LIGHT RATES ARE REDUCED

Council Makes Decided Reduction in Light Service and Also Cuts Salaries of Employees.

The City Council at its meeting Monday night made a reduction of twenty per cent in the light rates effective with December payments. This reduces the light rates in Clovis from 16 1/2 cents to 13 1/2 cents per kilowatt and the power rates which are lower at a correspondingly low rate.

Along with the lowering of the light rates, the council made a reduction in salaries affecting the employees of the plant, electricians, those in the water service and those on the street work. The reduction in salaries means a saving of over two hundred dollars a month to the city.

The following schedule of salaries was adopted by the council:

Water and light superintendent, $190 per month; water service foreman, 65¢ per hour; water service helper, 50¢ per hour; street department foreman, $125.00 per month; street department helper, $110 per month; electricians, 75¢ per hour; sanitation helper, $110 per month; Police Judge, $30 per month.

The resignation of Oscar Dobbs as city manager was accepted. Mr. Dobbs' resignation is effective Dec. 31. The council has not chosen anyone to take Mr. Dobbs' place.

CLOVIS TIES PORTALES.

In one of the hardest fought games ever staged on the local field the Clovis High School team held Portales to a 0 to 0 score last Friday. The game was full of thrills from the start. The first kick-off was fumbled and from there on the ball was inside Clovis' 20 yard line for the first half, since the wind was so strong it was impossible to punt in safety.

Jones was held out of the game on account of an injured ankle but was put in at the beginning of the second half, since the team without him lacks the old time punch.

It seemed that luck broke against the high boys at every point, but when they would be in danger of having their goal line crossed the heavier line of Portales would hit a brick wall when they would buck the line.

Owing to the scoreless tie it was suggested to the coach that the time be extended 5 minutes in order that we would not have to go into a post season game but this was declared impossible by the Portales coach on the account of the lateness of the hour.

The reporter would not attempt to foretell the result had the time been extended five minutes more, with the Clovis high school boys outplaying their foes at every point of the game and fighting like so many wild cats.

Clovis goes to Roswell Thursday to get revenge for that stinging defeat suffered at their hands on the local field October 1st. A large crowd went from Clovis to root for the local boys and a good game is expected.

MRS. BRIAN DEAD.

Mrs. Algie F. Brian died Monday at the family home on East Monroe Ave., after an illness of two or three weeks. The funeral service was conducted Tuesday at the Methodist church by Rev. Faust.

Mrs. Brian was forty-six years of age and is survived by her husband and two children.

MILE HI FOLLIES COMPANY ENTERTAINS KIWANISANS

The Kiwanis Club, after the noon-day luncheon Wednesday, was entertained by the Mile Hi Follies Company which showed two nights this week at the Lyceum Theatre. The Kiwanians appreciated the music very much and the numbers were greeted by hearty encores. The program was furnished complimentary by the Mile Hi Follies Company.

70 SECTIONS LAND SWEEP BY FLAMES

Hereford, Texas, Nov. 23.—Seventy sections of land, or a swath 20 miles long and 5 miles wide was swept clean of grass by a fire which started at a point 20 miles southwest of here today.

The flames caught from a camper's fire on the Ozark Trails between Dimmitt and Texico, men who fought it believe.

More than 200 men fought the flames. Fifty cars of fire fighters from Hereford and Dimmitt fought the raging blaze with backfire and finally extinguished it shortly before it reached the Johnson ranch, an enormous tract.

Another prairie fire was reported near Bovina.

BOOK BENEFIT FOR HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY

The Library Committee of the Civic Club of Clovis will have a Book Day and Tea at the High School Auditorium Saturday, Dec. 3rd, from 2:30 till 5:00 o'clock. The plan is to have every family in Clovis donate a book for the High School Library. Next week the News will publish a list of the books desired.

NEW ADDITION TO BE OPENED

Acreage Property in Mauldin Heights, North of City Limits, is Now on Market.

Mauldin Heights is the latest addition to Clovis. This property was platted and surveyed some time ago and this week it has been placed on the market through Ramey & Wilkinson. This property is divided into lots as well as five acre tracts, however the acreage property is all that is being put on the market at this time.

This property will be provided with city water and the acreage should prove very popular to those desiring small tracts close in.

Site for College.

The fact that the west portion of this tract has been chosen as the site for the Clara Barton Memorial College, adds to the attractiveness of Mauldin Heights as a desirable addition.

Good Progress on School Bonus

Chas. E. Scheurich informs the News that the committee having in charge the matter of guaranteeing the bonus offered for the removal of the Frances E. Willard school for girls to this place from Belen, has met with excellent success and the required number of signatures to the guarantee will be secured. Santa Fe and Albuquerque have also made bids for the school.

FARMER CAN'T FIGURE WHAT HIDE SOLD FOR

I. N. Storm, who lives in the Bellview neighborhood, was in town Monday. Mr. Storm told the News reporter an incident that happened last week that gives a good example of the low price level the farmers' products have reached now. Mr. Storm killed a yearling calf and sent the hide to town to sell. In exchange for the hide he says he got eight lemons and four spoons of thread.

BUILDING NEW HOME

W. H. Harris has commenced the erection of a new home on North Mitchell Street. It will be constructed of hollow tile. J. W. Mordecai has the contract for the erection of the building.

Mrs. C. V. Steed, County Superintendent of Curry County is attending the State Teachers' Association at Albuquerque this week.

GRAIN STORE BURNED AT TEXICO TUESDAY NIGHT

The building occupied by the J. P. Macon Feed Store at Texico burned Tuesday night, the fire starting about twelve o'clock. The building was a total loss, together with about four thousand bushels of grain stored in the building.

Two Injured in Auto Accident

A serious automobile accident happened late Wednesday evening when a Case and a Ford automobile collided at the corner of Monroe Avenue and Pile Street. Wm. F. Easter, his thirteen year old son, Eldon, and Paul Dounison were in the Ford and the News has been unable to learn who drove the Case car. Mr. Dounison got through the mishap without being injured; Mr. Easter got a severe bruise above his left eye and hat his wrist sprained as well as his thumb fractured. Eldon Easter's right leg was broken between the ankle and knee and he is now at the Santa Fe hospital.

All three were thrown a number of feet and the Ford was badly smashed up. As far as known those in the Case car were uninjured.

LEE HIGHWAY OFFICIALS VISITED IN CLOVIS

Dr. S. M. Johnson, general manager of the Lee Highway Association, and M. O. Ethridge, representative of the American Automobile Association were in Clovis last Friday evening and met with a number of Clovis citizens at the Elks Home.

Jas. A. Hall made a talk welcoming these men to Clovis and Mr. Ethridge and Dr. Johnson responded with talks on the purposes and objects of the Lee Highway.

The Lee Highway extends from Washington down the Valley of the Virginia, to a transcontinental, year around highway, from New York to San Francisco traversing in Virginia and Tennessee some of the most historic regions of the Civil War and continuing westward through Arkansas, Oklahoma, the Panhandle of Texas, Southern New Mexico, El Paso, Texas, and Southern Arizona to Los Angeles, and up the coast to San Francisco. Dr. Johnson told how years ago he dreamed of a transcontinental highway which would run through Roswell and the White mountains, and said that at last his dream was practically realized, and that in the short space of three or four years he confidently expected to see Broadway, New York, connected with Market Street, San Francisco, by an unbroken stretch of pavement four thousand miles in length.

DENHOF JEWELRY CO. HAS HOLIDAY OPENING

Denhof Jewelry Co. had their Christmas opening on Tuesday of this week and received guests all day. The store was prettily decorated with cut flowers and the visitors received souvenirs. Denhof Jewelry Co. has one of the finest jewelry establishments in this entire section of the country and Mr. Denhof says great preparations have been made for a big holiday business this year.

The opening of the holiday season Tuesday was really an "at home" day for the Denhof Jewelry Co. and those who visited the store say that it never looked prettier.

KILLED A BUCK.

John Miller and Ira Downey returned from a deer hunt in the mountains northwest of Tucumcari this week and while on the trip succeeded in killing a nice buck. The News family is grateful for some nice venison steak donated by these gentlemen.

FARM BUREAU MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the Curry County Farm Bureau will be held at the court house in Clovis Saturday, Nov. 26th at 1:00 p. m.

WOMAN ELECTED PRESIDENT STATE TEACHERS ASSN.

Mrs. Josie Lockard of Raton was elected president of the State Teachers' Association at Albuquerque this week, leading her nearest opponent by 73 votes.

The Association meets at Albuquerque again next year.

Immediate Need for Camp Ground

Clovis should not waste any time in fitting up a municipal camp ground for automobile tourists. The lots owned by the city in the east part of town furnish a very desirable site for this camp. Many tourists will come through Clovis in the future on account of the important highways passing through here, and with a public camp ground, most every car passing through will make a short stay here.

The American Legion has agreed to donate lumber valued at about $1,100 for fitting up the camp, provided the city assume an unpaid balance of $640.00 against the material.

UNITED SUPPORT FOR DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE

The patriotic and whole-hearted support the American people are giving the work of the International Conference on the Limitation of Armaments, now in session at Washington is an encouraging sign of future world peace and amity. The initial proposal of the American delegation, presented by Secretary of State Hughes, has met the approval of all classes of citizens, and has in turn created the new hope that this first step will eventuate in a complete program that will meet with equal favor.

The conference met under the most favorable auspices; public sentiment the world over is crystallized in favor of the main purpose of the conference, both from an economic and an altruistic point of view; there is no note of discord, and nowhere is there discernible any desire or attempt to interfere or impede the work of the conference for political advantage—in fact, a total absence of the spirit of opposition and division which has manifested itself in various ways on other great occasions since the war. On the contrary, there is a united and sincere hope and effort for the full fruition of the work of the conference.

LIBERTY BONDS MOUNT TO NEW HIGH RECORDS

New York, Nov. 23.—Most of the Liberty bonds issued by the United States government to meet expenses of the war mounted to new high records for the year on the stock exchange today, while Victory 4 1/2 notes duplicated their recent record of par for odd lots.

Transactions in these issues approximated $10,000,000 par value. The demand evidently proceeded from high financial quarters, including banks, insurance companies and other large corporations.

Liberty 3 1/2's made the greatest gain at a net advance of 76 cents per $100 to $95. The first 4 1/2's rose 30 cents to $95.40. The second 4 1/2's 24 cents to $95.24 and the fourth 4 1/2's 36 cents to 95.54

BARN AT RAILWAYS ICE PLANT BURNS

The barn at the Railways Ice Company's plant burned Monday night. The building and its contents were destroyed including several sets of harness and a Buick car, belonging to one of the employees.

TRADED RESIDENCE FOR 160-ACRE FARM

J. D. Fleming has traded the residence property known as the Fitzhugh residence in northeast Clovis, to Mrs. Jim Holden for a farm northwest of Clovis.

Hobert Miller made a business trip to Amarillo this week.

GOV. COX'S HOME GOES DEMOCRATIC, TOO

Dayton, Ohio, the home of ex-Governor Cox, also played an important part in the Democratic landslide of November 8, electing the first Democratic mayor since 1912. Under the Dayton charter, the candidate for commissioner receiving the highest vote becomes mayor. Frank Hale, straight Democrat, and the only candidate nominated as such, led his nearest competitor by 5,000 votes. Thus the homes of the two presidential candidates in the last election, Dayton and Marion, are now under Democratic local government.

Many smaller towns in various sections, heretofore Republican, went Democratic at the late election, the returns from which were not published in the metropolitan press.

THARP BROS. WILL ADD TO BUILDING

Tharp Brothers will soon commence construction on an addition to their building on Washington Avenue and will install an up-to-date machine shop. The addition will be on the rear of their present building and will be 35x40 feet. It will be constructed of hollow tile.

NEW TAX BILL NOW A LAW

Congress has Adjourned and President has Signed Tax Measure Which Few Law Makers Like.

Washington, Nov. 23.—The tax revision bill became a law late today, President Harding signing it at the Capitol during the closing hour of the special session of Congress.

This is the bill which repeals the excess profits and transportation taxes, does away with most of the so-called nuisance and luxury taxes, reduced individual taxes all along the line and increases the corporation income tax from 10% to 12 1/2%.

Few, if any Senators supporting the measure, were entirely satisfied with all its sections but they took the view that it contained more good provisions than bad ones.

This is generally considered to be only a temporary law and the understanding now is that a new revision bill will have to be framed within a year or so.

Badly Hurt by Fall From Horse

C. L. Miller, age 22, who lives seven miles west of Bellview, is at the Baptist Hospital in Clovis, suffering from a fracture at the base of his skull. Mr. Miller had started to the home of a neighbor nearby on a gentle horse with only a halter on the animal. Shortly afterward he staggered up to the neighbor's home saying he was sick. Mr. Miller has been partly unconscious since the accident and is unable to tell how it happened, but it is presumed that he was thrown from the horse and his head injured. He is still in a serious condition but is improving.

BOY GETS SERIOUS BUMP ON PAVEMENT

Jack Comer, the fifteen year old son of Jess Comer, who lives one mile south of Clovis, was seriously injured last Sunday afternoon by being thrown from a horse onto the pavement, the accident happening on Monroe Avenue near the Lone Star Lumber Co. The boy has concussion of the brain and is at the Baptist Hospital. Although his injury is serious it is believed he is about out of danger.

PLAYING ROSWELL

The Clovis High School football team is playing Roswell today. Roswell has a good team but Clovis boys are very hopeful that they will come out with the big end of the score.

DIES IN ONLY FEW MINUTES

Men Were Brothers-in-law and it is Said There had Been a Bit of Ill Feeling for Some Time.

Jim Todd shot and killed James Roy at St. Vrain Wednesday morning of this week. Roy drives the school truck at that place and had just come in from his route bringing the children to school. After the children had gotten out of the truck Roy drove to the garage nearby and was having his car filled with gas. It seems from the report given by eye witnesses that Todd approached Roy here, and there was some conversation as to whether the driver of the school car had properly treated Todd's children, whereupon it is said Roy was heard to have said: "The trouble is not with the children but with you." It is said the men had exchanged only a few words until a shot rang out and Roy was mortally wounded with a bullet wound through his abdomen coming from a .38 calibre pistol. Roy died in about fifteen minutes and as far as the News has been able to learn made no dying statement.

Only one shot was fired by Todd and it is said that Roy was unarmed. After the shooting Todd phoned the sheriff's office here and told Sheriff Dean what he had done and asked that the officers come out after him. Accordingly he was brought to the county jail in Clovis by Deputy Pat Woods.

Inquest Held.

Judge J. P. Noble, accompanied by the sheriff and District Attorney Compton went to St. Vrain shortly after the killing and an inquest was held.

Men Were Brothers-in-law.

James Todd and James Roy are brothers-in-law, the latter being a brother of Todd's wife. There is said to have been quite a bit of feeling between the two men for the past several weeks, caused from the division of property in which both were interested. Men acquainted with both believe this possibly led up to the tragedy occurring Wednesday morning. The deceased man is survived by his wife and two children and recently moved from a farm to St. Vrain to take charge of the driving of the school trucks there. Todd has a wife and four children and lives on the Gurley farm about seven miles from St. Vrain.

Examining Trial Next Week.

Todd's examining trial has not been set yet but will in all probability be held sometime next week. He has employed Rowells & Reese as his attorneys and makes no statement in regard to the killing.

CAN GO UP IN THE AIR CHEAPER NOW

A commercial air plane has been in Clovis for several days this week hauling up passengers at a price of $3.00 per ride. Even the price of going up in the air has come down. For last year $10.00 was the price made for flying over Clovis by the planes coming here.

JAPANESE MISSIONARY HERE.

W. D. Cunningham of Tokio, Japan, is here for a visit at the home of Rev. C. D. Poston. Mr. Cunningham has been a missionary in Japan for a number of years and is in this country now for a few months on business and visiting.

Mr. Cunningham made an interesting talk on Japanese customs Tuesday evening at the Christian Church.

FOOTBALL TODAY.

The football team of Clovis Santa Fe Apprentices is today playing the Topeka Apprentice team for the championship of the Santa Fe. These teams have played some excellent games this year.

Maize, kafir, corn and wheat are down in price, dairy and poultry products sell for cash and at a fairly good price. A big flock of hens and some dairy cows on every farm in Curry County will mean prosperous years, even if feed is cheap and grain crops are a partial failure. The plains country is the finest dairy and poultry raising section in the land and some day the possibilities of this section's natural resources in this respect will be better appreciated.

Clovis has fewer sidewalks than any town its size in the State. This is a disgrace to our civic pride. Not another town in the State has made as rapid growth during the past year as Clovis and yet we have not built near enough sidewalks. More sidewalks will bring city mail delivery and free mail delivery will put Clovis in the city class.

The News believes the commission form of government would be a good thing for Clovis, although the law does not go quite as far as it should. It provides for three commissioners instead of a governing body of eight aldermen and a mayor. This is a decided benefit, for a smaller governing body will no doubt work more efficiently. The worst feature of a commission form of government, under the new law, is that it does not provide a salary for but one of the commissioners, the presiding officer. He can draw a salary of $300 per year, but the other two must give their services free. All three commissioners should draw a reasonable salary. Clovis is a growing town and those who serve the city should be reimbursed for their services.

One kind of K. K. K. is absolutely all right, and that is probably the only kind that is organized in Lubbock County—Knights of Cream Kan. Hundreds of shade trees should be planted in Clovis between now and next spring. No improvement costs the property owners of a town so little and still brings in such big returns in the way of beautifying the city as well as enhancing property values.

Clovis has had a most enviable fire record for the past several years. There is possibly not a town in the State the size of Clovis that has had as few buildings destroyed by fire. The greater part of the fires are due to carelessness. The weather is dry now and it is not a hard matter for a blaze to start. Examine your flues and take all the precaution possible to keep down fires in Clovis.

A new way of illustrating how much the American government devotes to wars and preparations for war in comparison with all other governmental purposes is given in the assertion of the Democratic senator that, but for war costs, the whole maintenance of the Federal government today would be supported by the existing taxes on tobacco and tobacco products. In other words, all the income taxes we pay, all the other contributions to the Federal government we make, aside from those of us who use tobacco and pay a small amount additional therefor—all go into the maw of paying for wars that are passed, for maintenance of armies and navies and for the construction of engines of destruction. For the fiscal year of 1921, 88.4 per cent of all the Federal appropriations were for wars past and counted on yet to come. And, since the United States is a lover of peace, never has entered upon a war of aggression and its people as a whole opposed to any kind of war except one of defense, the proportion of its income for war is materially less than it is in many of the other countries which have centuries of war and of war's costs to look back upon. It is no wonder that the people of the world are hoping that the armament conference will amount to something, are looking to it for some permanent relief in the way of lifting the burden that is a staggering weight upon all humanity everywhere.—Denton Record-Chronicle.

ACCIDENT EVERY 20 MINUTES.
An accident occurred every twenty minutes on the streets of New York last year. There were 27,550 vehicular accidents which killed 864 persons and injured 17,133 men and 6,164 women. Private cars were in 7,608 of the mishaps, business automobiles in 3,423 and taxicabs in 1,231.

We insist that possession of an automobile is an aid to Christianity. It removes the excuse of cursing others who have them.

A VICIOUS LAW.
(Albuquerque Journal)

There is another angle of the scandal over the Wagner administration of the Department of Education which deserves attention.

Traveling Auditor Whittier in the report that the books of the office were fairly well kept during the first year, but that thereafter an increasing laxity developed. The report covers a period from January 1, 1916, to June 30, 1921—four and one-half years.

Think of a department of government handling tens of thousands of dollars never being checked a single time during the incumbency of Mr. Wagner. Had he been checked at the end of the first year, with criticisms of his methods, an increased, instead of a decreased, watchfulness would have resulted the second year. Some one besides the office holder is scandalously derelict when those handling public money are not audited at frequent intervals.

If the school superintendent's office was not audited for four and one-half years, it would be interesting to know what has happened in the matter of auditing other state offices.

Some one procured the passage of an act by the legislature, forbidding cities and other political subdivisions from expending public moneys for the employment of private auditors. The traveling auditor is made the sole auditor for state offices, state institutions, counties, school districts, cities, etc. The slightest investigation shows that an auditor with the amount of work and the number of employes in that department cannot audit all of these political subdivisions in a half dozen years.

Men and women are placed upon the boards and given the responsibility for the proper administration of a great trust. They are compelled to rely upon employes for keeping the records and handling the funds. Then they are left without the power to employ experts to check up those employes. Years must go by with discrepancies growing gradually worse and uncorrected, while they wait for a traveling auditor who seemingly never comes.

Such a system leaves those who are responsible without a way to get the facts. They can exercise no intelligent supervision. Laxity is bound to result.

The law commands that there be no audit at public expense, unless the traveling auditor makes it. He probably never makes it. So officials run matters to suit their fancy.

As the law stands officials are helpless and corruption can thrive practically unrestrained.

If Traveling Auditor Whittier were an arch angel the power given him under this law would be excessive and peniculous. No man should have so wide a discretion over public matters. Suppose a corrupt man should be chosen for the position? A state would be at his mercy.

This matter impresses the Journal as very, very serious. We have called attention to it before. The Wagner incident shows one vicious phase of this law in its operation.

The failure of the state to check Mr. Wagner at intervals, or to "check him out" at the end of his term, will arouse a certain degree of sympathy for him. Mr. Wagner claims that he demanded a "check out" and could not get it. The traveling auditor was "too busy." There is no sense in any such lax methods.

QUILTING PARTY IS ENJOYED AT RANCHOVALE

A most enjoyable as well as profitable day was spent when the Friendly Class of the Ranchovale Sunday school met with Mrs. Claud Byers on last Thursday, our purpose being to quilt two quilts for a Thanksgiving gift for one of our members, Mrs. W. H. Buchanan, who is confined to her room, but is slowly improving, we are glad to learn. Each member had previously pieced a block with name and scripture reference on it. A sumptuous dinner was served, each member contributing some article of food deliciously prepared and we dare say each one has received the Nth degree in the culinary art as it was surely a feast fit for a king. Those present were Mesdames Veasy, Bell, Bush, Miller, Key, Patton, Kelly, Beller, Cherry, Spurlin, Long, Mills, Greathouse, Rhea, Davidson, Evans, Matthews, Beach, Hill, Growden, Steed, Weathers, and Misses Evans and Davidson and our delightful hostess, Mrs. Byers.

Catarrrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube re-opened to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surface of the system. ## "VAMPS" WHO MADE HISTORY

By JAMES C. YOUNG.

THE FIREBRAND OF THE REVOLUTION.

IF IT had not been for a woman the French Revolution might never have taken place. It was October 5, 1789. Outside the palace of Versailles, a mob of women from Paris cried for bread and the head of "the Austrian woman," Marie Antoinette. She and Louis XVI looked from the windows, and Marie asked: "Why don't they eat cake?"

The women had dragged cannon from Paris, which they could not fire because the rain had wet their powder. Versailles was protected by the royal bodyguard and a regiment of Flemings. The local post of the Garde Nationale was in sympathy with the women and would have helped them, but they had no cartridges.

At this point enters Theroinne de Mericourt, already a heroine of republican Paris, and a vampire who had laid waste many hearts. She appeared before Versailles in a red silk dress, a big hat with a feather, and a sabre at her belt. She went among the women and picked willing spirits to attack the Flemings. Their "attack" was made with kisses—a kiss for a cartridge. Soon the Garde Nationale fired on the bodyguard. The next day Versailles was stormed. Marie escaped in her petticoat.

Back in Paris, Theroinne was acclaimed a queen of the Revolution. On August 10, 1792, she led in the attack on the Tuilleries and the massacre of the Swiss guard. The sinister Robespierre, revolutionary leader, was said to have been one of her intimates. But before he came to his greatest power suspicion pointed to Theroinne in a plot to assassinate Marie. She was kidnaped and carried to Austria in a carriage, and there put on trial for her life. She succeeded in reaching Leopold II and "vamped" her way to freedom.

Then came the tremendous events of 1793. Robespierre rose to be the first man of the state. But Theroinne announced that she had "withdrew her confidence" from him and joined his enemies. Her opposition was so strenuous that Robespierre hired a band of women to take his revenge. They intercepted Theroinne before the Tuilleries, the scene of her glory in 1792. This time she did not wear her sabre. The women overpowered Theroinne, turned her petticoats over her head and spanked her before the Parisian crowd.

No human reputation could have withstood such ignominy. The sly Robespierre had struck Theroinne a death blow. Paris laughed, her great deeds were forgotten and only her shame known. She lost all political power over night and not long afterward her mind as well.

WOMAN KILLS POLE CAT WITH HANDS

We have often heard and seen the wrath of a woman turned on a mere man with quite disastrous results (to the man) but the other day was the first time we ever heard of the wrath of a woman venting its spleen on a real, healthy, live pole cat. J. F. Hart, pumper for the Santa Fe railroad, told us the story this morning and says he will vouch for its truthfulness. One day this week a pole cat got mixed up with a bunch of chickens belonging to a well known raiser of fancy Rhode Island Red fowls living west of Carlsbad, and the result was about twenty fine chickens killed. This was just cause to stir the wrath of almost any one, so the lady set out to find Mr. Pole Cat and give him his just deserts. She found him all right but he made his get-away and ran under the nose with the lady in full pursuit. Instead of stopping when she came to the house as the pole cat probably thought she would do, she went down on her hands and knees and crawling a short distance, caught the pole cat by the tail and pulled him out, then beat him into unconsciousness upon the ground with the aid of no weapon, holding him by the tail while she pounded him on the ground. Mr. Pole Cat fought back the only way in his power, but the only damage he did was to cause the lady to have a sore eye.—Carlsbad Current.

CHARACTER.

It is character that counts in a nation as in a man. It is a good thing to have a clean, fine intellectual development in a nation to produce orators, artists, successful business men; but it is an infinitely greater thing to have these solid qualities which we group together under the name of character—sobriety, steadfastness, the sense of obligation toward one's neighbor and one's God, hard common sense, and combined with it, the gift of generous enthusiasm toward whatever is right. These are qualities which go to make up true national greatness.—Roosevelt.

ECONOMICAL DISHES.

A good way to serve a small amount of meat for a good sized family is to cook the meat with the vegetables; the flavor of the meat seasons the vegetables, and less meat is needed to satisfy the appetite.

When preparing lamb or mutton pie, if the meat seems scant add a few peas to give flavor and nourishment, and thus extend the dish.

A dish nice for a busy day is prepared by slicing potatoes very thin, put into a shallow granite baking dish season with salt and pepper and cover with pork steak or chops, then bake. The chops will season the potatoes and the dish may be served at the table from the dish in which it was baked.

Sunday Night Salad.—Take one cup of peas, drained and stirred for an hour or two; one cupful of finely minced celery, three-fourths cup of eggplant or fresh tomatoes, grated and the same amount. Two small green onions, minced, one-half cupful of onion, finely minced, and three tablespoons egg yolks, beaten to a frothy mass, mix with the top of the salad. This mix with a mass finely minced, onion dressing, and some light cream. Season with salt and pepper and serve in a salad bowl.

Drain about 10 to 12 of common onions, if desired, which the children will enjoy, and prepare a sauce which is perfectly wholesome. Add them to plain apples, or any minced fruit, making an delicious common dish indeed.

Shirred Eggs With Agar-Agar.—In four eggs have a cupful of cream sauce; mix this with three-fourths of a cupful of agar-agar tips and one or two tablespoonsful of onion, cooked, sliced or cut, or ham. Season this mixture in buttered egg shells; into each break a fresh egg; sprinkle with salt, and half a teaspoonful of melted butter on each. Cook in the oven until the egg is set. Serve at once.

Balfour Once a Texas Cowpuncher

Arthur J. Balfour, head of the British delegation to the Conference for the Limitation of Armament, once roughed it as a cowboy in West Texas. The story came out in 1917, when Mr. Balfour came to America as head of the British war mission soon after this country entered the war.

It is related that in the early 80's Mr. Balfour, then a young man, was sent to Texas by an English cattle syndicate in which members of his family were interested to find out why the money returns from the sale of cattle were not coming up to expectations. It was believed that the syndicate was being cheated by those in charge of the sale of cattle.

Mr. Balfour came to Doans, a trading post on Red River, in Wilbarger County, got a job as a cowpuncher and worked with the outfit for some time. He found a well planned scheme in operation to defraud the English owners and later had the principals arrested.

Whether his experience as an American cowpuncher has had anything to do with development of this great English statesman is a matter of conjecture, but it is quite likely that his knowledge of this country gained through this and other visits to America has led the British government to place him at the head of the last two important official delegations sent to this country.—Amarillo Tribune.

THE ROAD HOG.

People carrying pipe, poles or boxes on the running boards of automobiles should always carry them on the right running board. When carried on the left side of the car the projections are dangerous to cars met in passing. A man on the D-C-D Sunday afternoon had a crate on the left running board of his car, and a passing car, to keep from being "scraped" by that crate, had to take the ditch, and when his car hit the loose sand on the side of the grade there was no chance in the world of pulling back onto the grade. The man with the crate on his car looked around long enough to see how a man looked stuck in the sand, and then fed his jitney a little more gas. A road hog never cares how much the other fellow suffers.—Canadian Record.

MR. AND MRS. MONROE HOPKINS PLAYERS COMING TO CLOVIS

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Hopkins, who are opening a week engagement at the Lyceum Theatre, Monday, November 26th, promises to be the best attraction the people of Clovis have had the privilege of witnessing for some time. They have recently finished a two week's run in Amarillo, and while there were seen by people from Clovis, all of whom recommend it very highly.

The company consists of twelve people and they are using the very latest plays that can be secured for road use, such as "The Brat," "Daddy Longlegs," etc. They are also carrying over two thousand pounds of special scenery with which to make each and every play a production.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins were for several years in vaudeville, during which time they played all the leading cities in the United States. They toured the Orpheum, Interstate, Keith and Pantages Vaudeville circuits all three times over and are vaudeville performers of real merit.

They will present some of their vaudeville acts between each act of the plays during their sojourn here in Clovis.

The opening play will be "The Brat," written by Maude Fulton, and originally produced in New York City by Oliver Morosco. The play is in three acts.

Prices are within reach of all; 25c for children and 55c for adults. There will also be a two reel comedy run before the show each night, so come early and don't miss it.

PASSENGER FEES ARE REASONABLE I. C. C. DECIDES

Washington, D. C.—Passenger fees maintained by southwestern railroads in the Arizona-New Mexico territory, though protested by the railroad commissions of both states, were found reasonable and justified today by the interstate commerce commission.

The states complaining declared that the rates through the states and contiguous points averaged 4.8 cents per mile and on branch lines ran up to 7.8 as against a general level of 3.6 cents per mile in the United States as a whole. The commission, however, held that the railroads were justified in imposing the higher rates since the expense of operation and the lightness of traffic rendered conditions different from those in the rest of the country.

The public is requested not to use pennies or other metal substance for fuses in electric light wiring. When fuses burn out call at the clerk's office and get more.

Weekly Meeting of C. of C. Directors

The Board of Directors of the Clovis Chamber of Commerce held their regular meeting Tuesday morning, November 22nd, with the following directors and officers present: W. I. Luikart, president; W. B. Cramer, C. W. Harrison, Miss L. E. Kendall, W. H. Bowman, A. B. Austin, Bert Curless, C. A. Hach and D. W. Jones, secretary.

Mr. A. W. Johnson, director of the band, appeared before the directors and submitted a statement showing a balance of 181.34 due the band. It was moved by Director Harrison that settlement be made with Johnson's Band on a basis of said balance of 181.34 and that same be paid out of the first surplus in the treasury available for that purpose.

Dr. A. L. Dillon, chairman of the Clara Barton Memorial College Committee, reported that the bonus to be raised for payment of the six acres on North Main Street had not been raised. He stated that in view of this fact, he recommended that a meeting of the Clara Barton Memorial Committee be called to vote on the acceptance of one or the other of the other sites to be offered. This recommendation was approved. It was moved by Director Curless that the Chamber of Commerce underwrite the $10,000 bonus for the Clara Barton Memorial College jointly with the Kiwanis Club. This motion was seconded by Director Harrison and carried. Dr. A. L. Dillon, chairman of the committee, was appointed to bring the matter before the Kiwanis Club. During the discussion of the Clara Barton Memorial College, Director Harrison moved that the president appoint an advisory committee of five to be known as the permanent Clara Barton Memorial College Committee, this committee to take the place of the general committee of ten as soon as the location and the ten thousand dollar bonus had been arranged for; this committee to have full power over all matters affecting the development of the college and the interests of the citizens of Clovis.

President Luikart called the attention of the directors to the Lee Highway association from Washington to Los Angeles through Clovis and suggested that a permanent committee be appointed to look after Clovis' interests in this highway. It was moved by Director Harrison that the president appoint a committee of three. The motion carried and the president announced the following committee: Jas. A. Hall, chairman; Alex Shipley and Dr. C. L. McClellan.

Chairman Hatch, of the committee on Telephone Rate Hearing at Santa Fe, recommended that $50.00 be appropriated to defray expenses of the Oklahoma rate expert, this to be done in connection with Albuquerque, Roswell and other towns with similar interests. On motion, this amount was granted.

W. H. Bowman, of the committee on Sidewalk Repairing on Main St., reported that he had taken the matter up with the city council and was advised that the same would be repaired at an early date.

Secretary Jones reported that he had secured a list of the property owners along the proposed new right-of-way from Clovis to Texico and he recommended that the Santa Fe railroad be requested to supply thirty feet off of the north side of the present right-of-way which is one hundred feet wide on each side of the track, said thirty feet being half of the proposed right-of-way. The Board of Directors instructed the secretary to take the matter up with Superintendent McKee at the earliest date.

Dr. A. L. Dillon, chairman of the Municipal Auto Camp Site, reported that the lots now owned by the city in east Clovis was the best available location. He stated that the American Legion proposed to donate their interest in the lumber now in the grand stand, fences and lots owned by them at the Rodeo Grounds for use of the city in building a park, the city to pay about $640.00, being the balance due on the lumber which originally cost over $1,100. The report was accepted and the committee continued.

Chairman Cramer of the Committee on Committees recommended that the following constitute the committee to look after securing the permanent location of the State Grand Lodge of the Odd Fellows in Clovis, to-wit: Bert Curless, chairman; Chas. Daniels and R. M. Hall. The committee also recommended a list of names for the committee to secure signatures to the petition for a commission form of government.

DOWLING IS NOW A HAPPY BOY

LOS ANGELES MAN SAYS TANTALAC HAS MADE CLEAN SWEEP OF ALL HIS TROUBLES—NOW FEELS FINE.

"I feel happy as a boy since Tantalac restored my health and got me to feeling right again," said George Dowling, 525 Temple St., Los Angeles, Cal., millman employed by the Pacific Electric Railway Co.

For eight years I suffered from an aggravated case of kidney disorder, and I don't see how I lived through the agonies I endured. I was badly constipated, too, very nervous, could not sleep nor eat to do any good, and as a result of this and of the constant pain I was in, I became quite weak, and ran down. A great deal of the time I wasn't worth a thing so far as work was concerned.

"But all these miserable feelings are a thing of the past now, for Tantalac has made a clean sweep of my troubles and strengthened me right up to where I feel like a brand-new man. My appetite couldn't be better, and the way I sleep is a job to make me up in the morning. I have gained seven pounds in weight and have so much more strength and vigor that my best is easy for me. If anybody wants to know how clean-up Tantalac really is, I will be glad to tell them about it."

Tantalac will be coming straight to you.

The Associated Chemists, Inc., of the United States is the only firm that you can get Tantalac. Whether a quantity and the chemist is willing to supply any for you. Phone 174 or 185 and clicking will be called for.

THE PROPER FOOD FOR MAXIMUM EGG PRODUCTION

The number of eggs gathered this winter will be dependent upon the feed supplied to the hens, says the poultryman of the Agricultural College. It is necessary to have the feed palatable as well as supplying the proper feeds. There is one form of feed which cannot be replaced. This is some form of animal food which supplies animal protein. Animal protein is supplied in tankage, by sure to get 60% meat scrap, or milk.

The Indiana Experiment Station obtained the following results from three different pens of fowls. The dry mash was made up of ground corn, ground oats, ground wheat, bran and shorts in the same proportion.

Ten per cent meat scraps were added to one pen which averaged 134 eggs for the year.

The second pen was allowed all the skim milk they could drink and averaged 135.5 eggs.

The third pen was given no animal food at all and averaged only 36 eggs.

It will be noticed from these results that animal food is necessary if producers expect to get good results.

OUR MIGHTIEST HOT SPRING.

ALMOST in the center of Wyoming, near a bend in the Big Horn river and 4,500 feet above sea level, nature brought to the surface, for the benefit of all humanity, her most notable work in the hot-spring line. Here, from a rough-walled opening approximately 27 feet in diameter, and which may come through from China for all anybody knows—since it has been sounded to a depth of 7,000 feet and no bottom found, there bubbles forth about 18,000,000 gallons of 137-degree hot water, possessing untold medicinal value, every 24 hours.

This health font was discovered by a wandering band of Indians. When the white man came he named it "Big Horn Hot Spring," because the water was finally unrolled over a 50-foot cliff in a beautiful waterfall to the river below. A city was built by the river. They called it Thermopolis (Hot City), because of its nearness to the spring.

The government purchased the tract on which the spring is located in 1887. Washburn, chief of the Shoshone, agreed only on condition that a portion of the water be reserved forever free for public use. Later, when the government asked the land to the state, the same clause was inserted in the patent. This hot water is made available for many of the most famous resorts in the world. A hotel equipped with modern lines, bath, recreation and other, the water possesses medicinal properties in the treatment of blood and skin diseases and rheumatism.

When you suffer from backache, headaches, dizziness, nervousness, foot weak, languid, depressed, have annoying urinary disorders, do you know what to do? Some Clovis people do.

Read the statement that follows. It's from a Clovis citizen.

Testimony that can be investigated.

Mrs. Arthur Andrews, 510 N. Harding St. says: "My advice to any one suffering from disordered kidneys is to try Doan's Kidney Pills, for they certainly are fine. Several years ago I took them for weakness in my back and other symptoms of kidney complaint. They certainly did all that was claimed for them and soon removed the annoyance. Doan's Kidney Pills are fine and I can conscientiously endorse them."

FARM NOTES

"HOG KILLING TIME"

This cool winter weather gives good chances for killing and caring for pork. The following instructions from the state extension bulletin, "Killing and Curing Pork" will be helpful to many farmers.

Selection of Hogs for Butchering.
Only hogs that are in good health and good finish and that are gaining rapidly in weight yield the best meat. If hogs are killed that are losing in flesh or that are impaired by fever or other arrangements, it is quite sure to affect the keeping qualities of the meat. Hogs should not receive anything in the way of food except fresh clean water for a period of from 12 to 20 hours before killing as this treatment cleans the stomach and intestines of their contents.

Killing the Hog.
Hogs are usually stunned by shooting with a 22 calibre rifle, then turned squarely on their backs and stuck with a knife. Preferably a short knife not over eight inches in length should be used. Do not stick the heart for in that case the blood will not be pumped out and this will affect the meat. Thrust the knife in directly in front of the breast bone pointed directly toward the root of the tail. Cut only the arteries in the neck and allow the blood to be pumped from the hog. In doing this be careful not to stick a shoulder.

Scalding and Scraping.
A barrel set at an angle to the platform is the most convenient way to scald a hog if it is not too large. In the case of a large hog, several sacks or blankets can be laid over the hog and scalding water poured over it. The sacks and blankets will retain sufficient heat to loosen the hair.

The temperature of the water for efficient scalding should be from 145 to 155 degrees when applied to the hog. If the water is too hot it will cause the hair to set and this causes even more trouble than when the water is too cold. A tablespoon of lye to every thirty gallons of water will aid in removing the scurf, or a shovelful of wood ashes will serve the same purpose.

A bell-shaped scraper should be used for removing the hair and scurf instead of a knife as a knife causes many cuts in the carcass. If the carcass is not thoroughly cleaned it is best to use a scrub brush and some soap and thoroughly wash off with clear cold water.

Removing Entrails.
After a hog is hung up and the surface is clean, the next step is to remove the entrails. Cut through the midline on the belly beginning at the top and continue cutting to the head. Care should be taken while removing entrails to avoid cutting or breaking the intestines. After the entrails are removed, along with the heart, lungs and other organs, the carcass should be washed out with clear, cold water and a cloth.

Removing the Leaf Lard and Cooling.
The leaf lard can best be removed while the carcass is still warm as it can be removed easier at this time. This also allows for quicker cooling and lessens the danger of the ham and loins souring.

The best temperature at which to cool the carcass is from 32 degrees to 40 degrees and in no case should it be allowed to freeze. The carcass should not be cut up before it is thoroughly cooled.

Cutting up the Carcass.
Remove the head one inch behind the ears and the feet one inch above the knee and hock joints. Split the carcass down the backbone by sawing its full length. Remove the ribs and backbone from each part. The shoulder cut is made between the fourth and fifth ribs. The ham is removed from the middle piece by cutting just back of the rise in the backbone. The hams should be trimmed neatly and round, making long hams. The fat removed in trimming the hams and shoulders can be used for lard and the meat for sausage. In removing the ribs from the sides take care to leave very little meat with the ribs as this meat will be needed in order to secure bacon with a streak of lean. The head can be used for head cheese and the feet for pickled pigs feet.

Preparing Pickled Pigs Feet.
Remove toes, soak over night in cold water. Scrape clean, boil until soft. Salt when partially done. Pack in a stone jar and cover with hot spiced vinegar. A nicer looking white product is secured if the spices are omitted. Some curers add sugar in the proportion of 1½ pounds to 100 pounds of feet.

Making Head Cheese.
Cut the hog's head into four pieces. Remove skin, brains, ears, eyes, snout, and fatty parts. Put bony and lean parts to soak over night in cold water. Wash clean next morning. When meat is clean, boil in enough water to cover. When meat separates rapidly from bone, pick out all the bones. Drain off liquor and save. Chop meat return to kettle, pour over enough liquor to cover meat. Let boil slowly for 15 to 30 minutes. Season to taste with salt and pepper before removing from fire. Turn into shallow pan or dish. Cover with cheese cloth, place under a weight to make solid. When cold slice thinly and serve cold.

Rendering Lard.
The leaf lard is the best in quality. The back strips of the sides also make good lard, as do also the trimmings from the ham, shoulder and neck. The intestinal or gut fat is inferior and has a strong objectionable flavor so should be removed and kept apart from the other lards.

Cut the lard to be rendered into small cubes not more than an inch in size. Pour one quart of water in the kettle in which the lard is to be rendered as this will help to prevent the lard from burning, although frequent stirring is also necessary. When the cracklings are thoroughly browned and light enough to float the lard should be removed from the fire, press and strain it through a muslin cloth into containers and stored away from the light preferably in a cool cellar, in order to prevent rancidity.

Curing Pork.
The first essential is to be sure the pork is thoroughly cooled, but the meat should never be frozen prior to or during the period of curing. In from 24 to 36 hours after killing is the proper time to to begin curing the meat.

Curing Agents.
Salt, saltpeter, sugar and molasses are the principal preservatives used in curing pork. Acids and other chemicals are sometimes used, but they are objectionable and their use is prohibited in connection with meats to which the Federal Meat Inspection law is applicable. The combination of salt and sugar preserves the natural color and makes the red color. Saltpeter is more astringent than salt and should be used only as directed.

Methods of Curing.
Opinions differ as to the merits of brining or dry curing pork. The brining method is less troublesome for the meat is simply packed in a barrel and the brine poured over it; while with the dry curing method it is necessary to rub the meat with salt three or four times. The brine always keeps insects and vermine away.

The Brining Method.
With the brining method a clean hardwood sirup barrel which is tight and clean is the most desirable vessel in which to cure pork. It should be thoroughly scalded before packing in the pork. In making the brine directions should be followed and only pure boiled water used in making the brine. If the brine becomes "ropy" it should be poured off and boiled, or a new brine should be made. The meat should be washed and rubbed with fine salt.

Many different formulas may be used in curing pork by the brine method. The following recipe, if followed closely, will give very good results:

Brining Recipe.
Amounts for each 100 pounds of meat.

10 pounds fine salt, 3 pounds brown sugar, 2 ounces saltpeter, 5 gallons fresh pure water.

Boil all of these ingredients together and skim off all impurities that come to the surface of the scum. Let the brine become absolutely cold before pouring into barrel with pork. If this does not make enough water to cover meat, use more boiled water until meat is completely covered to the depth of one inch. Use a clean stone or crock to hold the meat under the brine. If you have more or less than 100 pounds of meat, use proportionate amounts as the curing agents. Weigh the meat and don't guess.

Placing Meat in Barrel.
When placing in the barrel, the meat should be packed as closely as possible so as to prevent large spaces which will require extra brine in order that the meat may be covered. Hams should be placed in the bottom, shoulders next, and bacon and small pieces on top. In five days pour off the brine and change the position of the meat, putting the small pieces at the bottom and the large pieces on top, then pour back the brine and be sure that it covers the meat. This operation should be repeated on the tenth and eighteenth days. Always pack with the skin side of the meat down.

Time of Curing.
The time that pork should be left in the brine, depends upon the size of the different pieces, as salt and other curative agents penetrate small pieces more rapidly than the larger ones. For one pound in a ham or shoulder allow four days cure in the brine. For bacon allow three days for each pound. For example, a fifteen pound ham will require 60 days in the brine, while a bacon weighing ten pounds will require only thirty days. All the curing in New Mexico should be done during the winter months, so the curing process should start not later than January.

Dry Curing Recipe.

For each 100 pounds of meat.
7 pounds salt, 2½ pounds sugar, 2 ounces of saltpeter, pepper to suit taste.

Mix all the ingredients thoroughly, then rub one-third of the quantity of this mixture over the meat and pack it away in a box or on a table. The third day break bulk and rub one-half of the remaining mixture over the meat and again pack it. Break bulk on the seventh day and rub remainder of the mixture over the meat and pack it to cure. Allow one day and a half cure for every pound in each piece of meat.

Smoking the Meat.

When each piece of ham and bacon has received the proper cure, take it out and wash it in luke warm water, then string and hang in the smoke house. The pieces should be hung far enough apart so that they do not touch one another. The meat should hang from eight to ten feet above the floor so as to keep it a safe distance from the fire used in making the smoke. The process of smoking helps to preserve the meat. It also gives it a desirable flavor if smoked properly with the right kind of fuel. Corn cobs and green apple wood produce a cool smoke and give the meat a desirable flavor. Do not use soft wood or wood with pitch in it.

The smoke house can be made of any size but most farmers find that an 8x10 foot house 10 feet high gives very good satisfaction. From 36 to 48 hours is required to smoke meat properly, but if meat is to be kept a long time slower and longer smoking is better. The temperature of the smoke house should not exceed 125 degrees Fahrenheit during the process of smoking.

When the meat is smoked it can be left hanging in the smoke house, but for absolute safe keeping it should be wrapped and packed away. In the whole process of dressing and curing pork, it should be remembered that cleanliness is the most important factor. Meats very easily become tainted and undesirable for food.

NEW MEXICO HAS A BOOTLEGGERS TRUST

New Mexico has one of them. No, not a Ku Klux Klan society, but a real bootlegger's association. The organization is in one of the small towns of the state, and was discovered by prohibition agents several days ago. The size of the organization is unknown but it is believed to contain all the whiskey dealers in the town and the members respond to meetings like magic. When prohibition forces enter the town a big white flag is hoisted on top of the city's main hotel. It is a signal for all bootleggers to congregate. When officers entered the town recently, the flag sailed up on the flagpole. In a few moments, the manufacturers of moonshine held a mass meeting.

Orders that all stills and whisky be hidden at once, and that all members go in seclusion were given by someone who is believed to be the president of the order. The warning to evade the prohibition officers was followed out, with the result that the agents returned to Albuquerque without making an arrest. Secrecy surrounds the workings of the order and methods of obtaining admission.—Albuquerque Journal.

FINE WEATHER.

The weather bureau has so far made a failure in bringing this section any real winter weather. Several blizzards have been reported but they have terminated in being just mild cold spells. This section rarely ever sees as mild weather in November as we have experienced this year.

TEXICO NEWS BRIEFS

Once again the tide of time in his incessant fleeting, that without fail brings us all to that glad or sad hour as the case may be, when we pause for a course of but a few moments to give thanks to our Creator for His goodness to us. But sometimes it seems to dawn upon us in a vague manner in terms of what it is that I have to be thankful for. Oftimes we fail to find in our conscious memories the things for which we should render thanks. If for no other we should be very thankful that everything has been as well with us as it has and more so, thankful that it wasn't worse. So let us give thanks in a true Thanksgiving spirit unto our most high God that giveth us all good gifts.

H. E. Guy, president of both the Twin City banks, is in Florida taking a much needed rest. He has been suffering quite a bit with his eyes and expects to undergo special treatment very soon.

Oh yes, we must admit that the splendid program rendered last Sunday night by the Ladies' Missionary Society was indeed excellent. We always know something worth while is in store for us when they entertain.

The citizens of Texico-Farwell were very liberal in their subscriptions to a fund recently collected for the express purpose of purchasing a Ford car for Mrs. J. C. Norris, her car having been stolen some time ago. You will always find our folks in the lead for a righteous cause.

The series of meetings being conducted by Rev. C. D. Poston, pastor of the Christian Church at Clovis, at their place of worship in Farwell, is now well under way, and our sincere wish is that much good may come of their efforts. And, too, lest we forget, Rev. Poston will preach the union Thanksgiving sermon at the Methodist church next Sunday. All welcome.

Mrs. Dotson returned home the first of the week from the Baptist Hospital at Clovis. We are glad that she is doing so well and trust to see her out again soon.

The Ladies' Missionary Society will have a bazaar and sale Saturday. They say it's not funny to be broke, so everybody is invited to partake. A very cheery Thanksgiving to you all, and our heartiest good wishes with it.

Arkansas Slim.

BEARING FRUIT ALREADY.

The proposal to junk a great part of the navies of the three great powers, made a little more than a week ago, is already bearing fruit, even though it has not been formally accepted.

After the proposal had been made the British Admiralty stopped all battle ship construction and instructed the contractors not to incur any further obligations in connection with the British naval program.

Thus, it begins to look as if the two great English speaking nations at least are in earnest about reducing armament. Japan has not given any very enthusiastic evidence of a willingness to join with the United States and Great Britain, but there are indications that she too will fall in line.

If the Hughes proposal is finally adopted by the three great naval powers of the world a long step toward world peace will have been taken. With this problem out of the way, an early adjustment of the Far Eastern question may be looked for. The conference will then have but one big problem to settle and that will be the matter of armies to be maintained by the continental nations of Europe.

The action of the Washington conference thus far has been most encouraging and there is every reason to hope that we are going to see a common sense discussion of the problems of the world.—Amarillo Tribune.

CHURCH OF GOD REVIVAL.

There is a revival meeting to be held by W. H. Short of Oklahoma at the Church of God Chapel on 612 North Wallace. Services each day at 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Everybody invited.

CLOVIS CHURCH OF CHRIST.

Last Lord's Day was a day of spiritual blessings with the Church of Christ in Clovis. Members who failed to be present at all services certainly missed blessings which were most surely needed. Especial mention should be made of the work done by the young men and women. There were some thirty of these earnest consecrated young people with us who are rendering each Sunday evening the results of their week of study. The effect is most wholesome and beneficial.

Services for next Lord's Day are as follows: Bible school at 10:00 a. m., preaching at 11:00 a. m. with the communion service immediately following the sermon. The Young People's Meeting at 6:00 p. m., and preaching at 7:00 p. m. The subject for the morning: "Out of the Many, One." For the evening: "The Son of Righteousness." Fitting illustrations for these lessons will be placed on the chart. Everybody cordially invited. "You cannot afford to stay away."

G. F. Mickey, Minister.

NAZARENE REVIVAL

The revival being conducted by Rev. Loe L. Hamric at the Nazarene Mission over Marshall's store, continues with good attendance and increasing interest.

"God's Last Call," will be the subject for Saturday night. "The Signs of the Times and The Second Coming of Christ" will be the closing subject Sunday night.

HOLLENE AND GRADY PLAY BASKETBALL.

Hollene boys and girls who went to Grady last Friday report two interesting games of basketball, although the girls were beaten by a score of 12 to 11. They accepted the defeat like true sportsmen and with a little more training they feel that they can win the next game. The boys won another victory, although their opponents did some good playing. A splendid attitude of fair play was shown on both sides and every courtesy shown by the spectators.

After the games were over the teams were taken upstairs to the auditorium and treated to a lunch by the coaches and players. All returned home feeling that the time had been very pleasantly spent.

PROGRESS CLUB

The Progress Club will exhibit the art works of R. Vernon Hunter for one week, beginning December 19th, the place to be decided later. Mr. Hunter is a son of S. C. Hunter of Texico, is well known in Clovis, as he has spent a great deal of his boyhood here. For a part of one year he studied art in Denver, and for the past year he has been in the Art Institute of Chicago, where he expects to be graduated in June.

His exhibit will include landscapes in oil—mostly rural scenes around Chicago; a number of wall panels, scarfs, coverlets, lamp shades and various pieces of textiles done in batik. Mr. Hunter, himself, will be present and will give demonstrations, showing each step in the textile dying or batik process.

The Progress Club will make a special effort to make this exhibit interesting and invites the people of Clovis to attend.

"VAMPS" WHO MADE HISTORY
By JAMES C. YOUNG.

(© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)
THE WOMAN WHO PLAYED FOR A CROWN.

THE beginning of the Seventeenth century found Henry IV on the throne of France, perhaps its ablest king since Charlemagne. He was devoted to Gabrielle d'Estrees, "baby Gabrielle," and planned to marry her, but her death intervened. Henry was desolate. For three months he locked himself in a black-draped chamber and took counsel with his grief. But this could not last and he was persuaded to return to Paris.

Almost the first person Henry met was Henriette d'Entragues. Henry was vanquished. But Henriette was a thorough vamp. She talked about marriage. Henry demurred. Then her family carried her off from "the wicked king" whom she had ensnared. Henry's passion led him to sign a contract with the family agreeing to wed Henriette if she gave him a male heir in a certain time. Then everybody was happy for a while, all but the Duc de Sully, the king's minister. One day he announced to Henry, "We have been marrying you, sire. Marie de Medici is to be your queen."

Henry vehemently protested, but Sully talked of the advantages in a marriage linking him to the great house of Florence. And Henry relented. He tried by every possible means to get back the marriage contract, which the D'Entragues family would not surrender. Then a child was born to Henriette—dead. The contract was void.

The king married Marie and a contest immediately began between the two women. Henriette, rightly or wrongly, was implicated in a plot against the throne and ordered to prison. "The king may take my life if he pleases and everybody will say that he killed his wife, for I was queen before the Tuscan woman," was the bold declaration of the prisoner.

Henry had her released and their intimacy continued until Henriette's imperious temper made him seek refuge in other quarters. This he found in the soft graces of Charlotte de Montmorency.

Henriette was banished from court, and in her country retreat she turned to strange practices. The woman who had been a perfect type of the vampire sank herself into gluttony and drink. She became fat, displeasing, vulgar. But her heart still barked back to the days when she was almost a queen. Then Henry was assassinated by Ravalliac and suspicion turned to Henriette. But nothing could be found to involve her. Apparently the former beauty cared for nought but feasts and drink.

TEXICO SCHOOL NOTES

Our superintendent, Mr. Rhoton, left last Friday for Albuquerque to attend the State Teacher's Association. During his absence, which will be about a week, we will have our regular lessons in the subjects he teaches. Mr. Mehrens taught our Latin this morning. During his absence Gladys Randol, a sophomore, will stay with Mrs. Rhoton. Mr. Rhoton's time has been very well occupied during this past week as he had to move last Wednesday to another residence in town.

There have been many absences this week on account of illness. We should try to be present as much as possible as it throws us back in our school work.

We began to think a snow storm was coming Friday morning from the way it sleeted. However the basket ball teams are glad that we have not had bad weather before now as they are always ready for practice.

All the pupils above the sixth grade were to have a declamation by December 1st, but they were postponed until after December 1st. Most of the pupils were glad because they would have more time in which to prepare them.

There was no chapel this week because we took up so much time last week in getting ready for the ball game with Ranchvale and our holiday Friday took off one day. We are studying hard now to make up for all our vacation of last week.

A lady nurse came to our school this week as health inspector. She will return some time after December 1st.

The two literary societies, Eagle and Excelsior, rendered two very good programs Friday. We think that the forty-five minutes was well spent today. We take great interest in them and make them as interesting as possible. Every new pupil that comes into school enters the first society that invites him or her. Of course we have a race for the two societies in getting new members.

The noon period has decreased fifteen minutes. Instead of having only forty-five minutes on our first period after noon, we have an hour in which to study or recite.

The Saturday schools that have been spoken of are for the benefit of those who need more time to prepare their work, or for those who are behind and are not making standard grades.

The examinations were put off until Tuesday and Wednesday after Thanksgiving, as Mr. Rhoton is away this week.

The school is always ready for visitors and invites you to come.

GRADY SCHOOL NOTES

We received our Soccer ball last week and the children have been having a fine time playing with it.

We are very glad to see Miss Georgia Reed in school again, after her recovery from typhoid fever.

One of the teachers, Miss Inez Carter, was absent from school Thursday on account of sickness.

The Grady boys and girls played basket ball with Hollene and Ranchvale last Friday and Saturday. The Grady girls won both games, the score with Hollene being 10 to 12; with Ranchvale 32 to 4. The Grady boys were defeated. The score with Hollene was 19 to 30; with Ranchvale 8 to 21.

We wish to thank Mr. Rogers of Hollene for the fairness and impartiality shown to our players in his capacity as referee.

Some of the Grady high school girls served both the basket ball boys and girls with cocoa and cake.

Mr. Fanning and Miss Thomas are attending the teachers' convention at Albuquerque.

Don't forget that everyone is invited to visit our school at all times.

 County Club Leader

The Clubbers Thanksgiving.
 There's a world of things to be thankful for—
 Just a minute to think them o'er—
 But the greatest gift to the clubber
 Is the blessed H's four.

The H for health and hygiene.
 The H for heart and happiness.
 The H for hands and helpfulness.
 And the H for head and home.

'Tis a day of grateful joy.
 And we offer thanks the more;
 That the clubber's special blessing
 Is training the H's four.

Something for the School Lunch.
 Nothing at this time of year goes better than the old fashioned ginger bread. Some of the girl clubbers may have a recipe of their own, but here is one that will win favor:
 1 cup shortening, 1 cup brown sugar, 1 cup molasses, 1 tablespoon ginger, 3 eggs, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 3 1/2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon soda, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon cloves, 1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg, 1 cup sour or buttermilk.

Cream shortening, sugar, molasses and spices until foamy, add salt and eggs well beaten, the flour and soda sifted together, alternating with the mix. Bake in greased pan in moderate oven 45 minutes. To improve in the absence of pastry flour, use 3 cups flour and 1/2 cup corn starch sifted together several times.

For convenience this batter can be baked in muffin tins, and for good looks and "extra nice" a marshmallow placed on top of each just before removing from the oven (leave long enough to melt and brown a little) make the lunch extra appetizing.

There are four essentials in the care of a brood sow during winter: shelter, feed, exercise and sanitation. One is just as important as the other, but here in Curry County there is a great need for better shelter. It need not be expensive but it must be such a shelter as will give warmth, dryness, light and ventilation without drafts. See to it that your sow is protected from these cold winds and that she has both feed and water both night and morning.

WEST CHAPEL SAYINGS

Little Velma, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Chapman, passed away Sunday morning. She had diphtheria and was sick about a week.

Her little place is vacant,
 Her little voice is still;
 Her little place is vacant,
 Which never can be filled.
 Our hearts are sad to lose her,
 But our loss is Heaven's gain,
 For she has gone to Heaven
 And there she will remain
 Till Christ shall call his children
 On that great Judgment Day,
 And she will be among them—
 So let us wait and pray.

Her little life was dear to us,
 She was so sweet and kind,
 She's gone to live with Jesus now,
 We'll meet her there some time.
 Mother, father, do not weep,
 You would not wish to bring her back
 From that great eternal home
 Some of little Velma's last words were: "Mamma, I want to rest a long, long time."

As our school is dismissed for the week our teachers have gone to spend the week at home.

Mr. Lewis and Mr. Walden took their children to Clovis Monday to have them vaccinated on account of diphtheria.

Rachel O'Neil was out of school on account of an injured arm.

Mr. Mullinax sold his place one day last week. His wife has left for Texas. I'll bet he goes too.

George Rierson and Mr. Bierns killed hogs Monday.

We could not have all of the program Saturday night on account of sickness among some of the players. Peter Pan.

Have you something you don't need? Sell it to some fellow who does need it. A Clovis News Want Ad will make the sale.

"What's in a Name?"

By MILDRED MARSHALL

Facts about your name; its history; meaning; whence it was derived; significance; your lucky day and lucky jewel.

EDNA.

IF THERE was ever a name without home or country antecedents or parentage it seems to be Edna. Etymologists record frankly nothing in the case of Edna. She seems to have just appeared. Something about her is reminiscent of the Norse and we can imagine Valkyries or the daughters of Vikings bearing such a name, but history fails to back up our fancy. It must even then that Edna came in some way from the ever popular masculine Edward. It may, indeed, be a contraction of the feminine form Edwina. Such being the case, Edna's ancestress must have been the famous Frau Ute, mother of Kriemhild, who interpreted her dream and predicted the early death of her bridegroom.

She is the original source of Edwin and from her came Aude, a female Viking, one of the first Icelandic settlers who was later known as Alda.

There were three famous Aldas; one the wife of Orlando the Paladin; one a queen of Italy 1221, and another a lady of the house of Este in 1243.

The masculine forms, Edwin, Edward, Edgar and Edmund, were flourishing in England, especially among royalty, and the name of Edward, the greatest of the Plantagenets, was carried by his granddaughter to Portugal where its honor was well sustained by her noble son.

Edna's nobleman son is rightfully, then, the royal ruby, which gives power and courage and invincibility to its bearer. It is the kind of name and one who wears it is assured finely qualities, as the old legend goes. Monday is Edna's lucky day, 7 her lucky number, and the peony is her flower.

"A new reformer has come to town."

"What's he up to?" asked the bilious-looking citizen.

"He's going to start a 'crusade' against 'home brew' parties."

"Well, if he'll just get in touch with a few people on the morning after they've attended a 'home brew' party he'll make some converts. It's been my experience that they'll sign anything then."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

YESTERDAY.

NOW where, you ask, is Yesterday? I hold it safely stored away Deep in my heart, to keep for aye.

It thrills with fondest memory Of things of Joy life's given me, And promise holds of things to be.

Its pains and tears it holds, and yet There's Joy my soul can never forget Even in its moments of regret.

Tomorrow may be full of lure, But be it safe or insecure, The Joys of Yesterday are sure. (Copyright.)

The Wonders of America

By T. T. MAXEY

MESA VERDE NATIONAL PARK.

IN 1888 there was discovered in Montezuma county, southwestern Colorado, the greatest prehistoric ruins in this country. A thorough examination of the canyon of the Mancos river disclosed the fact that it contained extensive examples of the mysterious remains of an extinct race. Uncle Sam decided to preserve and set aside nearly 50,000 acres as a national park—Mesa (Spanish for high tableland) and Verda (meaning green, from the cedar trees).

Many narrow canyons with high, sheer walls open into the valley. In their sides are many of the best-preserved specimens of cliff dwellings known. A large human population lived in these cave-huts on the sides of these sandstone cliffs. They believed that they were dependent upon the gods to make the rainfall so their crops would grow and worshiped the sun as the father of all and the earth as the mother who brought all material blessings. Apparently they possessed no written language and recorded their thoughts only by means of symbols.

Chief Palace, the largest dwelling—a community house—had over 200 dwelling rooms, in addition to many sacred rooms called kivas. Sun Temple, a mysterious ruin, shaped like a letter D, is over 120 feet long and 64 feet wide.

As the population of this community increased the floor of the caves was covered with rooms, and finally they emerged from the caves altogether and builded pueblos on top of the mesas in the open country.

A visit to these ruins is much like going back into another world.

According to a scientist, salmon, pike and goldfish are the only fish that never sleep. How about the porker shark?

HAVENER SCHOOL PASSES RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Resolutions of condolence and respect passed by the teachers and pupils of Havener school Nov. 22, 1921.

Whereas, death has come so suddenly and unexpectedly and taken from our midst a dear schoolmate and member of our Sunday school in the person of Leland Hurley, who but a short time ago was apparently in no danger and was up the most of the time, but a change took place on the evening of his death, which was on the 19th, inst. From then on his case became more critical until Sunday morning when he passed away at 7:30.

Therefore, be it resolved by the Havener school assembled, that we, as a school, remember him for his kindness and exemplary habits and shall always miss his pleasant face and cheerful countenance.

Resolved, that we extend our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved father, mother, sisters and brothers of the deceased and commend them to God, the source of all comfort.

We realize that our earthly life is but a preparation for the life beyond. So while we mourn his loss we can look forward through faith to those days in the near future when we shall all be re-united.

Be it further resolved, that these resolutions be sent to the Clovis News for publication and that a copy of the paper be sent to the bereaved parents.

Dear Leland

"We long shall miss thee as we go on our way.

The home will miss thee from its broken band.

Full many a tear will tell thy sober praise,

And all good works will miss thy helping hand.

"And yet, goodbye, thou faithful soul,

From toil and trouble thou hast earned release,

Thy weary feet are resting at the goal,

The pain of living ended in God's peace.

"The strife is over, the battle done, The victory of life is won,

The song of triumph has begun."

Respectfully submitted,

WARM WEATHER DISHES.

As the warm days approach the appetite craves cooling vegetables and frozen desserts with less of meat and pastry. Many desserts and salads may be prepared sometime before they are needed, thus making the meal at serving time easier to serve. The simpler and less expensive desserts appeal to the housewife who has all her own work to do and during the hot weather she is wise to make her work as light as possible. Gelatine desserts and such combinations are all right for occasions, but they are not liked too often.

Maple Pudding.—Mix together a cupful and a quarter of maple syrup, a tablespoonful of sugar, four beaten egg yolks and cook in a double boiler until smooth. Soak two tablespoonfuls of gelatin in two tablespoonfuls of water, add to the cooked mixture; when cool stir in the stiffly beaten whites of the eggs and a pint of whipped cream. Put into a mold and cook in ice and salt to harden.

Orange Sherbet.—Take one egg one quart of milk, one pint of cream, the juice and grated rind of three oranges, the juice and rind of one lemon and two and one half cupfuls of sugar. Beat the egg and add to the milk, cook until the egg is cooked, cool, add to the cream. Dissolve the sugar in the fruit juice and add to the other mixture. Freeze as usual.

Raspberry Whip.—Crush a cupful of raspberries, add a cupful of sugar and beat into the mixture two egg whites, whipping until the mixture is stiff enough to stand up. Serve in sherbet cups with whole berries on top.

Broiled Mushrooms.—Select large, even-sized mushrooms, peel the caps, remove the stems and put the caps gill side up in the broiler with a bit of butter in each. Cook until well done. Serve the stems chopped, cooked in butter and with a few tablespoonfuls of cream added.

"VAMPS" WHO MADE HISTORY
By JAMES C. YOUNG.

(© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)
FROM INN SERVANT TO EMPRESS.

EARLY in the Eighteenth century the Russians captured Marienburg, East Prussia. A squad of drunken soldiers rifled one of the principal inns. In their search for valuables they opened the oven door of the inn's huge stove, made of porcelain, and brought forth two frightened girls. One of them was Catherine, a servant, and the other Marie, who was staying with her.

Both girls were bewitchingly pretty. The soldiers fell to fighting over their possession, when the commander of the invading forces passed the inn. He heard the row, stopped, and commanded order. Catherine saw her chance. She leaned out of the window and gave the general one of her sweetest smiles. He and another officer carried the two girls away.

Soon afterward Prince Menshikov, favorite of the czar, and one of the most powerful men in Russia, came to inspect the army. He saw Catherine and took her away from the general.

Catherine soon had Menshikov under her full control. Then came the czar himself, Peter the Great, absolute master of the empire. He also saw Catherine and claimed her. She was a vampire who always succeeded.

But Catherine was something more than merely a beautiful woman. Her judgment and instinct soon made her Peter's most trusted adviser. He used to meet his ministers at a little house in Moscow where she was placed, and weigh decisions with Catherine's help. At last her domination over Peter became so complete that he married the former inn servant and had her crowned Czarina. Catherine's elevation by no means checked her vampire instincts. She was famous for her infidelities. William Mons, her court chamberlain, was tried on a trumped up charge and hung, really for a much more serious offense. Peter forced Catherine to walk past the place of execution, and crowded her so close to the gallows that she brushed her former lover, hanging there. But she never flinched. Afterward Peter had the man's head sent to her room in a bottle of alcohol.

That incident was typical of the half-mad Peter, who also was something of a genius, and of the period in which Catherine reigned. After Peter's death she ruled alone, the mistress of a court where revels lasted a week at a time, and a man's drinking capacity sometimes won a ministry for him.

The Wonders of America
By T. T. MAXEY

ESTES-ROCKY MOUNTAIN NATIONAL PARK.

MANY years ago three Englishmen hunted big game in the Rocky mountains. They had hunted in Asia, Africa and South America, but as they stood on the continental divide in north-central Colorado and looked down into Estes park it seemed to them a very paradise on earth. One of Colorado's most satisfying outing places ever since that time Uncle Sam, in 1915, proclaimed part of Estes and the territory immediately to the west a national park.

Only 70 miles from Denver, it is the most accessible to the largest number of people of any of our great national playgrounds. Here, at an average elevation of 7,500 feet above sea level, is a pine-scented, snow-capped pleasure-land—a perfectly delightful refuge of peaceful grandeur, where one may be out every day from May to October in clear, bracing air, beneath a bright but scorchless sun and enjoy every night the cool, refreshing sleep that only the mountains can induce.

Long's Peak stands sentinel over the park, in which are lakes on which float ice cakes in August; masses of snow (glaciers) a mile long and hundreds of feet thick, supposed to be older than the pyramids of Egypt, always exposed to the sun, far away from their starting point, yet slower than a snail; moraines—great ridges formed by glaciers which moved through the park centuries ago; rock-walled canyons; magnificent forests of pine and aspen; numerous mountain-trout streams; broad valleys, carpeted with luxuriant wild flowers of many varieties, including the delicate columbine—the state flower of Colorado.

When you suffer from backache, Headaches, dizziness, nervousness, Feel weak, languid, depressed, Have annoying urinary disorders; Do you know what to do? Some Clovis people do. Read the statement that follows. It's from a Clovis citizen.

Testimony that can be investigated. Mrs. Arthur Andrews, 510 N. Gidding St. says: "My advice to any one suffering from disordered kidneys is to try Doan's Kidney Pills, for they certainly are fine. Several years ago I took them for weakness in my back and other symptoms of kidney complaint. They certainly did all that was claimed for them and soon removed the annoyance. Doan's Kidney Pills are fine and I can conscientiously endorse them."
