J. Leonard Knapp is making rapid progress in learning the ways of the west, but he occasionally meets with a reverse.

Thursday, for instance, he was riding a horse without saddle or bridle, down McCutchen avenue, when the animal became excited and began to execute some bucking exercises that would have unhorsed a much more experienced rider than Mr. Knapp. As it was that ambitious gentleman came into very forcible contact with the ground and is hardly able to tell even yet where his bruises hurt the most.

The funeral took place from the Catholic church at Gallup under the direction of Undertaker Finger and was attended by a large number of sympathizing friends. There are a score or more colored children here of school age, and some provision, it is said by many, should be made for their education.

Jack Fletcher, the band teacher, says he thinks there must be cow thieves prowling around. One night last week, when he went home, he noticed some one in his cow pen, and on asking the fellow what he was doing in there, was confronted with a six-shooter. He ordered the interloper off the premises and he finally went. A good load of coarse salt from a shot gun would be the right kind of diet for such chaps, ordinarily, but when they come around and draw a pistol, a bullet would be better.

He lay in the snow for twenty-four hours when he was found by relatives who had become alarmed at his non-appearance and started out to find him. The report comes from the mountains to the effect that there is more snow there than has been known for fifty years. This is good news to the mining and cattlemen in general in this section, as it insures an abundant supply of water in the creeks and rivers until late in the summer months.

The precinct election passed off quietly as usual, the polls being at Newcomb hall. The greatest question under discussion was on the justice of the peace vote, the two candidates being Judge W. H. Newcomb and John M. Ginn. The office was again given to Judge W. H. Newcomb by a majority of 139.

With the close of this week ends in our Normal school the first term of the year 1902-1903. No more successful term has ever been known in the school's history. Turner, of this city, who has been chosen by the people of the Thirteenth district as their representative in the thirteenth legislative assembly, will leave Friday evening for Santa Fe, in order to be present at the opening of the session Monday. WINSLOW PARAGRAPHS.

Batch of interesting Notes About a Good Railroad Town.

Special Correspondence.

Winslow, Ariz., Jan. 13.—C. A. Matteson, the popular manager of the local Harvey hotel, who has officiated here during the last four months, has tendered his resignation and accompanied by his estimable wife and pretty little daughters departed on this morning's train for southern California, where he will enjoy a much needed vacation.

Mr. Matteson came to this section of the west in April, 1902, and for the first five months of his stay managed the Gallup hotel for Harvey. He succeeded Mr. Lusk as manager of the Winslow house in September last and during his short stay here has made a host of friends by pleasing manners and by courteous treatment he has at all times extended to the many patrons of the hotel.

Dr. Oscar S. Brown, the surgeon for the coast lines at this point, tendered Mr. and Mrs. Matteson a farewell banquet last evening in the hotel dining room, and was joined by a few of their most intimate friends, consisting chiefly of the division officials located here and the prominent citizens of Winslow.

A sumptuous supper was spread at 9 o'clock and during its progress numerous toasts given by the genial toastmaster Dr. Brown were responded to by those present, and it was noticeable that each was brought to a close by expressions of regret at the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Matteson from our town and of the best wishes for their future welfare and success.

After the banquet cards were in order and the merry hours until midnight were enjoyed at that social pastime in the parlors of the hotel.

The multitude of friends which Mr.

and Mrs. Matteson leave here bespeaks well for their popularity, as they have ever spread a genial air of hospitality through the hostelry of which they had charge.

Mr. McCormick, Mr. Matteson's successor, bids fair to keep up the good reputation of the house and to attain the popularity which has attended Mr. Matteson during his stay here. Mr. McCormick is well known here, having been with Harvey for a number of years, and having officiated as manager at the Needles and recently at Merced, Cal., from which point he came to Winslow. He is accompanied by his sister, Miss McCormick, who also will be a great addition to local society.

The friends who assembled with Dr. Brown to bid Mr. and Mrs. Matteson farewell were: Superintendent L. L. Hubbard, General Foreman D. A. Shope, Roadmaster and Mrs. Oscar Gabriel, Mayor Richard Bauerbach and wife, T. J. Hesser and wife, Messrs. M. J. Drury, A. Bird, Streeter, T. J. McGinty, Miss McCormick and McCann, Postmistress Julia Mahoney, Dr. Campbell, Lawrence B. Smith, chief clerk of mechanical department, W. P. Geary, chief clerk of store department, and Mr. McCormick.

The fifth annual prize masquerade ball of the A. O. U. W. occurs at the Deming opera house on the evening of February 20. It will be the most magnificent ball ever given by the order, and it is expected that a large crowd will be present.

One day last week Constable Oglesby received a telegram from Canon City, Colo., directing him to keep a lookout for one Frank Cook, an escaped convict from the penitentiary there. Oglesby did so and was soon successful in landing Cook in jail. Deputy Sheriff Spellman, of Canon City, came after the man and paid Constable Oglesby a reward of $100 for his capture.

CERRILLOS MINING CLAIMS.

Pennsylvania Men Interested in the Smelter Have Completed Purchase.

Charles R. Galbraith and Charles G. Warner, both of Franklin, Pa., who have been in Santa Fe for several days, have closed pending negotiations for the purchase of mining claims at Cerrillos. The "Great Western" claim in the Cerrillos mining district was purchased from A. Staab, of Santa Fe, for $2,000. From M. F. Landenslager and husband, of Albuquerque, they purchased the four claims, "Robert G. Ingersoll," "Sure Winner," "Bertha Mable" and "Little Chief." All the claims are located in the Cerrillos mining district and the consideration was $5,000. Both of the purchasers are financially interested in the smelter at Cerrillos and both left for their homes yesterday. It is expected the smelter will in a short time be operated at its full capacity as there is an abundance of ore in sight. There has been some fear that sufficient coke could not be secured, but arrangements have been made whereby coke will be burned at the smelter.

E. W. Barrett is a new brakeman on the Rio Grande division.

BROAD PRESIDENTS.

Minors' Salaries Paid These Railways Magnates.

The announcement of the United States steel corporation that not more than twelve men in its employ, or in the employ of its subsidiary companies, receive salaries of $20,000 or over, has directed attention to the compensation paid heads of great railroads and large banks as affording an interesting basis of comparison, says the Boston Journal.

The steel trust has fixed $100,000 as belonging to the office of president of the corporation itself, but has not more than fifty men who will receive from $10,000 to $20,000 a year, some 200 who will get from $5,000 to $10,000, and about 1,500 who are compensated at the rate of from $2,500 to $5,000 annually.

Although the railroads and banks pay some high salaries, very few men are compensated at $50,000 or more a year. A. J. Cassatt, of the Pennsylvania, is generally credited with receiving $75,000 a year. These are credited with receiving $50,000 a year: President Underwood, of the Erie; President Spencer, of the Southern; President Ripley, of the Atchafalaya; President Huchitt, of the Northwest; President Earling, of the St. Paul; and President Newman, of the New York Central. President Burt, of the Union Pacific, is understood to receive about $35,000 a year.

President Harris, of the Burlington road is understood to receive $25,000 a year, and President Mellen, of the Northern Pacific, a similar amount.

President Hill, of the Northern Securities company, is understood to $35,000 a year, as does also President Yukum, of the St. Louis & San Francisco system.

Charles M. Harris, vice president and general manager of the Grand Trunk road, was reported to have been offered $40,000 a year to return to that system when he left the Southern Pacific.

draw $50,000 a year and a nominal salary as president of the Great Northern railway.

President Stickney, of the Chicago & Great Western, draws a salary of $20,000 a year, and President Ramsey, Jr., of the Washburn, is credited with drawing a salary of $40,000 a year.

George Gould is president of many roads, and through his control and that of the Gould family, probably draws many salaries which aggregate a very large sum, chiefly made up of his salary as president of the Missouri Pacific.

While it is not known what all New York banks pay their chief officers, it is argued that $50,000 a year represents the highest salary paid any bank president in the city.

Rev. Carlisle P. B. Martin, L. D. D. Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning when first rising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough, and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons, needing a medicine for throat or lung troubles." Price 25c, 50c, $1.00 a bottle at Cosmopolitan Pharmacy—B. Ruppe.

President Henry Here.
J. J. Henry, president of the Albuquerque Electric Light & Power company, is in the city from Denver, and will do doubt assure consumers of gas that, in a very short time, they will be supplied with a better grade of gas. Manager Gussel has listened patiently to many complaints about the quality of gas and the increases in monthly gas bills, but he has been powerless to act, giving as a reason that the plant is overtaxed and that before a permanent remedy can be announced the company will have to add additional machinery to the plant. Mr. Henry will be here a few days, and his big broad shoulders can stand all kind of complaints.

If Unwell.

PRIZE WINNERS.
San Pedro Team Takes Double Drilling Prize and Boulder Man in Single Contest.

Wednesday morning's single handed contest of the miners at the El Paso carnival, drilled while the snow was falling, completed the series, and in the afternoon the judges announced their decision and awarded the prizes as follows:

Double handed contest, first prize, $1,000 and loving cup, worth $150, to Chamberlain and Make, of San Pedro, Mexico, who drilled a hole 43 1/2 inches in the block of Gunnison granite in 14 minutes and made the world's record. Second prize, $300, Lindquist and Happe, Oursay, Colo., 41 1/2 inches. Third prize, Malley and Ross, of Bismarck, 40 1/2 inches.

Single handed contest, first prize, $500 and a world's championship, Fred "Turkey" of Boulder county, Colorado, 39 1/2 inches; second prize, $100, O. M. King, of Bismarck, 39 1/2 inches; third prize, $50, J. M. Chamberlain, of San Pedro, Mexico, 39 1/2 inches. Both King and Chamberlain drilled in Thursday's single handed contest, in which there were but four entries, John Ablos, of New Mexico, being scratched as he failed to appear.

The feature of the contest was the remarkable work of the San Pedro giant, who went after first money and would have given Yockey a hard run had it not been that he lost three minutes in trying to unloosen a badly wedged drill. In spite of that he finished ahead of Conley, the former champion, who failed to retain even a place among the prize winners. King displayed a remarkable ease with the hammer and landed heavily, but his strokes were not rapid. Earl McCutcheon and Don McGowan, of Bismarck, were the other contestants today. McCutcheon scored 16 1/2 and McGowan 17 1/2.

The miners were banqueted last night at the annual meeting of the Southwestern International Mining association. Britton Davis, of El Paso, was elected president to succeed Juan S. Hart, and W. G. Gifford, secretary.

BIG MERGER STORY.
One Report That Atchison and Rock Island Were in a Deal.

Wall street had a big day yesterday on the Stock Exchange, with transactions of more than a million and a half of shares, says the New York Herald. Excitement ran high, and there was no end of rumors in circulation regarding consolidations in the railroad world. Interest was centered chiefly in Rock Island, Atchison and Erie, and the trading in these stocks was accompanied by a multitude of reports of deals and mergers which, if carried out, would have given Attorney General Knox sufficient work for years to come in testing their legality.

Of the many reports in circulation, there was one which caused bankers to hesitate before expressing an opinion as to its authenticity. Information reached the Herald from a source usually reliable, that a railroad deal of vast importance was pending between the great Atchison system and the recently reorganized Rock Island company, by which the latter would speedily announce its control of the Atchison.

It was said the dominant interests in both companies had decided to pool their interests, and that, by an interchange of securities, a harmony of interest between the two great competing properties would be established.

As to the details of the scheme, there were none, and denials were made by Atchison directors that any such scheme was on foot. In other quarters, however, it was stated with equal positiveness that the deal was pending between the two management, and that as a result the Rock Island system would reach the Pacific coast. In fact, the authorities who maintained this belief were so positive in their views that they told their friends the success of the alliance was already assured. Along what lines the deal would be attained there was no information available. No banking names were mentioned in connection with the scheme or sources from which the funds necessary to carry out the plan could be obtained.

In connection with the Rock Island story, it was gossiped that it was negotiating for a traffic alliance with the Erie, by which it would obtain an eastern outlet to the Atlantic seaboard. It was said that D. G. Reid, W. B. Leeds, W. H. Moore and J. H. Moore and other Rock Island interests had acquired large holdings in Erie, and that they would procure representation in the board of directors of that company. In banking quarters connected with the Erie railroad, this story was denied.

It was generally accepted, however, that J. P. Morgan & Co. was at work upon a plan for either the betterment or the disposition of the Erie. Bankers and brokers, who watched the recent heavy trading in the Erie stock, were unqualified in their declarations that some scheme was being worked out, but the only hint of its possible future, which was given any credence was that the Lackawanna might ultimately become the owner of the famous Erie.

A sumptuous supper was served.

NEW SANTA FE LINE.
Surveyors Said to Be Working Toward Trinidad, Colo.

It is reported from Dodge City, Kan., that a party of Santa Fe surveyors is working in that vicinity, supposedly running a line from Dodge City to Trinidad, Colo.

The object of such a line would be to shorten the distance from Chicago to the coast, and at the same time to avoid some of the heavy grades encountered on the line from La Junta to Trinidad. The surveying party is now reported to be in Beaver county, Okla., but what they are doing there is somewhat of a mystery if the destination of the survey is really Trinidad. To strike Oklahoma would take the line out of the most direct route. There is reason to believe that if a new line is being planned, it will not be to Trinidad, but to some other objective point which is being concealed.

The Orient railway company has announced an extension from the main line at Barton, in western Oklahoma, through Hobart and Coopers to Lawton, a distance of 100 miles. This will pass through the mining regions of the Wichita mountains.

Joseph C. Nicholas, general baggage agent of the Missouri Pacific road, is dead at his home in St. Louis of heart failure. Mr. Nicholas began his railroad career in 1874 as a clerk in the general passenger and ticket department of the St. Louis, Kansas City & Northern railroad.

Last week the Rock Island company began the burning of gumbo from the extensive deposits which occur near Alhambra. Immense kilns have been erected. It is said the burned article makes excellent ballast for a roadbed and the company will use it on their line between Kansas City and El Paso in connection with gravel.

James Hennessy, the well known and popular engineer, is rejoicing over a new arrival at his pleasant home. The better half of the household has presented him with a baby boy, and the little fellow made his appearance Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mother and child reported doing nicely, and daddy as happy as he can be.

John Renahan, the old time blacksmith, now employed by D. Lantry's Sons out from Watrous, drove down from that place to Las Vegas, accompanied by a fireman named Thomas Lawless, who had been injured by getting a piece of coal in his eye and was taken out to the railroad hospital at Las Vegas for medical treatment.

The Roswell Register says: A. L. Conrad, auditor of the Pecos Valley Lines; Charley Wooten; F. B. Curtis, the Pecos Valley & Northeastern conductor, and Sam Dunn, of Hereford, Texas, returned from a hunting trip down the road as far as Red Bluff. They were gone four days and found ducks scarce, but plenty of quail below Carlsbad.

The Rock Island is now building three new ice houses, at Bucklin, Horton and Dalhart, each with a capacity of 4,000 tons. These houses, in addition to others along the line, will be used as icing points for the train loads of fruit from California, which are expected before long. All of the ice houses along the Rock Island line are now well stocked with the exception of those on the southern lines which will have to be stocked with manufactured ice.

When the Santa Fe limited arrived in the yard last night, says the San Bernardino Sun, it was boarded by John Whaley, night watchman in the yards, who removed one of the passengers. The prisoner was a hobo, who being possessed of a taste above that usually found among men of his class, had concluded to trot the continent aboard the "gem" train. He was found on the top of the rear coach lying face down, hugging the shakes for all he was worth, which, by the way wasn't much. He was lodged in the city jail for the night and will have his hearing this morning.

THE FIRST ENGINE.
The Santa Fe Central Has One at Torrance Shifting Material for Construction.

The first locomotive of the Santa Fe Central railway arrived at Torrance Wednesday afternoon, 4 o'clock. J. W. Records is the engineer and John Carlisle the fireman. The engine was put into service at once and is shifting to the Santa Fe Central yards and sidings the material for construction as it arrives at that point. The laying of rails thus far has been confined to the Torrance yards, but will now be pushed over the plains.

NEW SANTA FE LINE.
Surveyors Said to Be Working Toward Trinidad, Colo.

It is reported from Dodge City, Kan., that a party of Santa Fe surveyors is working in that vicinity, supposedly running a line from Dodge City to Trinidad, Colo.

The object of such a line would be to shorten the distance from Chicago to the coast, and at the same time to avoid some of the heavy grades encountered on the line from La Junta to Trinidad. The surveying party is now reported to be in Beaver county, Okla., but what they are doing there is somewhat of a mystery if the destination of the survey is really Trinidad. To strike Oklahoma would take the line out of the most direct route. There is reason to believe that if a new line is being planned, it will not be to Trinidad, but to some other objective point which is being concealed.

When some of the chief officials of the Santa Fe operating department located in Topeka were asked about this rumor, they professed ignorance that any survey is being made.

"Perhaps it is the Santa Fe that is making the survey," said one of the officials. "They are said to be planning a line out there somewhere."

Another stated that if any new line is being surveyed, the work is all under the charge of Chief Engineer Dun and President Ripley, nothing having been said about the plans to Topeka officials.

JUDGE McMILLAN.
He Must Explain His Conduct to the President.

A special to the Denver Republican, from Washington, dated January 12, says: Members of the New Mexico delegation remaining here held a meeting today to decide upon recommendation of a candidate for judge of the Fifth judicial district to succeed Judge D. H. McMillan, whose tenure of office may end soon.

President Roosevelt has informed New Mexico republican leaders that Judge McMillan must answer charges which have been made against him relative to his conduct while on the bench or resign.

It is believed by the New Mexicans who are here that his resignation will be the result. At the meeting it was decided to recommend Judge A. A. Freeman, of Carlsbad, for McMillan's place. It is not certain that this recommendation will be accepted by the president, as Freeman has been energetic in the movement for McMillan's removal.

GRANT AN INCREASE.
Santa Fe to Pay Coast Line Yardmen More Wages.

It is announced that the Santa Fe has acceded to the demands of employees and that the western yardmen will be placed on the Chicago standard, says a Los Angeles dispatch.

This increase amounts to 12 and 14 per cent. The yardmen affected extend to every point on the system west of Albuquerque.

Arthur G. Wells, general manager of the Pacific coast division, returned from Chicago, where he had consulted with officials over the demand of engineers and firemen for increased pay. The yardmen are now satisfied. There remains only the conductors and trainmen with whom to deal. Their grievance committee held a short session with Mr. Wells, but no conclusion was reached.

While the first effort failed of agreement the men and Wells met again yesterday and it is mooted that an adjustment will be reached. The increase asked is about 20 per cent. This advance is a surprise, as the men did not expect they would be segregated from other members of the Order of Railroad Trainmen.

New Mexico Rough Riders.
The work of organizing the cavalry troop in the territorial militia, to be known as "New Mexico Rough Riders" is progressing favorably and a large number of signatures have already been secured. W. W. Wuerschmidt, formerly of the regular army, is pushing the project and hopes to complete the list required in a few days.

There seems to be some doubt as to whether the adjutant general will accept the troop for the national guard, as he wants an infantry company at Las Cruces. However, with as influential a man as Major W. H. H. Llewellyn at its head, many things favorable to the troop can be expected. An armory will be secured and if necessary to get a good one, a new one will be built. Military hops and entertainments will be given occasionally, thus making it very desirable to belong to the troop.

Las Cruces has long needed something of this sort, as there is really no place for the young men to go for an evening's entertainment.

After the prescribed number of members necessary to organize the troop have been secured, candidates for membership will find it no easy matter to be accepted. All young men not already in the list, who desire to join, are requested to hand in their names to Mr. Wuerschmidt at once.—Las Cruces Progress.

Don't Worry.
This is easier said than done, yet it may be of some help to consider the matter. If the cause is something over which you have no control it is obvious that worrying will not help the matter in the least. On the other hand, if within your control you have only to act. When you have a cold and fear an attack of pneumonia, buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and use it judiciously and all cause for worry as to the outcome will quickly disappear. There is no danger of pneumonia when it is used. For sale by all druggists.

SURVEY IS COMPLETED.
Line From Albuquerque to Durango Is Finished—Santa Fe Central Plans.

W. S. Hopewell, general manager of the Santa Fe Central railway, left Santa Fe yesterday morning for Denver, and expects to be absent about three days, says the New Mexican.

The survey from Albuquerque to Durango has been completed and the surveyors will be transferred to the line of the Albuquerque Eastern to look after some of the details of that line and to make the survey for the terminals.

The company will investigate the feasibility of extending the line to Roswell as soon as the weather moderates a little and the snow is off the ground.

Mr. Hopewell will make a trip across the country before surveyors are put to work running a line to Roswell.

Two engines have arrived at Santa Rosa for the company and engineers have been sent to take them to Torrance.

Track laying has commenced and it is expected the road will be in operation by May 1.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.
Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep, which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave to his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by all druggists.

ARRESTED ON A REQUISITION.
A Texas Ex-Sheriff Passed Worthless Checks in Roswell.

Frank Vaughn, ex-sheriff of Castro county, Texas, just across the New Mexico line, has been arrested on a requisition from the governor of New Mexico, and was lodged in jail at Roswell.

Last July, while in Roswell, he passed four worthless checks, for $250, $100 and two for $50 each, and had a high old time with the proceeds. He then slipped out and was not apprehended until last week. He furnished a bond for $1,000 and returned home.

The territorial board of equalization was in session yesterday and also today. No definite rate of assessment for railroads yet has been made except in the case of the Pecos Valley & Northeastern road in Eddy and Chaves counties, where the assessment per mile was increased $500. M. J. Egan, Esq., representing the New Mexico & Arizona railway, and A. J. Israel, tax agent of the Colorado Southern, made arguments this morning asking for a reduction.

SOCORRO COUNTY ELECTION CASE

Contest Ordered Dismissed—Respondents Win.

Judge Daniel H. McMillan yesterday morning at Santa Fe rendered his decision in the Socorro county election contest case. The contest was brought in the Fifth judicial district court, Socorro county, and is entitled Abraha Abeyta, contestant, vs. Hermene G. Baca, respondent. The contest was for the office of treasurer and ex-officio collector of Socorro county. The notice of contest was dismissed by the court and judgment ordered in favor of the respondent.

The decision in full is as follows:
Of New Mexico, Socorro County,
District Court, Fifth Judicial District,
Abraha Abeyta,
Contestant,
vs.
Hermene G. Baca,
Respondent.

This is a contest, under the election law, for the office of treasurer and ex-officio collector of Socorro county.

The contestant, Abeyta, was the candidate for treasurer and collector of Socorro county on the republican ticket, to which office he was duly and regularly nominated by that party in convention. The respondent, Baca, was the candidate for the same office on the democratic ticket. The conventions which nominated these candidates were each held in the city of Socorro on the 2nd and 3rd days of October, 1902. By reason of some dissension in the republican party, a number of republicans convened in the public plaza of that city on the 3rd day of October, about midday, and arranged to hold a convention of independent republicans at 5 o'clock in the afternoon of said day; such convention, however, was not held until 7 o'clock in the evening, at which time they organized as independent republicans, and nominated a ticket which, with the exception of the republican delegate to congress, was identical with the ticket nominated by the democratic party of that day. It appears, however, that one or two of the candidates nominated on the democratic ticket were republicans.

At the convention held on the evening of October 3 by the independent republicans, they adopted resolutions declaring their principles or the reasons for the organization of the party, perfected a party organization, and adopted as their emblem the American flag enclosed with a square. The republican party in convention on the same day, between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon, by resolution, duly adopted the American flag as their party emblem.

Nothing further was done by either the republican organization or the independent republican organization, with reference to perfecting the right of either, to their respective party emblems, adopted by the respective conventions, by way of filing a duly authenticated certificate thereof, until October 29, 26 days after the conventions adopting the respective emblems had adjourned. On October 29 at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, the certificates required by statute, duly certifying the adoption of a party emblem and the nomination of a ticket, together with a printed ticket, embracing the emblem and candidates nominated by each of said conventions, were duly filed in the office of the probate clerk in the city of Socorro, as required by statute. The endorsement made by the probate clerk on each of these certificates is as follows:

On the republican certificate:
"Territory of New Mexico, Socorro County, ss. This instrument of writing was filed for record on the 29th day of October, A. D. 1902, at 11 o'clock a. m., and duly recorded in Vol. — of — on page —. H. G. Baca, probate clerk and recorder, by E. V. Baca, deputy."

On the independent republican certificate:
"Territory of New Mexico, Socorro County, ss. This instrument of writing was filed for record on the 29th day of October, A. D. 1902, at 11 o'clock a. m., and duly recorded in Vol. — of — on page —. H. G. Baca, probate clerk and recorder, by E. V. Baca, deputy."

Each of these endorsements was accompanied with an impress of the seal of the probate court of Socorro county. Each endorsement was made by a rubber stamp, in blank, the year, month, day and hour and the signatures thereto, being filled in with pen and ink.

The whole number of independent republican votes that were cast and counted in this election were 324. It is contended on the part of the contestant that the 324 independent republican tickets cast and counted in said election are illegal and void, for the reason that the American flag within a square is the same or a similar device to that adopted by the republican party; and that it was calculated to mislead and deceive; and that the independent republicans had no right to use such emblem.

The statute regulating the adoption of a party emblem is as follows:

"That hereafter it shall be lawful for any political convention held in this territory or county thereof for the purpose of nominating candidates to be voted for at any election held in this territory or any county thereof, to adopt by resolution some mark or designating device to be printed on the face of and at the head of the ticket or ballot containing the names of the candidates for office nominated by such convention, and when such mark or designating device shall have been adopted by such convention and an imprint of such ballot or ticket containing such mark or designating device so adopted and the names of the candidate or candidates nominated by such convention, and certified to by the presiding officer of such convention and the secretary thereof, shall have been filed with the probate clerk of the county in which such convention was held, it shall be unlawful for any other political convention, person or persons in such county to adopt or use any such mark or designating device for election purposes, or to cause the same to be placed or printed on any ticket or ballot to be voted at such election without having printed on such ticket or ballot all of the names of the candidates nominated by the political convention adopting such mark or designating device, and it shall be unlawful for any person or persons whatsoever after the adoption and filing of such mark or designating device to print or cause to be printed, utter, distribute or circulate, or cause to be uttered, printed or circulated, any ticket or ballot having thereon such mark or designating device with any name printed thereon other than the name or names of the candidate or candidates nominated by the political convention adopting such mark or designating device. * * * * *

Compiled Laws of 1897, Sec. 1633.

From a reading of this section it appears that it is only upon the filing of the certificate that a party acquires priority in the use of the emblem which it adopts. From and after the time of the filing it is made unlawful for any other political convention, person or persons in such county to adopt or use any such mark or designating device for election purposes. The adoption and prior filing of an emblem are essential to give any party the sole right to its use as an emblem, as against any other convention or person.

At the time the independent republicans adopted their emblem, the republicans had acquired no exclusive right to the use of the American flag in the county of Socorro for the election of 1902, for the reason that at that time no certificate had been filed. It was therefore legal, and not within the prohibitions of the statute, for the independent republicans to adopt the flag within a square at a time such action was taken by their convention.

Had the republicans, however, filed their certificate first the action of their convention in adopting the American flag as the emblem of their party in Socorro county for the election of 1902 would have been given vitality, and their exclusive right to such emblem would thereby have been established, and the use of such emblem by any other party or person would thereafter be unlawful. But the two certificates having been filed concurrently, no priority in the use of the emblem adopted by either convention was acquired. Both were legal and regular at the time of their adoption, and priority could only be given by priority in the filing of the certificate. There being no priority in the filing of either certificate, but the filing of both concurrent, the emblem and ticket of each party is legal and regular, and could legally be cast and counted.

It has been urged on behalf of the contestant that the filing of the republican certificate, although concurrent with the filing of the independent republican certificate, related back, and became operative from the time of the adoption of the emblem by the republican convention, and that thereby the republicans gained an exclusive right to the American flag. This is not the legal rule. The filing or recording of an instrument in writing only relates back to the date of its execution or delivery when the statute fixes the time within which such filing must be made after its execution or delivery. (Clark vs. White, 12 Peters, 178; Hanson vs. Cochran, 31 Atlantic Reporter, 890.) Where there is no statute fixing the time after delivery within which a written instrument must be filed or recorded, priority is acquired from the moment of filing or recording. Here the statute makes priority date from the time the certificate is filed, and the common law rule has no application. To hold that the filing of the certificate of adoption of an emblem relates back to the time of its adoption, would put it in the power of a few persons to hold a convention in a remote precinct of a county at an early day in the canvass and to refrain from filing a certificate of adoption until the evening before election, and thereby defeat the use of such emblem by any party whom they might have reason to believe would adopt such emblem for their party ticket to be used in the same canvass and within the same county.

Had the court considered the oral testimony as to whether or not either certificate was filed before the other it would have been led to the conclusion that the preponderance of such evidence showed that the independent republican certificate was filed first; out the endorsements made by the probate clerk on the backs of the certificates showing that each was filed at 11 o'clock on the morning of October 29, having been made at a time when the office was open for business, and being regular on their face, the court has taken such endorsements to be conclusive as to the time when the certificates were actually filed.

The court is therefore of the opinion that both the republican tickets and the independent republican tickets cast and counted in Socorro county in the election of 1902, so far as the infringement of the emblem of either by the other is concerned, were regular and legal and should stand as counted and certified by the board of county commissioners of said county.

This disposes of the only question raised by the notice of contest on behalf of the contestant. The various other questions raised by the answer and the replication are unnecessary to consider, for the reason that no different result would be attained by any decision the court might reach upon such questions. The notice of contest is therefore dismissed, and judgment ordered in favor of the respondent.

DANIEL H. McMILLAN,
District Judge.

After rendering the above decision, Judge McMillan approved the bonds of the county officials elected and having a majority of votes on November 4 last, the above case being a test for all of them. The approved bonds have been mailed to the successful candidates at Socorro.

PENSION PLAN.

Officers Retire at Seventy and Train and Trackmen at Sixty-five.
The Oregon Short Line Railroad company has completed its plan for a pension system of its employees. All officers and employees who have reached the age of 70 shall be retired. Locomotive engineers and firemen, conductors, flagmen, brakemen, train baggagemen, yardmasters, switchmen, bridge foremen, section foremen and supervisors who have attained the age of 65 may be retired.

Employees who have become incapacitated may be retired after reaching the age of 61. The pension plan applies to all who have been twenty years in the service.
The pension allowances are: For each year of service 1 per cent of the average monthly pay received for the ten years preceding retirement. Thus, if an employee had been in the service forty years and his average wages for the last ten years was $75 a month, his pension allowance would be 40 per cent of $75, or $30 a month.

EXPRESS COMPANY MERGER.

Wells-Fargo and Pacific Express Companies May Affiliate.
A dispatch says that either a merger of the Wells-Fargo and Pacific express companies or the closest kind of an alliance between them is shown by orders which have been received by agents of both companies all over the country.

The Pacific express is controlled by the Gould system. Until last November there was a close traffic alliance between the Pacific and United States express companies. They worked with each other against all other companies.

Now the Wells-Fargo and Pacific companies have instructed their agents not to give any other company any business which can be handled by either the Wells-Fargo or Pacific company.

It is the belief of western attaches of the Wells-Fargo company that its absorption of the Pacific company will soon be announced, and that the Gould interest will appear in the directorate of the Wells-Fargo company.

Jesse Hayward and Ed Slink, two well known conductors at Winslow, have gone to Kentucky on a visit.

SAN JUAN COUNTY.

Farmington.

From the Hustler.
Harvey Towner and Tom Bryan have struck a thirty-foot vein of fine lignite coal on their claim recently filed on near Fruitland, about twelve miles west of Farmington.

The family, consisting of wife and three little boys of C. C. Pirat, arrived on Saturday evening's stage from Lafayette, Ind., and will hereafter make their home in Farmington.

Two beautifully engraved deportment medals, a promised gift from Mrs. Penrod to the most deserving in the fourth and fifth grade classes, are on exhibition at Evans' jewelry store. A peep in the Farmington distillery warehouse won't make a Kentucky gentleman feel at home—over 1,000 gallons of pure peach and apple brandies awaiting age.

One of Sam Rush's horses slipped, Saturday evening, while being watered, and broke its leg short off, necessitating it being shot. The loss falls severe on Mr. Rush, as his team was one of his means of gaining a livelihood.

A private letter from W. A. Hunter, written at Woodward, Okla., says he and his wife have enjoyed every day of their visit thus far. Weather has been all that could be desired and property seems to reign in all the towns they have passed through.

The evaporator was closed down for the season, Saturday night, having turned out 400 boxes of evaporated fruits, equalling a sum total of ten tons. During the present month the balance of apples on hand will be worked up into cider.

From the Times.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. George Marshall, Saturday, January 2, 1903, a girl, J. H. Dillard purchased the June Roberts place; consideration, $2,500.
W. J. Skeed and wife arrived from the Zuni mountains and expect to locate here permanently.

Several farmers in this vicinity this year cleared $3,000 each for their summer's work. This was done with less than 100 acres in each instance. That is a record that few places can equal.

M. C. Pickens and C. C. Pinkney left for their sheep camp after spending the holidays with the home folks. They are wintering their flock in the Seven Lake country.

Dick Greaves met his Waterloo the first of the week. It consisted of a pitchfork wielded by the hand of a doughty Texan whom Dick had a longing to place among his conquered subjects. As a result of the encounter Dick is carrying his head in a sling.

Astec.

William Butler and J. M. Palmer, of Farmington, were up to attend to business and see the new officials work.

W. A. Collins and Iley N. Selph, of the San Juan, were in town trading with Aztec merchants and attending to other business.

Judge Pendleton leaves for Santa Fe Sunday to assume his duties as representative from this county in the territorial legislature. He can be counted on to see that San Juan county's interests are carefully looked after.

George L. Cooper was a passenger on the down stage bound for his home at Farmington. Mr. Cooper has been in poor health for some time and with his family will leave for California next Monday for a six months' stay.

Thomas Cook, of Durango, spent several days visiting this section and has about concluded to invest in a San Juan county tract of land. Tom has been pulling a Rio Grande train for a long time and we would be pleased to see him one of us.

STAGE TALK.

The Dramatic Editor of The Citizen Gives His Views.

To the average theater goer the scene, plot and actors represent a reality, the living of another life. The various and different traits of human character are shown, giving the audience a view of their own weaknesses and failings.

Many plays represent the dark and light shades of human existence to such an extent that the audience forget their surroundings and ways of living and live in an environment full of excitement and fascination. Their attention and sentiments are so absorbed in the successes and hardships of the actors that it seems to them a reality. The pathos of a scene may move them to tears, then in an instant some witty remark, though the scene be very impressive and pathetic, will cause a smile to hover around the lips, or even a laugh of amusement.

But to watch a play from behind the scenes spoils the reality and fascination of human character. The acting appears naked and its defects can readily be seen. The strong character loses strength and the acting is laid open. Yet the performance behind the scenes is a most attractive and interesting scene. The rapidity and skill with which the actors make up into characters is remarkable. A noted change can be seen in their bearing and countenances as they step from between the stage to the flies in full view of the audience. In their schooling they learn to adapt themselves to any character and situation.

Some actors are best fitted for a humorous character, others for a strong character, requiring dramatic poses in scenes of striking and imposing climaxes. Each in time discover what character is best adapted to their natures.

The press, pulpit and stage are recognized as the three greatest universal educators of the age. It is useless to comment or even remark of the prominent positions the first two named institutions occupy in the minds of the intelligent. But the stage, an institution whose usefulness and position as a universal educator has never been fully recognized, stands on a level with the press and pulpit, when it comes to impressing morals and lessons of high merit in the minds and lives of the public.

This statement is recognized as a truth by broadminded men and women who understand human nature, but there are many who will condemn the stage as an unworthy and demoralizing institution as long as they live.

To some an actor has no right to mingle with people of high morals and right living; to be an actor means an undesirable character and a bad reputation. True, there are bad actors in the profession as well as there are depraved characters in all lines and walks of life. But people seem to lose sight of the fact that to be an actor one must be above the average intelligence. A special education is required to furnish amusement and entertainment for the eager and demanding public.

Many an actress has been the victim of unjust criticism, but a young lady of an actress and live as clean and pure a life as any young lady. It is a most admirable sight to see an ambitious young lady earning her living by an occupation that requires strength of character, self possession, self assurance and an education that would be the envy of any young lady.

But the stage is advancing in the public minds as an institution that should receive the hearty support of the appreciative public whose principals are not regulated by prejudice.

CHANGE IN RULES.

Southern Road to Examine Employees and Retain Only Those Who Pass.

A new book of rules and regulations has been issued by the Colorado & Southern railway, affecting the operating department.
Examinations are to be held, and after March 1 these rules will be in effect, and only such employees as have successfully passed these examinations will be retained.

W. H. Forman, has been appointed to hold classes for the men, and explain to them the new systems. Mr. Forman was instrumental in drafting and compiling the code. Car No. 8 is set aside in the Denver yards for these classes.

The object of the change is to make the regulations governing this department conform as nearly as possible to those of other roads, thus establishing a uniform system of signals and operative methods.

The new system includes the standard code of the American Railway association and is in all important points the same as that adopted by the Denver & Rio Grande a year ago. Green is to be used instead of white, as heretofore, in semaphores and signals, and many other important changes are made.

SANTA FE BALKS.

Will Ignore Colonial Rate Until California Rush Is Over.

Owings to its immense rush of California business the Santa Fe has given notice that for the time, at least, it will ignore the recent colonial rate announced to California points by the Southern Pacific. The rate is $35 from Chicago to California, and strenuous objections are being made to it by all roads. Unless cancelled the rate will go in on February 15, and be effective until April 1.

At the meeting of the Transcontinental Passenger association to be held at San Antonio, on January 20, an effort will be made to have the rate canceled.

It appears that some of the connections of the Southern Pacific joined with it in its notice under protest and while deeply impressed with the opinion that the action was foolish in the extreme at this time.

Regular California travel is extremely heavy at this time and it is certain it will continue so all through February.

The fact is, the direct California lines are taxed to the utmost to provide equipment enough to take care of it. The trains are now running under great disadvantage, owing to severity of the weather and the shortness of coal supplies. There is a very large movement of military to San Francisco to be taken care of. Some 7,000 troops are to be moved there shortly. The price at which they will be carried will be regulated to some extent by this new colonial rate. When this same rate was in effect in October the Pullman company was unable to furnish enough tourist cars to take care of it properly and there is likely to be to an exaggerated extent a repetition of the conditions which then existed.

Under these circumstances it is considered extremely injudicious to bunch a great volume of additional colonial business on the lines when the regular business is at its height.

L. A. Grout, who was here the past few days, will leave tonight for Arizona, to look over some railroad building contracts now under headway. From Arizona, he will continue on to his headquarters and home in Los Angeles.

Charles Hess and wife passed through the city last night, going to San Marcel to visit with friends. Mr. Hess is a Santa Fe conductor, with headquarters at Wichita, Kas. Previous to going to Wichita Mr. Hess lived at San Marcel and ran a train on the Rio Grande division. They have been visiting in California the past few weeks.

RAILROAD NOTES.

The Santa Fe, Prescott & Phoenix is now issuing 1,000 mile tickets over its road for $30.

F. T. Beckett, assistant engineer for the Santa Fe at San Marcel, is in the city. He will return to his headquarters tonight.

Mrs. James Gaudin, wife of Engineer Gaudin, visited Williams this week. She had also been spending a time at Winslow.

F. M. Jones, chief field engineer for the Santa Fe in the location of the cut-off, was in the city this morning while en route from Belen to Dodge City, Kansas.

The Las Vegas Record says: The largest mogul in the whole wide world, the 257, left here for Albuquerque last night, with 1,000 tons dragging along behind her.

A. D. Carter, a Winslow railroad man, was last night undergoing treatment for his leg in the hospital at Los Angeles. He has been very much benefited lately, and will soon return home.

The McCormick Argus says: Considerable comment has been made about the two box cars placed at the east end of the depot for the purpose of making room for handling freight. We mentioned, however, that these cars are placed there only temporarily, and that a large and commodious addition will be built soon. The Santa Fe generally do things right if they are given time.

This week the Harvey house changed management. Mr. Madison resigned and Mr. McCormick taking charge. Mr. Madison and family will leave Winslow in a few days, and in doing so the capable ex-manager and his estimable wife carry with them only the best regards of the Winslow folks. Mr. McCormick is an old Harvey house man and a first class gentleman in all respects.—Winslow Mail.

The Winslow Mail says: A popular young man made his numerous acquaintances adieu Tuesday in the person of E. T. Isherwood, who left for Point Richmond, Cal., to take charge of the new Santa Fe storehouse at that point. Mr. Isherwood has been connected with the store department of the Santa Fe here for several years, and while his friends extend congratulations for his advancement they also regret his departure.

The case of the Kentucky state railroad commission against the Louisville & Nashville and numerous other railroads, involving an alleged merger, came up for hearing yesterday before the interstate commerce commission in New York. More than ordinary interest attaches to the hearing for the reason that the Kentucky commission, in order to sustain its charge of a merger, has summoned as witnesses J. Pierpont Morgan, John W. Gates, August Belmont and other leading financiers of the country and high officials of the corporations alleged to have been merged.

A MORA ROW.

Rock Throwing and Shooting Stir Up the County Sash.

Mesa, the county seat of our neighboring county of the north, was the scene of a lively little night row on January 7. From what can be learned, it seems that Emilio Ortiz, a prominent citizen of that place, after retiring, got out of bed and went to his brother's saloon to get some cough remedy. When he arrived there, words were passing between the owner of the house and another man. Mr. Ortiz took a hand and the unruly man was ejected.

As the story goes, the man went to another resort, and made his boast that he was going back and clean out the Ortiz crowd. Sheriff Tito Melendez was present when the remark was made, and after the fellow had gone out, he was advised to go and see that no trouble occurred. He followed, but it seems was not in time to stop the fracas and from there everything is mixed.

Not thinking of trouble Ortiz was standing near a window, when without warning a rock came crashing through the glass, fragments cutting his hands and arms. The crowd inside rushed out and a man was seen fleeing around a corner. Two shots were fired by someone of the crowd, and the next morning Ortiz was arraigned for shooting at the sheriff. He denies the allegation and it would seem that bad feeling is pretty high between the different parties.

Another Side of the Story.

From another source the story goes that Sheriff Tito Melendez had been informed there was trouble down at Palemon Ortiz's place, and he had better go down and settle it. As he started in the door, so it says, he met Emilio coming out, and said good evening, whereupon Emilio drew a revolver and fired at him twice. The end is not yet.—Las Vegas Optic.

BACK FROM THE CARNIVAL.

Secretary McCanna Returns—It is a Big Affair But Bad Weather.

Secretary P. F. McCanna, of the Fair association, returned from El Paso's midwinter carnival this morning.

"The El Paso fair is a big proposition," said Mr. McCanna this morning, "but the rain, snow and mud had rendered it almost impossible to pull off any of the big attractions."

The large crowds throng the streets; hotels and lodging houses are full; the midway carnival is open and crowded, but the people find little enjoyment in walking around in the mud and disagreeable rain. It has been decided to continue the carnival until Wednesday of next week on account of the disagreeable state of affairs.

"The big street parade, which is said would have been a gorgeous affair," has been postponed. In fact it is impossible for them to do anything until the rain and snow subside.

"Clay McCannal, the prize winner of the roping contest at the New Mexico territorial fair held in this city last year is the favorite among the ropers now gathered at El Paso. There are thirty-eight entries but McCannal is the big attraction."

"If it hadn't been for the inclemency of the weather the midwinter carnival would have been a great success, because they had the best attractions that money could procure. If the weather permits the remaining days of the carnival will be as attractive as advertised."

Mr. McCanna's trip was not without official features, as he distributed a sufficient quantity of green tags, telling of the great territorial fair that is to take place in Albuquerque in October, 1903, to make a favorable and lasting impression.

SILVER CITY FIRE.

Hay and Feed Merchants Loss by a Big Blaze.

F. H. Rhoads, representing the Continental Insurance company, and the gentleman that adjusted losses on a number of fires in this city, passed through the city this morning en route to Trinidad, Colo., from a business trip to Las Cruces, Doming, Silver City and other towns of southern New Mexico.

He stated to a Citizen representative this morning that while at Silver City he attended a fire in which, unfortunately, his company was a heavy loser.

Ware Bros' warehouse, occupied by Wetzel & Co., hay and feed merchants, was burned to the ground with a very heavy loss.

HE GOT LEFT.

Bridegroom of Two Days Missed His Train for the West.

A tall, handsome, well built specimen of humanity, dressed in the latest eastern styles, a small Van Dyke setting off his strong face to a good advantage, stepped from the flyer at the Santa Fe station this morning and looked about him with an air of superiority. To a keen observer, a look of threat covered his countenance. His face lit up with a smile as if he had been struck by a happy thought. His gaze wandered to a window in front of which he had been standing, and the smile expanded. No wonder, because a beautiful, charming young lady sat with her sweet face pressed against the strong window pane, and it was like a dream of roses. Reassured by those tantalizing eyes he made rapid strides, which soon led him to the Alvarado cafe. In this elegantly equipped palace of flowing sweets our groom soon forgot his bride, who still remained seated in the same position looking longingly in the direction of her stately new husband. The water of exhilarating invigoration prolonged his visit longer than he intended.

Scene Second.

The flyer had departed and was bound for the land of flowers and oranges. A hatless man with a bottle gripped tightly in his hand came tearing down the platform, his feet hitting upon the heels like the distant roar of thunder.
The crowds which thronged the depot platform scattered right and left, as he few down. On and on he ran, the Alvarado and depot were soon left behind and he ran until he reached the coal sheds, and then gave up the chase as the flyer was whistling into Isleta.

The rear platform was crowded with tourists whose faces were wreathed in smiles, bursting into convulsions of laughter at his spasmodic and frantic efforts to catch the speeding flyer, but they made no effort to pull the whistle cord above their heads, because that would spoil the show.

Scene Third.

Ab! he returns. The atmosphere is filled with blue streaks which seem to issue from his face. Now he stops an engine. After a series of gestulating and articulating he makes a run for the freight house. Perhaps there will be an extra shipment of freight. He seeks the Santa Fe agent. A conference is held. Result unknown.

Scene Fourth.

Telegrams from the bridal party, with laughter and mirthful exclamations written between each line. The wires state that his bride will be taken care of during his absence. That she will wait for him at Los Angeles, where his friends will not be found.

The unfortunate man will keep an eye on the train this evening and will take greater care to see that he is kept on after the start.

The comedy drama was witnessed by a large crowd at the depot, who have gained many pounds from the large laugh.

Rev. W. A. Cooper, of Santa Fe, came

AT SANTA FE.

Officials of American Lumber Company Consult Territorial Officials.

WANT TIMBER ON EVEN SECTIONS.

E. F. Allen, of Cleveland, Ohio, chairman of the executive committee of the board of directors of the American Lumber company; D. W. C. Merriam, of Chicago, of the law firm of Merriam & Kuebler, who is the legal advisor of the company, and who is also a director, and Ira B. Bennett, of Detroit, who is general manager, were in Santa Fe last Friday in consultation with Solicitor General E. L. Bartlett and Land Commissioner A. A. Keen with a view of purchasing timber lands from the territory and located on the even sections in the townships north and south of the Santa Fe Pacific Railroad company in McKinley and Valencia counties. It will be remembered that the American Lumber company purchased some time ago over 200,000 acres of timber lands located upon the odd sections of these townships and constituting part of the land grant made by the United States to the old Atchafalaya and Pacific Railroad company. These lands were purchased from the railroad company quite a number of years ago by Mitchell Brothers, Michigan lumbermen, at a very low figure, and thereafter sold to the American Lumber company at a handsome advance. The company was organized with a capital stock of $5,000,000 and is now preparing to commence active operations for the cutting of the millions of feet of valuable timber on the lands purchased. The company must have even sections of land contiguous to the odd sections owned by them and this is plain for obvious reasons. The territory owns quite a large amount of land belonging to various territorial institutions which under the law, can be disposed of at a minimum price of $3 per acre to applicants in amount not to exceed 160 acres to each applicant. It will be an excellent chance for the territorial land to provide a good price for the land wanted by this gigantic corporation. More than likely application for the purchase of thousands of acres of this land will be submitted to the territorial land board at its next monthly meeting in February.

Midnight Thieves.

Thieves are playing havoc at the Presbyterian mission school on the mesa just south of the city, and Superintendent Ross is after them. Last Thursday night they went through the cellar door and purloined 500 pounds of flour, fifty pounds of coffee, and a lot of other household supplies. They carried the goods off in a wagon, as fresh tracks were seen around the building the next morning. Last Saturday night one of the school's horses was stolen from the barn, and evidently ridden to the mountains. The animal was found yesterday afternoon in Coyote canyon.

They Are "Avenues."

Street Commissioner Martin Tierney was out with his little hammer today knocking down the old street signs, and tacking in their place signs which read "Avenues." The city fathers have already had their say and have done their duty to encourage the public adoption of a system of street naming which will greatly facilitate the citizens in many ways when it comes to directing and being directed. A change such as has been made was an essential necessity in a growing and progressive city like the Duke city.

Supply Exhausted.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 6.—The government publishes a book called "Diseases of the Horse" that is much interested in the farmers and people interested in the horse all over the nation. Delegate Rodey has had many applications for it, and as such applications are coming to him all the time, he asks you to publish following letter so that people may know that it is not to be had at the present time:

Hon. B. S. Rodey, House of Representatives: Dear Sir—Replying to your communication of December 30, in which you request that a copy of special report on diseases of the horse be forwarded to you, I regret to state that the department's supply of this report has been exhausted for some time. A resolution passed at the last session of congress authorized a reprint of this document, but as a complete revision of the text is necessary and Dr. Salmon and his assistants are now busily engaged in fighting the foot and mouth disease, it is impossible to tell when the edition will be ready for distribution. Very respectfully, JAMES NELSON, Secretary.

THE WRONG MEN.

Arrested at Kingman and Holbrook—Could Not Be Identified.

Officer Harry Cooper returned from Kingman and Holbrook, Ariz., where he had been to identify the one man held at Kingman and the three men at Holbrook. But no one of the four men in custody answered the description of any of the men who escaped from the county jail on New Year's day.

The man held at Kingman was supposed to be Mason, wanted here for larceny. But as Mason had been arrested by Cooper after he had robbed the house of N. M. Rice, Cooper was in a position to identify him. The other three men who had been arrested by Sheriff C. J. Houck, of Holbrook, did not answer the description of any of the prisoners now at large.

The police authorities are as watchful and diligent as ever and are hopeful of an early round-up.

Delayed Marriage Item.

Meridian, Kan., Jan. 9.—Mrs. Aldord, formerly of Gallup, N. M., and Joseph Lutz, of Meridian, Kan., were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Christmas day at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Etta Stoupe, at 12 o'clock, after which a bounteous dinner was served. Her old friends and neighbors, thirty-five in number, witnessed the ceremony. Mr. Lutz took the crowd home and gave them an oyster supper. Mrs. Aldord arrived here Wednesday afternoon. Her old friends were surprised and well pleased to see her in their midst once more. Mr. Lutz is honest, just and upright and a good citizen. We are glad to see him take this step in life. He owns a good home to take his bride to, and we trust their married life will be happy. From one that was there.

REV. CUTSHALL.

A SAD MISSION.

Adolph Voigt, a Printer, Called to San Antonio, Texas, on Account of His Daughter's Suicide.

Adolph Voigt, a printer working in this city, has been called to his home at San Antonio, Texas, by the tragic death of his daughter, Julia, who committed suicide near there the other day.

Miss Voigt caused her untimely death by drinking the deadly carbolic acid.

Miss Voigt was a young lady with many pleasing characteristics and her friends were many. She was a student at the city high school, from which she would have graduated next spring.

The reason why the young lady committed this rash act is not known.

The young lady left the school last Monday and boarded a car for home. She was seen to leave the car and go in the direction of a thicket, in which she was found before death came, but all efforts to save her life were in vain. The body was discovered accidentally and taken to the morgue. The high school girls were the first to identify her as Miss Voigt; then the heart-broken mother.

The family is one of the most esteemed in the city and the death of the beautiful daughter has caused widespread sorrow.

Barrett's Father Here.

A. Barrett, father of Robert Barrett, the young man held in the county jail under the charge of assault with intent to kill, arrived yesterday morning from El Paso. Young Barrett, with a gang of shop boys, got mixed up with Watchman Nick Taliaferro and Barrett landed him a few blows, which put him out of business. It was at first reported that Taliaferro was suffering from a skull fracture, but it has developed that only a few bruises about the head resulted. The injured man is all right again and it is probable Barrett will have his hearing in a few days.

JOHN KREBS.

This Old Gentleman Found Dead in Bed This Morning.

John Krebs, the aged father of Mrs. F. W. Heyn, was found dead this morning in bed at the home of his daughter, about five miles south of the city. Mr. Krebs passed his 90th anniversary January 1, 1903, and had been in excellent health up to the time of his sudden death. He went to bed as usual last night, and seemed in the best of health.

Mr. Krebs came to New Mexico from Michigan over a year ago with his wife, who died New Year's day, 1902. Besides his daughter, Mrs. F. W. Heyn, another daughter, Mrs. Crown, of Fort Worth, Texas, two sons, Otto Krebs, of Chicago, and E. S. Krebs, of Muskegon, Mich., are left to mourn the death of their aged father.

The sudden and unexpected death has filled the family with sorrow.

Precinct Election.

The election of a justice of the peace and a constable for every precinct in the county is being held today. Small crowds have hung around the polling places of the city the greater part of the day.

At 3:30 o'clock this afternoon 250 votes had been cast at precinct 26. The count of the candidates in this precinct are: For justice of the peace, William Borchert, rep.; Richard J. Sweeney, dem.; For constable, Jim Smith, rep.; Mike Martinez, dem. Justice Borchert was at the polls wearing a pleasant smile. A vigorous fight is being made on James Smith, but regardless of this fact he is running smoothly.

At the same hour 235 votes had been cast in precinct 12. The candidates in this precinct are: For justice of the peace, A. J. Crawford, rep.; W. W. McClellan, dem. McClellan is also running on the independent ticket. For constable, Francisco Garcia, rep.; L. T. Gum, dem. Some hard work is being done by both parties in this precinct.

FIRE CHIEFSHIP.

Thoroughly Competent Man From the East Will Be Engaged.

Mayor Myers has already written to the chiefs of fire departments of several large eastern cities, asking them to place him in communication with a good competent fire man, capable of chiefship, one who will devote his entire time and attention to the fire system and management of the local fire department. It is the general opinion of the members of the city council and many of the business men of the city that if the city is going to have a salaried fire chief it should at the same time secure a man who is an experienced fireman, and who can devote his entire time to the work.

Company K, of Las Vegas, is to be disbanded, owing to the lack of interest shown by the young men of that city. To establish a company of infantry that will be a credit to the territory is the earnest desire of the officers of the national guard. Captain Du Costa has been authorized to recruit and perfect the organization. The plan is to limit the company to forty members, preferring to have a smaller number and make a well drilled organization.

Messrs. Moore and Nettleton, who are the authorized managers of the National Life & Trust company of Des Moines, Iowa, are meeting with great success in their work with this popular company. These gentlemen have the exclusive authority to appoint agents and transact business for the company in New Mexico.

CURING CONSUMPTION.

When Scott's Emulsion makes the consumptive gain flesh it is curing his consumption.

Exactly what goes on inside to make the consumptive gain weight when taking Scott's Emulsion is still a mystery.

Scott's Emulsion does something to the lungs so that it reduces the cough. More weight and less cough always mean that consumption is losing its influence over the system.

Scott's Emulsion is a reliable help.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

Annual Officers Elected—County Vice Presidents Named.

The New Mexico Historical society held its annual meeting last Friday evening at the office of Colonel George W. Knebel, in Santa Fe. Hon. L. B. Prince presided and W. M. Berger was secretary. The amendments to the by-laws offered at a previous meeting were acted upon favorably and about fifty new members were elected representing all parts of the territory. The purchase of a number of rare historic books was reported. The list includes the history of the Chichimeques (who antedated the Aztecs) by the Indian priest, Ixtlilxochitl, in two volumes; Nahuatl's Prehistoric America and the two leading works on the Spanish conquest by Garcilaso de la Vega. Attention was also drawn to the very large number of interesting articles recently acquired for the museum including rare pottery, baskets, ancient Indian weapons, etc.

The annual election of officers was held and resulted as follows: President, L. B. Prince; vice president, W. J. Mills; corresponding secretary, W. H. Bartlett; recording secretary, W. M. Berger; treasurer, George W. Knebel; curator, Henry Woodruff.

County Vice Presidents—Taos, Antonio Joseph; Rio Arriba, Samuel Elford; Santa Fe, Amado Chavez; San Miguel, F. A. Mansaneros; Guadalupe, J. G. Chavez; Bernalillo, Joshua S. Reynolds; Valencia, Felipe Chavez; Dona Ana, John H. DeMio; Chavez, G. L. Wyllys; Otero, W. A. Hawkins; Grant, Robert Black.

Considerable discussion took place as to the best method of extending the interest in the history of the territory and its vicinity and a strong desire was evinced to have the monthly meetings during the winter open to the public and made as attractive and instructive as possible. The following resolution was unanimously adopted, and it is believed it will result in interesting entertainment.

Resolved, That the executive committee be requested to arrange for public meetings with addresses or papers, to take place during the season of the legislature.

Dread Pneumonia.

The sad intelligence has been conveyed to Miss Clara Gerhardt, of Las Vegas, of the death of her sister, Caroline, at Fort Sumner, of dread pneumonia, on January 3. Deceased was the youngest daughter of Frederick Gerhardt, the well known sheepman. She was sick but one week with the disease, and her sudden taking off has prostrated the family, who have the sympathy of a host of friends and acquaintances. Deceased was only 14 years of age when the dread summons called her from the sunshine of this earth, to a better land, we know.

Removed to Belen.

Harry Byers, who for years has been identified prominently with the live stock interests of Watrous, northern part of New Mexico, has removed to Belen, where the Santa Fe cut off will cross the Rio Grande. He passed through this city last Saturday, accompanied by Herbert Tipton, with a complete camping outfit and stock of good horses, and will open up a corral and feed yard down there.

Las Vegas Odd Fellows and Rebekahs. A large number of members of both orders gathered in the lodge room of the Odd Fellows to witness the installation of officers in both the Rebekah and the subordinate lodge, and to also partake of the toothsome viands that were served after the ceremonies. It is needless to say that full justice was done the delicious luncheon and a most pleasant evening was spent, says the Las Vegas Record.

Following are the officers of the Rebekah lodge, who were installed in their respective offices: Mrs. J. W. Roberts, noble grand; W. E. Crites, vice grand; Mrs. Arthur Langston, past grand; Mrs. Mary Wertz, secretary; Mrs. J. M. Shirley, treasurer; Mrs. M. E. Garlick, warden; Mrs. P. M. Jones, conductor; Mrs. C. V. The officers installed by the subordinate lodge were the following: J. H. York, noble grand; J. B. Mackel, vice grand; E. M. Elwood, secretary, and W. E. Crites, treasurer.

After the refreshments had been served all present adjourned to their various homes with the memory of a very pleasant evening spent.

SI RYAN HAS PASSED AWAY.

Another Pioneer Citizen of El Paso Dead—Well Known in This City.

Si Ryan is dead. The end came shortly before 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, says the El Paso News.

His brother, P. E. Ryan, and Mr. Talley, who came from Rhode Island to attend the bedside after the pioneer El Pasoan had become so seriously ill, will accompany the remains back to Rhode Island, leaving on the Golden State Limited.

Si Ryan was known to every citizen of the southwest and to many people of the entire west. He was a native of Rhode Island, but left that state for the west about thirty years ago. For several years he was in Nevada, then California, and later went into business in Tucson, Ariz. He came to El Paso from Tucson in 1884.

Deceased was noted for his charity to the poor, having helped people in distress on many occasions.

When any movement for the public good was started, Si Ryan could be counted upon for aid and in such affairs he was the catalyst who was to the front in making it a success.

It is said that about twenty years ago Mr. Ryan was prominent in politics in San Francisco, being a dictator of considerable power, but in El Paso he led a very quiet life, attending strictly to his own business and only appearing in public when by so doing he could advance the welfare of any good cause.

Death came to Mr. Ryan in his 58th year, but he possessed a wonderful vitality, and hung to life with surprising tenacity.

Want Rural Delivery Service.

Postmaster Walter, of Santa Fe, has made application and is urging the establishment of free rural delivery routes from Santa Fe to Espanola to serve Tesuque, Tesuque pueblo, San Mateo, Guaymas, Jacana, Hobart, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz and Espanola, a total of 2,400 people, and another route from Santa Fe to Glorieta to serve Arroyo Plita, Clenga, Bonanza, Turquesa, Kennedy, Galisteo, Canoncito and Glorieta, a total population of 2,800. The two routes are feasible and their establishment would mean the employment of from four to eight carriers and the employment of a number of teams. It would also help to make Santa Fe the trading center for the populous and prosperous region, which the two routes would touch as well as the sector within reach of the routes. Local businessmen should back Postmaster Walter by writing to the postoffice department and to Delegate Rodey urging the establishment of these two routes or even getting up petitions to that effect.—New Mexican.

W. Stanford Patterson, who represents "The Sunland" brand of California fruit juices and preserves, is still in the city, and is meeting with success in taking orders.

KINGMAN.

From Mineral Wealth.

The wound in W. A. Neal's hand is doing well, but it will be several months before he can handle a hammer or pitchfork.

Colonel Rogers, a prominent lawyer of Globe, represented Mrs. Walter Pollock in her divorce proceedings. He secured $40 per month alimony for his client until the case is settled.

The special auditor appointed by Judge Sloan to expert the books in the MacKenzie-Crocker case found a difference of over $9,000 in favor of MacKenzie. The judge will render his decision inside of ten days.

Deputy Brown took an insane man to the insane asylum Tuesday. His name is William Dietrich. His chief hallucination is that the sun is not doing its work properly and he wants to go up and oil the axle. He is from the Gold Roads and it is fortunate enough to get back about July he will end the sun working twelve-hour shifts over there. Gold Roads seems to be afflicted that way as another unfortunate is said to be on his way in.

From the Miner.

Walter Castle has given a bond on his Stockton Hill mining property to California people and a force of men are now at work on them. One of the veins is a large, well defined ledge of silver and gold bearing ore in the main canyon running from Cupel Wash to the summit of the Cerbat range. Considerable work has been done on the mine and a good showing of ore is in sight.

W. F. Schae, of Schae Brothers, arrived in Kingman a few days ago from Santa Monica, and has gone to the Pinkham and other mines in this district in which he is interested. Mr. Schae and his brother have done a great deal of work on these properties and we expect that they will work along the same systematic lines during the year 1903.

William Freeston had a narrow escape from serious injury at his home on Stockton Hill, early last week. He was building a fire and used a crumpled piece of paper to start it with.

The paper contained giant caps and almost on the instant there was an explosion. Pieces of the caps struck Mr. Freeston in the face, cutting it up badly. Fortunately his eyes were uninjured, although being colored very black.

BACK DEEDS IN ALBUQUERQUE

The deeds of Doan's in Albuquerque are surprisingly wonderful and most convincing. The man with a back so bad he could not work from its constant aching. The woman unable to attend to household duties, so nervous, excitable, tired out and weary from her kidneys. The old folks, who in declining years should have their rest at night, but bladder troubles keep them awake. The girl with urinary troubles, annoying to her delicacy and making her miserable. The boy, the child with kidneys so weak that parents mistake their trouble for a habit. All have been relieved and cured by the greatest of kidney remedies.

WEST RAILROAD AVENUE.
J. A. Skinner, dealer in staple and fancy groceries, 207 West Railroad avenue, says: "When a man finds from observation and experience that an article extensively advertised doesn't do as it is claimed it is his duty to prevent his fellow men from squandering money. It is just as much the duty of a citizen to tell his friends and acquaintances about articles upon which they can absolutely depend. Some time ago there came to my notice a case of a child whose control over the kidney secretions was limited. The parents procured for it Doan's Kidney Pills at the Alvarado Pharmacy and the treatment, according to directions for children, was commenced. In addition to the limited control there was considerable backache, the complications fully proving that in some way the kidneys were either weakened or excited. The treatment of Doan's Kidney Pills so strengthened, washed and purified the kidneys that the annoyance ceased."

SOUTH SECOND STREET.

B. H. Thomas, Rooming House, 509 South Second street, says: "I have read somewhere that backache was generally an indication of kidney complaint and when there was added to it trouble with the kidney secretions and signs were unmistakable. When I contracted a cold both these annoyances existed and for eight months if one attack ceased another was sure to follow, so that I can consistently say I was almost bothered continually. I finally went to the Alvarado Pharmacy for Doan's Kidney Pills and took a course of the treatment. It did exactly as promised—stopped the annoyance very promptly and very effectively."

SOUTH FIRST STREET.

Mrs. J. Hall, of 519 South First street, says: "One of my daughters suffered from backache for about eight months or a year. Sometime it was so bad that she was completely prostrated for a day or so at a time. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills in our Albuquerque newspaper and thought if they only performed half what they promised they might help my daughter and we went to the Alvarado Pharmacy for a box. In a remarkably short time the medicine took effect and a continuation of the treatment a little longer stopped the backache. We are pleased to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

ATLANTIC AVENUE.

C. A. Hall, a machinist in the round house of the Santa Fe shops, residence 204 Atlantic avenue, says: "I have had attacks of pains just across that part of my back immediately over the kidneys. Some of which lasted an entire week. When they occurred there was no let-up to the aching and naturally I was on the outlook for something to check the trouble, if not radically dispose of it. The last medicine I tried was Doan's Kidney Pills procured at the Alvarado Pharmacy. To say they are worth recommending freely expresses my opinion of them and to show in what estimation I hold the remedy let me add I keep the pills constantly in the house for fear of recurrence taking place, fully convinced that I can depend upon the treatment to bring steady relief."

THE LUMBER MILLS.

The lumber mills are to become one of the industries of Albuquerque. For several days the public spirited citizens have been kept in suspense. The committee of citizens, composed of Mayor C. F. Myers, Messrs. George L. Brooks and W. S. Strickler, had no information in regard to the mills that they could give to the public. But this committee was working faithfully and intelligently for the interest of the city, and their efforts were crowned with success.

All necessary inspection of sites and investigations came to a close late Saturday night, and when the members of the executive committee of the lumber company, accompanied by Attorneys W. B. Childers and E. W. Dolson, arrived from Santa Fe, a conference was held at the Alvarado with the committee of citizens.

Everything pertaining to the location of the lumber mills, favorable and unfavorable, was discussed thoroughly. The conference of the evening terminated in the following contract drawn up by President Ward of the lumber company:

The Contract.
Albuquerque, N. M., Jan. 19.
Hon. C. F. Myers, Mayor of Albuquerque, Albuquerque, N. M.: Dear Sir—Confirming the conversation had with yourself and the other members of your citizens committee today, the American Lumber company of New Jersey hereby submit the following proposition to the citizens of Albuquerque:

Upon conveyance to the American Lumber company of a perfect title to them, in fee simple, to the tract of land commonly known as the Childers, Cray & Dolson tract, containing about one hundred and ten (110) acres of land lying to the northwest side of your city, and the right of way fifty feet in width, free of cost, for a railroad track commencing at some point on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad to the said land, by the shortest and most feasible route, not to exceed six thousand feet in length, the American Lumber company will commence work in Albuquerque within four months from the date of this agreement and continue the work with all possible dispatch until completion, strikes and unavoidable delays excepted, for the erection and completion of a double hand first class saw mill with a capacity of from one hundred to two hundred thousand feet of lumber per eleven-hour run. It is their intention further to add other mills for the working up of the material from said saw mill.

The said American Lumber company will put in a system of fire protection of considerable magnitude through its yards, and when the city water mains shall be extended to the lands above described, connection will be made with such, with the object of joint use of the water and fire protection from the city of Albuquerque and the plant of said American Lumber company. Having in view the interests of the merchants and people of said city of Albuquerque, the American Lumber company will not establish or encourage the establishment of any mercantile business in connection with its plant as above described, save and except any and all products by it manufactured or produced. It is the desire of the said company to be of benefit to the people of your city, employing, so far as it is able, your citizens, and encouraging their patronage with the merchants doing business in your city.

It is a part of this proposition, and agreeable to the understanding we have had with your committee that the municipal taxes upon all property of the American Lumber company be remitted or exempted for a term of six years from the time that the saw mill and other improvements mentioned shall be put in operation, should within the said period of six years, the land be conveyed to the said company be annexed to or taken into the said city of Albuquerque.

It is fully believed that the location above mentioned will be satisfactory to the officials of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad company in pursuance of the arrangement we have with them for the delivery of logs from our timber lands in Valencia and McKinley counties to Albuquerque, and this proposition hereby is subject expressly to the conditions, that said railway company will deliver logs to such location upon the terms of the contract we have with said railway company.

Should you accept this proposition, it is understood that you will within thirty days from this date, place, in either of the hands of this city, which you may select, a certified abstract of title to the land herein mentioned, showing same to be free and clear of all liens and incumbrances of any nature together with a warranty deed from the owners thereof conveying the title of said land to the American Lumber company of New Jersey, said deed or deeds to be delivered to said company or its officers, as soon as said mill shall be erected and in operation.

We have written this proposition in duplicate, and your acceptance of it together with the members of your citizens' committee will constitute an agreement between us. Very respectfully,

THE AMERICAN LUMBER CO.

Executive Committee American Lumber Company.

Committee Accept.
On behalf of the citizens of Albuquerque and acting as an executive committee appointed by the mayor of said city, we hereby accept the foregoing proposition made by the American Lumber company, to do the things required of the people of Albuquerque, subject to the ratification of a majority of the citizens committee of sixty, heretofore appointed by the mayor.
(Signed) C. F. MYERS,

W. S. STRICKLER, G. L. BROOKS, Executive Committee.

The People Rejoice.

Since the lumber mills have been assured as one of Albuquerque's industries the people are rejoicing over the establishment of this concern which will in every way benefit and promote the growth of the city. The effective work done by the energetic committee of citizens is receiving the highest praise of every public spirited citizen. The topic is one of special interest to everyone who is interested in Albuquerque's growth, and any information regarding the immense establishment is eagerly desired. When the contract was read and before the executive committee of citizens had accepted, Mayor Myers announced the whole matter would come before the citizens' committee of sixty for ratification, thus showing that the committee for the Albuquerque Eastern railway were identical with the committee working for the securing of the big lumber mills.

The location of the mills in Albuquerque will benefit the city in many ways, which were not all taken into consideration by the citizens. The permanent population will be visibly increased by the establishing of the mills in Albuquerque, and it will cause the circulation of large sums of money, thus promoting every industry and occupation.

The mills will require the employment of 400 or 500 men, many of whom have families. This will undoubtedly cause the building of homes. The pay roll will reach over $1,000 per day, which will be circulated among the industries and establishments of the city.

Besides the big saw mills, there will be a box factory, sash and door factory, and various kinds of wood working establishments. This will place Albuquerque in the lead of the western lumber markets and will be an inducement for other large industries to locate here.

USED THE CLEAVER.

A Deming Woman Assaults a Burglar Found in Her Restaurant.

Yesterday morning, between 2 and 3 o'clock, Mrs. Engle, of the Home restaurant, on Gold avenue, was awakened by a noise in the rear room of the restaurant, and on jumping out of bed almost fell into the arms of a man with an arm full of plunder. Mrs. Engle didn't faint nor even scream, as women do on such occasions, but she grabbed a cleaver and beat the intruder over the head until he dropped the bundle and made good his escape through the back window through which he had entered. Unfortunately the lady used the flat side instead of the edge of the cleaver. The bundle contained a lot of clothing of the family, and if anything was taken it is not yet missed.—Deming Headlight.

There can be no reasonable doubt that the Rock Island railroad will build a track of its own to Pueblo from New Mexico this year. It is definitely decided upon and officials of the company have stated what the route will be.

BALLUT ABYAD TEMPLE.

Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine Entertain.

AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR.

The social entertainment given by the Shrine at the Masonic hall on North Third street last night in honor of the installation of officers for the ensuing term of Ballut Abyad Temple, Ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, was one of the most pleasing and enjoyable events of the season.

The ladies belonging to the families of the members, according to an established custom of the Shrine, are made guests of honor at an annual entertainment. That the ladies may be royally entertained the night of the installation ceremony has been fixed, by reason of the beautiful and imposing ceremony.

The Shrine of Albuquerque, accompanied by their ladies and many Shrine members from near by towns, appeared in a spirit of merry making. That the most perfect enjoyment might be assured, the nobles were entering in their efforts in arrangement on an elaborate scale.

The installation ceremony with the beautiful and stately march was an imposing scene.

The musical and literary program rendered was complete in all its appointments, and the banquet that followed was of a most favorable bearing.

The exercises of the evening with the installation of officers by Illustrous Noble Arthur Everitt began about 9 o'clock.

The music which attended the ceremony was very impressive, the ceremony being of a grand spectacular effect.

Musical Program.

The entertaining program was made up of the best musical and literary talent of the city.

Several beautiful songs were sung by the Masonic quartet, composed of Messrs. Hunt, Walker, Bullard, Maynard.

Mrs. L. H. Chamberlin, with her rich contralto voice, won a popular place with the audience.

Everyone was pleased by the appearance of Mrs. Mabel Stevens-Hill.

The talented elocutionist, Miss Florence Chaplin, gave several pleasing readings.

E. J. McKenna, a banjoist of rare ability, rendered several selections in a delightful manner.

The rich and ever pleasing voice of John Douglas Walker was an appreciated number. Accompanied by his wife on the piano he sang the beautiful melody "All for You."

A vocal solo, "The Beating of My Own Heart," was sung by Miss Nellie Taylor.

Following this was "A Summer Night" sung by Miss Mabel Fitch, who was in excellent voice.

Harry McKay, the monologist, was a very interesting number with his "Imitations of Everything and Everybody."

It was several hours before the program was completed. The large audience showed their appreciation by hearty and enthusiastic encores.

The Banquet.

The banquet was an elaborate affair. Appetizing dishes as blue points, oyster patties, roast turkey, shrimp salad and many other dainties were served to the mirthful and appreciative gathering.

The Toasts.

The position of toastmaster was filled by Dr. James H. Wroth with ability. The toast was responded to by Hon. E. S. Stover on "The Origin of Masonry;" Dr. G. W. Harrison talked on "The Shrine;" Attorney E. L. Medier toasted and roared "The New Officers;" and Col. J. L. Van Doren, a well known Shrine of Bluewater, toasted but did not roast "The Ladies."

Medal Presented.

In appreciation of the faithful services of H. H. Tilton, who had just completed a year's term of office, a costly and beautiful jewel was purchased by the Shrine and Dr. Wroth presented the token of esteem and fraternal affection. An appreciative response was made by Mr. Tilton, who is an interesting talker.

Entertaining Committees.
The committee in charge, to whom much credit is due, was:

Arrangement—Nobles: Frank McKee, W. H. Hahn, E. J. Alger, A. Everitt, H. H. Tilton.

Reception—Nobles: W. H. Sabie, J. W. Elder, T. H. Jenks, Simon Stern, J. J. Sheridan, F. H. Strong and Ed B. Harsec.

This event will always occupy a prominent place in the minds of all present as a most notable entertainment.

CHARLES LANTRY.

He Reached Belen Last Night—Work on the Santa Fe Cut Off.

Telephone advice from Belen this morning says that Charles Lantry of the big railroad construction company of B. Lantry & Sons, arrived there last evening and this morning left for Abo Pass canyon, where rock work on the Santa Fe cut off will begin immediately.

LITTLE FOLKS HONORED.

One of the gayest social events of the season was the private masque ball given by Mrs. Rosa Berry in honor of the juvenile minstrels. The hall was decorated in bright colors and the spectacle presented by the masqueraders was bewildering.

The hall was filled to a pleasing dancing capacity. Every nationality and class of people were represented in appropriate costumes.

Gay dancing maidens chatted with the witty Irishman and comical Dutchman. Chinamen wearing the fantastic oriental garb mingled with the crowd of gay and grotesque figures. Everyone seemed to take extra pains at concealing his or her identity and most of their efforts were crowned with success. The costumes were well gotten up, bright colors and artistic appearances predominated.

The evening of dancing was one of greatest pleasure to the mirthful dancers. The masks were discarded at 10:30 o'clock. The identity of some was revealed early in the evening, others were so well masked that their most intimate friends were unable to pick them out among the vast throng. Many surprises were in store for them when the masks were removed. Everyone was in for a good time and the music furnished by Mrs. Berry was of a nature to make the good time a success.

The dancing continued with a mirthful and hilarious spirit until the small hours were reigning supreme.

TENT HOSPITAL.

It Will Be Abandoned—Patients to Be Taken to St. Joseph's Hospital.

Dr. Cutter's field hospital, which was established after the Santa Pacific hospital was burned, is to be abandoned.

The ladies of the St. Joseph's hospital have concluded to let the Santa Fe railroad have one ward in this institution, and on Thursday next all the patients now confined at the improvised tent hospital will be moved to the new quarters.

Dr. Cutter's office and the medical dispensary department will continue to be in the old laundry building, near where the hospital once stood and where they were moved the night of the fire.

All cases thought not serious will be treated at Dr. Cutter's office as of old.

Jack Spellacy is still filling the capacity of foreman of the boiler shops. Master Mechanic Barnes has several names under advisement for the position but as he has held off so long in making an appointment, it now looks as though it will be Foreman Spellacy in the future.

The Santa Fe will build 167 new bridges on its system during the present year. This includes one trans-Mississippi bridge, but the majority of them will be small concrete and iron affairs, to take the place of trestles and other small bridges.

Board of Equalization.

The territorial board of equalization was not in session yesterday forenoon as the members attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Josefa Chavez. At the session yesterday afternoon the board nearly completed its business. There was no change in the assessment of railroads from the year 1902, made except in the case of the Pecos Valley & Northeastern railroad, in which case the assessment was increased $500 per mile. The question of the assessment of personal property and of land was left to the assessors and county commissioners of the several counties. The board finished its business late last evening.

Rare and Valuable Gifts for Normal.

Through the kindness of Prof. T. D. A. Cokerell, the Las Vegas Normal learns that the Normal university has received a fine collection of land, fresh water and marine shells from H. L. Vireck, of Philadelphia, who was in Las Vegas for a short time last summer and took part in an expedition to the top of the Las Vegas range. The shells have been mounted on cards and are to be seen in the hall of the Normal near the president's office.

The Normal university has also received a very valuable collection of microscopical plants called mycetozoa, presented by Professor Sturgis, who was at the Montezuma hotel in the spring, and visited the Normal two or three times. This collection is exhibited in the same case as the shells. Professor Sturgis is an authority on the mycetozoa.

The biological department of the Normal has received a new law producing insect, collected by Mr. Marlatt, of the United States department of agriculture in Sava. It has been described as a new species.

SCIENTIFIC MATTERS.

Some Notings of Interest to People of This Immediate Vicinity.

The entomological society of France has published a paper by Mr. Cokerell, of the Las Vegas Normal, describing a new scale-insect which attacks the oil-palm in French Guinea, West Africa, says the Optic.

J. C. Crawford, of Lincoln, Neb., has described a new species of wild bee which was collected in Las Vegas last year by Miss Pearl Hitchcock, a student of the Normal. The description appears in the "Canadian Entomologist."

Myron Benedict, a student of the Normal, found a fossil prairie dog near Las Vegas. It was thought that it would prove to be a new variety, but it has been compared with specimens in Washington, and is undoubtedly the same as Gunnison's prairie dog, common in some parts of Colorado.

A collection of scale insects from the Cameroons, West Africa, has been sent to the biological department of the Normal by the Stockholm, Sweden, museum, for identification.

The Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia has lately published a paper by Miss Ada Springer, on some recent and fossil shells found at Las Vegas.

The Normal has just received a very valuable collection of shells, the gift of H. L. Vireck, of Philadelphia. The shells are exhibited in a case in the hall.

The sophomore class of the Normal yesterday made an excursion to the clay beds of Arroyo Pecos, and collected specimens of the fossil plant named Chara Springerae by Mr. Knowlton, of the National museum. Henry Springer also succeeded in finding some fossil willow leaves in a fair state of preservation.

The territorial board of equalization completed its work yesterday afternoon and took final adjournment. The official account of the proceedings will be published in The Citizen tomorrow.

FOR SINGLE STATEHOOD.

Governor Otero Opposed to the Union of Arizona and New Mexico.

Governor Otero has returned to Santa Fe. On the subject of statehood he is credited with saying:

"The people here," said he, "know as much of the statehood situation as do those in Washington. There is no more information to be had there than there is here. While east and in Washington, I lost no opportunity to say and do all I could for statehood. I am opposed to the union of New Mexico and Arizona as one state and opposed the suggestion while in Washington. I am in favor of the passage of the omnibus bill as it passed the house and on that basis I did all I could. No one can say what the outcome will be."

Nearly a Killing.

The chloride flier had a close call to making a killing a few mornings ago, says the Kingman Miner.

It was leaving town slowly and when the first bridge below town came in sight Engineer Leutinger saw a man sitting on the ties outside the rails on the bridge. He applied the emergency, but struck the man and knocked him down the grade. The fellow was very drunk and scarcely realized that he had been struck by the train. As the train came to a standstill the men got off to see if the man was injured, but the fellow said that he was all right and indignantly told them that they had no right to stop the train on his account. The trainmen felt like administering a few hurried kicks to the fellow, but were too much relieved to find that he was unhurt to feel angry with him.

The new blacksmith on Copper avenue, between Second and Third avenues, guarantees perfect satisfaction on every horse shoe and every buggy and wagon repaired. Has just received a new rubber tiring machine. Give him a trial and you will never go anywhere else for anything in his line of work.

BISHOP POTTER.

He, With Monsignor Nugent, Visits St. Mary's School.

Bishop Potter, of Minnesota, and Monsignor Nugent, of Liverpool, Eng., who arrived in the city last night from the north, visited the St. Mary's school on Sixth avenue this morning, and expressed themselves highly pleased with the teachers, children, studies and building, and especially admired the handsome assembly hall. At the request of Rev. Father Mandalar, Bishop Potter gave the scholars a half holiday. The distinguished Catholic priests expect to leave tonight for San Francisco on a short visit.

Blind in Right Eye.

Theodore Rutenbeck awakened yesterday morning minus sight in his right eye. He suffers no pain, but neither does the sight return. He intended to seek today the advice of a local oculist. Before retiring Monday night, he spent a half or three-quarters of an hour in reading, experiencing neither pain nor difficulty in so doing; but the next morning the condition was as stated. It is the right eye which is affected, and which he used so constantly during the many years he was a watchmaker.—Las Vegas Record.

CHARLES ZEIGER CUT.

In a Fight in His Barroom at El Paso With Tom White.

Charles Zeiger was cut several times about the face and neck by Tom White in a scuffle and fight in the Zeiger bar last night shortly after midnight, but the wounds were not serious and Mr. Zeiger is reported as resting easy this morning.

White formerly had a cigar stand in the same building occupied by the Zeiger hotel and bar.

How the trouble originated could not be learned. The saloon was crowded at the time of the affray and friends separated the two men as soon as it was seen that White was using a knife.

One of Mr. Zeiger's wounds is said to have come near severing the jugular vein in his neck.—El Paso Herald.

Program for the Year.

A neat little pamphlet has been published by the Albuquerque Historical club, containing the club's program of study for the ensuing year. Although the club has only been in existence the past three months, the pamphlet gives evidence that it has become a permanent organization.

The program for the year is in most every instance a study of New Mexico history.

Attorney M. E. Hickey has been elected president of the club. It will continue to meet in the office of Attorney A. B. McMillan.

Territorial Funds.

Territorial Treasurer J. H. Vaughn has received from C. J. Kelly, treasurer and ex-officio collector of Luna county, of 1901 taxes, $122.66; of 1902 taxes, $1,318.16; from Henry Lutz, treasurer and ex-officio collector of Lincoln county, of 1900 taxes, $7.77.

THE CAMEL'S HEAD.

"Where the camel's head goes his body follows," says an Oriental proverb. It's the same way with disease. A small opening will give it an entrance and when disease once has a place in the body a large number of life may follow it.

The opening for disease is often found in a "weak" stomach. When the stomach is "weak" the body also becomes weakened by lack of nutrition, and disease attacks the heart, liver, lungs, kidneys and other organs.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes the weak stomach strong. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, and so enables the body to resist or throw off other diseases.

Men and women who are sick are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free, and so obtain without charge the opinion of a specialist on their ailments. All correspondence strictly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"For the past two years I have been a very sick woman," writes Mrs. Chesley of 101 Woodland Ave., Cleveland, Ohio. "I tried medicines from doctors and to no avail. At last I decided to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When I started I was all run-down and had a very unpleasant taste in my mouth. Was choked up, and at times it was very hard for me to breathe. I had severe headaches and cutting pains in my knee joint. Was so weak I could not stand to my work nor walk up or down stairs without the assistance of my brother or some friend. I am now taking the fourth bottle, and am happy to say I feel like myself again. I can go up and down stairs and perform my duties as well as any one. Everything seems to be brighter, and I can assure you that life is worth living."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing just as good for dyspepsia or debility. Biliousness is cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

BARRETT FINED.

For Slugging Tagliaferri He Will Have to Pay $25 and Costs.

Robert Barrett, an apprentice of the Santa Fe machine shops, who was arrested for beating up watchman Nick Tagliaferri, was fined $25 and costs.

The case was tried before the police judge a few days ago and taken under advisement. On account of Barrett's age, and this being the first offense he has ever been charged with, the court was as lenient with him as possible. If the case had been turned over to the grand jury it is hardly possible he would have been convicted on the evidence in the case.

That the boys were trespassers and had no business on the company's property is beyond question. Yet at the same time there would have been no fight had not Tagliaferri courted it by throwing a plank in front of the moving car, which might have injured some of the boys for life.

This will be a warning for the shop boys to keep away from the yards on Sundays and holidays when they are not working.

Death of Little Son.

Clifford, the 6-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Owings, died this morning at the home on Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. Owings came to Albuquerque about three weeks ago from Circleville, Kan., for Mrs. Owings' health. The child was taken sick several days ago and all medical treatment was of no avail.

The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Interment at Fairview cemetery.

"ACCIDENTAL" FIRES.

What an Old Time Insurance Agent Says on the New Subject.

"Hereafter," said a well known local insurance agent, "all fires in Albuquerque must be designated as 'accidental,' and the agent immediately commenced a jolly laugh.

"Say," continued the gentleman, "if a fellow sprinkled coal oil or some other inflammable fluid throughout your store, residence or yard, and applies a match the fire is 'accidental.' Not much, in the eyes of the fire insurance companies. There has been some awfully suspicious fires in Albuquerque, which, not until now, has either of the city daily papers called 'accidental,' and some of the fires will never go down in the history of Albuquerque as 'accidental' fires. Wonder if the man who gave credence to the 'accidental fire story' can say truthfully that the fire at a certain lodging house a few years ago and before the present proprietor took charge, was 'accidental,' when half a dozen or more rooms were discovered to be on fire almost at the same time.

"If there ever was a fire in Albuquerque, where fire bugs got in their work, it was at the J. C. Baldrige fire, and the insurance that gentleman carried, only $6,000, did not pay more than one-fourth of his entire loss, but there are others, very suspicious, and the list is a long one, for I have been in the fire insurance business here for over fifteen years and know whereof I speak.

"The daily newspapers of the city, in their reports of fires which could not be fully explained, have thrown out some strong insinuations, but the evil will probably continue as long as inflammable oils are used and matches are manufactured."

MRS. MARY KELLY.

Died at St. Joseph's Sanitarium Yesterday Afternoon.

Death came to Mrs. Mary Kelly, an esteemed and respectable old lady of Albuquerque, about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Kelly was 65 years of age, and her health had been in an excellent state until about three weeks ago, when she was taken ill with the formation of a tumor.

Two weeks ago Friday she was taken to the St. Joseph's sanitarium, where an operation was performed with seeming success, but the nervous shock attending the operation was too great for the old lady, whose death has cast a gloom of sorrow over all who knew her.

The husband, Byron Kelly, died two years ago, and now rests in Santa Barbara cemetery.

Three sons, Michael Kelly, an engineer on the Santa Fe railroad, living in this city; A. A. Kelly, a well to do farmer near Spokane, Wash., and Bryan Kelly, of Hilliard, Wash., survive the kind and loving mother.

The two brothers out of the city have been notified of their mother's death by wire and arrangements for the funeral will be made as soon as they are heard from.

The First Advertiser.

Noah was the first man to advertise. He advertised the flood and it came all right. The fellows who laughed at the advertising got drowned and it served them all right. Ever since Noah's time the advertiser has been prospering, while the other fellow, being swallowed up in the flood of disaster.

MARRON INTERVIEWED.

What He Says Regarding Joining the Two Territories.

O. N. Marron, ex-mayor of this city and the president of the Territorial Fair association, was at El Paso on Tuesday, and on his visit to that city the News says:

O. N. Marron, former territorial chairman of the democratic executive committee of New Mexico, is here with the Albuquerque delegation to the carnival. Mr. Marron recently returned from Washington, where he has been with a number of other New Mexicans of prominence, trying to promote the passage of the omnibus statehood bill. He says that all the latest advice which he has received now tend toward a compromise admitting Arizona and New Mexico as one big state. This substitute is favored by a special statehood committee and Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, and assurances of the president's support have been received. Mr. Marron stated:

"The admission of the territories of New Mexico and Arizona as one large state is no longer a possibility, but a very present probability. It seems to be a solution to the whole statehood problem. The opposition to the omnibus bill favors it, and the chief adherents of the separate statehood bill, Senators Foraker and Quay, are said to favor the combination of the territories. It will make not only the richest state in the union, and second to the largest, Texas being but a trifle larger than the areas of both Arizona and New Mexico combined."

Mr. Marron says that the people of both territories are perfectly willing to acquiesce to the situation and would gladly become joined together in statehood.

Albuquerque is arranging a fair for next October, which should eclipse anything before attempted in the way of entertainment, and he and Secretary McCanna came to El Paso with a view to study the situation and see how El Paso handles its crowds.

Increased Membership.

G. K. Warren post, No. 5, Grand Army of the Republic, was increased by five new members taken in at the meeting Tuesday night. The Woman's Relief Corps was also increased in membership by an addition of five new members.

These worthy societies made remarkable increases last year, which, it is hoped, will be equaled the ensuing year. They have made a good start.

COLNAIL AROUSED.

The Peculiar Fires and the Honest Ones Stir Up the City Fathers.

The city is to have better fire protection in the near future.

E. J. Pos & Co. has ordered 500 feet of new two and a half inch hose, which will be added to the city department.

Mayor Myers and the city council has been in a quandary the past few weeks, since the recent destructive fires, some honest and others not so honest as to what method they would employ to improve the protection of city property against the fire fiend. Reports made by fire insurance adjusters that unless the city had better fire protection the rate of insurance would be increased, probably helped to spur the council to immediate action.

As the city is too poor at present to buy a steam engine, it was decided that the best plan of improvement, and a plan that will not cost much and not more than the city can afford, is to buy some much needed hose and send east and employ a man that understands fighting fires to act as chief of the department, and possibly add a man or two to the present force. Inquiry is now out in search of such a man for fire chief.

It is true Albuquerque has some good timber for fire chief and The Citizen mentions the names of ex-Chiefs Sanguinette, Borradaile and Ruppe, and fire fighters C. O. Young, H. S. Knight, Joseph Farr, Lou Hamlin, P. F. McCanna, F. J. Wendell and others, but they could not give all their attention to the department, hence the plan of Mayor Myers to employ a thoroughly competent man, to be selected from some eastern department, for the position of fire chief.

BACK TO RESERVATION.

Indian Buck Got Home and Lost His Situation.

The Indian silversmith and squaw blanket weavers who have been employed at the branch store of the Hyde company in Chicago, passed through last night on their way to the reservation near Thoreau.

The Indian returned home because his services were no longer desired in the Windy City.

The buck is a very picturesque and impressive fellow. He attracted the attention of an accomplished and noted artist of Chicago, who prevailed upon Mr. Clark, of the Hyde company, to permit the Indian to pose for him. His request was granted. The Indian betook himself to the studio and sat many hours as a statue of marble. The quietness was too much for his active nature, and after receiving his pay for the sitting, about $10, he proceeded to celebrate. He drank all kinds of fancy drinks for which Chicago is famous. This high life in the metropolis was so fascinating that he forgot to return to the curio. His debut into Chicago's questionable society caused a sensation and he lost his job. He has returned to his hogan, and will spend the long winter days and nights sitting around the fire telling the people of the land the strange and funny sights of the big city. He will have no occasion to embellish his stories, as his experiences in the Windy City will no doubt furnish material for a series of winter fireside talks.

NO GRAND JURY.

The Case of Robert Barrett is Still Under Advisement.

The case of Robert Barrett, who is charged with assault and battery on Nick Tagliaferri, is still held under advisement. The particulars of the case were given in yesterday's issue of The Citizen. Barrett is out on the bond furnished just after the assault was committed. The statement that Dr. J. W. Elder gave evidence for the defense, which practically corroborated the evidence of Dr. Hope, is false. Dr. Elder was not called into the case at all.

Judge Crawford has given out no decision whatever in the case, and it is probable the case will never reach the grand jury.

Patients Removed.

Regardless of the severity of the weather the patients of the Santa Fe Pacific hospital were removed from Dr. Cutler's tent hospital to a ward in the St. Joseph's sanitarium. The ward secured for the Santa Fe Pacific patients is what was called the ladies ward and is composed of a suite of rooms on the second floor of the east wing of the handsome new sanitarium building. At 3 o'clock this afternoon none of the patient's moved were worse for the morning's airing. The new quarters are a big improvement over the improvised tents that did good service in emergency.

PEACE PACT SIGNED.

Baseball Committees Quickly Agree to End Their Warfare.

Mutual respecting of contracts and reserve clauses.

Circuits to remain as announced—American in New York but not in Pittsburgh—with majority consent of both leagues necessary to a change.

Non-conflicting schedules where possible and interleague championship games if desired.

Formal division of players—Davis to Chicago, Delehanty to Washington, Lajoie, Flick and Bernhard to Cleveland and Leach to Pittsburgh.

Peace has been established between the National and American baseball leagues, says a dispatch from Cincinnati. After a session which lasted hardly more than eight hours the committees representing the two leagues gave out a typewritten statement which shows on what basis peace was secured.

A more remarkable meeting than that which brought peace between the two leagues is not recorded in the history of baseball.

As predicted, there was no change made in the circuits of the two leagues. The American is given the privilege of putting a team in New York, but will not put a team in Pittsburgh as was contemplated. The two leagues will operate in harmony. Contracts, regardless of what they may contain, will be considered valid. Reference is also made to the option or reserve clause, which in the future will be in every player's contract, and will be respected by both leagues.

The conference also took action regarding the players who have been called contract jumpers. The Cincinnati club gives up its claim on Sam Crawford, who will be ordered to report to the Detroit club of the American league. Other clubs give up players.

Both leagues sacrifice players for the sake of peace, and baseball will prosper next year as never before.

One clause of the agreement signed by the committee states that no club shall be allowed to release players for the sake of weakening itself or its league.

Mine Stock Sold.

At the Boston mining exchange last week, 2,586 shares of the Santa Fe Gold & Copper company were sold at from $1.75 to $2.25 per share. The par value is $10 per share and the total value of shares is 250,000, making the total value of the property which is situated at San Pedro, Santa Fe county, $500,000, at the present selling price of stock.

BACK FROM EL PASO.

President Marron, of Territorial Fair, Returns to the City.

Hon. O. N. Marron, president of the territorial fair of 1903, who with Secretary P. F. McCanna and Sheriff T. S. Hubbell, went to El Paso Monday night to spend a few days at the carnival, has returned and with him comes stories of the big doings at the Pass city.

He was there for the opening and it came with a boom. He says that the city was crowded and that the crowds were being entertained and being taken care of admirably. The attractions are well selected and ample.

Sheriff Hubbell and Secretary McCanna remained at El Paso.

A CHANCE IN A LIFE TIME to invest on the ground floor with owners, in a developed free milling gold mine that has produced, and has expended on it:

FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS

In development on the ledge and a complete five-stamp mill, with all other necessary machinery ready to run.

The Ozark is not a prospect, but a mine that has produced. We are placing 100,000 shares of development stock at 25c per share, capital stock 1,000,000 shares, (par value $1 each), fully paid and non-assessable, to further develop and put the property on a paying basis.

A property lying near the Ozark, with nowhere as good a showing and very little development, sold last week to a New York syndicate for $200,000. The Ozark will pay dividends and be worth far inside of six months. This is the best investment for the money that has ever been offered to the investing public.

Do not lose this opportunity. It will never come again. For further particulars, prospectus, report on mine, references, etc., address,

WHITTLESEY'S PATENT.

Compressed Sand Blocks Used for Building Purposes.

The new and attractive front of the store occupied by H. E. Fox on South Second street is receiving notable attention, not only for artistic finish and general architectural beauty, but for the material of which it is built.

The material is a new concrete building block invented, patented and manufactured by Architect Charles F. Whittlesey from a mixture of sand and cement, made into builders' form by a compress operated by air. The block is seen for the first time in Albuquerque in the regular form in the Fox store.

It is claimed by Mr. Whittlesey that as to durability, convenience and cheapness it has the advantage of either brick or stone and that he is able to prove it.

The material is considerably more attractive in appearance and with its advantages over other building material it is sure to be a success.

It is probable this new building material will soon be used in local buildings, both resident and business structures. A company has been formed in Albuquerque for the manufacture of this new material.

HERE FROM DOUGLAS.

E. A. Barrett in the City—The H. E. Fox Branch Store.

Edward A. Barrett, brother of Robert Barrett, the young man in trouble for assaulting Nicholas Tagliaferri, the Italian watchman in the lower yards, came in from Douglas, Arizona, this morning, and regrets to find his brother in such serious trouble. Young Barrett says Douglas is one of the booming towns of the southwest, and is considered by old mine operators as the coming "Leadville of the southwest." He gives the information that H. E. Fox, one of Albuquerque's jewelry merchants, has established a branch store at Douglas, and is doing well. C. O. Howe has charge of the business for Mr. Fox. He reports other Albuquerqueans now at Douglas prospering.

Coal Thieves.

The cold weather always brings with it a few coal thieves. The first case of the season was before Justice Crawford. The Santa Fe company was the complainant and the case was presented by their attorney, E. W. Dobson.

One Chaves was found guilty, as the evidence was overwhelming against him. He was fined $10. The complainant did not wish to punish too severely for stealing a small amount of coal, but this will be a warning to others who think it is cheaper to steal than buy.

In the First district court for San Juan county, M. L. Steward has brought suit against John R. Pond. His complaint alleges that on November 15 last, at La Plata, he purchased from Pond thirty-four tons of alfalfa hay at $6 per ton, or a total of $204.

He was there for the opening and it came with a boom. He says that the city was crowded and that the crowds were being entertained and being taken care of admirably. The attractions are well selected and ample. Sheriff Hubbell and Secretary McCanna remained at El Paso.

He was there for the opening and it came with a boom. He says that the city was crowded and that the crowds were being entertained and being taken care of admirably. The attractions are well selected and ample. Sheriff Hubbell and Secretary McCanna remained at El Paso.

He paid on that date $100, and at Farmington on December 30, tendered the balance of $104 due. Pond, he says, refused to accept it and has refused to deliver the alfalfa. The complaint says that when the purchase was negotiated the market price was $6 a ton, but that now it is $12 a ton. Steward says he has cattle to feed and wants possession of the alfalfa. He deposited with the court the balance due of $104 and asks that the hay be awarded him and that he be given damages in the sum of $600.

In the court for Rio Arriba county, T. D. Burns has brought two suits against Miguel A. Salazar. The plaintiff conducts a store at Tierra Amarilla and asks judgment in one suit for $301.40 for goods sold. He also asks interest from July 1, 1901.
