TWENTY-NINTH YEAR.

CARLSBAD, NEW MEXICO, FRIDAY, JULY 15, 1921.

NUMBER 33.

EDDY COUNTY MAY GET PUBLIC HEALTH OFFICER

At the Chamber of Commerce luncheon held yesterday noon at the Palace Cafe it was brought out that Eddy county now has a good chance of getting a full time county health officer with an office in Carlsbad and an assistant. The matter was laid before the club for their action by Dr. L. H. Pate in a very clear manner, he stating that there is now a movement throughout the state to have a full time county health officer and Dr. Waller will come here next week to take the matter up with the county commissioners. Dr. Waller was in Carlsbad last Saturday and requested Dr. Pate to bring this matter before the Chamber of Commerce and it heartily approved of the movement. Dr. Pate was asked several questions by different ones and went into details of a public health officer's duties. The salary of such an officer and assistant will be $5,500.00 per year and the money will be raised by a tax levy of one-half mill. Two counties in New Mexico are entitled to help from the Rockefeller Foundation for health work and Eddy county may be one of the two to receive this aid. The duties of a public health officer are many and deal with the prevention of all kinds of diseases. When a case of communicable disease is discovered it is reported to the county health officer by the physician attending the case, then it is the duty of the health officer to quarantine the case together with all persons who may have been exposed until the danger period has passed. The physician first called then treats the case in any manner he sees fit, it only being the duty of the health officer to stand between the citizens of the county and all contagious diseases and they may be prevented from spreading. In addition, the health officer inspects all dairies of the county as well as all farm houses and tries to educate the people to be sanitary and clean, which is for their own good, and teach them how to combat epidemics when they do occur. In addition he will have charge of the health of all school children of the county and will inspect and vaccinate them free of charge. The health officer will not practice as a physician except in the case of indigents throughout the county. Dr. Pate said New Mexico has the best health laws of any state in the union and that there is no other way in which the county could spend $5,500 and get so much good for the money. This work cannot longer be neglected and becomes imperative in view of the fact that on December 30th, 1921 municipal health officers will be done away with throughout the state.

W. A. Craig, chairman of the military affairs committee, was called on for a report and he designated Major E. P. Bujac to explain the contingency which has arisen in military affairs in our city. This Major did very eloquently and convincingly. The Major said Troop B, New Mexico cavalry, stationed in this city, has an enrollment of 64 cavalrymen and three officers, expending $20,000 in maintenance and salaries, that there is now held two drills each week which have had a small attendance and that the success of the troop has largely depended on the efforts put forth by Captain West, who has now sent in his resignation on account of not having sufficient amount of time to devote to the work, and that it was desirable at this time to have an expression from the Chamber of Commerce in an effort to induce Capt. West to withdraw his resignation and continue as troop commander. All the members voted as a unit to have Capt. West continue as commander of the cavalry troop and asked him to submit a program for later action by the club which will make it possible for him to perform the duties of the office with additional help. Major Bujac suggested that a troop clerk be employed to assist Capt. West and this will be acted on later. The Major also reminded the business men that they should encourage their employees to join the cavalry, attend drills regularly and each year attend encampment without taking the time out of their salaries. In the past Carlsbad's military unit has been the best in the state and the cavalry troop should be the best also and in the opinion of the Major will be the best if the business men and citizens of the community and city will cooperate and encourage the efforts being put forth by the boys. Francis G. Tracy moved that the Chamber of Commerce extend to Major Bujac its sincere thanks for so clearly and eloquently placing this matter before the club which motion received the vote of every one present.

President Hubert then called on Joyce Cox, of Cameron, Texas, for a speech. Although young in years, this bright young man showed plainly the marks of a coming orator of the Lone Star state. He made everyone feel that he was proud of his native state and closed his remarks by discussing the schools of the southwest.

J. H. (Jake) Linn spoke on the power of advertising and his plans for celebrating the Fourth of July in 1923 by pulling off a gigantic water carnival. Mr. Linn wanted and received an expression of approval from the Chamber of Commerce and a promise from them that they will do everything possible to make it a success. The mayor will issue a proclamation some time in the future for every citizen who has a bathing suit to go to the river so that a large picture may be made by Photographer Ray V. Davis to be used in advertising the coming event and at the same time the occasion will afford a half-holiday and much pleasure to the citizens of the city and community participating.

Carlsbad is probably the only city in New Mexico which is in a position to pull off a water carnival and it will attract visitors from all over the state.

After a report from Frank Smith of the Boy Scouts on the bath house meeting adjourned until the next regular luncheon two weeks hence.

DEATH OF JOHN CORLEY.

Word has reached here of the death of John Corley, until recently a resident of this city. Mr. Corley died at Las Vegas, where he was being treated at a hospital and the family residing at Roswell had the remains shipped to that city for burial the first of last week. He was about 55 years old and left a family of children nearly all grown. His two brothers from Philadelphia were present at the funeral and one of them being a priest, laid the body of his brother to rest, according to the rites of that church. Here in Carlsbad where the family is so well known, sympathy is expressed by their friends and neighbors.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC.

The annual Sunday School picnic of the Methodist church will be given Wednesday, July 20. The teachers request the entire Sunday School to meet at the church at nine o'clock and automobiles will convey them to the picnic grounds where it is hoped a pleasant day will be spent. All persons are requested to bring sufficient lunch and some to divide with their friends. A nice program of outdoor sports will be arranged by the teachers.

HAY TRADE CONDITIONS OF THE WEEK.

The continued small receipts at all markets is causing a further strengthening in the tone where any demand is shown. The unbroken drought has not changed the crop prospects for the better and farmers are still more inclined to hold their hay for anticipated higher values. The summary of receipts this week shows that the offerings at the principal markets are only a third of the receipts for this week a year ago.—Hay Trade Journal.

CLARENCE KEPPLE FUNERAL AT ARTESIA.

War's tragic side was again brought home to the people of Artesia when the remains of Clarence Kepple were tenderly lifted from the north bound passenger train of Thursday night by members of the Kepple Post American Legion. The casket containing his body was carried to his home escorted by a special conveyance from Fort Bliss, members of the American Legion and a large number of friends. The remains lay in state at the Kepple home with a guard of honor placed by Post Commander Samelson and held throughout the night.

Clarence was an Artesia boy—a typical American—who responded in serving his country in its destined work to banish terrorism and brutality from earth and establish justice, freedom, brotherhood and good government among men. He enlisted April 29th, 1918, and was soon assigned to Camp Funston, Company A of the 356th Regiment of Infantry, 89th Division. On the 23rd day of May 1918, his regiment departed to add their might to the thousands of other liberty loving Americans ten being rused to the assistance of the heroic French and British armies, who for the past four years had grappled with the hordes of barbarians from Germany on the battle fields of France and Belgium. They left their homes and loved ones to fight for the principles of Liberty, Justice and Equality and they were confident of success.

It was on the 15th day of August 1918 that the 89th Division drew its first engagement—that on the front line opposite Xivray and Montsec. Day and night until August 23rd the boys stood up under the ordeal like veterans, performing daring deeds worthy of note. Clarence was listed as an auto mechanic, but in such close quarters and the need of cool deliberate men Clarence came forward and tendered his services, his valor of going out on the battle field and bringing to safety wounded comrades, was tried time and again. His commanding officer in reporting his death said: "Having joined his regiment only a few weeks before and new to the service Clarence Kepple displayed heroism worthy of its best traditions."

On the early morning of September 23rd while participating in a raid on Dom Martin Woods, Clarence Kepple while acting as a specialist messenger was killed by shrapnel fire. His remains were tenderly cared for and were buried in the American Cemetery at Bonlinville, France. His body was disinterred and shipped back to Artesia, New Mexico, arriving June 30th.

"Home again" Ah; these words! hollow and mocking—Where his bright future had pointed to fame,

Borne over the breakers and wild billows rocking, Back where nativity first knew his name. Wave proudly over him, folds of Old Glory! How before then has fled war's hideous wrath. Light of the gold star illumines his story. Telling he died 'neath his flag and his faith.

The funeral services were held Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock. As the flower laden casket was carried into St. Anthony's church the Artesia Concert Band played "God be with you till we meet again." A Requiem Low Mass was chanted by the Rev. Father Raymond of Carlsbad. Special music was furnished by Mesdames Gates, Daniels, Clark and McCreary. The funeral procession to Woodbine Cemetery was one of the longest ever witnessed. When the cemetery was reached, the Artesia band played "Chopin's Funeral March." At the grave Father Raymond delivered a well worded oration, followed by Post Commander Samelson and Adjutant Fred Cole of the local American Legion. A firing squad from Carlsbad fired a salute and while the flag covered casket was lowered into the grave, Rev. Davis, acting Legion Chaplain, offered a prayer. Taps by the bugler echoed far to the east and as its dying sound was faintly heard, the friends of Clarence Kepple Placed him at rest where the sunlight first creeping, Steals o'er the threshold of a new dawning day; Where the wind of evening, its requiem sweeping, Sobs o'er his white cross its sad, plaintive lay.

And Columbia bowed, as over the ocean, Came but a chrysalis of manhood laid low, Then fire of pride, at a soldier's devotion, Shone through her tears like a jeweled gem's glow.

In the distance the band played "The Star Spangled Banner," gave proof to the patriotic and sympathetic friends and acquaintances, of a dead soldier that it was his wish that it:

Faint out! Oh flag! Thy mystic

BIG REDUCTION IN PRICES AT THE SWEET SHOP

It has been the constant of the Sweet Shop since it was first opened in 1915, to supply the people of Carlsbad with the very best products in its line at the very lowest prices consistent with the quality of the goods it has offered to the people.

This article contains facts that can be verified by anyone who cares to take the trouble to consult the advertised prices of 1915.

In reading this article a few things which are common knowledge should be borne in mind, such as the increased costs over 1915 of carrying on any business, including such items as up-keep, increased cost of materials, high freight and express rates, (which are continued up to the present time.)

As for material, everyone can remember in 1915 when sugar could be bought retail for around 20 pounds for a dollar and shelled nuts at from 40 to 60c per pound. Today sugar costs wholesale more than as much as it did at that time. In 1915 we bought shelled pecans at 25c. a pound by the barrel. Recently we paid $100 for 100 pounds, or $1 per pound.

Cake chocolate for manufacturing, which in 1915 cost us 18 cents per pound, today costs 45c, and so on down the list of everything entering into the manufacture of candy.

It is the tendency of the people today in talking of price reduction to compare wholesale prices with the wholesale prices which prevailed at the time they were the highest ever known and to compare retail prices with pre-war retail prices, who both should be judged by the same scale.

With these things in mind, we feel sure you will appreciate our efforts to maintain pre-war prices during the past period of high prices, and our reductions in prices the present period of deflation began.

Our vanilla ice cream, which today is of higher quality than ever before, sells for 11c. a portion when served or 50c a quart when carried out for home consumption. This is exactly the same price at which it was sold when we opened for business in 1915 and throughout the intervening time, except the addition of the 1c federal tax. Fancy ice cream sells for only 50c. a gallon more than it did in 1915, in spite of the fact that fruits and nuts entering into its manufacture are still from two to four hundred per cent higher.

The Coco Cola Co. is advertising, and has set as a standard a 6 oz. Coco Cola. From now on we will sell a 6 oz. Coco Cola for 5c, plus the 1c. tax, 6c.

All our former 8c drinks will hereafter be 6c., including ice cream cones.

May 1st, we reduced the price of our home made candy to 40c. per pound and chocolate to 80c. This the home made candy down to its pre-war price and chocolate to within 6c. of their pre-war price.

Our home made candy is a product of the highest grade nuts, fruits, creams, cocoanuts and other materials that the market affords. Our chocolates are the finest that can be bought at any price.

You may rest assured that in keeping with our policy, we will reduce everything else in our store to a pre-war price even faster than conditions justify.

BASEBALL PLAYED FOR PRIZE BANNED BY NEW MEXICO LAW.

Santa Fe, N. M. — Baseball in New Mexico comes within the scope of the anti-gambling law passed by the Fifth legislature, if played for anything of value. So states Attorney General H. C. Bowman in an opinion sent to Justice of the Peace R. M. Parsons of Roswell. The attorney general holds that baseball contains a sufficient "element of chance" to bring it within the taboo category if money or anything of value is up on the game. Mr. Bowman also confirms the impression that auction bridge and other polite card games are under the ban in private residences, even though nothing but guest prizes are awarded.

Chess, billiards, pool and dominoes are classed with baseball if played for anything of value. Pool, card and billiard tables, however, do not have to be smashed by the organization owning them Mr. Bowman says, as he holds they do not come within the list of gambling equipment prescribed in one section of the law.

V. Thorp, who had been so seriously ill at the Eddy County Hospital that for a time his life was despaired of, had so far convalesced that he left that institution Wednesday and accompanied his grandfather S. M. McDaniel to the home of the latter at Artesia. Later he will return here for a visit and will go from here to his home at Knowles.

JOYCE-CRAWFORD.

The local Presbyterian church was well filled Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock with friends and well wishers of the contracting parties, to witness the ceremony of marriage between William Paul Joyce of Cleveland, Ohio, and Miss Lillian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Crawford of this city.

The little stone church, which lends itself well to decorative effects, was in festive dress for the occasion, palms and cut flowers being artistically arranged in just the proper amount to render a beautiful setting for the ladies in their many hued afternoon dresses. Wreaths of smilax adorned the end of each pew and baskets of roses were placed on each window sill. The decorations were the work of several friends of the young bride.

The ushers were John Franklin Joyce, of Franklin, Tennessee, John R. Joyce, Virgil McCollum and Glenwood Jackson.

Previous to the ceremony Miss Purdy sang the old favorite, "Oh Promise Me" and "Because", Miss Linn at the organ, accompanying. The party entered to the strains of the wedding march. The bridesmaids all special friends of the bride, and one of them a classmate in an eastern college, wore dainty organdy gowns and hats to match and were Miss Dorothy Ryan, Miss Davies, Miss Frances Moore and Miss Helen Wright; they carried bouquets of pink roses. These were followed by the ring bearer, little C. D. Rickman bearing the ring on a satin cushion, with as much gravity as though he were responsible for the entire ceremony. June Joyce and Marybelle Rickman made dainty flower girls in their organdy dresses of white over pink silk, and pink sashes, scattering rose leaves for the dainty feet of the bride. Miss Brinkley, maid of honor, wore a handsome lace dress over pink satin with large picture hat.

Then "came the bride, all dressed in white" on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. Her dress was an exquisite creation of charmeuse, lace trimmed, and a long filmy veil made the setting still more beautiful. Petite and shy, yet with perfect composure she answered the questions and repeated the vows that changed her life from carefree, laughing Lillian Crawford to the more responsible position of Mrs. William Paul Joyce. The bridegroom and best man, Charles Montgomery met the bride at the altar where the full ring ceremony pronounced by Rev. Geo. H. Givan was given in an impressive manner.

The reception at the Crawford home was a very pleasant and informal affair. In the receiving line were Mesdames L. S. Crawford and J. F. Joyce, Misses Davies and Brinkley, and Mr. and Mrs. William Paul Joyce, who received the heartiest best wishes and congratulations from their many friends. The bride received a large number of gifts of cut glass, silver and china and a substantial check in four figures from her father.

The wedding cake centered the table in the dining room, and was in heart shape, beautifully decorated; this was cut by the bride and divided among her young friends. Miss Roberts secured the money, Miss Grace Jones the button and the ring fell to John R. Joyce, with his usual good luck. An ice course was served the guests. The bride's bouquet of creamy roses was caught by her maid of honor, Miss Brinkley.

The newly weds left on the night train for their new home at Cleveland, Ohio, where Mr. Joyce occupies a responsible position in one of the banks of that city. They were showered with rice at the station, as the train pulled out.

By this marriage two of our oldest and most prominent families are united, the bridegroom being a cousin of J. F. Joyce, of this city, and well known here where he had a position in the First National Bank, prior to the war. In that great struggle, Mr. Joyce offered his services to his country and was accepted, serving until the close of the war. A young man of splendid mental attainments and business qualifications, and of fine principles, he is worthy of his bride.

Mrs. Joyce is perhaps the most popular girl in Carlsbad. A graduate of our High school, she also had the advantage of a year's instruction at one of the finest finishing schools in the east. An only daughter, idolized by her family, she is yet an unspoiled girl, unaffected and sincere, with a smile and good word for old and young. She will be greatly missed in our little city where the community feeling is so evident.

May love ever be the leading spirit of their lives, which we pray may be full of sunshine and happiness.

Camp meeting at Queen will begin July 30, this year and indications are good for a fine meeting. Brother Terry tells us that Reverend Moon, pastor of the church and well known to many of our citizens, will preach part of the time, and other ministers will likely be present. These meetings are always enjoyable and profitable and are looked forward to from one year to another. An especial invitation is extended to Carlsbad people, Reverend Terry saying, "Everybody come!"

WOOL GROWERS OF NEW MEXICO FAVOR TARIFF INCREASE

Roswell, N. M. July 10.—Prager Miller, president of the New Mexico Wool Growers' Association believes the schedules in the tariff bill, as it has been reported out of the committee, are entirely inadequate as far as the sheep industry is concerned in particular and the agricultural interests in general. He also says that in his opinion entirely too much stress is being put upon exports, rather than looking to the condition in the home market. He suggests that wool growers, cattle men, bankers and farmers in New Mexico arrange at once to send representatives of each of these groups to appear before the committee at the proper time in Washington.

"The first consideration, it seems to me, in finding a solution for the present ills of country," said Mr. Miller, "is the restoration of the American market. Over a period of ten years immediately prior to the world war we exported only 10 per cent of the production of the country. We cannot expect now at the conclusion of hostilities, considering the financial status of Europe, to increase our exports over the pre-war average, at least for several years to come."

Mr. Miller believes that restoration of adequate credit is the solution for the home markets problem.

"Aside from demanding legitimate credits, there is one other important question to all New Mexicans at this time," he says, "Being large producers of agricultural and livestock products we are, regardless of political affiliations, deeply interested to what the rates in the regular tariff bill now being introduced in congress shall be."

"The very fact that foreign countries are in a distressed financial condition with their currency greatly depreciated is argument enough for those who believe in a tariff that the rates should be higher than they ever were in our history."

"Consider the fact that of all our agricultural production during the pre-war years we only exported a very small per cent. For instance, we exported only 3.8 per cent of our total grain production and consumed 96.2 per cent in the United States. If sufficient tariff to maintain the standard of wages and living would destroy our export for the meagre 3.8 per cent surplus, we would at least retain a market for 96.2 per cent of our total production."

"Today the west is facing defeat in congress in its effort to continue development, more particularly because congressmen representing highly centralized industrial sections of the Atlantic seaboard are dreaming of cheap food from Argentina, Australia and Siberia. If advisable to do so, New Mexico should back her able senators by sending to Washington a committee representing bankers, cattlemen, sheepmen and farmers."

JUNE WET MONTH SAYS WEATHER MAN; MOISTURE TWICE NORMAL AMOUNT.

According to the monthly report by the Santa Fe weather bureau, June was one of the wettest months of the year, the total precipitation being 2.85 inches, or an excess above normal of 1.81 inches. The highest temperature for the month was 87 degrees and the lowest 40, while the mean for the month was 63 degrees. There were 14 clear days, 10 partly cloudy and 6 cloudy and 12 on which there were thunder storms. The total of the possible amount of sunshine for the month was 73 per cent and the average hourly velocity of the wind was 7.6 miles an hour.

GOVERNMENT BUYS HORSES AT ARTESIA.

Artesia, N. M., July 10.—Government horse buyers have been in Artesia for several days buying horses for government use. A large number of first class horses have been delivered to the yards at Artesia, for the fair prices of $75 to $150 per animal. The horses must be 15½ hands in height and weigh around 1,100 pounds, suitable for either cavalry or light artillery purposes.

Regular meeting of Carlsbad W. C. T. U. was held Wednesday afternoon at the Baptist Sunday School rooms with a good attendance. Mrs. D. F. Sellards presiding. Matters of interest to the union were discussed and a short program given. Miss Clyde Pearce gave a reading which is worthy of special mention. Delegates were elected to the National Convention which is to be held at San Francisco from August 18 to 25, those so honored being Mesdames Diddel Clark and C. H. Dismar. At the close of the business session, delicious ice cream was served.

Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Daugherty Mrs. Dwight Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. Grant, Mrs. Julius Forko, Mr. and Mrs. Patton, Mrs. Coats and sister, Mrs. Walter O'Cheskey, Madam O'Cheskey, Mrs. Booth Hays, Mrs. Ernest Stevenson, Miss Roberta Henderson, John Harvey.

Mrs. W. C. Sellers has been quite ill for the past week but is convalescing at the present time.

WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

Washington, D. C.—Probably no piece of financial legislation ever introduced in the American Congress has been regarded as more mysterious and sinister than the bill recently introduced by Senator Penrose, (Rep. Penn.) authorizing the secretary of the treasury to extend the time of payment of our war loans to foreign governments, including interest, about $1,000,000,000, and to receive bonds and obligations of any foreign government in substitution of those now or hereafter held by the United States under such terms and rates of interest as may be deemed for the best interests of the United States, etc.

As analyzed by Senator McKellar (Dem. Tenn.) the proposed plan is for the United States to swap its indebtedness, 99 per cent of which is probably good, and to take German, Austrian or Turkish bonds for it. Senator McKellar charged that the bill is an effort to help our late allies to repudiate their debts and give us a lot of worthless bonds for them.

In other words, the allies would discharge their obligations to the United States which are good and collectable by turning over to this government the bonds and securities they receive from the Central Powers in payment of reparations.

Senator Smoot (Rep., Utah) asserted that neither the secretary of the treasury or the president of the United States had any idea of taking worthless bonds from one country in exchange for good bonds from another, to which Senator McKellar replied that if such is not their intention, why put the provision in the bill? Why give them that authority?

Senator McKellar charged that the bonds of Germany, Austria and Turkey were worthless, and asserted that no other bonds were mentioned except the bonds of these three countries. "The Allies," he said, "have no other bonds of other countries except those of Germany, Austria and Turkey which bonds they are now receiving as reparations."

Senator Smoot included in possible bonds receivable those of Belgium, Italy, Poland and the little independent countries set up by the war to which we have advanced money. He also said that if the secretary of the treasury undertook to exchange good bonds for worthless ones that Congress would stop him immediately, but Senator McKellar prompted by Senator Fletcher, retorted that if one-tenth of the secrecy continues to prevail about this indebtedness the transaction might be completed before Congress knew anything about it.

Senator McKellar made a strong plea for the collection of the interest on this indebtedness, about $500,000,000 per annum, in order to reduce taxation, saying:

"I say to my republican friends that the burden is upon you for legislation. You promised the people to reduce taxation. You are not doing it. I call your attention to the fact that there are but two possible ways in which you can reduce taxation in this country, at this time. One is by the collection of the interest on this ten or eleven billion dollars of foreign indebtedness. The interest on it will amount to $500,000,000 a year in round figures, which will be one-tenth of the taxation we impose if we spend $500,000,000 per year. If you will collect that interest you can reduce taxes one-ninth."

Continuing he said: "I hope that provision which gives the Secretary of the Treasury the right to substitute German, Austrian and Turkish bonds for the bonds of such nations as England, France and Italy and Belgium will be stricken from the bill."

Concerning the power to take bonds of one country for bonds of another, Senator Smoot admitted he thought that is a great power to confer upon the Secretary of the Treasury.

Secretary Mellon has appeared before the Finance Committee of the Senate which is holding hearings on the bill, but beyond the statement that the only funding negotiations entered into were with Great Britain, shed no light upon the matter. The Democrats in the Senate are determined to bring to light all the details of this mysterious proposal. A Patchwork "Peace."

"Peace," by Congressional resolution is scheduled in time for it to be signed by the President by July 4. The Peace Resolution is a patchwork of the Knox resolution and the Porter resolution. It simply declares the state of war at an end as in the Porter resolution, and reserves our war rights under the armistice and the Treaty of Versailles, and confirms our seizure and holding of enemy property as in the Knox resolution. The Democratic members of the conference were not called in until the Republicans had sewed the last patch on the document, which the Democratic conferees then refused to sign.

In the opinion of Democratic leaders this leaves the question of peace just where it was before, except that the United States will no longer have authority to maintain American troops on German soil, if the compromise is agreed to and signed. Some are inclined to regard the withdrawal of the troops on the Rhine as only another desertion of our allied associates.

If the administration has any plans for the negotiations of a separate peace treaty with Germany direct, or of making peace with that nation through the Allies, or as President Harding expressed it, "to engage under the existing treaty," they have not been made public. The passage of the peace resolution in no wise relieves it of the necessity of making a peace by treaty.

Democrats Force Borah Disarmament Plan.

The sentiment created by Democratic spokesmen in Congress and the Democratic press in favor of the Borah three-nation plan for disarmament proved too strong for the administration to resist. The Borah resolution passed the senate after it was understood that President Harding had given his approval of it to Senator Poindexter. The Porter substitute for an all-nation land-and-sea conference passed the House after it was understood that President Harding had given his approval of it to Chairman Porter of the House Foreign Affairs Committee. Finally, President Harding wrote to Republican floor leader Mondell saying it was immaterial what the wording of resolution should be, but not until it was a moral certainty that the House would pass the Borah resolution, which it did last Wednesday. It now goes with the amended Naval bill to the Senate.

The President has had the peculiar distinction of being on all sides of the disarmament question. He is supposed to be working on a disarmament proposal of his own, which, according to at least one republican newspaper is first to include a secret agreement with Great Britain and Japan. Whatever is done in the matter of a disarmament conference or whether anything is done, it is the President's move, and it depends upon him when and how the disarmament proposal to relieve burdensome taxation is to be brought about. The Democrats and Republican Progressives have pointed the only practical way.

Republican Discontent Growing. The almost painful notes of discontent over the function and apparent disability of the administration continue in the republican press, which is much severer in its criticism than the democratic press, because the latter has shown a disposition all along to give the administration a fair chance to make good.

The Boston Transcript, an ebony-dyed Republican paper, commenting on what it calls the "Republican Failure" and the explanation of some of the President's friends that the Republican majority in Congress is too large to be handled easily, says:

"We think we can safely promise the President a considerable reduction in the Republican majority in each House."

The staunch Philadelphia Inquirer, spokesman for Pennsylvania reactionary Republicanism, commenting on the prediction of former chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, Good, who recently resigned from Congress, that unless the expenditures of the government are materially reduced and the burden of taxation subsequently lightened the Republicans will be swept out of power, says:

"Beyond a doubt the American people have been greatly disappointed by the up-to-date sum of accomplishments in the directions indicated."

It warns Republican leaders in Congress that they should heed Mr. Good's warning, but sees no evidence of such a desire.

LOCAL NEWS.

A letter from a former Carlsbad boy, William Wheeler, to his parents, Jess Wheeler and wife, located the young man at Fort Tilden, New York, and gives the gratifying news that he has had another promotion and as he expresses it is now practically his "own boss." William is in Uncle Sam's Air Service.

NOTICE.

It has been called to the attention of the House Committee that persons who are not members are frequenting the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce. The By-Laws of the Chamber of Commerce provide that only members are to have the use of these rooms. Members are privileged to invite an out of town or non-resident guest to the rooms not to exceed three times. Residents who are not members of the Chamber of Commerce have no right in the rooms and members are requested not to invite them there.

HOUSE COMMITTEE,
Chamber of Commerce.

BORN:—Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jones on Main street, a baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Jones. The baby has been given the name of her two grandmothers and Anna May Jones is now receiving the best wishes of many friends of her young parents.

Miss Ayrea, of Quanah, Texas, is a recent arrival coming to be with her brother, who is here for health purposes and occupying the Boatman cottage on Alameda street.

Miss Rowena Davis of San Antonio, Texas, and Miss Elizabeth Brinkley, of Mississippi, and Joyce Cox, of Cameron, Texas, are among the out of town guests who are in attendance at the Joyce-Crawford wedding.

Miss Linn entertained two tables of bridge players at her home on Halagueno street Saturday night, honoring Miss Neblett. The usual good time enjoyed at this hospitable home was repeated on this occasion.

SHOWER FOR MISS CRAWFORD.

A shower given by the young girl friends of Miss Lillian Crawford who yesterday became the bride of William Paul Joyce, was a pleasant event of last week, Thursday night.

The hostesses, all intimate friends of Miss Crawford, who had complete charge of the arrangements which were a little out of the ordinary and were consequently all the more enjoyable, were Misses Marguerite Roberts, Frances Moore, Dorothy Ryan, and Helen Wright.

The first part of the evening was devoted to cards at the home of Miss Moore the refreshments being served at the close of the games at the home of Miss Helen Wright, at which place the shower was also given. The refreshment table was decorated in the rainbow colors, a bell of these colors concealing the light over the table and streamers of the same colors reaching from the bell to the corners of the table made a beautiful and artistic setting for the lovely girls in their prettiest summer evening gowns. Sweet peas and anaprasons decorated the table which was further decorated by candlesticks with rainbow colored shades at which were seated the following guests: Misses Marie Purdy, Helen McIlvain, Jenny Linn, Elizabeth Brinkley, Rowena Davis, Dorothy Swigart, Mesdames Howard Moore, Elmore Jones, Robert Pinlay, Babe Campbell, Dan Lowenbruck, L. S. Crawford and J. F. Joyce. The guest of honor, Miss Crawford, was showered with a basket full of pretty gifts from her friends as she sat at table.

The refreshments were rainbow ice cream, cake, iced tea, rainbow mints and salted almonds, and the affair was one of the many pretty gatherings given in honor of one of our most popular and lovable girls.

Miss Wardie Bates returned Friday night from Berkeley, California, where she has been at school for the past year, graduating from that institution recently. Miss Wardie is also a graduate of Carlsbad High school and is one of the girls we are proud of. Miss Modene Bates, her cousin, who has also been attending school at Berkeley, accompanied Miss Wardie on her trip home, she stopping off at Roswell, where her parents reside, but promising a visit to this city soon. The young ladies had a pleasant time on their way home, stopping to view the Grand Canyon, of Arizona, en route.

Mrs. R. B. Knowles of Lakewood, is a patient at St. Francis Hospital recovering from a major operation performed recently.

Blythe McCollum left Sunday night on an extended trip, his objective point being Los Angeles. Blythe's friends among young and old in Carlsbad, are sorry to lose him but are hoping he may do well in the Angel City.

The family of Chris Walter returned from Las Vegas, where they spent the Fourth of July, getting in Friday night. They had a strenuous trip on the way home having various car troubles and having to be pulled out of mud in different places but on the whole they are glad they made the trip.

R. N. Morrison, of the Will Purdy Furniture Company, returned Saturday from Roswell where he had been relieving Mr. Childress who had taken his vacation.

A big barbecue is being held at the J. R. Bonnie ranch today, four miles from El Paso Gap in the mountains west of town. Several carloads of Carlsbad people are attending.

C. C. Covington, representing the Graham Paper Company, made his usual semi-annual visit to this city in the interest of his firm coming Friday afternoon, and leaving south Saturday morning.

Mrs. Tom Reeves and Tom Jr., have returned from a fortnight's visit to relatives at Elida, New Mexico.

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE SALE.

Notice is hereby given that in Cause No. 3359 on the civil docket of the District Court of Eddy county, New Mexico, wherein J. R. Jameson is plaintiff and K. S. Lykins and Mollie Lykins are defendants which is a foreclosure of a certain mortgage upon the land and real estate hereinafter mentioned and described, judgment was rendered and entered on April 30, 1921, in said court in favor of the plaintiff as follows:

- For the sum of $1145.83 principal and interest on promissory note No. 9372;
- For the sum of $48.02 principal and interest on interest coupon note No. 6;
- For the sum of $45.82 principal and interest on interest coupon note No. 7;
- For the sum of $824.15, same being the total sum of taxes and assessments paid by the plaintiff, J. R. Jameson, on the land and real estate hereinafter mentioned and described;
- For all costs of this suit and for all costs and expenses of sale in connection with the foreclosure of said mortgage and the proceedings relative thereto and for the sum of $110.00 as and for attorney's fees;
- That said mortgage be foreclosed against and upon said land and real estate according to law and the rules and practice of said Court and that said land and real estate be sold to satisfy said judgment and for costs and general relief:

(a). That in event said land and real estate shall sell for more than enough to satisfy said judgment, costs and fees, the surplus shall be paid over to defendants K. S. Lykins and Mollie Lykins.

That the amount due (exclusive of the costs and expenses of sale) with interest as provided in said judgment to August 2, 1921, the date of the sale hereinafter mentioned is $2195.17.

That the undersigned Charles H. Jones was in said judgment appointed Special Master to sell the following described land and real estate situated in Eddy county, State of New Mexico, and described in and covered by said mortgage to-wit:

South Half of the Southwest Quarter of Section Twelve (12), Township Twenty-three (23) South, Range Twenty-seven (27) East of N. M. P. M., containing 80 acres, according to the Government Survey thereof, together with all water and water rights thereto attached, or in any-wise appurtenant, and all rights to stock in the Pecos Water Users' Association appurtenant to said land. Therefore, the undersigned will on August 2, 1921, at ten o'clock A. M., at the South Front Door of the Court House (old building) in Carlsbad, Eddy county, New Mexico, offer for sale the above described property to pay off and discharge said judgment and all costs of said suit and of this sale actually accrued and to accrue to the highest and best bidder for cash, and any surplus received over and above money sufficient to pay said judgment and costs will be paid over to the Clerk of the above named District Court to be by him held subject to the order of said court. The terms and conditions of said sale are that the purchase price at such sale shall be paid in cash.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand at Carlsbad, Eddy county, New Mexico, on this 7th day of July, 1921.

CHARLES H. JONES
Special Master.

Democratic Helpfulness.

In discussing the Frelinghuysen coal bill designed to benefit the large consumers of coal at the expense of the small users, Senator Underwood, Democratic leader of the Senate, admirably expressed the attitude the Democratic members of both houses have borne toward the Republican majority. In reply to the inference that his remarks were political Senator Underwood said:

"No the Senator is mistaken; I am not making a political speech. I have sat in silence for over three months, hoping that the Republican party might do something to pull this country out of the slough of despond. I have sat here trying to be helpful, not hurtful, in its efforts, and I have said nothing about it today, because you are entitled to your chance. If the time comes when a political speech will be justified, after you have had your fair chance to save the country, I can assure the Senator from New Jersey he will hear one; but he will hear a real one and not a discussion of a bill."

Speaking on the bill to amend the Federal Farm Loan Act, Mr. Dunbar (Rep. Ind.) recently said:

"I want to congratulate the Democrats upon the Committee, as the representatives of agricultural districts, on the fact that they were very fair and of much assistance in the consideration and perfection of this bill in the Committee."

The Thirty Day Tariff Bill.

Under the caption "Tariff and the Business Men's Party" in this correspondence last week it was stated that in the Democratic Congress elected in 1910, the House passed a tariff bill within thirty days after it was organized. The date should have been 1912.

In the first session of Congress following the election of 1912, Mr. Underwood introduced a tariff act bearing his name on April 21, 1913; the bill was reported back by the Ways and Means Committee on April 23 and passed the House on May 8.

The comparison of this prompt and businesslike method of disposing of the tariff bill in the House with the delay of the present Republican Congress, which has just reported a tariff bill after being in session nearly three months, made in the news article referred to still holds.

Not only did the Democrats of the House pass a tariff bill in a business like way, but they passed a business tariff.

VICTORY MEDALS FOR SOLDIERS.

A great many of the ex-service men of this State have not received nor have they made application for their Victory Medals. It is the desire of the War Department to furnish every man with the medal and stars that he is entitled to receive. Every man who served in the Army between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, is entitled to a Victory Medal, and it is the desire of this office to get in touch with every man in this State who has not received his medal so that we may aid him in getting it, which can be accomplished by sending to this office his name and serial number, statement as to whether he served overseas, and statement as to any battles or engagements in which he took part, and where. He will receive one bar for each battle in which he was engaged.

Will you help us by advising all ex-service men concerned to apply at once for this Victory Medal? A great many men are not aware that they are entitled to this Victory Medal, or they confuse it with the Victory Star, etc. If all military organizations, civic bodies, churches, newspapers, individuals, Red Cross, Vocational Training, and American Legion members will call attention to this subject it will result in many men making application for the Victory Medal.

Please give this as much publicity as possible, advising all ex-service men to address the Adjutant General, Santa Fe, New Mexico.

HENRY ROLF BROWN,
Adjutant General.

LAWN FETE AT SELLARDS HOME
The Sunday School class taught by Mrs. Sellards, at the Christian Sunday School was entertained at the Sellards home Thursday evening at a lawn fete and a most enjoyable time resulted. The long tables were spread with snowy linen and further adorned with cut glass and silver fit backgrounds for the delicious dinner. The class is composed of married persons and they take their small children with them. On this occasion ten little folk had places at a table by themselves and enjoyed their part of the dinner greatly because of that fact. The members of the class were as follows:

The Sunday School classes of Miss Ida Hiseck and Mrs. L. E. Regnier, of the Methodist Sunday School, held a joint picnic at the home of Mrs. Regnier west of town yesterday afternoon. The boys and their teachers had a fine time and after a picnic supper all returned to their homes in this city tired and happy.

Green McComb from the point of the mountains, was in town this week.

I'M GLAD I'M BACK IN PECOS

The following poem recently published in the Pecos Enterprise is from the pen of Rev. Joel Hedgpeth, the "Brother Joe" of Carlsbad people, among whom he lived and labored for some years. The Current voices the wishes of many old timers that Carlsbad may have a visit from him and his wife while they are so near. Brother Joe is now stationed at Pomona, California:

Oh, I'm glad I'm back in Pecos,
Where they call me "Brother Joe";
Just to find a kindly welcome
From the friends of long ago;
Where I smell the fragrant cypress
Neath the open summer sky—
Oh, I'm glad I'm back in Pecos,
Just to see the alkali.

Oh, I'm glad I'm back in Pecos,
Even for a little while;
Just to find a bit of heaven
For each friendly kiddie smile;
Where there's warmth in every handshake.

Where there's fun in every eye—
So I'm glad I'm back in Pecos
Just to smell the alkali.

Oh, I'm glad I'm back in Pecos
Just to watch the lovers stroll
Down the railroad to the river
With full glory in their soul;
For I live again in fancy,
Dear old days that never die—
And I'm glad I'm back in Pecos
Just to taste the alkali.

Oh, I'm glad I'm back in Pecos,
For 'twas there I met by chance
One who was the queen of women
And was captured by her glance;
It was there we did our courting—
She was winsome, I was shy,
Thus, I'm glad I'm back in Pecos,
Just to feel the alkali.

Sure, and I'll remember Pecos,
When in lowly prayer I kneel;
And pray Heaven's richest blessings
On her hearts as true as steel;
When amidst the mists and shadows,
We shall bid the world good-bye—
May we all go home to Heaven
From these plains of alkali.

—JOEL FRANK HEDGPETH

MEDICAL UNITS NEXT TO BE ORGANIZED IN THE NATIONAL GUARD

Two medical units of the reorganized New Mexico national guard will be recruited next. Adjutant General Henry Rolf Brown has announced. The two units, one for the cavalry, the other for the engineers will include two majors, nine captains and 62 enlisted men.

Mrs. Robert Breeding and daughter, Miss Ida, who have been visiting at the home of their daughter and sister, Mrs. John Garrett, at Lovington have returned to their home in this city accompanied by Mrs. Garrett who will make a short visit with her friends here.

A TEST OF SENTIMENT.

The opinion of the member of the Council of the National Economic League, on labor questions may be of doubtful value. None of its members so far as we can learn, are in sympathetic touch with the laboring man's viewpoint.

But when it comes to an expression of opinion on international questions, it should give our public men food for thought. The members are all representative Americans and all intelligent men. Their viewpoint is almost certain to be that of the average man.

Listen then to the results of the league's latest questionnaire on international subjects. About 1,000 members voted. Of these 82 per cent said we should not refrain from joining some association of nations. By a 65 per cent vote they favored the present league with the Lodge amendments. The Root-Phillimore permanent court of international justice was supported by 84 per cent. A conference to discuss disarmament was favored by 83 per cent.

The Journal believes these percentages to be fairly representative of the sentiment of the American people on these subjects. Those who construed the presidential election last fall as a vote against our logical participation in settling the disorganized affairs of the world misunderstood the psychology and purposes of the American people, in our judgment. Millions of us who supported Harding did so in the belief that he would "go in" on a reasonable basis.

If the republican party fails to appraise public sentiment accurately and persists in staying out of the settlement of world affairs, or continues to hesitate and equivocate on the subject, it will meet with a protest at the polls next year, in the opinion of the Journal.

The American people do not favor shirking our national responsibility. Prosperity cannot return while we do. —Albuquerque Journal.

Dr. Morris W. Ehnes, treasurer of the Committee on Conservation and Advance of the Methodist Episcopal Church announced today that the receipts of the Centenary money for April is $2,014,345.94, and in May $628,553.21. This is an increase of over two per cent in April 1921, and an increase of over fourteen per cent for May 1921. The indications are that there will be an increase in the receipts for June.

Dr. Ehnes said the receipts were very encouraging and showed that the slump on Centenary payments had ceased. In 1920 the receipts were only 72 per cent of the total amount subscribed which was $108,000,000 payable in five years.

There is also an increase in membership reported by the area secretaries and a spiritual awakening accompanies the increase in giving.

DELIGHTFUL BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Honoring the birthday anniversary of Mrs. George Lucas a party of old time friends and neighbors gathered at her home yesterday afternoon and spent a few hours together in happy conversation reminiscence of old times when all were younger than they are now. In the party were Mesdames William Leek, Lucius Anderson, M. C. Stewart, A. C. Heard, Wm. Hannah, A. C. Geer, N. T. Daugherty and Ashbury Moore who are old friends of Mrs. Lucas. Other and younger valued friends present were Mrs. H. I. Braden, Mrs. Dwight Stephenson, Mrs. Julius Forke, Mrs. John Dickson, Mrs. Dan Lowenbruck, Misses Annie Laurie Emerson and Alice Robbins. A very pleasing feature was the presence of the honoree's three sisters: Mrs. Sallie Slaughter, Mrs. Dan and John Lucas. In spite of the gayety, there was an element of sadness in the hearts of those present—sighs and longings for the touch of dear vanished hands and the sound of voices now stilled in death, who once were the gayest of the gay on these birthday anniversary occasions. Mrs. Lucas received and is still receiving numbers of nice presents from those who were unable to be present yesterday and has the best wishes of a host of friends for many more happy birthdays. Delightful refreshments closed the afternoon.

The officials of the local Reclamation office have received authority to accept partial payments of not less than 10 per cent for the construction and operation and maintenance charges due by the water users to the United States. Heretofore, partial payments of construction and operation and maintenance charges have not generally been accepted. This action on the part of the Reclamation Service is taken therefore, in consideration of the financial condition of the water users at the present time and the low state of the Reclamation fund, and it is now believed that the arrangement will prove advantageous to both the water users and the United States.

34	35 years, or to age 69	$6,654
44	25 years, or to age 69	$7,246

(The above "Total Outlay" was the amount paid in premiums less the Annual Dividends.)

The man who insured at 44 paid over $1,000 more than the man who insured at 24 and had 20 years less insurance for his money — he paid full fare and walked to Artesia to board the train. You are NOT saving premiums when you delay the buying of your policy. Give me an opportunity of explaining the new policy to you and do it NOW.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. Edna Myer underwent an operation at Eddy County Hospital this week and is doing well this morning.

Mrs. Bill Lusk and son accompanied Mrs. Annie Moore and Miss Louise on their return from the Lusk ranch yesterday at which place they spent two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stockwell and daughter, left for the Bonine ranch in Dog Canyon yesterday morning to attend the picnic and barbecue to be held there today.

Dr. A. A. Bearup and son, Cecil, and W. G. Woerner are at Hot Springs, New Mexico, taking the baths and write that each of them is greatly improved by so doing. They rather expect to return the latter part of next week or the first of the week following.

Mrs. P. A. Wright is taking treatment at Hot Springs, New Mexico, for a persistent case of rheumatism and writes to her husband that she is much improved by the treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hudgins spent Monday in Roswell visiting with friends.

Mrs. Bob Rouse has taken over the Victor Hotel on Canyon street for the present.

L. N. Hoag came up from his home at Malaga, Wednesday, to meet his daughter, Mrs. W. K. Jones, who with her daughter came from their home at Yaso, New Mexico, to be a visitor for awhile at the old home.

John Joyce, a brother of Paul and a cousin of J. F. Joyce, came in Monday with his brother to be present at the Joyce-Crawford wedding.

Quite a number of Carlsbad people attended a roundup on the Lusk ranch about twenty-five miles from town last Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Schmarke, of Belen, left for that place Sunday night after a visit in La Huerta, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mudgett.

Genial "Uncle Bob" Bruce was up from Malaga the first of the week and attended to business in this city.

R. L. Judkins and son, Gratton, came in from the ranch the first of the week and spent several days in the city at their home.

The family of Lindsay Hobbs, who have been on a vacation visit to relatives for six weeks past are again at their home in this city.

A JOILY EVENING AT THE CARLSBAD LIGHT AND POWER CO. DAM.

The first of a series of entertainments under the auspices of the Scout Troop No. 1 at the swimming pool came off Tuesday evening as scheduled and was attended by an extra large crowd.

The first event was the three-quarter mile race, Dink Matheson winning first and Etienne Bujac second prize. This was an exceptional race and two strokes is given as the distance between the two swimmers.

The second race was 150 yards and was won by Etienne Bujac with Allen Hardy Junior, second.

Third race was a young ladies race and was won by Miss Katherine Purdy, Miss Adele Bujac, second. The high water prevented the children and married ladies contests. These races, together with water polo games, high diving and boat races, will be arranged for the next meet on Thursday the 28th instant. It is thought that some of the sports may need to be pulled off in the early morning hours as the glare of the sun on the water was very trying to the swimmers and also to the spectators.

The Boy Scouts enjoyed a liberal patronage for their coffee and sandwiches and could have sold more had they expected such a crowd and been prepared. As it is their receipts were about $16.00 which goes into their building fund.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church held a social meeting at the church parlors last Thursday evening. About twenty-four ladies were present and a good program was given. Mrs. D. Jackson rendered some delightful numbers on the piano as did Miss Linn and Miss Dorothy Swigart gave two beautiful readings. Refreshments were served. The Auxiliary meets once a month and all the meetings are instructive and profitable.

Mr. and Mrs. Bales of Lakewood, were down from there Wednesday night and took in the picture show at the airdome.

Will Purdy is spending the day in Lakewood.

"Where Things are New"

Reverend Nicholson, of Loving, returned Wednesday from a trip to the Plains country east of the San Simon ranch and about eighty-five miles from Carlsbad, where he spent four weeks. He held meetings at Ochoa and Cooper, New Mexico, and had splendid success at both places; the meetings were held in the school houses. Mr. Nicholson makes these trips in his Ford car and goes all over this part of the State whenever an opportunity offers, preaching the Gospel.

Saturday was the hottest day of the season in Roswell, the high temperature reported by the weather bureau being 108 degrees. This is said to have been the hottest place in the state on that day. Several other places in the Pecos valley recorded over 100 degrees.

Michael Irabarne, the well known stockmaster, was in town on business the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Arthur and Mrs. Frank W. Ross all of Loving, were visitors from there to the county seat the first of the week.

Miss Aileen Daimont, stenographer at the Joyce-Fruit store is taking her vacation and spending it at Placitas. Miss Mary Lee Pond is stenographer during her absence.

Mrs. Fred West and daughter, Harriet, and Brother, Dwight, are again at home in this city after a lengthy stay with relatives in El Paso.

Collin Gerrells was in from the ranch the first of the week.

Preaching at 11 a. m. and at 8 p. m. by pastor.

B. Y. P. U. at 7 p. m. Let every member be in their place.

A hearty invitation extended to all who will come and worship with us.

T. C. MAHAN,

The youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lockhart was bitten on the ankle by a rattlesnake at Avalon where they had gone fishing last Wednesday afternoon. Fortunately the child's father was with him and without loss of time he split the ankle to the bone and sucked the wound. After doing this a hurried trip to town was made for permanganate of potash which was used and altogether the efforts were successful and it is thought that no bad results are to be expected. No doubt the prompt action of the father saved the child's life.

NOTICE.

The Associated Charities will pay no accounts unless authorized by order duly signed by advisory board.

F. E. HUBERT, Chairman,
Advisory Board Associated Charities.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wynong and little son, Jay, are in the city, coming from near Ochoa, New Mexico, ninety miles from here. They came to bring the little boy in to a physician, he being badly injured while riding horseback on the ranch. The accident occurred Tuesday morning, the little boy's foot catching in the stirrup and the horse dragging him some distance. The principal injuries were to the head and face. There were some bruises apparent on different parts of the body, but it is thought he will soon recover with proper care.

Mrs. Annie Moore and daughter, Louise, have returned from a vacation visit to the Bill Lusk ranch near Lovington. Mrs. Moore tells of beautiful rains which fell each day of her visit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Talk and son, June, came in Wednesday from the big sheep ranch east of Roswell. Mrs. Talk will remain in the city for awhile, anticipating the return of her daughter, Mrs. George McClure, who is at present attending school at Tyler, Texas, but the "men folks" have already returned to the ranch, leaving early this morning.

Madame Thorne returned home from the Hary Thorne ranch Wednesday where she spent a month with her son and his family and a granddaughter, Miss Aletta Fisher, of Topeka, Kansas. Miss Fisher will not return to Carlsbad with her grandparents, Kansas. Miss Fisher did not on the ranch, she being much improved in health.

Messrs. Smith and Phelan were in town yesterday. The former is manager for the Joyce-Fruit interests at Artesia and the latter fills a similar position in their dry goods department at Roswell.

Ed Burleson was in town yesterday from his ranch at the mouth of the canyon transacting business while here.

Dr. W. R. Munger is expected in this afternoon from Xenia, Ohio, where he has been rusticiating for seven weeks, he leaving there last Sunday.

COMMUNITY MEETING

The Community Meetings at the Airdome have been well attended and interest in the meetings has been very good. Lawrence Merchant spent Sunday in town returning to the San Simon ranch early in the week.

Sam Moskin made a trip to Roswell Sunday in order to bring his wife and child from there. Little Jane is getting on nicely and is about over her bad case of whooping cough.

Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby Hegler and three children came in Saturday night from their ranch at Friolo, Texas. They remained until Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Hegler and the youngest daughter, left for their home. The other girls, Misses Margaret and Katherine, accompanied Mrs. Fred Nymeyer and her brother, Robert Leek, to their ranch near Eunice, for a visit of a couple of weeks to relatives in that section.

R. E. Taylor, of Friolo, was in town the first of the week. Mr. Taylor has the distinction of being the president of the National Mohair Growers Association, and is a man of much executive ability and thoroughly conversant with his business in all its phases.

George Brantley left Sunday morning for Midland, Texas, where Mrs. Brantley and Draper have been visiting for a couple of weeks, and where George will spend his vacation, at the close of which they will accompany him home.

A. C. Heard came in from Hi-Lonesome ranch Saturday of last week, and with his wife and grandson, spent most of the week in town. Mr. Heard says the country never was as pretty as at this time, since the recent heavy rains, the pastures are fine and the cattle fat. He tells of a fine Fourth of July celebration held by the Odd Fellows, near Lovington, at which were speeches, and various interesting events, such as goat roping, etc., and best of all was the picnic dinner with its loads of fried chicken and other good things and the sociability which pervaded the entire crowd, which he says was one of the best features of the gathering. The picnic was held at Dow Woods.

SWAT THE FLY.

The fly campaign is moving on apace and already a difference in the number of the pests can be seen. One little boy has a credit of about nine gallons of flies delivered to M. R. Smith, of the Civic Committee Chamber of Commerce, under whose auspices the campaign is being carried on. It is something of a job to measure that many flies and Mr. Smith is entitled to the thanks of the entire community for his work in making this a flyless town.

The festive caterpillar, a woman's pet abomination, if we except a mouse, is having a hard time in Carlsbad this week. Street Commissioner M. R. Smith, with the thoroughness which characterizes all his business, whether public or private, has set to work to eradicate the caterpillar and a man, armed with the latest approved apparatus for destroying them, is at work and expects to go over the city as rapidly as possible, burning the nests. We have not been troubled by the worms to any great extent for some years, but the continued rains are said to be responsible for their appearance in such numbers this year. If all the nests are destroyed at this time we will not be likely to have much trouble with them in the future.

Mrs. A. Z. Smith came in last week Thursday from Mesa, Arizona, for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Owen and with other friends in Carlsbad. Mrs. Smith says that she and her husband are very pleasantly located and like their home in Mesa very much, but still remember the friends in Carlsbad where they began their married life together.

Albert Ramuz, assistant postmaster, started on his vacation Wednesday of this week and will spend it at home mostly.

Teacher of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR JULY 17

THE CONVERSION OF SAUL.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 9:1-19.
GOLDEN TEXT—This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief.—1 Tim. 1:15.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Acts 22:1-21; 26:1-23.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Learning to Obey Jesus.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Saul Becomes a Christian.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Pharisee Becomes a Christian.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—A Study of Paul's Conversion.

I. Saul's Burning Hatred of Jesus (vv. 1, 2).

Saul knew full well that unless the movement set on foot by Jesus was stopped it would supersede Judaism, but he was entirely ignorant of the genius of Christianity. Christianity thrives on persecution. Prosperity may ruin the church, but persecution never.

The noble display of faith by Stephen in sealing his testimony with his blood did not soften Saul's spirit, but rather intensified his hatred for Jesus and His disciples. It made him more determined than ever to stamp out this Nazarene heresy. The intensity of his madness and the extent of its operations are best set forth in his own words (see Acts 22: 4 and Acts 26:10-12). He obtained authority from the chief priests to carry on this murderous work.

II. Saul Kicking Against the Pricks (vv. 3-9). The figure here is that of the eastern ox-driver following the ox with a sharp iron fixed to the end of a pole. The animal is prodded on with this instrument and if it is refractory it kicks against this sharp iron and injures itself. This is a picture of Saul as he was madly fighting against Jesus.

1. A light from heaven (vv. 3, 4a). The time had come for the Lord to interfere. Saul is stricken with blindness and falls to the earth. This physical demonstration accentuated the workings of his conscience which doubtless were going on, quickened by the Holy Spirit as He used Stephen's testimony.

2. A voice from heaven (vv. 4b, 5). This was the Lord's voice calling Saul by name and asking, "Why persecutest thou me?" This moved Saul to inquire, "Who art thou, Lord?" The answer came, "I am Jesus whom thou persecutest," as if to say persecution of the church is persecution of Jesus.

3. "What wilt thou have me to do?" (v. 6). The dictator is now willing to be dictated to. The Lord told him to go into the city where information would be given him as to what he must do.

4. Saul entering Damascus (vv. 7-9). The haughty persecutor goes quite humbly into Damascus led by his attendants. For the space of three days he remained in blindness and fasting. What went on in his soul in those days no mortal can know, but we may be assured that he, like the Lord in the wilderness, was too deep in meditation and prayer to desire food. Doubtless in this time he got hold of the truths which he later proclaimed to the world; for his conversion was the basal fact of his theology.

III. Ananias Sent to Saul (vv. 10-19a).

Here appears upon the scene a hitherto unknown disciple.

1. Ananias' vision (vv. 10-12). In this vision the Lord appeared and instructed him to go to Saul. He gave him the name of the street and Saul's host, and informed him that Saul was now a praying man and that he had prepared Saul by the vision for the coming of Ananias.

2. Ananias' fear and hesitancy (vv. 13-16). He knew of Saul's mission and the authority by which he came. The Lord encouraged him to go, assuring him that Saul is no longer an enemy, but a chosen vessel to bear His name before the Gentiles, kings, and the children of Israel.

3. Ananias' obedience (v. 17). His fears being removed, Ananias went to the house where Saul was staying, put his hands on him and affectionately addressed him as "brother." The savage persecutor is now a brother in Christ. He informed Saul that the Lord had sent him with a twofold mission: (1) "That thou mightest receive thy sight;" (2) "Be filled with the Holy Spirit." He received sight forthwith. It is not said as to whether he received the Holy Ghost then, but his life's work proves that he did.

1. Saul baptized (vv. 18, 19a). After Saul received his sight Ananias baptized him.

God Gives Light and Strength. Give yourself to God's perfect love to work out His perfect will. For all He means you to do, He will surely give light and strength. The throne of the Lamb is surely proof that there is no surer way for us to riches and honor than through His poverty.—Rev. Andrew Murray.

Life. Life alone can rekindle life; what others claim from us is not our thirst and our hunger, but our bread and our guard.—Amiel.

LOCAL NEWS.

Boy Scouts of Troop 2 enjoyed a hike and swim in the Pecos Friday night under the care of Scoutmaster Wilmer White. Nearly all boys of the troop were present.

Mrs. Annie V. Livingston and her house guests, the Misses Anderson, of Conway, Arkansas, were guests at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Westaway, over Sunday.

Mrs. J. M. Halbert is convalescing nicely at the home of Miss Effie Hart in North Carlsbad.

Robert Leck and his sister, Mrs. Fred Nymeyer, came in from their home at Eunice, Friday night, and remained in town a day or two. They report everything fine on the Plains with an abundance of rainfall and fat cattle.

Mrs. Lena DeMoss and baby boy left Saturday morning for the home of her parents at DeLeon, Texas, where she will probably remain.

Miss Jeanette Henderson left Saturday morning for her home at Malaga, after having remained here for some weeks engaged in professional work, she being a trained nurse.

Donald Weldon and wife were passengers to Sweetwater, Texas, Saturday where they went to make a visit to Mrs. Weldon's brother, and where they may conclude to make their home in the future.

Messrs. S. D. Stennis and Joseph Wertheim were business visitors to points in Texas, leaving here Saturday morning.

William Reed is again wearing his right arm in a sling the result of fooling with the festive jitney. He has had the same member broken so often in the last year that it begins to look quite natural to see him with his arm in splints.

Twenty-five cars of cattle belonging to the Merchant interests, were shipped the first of the week to Helena, Montana, by Becker & Burke, buyers. The animals were loaded at Avalon.

Miss Dorothy Hudgins visited at Roswell the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Walter Moss and children, Bernice and Walter, left this week for Oklahoma City, where Mr. Moss is employed and where they expect to make their future home. They will be missed in church and Sunday school and in the social circles and all wish them a pleasant home in Oklahoma City.

JUNE BIG MONTH FOR BIOLOGICAL SURVEY HUNTERS

June was a good month for predatory animal hunters the monthly report of the biological survey shows. Eight hunters of the force employed by the department killed a total of four wolves, four lions, three bobcats, one predatory bear, and fourteen coyotes. The total of the whole force was large.

In the vicinity of the Pecos river one hunter with the cooperation of the ranchmen poisoned fifty-two coyotes which had been molesting the young calves.

Reports received by the biological survey seem to indicate a steady increase in the killing of calves by coyotes, although at the same time the number of coyotes is decreasing rapidly in most localities.

The report states that sportmen will probably find deer and antelope more plentiful in proportion as the mountain lions are destroyed by the hunters. An examination of the stomach contents of the four lions killed during the month showed that three of them had been killing deer, and the fourth had feasted on a cow. The bear, also had been eating beef.

Ranchmen of the state are cooperating with the bureau of biological survey in the setting of poison and traps for coyotes and other predatory animals, and report that an appreciable reduction in the number of calves slain is to be noticed after the setting of the poison.

At the present time the rat situation throughout the county is more alarming than that of any other rodent. In many cases, the rats are difficult to fight and it is necessary to combat them with all available knowledge and with the most strenuous efforts. The field rats can be very successfully poisoned with the poisoned maize that has been used in prairie dog control, but the larger house rats cannot generally be killed in this way.

MRS. GIVAN ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. George H. Givan was a pleasant hostess to a few of her many friends at her home at the Methodist parsonage last Friday afternoon. Those present report a delightful time the guests being Mesdames Edmundson, Flowers, N. L. Randolph, W. S. Moore, Joyce, A. J. and L. S. Crawford, Sherman, Ervin, Howard Moore, Love, Lamb, Misses Neblett, Linn, Purdy, Lillian Crawford, Pate, Dorothy Ryan, Davis of San Antonio, and Brinkley of Mississippi. Mesdames Mildred Pate and Elinor Flowers assisted Mrs. Givan in looking after the comfort of her guests and in serving. Miss Marie Purdy added greatly to the pleasure of the afternoon by a number of beautiful songs which delighted all who were present.

Tuesday being the 64th birthday anniversary of Ed Woerner and Henry Brown a joint celebration was planned for the occasion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones, cousins of Mr. Brown, and where Mr. Woerner makes his home. Ice cream and cake in abundance were the refreshments served to about thirty relatives and neighbors who attended. The guests ranged in age from ten years to sixty-four, and all enjoyed the occasion from the youngest to the oldest and wished the honored gentlemen "many pleasant returns of the day."

The Campfire Girls are looking forward with pleasurable anticipations to their camping trip which is to be held at McKittrick Springs. They expect to leave the first of the week, going out in charge of their leader, Mrs. I. J. Stockwell, and will remain there a week. They will carry beds and provisions and everything necessary for camp life. There are twelve girls in the troop.

John R. Joyce was host to a dancing party at the Joyce home on North Canal street, Monday night, honoring the members of the Joyce-Crawford wedding party and a few friends from this city.

Mrs. Chris Walter stopped over in Roswell on her return from Las Vegas and spent a few days visiting friends. Miss Walter going up in the car later in the week and bringing her mother home.

Mrs. Grant A. Mann, nee Miss Mary Mize, formerly of this city, now living in El Paso, came in Monday and will visit relatives here for a few days.

"Oh! What A Difference!"

That is what everyone says who comes to our store and hears the pure musical tone of Edison's Amberola Phonograph, after listening to shrill "talking machines" and the metallic sound of ordinary phonographs.

That is what you will say when this revelation of pure melody greets your ears. No wonder Edison's Amberola has proved its marked superiority over ordinary phonographs in great public tests.

EDISON'S NEW DIAMOND AMBEROLA

Is the world's greatest phonograph value—the "master product of Edison's master mind." Just consider its genuine Diamond Point Reproducer, which forever does away with the bother and expense of changing needles!

And Amberol Records are just as far superior to ordinary records. They are practically indestructible, and give years of enjoyment after ordinary records have broken and been thrown away.

When you consider that you can own Edison's Amberola on practically your own terms you must realize you owe it to yourself and your family to come to our store without delay and let us play the world's best music for you on this wonderful phonograph. Don't delay your visit—come today, tomorrow, as soon as possible—we will expect you. Bring all the family and your friends, too—they will all be welcome.

The Star Pharmacy

J. R. Linn has an old copy of the Cincinnati Enquirer, published in Cincinnati Ohio, July 9, 1899 which in the light of recent events is something of a curiosity. The entire front page of the paper with the exception of one column is occupied by an account of the Sullivan-Kilbane prize fight, which took place at New Orleans. There are rather crude pictures of the participants, and the fight lasted for sixty rounds, the contestants fighting without gloves.

Mrs. Chaytor has probably the finest small flower garden in the city every thing considered. In her little strip of ground in front of the Palace Hotel she has flowers of great variety and beauty and from the early spring until late in the fall a succession of blooms reward her for her labor and care, and puts to flight all the old time ideas such as we used to hear "that you cannot grow many kinds of flowers in Carlsbad."

Muri Nornhauser and wife came to Carlsbad from their ranch on Black river and remained here a couple of days. They are delighted with their new ranch where pasture is fine and where they have a 98 per cent crop of calves.

W. F. Mellvale is in Santa Fe this week, leaving Tuesday night.

Strangers coming in from the north are sure to see the beautiful flower garden on the right hand side of the track. Roadmaster Keen has made a beauty spot of the place by the plants and flowers which he has brought to perfection there.

Contractor McMichael has begun work on the new church parsonage for the congregation of San Jose. The building will be on rear of the lot on which the church building is now standing and will be of concrete and contain six rooms. There will be a passage way between the church and the parsonage which will be used as a reception room. Everything is to be finished in good style and the building when completed will prove very convenient to the priest in charge at San Jose as well as an improvement to that village.

Miss Lucille Johnston left for Big Springs, Texas, Wednesday, expecting to make a stop over visit at Bartow, Texas, en route.

DEATH OF DR. CUNNINGHAM

Our people will remember Dr. Cunningham and wife, who were residents of our city for some months later going out west of town where they lived on the Howard Galton ranch for a time, and making many friends while here. Our people are sympathizing with the bereft mother and wife. The news of his death and a clipping containing an account of his funeral were received by Arthur Renick and his mother last week and are as follows:

Wampum, Pa. July 5, 1921.
Mrs. Renick and son:

"It is with the deepest regret and sorrow that I am writing to tell you of the death of my son, Dr. Louis B. Cunningham on June 28th. He was killed in an automobile accident. He left home on June 27th with his wife for her home in West Virginia for a visit with her mother. The roads are very narrow and it was slippery and the machine struck a rut and went down an embankment. The machine turned clear over then upright itself and neither my son or his wife were thrown from the machine.

"My son did not get so much as a scratch from glass but the doctor thought it was from shock as the scare of going over and then his wife had her thumb broken and an artery cut on her left hand and he thought she was going to bleed to death before they could get help. They were within calling distance of her home when it happened, for when she saw that there was something wrong with him she called for help and her sister was first to get to her. He passed away without any pain or a struggle and was conscious to the last. We think it was too much for his weakened condition and the shock was what killed him.

"We laid him away Sunday, July 3rd, in the Mausoleum at New Castle, Pennsylvania. Am sending you a clipping from the paper.

"Now folks, I want to thank you for the kindness that you extended my son while he was in your town of Carlsbad. He spoke so kindly of you and told me since he came back of the many kindnesses that you extended to him and I certainly appreciate what you did, for it means something to a sick person away from home.

"Yours in sorrow,
MRS. C. C. CUNNINGHAM."

DR. CUNNINGHAM FUNERAL SUNDAY

Funeral services for Dr. Louis Cunningham, who was killed in an automobile accident last Tuesday near Centerton, West Virginia, will be held at the Brady homestead, Wampum, Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. The services will be in charge of Rev. H. E. Woods of the Presbyterian church. Interment will be made at the mausoleum at Oak Park cemetery.

Dr. Cunningham was born at Wampum, April 23, 1892. He graduated from the Wampum high school in 1910 and from the New Castle high school in 1912. Later he attended the dental school of the University of Penn. and was graduated from there in 1916. He located at Conneville for about a year after graduation and then moved to Bessemer. At the outbreak of the war he enlisted and was commissioned as first lieutenant in the Dental Corps. During the war he was stationed at Philadelphia. After receiving his discharge from Camp Dix he began practicing at Corry moving to New Mexico a short time ago. He was just returning from that place for a visit in Wampum with relatives when the accident happened.

Surviving him are his wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cunningham and one sister, Mrs. Robert Grinnen of Wampum. He was a member of the local B. P. O. E. No. 69.

ROAD WORK DELAYED AT ARTESIA BY RAIN

Artesia, N. M.—The heavy rains that have fallen over this section during the past few days have delayed the construction on the state road from here to Hope, N. M. for a few days. The Eagle gang has hindered the construction gang by overflowing the banks.

Contractor Reals has raised over ten miles of the dump and now has his camp about half way to Hope. The gravel contractor, Mr. Rogers, expects to begin to gravel the road as soon as the weather permits.

Engineer H. C. Horne reports that this will be one of the most traveled roads in the state. Especially is this true, due to the heavy traffic from the farming section around Hope, which town has no railroad. It is also a section of the highway from Artesia to El Paso, Texas.

The Tennesseans of this city held their annual picnic at the Joyce home Wednesday night. Those present were the Flowers family and their guests, Mrs. Edmundson and daughters and Miss Neblett, Clarence Bell and family, C. D. Rickman and family, R. M. Thorne and family, J. P. Joyce and family; Messrs. Howard Prater, Paul and John Joyce.

SCOUT NEWS

Every Scout of Troop No. 1 is requested to be present Tuesday at 7 p. m. at the regular meeting. Matters of importance are to be decided. Scouts of both troops who wish to attend the State encampment next year must complete all examinations necessary for qualifying as a First Class Scout before that time.

The next big racing event to be pulled off by the scouts will be July 28th. Larger prizes will be offered on this occasion and entries must be made before that time.

Room for a few more scouts in troop No. 1 will be available by Aug. 15th.

Scout Higgins in charge of the bath house is putting things in fine shape there about—more ground is to be cleared off and more promenade space will be made.

Troop One extends thanks to those who so kindly aided in making Tuesday's program a success and wish to announce that at the next event eats will be on hand to supply everyone.

We are anxious to encourage all boys to become scouts, scouting teaches manliness, citizenship and duty one to another. The idea that militarism is a feature of scouting is an error, however it teaches allegiance to our flag and country. Your boy will be truer to you and home after he has taken the Scout oath. To the work of Scouting is due the fact that a juvenile court is not necessary in Carlsbad and so few boys are accused of doing wrong.

OTIS NEWS

E. R. Lang and family spent the week-end at the Joe Cunningham ranch east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Slease and family and Mrs. Slease's sister, who returned with her from Texas, spent the day Sunday at Roswell. They found some awful roads and required the assistance of a team several times.

Otis now has a garage. Come, give it a trial.

Sunday there was a hail along the river north and west of Otis which did quite a bit of damage.

Will Morgan left Tuesday night for Artesia on a business trip.

C. Grandi and family went to Artesia Sunday for Grandma Grandi who has been visiting the past month with her daughter at that place.

Mr. Williams is building a hay shed on his place south of Otis. He must be preparing to store his hay until it will bring higher prices.

Early Monday morning Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Blinde were made happy by the arrival of a fine son. All are doing fine. Grandpa and Grandma Calvani are with their daughter.

Mrs. M. C. Stewart and Mrs. Runyan and daughter attended a meeting of the Eastern Star chapter at Artesia Tuesday night, going up in the Runyan car, Bryan Runyan driving.

M. Lewis, formerly lessee of the 9K ranch, but lately of Duncan, Okla., is in town this morning.

Mrs. Thomas C. Brown, nee Jewelle Hubbard, will arrive next week from her home at Socorro, New Mexico, for a lengthy stay with home-folks.

Judge and Mrs. Grantham are looking forward to a visit from their daughter, Mrs. A. R. Soder, who is expected to arrive here from her home in St. Paul, Minnesota, about the 25th for a visit of a month. Mrs. Soder will be accompanied by her three children.

W. W. Smith is in town from his ranch southwest this morning.

"Economy Wrong-End-To."

The tenaciousness and seriousness of the plight of the administration by reason of growing dissatisfaction, extending into the Republican party press, over the failure to meet the expectations of the country has been relieved somewhat by the activities of the new Director of the Budget, Gen. "Hell-and-Marla" Dawes, who likened the machinery given him in the budget bill to a "toothpick with which to tunnel Pikes Peak." The General, however, has set to work with the "toothpick" to prepare the 1922 budget.

In well-ordered governments, budgets are made before appropriations but as the appropriations for 1922 have mostly been made, Gen. Dawes budget follows the appropriations. This latter method, however, it is pointed out, harmonizes with the administration's plan of beginning at the wrong end on economy—that is to say, letting the ninety-three cents for war of each dollar of taxation stand as it is and trying to save something on the other seven cents.

IN MEMORIAM

The following beautiful tribute to the late Julia Jo Means May is sent in by a relative and we give space to it at the same time extending deepest sympathy to the family which is of our best and has a host of friends wherever it is known:

"Julia Jo, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Means and wife of Howard May, died at the home of her parents at Hope, June 6th 1921. She had suffered for seven long weeks ere death came and closed her tired eyelids and quieted her great pain.

"Julia was born in Eddy County and spent much of her life at Queen where her parents resided and where she received much of her schooling. After the removal of her parents to Hope she attended school there. She was a little more than twenty-one years of age at the time of her death. In the family she was loved for her gentle spirit and at school she was a peacemaker in the best sense of the word and surely has realized the promise to be called one of the 'children of God.'

"Pure as a lily and with a long and happy married life apparently opening before her, her taking away is one of the mysteries that man can not understand. During her long illness she never smiled but once or twice and that seemed strange to the loving watchers around her couch of pain, as when she was well she was always kind and jolly, with a bright smile and good word for everyone. Her last words were spoken to her young husband, and were: "Darling, I am as happy as can be."

"It is hard to give her up, but we bow in submission to the will of Him who is too good to err and too wise to be unkind.

"Julia had taught in the Sunday School at Hope and her class was called the Sunshine Class, she having been a member of the Methodist church since her childhood. Her body was tenderly carried to the church where touching funeral services were held. Her favorite song was sung—"Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty," and at the graveside the "Sweet By and By" was given and soon she was laid to rest covered by beautiful flowers which she had loved in life, and to which she was likened in her sweetness and purity. Her grave is by the side of the person who died during the flu epidemic.

"While our hearts are sad and lonely without her we realize that her presence was needed in Heaven, and that now she is wearing a crown of life that was promised all those who love Him and keep His commandments," and in the Sweet by and by, Julia, we'll meet again.

Encino and vicinity was visited by a big rain the last of the week and it is estimated that over three inches of rain fell in half an hour. A bumper crop for the season is now assured.
