Governor Mills Wants County Commissioners To Comply With Law

A NEW LUMBER COMPANY

Rock Island and Santa Fe Roads Pay $400 Dining Car License.

Governor Mills appointed Fred A. Becker of Belen, Valencia county, a notary public.

Back Tonight. Territorial Secretary Nathan Jaffa will be back from Roswell tonight. He expected to get in this afternoon but missed his train at Albuquerque this morning. He made the trip from Roswell in an automobile.

Land Entries. The following were the land entries at the local land office yesterday: Antonio A. Zamora, Marilita A. de Gallegos, Progresso; Carl S. Murphy, Willard; Lydia S. Nielsen, Lucia; John W. Jones, Albina Martinez, Wagon Mound; John L. Mason, Los Truchas; Charles B. S. Reiland, Wagon Mound; John W. Davis, McIntosh; Juan B. D. Vigil, Wagon Mound.

Apply for Admission. Superintendent of Insurance Jacobo Chaves has received applications from the United Brotherhood of Sulphur Springs, Texas, and the American National Insurance Company of Galveston, Texas, asking application papers preparatory to admittance to do business in New Mexico.

Land and Lumber Co. Articles of incorporation were filed today in the territorial secretary's office by the Truchas Land and Lumber Company which will do a general real estate and lumber business. The company is incorporated at $50,000 of which $40,000 has been subscribed. The shares are $100 each and the incorporators are Levi A. Hughes, 100 shares; W. J. Bailey, 100 shares; B. P. Wager, 100 shares; W. P. Wager, 50 shares, and Frank E. Har- wyl of Aichison, Kas., 50 shares. The company will operate on the Truchas grant in Rio Arriba county, and B. S. Phillips is named as the New Mexico agent with offices in Santa Fe. The directors are the stockholders.

Circular Tomorrow. Superintendent of Public Instruction J. E. Clark will issue a circular tomorrow on the subject of poll tax for school purposes.

For the Treasury. Territorial Treasurer M. A. Otero has received the sum of $400 for the treasury from Territorial Auditor W. G. Sargent from the dining car license of the Rock Island and Santa Fe roads, each paying $200. He also received the sum of $4 from the game warden.

Back From Los Lunas. Captain Fred Fornoff of the territorial mounted police has returned from Los Lunas bringing with him Jack Miller, the safe blower, who will serve a term in the penitentiary. He also brought with him Lewis Perez sentenced by Judge McMechem to a term of 5 to 10 years for killing his wife.

Protect Fruit Trees. The following letter is self explanatory:

To the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners of the county of

Dear Sir—By direction of Hon. W. J. Mills, governor of New Mexico, I call your attention to the provisions of Chapter 107 of the Session Laws of 1903 as amended by Chapter 69 of the Laws of 1909, entitled "An Act to create county boards of horticultural commissioners in the Territory of New Mexico, and to promote the horticultural interests in said Territory." This act makes it incumbent upon your board, on petition of ten tax-paying citizens of your county, to select three competent persons, fruit growers, or owners of orchards, residents of your county, who shall be known as the County Board of Horticultural Commissioners. The duties of such board are fully set forth in the chapters above referred to, the principal purpose of the legislation being to insure the destruction of scale bug, codling moth or other insect pest injurious to fruit, trees, and vines. It is made the duty of the County Board of Horticultural Commissioners to make report to the board of county commissioners on or before the first day of October of each year, of the condition of the fruit interests, and what is being done to eradicate insect pests, and it is made the duty of your board to incorporate so much of said report as may be of general interest in an annual report to be made to the Governor of the Territory on or before the first day of December of each year. The records of the Governor's office do not show that the report last referred to, for any year since the passage of the act, has been filed therein, and the object of this letter is to request that, in case there is a board of horticultural commissioners in your county, you require it to make report to you, and that your board thereafter make report to the Governor.

Of course, there may be some counties where there is little or no fruit raising, but in such counties as San Juan and Chaves, it is presumed that there is, and in counties where there is considerable fruit raising, it is ob-

REBELS ONCE MORE DEFEATED

Sally of Federals From Juarez Results in Fight Near Fabens

MANY AMERICANS CAPTURED

Insurrecto Leader Hiked For the Tall Timber Early in Battle.

El Paso, March 10.—A fight took place yesterday at St. Augustine ranch, opposite Fabens, 28 miles east of El Paso, between a band of 68 insurrectos and 135 federals who came out from Juarez yesterday. The insurrectos were defeated. Their officers quit early in the fight. About half of the party were Americans, and it is believed that many of them were captured. Twenty insurrectos crossed the river and were captured and disarmed by United States troops. The insurrectos are part of a band that has been concentrating in the vicinity of Juarez with a view of attacking the town, it is said.

El Paso Court Butts In. El Paso, Texas, March 10.—The grand jury of the thirty-fourth district court in this city returned indictments against six Mexicans on the charge of kidnapping Lawrence Converse and Edwin Blatt, two weeks ago. The names of the men indicted will not be made public until arrests are made. This is the first step toward extradition of the men alleged to be implicated in the affair.

Refugees Arrested. Douglas, Ariz., March 10.—One hundred and fifty Mexican refugees from this city were surrounded by American troops when they gathered near the border last night. They were placed under arrest and held here. The Mexicans began to flock toward the border when a report was received that the rebel forces had appeared before Agua Prieta. It is believed that they massed with the intention of joining the rebels in the event of an assault on Agua Prieta.

Germany Keeps Hands Off. Berlin, March 10.—Baron Waechter, secretary of state for foreign affairs, today authorized the Associated Press to state that Germany has made no representations whatever to the United States on the subject of Mexico.

Coming for Long Stay. San Diego, Calif., March 10.—Troop trains began to arrive early today, the Thirtieth Infantry being the first to appear. General Bliss and staff making preparations for a long stay. Governor Vega of Lower California is expected to take the field soon with a portion of 900 men now available at Ensenada, to seek battle with the insurrectos under Berthold and Leyva.

RAN AWAY BECAUSE OF SPELLING LESSON

Los Angeles, March 10.—Fearing that her mother would scold her because she had not studied her spelling lesson, Lenise Saunders, the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Saunders of Salda, Colo., ran away from the Cynthia apartments at Long Beach yesterday afternoon and was not found until this morning. The police searched diligently for the girl all night. This morning Jean Drake notified the police that when he went into the woodshed this morning he found the girl fast asleep on the wood pile.

DEMOCRATIC SOLONS JAM THROUGH FAME LAW.

Denver, Colo., March 10.—The "Big Mitt" reached into the House of Representatives and jammed through on second reading a fake school election law for the only purpose of preventing the passage of a new law which will put a stop to bribery, padding of the registry lists and ballot box stuffing. There was little opposition to the bill from the Democratic side of the House which laughed aloud at the frantic efforts of the Democratic machine people to fool the people with their fake law.

WIPED OUT MINING CAMPS OF LUNDY, MONO AND JORDAN LAST NIGHT

Masses of Snow Thunder Down Mountain and Destroy Power Plant.

Carson, Nev., March 10.—Three avalanches traveling in each instance at least two miles, gathering momentum and bulk as they thundered down the mountain sides, swept the mining camps of Lundy, Mono and Jordan in Mono county, California, yesterday and last night. At least ten persons were killed. The big power plant at Jordan was destroyed.

LEONARD WOOD TO THE FRONT

Will Go to Mexican Border in April to Inspect the Troops

MAJ. GEN. CARTER COMMANDS

Seventy-Five Troop Trains to Arrive in San Antonio by Sunday

Washington, March 10.—With all details of the great southward movement of the troops completed and the scene of activity shifted from Washington to the field, the army headquarters today are awaiting the arrival of units of the moving commands at their objective points. Major General Carter commander of the division which is concentrating at San Antonio will arrive at the Texas post tomorrow. By that time nearly all the troops will have reported. It was announced today that Major General Leonard Wood, probably will go to the border in April to inspect the camps and commands.

Seventy-five Troop Trains. San Antonio, March 10.—People here don't know just how to designate the concentration of the troops, so they call it "Allas Maneuvers." In the next 72 hours 75 troop trains are scheduled to arrive. The seventeenth Infantry arrived at midnight.

National Guard Officers to Participate. New York, March 10.—It was announced last night that 1,000 officers of the National Guard throughout the country will be invited to witness the operations of the United States Army in Texas, for their own instruction in handling large bodies of troops.

First Victim of Mannequins. Leavenworth, Kan., March 10.—Quartermaster Sergeant Fred Snyder, of the Thirtieth Infantry, shot and killed himself today immediately after he had bidden farewell to his sweetheart, a Kansas City girl. Snyder was a native of Berlin and had relatives in New York. No reason is known for his suicide except that he was despondent over the prospect of being separated from the girl, whose identity has not been learned.

JAPAN DOES NOT HANKER FOR STATION.

Ambassador Denies That His Country Has Asked President Diaz for Any Concession.

Washington, March 10.—"Japan has never made the slightest effort to obtain through me any concessions for a coaling station for naval uses in Magdalena Bay or Chailis or at any other point on the coast of Mexico," was the declaration of Baron Uchida, Japanese ambassador to Washington, when attention was called to published statements that through secret treaties or other arrangements with President Diaz, Japan had either acquired or is about to acquire coaling stations or a naval base on the Mexican coast.

IT'S A BILLION DOLLAR LAND

Appropriations Made at Last Session of Congress $1,025,489,662

BIG SURPLUS IN REVENUES

Will Be Used as Argument by Free Traders for Reduction of Duties.

Washington, D. C., March 10.—The appropriations of the last session of congress aggregated $1,025,489,662, according to a statement today of Representatives Tawney of Minnesota and Livingston of Georgia, chairman and ranking Democrat of the House committee on appropriations of the last congress. Mr. Tawney estimates the surplus revenues next year to be not less than $26,540,000. This will be used as an argument by the Democrats for repeal of the tariff on wool.

Ballinger Will Sue Pinchot. Washington, March 10.—Half a million dollars is to be asked in a damage suit to be filed against Gifford Pinchot by Richard A. Ballinger, the retiring secretary of the interior. Ballinger admitted today that he fully intended to make good on his statement that he intended to bring his alleged traducers into court. Returning to his home at Seattle in a few days, former Secretary Ballinger will allow his health to mend and then, from private life, he will take up cudgels to demand justice not only from the former chief forester, but also the New York magazine which has leveled its bitter attack against him for nearly two years. Suit against Pinchot will be filed in Washington and vigorously fought. The move to bring the maga-

FOR FEDERAL BUILDING SITES

Delegate Andrews Determined That Santa Fe Shall Have Postoffice

TO COST QUARTER MILLION

Roswell Structure Is to Be More Expensive Than at First Planned.

Special to the New Mexican. Washington, D. C., March 10.—The bids for the construction of a $125,000 postoffice building at Roswell have received. The department, however, has decided to build a more expensive structure than at first contemplated. Delegate Andrews at the special session will introduce not only a measure to appropriate $50,000 for a building site for a postoffice building at Santa Fe, but also for an increase of the appropriation for the buildings at Roswell and at Las Cruces. As soon as the deed showing perfect title for the site of the latter has been received and approved by the attorney general, $15,000 will be paid for it. For the Santa Fe postoffice building $250,000 is to be appropriated as soon as a suitable site near the business center is purchased. It is believed that the federal building site agreed upon by the city and the town of Las Vegas will prove satisfactory. The United States is fully prepared for any eventualities in Mexico, and the department of state has confidential advice that President Diaz's health is precarious and that on account of his advanced age he may die at any moment leaving Mexico in chaos, unless a strong force at the border is in readiness to quell anarchy and prevent the destruction of millions of dollars' worth of property owned by American investors.

COL. HARPER S. CUNNINGHAM DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Was Former Attorney General of Oklahoma and One of Most Prominent Masons in Land.

A dispatch received from Long Beach, California, today states that Col. Harper Samuel Cunningham died there at 6 o'clock this morning after a serious illness of six weeks. He was 65 years of age.

Colonel Cunningham had stomach trouble which was incurable but his friends say that until about two months ago he appeared in fairly good health.

Born in Ohio, Colonel Cunningham took up railroad work at an early age and also studied law. He practiced law in Kansas and rose rapidly in his profession. He was appointed receiver of the land office at Salina, Kansas, by President Garfield. Moving to Oklahoma later he became prominent in legal circles and after holding several positions of trust he was appointed attorney-general. He was elected state senator of Oklahoma resigning office to move to Santa Fe over a year ago. He purchased a ranch near here and divided his time between Santa Fe and the country. He loved the outdoor farm life although he was a lawyer by profession. Colonel Cunningham was one of the most prominent Masons in the land being a member of the supreme council. He was sovereign grand inspector general of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Masons in New Mexico succeeding the late Colonel Max Frost, and did much to build up the order in this territory.

Surviving him are a widow, two sons, Charles A. Cunningham of White Bluffs, Washington, and Harper J. Cunningham of this city and one daughter, Mrs. Eva C. McClurg of Colorado Springs, but who now is in Long Beach, California.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been decided upon although it is thought the body will probably be brought here for interment.

ZAMBOANGA HAD A SUCCESSFUL FAIR.

It is Featured in the Philippine Director and Inter-Inland Journal Published at Manila.

Our old friend the Sultan of Sulu is still trying to sell his pearls. "The potentate of Jolo will sell his gems at the Moro Province Fair," says the "Philippine Director and Inter-Inland Journal," a copy of which has been received by the New Mexican. This interesting publication is published monthly at Manila, a city of over 300,000 in the interest of news, investment and commerce, and gives one a surprising glimpse into the resources of the United States possessions in the Orient, and reveals the fact that notwithstanding the general impression, the Philippines have a comparatively stable government, the population is largely intelligent and progressive, and savages with bolos creeping through the jungle are not a type of the general population. This number of the "Director" is largely devoted to a description of the resources of the Moro province with its nearly 30,000 square miles featuring the big province fair at Zamboanga, February 7 to 14.

FIVE MAGAZINES BLOWN UP

Hundreds of People Hurt by Explosion at Wisconsin Village

ONLY ONE MAN IS KILLED

Homes in Radius of 5 Miles Are Shattered and Made Unhabitable.

Pleasant Prairie, Wis., March 10.—Hardly a house in the thickly populated farming country in a radius of five miles from here is habitable today as the result of an explosion last night of five magazines filled with dynamite and black powder at the Dupont De Nemours Powder Company plant. One man, S. E. Thompson, was killed, one seriously injured, several hundred painfully hurt. The residents of the village of Bristol and of the surrounding country have packed their remaining household goods and moved away until their homes are rebuilt.

Shocks Felt in Chicago. Pleasant Prairie, March 10.—There is still at the plant in practically open space liable to instant explosion, sufficient powder to cause far greater damage than the blast last night. The magazines that exploded contained 150 tons of finished dynamite, 130 tons unfinished, 80,000 kegs unfinished. The exact cause of the explosion was not learned, and no one was permitted within a mile of the wrecked plant. The force of the explosion was tremendous. It was felt as far east as Cleveland, Ohio, and west to the Mississippi river. In Chicago many windows were broken, and buildings rocked. Hotel and theater guests were alarmed. The property loss will be a million and a half. Every house in Pleasant Prairie, a village of 700 people, was wrecked or badly damaged. The school house was wrecked, but it was not necessary to dismiss the school today as every one of the 45 children was either injured or moved away with its parents. Kenosha, Milwaukee and other nearby towns suffered severely. Holes 50 feet deep were torn in the ground. The escape of Superintendent Clarence Brady is remarkable. He was in the soda house with Engineer Flynn. The men were blown through the building, landing on top of an adjoining magazine. This exploded, and Brady and Flynn, the latter badly injured, were thrown a hundred feet. Brady escaped with bruises.

PEACE RESTORED IN TUMULTUOUS HONDURAS.

American and British Blue Jackets Turn Over to Government San Pedro Sula.

Puerto Cortez, March 10.—American and British blue jackets were withdrawn from San Pedro Sula yesterday and the town turned over to representatives of the Honduras government. Guards were withdrawn from the trains and the revolutionary army here disbanded. Peace once more has been restored along the coast.

IRISH RAISE FIERCE ROW

House of Commons Turned Into Bedlam for Nineteen Hours

DEBATE BITTER AND FURIOUS

Taunts and Insults Hurlled at Each Other by Opposing Factions.

London, March 10.—After a continuous session of nineteen hours, occupied by a discussion of the land clauses of the budget, the House of Commons broke up at ten o'clock this morning. The debate was the most bitter that has been heard in the lower chamber in ten years. Taunts and insults were hurled fast and furiously and at one time a riot was threatened when Captain Craig, a Unionist, told the chair that if the presiding officer would give the word, the opposition would gladly throw the entire national party out of the House. A hurricane of angry shots came from the Irish members and it was some time before order was restored.

WILL GO TO "WAR."

Adjutant General A. S. Brooks has received a telegram from the department of war, division of military affairs, asking him to recommend a limited number of officers of the National Guard to attend the maneuvers at San Antonio, Texas. General Brooks will probably recommend five or six officers, including Col. E. C. Abbott, but will not go himself as he is quite familiar with these maneuvers. According to dispatches of the Associated Press a thousand officers of the National Guard all over the country have been invited to participate in these maneuvers.

INDIANS GIVEN NINE MONTHS

Took Turquoise From Tiffany Mines 14 Miles South of Santa Fe

U. S. JURIES ARE DISCHARGED

Indictments Brought in Against William Finn and Charles Bell.

That Indians have been taking turquoise from the famous mines 14 miles south of Santa Fe owned by the American Turquoise Company, of which the Tiffanys of New York are the majority stockholders, substantiating the statements made by J. P. McNulty, the manager, was proved today when Judge McFie sentenced four Indians to nine months in the penitentiary for stealing turquoise.

Three of the Indians are named Quintana and one is Trujillo, and all were arrested on a moonlight night some time ago by a deputy sheriff. The arrests were the outcome of complaints made for several years by Mr. McNulty who declared that Indians were rifling the mines of turquoise and doing it under the shelter of night. Many efforts are said to have been made by the authorities to catch the Indians but until the arrest of the quartet just sentenced, they were in vain.

The Indians use turquoise for ceremonial purposes and it has been practically impossible to get them to understand that the turquoise mines are no longer public property. The Indians of both Cochiti and Santo Domingo were cautioned by Superintendent Crandall to keep away from the Tiffany mines but their fondness for the semi-precious stone got them finally into trouble.

The Tiffany mines have been closed down for some time in order to curtail the production. These mines near Santa Fe had supplied all the American turquoise the Tiffanys use in their famous jewelry.

Juries Discharged.

Both the U. S. grand and petit juries were discharged after they grand jury returned two indictments. One was United States vs. William Finn, assaulting an Indian with a deadly weapon and the other was the United States vs. Charles Bell, on the charge of bigamy. He is alleged to have two wives in Santa Fe. Finn's indictment grew out of the trouble with the Indians in which Dick Wetherill lost his life last June in a brush with the Navajos in San Juan county.

Four Car Breakers.

Judge McFie sentenced four car breakers to the penitentiary, William Chambers and George Wilson, aged twenty-five years, to serve one year each and James McDonald and Charles Strouber, who are seventeen years old, nine months each. They broke into a freight car some time ago.

For Burglary.

Considerable interest has been manifested in the sentence of three years in the penitentiary meted out to Cleofes Alarid and Tomas Sena for stealing fruit. It should be stated, however, that the fruit was stolen by burglariously entering the cellar of the house where the fruit was stored. It was not picked from the trees, as is generally the case.

Dr. J. M. Diaz was today granted his citizenship papers. He is a native of Mexico and came to Santa Fe in 1891.

Estalio Muniz, who has been a fugitive from justice the past three years, was brought into court today by Sheriff Charles Closson. It is believed he will plead guilty to the charge of horse stealing this afternoon in which case he will be sentenced without delay by Judge John R. McFie.

Judge McFie late this afternoon sentenced Muniz from two to three years in the penitentiary on two charges of horse stealing.

CALIFORNIA IS SORELY STRICKEN

Floods Devastate Large Section and Effectually Block Traffic

LOS ANGELES STORM CENTER

Millions Dollars of Damages in Santa Barbara and Adjoining Counties.

Los Angeles, Calif., March 10.—The storm which has been creeping south over the state last week, reached its climax around Los Angeles yesterday. Floods tore out wagon bridges, blocked interurban lines and inundated great areas. In Santa Barbara county, more than ten thousand acres of rich land were washed into the sea by the Santa Maria river. The storm damage in that county alone is estimated at a million dollars.

PRESIDENT TAFT AT ATLANTA

Prosperous Metropolis of Georgia Entertains Executive

WILL ALSO VISIT AUGUSTA

There He Will Rest Up Before Strenuous Special Session of Congress.

Atlanta, March 10.—President Taft is the guest of Atlanta today. This evening, he addresses the Southern Commercial Congress on "A Greater Nation Through a Greater South." This afternoon he delivered an address to the negroes of Atlanta at the Central Avenue Methodist church. He will leave at midnight for Augusta, where he will take a rest before assembling Congress.

Theodore's Farewell Tour. Atlanta, Ga., March 10.—Theodore Roosevelt delivered the first speech of what he has announced as his last speech making tour when he talked yesterday to the negro population of the city at the Central Avenue Methodist church. The great need of technical education among the negroes as a move toward the solution of the race problem was the keynote of the colonel's talk.

Young Manhood of the South.

Atlanta, Ga., March 10.—The young manhood of the South should determine that they will not be characterized as a people with a rich past and a meagre present," declared Dr. Clarence J. Owens, commander-in-chief of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans, and commissioner of immigration of the Southern Commercial Congress, in an address before the congress here today. Dr. Owens spoke on the duty of the young men of the South in aiding in the development of the resources of their country. His address in part is as follows:

"This congress dramatically marks the semi-centennial of the birth of a nation. Fifty years ago the South entered a union, based upon an interpretation of the constitution, for the support of principles and traditions inherited from the fatherhood of the past. Today the sons of the men who contended in the halls of legislation and who offered their lives amid the storm of shot and shell gather here beneath the folds of the Stars and Stripes, in the presence of the chief executive of the United States, to pledge their loyalty to the South's new union, which, in the providence of God, will produce a 'Greater Nation Through a Greater South.'

"In pledging allegiance to 'Old Glory' we are not untrue to our fathers. That flag was baptized in Southern blood and the stars the South added, in the field of blue, light up the land with the solemn reliance of the National glory.

"There were two interpretations of the constitution, each supported with the most powerful pledge mankind can offer, that of life, fortune, and sacred honor. The question involved demanded a solution. It was solved by the clash of arms and the decision of the age was accepted. From the horrors of the desolation emerged the fact that the Union could not be destroyed, neither could the individual states of the South be blotted out. In the surrender of armies, in the recognition of the states' rights by the Federal government, in the oath of allegiance of the men of the South to the old flag and in the readmission of the states to the old relation of statehood, there is to be found the tie that binds the national life of today and there also, wherever men have failed to be true to the agreements of that period, may be found the explanation of any delay in the full reconciliation of the contending parties.

"Prior to the war of secession, the South was represented in the halls of national legislation by statesmen of the purest ideals and the loftiest construction methods. There are exceptions to the charge I am about to make; the four years out of the national life left a condition into which smaller men rushed and it is conceded that for the past 45 years many, both North and South, have held office by fighting over the questions that were forever settled and accepted, by appealing to the ignorance and prejudice of the populace by resorting to infamous subterfuge in an effort to continue discord and misunderstanding. The man from the South who would discriminate against the man from the North and the man from the North who would discriminate against the man from the South, basing his argument on the differences of the past, settled as they were, by honorable men, should be branded as a traitor to national strength.

"The thought of this hour is not one of restoring lost pride of ancestry, but rather one of defining our unworthiness to be sons of such a line of stalwart men. There are young men of this period who are proud of their fathers and yet have no sense of the lack in themselves of the virtues which made their sires great. Parentage is nothing, unless we are worthy of that parentage; the vital question of the moment is, 'Who are you?' and the demand is

THE DAILY ROUND UP.

"The West."
(From Cactus and Pine by Shariott M. Hall, published by Sherman, French and Company, Boston Mass.)

When the world of waters was parted by the stroke of a mighty rod. Her eyes were first of the lands of earth to look on the face of God; The white mists robed and throned her, and the sun in his orbits wide Bent down from his ultimate pathway and claimed her his chosen bride; And he formed and dowered her with the dower of a royal queen, Decried her the strength of mighty hills, the peace of the plains between; The silence of utmost desert, and canyons rifted and riven, And the music of wide-flung forest were strong winds shout to Heaven.

Then high and apart he sat her and bade the gray seas guard, And the lean sands clutching her garments' hem keep stern and solemn ward, What dreams she knew as she waited, What strange keels touched her shore,

And feet went into the stillness and returned to sea no more, They passed through her dream-like shadows--till she woke one pregnant morn And watched Magellan's white-winged ships swing around the ice-bound Horn; She thrilled to their masterful pre- sence, those dauntless sails from afar, And laughed as she leaned to the ocean till her face shown out like a star.

And men who toiled in the drudging hives of a world as flat as a floor Thrilled in their souls at her laughter and turned with face to the door; And creeds as hoary as Adam, and feuds as old as Cain, Fell deaf on the ear that harkened and caught that far refrain;

Into dungeons by light forgotten, and prisons of grim despair, Hope came with pale reflection of her star on the swooning air; And the old, hedged, human whirl- pool, with its seething misery, Broke bounds as a pent up river breaks through to the healing sea.

Calling, calling, calling, resistless, im- perative, strong; Priest, and soldier, and dreamer--she drew them, a mighty throng; The unmapped seas took tribute of many a dauntless band, And many a brave hope measured but bleaching bones in the sand; Yet for one that fell a hundred sprang out to fill his place;

For death at her call was sweeter than life in a tamer rank, Snow and bone she drew them; steel- thewed--and the weaklings shrank; Grim-wrought of granite and iron were the men of her foremost rank.

Stern as the land before them, and strong as the waters crossed; Men who had looked on the face of defeat nor counted the battle lost; Uncrowned rulers, and statesmen, shaping their daily need To the law of brother with brother, till the world stood up to heed; The sills of a greater empire they hewed and hammered and turned, And the torch of a larger freedom from their blazing hilltops burned; Till the old ideals that led them grew dim as a childhood's dream, And caste went down in the balance and manhood stood supreme.

The wanderers of earth turned to her, outcast of the older lands; With a promise and hope in their pleading, and she reached them ply- ing hands; And she cried to the old world cities that drowse by the Eastern main; "Send me your weary, house-worn broods and I'll send you men again. Lo, here in my wind-swept reaches, by my marshalled peaks of snow, Is room for a larger reaping than your o'er-tilled fields can grow; Seed of the Man-Seed springing to stature and strength in the sun; Free, with a limitless freedom no bat- tles of men have won."

For men, like the grain of the corn- fields, grow small in the huddled crowd; And weak for the breath of spaces where the soul may speak aloud; For hills like stairways to Heaven, shaming the level track; And sick with the clave of pavements, and the marts of the trafficking pack; Greatness is born of greatness, and breadth of a breadth profound; The old Aeneas fables of strength re- newed from the ground.

Was a human truth for the ages; since the hour of the Eden-birth, That man among men was strongest who stood with his feet on the earth."

Left Horse Untied--Charles Onion was arrested and fined at Las Vegas yesterday for leaving his horse untied in the street.

Domestic Science Instructor--Miss Viola E. Wood of Lima, Ohio, has accepted the position of instructor in domestic science at the New Mexico Normal University at Las Vegas.

Bought a Home--Mr. and Mrs. Orin A. Foster, who recently bought the Rio Grande Republic, have bought themselves a brick cottage at Las Cruces and are remodeling it.

Judge Roberts as Commencement Orator--Associate Justice C. J. Roberts, who is also presiding judge of the fourth judicial district, has accepted an invitation extended by the board of education of the East Las Vegas public schools to deliver the commencement address this year. Judge Roberts is a keen thinker and an eloquent orator. The board is to be congratulated on its selection.

William D. Stephens Dead--William Douglass Stephens, born September 25, 1870, a resident of the Mesilla valley for the past seven years, passed away at his ranch home near Las Cruces, after having been confined to the house for two weeks by helpless illness.

For Stealing Posts--E. C. James, was arrested Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Torrence on a warrant sworn out by W. H. Carrothers, alleging that James had appropriated a bunch of fence posts from the Carrothers ranch west of town. James is having a hearing at McIntosh today.--Morlarty Messenger.

New Reservoir for Las Vegas--Water has been turned into the new 63, 000,000 gallon reservoir constructed by the Agua Pura Company in Peter- son canon, five miles north of Las Vegas. The dam is 235 feet long at the top and is 55 feet high. It can be raised 40 feet more and thus increase the storage capacity sufficient for a city of 50,000 people.

Minister Dies of Hemorrhage--Rev. W. H. Wilkins, died at Albuquerque yesterday of a hemorrhage of the lungs. He had no premonition that his end was so near. Last Sunday he preached as usual, and a few minutes before death appeared to be in his usual good spirits. The deceased was a Baptist. His remains were shipped to Corsicana, Texas, for interment.

Site for Church or Parish House--Col. W. A. Fleming Jones, acting for the Trustees of the property of the Protestant Episcopal church in New Mexico, has just purchased 104 feet frontage on the Alameda road, just around the corner from Court street, at Las Cruces, which will ultimately be used for the site of the Episcopal church and parish house.

Horse Shipment--Three horses from the Juarez race track were shipped to T. L. Hall at Deming, Luna county. The horses brought over were Col. Bronston, owned by C. C. Ennert, Shamrock, owned by L. E. Fine, and Queen Full, owned by W. H. Deny. Eight carloads of horses were received at Columbus, Luna county, and will be shipped in bond to Canada. The shipment was received Wednesday morning and will be sent through as soon as the custom papers have been filed out.

Arrested for Larceny--Policeman Lujan at Albuquerque arrested a man named Henry Becker, who claims Dem- ing as his home, on a charge of rob- bing the cash drawer of the Alberque- que Carriage company of $29 in silver. Becker, it is claimed, was in the office of the carriage company. M. A. Skees, the bookkeeper went up stairs and while he was gone, it is claimed, Becker tapped the till. He was cap- tured near Abajo and had $16.60 in his pocket. He said he was on his way to Belen and had not been in Albu- querque. He will be given a hear- ing today.

Horse Broke Through Roof--Jose Campos, wife and three children had just left their home at Elephant Butte, Sierra county, a few minutes, when a large horse belonging to a neighbor rolled in through the roof. The horse had been turned out to go to water and it decided to take a roll on the hillside above the house and the hill being steep, the horse rolled on down the hillside, finally landing inside the little house. When found the horse was lying on its back with its feet protruding through the crushed roof. Many men were soon on the

RHEUMATISM PAINFUL & DANGEROUS

Rheumatism is due to a diseased condition of the blood cells and cor- puscles, brought about by an excess of uric acid in the circulation. It is not only a very painful disease but an extremely dangerous trouble. The briny, acid state of the blood gradu- ally forms a coating over the muscles, and by depositing a cement-like sub- stance in the joints frequently termi- nates fatally, or leaves its victim a hopeless cripple. It is natural to "doctor" the spot that hurts, and it is quite right to use liniments, hot appli- cations, etc., to get temporary relief from a painful joint or swollen tendon; but Rheumatism is not a skin disease, and such things, when depended on alone make one careless, and the dis- ease gets a firmer hold on the blood. S. S. S. cures the disease because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It goes into the cir- culation, and re- moves every particle of the irritating uric acid, builds up the blood, makes it rich and oily, and in this way pre- pares it for the proper nourishment of all joints, muscles, nerves and bones. If you have Rheumatism, get the uric acid out of the blood by taking S. S. S., a purely vegetable medicine, and enjoy freedom from its misery. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice free to all who write.

Fourteen Chinamen to Be Deported.--Leon Jung Wah, Leon Yin Jow and a dozen other Chinks, accompan- ied by United States Deputy Mar- shal James Smith, will leave Satur- day for San Francisco, from which port they will be deported to Cuba. Leon Jung Wah and Leon Yin Jow are confined in the county jail in Al- buquerque. The twelve other Chinks are held at Socorro. Wah and Jow were brought to Albuquerque Wednesday night by United States Deputy J. W. Johnson, from Roswell. They were used in Roswell as wit- nesses in other deportation cases.

$100 REWARD, $100.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, act- ing directly upon the blood and mu- cous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the dis- ease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS.

Santa Fe People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.
It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills, for Santa Fe kidney sufferers, have made their local reputation. Proof in the testimony of Santa Fe people who have been cured to stay cured.

Pasquale Yanni, College St., Santa Fe, N. M., says: "In 1902 I gave a public testimonial in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills to the effect that they had cured me of a pain in my back, caused by disordered kidneys. My work obliges me to sit down a good deal and I suffered from backache. While at work I suffered more intensely than at any other time and I was very anxious to find a remedy that would relieve me. Learning of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box and to my delight, they soon fixed me up in good shape. During the past seven years I have had no need of Doan's Kidney Pills or any other kidney medicine."

NEW MEXICO POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Profiting by Experience.

New Mexico confidently expects her
state officers to be in office by Jan.
1, 1913, and in setting her calculations so far ahead she is allowing herself reasonable latitude for accidents
—El Paso Times.

Easy for the Republicans.

"We are distinctly opposed to having Summers Burkhardt displaced as secretary of the Territorial Democratic Central Committee. Burkhardt
has been one of the most faithful and earnest workers in the party."—Farmington Times-Hustler.

He'd Be the First.

"If the initiative, referendum, and
recall are good for the various states,
why not for the nation? Why not recall of Senators as well as the Judiciary? Not on your life! Owen
and his greed would be the first victims, if the people could act directly."
—Raton Range.

It's Democracy All Over.

The Democratic members of the legislature of Colorado are making
several kinds of fools of themselves.
They are frittering away their time
voting for Senators and doing nothing else of importance. They are injuring the chance of national success by their undemocratic conduct.—Farmington Times-Hustler (Democratic.)

Wobbly.

The Albuquerque Evening Herald
made its appearance on Tuesday and
announces that it will be a newspaper, above all else, and orthodox republican in politics. There is but one Democratic daily left in New Mexico, and that one a staunch advocate of statehood—the Roswell Record. It is sort of wobbly just now.
—Raton Range.

On the Band Wagon.

Democracy in this country lost two
of its staunchest and most consistent supporters when Demetrio Silva and Monico Tafoya on Monday evening
pledged their allegiance in the future
to the Republican party. It was an enthusiastic junta of the Republicans in the meeting place of the town council that these gentlemen, amid much enthusiasm, joined the ranks of the Republicans.—Las Vegas Optic.

Blight of Suspicion.

Will the New Mexican please elucidate the following paragraph which occurs in a Washington special to
that paper:

"Delegates Andrews and Judge A.
B. Fall are in harmony on statehood
and department matters and are said
to have reached an agreement on
New Mexico matters."

What is the meaning of hitching
that scratch team in double harness?
What section of the political ice pond
is Judge Fall harvesting this winter?—Raton Range.

Rough on Roswell Record.

"A deal has just been closed in Albuquerque by the terms of which the Tribune-Citizen plant and good-will will be sold to a syndicate of Republicans. The Tribune-Citizen ceased to exist yesterday, and the Alberque-
que Herald will make its appearance
today. This sale leaves only one Democratic daily in New Mexico, the Record, published at Roswell. It is a pity that the Democratic party of New Mexico cannot support a first class daily newspaper—Silver City Independent.

Very Dead.

The statehood boosters who went
from Arizona to the National Capital
in time to participate in the obsequies
of the late lamented Arizona constitution, are wiring their friends back

home that everything is all right and Arizona is sure of statehood during the coming extra session of Congress.
All of which goes to show what a stimulating effect a trip from home
can have on the imagination of men
whose keenness of perception is obscured by political zeal. It is clearly apparent to all disinterested observers that statehood for Arizona at this time is very dead.—El Paso Times.

Out in the Cold.

The Santa Fe New Mexican publishes an article from a member of the W. C. T. U., which we are glad was printed. One sentence tells what this organization wants and is fighting for. It is this: "We are fighting the liquor traffic in New Mexico, and nothing else." This leaves
Bulgin and Seder and ex-Senator Blair and the Anti-Saloon League as
the libelous enemies of New Mexico,
and they deserve only the contempt
of the people of this commonwealth. If
as an organization the W. C. T. U., has not been fighting our admission
as a state, we are more than glad to announce it and do our part to correct any wrong impression regarding
it. There is nothing to prevent legislative enactment regarding the liquor traffic, but to fight statehood
because there is no prohibition in the constitution is without defense and
the organization so acting does not deserve support.—Taos Valley News.

On the Waiting List.

The President and the Attorney General are of the opinion that the special session of Congress has the right to pass upon the question of statehood for both New Mexico and Arizona.

The Arizona constitution and certified returns of election are now
before the Attorney General for a report as to the constitutionality of the document and legality of the election.
President Taft does not mind
that he has power to hasten New Mexico's admission by executive act between
the special and regular session of the 62nd Congress.

The consensus of good opinion in Washington is that both Arizona and New Mexico will be admitted at the extra session.

Failing this, New Mexico will become a state, and the election ordered in 1912, unless the Congress shall specifically disapprove—regardless of the Arizona middle.

We are now in, and the Senate has got to kick us out—or we stick.

Not yet, but soon!—Raton Range.

It's Up To You, President Taft.

Saturday night the Register-Tribune

sent the following telegram to Delegate Andrews at Washington:

Hon. W. H. Andrews, Washington,

D. C.—Urges upon President Taft the undeniable fact that the freedom of

New Mexico is up to him, and urge him

to authorize Governor Mills to set

the machinery in motion for the election of state officers. The Senate did not vote upon the constitution at all,

so that it is up to the President, "Congress having failed to disapprove." Unless he does this, there is danger that

Arizona will be hitched up when it comes to approval, and entail the risk

of rejection because of the Arizona

constitution. It is a great opportunity for the President to insure the seating of two Republican Senators and

two Republican Congressmen in the next Congress. If he does not do it,

Arizona will doubtless block the way

for admission at all. If he does, New Mexico, a Republican state, will be safely admitted before the next regular session. The loyal Republicans

and patriots of all parties in New Mexico look to President Taft to exercise
his prerogative under the enabling act and give freedom and justice to a quarter of a million people, who have for fifty years been denied their rights.—Roswell Register-Tribune.

"The young manhood of the South
should determine that they will not be characterized as a people with a rich past and a meagre present. Who is making history today that the coming generations will cherish and boast about? Few only, in contrast with our many noble sires. There are many who know more about their own duties and responsibilities.

The only lasting monuments that we can raise to the leaders of the past, are the lives of those who can put as much glory and power into times of progress and peace as our fathers put into battle and into siege.

"What is the problem of today?
Fifty years ago it was a constitution
question. Today it is in the realm of a just appreciation of natural resources, in a fuller conception of ability both natural and acquired and in the union of the constructive forces
of our civilization for the uplift of the Southland, a homogeneous section of the country. The obligation of the hour is to make adequate contribution in all that goes to make the union illustrious and great.

"Fifty years ago our fathers did not know fully of the treasures hid beneath the surface of the earth; fifty years ago our people were not so deeply interested in agriculture and in the industries. These statements
are not made by way of comparison
with any part of the United States
during that period but rather by contrast with the activities of this age.

Facts
About
Motherhood

The experience of Motherhood is a

trying one to most women and marks

distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not

one woman in a hundred is prepared

to understand how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman

nowadays has medical treatment at the time of childbirth, but many approach

the experience with the trial of

strength, and when the strain is over

her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous

strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than

to see a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under

right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable

thing is that, with all the evidence of

shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition,

women will persist in going blindly to

the trial.

It isn't as though the experience

came upon them unawares. They have ample time in which to prepare, but

they, for the most part, trust to chance

and pay the penalty.

In many homes once childless there

are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable

Compound makes women normal,

healthy, and strong.

Any woman who would like

special advice in regard to this matter is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn,

Mass. Her letter will be held in strict confidence.

Those statements are not made to reflect upon those who wrought a half

century ago, for they were true to the obligation of their day.

"The hour has come when the South's new union must be perfected; when the states with a common interest, agriculturally, commercial-

ly, and industrially, must be bound together in a new compact for the interpretation of resources and for the removal of every misconception concerning the South.

"The Southern Commercial Congress is the highest expression of this new union of the South. It is a confederation of all commercial bodies, business institutions and individual business leaders for the purpose

of bringing to pass in our day a condition where the South will know itself and will be known. The congress is actually bringing the South

back into national life. With the headquarters at the national capital,

the organization is in touch with the

several Federal departments and is able to interpret the constructive efforts of the government in terms of the needs of the South. Just as the dynamo creates a new field of electric force in which things may be

wrought which could not have been

wrought, may we see in the Southern

Commercial Congress that there has been made possible for us a new field

in which we may plan and work and

do as we are led by inspiration, led

on by the divine impulse which will make the generations go from good

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

ARIZONA AWAKENS TO ITS MISTAKE.

There was a critical moment during the New Mexico constitutional convention, when it seemed almost certain that this territory, too, would fall into Arizona's error in constitutional making. It was known that the convention was almost equally divided on the referendum, initiative and recall and that the opposition to those revolutionary measures could muster but 49 votes if it came to a show down. But those who leaned to popular fallacies were so badly divided among themselves, the most reasonable constitution makers among them agreed to a compromise on concessions such as the election of the judiciary, a modified referendum, a corporation commission and other real progressive measures. Arizona leaders like Chairman H. O. Bursam, National Committeeman Solomon Luna and others and therefore did not avoid the pitfall into which New Mexico would have dropped but for patriotic and self-sacrificing leadership. But now Arizona is awakening to the realization of its foolishness. Says the Arizona Republican:

"The Hon. Alfred Franklin has published in the Arizona Democrat a thoughtful review of the statehood situation. Mr. Franklin was one of the members of the late constitutional convention who stood for practically all of the 'advanced' notions which characterize the constitution. Presumably he would still be glad to have these doctrines included in our system of government at its very beginning, if that were practicable. Evidently he anticipates that the president will disapprove the constitution. He knows, of course, that will put an abrupt end to progress toward statehood under existing laws, and that anything accomplished thereafter must be from a new starting point. In view of the conditions which must be confronted in that event, Mr. Franklin makes these sound observations: 'It occurs to me that it will not be the part of wisdom for the people of Arizona to keep continually chasing the shadow of statehood and thereby lose the substance. We must realize that every victory achieved other than in the brutal conduct of war, is fraught with compromise. We must further realize and, realizing recognize that, while the people of this territory are more directly concerned in its consummation, the ultimate power that controls our admission into the great American Union is vested in the composite citizenship of a nation numbering some ninety millions of patriotic people, and represented politically by the President and the Congress as the constitutional authority that controls our destiny.'"

"This is exactly in line with the position taken by the Republican at the beginning of the constitutional campaign and maintained to this moment. We tried to point out the difficulties which the people of Arizona were bound to encounter in trying to achieve statehood in disregard of the veto power over our constitution which had been vested in the President and the Congress."

"Assuming still last the President will reject the constitution we can foresee nothing but disaster as the result of further efforts to 'force things' at Washington. As Governor Sloan well said immediately after the election of last month, our hope of success in the future—in case the president rejects the constitution—must be found on a frank recognition of the probability that while we ask the President and Congress to concede something, we also must be prepared to concede something."

"This is the only policy which can promise success. 'To be sure, the people of this territory will be told by Senator Bourne, and possibly half a dozen other Senators, that not a jot or tittle must be conceded."

"But it is almost time, it seems to us, for the people of Arizona to stop and consider the motives of the politicians who give such advice. While this little group of Senators may be nominally in earnest in working for the admission of Arizona, they are far more interested in boosting their own political game. They want an 'issue' on which they can fight Mr. Taft in the next campaign. By forcing them into the open on the reciprocity question, Mr. Taft has exposed the utter hypocrisy of the insurgent Senators who have insisted they were insurgents only because they wanted tariff reductions. The ground has been cut from under their feet on the tariff question. They must have some other grounds on which to oppose the President and on which to keep themselves prominently before the country. They are hoping that Arizona will furnish them with this ground. They would be quite well pleased to see Arizona sacrificed, if thereby they could be enabled to pose as the champions of a defeated 'people.'"

"But we do not believe that the people of Arizona will, on careful consideration, lend themselves to the scheme of making this territory a sacrificed goat upon the insurgent altar. 'What we want is statehood—we are not caring anything about the chestnuts which the Bourne and the Bristows may have in the fire. 'Mr. Franklin talks excellent sense.'"

CLEAN UP THE TOWN.

Las Vegas expects to engage in a general clean-up crusade, and it's something that Santa Fe might undertake also with considerable profit to itself and the health of its people. The Meadow City authorities will help and will provide the wagons to haul away the garbage and to supervise the burning up of litter in back yards. Manure heaps, refuse, tin cans, wire, leaves, rags, bones, old shoes, ashes, and all kinds of trash, which at present give a town an unkempt and unsanitary appearance, are to be disposed of, and citizens who will not obey the ordinances safeguarding the public health will be vigorously prosecuted. Such a clean-up campaign has become a regular institution in a number of progressive cities and towns, and in the capital city of the commonwealth, it certainly should be a periodical institution, until the city is so wealthy that it can afford to have a "whitewashing" brigade sweeping and cleaning up each day.

A similar movement has struck the Duke City, for the Albuquerque Journal says: "Springtime has approximately arrived; the sewer construction which has demoralized the streets for a year or two is practically at an end; we are to have distinguished visitors in a week or so; sanitary conditions have become lax during the last winter to a certain extent, and now is the proper time for every man, woman and child in Albuquerque to wield the broom."

Tin cans, deceased cats, ashes and rubbish have been allowed to accumulate, and there is a need of a widespread, thorough and enthusiastic campaign on the part of the people of Albuquerque to clean up and beautify the city.

While there is much work to be done, if every property owner and every householder does his or her part, the individual burden will be light. The health authorities are working and they should have the cordial co-operation and the cheerful assistance of everyone in Albuquerque.

Take the hose and wash off your sidewalk if it has been buried under piles of dirt from sewer trenches. If the winds have piled up tumble weeds against your fence rake them together and burn them; and don't be afraid to touch a match to the brush and rubbish which has accumulated on the vacant lot next door, if the owner of said vacant lot doesn't do his duty. Apply, if necessary, a little paint of whitewash to your unsightly back fence; clean up the stable and apply lime to it, for the time has come when the deadly fly is beginning to propagate and intrude his noisome presence into the kitchen. Look to the screens on your doors and windows; don't be afraid to spend a dollar or two for disinfects; let the ginger gem do its will with you on this cleaning-up proposition. The city should use all haste in getting the sewer torn streets graded up and leveled off. Citizens should lose no time in getting their sewer connections made and the job of digging up their lawns over with and past.

With a little public spirited and vigorous effort on the part of every citizen Albuquerque this summer should look more beautiful and city-fied than at any time in her history. From the standpoint of health, the matter is excessively important. The festive mosquito will be with us soon and we should be ready for him. Albuquerque is in no condition to face the warm weather and she must be cleaned up. Don't wait for the sanitary officer to make trouble for you—do it yourself. The public health of Albuquerque this summer lies chiefly at the door of her individual citizens.

BRIDGE BUILDING.

Before bringing to the close their March session, the board of county commissioners of San Miguel county, decided to advertise for bids for the construction of three more modern, substantial bridges in that county, despite the fact that San Miguel county, the past two years, has spent more for modern bridges than all of Santa Fe county's bridges are worth. This means that actual construction work on these bridges will be started this summer and shows a disposition to continue the improvement policy inaugurated in recent years. Surely, Santa Fe county commissioners will not refuse to make the necessary levy to restore the bridge at Delgado street swept away by a flood six years ago, and the only bridge within the city limits over the Santa Fe for almost a mile. The banks as they are today are positively dangerous. Providence that watches over children and fools has thus far preserved the county and the city from a serious damage suit. But one of these days, even Providence may get tired of the job of guarding the banks of the Santa Fe river on Delgado street and the county may have to pay enough damages to build half a dozen modern bridges. It is true, the county has been in deplorable financial condition for years. The present board of county commissioners and its predecessor nevertheless have done great improvement work, but there should not be cessation now, especially when it comes to doing work that should have been done six years ago and restoring a bridge whose destruction left a dangerous gap in a much used and much needed thoroughfare.

A RAILROAD TO TAOS.

The Taos Valley News speaks with such confidence, that a railroad will connect it with Santa Fe in the near future, that its words must be given more weight than is attached to the ordinary railroad rumor. Concerning the plan to establish an automobile line, it says:

"We are going to have a railroad to Santa Fe, the certainty of which will be absolutely established before the December snows of 1911 have whitened the hills and fertilized the valleys. This is not a pipe dream nor a vision of the night, following a well-served and delectable dinner, which is wont to tint our thoughts and hopes with roscate and charming colors, but it is a fact. For many years we have longed for this closer association with Santa Fe, and we have hoped till we are heart sick, but at last it looms before us as a reality. The occasional chug of an automobile has heretofore awakened us to the fact that there was a more swift method of locomotion than the wagon, but heretofore have been off the line. We will welcome any kind of conveyance that will bring us into closer communication with Santa Fe, but just now we are seeing a railroad line, upon which we will be whirled into the confines of the ancient and attractive city and we will continue this neighborly feeling and go down the road often."

NOT OUTRE BUT ULTRA.

That Turkey has emerged fully into the light of civilization is apparent from a cablegram which says that Hakkı Pasha, the grand vizier, came to blows in the legislative chamber with Ismail Kemal Bey, an Albanian deputy. So great was the confusion attending the encounter that it was necessary to adjourn the chamber to restore quiet. Substitute "Washington" for "Constantinople" in the date line, and the names of a Senator from the South, and an insurgent from the West for the Vizier and Ismail Kemal Bey, and the account will seem a record of a not extraordinary occurrence in the halls of Congress. The cablegram said further:

"The trouble was started by a speech on the part of the Albanian, in which he charged that a newspaper which is regarded as the vizier's mouthpiece had accepted bribes in connection with the Bagdad railway enterprise."

"Fuming with rage the vizier strode up to Kemal Bey, who immediately threw up his hands, as if to ward off a blow. Instantly the vizier knocked the hands down, whereupon one of the partisans who was close boxed the offending deputy's ears with considerable violence. Immediately the chamber was in an uproar."

Surely Turkey is no longer "outré," but decidedly "ultra."

In an address touched by the fire of eloquence, Senator James Gordon of Mississippi, sounded solemn warning to the demagogues who have captured the Democratic party and are seeking to merge it with the socialistic elements. He declared: "What our country needs, is not politicians but statesmen. The most contemptible character is the demagogue and the biggest fool in politics is the man who fights capital and prevents capitalists from investments that would put money into circulation."

The most significant detail of the account of the golden wedding celebration of Adolphus Busch, who made millions brewing beer and is rusticated at his palatial residence at Pasadena, California, is that "not a drop of beer was drunk by the guests at the celebration." Beer is good enough to swell for those who must deprive their families of necessities of life in order to pay their liquor bills, but for wealthy German beer brewers, champagne is the only stuff fit to guzzle.

While the accumulation of large fortunes is abnormal and tainted with injustice if not dishonesty, yet there are compensations. If the Rockefeller millions had accomplished nothing else than through the founding of the Rockefeller Institute to discover a cure for the dread disease of infantile paralysis, this would have justified their accumulation.

Postmaster General F. H. Hitchcock is being flooded with petitions from New Mexico asking for establishment of automobile routes from and to every point imaginable. No wonder the railroads are leary about building much needed extensions.

By the time all those "auto" lines from Santa Rosa, Vaughn, Alamogordo and other points to Roswell are established, aeroplane transportation will do away with the necessity of good road construction.

It was entirely unnecessary to call out twenty thousand troops. A hint from Washington, and Texas would annex Mexico, Yaquis, rebels and all.

CURSE OF CHILD LABOR OF SOUTH.

Cotton Mills Are the Moloch That Are Sapping Strength of Many.

Birmingham, Ala., March 10.—Cotton manufacturers, by means of lobbies in legislative halls, have obstructed child labor legislation, in the opinion of A. J. McKelway, secretary for the southern states of the National Child Labor Committee, who addressed the seventh annual conference of the organization here tonight. Referring to the plea of the New England and southern cotton manufacturers at the tariff hearing in 1908 before the Ways and Means Committee, that cotton goods should not be burdened with a prohibitive tariff because cotton manufacture was an infant industry, Mr. McKelway said:

"If an infant industry is one that employs infants, this is emphatically an infant industry. The cotton mill is the 'Herod among industries,' and its slaughter of the innocents continues in the 20th century. When the cotton manufacturers come before the representatives of the American people these representatives will insist that protection to infant industries must be preceded by some measure of protection for industries infants."

"The cotton mill through the manufacturers' lobbies, which crowd every legislative hall where child labor legislation is being considered, is not only condemning the host of children which it employs to the curse of child labor, but is holding back the states of America from the adoption of a standard uniform child labor law. And if, as they frequently claim, the cotton mills cannot exist without the child labor system, with a wage-scale too low to survive on American soil, the American people will contemplate with serenity the putting out of the factory fires and will write upon the factory walls the obituary of the Herods: 'They are dead that sought the young child's life to destroy it.'"

Mr. McKelway reviewed the history of the child labor movement declaring that one of the reasons which led the Pilgrim fathers to leave England was the oppression of their children in the Old World.

"Through the 17th and 18th centuries," said Mr. McKelway, "there are numerous references to show that both in England and New England the child began to be considered an asset instead of an encumbrance. And on both sides of the water the cotton mill occupied the bad eminence of being the chief employer of children. Parliamentary regulation of child labor began in England with the beginning of the 19th century, and in New England nearly a half century later."

"In 1842 an act was passed in Massachusetts making a ten-hour day for children under 12, but only those employers were convicted who 'knowingly' violated it, a safeguard which was repeated in the Alabama law of 1907, the repeal of which proviso we find Governor O'Neal urging in his message to the Alabama legislature in 1911."

"The census of 1870 was the first to take notice of the extent of child labor in the United States. Unless the census of 1910 can show a change for the better, the evil has been increasing for the last 40 years. The census of 1900 shows that 'to a greater extent than any other manufacturing or mechanical industry the cotton mill furnishes employment to children and that by the North about one cotton mill operative out of every ten was 10 to 15 years of age, while in the South the corresponding figures were about three of every ten.'"

Mr. McKelway called attention to the recent report of the bureau of labor on the cotton industry, showing 20 per cent of the employees in Southern cotton mills are still under the age of 16, and since "only age data supported by positive evidence have been used," this estimate "come far of the truth."

The facts furnished by this report, Mr. McKelway declared, were found in spite of the difficulty in ascertaining the ages of the children and the fact that in several instances "deliberate and determined efforts were made by mill officials to cover up the actual conditions in regard to child labor."

IT'S A BILLION DOLLAR LAND.

June 1. It is likely that the bonds will be sold to the highest bidders. Some consideration is being given to a plan to issue some of the new securities in denominations of $100 each, which would seem to indicate that the department may decide to take care of small bidders. The price at which the new issue will be made is under consideration. The law requires that the bonds be issued at not less than par. Prominent bankers have assured Secretary MacVeagh that he may safely expect a little more.

Will Not Issue Dollar Greenbacks.
Washington, March 10.—The issue of $1 greenbacks which was planned by the treasury department several weeks ago to meet the pressing demand for small bills, has been tentatively abandoned. It was found that the conversion of the large outstanding silver certificates into those of $1 denomination promises to meet the demands for the present, at least. There is about $35,000,000 in large denomination silver certificates, which will be retired, and $1 notes will be issued in their place. There have been no $1 greenbacks issued since 1885. The announcement of the intention to re-issue the old had caused wide comment in banking circles.

Just Like Bulgín, et al.
Washington, March 10.—An interesting sequel to the recent fight in congress over the matter of increased postage on magazines and periodicals developed at the White House today when former Representative Calderhead of Kansas showed President Taft an exchange of telegrams between himself and Governor Stubbs of Kansas.

Governor Stubbs telegraphed to Calderhead in part as follows: "I am advised upon excellent authority that the proposed increase in second-class postage is aimed directly at progressive magazines and periodicals; that the rates proposed are confiscatory and will probably ruin every popular magazine in the country and will therefore deprive the people of their only free press."

Mr. Calderhead sent the following tart reply: "Dear Governor: Your message is at hand and, as usual, you are wrong. The congress of the United States is not the enemy of the people and the freedom of the press is not in danger. I wish you would get some correct information."

May Pardon Walsh and Morse.
Washington, March 10.—President Taft took south with him for final consideration the appeals for pardon by John R. Walsh and Charles W. Morse. The President will study the cases and before he returns to Washington both men probably will know whether they are to be freed.

Walsh, now in the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., will be eligible for release on parole under the new law next September. He then will have served one-third of his five-year sentence.

Morse, in the Atlanta prison, has served a little more than one year of a fifteen-year sentence, and could not be paroled until 1915.

Attorney General W. D. Clegg's recommendations are confidential to the President, but it is said the attitude of the department of justice is in favor of clemency.

New Panama Bonds.
Washington, March 10.—Suggestions for the design of the new 3 per cent Panama bonds are now being prepared and will come before Secretary MacVeagh in a few days. It is the intention of the treasury department to follow the ideas of artistic simplicity which are embodied in the postal savings bonds and the tentative designs for the new paper money. Secretary MacVeagh's plans are practically unchanged and an issue of probably $50,000,000, is assured before

ALBUQUERQUE IRISH GIVE TO HOME RULE FUND.

Albuquerque, N. M., March 10.—Peter Tobin and James O'Connor, two well known Irish-Americans are working among the former residents of the Emerald Isle and their descendants these days, taking up a collection which will be sent to John Redmond, the noted Irish leader, to help him in his fight for home rule in Ireland. Only Irish-Americans and those directly in sympathy with home rule for the Old country are being asked to contribute. The money will be forwarded to Ireland with the best wishes for success to the Home Rule cause from the Irish-Americans of Albuquerque. Mr. Tobin and Mr. O'Connor, while American citizens for many years, have not forgotten their down-trodden countrymen across the seas. Now that they have an opportunity to assist in striking a blow for freedom for the Irish people, they are not hesitating to do so.

THE OLD PEOPLE
Made Strong by Vinol.
A prominent Boston lawyer says: "My father is eighty years of age and he owes his present strength and good health to Vinol."

"During the last two trying winters he never had a cold, and was able to walk farther and do more than for years."

"I think Vinol is perfectly wonderful. It certainly is the greatest blood-making and strengthening tonic for old people I ever heard of."

We wish every feeble old person in this vicinity would try Vinol on our agreement to return their money if it fails to give satisfaction. Capital Pharmacy.

World Famous "SCOUTS" Now on Sale!

Now's your chance to get the "Boy Scout" Shoe, boys—that world famous shoe about which you have read so much in the magazines. It's making just as big a hit in this town as it has made in the big cities. Boys are "wild" about them—they never saw anything like them for baseball, running, jumping and all outdoor sports.

The "Boy Scout" Shoe

Toughest, lightest, most sensible everyday shoe made. Uppers are soft as gloves. Soles wear two to three times as long as ordinary soles. No laces. Coolest and most beautiful boy's shoe ever invented.

Little Boy's size 10-12, $2. Boys' size 1 1/2, $2.50. Big Boys' and Men's size 6-10, $3.

Tell your pa that "Boy Scouts" outwear two to three pairs of ordinary shoes. Bring him with you—tell him we have his size, too.

Good-Luck Charm FREE
Every pair of genuine "Boy Scout" Shoes has a "Santas" Good-Luck Charm attached. It's made of a specially prepared metal that looks like gold and it always stays bright. It's bigger than the picture in the corner and makes a dandy prize for winners of different kinds of games.

Better buy your "Boy Scouts" now if you don't want to wait until we send for more, 'cause they're going awfully fast. (12)

Plays AND Players

At the Elks' Theater.

Tuesday, March 28—The Chinatown Trunk Mystery (based on the fate of Miss Siegel in New York).

Wednesday, March 29—Miss Olga Netherole in "The Romance of Evelyn Vanaday."

Direct from the "successful runs in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago" the dashing young girl from Rector's came to Santa Fe last night and made a home run, perhaps on errors. These were due to the musical comedy setting which had been announced but which failed to materialize. After all "The Girl From Rector's" is illogical. Imagine a wife of a distinguished jurist being able to lead a double life spending ten months in the year in New York city as a frequenter of Rector's and the other two months as an austere society dame, hospital worker and so forth in a city like Battle Creek, which is constantly in the limelight through its pure food factories and world-famed sanitarium!

But so cleverly did the actors and actresses play their parts that the audience quickly forgot the suggestive side of the farce and laughed at the curious situations in which "the high fliers" find themselves.

Miss Dorothea Sadler, as Louie Seadine, was a dashing young married woman who has an aged husband. She was the girl with the "wonderfully pretty ankles" as her admirer declares, and she was, in truth. Her gowns in the first two acts were such that the ankle was easily seen, by the way.

Miss Evelyn Monroe as Marcia Singleton, was a charming young bride. Charles Walton as Richard O'Shaughnessy, was splendid. He looked and acted the part of the young man in New York with an income of at least $20,000 a year. His enunciation was very good and he was graceful, too. In striking contrast to this Beau Brummel was George W. Paige, as Professor Aubrey Maboon, who values money as well as science. The professor's attempts at love making were side-splitting. John A. Boone as Colonel Andrew Tandy, who could consume any amount of broiled lobster and champagne, was very clever. He was a boon companion of O'Shaughnessy and curiously enough turns out to be his father-in-law. Mr. Boone appeared funny without apparent effort. Fred Strong was an admirable Judge Caperton, the husband of the Battle Creek lady who found New York city more interesting than her breakfast food town. Miss Blanche Crozier was a graceful but not exactly "petite" French maid. She had large bright eyes, which she knew well how to use. Miss Lillian Paige proved a dignified society dame in the person of Mrs. Witherpoon Copley.

"The Girl From Rector's" is one of those plays that thousands of people delight to see when they go to New York, Boston, Chicago or Philadelphia and have a few days or weeks to spend far from their relatives and their friends. It isn't elevating with its discussion of drinks called "Salome Wriggles" and its portrayal of men and women who ignore their marriage vows and the wise conventions of real society.

Journalist and Advance Agent. Albuquerque, N. M., March 10.—With half a century's varied experience on the staff or at the head of some of the biggest newspapers in the country; a veteran correspondent of the Boar war, the Chino-Japanese war, and other conflicts; a member of the staff of General Albert Sidney Johnson of the Confederate forces in the war of the rebellion and who cared for Johnston's body when the fatal bullet struck him at Shiloh; these are a few of the features of the career of J. E. Caven, now manager of "The Squaw Man" company, which on Tuesday evening appeared here and who, according to his own story, has been in everything human activity at fords except a sawmill and a circus. "And I will add them to my list before I am through," said Caven as he related his varied experience the other night in this office.

Caven is a small man, but active as a squirrel. His hair is white as driven snow, but the sparkle and ginger which have carried him through his remarkable career are as scintillating as ever.

In the years of yesterday Caven, a fast printer on the Kansas City Times got hold of the whole plant for back wages. He made it a newspaper and says he cleared up over a third of a million which he promptly lost again. "In Denver I got hold of the Denver

Don't Be Bald
Nearly Anyone May Secure
a Splendid Growth of Hair

We have a remedy that has a record of growing hair and curing baldness in 93 out of every 100 cases where used according to directions for a reasonable length of time. That may seem like a strong statement—it is, and we mean it to be, and no one should doubt it until they have put our claims to an actual test.

We are so certain Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will cure dandruff, prevent baldness, stimulate the scalp and hair roots, stop falling hair and grow new hair, that we personally give our positive guarantee to refund every penny paid us for it in every instance where it does not give entire satisfaction to the user.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is as pleasant to use as clear spring water. It is delightfully perfumed, and does no grease or burn the hair. Two sizes 5¢ and $1.00. With our guarantee by it of it, you certainly take no risk. Find only at our store—The Rexall Store. The Fischer Drug Company.

THE CRADLE OF RELIGIONS

Wonderful Papyrus Found and Placed in the British Museum of Interest to the World.

A remarkable Egyptian papyrus or ancient scroll, of absorbing interest, not only to philologists and scholars, but to the whole world, has recently been presented to the nation by Mrs. Mary Greenfield, says the London Express, and has now been added to the Egyptian collection of the British museum.

The papyrus, which, with one exception, is the longest in the world, is described as a magnificent copy of the Theban Book of the Dead, to which is added a rich collection of invocations, addresses and hymns to Amen-Ra, the great god of Thebes. But the mere description fails far short of the suggestive beauty and actual contents of the scroll.

Briefly, the papyrus was written for Princess Nest-ta-neb-asher, the daughter of the great Queen Nest-khennu, who was at the height of her power at some time between 1040 and 1090 B. C.

The portion of the papyrus which has already been deciphered promises, it is said, to indicate, among other things:

(1) That the Father and the Son of the Christian Trinity have their analogy in the Amen-Ra and Osiris of the dwellers in ancient Egypt—the cradle of religions.

(2) That many of the so-called new religious cults and theories which are being hotly debated at the present day, were, in only slightly different form, promulgated, weighed and either accepted or rejected by the Egyptians more than three thousand years ago—when the ancient Britons were still painting their naked bodies with blue wood.

(3) The development of the idea that there was a deity, but that he held himself completely aloof from the doings of men, and that it was therefore necessary to create a number of gods who might be invoked and propitiated by mankind.

(4) The religious reaction and the disposition to abandon the worship of many gods and to merge the many into one or two at most.

The papyrus, which is 122 feet long and 20½ inches wide, appears to be remarkably complete.

So bold and clear are the black ink characters and vignette illustrations that the papyrus might have been written only three days, instead of nearly three thousand years ago.

The privileged few who have received an intimation of the contents of the new papyrus are hopeful that the authorities will see their way to publish a faithful translation of the scroll for the benefit of scholars and laymen alike.

Light on Ancient Days.

Until recently the exploration of the Sudan was impossible, owing to the attitude of the natives, but last year the excavations of Meroe, the ancient capital of Ethiopia, was commenced. Perhaps the most important result of the early work will be the addition of Ethiopian to our knowledge of languages which have ceased to exist. A large number of inscriptions in hieroglyphic and cursive writing have been found, and it has been discovered that the unknown language is based on an alphabetical system—a circumstance which will make the deciphering of the inscriptions much easier than was the case with the Hittite language, which has occupied Professor Sayce 30 years.

Irreligious Potatoes.

The useful potato, although introduced into England by Sir Walter Raleigh in 1584, was for many years very little cultivated or appreciated.

In James I's time it sold for two shillings a pound and it did not come into general use in many parts of the country until the end of the eighteenth century.

Mortimer's "Gardener's Calendar," published in 1708, describes potatoes as being "very like Jerusalem artichokes, though not so good," and adds "they may perhaps prove useful for swine."

And in Scotland religious writers exhorted their readers to eschew the potato because it was not mentioned in the Bible.

KEEPS HER SECRETS.

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

Baseball soothsayers are predicting big things for the Cincinnati Reds.

President Murphy of the Chicago Cubs is said to favor a new ball for use in the major leagues.

Kansas City, too, has taboored the handicap wrestling match as the windup of a big show.

Christy Mathewson says Johnny Evers is one of the best ever at "getting the other team's nerve."

Dr. Roller says the world's wrestling championship lies among "Hackschmidt, Zbyzsko and myself."

Wanted, by 16 major league managers, a pitcher whom no one can hit and a batter who can hit any hurler.

Some clever eastern statistician has figured that Abe Attell makes about $40,000 a year taking on numerous short battles.

Tony Riddle says the gentlemen who take in boxing matches at high-class clubs should be snored in full evening dress.

Kid Howard's coming star, Mickey Sheridan of Chicago, and Paul Sikora of Detroit, fought ten rounds to a draw near Cleveland.

An inquiring fan wants to know how to become an aviator. He might try "changing his ways" of travel and sprout a pair of wings.

Eddie Collins is cutting his reporter's eye teeth and Ty Cobb is sharpening his editorial material for use in case he fails to make good in 1911.

Michigan university's football eleven is $13,000 to the good. Now some of the other colleges will want to have the rules revised.

It is a difficult task for pitchers to put strikes over on midgets. This is one advantage of being of diminutive stature. Owen Bush of the Detroit Tigers, the smallest player in the American league, received the most bases on balls.

Pitcher Walter Johnson is a knockout as well as a strikeout star. He says Washington must pay him $7,000 for this season's work.

Counting the days until the major league teams start on their spring jaunts seems to be the principal pastime even in St. Louis.

Clark Griffith, manager of the Reds, is out with the statement that the National league race lies between the Reds and the Cubs this year.

Both Coster and Attell, who fought recently, are laid up for repairs. Coster is being operated on for appendicitis and Abe is nursing a fractured shoulder blade.

Eight National league teams will try out approximately 250 players for 1911. How many of these phenoms will even have a chance to warm benches in 1911?

Connie Mack, when he reached Philadelphia from an extended honeymoon across the Atlantic, refused to discuss baseball, but admitted there was no place like home.

"Red" Kelley, who lingered at the South Side just long enough to win the title "former member of the White Sox," will coach the Notre Dame baseball candidates this year.

A medical journal records 19 deaths and 409 injuries due to the football season of 1910. It may be a fine sport, but it is a poor cause to require the sacrifice of so many martyrs.

The Highlanders' new ball park will seat 40,000, and the patrons are to have every convenience in the grand stand they get at first-class theatres. The grand stand will be three decks and 20,000 will be able to find seats there.

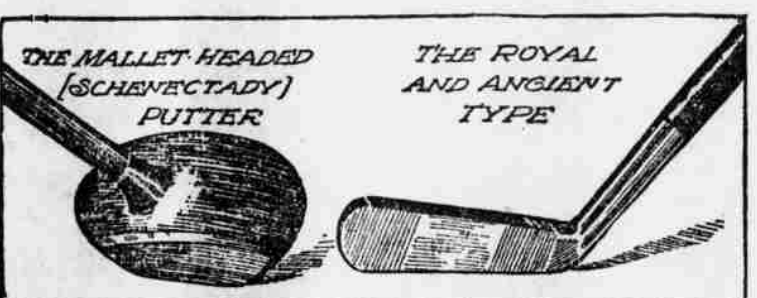

TALE OF MOIR-WELLS FIGHT

New Yorker Declares Battle Between Two Englishmen Was Finest of His Experience.

"I have seen many prize fights in my time," said a man who has just returned to New York from London, "but the one between Gunner Moir and Bombardier Wells was the finest in my experience."

"Hugh McIntosh, the Australian, and our own Jimmie Britt are running a high-class fighting exhibition business over there, and the big hall back of the skating rink at the Olympia was packed with fully 6,000 people—lords and dukes and countesses and duchesses and the biggest kind of swells, who had put up at least two guineas ($10.50) a seat, at least the most of them. Wells was the undefeated champion, so called, and a 20-round contest was scheduled. In the first round Wells jabbed the Gunner one with his left and knocked him down, and he was so long getting up that people began to leave the hall. In the second round both men were down, with the referee counting, and neither got up on time. Then, in the first minute of the third, Wells was knocked out. The whole battle was over in ten minutes. It would be a good thing if a lot of our prize fighters who are always knocking out each other in the newspapers would go over and do some real work."

RULE ON SCHENECTADY PUTTER

That breach between the United States Golf association and the Royal and Ancient of St. Andrews, Scotland, caused by the edict of the dictators of the golf world against "mallet headed" putters, is far from being closed. Although the meeting in Chicago did not insist upon the enforcement of the Royal and Ancient's new rule, many golfers, especially in the east, are strong for observance of anything emanating from the venerable Scotch organization.

The rule bars a lot of clubs that have been used many years, though it doubtless is aimed against only a few of the extreme type, notably the Schenectady putter.

One definition given of a "mallet headed" putter is as follows:

"One that is wider from face to back than it is long from heel to toe."

But this definition is not comprehensive enough, for many putters now tolerated approximate this shape without actually conforming to it.

What the Royal and Ancient are undoubtedly fighting against is the spirit of change with which this country attacks every sport that it takes up. The progressive disposition of Americans extends to their pastimes. Where the Britons are content to let the games of their forefathers remain as they were, the Americans insist on making those they adopt up to date.

The Royal and Ancient cling to the iron putter of their forefathers. They do not want the center shafted mallet or the mallet headed pretender to detract the tools that were good enough for their ancestors, even though Americans think they have proven that the innovations are a lot better than the ancient and obsolete types that existed a century ago.

They have changed the ball already in this bustling, bustling country. The old gutta serena sphere once sufficed, but the American manufacturers have found substitutes that could produce much better results, and now the market is clogged with a variety of balls, all better than the old one.

Americans, for the most part, think that the new clubs are sure to come, sooner or later. In any case, they can't see the sense in clinging to any instrument that can be improved upon.

"No, but how do you know?"
"He told my husband that you make the best ice water he ever tasted."

ADVERTISING A CENTURY AGO

Was Terse and Very Much to the Point—Examples of Early Day Work.

The advertising business has made such rapid strides in just the last few years that a glimpse of the ads printed in the newspapers of a century ago forms an interesting commentary of those times. On November 16, 1801, the New York Evening Post came into existence with a four-page issue, five columns wide. More than half the space was devoted to advertisements, which shows not only that the early publishers knew which side their bread was buttered on, but also that advertising was considered a good business principle by our merchant forefathers. It is the quality rather than the quantity which has changed with the years, as a few samples will go to show:

"FOR SALE, Gtin in pipes; large and small green Bottle Cases, complete; Glass-Ware, consisting of tumblers, decanters, &c.; Hair Brushes, long and short; black and blue Dutch Cloth; Flour, By Frederick De Poyser."

"FOR LONDON, The staunch regular trading ship Juliana, R. Roth, master, will be despatched in 10 or 12 days, having half her cargo on board. For freight or passage, having superior accommodations, apply on board at Old-slip, or to Cook & Woolsey, 98 Murray's Wharf. We have received per ship Mercury from Liverpool a consignment of DRY GOODS, which will be sold at moderate advance, consisting of two bales Coatings, four do. Rose Blankets, 10 cases Hats, 4 do. Hosiery, and 2 trunks Calicoes, Chintzes, Muslins, Velvets, Corduroys, &c., &c."

The shipping ads, in fact, which occupied nearly half of the first page, all ended like the above with a list of imports for sale, a complete enumeration following, with never a hint of the price. That would scarcely go down in these days of fierce competition. The temperance worker may take heart in the advance of his cause in that practically every notice contained a substantial invoice of gin, Madeira rum or other bibulous beverage. One firm on Water street closed their long enumeration of liquors by stating that they also sold nutmegs, mace, cloves and cinnamon, showing that modern man has ample precedent for breath concealers.

Of interest to the betting fraternity was a quarter column announcement of the Troy, Lansingburgh and Waterford Navigation Lottery.

There was to be 10,788 cash prizes aggregating $225,000, ranging from a thousand dollars down to ten, with certain other cash bonuses on certain days. Thirty-seven thousand five hundred tickets were to be sold at $6 each, which would bring in the same amount as expended. Further, the managers explained that the prizes would be subject to a reduction of 15 per cent., the lottery being for the sole purpose of "raising thirty thousand dollars to improve the navigation of Hudson's river, between the city of Albany and the villages of Troy, Lansingburgh and Waterford—agreeable to the several acts of the Legislature of the State. The Tickets for the above Lottery are for sale at Gain & Tennyson's Bookstore, No. 148 Pearl Street—Prize Tickets in the New York State Road Lottery taken in payment." On another page a company (in our enlightened days it would be a Morgan syndicate) announced their purchase of all the tickets in the lottery, which would be sold at six dollars until the 30th, after which the price would positively be advanced to six-fifty. High finance is not such a new idea, after all.

Ambiguity in Advertising.
Two men interested in the art of advertising fell into a bit of a dispute as to the advisability of now and then leaving things to the buyer's imagination. One favored outspoken completeness of statement; the other relied somewhat upon suggestion. A third man whose opinion was solicited, refused to be arbitrated, but expressed himself as against all ambiguities of language; and, to illustrate his position, told a story of a young man who one day brought a bouquet of flowers to the lady of his heart, and said, "May I offer you my handful of flowers?" to which the lady promptly answered, "I move to amend by omitting all after the word 'hand.' The amendment was blushing and happily accepted, and the motion was adopted unanimously.—Philadelphia Record.

Newspaper Cheaper and Better.
The postal card and circular form of advertising is the most wasteful method employed by merchants and others. Duplications and even triplications are of common occurrence and when received are usually dropped in the waste basket unread. The claim of superiority for newspaper advertising is based on sound business experience. It is cheaper and more effective than any other.

Will Stick to Papers.
The Ohio State fair will use only newspaper advertising this year. An experiment was tried out on this line last year and was found to have good results, so it was decided to follow it up.

Warning to Railroad Men

Look out for severe and even dangerous kidney and bladder trouble resulting from years of railroad. Geo. E. Bell, 639 Third street, Fort Wayne, Ind., was many years a conductor on the Nickel Plate. He says: "Twenty years of railroad left my kidneys in terrible condition. There was a continual pain across my back and hips and my kidneys gave me much distress, and the action of my bladder was frequent and most painful. I got a supply of Foley Kidney Pills and the first bottle made a wonderful improvement and four bottles cured me completely. Since being cured I have recommended Foley Kidney Pills to many of my railroad friends." Capital Pharmacy.

The New Mexican Printing company has prepared civil and criminal dockets especially for the use of justices of the peace. They are especially ruled, with printed headings, in either Spanish or English, made of good record paper, strongly and durably bound, with leather back and covers and canvas sides, half full index in front and the fees of justices of the peace and constables printed in full on the first page. The pages are 10 1-2x8 inches. These books are made up in civil and criminal dockets, separate of 32 pages each, or with both civil and criminal bound in one book, 80 pages civil and 320 pages criminal. To introduce them they are offered at the following prices:

Civil or Criminal $2.75
Combined Civil and Criminal 4.00
For 45 cents additional for a single docket, or 55 cents additional for a combination docket, they will be sent by mail or prepaid express. Cash in full must accompany order. State plainly whether English or Spanish printed heading is wanted.

HAVE YOU TRIED PAXTINE

The Great Toilet Germicide?
You don't have to pay 50¢ or $1.00 a pint for listerian antiseptic or peroxide. You can make 16 pints of a more cleansing, germicide, healing and deodorizing antiseptic solution with one 25¢ box of Paxtine—a soluble antiseptic powder, obtainable at any drug store. Paxtine destroys germs that cause disease, decay and odors—that is why it is the best mouth wash and gargle, and why it purifies the breath, cleanses and preserves the teeth better than ordinary dentifrices, and in sponge bathing it completely eradicates perspiration and other disagreeable body odors. Every dainty woman appreciates this and its many other toilet and hygienic uses. Paxtine is splendid for sore throat, inflamed eyes and to purify mouth and breath after smoking. You can get Paxtine Toilet Antiseptic at any drug store, price 25¢ and 50¢, or by mail postpaid from The Paxtine Toilet Co., Boston, Mass., who will send you a free sample if you would like to try it before buying.

way for a sight-seeing trip over the country.

Sunday School Association—There
are now 162 Sunday schools represented in the New Mexico Sunday School Association, according to reports on hand at the meeting of the executive committee of the association in Albuquerque yesterday. Present were H. S. Lithgow, D. A. Porter-
field and W. H. McCoy of Mountair,
air, who is secretary of the organization.

Contract for Bridge Across Rio Grande—The Midland Bridge Company, of Kansas City, has been given
the contract for a highway bridge over the Rio Grande river just below the site of the Elephant Butte dam. This is necessary in order that work on the dam may be started and carried on on both sides at the same time. The contract price of the bridge is $5,667.

Twenty bids were submitted.

The Roosevelt Banquet—Internal Revenue Collector H. P. Bardshar announces that the banquet to Colonel Roosevelt at Albuquerque on next Wednesday evening will not be an invitation affair and that he would like to have as many representative men
as possible from Santa Fe to attend
the banquet. The price per cover is $7.50 and those desiring to attend
should notify Colonel Bardshar of this city or James S. Black of Alberque-que.

Fred Can't Stop Stealing—Fred
Ritter, who was released from jail
Wednesday afternoon, after he had been found guilty of stealing chickens
in Old Albuquerque, sentenced to serve sixty days, sentence being suspended on account of good behavior.
is again in jail. This time Fred is charged with stealing three hams,
three sides of bacon and a chunk of pork loin from the A. Romero Meat Market at Albuquerque. Vincent Romero of the Romero market, reported
the theft.

Two Drowned in the Gila—Mrs. L.
F. Keefover, an aged woman, and a little boy 10 years old named Lee were drowned while attempting to
ford the Gila river at the Cliff crossing about 30 miles northwest of Silver City. They were in a light wagon and the swollen flood of the Gila, bankfull by reason of the rains and
melting snows, washed the vehicle down stream and Mrs. Keefover and the boy were thrown into the midst of the current and drowned. The boy was a son of Theodore Lee who lives near Cliff. The bodies were washed ashore further down the stream and recovered.

Sent to Pen From Los Lunas—In
the Valencia county district court in Los Lunas yesterday, Jack Miller,
charged with robbing John Becker's
general merchandise store, was arraigned before Judge M. C. Mechem, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to serve three years in the territorial penitentiary. Louis Perez, indicted on a charge of murdering his wife in Cubero last year, was arraigned,
pleaded guilty and was sent to the penitentiary to serve not less than five nor more than ten years. The case of the Territory versus Cordova, indicted for rape at Casa Colorado, in 1904, was taken up late yesterday
afternoon and continued at a night
session. This case will go to the jury
today.

Baby Frequents Saloon—Charles Edward Berner, 3 years old, the adopted son of Mrs. Estel Berner of Gallup, McKinley county, is in the limelight before Judge Ira A. Abbott,
in the McKinley county district court
these days. Charles Edward is at the present time an inmate of the Children's Home Society in Albuquerque,
which is under the supervision of Dr.
Charles E. Lukens. The boy was brought to Albuquerque several days ago and placed in the home, Dr. Lukens having gained possession of him

on the strength of an order issued by Probate Judge J. M. Apodaca of Gallup. The order was granted following a petition filed by Dr. Lukens,
which stated that Mrs. Estel Berner,
the adopted mother of the boy, was
a waitress and not a proper person
to care for and raise the child. It was alleged that Mrs. Berner permitted the baby to frequent saloons,
drink beer, and dance in public places.

WOULD PROTECT FRUIT TREES.

viously to the interest of the fruit
grower to see that a County Board of Horticultural Commissioners is created, and to see that all fruit trees are properly sprayed.

Very respectfully,
H. S. CLANCY,
Assistant Attorney General

WOMAN HAS FOGOTTEN
HOW TO BLUSH.

Boston, March 10.—That the art of blushing, woman's most demure but most fascinating attribute, has been lost is the most recent and sensational assertion of the Rev. Herbert S. Johnson, pastor of the Warren Avenue Baptist church. The Rev. Mr.
Johnson says the reason woman has lost the ability to suffuse with blush
is because of the constant near association of men and women entailed

by the rush of modern life. "Industrial conditions have driven the blush-
es from the faces of our girls," says
the Rev. Mr. Johnson. "The constant
association with men in offices,
stores and factories has made girls
self-possessed. Under ordinary circumstances the ordinary girl finds
once she goes into business that co-
quetry is not a part of her duties."

YOUTH SHOT DOWN IN STREETS OF DENVER.

Denver, Colo., March 10.—Joseph Malone, 21 years old, was shot down
and fatally wounded on a crowded
street in the Italian colony of North Denver. The man, who fired three shots, escaped and was not recognized, though he stood in the glare of bright street lights and was seen by hundreds. A score of detectives and patrolmen worked in "Little Italy"
all night attempting to unravel the mystery but disclosed no probable motive for the crime. Mrs. Elizabeth Yacovetta, 3241 Pecos street, with whom Malone had walked down the principal street of the quarter a few minutes before he was shot, was arrested and is now held in the matrons' quarters at the city jail.

A Cold, La Grippe, then Pneumonia.
Is too often the fatal sequence. Fol-
ley's Honey and Tar expels the cough,
checks the la grippe, and prevents pneumonia. It is a prompt and reliable cough medicine that contains no narcotics. It is as safe for your children as yourself. Capital Pharmacy.
