "joker" revenue code are a few of the proofs which Judge Hanna now has in his hands. It is seldom that a candidate has such an immediate opportunity to furnish corroboration of his campaign charges. Judge Hanna has the goods on the republicans and no voter is going to be misled about the facts this year. They come too close to his own pocketbook.

Meanwhile, H. O. Bursum, veteran of questionable politics and discredited political boss, is again confronted with the job of defending a record which the people of New Mexico have repeatedly condemned. His nomination for U. S. Senator was railroaded through by his handpicked organization. The delegates at the Republican convention tacitly confessed they were there to carry out Mr. Bursum's instructions as quickly as possible and go home.

Mr. Bursum has nothing to offer but a new set of promises and the assertion that he "stands in" with organization politicians at Washington. He makes the covert threat that if the people don't swallow him they won't get even a handout at Washington.

The course of the people of New Mexico is clear. They cannot fall off Mr. Bursum's latest appeal without stultifying themselves; and by electing Richard H. Hanna to the U. S. Senate they will be reflecting credit on their state and serving notice on the nation that they cannot be fooled nor intimidated. Their choice is between Hanna, a clean, upstanding, able citizen and Bursum, a political boss.

interested, of course, in the best adjustment of tax burdens. What is wanted is honest expenditures of taxes. Any small group of real business men could straighten things out in a short time by putting business methods into government, but that wouldn't suit the "patriotic" plunderers.—Southern World.

Portales has joined the ranks of progressive communities and has voted bonds for an eighty thousand dollar high school building, the issue carrying by a majority of over 8 to 1. Good schools are helping to bring eastern New Mexico to the front.

"MY CIVIC CREED"

My city is the place where my home is founded; where my business is situated; where my vote is cast; where my children are educated; where my life is chiefly lived.

My city has a right to my civic loyalty. It supports me, and I must support it.

My city wants my citizenship, not partnership; its friendliness, not selfishness; co-operation, not dissension; sympathy, not criticism; my intelligent support, not indifference.

My city supplies me with law and order, trade, friends, education, rights, recreation, and the rights of a free-born citizen.

I should and do believe in my Home Town, and I will work for it and stay with it on every occasion, so help me God.

Tired

"I was weak and run-down," relates Mrs. Eula Burnett, of Dalton, Ga. "I was thin and just felt tired, all the time. I didn't rest well. I wasn't over hungry. I knew, by this, I needed a tonic, and as there is none better than—

CARDUI
The Woman's Tonic

"... I began using Cardui," continues Mrs. Burnett. "After my first bottle, I slept better and ate better. I took four bottles. Now I'm well, feel just fine, eat and sleep, my skin is clear and I have gained and sure feel that Cardui is the best tonic ever made."

Thousands of other women have found Cardui just as Mrs. Burnett did. It should help you.

MRS. E. H. ASHCRAFT HONORED

The Clovis Woman's Club entertained on Tuesday at the White Rose Cafe, at a one o'clock luncheon in honor of Mrs. E. H. Ashcraft. A lovely three-course luncheon was served to twenty-eight of the club members. Table decorations were American Beauty roses and gladiol.

Mrs. Ashcraft has been president of the club for more than two years and has done much to bring the club to a better standard through her capacity, faithfulness and sweet and gentle manner.

Mrs. Ashcraft leaves shortly for Amarillo where she will make her future home and the club realizes its loss in so capable a president and will miss her greatly from its meetings. Toasts were made to the honoree by Mesdames McIlrath, Brown, Dillan, Smith, Beckett, Childers, Magin and Dennis, in which bits of poetry and cleverness suited the occasion. Mrs. Ashcraft was presented with a pretty silver snapshot plate as a gift from the club members. Immediately after the luncheon the club met at the home of Mrs. Childers for a short business session in which Mrs. Ashcraft's resignation was accepted and a new president elected.

Mrs. A. W. Hockeshull was unanimously elected but she declined the honor and Mrs. Jeff Hightower was elected as the new president.

Don't Let Poor Vision Handicap Their Future

Poor vision is a handicap to any school child. What is worse, the handicap will be present all through life. A child with poor vision is always a backward student because poor vision will not permit it to attack its work with the vim and vigor of children with normal vision. And a backward student usually develops into a dull man or woman.

Take Referendum on Amendment

The Chamber of Commerce will refer to a referendum of its members the matter of advocating the proposed bond amendment which will be voted on in September. Following is the resolution that will be mailed out to the Chamber of Commerce members in order to get their views on the matter:

WHEREAS, the credit of the State of New Mexico, by legislative action, has been pledged to meet Federal aid in road construction, and

WHEREAS, the annual tax levies for Federal aid purposes were reduced by the Fifth Legislature from three mills to two mills, with the understanding that the necessary funds to meet allotments of Federal funds appropriated by Congress would be furnished by the $2,000,000.00 bond issue to be voted upon at the election of September 20, 1921, and,

WHEREAS, the annual tax required to meet that bond issue will amount to only thirty-eight (38) cents per thousand ($1,000) dollars of assessed valuation, and,

WHEREAS, the State Highway Commission will lack $1,250,000 of meeting existing Federal allotments and that amount of money will be lost to the State unless said bond issue is authorized.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that we favor the ratification of the Good Roads Amendment No. 11, and urge the commercial bodies and other similar organizations throughout the State to support said constitutional amendment No. 11 at the coming September election.

STRIKE BALLOTS ON WAGE CUT OF RAILROAD UNION MEN MAILED OUT

Cleveland, O., Aug. 28.—Strike ballots on acceptance or rejection of the recent $400,000,000 wage reduction ordered by the railroad board were mailed tonight to the 409,000 members of the "big four" brotherhoods and the Switchmen Union of North America.

The ballots revealed a difference of opinion among the executives of the organizations, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, Order of Railway Conductors and the switchmen using a joint ballot while the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen sent out a separate ballot.

The trainmen's ballot stated that it had been the intention of all organizations to use a joint ballot but that this was impossible because the ballots adopted by the other organizations "did not, in our opinion, contain an impartial and unbiased recital of all involved, nor did it convey the assurance that the wishes of the men, if against working for reduced wages, would determine the question, and that they would be permitted to leave the service."

The joint ballot declared that if the membership vote was to reject the wage reductions which became effective July 1, "it is to be understood that the men will be permitted to withdraw from the service unless satisfactory settlement can be reached under the laws of the organization."

"The proposition which confronts our members and others," said the trainmen's ballot, "carries with it an attempt to reverse the decision of the railroad labor board on the wage reduction now in effect since July 1, or else persuade or compel railroad companies to reinstitute wage rates that the labor board decided should be reduced."

"All members and others are hereby notified that if the membership vote is in majority to leave the service, they will on any and all lines where such vote is secured (with the sanction of the general grievance committee) be given necessary authority by the president of the grand lodge. The president of the grand lodge will not undertake to prevent the wishes of the men as expressed in their ballot from being adhered to."

The number of active members of the organization to whom ballots were mailed was estimated at 150,000 trainmen, 115,000 firemen, 80,000 engineers, 50,000 conductors and 14,000 switchmen. In addition the wage reduction had been previously voted on by the six shop crafts under the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor. The results has been understood to be largely against the acceptance of the reductions.

ROAD AMENDMENT WILL BENEFIT COUNTY

D. W. Jones, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, says that the road amendment to be voted on Sept. 20th, will be of great benefit to Curry County. Speaking of the amendment Mr. Jones said this week:

"Amendment No. 11 is the one important amendment to Clovis and Curry County. If this amendment carries, ample funds will be available immediately for the construction of a hard-surfaced road from Clovis to the Quay County line through the great wheat and grain belt of eastern New Mexico. There is no other way that this road can be built so quickly and so cheaply as by this method. Should this amendment carry, the annual levy to pay the interest and retire the bonds will only amount to one-third of a mill or thirty-three and one-third cents on the one thousand dollar valuation, using the 1921 valuation as a basis.

"If the amendment does not carry, the only way to get this road built at once would be to vote county bonds in a sum sufficient to do it; but this method would throw the entire burden on Curry County, while under the other method the Federal Government would contribute more than half of the entire costs of the improved road.

"From a selfish standpoint it is certainly to the interest of Clovis and Curry County to vote for this amendment. From a larger viewpoint, I think that it should be carried as a means of developing and opening up the State to settlement and development of its undeveloped resources, and no state in the Union has larger natural resources wholly undeveloped than New Mexico.

"If this amendment is not carried the state will at once forfeit and lose $1,250,000.00 which has already been appropriated and allotted for road improvements in New Mexico and in addition to this there will be no means of meeting new Federal aid allotments for New Mexico. The expenditure of this vast sum in the aggregate amounting to between three and four million dollars will be of inestimable value to the hundreds of our citizens who are threatened with unemployment as it is a well known fact that about eighty percent of highway construction costs goes for labor and supplies which are obtained locally. The building of this great hard-surfaced highway to the north end of the county will do much towards developing the grain section of Curry County, and in my judgment, will be worth more than another railroad in its effect on our city and community. If the people of Clovis and Curry County wish to build at once a great highway to the north end of the county, they should vote 'Yes' on this amendment."

thing," etc. Owing to the unusual interest, the committee in charge has arranged for evangelist Larson to continue the meetings another week. The subjects will be announced from the pulpit from night to night. All are welcome.

THE RENTED HOME By Walt Mason

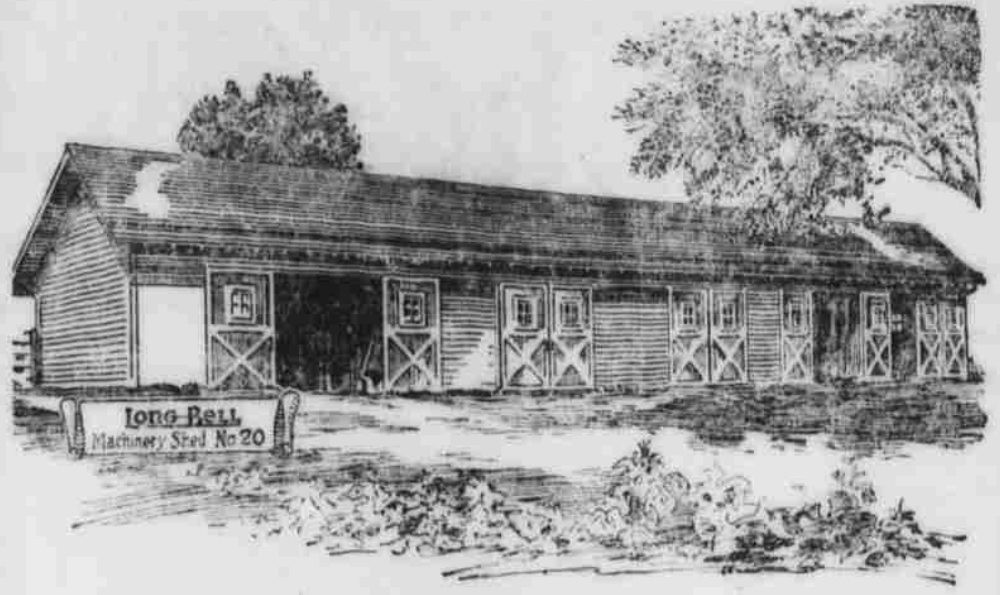

The money you have paid for rent is gone beyond recall, though you have paid it for a tent, or for a stately hall; some landlord took it cent by cent, and left your bundle small. Some landlord took your iron men and left you feeling sore, for you were needing every yen to buy things at the store; and every month he came again, and took away some more. You've bought that residence, lack, you poor misguided gent! You've bought the blamed place front and back, and by the strain you're bent; and still the landlord owns the shack, and bones you for the rent. Not yours the roof-tree overhead, not yours the cistern pump; the landlord owns the fence and shed, the whole works in a lump; when you can't pay him you must tread the pathway to the dump. When you are sick or out of luck the landlord stern appears and clamors loudly for each buck for which you're in arrears, and hauls your dunnage in a truck to soulless auctioneers. A sane and prudent weight is he who in his own shack dwells, though it may plain and humble be, not built for blooming swells; we see him 'neath his vine and tree, and note he's wearing bells.

Why Do They Do It?

By the "Barn Man."

A man was complaining the other day about the high cost of farm implements. Listen! This man's new binder sat in the field all winter.

Most farmers take care of their machinery—just why others do not is a mystery. A little lumber used to build an implement shed will protect and double the life of a lot of expensive machinery.

We are not farmers, and we are not going to advise another man about his own business, but if you are one who intends building an implement house, don't fail to examine our latest plans before building. We have the latest plans and the best material to build just the size and kind of an implement house you need.

We will enjoy talking it over with you, showing you the material and quoting you price—no obligation.

THE TRIBE AND THE TARIFF

If a tribe of savages made just enough beautiful beads to supply to its own members at a high price, it would be sound economic doctrine for the medicine man to build a stockade around the village and refuse to let the Pale Faces undersell with beads of their own.

But if the same tribe made enormous quantities of beads, if the tribal consumption alone was insufficient to support the bead industry, and the bead kings had to compete all over the world, then the tariff stockade would not help, but would only result in retaliatory taxes by other tribes throughout the world.

When a country is in the strictly tribal stage of trade; when its national resources are so abundant and so varied as to make it virtually self-sufficient, self-supporting, and self-contained—then it matters little what kind of tariff barriers are erected to protect the domestic industries.

But just as soon as a nation depends upon world business, then it must make up its mind to trade upon a substantially equal basis with the rest of the world.

You can protect an infant industry for a while, but in the long run you can't sell to the world at your price if you deduct a stiff money penalty at your customhouses from the price the world pays you in its goods.

Tariffs of some degree we must have. The whole matter is complicated by the present rate of foreign exchange. But let us hope that our congressional tariff tinkers will wake up to the fact that it is a long cry from the days of the Payne-Aldrich medicine man, that America is defi-

THE SPELD DEMON

There is a lust for speed just as there are other hurtful and devouring lusts of body and spirit.

It is just announced that a German inventor, operating in Holland, has produced an airplane which has made a record of 312 miles an hour. That means that such a machine could fly from Germany to America in one day! Incredible as this claim may appear, we have no right to dispute it. This is the age of mechanical marvels.

The new ship, which makes appear petty even the story of the Flying Carpet in the Oriental imaginary tale includes the features of vertical ascent among other wonderful new properties.

From France comes the news that a number of new monoplanes, possessed of engines of anything up to 600 horse power, easily attain a speed of 220 miles an hour. These could be left practically standing by the new German flier.

What effect is such development to have on the question of disarmament? France, particularly, scarcely is to be blamed for inclining to a reliance on defensive military operations. Doubtless her inventors will duplicate the German super-machine. And then what? Why, the rest of us must follow suit—suffer from such incomparable disadvantage.

No matter what altruistic statesmen, gentle pacifists or burdened tax-paying millions may say or feel or do in the matter of disarmament, men will continue to fight.

But the speed demon is an alluring devil. Men desire to annihilate distances. Men of peace are as easily bitten by this urge as are men of war. Business will encourage and adventure will enlarge, passions both good and evil will befriend the speed demon, and strive for ever more remarkable constructions.

But will the world be happier or better off than in the days of the runner, the courier, the stage coach? Not at all. The almost universal response to the urge of the speed demon is, and will continue to be, an evil obsession.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The question of cleaner money does not interest us to any great extent. What we want to know is when we are to get more of it?

THE UNIVERSAL CAR
A TRUCK FOR CITY, FARM AND INTERURBAN
DELIVERIES

In the few years it has been on the market, the Ford One-Ton Truck has mounted rapidly to popularity. During the past year more than one-third of the total number of trucks sold in the United States, were Ford One-Ton Trucks. It is a record of achievement made entirely on demonstrated merit.

Wherever the Ford Truck has been used—on the farm, in the city, its sure, economical service and simplicity have made it a success. So that today it is a necessity for the wholesaler, the retailer, the farmer. It offers efficient and economical hauling for every business. Demountable Rims and Pneumatic Tires.

The Ford One-Ton Truck costs less to buy than any other truck; it costs less to operate and less to maintain. Added to this, is the Ford service organization; spare parts and Ford mechanics are always convenient and ready to keep the Ford Truck on the job. The Ford Truck cuts delivery costs. Because of increasing demand, orders should be placed without delay. We will give you prompt attention. When you come right down to reason, what is there to "discount" tires—

THE next time a friend comes to you all excited about some wonderful tire bargain—ask him how much value he ought to get for each dollar of tire money.

It's astonishing that any car owner today should not know all the tire service he is entitled to.

Now how to check up between the economy of par quality on one hand—and big discounts, surplus stocks, discontinued lines and retreads on the other.

For two years U. S. Tire makers have been telling the American people all about tires.

They have laid open the tire business from every angle.

They have always led the fight for better tires.

They have consistently maintained quality first standards with certain economy for the tire buyer.

They have established 92 Factory Branches all over the country. Perfecting U. S. distribution so that you get a fresh, live tire every time you buy a U. S. Tire.

So when a man once decides on U. S. Tires he knows what he is getting in quality—service—economy.

In support of his own judgment he gets the pledged word and reputation of the largest and most successful tire concern in the world.

A sound reason for the fact that you see more U. S. Tires on more cars than ever this year.

"You get a fresh live tire every time you buy a U. S. Tire."

The U. S. CHAIN TREAD

One of the few tires of which it may be said that they deliver economy year in and year out and the after tire.

Was Surprise of My Life, He Says

OKLAHOMA BUSINESS MAN SAYS TANLAC RESTORED HIM A YEAR AGO AND HE STILL FEELS FINE.

"I endorse Tanlac from the bottom of my heart, for it set me right a year ago and I have enjoyed the best of health ever since," said Claud E. Andean, 200 Garfield Street, Sand Springs, Oklahoma. Mr. Andean is a member of the firm of Andean & Day, and his standing and influence are too well known to require further comment.

"I hadn't been in good health," he went on "for some two years and was so run down generally I could hardly take care of business. What little I ate did me more harm than good and I felt tired out from morning till night. I was nervous and restless and my whole system seemed to be out of order. I didn't know what it was to feel good, and I was worried over where it would all lead to.

"I saw Tanlac so highly recommended that I made up my mind to try it, and nothing ever surprised me more than the way I picked right up. Three bottles simply put me to feeling like I had been wanting to feel, and to this day I have been as good health as I ever was in my life. Tanlac certainly proved its worth in my case and there is no question about its being a great medicine."

Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere (Adv.)

SAW BIG PLOT IN FOOTBALL

Hard to Convince Turkish Authorities That the Game Was Not Revolutionary Camouflage.

It has always been a difficult matter to be a sportsman in Turkey. One Turk, Rehad Bey, tried it with a result weird enough to serve as a basis for a detective story.

It appears that the young Turk had organized a football team among his friends, together with some Greeks and Armenians, and began practicing. Shortly thereafter, in the middle of the night, police came to his house and carried him off to Scutari. There he was submitted to a long examination as to the club and the game of football.

The authorities were convinced that they had found a great plot, and that the club must be a secret society. A special messenger was sent for the hall, and that was duly examined and found to be an infernal machine. The rules of the game were considered to be another piece of damning evidence, and still worse were the sweaters and colors of the club.

After long deliberation the culprit was sent to the higher police authorities in Stamboul, who went through a second long examination and came to the conclusion that the empire had been saved from disintegration by the early discovery of a great plot. They dispatched the whole matter to be tucked into at the sultan's palace at Yildiz, and a special commission took the matter in hand.

After much careful thought and examination of the evidence of the crime it was decided that there might be nothing in it, but that it must not be committed again.

OUTWITTING THE BOND THIEF

Wall Street Bankers Have Devised Some Novel Methods of Camouflaging Securities.

Many runners in Wall Street are adopting novel methods of their own to safeguard the securities given in their care for delivery. In some instances firms have made suggestions and rules for "camouflaging" the handling of stocks and bonds outside of their offices. One broker's house has all securities pinned inside newspapers and one of its runners apparently walks around with a single newspaper under his arm which has attached to its pages inside valuable bonds and stocks. Yet another firm has hired former policemen to handle its deliveries of stock.

Another firm has presented its runners with suits, the vests of which have large inside pockets which are buttoned and in these the securities are carried and must be on pain of dismissal.

One wet day recently a special messenger of a large brokerage house carried two Liberty bonds of $50,000 apiece and three of $10,000 each pinned inside a closed umbrella.—Wall Street Journal.

Eastern Women Advancing.

Foot fit for fests, both as to shape and shoes, are no longer confined to men nor yet to the women of the western world, says a bulletin from the national board of the Y. W. C. A. In the recent Olympic games of the Far East, held in Shanghai, 1,200 girls and young women took part. Of these 200 were from Japan and the Philippine Islands, and the rest from China, 500 being Shanghai girls. The Shanghai delegation was selected and trained for the events by the Young Women's Christian association of Shanghai. "It is within the last six years that this activity in the land of little bound feet has developed," writes Miss Florence Brown of Rochester, N. Y., who is at present in Shanghai for the Y. W. C. A. "In 1915, when the last Olympic games were held," she says, "the only girls who took part were a few Filipino girls, who formed a baseball team."

His Desires.

The manager of the Indiana Masonic home overheard a group of small boys from the home discussing what they desired to be when they grew to be men. One insisted he would be a Mason, another a Shriner and another had ambitions to be a Noble of the Mystic Shrine, but five-year-old Jack, drum major in the home band, said: "No, I do not want to be any of those."

"What," the others replied, "don't want to be a Shriner or Mason or Noble; why, what do you want to be?"

He drew himself up and replied proudly, "Well, I'll tell you what. I want to be a papentate."—Indianapolis News.

Small Orphan Traveled Far.

Her baggage consisting of two letters, dealing with her father's war record, three-year-old Winnifred Josephine McKinley passed through Port Arthur, Ontario, recently on the Canadian Pacific on the way to her uncle's home in Swift Current, Saskatchewan. From her faraway home in Glasgow, Scotland, to the Canadian West, more than 4,000 miles, the little orphan had only the kindly directions of train and steamship officials to guide her.

Superiority of Oil Over Coal.

The amazing increase in the use of oil for fuel is not surprising when it is considered that weight for weight and with proper burners the oil gives 50 per cent more steam than coal. It is easier than coal to handle, it obviates dust and dirt, makes little smoke and no ashes and can be lighted instantly and controlled absolutely.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a remaining sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and the tube returned to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine runs thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Write for free literature. All Druggists sell it.

First Gas Tractor Caused Mirth

When people saw the first "horseless carriage," they laughed and yelled, "get a horse". But as the automobile was improved, the laugh turned into a smile of satisfaction that such a big step forward had been made in transportation.

Likewise when the first gasoline tractor appeared about 1905, many people branded the idea of power farming as an idle dream.

500,000 Tractors.
But the dream came true. Today there are over 500,000 tractors operating in the United States.

To us, with our modern tractors these first attempts to eliminate horses from the farm work seem as impractical as did the first automobile to people thirty years ago.

F. Z. Hazlett, writing in Scientific American says:

"The first gas tractors resembled the tractors of today just about as much as the first 'horseless carriage' resembled the 1920 automobile. Apparently 1905 is the year when a gas tractor designed to furnish power for plowing was first placed on the market. It was built to look as much as possible like a steam tractor engine, and it weighed 9½ tons."

The next few years saw many more tractors put on the market. Most of them were admittedly crude and apparently the efforts of manufacturers to get in on the ground floor.

Service to Farmers.
Naturally, farmers soon became dissatisfied with these machines. Instead of making farming less expensive, they increased the cost of production in many cases. So power farming suffered a setback. Manufacturers were quick to realize this and began to work on machines that would really give service to farmers. The result is the tractor of today.

Although it is not yet perfect, it is far superior to the early models.

Ed McDaniel, Prop.

THE GOVERNMENT AT WASHINGTON IS AT WORK FOR THE WEST

For the first time since Roosevelt's administration there is now a government at Washington that is alive to the needs of the west, and zealously at work to do all that government can do to supply those needs.

Facing mighty national and international problems, President Harding and the congress have found time to study the situation of the west's great producing industries; the grain growers, the livestock growers, the miners; and to take administrative and legislative action necessary to provide credit and markets for these industries and to restore prosperity to them and the great states they sustain.

Within six months President Harding and the congress have accomplished for the relief of western industries and for the restoration of their prosperity, these outstanding things:

An emergency tariff protecting meats, wheat and wool.
The framing of a permanent tariff law which will give adequate and enduring protection to farmers and live stock growers.

The framing of a revenue law requiring the elimination of six hundred millions of dollars of government expenditures and lifting from the shoulders of payers of federal taxes a full one-fifth of the burdens laid upon them by the war and the preceding extravagant administration.

Initiation of the $50,000,000 livestock loan pool, which has already restored demand for the range animals grown in New Mexico, at better prices.

Enactment into law of the greatest financial relief measure in the history of the world—the Agricultural Credits law; making available for financing and marketing the production of grain and live stock two and one-half billions of dollars and saving the live stock industry of the west from ruin by checking enforced liquidation and providing the long-time credits which will enable livestock growers of this and other range states to "grow out" of debt, and to grow back into permanent prosperity.

Federal supervision and regulation of the meat industry, from the grower to the consumer, with adequate regulation of both producers and consumers markets.

Regulation, through the Capper-Tincher law, of grain exchanges and boards of trade, and the admission of these exchanges of the representatives of farmers' co-operative marketing associations, on a basis of equal advantage with professional traders.

The restoration to first place on the government's program of national aid for western development of the reclamation of arid and undrained lands.

The elimination of increases in national forest grazing fees, proposed by the preceding administration; and the postponement until December 1 of the payment of this year's forest grazing fees; thus aiding livestock growers to pass safely through the crisis of financial stringency.

Changing to July 1 the final date for mining claim assessment work, a relief sought for and welcomed by every prospector and owner of an unpatented mining claim throughout the west.

THESE THINGS HAVE BEEN DONE FOR THE WEST, AND FOR NEW MEXICO during the first six months of the Harding administration. IN EVERY ONE OF THESE UNDERTAKINGS SENATOR HOLM O. BURSUM OF NEW MEXICO HAS TAKEN AN ACTIVE PART: IN SEVERAL OF THEM A LEADING PART.

It was Senator Bursum who launched the agitation resulting in the forming of the $50,000,000 livestock loan pool.

It was Senator Bursum who led the fight which included livestock growers in the Agricultural Credits law.

It was Senator Bursum who forced reclamation work to the front by insisting upon federal arbitration of the water rights in conflict between Utah, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, and California.

It was Senator Bursum who secured the agreement of the senate finance committee to include hides in the tariff law and whose amendment to the wool tariff has been accepted as the basis for that schedule as the senate will adopt it.

President Harding and a republican congress will govern this nation for three and one-half more years. The work done for the west thus far is a guaranty that more and greater things are to be done. The work that Senator Bursum has accomplished is a guaranty of the greater service he can and will perform, working as he will, as a member of the administration, as one of its supporters and in harmony with its undertakings.

Should New Mexico send a democrat to the senate now, he would vote—against the administration. Such a vote would avail New Mexico nothing. He might criticize the administration and the majority in congress; but no helpful result for our state or any of its people could possibly follow.

Holm O. Bursum, a strong, aggressive, able man; already trained in senatorial service; already accepted into the councils of the national administration; already deep in a great program of constructive legislation to aid in upbuilding our state and the west; will have behind him in working out that program, the sympathetic interests and active cooperation of the national administration and of the majority in both houses in congress.

The practical interests and material welfare of the people of New Mexico demand that in the special election on September 20, we put aside partisanship, prejudice, the memory of past controversies, and that we send back to the senate Holm O. Bursum, the man we KNOW can do most for our state and its people.

MAKE UP YOUR MIND NOW THAT YOU WILL VOTE FOR BURSUM ON SEPTEMBER 20. GET YOUR NEIGHBORS TO VOTE FOR HIM. HELP TO SEND BURSUM BACK TO THE SENATE WITH A MAJORITY SO OVERWHELMING THAT IT WILL ATTRACT NATIONAL ATTENTION, AS HIS WORK FOR YOU HAS ALREADY ATTRACTED NATIONAL ATTENTION, AND THAT WILL FURTHER STRENGTHEN HIM IN THE WORK HE HAS SET OUT TO DO FOR THE WELFARE OF NEW MEXICO.

Fifteen thousand men and women, members of the non-partisan Bursum clubs, join in this appeal to you to cast YOUR vote for the candidate we KNOW can do the most for New Mexico.

O. L. PHILLIPS, CHAIRMAN

Tractor manufacturers also show a better knowledge of their market. They are studying the needs of the farmer, and are building tractors to meet his needs.

Operating conditions are also being studied and tractors developed to meet these conditions.

Need for Power Farming.
The need for power farming is growing each year, due to several reasons. The most important one is the increasing scarcity of farm labor. This has been felt especially during the last few years, because of the high wages which have drawn many men from farms to factories.

According to the 1920 census figures, the population in cities is increasing faster than the population in rural districts. This is shown by the fact that in 1910 there were nearly 7,000,000 more people on farms than in the cities, while in 1920 there were only 4,000,000 more.

The census bureau, in a recent announcement says, "For several causes, the country has not been growing as rapidly as the city, but the difference appears to be greater at this census than ever before."

The editor of Implement and Tractor Age, in commenting on the census announcement says: "These figures show plainly that the labor for farm operations is a steadily decreasing quantity, although the productivity of the farm is more heavily taxed today than ever before. With the non-producers of foodstuffs constantly on the increase, in a greater ratio than the increase of food producers, it is easy to see that the production of food must be more per man engaged in that work than ever before."

Intensive Cultivation.
This obviously leads to the conclusion that farmers must adopt one or both of two methods. They must either reduce their acreage and cultivate more intensively, or increase their present acreage.

Either of these methods will require power in some form—man-power, horse-power or machine power. Obviously, man-power is not to be depended upon. That leaves horse-power and machine-power.

The present stage of development of tractors does not warrant the farmer's getting rid of all of his horses.

Still Need Horses.
Farmers' Bulletin 963 has this to say about the displacement of horses: "Many men expect the purchase of a tractor to enable them to do away very largely with the use of horses for farm work. Up to the present time, however, the tractor has not displaced horses to the extent commonly expected."

The big advantage of the tractor lies in the fact that it can give steady service under varying conditions, and that it relieves the peak load of horse labor during the plowing months.

The Dairy farmer says: "The ability to do heavy work and do it more thoroughly than can be done with horses is the greatest recommendation of the tractor. Heat has little effect on the tractor, and when horses would suffer and often have to stop work, the tractor can stay on the job."

Cost Same as Horses.

Investigations have shown that the cost of tractor operation is about the same as the cost of using horses. A government investigation made during last October and November among 286 tractor owners in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois shows that "the average cost per acre of power for the plowing done with two-plow tractors was about $2 and with the three-plow about $2.20. Based on the present costs of keeping work stock, the cost of power for plowing with horses would be about $1.90 per acre."

Farm Machinery-Farm Power, in commenting on this report, says: "If the horse cost and tractor cost of plowing are the same, but a man can plow five acres with a tractor in the time required to plow three acres with horses, it needs no expert to show that the use of mechanical power effects a great saving."

These are the points that must be emphasized in selling tractors. Tractors must be sold on their ability to do work.

Motor Age, in giving an account of a convention of Fordson dealers in Columbus, Ohio, says: "It was pointed out that ordinarily the farmer cannot be argued into buying a tractor, but that he must be made to want it, and the way to do this was to convince him of the value of power farming as an idea."

Future of Industry.

The tractor is here to stay. Of that there is not the slightest doubt. Farming with tractors is just as certain as was the development of machinery in other lines, and the replacement by machinery of the slower and more primitive methods originally used in these industries.—From the Gargoyle.

AFTERNOON HONOR

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Baptist church, after a business session Thursday afternoon, enjoyed a social hour in compliment to the Misses Ray and Ione Buster who, after a summer vacation visit in Clovis, are returning to their work of special study in the Baptist training school at Fort Worth.

A splendid program of vocal and instrumental music was rendered by Mesdames Bernard Tucker, C. R. Herrin, Otto Lovan and Miss Dorothy Tracy. At the close of the program the pastor, Rev. C. W. Stumph, in behalf of the auxiliary, presented a check to the Misses Buster for $53 in appreciation of their splendid missionary work of the church among

A Plain Talk Regarding Prices

This week the residents of Curry County will receive a circular giving prices and description of merchandise offered for sale by this firm. The prices are somewhat lower but are not yet back to pre-war prices, and we hope that they never will be. However, if 1914 prices prevail again at some future date it must be remembered that some radical changes must be made. For instance, in 1914 the farmers received 65c per bushel for No. 1 wheat, the carpenter 40c per hour for his services, and the transportation company received 33c for transporting 100 pounds of flour from the Kansas mill to the Clovis consumer. At present the farmer receives $1.06 per bushel for No. 1 wheat, the carpenter 87½c per hour for his services and the railroad company 58c for transporting the same 100 pounds of flour from Kansas to Clovis. Under such conditions we cannot sell flour as it was sold in 1914, and we are not trying to deceive you by telling you that we are. We are, however, selling all merchandise as cheaply as possible based upon present market, and when an item goes down we courageously take our loss by marking it down according to market value.

JOHN V. CONWAY
State Superintendent of Public Instruction

State Superintendent Conway says Amendment Would Ruin School

State Superintendent of Public Instruction, John V. Conway, who has been on a speaking tour through the Pecos Valley, visiting Teachers' Institutes in Chavez, Roosevelt, and Curry Counties, departed this morning for Hildboro in Sierra County, where he will visit the Sierra County Teachers' Institute before returning to his office at Santa Fe.

Superintendent Conway in his addresses has been clarifying the proposed Eighth Amendment to the State Constitution. He is appealing to educators and friends of education to defeat this amendment, which he declares will prove most disastrous to the school interests of the state. He pointed out some very strong reasons why the counties in Eastern New Mexico should register a vigorous protest at the distasteful attempt to lower their school standard, and especially emphasized why Curry County should place itself on record against outside meddling and interference. Superintendent Conway does not mince matters but strikes out square from the shabby and in a manner which leaves his hearers convinced that he knows what he is talking about.

Besides his mission in placing the eighth amendment in the limelight, he had a special message to the teachers. His long and varied experience in school work, and in dealing with school problems, especially in the rural communities, has given him a clear insight of what the school needs really are. Mr. Conway has made it plain that if this amendment, number eight, carried, Curry as well as a number of other counties cannot have over a five months school. He ridiculed the idea and claims of the tax commission that by raising the valuation in Curry County, you would bring about a relief to the present situation as it would probably only result in raising the taxes. He appealed to the people to manage their own school affairs without aid or suggestion from the Tax Payers Association, who apparently were maintaining a twelve thousand dollar lobby at Santa Fe for their health. His visit to this section of the state served to place the Eighth Amendment in its true light.

Mr. Conway expressed himself as delighted with the warm reception he received in the various towns in the Pecos Valley which he visited on this speaking tour. He was very much impressed with the progress of school work which is being carried out, especially the effort being made at school consolidation. He states he will return during the latter part of October or first part of November, when he intends to conduct a rural school survey.

While in this county, he was the guest of Jas. M. Bickley, City School Superintendent, and Mrs. Una M. Steed, County School Superintendent.
