NUMBER 27.

STILL AND WHISKEY FOUND ON PLAINS

Last Saturday afternoon Assistant District Attorney Wilson was summoned to go out to the Knowles country and investigate some trouble that had been reported to him. He was accompanied on his trip by State Prohibition Enforcement Officer Carl Gordon, who went along to investigate some reports concerning the location of some home brew stills that were supposed to be in that country.

Mr. Wilson found upon investigation that while returning from a trip to Texas, in a Ford that G. O. Chance was supposed to have been shot at, the shot glancing the fleshy part of his lower arm and breaking the wind shield of the car. This occurred Friday night as Chance had just crossed the Texas line returning to Knowles. C. B. Mitchell was arrested and charged with doing the shooting, and waived preliminary examination. He was placed under a thousand dollar bond and released.

After disposing of this matter it developed that Gordon and the officers in the Knowles country had been getting busy and had placed Dick Bradsher, and Charlie Vanamner under arrest, under suspicion of being guilty of the manufacture, possession and sale of intoxicating liquors. Chance and Mitchell were also held under suspicion in the same transaction, and all were loaded into cars and brought to Carlsbad Monday, and were brought before United States Commissioner Dwyer Phillips, charged with the manufacture, possession and sale of liquor. Vanamner, Mitchell and Chance waived preliminary examination before Judge Phillips and their bonds were each placed at $750, which was given in each case, Wm. H. Mullane and W. G. Woerner being the sureties in each case.

Bradsher was remanded to jail over night and appeared before the United States Commissioner Tuesday morning for trial. He secured the services of Attorney D. G. Grant-ham to represent him in the preliminary, and the case was continued until 1:30 in the afternoon of the same day, when the defendant was arraigned for trial.

The complaint, same as the one in each of the other cases, was read to him, and he entered a plea of not guilty.

The first witness examined was Elmer Wilder, who said his home was in Miles City, Montana. Had been in New Mexico thirty days. Met Bradsher in Arkansas and came out to the Knowles country with him. Had no letters from anyone out here before we started. Started for Arizona but stopped at Knowles. Looking for a location—employment on ranch. Am a mineral prospector. Bradsher was looking for a location too. Stopped at Lovington at hotel. Was cited to G. O. Chance as being a good Ford mechanic, and went out to Chance's place to get our car fixed. Worked on car two weeks and both stayed and slept and eat at Chance's. Chance and "Adobe Charley" were staying there. Saw no whiskey or malt. Charley was taking care of the cattle. He slept in a separate house. Had a bed and one or two stoves in it. I was there when the officers came last Saturday. Officers put me under arrest. Saw them find what they said was whiskey. Saw them bringing out the still—first time I had seen it. Never saw anyone buy any whiskey. Chance and Bradsher would stay out late at night. I helped around ranch—didn't get any pay. Was at Chance's the night Bradsher and Chance came in —the night of the shooting. I arrived toward the first part of May. Milked four cows. Charley and Chance handled the milk. Kept the barn locked and Charley carried the key. Heard them ask each other for the key to the barn.

Cross Questioned: Bradsher was a soldier in France. Came west for health. Am 55 years old and not accustomed to being in courts. Bradsher had no whiskey along the road. We got a pint in Roswell as we passed through there coming out here. Paid $10 for a pint. A bootlegger was pointed out to me on the street. That lasted till I got to Chance's ranch. Was alone when I took the last drink. Drained the bottle after the officers got there. Bradsher and I slept in the same room and made no explanation of his being absent at night.

Homer Shipp, of Hobbs, was the next witness: "I know Chance. Was at his place about 19th of May in a car. Saw Charley and I think the defendant. Jack Bradley bought two quarts of whiskey at $7.50 a quart. Paid part in money, part in check. Made check out in barn. Saw Bradley sign it. Whiskey made us drunk. Couldn't positively identify defendant as being present."

Daniel McCurry of Hobbs, testified: "I know G. O. Chance. Known him three or four years. Was there Sunday by myself, and there two times on the 25th. Saw 'Adobe Charley'. Chance and Wilson. Bought a quart of whiskey from Chance and paid him $7.50. It made me drunk. Next time I was there with Jack Bradley, Homer Shipp and Blakely boy. Bradley bought whiskey. Couldn't identify defendant as being present. Saw mash in barrels in cellar."

Defendant was put on the stand and testified: "Was in the 43rd engineering corps, Company B, State of Georgia. Was in the battles of Verdun and St. Mehl. Was gassed. My number was 2,492,838. I registered in Perry Co., Arkansas. 'Adobe Charley' asked me to fill out a check to Chance one evening when some boys were there. Asked me to put on the check 'for car work.' Chance drove up as the boys were leaving."

G. O. Chance testified: "Defendant was at my place one month. Has not been guilty of what he is charged with." It was at this juncture Attorney Wilson put some questions to Mr. Chance and at the request of Attorney Grant-ham, the Court instructed the witness that he had a right to claim a constitutional privilege and not answer any questions that would implicate himself, as he is also under indictment on these same counts and the witness refused to answer several questions put to him by Attorney Wilson. "I live about a mile from C. B. Mitchell. Don't know anything about Mitchell having any mash at his place. I did ask Gordon if he had found any mash at Mitchell's place. I paid Charley $30 a month for working for me. Had two dogs. Fed them milk mostly. Mitchell and I are on friendly terms. Got letters from Mitchell while he was down in the Texas oil fields. Bradsher paid me $50 or $75 for fixing his car."

Attorney Wilson subjected Mr. Chance to quite a rigid examination and succeeded in getting several answers on record.

After a short argument by attorneys on both sides, Commissioner Phillips decided to bind the defendant over same as he had done the other parties, but on account of his condition, both as to his health and otherwise, and taking into consideration the fact that he had served over seas, he was turned loose upon his own recognizance, only asking him to sign his own bond as an obligation that he would appear when called to court at Santa Fe.

While making investigations prior to bringing the men into town Prohibition Officer Gordon and Sheriff Florence Love searched the premises of G. O. Chance and found a small still disassembled and hid around the place in several locations. The still had evidently been operated at different times for several months and two barrels of mash were found there also. At the Mitchell home about the same condition existed, only a greater quantity—four barrels—of mash, were found.

The officers brought in part of the still and it drew quite a crowd when it was left on the running board of the car for people to inspect. In the outfit was enough brass and copper tubing to furnish a gas line for every "tin lizzie" in Eddy county, and quite a spiral of half inch water pipe with connections at each end.

Sheriff Florence Love, Tom Bingham and Allen C. Heard accompanied the party to Carlsbad, and the appearance of the crowd caused no little excitement around town, and quite a crowd was drawn around the car inspecting the contents.

The officers also brought in about three or four quarts of corn whiskey which they found on the premises of one of the party.

Chance is the man who killed Hawkins out at Knowles several months ago, and Vanamner is known as "Adobe Charley," and is well known in Carlsbad, having lived here several years ago. Bradsher is fresh from Arkansas, having only been out in that country a short while.

The bonds hold the bunch till the next term of Federal Court at Santa Fe, when they will get a hearing before the Federal Judge.

Prohibition Officer Gordon speaks in the highest terms of Sheriff Florence Love, and says that if all the officers in the country were as aggressive and helpful in the enforcement of the law as is Mr. Love, that it would be much easier on him to run down the offenders.

MITCHELL TRIES TO COMMIT SUICIDE.

C. B. Mitchell, one of the parties who was brought in from Knowles Monday by Prohibition Officer Gordon, was found in a room in the Rightway hotel, Tuesday night in a pretty serious condition.

Upon investigation it was found that he had tried to kill himself by pouring chloroform and ether on a handkerchief and inhaling it, but it seems that he was unable to get enough of the anesthetic on the handkerchief to do anything except put him to sleep temporarily.

Dick Bradsher was supposed to go up to the room to sleep with Mitchell, and didn't go up to go to bed till about ten o'clock. When he attempted to enter the room where Mitchell was in bed he was almost suffocated with the fumes from the ether, and when he discovered what was taking place he notified the officers and Assistant District Attorney Wilson and Carl Gordon immediately began an investigation, finding the man lying on the bed with a handkerchief saturated with ether over his mouth, and in an unconscious condition. Drs. Culpepper and Glazier were at once summoned and the patient was removed to the Eddy County Hospital where an antidote and emetic was administered to him and he soon rallied from the influence of the ether.

Wednesday morning he was up walking around, though he seemed to be feeling pretty tough.

It was found that in the afternoon of the same day he had procured chloroform and tried it out and upon falling with it had gotten a bottle of ether and was using it when discovered.

He gave no reason for his act other than he was brooding over trouble connected with the complaint under which he is held, together with some family trouble.

He wrote a note before attempting to destroy his life, but it was hardly legible and was very indistinct.

He was a married man, but at present is separated from his family, and is supposed to have come to this country from San Angelo, Texas. His father was a confederate soldier.

It developed after this occurrence that on a former occasion Mitchell had written a letter and had his plans all set to take his life, and that he is of a very morose disposition, and given to worrying over matters which should not be considered as being of a serious nature.

R. E. Taylor, president of the National Wool and Mohair Growers' Association, left Wednesday morning for Fort Worth to be present at the Meeting of the Southern Tariff Congress which will be in session at that place for several days. Fifty-seven different southern industries will be represented, and a large attendance is expected. The motive of the tariff proposition and for this meeting will be to get things shape things up with a view to securing some favorable tariff legislation.

DECORATION DAY SERVICES

Decoration Day was observed in a very fitting manner in Carlsbad Monday, and one of the largest crowds that has ever assembled for that purpose in our little city was present to witness the ceremonies.

At 2 o'clock the parade was formed at the southeast corner of the court house lawn, under the direction of Captain Fred West, and started off with the Cavalry Troop B in the lead, followed by a car which contained members of Boy Scouts Troop 1, in charge of Scoutmaster White. Following the Scouts was a car containing the veterans of the Civil War, who were given a prominent place in the services held at the cemetery.

Upon arrival at the cemetery, the graves of thirty-seven war heroes who lie buried there were decorated with beautiful wreaths and flowers. This was conducted by the Cavalry Troop, assisted by the Boy Scouts, and in addition friends and relatives of the many loved ones buried there brought beautiful flowers and decorated the graves of those dear to them.

After the decoration of the graves Rev. J. E. Nicholson, Chaplain of Bryan Mudgett Post, invoked the blessings of God on the assembly, and America was sung, lead by Miss Marie Purdy.

Following this, Rev. Nicholson read a chapter from the Book of Job, and Miss Purdy sang a beautiful solo, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" which was rendered in her usual pleasing manner.

Hon. Robert C. Dow was next on the program and made an eloquent address, referring to the sacrifices our forefathers made in obtaining our freedom, and eulogized the bravery and heroic deeds of the veterans of the Civil War, and referred to our western pioneers as being due a great amount of credit for the part they played in breaking the way for civilization in our own home country, calling attention to the fact that we were decorating some of their graves together with those of other heroes. He brought the battlefields of France back to us in a very forceful manner, picturing the scenes that are still fresh in most of our minds, and urged the importance of us doing our part in keeping and maintaining what those boys fought for, insisting that it was duty to pass it down to other generations.

Mr. Dow closed by quoting the following beautiful poem:

"Rest ye in peace, ye Flanders dead."

The fight that ye so bravely led We've taken up. And we will keep True faith with you who are asleep. With each a cross to mark his head, Where once his own life blood ran red.

So let your rest be sweet and deep In Flanders fields.

"Fear not that ye have died for naught;

The torch ye threw to us we caught. Ten million hands will hold it high And Freedom's right shall never die."

In the absence of Major E. F. Bu-jac, Mr. Bruce Wallace was called upon to make the memorial address. Mr. Wallace made a very beautiful address in which he called attention to the fact that everywhere else in the United States the same ceremony was being held at that time, but that the most notable of these ceremonies was the one being held at the Arlington Naval and Military Cemetery near the old home of Robert E. Lee. He pictured a visit he had made to this beautiful cemetery, and of his seeing the graves of so many heroes of all the wars, including those of 1812, 1814 and on down to the late war. Referred to the battle of Brandenburg where 45,000 American recruits went up against a British force of 39,000 trained soldiers and were forced back, thus emphasizing the necessity of more thorough military training and preparedness. He insisted that we become a nation that will see far enough ahead to be prepared for any war that might come up, and prevent the loss of so many lives in battle. "America should prepare and she must also resolve that there shall be no more wars," said Mr. Wallace. "We should never forget the echo from the graves of Flanders field, and remember, 'If you break faith with those who died they shall not sleep in Flanders field.'"

Judge Grant-ham appeared on the platform for a few moments and apologizing for the fact that he might detract the minds of the crowd from the splendid addresses to which they had listened, briefly outlined a comparison of the appearance of the Cemetery as it looks now to what it was fourteen years ago when he came here. He gives the credit of this to the ladies of the Cemetery Association who have worked so faithfully to maintain this condition, and to the people who have been kind as well as generous in their donations to help this good work along. He made the statement that the Cemetery Association was in debt for about $200, and insisted that as many as could possibly do so become members. The list may be found with R. M. Thorne, L. A. Swigart, and several of the ladies of the Association, and asks that you join if not already a member, and donate any amount you feel able to, in order that the indebtedness may be removed.

Rev. Nicholson, in behalf of the Legion insisted that the people of our community see to it that the Legion gets proper recognition and a square deal in everything that they undertake—a square deal and nothing more is all they ask.

At the close of the services the dead were saluted with three volleys of rifle fire and the crowd stood with bowed heads as the sound of "taps" was listened to as a farewell to those who sleep.

CARLSBAD TAKES TWO GAMES FROM ARTESIA.

Last Sunday at Firemen's Park in this city the local baseball team engaged in a rather loosely played baseball game with Artesia. The locals won because they out slugged their opponents and showed up well on the bases while at the same time Stewart pitched a steady game, tightening up in the pinches and not allowing the Artesia players to hit when a hit meant a score. The final score 4 to 3 in favor of Carlsbad. The batting and good playing of Second Baseman Howard Moore was a feature of the game.

Monday the local team motored to Artesia for a return game and won easily by a score of 4 to 11. Morris pitched for Carlsbad and held Artesia to three hits which were well scattered. Some poor fielding resulted in what scores were made off Morris, who is pitching better ball this year than usual. Stewart played a good game as catcher and took many drops out of the dirt without a bobble. Bert Gerrell secured a long drive to left which scored two runs and the other players hit the ball freely when it counted most. The team this year is batting better than last year and when this part of their game is brought up to normal they will be a very hard bunch to beat. The game at Artesia was witnessed by a large crowd of enthusiastic fans who pulled to the last for their team to win.

Next Sunday Carlsbad will again play at Artesia.

The baseball team deserves more support from the business men of the town than is now accorded it and there is no reason why Carlsbad cannot have a good team. Just a little help right now financially and otherwise will put the team in a position to furnish amusement to the fans of the city equal to that witnessed last year. Already different business men are volunteering to give the team their support.

A SURPRISE WEDDING.

Mr. J. A. Campbell and Miss Nettie Smith were married in Roswell Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, at the parsonage of the First Baptist Church, Rev. Hill, the Baptist minister, officiating.

The wedding took place in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jones, Miss Laura Smith and Johnnie Hewitt, all of whom accompanied them to Roswell in a car on the day of the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Campbell are at the Hotel Glider in Roswell this week, but are expected home tomorrow, and a grand reception is being planned for them by the friends of both parties in Carlsbad.

Miss Nettie is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Smith, of our city, and has been raised among us, and is loved and admired by all who know her. She is one of Carlsbad's finest girls, and one of whom we are all proud.

Mr. Campbell is one of our substantial young stockmen, and has a nice ranch and a fine bunch of cattle, and is a jolly good fellow anywhere you meet him. He is a member of Bryan Mudgett Post and of the local Cavalry Troop, and is a very popular young man.

We are not aware of the plans of the young couple for the future, but they will be at home to their friends in Carlsbad for a while, and we predict for them nothing but happiness and success in all they undertake.

MRS. J. B. COCHRAN DEAD.

A telegram was received Monday morning by Rev. G. H. Givan, announcing the death of Mrs. J. B. Cochran, who passed away in a hospital in Albuquerque following an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Cochran will be remembered by many of our people as the wife of one of the former pastors of our local Methodist church, and who is now Presiding Elder of the Albuquerque District, and has been living in Albuquerque for some time.

Miss Naomi VanWise, one of our most efficient high school teachers, left this morning for Los Angeles, where she will enter the University of California for the summer. She has not decided definitely as to whether she will return for the next term, but her work has been so satisfactory in the several years that she has taught in our schools that her friends are all hoping that she may return for the next term.

SUMMER RESORT TO BE MADE AT FAMOUS SITTING BULL FALLS

Messrs. F. E. Hubert, W. F. McIlvain, E. H. Weaver and Professor Bruce Wallace and father, made a trip up to Sitting Bull Falls yesterday, with a view to looking at that splendid spring and the country surrounding it for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not it would be a very fine place to arrange for a lodge or summer camping location. They got within a half mile of the spring in the car, and their report is very favorable.

Mr. McIlvain says this is only an initial trip, and that they intend going up again and making further investigation, but that they found worlds of water in any depth from two inches to ten feet. The shade below the falls is rather scattering, but he thinks they will be able to find plenty of shade on top above the falls.

The investigating committee intend to take the matter up with the Chamber of Commerce and see if it will not be possible to secure a small appropriation to be used in further investigation, and in building some sort of a road to the falls from below.

The scenery up there is as fine as can be found anywhere, and we see no reason why a beautiful camping place may not be arranged in that locality.

Forest Ranger Bell was in town this week, and said that any time the committee wanted to come up and look over the country around there he would be glad to help arrange for an outfit for them and take them anywhere they would want to go.

Mr. McIlvain also intends taking the matter up with the board of county commissioners, looking to further developments along the lines above mentioned.

There are several points of interest in the vicinity of the spring, and numerous caves which are well worth exploring, and the scenery in that country far exceeds that in the Sacramento mountains, and we see no reason why we may not have a scenic road and a place where we can go up during the hot summer months and spend a few weeks in the cool atmosphere of our own Guadalupe mountains.

The Sitting Bull Falls are located about forty-five miles southwest of Carlsbad, up in the Queen country, and are not so awfully hard to get to, and it is thought that a road can be made up Last Chance that will be passable for automobiles, and we hope it may be possible that a fine camping ground may be located somewhere in the vicinity of this beautiful place.

The water falls over the side of the Canyon about 60 or 70 feet and presents a beautiful picture.

Messrs. Hubert and Wallace secured several nice kodaks of the Falls and the country surrounding, and are having them developed for use in this preliminary work.

LUSK SELLS STEERS IN KANSAS

John Lusk returned yesterday from his trip to Kansas where he shipped 850 steers and sold them on the markets at Wichita and Kansas City. At Wichita 11 cars of them brought him $5.35 and at Kansas City 10 cars brought $5.50. Mr. Lusk says the cattle averaged him net $30.25. They were yearlings, two, three and four and were the best bunch of cattle that have gone out of this country this year. All were dehorned except six head, and the buyer turned them down, and Mr. Lusk left them on the yards. He had only one bid on this stuff at either place, and says that he did the best he could, and is glad things were no worse than they are. He reports that the banks are not loaning any money to the buyers with which to buy cattle, although feed is plentiful and grass is fine all over the country, and there is lots of room for cattle yet. He didn't see or hear anything which indicated to him that things were going to get any better soon, and he seems to think the cow man is up against it either shipping to the open market or to grass. Doesn't look for any change soon. The man who bought Mr. Lusk's cattle sold them next day for twenty-five cents less than he paid for them.

Mr. Lusk says there seems to be plenty of money in the Kansas banks but that those "woolies" are all of the opinion that there is the best place to keep it, and that they are putting out nothing.

Aud and Sam Lusk accompanied the shipment of steers also, and report a fine trip, though they didn't find things in as good shape as they expected to.

F. H. Ryan left Monday morning for the Segrest well where he has charge of the Will Murray ranch and cattle. He took Barney Hopkins out with him to assist in the work of taking care of the outfit. Mr. Ryan represents the National Bank of Carlsbad.

HAY GROWERS ASSOCIATION TO BE ORGANIZED

The farmers under the Carlsbad Project held a very interesting meeting last Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the Otis school house to receive the report of the committee appointed at the meeting in Carlsbad to draft a constitution and by-laws for the Carlsbad Project Alfalfa Growers Association, which has for its purpose co-operative action among hay growers in marketing their hay which will all be done through the association with the exception of what is sold to the local trade for feeding purposes. It is proposed that the association will be managed by a man who makes that line of work a study and who will be capable of getting results for the hay growers in the way of finding markets for their hay at good prices. For the purpose of paying the expenses of the association an entrance fee of $10 per member will be charged besides assessing a small fee per ton for all hay handled by the organization.

W. W. Galton was chosen chairman of the meeting Saturday night and Walter Craft secretary. The constitution and by-laws was then read section by section and discussed and changed to comply with the wishes of the majority. Then it was decided to appoint a committee from each community to solicit signatures to the constitution to be the charter members of the association and the following were appointed by the chairman: Carlsbad, Edwin Stephenson and M. L. Davis; Otis, W. D. Bates; Loving, W. E. Rose; Malaga, C. W. Beeman. This committee has been furnished with printed copies of the constitution and by-laws and have been busy securing members for the movement.

This organization is a move in the right direction as evidenced by the fact that the farmers at Artesia and Hagerman are now receiving several dollars more per ton for their hay than those under the Carlsbad project and should receive the support and co-operation of every hay grower in the valley.

Signatures are being solicited with the understanding that if 85 per cent of the hay growers of the valley is not secured there will be no association formed. All are urged to attend the meeting tomorrow night, June 4th at the Otis school house.

The following is the constitution and by-laws as adopted:

BY-LAWS OF THE CARLSBAD PROJECT ALFALFA GROWERS ASSOCIATION.

Thereafter, three (3) and two (2) Directors shall be elected alternately. Also at the annual meeting, any vacancy upon the Board shall be filled.

Section 4. Between annual meetings any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors from any cause, shall be filled by the Board appointing a member to fill such vacancy, provided a member so appointed shall hold office only until the next annual meeting of the association.

He shall also submit a financial report to the secretary-treasurer of the association every month.

Section 14. The Secretary-Treasurer shall attend all meetings of the Directors and of the association and shall keep a correct copy of the proceedings of the same. He shall quarterly or at any time that they may request, make a written report to the Board of Directors upon the finances, resources and any other matters the Directors may consider necessary for a thorough understanding of the affairs of the association. In addition to the duties enumerated, he shall perform any other duties which the Board of Directors may deem necessary or helpful to the successful consummation of the business of this organization and shall receive such compensation for his services as the Board of Directors deem proper.

Section 16. In order to have funds to carry on the business of this association, each person desiring to become an original incorporation shall

Who are You?

NINETY-NINE chances out of a hundred you are the man whose second finger on the right hand is expert in pressing electric buttons.

An electric button is a pretty small thing. By it we make elevators rise and fall for us, we summon employees, we give orders, we start big machinery whirring, we turn the light on and off, and—we could go on indefinitely. But remember, it is not the half-inch button that does all this.

There is the tremendous power behind the button; the huge dams and water turbines (in case of water power) or the enormous boilers, turbines, engines and generators (in steam plants); the wires of high-tension transmission lines, and the innumerable smaller wires stretching like a web from your very bedside out over the whole country.

1,400,000 people have invested their earnings in the securities of the electric light and power industry. Besides these foresighted citizens there are the investments of insurance companies and the loans made by banks.

They make possible "the button" that your finger presses morning, noon and night. Thirty-five million others enjoy the same instantaneous service.

There are still 14,000,000 homes in the United States remaining to be wired. 14,000,000 unwired homes mean that millions of people are without the benefit of electric light and power in their residences.

Gradually most of these residents will demand electric service, and the electrical industry with the support of the public, will find the means to extend this service to these prospective patrons, so they, too, will be able to press that half-inch button.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON

Delivered by Rev. George H. Givan, at the Baccalaureate exercises in the Crawford Theatre Sunday, May 22.

GIRD UP THY LOINS—Job 38:3.

In presenting this subject to the Class of 1921, I beg leave to call attention to the fact that from this day forward this class should be called men and women. Hitherto they have been very largely dependent upon parents and teachers to think for them, but now they must think for themselves. Until this day they have been directed and guided to a large extent by others, but during all their years to come they must be directed and guided by their own wisdom, discretion and judgment. With this Commencement they must launch out as independent men and women. The Class of 1921 might as well understand that a new era has been ushered in, and that new responsibilities and obligations and duties they have never known before now rest upon them. The real battle of life is on and the victory must be theirs. The greatest battles will be silent battles that rage within the soul. Here is where the mighty hosts of good and evil clash swords, and here is where manhood and womanhood rises to victory or falls to defeat.

POLITENESS

The one great thought of the next is preparation for life that we may give a complete and satisfactory answer to the demands of God. There are so many elements that enter into this preparation that I shall only present some of the most essential and leave the development of each of these topics to the class and their friends. Gird up thy loins like a man or woman in that most charming and beautiful art of politeness. However essential the knowledge of books may be to you, the fundamental principles and practice of politeness will be even more essential. A man cannot stand up before the world and meet all classes of people and all conditions of life without a true sense of gentility. There is no substitute for polish, culture and refinement. Where these have full away chivalry will become as natural to the individual as it is to breathe.

LANGUAGE

Gird up thy loins like a man in the use of strong, clean, clear-cut and wholesome language. Ever since you began to prattle at your mother's knee you have been taught the correct forms of speech. For these years in the Grammar Grades and the High School your teachers have constantly taught you the use of good English. The purity or vulgarity of your phraseology, diction and style will always depend upon the language in which you write or speak. Thought can be expressed only in language, and language should always be adapted to the thought; therefore, I trust that none of you shall ever have an unholy thought lest you be tempted to besmirch your lips and degrade your speech.

SELF-CONFIDENCE

Gird up thy loins like a man in that wonderful and powerful art of self-confidence. Not egotism run to seed, but simple plain faith in myself. Hitherto I trust you have been both lord and master of every situation and every problem in the whole curriculum of the High School course. Faith in your abilities has given you this victory, for without self-confidence you are doomed to be weaklings and failures all the days of your lives. Every one of you may and should be king or queen in your own right, but none of you can ever be crowned king or queen if you do not have full and perfect confidence in every power and function of your triad nature.

DISPOSITION

Gird up thy loins like a man or woman in the control of your disposition. However rude it may be it is yours to make it what it should be. If there is an iceberg in the heart there will be frost upon the lips. If there is fire in the soul there will be flame upon the breath. Therefore if your disposition is too cold warm it up; if it is too hot, cool it off, for temper must be tempered. It is a shame and a sin and crime to go through life imposing upon our loved ones, our best friends and the world an ugly or morose or repulsive disposition. If you be a real man or woman you can control your disposition if you will.

FRIENDSHIP

Gird up thy loins like a man in the spirit of friendship. No wonder Solomon said "He that would have friends must show himself friendly." Friendship springs right out of the heart, and if the heart is not friendly the face and eyes and voice can never be so. They can act and make out and put on, but it is all a sham and a farce. He that wants friends must show some desire for friendship, for it is mutual and comes in no other way. No one has ever yet had too many good friends and it must be a most peculiar person indeed who is so self-conceited, vain and puffed up as not to earnestly seek the good will and friendship of every good person in the whole town and community.

KINDNESS

Gird up thy loins like a man or woman in the gracious art of kindness. The heart must have attention and development as well as the brain, and I sincerely trust that along with an educated brain each of you may also have an educated heart, educated in every branch of tenderness, gentleness and kindness. An educated mind can never be of the highest value without an educated heart, for "Out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh."

OBEDIENCE

Gird up thy loins like a man in obedience to law and authority. The laws of the home, the laws of the state, the laws of the nation and laws of God must be honored and respected by every gentleman and lady. Some have said that order is the first law of heaven, but there can be no order in all the vast universe without obedience to law and authority. The faint, far off, sweet music of the spheres is created only because of the perfect obedience of the starry heavens to the laws of the centrifugal and centripetal forces.

CONSERVATION

Young manhood is the only storage battery for the dynamo of middle life and old age. That individual who dissipates and scatters to the four winds of heaven his physical powers while young, must have a weakened constitution through all the years to come. Thrice happy should every young man be who knows the limitations of his physical strength and then governs himself accordingly. Much has been said about the conservation of our national resources but the resources of human life are of far greater importance. Why should any fair young life be weak when it might be strong? Why should any one die young when with care and conservation of physical health and strength he might enjoy the fruits and pleasures of a ripe old age?

PATIENCE

Gird up thy loins like a man or woman in the holy virtue of Patience. Out of patience comes forbearance; out of forbearance long-suffering; and out of suffering a long time comes the crowning grace of fortitude. These are generic marks of a great soul, for no individual can ever be great until patience has developed fortitude. Socrates, Plato, Aristotle and the Christ; and every great man both before and since possessed their souls in patience. Let patience have her perfect work in a human life and she will give grace to the body, equilibrium to the mind and poise to the soul.

COURAGE

Gird up thy loins like a man and be strong and courageous in all the affairs of life. There is no more fruitful grace than courage. Courage is the father of determination, resolution and unconquerable will. Courage gives a man the power to go through fire and water, to ride in the whirlwind and direct the storm. Courage is the father of self-possession, self-reliance and self-command. It is courage that creates heroes on the battle-field, and heroines in the stress and strain of domestic life.

PRINCIPLE

Above almost everything else gird up thy loins like a man of perfect unshakable principle. The longer I have studied this topic the more I am persuaded to believe that principle is one of the holy elements of Divinity. For whatever else He may be, in the very nature of the case God must be a high and holy principle. True and noble manhood and glorious womanhood must be shot through and through, warp and woof with the very elements of Almighty God himself. Created in the image and likeness of God, a man of principle must also partake of the nature of God.

RENEVOLENCE

Gird up thy loins like a man or woman in the sweet spirit of Renovation. Not only generous with your means, but generous in thought and word toward every one you know. No doubt the good lord hates a stingy pocket-book, but a thousand times more he hates a stingy mind and a stingy tongue. How strange that many persons see all of our faults and none of our virtues. How strange that some persons hear all the evil and nothing good? It costs so little and is such a pleasure to speak well that when nothing good can be said, let the ear be deaf, the eye blind and the tongue dumb.

WORSHIP

Gird up thy loins like a man or woman of the highest type and the noblest character and worship God. The greatest privilege and the greatest blessing conferred upon the human race is the inalienable right to worship their Creator. The American man of any ambition delights in doing great things. On the flight of his imagination he walks around on the rim of the universe and plays marbles with the stars. But the greatest and most sublime thing on this earth that any man can ever do is to bow down at the shrine of God and worship Him. No flight of the imagination can ever dream of anything that man can do that is greater than worship.

DEMANDS

God does not demand preparation at some far-off future time, but He demands it now. He is constantly inquiring of every young person as to full preparation for life, and He is both demanding and expecting an affirmative answer. As He calls this day upon the Class of 1921, what shall their answer be?

Is every member of this class polite? Do all have a large amount of self-confidence? Do they use the best language they know? Does each one have a refined disposition? Are they all friendly? Does the very essence of kindness permeate each heart? Are they obedient to law and authority? Do they conserve their strength and health? Do they possess their souls in patience? Are they strong and courageous in all the affairs of life? Are they young people of high and holy principles? Are they generous to a fault toward all mankind? Do they bow their souls before the altar of God and worship Him? If they can gird up their loins like men and women and answer God in the affirmative, then may every grace and virtue that can adorn young manhood, and glorify beautiful womanhood be theirs through all the passing years.

SCOUT NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Boy Scouts from Pecos will arrive Saturday night to be ready for the big camp Monday and the Clovis lads will arrive Sunday afternoon. All arrangements have been made for the greatest camp in the history of Carlsbad Scouting.

All who have promised cars for the transportation of Scouts to the camp are requested to be at the Reclamation building not later than eight a. m. Monday morning.

Troop No. 2 have rented two rooms in the Reclamation building and will establish regular headquarters. Capt. Fred West is assistant Scout Master in Troop No. 1 and all the boys are glad he will serve. Capt. West is a real live man and his knowledge of handling men makes him the right man to direct the boys.

Don't forget Friday, June 10th, is visitor's day at camp. Come and bring some one with you and have a real good day at a real camp. Special invitation is issued to the officers of the Chamber of Commerce and Mayor Hudgins to visit camp. Come out, the Scouts are looking for you.

Memorial day was in evidence at Troop One rooms. Flags were raised both in and out of the building.

Mr. and Mrs. George Frederick, wife and mother left Wednesday evening on the train for a visit to points in Michigan and Wisconsin. They made the trip last summer in their car, but returned on the train. This time they will go on the train and return in their car, spending the entire summer at different points in those two states, and it goes without saying that the trip will be an enjoyable one. George says he can already taste the strawberries and cream "everywhere."

THE STUDEBAKER LIGHT SIX SMASHES RECORDS

CARRYING U. S. MAIL A STUDEBAKER LIGHT SIX has established four speed records between San Francisco and Los Angeles—traveling faster than any automobile or train ever made the trips before—and proving LIGHT SIX stamina. Here is what the LIGHT SIX did:

Made the round trip from Los Angeles 864.8 miles in 21 hours 23 minutes elapsed time—A NEW RECORD.

Beat "The Lark" fastest express train between San Francisco and Los Angeles by 3 hours 47 minutes, and 30 seconds — A NEW RECORD.

This car was duly deputized upon orders from Washington, to carry U. S. mail.

These remarkable records PROVE how the STUDEBAKER LIGHT SIX can make long continued runs without mechanical trouble—the car established its records on two trips and was ready to start on the second immediately after completing the first.

FIFTH SUNDAY MEETING.

The Fifth Sunday meeting that convened with the Carlsbad Baptist church last Friday night and lasting over Sunday was a decided success. There were three programs carried out: one by the churches, one by the women's missionary societies and one by Baptists Young Peoples Union.

Dr. J. R. G. White, of Artesia, preached two splendid sermons which tied our people onto him in a great way. He will always be welcome in Carlsbad. It is a great blessing to our state to have such men come our way. Brother S. M. Edwards of Hagerman also brought us a helpful message which was much enjoyed. Brother J. E. Nicholson of Loving discussed the topic: "Baptists' Contribution to America" in a very interesting way. It was greatly enjoyed by all who heard him. He also brought us a helpful message at the Sunday morning hour.

The afternoon was given over to the local Sunbeam Band who rendered a beautiful program that both surprised and delighted their appreciative audience. The evening hour was the B. Y. P. U. program, devoted to a study of our mission fields. Each Union is the Association was assigned a topic, and the work done was of a high order, and was greatly enjoyed by an overflow house. The field of Japan was given by a stereopticon lecture that added much to the interest and enjoyment of the hour.

The next meeting goes to Roswell in July. Saturday afternoon was given over to the W. M. U. work and the program was a practical and comprehensive one, covering the various lines of work done by the ladies' organization in our churches.

Not as many of these Societies were represented as should have been, but the program was well rendered, and those present very much enjoyed it. T. C. MAHAN.

Mrs. George Lucas left yesterday morning for a trip to El Paso. While gone she expects to have the pleasure of seeing little "Happy" Patchen, her grandson, who is in Silver City, but whom she thinks they will bring to El Paso while she is there.

J. F. Rarey returned yesterday from a trip to Kansas, whither he had gone with a shipment of 1,300 yearling steers for the Benson cattle company. These cattle were unloaded at DeGraff, Kansas, and Mr. Rarey left them doing fine. He will leave on the 9th with another shipment of about 700 more yearlings for the same people and will put them on Kansas pasture too.

THE HOMELIKE CHURCH.

Services Sunday, June 5th: Bible school at 10 a. m.; Communion and preaching service at 11 a. m.; Junior C. E. at 2:15 p. m.; Senior C. E. at 7 p. m.; Preaching service at 8 p. m. D. F. SELLARDS, Pastor.

Professor Bruce Wallace was initiated into the degree of Master Mason at a special communication of the lodge last Wednesday night. A good attendance was enjoyed at this meeting and refreshments were served the members and visitors by the committee appointed for that purpose. Messrs. Roberts and Dilley who performed their duties to the entire satisfaction of all.

Ance Stewart and his sister, Mrs. T. L. Vest came in Tuesday evening and are again becoming residents of Carlsbad, after an absence of over a year, and are at home in the old Ed Woerner house on Halaguero Street. They have been out in California and Arizona, and were in the restaurant business at Benson for a while. Coming through Arizona they report all the country from the California line this way as being very dry till they got to El Paso. Miss Vera Vest, the daughter, has been teaching school at Queen for the past year, and the boy, Roy, is in the Normal School at Tempe, Arizona, and will soon finish.

C. E. Mann, commissioner from Artesia, was in Carlsbad Saturday.

CULTIVATOR

It Works Like a Hoe

The Fowler does as good work as you can do with a hoe. It cuts every weed, keeps the surface in perfect condition to absorb rain and produces a mulch, which prevents the escape of soil moisture. By removing the plow foot you can cultivate astride the row. The Fowler will also cultivate crops planted either above or below the level without destroying the sloping sides of the ridges. Only one trip to the row whether narrow or wide.

The Fowler is the greatest time and labor saver ever made for cultivating corn, tobacco, peanuts, cotton, beans, peas, beets and truck crops planted in rows. It is the progressive farmer's cultivator.

Covers 8 Acres a Day With One Horse

The Fowler does as much work with one horse as you can do with the usual 2 horse cultivator. It does better work because it cultivates shallow. The Fowler has no teeth to destroy the crop roots and therefore largely increases production. Write for Free Illustrated Booklet describing exclusive features of this wonderful cultivator.

The Fowler can also be used for harvesting beans and peas. The lower blades cut the vines loose from the soil, and the upper blades roll the vines into windrows, working two rows at one trip through the field. Many thousands of satisfied farmers are already using this remarkable tool. Write today for booklet. The Fowler is carried in carload lots at leading distributing points between and including New York and San Francisco; Minneapolis and New Orleans.

KEEP ADVERTISING.

Advertising is more than a business tonic; it is a business necessity. That is why it is needed all the time. Of all advertising, that which carries with it the greatest waste is what is known as the "once in awhile kind."

Successful advertisers are the kind that keep it up persistently. They are judged successful because of the resulting success of their business.

Up until four years ago there was a certain kind of soap that was known around the world. It had been the most persistently advertised article offered on the markets of the world during the previous hundred years. From the day this soap was first put on the market in 1812 it was advertised in a small way but persistently and continuously. For the last 50 years it has been one of the best advertised products in the world. Then the directors decided that because the factory was selling to capacity, advertising could be discontinued as a useless expense. In less than one year from that time the business of the firm dropped 35 per cent in volume. That soap is again being advertised and we understand it was necessary to spend $5,000,000 in extra publicity, over previous appropriations to get back to normal.

This firm was not a "flirt in advertising." Its product had been used for generations and was known in the homes of the world but it cost its makers $5,000,000 to learn that advertising was as necessary to it as the raw products that enter into its making. The history of merchandising is filled with stories like this, but only a few have found it possible to win back trade foolishly thrown away.

M. B. Morfield and family left Monday night for Capper, Wyoming, where they will make their future home. Mr. Morfield has been in the employ of the Joyce-Fruit company in the capacity of manager of the dry goods department for something over a year, and has made many friends while here. He goes to Wyoming to accept a position with the Webel Mercantile company and we predict for him nothing but success. He will be succeeded in his position here by Mr. C. C. Tucker, who has been in the employ of the Joyce-Fruit company for about six months, and who is already pretty well known among the people of our town and country. He is a very pleasant and affable man to transact business with, and we feel sure that he will fill the position with credit to himself as well as the firm for which he is working.

Some FACTS About Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Here are authentic figures from the Ford factory at Detroit. They show you just how many Ford cars and trucks have been built each month since January 1, 1921 and how many have been sold to retail customers, in the United States.

	Produced	Delivered to Retail Customers
JANUARY	29,883	37,208
FEBRUARY	35,305	63,603
MARCH	61,886	87,221

Total Production 127,074 Total Retail Sales 208,032

showing that actual sales for the first three months of 1921 exceeded production by 80,958 Ford cars and trucks!

April requisitions already specify 107,719 additional cars and trucks and the estimated April output of the factory and assembly plants combined calls for only 90,000!

These facts clearly show that the demand for Ford products is growing much faster than manufacturing facilities to produce and were it not for the dealers' limited stocks, which are now being rapidly depleted, many more customers would have been compelled to wait for their cars. It will be only a matter of weeks, therefore, until a big surplus of orders will prevent anything like prompt deliveries.

If you would be sure of having your Ford car or truck when you want it, you should place your order now. Don't delay. Phone us or drop us a card.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL Sunday School Lesson

(By REV. F. B. FITZWATER, D. D.,
Teacher of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago.)
(Copyright, 1921, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR JUNE 5

MAKING THE NATION CHRISTIAN.

LESSON TEXT--Psalm 133:1-3; Prov. 14:34.

GOLDEN TEXT--Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people.--Prov. 14:34.

REFERENCE MATERIAL--Deut. 6:5; Psalm 133:1-3.

PRIMARY TOPIC--Jesus' Love for His Country.

JUNIOR TOPIC--Loving and Helping Our Country.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC--Loyalty to Our Country.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC--Christian Principles in Law and Government.

Not "Making the Nation Christian," if the lesson committee please. Neither of the passages chosen for today's lesson has any bearing on the title chosen by the committee. However, they do set forth some important teachings regarding the nation, and the teacher should carefully bring out their vital meaning. The New Testament nowhere teaches that any nation will be made Christian in this dispensation; but rather that Christ is gathering out from among the nations the people who shall constitute His church, showing that God's purpose is the salvation of individuals.

1. "Blessed is the Nation Whose God is the Lord." (Ps. 133:12).

This verse shows Israel's peculiar distinction. Israel is the only nation of which, in name even, it could be said that Jehovah was its God. He called this nation into being for a peculiar purpose. It was not a case where a nation chose God, but where God chose a nation for His own inheritance. It would be blessed to have an inheritance in God, but how infinitely more blessed to be God's inheritance! No nation can have Israel's unique place, but the nation which today gives God His rightful place in its affairs shall be singularly blessed. America has been singularly blessed in the times when she acknowledged God. In the recent awful war when the national congress set aside a day of prayer, God heard the cry of His people and victory was given to the allies.

II. A Nation's Glory (Prov. 14:34).

The only fame for which a nation may justly be proud is righteousness, the rendering to all their dues. It is this that makes a nation strong and influential. A nation that sins--counts its sacred covenants as "scraps of paper," becomes an outcast among the nations and eventually goes down to ignominious defeat. The nation that has no righteousness as its standard has no right to exist.

III. Christian Citizenship (Rom. 13:1-10).

The believer in Christ is a citizen as well as a church member. Intelligent Christians will show loyalty to the state as well as to the church.

1. The Christian's obligation to the state (vv. 1-7). This obligation is upon all Christians. The reason this obligation is universal is that civil government is ordained of God, and the rulers are His representatives. Society could not exist without government. It is God's purpose that man should live under authority. To refuse obedience to civil authority is to resist God.

(2) The spirit of this obedience (vv. 5, 7). It is to be conscientious, that is, it is to be regarded not merely as serving a good purpose, but morally right.

(3) The nature of this obedience (vv. 6, 7). (a) Payment of personal and property taxes. The citizens who enjoy the benefits of government are morally bound to support it. (b) Payment of duty upon merchandise and license fees. The business exchange between nations must be regulated. For such regulations expense is incurred, for which benefits the citizens should pay. (c) Veneration of magistrates. "Fear to whom fear." Those who fear God should venerate his representatives, that is, civil rulers. (d) "Honor to whom honor," that is, honor of civil servants because of the ministry they perform.

2. The Christian's obligation to his fellow citizens (vv. 8-10). This is summed up in the word "love." Love is a perpetual obligation. The only debt that is right to owe is that of love. This love forbids defrauding in matters of property; it forbids going into debt where there is no reasonable certainty of being able to meet the obligation; it forbids defrauding in matters of moral purity. Where there is love, adultery cannot be committed; it forbids murder; it forbids stealing; it forbids coveting; for coveting means a desire for that which belongs to another; it forbids the working of any ill to one's neighbor.

The Lord's Sabbath.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily, my Sabbath ye shall keep; for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the Lord that doth sanctify you.--Exodus 31:12, 13.

The Righteous Should Rejoice.
Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice, ye righteous; and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart. Psalms 32:11.

OTIS NEWS.

Bill Tipton has been quite sick at the home of his grandparents Henry Tipton.

Mrs. R. E. Tucker spent the weekend with her daughter, Mrs. Weaver. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor spent Sunday at the Ellsworth home.

Several cars of hay a day are being shipped from here. The price is very low, but the farmers cannot afford to hold it for better prices. Everyone wants the money now.

Several ladies from town spent Friday with their friend, Mrs. C. C. Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Morosi visited Otis friends Sunday.

Mrs. T. Calvani who has been so ill is improving.

Mrs. Ray Poteet and Mary Elizabeth left for a lengthy visit to her old home in Nebraska Wednesday night. Her two sisters and father live near that place.

Otis will have a first class garage for the convenience of motorists in this section of the county. The business will be opened about July first and will be conducted by an experienced garage man who formerly farmed in this section. This will fill a long felt need of the Otis community and the venture is sure to prove a success.

The farmers' meeting at the school house last Saturday night was not so well attended as it should have been on account of threatening rain but those present made the most of their opportunity and appointed a committee in each community to solicit names as members of the Carlsbad Project Alfalfa Growers' Association. This committee will report next Saturday night at the meeting to be held at the Otis school house.

Mrs. Edna Etter, Adrifton and H. Benson chaperoned a crowd of the young folks to the Tannil dam on a swimming party yesterday afternoon, and later to the H. H. Dilley home where a delightful dance was enjoyed. The occasion was given in honor of young Lieutenant David Sellards, who leaves in the morning for Camp Presidio to spend the summer. Before going to the Dilley home for the dance, the young folks drove out to the Blue Bird oil well and enjoyed a fine wicker roast and picnic supper.

A GEM FROM THE CONGRESSIONAL RECORD.

Congressman Tom Williams (Rep., Ill.) was discussing Civil Service in connection with the Postoffice Department, when he was interrupted thus:

Mr. Garrett (Dem., Tenn.)—Has the Postmaster General (Mr. Hays) ever stood a civil service examination? (Laughter.)

Mr. Williams—No. And while I have the highest respect for the distinguished gentlemen who constitute the Cabinet of the President, yet, in my opinion, if they had been required to pass a civil service examination such as these rural letter carriers and fourth-class postmasters required to pass; outside of Hughes and Hoover, none of them would have been able to get on the eligible list. (Laughter and applause.)

BATEMAN ACT NOT REPEALED BY LEGISLATURE

The Bateman act was not repealed by the act of the 5th legislature—Chapter 46, laws of 1921—which provides that school warrants shall be paid in the order of issuance and shall bear interest. Attorney General Harry S. Bowman held today in an opinion for Educational Auditor John Joerns.

The 1921 act provides that warrants issued and afterward stamped "no funds" shall be numbered and paid consecutively. At first glance it was believed this provision encroached upon the Bateman act, but the attorney general in his opinion to Mr. Joerns held it merely modified the older act.

According to the attorney general's opinion only the moneys accruing from levies for the year in which the warrants were issued can be used for their payment and those remaining unpaid at the close of the school year—August 31—can be paid only from moneys coming from delinquent payments for that year. Educational Auditor Joerns said under the opinion warrants now outstanding and those issued up to August 31 must be paid from funds coming into the county treasury under the levies for 1920. He believed that most of the counties would be able to clean up their outstanding warrants by that date, although he said, some would not.

THE CONFUSION.

What kind of a world do I live in now?
What kind of a measly mess
Is something in man by brain and brow
In vast uncertainty?

I gaze at you, you gaze at me
With troubled, questioning eye;
"What hideous thing is this," said he
"The world can not get by?"

"A dragon of an hundred heads," said I,
A fuzzy, wuzzy thing,
That shakes and turns the world
awry
With its everlasting stinging.

What kind of a neighbor is this of mine
With that stony puzzled stare?
Where is that smile of his, benign,
Spreading joy everywhere?

What manner of merchant do I compensate,
That scowls at his petty gains?
One hundred he takes, adds fifty for freight
Then grins at the sad remains.

My banker; oh where is thy ten per cent smile
Of a year ago or two?
Thy comradeship no more do I beguile,
Am I broke, or are you?

What cast out bolshevik, preacher mine,
From Heaven's dome above
Hath led me from His arms divine
And robbed me of His love?

I gaze at you, you gaze at me
With troubled, questioning eye;
"What cure for this," says I; says he
Can you and I apply?

Our swords made sharp, our lances keen,
Make heads from the dragon fly;
Change the ugly form to a yellow gleam,
Into gold for you and I.

The gold of love, of hope and peace,
Makes right the earth again;
That blesses life in glad eucrase
In the turgid hearts of men.

RESOURCES OF STATE BANKS DECREASE NEARLY $2,000,000.

Santa Fe, May 26.—Total resources of the state banks in New Mexico, on the call of April 28, showed a decrease of nearly $2,000,000, as compared with the same call in 1920. It is shown in a comparative statement issued by James B. Read, state bank examiner. The total in 1920 was $26,321,374.71; in 1921 it was $24,423,468.15, the decrease being $1,897,906.56.

On the last call the demand deposits totaled $10,159,577.79, while the time deposits amounted to $6,894,834.03. The total of all deposits was $17,057,938.72, which was a decrease of $3,411,815.81.

The rediscounts alone showed an increase, the amount of this increase being $718,655.78.

The other items showing decreases were: Loans and discounts, $588,183.85; cash and due from banks, $1,276,930.02; bills payable, $732,984.64.

Up to the time of going to press there seems to be no clue to the cause of the killing of the two Mexicans below Loving which occurred last Wednesday night. They were both old people—a man and his wife and no one seems to know of anyone who were enemies to them. The man was found dead a hundred yards away from the tent in which they were living, and the woman was found dead in the tent door. Both were shot with a 45 calibre revolver, the man showing powder burns as a result of being in close proximity to the party who did the shooting.

Raymond Thompson and Herbert L. Hays were here this week with a commercial airplane and took passengers up for $5 a trip. Several of our citizens availed themselves of the opportunity to take a ride in the air.

Dr. Von Almen, of El Paso, was in Carlsbad the first of the week.

WOOL MARKET IS LOOKING UP

A dispatch in a Texas paper from San Angelo contains some information that is encouraging to wool growers. It says the open wool market returned after a year's absence. At an auction sale there 520,000 pounds of long and short wool sold at from 16 to 21½ cents. The statement is made that anticipating the emergency tariff will further strengthen the market, and the growers are expecting still better prices at the auction to be held there in June.

Since the emergency tariff has passed congress it would seem that if it does have any effect on the wool market it should be rather soon. This is about the most encouraging bit of news which has come to the wool growers for several months.

Leo J. Franklin, age 24 years, 8 months and 10 days, died at the Sister's Sanitarium yesterday of pulmonary tuberculosis. Mr. Franklin has been here for six months, and was in pretty bad condition when he arrived, and nothing could be done to prevent the disease getting in its work. The remains were taken care of by Thorne's Undertaking establishment, and the body was shipped to Dallas, the former home of the deceased, for interment. Mrs. Marietta Franklin, mother, and a brother, who came down from Amarillo, accompanied the remains. Mrs. Franklin has been rooming at the Walter Craft home recently.

The Pecos is on a tare again, for the first time in several months. Water is running around both of the spillways at McMillan and Avalon, and plenty of water is stored now to last through any sort of a season. The local office has no notice of any rise of any importance coming down, and it is only supposed to be a minor affair, but it looks good to see the old Pecos muddy again.

Walter E. Bramhall and F. L. Andrews, representing the El Paso Herald, were in Carlsbad yesterday.

ATTEMPTED HOLDUP

Friday night as a Mr. Burkhead, was going across the Hagerman Heights bridge to his camp on the other side of the river he was accosted on the bridge by some unknown person, and struck on the side of his head with a stick. The blow partially put him out of commission, but he rallied and succeeded in inflicting a few successful blows upon his assailant, with enough force to frighten him away, and when last seen the culprit was beating it down the railroad. Mr. Burkhead didn't know who his assailant was, and had no idea of what his motive was.

Everett Grantham, one of our home boys, who is located on the big battleship New Mexico, in the Canal Zone, writes some very interesting letters to his mother. He is an ensign, and takes down the testimony in the court martial cases that come up on his ship. He seems to be enjoying his work and we notice that he gets promoted along as often as the most of them.
