TWENTY-NINTH YEAR.

Spanish-American School.
Mrs. D. F. Sellards, principal.
Mrs. Ethel Noel, primary grade.
Mrs. J. F. Bush, intermediate grades.

While the enrollment is not at present up to that of last year in the schools yet it is thought that by the time all of the children from the country and rural towns who are coming for the winter, arrive and enroll, the enrollment will about reach the same number as that of last year.

The personnel of the faculty is first-class, nearly or quite all of the instructors being college graduates with their degrees from some standard educational institution, and the patrons of the schools of Carlsbad may have the best year of school they have ever had, if they will get behind these instructors, (not too far behind, though), and boost the schools. It rests with the patrons what kind of schools we will have this year.

OPENING OF SCHOOL.

A very happy opening of Carlsbad High School was held Tuesday morning at the study hall in the high school building.

Rev. George H. Givan, a favorite with high school pupils ever since his arrival in Carlsbad four years ago, made an address which was listened to with the most flattering attention, only broken by hearty applause when some point was especially well taken. His subject was "If I were a High School Student," and he told many things he would do and be if that were the case. The speaker's many years experience in schools and as president of one of the finest colleges in Kentucky, has given him experience from the standpoint of pupil and teacher as well. He first told the boys that if "I were a High School Boy I surely would polish my shoes, clean my nails, comb my hair, brush my clothes and start off right. I would be square, polite, would be happy and unselfish and SOMEBODY, no matter how poor my parents may be, I would use good language, control my temper, play games, depend upon myself, and have my lessons."

The advice to the girls was almost similar lines, he especially urging them to care for their health, and assume a correct position in doing their work, so as not to acquire round shoulders.

Rev. Givan closed his talk by advising boys and girls to cultivate friendships among their classmates but to avoid being a "Sissy," as he said there was nothing on the face of the earth worse than a love sick high school boy. His advice to the girls in such a contingency as a boy leaving up to a girl "like a kitten to a hot brick on a cold day" was to strike straight from the shoulder and let the offender have it in the mouth.

In closing, the gentleman gave a beautiful poem, "Always Room at the Top," the last verse of which is as follows:

"Step upward, upward, then, my boy,
A hero can no more than try;
And if you'd reach the top, my boy,
Then boldly say, 'I will or die.'"

A present of twenty-four volumes of the "History of Nations" was given by Reverend Givan to the library of the school, which gift will be greatly appreciated and enjoyed for years to come as an excellent reference book. The same was thankfully received by the faculty.

Two babies were born to Mr. and Mrs. Judson Boyd, who reside in the Otis district, early last week. Later, the baby girl died and was buried from the Baptist church Saturday morning. The other babe was thought to be in danger of death, but at last accounts has improved and it is believed will get along all right.

Keep on doubling a little and you will soon have plenty.

DEMOCRATIC STATE HEAD-QUARTERS.

Santa Fe, New Mexico, August 29, 1921.
Santa Fe, N. M.—The nomination of Richard H. Hanna, New Mexico Democracy's standard bearer a year ago, as candidate for the United States Senate at the election to be held September 20, has met with the general approval of the state. No other citizen is better qualified to represent the state. An uncompromising and indomitable fighter for real democracy in New Mexico as against the Republican machine oligarchy, Hanna is a figure round whom the best citizenship of New Mexico regardless of party can rally with enthusiasm. His energy and virility are infectious and his consistent record, his sturdy honesty and political integrity are known to every one in New Mexico.

Richard H. Hanna went before the people as candidate for Governor in 1920 and told the voters that the Republican pledges of progressive legislation, of a direct primary law, of a reduction in taxes, of an adjustment of the tax burden and economy and efficiency in government were a fake. He told them that the Republican organization would "pack" the state senate with reactionaries who would protect the interests and emascuate any proposed tax reform until it was only a shadow without the substance. He told them that H. O. Bursum would be appointed U. S. Senator by McChesney, if the latter were elected. He told them that there would be no real abolishment of useless offices and no change in the type of office holders if the Republicans won the election, but that lame ducks and party heeled would be given the jobs.

Judge Hanna told them there would be no reformation in the state land office system whereby that department of the state government has been maintained as a formidable weapon to influence voters.

All that of which Judge Hanna warned has now taken place. It is particularly fitting that he should again go before the people to present the conclusive proof of all the charges he made in 1920. The killing of the direct primary law and other proposed modern legislation and the proposal of "joker" constitutional amendments which the Republican organization itself is now preparing to defeat, the appointment of H. O. Bursum as Senator in direct contravention of the will of the voters, the appointments of incompetents and political derelicts to important offices, the raising of taxes and failure to reduce the cost of government, the protection of wealthy corporations by a "packed" state senate and the "joker" revenue code are a few of the proofs which Judge Hanna now has in his hands. It is seldom that a candidate has such an immediate opportunity to furnish corroboration of his campaign charges. Judge Hanna has the goods on the Republicans and no voter is going to be misled about the facts this year. They come too close to his own pocketbook.

Meanwhile H. O. Bursum, veteran of questionable politics and discredited political boss, is again confronted with the job of defending a record which the people of New Mexico have repeatedly condemned. His nomination for U. S. Senator was railroaded through by his hand-picked organization. The delegates at the Republican convention tacitly confessed they were there to carry out Mr. Bursum's instructions as quickly as possible and go home. Mr. Bursum has nothing to offer but a new set of promises and the assertion that he "stands in" with organization politicians at Washington. He makes the covert threat that if the people don't swallow him they won't get even a handout at Washington.

To elect Mr. Bursum now would be to set the seal of approval on the whole record of corruption, incompetency, extravagance and graft which the Republican ring has made in New Mexico. The state whose government has been brought to the verge of bankruptcy and is now asked to accord its highest honors to the chief culprit.

The course of the people of New Mexico is clear. They cannot fail for Mr. Bursum's latest appeal without stultifying themselves; and by electing Richard H. Hanna to the U. S. Senate they will be reflecting credit on their state and serving notice on the nation that they cannot be fooled nor intimidated. Their choice is between Hanna, a clean, upstanding, able citizen and Bursum, a political boss, who stands for all that is worst in New Mexico's political history.

Ed. S. Kirkpatrick was taken to the Eddy county hospital this morning for an operation for appendicitis, and was reported as coming out from under the anesthetic in good shape. Ed. is the expert saddle maker who turns out the famous Roberts-Deane saddles in use throughout the southwest by cowmen, and has many friends in this city and vicinity who are anxious for him to speedily recover from the operation.

OLD TEXT BOOK ORDER CONFUSES SCHOOL BOARDS.

Roswell, N. M., Aug. 30.—No action has been taken by the city school board on the suggestion of John V. Conway, state superintendent of public instruction, that the old books may be used as supplementary text books. Mr. Conway's position as stated is that rather than have any boy stay out of school because he cannot have the new books an effort be made to allow him to use the old books temporarily at least.

The letter to the school board says:

"You are hereby notified that I, as superintendent of public instruction of the state of New Mexico, have approved as supplementary to the regularly adopted text books, adopted by the state board of education in December, 1920, the list of text books previously adopted in 1915, until further notice."

The whole discussion locally hinges on the word supplementary. One element reads into the word the meaning of supplant while others agree with the assistant attorney general, who says the state superintendent has authority to declare any books supplementary, but not to supplant the new books with the old.

LETTER FROM STATE SUPT. TO CO. AND CITY SUPTS.

Santa Fe, New Mexico, Sept. 6, 1921.—My attention has been called to numerous newspaper reports from which it might be inferred, that, as State Superintendent of Public Instruction, I have authorized the Board of Education at Roswell to permit the use in the schools at Roswell of the text books prescribed by the State Board of Education, December '20. While in Roswell on August 26, at the request of certain citizens of that city, I addressed the following letter to the Board of Education there:

"You are hereby notified that I, as Superintendent of Public Instruction of the State of New Mexico, have approved as supplementary to the regularly adopted text books adopted by the State Board of Education in December 1920, the list of text books previously adopted in 1915 until further notice."

It seems to have been construed that the Board of Education at Roswell was authorized to supplant the regularly adopted books by the old books as supplementary, to authorize the supplanting of the regularly adopted books by the old books.

I have no authority under the law to change in any way the list of books adopted by the State Board of Education. On the contrary, the law expressly forbids me or any County Superintendent or any School Board to permit the use of any other text books than those adopted by the State Board of Education, except that supplementary books have been used in the classes. However much of a hardship it may work on students and their parents to purchase the books prescribed by the State Board of Education, I, as State Superintendent of Public Instruction have no authority or power to grant any relief by sanctioning, even temporarily, the use of old books in the public schools of the state, except as supplementary.

Very truly yours,
JOHN V. CONWAY,
State Superintendent.

FIRST BAILE OF COTTON.

The first bale of the fleecy staple was brought to town Wednesday of this week and ginned at the Carlsbad gin. The cotton was raised by Entimo Mejia on the D. R. Harkey place south of town. Messrs. Wertheim and Leftwich paid the premium offered for the first bale, $50.00. The bale weighed 540 pounds and is a good grade of Durango. There are a couple of bales in the yard, waiting to be ginned, and one or two bales at Loving, but the general picking will not begin much before the 15th of this month.

Cotton is looking fine under the Project, and it is likely that about 5,000 bales will be ginned.

Last year some 6,000 bales were ginned from 15,000 acres, the acreage this year being only a little over half what it was last year.

The price of cotton advanced very materially during the past ten days, and a more hopeful feeling is manifested by the cotton growers.

Ginning will begin in earnest by the latter part of next week, according to present plans.

"PEP"

Vigor, vitality, vim and punch—
That's pep!
The courage to act on a sudden hunch
That's pep!

The nerve to tackle the hardest thing.
With feet that climb and hands that cling.
And a heart that never forgets to sing—
That's pep!

Sand and grit in a concrete base—
That's pep!
Friendly smile on an honest face—
That's pep!

The spirit that helps when another's down;
That knows how to scatter the blackest frowns;
That loves its neighbor and loves its town—
That's pep!

To say "I will"—for you know you can—
That's pep!
To look for the best in every man—
That's pep!

To meet every thundering knock-out blow.
And come back with a laugh, because you know
You'll get the best of the whole darned show—
That's pep!

CARD OF THANKS.

To all who were so kind to me during my recent bereavement I wish to return my sincere thanks. Words are inadequate to express my feelings to all who in any way, by word or deed, manifested sympathy for the mother whose only son had been taken from her. Especially do I remember gratefully Mr. and Mrs. Beam, of Douglas, Arizona; Mr. and Mrs. McFadden, of the Ford Studio, Hollywood, California; Mrs. Leeper and daughter, of Big Springs, Tex.; Mrs. T. C. Prickett, of Waxahatchie, Texas; all the kind friends who met me at the station in Carlsbad and especially Mrs. Blocker; to the friends of my dear boy and myself who brought beautiful flowers and kind words to comfort me.

May the choicest blessings of the One who notes the sparrow's fall be about each one in their hour of bereavement and sorrow.

MRS. NELLIE BAKER.

LABOR DAY IN CARLSBAD.

Labor Day was observed in Carlsbad by a general closing of all places of business and a good attendance on the exercises of the day; the speaking of Major Bujac and the baseball games in the afternoon. The parade, which was much below that of last year, was formed at the Armory and marched to the courthouse square where the speaking was held. The parade was led by a band and by the committee having the exercises in charge, on Cavalry horses, followed by the new organization the "Camp-fire Girls" in full regalia and carrying a large banner. Following these came the labor unions, carrying transparencies setting forth their slogans, one being "We Believe in Free School Books" and another setting forth their belief in organized labor.

Judge Lamb, who was to have spoken, was called out of town and Major E. P. Bujac was the only speaker. He was introduced by John Prickett, of the Carpenter's and Joiner's Union, and spoke at some length on the issues of the day. The speech was in the major's well known, convincing style, and was listened to with close attention and frequently applauded by his hearers.

Three games of baseball were played by the teams from this city and from Pecos. One game Sunday in which Carlsbad was victorious and two games Monday in one of which Carlsbad was victorious and the other, a five inning game, going to the visiting team.

A largely attended ball was given in the Armory at night, with music from a Roswell orchestra and so ended the day.

A SAD BEREAVEMENT.

Mr. and Mrs. Green McComb, whose home is in the mountains sixty miles southwest of town, are in deep sorrow because of the death of their only daughter, Ethel Annie, aged about six and one-half years.

The little girl was taken ill at the home last week, Thursday, but was not thought to be seriously ill until Sunday when a hurried trip was made to town, they arriving about one o'clock Monday morning and going directly to the Eddy county hospital, where an operation was performed the afternoon of the same day for appendicitis. It was seen from the first that her condition was critical, although she rallied after the operation for a time. Later the little heart grew weak and she sank to eternal rest.

The little girl was a general favorite wherever she was known and many fond hopes and plans have died with her. The heart stricken parents, the poor mother almost prostrate from grief, left Wednesday morning for Pecos, bearing the body of their dear one with them for burial beside other loved ones in the cemetery at that place. All their neighbors for miles around, with true neighborliness, came to town and strove with everything at their command to alleviate their sorrow, accompanying them to the train and sending many beautiful flowers to cover the quiet form and to whisper to the bereft parents of the land where the flowers never fade. Ethel's teacher, Miss Barton, and Miss Gladys Haken, an intimate friend accompanied the sad family on their journey.

The Carlsbad friends in extending condolences.

ATTENTION LEGIONAIRES.

A "Special" meeting of Bryan Mudgett Post of the American Legion is called for Monday, September 13th, at 8 P. M. at Dr. Otisier's office.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth James and son, Ellsworth, Jr., came in from their ranch at Cap Rock, the first of the week and Mrs. James and the boy remained in town. She will probably be here much of the winter, as the eight-year-old son has entered school in Carlsbad.

Mrs. Fred Blucher, sister of Mrs. M. R. Smith of Carlsbad, returned to her home in Temple, Texas, after a pleasant stay in this city. Mrs. Smith entertained in her honor several times during her visit, which was very pleasant.

To the surprise of every one familiar with conditions of things, the enrollment of school children is larger than that of last year, according to the census which has just been completed by Reverend and Mrs. Sellards. The enrollment last year was 1012 and for this year the number enrolled in 1921. Of these 805 are whites the remainder Spanish-Americans and Negroes.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LUNCHEONS TO BE HELD SATURDAYS.

A proposal to hold the Chamber of Commerce luncheons once each month was decisively defeated at the luncheon yesterday at the Palace hotel. Major Bujac led the fight to continue the luncheons semi-monthly as in the past, and W. G. Brown, suggested that they be changed to the second and fourth Saturdays so the Boy Scouts could be present and so people visiting in the city on those days could be present with the business men of the city. This was agreed to and in the future they will be held Saturdays.

W. S. Moore stressed the importance of beginning on time and quitting promptly at one o'clock which was a good suggestion that will be followed in the future. The matter of securing a light on the bridge leading to the Heights was discussed and it was decided to take steps to have a light placed there in the near future. It was also called to the attention of the club that the Santa Fe railroad has no light at their crossing on the west end of this bridge and the Major assured the Chamber of Commerce the city would see to that at their next meeting.

COTTON SEED OIL MILL FOR PECOS VALLEY.

One of the most beneficial enterprises for the entire Pecos valley is the proposed cotton seed oil mill which is now almost an assured accomplishment. Messrs. Walter Craft and W. A. Moore are now busy taking subscriptions for stock in the new concern and have enough money in sight despite prevailing conditions to give them great hopes of success. $25,000 is needed to put the project over and the business men of Carlsbad as well as the farmers throughout the valley are responding and much of that amount has already been raised.

The freight rate on cotton seed out of the Pecos valley and cake in to the valley amounts to $21.00 per ton, which amount may be saved by milling cake without shipping the seed. This would mean a big saving to cattlemen and farmers who wish to feed their stock before shipping to market and would allow enough margin for the mill to also be a paying proposition. Besides cake there would be cotton seed oil out of which shortening would be made by refineries equipped for that purpose and lint out of which mattresses are made. A ton of cotton seed will produce 325 pounds of cotton seed oil and about 1,600 pounds of cake. The oil will bring on the present market 7c. per pound in Carlsbad.

It is planned to have the mill in operation in time to take care of this year's cotton seed and it is estimated that it will require six weeks to build the building and install the machinery. This is a big thing for the valley and all who are able to do so should do their part toward making it a success.

Dr. H. P. Oliver has been visiting at the home of his son, J. S. Oliver, in Carlsbad this week, leaving for his home in Canyon, Texas, this afternoon, via automobile.

The meeting called for Saturday night at the court house, by the American Legion and Chamber of Commerce, had a fairly representative audience of men and women, who were interested in how to obtain new school books for their children. The meeting was addressed by Major Bujac, who gave a very interesting explanation of the causes leading to present depressed financial conditions throughout the country and at the close the school book question was touched upon briefly by Major Bujac but nothing could be done at this time except comply with the law, notwithstanding the hardships it puts on the people.

Prof. Brinton explained the position he was in as county superintendent regarding complying with the law and said he had given instructions for all teachers in the county to use the new books and do the best they can. He also said no children would be turned away from school because of not having books. Prof. Brinton showed that the law permitting school boards to buy books for indigent children has been repealed and said there is now no law providing for furnishing these books.

HONOR FOR VISITOR.

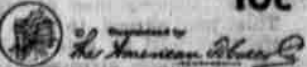

Honoring Miss Jane McClane, a luncheon and "Bunco" party was given at the home of the Misses Purdy last Saturday at 12 o'clock. The invited guests, all charming young ladies of High School age, arrived at the Purdy home at ten o'clock and played Bunco until luncheon was served. This was served in three courses and a delightful time enjoyed. Those present were Misses Jane McClane, Elizabeth Albritton, Frances Etter, Marynet Reed, Honora Dilley, Adelle Bujac, Mary Olive Titterton, of Dallas, Grace Bearup, Isabel Smith, Novella Dawson and the hostesses of the happy affair, Catherine and Elizabeth Purdy.

A "LIFE-SAVER" FOR THE FARMERS AND STOCKMEN OF NEW MEXICO.

The Agricultural Credits law has been passed by congress and signed by President Harding. It makes available to the War Finance corporation resources of TWO AND ONE-HALF BILLIONS of dollars for financing the farmers and livestock growers of the United States during the next two years. The law is in force and Managing Director Meyer, of the War Finance corporation, has announced that it will be in active operation within three or four weeks or just as quickly as the vast machinery necessary for its operation can be perfected.

When copies of the Agricultural Credits law reached New Mexico last week one of the leading bankers of the state, after studying it with care, said:

"This law is a life-saver for the farmers and stockmen of New Mexico and the west. It will enable our banks, now overburdened with farm and livestock loans, to pass those loans on to the War Finance corporation to be carried by it during the period while the producers are 'growing out' of the hole into which they were dumped by contraction of prices and credits last year. The vast sums thus released will become available for the current credit requirements of farmers, stock growers and general business. It should serve to completely relieve the financial stringency and it absolutely insures an abundant credit for carrying on the legitimate operations of every responsible farmer and livestock grower. The banks had reached the limit of their ability to carry the producers of grain and meat animals. This law establishes a new and ample limit of credit within which every producer can have his necessary financial requirements provided for, with time enough to repay them from the product of his farm and range."

This law is precisely what Senator Bursum said it would be when he returned home from Washington last month, after its passage had become assured:

"THE GREATEST FINANCIAL RELIEF MEASURE IN THE HISTORY OF GOVERNMENTS."

The Agricultural Credits law is the response of the Harding administration to the call of western livestock growers and farmers, for relief from a desperate financial situation brought on by conditions over which they had no control. The President, in his campaign last year, promised the producers of the west practical and adequate relief from the intolerable financial situation into which they had been thrown by the unwise policies of the preceding administration. That promise has been kept in this law.

Go and ask your own banker for his opinion. If a copy of the Agricultural Credits law has reached him, or if he has had an opportunity to become familiar with its provisions, he will tell you that the law will do for you; the farmers and stock growers and business men of New Mexico; exactly what is stated above.

There has been no partisanship in the national policy that dictated the terms of this law. It became necessary for the national government to find a way to rescue the grain and meat and wool producers of this nation from the ruin that threatened many and from the long period of depression and restricted credits that burdened all. The Harding administration found that way to relief in the Agricultural Credits law. Western senators framed it. Western senators secured its passage, with the backing of the President.

During the first month he was in Washington, Senator Bursum proposed a credit relief bill for the relief of livestock growers, whose desperate situation he knew from personal experience as a grower of cattle and sheep. That bill contained the principle and suggested the machinery later perfected in the Agricultural Credits law. Bursum's proposal resulted immediately in the $50,000,000 livestock loan pool, which stopped the flood of forced liquidation of livestock loans, and as an emergency measure, saved the livestock industry from an overwhelming disaster.

BURSUM'S BILL, PROPOSING RELIEF THROUGH CREDITS PROVIDED FOR THE USE OF THE WAR FINANCE CORPORATION, LED DIRECTLY TO THE GREAT AGRICULTURAL CREDITS LAW.

The Agricultural Credits law, as originally framed, was designed only to aid in foreign marketing of grain. Middle western senators immediately proposed to broaden it to finance the operation of grain growing, in states where needed.

SENATOR BURSUM INSTANTLY AND INSISTENTLY DEMANDED THAT THE ADEQUATE RELIEF OF THE LIVESTOCK GROWERS WAS AS ESSENTIAL TO NATIONAL PROSPERITY AS RELIEF FOR GRAIN GROWERS. THE ENTIRE GROUP OF WESTERN SENATORS AGREED WITH THAT VIEW AND BACKED IT. THE RESULT WAS THE INSERTION OF SECTION 24 OF THE ACT, WHICH EXTENDS ITS PROVISIONS TO GROWERS OF LIVESTOCK AND GIVES TO THE STOCKMEN THE SAME BROAD AND PERMANENT FINANCIAL RELIEF THAT IS PROVIDED FOR FARMERS.

The Agricultural Credits bill is now a law. Relief under its provisions will be available within thirty days. There are extensive details of administration to be perfected; and much of the effectiveness of the law and the promptness with which it will function will depend upon that detail of administration.

There remains but one step necessary to bring to New Mexico swiftly and surely, the fullest benefits from the Agricultural Credits law. That is to return to Washington and to the senate the man who helped to frame and pass the law, who led the fight to include the livestock growers in its benefits on an equal basis with the farmers, and who knows intimately the conditions both of the operation and administration of the law, and the conditions upon the farms and ranges of every section of New Mexico.

That man is Holm O. Bursum. Bursum is a farmer and a livestock grower. He knows how pressing are the needs of New Mexico farmers and stockmen for the relief this law provides. He knows that they need that relief NOW. He not only knows these needs, but he has the energy, ability and determination to see to it that New Mexico farmers and livestock growers are provided for immediately the benefits of the law become available. As a member of the majority party and a supporter of the national administration his personal equipment to perform this vital service will be backed by hearty cooperation throughout the whole machinery of the government. He can and will get the result and the speedy action that is needed.

There is no partisan politics in your choice of a senator. No national issues, no party principles are at stake. None will be during the three and one-half years during which the senator you are about to elect will serve. The national policies have been determined. This Agricultural Credits law, and the two and one-half billions of dollars behind it, is one of those policies. It remains for us, in our own personal interest, for the relief of our principal industries and for the prosperity and welfare of our state, to choose the man who can make those established principles and the beneficent law most effective for the relief of the business and industries of our own state.

Bursum is going to be elected. He is a candidate on the Republican ticket. His party is united behind him in every county in the state. His accomplishments in his brief service in the senate have enlisted public sentiment for him. He has established himself in a powerful position in the senate as a strong, courageous, useful member. We, the voters of New Mexico, can further strengthen his position and further establish his influence and capacity for service to us and to the nation by returning him to the senate with a majority so overwhelming that it will say to Congress and the administration: "There is a man we trust; here is a man we know can and will give us the maximum of practical service. You can trust him to do the same for the nation."

As plain, practical, business, as common-sense judgment; in behalf of your own personal welfare and prosperity, give your vote to swell the majority of Holm O. Bursum so that he may return to the senate with notice to the nation that he is returned as the representative not of a political party, but of the whole people of a great state who need prompt, energetic, adequate service and who expect it from him and from the government of which he is a part.

MURDER AT DURAN.

The sheriff's office was scouting the country today for Indoro Miranda, wanted for part in the murder of James Curry, the store-keeper at Duran, Saturday night. Miranda was well known to the valley, being sent up from Carlsbad for murder a number of years ago. There were five men in the murder party, and they shot Curry down when he refused to throw up his hands, and sent several shots after his wife and daughter, who were unhurt. — Roswell News.

Dear Comrade:

Are you familiar with the provisions of AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR, to be voted upon at the Special Election on September 20th?

This proposed amendment authorizes the legislature to exempt the property of soldiers, sailors, and marines, to the extent of $2,000.00 in valuation, from taxation. This amendment must carry before the legislature can give the relief.

A DUTY TO PERFORM!

You owe it to yourself and to your comrades throughout the State, to do all in your power to put this amendment over. You can do this by going to the polls yourself and VOTING for AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR, and by explaining AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR and the reasons why it should be supported by every voter in your precinct between now and September 20th.

FOR GOD AND COUNTRY!

This will be the first opportunity the people of our state have had to know their sentiments toward ex-service men and women. It will determine whether they are grateful and appreciative and just to the men who risked their lives to protect the property and happiness of these same citizens, or whether, now that the danger has passed, they will prove ungrateful and indifferent. It is up to you to see to it that the issue is put squarely to each voter. The ex-service man has the right to know whether the people of the State are concerned about his happiness and welfare, and ready to assist him in rehabilitating his conditions and fortunes sacrificed in the defense of State and Country. Are the people of the State concerned? Was the honor of the State of New Mexico successfully upheld by the soldiers, sailors and marines, who represented the State in the Great War? Are the people of the State proud or ashamed of the record that was made? These are the things we want to know and which will be determined on September 20th.

SHALL THE PEOPLE (MEN AND WOMEN) HEDDER THEIR PLEDGES MADE DURING THE WAR?

A number of states have already by vote of the people provided relief for the ex-service men in one form or another, to help them overcome the great handicaps these men were under in taking up their places in civil life again. In no state has a relief measure for the ex-service men and women been turned down when the people had an opportunity to vote for it. New Mexico must not be the exception. That should and would be humiliating to every good citizen, and a disgrace to the dead and crippled veterans. Don't let it happen.

AN EXPLANATION!

There is enclosed herewith a circular telling all about AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR. Pass it along. WE ARE DEPENDING ON YOU AND YOUR BUDDIES TO HOLD THE LINE IN YOUR PRECINCT AND TO GO OVER THE TOP ON SEPTEMBER 20th.

Fraternally yours,

DEMOCRATIC CONSTRUCTIVE LEGISLATION.

With the Republican Senate and House at loggerheads with Republican Senators and Representatives, its methods and policies, with almost painful lack of leadership in both houses, with practically nothing yet accomplished in the way of legislation after four months of continuous session of Congress, it is refreshing to turn to the following record of constructive statesmanship made by the last Democratic administration, as set forth by Representative James C. Cantrill of Kentucky in his masterful speech on the tariff:

"The Republican party in all of its campaigns has charged that the Democratic party lacked constructive ability and was unable to properly conduct the government. All fair-minded people know, of course, that such a charge is purely for political effect and that such a charge is contrary to the history of our country. To call to mind those fresh in the memory of the people, without fear of contradiction that during the eight years of the administration of Woodrow Wilson more constructive legislation in behalf of the people was written on the statute books of our Nation than under any previous administration in our history and substantial achievements brought about during the eight years of Democratic control will make up the brightest pages of our National history.

"Under the Wilson administration the greatest war in the world's history was fought and won. Let us not forget that Woodrow Wilson was Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy in that great struggle. The American Army and Navy brought the World War to a successful conclusion and secured imperishable fame for the American Republic. The Democratic administration financed not only the World War for our own country, but financed our Allies and came through without a panic and with the credit of our Nation secure—surely in a business way the most stupendous undertaking in history.

"The Democratic party passed the Federal reserve law, which has made us the creditor Nation of the earth.

"The Democratic party passed the Federal farm loan law, which enables the farmer to borrow money on long term notes at low rates of interest in order that the farms of our country might be developed and our food supply made secure.

"The Democratic party passed the Underwood tariff law under which our nation saw the greatest prosperity in its history.

"The Democratic party and its leaders had control and won the war and the republican party during its two years of power has been unable to even make a treaty of peace.

"The Democratic Party passed the Smith-Lever Agricultural Extension Act, established the Bureau of Markets, the Bureau of Farm Management, the cotton future act, the grain grades bill, the cooperative farm administration act, and the Federal warehouse act.

"It was the Democratic Party which developed the parcel post act and gave the American people relief from the express companies' trust.

"The Democratic Party established the Department of Labor and gave the laboring men a member in the PRESIDENT HARDING'S VACATIONS.

The forthcoming recess of Congress recalls an attempt of that body to take a vacation some time ago, but the understanding is that an adjournment at that time was strongly opposed by the administration. Since then many of the Congressmen have followed the example of the president by taking impromptu vacations and the roll calls show as heavy a falling off relatively as election votes in an off year.

In the meantime, as Congress sweltered and marked time while Chairman Fordney's Ways and Means committee was drafting a tariff bill and a tax bill for the Senate to rewrite, President Harding made a pretty good record as a vacationist. Not counting horseback riding in the morning and golf in the afternoon, both of which are undoubtedly good for a president's health, a casual glance over President Harding's itinerary since late spring shows the following:

April 28—President and Mrs. Harding sailed for Hampton Roads on the Mayflower, accompanied by five United States Senators, his physician and his secretary and the wives of two of the senators, returning April 30.

May 9—Cruise on the Mayflower. May 24—Trip to New York where he spoke at a newspaper anniversary dinner.

May 30—Trip to Pohick, Va., where he made a public address.

June 4—Trip to Valley Forge, returning June 7.

July 1—Trip to Raritan, N. J., returning July 6.

July 9—Cruise on the Mayflower, returning July 11.

July 15—Cruise on the Mayflower in the Potomac and Chesapeake Bay, returning July 18.

July 22—Camping trip in the Shenandoah with Thomas A. Edison, Henry Ford, Edsel Ford and H. A. Firestone, returning July 24.

July 29—Cruise on the Mayflower to Plymouth and vacation at Senator Weeks' lodge in New Hampshire, returning to Washington Aug. 9.

During these "Little Journeys" President Harding made many addresses, but none so full of the spirit of the occasion as the one at Lancaster, N. H., in which he said:

"I would like an America where there is some becoming leisure and opportunity for recreation not for just a few people but for the fortunate American people in which all may participate."

WE WELD EVERYTHING BUT A BROKEN HEART.

WEAVER'S GARAGE.

President's Cabinet
"The Democratic Party passed the child labor act and the workmen's compensation act.

"The Democratic Party established a women's bureau in the Department of Labor which has since been destroyed by a Republican Congress withholding appropriations for its support.

"It was a Democratic President who appeared before Congress and urged that the woman suffrage amendment be submitted to the States for ratification.

"A list of other measures enacted under a Democratic administration for the public welfare could be named, but to what single measure can the Republican Party, since its two years in power, point with pride in the interest of the great majority of American citizens? Let it be remembered that the Republican Party has had a majority in both branches of Congress for the past two years.

"Our great leader, Woodrow Wilson, was stricken down before his administration came to a close, but the great record which the Democratic Party made under his leadership will always be an inspiration to those who love justice and to those whose hearts go out to struggling humanity. He was cut down in the prime of life, but his words and deeds will be forever honored and cherished because he labored for humanity with the ideals of the Democratic Party always before him as his guiding star. Let those who love justice and equality before the law let those who believe in serving the masses rather than the classes; let those who want to see America take her rightful place as the leader of nations strike hands with the Democratic Party, so that progress and not reaction shall be our national policy."

HELLO

(From the Three Partners)
With a clasp on her head like a cage for her hair,
She sits all day in a stiff little chair
And she answers the calls that come over the wire,
From people of patience and people of fire;
And "Number?" she quires of noble or churl—
A wonderful voice has the telephone girl.
She has to be pleasant and hustling and keen,
With a temper unruffled and ever serene.
There are forty-five things she must think of at once,
Or someone, impatient, will call her a dunce.
Since it seems a general custom to hurl
The blame for your grouches on the telephone girl,
It's wearisome work on the nerves and the brain,
Continual hurry, continual strain,
And of course she gets tired—as other folks do—
And needs to be thoughtfully treated by you;
So think of her doing her best mid the whirl
And try to be white to the telephone girl.

A FLYLESS TOWN.

The movement put on by the Civics Committee of the Carlsbad Chamber of Commerce, M. R. Smith, chairman, during the three months of June, July and August, to rid the town of flies, has had a splendid effect and been a success in every way. The children who entered the contest were paid ten cents a quart for the flies and an additional prize of five dollars was promised the boy or girl who brought the most dead flies to the Fire Hall. This prize will be given to Edwin Little and an additional prize of some kind will be given each of the children who entered the contest, as a special reward for their industry and successful effort. One little fellow said he would have brought more flies but they "gave out." Edwin Little had 14 and one-fourth gallons of flies to his credit; Gannon Lockhart 7 3-4 gallons; Arthur Edwin Soladay 7 3-5 gallons; Wester, 7 gallons; Astor Alston, 6 1-2 gallons; Juanita Boyd, 4 1-2 gallons; Carl Gordon Jr., 2 1-2 gallons; Eugene Davis, 1 gallon; Callison, 1 gallon. As stated, this is one of the best movements ever undertaken in this city, the town now being practically flyless, and if people will get to work in the spring with the first ones that come, we will have no "flies on us" next season.

The church declined to accept his resignation, but granted him a leave of absence for the time he will be in Albuquerque, or until the Convention meets. The pastor is desirous that every member be present at the morning service. A special invitation is extended the unaved to be in the evening service. The pastor longs to bring them this parting message, and as we are not to have our revival meetings as planned, he especially is desirous of your presence in this service.

A cordial invitation is extended the general public.

EARTH PASSES THROUGH TAIL OF COMET, SAY

Helena, Aug. 8.—Announcement is made at the Koenigsstuhl observatory, that the earth passed through the tail of a comet on the 7th. At sunset on August 7 a bright object was observed near the sun by W. W. Campbell director of Lick observatory, which is located near San Jose, Calif. It was described as brighter than Venus and was located three degrees east and one degree south of the sun. Reports indicated that experts there believed it might be the nucleus of a bright comet.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Since the night of August 7, a special detachment of observers, directed by Commander F. B. Little of the naval observatory here, has been searching the sunset and sunrise skies without success for traces of the new celestial body noted at Lick observatory, Calif. Commander Little said the Heidelberg observatory could be taken as additional evidence of the existence of a nova, but that scientific proof was far from complete in the matter.

The naval observatory's research, which is being continued has been hampered by 833 atmospheric conditions, haze cloud. Observer Campbell, at Lick telegraphed the discovery made there, and the method adopted in Washington has been to center the eyes of a half a dozen trained men, equipped with a variety of glasses, on the suspected sky.

Captive weaver birds have the weaving habit so firmly developed that they will weave flaps around their cages.

"Last spring a year ago a ten-year-old neighbor boy was given ten cents by his grandmother. He purchased a package of cucumber seed with his money and grew a nice patch of cucumbers for the local village market. His crop of cucumbers brought him a little over $6 in money, all of which his mother allowed him to keep and spend as he pleased.

"With $1 of his money this boy purchased a few little things for himself, and with the other $5 he purchased a ewe lamb. By this spring his ewe lamb has grown into a mature mother sheep, and she gave birth to twin lambs. So now the boy has three sheep from his investment. The mother sheep is now worth $10, and the lambs are worth $5 each, making a total value of $20 he has earned with his ten cents in a year and a half. Besides he sold the wool this spring from the mother sheep for $2.40, which he has placed in the savings bank as the beginning of a bank account of his own." Exchange.

JEFFREYS—ESTES.

We take the following from the Midland Reporter of a recent date, in reference to an attention shown a girl well known and loved in Carlsbad:

"One of the season's loveliest functions was given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. R. V. Lawrence, complimenting Miss Iris Estes, the bride of the week. Mrs. Lawrence, who was a dainty bride herself not many months ago, had greatly added to the attractiveness of her pretty love home by using quantities of sunflowers which, together with yellow shaded lights, cast a golden glow over the ensemble. Miss Minnie Carlisle, seated on the porch, presided at the guest book. The hostess, together with Mrs. W. A. Dawson, extended door greetings, and at a cozy nook at the end of the hall, Miss Marie Ford poured punch. After a short period of happy conversation, the guests were handed cards upon which were written the magic letters: 'I. E. R. J.' and as these were the first letters of the names of the bride and her fiancée, the pretty secret was thus revealed. Rhymes beginning with these letters were also to be written. Miss Lydie G. Watson was awarded the prize in this contest and received a beautiful handkerchief as a prize which was presented to the honor guest. Refreshments consisting of brick ice cream, in white, pink and yellow, with white cake, were temptingly served.

"Something unique in the way of presenting the charming bride-elect with gifts was introduced on this occasion by having the expressman deliver two immense boxes in which were stored numerous and beautiful remembrances."

The same paper has the following: "Miss Iris Estes this afternoon became the lovely bride of Mr. Rex Jeffrey, of Los Angeles, California. Here was a home wedding of unusual beauty, an account of which will be given in our next issue."

THE SPINNING VALUE OF COTTON — The spinner being the consumer of raw cotton dictates to quite an extent the quality of cotton. Raw cotton is composed of many minute cylindrical capillary strands. These strands are called staple and vary in length in different varieties of cotton. The longer the staple the finer the thread spun from it. A pound of seven-eighths inch staple spins about 200 yards of coarse thread while a pound of inch and three-quarter staple may spin several thousand yards of almost invisible thread. Consider a piece of thread made up of many strands of cotton—if the cotton is weak the thread will be also. Hence the first requirement of the spinner is tensile strength of staple.

Every cotton mill has its machinery spaced so as to spin a uniform length of staple. If the bale of cotton has a mixture of lengths of staple the result is disastrous to the spinner as cotton of longer staple than the spacing of the spinner's rollers will double back causing a hump or knot in the yarn; while cotton too short in staple either causes a weak place in the yarn or is blown off on the walls and floor of the mill and is called invisible waste. Hence the second requirement of cotton is uniform length of staple.

The two first principle factors in determining the wants of the spinner and the price of cotton being tensile strength and uniform length of staple, other things being equal the longer the staple the more value it has. Hence the bonus for long staple cotton.

Now is a good time to begin selecting your seed for the coming season that will produce a uniform quality of long staple cotton. GOOD SEED MAKES MORE DOLLARS PER ACRE.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. I can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many women's ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too. At all druggists.

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 11

PAUL IN ATHENS.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 17:16-34. GOLDEN TEXT—In him we live, and move, and have our being.—Acts 17:28. REFERENCE MATERIAL—Luke 4:16-18.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul Telling the People about God. JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul in Athens. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—In a Famous Greek City. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Paul in a Center of Learning, Being Driven from Biree, Paul Fled to Athens.

I. The Idolatry of the Athenians (v. 16).

Athens was the intellectual metropolis of the world at that time, the home of the world's great eloquence and philosophy. Paul's spirit was stirred within him when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

II. The Parties Concerned (vv. 17-21).

True to his usual custom Paul went into the Jewish synagogue and entered into earnest argument with the Jews. From them he turned to such as were found in the market place. Here he came into touch with the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers. The former were atheistic materialists. They denied the doctrine of Creation. They gave themselves up to sensual indulgences since they had no idea of future judgment. The latter were pantheists. When they heard the preaching of Paul they desired to know what new doctrine he preached, so they invited him to the Areopagus where he might speak to them of his new doctrine. They inquired as to what this "babbler" might say. The word "babbler" means literally "seed-picker."

III. Paul's Address on Mars' Hill (vv. 23-31).

1. The introduction (vv. 22, 23). He did not accuse them of "superstition" as the A. V. would make it, but as in the Am. R. V. he introduces his discourse in a courteous and conciliatory manner, stating that he perceived that they were very religious. This he explained by stating that as he was viewing their city he beheld an altar with an inscription "To the Unknown God." This was his point of contact. He proceeds at once to connect it with the idea of the living God, implying that this altar had been erected to Him. He was too wise to begin at once to denounce heathenism and idolatry.

2. The body of his discourse (vv. 24-31).

(1) A declaration concerning God (vv. 24, 25). (a) He created the material universe (v. 24). This was a direct blow at the philosophy of both the Epicureans and the Stoics. He did not attempt to prove the existence of God; it needs no proof. The Bible everywhere assumes the existence of a divine being. (b) His spirituality and immensity (vv. 24, 25). He is not served with "men's hands" as though he needed anything, neither is he confined by any sort of religious temple. Being essentially spiritual he demands heart-service, and being transcendent above all he is not confined to earthly temples. (c) His active providence (v. 25). He gives existence, bestows needed gifts, and as sovereign directs all things.

(2) Declaration concerning man (vv. 26-31). (a) His common origin (v. 26). This was a blow at the foolish Athenian pride which supposed that they were superior to all other people. This proposition he proved from their own literature (see v. 28). "If men are the offspring of God and bear His likeness it is utterly folly to make images as the senseless idols were." (b) Nations have their place by the sovereign purpose of God (v. 26). The position and mission of each nation is of God's appointment. (c) Men should seek God (v. 26). His goodness and grace in supplying all our needs, and ordering even the affairs of the nations should move man to seek and seek God, for He is indeed very near to every one; so near that our existence and movements are all under His control (v. 27). (d) Pressing obligation to repent (vv. 30, 31). This was his supreme message. Though God had formerly passed over idolatry He now calls to all men to repent. The solemn reason for such action is the coming day of judgment, the credential of which is the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. The judgment of God of an unrepenting world is as sure as this fact. Men will be judged on the basis of their attitude toward Jesus Christ.

IV. Result of Paul's Preaching (vv. 32-34).

1. Some mocked (v. 32). 2. Some precastinated (v. 32). 3. Some believed (v. 34).

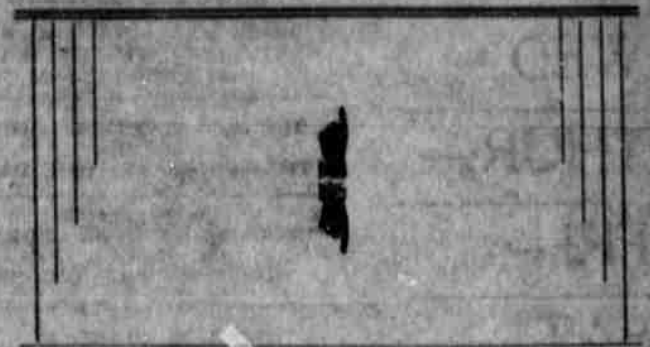

All to God.

You should frequently arouse within yourself the desire to give to God all the faculties of your soul—that is, of your mind, to know Him and think of Him, and of your will, to love Him; and further seek to consecrate all your outward senses to Him in all their actions.—Fenton.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL LEVY, 1921, FOR PECOS WATER USERS' ASSOCIATION.

Resolved, That the estimate and probable cost of salaries, and other office expenses amounting to $2,500 and balance on note amounting to $84.00, less accruals, $6,900.00, balance not covered $1,500.00, at 20c per acre based upon the present acreage subscribed in this association.

Whereas, The Secretary of the Interior by public notice dated Feb. 20, 1921, and his letter dated March 25, 1921, continuing the charges in effect in 1920 during the irrigation season of 1921, has levied upon each acre of irrigable land, whether irrigated or not, the sum of $2.00 per acre which will permit the delivery of not more than two acre feet of water per acre; for first acre-foot, per acre additional the sum of 50c., and for further quantities 75c. per acre-foot. An additional charge of 15c. an acre-foot will be made for water used in the winter season beginning at the close of the irrigation season and ending March 10, which water would otherwise waste over the spillways at Lake Avalon. This levy to be for maintenance; to meet the charges levied by the Secretary of the Interior of the United States against the lands admitted to water under the Carlsbad Project which have complied with the requirements of the Reclamation Extension Act, and for those not accepting such act, a sum equal to the public notice affecting the same.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the sum of $2.00 be levied against each share of capital stock of said association, and a like sum of $2.00 be levied against each acre of land held in trust by said association for the first two acre feet of water whether used or not by each shareholder in said association for each acre of land, and a further sum of 50c. for each third foot of water, and for further quantities 75c. per acre-foot. An additional charge of 15c. an acre-foot will be made for water used in the winter season beginning at the close of the irrigation season and ending March 10, which water would otherwise waste over the spillways at Lake Avalon. This levy to be for maintenance; to meet the charges levied by the Secretary of the Interior of the United States against the lands admitted to water under the Carlsbad Project which have complied with the requirements of the Reclamation Extension Act, and for those not accepting such act, a sum equal to the public notice affecting the same.

Be It Further Resolved, That there is hereby levied against each and every share of the capital stock of the Pecos Water Users' Association an assessment of 20c. per share and a like sum of 20c. per share against each acre of land held in trust by said association to meet the necessary expenses, etc., of said association.

Be It Further Resolved, That there is hereby levied against each share of the capital stock of the Pecos Water Users' Association an assessment equal to 6 per cent of the balance due upon each share of capital stock in said association at the time of filing acceptance of the Reclamation Extension Act. A like sum of 6 per cent of said balance due against each acre of land held in trust by said association to pay the annual building charge as fixed by the Secretary of the Interior for all lands which have accepted the terms of the Reclamation Extension Act.

Be It Further Resolved, That there is hereby levied a sum equal to the amount fixed by the Secretary of the Interior against each share of stock and against each acre of land held in trust by said association which have not complied with the Reclamation Extension Act and which are subject to payment under prior public notices as a building charge.

It Is Now, Therefore, Ordered that these levies be made against the owners of all shares of capital stock of this association and against each acre of land held in trust by said association and that the same be and hereby are declared to be a lien against the stock and against the land appurtenant thereto and against the owners thereof and against the land held in trust by said association, and that the Treasurer of the Pecos Water Users' Association be and is hereby directed to do any and all things necessary to the collection of these assessments, including legal publication of these resolutions.

By Order of Board of Directors,
PECOS WATER USERS'
ASSOCIATION.
By FRANCIS G. TRACY,
President.

LAKESIDE LOCALS

Our school opened Monday under very favorable conditions. A goodly number of the patrons were present, and speeches were made by Judge Dauron, chairman of the local board, and Prof. Hatfield. The text book question was explained, and a vote of the patrons taken as to their attitude, which was unanimously in favor of the new books; this was gratifying to both teachers and the board.

The attendance so far has not been as good as it should be, but some pupils are still needed at home to help with the crops and other matters, and the attendance will no doubt increase later on.

Prof. Hatfield is in charge of the High School, Misses Hatfield, the Upper Intermediate, Miss Mabel Robinson, the Lower Intermediate, and Miss Mabel Kepple, the Primary. This is a splendid corps of teachers, and if all the patrons will give them their hearty co-operation and support, both by example and precept, there is no reason why we should not have one of the best schools in Eddy county, numbers considered.

Born on the 3rd instant, at Portales, New Mexico, to Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Webb, of Lakewood, a fine son. This is boy No. 2 for Mr. and Mrs. Webb, and "Ned" is correspondingly proud of the fact; as soon as he heard the good news he boarded the first out to pay mother and son a visit.

The writer, together with many other friends and neighbors, wishes to offer congratulations and wishes for a long and useful life.

W. B. Swope, and wife, of Breckenridge, Texas, are here visiting with his mother, Mrs. George McGonagill, and other relatives and friends in the valley. Mr. Swope has been actively engaged in the oil game in Texas, and says that until conditions take on radical changes, the game is about played out. We have not learned whether he will remain here or return to Texas.

H. C. Holcomb has been enjoying a visit from two of his daughters, Miss Alice and Mrs. Major W. C. Powers. They have both been in the employ of the government at Washington, but sometime ago Miss Terah was transferred to El Paso, where she recently was married to Major Powers. She departed Wednesday night for Kansas City to join her husband. Miss Alice is on a vacation, and will remain here some weeks longer.

W. B. Kehl, of Silver City, came in one night this week, and will probably remain in Eddy county. Mrs. Kehl—formerly Miss Susie Larremore—has been here for some time, and they are arranging to locate here or at Carlsbad.

Lewis Howell was the successful bidder for transporting the school children from South Seven Rivers to Lakewood, and Mrs. W. L. McDonald secured the contract for a like service from Globe.

A. C. Crozier is attending Federal court at Santa Fe this week, he being interested in some land litigation.

Judge Dauron and Lewis Howell were business visitors to Carlsbad Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George McGonagill, Mr. and Mrs. Will Swope visited with relatives and friends at Artesia Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Mildred Adams departed Friday night for Grenville, New Mexico, where she has been re-employed to teach this year.

Miss Bernice Lee went to Rocky Arroyo Sunday where she has been employed to teach this school term.

The cannery is getting along splendidly; with two men, four women and a boy they are putting out something like 1,600 cans per day, and that's not bad these strenuous times.

Mrs. Veda Clements, formerly Miss Veda Scott, of Comanche county, Texas, is visiting her parents here.

Mrs. J. T. Truitt, daughter, Miss Salile and Miss Mabel Robinson were visitors to Artesia Saturday.

W. I. Johnson, of Loving, visited with friends here Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. McAlister and Mrs. R. A. Larremore were visiting and shopping in Artesia Thursday.

G. H. Sellmeyer is attending the Bankers' Convention at Santa Fe this week.

Elmer Baker departed Sunday for some point down the valley where he has obtained employment.

Landy Howell has been strenuously engaged in the haying business in the Dayton country this week. He says that haying in this hot weather is liable to make a man of his calibre lose some of his fat, not to mention religion.

MALAGA ITEMS.

School opened Monday morning with everyone eager and ready to work. The attendance is not as great as was expected but will probably be better after cotton picking time.

The men of the community met at J. L. Williams' store Monday night to consider the proposition of installing an oil mill in the valley.

The Malaga Gin Company is repairing the gin this week. They think they will be ready to start ginning next week. The car of oil has come and everything else will be in running order by then.

Jesse Plowman has imported a baker to work on his farm this fall.

The Moritaks invited the young people of Malaga, Loving and Carlsbad to a dance and watermelon feast Saturday evening at their home. Everyone reports a good time.

Justice Gerlach, of Carlsbad, has been visiting his brother, W. F. Gerlach, here for the past two weeks.

R. D. Pulliam and Miss Maile Usery were among the several Malaga people who attended the ball game in Carlsbad Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Birch have moved in from their ranch during the ginning season. Mr. Birch is secretary of the Malaga Gin Co.

Notice.

We, the undersigned, desire for the public to know that our gin yard is open to all cotton buyers and we invite them here for taking samples and inspecting our ginning in any way they desire. But, whereas cotton has been graded here, marked cut cotton and we have followed same to market and found that the cotton was all right, therefore we feel that we have been damaged. All cotton this year graded cut cotton will be followed to its destination of sale.

Boy Scouts of Dallas, Texas, have been conducting a tree census in cooperation with the City Forestry department in connection with the Five-Year-City-Beautiful campaign.

After the Scouts have completed the survey of the trees and made their report as to the number, location, species and condition of existing trees, the forestry department will take steps to see that new trees are planted and those already growing be treated and put into condition. Ten miles of streets were covered by the Scouts in their survey in one day.

WHAT AMENDMENT NO. 4 MEANS TO THE EX-SERVICE MEN AND WOMEN

BRYAN MUDGETT POST, AMERICAN LEGION, CARLSBAD, ISSUES ELOQUENT APPEAL FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE AMENDMENT BY PEOPLE OF THE STATE.

Dear Citizen and Voter:

This calls your attention to proposed AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR, to be voted on at the special election on September 20th.

THE PURPOSES OF AMENDMENT FOUR.

This proposed Amendment authorizes the legislature to exempt $2000.00 in property from taxation upon proof of bona fide ownership by ex-service men or women.

WHY IT SHOULD CARRY.

A majority of service men and women returned to their homes after the Armistice, greatly handicapped in the battle of life with their more fortunate brothers and sisters who were not called upon to render military duty. To overcome this handicap and to place the ex-service men and women on an equal footing with other citizens, various states by a vote of the people have granted the ex-service men and women a bonus ranging from $300.00 to $1000.00. In about fifteen states some sort of legislation of this nature has already been enacted. No state yet has failed in a majority vote for the veterans when given a chance.

THE VETERANS ARE CONSIDERATE.

It would not be wise for New Mexico at this time to attempt to provide bonus legislation for the veterans. Times are hard and the financial situation adverse. However, AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR offers a solution of the situation and will show the sentiment of the people, their gratitude or lack of it for the veterans of the Great War, and which is at the same time sound from an economic standpoint and will not disturb the financial situation. By voting for the adoption of AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR the people of New Mexico can show in a measure their gratitude and appreciation of the part the veterans from New Mexico took in the Great War and line up with the other states that have attempted to show the service men and women the esteem in which they are held.

FOR THE BENEFIT OF MANY.

Don't get the idea this is a provision for only a favored few. Perhaps at the present time a majority of the veterans do not own any property and will get no immediate direct benefit from the amendment. However, every veteran will own property within the next few years, and it is your duty to assist to that end.

The principles of Americanism are best shown in a desire to own a home and acquire some property. The adoption of this Amendment will encourage the veterans accordingly. As property owners and home builders are the best citizens, it will be a direct benefit to the State to encourage men and women who are just starting in life to own their homes and acquire some property. The veterans of New Mexico prefer this provision to any State bonus legislation that might be proposed.

A PROUD RECORD TO MAINTAIN.

Eddy and Lea Counties are proud of the record they made during the Great War and have always been square with the veterans and the veterans are not asking any special privileges or undue advantages, and ask and expect only a square deal. This is the first and only thing that has been proposed by the people of New Mexico in behalf of the men and women who saw active service in the Great War.

DO YOUR DUTY AS WE DID OURS.

To vote this Amendment down would be an act of gross ingratitude to the men and women who "Saved the day" when civilization trembled.

We know to carry this issue it is only necessary to call the attention of the voter to its provisions. If it is defeated, it will be due to indifference rather than opposition and it is the fear of this indifference of the voting public that causes the American Legion to direct this letter to you. We ask your support of this Amendment as a right and simply to show you the opportunity this presents for you to express by your vote your real sentiment. We ask and expect the support of the loyal and patriotic only, and if they vote we have no fear of the result.

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE?

At a meeting of the Carlsbad Chamber of Commerce on the 25th day of August, 1921, that body went on record without a dissenting vote as being heartily in favor of the adoption of AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR. We feel that this is typical of the feeling all over Eddy and Lea Counties and the State of New Mexico. We trust that you will see to it that every voter in your community understands what AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR is so that he or she will not vote against it in ignorance of its provisions.

Remember AMENDMENT NUMBER FOUR at the special election on September 20th. A vote for a veteran is a vote for the safety of posterity.

Respectfully,

BRYAN MUDGETT POST, AMERICAN LEGION,
Carlsbad, New Mexico.
GRANT KEPPLE POST, AMERICAN LEGION,
Artesia, New Mexico.
