WILL MURRAH NOW ON TRIAL FOR HIS LIFE

EDDY COUNTY RANCHMAN NOW
HAVING TRIAL IN DISTRICT COURT ON CHARGE OF POISONING HIS BROTHER.

At the session of District Court of the Fifth Judicial District of Eddy county, Tuesday morning the case of New Mexico vs. Will A. Murrah was called and the trial begun.

In this case Will A. Murrah is accused of the murder of his brother John Murrah, by poisoning on or about May 9th, 1921.

After the convening of the court Judge Charles R. Brice, who is presiding at this trial, stated the rules which govern during the case in regard to occupancy of the court room and conduct of visitors and others who attend the sessions. No smoking nor disturbing noises are allowed and a very appropriate rule in the court room must stand when court is convened and at adjournment.

The names of the twelve special venire of jurors and the examinations in reference to qualifications began. This examination involved, as is always the case, many psychological problems to be decided by those who are questioned.

Court adjourned at twelve o'clock to meet again at 2 p. m. and Tuesday afternoon six jurors were accepted. A venire of one hundred men having been summoned on Wednesday morning they were called and took their places in the court room. The District Attorney, Dillard H. Wyatt, read the law in reference to the qualifications required for jurors and also gave the law about exemptions. A number of the men examined gave excuses and some were excused by the Judge. Several claimed exemption on account of the age limit being sixty years old, or over. They were also excused.

The jury was finally secured Wednesday afternoon and is as follows: L. A. Swigart, Carl Herring, J. S. Dickson, Rex Wheatley, J. E. Bowman, T. C. Addington, Frank W. Ross, A. Y. Williams, Henry Collins, Ralph Rogers, J. W. Garrett, E. P. McCormick.

Thursday morning the examination of witnesses in the case began. (The state is represented by Dillard H. Wyatt with assistants, Fred E. Wilson, and Robert C. Dow, and the defense is represented by Judge W. J. Lamb.)

The first witness called was Roy Shaffer to whose house it is said John Murrah went when he discovered that he had been poisoned and where he died soon after his arrival.

Dr. W. F. Glaser, the second witness, was called to the witness stand and testified that when he arrived at the ranch house of John Murrah he found two pails or buckets of water, one of clear water and the other with water which was of a brownish color. From these two buckets, he said, two bottles of water were obtained; one bottle from each bucket, and this water was brought to Carlshad and sent to J. D. Clark, chemist, at Albuquerque, for analysis. Dr. Glaser said that some of the water from the bucket containing the discolored water was hypodermically administered to a dog and that the dog died in a short time and that some of the water from the bucket containing the clear water was injected into a cat and did the cat no harm.

Dr. Glaser said in reply to questions from the attorneys that the minimum time between taking strychnine and death was about ten minutes and the maximum time about two hours. The time depending largely upon the kind and quantity of food in the stomach at the time of taking the poison.

Dr. R. J. Boatman was called and said in reply to questions that he had been in Carlshad twenty years and had been practicing medicine about forty years. He said he found the body of John Murrah lying on the porch at Roy Shaffer's ranch house and after examination he was of the opinion that death was caused by strychnine poisoning. He said two buckets of water were found on a table in the ranch house of John Murrah, one with clear water and the other with water colored and from these buckets, water was obtained and placed in two bottles which were afterward sent to J. D. Clark, chemist, at Albuquerque, for analysis and also that the stomach of the deceased was removed and sent to the same place as the water and for the same purpose. The bottles containing some of the water and the container in which the stomach had been placed were exhibited before the court. Dr. Boatman also related the incident in reference to the dog and cat, agreeing with the statement made by Dr. Glaser.

SMALL PIECE OF FOOT OF DOLL EXTRACTED FROM THROAT OF ARTHUR HOOPER'S DAUGHTER.

Our people have been anxious to hear from the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hooper, who was taken last week to Philadelphia to have a physician extract a foreign body from her throat. We are glad to state that the work was accomplished by the eminent surgeon in two minutes and forty-six seconds, according to word received by the family physician. The little one will probably get along all right in the opinion of the doctors and all who know this estimable family are happy over the outcome of what promised to be a most serious affair.

A juror here asked permission to ask a question and the Judge told him he might ask the question but that he would not be permitted to go into any examination of the witness. The juror then asked Dr. Boatman if he had tasted the water in the bottles, to which the Doctor replied that he had not.

Dr. J. D. Clark, chemist, of Albuquerque, was the next witness to testify. Dr. Clark has had much experience in laboratory work and is a graduate of several of the highest institutions of learning.

Two bottles containing water; one clear water and the other colored water; were exhibited and marked exhibit one and exhibit two and also a glass container marked exhibit three in which it is said the stomach of the deceased was sent to Dr. Clark at the laboratory at Albuquerque. Dr. Clark said that the analysis of the colored water showed a large proportion of strychnine such as is used by the United States government to poison coyotes and other predatory animals. Dr. Clark gave technical knowledge of strychnine, explaining the ingredients contained in what is known as government poison and told the difference between it and ordinary strychnine. The government adds certain ingredients to modify or change the taste so that animals are supposed to take it more readily.

A small box containing government poison was exhibited before the court and its contents were of the same poisonous nature as the poisoned water.

A Mexican witness was called next and an interpreter took his position and translated his testimony.

Mr. Whitaker, W. E. Cass, a lady and Marvin Middleton were other witnesses who related incidents in reference to the case which apparently were of little importance in the trial.

"Red" Howell was the next witness and said he and others were at the Segrist water hole near the ranch house of John Murrah. He said that he and others found horse tracks of two horses, one traced from near the ranch house of John Murrah to near the Trumble well and were made by a horse which had but three shoes on.

The Murrah gray horse when examined was found to have but three shoes on, his front feet being shod and the hind foot with a shoe on it corresponding to the tracks traced. The shoes, when taken off and fitted to the tracks, fitted them perfectly. The other tracks found at the Segrist water hole, the witness said, indicated that the horse was running and their opinion was that they were made by the horse ridden by John Murrah in going from his place to Roy Shaffer's house after he had drunk the water containing poison.

Messrs. Gibson, Webb and Wood testified to facts already stated in reference to the case.

"Red" Howell was recalled to the witness stand and much time was consumed in the examination and discussion of the horse shoes which had been marked as exhibits.

Court adjourned Thursday afternoon to open this morning at nine o'clock.

This morning court convened at 8 o'clock, Shirley Wooten on the witness stand, testified as to the horse shoes pulled off the Murrah gray horse and said they fitted perfectly in the tracks traced from near the Segrist waterhole in the direction of the defendant's ranch house.

Lewis Lindsay was next called and said he left Will Murrah's place Friday before the tragedy and went to the Jones' ranch and that he got back to the defendant's ranch Tuesday afternoon after the death of John Murrah. He told about seeing government poison in a trunk in Will Murrah's house. He said that the defendant asked him about who had been there and in reference to the examination of the shoes on the gray horse and asked him if he thought that men might come out there and hang him and said that he was thinking of obtaining two guns to kill as many of them as he could if they did come after him.

On account of some legal questions encountered here the court took recess until 1 p. m.

CHARLES MONTGOMERY AND BRIDE CORDIALLY RECEIVED ON THEIR RETURN HERE SATURDAY NIGHT.

Charles (Monty) Montgomery and Miss Hettie McGaughy were united in marriage at the home of the bride in Hot Springs, Arkansas, Thursday the 6th instant, at 7 P. M. They left on the 7:50 train the same evening for Little Rock, and from there came to Carlshad, arriving here on the train from the south Saturday night. Reverend Monk, pastor of the Methodist church at Hot Springs, officiated, and the wedding was a quiet one with only the most intimate friends and relatives present. A brother of the groom, W. O. Montgomery, of Pine Bluff, and Miss Pearl Williams, of Hot Springs, were the attendants.

The young friends of "Monty" remembering his activities on similar occasions, prepared a warm welcome for him and his bride, meeting them at the train and indulging in several original stunts for their benefit. The little "Hup" that has seen so much service in Carlshad, was secured, two of the tires were removed, and the bridegroom and his blushing bride were escorted to seats in said auto, to which was hitched a pair of burros; Monty took the wheel and Mrs. Montgomery the lines, and with Bob Hamblen on one animal and Big Sam Montgomery on the other, the wedding march began. Hamblen was gotten up in a la old time cowboy, with his wide sombrero and long tailed coat, while a typical bandana kerchief around his neck, completed a picture such as one seldom sees outside of the movies.

After parading them around for awhile, the procession stopped in front of the Joyce-Fruit store, where they were met by a shower of rice, and from there were taken to the home of J. F. Joyce, where each of the employees were presented to the bride. "Tio" the Mexican porter, gave her a huge bouquet of cosmos, which she carried in her hand during the remainder of the festivities. The bride rather shrank from the ordeal imposed upon them, at first, but rallied and took the welcome in good faith, knowing that Monty claims every one in town as a personal friend and that they are her friends also.

The employees of the firm gave the newly-weds a shower of electrical appliances, which will be useful in their new home and the firm of Joyce-Fruit company showed their appreciation by a substantial check.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery have the best wishes of our entire citizenship for a happy and successful life among us, the reception given them Saturday coming from warm, western hearts who like to give vent to their feelings in their own peculiar way.

LEE HANSON NOW MANAGER OF JOYCE-FRUIT COMPANY'S DRY GOODS DE- PARTMENT.

Lee Hanson, head of the men's wear and shoe department of the T. C. Horne dry goods store, has resigned his position with that firm and has taken the place of manager in the Joyce-Fruit store, left vacant by the removal of Mr. Tucker, who has been transferred to the store of the latter firm in Roswell.

Mr. Tucker has not been with us long, perhaps a year, but in that length of time, has made a large circle of friends who are glad to learn of his advancement while sorry to lose him from among us. The change will occur about the first of next month.

LARGE NUMBER ATTEND AN- NUAL CONFERENCE IN ARTESIA.

A large number of our people visited the Annual Conference, which convened at Artesia last week. All speak in the highest terms of the hospitality extended them by the good folk of Artesia. Among others we noticed at the Sunday services Mrs. Stanford, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Flowers, Judge and Mrs. D. G. Grantham, Judge and Mrs. J. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. V. O. McCollum, Willard Bates, and family, Mrs. T. J. Kindel, Mrs. Georgia Pond and daughter, Miss Mary Lee, Mrs. Olive Thayer and daughter, F. E. Little and family, W. F. Mudgett and family, Bert Rawlins and Wilmer White, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McCarr of Otis, Mrs. A. L. Allinger of Lovins, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Huxton also of the lower valley town, and Mrs. Asbury Moore, of Carlshad, and perhaps others. Many of the number had taken their lunch with them and spread it on the lawn of some hospitable home, or went to the grove out a short distance from town, where there was plenty of water and shade and spent a delightful nooning. Most of the party returned on Sunday afternoon but some remained until Monday returning on the afternoon train.

FIRST CLASS BAND FOR CARLS- BAD PRACTICALLY ASSURED.

At the last regular meeting of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce it was decided that they go on record as being heartily in favor of a band for Carlshad, and in order that this might be accomplished, it was considered advisable for the musicians directly interested to interview all business men and organizations of the city with a view of obtaining monthly subscriptions for a period of six months in order that a man may be obtained as instructor under six month contract, the time that is considered necessary to whip the band in shape. After the necessary amount has been subscribed, all information relative to the matter is to be presented to the Chamber of Commerce which will then take it in hand and appoint a financial manager from the membership of the club, this man is to have absolute control of the band in all matters including accounting for all receipts and disbursements.

It is believed that at last Carlshad is to have a real band as the present plans will put it on a sound business basis, with the Carlshad Chamber of Commerce at its head, which in itself will assure its success.

The amount necessary to obtain the instructor in mind is $125.00 per month, a comparatively small amount considering the nature of the work and profit to be obtained from a municipal standpoint, and it is believed that all business men and the various organizations of the city will cooperate in every way possible to make this undertaking a success.

ATTENTION!

A mass meeting will be held at the Armory October 17th, at 8 P. M.

The reason why a seven-year-old girl isn't proud of her figure is because she isn't old enough to know that she has one.

"JIMMY DUNN" HELD ON WHITE SLAVE CHARGE AS PRETTY GIRL, 17, BARES STORY OF HER BETRAYAL AND FALL.

The "Jimmy Dunn" spoken of in the following story is the same fellow who worked in the Beckett barber shop in this city and who was active in promoting the prize fights here in which Charles (Dutch) Crozier was the principal boxer.

The face of a child, surrounded by a wealth of auburn hair of rich hue and soft texture, a complexion that nature had left nothing for art to add to and a slender girlish figure—such was Estella Inez Reed as she sat before United States Commissioner A. J. W. Schmid yesterday and recounted a story of abused trust, culminating in vice such as court and department of justice officials had not encountered.

As a result of her story, Felipe Amico, alias James A. Dunn, known in El Paso sporting circles as "Jimmy" Dunn, is in the county jail awaiting a hearing on three charges of violating the Mann white slave act.

Tells Story Without Hesitancy
The girl told her story without hesitancy and it was taken down on the typewriter as she recounted it. When it was concluded, she read it carefully, signed it and swore to it.

The girl told of meeting Dunn at her home in Roswell, N. M., more than a year ago, at which time she was 16 years old. On August 11 of this year, when she was only 17 she says she came to El Paso with Dunn in an automobile driven by another person. Dunn had told her and she had told her parents that they were to be married in El Paso, her affidavit relates.

Upon arrival in El Paso, Dunn took her to a hotel, she says, and told her he did not have money enough to get married yet. After a little while, she says, Dunn made her accept engagements with other men and she alleges that he placed her in a house where there were other girls.

She says that Dunn frequently told her that she did not have "sense enough to get the money" and that Dunn took what money she did get.

Dunn Takes Her to Juarez.
Then, she says, Dunn took her to Juarez and there put her in the cafes to make engagements and drink. She says that she made more money in Juarez and that Dunn took it all.

Dunn is a barber by trade and claims to have once been in the prize ring. He is well known in sporting circles. He is held in $2,000 bond for a hearing on October 12. He was unable to give bond and is in the county jail.

Felipe Amico alias James A. Dunn, was given a hearing on a charge of white slavery before United States Commissioner A. J. W. Schmid in El Paso, yesterday and held to the United States district court in $2,500 bond, which he failed to give and was committed to the county jail.

CITY ADVERTISING FOR BIDS ON PAVING.

PROSPECTS BRIGHT TO GET
BUSINESS DISTRICT OF CITY
PAVED THIS WINTER.
BIDS TO BE OPENED
OCTOBER 20TH.

The city council of Carlshad has advertised for bids for paving fifteen business blocks of this city, the bids to be opened on the 20th of this month. City Attorney Guy A. Reed has received telegrams from two large street paving concerns, one located at El Paso, Texas, and the other at Albuquerque, N. M., that they will submit sealed bids on that date. City Engineer F. L. Hancock, of Denver, Colo., wires that he will leave on the night of the 16th instant, for Carlshad, and will get things in shape so that there will be no further delay if either of these bids are accepted by the city council. Artesia is also getting in shape to handle their paving proposition at an early date and the company which gets the paving contract of this city will also do the work for Artesia, thereby saving considerable expense to both towns for transporting the paving outfit to this part of the country.

An offer has been received by the city dated of ninety-five cents on the municipal building bonds which is a good offer at this time. Paving and building the municipal building this winter would furnish employment to many who will otherwise go without work and the effect on business conditions here generally would be a great improvement over the past few months.

COUPLE TAKE WOOL BLANKET FROM RIGHTWAY HOTEL.

A couple, who were traveling overland last week from Lubbock, Texas, en route to El Paso, stopped overnight at the Rightway Hotel, having early in the morning, having paid their bill the night before, as is the custom at this house. After the couple left, Mrs. Stewart missed a fine wool blanket which hung on the foot of the bed. She immediately notified the sheriff, who started in pursuit carrying with him the mate to the blanket which was taken. They were overtaken near Blue Spring ranch and admitted having the blanket, but the lady said it was a mistake. However, they paid the costs in the case which amounted to quite a sum and returned the property and were allowed to continue their journey. Sheriff Patton says that they would not have come up with them as soon as they did, had the parties not had car trouble which detained them, and they were working on their car when they were overtaken.

SCOUT NEWS.

Scout Executive J. C. Fitch disappointed us by not coming Saturday. About ten boys are waiting for the Court of Honor to report on special merit badges.

"Doing a good turn daily" is part of Scout life, and when an announcement was made at Scout meeting Tuesday night that help was needed to cut up a load of wood for an aged lady, enough boys volunteered to cut up all the wood in Carlshad. However, two thoroughbred Scouts were all that were required to do the work, which was promptly done.

Scouts of Carlshad received special mention in the New York Scouting Journal last week. The excellent work of our boys is winning attention from everywhere. Let the good work go on.

Going to church and Sunday school is a habit that all Scouts must have. Each week they must answer the roll as to their attendance at either or both of these services.

The entertainment planned for this week has been postponed until the week following the Elks Charity Ball. We do not want to conflict with the workers of Charity. Rather we want to help and desire to be called upon to do anything we can. Wednesday, November 9th, is the date set and the program promises to be splendid.

STATE CONVENTION OF W. C. T. U.

The Thirty-eighth annual convention of the New Mexico Women's Christian Temperance Union, will open in Santa Fe today and continue until Monday evening of next week. Mrs. Oscar Mercer, who has the honor of being vice-president of the state organization, left last night to attend the meeting. Mrs. Frances Beauchamp, of Kentucky, a prominent worker among the White Ribboners, has been invited to be present and deliver an address and addresses are also to be made by Judge Reed Holloman and Judge McFie, both men prominent in temperance work.

PRATT IS NOT COMING.

Ben Amos, warden of St. Andrews Mission, Saturday received a letter from Rev. F. W. Pratt which cast a deep gloom over the little congregation yesterday morning. MRS. LOWENBRUCK ENTERTAINS

Tuesday afternoon of this week at her home on Main street, Mrs. Dan Lowenbruck entertained a party of her young friends in an informal manner, which was very pleasant to all concerned. The guests played cards and held happy conversation and were served to a two course luncheon at the close of the games. Those present were Misses Patty Witt, Mary Jane Weatherly, Marion Witt, Georgia Wallace, Frances Moore, Dorothy Swigart, Helen McIlvain, Helen Wright, Wardle Bates, Nettie May Kindel, Mesdames Ellsworth James, John Snow, Robert Finlay, Babe Campbell, Pat Jones, Lyle Henderson, McAdoo, Howard Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. William Muldrow left the latter part of last week for Roswell, where or near where Mr. Muldrow will run his sheep the coming winter and where they expect to make their home.

LOCAL NEWS.

J. H. James and wife returned Saturday evening from their trip to the Hot Wells, of New Mexico. They had a fine trip and have been greatly benefited by the complete rest and change.

J. M. Wood and wife were down Saturday from Lakewood coming to consult a physician for Mrs. Wood, who has been in poor health for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Z. Smith have moved from Mesa, Arizona, to Nogales, Arizona, where Mr. Smith has taken the position of county agent, with which his experience in Eddy county and at other places as well as afterward in Mesa, has rendered him familiar and very competent.

Harry Thorne was in Carlsbad from Roswell the later part of last week coming to look after his three children who are here with their grandmother and are attending school. It is gratifying to report that the youngest child who has been ill and was taken to Cleveland, Ohio, to a specialist, is improving and nothing serious is anticipated.

ATTENTION!

A mass meeting will be held at the Armory October 17th, at 8 P. M.

DEATH OF A PROMISING BOY.

Arnold Florene, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hobbs died at the family residence on South Halagueno street at 1:30 A. M. Monday, after a brief illness of scarlet fever and the body was laid to rest at 10 o'clock of the same morning in City Cemetery.

Arnold was born in Oklahoma, January 13th, 1910, and was the second son and child of his parents. He was only sick a few days, and at first was not thought to be seriously ill, but the treacherous fever soon put an end to his earthly life. In spite of the tender care bestowed by parents, nurse and physician. He was in the sixth grade at school and is highly spoken of by his teacher and schoolmates, who, without exception tell of his kindness and obedience.

His parents and the surviving members of his immediate family have the sympathies of a large circle of friends made by their many excellent traits of character during the six months they have resided here, they coming from Carlsbad about that length of time ago and taking up their lives among us. A baby daughter died last Christmas and is buried at Carlsbad.

Although the funeral had to be private, a brief service was conducted by Reverend Sedwards, pastor of the Christian church, before the body was committed to the bosom of Mother Earth. Many beautiful flowers were sent from friends of the dead boy and also from his schoolmates, which helped to heal the heartache of his grief stricken parents. The current force, friends of the family, and themselves familiar with bereavement and sorrow, sympathize deeply. Truly, many hopes, plans and ambitions find a burial place in the graves of our children.

At the funeral Reverend Sedwards quoted the following beautiful poem: "The air is full of farewells to the dying."

And mourning for the dead; The heart of Rachel, for her children crying.

Will not be comforted.

Let us be patient—these severe afflictions

Not from the ground arise

But oftentimes Celestial benedictions

Assume this dark disguise.

In that great cloister's pure and Holy stillness.

By guardian angels led,

Safe from temptations, safe from sin's pollution,

He lives—whom we call dead!"

CARD OF THANKS.

Our hearts are full of gratitude to our friends who were so sympathetic and kind to us during the brief illness and at the death and burial of our son, Arnold, and we desire in this public way to tender our sincere thanks. We remember gratefully his teacher and schoolmates and all others who sent the beautiful flowers with which his grave in the cemetery is covered. We did not realize the number of friends we had in this city until this sorrow overtook us. May God bless you and reward you each and all.

850 DISASTER DEATH TOLL FOR ONE YEAR

Red Cross Gives $1,871,000 Relief When 65,000 Families Are Made Homeless.

Forty-three disasters, resulting in the death in the United States of 850 persons and the injury of 2,500 called for emergency relief measures and the expenditure of $1,871,000 by the American Red Cross during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1921, says an announcement based upon the forthcoming annual report of the Red Cross. These disasters caused property damage estimated at $30,000,000, affected sixty-seven communities and rendered 65,000 families homeless.

The year's disasters were of varying types, including several which previously had never been thought of as falling within that classification. The Red Cross furnished relief in seventeen fires of magnitude, five floods, seven tornadoes or cyclones, one devastating storm, three explosions, including the one in Wall street; one building accident, two typhoid epidemics, the most serious being that at Salem, Ohio, which affected 9 per cent of the population; one smallpox epidemic, in the republic of Haiti; one train wreck, the race riot at Tulsa, Okla.; the famine in China, emergency relief in famine among the Indians of Alaska, the grasshopper plague in North Dakota and an earthquake in Italy.

Pueblo Most Serious

By far the most severe of the disasters in the United States during the period covered by the Red Cross report was the Pueblo flood early in June, 1921. The rehabilitation problem confronting the Red Cross in Pueblo was one of the most difficult in recent years. When the first news of the horror was flashed throughout the country, the American Red Cross National Headquarters responded with a grant of $105,000 for relief work. Governor Shoup of Colorado, appreciating the long and successful experience of the Red Cross in organizing disaster relief work, placed the entire responsibility for the administration of relief in its hands.

In response to appeals from President Harding, Governor Shoup and other governors of western states and through local chapters of the Red Cross and other community organizations, public-spirited citizens brought the total contributed for Pueblo's rehabilitation to more than $325,000.

The terrible havoc wrought by the flood waters is a matter of record. More than 2,300 homes were affected and 7,351 persons were left homeless. Estimates of $500,000 as an absolute minimum for rehabilitation were made by Red Cross officials in charge of the relief work.

Fast Work in Wall Street

The Wall street explosion was notable in that relief workers of the Red Cross were on the scene twenty minutes after the disaster occurred. The race riot at Tulsa also was unique in disaster relief work in that outside of a small emergency relief fund contributed by the Red Cross, the only relief measures outside the city consisted of the service of social workers, nurses and a trained executive whose object was to assist local forces in directing their own efforts.

In decided contrast with the previous year, only one tornado assumed the proportions of a major disaster. This occurred on April 15, in the border sections of Texas and Arkansas with the city of Texarkana as the center. The significant feature of this disaster relief work was the fact that it covered so much rural territory as to make necessary a large number of relief workers.

The famine in China, necessitating relief expenditures totalling more than $1,000,000 by the American Red Cross was by far the most serious of the foreign disasters in which the Red Cross gave aid.

Builds Up Its Machinery

In connection with the administration of disaster relief measures, an increasing effectiveness on the part of the Red Cross to deal with emergencies was manifested during the past year. In 328 Chapters of the American Red Cross there have been formed special committees to survey the resources of their respective communities and to be prepared in case of disaster. In others of the 3,402 active Chapters, a network of communication has been formed through which instantaneous relief may be dispatched to any part of the United States.

That its work in this field may be continued with ever greater effectiveness, the American Red Cross is appealing for widespread renewal of membership during its Annual Roll Call, to be conducted this year from November 11 to 24.

LIFE SAVING CORPS ENROLLMENT 10,000

Growth of Red Cross Life Saving Corps throughout the country continued unabated during the last fiscal year, a summary of the year's achievements by that Red Cross Service shows. There are now 109 Corps with a total membership of more than 10,000 members, of which 1,276 are sufficiently skilled in the work to act as examiners. Among the outstanding achievements of the Red Cross in this field during the last year was the organization at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, of what is perhaps the largest life saving corps in the world.

Making Extraordinary Mileage a Certainty~

Car Owners want more rubber on the tread where the wear is hardest; more gum between cord plies to perfect a resilient and powerful carcass. And they want a scientifically constructed Non Skid tread with all angles and contacts to resist skidding and give sure traction. Firestone Cord Tires have met these demands of the car owners.

Read Letters Below—

Records from 29,000 to 57,000 Miles

Cord Tires built the Firestone way could not fail to produce mileage. Every day, from all over the country, comes the word that 10,000, 20,000 or 30,000 miles are frequent and consistent records.

Now and then they are emphasized by unusual instances such as quoted below. Performances like these demonstrate the ultimate possibilities of Firestone Cords under careful driving.

Sept. 18, 1921
Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., Jacksonville Branch, Jacksonville, Florida.

Gentlemen:—
I submit herewith the history of a 32x4 Firestone Cord tire. This tire has run 37,000 miles. I have retraced it seven times. The average mileage to each retreading was about 7,000. I think you will agree this is a remarkable record. It is especially unusual as I know the owner to be a severe driver. However, he gives his tires proper inflation. The tire in question is not yet out of service and has every indication of being sufficiently strong for another retread. I am mailing photographs under separate cover.
C. U. Peonny,
Plant City, Fla.

Sept. 2, 1921
The Harvey E. Mack Co., Thirteenth & Harmon Place, Minneapolis.

Gentlemen:—
It occurs to me that you might be interested in the mileage that I obtained from the set of Firestone Cord tires on my Dodge coupe. The first tire went over 20,000 miles. The second tire rolled up a mileage of between 24,000 and 25,000. These were both year tires and had been cut considerably by chains. The two front tires have gone better than 35,000 miles and are still in good condition. I expect to get at least 40,000 miles from each of them. I need scarcely say that the Firestone Cord will be my tire choice for the future.

Where Our Automobiles Stop Regularly

Perhaps you've noticed the difference in your neighborhood. A few years ago laundry wagons stopped regularly only at those homes where the man of the family was known as a "good dresser".

But today its different—you'll find our automobiles stopping at almost every home in the block.

That's because the modern housewife has learned to appropriate modern laundry service and is giving every member of her family the benefit of it.

Instead of simply shirts and collars, we now call for the whole family bundle, wash and iron everything, and deliver it ready to use or wear.

Ask us about our finished family service—have us call for your bundle this week. We're sure one trial will convince you that this is a better wash way.

POPULATION OF U. S. A.

Washington, Oct. 4.—Revised census figures place the population of the country as of January 1, 1921, at 105,712,620, comprising 94,920,915 whites, 10,463,131 negroes, 244,437 Indians, 110,010 Japanese and 61,639 Chinese. The rate of white increase for the decade was 16 per cent, against 22.3 per cent for the decade 1900-1910, the decline being explained by the reduction of immigration during the war. The rate of negro increase which is unaffected by immigration or emigration, is far the lowest of record, due to decreasing birth rate. Of the total numerical increase of 635,368, nearly three-fourths took place in the north and west, only one-fourth of the increase having been reported from the South, which still has 85 per cent of the total negro population.

Red Cross Trains 147 Blind Vets In Useful Work

Training designed to fit them for the battle of life was taken by 147 blind ex-service men at the Red Cross Institute for the Blind, near Baltimore, Md., during the recent year 1920-1921, according to the report of the Institute for that period.

Of this number, 19 have gone on to other institutions, in almost every case to institutions where those having sight are receiving advanced education. The blind ex-service men who have entered such institutions are provided with special text-books in Braille, reading which they were taught at the Red Cross Institute.

Twelve men have passed from the Institute to successfully carry on some occupation or business for which they were fitted by special training. A few have withdrawn from the Institute because of poor physical condition, 14 are receiving further "training on the job" and 57 are still in training.

DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE NOT PRES. HARDING'S OWN IDEA.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 1.—Democrats in Congress are hoping for the success of the coming conference for reduction of armament. They very properly take pride in it as a Democratic achievement. Those who think of it as a Republican move for popular approval have forgotten, in the hurry-burly of events, the history of the movement. A brief outline of that history will show that President Harding did not discover the idea, any more than Doctor Sawyer has discovered a cure for golf.

As recently as last Spring, the President was much upset by Senator Borah's resolution directing him to call such a conference. And the latter did not himself discover the idea, any more than Laddie Boy discovered the Dog Star.

The whole idea of such a conference to reduce the terrible burden of armaments is Democratic. Champ Clark preached it off and on for twenty-five years, but it took another Missouri Democrat to put the concrete idea into the Naval Bill in 1916—five years ago. It was first offered by Representative Walter L. Hensley as a resolution and was then incorporated in the Naval Appropriation Act of 1916, and can be found in Vol. 39, part 1, page 618 of the U. S. Statutes at Large. I quote here the most important part of the law:

"It is hereby declared the policy of the United States to adjust and settle its international disputes thru mediation or arbitration, to the end that war may be honorably avoided. It looks with apprehension and disfavor upon a general increase of armaments throughout the world, but it realizes that no single nation can disarm, and that without a common agreement upon the subject every considerable power must maintain a relative standing in military strength."

"In view of the premises, the president is authorized and requested to invite, at an appropriate time, not later than the close of the war in Europe, all the great governments of the world to send representatives to a conference, which shall be charged with the duty of formulating a plan for a court of arbitration or other tribunal, which disputed questions between nations shall be referred to for adjudication and peaceful settlement, and to consider the question of disarmaments and submit their recommendations to their respective governments for approval. The President is hereby authorized to appoint nine citizens of the United States, who, in his judgement, shall be qualified for the mission by eminence in the law and by devotion to the cause of peace, to be representatives of the United States in such a conference."

The law went on to appropriate $200,000; curiously enough, President Harding asked for the same amount for expenses of the conference.

When the Hensley provision was up in the House, Speaker Clark left the chair to take up the cudgels for it, aiding Hensley to put it thru. The chief opposition came from the late Augustus P. Gardner, non-in-law of Senator Lodge, who is now on the Conference Committee. The debate can be found in the record of the 64th Congress, Vol. 53, part 3, beginning at page 9443. This piece of legislation was also passed by a Democratic Senate and signed by the Democratic President and signed now the law as much as in 1916.

When the war was over and the Treaty of Versailles was being made, President Wilson had the idea inserted in that treaty as Article 8. This did not make it any more acceptable to the Republicans; in fact, the whole idea of such a conference seemed utterly repugnant to the Republicans until President Harding took it up and fostered it as his own idea.

GUARD IS READY FOR ENCAMPMENT AT FORT BLISS

Five troops of cavalry, four companies of combat engineers, classed as infantry, and one battery of field artillery, comprising the reorganized national guard of New Mexico, will go into the annual encampment at Fort Bliss on Oct. 17, for 15 days. This will be the first encampment of the guard of New Mexico since the war began. Approximately 50 officers and 600 men will take part, requiring 50 Pullmans, day coaches and baggage cars to transport. Two days each way will be allowed for movement into and from camp, making a total of 19 days for which officers and men will draw the pay of the regular army. All other expenses of the encampment will be borne by the federal government. The encampment will be under direction of the war department and will be supervised by headquarters of the Eighth Corps Area, Fort Sam Houston, Major General Pickman commanding.

The state, corps and departments have the following personnel: Adjutant general's department, Brigadier General Henry Rolf Brown, adjutant general, commanding; ordinance department, Captain Leslie E. Love, of Albuquerque; inspector general's department, Captain H. P. Saunders, Jr., of Roswell; Judge advocate general's department, Captain Frank E. Andrews, of Santa Fe; surgeon general's department, Major J. W. Elder of Albuquerque.

Personnel of regimental headquarters is as follows: Col Norman L. King of Santa Fe, commanding engineers; Lt. Col. Pittsford Thompson of Roswell, commanding cavalry; Major J. W. Lowe, of Las Cruces, battalion commander, cavalry; Captain Winfred Zeigler of Albuquerque, chaplain of cavalry; Captain Henry J. Roomstina, of Las Cruces, captain of engineers.

The cavalry units will be the following:

Headquarters troop Albuquerque, Captain Desmond S. Farrell, commanding.

Troop A, Estancia, Captain J. G. Hamilton commanding.

Troop B, Carlsbad, Captain Fred M. West commanding.

Troop C, Deming, Captain Clyde Earl Ely commanding.

Troop D, Santa Fe, Captain Edward L. Safford, commanding.

The combat engineers will have the following units:

Headquarters company, Las Cruces, Captain Richard H. Buven, commanding.

Company A, Las Cruces, Captain Ull Lane, commanding.

Company B, Mountainair, Captain J. C. Williams, commanding.

Company C, Alamogordo, Captain Thomas Woolen, commanding.

The only unit of field artillery is Battery A, of Roswell, commanded by Captain W. H. McCullough. This new battery is heir to the location and glory of famous old Battery A, that was commanded by the late Lt. Col. de Brommond and achieved fame in two continents.

Two units that have been organized, but not yet federally recognized, will not take part in the encampment. These two units are: Battery B, field artillery, Roswell, and Troop E, cavalry, Albuquerque.

For the sake of economy, horses belonging to the several units will not be shipped to the encampment, but will be supplied at Fort Bliss, which has remount station No. 1. Officers and men will carry personal individual equipment. Units having saddle equipment will carry that equipment.

Adjutant General Brown estimates that in the encampment next year approximately 2,000 officers and men will participate. That encampment will be held on the guard's own camp ground at Las Vegas.

MARRIED.

Miss Maude Keith, of Roswell, and Fred St. John, were married last Saturday at Calexico, California, according to a wire received by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Keith, of Roswell. The news came as a surprise to the family although the young folk have been sweethearts for some time. Mr. St. John formerly being employed in one of the leading hotels of Roswell, as clerk. Miss Keith has been in California for a month past, on a vacation visit. She is well known in Roswell, having occupied positions with different business firms there. Good wishes in abundance are theirs for a happy and successful life in Sunny California.

DEATH OF MRS. J. D. HART.

A telephone message to E. S. Sprong, from Lovington, Tuesday announced the alarming illness of Mrs. J. D. Hart, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sprong, of Carlsbad, and wife of the well known stockman and banker, J. D. Hart. Mr. and Mrs. Sprong and daughter, Mrs. Nell, left at once for the ranch home of their daughter, who died about one o'clock the same afternoon and was buried the next day. The cause of death is given as acute Bright's disease. She leaves to mourn her departure, a loving husband and three children, two girls and a boy and four children by a former marriage. Her father and mother and a large number of brothers and sisters survive.

Mrs. Hart lived in Carlsbad for a number of years and her neighbors lament her sad death. A good neighbor, kindly and always ready to do what she could to lighten another's burden, she is remembered here with great affection. She was an obedient daughter and was devoted to her parents who little thought that she would go before them. But the greatest loss will fall on the devoted husband and three young children who are left to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate wife and mother. May He who alone can comfort in times of trouble like this, sustain the sorrowing ones.

The following additional facts were received from the parents of the deceased, Mr. and Mrs. Sprong, they having returned from their sad errand yesterday.

Mrs. Hart was first taken ill about seven weeks ago, but at no time was her condition considered dangerous until last Friday night, when, after attending the entertainment at the school house at Lovington, she became ill and had to call a physician in the night. Not getting any better, a physician was called from Carlsbad. But it was evident from the first that she could not recover, and her parents, sister and brother went out from Carlsbad, but the sister and brother did not arrive until after her death which occurred Wednesday at 1:30 and the interment was the same afternoon at four o'clock in Lovington cemetery.

Mrs. Hart had resided in this section of the country for about twenty years. She was born in Missouri and was married to her bereaved husband ten years ago; to them were born three children, the youngest being a boy of eight.

She was a member of the Presbyterian church and her funeral was conducted by her pastor, Reverend Cunningham assisted by Reverend Beauchamp. She was active in church work and many of the poor and needy will miss her kindly ministrations. Like her Master, "She went about doing good." The order of the Eastern Star of which she was a member, attended in a body and carried out their beautiful ritualistic work.

The casket was covered with beautiful flowers and the funeral procession was one of the largest ever witnessed in Lovington.

MALAGA ITEMS.

Today the Malaga Gin Company sold fifty tons of cotton seed to the Otis Gin & Warehouse Company for the new oil mill. The mill is to be installed at Lovington. There is still a hundred tons of seed on the yard here. Something near three hundred bales of cotton have been put out this season.

Many amusing incidents take place at the gin. Perhaps not so funny to the victim as to the observer. The latest was the flying trip Jesse Plowman took when he lost his grip on the lever to the packer. The lever struck him under the chin and he was lifted off his feet and given a glimpse of higher atmosphere and no doubt a few stars.

We have heard of many things being found in the cotton, but today while Clarence Reid was cleaning the rollers he found a thimble. He judged that the cotton was not quite ready for a thimble.

Mr. Rowan, a cotton buyer, shipped fifty bales of cotton this week. John R. Plowman has returned from Texas and says his horses will be here in a few days.

Will Gerlach was in Carlsbad Tuesday and Wednesday having his car worked on.

Margaret Cleveland has been in Carlsbad shopping and visiting friends for the last two days.

Edson Craft, our depot agent, went to Clovis Saturday night. He took the railroad employee's examinations the next day and was here in his place Monday morning when the train came in.

CAPT. WEST GETS RECRUITS FOR CAVALRY TROOP.

Capt. Fred West made a business trip to Artesia, Monday, looking after recruits for Troop B, N. M. Cavalry, which is scheduled to leave here in company with the men of Battery A, of Roswell, on a special train Sunday night, for Ft. Bliss, where the annual encampment will be held. A number of the members of the Troop are unable to attend the encampment for various reasons, and recruits are necessary to bring the number of enlisted men to the required three men from the upper valley town.

MRS. PATTERSON'S FATHER DEAD.

We are sorry to announce the death of Mr. Sprague, the father of Mrs. Frank Downs and Mrs. Alice Patterson, both formerly of this city. The death occurred last week and resulted from a stroke of paralysis, he having had two previous strokes. He was living with his daughter, Mrs. Frank Downs, at Bridgeport, Ohio, where interment was held. Mr. Sprague visited here while his children lived in Carlsbad and made friends who will grieve to learn of his passing.

Once in a while you will see an over-dressed woman whose diamonds are about as genuine as her complexion.

TEXAS PRINTER GETS BACK AT DOCTOR IN HIS OWN COIN

Charley Harris of Fort Worth, Texas, a friend of Mr. Nubbings in the printing business, got slightly peeved at a letter head from a doctor who wanted bids on several thousand letterheads, different sizes, different grades and different colors, and wanted the printing form held standing. So Charley took his type-writer in hand and wrote as follows, according to the Kansas City Post: "Am in the market for bids on one operation for appendicitis. One, two or five inch incision—with or without ether—also with or without nurse. If appendix is found to be sound want quotations to include putting same back and cancel order. If removed, successful bidder is expected to hold incision open for about sixty days, as I expect to be in the market for an operation for gall stones at that time and want to save the extra cost of cutting."

MARRIED.

At the Presbyterian Manse, Friday afternoon, October 7th, by Rev. H. W. Lowry, William J. Muldrow and Miss Luella Jackson, were united in marriage. The bride is a niece of J. J. S. Smith, formerly of Eddy county, but now residing in Eddy, Texas, and was a teacher in the public schools of Texas, had also taught in Eddy county and is an educated young woman of much charm of manner. The bridegroom is a cousin of Henry Muldrow, of this city and has many friends here to wish him and his bride the best there is in life. The current joins with its felicitations. Mr. and Mrs. Muldrow have not decided on their future place of residence, but many friends are hoping they may decide to remain among us.

R. B. Knowles of Lakewood was in town most of the week. Mr. Knowles is closing out his affairs as rapidly as possible, but has not yet decided whether he will leave Eddy county, where he has been a resident for years, or whether he will remain here. Since the death of Mrs. Knowles and the consequent breaking up of the home, the young daughter, Georgia, has been with her sister, Mrs. Glenn O'Bannon at Lake Arthur. Arrangements have been made with the school for the blind at Alamogordo, for admission of the youngest son, "Buster" and he will enter that institution the first of November. He is not entirely blind but his eyes are affected to an extent they prevent him from taking up the studies pursued by normal children. Walter the seventeen year old boy, is totally blind and has been attending the school at Alamogordo for a number of years. Mr. Knowles will take the boys over to school in a car, leaving his home in time to get to Alamogordo by the beginning of school. Carlsbad people have long been interested in the welfare of the blind boy and their interest now extends to the other one.

LOCAL NEWS

Charlie Tucker was a business visitor to Roswell Friday and Saturday of last week.

Mrs. Will Craig and daughter, Mary, are spending a while with homefolks in Le Mar, Missouri, leaving for that place last week Thursday night.

Will Purdy of the firm of Purdy and Childress, of Roswell, motored up to that city Monday and spent a couple of days there looking into the business.

Prosecuting Attorney Dillard Wyatt and Henry Puckett, court stenographer for this district, went up to Roswell at the close of the sessions of the grand jury last week and returned Sunday night to be present at the opening of the criminal court which began its labors Monday morning.

E. A. Denton, a brother of Mrs. W. P. Mudgett, came in Friday from an extensive trip, first to Michigan points and also to New Orleans, from where he came to Carlsbad. He left Wednesday for his home at Santa Barbara, California.

JOYCE-PRUITT'S GROCERY DEPARTMENT AT ROSWELL TO BE CLOSED.

The Joyce-Pruitt company this morning announced that it would on Saturday, October 29th, close its retail grocery department for good, after an uninterrupted service to the people of more than twenty years.

"This step has been under contemplation for some time," said A. Pruitt this morning. "The room now taken up by the grocery department is needed by other retail sections of our business, and there is no way in which the building can be added to. Also, the growth of the city and valley has been such that our wholesale business has so expanded that good business principles suggest that we give all of our facilities to it. Naturally, having so many good customers of so many years standing, in our grocery department, we feel much regret in closing this section, but we are convinced that the people will benefit by it in many ways as it will leave us absolutely unhampered in wholesale operations."—Roswell News.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. . . I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too. At all druggists. U 45

ODD FELLOWS RETURN.

Messrs. J. B. Leck, J. F. Flowers, and Victor L. Minter, who attended the sessions of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, at Tucumcari last week returned home Friday morning early and are enthusiastic in their account of the hospitality shown them while at that city. The attendance on the meetings, and of delegates was quite large and all the meetings were helpful to an unusual extent. Mrs. Helie McCord, who represented the local lodge of Rebekahs at their meeting, also speaks in high terms of the treatment shown them. The elections resulted in Clayton being chosen as the next meeting place of the Triple Link brethren. Pecos valley men got a heavy share in the official selections, the new grand lodge officers being:

Grand Master—L. A. Wright of Clovis.

Deputy Grand Master—R. N. Miller, of Hagerman.

Grand Warden—J. B. Leck of Carlsbad.

Grand Secretary—C. B. Smith of Artesia.

Grand Treasurer—J. Newsum of Alamogordo.

Grand Representative—L. E. Burney of Clayton.

The grand encampment chose the following leaders:

Grand Patriarch—E. A. Hanna of Artesia.

Grand Senior Warden—E. P. Carmichael of Roswell.

Grand Junior Warden—C. A. Doty of Roswell.

Grand Scribe—L. F. Burney of Clayton.

Grand Treasurer—C. B. Smith of Artesia.

Grand Representative—J. R. Whitesides of Albuquerque.

Appointive Officers:

J. M. Dougherty, Tucumcari, Grand Chaplain.

A. E. Lindell, Gallup, grand marshal.

Wm. G. Keith, Raton, grand conductor.

Otto Scheer, Albuquerque, grand guardian.

Guy Miner, Des Moines, grand herald.

The Rebecca Assembly which was held at the same time as the Grand Lodge was one of the most successful ever held in the state. Teams from Gallup and Tucumcari put on the floor work and competed for a loving cup that was offered as a prize to the team making the best appearance and having the work done perfectly. Judging was done by points, so many points being allowed for appearance, perfection of the work, etc. At the close of the drills the cup was awarded the Gallup lodge.

The following were elected officers for the coming year:

President, Mrs. Lillian James, of Albuquerque.

Vice-president, Mrs. Hattie Perkins, of Raton.

Warden, Mrs. Edith M. Hurd, of Roswell.

Secretary, Mrs. Mary C. Comstock of Las Vegas.

Treasurer, Mrs. Nora McAllister, of Las Vegas.

Appointive officers:

Mrs. Annie Walker, Alamogordo, grand chaplain.

Mrs. Ida Lindahl, Gallup, grand marshal.

Mrs. Nancy Eager, Tucumcari, grand conductor.

Mrs. Alberta Heald, Farmington, grand guardian.

Mrs. Thilla Dillner, Clovis, grand herald.

GOVERNOR URGES AID FOR GUARDSMEN FOR CAMP ATTENDANCE.

Santa Fe, N. M., Oct. 8.—An appeal to all the citizens of New Mexico to assist the members of the national guard to attend the encampment at Fort Bliss has been issued by Governor Merritt C. Mechem. He says:

"I desire to urge all patriotic citizens of New Mexico to assist members of the national guard in the various communities of the state, to attend the encampment at Fort Bliss, Texas, Oct. 17 to 31, next. I know of nothing that can be of more benefit to our boys, morally and physically than the course of instruction and discipline to be had at this encampment. All expenses will be paid by the government. I trust that citizens who may have in their employ members of the national guard will give them leave of absence from their work and urge them to attend."

CARLSBAD COTTON MOVING.

C. C. Elliott, a Houston cotton buyer, was in the city today, looking into the trade here. Mr. Elliott says that the quality of the valley cotton is proving very attractive to the buyers, of whom a small colony are now in the field. He thinks that there will be from 6,000 to 8,000 bales on the whole slope, and the amount of money this will return will be mighty acceptable. Differing from most cotton men he is strictly against the staple crop idea, claiming that better cotton is raised under diversified farming. — Roswell News.

FEDERAL PETIT JUROR RETURNS.

Oscar Mercer returned Sunday from Santa Fe, where he had been in the service of Uncle Sam as a member of the Federal petit jury. This was Mr. Mercer's first visit to the Ancient City, and he says it is wonderful to one from the valley, the difference in the streets and the style of architecture making the most impression on his mind.

LOCAL NEWS.

Henry Muldrow is on the sick list at his home in South Carlsbad.

J. F. Beatty, the apple man, is sick in bed this week with a bad spell of lumbago, which has caused him great suffering.

Mrs. Inez Harrison and daughter, Virginia, sister-in-law and niece of Dewey Harrison, of this city, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Harrison, from their home at San Angelo, Texas.

After numerous delays M. N. Cunningham left Thursday noon on his trip to Texas points with a carload of fine honey, for which he seeks a market. He expects to remain away from home for six weeks or two months according to the amount of business he does.

The local chapter of the P. E. O. held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. C. C. Lewis, in the Otis section, Wednesday, and a pleasant and profitable day was enjoyed by the entire sisterhood.

The Sophomore class of Carlsbad night at a hay ride which they pulled off and which was attended by almost the entire class. Miss Shepherd and other teachers accompanied the bunch and the trip ended at Avalon where they had a lunch and returned by the light of the moon to their homes in this city, tired but happy and in better trim for their week's work, because of their outing.

The firm of Nelson & Montgomery who run the Service Transfer, has received the contract for hauling the seed from the various cotton gins over the project to the oil mill at Loving, when it is completed. They will put two trucks on the work and begin hauling as soon as arrangements are completed for faking care of the seed.

ART CLASSES.

Miss Effie V. Hart will teach classes in oil, water color and china painting at her home Canyon street. Children's class from 9 to 10 o'clock Saturday mornings—tuition, one dollar per month.

REV. GEORGE H. GIVAN TO CALIFORNIA.

At the recent session of the New Mexico conference, convened at Artois, last week, Rev. Geo. H. Givan pastor of the Methodist church, in this city for four years past, was transferred to the Los Angeles conference and will be stationed at San Bernardino. This city of about 20,000 population is only sixty miles from Los Angeles, and will afford Reverend Givan many more opportunities in his chosen field of labor than a smaller place, and his friends here are congratulating him on his promotion, while they regret to lose him from the town and from the conference. What makes the change the more desirable is the fact that his only surviving son, George, is now employed in a bank at Glendale, California, and will be much nearer his parents than now. A splendid minister and a cultured man, Reverend Givan leaves his field of labor in this conference and this city, with the best wishes of all for a happy and useful home in Sunny California. However, a grave in Carlsbad cemetery, where rests the body of his youngest child, Albert, will make this place seem like home to Mr. and Mrs. Givan for all time to come. They leave soon for Alamogordo, where they will spend a week or so with their daughter, Mrs. Brown, before going on to their destination.

JUBILEE SINGING.

The colored people had a fine congregation of white friends at the Methodist church last Sunday night to hear the jubilee singers who had advertised old plantation songs, etc., for the evening. A good, logical sermon was preached by their regular evangelist, and the songs were listened to with delight by all present, and Southerners, who were familiar with that class of songs, and by people from the North, to whom the songs were new and pleasing. There is a richness and melody about their voices that is most delightful and merited the liberal collection they received at the close of the services.

No grim fate is oppressing you.

Sunday School Lesson

(By Rev. F. C. FLETCHER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 16

PAUL WRITES TO THE CHRISTIANS AT CORINTH.

LESSON TEXT—1 Cor. 13: 11, 12-13. GOLDEN TEXT—And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three, but the greatest of these is charity—1 Cor. 13. REFERENCE MATERIAL—John 13: 34, 35; Rom. 12: 10. PRIMARY TOPIC—How to Show Our Love. JUNIOR TOPIC—What Love Does. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—A Letter to the Church at Corinth. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Some Problems of an Early Church.

I. Party Spirit in the Corinthian Church (1:10, 11).

In this church rival factions were contending against each other. Some were for Paul, some for Apollos, some for Peter, and some for Christ. The cause of this condition was failure to see that the membership composing His body cannot be divided. By one Spirit all were baptized into the one body (12:13).

II. Love the More Excellent Way (1 Cor. 13:1-13).

All of the Spirit's gifts are good, but the most valuable of all is love. Not all can preach or interpret tongues, but all can have the gift of love. Love in this chapter is the more excellent way of chapter 12:31.

(1) The Pre-eminence of Love (vv. 1-3). It transcends (1) speaking with tongues. For men to possess the loftiest eloquence and be lacking in love is to be as booming brass and clanking cymbal.

(2) The gift of prophecy—the ability to unfold mysteries. To be able to penetrate the mysteries of nature and providence is good, but to love is better.

(3) Faith of the most vigorous kind, even such as to remove mountains, is of less value than love.

(4) Philanthropy of the most generous sort, causing one to surrender all earthly goods for the sake of the poor is praiseworthy, but unless actuated by love is valueless before God. (5) Heroic devotion which leads to martyrdom is profitless unless backed by love.

2. The Attributes of Love (vv. 4-7).

(1) It is long-suffering and kind. (2) It is free from envy. Those who love are entirely free from the spirit engendered because of the superior worth and success of others.

(3) It is free from boasting and vanity. Love strives to do good to all and is not careful to seek their admiration and applause.

(4) It is courteous. Love is always polite and mannerly; knows how to behave at all times.

(5) It is unselfish. It is always seeking the good of others and is forgetful of self.

(6) It does not give way to passion. It does not allow itself to be aroused to resentment. It is not quick tempered.

(7) It takes no delight in evil; does not impute evil motives to others; is not suspicious. It is forgiving. Love has no sympathy with that which is evil, but sympathizes with that which is true; has a common joy with it.

(8) It beareth all things. It wraps itself in the gracious mantle of love and shuts all evil out.

(9) Love is truthful; it looks into the future with confidence.

(10) Love is hopeful; it seizes the things of the future and brings them into the present, appropriating them for its use.

(11) Love is firm. It is free from vacillation. It intelligently sets its attention to things that are right and with unvarying strength holds fast.

3. The Permanence of Love (vv. 8-13). (1) It outlasts prophecy. Prophecy in the Scriptures means both a foretelling of events and the teaching of the Word of God. Prophecy as prediction shall be fulfilled; prophecy as teaching shall be brought to an end in that day when teaching is not needed (Heb. 8:11; Jer. 31:34).

(2) It outlasts speaking with tongues. The race once spoke the same language, but as a judgment for sin and rebellion God brought confusion and caused the people to speak many tongues. The day is coming when the redemption wrought by Jesus Christ shall have been accomplished in all its fullness; all nations shall be brought back to one tongue.

(3) It outlasts knowledge. The knowledge we now have is only relative, but the day is coming when this relative knowledge shall be done away by the coming in of a wider and nobler intelligence; for at Christ's coming we shall see Him face to face and shall be like Him. Love will always abide, for God is love.

The Search for God. The search of men for God has been an age-long search, throughout the centuries men have groped in darkness with the cry, "Show us God," the deepest hunger of the heart, and the deepest perplexity of the mind. When Phillips Brooks was called in to give some religious instruction to Helen Keller, spending her life in darkness and isolation, she greeted him with one sentence slowly spelled out. "Please tell me something that you know about God."—Westway Christian Advocate.

Farm Talk No. 12

The Southwestern Bankers' Journal in their August Number claim that eighty to ninety per cent of cotton farmers owe money, and are asking for extensions of time, while the dairy farmers in almost every case are not only ENTIRELY FREE FROM DEBT, but have bank accounts.

Think this over, and see if you wont agree with us that you should have cows, hogs, chickens, etc., to feed your family and bring in weekly expense checks, and save your cotton crop for a money crop to be paid on your farm—or used in buying a farm—or to deposit in the banks or invest in safe securities.

NOTICE.

Mrs. Dilley and Mrs. Walter Craft will be in the room formerly occupied by the county agent in the old part of the court house next Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, and request contributions of used clothing for which there is a great demand at this time. The garments should be delivered as the ladies are not able at this time to collect them. Mrs. Dilley having no car at her disposal and Mrs. Craft not having the use of hers at all times. Besides there is no justice in expecting these ladies to collect in addition to all their other charitable work. So let each one look over their store of used or cast off clothing and send or bring it to the place above named at the time mentioned. The days are getting cold and there are many demands for help from our own people in need, and remember the old saying, "He who gives quickly, gives twice."

Judge "Jim" McHugh, formerly of Carlsbad now living in the Magie City, Clovis, is down from there this week attending court.

GATES TIRES

Made in the West by American Workmen

OBVIOUS, ISN'T IT—

The miles you get out of a tire depend upon the miles that are built into it.

That's why the tread is so important. It is this rubber tread that has to take all the road wear and keep the bumps away from the inside fabric.

Obvious, then, isn't it, that a tire with a wider and thicker tread should wear longer. It does. That's the one big secret back of the Gates Super-Tread Tire.

C. J. WALTER,

What should the right clothing and furnishing goods store do for you?

It should give you good merchandise;
quality should be the chief consideration.

It should give you the lowest possible
price for good quality.

It should give you pleasant, willing service; it should be more eager to give than to get; a service that seeks your best interest.

It should give your money back if you're not satisfied.

we're pretty sure we're

DIED AT SANITARIUM.

Dock Shipley, a sufferer from tuberculosis, and a resident of Carlsbad, for the past year, died at the Sisters Sanitarium yesterday morning at four o'clock and was buried this morning at nine, after services conducted by his pastor, Reverend Givan.

Mr. Shipley was an ex-service man and met the King of Terrors like a brave soldier—without fear. He had made many preparations in view of his expected demise, which were carried out as he requested. His parents, a brother and a sister, Mrs. Carpenter of Artesia, were with him when the end came.

In compliance with his request, his comrades of the Legion acted as pall bearers tenderly conveying the wasted body of their comrade to his last resting place. They were Captain Fred West, Rude Wilcox, Frank Kindel, Wilmer White, Paul Mahu and Robert Finlay.

The deceased was 28 years and 4 months of age and unmarried. He made many friends here by his many admirable traits of character, and many will sincerely mourn his death, at the same time rejoicing that he has "fought a good fight, finished his course and that henceforth there is laid up for him a crown of rejoicing."

A LESSON OF THE TIMES

The man who makes ten thousand dollars a year and spends eleven thousand is not getting along as well as the man who makes six hundred and spends only five hundred.

This is true of flush times as well as of dull times. During the past few months many of us have had to live hard. Many of us have had to practice the most rigid economy.

If we have learned the lesson of it— if we have learned to spend less than we make—we will profit all the more when the good times come again, as they surely will before long.

HAY TRADE CONDITIONS OF THE WEEK.

Eastern markets are showing more strength owing to the small amount of hay offered and values have gradually increased under an active demand. Timothy of good quality is very scarce in all markets and the value of this description is very strong. Where the receipts have been light, the Western markets are steady but the demand is not great and confined mostly to local needs. Southern markets show little activity. Stocks are light but demand is small.—Hay Trade Journal.

LAKEWOOD LOCALS.

A large majority of Lakewood people are attending court at Carlsbad this week, and the village is exceedingly quiet; men about town are few indeed. There is old Frank Dauron at the bank, old man Stroud in the store, old Charlie Barber at the garage, old Cal Crozier at the cannery, old Jim Wood in the post-office and old man Bales at the depot; that about all the men in town.

W. B. Kohl, an ex-soldier, who has been living here for sometime, took Mrs. Kohl, who was formerly Miss Susie Larremore, to Carlsbad one day last week where he placed her with friends and went to Albuquerque, seeking a higher altitude; he has lung trouble, and found it too low here to be beneficial to his health.

Miss Clara Scott, who has been visiting with relatives and friends in Texas for some months, returned to her home here Wednesday. Whichever Angel, who has been caring for some cattle near Canadian, Texas, for some time, returned to Lakewood one day last week.

Agent E. E. Bales has purchased a farm in Kansas, and is making arrangements to move to it some time in the near future.

County Superintendent, Geo. M. Brinton, of Carlsbad, was an all-day visitor to our school Thursday.

The many friends of Mrs. John Angel, who has been sick with typhoid fever at her home in Vaughn, New Mexico, will be glad to learn that she is improving. John Angel and family recently moved from here to Vaughn.

Mrs. J. H. Baker, who has not been in good health for some time, is at Carlsbad taking special treatment. Late reports from her indicate that she is not improving as her friends wish, and she may have to be taken to a specialist for further treatment.

Mrs. H. E. Garber, who has been sick with fever for a week or ten days, we are glad to report is improving at this writing.

Mrs. M. C. Lee, son Dwight, and daughter, Miss Bernice, visited with friends at Carlsbad Saturday.

Just as we were patting ourselves on the back for being the banner Democratic community in the county we having cast 62 votes against 16 the report from Queen showing a full Democratic tally sheet, with no opposition whatever; therefore we take off our hat to Queen.

Prof. Ted Blackmore and company gave two entertainments at the school auditorium this week and while they were not very well attended were both educational and entertaining. Prof. Blackmore is a lightning mathematician, and gave very satisfactory demonstrations of his method.

NOTICE.—Mrs. Nannie Fletcher has taken over the management of the Metropolitan Hotel, which she has had remodeled and put in first-class shape, and which is strictly sanitary and up-to-date. She solicits a share of the patronage of the people. Good meals served.

HAUL ON UNIMPROVED ROADS

Average Cost Per Ton Mile Estimated at 22.7 Cents—Average Haul Was 5.4 Miles.

In 1906 the bureau of statistics of the department of agriculture deduced an average cost per ton mile of 22.7 cents based upon replies from inquiries sent to about 2,900 county correspondents. The average haul reported was 5.4 miles. Since at this time less than 5 per cent of the roads in this country were improved, these figures indicate the average cost of hauling on unimproved roads.

FARMERS' "MUD TAX" HEAVY

Slogan Adopted by Good Roads Advocates of Alabama in Campaign for Needed Funds.

"The heaviest tax the farmer pays is 1 1/2 mud tax."

This is the slogan adopted by the good roads advocates of Alabama in their campaigns to put across a 12-year $50,000,000 road-building program. The farmers were shown that good roads would benefit them in a dollar-and-cents way, besides bringing them many advantages which they never had before.

Like the Balty Mule.

Like the balky mule, the almighty dollar refuses to move where mud and mire constitute the road from field to farm and from farm to market.

Farm Values Doubled.

In many communities farm values have almost doubled when roads have been improved.

Everything Better.

Better schools and better roads mean better farms and better farmers.

PUT TURKEYS IN CONDITION

Fowls Should Not Be Confined Except for Short Period Just Before Marketing.

Turkeys ought not to be confined for any length of time just for a short time prior to marketing. If fed liberally while they have a free run, they can be kept in condition for marketing within ten days.
