BANK RUNS.

When a bank announces that it is going into liquidation it is in a dangerous position. In nearly every instance it has led to the failure of the bank. Several of the strongest banks in Philadelphia were wrecked by their officials trying to boss political affairs. To hold political power these bank officials were compelled to spend money lavishly. This excited a suspicion of the depositors, and a run on the bank was the result in each case.

EXCELLENT APPOINTMENT.

Yesterday the board of commissioners of this county appointed George F. Albright assessor, to fill the vacancy created in the office by the division of the county. Mr. Albright filed his bond and took peaceful possession of the office. His appointment is an excellent one. The people of this city have demanded a competent man for this office for some time, and Mr. Albright fills all the qualifications required. Hereafter there will be better and more equal assessments in this county.

W. S. BURKE.

The flopping corporation organ is now editorially controlled by a hump-backed old hypocrite, who never in his life was true to any principle, or to any friend. He has acted the sneak against every man who has tried to be his friend. He brought about the retirement of Geo. F. Albright from the Democrat from the simple desire to injure a man who had befriended him. He is now trying to agitate a race war in this county from pure laborer enmity. He has devoted his whole life to vilifying some one at the dictation of a boss. He has no political influence, and in forty years has never called his soul his own. The quicker the corporation organ gets rid of this remarkable old political shyster the better it will be for the sheet. As a newspaper wrecker Burke has a reputation.

AN OLD GOSSIP.

A snaggled toothed old gossip named Mary Ellis Howe, alleged to be hailing from Detroit, Michigan, has straddled the Democrat's forum and in a column of twaddle retails the kitchen gossip of a boarding house landlady of this city. Poor old Mary Ellis Howe is unknown to the editor of this paper, but we feel it incumbent upon us to assure her, from information received, that her ugliness will protect her from the bad men of this city.

Poor old Mary Ellis Howe has stuck her shriveled nose into a controversy that does not concern her in the least. She says she is a transient visitor, stopping at one of the lodging houses of the town. She appears to want notoriety and her wish will be accommodated.

WILL EQUALIZE TAXES.

If properly equalized the taxes of the people of this city would be about two per cent on the actual valuation of property. As it has been in the past, the rich corporations, like the Albuquerque Water Supply company, have dodged equal taxation. The poor people of the city in addition to paying high water rates have helped pay the taxes of the rich concerns. This is to be all changed. The new law relating to the equalization of taxes is the best measure ever passed by a New Mexico legislature. There is no loop hole left for the rich tax dodger to escape paying his share of taxation. The territorial board of equalization is clothed with authority to go into every county and equalize the tax returns of the same. The traveling auditor is also clothed with authority to bring about equal assessment of property for taxation. In a short time it will be impossible for anyone to hold several hundred lots in the best parts of this city for speculative purposes, and turn them in for taxable purposes at $10 each.

The day of the rich tax dodger in New Mexico is almost over.

OUR JOSHUA.

In olden times there was a Joshua who, it is asserted, commanded the sun to stand still while he settled a rough house disturbance with the heathen who were trying to knock him out of the job of bossing the several wards of Jerusalem and the adjacent precincts in that vicinity. The chronicler of that event asserts that both the sun and moon stopped while Joshua was carving his enemies. This has been a mooted question for centuries, but there is no doubt that Joshua carried the cause and remained political boss of Jerusalem till he waxed old and was called to his fathers.

In imitation and emulation of his distinguished namesake, one Joshua, of Las Vegas, a successful money changer, conceived the notion the other day that he would do something more than clip coupons and calculate interest, and at once became the Joshua of Albuquerque and smite his enemies. He was actuated to this heroic notion from the nodd fact that the tax collector of this county had removed the funds of the county to another bank. Joshua was so mad that he advised the people to quit paying taxes. In this way he thought he would diminish the cash that was flowing in to the coffers of a hated rival. He also advised that the republican leaders of this county should be at once wiped out of political existence. He called an indignation meeting and hired Marron and Field to arouse the people and throw off their chains. It was on the program to have the address of Sparacus delivered on that occasion, but the small boy who was to recite the stirring lines and wave a flag, took the stomach ache, and could not appear. The meeting was a complete fiasco, and Joshua's movement is dead, and the few dupes who followed his advice are wondering where they are at, and his bank is busily engaged explaining to excited depositors that their money is not to be squandered by Joshua in political schemes.

TREASURY DECISION.

When the legislature convened Senator W. H. Andrews was requested to go to Washington and work for the admission of the territory. The secretary of the territory declined to pay Mr. Andrews the $4 per day of a congressman while he was absent. The matter was referred to the treasury department at Washington and a decision was rendered in favor of Mr. Andrews.

A special dispatch from Washington falsely says that Senator Andrews asked to pay for his expenses while in the national capital. He asked nothing for his expenses while working for the admission of the territory.

ELECTRICITY VS. STEAM.

The number of passengers carried on American steam railroads is less today by over 12,000,000 than it was seven years ago.

Four times as many passengers were carried by trolley roads as by steam roads in Massachusetts in 1902.

In Connecticut the trolley lines carry 20 per cent more passengers than the steam lines.

On many interurban lines trolley speed approaches steam speed. On the Buffalo and Lockport trolley road fifty miles an hour is the pace over some sections of it.

The General Electric company has prepared estimates for machinery to develop a trolley speed of seventy-five miles an hour.

At that rate an electric train would go from New York to San Francisco in less than two days.

KEEP A CHEERFUL MIND.

To be cheerful when the world is going well with you is no great virtue. The thing is to be cheerful under disadvantageous circumstances. If one has no money, if business prospects fail, if there is sickness of self or those dear to one, then is it indeed a virtue to be cheerful. When poverty plagues day after day, month after month or through the years as they pass, and one has ever to deny self of every little longed-for luxury, and the puzzle of how to make one dollar do the work for two has to be solved, then the man who can still be cheerful is a hero. He is a greater hero than the soldier who faces the cannon's mouth. Such cheerfulness is the kind that we need to cultivate.

To acquire this self-command, we need to think of many things. We need to guard against giving way to irritation about little things. If we can maintain self-control in small matters, we shall have less difficulty in maintaining it when great matters are to be met. If we meet with irreparable losses we must readjust our lives to fit the new conditions. There is no great evil so bad but that it might have been worse. There is truth in the saying that "every cloud has a silver lining." Though it may for a time look so dark we can see no glint of the silver, yet we know it is there.

STUPENDOUS TASK.

Secretary of War Root has embarked in a new work. It is generous, patriotic work. By his direction the war department has begun the compiling and publishing of a complete roster of the officers and enlisted men of the union and confederate armies. This is the secretary's own project, and he succeeded in impressing congress with the idea that it would be only just and fair to the south to place on the official lists the names of the confederate soldiers, in order that their descendants may trace their family history with accuracy.

The publication will be enormous in size, including no less than thirty volumes as large as the rebellion records. One northern names will be published with the southern because it is desired to have all of these data in one compilation instead of being scattered through various state books. Moreover it is felt to be a graceful thing to bracket the names of the men who wore the blue and the gray. In order to carry out this purpose Secretary Root has asked the governors of the states which furnished confederate soldiers to transmit to him authentic records in order that the lists may be accurate.

The Rio Grande Raging.

The Rio Grande is on the rampage and farmers are gleeful over the abundance of water flowing into irrigation ditches. There is more water in the river this spring than for many years previous. But it is not unexpected. The mountains of Colorado and northern New Mexico are teeming with snow deposited by the numerous heavy storms of the winter. Since the storms have prevailed during the winter the farmers and ranchers have gone at their spring work expectant of a bountiful harvest. The prospects at present are very flattering.

The snow is now beginning to go off and the water is coming down. Old timers say that the river has not yet reached its fullness as it is still early. If such is the case there will be something doing in the valley during the month of April when the sun comes out warm.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

There will be no boycotts in Albuquerque.

This city can now expand and annex contiguous territory.

President Roosevelt will be royally entertained when he visits this city on May 5.

The Gallup Republican has greatly improved under the new management of Messrs. Pease & Morgan.

The public schools and educational institutions of New Mexico were well taken care of by the legislative assembly.

The Citizen will begin next week the publication of certain tax returns, with probably a few odious comparisons.

Senator W. H. Andrews left last night for Pennsylvania, where he goes in the interest of his railroad enterprises.

There will be no election of any sort in this city this year, and the discussion of politics will be set aside by business interests.

George F. Albright made a good record in the legislative council, and worked and voted for every measure beneficial to this city.

The governor has proclaimed April 3 as Arbor Day. No one throughout the Rio Grande valley should forget to plant a few trees on that day.

One of the best working members of the late legislature was Maj. W. H. H. Llewellyn. He proved to be a good friend of Albuquerque at all times.

The territorial tax rate will be slightly increased during the ensuing two years. This increase is caused by the $30,000 appropriation to the St. Louis fair.

Progress is the county seat of the new county of Torrance. The village is on the line of the Santa Fe Central railroad, and is the home of Col. J. Franco Chavez.

The territorial university was well taken care of by the legislative delegation from this county. The sum of $20,000 was appropriated for the building of a dormitory.

Alex. Bowler worked hard for McKinley county, and finally secured an appropriation for a hospital at Gallup. This city was befriended upon all occasions by Mr. Bowler.

The republicans of this town and county will vigorously oppose being bossed by a non-resident money lender, who is only noted in this section for his ability as a tax dodger.

Luna county had a faithful and active representative at Santa Fe this winter in Mr. Pollard. He won the good opinion of everybody by his gentlemanly and straight forward course.

Nestor Montoya won golden opinions as speaker of the house of representatives of all the members.

The Citizen has received Vol. 1, No. 1, of the Deming Graphic, published at Deming by N. S. Rose, formerly of the Cerrillos Register. It is an eight-page, weekly, and The Citizen hopes success for the enterprise.

For sometime, a scheme has been hatching to dispose of the rotten Water Supply company's works to the city. This paper is opposed to such a proposition, and will fight the corporation sheet's scheme to the bitter end.

The people of this city are hereby notified that the corporation sheet (the Journal-Democrat), is trying to unload its rotten water works on to the city. The Citizen opposes such a scheme, and will fight the idea from start to finish.

There are certain people who cry out against being bossed, but if you happen to go against their way of thinking they get excited because they cannot boss you, and actually convince themselves that they have been abused.

The New Mexican will continue under the able management of Col. Max Frost. He deserves the best of treatment at the hands of the republicans of this territory, and it is hoped that he will be retained as secretary of the bureau of immigration.

R. M. Turner certainly deserves the solid appreciation of the people of this territory. His duties were arduous, but he served his country well. He secured increased appropriations for the normal school and other needs of his county, and made a good record in the house.

Governor Otero has given convincing proof of his rare executive ability and devotion to the best interests of the people of this territory. Upon every occasion during the legislative session he rose to the situation and stood for economy in territorial expenses.

Hon. W. A. Hawkins, member of the legislative council from Otero county, will be given a banquet this evening at Alamogordo by the people of that city. The railroad employees of that place sent him a telegram thanking him for his excellent work in the legislature.

Carl Dalles, the energetic representative of Valencia county, deserves special credit for his active work in favor of the territorial university. He was chairman of the committee on finance of the house, and but for his efforts the university would not have received an increase of appropriations.

Mariano Armijo, "the ready affidavit man," has another card in this morning's corporation sheet—the Journal-Democrat, the great newspaper flopper. The people, likewise the proprietors and editors of The Citizen, know Mariano. He was the man sent to Santa Fe, upon a certain occasion a few years ago, with school board money to officiate as lobbyist at the legislature. The school board was worked in a fine manner.

O. N. Marron has fastened himself on the territorial fair long enough. He uses the funds solicited from the people to pay himself a salary and to give fat positions to his cronies. Kick him out at once.

The knockers and kickers in this town are few in number and infinitesimal in influence.

The Quay County Democrat succeeds the Pathfinder at Tucumcari. James Newton, a good printer, has leased the plant and will issue a live local county paper.

Our Joshua's scheme to have Miera pack the judges at the special election in April was knocked out in the first round at Santa Fe. This is why Joshua suddenly became a reformer.

The Citizen prefers to help build up everybody in this city, but if it really becomes necessary to take a summer's job of ripping up things, it will be entered upon with energy and dispatch.

Will Joshua give us consent to Mr. Miera to publish that letter of his about how to carry an election by packing the judges? It would make interesting reading just now.

Because he could not control the editorial policy of The Citizen, O. N. Marron, with a flourish of trumpets, stopped taking the paper. This is the usual manner of the small boss on such occasions.

The republicans of this city and county are not in the least excited over the flop of the corporation sheet. It changed to republican a few years ago simply to try to evade taxation and secure political patronage.

While a few excited citizens of Albuquerque were snoring around last week abusing Frank A. Hubbell, that gentleman was at Santa Fe doing everything in his power to secure an additional appropriation for the territorial university.

Poor old Mary Ellis Howe says that the business men of Albuquerque know Hughes. They surely do. For twenty-two years Hughes has worked for the best business interests of Albuquerque, and all bills against Hughes are paid on presentation.

The Springer Stockman, a democratic paper, has conceived the notion that there is a terrible political row going on in this city. Nothing of the kind, neighbor. The biennial political flop of the Democrat has occurred, and the usual small comment has followed.

A little gang of snarling hyenas in this town have been barking at our heels for several days, until it has grown monotonous. Therefore, we have concluded it is somewhat of a duty to wipe them up, and we are going to do the job to the very best of our ability.

The manager of the corporation sheet recently, it is said, stated that his enterprises in this city had escaped paying four thousand dollars a year by his paper pretending to be republican. This matter should be promptly investigated. Of course, it will be impossible to collect this back tax, but the matter can now be looked into, and the tax dodging concerns put upon the tax lists at the right value.

The malicious, vicious and vindictive policy of the Democrat is doing that paper great harm. Its owner, the late A. A. Grant, prohibited such a course for his newspaper, and the veritable nephew who has charge of the sheet is disobeying the positive orders of his benefactor.

Upon reaching home from Santa Fe we found that O. N. Marron and ten other subscribers had withdrawn their subscriptions from The Citizen. Marron was always small—most contemptibly little—but he is growing smaller at both ends each year. Politically he has become a microbe.

Eleven thousand tourists visited southern California during the past five weeks.

The good government league is requested to look after the water supply taxes at once.

The Grand Army of the Republic will help entertain President Roosevelt when he visits this city on May 5.

Congress has appropriated $10,000 for the survey of private land claims in the western states and territories.

A good government league in this city can accomplish much good in securing the equalizing of taxes and in the enforcement of the laws.

Great Britain wants nearly $200,000,000 this year for warships in order to maintain her place at the head of the nations in naval strength.

Congress has appropriated $20,500 for the re-survey of the boundary line between the state of Colorado and the territories of New Mexico and Oklahoma.

On the 24th of February last just a hundred years had expired since the first sidewalks, as we know them, were built in Paris, the first city in the world that had them.

Attorney General Knox holds that railroad "mergers" are entirely legitimate. The public is glad to hear it, in view of the fact that the railroads were going to merge anyhow.

The court of private land claims has about the easiest job in the United States. The court has completed its labors, but the recent congress extended the term of office of the judges.

Spain is divided for educational purposes into ten districts, each with a university, viz.: Madrid, Barcelona, Valencia, Seville, Granada, Valladolid, Santiago, Saragossa, Salamanca and Oviedo.

The rumor that a New York lawyer is to get $2,000,000 for fixing up the Panama canal deal will probably be the cause for a good many young men starving to death trying to practice law.

Hon. W. R. Hearst is coming to New Mexico this summer with a party of friends, and he intends to thoroughly post himself on the resources of the territory. He will lead the democratic forces in congress next winter in favor of statehood. Mr. Hearst will be cordially received by the people of the

OF HORSE INTEREST.

Washington Jockey Club Preparing for a Big Opening Next Monday.

Washington, March 21.—All the indications are that the spring meeting of the Washington Jockey club, which opens at Benning race course Monday, will be the largest meet in the history of that popular track. There are over 400 well known horses now stabled at the track. The city is rapidly filling up with the "sporty boys" who follow the ponies, and the stewards are counting on the best meeting the club has ever experienced.

Racing interest throughout the country is centered on the Benning meet because many of the horses are fresh from a winter's rest, and this will be the first opportunity they will have to show their form for the coming season.

For the past week the owners, trainers and the "tipsters" have been busy at the track slapping up the sprinters in the practice work. The track is in splendid condition and some of the flyers have been working over the course in exceedingly fast time.

The stables now at the track include that of W. P. Burch, who has the lot of F. R. Hitchcock, among them Grey Friar, Sergeant and Castilian. William Garth has a stable of fifteen, including Imperialist, Jack Dick, Concertina, and Dusky Secret. The Columbia stable has a half dozen fast ones, of which Jockey, Gloriosa, and Red Damsel are the stars. Gwynn Tompkins has Douro, Flaccus, Gum Honey, Orion, Walter Cleary and a number of others. J. J. Mackessey has Cursey and All Souls. Charles Ray has Auto, Miss Lobster and Hackensack. Alie Gates has the horses of G. W. Cook, including Cronas, Merrimont, Jerry and Mango. Trainer Sykes has Tom Gallant, the great steeplechaser, and Trainer Baldwin has Circuit, the Montgomery handicap winner of 1902.

The value of brains and education when applied to farming is growing more apparent year by year. Time was when it was thought that anybody could farm and the man who was fit for nothing else was considered good material out of which to make a farmer. The business was regarded as wholly beneath the attention of the educated man except as a pleasure or pastime.

The cost of the anthracite coal miners' strike is estimated to be as follows: To the mine owners, $45,100,000; to the mine employees in wages, $25,000,000; to the transportation companies, $25,000,000—a total of nearly $100,000,000. This is an enormous loss. But the loss to the public in general—who were, in fact, the principal sufferers, as is always the case—was vastly greater.

AZTEC RELICS.

Direct from Ruins to the World's Fair Grounds.

"By a business arrangement which we have just concluded, visitors to the world's fair at St. Louis will be furnished with Aztec relics and Navajo blankets, curios and trinkets, 'fresh every hour,' as they say of certain famous confections—well, not exactly so fresh as that, but almost daily," said Joseph Prewitt, of Aztec, N. M., who is now at the Brown hotel. Mr. Prewitt has lived so long in northern New Mexico that he is regarded as a part of it. He is county clerk and editor of the Aztec Index, and now he is one of the managers of the San Juan Stores company, a corporation just formed to handle the mercantile department of the Hyde Exploring Expedition, which has done such excellent work in the development of American archaeology.

The Hyde brothers, wealthy New Yorkers, grandsons of B. T. Babbitt, the famous soap manufacturer, went down to Farmington, N. M., at the margin of the Navajo Indian reservation, some years ago and commenced making explorations and excavations in the ruins of some old cliff dwellings. They found many objects of great value, many of which are furnished to eastern museums. The explorations will be kept up and the products will be delivered through the San Juan Stores company at the Hyde company's general headquarters at Albuquerque.

From here the archaeological department of New Mexico at the world's fair will be kept supplied and visitors who purchase relics will have the satisfactory knowledge that the Aztec relics, Navajo blankets and relics they purchase are fresh from the places of their discovery or manufacture. R. B. Bouck and Monroe Fields, of Farmington, N. M., are with Mr. Prewitt in this enterprise.—Denver Post.

Killed by a Train.

Lucas Lopez, a Mexican met a horrible death under a Pecos Valley & Northern train last Saturday afternoon. The accident occurred on the bridge over the Hondo river. Lopez was on his way to town, walking on the railroad track and had started to cross the bridge before he was aware of the approach of the train behind him. As soon as the engineer, George Lee, saw the man he whistled repeatedly and tried to stop the train. The train could not be brought to a stop, however, and Lopez, who saw his danger too late, tried to reach the end of the bridge. The train was upon him before he could escape and he was crushed by the engine.

He was taken to Ullery's undertaking establishment and a coroner's jury was duly selected and viewed the remains. The jury adjourned to meet Monday evening in Justice Peacock's office at 10 o'clock.

At the appointed time on Monday morning the coroner's inquest was held. The jury brought in a verdict that the deceased met his death by being run over by an engine on the Pecos Valley railroad. The testimony brought out the fact that Lopez had only one ear, one eye and was weak in the legs. The jury did not place the responsibility for the accident, but it is assumed that it was caused by the negligence of the man himself. Lopez was about 50 years of age and lived with friends southeast of town. It is not known that he had relatives living.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Gov. Brodie, of Arizona, Vetted Bill—Should Vote on Question.

The twenty-second session of the legislature of Arizona closed at midnight, March 19.

Governor Brodie Thursday evening relieved the anxious suspense of two days by sending to the legislature his veto of the bill for granting suffrage to women, giving as his reason that the question should be submitted to a vote of the people.

The governor signed what is known as the Cowan bill, which diverts into the territorial treasury fees from filing articles of incorporation of companies doing business outside of Arizona. In the last year or two this business has grown until the territorial secretary who by law retained the fees was popularly supposed to receive as much salary as the president of the United States.

A bill for a bullion tax was vetoed Thursday and the bill providing for a stringent examination before a medical board before practicing in Arizona, passed and was signed by the governor. The chief feature of general interest is that it prohibits the treatment of disease by Christian science or osteopathy.

Bills were also passed and signed, exempting from taxation for the following years storage reservoirs, railroads and beet sugar factories, yet to be constructed.

Accidentally Shot.

Roy Gumm was shot in the leg, last Wednesday. The ball struck just below the knee, ranged downward, glancing the bone, and was cut out on back, making a wound some three or four inches.

The circumstances were these: Roy, John and Elmer Gumm and Lloyd Hubbert were en route to the San Andres to prospect what is supposed to be an amethyst mine, discovered by them two or three years ago. John and Roy were walking near the wagon shooting rabbits, they became separated and lost sight of each other in the excitement of the sport, and Roy suddenly realizing that he was in the range of his brother's rifle, made an effort to get away, but was caught by a stray bullet which had killed a rabbit and had ploughed up the earth for some distance before striking him.

The wound is rapidly healing under the treatment of Dr. Padon and were will be no lasting injuries.—White Oaks Eagle.

Helped by Brother.

William J. Bryan spent his birthday, Friday last, serving on a jury in the district court at Lincoln, Neb.

Dumped into Chicago Canal the Bacilli That Floated Down to St. Louis.

Edward Ravold, a former cowboy and mining engineer of Arizona, and a brother of Bacteriologist Dr. Amand Ravold, was the man who, unaided, dumped 107 barrels of imported bacilli prodigious into the Chicago drainage canal on the night of November 6, 1901, and thereby aided his scientific brother to establish the fact that the germs floated down to St. Louis, says a dispatch from St. Louis.

Hanging Does Not Worry Telles.

There are seven prisoners in the county jail at Santa Fe. Jose Telles, under sentence to hang on April 3 for the murder of Epitacio Gallegos is one of these. Telles does not seem to worry much over his impending fate. He eats heartily, sleeps soundly and when not thus occupied amuses himself by singing and playing the harp. Alpheus Hampe, who is indicted for the same crime has recovered from his wounds.

After Dr. Ravold had imported and "propagated" the bacilli he was at a loss to secure somebody to dump them into the drainage canal and carry out his plan. Almost upon the point of giving up the project he thought of his cowboy brother and sent for him.

For a compensation of $125, the brother consented to perform the deed. The barrels were loaded onto two flat cars and transported to Lamont, Ill. Meanwhile the cowboy had already gone to Lamont and became acquainted with the situation. When the barrels arrived he, alone and unaided, rolled the entire 107 barrels to the drainage canal, opened the bung holes and poured the squirming contents in to the channel. He worked quietly all night and the watchman found the empty barrels along the canal bank the next morning. Ravold then returned to St. Louis and has since been located there.

The facts in the matter have been kept a dark secret until after Dr. Ravold's testimony before the drainage canal commission recently and Dr. Ravold finally consented to relate the details.

Curly Carroll Caught.

Sheriff Owen arrived here Monday with Curly Carroll, the slayer of Juan Barreras, says the White Oaks Eagle. The circumstances of this killing are well known to Eagle readers. Barreras was enamored of a certain dusky senorita, and Carroll, Carroll refused to open; Barreras with drawn dagger in hand kicked in the door, his weapon flashing in the moonlight as he entered. Carroll sent a leaden messenger from a 45-caliber six-shooter tearing through his heart. Barreras kicked the bucket. Carroll and his company went out into the night and were swallowed up.

Barreras' blood which ran ten feet from the door out of the cabin where he died, stood in a pool, soaking into the earth, and discovered him to his friends. The widow came up from El Paso and with relatives buried Barreras. Carroll traveled for a year, and finally wound up in the officers' hands at Tucumcari, N. M., last week. He is now the prisoner of Sheriff Owen en route to Socorro, where he seeks the privileges of the haba corpus.

Seeing a Respite for Telles.

A movement has been on foot for several days, in which Mrs. Gallegos, widow of Epitacio Gallegos has been interested, to secure from Governor Otero a respite for Jose Telles, under sentence to be hanged on April 3, in order that he may testify at the trial of Hampe, indicted for the same murder. The matter has not been presented to Governor Otero. He has a standing rule never to interfere in the date set for an execution except on the request of the trial judge, and Judge McFie has made no such request

BASE BALL NOTES.

The Detroit fans don't like the nickname of "Tigers," and wish it changed to "Wolverines."

Brooklyn has ordered Catcher "Jim" McGuire to report for 1903, under the contract he broke to play in Detroit.

Pitcher Joe Corbett, who will play with the Chicago National league team here next Monday afternoon is said to be receiving $5,000 a year.

The Colorado Springs Western league team will commence the season far in advance of the team that represented that city two years ago.

Chicago Nationals have found that the wet weather on the coast makes more sore arms and less than in Chicago. The dampness seems to stick.

Walter Preston, who last year occupied the center garden of the Denver Western league team, has been released, and goes to help strengthen the Colorado Springs team.

Arthur Cavanagh, one of the best ball players in the southwest, will play with the Browns this season should they complete an organization. His position is first base, but can be used in any other position.

Fred Rayner, the popular base ball player, paid this office a pleasant call this morning. Fred is en route from the coast to Columbus, Ohio, where he will play an infield position with the team representing that city in the American association.

Bert Jones, who played ball and was in the cigar business in this city, has again signed with Colorado Springs. Great things are expected of him by the management, and he will likely deliver the goods. It is in him to do so. Of all the pitchers who have played in this city, none has done work that equalled that of "Lefty."

If George Davis joins the New York National league team for practice, Colonel Pulliam will make public a formal statement as to the stand the league will take in the matter. There is no hope that Davis will be allowed to play unless he goes about the task of securing his release from Chicago, as required by base ball law.

The following players of the Denver Western league team had reported up to Monday: Delahanty, Webster, Barber, Walbridge, Hartzell, Unithink, Fettes, Schlie, Latimer, McCausland, Lempe, Mohler, Radcliffe, McHale, Frisk, Painter and Jones. Those yet to report are Eyer, McCloskey, Dundon and Carrish. This makes a list of twenty-one players, which will probably be added to, as Jergenson, Quersich and two others have been offered chances to try out with the boys and demonstrate their ability to "make good."

NEW YORK GIANTS.

Most Wonderful Aggregation of Ball Players.

Base ball players and fans throughout the country have been keeping a close eye on New York, the latest addition to the American league circuit. This team will begin the season with the greatest number of players new to the league. There will be ten men out of the eighteen under the charge of Manager Griffith that have never before worn an American league uniform. Of course eight of these are old National leaguers, and it is from these men the American league expects the strength of the new club. The men new to the organization in the New York club are: O'Connor, Beville, J. Tannehill, Chesbro, Wolf, Ganzel, Long, "Lefty" Davis, Keeler and Courtney. The pitching end of the new club in the American league will be strong, and the men handling the big mit have reputations that will stand service. The batting of the infield ought to be above the average and that will hold true in regard to the outfield, providing Keeler is held. Looking at the infield, which is the mainstay of every pitcher—and both Griffith and Chesbro are men who depend largely on their backing in a hard game—there is much talent and ability, but whether it can be welded together into a unit in the work to be accomplished is hard to surmise. John Ganzel, who has always been good at fielding, but whose stick work and base running are not above criticism, will hold down first base. "Jimmy" Williams, who played with the Albuquerque during the fair, and was here with the all-stars will be at the second bag. Williams is a good man with the stick and batted over 200 last season with the Baltimore club, but he is known as an individual hitter, who can hit hard when there is no one on base, but is not to be relied upon to bring home a man on second. His natural position and the one he likes best is third. Herman Long, of the Boston Nationals, is slated for shortstop. Conroy, once a member of Connie Mack's Milwaukee aggregation in the American league, will take care of the third bag. By switching the infield of the club about the team could undoubtedly be strengthened, putting Ganzel on first, Long on second, Conroy on short and Williams on third. When the ability of Beville behind the bat, Adkins and Wolf in the pitchers' box and Courtney as an outfielder are thoroughly known the relative strength of the newest acquisition to Ben Johnson's organization compared with the seven other clubs can be estimated. The New York grounds will be between One Hundred and Sixty-fifth and One Hundred and Sixty-eighth streets, Eleventh avenue and Fort Washington avenue. The president of the New York league team will be Joe Jordan, a builder and coal and wood dealer, a member of Tammany hall and of the New York Athletic club. Associated with him will be John B. Day, the old base ball man, once president of the New York league club. The grounds are the largest in the country, averaging 780x820 yards. There will be a seating capacity of 18,000 spectators. The property belongs to the New York Institute for the Blind and has been leased by the American league club for ten years.

ORIGINAL RULES.

The Game of Base Ball as Played Fifty Years Ago.

The Knickerbocker club of New York was the first one organized to play the now national game of base ball and was the one from which the succeeding clubs derived their rules of playing. The organization bears date September 23, 1845, when playing rules were adopted, which are given below, and present a curious contrast to those now in vogue:

First—The bases shall be from home to second base, forty-two paces; from first to third base, forty-two paces, equidistant.

The game to consist of twenty-one counts, or aces; but at the conclusion an equal number of hands must be played.

Third—The ball must be pitched and not thrown, for the bat.

Fourth—A ball knocked out the field, or outside the range of the first of third base, is foul.

Fifth—Three balls being struck at and missed, and the last one caught, is a hand out; if not caught is considered fair, and the striker is bound to run.

Sixth—If a ball be struck, or tipped, and caught, either flying or on the first bound, it is a hand out.

Seventh—A player running the bases shall be out if the ball is in the hands of an adversary on the base, or the runner is touched with it before he makes his base; it being understood, however, that in no instance is a ball to be thrown at him.

Eighth—A player running who shall prevent an adversary from catching or getting the ball before making his base, is a hand out.

Ninth—Three hands out, all out.

Tenth—Playeys mus. take their strike in regular turn.

Eleventh—All disputes and differences relative to the game, to be decided by the umpire, from which there is no appeal.

Twelfth—No ace or base can be made on a foul strike.

Thirteenth—A runner cannot be put out in making one base, when a balk is made by the pitcher.

Fourteenth—But one base allowed when a ball bounds out of the field when struck.—Denver Post.

Boston Bloomers Again.

John Crabb, manager of Union Base Ball park, yesterday received a letter from W. P. Needham, manager of the Boston Bloomers base ball team, conveying the information that he would bring the team on another trip through the west this coming summer. Needham says this season's team will be much stronger than the one he had last year. The Boston Bloomers played in Denver last season, but failed to make much of an impression on the few spectators present.—Denver News.

Base Ball at Deming.

The big ball games in Deming on the 27th and 28th of this month promise to draw one of the largest crowds known in that town for many a long day. The Chicago National League team will play the Deming team on the 27th, and the Yellow Kids of Deming and the Blislee team will play on Saturday. The Deming papers assert that low rates will be given on all railroads at that time. No information to that effect has yet reached the office here, but it is probable it will soon. Deming will be a scene of glorious festivity during these three days, and it would be well worth one's time to partake of the enjoyment of the occasion.—Silver City Independent.

GENERAL SPORTING NOTES.

F. A. Williams has been re-elected president of the Denver Athletic club.

Harvard won the intercollegiate vlist championship recently by defeating Columbia.

Yale and Harvard have signed a new agreement on athletics. Nothing in it as to not killing football players.

The limited round bout between Joe Chynski, of California, and "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien, which was to have been decided in Philadelphia on March 31, has been postponed until April 6.

Griff Jones, the Brooklyn bantam, and Johnny Powers, of Boston, have been matched to meet in the star bout of ten rounds at 108 pounds before the Lenox Athletic club of Boston on March 27.

The most important of the long list of proposed world's fair sporting events will be the World's Fair handicap (for all ages), which will be run at the world's fair track. It will be worth $50,000—$15,000 of which goes to the winner.

A Fort Scott, Kas., dispatch says: Robert Brown, known as "Black Foot," leader of the Webb City foot race swindlers, who have operated extensively over the country during the last two years, has been convicted at Mount Vernon, Mo., and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. Two of his associates, Ellis and Brumley, were convicted and sentenced to the same punishment. Thirteen victims, from whom the foot racers obtained an aggregate of $100,000, assisted in the prosecution.

The Yale-Columbia wrestling matches at Columbia last Saturday night for the intercollegiate championship resulted in a tie.

Jimmy Britt, the California lightweight, has been matched to fight "Chicago" Joe Daly at Butte, Mont., the first week in April.

Casper Leon, the old time bantamweight, announces his re-entry in the ring. Casper is out with a challenge to all 115 pound boys.

One man who has become wealthy through the fighting game is "Sam" Harris, manager of "Terry" McGovern. Harris formerly was a laundry wagon driver in New York, when he got hold of "Terry," and he at once started in to make money.

A new record was established in the special pot race by Chas. P. Lucas, of Kentucky university, at the recent indoor collegiate athletic meet in St. Louis. The former world's record in the event was 39.3-5, and Lucas gathered the potatoes in 36 flat.

"Jim Jaw" Corbett boasted his show at New Haven by saying: "While I do not wish to seem boastful, I am confident that in our coming match Jeffries will go down in defeat in fifteen rounds or less. The fight will not last twenty rounds; of that you may be sure."

The American cyclist, Joe Nelson, won a match against Jimmy Michael at Paris, on Sunday, covering ten kilometres (6.214 miles) in eight minutes, thirty-seven and three-fifths seconds, and twenty kilometres (12.428 miles) in seventeen minutes seventeen and two-fifths seconds.

OVERLAND PARK MEETING.

Several Albuquerque Horses Have Been Entered.

Announcement was made Saturday by Secretary G. A. Walgreen, of the Denver Overland Racing association, that an additional harness race for 2-year-old pacers would be included in the card for the coming race meeting at Overland park, which opens on June 29 and will continue until July 4, inclusive, says the Denver Republican.

The added purse is given in compliance with numerous requests from horsemen throughout the west who have youngsters which they are anxious to train for the present season. Already over ten owners have pledged themselves to enter in the race and it is possible that a new record for western bred 2-year-old sidewheelers may be made. The event will be raced on the second Tuesday of the meeting. A purse of $500 will be hung up for it.

A Big Play.

The future book being made by B. J. Weller & Co., of Chicago, is getting a terrific play. Savable, Dick Welles, Top Soil and Von Rouse are getting the bigger share of attention. The other day Steve L'Hommiedieu, the plunger, sought Kid Weller in his office in the Mallers building, Chicago.

"Take a bet, kid?" asked the Frenchman.

"Yes, Stephen," returned Weller, "that's what I'm here for. What do you like?"

"Charley Ellison's colt," answered L'Hommiedieu.

"How much do you like him, Stephen?" queried Weller.

"Bet you a thousand straight, place and show."

Weller looked at his list, saw that Skiff was being held at 30, 15 and 8. Then he turned to his ticket writer and dictated:

"Skiff, $30,000 to $1,000; $15,000 to $1,000; $8,000 to $1,000."

This ticket, calling for $53,000 to $3,000, was passed over to L'Hommiedieu, who in turn passed over three $1,000 bills.

L'Hommiedieu and Weller then left the Mallers building and adjourned to an adjoining cafe, where the pair had a drink over the transaction.

CONCERNING TOMMY RYAN.

Lou Houseman Says Things at Middleweight Champion's Expense.

Lou Houseman makes Tommy Ryan the target of the following in the Chicago Inter Ocean:

"Tommy Ryan, unmistakably a great fighter, but a very bad press agent, has been made a fool of by Fitzsimmons. This was to be expected. Ryan was never sincere in his challenge to fight the tall Cornishman. When Ryan issued his imbecile deft to box Fitzsimmons at the middleweight limit he felt himself secure behind the conviction that the man from Cornwall could not make the weight imposed. The minute that Fitzsimmons came out and accepted the offer Ryan dodged away—probably a very much surprised man. Fitzsimmons wrote me a short while back asking just how sincere I thought Ryan was in the offer to box him for the middleweight championship. Fitzsimmons was informed that Ryan had agreed to box him, but that he would insist on the weight limit. 'I'll bet a few,' replied the ex-event. Entries will be received at once and until the 15th of April, when the first payment of $10 on the nomination must be made. The second payment of $15 must be made on May 15, when the horse must be named.

Secretary Wahlgreen has completed the list of entries in the early closing events. All of the classes filled comfortably and from the list of owners it is evident that there will be fast fields in all of the events. Some new names are noted in the list, one of the notable entries being that made by A. M. Carr, of Butte, Mont., who manages the Christobel stable, owned by William A. Clark, Jr.

The list for stakes 7, 8, 21 and 22 is not complete, owing to the fact that the conditions for these races, which are to be held under the auspices of the Gentlemen's Driving club of Denver were not decided upon by the club until last night. The entries will be kept open until the end of this week. The list of entries in the early closing events:

UNDER INDICTMENT BY GRAND JURY, BUT MAKES REASONABLE EXPLANATION.

On information culled from the news columns of the Albuquerque Journal-Democrat. The Record last evening mentioned that Porter Morrow, southwestern representative of the Simmons Hardware company of St. Louis, had been arrested and placed in jail at Santa Fe, charged with embezzlement and fraud.

Concerning the unfortunate affair, a special telegram from Santa Fe to the Albuquerque Citizen of last evening says:

"Journal-Democrat wrong again, as usual. Morrow is not in jail. Have investigated and he is all right."

Last evening's Santa Fe New Mexican sets the whole matter right, as follows:

"Sheriff H. C. Kinsell on Saturday arrested Porter Morrow, who traveled for the Simmons Hardware company, on the charge of embezzlement. There are three counts against Morrow. He was indicted by the grand jury of Santa Fe county on charges preferred by the company. He was arrested at Belvidere, Ill., and brought to Santa Fe on Saturday. Mr. Morrow makes a very reasonable explanation of the charges against him which are based upon a mistake by a clerk of the hardware company in sending a trunk to Mr. Morrow."—Las Vegas Record.

WAS A GOOD RAIN.

Cattlemen Are Happy—A Star Route Stage Manipulation.

Special Correspondence.

Southern New Mexico, March 25.—The cattle raisers and ranchmen throughout southern New Mexico are surely in a happy frame of mind. Besides the snows of the past winter, a steady rain started in last night and a gentle downpour of the needful, to make the grass come in abundance and to fill all the water holes, has continued all today. Several cowboys from off the ranges called at Paywood today for their mail and to get the latest outside news through The Citizen, and they gave the pleasant information that range cattle were never in a better condition than this spring. The winter was to their liking—they kept up to the standard in weight for winter stock, and opened the spring in as good condition as possible for range stock to be. A number of large cattle companies in Grant and Luna counties are arranging to round up big bunches of cattle for shipment to the Chicago and Kansas City markets, and a gentleman stated today that the Lyons-Campbell Cattle Commission desire to purchase several thousand range steers, paying as high as $18 a head. Two or three Kansas City and Denver buyers are now visiting the various cattle companies of southern New Mexico.

H. J. Wickham, a wealthy gentleman of Hartford, Conn., came in from Albuquerque this morning, took dinner at the Paywood springs hotel, and left in the afternoon for Cook's Peak, to enjoy a few days with his old friend, Ralph C. Ely, president and manager of the General Concentrates company operating at Cook's Peak. Mr. Wickham and wife, with a lady friend, Mrs. Lloyd, have been wintering in southern California, and the ladies were left at the Alvarado, Albuquerque, while he

DELAHANTY AND DAVIS.

President Hermann of the Cincinnati National League base ball club, in speaking of the alleged refusal of Ed Delahanty (assigned to the American league at Washington) and George Davis (assigned to the American league at Chicago) to play where the peace conference had placed them, said:

"The Cincinnati team will refuse to play with the New York National league team if Delahanty and George Davis appear on the field with the Gotham aggregation. If Delahanty and Davis do not live up to the provisions of the peace compact we will get together and blacklist them."

It is currently reported that there is a movement back of Delahanty and Davis that seeks to break the peace agreement of January 21, which assigned players, fixed the circuits and made other provisions.

THE HOME.

One of the fundamental rules of etiquette to observe is the manner of sitting down at the table. One should not sit on the edge of the chair nor sideways. The back should rest continually against the chair. An easy, upright position is the proper one. The feet should rest on the floor and one should sit far enough away from the plate to be able to use knife and fork without awkwardness.

Scalloped Cabbage—Wash and chop a head of cabbage and cook it in boiling salted water for twenty minutes. Drain in a colander, put it in a baking dish and pour over a sauce made as follows: Melt four tablespoonsful of butter and stir in gradually four level tablespoonsful of flour. Add one quart of milk, stirring constantly and when it boils put in six hard boiled eggs chopped fine, two teaspoonful of salt and a dash of pepper. Sprinkle the top with bread crumbs and bits of butter and bake in a quick oven for fifteen minutes.

One of the chief items of any woman's dress is the arrangement of her hair. To have it combed back smooth and tight and tightly twisted into a common knot will make a common looking woman out of one of the most interesting. Whatever is done a woman should never part the hair in the middle and comb it down with an 1830 slope to the ears and pull it back tight. It will make a stupid looking woman out of the most brilliant. Have some sort of a direct reach from the temples unless the front hair is waved and brought down in a picturesque way.

In eating fish in former times it was taken from a fork supplemented by a bit of bread. Nowadays a silver knife is allowable—forks and knives for fish being made of special pattern. The King of England takes his fish with two forks, but in democratic America the knife is preferred to the second fork. All vegetables are eaten with a fork; asparagus with a knife and fork, although it may be taken up with fingers if one prefers to do so. A very safe rule at table, however, is never to touch any food with the fingers, olives and hors d'oeuvres generally excepted.

Many of the "trials of the modern housewife are to be traced directly to the inability to control and regulate the heat of the oven for baking pies and cakes. Very often the most carefully prepared cake may be spoiled just because the oven was either too hot or too cold. When the oven is too hot the temperature may be reduced by putting in a pan of cold water. When baking in an oven that is too hot at the top fill a dripping pan about an inch deep with cold water and place it on the top grate of the oven. Should the oven be too hot on the bottom, put a grate or an old pie pan under the article that is to be baked.

Cinnamon Rolls: Take two pints of dough, two eggs, a lump of lard twice the size of an egg, one cupful of sugar, mix thoroughly and divide into halves. Roll one part to half an inch, spread with butter, sprinkle with cinnamon and grated nutmeg. Scatter a cupful of raisins or French currants over it and begin at one edge and roll up. Cut with a knife into sections about an inch and a half deep and place on their ends in a pan. Let rise very light and bake about twenty minutes. This quantity fills a jelly cake pan nicely. Before the sections are placed in the pan each end should be pinched securely over the fruit to prevent it from scorching.

Banana Cream: One cupful of milk, one cupful of water, one heaping teaspoonful of cornstarch, one even teaspoonful of sugar, one-half teaspoonful of salt, two bananas, six lady fingers, one-half pint of cream. Slice the bananas and place them in a glass dish in alternate layers, with four lady fingers split in two. Put the milk and water in a saucepan, add the sugar, salt and the cornstarch diluted in a little cold water. When it has thickened pour it over the bananas and let stand until cold and ready to serve. Then cover the top with whipped cream. Split and break in two the remaining lady fingers and place them upright about the edge.

From Cadet Talbot.

Roswell, N. M., March 23.—Thomas Hughes, Dear Sir: I was notified today by Colonel Willson that you had kindly appointed me as your cadet at the military school for two years more. I take this opportunity to thank and show you that I am deeply grateful.

The first term ending in November, my average was 80 and had no demerits. The second term ending in February, my average was 82 and no demerits. While these are very good I hope to be able to improve the last term.

Thanking you again for the appointment, I am sincerely your friend,

W. E. TALBOT.

Walter Miller, director of agencies for the New York Insurance company in the southwest, has returned to Albuquerque again. Ralph Holloran has been appointed general agent and Prof. A. Montoya, a local agent.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Wells-Fargo & Co. have increased the wages of their main line messengers from $90 to $100 per month.

W. A. Powers, chief chemist for the Santa Fe with office at Topeka, is in El Paso on business for the company.

Hugo Schaeffer, division master mechanic for the Santa Fe, with office at Needles, Cal., was in the city yesterday.

S. M. Shattuck, traveling passenger agent for the Baltimore & Ohio, with office at Denver, was in the city this morning.

It is stated that announcement will be made of the deal with a notification of the terms of the Frisco-Stock Island agreement.

A. Wallace, the Santa Fe contractor, has a contract for widening the grade between Bernalillo to Las Vegas, preparatory to it being ballasted.

H. G. Rust, engineer for the Santa Fe, of Topeka, is rapidly improving from a four weeks' sickness and expects to shortly resume his run on Nos. 1 and 2 and 3 and 4.

It is reported that the Rock Island has just completed negotiations for the purchase of the Mexican Central railroad, which is causing much discussion in railroad circles.

Machinist Dick Morrison, of the Santa Fe shops at Las Vegas, was struck on the head with a big sledge yesterday and his skull is fractured. It is reported that his wound is not necessarily fatal.

The Santa Fe Railway company has made a single fare for the round trip from El Paso, Trinidad and intermediate points to Santa Fe and Albuquerque on May 5, the occasion being the visit of President Roosevelt.

Brakeman Lund had the misfortune to fall from the top of a moving train while descending Glorieta mountain, and sustained several severe injuries. He was taken to the Santa Fe hospital at Las Vegas for treatment.

Division Superintendent H. E. Whittemberger, of the fifth division of the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, which includes the Antonio-Santa Fe branch, and Assistant Superintendent F. B. Degarmo were in Santa Fe Monday on official business.

Hugh McGill of the spring shop at Topeka, went to Las Vegas about a month ago on a vacation trip. Unless his vacation is extended it is now time that he should be back at work in the shop. Some of the boys think that he has found work out there and has decided to stay.

It is said that T. W. Masters, a fireman on the Southern Pacific, is about the largest man in the railroad business. He is 6 feet 5 inches tall and weighs 250 pounds and is built from the ground up. Of course we will admit that Mr. Masters is large, but if he is much heavier than the "lion tamer" at the Santa Fe shops of Topeka, he is certainly "going some."

The special train carrying General Manager H. U. Mudge of the Santa Fe passed through Topeka en route to Denver from the Chicago division, where he has been on an inspection trip, says the Topeka State Journal. While the train was in Topeka engine 4, which has been pulling the train over the Chicago division, was sent to the round house and substituted with engine No. 1146. It is said that the experiment that is being made with telephones on Mr. Mudge's train has proved to be quite a success. With a telephone in the drawing room of his special car and one in the cab of the engine, Mr. Mudge can regulate the speed of the train by telephoning his instructions to the engineer. It is said that these "phones" will be installed on the California limited.

RAILROAD CONFERENCE.

George Henderson Will Address Y. M. C. A. Meeting at Topeka.

A circular of information has been issued along the line of the Santa Fe, giving information regarding the Y. M. C. A. conference to be held in the Kansas capital April 30 to May 3.

The circular gives the full details and contains several things that have not been referred to heretofore. It contains an official list of the men who are to address the meetings and among the new names is that of George R. Henderson, superintendent of motive power for the Santa Fe with headquarters in this city.

Engine for Cut Off.

Engine No. 115, which was purchased from the Santa Fe a short time ago by B. Lantry Sons, contractors, is being painted and decorated in the old tank room of the round house at Topeka. The work is being done under the foremanship of J. W. Gibbons, who is foreman of the engine painters. This is the sixth engine that has been painted at the shops for this firm. About two years ago Mr. Gibbons supervised the painting of some engines that were purchased of the Santa Fe by B. Lantry Sons and they were so well pleased with the work that when they bought this last engine they asked that it be painted in the Santa Fe shops and under the same foreman. The work on the engine, which is now No. 10, is being done by Benjamin Mileham, the expert designer, who does all the fine work in the coach painting department. Mr. Mileham has made special designs for this engine which, together with the stipling, will make the engine look more like a hand wagon than a locomotive. All the designs are being put on with gold leaf. When it is finished the engine is to be taken to New Mexico, where the B. Lantry Sons are now doing some work for the Santa Fe.

Decrease in Orange Traffic.

Santa Fe and Southern Pacific railroad traffic officials report that there is a slight decrease in the number of cars of oranges moved to date from the number sent out last year at this time. According to the data at hand in Assistant General Passenger and Freight Agent G. A. Parkyn's office the shipments aggregate 8,200 cars, or about 400 less than at the same period last year. This is about 40 per cent of the total crop. Both roads have experienced little difficulty in handling all offerings this year, as there were plenty of cars on hand, and the offerings came easy. At present there is a better demand for fruit in the east and the companies expect to have heavier shipments from this time.—San Bernardino Times-Index.

Survey for the Alamogordo-Deming Road Completed.

Engineer Small, who has been running the surveys for the new proposed railroad to be built from Alamogordo to Deming by way of Las Cruces, has just finished the work and it now remains with the promoters of the deal to raise the necessary capital for the enterprise. The surveys were able to secure a very favorable grade for the line, the heaviest work being a 1 per cent grade, and that only in one or two short distances.

One stretch of track west of the Rio Grande is a tenuous fifty miles in length and practically on a level.

The promoters of the proposition from New York and Virginia are expected to soon look over the surveys and maps and at that time they will decide on definite plans for the future.—El Paso Herald.

Improving Round House.

The Santa Fe Railroad company is making some extensive improvements on its round house in the El Paso yards. The old roof on the building, which has been there for fifteen years, is being taken off and a new slate roof is being put on.

Besides re-roofing the building the place is being generally remodeled and re-arranged. The capacity of the round house is not to be increased, but it will be made more convenient and comfortable in several ways.

ANOTHER NEW ROAD.

Santa Fe Preparing to Build Lines in California.

It is evident that the Santa Fe railroad company is rapidly perfecting its plans for establishing a rail line to connect its Humboldt county properties with San Francisco. Capt. A. H. Payson, assistant to the president, and Assistant Traffic Manager W. A. Bissell, who exercise executive control of Santa Fe affairs in California, have gone to Eureka, Humboldt county, accompanied by a surveying party, in charge of F. M. Blaise, of the engineering department of the Santa Fe, and the information is given out that the purpose of their trip is to inaugurate the work of extending the company's recently acquired Humboldt county lines southward toward Willets, the northern terminus of the California Northwestern road in Mendocino county.

An announcement that the California Northwestern has passed under Santa Fe control is expected.

In connection with the anticipated railroad deal, the incorporation in this city of the Fort Bragg & Southwestern road is of interest. It is to run from Fort Bragg, in Mendocino county, to Healdsburg, in Sonoma county. The call suggests that this line may be part of a road to parallel the California Northwestern, to be constructed by J. H. Hill, in pursuance of his plan to enter San Francisco from the north. The incorporators of the Fort Bragg road include G. B. Shaw, a Chicago banker, and the members of the Albion Lumber company, which owns extensive forests in northern California.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Arm Crushed in Cogs.

Charles McDermott, an employee at Frank Traverser's saw mill below Cloudford, got in a cog wheel Tuesday and was brought down to the hospital Tuesday afternoon. Dr. Bryan found it necessary to amputate the hand about half way to the elbow and the operation was performed at once.—El Paso Herald.

PARKER GOES UP.

Fox and Easley Change Divisions—Dolan Comes West.

There has been much speculation the past few weeks since it was announced that F. J. Easley, of the middle division, and F. C. Fox, of the New Mexico division, would trade divisions, and that the Chicago division would be cut in two divisions, as to what the outcome of the changes would be and where the different superintendents would be located in the field.

News now comes from Chicago that the changes have been made and the positions of the different superintendents are decided on.

The Chicago division, which at present extends from Chicago to Kansas City, will be divided at Fort Madison. The eastern end, which is 237 miles long, will be known as the Chicago division, and the western end as the Missouri division. The latter will be placed in charge of R. J. Parker, now superintendent of the Colorado division. It has not been decided who will be the superintendent of the new Chicago division. F. T. Dolan, who is

SANTA FE CENTRAL.

Surveyors Will Begin Work On the Line to Roswell.

W. S. Hopewell, general manager of Santa Fe Central railway, left Albuquerque yesterday with Prof. Charles R. Keyes, of Socorro, for Cerrillos, from where they will go overland to the Clark coal fields and from there to Torrance. Professor Keyes, who is an expert mineralogist, will investigate the mineral possibilities along the Santa Fe Central line and at Torrance. Mr. Hopewell will make arrangements for the survey of the extension of the Santa Fe Central to Roswell. It is understood that Eugene Romero has been given the contract for the ties and that the Torrance-Roswell line will be built even before the Albuquerque Eastern. R. L. Stone is buying mules for the coal fields at Clark and is paying $30 a head for them. They are to be worked in the coal mines in places where the large Missouri mules can not enter. When once they are lowered to the levels they will probably never see daylight again.—New Mexican.

WATCHMAN BEAT UP.

A Couple of Hoboes Caused Trouble at Isleta.

Watchman Moore, of the Santa Fe, at Isleta, is now confined in the St. Joseph's hospital, suffering from a few bruises about the head, received in a mix up with a couple of hoboes at Isleta last night.

Mr. Moore was brought to the city at 2 o'clock this morning. The men who beat him up are lodged in the city jail, and will be given a hearing as soon as Mr. Moore is able to get around.

It is said that the ruffians took a couple of shots at Moore, but most fortunately the bullets went wide of their mark.

Officers all along the line are having considerable trouble with a desperate class of bums, who show fight whenever approached.

Mr. Moore's injuries are not of a serious nature, and it is thought he will be able to be out in a few days.

APPROPRIATION HOLD UP.

The New Mexican says that payment of several of the appropriations made by the last legislative assembly will not be made until a question raised by Territorial Treasurer J. H. Vaughn in regard to the loans authorized to be made to the public institutions has been passed on by the courts. The refusal to make the loans until the law is construed by the court necessarily holds up some other appropriations.

The appropriation law as passed by the legislature, authorizes the loan of certain amounts to certain territorial institutions and states that these loans shall be repaid from the sale of lands allotted to the institutions. The question raised by Treasurer Vaughn is whether or not money derived from the sale of these lands can properly be used to repay such loans. It is his belief that these lands are granted the territory for the use of the institutions named in the United States law, for specific purposes and that money derived from the sale or lease of these lands can only be applied to the purpose named in the law. If money is loaned to the institutions to be expended for any purpose other than those specified, the treasurer does not believe that it can be repaid from money derived from the sale of lands any more than the money derived from the sale of these lands could be directly expended for purposes other than those specified in the law. The treasurer cannot see the difference between a direct expenditure of money for purposes contrary to those contemplated by the United States government and an indirect expenditure of the same amounts of money by taking it through the territorial treasury. The institutions have commenced to clamor for their money under the appropriations, but it will be some time before they are paid.

The legislature dipped into every sinking fund in making the appropriations, and in order to keep the books straight, it has been customary to create a provisional indebtedness fund after the legislature adjourns, from which the appropriations are paid.

This fund is created by transferring to it monies from other funds and from the fund so created all appropriations are made. Any surplus after paying the appropriations, is distributed among the funds which originally contributed to the provisional indebtedness fund. This fund is usually in existence about six months. Should the transfers be made to this fund at the present time, there would be about $150,000 in the provisional indebtedness fund. Of this amount $109,000 would be transferred from the capital building bond sinking fund and the balance from various funds.

The transfer of none of the money to this fund has been made and it probably will not be authorized until the question at issue is determined. In the meantime the institutions will have to wait for their money and with them other claimants for whom appropriations have been made in the law.

ACEQUIA TROUBLES.

The water that is supposed to flow quietly through the city in the historic old ditch, overflowed its banks last night and many a back yard was filled with the water which should have been in the Highland ditch. The overflow was caused by a couple of ditches north of the city bursting and letting all the water into the city ditch.

At the First street crossing the water flooded all the adjacent property. There was a lake filled with floating wagons in the rear of Tony Ortiz's wagon factory this morning. The property adjoining the acequia between Lead and Huning avenues is covered by water, which began to flow over the banks at about 7 o'clock last night. Considerable damage has been done to the property owned by Richard B. Myers, between Coal and Huning avenues, especially to the new brick house he is building. The house is surrounded by water, which is liable to cause it to sink and result in much damage.

As soon as Mr. Myers saw that the acequia was overflowing he sent for the street commissioner, who arrived on the spot with some men and began building a dam to keep the water in a straight course. No sooner had the dam been constructed than Mr. Stamm came out with a hoe and broke the dam, allowing the water to flow on Mr. Myers' property. The acequia runs through Mr. Stamm's property and it is supposed he had all the water he wanted. All the back yards between Coal and Huning avenues are covered with water, the result of the opening of the dam.

There were some strenuous moments between the property owners last night and even this morning. Mr. Stamm claims that the chances are his new brick house will be ruined and if it is, there is liable to be some trouble. The property between Lead and Coal avenues on the west side of the ditch is covered by water, and in some places it is standing around the houses.

There will probably be injunction proceedings against the people who have charge of the ditch north of the city for not looking after it more carefully. The water has dropped about a foot since this morning, but in many of the flooded parts the water will remain until it is soaked up by the hard soil or evaporates.

The street commissioner was kept busy last night attending to the trouble caused by the ditch. In many places dams were built which eliminated further damage to property.

The old ditch is becoming more and more troublesome and the city council will undoubtedly make a favorable move at the next meeting.

Death of Mrs. Lucy Cox.

L. H. Cox received the news yesterday of the death of his mother, Mrs. Lucy Cox, at her home in Santa Ana, Cal. The death was caused from heart disease.

Mrs. Cox was born in Dubuque, Iowa, and had reached the age of 55 years. She had lived in California for the past fifteen years. The funeral will be held today.

WINSLOW.

From the Mail.
James Gore came up from Seligman last week in a dilapidated shape. He was suffering from a severe scalp wound and contusion of the brain. His story was that he was knocked on the head and relieved of $60. Dr. Hathaway dressed the wounds and put him in good shape, and Gore took his departure eastward.

We understand that several of the railroad fraternity have organized a mining concern and will send several representatives into the mountains south of Winslow on an exploring tour. We have it that W. A. Tenney and C. D. Spencer will represent the prospectors.

Navajo lodge No. 337 of Bollermakers and Iron Ship Builders meets first and third Fridays of each month. Wm. Canty, is president; J. F. Collin, financial secretary; J. P. Curran, recording secretary. All visiting members are respectfully invited to attend meetings of this lodge.

Andy Tanner, who has charge of the flocks of the William Steffen Goat company, was in after supplies this week. He reports that the goats he brought here from New Mexico have become acclimated, and that the flocks of the company are in good condition.

The Texas senate has passed, finally, the bill prohibiting railroad ticket scalping. Amendments were adopted requiring railroads to redeem unused portions of tickets in proportion to their actual cost, and extending from ten days to twenty days the time within which the railroads must redeem unused tickets and portions thereof.

SPRING TIREDNESS
Is Caused By Unhealthy Action Of the Liver and Kidneys Assisted By Starved Blood and a Poor Circulation.

Paine's Celery Compound

NOURISHES THE LIFE STREAM AND STRENGTHENS EVERY ORGAN OF THE BODY.

The great virtues of Paine's Celery Compound are abundantly manifested in the spring. It is a medicine compounded specially to brace the nerves, to sustain heart action, to cleanse the blood and keep the stomach, liver and kidneys in vigorous health.

In the springtime the effects of the winter's work, the worries of business, household cares and the severe changes of temperature all conduce to weakened and inflamed nerves, in-sonnia, poverty of the blood, deranged digestion, liver and kidneys in bad condition; in thousands of cases rheumatism and neuralgia commence their horrible tortures. Paine's Celery Compound, used three or four times a day for the next four weeks, will furnish the proper and needed elements of life for the growth and repair of the whole body. It will quickly make new nerve fibre, nerve force, pure, rich blood, will bestow sound health and long years of life.

Mr. Elijah Bowman, of Caledonia, Mich., says:

"When I think of the misery and agony I endured formerly and being entirely cured by Paine's Celery Compound, I feel indeed thankful for the discovery of this wonderful medicine. I take a little of the medicine every spring. It brightens a person up and drives all the laziness out of the system, and makes one feel cheerful and bright."

BASE BALL ALL SUMMER.

Arrangements Being Made for Games at El Paso.

The El Paso News says that if the plans of R. W. Curtis and other local base ball enthusiasts are carried out there will be good games of base ball in El Paso every week this summer.

Mr. Curtis' plan is to arrange with the management of Washington Park for the grounds there, and offer a sufficient part of the gate receipts to the teams to pay their expenses while here to play. He proposes inviting the teams from Albuquerque, Santa Fe, Alamogordo, Deming and other places in New Mexico and Arizona and Texas to come here and to have two visiting teams here every week. To perfect his plans, he has already communicated with the management of several of the railroads on the subject of rates, and thinks that a very low rate will be made from the various points when the team from that point is to play here.

N. E. Stevens, of this city, has been appointed territorial secretary for the Independent Order of Odd Fellows by Grand Master Jelfs, of Raton, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of H. T. Unsell.

OFFICIAL MATTERS.

Governor Makes Several Appointments to Fill Vacancies.

Territorial Treasurer J. H. Vaughn is advertising for bids for $101,800 of 4 per cent casual deficit bonds to take up an equal amount of the same class of bonds bearing 6 per cent. The new bonds are to be dated June 1, 1903, and are for thirty years, but are optional after twenty years.

Notaries Appointed.

Governor Otero has appointed the following notaries public: Robert Kelabin, of Roswell, Chaves county; James E. Curran, of Tucuman, Quay county; Michael A. Murray, of Portales, Roosevelt county; Philip Holzman, of Pastura, Leonard Wood county.

Judge Advocate General.

Governor Otero has appointed W. H. Llewellyn, of Dona Ana county, to be judge advocate general on his staff. The position carries with it the rank of colonel and Colonel Llewellyn succeeds R. E. Twitcheil, of Las Vegas, whose resignation was accepted today. The official order was issued through Adjutant General Whitman.

Incorporations.

The John Schrock Lumber company, of Roswell, has been incorporated with a capital stock of $25,000, divided into 250 shares of the par value of $100 each. The company is authorized to buy, sell and deal in lumber, brick and building materials. The term of existence is twenty-five years. The directors are John Schrock, Edward Gessert and Clara E. Schrock.

The Flora Vista Cemetery association, of Flora Vista, San Juan county, has been incorporated. The existence is perpetual, and the incorporators are C. M. Yorkinson, R. W. Hedlin, Cyrus S. Cameron, G. W. Snook and W. R. Crouch.

SHIPPING HORSES.

One Thousand Head Being Shipped From Roswell.

The El Paso Herald says that William McCarthy has left that city for Roswell, N. M., to ship a thousand head of horses to North Dakota.

He has been making his headquarters in El Paso for some time and buying up good horses wherever and whenever he could get them, the contract calling for delivery at Roswell today.

He succeeded a few days ago in making the last purchase to fill out the required thousand head and left today to see that they were safely shipped. He has secured the best horse flesh that money could buy and expects to make quite a fortune on his purchase when he gets them all to their destination, as good horses fetch a fancy price in North Dakota, and everybody knows that when a horse is taken from New Mexico it is a good animal, for the horse raisers here bring up no other kind.

They may not be the finest racing stock, but they are horses that will give service, and that is what the buyer wants. For fine racing stock the purchaser will go to the eastern market any how, and the New Mexico man therefore contents himself with and makes a specialty of raising the finest service horse in the world.

FLAGSTAFF.

From the Sun.

One day this week James A. Vail sold to Habbitt Bros. a fat cow which weighed 1,720 pounds on foot. It was the largest beef ever sold in this market and it is probable that the size has not been exceeded in this territory.

Percy Thompson, of the Hance Asbestos company, has relocated sixteen claims of asbestos lying on the north side of the river in the Grand canyon of Arizona. The claims were recorded by Recorder Hibben this week.

A. F. Andre, who for the past three years has been the efficient bookkeeper and office man for Habbitt Bros., has accepted a position with the well known railroad contractors, B. Lantry & Sons, at Belen, N. M., and will leave for that place on Monday.

The logging camps south of town are taking an enforced vacation. The melting snow has caused the ground to become so soft that it is impossible to do any work. It is expected that the ground will be in condition to resume work in about ten days. The men from the camps are spending their vacation in Flagstaff.

The travel to the Grand canyon of Arizona by the railroad from Williams is increasing and each train on the Santa Fe main line brings its quota of tourists bound for the canyon. The tourists complain of the insufficient hotel accommodations at the canyon, and it is expected that the railroad company will remedy the complaint this year by building a new and commodious hotel on the brink of the Grand canyon.

A number of oil locations were recorded in the recorder's office here. The oil bearing country is located seven miles northwest of Winslow and lies in both Coconino and Navajo counties. The indications for oil are said to be good and an experimental well will probably be put down at an early date to test the field. The locations were made by Winslow and Flagstaff parties and the hope that they have another Beaumont oil field.

A dispatch dated from Ogden, Utah, says Superintendent Noble, of the Salt Lake division of the Southern Pacific, returned this morning from the conference of railroad officials in San Francisco and stated that a satisfactory arrangement had been arrived at in regard to an increase of wages. He stated that the freight men will get a rise of 15 per cent and the passenger trainmen a rise of 12 per cent.

Police Jottings.

Deen Rouse and Fred Cartwright, who have been working around the shops as laborers, were sentenced for fifteen days each by Judge Crawford for attempting to beat a board bill.

The men had secured board at the lodging house of Mrs. E. A. McNeal, on South First street, and owed her for a week's board.

Yesterday they received their time and proceeded to blow it in without settling for their board, or even saying anything about it. Mrs. McNeal reported the matter to Constable Smith, who arrested the men and brought them before Judge Crawford. They had no baggage nor had they made any false statements regarding their work or payment of the bill, but had simply neglected to pay their bills before blowing the money.

Pat Labin guessed he was guilty of being drunk, the judge guessed so to, and their guesses being alike Pat was given five days. He had just been released from jail, having served a three months' sentence for selling whiskey to the Indians at Gallup. He ought to be able to keep out of jail after so many experiences.

Attorney A. B. McMillen went up to Santa Fe last night.

CERRILLOS MURDER.

Hart's Assassin Still at Large—Made Escape on Train.

Night Operator U. G. Hart, of Cerrillos, was shot down in cold blood there on Wednesday night by an unknown man.

This startling news was received here yesterday and a telegraphic account was given in The Citizen of last evening.

Yesterday no clue of the murderer was in the possession of the officers, but the description Hart gave of his assailant before he succumbed to the gunshot wound in his stomach.

A report reached the city last night that a man, answering the description of the murderer, had been arrested at Lamy. This report could not be verified.

Hart lived several hours after being shot and was able to give an account of how it happened. He was sitting at his desk when his attention was attracted to the office window by the closing of the waiting room door. A man's face appeared at the window and a voice demanded "Hands up!" A hand and a pistol accompanied the demand. The face was partially covered with a black mask. Hart complied with the demand and put his hands above his head. The would be robber then demanded Hart to open the safe and hand out the cash. The combination of the safe was known only to the day man, who handled all the money, and of course Hart could not comply with the hold-up's demand. The man fired and Hart fell, the shot entering his vitals.

The murder was discovered shortly after it occurred and Sheriff Kinsell was notified at Santa Fe. Bloodhounds were put on the trail and followed it about half a mile on a hill above town. There the trail turned a short angle and led back to the railroad, where it was lost.

The officers have several theories as to what the murderer did then. It is certain that he took a train of some kind, but whether it was a freight or passenger is not positively known. The most probable theory is that the murderer took the Chicago limited No. 4, which passed Cerrillos about that time. In that case there is no telling where he is now.

The murder of Hart, although not premeditated, was almost as cold blooded a deed as the killing of Special Officer Montgomery, which occurred one night about a year ago in the Santa Fe station house at Winfield, Kansas.

In the killing of Montgomery the murderer shot through the window glass.

HOLBROOK.

From the Argus.
At the special meeting of the stockholders of the A. C. M. I. held here Thursday, it was decided to increase the capital stock. The following stockholders were in attendance: Jesse N. Smith, J. H. Frisby, J. W. Freeman, J. R. Hulet, John Fish and J. V. Pea. J. D. Boone, the gentleman that killed Lime Parker at Sanders, was tried before the justice of the peace at St. Johns last week and put under a $2,000 bond.

Samuel Taft, chief carpenter at the Hale Creek mine, fell down a shaft Thursday and was instantly killed. The mine is located near Wilkerson.

FAYWOOD HOT SPRINGS.

A Fine Southern Resort—Interview With Milwaukee's Mayor.

CONDUCTOR DASCOMB RESIGNS.

Special Correspondence.

Faywood, N. M., March 22.—The south bound passenger train was three hours late in reaching this station, and half an hour later the Faywood hot springs stage landed three new guests at the popular southern New Mexico resort. Up to the present time, the hotel has enjoyed a most excellent winter trade, but the past few weeks these winter guests have left for their respective homes in the cold north and east. However, even now, Manager McDerment is satisfied with the business the hotel and baths are having, and, in looking forward, feels sanguine that the resort will be liberally patronized during the coming summer months. The baths are famous for the cure of rheumatism and stomach troubles, and everyone who tries these waters usually speak in high praise of their medicinal properties.

Caught on the Fly.

On the south bound train was H. B. Ferguson, attorney, who was on his way to White Oaks, where he goes to look into the deal relative to the sale of the Old Abe mine. Mr. Ferguson did not confirm any sale, but he stated that a deal was pending and he hoped that it would go through.

Hon. David S. Rose, for several terms mayor of Milwaukee, Wis., accompanied by his stepson, H. J. Blakeley, was on the train going to Tucson, Ariz. The young man has pulmonary trouble. Mr. Rose is one of the pillars in the democratic party and attributes the defeat of his party at the last general election in Wisconsin to sour grapes on the part of Bryan, through the latter's newspaper, "The Commoner." While he did not say in so many words, Mr. Rose thinks that Judge Parker, of New York, will be the next democratic candidate for president, and that his running mate may be Carter Harrison, mayor of Chicago. "If, however," said Mr. Rose, "Harrison should win again the majority of Chicago, he may become the democratic candidate for presidency himself, and then an eastern man would be his running mate."

Mayor Rose is a very distinguished looking man, and is indeed a power among the democrats of his state. He will probably stop over in Albuquerque about April 1, on his return to Milwaukee.

On the first of April Conductor C. H. Dascumb, between Albuquerque and El Paso, will retire from train service, and with his family reside in the future on his fruit ranch near Sacramento, Cal. Conductor Dascumb has been in the service of the Santa Fe for twenty-three years, in various important positions, and has followed railroading altogether for forty-six years. He is a fine railroader, and his friends everywhere in the southwest. L. F. Gifford, now on the Deming-Silver City run, will take the main line run vacated by Mr. Dascumb, and F. H. Griffith, now of Albuquerque, will be transferred to the Deming-Silver run.

GRIP CONVALESCENCE

There's nothing better than Scott's Emulsion after the grip. When the fever is gone the body is left weak and exhausted; the nervous system is completely run down and vitality is low.

Two things to do: give strength to the whole body and new force to the nerves. Scott's Emulsion will do it; contains just what the worn-out system needs.

Rich blood, healthy flesh, resistive force, more and better nourishment are what Scott's Emulsion supplies to the convalescent.

FREED FROM HUSBAND.

"No girl has ever been through what I have. I was married before I was 14, became a mother before I was 17, and now, before I am 18, the legal age, I hear I am divorced."

Pretty little Mrs. Celestia Maude Crowe, only a slip of a golden haired girl, was trying to comfort her 9 weeks' old little boy last night while she told her story. The news she got yesterday, was that her husband, Geo. E. Crowe, had divorced her in Nebraska on the grounds of cruelty and desertion. Her mother, Mrs. E. E. Severance, of No. 434 St. Nicholas avenue, has been seeking guardianship papers in an action to have the marriage annulled on account of the youth of the girl, but has been balked by the courts so far.

"Nebraska courts work more quickly than New York courts," said Mrs. Severance, "and I suppose we must be a bit all over again."

It was a boy and girl love match. Pretty little Celestia Maude Severance was a pupil of the high school, West End avenue and Eighty-first street, when she met George Crowe at a children's party. He was 17. He fell in love with the school girl. She thought she loved him, too.

The Severances objected. Young Crowe pointed out that his father, Eugene R. Crowe, was a rich man; he owns much real estate in Brooklyn Park, an apartment house in Brooklyn and a big peach orchard at Northport. R. I. Maude was eager to marry him.

Crowe went west to start in business—he was but a boy. Finally, he wrote an urgent letter, and Maude told her mother if she couldn't be married she would go to her sweetheart anyway. So telegrams passed and Mrs. Severance traveled all the way to Albuquerque, New Mexico, to see her school girl daughter, not yet 14, married to this boy lover. She put up her hair to be married; it had been in pig-tails before.

"I was madly in love," said the little wife and mother. "I thought George was everything that a man should be, though he was only a boy. He got $20 a month and a house, but I knew his people were wealthy, and my love smothered over all objections. "But soon I found out my mistake. I should have stayed here at school. I could not endure the life with him and I came home here last summer. My baby was born on January 5. I am so glad he is a boy, because when I get to be an old woman he can take care of me. We have named him Edwin Everett Crowe."

Crowe has moved to Hemmingford, Neb., and according to information received by the Severances he has secured a divorce at Alliance, the county seat.

"I had retained Milken & Nicholson, of No. 287 Broadway," said Mrs. Severance, "to have me appointed guardian in a suit to annul the marriage, and now comes the news that young Mr. Crowe has already got a divorce. How could this little girl—she ought to be at school—be cruel to this muscular young man? It's absurd! We are waiting for more news, and then we will take further steps to have the divorce set aside and the marriage annulled."

Little Miss Crowe declares that her youthful husband got a divorce because he wanted to get married again. —New York World, March 18.

FIRE WAS A BLUFF.

Dionisio Leandro, who also sometimes signs his name as Leandro Dionis, was bound over to the grand jury by Judge Crawford this morning on the charge of arson in the night time. The bond was fixed at $2,500, which he put up and was released.

Leandro was the proprietor of a small store at Duranes, about a mile and a half up the river, which was burned down some time ago. He purchased all of his supplies of Gross, Kelly & Co., and owed them quite a sum of money. During the latter part of February he bought a bill of goods amounting to about $600, for which he was given credit.

On the night of February 26, the grocery store of Leandro was burned to the ground, and the contents of the store, with the large stock he had just purchased, were supposed to have been consumed. The circumstances surrounding the fire in the dead of the night looked somewhat suspicious and during the past three weeks the matter was carefully investigated. Finally the investigations brought about the information that the larger part of the stock of the store had been sold before the store was burned.

Yesterday afternoon, Officer Harry Cooper and Ralph Hunt, of the Gross, Kelly & Co., set out for San Antonio, where they had learned the goods had been taken and disposed of. At the store of Charles Kemp they found a large quantity of the goods which were supposed to have been in the store at the time of the fire. A number of boxes of canned tomatoes, sardines, sacks of beans, rice, coffee, brooms, and other supplies were identified as the stock bought by Leandro.

It has been stated that Leandro owed the Gross, Kelly & Co. in the neighborhood of $1,500, but how much of the goods have been recovered is not known, as the goods were sold to Kemp on the 23d of last month and he has been selling out of the stock ever since.

It is hardly possible that there was a guilty stock in the store if Leandro is guilty of the charge preferred against him. If the fire was premeditated the valuable goods were undoubtedly removed and will be recovered.

Officer Cooper and Mr. Hunt returned last night and a warrant was immediately sworn out for Leandro's arrest. He was found at Joe Badaracco's saloon and taken to the city jail. Since his store burned he has moved to Badaracco's, where his family are living at present.

Leandro has always borne a good reputation and was considered an honest and worthy man by all with whom he had ever had any dealings.

The charge is an ugly one and consequently the bond was placed high. This case will be brought before the territorial grand jury this session and if it comes to trial some startling facts will be brought to light.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins, of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound, and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only sure cure for coughs, colds and all lung diseases. Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Frank Ackerman, attorney for the Nancot Copper company, returned yesterday from the camp, where he has been for several days in the interest of the company. He reports the results obtained from development work done since the first of the year very gratifying. Quite a force of men are at work and the number is being increased. A well defined vein of copper, carrying some gold and silver, has been discovered, and several car loads of rich ore have been taken out. Plans are now being formed to erect on the property a mill for treating ore. This will be completed by the time the New Mexico Eastern railway, known as the Santa Fe cut off, is running. This railway will run within two and a half miles of the property, giving excellent shipping facilities.

Cough Settled on Her Lungs. "My daughter had a terrible cough which settled on her lungs," says N. Jackson, of Danville, Ill. "We tried a great many remedies without relief, until we gave her Foley's Honey and Tar which cured her." Refuse substitutes.—Alvarado Pharmacy.

To Discover Mine. C. C. Perkins and Martin Miller, with Clayton Wetherell as guide, departed this morning for the Colorado canyon equipped for an eight weeks' trip. In addition to their three riding horses, there were three large pack animals carrying bedding, camp supplies and edibles. The gentlemen have a pointer and believe they can discover the Mitchell mine, which has caused so much talk in years gone by, and which no prospector has been able to locate. Choral Concert. The concert given by the Choral society at the school of music last night was well attended by an audience of musical inclined people, who greatly enjoyed the program rendered. The efforts put forth by the faculty of the school of music to make the choral society a successful musical organization were rewarded last evening by the hearty support given them by the people of Albuquerque. The fact that there is a notable advance over the first concert given is highly appreciated. Those who were prominent in the program last evening were: Pro. John Douglas Walker, Mrs. Mable Stevens-Himoe, Miss Florence S. Chapin, Mrs. Robert T. Blair and the chorus of forty voices of the society.

This successful musical society has come to stay, which is what the city needs more than anything else.

Danger of Colds and Grip. The greatest danger from colds and grip is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for these diseases we have yet to learn of a single case resulting in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventative of that dangerous disease. It will cure a cold or an attack of the grip in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

POLICE COURT. Judge Crawford handed out the law to one drunken fellow this morning. He was trying to take a free ride under the cushions in an east bound tourist car, occupied by a company of discharged regulars from the Philippines. Charles Metz, night officer at the depot who is taking Officer Barton's place during his absence, pulled the volunteer from under the seat and threw him in jail. He gave his name as F. F. Ayres, hailing from Arizona. He found that New Mexico is a hard place when it comes to getting anything free.

Grosvonor B. Clarkson, of New York, who has been spending the winter at Albuquerque will leave tonight for Redlands, Cal., where he will remain through the spring.

More Riots. Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by utter collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. There's nothing so efficient to cure disorders of the liver or kidneys as Electric Bitters. It's a wonderful tonic, and effective nerve and the greatest all around medicine for run down systems. It dispels nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia and expels malaria germs. Only 50c, and satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists.

H. H. Ottens and family, of Philadelphia, are spending the week at Harsch's Coyote hot springs.

Gossip of Base Ball and Other Sports

TIGERS-SANTA FE PACIFIC.

Railway Boys Victorious in Ball Game Yesterday.

The base ball spirit of Albuquerque is beginning to manifest itself in many ways. A large crowd witnessed the game between the Old Town Tigers and the Santa Fe Pacific boys at fair grounds yesterday afternoon, which resulted in a victory for the shop boys. Notwithstanding the wind was blowing an uncomfortable gale the ball players put up a fairly good game. The score was 10 to 4 in favor of the shop boys. It was plainly evident from the beginning that the Santa Fe boys had the best of the game.

The First Regiment band appeared on the street and collected a large crowd for the game, but the music ceased after the game began, and the cries for music never touched their ears, but was carried away by the sandy wind storm.

Moore and Wilson were the batter-ies for the Santa Fe, while Rahms, Gallegos and Brown were doing the heavy work for the Tigers. The pitchers on both sides did good work, Moore being all there on delivery and the Tigers' pitcher on speed.

There was much interest displayed in the game, and there is promise of considerable activity in baseball doings in Albuquerque this season.

Local Notes.

Pittman Fettes, who played with the Santa Fe team last year, has signed with the Denver team of the Western league.

Hert Julian, who played with the Albuquerque Browns for two seasons, has signed with the Fargo team of the North Dakota league.

The Roswell team have written to the Browns for game-s during their vacation trip. If the Browns organize this crack team will be accommodated. Harry Senier, a well known twirler, who spent the winter here, has gone to Peoria, Ill. He will play with the Des Moines team of the Western league this season.

Jimmy Williams, who played in this city several seasons ago, and again last fair, has signed to play with the New York American league team for the coming season.

Billy Clarke, formerly a Santa Fe boy, who played ball in the New Mexico league in the early days, has again signed to catch for the Washington American league team. He is considered one of the best catchers in the business.

This is a very interesting period in the base ball season. Teams are being reorganized and players are coming and going. Base ball fans watch this period very closely and judge the strength of a team according to the new material added.

Jack Holland, another Albuquerque boy, prominent in the base ball world, will arrive here tonight from Pinos Altos, where he has been spending the winter, and will go east to join the American association team at Columbus with Raymer.

In New Mexico teams have been organized in Gallup, Belen, Deming, Silver City, Fort Bayard, Las Vegas, Santa Fe, Roswell, Socorro and El Paso. The various teams are being carefully organized for they know Albuquerque will have some crack players this year and plenty of material to select from.

It is rumored that an interesting game will be played in Albuquerque in a short time between the Insurance men and Lawyers. A good combination. The lawyers can bring suit for damages resulting from personal injuries and the insurance men all carry accident policies.

Bud Fowler, a colored second baseman, who played with the Santa Fe team in the early days, has signed to play with Page Fence Giants, of Chicago this season. This will make his twenty-eighth consecutive season as a ball player. On the completion of his twenty-fifth season A. G. Spalding, the sporting goods man, of Chicago, presented him with a beautiful gold watch which is valued at $350.

Fred Raymer, who has been playing with the Los Angeles team in the California state league, will arrive in Albuquerque on Wednesday morning from the coast and will stay over a couple of days to talk base ball with his old friends in this city. Raymer is an old Albuquerque boy and the base ball enthusiasts will be glad to see him. From here he will go to Columbus, Ohio, where he will play with the American association team representing that city.

The base ball players of this city have already gotten together to consider the organization of the Browns, but unless the right kind of an organization can be effected and good players secured there will be no base ball team in Albuquerque. But at present the prospects are bright and the general opinion is that there will be no trouble on that score. If the team is organized new suits will be purchased and some well known business man will be made manager. Prospective players are Roy McDonald, Bert Vohes, Ed Hale, Jim McGovern, Ben Helweg, Robert Barrett, Charles Quier, Ross Merritt, Tony Ortiz, Shepard, Grosvenor Clarkson, an old college player as first baseman; a third baseman a ball player from the east who would have played in the New York state league this season, but was compelled to come west on account of the climate. Another pitcher will be secured from some town in New Mexico.

Los Angeles Wins.

The Los Angeles team of the Pacific Coast league shut out the Chicago Nationals in a game Friday afternoon at Los Angeles by a score of 2 to 0. Joe Corbett made his reappearance in the box for Los Angeles after several years retirement. He pitched five innings and only allowed Chicago one hit. Wheeler succeeded Corbett and did almost as well.

Batteries—Los Angeles: Corbett, Wheeler and Spiess, Chicago: Hardin, Conson and Kling.

Line Up of the Saints.

Manager George Rohe, of the St. Joseph, Mo., Western league team, has announced the line up of his club as follows: First basemen, Harry Vaughan and M. F. Birmingham; second basemen, Fitzpatrick, Neitzel and McShane; shortstop, Maher; third base, Rohe; outfielders, Hartman, Bel-den and Letcher; catchers, Garvin and McConnell; pitchers, Parvin, Do-han, Glade, Chinn, Pfeister and Dichi and several others.

That Paul Strike Ball.

Here is a scene on an American league diamond next year, says the Chicago News.

Some man of the type of Delchanty comes up to bat with orders to "make it be good, for we need it."

He slices gently a nice moving ball with an out bend and it slips over the grand stand.

"Strike!" says the umpire a little louder than necessary.

"You ain't out of your winter's sleep yet," remonstrates the player. "Down where I came from those are fous, me boy."

The pitcher sees him guessing and slips in another fast one and the player slides that off his bat for another old time foul.

"Strike two!" says the umpire.

"What's this?" calls the now thoroughly enraged player, stepping out.

"I'll have the union on ye."

"You go to the bench for not knowing the up to date game," said the umpire with deep scorn, "if you open your mouth again."

Player, much bewildered, steps into the next ball and ambles a slow one down toward short for an easy out at first. He goes on a run to the manager for consolation, fully convinced the umpire has a "bug."

The manager shakes his head sadly and adds salt to the wound:

"Now, that's one of them new ping pong rules, invented by Jim Hart. It goes, see?"

And the gloom deepens until the other team is in at last, when the world takes on a cheerful hue, for the foul strike rule works both ways.

TRINIDAD MEETING.

A Good List of Entries Are Already Booked.

General interest is being taken in the four days' meet of the Ellis Racing association of Trinidad, which comes off June 2 to 5, inclusive. Regular entries close on May 15, but stakes No. 2 and No. 6 have made early closing events, and the entries are already in.

In the Arena.

Joe Choyneki, the clever heavy-weight of California, and Philadelphia Jack O'Brien have been matched to meet in Philadelphia on March 30.

Terry McGovern and Young Corbett are hard at work for their approaching battle at San Francisco on March 31. Young Corbett is reported to be in the pink of condition and within a pound and a half of the required weight. Corbett speaks in cheerful tones of the approaching battle, and Terry says,

"He beat me once, but I assure you he won't repeat the performance."

Unless Former Champion Bob Fitzsimmons reconsiders his determination to fight for a side bet, his proposed battle with "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien, for the middleweight championship, will not take place. O'Brien stated last week that he would not agree to a side bet of $5,000 at the present, and that he would insist upon the bout going to the club offering the best inducements.

J. P. Lucas writes the Denver Post that the Los Angeles club has offered a purse for a twenty-round bout between Buddy King and Rufe Turner. This match ought to attract much attention and will undoubtedly prove to be a fast mill.

America's Chess Experts.

The following ten players have been selected by the Brooklyn, N. Y., Chess club to represent America in the cable chess match with Great Britain, April 3 and 4. H. N. Pillsbury, F. J. Marshall, J. F. Barry, A. B. Hodges, Edward Hymes, H. G. Volpert, C. H. Newman, Eugene Delmar, G. S. Howell and Herman Helms. Pillsbury and Marshall will play in London, as they did last year.

Denver Western League.

Players who have signed with the Denver Western league are arriving one by one and getting ready for a runaway race for the Western league pennant. President Packard is still after several players he hopes to land before the season opens. He is after one of the best pitchers in the country. This move was forced on him, owing to the fact that McCloskey had to undergo another operation on his heel, which will put him out of the game for the greater part of the summer.

KILLED BY FALL.

Allen Chalk of Alamogordo Meets Death While Drunk.

Allen Chalk, an old resident of Alamogordo, met death near that place Friday night in a tragic manner. He with a number of friends were riding horseback from La Luz to Alamogordo. Chalk had been drinking freely and was spurring his horse about in a very ridiculous manner. His horse stumbled and fell, throwing its unfortunate rider to the ground. He struck on his head and was dead when his friends reached him a few moments later. The fall broke his neck. The body was taken to Alamogordo and buried.

Easterners Feast.

Mrs. W. R. C. Hazard and Mr. Fred Nichols, stylish people visiting in the city, were guests of honor at a Bohemian luncheon party given last evening by Mr. Grosvenor Clarkson, of New York, who is wintering in Albuquerque at his home on East Tijeras road. Mr. Clarkson proved a pleasant host and the affair went off pleasantly. About fifteen plates were laid.

Sanitarium Benefit.

The ladies having in charge the hospital bazaar to be held at Colombo hall the week after Easter are meeting with the greatest success, and everybody is willing to do their share.

One of the principal events in connection with the bazaar will be the voting contest by which will be decided just which lady will receive the fine saddle horse, saddle and bridle, the former the gift of Hon. Felipe Hubbell, the saddle from J. Korber & Co. and the bridle from Thos. Keleher. Already the contest is assuming considerable interest, the names of several ladies having already been entered. The contest is now open at Matson's, and the votes are 10 cents each.

BAD MAN ARRESTED.

Alex McLemore Arrested at Las Vegas on Two Charges.

Alexander McLemore, the colored man arrested in Las Vegas last Thursday on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill, will be taken back to Topeka, Kas., by Sheriff A. T. Lucas, who arrived at the Meadow City on Saturday to take charge of the prisoner.

It is probable that the charge of bigamy will be added to the list of McLemore's crimes. He married a Miss Scott, one of the dusky belles of Las Vegas, at the time he was being hunted for having made an attempt upon the life of his wife in Topeka. It is charged that he cut her throat from ear to ear with a razor some time last summer before coming west.

Since that time the authorities at Topeka have been industriously trying to locate him. They finally located him at Las Vegas and he was arrested, but owing to some misunderstanding in regard to the telegram, he was released and disappeared. He was heard of various at various places, but evaded the officers. It was learned that he was headed for Las Vegas and the officers were ready to receive him in open arms when he stepped from the train.

The wireless system will provide news for a daily paper to be published on the new Lake Michigan steamer City of South Haven next summer.

Surprise Party.

Joseph Elcher was the guest of honor at a nicely arranged surprise party at the home of E. J. Johnson Friday night. The surprisers were his classmates at the C. J. C. class, of the Lead Avenue Methodist Episcopal Sunday school and ladies. It was his 26th birthday and the event will long be remembered as a pleasant one. Gifts were given and refreshments were served. About forty were present.

E. L. Dohane, capitalist and oil dealer of Los Angeles, stopped over in the city a few hours Sunday on his way to the state of Guadalupe, where he is interested in oil fields.

TOM SOLOMON

He Turned a Desperado and Receives a Dangerous Wound.

SHOOTING AT BILLINGS, MONT.

Tom Solomon, who was in the saloon business here a few years ago, has turned desperado since leaving here, and the following account, dated from Billings, Mont., will show the names of some ex-Albuquerqueans connected with the shooting.

Tom Solomon, a gambler, was shot and dangerously wounded by Frank Renie, bartender for Fogg and Watkins, of the new saloon, the Globe, this morning early.

The parties had been drinking together during the evening with a woman named "Vic" Kirk at various saloons, and finally had a quarrel at Brewer Lee's saloon. They were put out by the bartender and must have continued the quarrel in the alley in the rear of the saloon. A shot was heard, and Solomon entered the saloon and said that Renie had shot him. He made light of the wound, and refused to have Renie arrested.

The woman, however, telephoned for the sheriff, and that officer, accompanied by Policeman Walker, made search for Renie, who had disappeared after the affray. They went to his room and getting no response to knocking at his door, broke it in and found Renie asleep in bed. He was placed under arrest and taken to the jail.

Solomon was conveyed to St. Vincent's hospital, where an examination of his wound was made by Drs. Rinehart, Lindsay and Chappie. It was found that the bullet had entered the back near the right side and ranged upward, coming out in front. In its course it penetrated the lower lobe of the liver, but only slightly. The physicians hope to save the man unless blood poisoning intervenes. The revolver used in the shooting is a 38-calibre Smith & Wesson and is in possession of the sheriff, he having found it in Renie's room at the time he was arrested.

Renie has been in the city only a short time, having come here recently from Glendive. Before removing to the latter place he was engaged in the saloon business at Bozeman, where he failed and was closed out. Before that he was employed at the Pipestone Hot Springs. Solomon is well known here, having made his home in Billings for a number of years.

POLICE COURT.

In Justice Crawford's court this morning, Arthur Drake and John Willis, the young men arrested yesterday with a quantity of stolen clothing in their possession, were bound over to the grand jury.

A coat, vest and pair of trousers were identified by Mike Mandell and the other two pair of trousers by Simon Stern.

It was learned in the trial this morning that the men entered Simon Stern's place under the pretense of looking at a pair of overalls, the same racket that was worked at Mandell's and at the same early hour. The trousers were not missed from the store, and it was only after Mr. Mandell stated that they were not from his store that Stern's clerk identified them.

The man that did the lifting is still at large, but the police are after him and expect to have him in a short time.

It is probable that there were more goods stolen than have been missed. The man who did the lifting undoubtedly took his share of the stolen articles.

Other Cases.

Thomas Clark and Irwin Spencer, a couple of young vagrants, claiming to be hotel workers were given five days each.

A search warrant was issued by Judge Crawford against Justo Mares, who is now lodged in the county jail, on the charge of stealing a half dozen Yale locks from the Santa Fe Pacific storehouse. Mares is a helper around the shops and it is thought that considerable more goods have been stolen by Mares, which have not been recovered. Officer W. B. Hubbell, of the Santa Fe, has the search warrant in possession, and will undoubtedly secure the desired evidence for the trial this afternoon.

Indian Territory's Fair Fund.

A dispatch to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, from Vinita, I. T., says: The people of the Indian Territory are taking steps toward raising the funds necessary for the Indian Territory's exhibit at the world's fair at St. Louis in 1904. The last session of congress incorporated in the sundry civil bill a provision appropriating $25,000 for this purpose, available on condition that the Indian Territory raise an equal amount.

Coffelt Trial Begun.

A dispatch from Winfield, Kan., says:

O. W. Coffelt's third trial for the murder of G. C. Montgomery, a Santa Fe detective, began in the district court Thursday afternoon. His attorneys attempted to have the case continued, and, failing in this, asked for a change of venue on the ground that the presiding judge had been deputy county attorney during the two former trials. This motion was also overruled. The crime for which Coffelt is being tried was committed October 5, 1901, when some one crept up to Montgomery's home in this city and fired a load of buckshot through the window, killing him.

Thought to Be in Las Vegas.

According to a dispatch in the Chicago Record-Herald from Denver, E. J. Arnold and his partner, Gill, fugitives from justice through their connection with the "get rich quick" schemes, are believed to be in this city. Mrs. Gill arrived in Denver last Thursday and left for this city. She was followed by two detectives, but they lost her at La Junta, owing to the fact that she had a parrot with her, as also did another woman, and in the confusion of changing cars the detectives followed the wrong woman and parrot.

It is not believed, however, that either of the men wanted are in this city, but the officers are on the alert and if such be the case the gentlemen swindlers may find themselves in the toils at any time.—Las Vegas Record.

Fleming Sworn In.

George A. Fleming yesterday took the oath as assistant secretary of New Mexico in accordance with the law passed by the legislative assembly.

OFFICIAL MATTERS.

The Michigan Gold and Copper Mining company has named John G. Zane, of Hopewell, as its agent for New Mexico.

Notaries Appointed.

Governor Otero has appointed the following notaries public: Jerome Martin, of Garfield, Dona Ana county; Julian Montoya, of San Antonio, Socorro county; Fidel E. Garcia, of Tres Piedras, Taos county; Edward R. Wright, of Santa Rosa, Leonard Wood county.

Leonard Wood County Officials.

It is reported in official circles at the capitol that Governor Otero has the matter of appointing the new county officials of Leonard Wood county under consideration, and it is said that he feels strongly disposed to reappoint the county officials of the old county of Guadalupe, out of which Leonard Wood county was formed, and who were elected for Guadalupe county on November 4 last, to the same offices in the new county, unless serious and well-founded objections to such appointments can be made. The governor believes such course to be the best and fairest for the public interests.

Incorporations.

The National Gold & Silver Mining company, of Huron, S. D., but which maintains offices in Chicago, has filed a certified copy of its incorporation under the laws of South Dakota. The company is authorized to acquire, lease and sell mines, mills and machinery necessary to carry on a mining business, own and operate water and electric plants, etc. The capital stock is $3,000,000, divided into 3,000,000 shares of the par value of $1 each. The term of existence is twenty years. The directors are Mark Sherman, Samuel W. Winn and Edwin Heart, of Chicago; Philip Lawrence and Marian Hoke, of Huron, S. D.; Edwin Heatt, mine superintendent at the Stein's Pass, Grant county, is named as New Mexico agent.

Mrs. Julia L. Barracough, Miss Nellie Barracough and Robert S. Phelps, of Oakland, Cal., and Charles A. Hawks, of Albuquerque, have incorporated the Albuquerque Natatorium company with a capital stock of $14,000, divided into 1,400 shares of the par value of $10 each. The company is organized to operate a natatorium in Albuquerque. The term of existence is forty-nine years and the directors are Mrs. Julia L. Barracough and Robert S. Phelps, of Oakland, Cal., and Chas. A. Hawks, of Albuquerque.

A Correction.

Albuquerque, March 23. Editors Citizen: In an article in this morning's Democrat I am referred to as the organizer for this district of the American Federation of Labor. This is a mistake, as the honor belongs to A. L. Weems, who was recommended to the American Federation of Labor by the Central Labor Union of this city. However, I have been lending my aid to Mr. Weems during my idle hours, and am working in the cause of uplifting the laborer in trying to organize the different trades into unions. I am a plain, every day horse shoer anxious to go to work at the union scale of wages under union conditions. I have been in Albuquerque since last August and have worked every day, except holidays, until about three weeks ago. While I have nothing officially to do with organizing in this city I hold a commission as state or territorial organizer for the Horse-shoers' International union.

Very respectfully,

J. F. OHDE,

Corresponding Secretary Central Labor Union, Albuquerque, N. M.

Funeral of Miss Hotelling.

The earthly remains of Miss Alice Hotelling, who departed this life on Friday, were laid to rest at Fairview cemetery Saturday afternoon with the greatest reverence. Rev. H. J. Powell, of the Baptist church, performed the ceremony at the home, 616 South Arno street. Rev. N. W. Alger, an old friend of the family, paid the deceased a nice tribute, giving in tender terms of appreciation the beautiful life the young lady had led.

The Hotelling home was crowded with sympathizing friends. The pall bearers were Messrs. Preston, Goff, Spencer, C. O. Hopping, Geo. L. Hopping and C. B. Hopping.

Three cars of spikes arrived over the Denver & Rio Grande and two cars of fish plates came in on the Santa Fe.

WOULD CHECK THE TIP EVIL.

The officials of the Pennsylvania railroad are awaiting with much interest the results of the measure recently adopted to check the tip nuisance on their lines. The new rules are of a stringent character and positively forbid the car porters or other trainmen to do any services for passengers in order to receive tips in return. It is said that if the measures already adopted fail to prove effective in putting a stop to the nuisance it will be made a rule to discharge any employee who receives a tip while in the service.

WORLD'S FAIR RATES.

Trunk Lines Make Rates for Transportation of Exhibits.

The St. Louis committee of the western trunk lines met at the office of the chairman, Freight Traffic Manager Dodge, of the Frisco, says a telegram from St. Louis.

The principal matter considered was the freight charge of exhibits to and from the world's fair and the rules and regulations governing shipment to and from the fair. Director Blaine of the world's fair transportation department, it is understood, has fixed the rate for hauling the exhibits, construction materials, etc., at 6 cents per 100 pounds over the grounds from the entrances to the various buildings. The western lines will haul the freight to St. Louis at regular tariff and in the case of exhibits which do not change ownership the exhibits will be returned free of charge. A switching charge will be made by the lines which haul the exhibits to the entrance of the grounds. This is following out the plan adopted at the Chicago world's fair in 1893.

The St. Louis lines agreed to notify Chairman Mahoney of the western trunk lines committee in Chicago that it was not proposed to absorb the switching of world's fair grounds charges in the freight bills.

After Coal in the South.

The Illinois Central railroad has about completed the survey of a line between Bemis, on the main line of the system from Fulton to Jackson, Miss., by way of Jackson, Tenn., to Tusculuma, Ala., with a view to tapping the rich coal and iron fields of Alabama. The survey runs through the Shiloh National Park and then parallels the Tennessee river to Tusculuma. The line, when built, will open up a section rich in timber and agricultural resources, and will at the same time give the Illinois Central a direct line for the handling of its share of the coal and mineral traffic now originating in the Alabama and Tennessee fields.

Will Purify Water Supply.

The general manager of the Union Pacific has closed a contract with a Chicago company for construction of twenty-five water-purifying plants to be constructed on the system between Omaha and Salt Lake. The order is the largest of its kind ever given in this or any other country, and contemplates the expenditure of at least $1,500,000. Work is to begin at once. The officials of the Union Pacific have solved the question of pure water. It is estimated that the average life of locomotives will be more than doubled.

OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED.

Supt. R. J. Parker, of Colorado Division to Go to Chicago Division.

Trainmasters Hristow, of Raton, and Sears, of Marceline, are being talked of as successors to R. J. Parker as superintendent of the Colorado division at Pueblo. It is now officially announced that the changes on the Chicago division, spoken of in this paper several days ago, will take place. The division will be divided. Superintendent Dolan will remain in charge of the north half and R. J. Parker will take charge of the south half, with headquarters at Fort Madison. Hence a superintendent for the Colorado division is being talked of, but it can not be told with any degree of certainty who the party will be until the appointment is made and a circular issued.—New-Kansas-Republican.

Pennsylvania-Western Union Appeal.

Argument was begun in the United States court of appeals at Philadelphia last Friday on the appeal of the Pennsylvania Railroad company from the decision of the New Jersey circuit court, restraining the company from removing the poles and wires of the Western Union Telegraph company from along its lines.

The railroad's contention before the court was that the Western Union company cannot maintain its occupancy of the railroad's right of way because of the refusal of the railroad company to give consent, and because the case cannot be determined before it will become necessary for the Pennsylvania railroad to carry out its contract with the Postal Telegraph company, which gives that company the privilege now enjoyed by the Western Union Telegraph company.

At the conclusion of the arguments the court reserved decision.

MEDAL CONTEST.

The Addresses Delivered by the Young Ladies Were Deserving.

The Demorest medal contest held under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at the Congregational church last evening was a very successful affair.

Miss Gertrude O'Brien, a young lady with gifted speaking talents, was awarded the silver medal, and Miss Helen Bearup, whose delivery won admiration from all sides, was presented the second prize. The prizes were presented by Mrs. B. E. Marshall, president of the territorial W. C. T. U., who came down from Las Vegas to preside at the meeting.

The church was filled to a comfortable seating capacity and every number on the program was greatly enjoyed. Miss O'Brien's selection, which was beyond doubt deserving of the attention given it by the judges, was "Song of the Drink."

Miss Bearup recited "Jeremiah's Lament." This selection was seasoned with humor, but it contained some terrible truths.

The judges, Messrs. J. S. Stingle, S. B. Gillette, and E. W. Dolson, found it somewhat difficult to decide who should be awarded the prizes, as all the seven contestants were deserving, but by following the rules the decisions were accordingly.

The literary program was rendered more interesting and the tiring element was eliminated by several well selected musical numbers. A piano solo by Miss Rose Hunsinger was well received, and Miss Grace Houghton's sweet and captivating voice delighted the audience.

The Italian song by Miss Welsh, of Denver, who has a soprano voice of remarkable sweetness, was received with enthusiasm, and she responded to the encore with the lullaby, "Sleep, Little Baby of Mine." Those who heard Miss Welsh's voice last night were pleased with the songs she sang, and hope to have the pleasure of hearing her again.

The contestants for the Demorest medal took part in a pantomime which was the closing scene. The young ladies, robed in white, their graceful gestures forming a strong contrast to the dimly lighted church, moving and acting to the song of "Massa in the Cold, Cold Ground," sang by a quartet invisible to the audience.

The ladies of the Women's Christian Temperance union deserve the highest praise in the work they are doing, and methods of reaching the people.

Police Jottings.

Lloyd White, whose appearance does not in any respect correspond with his black name, had a lovely time fighting booze yesterday, and had a case of tanglefoot on the street. It seems that the judge happened to see his public performance, doing the nautical stunt on the street and showed no mercy to his tale of woe this morning. "Ten days on the street," said the judge, "and give him plenty of work, Martin, he deserves it."

John Fitzgerald, whose facial features tell a story of hard living and dissipation, was up for playing the jag racket on the public thoroughfare. He had about $5 worth of exhilarating and joyful sport, and the judge being a good guesser duplicated an equal amount in working the streets.

F. F. Ayres was brought out of the receiving chamber, this morning, where he had been placed as a sufferer from a malignant case of vagrancy.

He had a story well planned this morning, the result of two days confinement. He was in an awful hurry to tell the judge who and what he was, and about his dear papa, but the judge wouldn't stand for any workings, so according to the rules of the house the young man went back to his cozy corner to think over his troubles. He was the victim of misplaced confidence. While in Arizona he had chanced to meet some of his old friends who were with a company of regulars recently discharged from the Philippines, returning to the east in a tourist car. He made a good hiding under the cushions until he reached Albuquerque, where his game came to an end.

There were two more guests of the city jail last night, who were arrested on suspicion as the men who put Officer J. Moore at fault to the bad yesterday evening. They will be given a hearing this evening.

Unique Blanket.

J. L. Parsons received last evening from Doc Wallace a large consignment of Navajo blankets, woven in native wool. These goods are of unusually fine weave, and show a neat, even pattern throughout. Into one of the blankets, done in red, white and black, is woven two trains of cars as perfectly as could be drawn with a pencil. Jack Redman says that he has seen many good attempts at train weaving in blankets but this is the best. The engine is perfect, all the coaches are even in outline, windows, platforms, steps, wheels and even the smoke from the engine is plainly displayed. The rest of the blanket is done in a unique and beautiful pattern.—Durango Telegraph.

It is reported from Berlin, says the Tribune London correspondent, that the Canadian Railway company has ordered twenty locomotives from the Hartmann machine works, at Chemnitz.

KELLY ACQUITTED.

The first case of the present term of district court, that of the United States against John Kelly, charged with passing counterfeit money, resulted in an acquittal. John Kelly and Harry B. Tutwiler were indicted the day following their arrest on the charge of counterfeiting.

Kelly was arraigned yesterday afternoon, Attorneys Childers and Medler prosecuting and Attorney Wilkerson defending.

Witnesses called by the United States were Luke Wals., F. G. Pratt, W. J. Johnson and Officer Knapp. It was shown by the prosecution that Kelly had been at the White Elephant and St. Elmo, and the coin had been passed back twice before it was accepted by Walsh at the Metropolitan. The attorney for the defendant called as witnesses Tutwiler, Gayhardt, W. C. Mason and others. The evidence given went to prove that the men were too drunk to know what they were doing, and if the money was passed back they would have never thought about it being bogus. He showed that the bartender who had returned it did not say it was bad and also tried to prove that Kelly was not concerned handling the money in the St. Elmo.

Mr. Wilkerson made a strong plea for the defendant, and is to be complimented upon winning a case where the evidence seemed to be strongly against the man.

The jury returned the verdict this morning and this afternoon the case against Harry B. Tutwiler, charged with attempting to pass counterfeit money will be tried. If the same evidence is presented by each side he will undoubtedly be acquitted, as he is only charged with attempting to pass the money. The case will be tried at 2 o'clock and it is possible that the jury will act on it today.

Grand Jury Report.

Albuquerque, March 24, 1903.
To the Hon. B. S. Baker, judge of the district court.

We, the United States grand jury for the present March term of court, to inquire into offenses against the laws of the United States, have concluded our labors and respectfully submit our final report.

We have been in session and actually engaged in the investigation of matters coming before us, every day of the present term, during which time we have considered eight cases, in six of which we have found indictments and in one of which we return "no bill," being a case in which the defendant is now in custody.

We desire to express our appreciation of the courtesy with which we have been treated and the conduct of our labors by your honor and by the officials of the court and now ask to be discharged for the term.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

E. M. SANDOVAL.

A few of the men indicted plead guilty and their terms of imprisonment were cut down a few months.

The cases of Alonzo Avilla, who plead guilty to adultery, and Moreen Jurens, who plead guilty to the same charge, have already been mentioned. Old man Uranavich, of Gallup acknowledges he had sold whiskey to the Navajoes and was given ninety days.

Estanislado Sals plead guilty to the charge of adultery. The court gave him thirty days.

Kelly was acquitted and Tutwiler is being tried. The other two cases before the United States grand jury not reported on were Nordquist and Corvells, who escaped from jail New Year's morning and have never been captured.

The territorial grand jury are still engaged in important work. They organized late yesterday afternoon after considering a number of important cases, there being many witnesses up. The Vann robbery case was one of the cases investigated, but as yet no indictment has been returned against Farrell, Myers and Hackett, who are now in custody. This afternoon witnesses have been called for the case of Justo Mares, who is under arrest for stealing supplies from the Santa Fe warehouse.

It will be some time before the territorial grand jury has finished its work.

Rio Grande Rising.

The Rio Grande has been higher the past few days than it has been since last spring and is still rising, says the El Paso News.

The Lord near the smaller was almost impassable yesterday and traffic at that point is practically abandoned today.

Reports from N. W. Mexico points are to the effect that the river is still rising there and the river will likely be very high for a week.

SMA! L POX.
Ten Cases in Sarcillo Canyon, Thirty-Five Miles West of Trinidad.
Ten cases of small pox are reported at the Abrahamson saw mill camp in Sarcillo canyon, thirty-five miles west of Trinidad. One of the victims, a little girl, is not expected to live. A strict quarantine has been established by Dr. S. L. Blair, the county physician, and no one is either permitted to leave, or enter the camp.

A man from Texas is supposed to have brought the disease to the mill. After working a couple of days he left for Pueblo and a little over a week later the first case appeared. Others were taken sick and the disease spread throughout the camp. Dr. Blair states that with one exception the disease is of a mild form. He has vaccinated fully a hundred persons in the canyon and looks for very few, if any more, cases.—Trinidad Chronicle.

Labor Fight.
Two hundred shots were exchanged Tuesday at Oxnard, Cal., in a labor fight between Japanese and Mexicans. The trouble arose over an attempt of union laborers to put a union sign on a wagon occupied by non-union men. Perfecto Ogas and L. Yaquez will die of pistol wounds. Two Japanese and another Mexican were also shot. Six hundred Japanese and 400 Mexicans are on the verge of a bloody fight. The men are connected with the beet sugar industry.

RAIN GENERAL.

It is also reported that Arizona has received a good drenching. Although rains are usually appreciated in New Mexico, it is said that this one is causing some little grief. Coming at this time and being a warm rain, it will cause the snow on the mountains to go off more

ROOSEVELT'S RECEPTION.

It has been decided by the committee in charge of the arrangements for President Roosevelt's reception here on May 5, that the formal part of his visit will occur at the Alvarado and that his address will be delivered from the front steps of the hotel.

Mr. Cheatham, manager of the Alvarado, was seen and immediately consented to the arrangements tendering the committee every courtesy, turning over to them the hotel and the broad green lawns surrounding it, the two hours the president will be in the city.

The program is not yet entirely complete, but the committee having it in charge are hard at work and hope to see the way clear for a rousing reception weeks before the appointed day. The place for the address having been decided, the minor details, such as music, positions in line for the veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic and Spanish-American War Veterans, and probably a number of other things not yet thought of, will be easily arranged. The services of the First regiment band will be secured. During the time of the president's address the band will be stationed over the large arched gateway in front of the Alvarado and will render music before and after speaking.

President Roosevelt will probably be introduced by Judge B. S. Baker. Crowds of people will gather on the lawns and broad walks. All will be able to see and hear well. The steps leading to the hotel are raised so that the president will be above the throng. On the steps with President Roosevelt will be Judge B. S. Baker, Gov. E. S. Stover, Col. John Borradale, Capt. W. E. Dame and a number of others of the committee of reception.

The president will be in Albuquerque, between the arrival and leaving of his special train, about two hours and thirty minutes. It will go very quickly. It will require forty-five minutes to go over line of march as now mapped out. The time it takes the president and his party to enter and leave their carriages, will consume at least thirty minutes. His address will not be long, probably twenty minutes. The remainder of the time will be all too short for moments lost here and there.

It is suggested by the committee that all the houses along the line of march be decorated with patriotic colors.

The Italian band of this city have tendered their services toward the entertainment of the presidential party free of charge.

Inhuman Father Arrested.
Telefor Bueno, a Mexican laborer, living in the western part of town, is in the county jail, charged with non-support of his children. The trial will come up at the April term of county court. It is true, as is charged, that Bueno is one of the most inhuman wretches living. A professional man who has learned a few facts in the case said this morning that the man ought to be hung.

Bueno's wife became insane about two months ago, and was sent to the hospital. Her family consisted of husband and three small children, a girl and two boys. The girl was sent to a relative, the boys remaining with their father. Bueno, since that time, it is said, has nearly starved his sons. He would leave them alone for two or three days at a time. Sunday they were found in the shack they called home nearly dead. They were covered with vermin and reeking in filth.—Trinidad Chronicle.

READING ROOM CONCERT.
Was Greatly Enjoyed—Performance a Success.
A fine program, of many interesting numbers, was carried out at the Santa Fe reading rooms last night to the pleasure of an appreciative audience. The talent was the best of the city. The crowd was not large, probably on account of the inclemency of the weather. S. E. Busser, superintendent of the Santa Fe reading rooms, arrived from the west on a late train just in time to be present and enjoy the concert. He expressed himself well pleased with the performances.

Police Jottings.
John Fitzgerald, a repeater, who was not satisfied with paying a fine yesterday morning, came back with the same affliction and was given a double dose of Judge Crawford's morning medicine for all ailments.

Joe McDole and Alfonso Whiteline, who were thrown in night before last on suspicion, were given an opportunity to tell their troubles, which they did. They were out of money and work, and were trying to get to a railroad camp. They looked like they would work if given a chance, so the judge let them go if they would keep their feet out of Albuquerque mud. If they continued to travel at the pace they set out, they reached Belen on their thirty-mile tie pass long before dinner.

Patrick Kilbane, an Irish chicken thief, was sent over to the county jail for sixty days for working at a trade that was never made for an Irishman. Patrick found Albuquerque a bad place to try to feather his nest.

Word comes from Tucson, Ariz., that about fifty Rough Riders from Bisbee and southern Arizona have arranged to meet President Roosevelt at Grand Canyon on the president's western trip, and at that time will present to their former leader a monster cinnamon bear, now in captivity. President Roosevelt will receive a royal greeting from his comrades in the southwest.

Serious Accident.

A very serious accident occurred at the round house this morning, which came very nearly ending the life of Dick Morrison. Morrison is a machinist's helper and was engaged in driving a side rod key out with a heavy sledge. He was striking upward and in some way missed the key and struck himself in the head with the heavy hammer, inflicting a severe, but not necessarily fatal, wound.

He was conveyed to the hospital, where at last accounts he was resting easy and no serious results are looked for, unless unexpected complications set in.—Las Vegas Record.

To Experiment With Cotton.

The Arizona Democrat says: Thos. H. Kearney, of the agricultural department at Washington is in Yuma. His visit is to arrange for further experiment with Egyptian cotton. While there he will examine into the area of alkali lands to be found in the part of the Colorado valley. For the cultivation of such lands he will recommend the planting of an Algerian alfalfa. This plant he considers to be more resistant to alkali than the plant now used. The Algerian variety is a good forage plant and being an alkali plant promises good results. Mr. Kearney stated that he was unable to find much alkali land in the vicinity of Yuma.

STATEHOOD.

Hearst and Party Will Visit Territories Next Month.

The Washington Post says: "Hon. William Randolph Hearst, whose candidacy for the democratic presidential nomination for 1904, is well advanced, is preparing to lead the fight for the omnibus statehood bill in the next house of representatives, of which he will be a member. At his own expense Mr. Hearst is getting up a party of senators and representatives to make a tour of Oklahoma, Arizona and New Mexico, next month."

"While the exact personnel of the party is not yet known, it is Mr. Hearst's desire to have as his guests both democrats and republicans. Delegates Rodey, of New Mexico, and Flynn, of Oklahoma, have been asked to prepare a list of those who they think would like to make the trip, and the democratic members will be invited personally by the host."

"The object of this trip is to acquaint thoroughly and in detail, the friends of the omnibus statehood bill with the statehood question. It is Mr. Hearst's belief that qualifications of the three territories for this will do more to advance the interests of the territories in the next congress than anything else that could be done. He will accompany the party since he is familiar with the conditions in the territories from personal contact. His property interests are large in both Arizona and New Mexico."

Bartenders Organize.

Northrup-Jones.

A very quiet home wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Young, 215 Commerce street. The high contracting parties were Harry Northrup and Miss Grace Viola Jones, and a very charming couple they made. Ell Wickson and Mrs. A. L. Kirkpatrick performed the duties of best man and bridesmaid respectively, while Judge H. S. Wooster performed the ceremony in his usual impressive manner. The wedding was of the quietest kind, only a very few of the most intimate friends of the family being present. The Record joins with their many other friends in wishing them a long life of happiness.

The presents were numerous and handsome and the dinner toshsome—Las Vegas Record.

J. R. Burton, supreme deputy of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, arrived in the city last night from Raton, where he has been doing some strenuous work for the order the past few days. His business here is to stir up a little enthusiasm in the local lodge. It now has a membership of about 195. Mr. Burton thinks he can increase this number by 100 new members.

Fished from a Sewer.
Street Commissioner Martin Tierney today fished out of a sewer manhole a specimen of firearms not much in evidence these days. It is a single barrel muzzle loading pistol. It is about a foot long and very rusty, showing that it has been in the water some time. The stock is encased with brass and marked "J. C." the "J." upside down. It would be a valuable addition to any collection of antique fire arms.

Snow and Fruit.
At first glance the two appear to be very opposite and are hardly to be associated. However, we are informed by our fruit growers that the snow which fell Tuesday night and Wednesday was an excellent thing for our fruit.

Conversations with several of our leading orchardists have shown us that they are unanimous in the opinion that fruit buds are more backward now than at any other spring we have had save the one when we had the bonanza fruit crop.

All are confident of a good crop this year if nothing unforeseen should happen. The crop last year, while good, was not heavy enough to exhaust the trees and with the favorable weather we have had during the winter and spring the prospects for a big crop, if not a record breaker, are excellent.—Farmington Times.
