Armistice Day to be Celebrated in Clovis

American Legion Will Have Charge of Parade and Schools will Render Appropriate Programs.

Special arrangements are being made to properly observe Armistice Day in Clovis. The American Legion will be in charge of the program and the plan now is to have a parade in the forenoon in which all are invited to participate. This will likely be followed by suitable addresses. The day will be generally observed as a holiday by the merchants.

Schools Will Have Programs.

Each grade in the Clovis schools will render a patriotic program in their respective rooms, Friday morning, November 11th.

All Ward building exercises will begin at 9 o'clock, high school building at 10 o'clock.

Programs have been arranged in this order that parents may attend the various exercises.

Immediately after the program there will be floats prepared by the different schools and will take part in the parade given by the American Legion.

The high school program is as follows:

- "America."
  - Selection, Glee Club.
  - Debate, "Resolved, That All Nations Should Disarm Except for Internal Protection." Affirmative, Claud Voyles and Roy Sledge. Negative, Lloyd McFarland and Lawrence Walker.
  - Selection, Glee Club.
  - Reading of the Constitution, Barrett Fitzhugh.
  - Short Address, Judge Sam G. Bratton.
  - "Star Spangled Banner."
- Parents are invited to attend these exercises.

GREATEST PARADE SINCE DAYS OF LINCOLN

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 1.—What officials said was the greatest procession of marching men in this country since the march of the Union armies in Washington at the close of the Civil War passed before the eyes of the five allied military leaders today. It was the parade of the American Legion and the spectacle came as a climax to the Legion's national convention. As a mark of respect of their elders, Legionnaires had invited members of the Grand Army of the Republic, United Confederate veterans and Spanish war veterans to participate and heroes of '64 and '98 did their best to keep step with the youngsters who wore olive drab and navy blue.

When the long procession swung into line, it was led by the five men whose names figured prominently in spelling defeat of the central empires—Foch of France, Diaz of Italy, Jacques of Belgium, Beatty of Great Britain, and Pershing.

At 18th Street and Grand Avenue where a reviewing stand was located, the five leaders and their staff dropped out of line, mounted a platform and reviewed the marchers.

Portales Wins by Narrow Score

Portales High School defeated Clovis Hi in a game of football last Friday, the score being 14 to 13. Jones made the first touch-down after three minutes play, the second was made by Voyles in the second quarter. Jones had the misfortune to have his shoulder knocked out of place in the first quarter and had to get out of the game, Jernigan substituting for him.

The star performers on the Clovis team were Jones, Voyles and Guy Shipley.

NEW GROCERYMAN

Austin Patty of Carrizozo, N. M., has purchased the Sullivan Grocery and took charge of the business the first of the week.

ELKS PLEASE AUDIENCE WITH BIG MINSTREL

Everybody was pleased with the Elks Minstrels at the Lyceum last Thursday night and it was a success from every standpoint. The Elks have put on several minstrels in Clovis, but many believe this one was the best of them all.

Report of School Nutrition Worker

First grade girls, 17 in class, 15 gained a total of 28 pounds, 2 did not gain. Lois Julian Valena gained 4 pounds and is winner of the gold star.

First grade boys, 19 in class, 10 gained total of 11 pounds, 9 did not gain. Julius Mullins gained 2½ lbs. and is gold star winner.

Second grade girls, 14 in class, 10 gained 13 pounds, 4 did not gain. Agnes Crawford gained 3½ pounds and is winner of the gold star.

Second grade boys, 19 in class. 12 gained a total of 23½ pounds, 7 did not gain. James Lee Helm gained 5½ pounds and is gold star winner.

Third grade girls, 18 in class. 14 gained total of 27½ pounds, 4 did not gain. Mary M. Sellers gained 3 pounds and is gold star winner.

Third grade boys, 17 in class. 12 gained total of 23½ pounds, 5 did not gain. Lee Glover gained 4 pounds and is gold star winner.

Mothers are cordially invited to attend these classes where the rules of health are explained and children are taught right foods for growth.

A class for mothers in food selection will be held in the League room of the Methodist church on Monday afternoon at 2 p. m. The first meeting was held Tuesday.

There are 21 enrolled in the class. Another class in food selection will be held on the west side of town, the time and place to be announced later.

The growth classes for the children of LaCasita school are being held Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. Wednesday at 4 o'clock there was a meeting for mothers of the Spanish school children at which Mr. A. Romero interpreted. Friday there will be a meeting for other mothers of the school in room 6 at 4 p. m. All of the women should make an effort to attend this meeting, when Miss Newell will explain the work that she is doing with the children, in which she needs the cooperation of the parents.

Assessing Force To Be Increased

In its effort to get all property in the state on the tax rolls and properly assessed, the State Tax Commission is making increases in the forces of the county assessors. In this county, Assessor George Roach, will have six deputies, each assigned to a special territory. These deputies' salaries are financed by the State.

Mr. Roach will name his deputies so that they will be ready to get in the field by the first of the year.

ARMISTICE DAY TO BE DECLARED NATIONAL HOLIDAY

Washington, Nov. 2.—Armistice Day, November 11, will be declared a national holiday in honor of America's unknown soldier to be buried that day in Arlington.

Congressional action on a resolution requesting the president and all state governors to proclaim the day a holiday was completed today through adoption by the senate. Issuance of the proclamation by Mr. Harding is expected within a few days.

SALVATION ARMY WILL OPEN WORK IN CLOVIS

Adjutant L. Carl, from divisional headquarters at El Paso, is in Clovis conferring with the Army Advisory Board, regarding the Army starting its work here. The board consists of fifteen business men and during the week they will have meetings to work out plans for the future, and the opening of the work in Clovis.

At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday morning, Adjutant Carl addressed the members and asked for their endorsement, which after each member had spoken regarding the Army, they voted to endorse the Army coming to Clovis.

RESULTS FROM EXHIBIT AT DALLAS FAIR

A Texico real estate man is said to have reaped the first direct result of the Curry County exhibit at the Dallas Fair. He made a sale this past week to a man who was attracted to this county by the exhibit he saw at the Dallas exposition.

HOME BURGLARIZED

The home of F. S. Burns on North Merrivether St. was burglarized last Friday night. The thief appropriated a suit of clothes, an overcoat, several other pieces of clothing and a flashlight. Mr. and Mrs. Burns were away from home for the evening and the thief entered the home some time while they were away. He used a skeleton key to enter the front door which was locked. Mrs. Lyons, Mrs. Burns' mother, and the children were at home but had retired and upon hearing the thief in the front part of the house supposed it was Mr. and Mrs. Burns returning home.

CLOVIS NEEDS CAMPING SITE

Harry Locke, Road Expert, Says Free Camp Grounds will Attract Many Auto Tourists.

Harry Locke, of San Francisco, one of the best road men in the United States, was in Clovis the first of this week. Mr. Locke is well known as a log-book publisher and is familiar with almost every highway in the country. Mr. Locke made an interesting talk to the directors of the Chamber of Commerce on the benefits of a municipal camp ground.

Mr. Locke stated that no city was now too large or too small to provide camp grounds for auto tourists and that those who fail to do so were passed around by the tourists. He stated that he had attended a number of Hotel-keepers conventions and that the hotel men had recognized the value of camping grounds to a city, as otherwise the traveler went around, besides, many tourists stopped at hotels and when the weather was bad almost all of them did so.

The Chamber of Commerce has a committee on a municipal camp ground and every effort possible is going to be put forth to see that a camp site is provided.

$250,000 WORTH OF HOGS SHIPPED FROM CLOVIS

T. W. Stricklin of the firm of T. W. Stricklin & Co. says his firm has shipped in the neighborhood of $250,000 worth of hogs from this section since the first of January and before the year is up he expects the total to run to about $300,000. Mr. Stricklin says there are still many stock hogs in the country and with the abundance of feed that there is here now that he believes more porkers will go to market from here in 1922 than have gone out from this place this year.

JOHN D. BROWN MAKES FINE INSURANCE RECORD

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Brown and little daughter returned this week from a several week's trip to Shreveport, Louisiana, and Little Rock, El Dorado, and Arkadelphia, Ark.

While away, Mr. Brown attended a meeting of New York Life agents at St. Louis where he was a guest of the Company at the meeting of the "100,000 club." Mr. Brown won the distinction during the past year of having written more applications for life insurance in the New York Life Insurance Company in the $100,000 class than any other agent in the Southwestern district.

This district is composed of nine states and Mr. Brown is to be congratulated upon the business he has produced for his company.

MANY QUAIL HUNTERS

Most every sportsman in Clovis went hunting Tuesday as it was the opening of the quail season. Enough ammunition was purchased in Clovis by the local Nimrods to kill almost every quail within a radius of fifty miles of Clovis.

TWO FIRES IN ONE EVENING

Business House Damaged and Residence Destroyed in Wednesday Evening Blazes—Both Insured.

The stock of goods belonging to the Keyes Grocery was badly damaged by fire from a blaze that started shortly after six o'clock Wednesday. The store had closed only a short time before and the origin of the fire is unknown. The blaze originated in the rear room of the building. The stock was covered by insurance. The building, which was also damaged, is owned by Ramey & Wilkinson.

An explosion was heard from the rear of the building a few minutes before the fire was discovered and it is supposed the fire originated from combustion.

E. L. McCauley's Home Burned

Within a few hours after the fire in the business district, the home of E. L. McCauley on Otero and Maple caught fire and was completely destroyed. The residence was 1600 feet from a fire plug and the fire company could do little toward saving the building. Mr. McCauley had moved to the property only a few days ago and was out of town when the fire started. The building and contents were insured.

COOPERATION WILL HELP ROOSEVELT AND CURRY

(Portales Valley News)

The joint exhibit of Roosevelt-Curry Counties at the Texas State Fair has already proved very beneficial to the two counties, in that it has united Portales and Clovis to pull together for the full development of the two counties. Clovis has awakened to the wonders of the Portales Valley, and realizes that with the development of her resources that Clovis will reap great benefits.

The shallow water belt of Roosevelt county would support a population of 50,000 people. Think of a fifty thousand agricultural population within twenty miles of Clovis. It would place a permanent prosperity for both Portales and Clovis which would be of greater value to them than the Santa Fe shops. Nor is Portales blind to the advantage that Clovis is to the farmers of the Portales Valley. Hardly a day passes but the Portales Valley truck farmers dispose of from $200 to $500 in truck to the people of Clovis. By full co-operation of the two counties, great benefits will be obtained by everyone.

Nine Counties Have Teams In Contest

KIWANIS CLUB HEARS ABOUT FAIR EXHIBIT

Don Weatherford and Fred E. Dennis told the Kiwanis Club Wednesday about the benefits Curry and Roosevelt Counties obtained from the exhibit at the Dallas Fair. These men did a great work for this section with the display there and it should result in many new settlers for this county.

Special Services at Episcopal Church

The opening services at the new Episcopal Church next Sunday will be most interesting. Rev. W. W. Brander, rector of the church, has worked untiringly to get the new building completed and his efforts have been crowned with success.

With the first services in the new church, Right Rev. F. B. Howden, Bishop of New Mexico, will preach, and he will conduct an eight day mission following:

A choir of thirty trained voices will sing at the morning services which will commence at 11:00 a. m. Among those who will sing are Mrs. A. L. Morrisette, Dr. H. A. Miller, Robert Miller, Jno. F. Taylor, Oscar Williams, Dr. A. L. Dillon, Geo. O. Roberts, W. H. Duckworth, F. B. Herod, Grant Fuller, R. M. Bishop, Jake Noble and J. C. Nelson. Following is the order of services for Sunday:

- 7:30 a. m., Holy Communion.
  - 11:00 a. m., Special Sermon.
  - 3:00 p. m., Missionary Pageant.
  - Evening services at 7:30.
- The leading parts in the missionary pageant will be taken by Misses Agnes Kemp Brown, Elizabeth O'Hara and Mary Tasker with the entire congregation taking part.

NEW DEMOCRATIC CHAIRMAN

Former Congressman Cordell Hull, of Carthage, Tenn., was elected this week as chairman of the Democratic National Committee to take the place of George H. White, resigned. As one of the first efforts under his leadership, Mr. Hull said he wanted to "decentralize" authority by throwing greater responsibility on local organizations. He recommended close cooperation between the national state and local committees as a means of success. He also urged that women be more completely represented on the local committees.

Las Vegas Firm Gets Road Contract

The contract for the construction of thirteen miles of hard-surfaced highway on the Grady Road was let Wednesday morning at Santa Fe by State Highway Engineer L. A. Gillett. There were twelve firms representing six states present bidding on the job. The J. V. Stryker Construction Company of Las Vegas and of Denver, Colorado, was the successful bidder and was awarded the contract at $89,445 for the completed job not including engineering and contingent expenses.

Mr. Gillett advises the Clovis Chamber of Commerce that the contract represents a new low level in prices and was some three or four thousand dollars below the estimated cost. This job is known as federal aid project No. 63.

The contract for the building of fourteen miles of highway on both sides of the Acme Bridge was let to W. T. McClure of Magdalena for $44,350. This will be a partial gravel surfaced road.

Mrs. Pearl Kellogg of Raton, N. M., visited Mrs. C. E. Smyer last week. Mrs. Kellogg was a delegate to the State Federation of Woman's Clubs which met at Roswell last week and was enroute from that place.

Quay and Torrance Win Trip to Denver. Curry County Teams Make Fine Showing.

The New Mexico State Livestock Judging and Demonstration Contest here last week proved a great success. Boys and girls were here from several counties and in all about seventy-five contestants entered.

New Mexico will be represented at the Western Stock Show at Denver in January by Torrance and Quay County Teams, whose expenses will all be paid by the Western Stock Show Association as these two teams made the highest scores.

Fine Record for Curry

The highest scoring individual in the Swine Judging Contest was Guy Carter of Curry County. Mr. Carter was awarded a beautiful silver loving cup by the National Duroc Jersey Association.

Curry County boys and girls made a fine record at the meet. Lanelle Craig was the highest scoring individual in all classes. The stock judging team won fourth place and the home team in the Demonstration Contest won second place. Following are the teams that won and their members:

Stock Judging Contest.

- 1st. Team, Quay Ambrose Britton, Clyde Miller, William Shurley. This team was trained by A. L. Hamilton and C. C. Head, Extension Workers of Quay county.
- 2nd. Team, Colfax county—Frank Mikosell, Elmer Reno, John Eddy. This team was trained by J. H. Porter, Club Agent of Colfax county.
- 3rd. Team, San Miguel county—Ira Paulson, Eugene Hicks, Theodore Anderson. This team was trained by County Agent Lorin F. Jones.
- 4th. Team, Curry County—Lanelle Craig, Jeff Boone and John Boone. This team was trained by County Agent E. C. Hollinger.
- 5th. Team, Mora County—Horace Dillard, Garth Keyler and Bradley Keys. This team was trained by County Agent John Hargrave.

Demonstration Contest.

- 1st. Team, Torrance County—Misses Maybelle Harper, Dovie Addington, Gladys Gumfory. This team was trained by Mrs. Jno. McGillivray, Local Leader and Raymond Curry, County Club Agent.
- 2nd. Team, Curry County—Gladys Groves, Dola Brunk, Opal Pate. This team was trained by Mrs. E. H. Durand, County Club Agent.
- Teams Three, Four and Five ranged so closely that no distinction could be made.

Canning Demonstration Contest.

- 1st. Team, Union County—Elsie Criser, Bessie Lee Middick, Nadia Mundy. This team was trained by Mrs. Edith Hurley, County Home Demonstration Agent.
- 2nd. Team, Curry County—Irene Delozier, Ollie Duke. This team was trained by Mrs. E. H. Durand, County Club Agent.

Cattle Industry Is Looking Better

There is every indication that the cattle industry in this section is going to show a marked improvement during the next few months. While cattle are still low in price the demand is getting better and stockmen generally feel that there is going to be an upward tendency in the price between now and spring.

The financial aid which will be tendered by the War Finance Corporation will be forthcoming soon and this is going to make more money to handle cattle and also take care of distressed loans which have hindered the business during the past several months.

The cattle business has been a great contributing factor to the prosperity of the plains country and the return of fair prices on cattle will help the general financial condition of the country.

FORGET THE RECORDS YOU MADE IN 1919-20

One reason many of us think we are doing very poorly today is that we are constantly making comparisons with what we did at the height of the war boom. The business man looks at his abnormal profits of 1919 and the half of 1920 and shakes his head sadly when he looks at his 1921 figures. The wage earner forgets all about the small amount he received before the war and retains in his mind only the top notch amount he earned—or at least received—eighteen months ago, and he, too, pities himself. A great many salaried people are also bemoaning the lopping off of bonuses paid them during the frenzied period of grossly inflated prices.

It would hasten the restoration of confidence and cheerfulness if we would all forget what we made just before the boom burst and tried to compare our lot today with what it was in 1914. If we do, most of us will find that our standard of living today compares quite well with what it was then. Merchants and manufacturers would also realize that their position is not so abnormally hard as it seems to be when they turn their eyes and minds only to the figures of last year and the year before. Let us compare like with like, normal with normal.

If our memories were not so short, we would remember that when prices, wages and profits were at their height, we were all complaining and protesting most vehemently and bitterly against the high cost of living. No; if we will only take a rational view of things, we will realize that our state is not so miserable as we have deluded ourselves into thinking. Conditions at the end of 1914 were distinctly worse than they are today. If those at the helm, both in industry and organized labor, act rationally, the coming winter should bring not worse but better things.—Forbes.

THE BAD-MAN'S GUN.

Of all the laws of this country, the one prohibiting the carrying of concealed weapons is most flagrantly disregarded, and with most disastrous results.

The bad man carries a gun in his pocket because it is his stock in trade, without it he would cease to be any kind of terror.

Some who are not so bad carry them. It is habit or a matter of bravado.

Others—good citizens—often carry them, but purely for self protection against the bad man who is ready to shoot at the first opportunity.

All are violators of the law of the land.

If the law against the carrying of concealed weapons were rigidly enforced against every person—and if the penalty were changed to a penitentiary offense—there would be very few murders and other outrages committed. The unarmed man seldom commits a criminal act.

Our law officers and courts are going about the business of stamping out crime in the wrong manner.

Criminals have no fear of the law against gun carrying. A small fine has no terrors for them. They pay it and shove the gun back in their pockets again.

But serving a year or two in the pen would not be so easy. It would occupy too much time and wouldn't be altogether comfortable.

And if the second or third offense meant five or ten years in limbo, we imagine the practice would soon cease entirely.

At any rate it wouldn't be on the increase in the centers of population and in many country districts, as it is today.

The fellow who isn't satisfied to fight with his fists should be forced to let fighting alone.

A GREAT BUILDING MOVEMENT.

Prices of lumber and labor returning to normal is expediting a great forward movement in building all over the country.

The cost of living, in many instances, has almost reached the normal of pre-war days, while some items may go still lower during the coming six months.

The monthly compilation of the national industrial conference board shows that the cost of living in September was 65 per cent above that of July, 1914.

This is the same as prevailed at the date of the armistice in November, 1918, and represents a decline of 26 per cent from the peak in 1920.

The different elements entering into the general index have not declined in proportion, however. Food and clothing have declined conspicuously, but rents and fuel remain high.

All these facts indicate greater employment in the building trades and also an increased demand for common labor, taking up unemployment.

The future of the building industry predicted on these facts is brighter than it has been for a number of years and seems to have permanency.

BUYING AT HOME.

Money sent out of town for merchandise that should be purchased at home does not come back, and we and the town suffer for the thoughtless act of those who fatten the big city merchants at the expense of our commonwealth. If the trade of this community were kept at home our town would be more prosperous. The money we have earned would be in circulation, and would, in the course of business, come back to us perhaps several times in the course of a year; but that sent out of town does not come back. It is gone forever.

DIVERSIFICATION PAYS

Curry County needs a campaign to put 100 chickens, a half-dozen hogs and a half dozen good milk cows on every farm. No crop failure that ever comes to this section would put farmers equipped like this out of business. Cheap feed would then be turned into a cash income that would come in every week in the year.

President Harding will perhaps care little for the criticism of democratic members of Congress, regarding his statements on the race question at Birmingham. He recognized his own desires with reference to this proposition. He evidently looks upon his attitude and statements as being highly advantageous in landing votes for his party two years hence. He will need these votes for more than he needed them at the last election. There are many among the ranks who clamored wildly for a "change," who will not believe the lurid promises so easily next time. The change that came, was not the change so blindly and hopefully expected. Of course there were many impossibilities in the line of expediency, but there were some things that should have been accomplished that have not even been thought of perhaps.—Amarillo Daily News.

Some folks say there is a shortage of money in Curry County, but the crowd at the big Al. G. Barnes circus last Friday did not indicate any lack of ready change. There were in the neighborhood of three thousand people under the big circus tent. Some folks wonder why a big circus always draws a crowd, regardless of financial conditions. There are two reasons and both are good ones. In the first place, the circus with the elephants, the clowns and the steam calliops always has a fascination for both young and old alike, and again the show owners never overlook a bet on telling the public about their business. The money spent in advertising each attraction of a big circus runs into dollars, but it brings the crowds.

The members of congress came neat expelling Mr. Blanton of Texas recently because he put some obscene language in the congressional record in a speech he never delivered. Mr.

Blanton received his just deserts when he was reprimanded by congress, but we might also add that congress will make a step forward when it votes to do away with the congressional record as it is printed now. Over half the speeches are never delivered on the floor, but are printed in the record and used by the members as political buncombe to make the dear people at home really believe that they are doing something.

Clovis needs and should maintain a free camp ground for auto tourists. The man who does not see that much of the future travel that comes by auto is certainly behind the times. The auto tourists leave much money in town, and it is new money and strictly cash business. The cost of maintaining a free camp ground would be very small compared to the benefits actually derived. In the mapping out of the new highways through this section many more tourists will pass through next year than ever before, and these travelers will make their arrangements to stop and spend their money in the towns that provide camping facilities for them.

Work on the $100,000 construction program on the highway north of Clovis will be commenced soon. This is going to furnish work for quite a few men and teams. The time to do public improving of all kinds is when times are hard and money is more or less scarce, although many people oppose public improvements when conditions are depressed. There is a double advantage in doing public work in times like this. A better price on contracts is secured and work is furnished the unemployed.

Everyone in Clovis is feeling in good spirits over the fact that there will be no railroad strike. The calling off of the strike last week put a smile on most everyone's face as it meant much to a town like Clovis where in the neighborhood of two hundred men would have been directly affected. Railroad business is picking up again the last few weeks and the increased pay roll is going to make business conditions in Clovis better between now and the first of the year.

The youngsters of Clovis overstepped the bounds of good judgment in their Halloween celebrations in Clovis Monday night. Halloween jokes are not appreciated when they are carried on to the extent of destroying property, and this was done in a great number of instances in Clovis Monday night.

Christmas is getting close by again. Buyers for miles around will not find a better place to do their holiday shopping than with Clovis merchants. Their stocks are complete and prices are much lower than for several years. Plan now to do your Christmas shopping in Clovis.

GOOD ADVICE

Start now to strike from your list the things you know you can't do, the things you can't do quite so well as somebody else—and do your utmost to enlarge on the things you know you can do. That's the best rule we know on "How to Succeed."—Lubbock Avalanche.

FED AT LAST.

He was the most down-and-out looking specimen of a tramp who had applied at the back door of this particular farm house for many a year. The housewife viewed him with disgust.

"My goodness!" she exclaimed. "I don't believe you've washed yourself for a year."
"Just about that," agreed the hobo. "You see, I only washes before I eats."

NOTICE OF PUBLICATION

In the District Court of Curry County, New Mexico.

The First National Bank of Clovis, New Mexico, Plaintiff, vs. J. E. Nelson and Laura Nelson, Defendants. No. 1878.

To the above named defendants: You, and each of you, are hereby notified that a suit entitled and numbered as above is pending against you in said court, the objects and general nature of which is to foreclose a certain mortgage deed made by you to the plaintiff on January 2, 1921 of record in book 22, page 75 of the mortgage records of said Curry County, conveying lots 7, 8, and 9 in block 2, in the Liebelt Addition to Clovis, county and state aforesaid, and to foreclose a pledgee's lien on the following personal property and securities which were pledged by you as collateral security for the debt sued on herein, and to have the above real and personal property sold to pay a certain note for $2639.40, dated January 2, 1921, executed by defendant J. E. Nelson to plaintiff, due in three months, and for interest, attorney's fees and costs, said personal property and securities being described as follows: a note for $3,000.00 dated June 1, 1920, due April 1, 1921, signed by Mrs. R. THAT BAD BACK

Do you have a dull, steady ache in the small of the back—sharp, stabbing twinges when stooping or lifting—distressing urinary disorders? For bad back and weakened kidneys Clovis residents recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor. Read this Clovis statement.

Mrs. O. L. Love, 205 S. Wallace St., says: "A few years ago I had an attack of kidney complaint and for a whole winter my back was so lame and weak, I could hardly get about. I hope I never get to feeling like that again. I often got so dizzy I nearly fell over and my kidneys were in a bad way, too, being weak and inactive. Specks floated before my eyes and blurred my sight. I bought Doan's Kidney Pills from the Southwestern Drug Co., and three boxes cured me of the trouble. Anyone suffering from disordered kidneys should try Doan's Kidney Pills for they are a great medicine."

SEASONABLE GOOD THINGS.

For those who must live on a restricted meat diet the various combinations of vegetables and nuts will appeal.

Pea Roast.—Take three cups of dry bread that has been rolled and put through a sieve.

Take a pint of cooked green peas, drain and while hot put through a purple sieve. Mix the crumbs with the pulp; there should be about three-quarters of a cupful; add one-quarter of a cupful of walnut meats chopped, one egg slightly beaten, one teaspoonful of sugar, and one-fourth of a cup of melted butter with three-fourths of a cup of milk. Mix well and turn into a well buttered pan—a paraffin paper lining will be good to use in the pan. Bake forty minutes in a slow oven. Serve with tomato sauce.

Pecan Loaf.—Soak one cupful of rice over night in cold water, drain and add one cupful of pecan meats coarsely chopped, one cupful of cracked corn, one cupful of milk, one egg beaten, one and one-half teaspoonfuls of salt and a few dashes of pepper. Turn into a buttered bread pan and spread with softened butter. Bake one hour in a moderate oven. Serve unadorned garnished with chopped seasoned carrots. Cook the carrots in as little water as possible, dress with butter, a dash of cayenne mixed parsley and lemon juice.

Polish Biatwina.—Peel one dozen beets after cooking and place them in a jar with one quart of warm water and one pint of good vinegar. Let stand several days. The day the soup is to be made, strain the liquid from the beets, add one quart of water and put it with two pounds of beef on to cook. Boff and skin. Cut up the beets, also two or three onions and add to the soup. Cook for three or four hours. Take out the beef, cut in pieces about one-half inch square, remove the fat from the soup and thicken with one pint of sour cream beaten with the yolks of four eggs.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL PARTY

The young men's and young ladies' class of the Baptist Sunday school gave a very successful Hallowe'en party last Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Lorena Perkins, 109 S. Gidding St. The color scheme of black and gold was very beautifully carried out, and the ghost characters abounded everywhere. Fortune telling and ghost stories were the source of entertainment throughout the evening. Over fifty in number of the masked members of the class enjoyed the evening's entertainment, and when it was growing late, refreshments of sandwiches, pumpkin pie and apple cider were served to all present.

SHERIFF BELONGS TO KLAN

The grand jury at Austin, Texas, in making an investigation of the activities of the Ku Klux Klan has found that the sheriff of Travis County, Guy A. Collett was a member of the order. The investigation also proved that a number of other peace officers belonged to the Klan. The information came out when a tar and feather case was investigated.

MISSES MARY GENEVIEVE AND FRANCES SMYER ENTERTAIN

Numbered among the delightful Hallowe'en parties of the week was the one given Monday evening by the Misses Genevieve and Frances Smyer. Of course, cats and bats, witches and Jack-o'-lanterns featured in the decorations of black and gold. Hallowe'en games were enjoyed and refreshments served.

W. M. U. MEETING

An interesting meeting was held on Thursday afternoon, October 27, beginning at 2:30 at the First Baptist Church by the members of the W. M. U. The attendance was splendid, and during the business session interesting talks were made on plans for the next year's program. Plans were laid and committees were appointed to get out a year book. It was also voted and carried by members to devote the 8th Thursday of each quarter to all day sewing for the Baptist Hospital. Mesdames Bernard Tucker, Vasey, Taylor, Martin and Beckley were elected messengers to the W. M. U. State Convention which will convene in Albuquerque November 8th to 11th.

CLOVIS LADY HONORED.

At the convention of the State Federation of Women's Clubs which met at Roswell last week, Mrs. W. W. Mayes of Clovis was elected State Corresponding Secretary. Mrs. Mayes, who is a member of the Progress Club and president of the Civic Club here, is a capable and efficient woman, enthusiastically interested in the progress of the country at large as well as Clovis, and this honor has fallen where honor is due.

HELENE CHADWICK and ROLAND RUSHION in "THE OLD NEST" by RUPERT HUGHES. A GOLDWYN PICTURE directed by REGINALD BARKER.

Edward L. Manson, Editor of the Clovis News, Says of "The Old Nest."

It is a most wonderful picture, one that every person—man, woman and child should see. The story which depicts such wonderful mother love and sacrifice, is a sermon greater than words—it is interesting, it is thrilling, and Clovis people will indeed be fortunate in having the opportunity of seeing this picture when you bring it here.

Notwithstanding the fact that I had the pleasure of seeing "The Old Nest" here a few weeks ago, it is my intention to see it again. There is much pleasure in seeing a good book the second time—there is equally as much enjoyment in seeing again a picture such as "The Old Nest."

"The Old Nest" will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, November 9th and 10th.

W. H. Bowman, Agent of A. T. & S. F. Railway says of "The Old Nest."

I note you are going to run the picture, "The Old Nest," ninth and tenth of November.

I have had the pleasure of seeing this picture and I have never seen its equal. It is a pictorial review of family life from childhood to old age; there are tears and laughter; it is very much worth seeing.

"The Old Nest" will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, November 9th and 10th.

Walter Zerwer, Cashier of the Clovis National Bank says of "The Old Nest."

"The Old Nest" is, in my opinion, an exceptionally fine picture, and I heartily commend it to the people of Clovis.

If your patrons are desirous of seeing something worth while—something that will make a lasting impression upon them—they should, by all means, see "The Old Nest."

"The Old Nest" will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, November 9th and 10th.

Rupert Hughes' Heart-gripping Story of Home

With The Greatest Star
Cast Ever Assembled
A Goldwyn Picture

Suddenly they have all grown up and left her—the babies she used to tuck in bed at night. The old house is empty and silent. All have forgotten her. Her birthdays pass unnoticed.

Each child has embarked on a drama of his own. Loves, ambitions, temptations carry them away. There are moments of laughter and comedy, romance, adventure, tragedy. The story of their lives sweeps you along.

Your life—your home—your mother—as they might have been or as they are. "The Old Nest" will awaken deep in your heart memories of the mother to whom you ran with your childish troubles.

Never before has the screen touched with such beauty and dramatic force a subject which finds an echo in the lives of every one of us. One of the most heart-gripping dramatic stories ever narrated.

week, the entertaining suite being tastefully decorated with Hallowe'en emblems, carrying out the color scheme of black and yellow.

The invitations read: "Come ye to the place where good spirits meet, on Hallowe'en night, each bring a sheet." And it was a spooky looking crowd for about thirty minutes, during which time the ghosts were busy guessing the identity of the masques, the prizes being awarded to Mrs. Wilkinson and Mrs. E. E. Cassel. After removing the masques, several games of forty-two were heartily enjoyed. A delicious two-course luncheon was served. Much credit is due each committee for the complete success of the evening.

CIVIC CLUB

The next regular meeting of the Civic Club will be held next Monday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at the parlors of the Lyceum Theatre. All women of the town are urged to be present.

MASTER HAROLD BOCK IS HOST AT PARTY

Master Harold Bock, assisted by his mother, Mrs. Hattie Bock, entertained a number of Harold's little friends Monday evening. Of course there were ghosts present, and Hallowe'en games were played. The Hallowe'en spirit was carried out in the decorations. Refreshments were served.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS ENJOY HALLOWE'EN PARTY

The members of the Christian Endeavor and their guests enjoyed a Hallowe'en party at the home of Rev. W. M. Elliott last Friday evening. The evening was spent most enjoyably in telling fortunes, listening to ghost stories, etc. The home was decorated with Hallowe'en effects. Refreshments of pumpkin pie and coffee were served. Those present were: Micoet McClay, Walker, Murray, King, Shannon, Gertrude Hockenbuhl, Loula Belle Wilson, Zella Mae Pierce, Velma Cawthon, Kathryn Graham, Hazel Smith, Velma Nixon, Mary Lou Merrisweather, Helen LaShier, Mary Dewell, Frances Dewell, Mary Dunlap, Bessie Brown, Doris Shales, Ruth Scott, Louise Watson, Iona Frances Cain, Irene Love and Misses Harry Love, Hailburton, Dean Patterson and Leslie Pattison.

PROGRESS CLUB NOTICE.

A regular meeting of the Progress Club will be held on next Tuesday, November 8th, at the home of Mrs. J. T. Miller, 302 E. Bent.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Sixteen young folks celebrated Hallowe'en with a vengeance Sunday night at the Sacred Heart parish residence. Master Phillip Coyle acting as host. Parading in full masque past the witch's room and the ghost in the cellar-way, they gathered around the table in the dining room, which was appropriately decorated in black and gold, and illuminated with candles and lanterns. In the center of the table was a container heaped high with favors, each one attached to a black ribbon, and a variety of cakes and candies.

Prizes were awarded for correctly guessing all participants, for guessing the witch, who was impersonated by Miss Eileen Smyer, in artistic pose, and for the best masque; little Pat O'Connell, decked out as Chanticleer, and the witch being tie for the last award.

Bobbing for apples, a bonfire, napping corn, playing blind man's buff, a peanut contest, kept the young spirits buoyant and rollicking with fun. After topping all with ice cream and cake, the youngsters decided it was enough and departed with the best of remembrances.

The guests were Misses Helen Peterson, (from Roswell) Mary Cathrine, Margaret and Anne O'Connell, Mary and Cathrine Burns, Annie Lou, Jo, and Jane Goebel, Margaret Sellers and Helen Hively and Masters Richard Munson, Paul Sellers, Jim Burns, Pat O'Connell and Philip Coyle.

CLUB PARTY

An excellent entertainment was held by the club contestants. About eighty club people, including contestants and leaders from visiting counties, and contestants, club leaders, club members and club co-operators from Curry County were present at a Hallowe'en party held at the Curry County Court House last Friday evening after the contest on Friday.

The hall and court room were decorated with ghosts and jack-o-lanterns and the guests were met at the door by old witches who introduced them to the receiving line composed of Mr. W. H. Trentman, state club leader; Miss Elma C. Sturdevant, assistant club leader; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. E. C.

Hollinger, Miss Lella Kendall, Mr. W. I. Luikart, Mrs. S. J. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wallace, after which all assembled in the court room where the following program was carried out. Mr. Trentman presiding: Club Songs led by Miss Sturdevant, reading by Opal Tate, Talk, "Dad and Dinners and Such Things" by Mr. Jones of Mora County, reading by Gladys Groves, and talks by Mr. Luikart, president of the Clovis Chamber of Commerce, and Mr. Harrison, president of the First National Bank. After the program a rousing good time was enjoyed by all in "get together games" and stunts. At the close of the evening punch and wafers were served.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Thirty-five members of the Clovis Woman's Club motored to Portales Wednesday where they were guests of the Portales Woman's Club at the home of Mrs. Arthur Jones. The ladies enjoyed a delightful program and a three-course luncheon.

Miss Pauline Snyder returned from Kansas this week where she has been visiting.

MARY ALDEN and CULLEN LANDIS in "THE OLD NEST" by RUPERT HUGHES A GOLDWYN Pict. reg. directed by REGINALD BARKER

Fred E. Dennis Says About "The Old Nest."

Replying to your favor of the 11th inst., asking me for a report of opinion as to what I thought of the picture entitled "The Old Nest," which I had the pleasure of seeing a short time ago, big to say to you that I think it is the best picture I ever saw and that the lesson which I received and the impression which has remained in my mind from seeing it will ever be a source of satisfaction and great pleasure as I journey through life. It is a sermon itself which every man, woman and child should receive some time in their life.

I certainly wish to thank you for the opportunity of witnessing this great picture and I am glad to give my opinion as it meant a great deal to me.

"The Old Nest" will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre, Wednesday and Thursday, November 9th and 10th.

S. A. Jones, Cashier of the Citizens Bank Says of "The Old Nest."

Your letter of the 11th is received. I want to say that any man who has a mother living should certainly see "The Old Nest." It will make him a more attentive son to his mother in her old age and show him his faults as they really are.

"The Old Nest" will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, November 9th and 10th.

Lieutenant Governor W. H. Duckworth says of "The Old Nest."

I want you to know that I enjoyed the picture, "The Old Nest," very much indeed.

If you decide to show this picture in Clovis I hope every one who possibly can will go to see it. I think it is one of the greatest pictures I have ever seen, anywhere at any price.

Thanking you for having given me the opportunity of seeing it.

"The Old Nest" will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, November 9th and 10th.

Need a Handy Man? TELL LONG-BELL

When you need a handy man for some repairs around the place, tell us and we will see that you get a good man for the job. It may be a door to hang or some repairs on the porch, some screen work, or a job of painting, the walks or fence need to be repaired, the cistern mended, or a sleeping porch built; if you want to build a house or barn—no matter what the job—we will find the right man for you.

We know who are the good workmen and where they can be found, and we consider it our pleasant obligation to help you secure a competent man. If you have some one in mind for a job we will look him up and send him to you, or advise you when he can come.

So no matter what it needs doing, just tell Long-Bell.

VERY SONOROUS

Alfred Noyes, the English poet, was greatly annoyed last term of Princeton by a hoary old chestnut that some jealous American poet resurrected and affixed to him.

Poet Noyes, according to this story, invited a publisher's reader to come to Princeton and pass on a volume of manuscript poetry. The reader duly came and Mr. Noyes ensconced him in an easy chair and proceeded to read him the volume of poems.

A half-hour passed, an hour, and Mr. Noyes, hearing an odd, gurgling sound, looked up and saw that the publisher's reader was asleep.

"Here, sir," he said sharply, "Wake up, sir. I invited you to Princeton to give an opinion on my verses. How can you give an opinion when you're asleep?"

"Sleep," said the publisher's reader, with a great yawn,—"sleep is an opinion."

It is always well for autolists to remember that no prize is offered for hearing railroad trains over a crossing.

A PROLONGED COURTSHIP

The old man regarded his remaining unmarried daughter critically.

"Let me see, Alice," he reflected. "Young Swythe has been calling on you regularly for six or eight months, hasn't he?"

"Yes, father," simpered Alice.

"Well," continued her parent, "if he asks you to marry him when he comes tonight, tell him to see me. Understand?"

"Yes, dad," giggled Alice. "But suppose he doesn't ask me to marry him?"

"H'm," reflected papa. "In that case just tell him I want to see him."

TRUE TO HIS COLORS.

Put was brought to the hospital, suffering severely.

"Which ward do you want to be taken to?" the house physician asked.

"The pay ward, or—"

"Any ward that is easily disinfected," Put interrupted feebly.—Life

GREAT IDEA

Most lawyers know the troublesome rich man, who, having an eternal grievance, insists on taking his solicitor's advice on every possible occasion.

Such a one entered the office of a busy man of law the other day.

"Johnson of Mudtown has insulted me!" he announced loudly. He has threatened to pull my nose whenever he meets me. What would you advise me to do?"

The busy writer did not look up from his writing.

"If he really threatened to do that," he said judicially, "my advice is that you soap your nose well; then it will slip through his fingers. Good day; I will send my bill in due course!"

FORMING GOOD READING HABITS

If parents wish their children to form good reading habits they must first form such habits themselves. And there is no better way to do this than to bring into the household a periodical that will be of interest to every member of it; that will supply the best reading for old and young. Among the periodicals of this description The Youth's Companion is unique. Not only does it aim to entertain and inform boys and girls in their teens, as its name suggests, but there is not a page in it that parents can pass over with indifference.

The 52 issues of 1922 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and receive:

- 1.—The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1922.
- 2.—All the remaining issues of 1921.
- 3.—The Companion Home Calendar for 1922. All for $2.50.

ONE WAY TO PREVENT DIVORCES

A high school girl in a home economics class has startled her elders by declaring that if women would learn to keep accounts there would be fewer divorces.

Yet the girl's high school class in home economics is not studying the divorce problem but is studying the problem of home making. The little lady's discovery is in harmony with the pronouncement of a distinguished educator who said that poor breakfasts and bad cooking at home were responsible for domestic difficulties and industrial inefficiency.

BEHIND THE DEAD LINE

The editor of an American newspaper dropped into a special afternoon service for the first time for many years. He listened to the sermon for awhile and then rushed to his office.

"What are you fellows doing?" he shouted. "How about the news from the seat of war?"

"What news?"

"Why, all this about the Egyptian army being drowned in the Red Sea. The minister up at the church knows all about it, and you haven't got a single word in our latest edition. Bustle round, you fellows, and get out an extra special, sharp!"—London Tit-Bits.

TAKING NO CHANCES

The dear old lady entered the chemist's shop and looked doubtfully at the youthful assistant behind the counter.

"I suppose," she said, "you are a properly qualified chemist?"

"Yes, Madam."

"You have passed all your examinations?"

"Certainly."

"You've never poisoned anyone by mistake?"

"Not to my knowledge."

She heaved a sigh of relief.

"Very well, then, you may give me a dime's worth of rough drops."

TRY SOCIETY.

Lady Duff-Gordon was discussing the movie censorship at a tea.

"Some people are against the censorship," she said. "They declare that censorship kills art. To me, though, it isn't a question of art. It's another question altogether."

"I know a pretty girl whose physician told her last year that she'd have to be operated on for appendicitis."

"Oh, doctor," said the pretty girl, "will the scar show?"

"Not unless you go into the films," the doctor answered.

TAKING NO CHANCE.

The editor poised his blue pencil.

"You say here that Mr. Longbow is lying at death's door. We'll just make that 'laying.'"

"But that's not good English," protested the reporter.

"No," replied the editor, "but it's better to make a grammatical error that offend Longbow's relatives. His reputation for veracity is notoriously bad."—Boston Transcript.

HE GOT THE EXTENSION

Dean T. A. Clark, at the University of Illinois, was in the midst of his difficulties when a young freshman was ushered into the dean's presence.

Standing before the dean, nervously swinging his green cap, the "fresh-ie" requested that he be permitted to make payments on his tuition for the first semester, instead of paying cash in advance.

"What did you do during the summer?" the dean demanded. Whereupon the freshman replied that he had worked, but saved little money.

"That's mighty poor business, my son," said the dean, and added "What line of endeavor were you engaged in?"

"Oh, I sold brushes for household use," came the reply.

"Oh, you did? Well, I bought a brush, gave a young man a dollar for it, and never received the brush," stated Dean Clark.

"Pardon the suggestion, dean, but that's mighty poor business," came the youth's reply, and the extension on his tuition was granted.—Indianapolis News.

JUSTICE REGISTERS HIS FLIVVER IN VERSE

Wapakonta, O.—Justice of the Peace R. G. Herman owns a flivver, and under a new law he is required to register it. He thus described his bus in rhyme:

"The radiator leaks, the body squeakes, there's a hole in the top where the rain comes through;

"The windshield is broke, one wheel lost a spoke, but it hangs together, so 'twill have to do.

"The tail light is busted, the foot-boards are rusted; the fenders are loose and rattle like sin;

"The back has been smashed, the tires are pashed; but it's a darned good car for the shape it's in."

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube returned to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. "The Clovis News Want Ad," 1c per word. tf

Gompers Against Rail Labor Board

Washington, D. C.—the fundamental issues between the railroads and their employes remain to be settled, in the opinion of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Gompers expressed gratification that the railroad strike has been averted, but had no praise for the Railroad Labor Board.

"The only true solution of the problem of the relationship between railroad employes and railroad workers," he said, "lies in direct negotiations between the two groups. Negotiations and joint agreement, minus the artificial machinery of Government boards, will bring railroad operation to a practical and natural basis."

"Some people now think the Railroad Labor Board a glorious achievement, but I think it is in the position of the heroic man who stops the leak in a defective dam. The dam should not have been a mere because the dam should not have been defective."

Gompers argued that the Railroad Labor Board should be abolished.

Woodrow Wilson is Out of Politics

Washington, D. C.—Former President Wilson has been confined to his bed for several days with one of his old attacks of indigestion, accompanied by a severe headache. His condition, while necessitating cancellation of all appointments, was expected by his family and physician, to be such by Monday afternoon that he might get up and go out for a motor ride. However, there is increasing cause for alarm each time the former executive has one of these spells.

Nearing Sixty-Five

On Dec. 26—two months hence—Wilson will be 65 years old. While his general physical condition has been reported as about as favorable as could be expected under the circumstances, it has been such as to demand constant vigilance on the part of Mrs. Wilson and Admiral Cary T. Grayson, his private physician. It must be remembered that Mr. Wilson is rounding out now the allotted span of years and is far from being a strong man. The stroke which deprived him two years ago of the use of one arm and further rendered his walking extremely difficult still leaves its mark and cause for concern to his family.

There have been reports from time to time that he was "getting back into politics," was "going to re-enter the League of Nations fight," etc. This is the purest fancy. The former President, so far as what is generally known as "active participation" in politics or any other issue, is out of the game. While he takes an interest in politics and has given some attention to international developments, he is not planning any "come-back" on either score. Virtually all of his time and thought is given to keeping as physically fit as is possible to prevent any recurrence of his old trouble.

Light Literature

To this end Mrs. Wilson applies herself constantly. Light literature constitutes for the most part those books on his desk from which he reads sometimes personally, but from which more often Mrs. Wilson reads to him. He has few engagements and those he probably has entail a real effort on his part.

The former president hopes to be able to attend the Armistice Day ceremonies at Arlington Cemetery. He will not make a speech. He will prepare a little Armistice Day tribute to those who fought in the great war, putting it out through the channel of the Stars and Stripes, as he did last year. Beyond this he plans to make no statement whatever on the issue of peace, the armament conference or the League of Nations. He might, however, if asked, be expected to prepare some short tribute to the unknown dead to be read at the Arlington ceremony.

Will Write No Book

As for writing a book on America's part in the war and the peace which followed, Mr. Wilson apparently has abandoned all thoughts of it. His intimates declare that there will never be a "book by Wilson on Wilson." They quote him as telling those who have urged him to write such a volume that "I prefer to let history judge for itself." Meantime he has turned over to Roy Stannard Baker, the author, considerable of his personal material, which Baker will embody in a book to be issued next year.

Don't tell everything you know—you may be asked for an encore.

GOOD LIVE STOCK FOR JUDGING CONTEST

One of the advantages in holding the State Stock Judging Contest in Curry County, was due to the large amount of good stock located near Clovis. The following farmers furnished live stock for the judging contest: Jno. Humphrey furnished Holstein cattle, S. Seddon furnished Herefords, Chas. E. Dennis & Son furnished Poland China Hogs and Durham cattle, J. A. Wallace furnished Duroc Jersey hogs and J. S. Collins furnished Jersey cattle.

The people here from other counties who made the tour with the boys in the judging contest were well impressed with the live stock. The stock which was visited in the judging contest was only a sample of the good stock in this vicinity.

THE name Helen of Troy brings to our mind's eye a woman young and slender and of surpassing beauty. As a matter of record she had red hair and was forty years old when she started on her great adventure. But all the ancient world agreed that Helen was its finest ornament. Although she lived 3,000 years ago her fame still endures.

When Helen was a little under twenty, her father, Tyndareus of Argos, found his palace filled with almost every kinglet and princelet in Greece, demanding her hand. He foresaw that no matter where her choice fell, there would be future trouble. So he bound all of them to an oath that they would protect the heartstone of the favored suitor.

Helen made a strange selection, Menelaus, king of Sparta, a plodding, middle-aged man. He took her off to his palace and after a while many things were said about her. But the two lived in seeming contentment for twenty years. Then came Paris, son of Priam, from the great city of Troy. He was young and handsome. It had been foretold that his city would be destroyed through him. Helen promptly "vamped" the stranger guest.

They fled one night for his ship and sailed for Troy. Menelaus mourned her as one distracted and called on Tyndareus to make the nobility of Greece fulfill its promise. Off they went, in 1,200 ships, to the present-day Constantinople.

The Trojan war lasted ten years without result. Helen had long since fled dying from a night sortie. "Long ago, dear," he said, "we were glad—we who never more shall be together. Will you kiss me, once? It is ten weary years since you have smiled on me. But Helen, say farewell with your old smile."

She kissed him, he died, and soon afterwards she wed his younger brother, although all Troy wept for her bringing upon it such a war. One day the Greeks apparently pulled away and great was the rejoicing. But the besiegers left behind their famous wooden horse, which the Trojans mistook as an offering to Neptune for a safe passage home. They brought the horse into the city. That night a secret door in the horse was opened and Helen led those within to the gates, which they unfastened to the returned Greeks. An indescribable slaughter followed and the city was burned.

Helen went back to Sparta as the wife of Menelaus. When he died the women rose against her and she fled to Rhodes, whose queen had lost a son in the Trojan war. And she had poor Helen publicly hanged.

CHURCHES

CLOVIS CHURCH OF CHRIST.

There is a distressing need for stronger faith in the Christ, deeper piety toward God, and a greater zeal among the Christian men and women of our town. What about putting forth and earnest effort to develop these virtues? For this reason the members of the Clovis Church of Christ extend a most pressing invitation to men and women, boys and girls to attend services with them next Lord's Day.

Bible School meets at 10:00 a. m. Exhortation and breaking of Bread, 11:00 a. m.

Gospel services, 7:00 p. m. We shall do our best to make you feel at home.

Praying second and fourth Lord's Day in each month. G. F. Mickey, Minister.

REVIVAL AT BLACKTOWER.

Rev. W. H. Hardin, pastor of the Nazarene Mission, goes to Blacktower for a revival meeting the first ten days of November. Mrs. Hardin, who is an able soloist and song leader, will have charge of the music.

NOTICE!

Brother Wm. Speck from Roswell, New Mexico, will preach for us at the Farwell Court House on the third Saturday night in November and on Sunday the 20th at 11:00 a. m. and 3:00 p. m.

The Wonders of America

By T. T. MAXEY

THE WHITE HOUSE.

THE home of the president of the United States, generally known as the White House, first became known as such when it was painted white to cover the marks of fire after being partially burned by the British in 1814. The foundation of this world-famous structure was laid in October, 1792. It was the first building erected in Washington. The site was picked by President George Washington, who also laid the corner stone.

The building was first occupied by President John Adams, during the summer of 1796. It is two stories and basement, and contains 31 rooms. It is surrounded by a spacious lawn and gardens, which are enclosed by a huge iron fence. Whether viewed through the heavy foliage of the plant trees or across winter's mantle of snow, it always looks cool and dignified.

The White House naturally has been the scene of many festivities and comedies, much joy, and also has had its share of anxiety and grief. It holds a peculiar interest for the people of all nations. One of the United States is proud of it. It is a point of pilgrimage for thousands and thousands of people annually, who come to admire its decorations and paintings, study the relics of past occupants and, if opportunity offers, grasp the hand of the first citizen of the land. To a greater degree perhaps than any other building in the world, people of all ages and ranks have gazed under its roof.

HOW TIME FLIES—the romping youngster of yesterday is the young man of today. Those children of yours—before you know it—they will be grown up. "They soon grow out of mother's arm, but photographs of he children never grow up."

I want to help you keep them near you—always. My mission is photographing children to keep them ever close to you—to keep them always children.

I would like to take these pictures for you so they might be Christmas gifts. Surely they would be prized gifts.

TEXICO NEWS BRIEFS

This week finds us once again entering upon the scene of November's harvest festival. A warm welcome was given on Halloween night. The ghost surely did walk. At any rate the youngsters had much fun, and were indeed sensible with their pranks.

A. L. King, rural carrier on Route 2, has been giving all his attention to their little son, Archie, who has been very sick. The doctor concluded that it was a complicated case of tonsillitis. Mr. Reeves, the substitute, has been on the job.

The Holiness meeting at the Rock church closed last Sunday night. Rev. Freeman, of Portales, preached some excellent sermons. Large crowds attended all services.

S. B. Lovett is re-arranging his shop on Main Street, preparatory to moving. When located, he will do all kinds of car repairing and will take care of the public's wants in the line.

Orbit Hartshorn is in Kansas City this week for the Legion Convention. Mr. Hartshorn will tell us all about it when he returns.

Prof. Rhoton, superintendent of Texico schools, returned last week from Tennessee where he was called to the bedside of his father. The Professor is on the job again.

Mr. Lawrence Overstreet returned last Saturday from St. Louis where he has been visiting for some time. Lawrence says he had the "time" of his life while away.

There wasn't enough people left in our town last Friday to tell where they all went. But if you were at the circus in Clovis you could have explained.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hills of Clovis formerly of Farwell, were visiting in the State Line City the first of the week. Mr. Hills is having his crop threshed on his old place north of Texico.

Mrs. A. B. Anderson of Farwell returned home this week from the Baptist Sanitarium at Clovis. We welcome her return and trust she will be out again soon.

E. C. Hopping, county judge of Lamb County, and formerly sheriff of Parmer County, was transacting business in our city this week.

A large number of the Missionary ladies from here attended the District Conference at Clovis last week. They all report a most enjoyable time.

The Raffle brothers turned their Sedan over last Saturday night while coming from Clovis. No one was hurt and the car was not damaged except the top being somewhat disfigured.

Some go north, some go east, some go south, while others prefer to be more daring and chase the waves of the stormy sea or uncertain paths of the air, while a few prefer to remain like Nature's habitant, but it's the wise man who comes out to the "Golden West," builds a nice cozy home nest and here remains. There is no place like home out here in the grand and glorious West.

CLAUD NOTES

The following item is clipped from the Knightstown (Ind.) Banner:—Mr. and Mrs. Orville Pattison and two children, Alice Linn and Roger Helmick Pattison, arrived last Friday from Clovis, N. M., and are now guests of Mrs. Pattison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Helmick, north of Knightstown. Mr. Pattison sold his automobile at Clovis and the family came to Chicago on the train and there they bought a new car. They drove thru from Chicago. The Pattison family will be here for an indefinite time.

Claud's progressing all the time. We have a new singing class and choir practice every Friday night.

Mrs. Packett of Moye-Sunrise is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Claud Dodson. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Roberts spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rose.

Bro. Cameron preached two very interesting sermons at Claud Sunday. Miss Bertha Bennett had as her Sunday guests, Miss Lois Charlton, Messrs. Clarence Charlton, Nelson Saunders and Buster Charlton.

The Halloween party given at the Miss home Monday night, was attended by a large crowd. Refreshments were served and everyone reports an enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Maris, and little daughter, Chas. Lee, called on Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Bennett Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Korman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Dodson. Bro. Cameron and wife were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. Pipkin.

Pat Dean left Sunday for his home in Clarendon, Texas.

$10,000,000 AID FOR VETERANS

Red Cross Provides Friendly Service of Many Kinds to Army of Disabled.

BULK OF WORK BY CHAPTERS

2,397 of These Are Helping Ex-Servicemen Obtain Benefits U. S. Provides.

One field of Red Cross service alone, that of assisting disabled veterans of the World War, entails expenditures $4,000,000 greater than the aggregate receipts of the Annual Roll Call of 1921, the American Red Cross announced in a statement urging a wide spread increase in membership at the Annual Roll Call, November 11 to 24. At the present time National Headquarters and the nationwide chain of Chapters of the Red Cross is spending approximately $10,000,000 annually for the relief of disabled ex-service men and their families, while the aggregate receipts from last year's Roll Call were approximately $6,000,000.

It is in the 2,397 of the Red Cross Chapters which will be helping solve the veteran's problem of adjusting himself to a normal civilian status that the greater part of the cost of this service is borne. Of the total sum spent for veterans' relief last year, National Headquarters expended a total of more than $2,500,000, while the remaining disbursements of approximately $7,500,000 represents the contribution of Chapters in this country-wide effort to assist the Government in providing the aid sorely needed by these men and their families.

An Ever Expanding Problem

The problem of the disabled service man is ever-expanding and probably will not reach the peak before 1925, is the assertion of well-informed Government officials and that 2,397 Red Cross Chapters regard it as their most important work is evidence that the expansion is in nowise confined to a particular section but is, on the contrary, nationwide. At the end of the fiscal year, June 30, 1921, there were 24,300 disabled service men in the United States Public Health Service, Contract and Government Hospitals and Soldiers Homes, and that number is increasing at a rate of 1,000 a month.

Thousands of these men receiving medical treatment, compensation and vocational training from the Government today, started their efforts to obtain them through the Red Cross Chapter. The Chapter, acting as the disabled man's agent in claims against the Government, informs the man as to the procedure necessary to gain for him that which is provided him by Federal statute. His applications for compensation, medical treatment and training are properly filed with the aid of the Red Cross Chapter.

Many Forms of Assistance

If there is delay before the man's claim is acted upon, the Red Cross Chapter lends the man money to meet the imperative needs of himself and his dependents.

Most vital to the man's gaining full benefit from the Government's care is keeping his mind free from worry about his home. Keeping the veteran's family from hardship of every kind and informing him of its welfare is another province of the Chapter. Free from fear on this score, the man's recovery and advancement usually is rapid.

Every month during the last year, the American Red Cross has given service of one kind or another to an average of 125,215 former service men and their families. An indication of the extent of the faith reposed in the Red Cross Chapter is to be found in the fact that there were 236,514 requests for friendly aid in the solution of personal problems.

448 Workers in Hospitals

While the man prior to entering Government care deals largely with the Chapter, afterwards he comes into contact with the service provided by National Headquarters. There are 448 Red Cross workers in the United States Public Health Service and contract hospitals and other institutions in which these men are being cared for, whose duty is to provide for his recreation, help him with his compensation claims, keep him in touch with his family, in short, meeting his every need outside of that provided by the Government. While these are a few of the responsibilities of the National Organization, they are by no means all. Among other Red Cross accomplishments for the year are:

It handled 79,732 allotment and allowance claims.
It delivered through its Chapter organization $1,075 allotment checks to veterans who had moved from the addresses furnished to the Bureau of War Risk Insurance.
It provided a special fund of $10,000 for medical assistance to men under vocational training.
It made 32,405 loans totaling $450,000 to men taking vocational training, of which 85 per cent has been repaid.

A MINOR POINT.

"Have you any reference books on Napoleon Bonaparte," asked the timid old lady in a public library.
"Thousands of them, madam," replied the librarian, proudly. "What particular phase of the Great Corsican's career do you wish to study?"
"I don't suppose you'd call it a phase of his career, and I'm sure I won't have to study thousands of books, but I would like to know why he is so often depicted with his arms folded."

Behind the Stream.

"A boy with a bird's beak and a piece of string will catch more fish than a man with a fishing outfit," remarked the fishable sportsman.
"I have heard so," replied the small boy, whose neck and hand had been "But you can't believe most of the fish stories those city fellows make up."

Seven—Count 'Em.

A correspondent, J. M., sends us a subtle little joke, quite all right to the eye, though perhaps not so good to the ear. It is this:
"Miss Dreyfuss turned her back on me."
"The vertebrenzen thing!"

Not Very Deep.

He (calling)—Reading poetry are you?
She—Yes, I'm wading through Tom Brown.
He (glancing at meter)—Ah! And you've just got to the middle of "The Bend!"

AN EASY MARK
"He's an easy mark."
"That so?"
"Yes. Everybody can get money out of him except his wife."

Luck.
He went to see the dentist.
The picture of despair.
But came back smiling broadly—
The dentist wasn't there.

A Sinister Motive.

Mr. Neighbors—Why don't you consult Dr. Cutter? If there's anything really the matter with you he'll cure you inside of a month. Your wife will pay the bill.
Mr. Neverswear—Yeah! I'm on to her. She wants to get me fixed up so I'll have to get a job.

A Cold Audience.

"I once played 'Macbeth' when there were only fifteen people in the house," said the eminent tragedian.
"It must have been uphill work."
"It was, indeed. And to make matters worse, seven of the fifteen came in expecting to see a comedy."

Tribute to an Unknown Genius.

"Who started the Bacon-Shakespeare controversy?"
"How should I know?" rejoined Mr. Stopington Barnes. "Whoever started it knew his business. It turned out to be the most wonderful press agent stuff in the history of the drama."

Two Sides to an Interview.

"You took a great deal of pains to discuss your own political prospects with that lobbyist."
"Yes," replied Senator Sorghum. "I'm not absolutely certain whether he was lobbying or I was electioneering."

Didn't Live Happily Ever After.

"This is a queer novel you bought; half the pages are blank."
"Yes, you will notice on page 140 the hero and heroine quarrel never to speak again."

LUCK
Young Doctor—I haven't lost a patient since I hung up my shingle.
Other Doctor—I wish I had your luck. All mine got well.

Think This Over.

It's selfish to divorce your wife.
And say more.
Make the great error of his life.
Who, think, he can.

All Manner of Men.

"Some men," remarked the admirer of poetry, "go into politics with the idea of leaving footprints on the sands of time."
"Some do," replied Senator Sorghum. "And others are lucky if they get out without having their thumbprints taken."

Welcome, Stranger.

The Brunswick

Why the Brunswick Method of Reproduction Inures a Superior Phonograph

Reason No. 1 The Brunswick Method of Reproduction includes the Ultona, a new conception in phoning. The Ultona consists of an arrangement of the several necessary reproducing diaphragms upon one tone arm — an all-in-one arrangement, with no attachments — nothing to take off or put on.

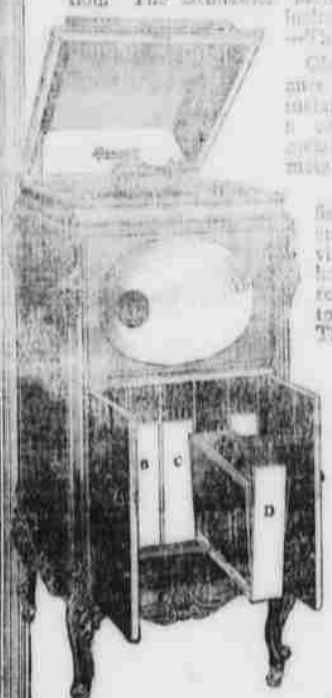

At a turn of the hand, the Ultona presents to any type of record the proper diaphragm and needle, the exact weight. Thus the requirements of each type of record are met. The Ultona demands no sacrifice in tone, as attachments often do.

Reason No. 2 Equal in importance to reproduction is tone amplification. The Brunswick Method of Reproduction also includes a new line of amplifiers — The Brunswick Amplifier.

Other things worth mentioning. These amplifiers will cling to metal records. They are a combination of wood and metal — neither too soft nor too hard as the "alloy" type.

But the Brunswick Amplifier is made of wood, and built entirely of wood, like a fine violin. It is made of rare holly-wood. The sound waves receive natural amplification to reach their fullness, hence the Brunswick tone is richer and more natural. Strident, metallic notes are absent.

We Invite Comparison
Make comparisons. Let your ear decide. Try to find an equal to Brunswick tone.
You're bound to end such a search at a Brunswick shop, where every opportunity will be given you to decide for yourself.
Hear this remarkable instrument before you decide.

DEMOCRATS TAKE THE TREATY OUT OF POLITICS

Whatever differences of opinion there may be among the rank and file of the Democratic party concerning the divided vote of the Democratic Senators on the ratification of the separate peace treaty with Germany, the one outstanding fact in which all Democrats can take pride is that the Democratic Senators refused to make the treaty a party or partisan matter, but adhered to the issue democratic patriotic principle that party politics should end at the water's edge in our relations with foreign governments.

At the conference of Democratic Senators at which it was agreed that the matter of supporting or opposing the peace treaty should be left to the individual conscience and judgment of each Senator there was not the slightest thought or suggestion of adopting the partisan policy of the Republican Senators of the Foreign Relations Committee under the malignant leadership of Senator Lodge, toward the Versailles Treaty, the rejection of which, in the opinion of leading economists, wrecked the economic structure of the world, in addition to its demoralizing effects upon the political and moral status of the nation.

As a result of the decisions of the conference, a majority of the Democratic Senators present, 13, voted against a separate peace treaty, and 14 Democratic Senators voted for ratification. Senators Borah and La Follette were the only Republicans to vote against the treaty.

The attitude of the Democratic Senators who voted for ratification is expressed in an extract from a speech by Senator Hitchcock, the ranking Democratic member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, who said:

"When they (the Republicans) put the United States in a position of refusing to join in the great work of rehabilitating the world, they brought upon the United States, then the most prosperous nation in the world, the beginning of a long depression that we have now suffered from for more than a year. I am not willing to be responsible for doing anything that will prolong this disastrous and dangerous condition."

Back of this, too, was the idea of giving the Harding administration an opportunity to test out its foreign policy, with whatever misgivings, because it devolved upon the administration to initiate a foreign policy of some kind.

The Democratic Senators who voted against ratification, with the exception of the irreconcilables, did so for the Treaty of Versailles and the League of Nations, refusing to yield to expediency.

Despite the facts that the Republicans voted practically as a unit for the separate peace treaty, still making a partisan matter of our international relations, and the Democrats were divided by their decision not to make a matter of foreign policy a party or partisan issue, there is every reason to believe that there is greater division and diversity of opinion among the rank and file of the Republican party on this question than there is in the Democratic party.

In the opinion of many the separate peace treaty with Germany settles none of the differences between the United States and that country, and its ratification they regard only as a pyrrhic victory.

Fall & Winter Merchandise

SALE CLOSSES
SATURDAY NIGHT
November 19, 1921

In this sale we offer Fall and Winter stock at greatly reduced prices. Owing to the fact that we have had so much continued warm weather, we find with less than two months until Christmas that we have entirely too large a stock for this season of the year, and in order to reduce our stock we will reduce the price to the very limit. Remember you can buy your fall bill much cheaper now than a few months later, as some of our lines are advancing every day. This is positively the greatest saving event of the season. Be sure you attend this sale at the earliest date possible.

Interests of Bank and Depositors

Officers and directors of this bank recognize that the interests of this bank and its depositors are the same. When the resources of the patrons and depositors of the bank increase the volume of business increases. It is therefore wise and prudent for the bank to assist the people of this vicinity to increase their money and property.

To this end the most cordial relations between the officers of this bank and its depositors are encouraged. Any service that we can render is always cheerfully given in all financial matters.

Idle 12 Months, is Now Back on Job

"Only a man who has to work for a living knows what it means to get back on the job after not hitting a lick of work for a whole year. I lost twelve months straight time on account of stomach trouble. One of the worst cases I guess any man ever had. Taniae not only made me a well man again, but built me up 19 pounds in weight. I am writing all my friends in other cities to tell them of the wonderful news."

The above statement was made by George B. Lowe, well known employe of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. living at 451 McGowan St., Akron, Ohio.

Taniae is sold by leading druggists everywhere. (Adv.)

WEST CHAPEL SAYINGS

(Delayed from last week.)
There was a large crowd at the school program and pie supper at West Chapel Saturday night. The school gave a splendid entertainment which everyone seemed to have enjoyed. The pie sold for good prices which brought over $35.00. The proceeds will go to the school to buy basket balls, and numerous other play things that will furnish amusement for the children in school. We wish to thank all who contributed to this school fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas were visiting in Clovis Sunday.

Misses Lula and Nora Giles and Mary Gray took dinner at Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Chapman's Sunday.

Miss Selma Bledsoe, Alfred and Velma Chapman were visiting Miss Bledsoe's brother in Clovis Sunday.

Miss Cleo and Jimmie Allcorn of Clovis were visiting their sister Mrs. Martin, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis, who lost their small child, who died from injuries received from falling from a door, have our deepest sympathy.

Mrs. Jim Rierson spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. R. D. Chapman. A literary society was organized at West Chapel Saturday night.

Peter Pan.

GRADY SCHOOL NOTES

Mrs. Nina Smith was taken to Clovis Monday for an appendicitis operation. We are glad to hear that she is doing nicely.

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Anna Belle Tunnell sprained her ankle while playing basket ball. The following afternoon Miss Vada Rupp happened to the same accident. They are able to attend school now.

Friday being the regular meeting day, the societies rendered their programs consisting of debates, music and recitations.

Miss Lottie Harbes, Messrs. Clyde Smithson, Ray McGrew, Rex and Leo Eoff, were among the pupils who attended the circus in Clovis Friday.

Grady continues to win prizes in club work. We heard Saturday night that Guy Carter won a silver cup for stock judging at the state meet in Clovis.

The pie supper and Halloween party was a great success. Miss Rosa Adams won the pretty girl contest and received a cake. The Gypsy fortune teller's corner proved to be a popular place. The proceeds will be used for athletics and the music room.

Misses Sue and Katie Fedrick spent

OLD DOBBIN STILL HAS CLAIM TO FAME

Despite the fact that automobiles are multiplying faster than horses are being bred, Old Dobbin bobs up occasionally with a performance that stamps him as being of iron construction.

Postmaster General Hays has just been informed of the exploits of a gray horse owned by George Caldwell, a rural mail carrier in Pennsylvania. Making more than ten miles a day for the last twelve years, this horse has travelled 50,000 miles, equivalent to two trips around the globe at the equator. He is now sixteen years old and still going strong.

"Old Dobbin has not yet gone into the discard," said Postmaster General Hays when he was told of the faithful services of this old rural service equine.

NOTICE OF SUIT.

State of New Mexico to Ray Price, Defendant:

You are hereby notified that a suit has been filed in the District Court of Curry County, New Mexico, wherein W. T. Woods is plaintiff and you, the said Ray Price, are defendant, and said cause is pending in the District Court of Curry County, New Mexico, on the Civil Docket of said Court, and numbered 1892.

The general objects of said suit are to obtain a judgment against you in the sum of $325.00, balance due on one electric light plant and equipment, and a writ of attachment has been issued in said cause, and levied on the following property belonging to you: One Silent Almo Electric Light Plant, one Gasoline Filling Station Pump, Groceries, Saxon Automobile and other property.

You are further notified that unless you appear in said cause on or before the fifteenth day of December, A. D. 1921, judgment will be rendered against you in said action for said $325.00, together with all costs, and the said attachment will be foreclosed and the said property sold, and the proceeds arising from said sale will be applied to the payment of said debt, together with costs of suit. That Patton & Hatch are plaintiff's attorneys, and their post office address is Clovis, New Mexico.

DANIEL BOONE,
11-3-4tc Clerk.

SNAP SHOTS

(Dallas News)

Some men's idea of a musical instrument is the brewery whistle.

Another good thing about gum-chewing is that you can learn it in a few easy lessons at home.

As we understand it, the way to settle a strike is for everybody to agree that it is silly.

And there are so many people looking for work you can hardly locate one of them when you want your wood sawed.

It has just about gotten so in this country that an actress won't pay the photographer if he didn't put her legs in the picture.

The old-fashioned bad man who used to see the crowd scatter when he reached for his hip pocket now sees them come up close and smack their lips.

SIGHT OR DOLLARS?

A good pair of glasses will cost a few dollars, but they relieve eyestrain and protect your eyesight—something dollars won't do for you.

By neglecting your weak eyes you may save a few dollars for a time, but in the end you will pay a far heavier price.

Our glasses give satisfactory results and are reasonable in price.

An examination at any time will cost you nothing but the effort required to come to us.

Delay may cost you no less than your eyesight—a heavy price to pay.
