Lawrence, Venus; John C. Hand, Rutherford, Tenn.; Mignola de Medina, Chapelle; Gregoria Mora, Espanola; Vicente Doran, Maxwell; Lorenzo R. Medina, Wagon Mound; W. C. New Special Agent.
Leroy O. Moore, chief of the field division of the U. S. land office, announced today that H. S. Foreman of Little Rock, Arkansas, has been appointed special agent in this district. Another appointment will likely be made in the near future.

Seeks Admission.
The Southern Benevolent League, a fraternal insurance company of Houston, Texas, has applied for admission to transact insurance business in New Mexico.

Back From Las Vegas.

Governor Mills and Adjutant General Brookes have returned from Las Vegas where they spent Saturday and Sunday. The governor went on a hunting trip and the adjutant general went to inspect the guard. Mr. Brookes said that the inspection was very satisfactory.

Guard Inspection.

Companies E and F of the New Mexico National Guard stationed here will be inspected Monday April 3 and the boys are drilling now with a fervor and enthusiasm that shows a good inspection is to be the result.

Appointed Notary.

Governor Mills has appointed John H. Hill, Jr., of Clovis, Curry county, a notary public.

Incorporation.

Articles of incorporation filed in the territorial secretary's office indicate that the famous rough rider, "Major" W. H. H. Llewellyn has gone into the dairy business. The new company is the David Dairy Company, and is incorporated at Las Cruces, at $10,000, consisting of 10,000 shares at $1 each, the stockholders and directors being Laura V. Davis, 9,980 shares; Benjamin W. Davis, 10 shares; and William H. H. Llewellyn, 10 shares. Perhaps Major Llewellyn will emulate the example of a famous Massachusetts senator and treat all of his political friends to butter milk when they visit him in Las Cruces.

Seeks Buried Treasure.

Former Governor Otero has received the following interesting letter from a Texas lady asking him to assist her in uncovering a buried treasure:

Rio Vista, Texas, March 8, 1911.

Mr. Miguel A. Otero.

Dear Sir—In regards to you, will say I am a stranger to you and again you may have heard of the name.

My parents were of the same blood. My father and mother are both dead.

Their names were Sandoval. I was raised by white people. A man by the name of Horsey, Mexican Horsey he was called by all that knew him.

Said that he and my father worked together on a ranch on which I was born and told me my father said he had buried a sum for me. Horsey said he never showed him where he had buried it, though it was on that ranch where he died. I ask you for your kind favor to tell me how I may find the same, it will be appreciated in life and you will receive your pay.

My father's name was Andrew Sandoval, his brother I did not know.

Uncle Horsey said he had. Uncle Horsey and him came to this country together I suppose he did not say, though he said he and my father split rails on this ranch, Kennard's ranch, which is six miles east of me.

So I will close asking you for your favor at an early date. I remain yours in blood, if you ever come to Texas at Rio Vista, inquire there for Poloner Sewell or R. S. Sewell. You will be welcome.

Yours truly,

MRS. POLONER SEWELL.

R. R. 1 B. 71.

Letter From Mr. Clark.

Chief Clerk Rupert F. Asplund of the department of education has received an interesting letter from Superintendent J. E. Clark describing his tour, in San Miguel county, Mr. Clark says in the letter, written, March 23:

"Our first stop was at La Cueva, where I found Mrs. Winn in charge of a large school in a small room. La Cueva valley is prosperous and beautiful. The board of school directors will build a school house at a central point this coming summer. At noon we arrived at Mora. After dinner we went immediately to the school house where we found Sisters Ludgers, Dorloritas and Louise teaching 150 pupils. The rooms are exceptionally neat, prettily decorated and well equipped.

The sisters are doing excellent work. I want to mention especially

STARVATION IN MEXICO

Grim Hunger Stalks Through States of Chihuahua and Sonora

MADERO IS ENTHUSIASTIC

Revolution Will Not Cease Until Diaz Steps Down and Out

El Paso, Texas, March 27.—The couriers who left Madero's camp several days ago when the insurrecto leader about 60 miles north of Chihuahua city, reported to the junta today that Madero is enthusiastic over the condition of the insurrectos. At that time Madero had not heard of the resignation of the Diaz cabinet. He had repeated his declaration that the revolution will not cease until Diaz has been replaced and reforms have been accomplished other than those promised. From the interior of northern Mexico come reports of suffering among non-combatants growing worse. The order of the insurrectos that no food be taken into the small towns from the surrounding country puts them practically under siege.

Reyes Bound for Paris.
Modena, Italy, March 27.—General Bernardo Reyes, who is mentioned as likely to return to his former post as Mexican minister of war in the cabinet of President Diaz, left here today for Paris. He said he expected that the new cabinet would be formed before he reached the French capital.

A Two Days' Hike.

San Diego, Calif., March 27.—A practice march for 1,500 soldiers under his command is to be undertaken by General Bliss tomorrow. The "hike" will consume about two days.

Uncle Sam Knows His Business.

San Antonio, Texas, March 27.—Many kinds of stories have floated about relative to the real intent of the mobilization of the United States troops at Fort Sam Houston. News paper correspondents here have figured out all kinds of reasons for the presence of the army from immediate intervention in Mexico to a suggestion to Japan that she had better go easy. But that Uncle Sam knows his business and really what he wanted to do with the army came to the surface when two regiments in full marching equipment plodded out through roads made muddy by the rain the night previous to the maneuver ground at Leon Springs, there to begin a series of maneuvers which will be participated in by all the commands in the next two months. The fact is now clear that Uncle Sam knows his business.

Changes in Cabinet Slate.

Mexico City, Mex., March 27.—The impression is growing today that some changes are to be made in the proposed new cabinet. The official announcement will be made late this afternoon by the sub-secretary of state, who has been in conference with President Diaz since early this morning. For secretary of the interior, the chances are said to favor Senor Don Teodoro de Heza, now governor of the state of Vera Cruz. De Heza was a candidate for vice president on the Reyes ticket at the last general election.

Federal Re-Inforcements.

Tecate, Mex., March 27.—A hundred federalists in command of Captain Dasque, arrived here today from Ensenada. The force has one machine gun. The federal force in the valley now numbers 200. The scouring parties have failed to find a trace of any insurrectos within 15 miles.

SCANDAL EXPOSED IN BRITISH HIGH LIFE.

Plaintiff Who Sued for Slander Loses Out Because of Lord Derby's Defective Memory.

London, Eng., March 27.—The suit brought by the wealthy young Baron Arnold de Forest against his mother-in-law, Lady Mary Gerard, and the latter's brother, Henry Milner, for slander, collapsed suddenly today when Lord Derby, to whom the slanders were alleged to have been confided, swore on the stand he had no recollection of the matter. Judgment was thereupon returned against Arnold de Forest, plaintiff. De Forest married Miss Gerard, who inherited most of the fortune of the late Baron Hirsch. According to complaint, she ran away from her home in company with Lieutenant Ashton of the Second Life Guards. Plaintiff alleged that the conduct of his wife was approved by defendants in utterances reflecting upon him.

PHYSICIAN AND HIS CHILDREN BURNED.

Frightful Tragedy at Aurora, Missouri, in Which Home Was Destroyed By Flames.

Aurora, Mo., March 27.—Dr. D. E. Morris, a prominent physician and father of his children, were burned to death early today in a fire that destroyed the Morris home near here.

NO MATERIAL CHANGE IN SENATORIAL SITUATION.

Denver, Colo., March 27.—Lieutenant Governor Fitzgerald received two votes in today's senatorial vote. Otherwise, the ballot showed no material change.

SKY SCRAPERS MUST GO

Terrific Holocaust in New York Was Caused by Cigaret Stump

RIGID INVESTIGATION ORDERED

Death Proof and Not Only Fire-Proof Buildings Is Latest Slogan.

New York, March 27.—Eighty-six bodies of the hundred and forty-one victims in the ten story loft building on Washington Place on Saturday have been identified. Sixteen of the bodies were men. District Attorney Whitman started an official investigation to fix the responsibility for the horror. The building department has been called upon for a report on the burned building and every other department in any way concerned will be required to make a detailed report. It is now definitely known that the fire started on the eighth floor under the cutting table on a scrap heap and is thought to have been started by a cigarette.

Great crowds assembled at the morgue this morning to view the bodies, fifty-two in all. At least half of the corpses were unrecognizable and only a small trinket or shred of clothing will help to show who the unfortunates were. Some bodies never will be claimed. The fact that there was only one fire escape on the building will be rigidly investigated. Relief contributions are pouring in. They are headed by Mayor Gaynor with a hundred dollars. In midst of all this comes the ominous declaration of Fire Chief Croker. "Give us not merely fire-proof but death proof buildings." This is the slogan started by him and which bids fair to become a municipal issue. "I do not hesitate to say that more appalling loss of life in the office buildings and big stores is likely to come upon New York at any moment, because of the lack of safeguards." Fire insurance men are inclined to urge a complete revision of the New York building laws, and the limiting of the height of all buildings and even tearing down the existing sky-scrapers is recommended. Four or five stories should be the legal maximum where manufacturing or industrial pursuits are followed.

Gruesome Scenes.

A signet ring, found clinging to a shred of flesh on a little girl's finger, made identification possible where all other means would have failed. A man who had stood in line six hours wandered aimlessly among the bodies seeking his missing daughters until with a groan he identified a heap of charred clothing as their garments. He collapsed and sought to kill himself but the police prevented him, and he continued the search for his wife, also missing.

A pale girl bent over a misshapen mass long and doubtfully. Then with a final effort she grasped a hand which protruded from beneath the canvas, and with a shriek collapsed. The blackened mass she sobbed, had been her sweetheart, to whom she had become engaged the night before the disaster. A ring on his finger told her of his identity. She asked if the dead man had had a watch. They brought it to her, she opened it and gazed at her own portrait.

Twenty Sicilian women became hysterical upon recognizing their kin in the pine coffins. A man whose face was marked by a scar of flames found his brother among the dead. The two had worked side by side pouring water upon the fire. A cutter identified his dead sweetheart by their engagement ring and her purse. It contained her week's wages, three dollars.

The bodies of two sisters, horribly mangled, sat propped up in their coffins while a sobbing brother left them to search for his aged mother, who also had perished. The fire had left him without a relative.

Picked up by a fireman on the eighth floor, a blackened hand still clenched a pitiful purse in its grasp. They tried the fingers away and released the bag. It contained a small sum of money, keys and a receipt made out to A. S. Cimmels. A young man found his sweetheart burned and blackened, and fell across the coffins in a faint.

Sobbing women became so hysterical that an improvised hospital ward was fitted up on the pier, manned by nurses from Bellevue hospital. Hysteria ran riot and nurses were busy tending those who collapsed.

All day there rumbled a steady stream of dead wagons along the approach to the pier taking away those that had been claimed. The air went stale with an odor of burnt flesh and for a time the pier was cleared, during the brief recess, heavyvoiced attendants rearranged the baskets of personal effects belonging to the victims. There were more than $4,500 in cash in the pockets and purses of the dead. One woman had $800 in her stocking.

Hospital doors were stormed by hundreds during the day and night. A cutter, (whose sister worked a few feet away from him in the doomed factory, inquired for her every half hour at St. Vincent hospital. She died between his visits and he became so violent that the police had to restrain him. He and she had planned to welcome their aged parents from Russia to the new world this week. The parents are on the sea now.

A woman and a girl who lay dying side by side whispered to sympathetic nurses their stories of the disaster, rushing their words in a rapid stream, as though death would check the recital. The girl died murmuring her gruesome tale, the woman lingered, became delirious and begged the nurses to release her.

"Why am I here? What have I done?" she murmured as she sank back into a troubled sleep which the surgeons said would be her last.

HOPI CHIEF VISITS TAFT

Asks That Schools Be Abolished and Teachers Taken Away

WANT TO BE LEFT ALONE

Prefers to Roam Free Without White Man's Intermeddling at Moki.

Washington, D. C., March 27.—Chief Yukeoma, a thin, dried-up looking little Hopi Indian from the Mogul reservation, Arizona, near the New Mexico boundary, clad in trappings of his tribe, and stubbornly protesting against the march of civilization, appeared at the White House today, and made a plea to President Taft on behalf of himself and several hundred tribesmen, to be left alone. The aged little Indian's speech was interpreted as follows:

"Oh, Great White Father, my people want to live as in days of old before the pale-face took from us the land that was ours. We don't want schools and school-teachers. We want to be let alone and live as we wish, to roam free without the white men always there to tell us what we can do and what we cannot do."

Yukeoma's beady little black eyes were sadder than ever when he left the White House, for the President told him that the schools could not be abolished and that teachers must continue to do their work on the reservation.

MUST PAY BACK MILLION

New York Importers Found Guilty of Undervaluing Art Objects.

WERE FINED $10,000 EACH

Will Compromise Other Pending Suit by Payment of $1,200,000.

New York, March 27.—Louis J. Duveen and Joseph Duveen, art importers, plead guilty today to charges of conspiracy to defraud the government in marking under-valuations of imports of art objects. They were fined $10,000 each.

Must Refund Over a Million.

New York, N. Y., March 27.—It is stated that the government's suit for $5,000,000 against the firm for alleged underpaid duties will be compromised by the payment of $1,200,000, cash.

OKLAHOMA TOWN MECCA OF PRIZE FIGHTERS.

Sapulpa Will Tomorrow Witness Fifteen Round Go Between Noted Pugilists.

Sapulpa, Okla., March 27.—Sapulpa is today alive with the ring followers here to attend tomorrow's fifteen round fight between Mike Schreck of Cincinnati, O., and Carl Morris of Sapulpa, Oklahoma, the "white man's hope." Both men concluded training today. "I'll win!" said Morris. Schreck says the big fellow "has a chance" but that's all.

With prices high enough for a championship fight, more than half of the arena seats already sold, indications are that 12,000 paid admissions will be received before the gates are opened.

FIRST BALE OF COTTON ON MARKET.

Keen Rivalry Among Settlements on Lower Rio Grande for That Honor.

San Benito, Texas, March 27.—Last summer the town of Mercedes was the first in the state to ship a bale of cotton. This year, however, a number of towns in the lower Rio Grande valley are making an effort to put the first bale on the market. Mission, San Benito, Harlingen, McAllen, Donna, and Olmito will each endeavor to be first to the market centers with a bale. The condition of the crop near the various places named indicates a close finish in this unusual race and there is every assurance that early in June will see bales shipped out from each of these.

NO PARDON FOR BANKERS MORSE AND WALSH.

Attorney General Wickersham Makes Adverse Recommendation Which Taft Will Follow.

Washington, D. C., March 27.—From sources close to the president, it was learned today that the pardon appeals of Bankers Charles W. Morse of New York, and John R. Walsh of Chicago, undoubtedly will be denied. It is stated that the attorney general's recommendation in both cases is adverse.

MADE TRIP TO SANTA FE IN TWELVE HOURS.

A party of motorists, consisting of W. L. Trimble, Simon Schloss, J. L. Ladriere, Joe Barnett and M. L. Stern, traveling in Barnett's big Pierce Arrow car, made a record breaking trip between Albuquerque and Santa Fe yesterday. The start was made at 8:30 yesterday morning and the car drove up in Albuquerque on the return trip at 8:20 last night. Lunch was taken at the foot of La Bajada hill, near Domingo, dinner was taken in Santa Fe, where a stop of two hours was made, and supper was taken with Peter Guillon in Bernalillo. The travelers report that the road from Algodones north is in excellent shape, but gradually grows worse as it approaches Albuquerque.—Albuquerque Journal.

JUBILEE OF ITALIAN UNITY

Celebration Begun With Great Fervor Today in Rome and Turin

OFFENSIVE TO HOLY SEE

Disorderly Persons Attempted to Attack the Vatican But Were Repulsed.

Rome, Italy, March 27.—The celebration of the jubilee of Italian unity began today, with the formal opening by King Victor Emmanuel of the International Art Exhibition. On Wednesday the industrial exhibition will begin at Turin, where in 1861, Victor Emmanuel II, grandfather of the present monarch, assumed the title of king of Italy. Since midnight, bands have been playing patriotic airs, the principal streets are bright with lights and gay with decorations and great crowds filled the squares shouting "Viva Roma." The celebration is offensive to the Holy See and some of the less orderly attempted to approach the Vatican. They were turned back by a strong detachment of police.

WORK, STUDY, SLEEP AND RECREATION

Day to Be Divided Into Three Eight Hour Periods for Those Purposes.

Olympia, Wash., March 27.—Eight hours for work, eight hours for sleep and eight hours for study and recreation, is the new order of things that may be worked out in the state of Washington when the woman's labor law becomes effective on June 9. The new regulation, adopted by the legislature at its last session, provides that no woman or girl employed in mercantile establishment, office, laundry, hotel or restaurant shall be permitted to work more than eight hours a day. The penalty is a fine of from $10 to $100 for each violation. Several manufacturing plants in Spokane have already worked out plans by which the eight hour day will go into effect early in April, thus giving employment to from 15 to 20 per cent more women than formerly. The laundry men are not satisfied and are preparing to make a test case. The eight hour rule has been observed in business offices several years, but the hotels and restaurants are working on a basis of 11 and 12 hours. Three thousand women in Spokane are affected by the change.

DOUBLE MURDER ON PLAINS NEAR KENNA.

Thomas and Edward Hall, Cowboys Shot and Killed—William Zumwalt Accused of Crime.

Kenna, N. M., March 27.—Three miles north of Kenna, Chaves county, on Saturday, Tom and Ed Hall, brothers, cowmen and owners of small cattle ranches in the vicinity, were shot and killed. William Zumwalt, also a cowboy of the locality, has given himself up and admitted that he did the shooting. Zumwalt was taken to Roswell today. He refused to make any statement regarding the tragedy the only other living witness of which is a small boy. According to the lad, all the men were on horseback when the shooting began. After the smoke cleared away, one of the Hall boys was found on the ground, where he fell from his horse, a six shooter, with five empty shells having dropped from his hand. Another six shooter, that had not been fired was found beside the other Hall, indicating, apparently, that he had met death early during the fray. The tragedy was the culmination of a dispute over cattle. It is supposed that the Halls and Zumwalt met on the prairie, renewed their quarrel and the gun fight followed.

MAGAZINES TO BE CARRIED BY FAST FREIGHT TRAINS.

Washington, March 27.—Magazines and other bulky periodicals after July 1 next will be transported by the postoffice department in carload lots as fast freight.

Postmaster General Hitchcock is developing as rapidly as possible plans to utilize fast freight in the transportation of magazines when practicable and in instances where a saving to the government in transportation charges may be effected.

STUDY THE BIBLE IN SCHOOLS, ADVISES ROOSEVELT.

Berkeley, Calif., March 27.—Delivering the third of his series of lectures at the Greek theater of the University of California here yesterday on "The Bible and the Life of the People," Colonel Theodore Roosevelt declared the bible should be as much a subject of study in the secular colleges of the country as in seminaries, and urged the study of it by all persons as a guide to conduct.

BLAME IT ON BRICE

He's the Fellow That Started the Canadian Reciprocity Movement

ALSO FIXED MEXICO AFFAIR

Absurd Contentions of Government Opposition in House of Commons.

London, Eng., March 27.—The group in the House of Commons who have persistently heckled the government regarding Ambassador Brice's connection with the American-Canadian reciprocity negotiations, are now trying to involve the British diplomat in the Mexican situation. Today these members invited the foreign office to instruct Mr. Brice to urge on President Taft the desirability of submitting the "Mexican question" to arbitration. Secretary Grey's reply was: "I do not know to what question you are alluding. The relations of the United States and the Mexican governments, according to my most recent information are quite friendly."

TEXAS LIKE NEW MEXICO HAS MINERAL SPRINGS.

They Are Numerous and Valuable and Will in Time Attract Many Invalids.

Houston, Texas, March 27.—The geological survey of Texas, while revealing the vast mineral possibilities, the range running from potter's clay in various varieties to the more costly metals, also shows many valuable mineral waters, some of them having all the medicinal qualities of the famous flows of Europe. Near San Antonio are two artesian flows of sulphur water found to be as highly curative for rheumatism and nervous diseases as that of the most famous springs of the world. The temperature of these is 104 Fahrenheit, and so heavily impregnated with gases that the odor is perceptible at several hundred yards. About each of these great flows bath houses have been erected and thousands who have come here on crutches have gone away entirely cured. But these are only two of the famous waters of the state. Burdette splits, which has been used for two years in a general way, but 20 years or more by those who have been fortunate enough to obtain it, is quite as famous for stomach and other troubles as the renowned waters from a number of European wells. At Sutherland Springs, 30 miles southeast of this city, is a great flow of four distinctive waters, each showing a wide difference from the others by chemical analysis. Some of these flows are warm and others are cold. In the Pecos valley are a number of mineral springs, two of these said to possess the same qualities as the famous Crab Orchard spring of Kentucky and at Epsom, twenty miles or more south of Fairbury in the northeast corner of Starr county is a large bog of mineral water which produces vast fields of salt by natural evaporation. Geologists who have examined this pronounce it one of the most remarkable water deposits on the continent. While it is recognized by many as a lake, it is in fact a kind of bog containing several square miles. Underlying the shallow water in many places are vast strata of salt formation which, it is believed, when that section is put in touch with transportation will prove highly profitable.

Verdict of $146.05.

Shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon the jury returned a verdict of $146.05 for the plaintiff.

It is understood that the Western Union company will take an appeal.

To Mandamus Auditor.

Dr. C. F. Lukens, head of the Children's Home of Albuquerque is in the city to mandamus the territorial auditor to have him raise a levy sufficient to pay $5,000 for the use of the Children's Home Society for its 63d fiscal year. The auditor has refused to make the levy contending that by the language in the appropriation act, the Children's Home is not entitled to further aid, a levy having been made in the 61st and 62d years. The act says, "providing this society shall at no time in the future call on the territory for any further appropriation of any kind or character." This matter was submitted this afternoon to Judge McFie, now presiding over the district court.

Mandamus Is Allowed.

Judge McFie allowed the mandamus which means that the territorial auditor will have to pay $5,000 to the Children's Home every year until the legislature meets.

EACH CAT MUST WEAR BELL IN FUTURE.

That is if Legislation Advocated By Mrs. J. D. Murphy of Spokane, is Passed.

Spokane, Wash., March 27.—Mrs. J. D. Murphy, living at 1827 East Riverside avenue, is advocating a movement in Spokane that all owners of cats provide their pets with bells in the interest of preserving the birds of song, which are now coming back to their haunts for the summer. Mrs. Murphy has interested a large number of club and society women in her campaign and it is likely that a "bell on cat" society will be organized to take charge of the work. The plan is to attach a small bell with a strap or ribbon on the neck of every cat in the city and suburbs, the argument being that if it were made a custom generally there would be more birds in Spokane. No mention has been made so far of the tinkling at midnight serenades by Thomas and his backyard acquaintances, but it is no wild guess at this time to say that some one may organize a crusade to not only put the bells out of commission but also exterminate the wearers. The theory advanced is that this method would make doubly sure of protecting the birds for all time, and incidentally also of mice.

TELEGRAM CASE IS IN COURT

To Whom Must Telegraph Company Deliver a Message? Is Question

WESTERN UNION IS SUED

R. E. Johnson Wants $500 Damages Because He Lost Government Job.

Does a telegraph company fulfill its contract when it delivers a telegram as addressed by the sender, or does the agent have to transmit it to some new address, if such address is left at the office?

This and other questions were involved in the suit brought by R. E. Johnson against the Western Union Telegraph Company asking $500 damages for their alleged failure to deliver him a message in April, 1908, declaring that such failure cost him an $800 a year government job.

The suit was brought in the district court here before Judge McFie and went to the jury this afternoon. It excited unusual interest because of the importance the public generally attaches to the delivery of telegrams and the many difficulties the telegraph companies find in delivering them.

The telegram in question was sent to Mr. Johnson and marked Claire hotel, Santa Fe. It is said that it was delivered peacefully on the desk of the clerk of the Claire hotel for a week. Mr. Johnson swore that he left an address for the message to be sent instead of the Claire, to a house on Johnson street in this city.

But equally emphatic was Mrs. Plunkett, wife of the present Western Union telegraph operator who is out of town, that no such address was on any record book or slips in the Western Union's office here.

Colonel E. W. Dobson of Albuquerque represented the Western Union Company and Colonel George W. Prichard the plaintiff.

Colonel Dobson, in his argument, admitted the duty a telegraph company has in delivering messages, but said that in this case the Western Union had fulfilled its obligation by sending the message to Mr. Johnson at the Claire hotel with it had been addressed by the sender, a government official. He contended that if the message had been simply addressed R. E. Johnson, Santa Fe, it would have devolved on the company to hunt Mr. Johnson up and give him

THE DAILY ROUND UP.

To the Mocking Bird at the Approach of Spring.
(By E. McQueen Gray of the University of New Mexico.)
Take up thy trembling song,
O, mocking bird, again;
The tuncless winter long
Hath held thee in his chain;
Take up thy song again and prove
To all the listening earth
Thou art the acolyte of love
And minister of mirth.

Take up thy silver lute,
O, troubadour of joy;
While thou remainest mute
The feathered choir are coy;
Take up the lute once more and sing
That all the birds may hear
Thy herald voice: "Let everything Rejoice, the spring is near!"

Hark to the slender notes,
Most delicate, most clear,
Mark how the cadence glows
And fades upon the ear;
So tremulous, as if at first
The scarce remembered strain
Escapes thee yet and must be nursed
To harmony again.

Impassioned from the string
Thy melodies arise;
Alloft on beating wing
The mounting music flies;
It soars above the gullied hills,
It sweeps across the plain,
The slumbering mesa wakes and thrills
With budding life again.

Expiring Winter hears
That melody sublime;
It stirs the dreaming years
Within the house of Time;
The ghosts of by-gone hours that lie
Pale prisoners of night
Are moved to echo with a sigh
That message of delight.

Priest's Advice Led to Their Recovery

"Thin, weak, or frail people—those who "take cold easily" and sufferers of Bronchitis and Asthma, should be prepared with Eekman's Alternative in the house.
Remarkable cures of even Tuberculosis (Consumptive) persons are often accomplished. Here are two instances:— Gentlemen: "On June 3, 1907, I was operated upon for Tubercular Peritonitis at St. Mary's Hospital, Rochester, N. Y.
After the operation my physicians gave me up. I was then urged by a priest to take Eekman's Alternative, which I did.
My weight at the time was 72 lbs. I began to improve and steadily gained in health and strength. I now weigh 125
lbs. and am absolutely cured."
(Signed Affidavit) EDNA FINZER,
90 Savannah St., Rochester, N. Y.
Gentlemen: "I was troubled with Asthma and Bronchitis for seventeen years. After trying many remedies, Eekman's Alternative was recommended to me by our Parish Priest. I am now feeling fine. I cannot praise it enough."
(Signed Affidavit) Anna Mae McEntee, Lancaster, Pa.
Eekman's Alternative cures Bronchitis,
Asthma and Bronchitis for seventeen years. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to the Eekman Laboratory,
Philadelphia, Pa. for additional evidence.

A Texico Girl's Romance—Miss Cleo
Lucas of Texico, daughter of Daniel Lucas, who holds down a homestead near Texico, Curry county, and also works in the Santa Fe shops at Clovis, was married at Chattanooga, Tennessee, to Dr. John W. Sherman, indicted for murder. The prison authorities sought to frustrate the marriage, but the girl disguised herself as a negro boy, went down the alley to the jail, placed a ladder against the wall, mounted to the cell of the man under indictment for murder, and was married to him, the justice of the peace having previously gained admission to the corridor of the jail to repeat the ceremony in front of the groom's cell.
The young lady who married the man who is facing the gallows is a beautiful blond. Sherman is one of the best known young men in Chattanooga and the man killed was widely known. The prominence of all concerned in the tragedy makes the whole occurrence extremely sensational.

RESULTS THAT REMAIN

Are Appreciated by Santa Fe People.

ache and kidney complaint have tried one remedy after another, finding only temporary benefit. This is discouraging, but there is one special kidney medicine that cures permanently and there is plenty of proof right here in Santa Fe.

Here is the testimony of one who used Doan's Kidney Pills years ago, and now states that the cure was lasting.

Miss Adela Arías, 106 Griffin St., Santa Fe, N. M., says: "There is no praise too strong for me to give Doan's Kidney Pills. The splendid results I obtained from their use several years ago has been permanent and for that reason, my confidence in them has increased. I suffered from a dull, heavy ache in the small of my back and was subject to headaches and dizzy spells. I always felt tired, had no ambition and was poor in health when I procured Doan's Kidney Pills. It did not take them long to cure me and from that day to this, I have been free from kidney complaint. I willingly confirm the public statement I gave in January, 1907, telling of my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills."

NEW MEXICO POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Newspapers and Candidates.

The Illinois legislature is threshing out the subject of newspapers, with relation to the publication of libel, and, quite naturally, Lee O'Neill Browne is standing sponsor for a bill which seeks to place severe restrictions upon the press.

The public as a whole will feel that the movement referred to is in exactly the wrong direction. Not only in Illinois, but in various other states it has been demonstrated that many dishonest men have been elected to office. In other instances men of a low order of morals and intellect, who have not placed themselves liable to conviction, have been placed in responsible positions, where their low ideals and cunning have served the purposes of questionable legislation, if not of out-and-out chicanery.

It is not to be credited that the majority of people in any community wish to vote for such men. It is therefore of the utmost importance that their careers and characters should be outlined plainly, if they present themselves as candidates for office.

The newspapers do not concern themselves with the questionable qualities of men who keep to the usual channels of activity.

The candidate, however, is in a different position. He asks to be entrusted with the business of the whole community. Upon his sense and integrity the welfare of many depends. He should court the most thorough investigation in all matters tending to show what kind of a man he is.

The bill now under discussion in the Illinois Legislature would seem to be the product of just that class of politicians who must be put out of business, if crookedness in office is to be checked.—St. Louis Times.

It's Fair to Be Fair.

It isn't often that my old pal Paul Walter fails to be fair, and when he is, it is because of misapprehension, I am sure of that. Probably the hardest working journalist in New Mexico, his field is the whole territory. Considering the haste with which he must pass from subject to subject, it must be confessed that he does marvelously well, to keep his trolley as firmly fixed to the power cable as he does. It is this recognition of the gait he goes that palliates the following from a recent issue of the New Mexican:

"Automobile Mail Line Restored—The Roswell-Vaughn automobile mail carrying contract was let by the government for a period of three years and three months to the Roswell Auto company for $10,950 per year. This seems very plain and simple, but nevertheless it leaves the prospect of these states for early admission shrouded in some doubt.

Will it be in order to bring the matter up at the extra session and if Congress fails to disapprove both constitutions can the President act alone? The language of the act calls for Congressional action at the "next regular session." The question was precipitated in the closing hours of the last session. Was not that the "next regular session" and if Congress failed to disapprove, is not the President free to act on his own approval of the New Mexico constitution? It seems to be assured that this cannot be done and New Mexico, whose first application for admission was way back in 1850, must wait not for any fault of its own, but because the Arizona constitution did not suit the Senate and Senator Owen, of Oklahoma, who would not admit New Mexico without Arizona.

In spite of the fact that President Taft desires the extra session to be confined to the consideration of the reciprocity agreement, it is more than probable that the statehood question will intrude itself. There is no objection to facilitating the admission of New Mexico except that the partisans of Arizona are not willing to forego the advantage of keeping them coupled together in a common fate. The Arizona constitution contains provisions of which President Taft does not approve, but he has not yet indicated that he will carry that disapproval so far as to veto statehood until the constitution adopted is changed.

The composition of the next Congress justifies the expectation that it will view the Arizona constitution with more favor than the last one. Several states have the recall, initiative and referendum in their constitutions. Arizona could easily adopt this after admission if it wished. It has delayed its statehood and that of New Mexico by unwisely insisting on putting them into an instrument which President Taft had to approve. How long that delay will continue is uncertain, but the new Congress at its extra session is likely to do what it can to shorten it.—Philadelphia Press.

On to Washington!

We have had occasion to point out hitherto that it is directly to the financial interest of sundry local officeholders (among them C. B. Wood and G. P. Bullard), if the statehood situation can be kept so "balled up" that the admission of the territory will be postponed—the enabling act by its terms continuing them in office. It is all the more to their interest because of the possible improbability of their successful pursuit of office in the future.

These local statesmen are credited with taking a prominent hand in the impudent effort to speak for this community, which is disclosed in certain "resolutions" promulgated by them on Thursday. The celebrated three tallors of Toole street who began their resolution with the words, "We the People of England," were quite fully authorized to speak for the people of the British Isles as these local statesmen and officeholders are to speak for the people of Arizona.

As to the resolutions which are presumptuously put forth as an expression of Arizona sentiment, they are so modest that they ought to be adorned with violets. Nobody, we may understand, has any right to make himself seen or heard at Washington on the statehood question except "the makers and signers of the constitution" and a few great men who recently honored the national capital with their presence, among them one O'Neill and one Akers. We speak by the card when we dub them great men, for if any person locally has any doubt of their greatness he can be convinced, we have no doubt, by asking them about it.

The resolutions were put forth primarily for the purpose, we presume, of boosting a languishing campaign lately started for the purpose of raising funds wherewith to give these statesmen a free trip to Washington. At least, one of the "meaty" features of the resolutions is a reference to the "effective work" done by the "committee" for statehood during their late stay in Washington.

Now, just what was this "effective work" they did? Before their departure for the field of glory we were loudly assured that they were going to Washington and would surely get from President Taft his approval of the constitution. We heard something of an irresistible "demand" which was to be made upon the President, also, much talk to the effect that the President when bearded in his den "would not dare" to disapprove the constitution. Somehow, the President survived in his purpose to deal with the constitution as his conscience should dictate. Nothing very "effective" at the White House. But if Hon. O'Neill is to be believed, the "committee" did perform some "effective" work in defeating the admission of Arizona. According to the statement given by him to the Washington Times, statehood was at least tentatively offered by someone, provided consent of the visiting statesmen could be had for cutting out the recall of the judiciary. But, we understand, like Caesar refusing the crown, they stood steadfast. No statehood for them, unless there could be a recall of the judges. Of course we don't undertake to say what feeling of abnegation possessed the soul of Hon. O'Neill at that critical moment. Possibly the spirit of prophecy was upon him, and he could foresee a deluded people electing him to the bench, and then in a moment of repentance clamoring for his "recall."

And if that was his state of mind, who can blame him for standing there, like another Horatius at the bridge, for the protection of Arizona's people? And possibly Hon. Akers, holding a lively recollection of the record he made as secretary of the territory, and knowing that if ever the people of Arizona should elect a grafter to office the recall would be a handy thing to have around—possibly he felt impelled to stand for the recall on general principles.

At any rate, we have Hon. O'Neill's word for it that the proffer of statehood was refused because the "committee" would not give up the judiciary recall.

As a matter of fact, we fancy that the people who "approached" Hon. O'Neill with this offer of intimation, or whatever it was, were about as fully authorized to "deliver the goods" as he was to reject the offer. But this, so far as we have been able to ascertain, is the sum and substance of the "effective work" accomplished by this "committee" at Washington.

But Chairman Dillon and the territorial Democratic committee, and Chairman Sames, and the Republican territorial committee will please observe that their orders have been issued to them by our local tailors of Tooley street.—Arizona Republican.

No Dancing in School House.

The territorial superintendent of public instruction, Hon. James E. Clark, has issued an order stating that the laws of the territory forbid holding public dances in school houses. This is a proper construction of the law, and all school directors should see to it that the order issued by Mr. Clark is obeyed to the letter.—Belen Tribune.

Watch the Sparks Fly!

We have heard it whispered around our little town that Brother Speckmann is expecting to start out the first of April with a daily sheet. Good luck to you, old boy, two daily papers in Estancia will make or break the town. Of course, we realize that Estancia is too small to support two daily papers and one of us will soon be "counting the ties." But remember this: The Herald, was born with its fists doubled up, and that said him will be doubled up when it dies. Good luck, just the same.—Estancia Herald.

They Are Back Numbers—The Clovis merchants who are not afraid to give prominent notice to their goods are the ones most apt to be able to satisfy the purchaser. The "close" business man who advertises to prairie dogs, jack asses and the farmers' cattle, with signs on fence posts and barns and forgets the local newspaper, is a pretty safe fellow to let alone. The merchant who can't risk his advertisements beside that of his competitor in the local newspaper is out of tune somewhere, and the fellow who bites at his bait will get stung.—Clovis Journal.

Cheer Up!

The papers all over the Southwest are full of the house cleaning spirit that pervades the cities every spring. News items everywhere tell of the hundreds of cart loads of trash that have been taken away from the residence districts of prosperous cities, and the people seem to glory in the fact that they have so much trash to cart away. We venture to say that if the Mayor of Carlsbad called a cleaning day, no such hauls of rubbish as are commonly heard of could be gathered here. In fact, the present city administration has laid particular emphasis on its cleaning up program, and not one day alone, but every day in the year, is cleaning day in Carlsbad. Citizens are becoming used to a clean town, and like it much better than a dirty town. But the Argus would remind the people that eternal vigilance is the price of cleanliness and that they must not hesitate in their zeal for spotlessness, or in assisting the city government in the program for tidy alleys and clean and pleasant streets. It's easy to clean once the habit is gained, and then it's much more pleasant.—Carlsbad Argus.

The Blue Canyon Road.

It is announced that the territorial road engineer has just gone over to put the finishing touches on the Silver City and Mogollon road and that as soon as that job is completed the gang of forty or fifty convicts now at work there will be brought to Socorro and put on the Blue Canyon road. The improvement of this public highway is of vastly more importance to Socorro county than most people realize. For several years travel by private conveyances between the county seat and Magdalena and points further west has been extremely irksome on account of the difficulty of getting through this canyon. This has been a great hardship to business men and ranchmen at both ends of the county and at intermediate points, and now that automobiles are coming into general use the hardship is felt more keenly than ever before. Mr. Merriweather, the territorial road engineer, has visited the canyon and has reported that with a few changes in the location of the road its grade can be made much easier than it has been. So there is a bright prospect that it will soon be possible to travel over a smooth highway of easy grades between Socorro and points well out toward the Mogollon country. Let us hope that there will be no further delay in beginning work on the Blue Canyon road.—Socorro Chieftain.

Raising a Lawn.

It is one of the pleasing signs of the times in New Mexico to see the staid citizens in every city, town and village tilling the front yard. There is nothing that pays so well as a lawn. It helps the individual property, collectively it helps a town and all around it helps everything. A slovenly home is as good an index to character as a slovenly appearance in a person, and the first thing a stranger notices in a town is the appearance of its homes.

It is not difficult to produce a lawn and it requires only a few minutes' work, morning or evening, to maintain a lawn. The work is but a healthful relaxation from office or shop. To have an attractive lawn, grass should be cut regularly. Once a week is not too often in the summer. If this is done you won't have to use the rake, the dead grass will not be

Do You Feel This Way?

Do you feel all tired out? Do you sometimes think you just can't work away at your profession or trade any longer? Do you have a poor appetite, and lay awake at nights unable to sleep? Are your nerves all gone, and your stomach too? Has ambition to forge ahead in the world left you? If so, you might as well put a stop to your misery. You can do it if you will. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will make you a different individual. It will set your lazy liver to work. It will set things right in your stomach, and your appetite will come back. It will purify your blood. If there is any tendency in your family toward consumption, it will keep that dread destroyer away. Even after consumption has almost gained a foothold in the form of a lingering cough, bronchitis, or bleeding at the lungs, it will bring about a cure in 98 per cent. of all cases. It is a remedy prepared by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose advice is given free to all who wish to write him. His great success has come from his wide experience and varied practice.

noticeable. However, a four weeks' growth must be raked off.

One of the most important things in caring for a lawn is the watering. In some cities and towns in New Mexico there is a time limit set for watering by the city water system, because of a none too abundant water supply. Albert Dickens, professor of horticulture at the Kansas State Agricultural college, says in that case it is poor policy to use a sprinkler. This retards the flow of the water. Better results are obtained by watering just after sundown if possible. Where there is no limit it is better to use a sprinkler. It washes the dust from the grass as well as watering it. The sprinkler is recommended especially where lawns are close to dusty roads.

Those who planted blue grass last fall may be puzzled what to do with small patches of ground where no grass at all has appeared. Professor Dickens says the patches should be dug up as soon as possible, some good fertilizer added, more seed planted immediately, and the soil well firmed with a heavy roller. It is also a good idea to plant some white clover seed with this late planting of grass as the clover will grow faster than the blue grass and protect it.

Be a good citizen and keep your lawn fresh and green.—Albuquerque Herald.

Childless Marriage Cause of Divorce.

A close study of English divorce statistics covering a period of nine years just expired brings to light a series of curious and interesting facts, which heretofore have been matters of speculation and dispute. Two or three popular theories as to conditions of life making for material unhappiness are exploded, others are modified, and new light is shed on some old problems. How closely the results of the English inquiry would be paralleled by similar analysis of American divorce statistics it is impossible to say, but seeing that British laws, people and conditions are more like ours than those of any other foreign country, the information derived has both interest and importance for Americans.

It is found, contrary to the general impression, that divorce is most common among the middle class—the people of steady habits—rather than among the aristocracy and the lower stratum of society, where the extremes of existence were supposedly most conducive to matrimonial disagreements. The larger the family the less likelihood there is for the divorce court breaking up the home is a revelation calculated to shatter the traditional idea that the burden of a large family is often the cause of desertion and divorce than any other. The very opposite is seen to be true. Families with no children having a divorce court percentage of 40, as against two per cent for those having six or more children.

Analysis makes it apparent also that early marriages are happiest, those formed under 21 years of age ending less disastrously than if the parties had waited until they had arrived at the age of discretion, as fixed by older counsel. The figures also answer the question: Does marriage make for unhappiness? No; far from it. Of this class, those who have been divorced once seldom travel that devious route a second time. Widowers and widows, too, who take a second helpmate are more contented, 20 to one, than the contingent whose experience is limited to a single tying of the nuptial knot.—Washington Post.

MODERN ROMANCE IN ADVERTISING COLUMNS.

Wedding Results From Correspondence Between Machinist and Lonely Widow.

Spokane, Wash., March 27.—When Mrs. Marie E. Gray of Akron, O., and J. E. Guy of Potlatch, Idaho, were married in Spokane, there came to a happy culmination a modern romance that had its origin in the advertising columns of an eastern newspaper, six months ago. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. S. Willis McFadden, pastor of First Presbyterian church, in the parlors of a local hotel.

Guy, who is an expert machinist in the employ of the Potlatch Lumber company in northern Idaho, said that when he read the advertisement announcing that the advertiser, widowed and lonely, was tired of owning herself and wanted a manly and respectable mate, he realized his own position and lost no time in answering the appeal. After six months' correspondence Mrs. Gray came to Spokane, where the bridegroom met her, and the wedding followed. They will make their home in the town of Potlatch.

Frank Everett, a rancher at Chester, Wash., had a different experience with a "mail-order" bride. Following an interview with the Spokane agent of a transcontinental railroad, three weeks ago, he dispatched a fat envelope, containing among other things the price of a first-class ticket and sleeping-car accommodations, also $25 for meals and extras, to a woman in Kansas City, Mo. The bride-to-be was due in Spokane on March 15, but Everett did not lose faith until after waiting five days, when he admitted being "stung."

"The girl, whose name I shall not make public, described herself as 24 years of age, fairly good looking and a first-class cook," Everett said. "She wanted to come West and marry a rancher, but I guess she changed her mind after getting my money. I've been 'bunked' and I'm going back to the ranch, but before I promise again to marry I am going to see the other party on the ground."

WHAT ARE YOU DOING

For the Old People?

It may be your father, your mother, your grandfather or your grandmother who is very dear to you, but it is sad to see them lose their interest in life because their strength is fast ebbing away and they seem doomed to the weak, feeble and decrepit condition of the aged.

Now is the time for you to come to their assistance.

Call at our store and get a bottle of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, and see what a change it will make in your dear ones.

A case is recorded in Litchfield, Ill., of a man 72 years of age who seemed to be getting old and feeble, suffered from indigestion and a nervous trouble. His druggist asked him to try Vinol at his risk. He did and says he is better and feels younger than he has for fifteen years.

We wish every feeble aged person would try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that their money will be returned if it does not give perfect satisfaction. The Capital Pharmacy, Santa Fe, New Mexico.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF SANTA FE COUNTY.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory, and has a large and growing circulation among the intelligent and progressive people of the Southwest.

ONE OF MANY TROUBLES.

The New Mexico people must get rid of some of the old methods, old prejudices and old traditions if they desire to forge ahead as rapidly as other commonwealths. It is very difficult at times to draw comparisons with newly developed countries for the latter have not ancient precedents to overcome, such as hamper, for instance, irrigation development and good roads building in New Mexico. Thus the Silver City Enterprise tells of one difficulty that is in the way of good roads construction, and to a certain extent even of street improvements in old communities like Santa Fe:

"Good roads has been the heading of so many articles and editorials in the Enterprise that it may look trite to many eyes, but it is a safe hazard that nothing affects the welfare of the people of Grant county to a greater extent, not even statehood, than good roads. The Mogollon highway has just been completed by the Territorial Good Roads Commission and is a splendid monument to that body. But the Mogollon highway only reaches a fraction of the people of this section. Asked why the County Commissioners did not undertake a vigorous good roads campaign, County Chairman Ed Dickenson replied that it was because of the uncertainty regarding the constitutionality of the law establishing the permanency of highways previous to 1905. The 1905 statutes define a permanent highway as any road that was regularly established previous to that year, yet residents of Grant county have violated that provision and are violating it by fencing in public roads that the county has gone to great expense in building and repairing. This has happened not once but many times, until the county com-and until it is, it is up to the people themselves to co-operate with the county board in helping to build, and most important of all, in maintaining public roads. The topography of this country is of such a character as to preclude the following of township lines, and naturally a road that is built with reference to favorable location only, must occasionally trespass across some land owner's property. Where such action proves a hardship, the county board is ready and willing to listen to grievances and remedy same, but the peremptory fencing up of roads that have been built at considerable expense has caused the county board to go slow in the matter until the people themselves decide to co-operate in establishing and maintaining good highways."

THE PARTY THAT DOES THINGS.

If the people really want so-called progressive legislation they will do much better to entrust its enactment to the Republican party. Half a century of history has demonstrated that it is the party that does things and that this is still true is pointed out very forcibly by the Pueblo Chieftain when it compares the Colorado legislature, which is Democratic, with that of California, which is Republican. Says the Chieftain:

"The Colorado legislature and the California legislature convened at practically the same time. Both are still in session. Both had made to the people many promises of constructive and progressive legislation. There was, however, this slight difference between the two bodies: In California the legislature was composed of progressive Republicans, with a progressive Republican as governor; in Colorado a majority of the legislature was composed of Democrats, with a Democrat as governor.

"Just compare, as an instructive object-lesson in government, the record of the two bodies.

"Here is what the Republican legislature and governor in California have done:

"Elected as United States senator a strong, progressive Republican.
"Abolished race track gambling.
"Adopted ballot reform laws.

"Adopted the initiative, referendum and recall.

"Passed a railroad commission law, with provision for physical valuation, and imprisonment for violation.
"Passed a progressive body of conservation laws.

"Established a board of control for all public institutions."

"Reformed the criminal procedure.
"In comparison with such a splendid record the achievements of the Colorado Democratic legislature stand revealed in all their pitiful fruitlessness. Colorado has not even elected a senator, and if one is elected he will be only a creature of those interests which dictate the doings of the present body of incompetents in Denver.

Not one of the promises made the people has been redeemed. Not a single meritorious law of any kind has been done, save to waste the time and money and patience of the people of Colorado.

"Is it any wonder, then, that the people of Colorado are thoroughly and completely disgusted with Democracy, and are longing for the chance to elect a Republican governor like Hiram Johnson and a Republican legislature like the Republican legislature of California?"

SUNDAY CLOSING AT POSTOFFICE

Those agitating for the closing of the post office on Sunday are engaged in a praiseworthy movement, but it is to be feared that they do not quite fully understand the nature of post-office work and the conditions under which it is done. A clearer view may be gained from the following few lines in the Denver Post, the Sunday-closing, or the so-called Sunday-closing arrangement having gone into effect recently:

"The clerks are not satisfied with the Sunday closing arrangement now in effect in that city. The carriers, according to the Post, have to report for duty on Sunday just the same as if they were distributing the mail from the windows, and on Monday the mail is just twice as heavy because of the accumulation over Sunday."

In other words, the clerks and carriers must work anyway on Sunday, even if the general delivery and letter carrier windows are closed that one hour on which they are open now.

At the Santa Fe post office, it could be so arranged, that only one letter carrier would need to be on duty on Sunday. The distributing clerk would have to be on duty the same as now because the Sunday closing movement does not affect those who rent post office boxes. Mails must be dispatched and distributed the same as on any other day. The public, however, the convenience of one hour for its mails, and letters would not be

In fact, the carriers usually look out on Sunday will have to be carried to them on Monday. The law will not permit them to work more than eight hours a day, and part of the mails which arrived on Saturday after the carrier has gone on his last trip, will probably not be delivered until Tuesday or Wednesday, an arrangement satisfactory neither to patron nor to carrier. Similarly, at the general delivery window. On Monday morning, the clerk at that window finds himself so overwhelmed with mail, the accumulation of two days, that he is apt to make annoying mistakes and it will be "Blue Monday" in fact for him. Close the post office on Sunday by all means, but do not imagine that the letter carriers and postal clerks are helped thereby to any appreciable extent, for letters come and go on Sunday the same as any other day and must be handled as they are received.

ARBOR DAY.

This week is Arbor Day and the householder who has not made arrangements to set out shade or fruit trees this spring or to plant rose bushes, has not done his duty by himself or by his community. How the tree planting spirit is gripping other places is manifest by the following remark of the Fort Sumner Republican:

"It is a source of wonder to some, where all the trees that are unloaded at the depot here this spring are to be placed. We predict that within a few years it will be an equal source of wonder where all the fruit comes from that will be shipped from this point. And we notice that the farmers and horticulturists are not overlooking the value of windbreaks, and also ornamental trees along the avenues and around their dwellings. In addition to fruit trees, Lombardy poplars, cat-palms, mountain cottonwoods, willows and other varieties are much in evidence."

The small criminal docket, the low court expenses, the chronic emptiness of the jail at Portales, Roosevelt county, are laid to the fact that Roosevelt county, with the exception of one settlement, is Prohibition territory. The only murder case tried at Portales at this time, was blamed upon the booze dispensed at that one place. Whether right or wrong, this argument is worthy of investigation for a large amount of the taxes collected in New Mexico is eaten up in the expenses of criminal trials and feeding jail and penitentiary prisoners. Even the federal supreme court, which is far from a Prohibition tribunal, said in 137 U. S. 86:

"By the general concurrence of opinion of every civilized and Christian community, there are few sources of crime and misery to society equal to the dram shop."

Major General Carter, who commands the regular army in the Texas maneuvers, has come to the conclusion that effective mobilization has as a prerequisite the establishment of division army posts, not merely a small company, or even regimental post, but division posts, with ample terrain for maneuvers. He recommends Fort Benjamin Harrison, near Indianapolis, Indiana, for such a post, for three reasons: Ample grounds for maneuvers, plenty of water and railroad facilities. Santa Fe possesses those advantages in a superlative degree and can add to them the advantages of a healthful climate and proximity to the border of Mexico. There is no other place in the Southwest, or even in the country, which unites in itself all these prerequisites in such superlative degree.

Receiver Sims, of the Federal land office at Las Cruces, who was a visitor in Santa Fe on Saturday, declared that more acres are being broken by plow this spring in the Mesilla valley than ever before, and that with each year more virgin land is brought under irrigation and cultivation. The Estancia Herald of last Friday says: "There are several thousand acres being broken between Estancia and Stanley." Other exchanges tell the same story from every part of New Mexico. The permanent growth of New Mexico is counted by the length of the furrows turned up by the plow and its prosperity is measured by the crops that are garnered each fall.

One of the first things the Chamber of Commerce should take up, is the publication of a Santa Fe folder. The illustrated booklet on Santa Fe printed last year by the New Mexican in co-operation with the Bureau of Immigration, have been exhausted although the edition was 10,000 copies. Roswell is about to issue a 32-page folder beautifully illustrated with half tones and three color engravings. Deming has just placed an order for an edition of 100,000 copies of a booklet descriptive of the Windmill City and other towns are advertising their advantages. Santa Fe, which has so much to advertise, should not fail to neglect its opportunities in that direction.

The Commercial Club of East Las Vegas and the Club of Las Vegas, have again failed to merge after making an attempt in that direction. Santa Fe has been more successful although it took several years to get the Commercial Club and the Board of Trade together in the Chamber of Commerce which will have its first meeting tomorrow evening, a meeting that should be attended by every business man. In the meanwhile, it is certain, that the Meadow City will remain heavily handicapped commercially, politically, and otherwise, until its component parts bury old prejudices and factionalism and get together under one municipal government.

After expending $50,000 in a vain effort to make a financial success of the Bisbee, Arizona, Evening Miner, the publishers have given up its publication, thus demonstrating again that it takes a large sum of money to establish a daily paper. The appearance of the Miner would never have caused anyone to suspect that it was burning up $50,000, but it is being accepted almost as a corollary that it takes $100,000 to establish a daily paper with telegraphic service on a profit-paying basis in a small town. And there isn't a daily paper with telegraphic service anywhere that pays regular dividends that isn't worth that much.

Carlsbad, like Las Vegas, in philosophy over the census returns, consoles itself, that "if" the suburbs are counted in, the town would have 2,236 instead of only 1,736 inhabitants. Other towns have suburbs, too, but few people when they look up the population of any city from New York down to Tesuque, ever ponder over the probability of these places having suburbs. In order to have their suburbs counted in the next census, Santa Fe, Las Vegas and Carlsbad will have to annex them. It is only logical that they should be under the administration of the public school system in New Mexico, although it has accomplished wonders in the past few years, still has a world of work before it, may be gathered from the following item in the last number of the Quenta, Taos county, Gazette: "School is out, and as far as any benefit derived by scholars this term, it would have been as well if there had been no school at all. School opened with an attendance of more than forty scholars; at its closing hours it had an attendance of from six to eight. It is hoped a repetition of the past term will not occur again."

The Editor of the Estancia Herald resents vigorously the intimation of the Willard Record that Estancia is a sleepy burg. "You should come up here any bright sunny Saturday afternoon and see the crowded streets," is the challenge he hurls at the editor in the rival town. Great are New Mexico and its editors.

That Fort Sumner is forging right ahead in population and in business, is indicated by the fact that its post office will be advanced into the presidential class on April 1. Fort Sumner is yet destined to be the largest town between Roswell and Albuquerque.

The Montoya Republican goes Horace Greeley, who said: "Young man, go West," one better, in the admonishment: "Young man go to work and keep out of debt." It's advice that will hit the mark, even here in Santa Fe.

The Santa Rosa sun wishes the best explanation yet for the army maneuvers. "The United States is going to whip Mexico and make her take Texas back," is the reason, as the Sun sees it.

The Endee Enterprise is ungallant enough to remark that the harem skirt may be divided but public opinion on it is not.

PUSHING WORK AT ENGLE DAM SITE.

Powder House Has Been Finished—Contract for Eighty Thousand Adobes About Completed.

Elephant Butte, N. M., March 27.—The powder house has been finished and the walls of several of the other houses are up and ready for the roof to be put on. The carpenter force now numbers more than 40 and the sound of the hammer and saw is heard on all sides.

Plans for the hospital building have been completed and work will be begun on its construction in a few days. The building will be 30 feet wide by 76 feet long and will have one ward, two private rooms, physicians' room, operating room, nurses' room, kitchen, kitchen, dining room and bath room. The hospital will be in charge of Dr. Graham who will also see that sanitary conditions are maintained throughout the camp. A deduction of one dollar per month will be made from the pay of each employee for hospital fee. This will entitle him to free hospital and medical service in case of accident or sickness during the term of his employment.

Pablo S. Barela has nearly finished the making of adobes under his contract. The contract called for the making of 80,000 adobes and by the end of this week that number will have been delivered.

The Las Cruces Lumber company were the lowest bidders on the lathing and plastering of the buildings to be erected here and they were awarded the contract. It is expected that they will begin the work in a few days.

Plans are being prepared and the ground is being leveled for the power house. The power house will be located on the east side of the river near the end of the track, about 160 feet above the bed of the river. The power will be generated by steam and will be used in the construction of the dam.

The regular building for the chemical laboratory has not yet been completed. One of the other buildings is being used temporarily and experimental tests are now being made to determine the treatment necessary to render the water suitable for use in the steam boilers.

Few people realize the magnitude of the Engle reservoir. When filled it will be the largest artificial body of water in the world. The area of the water surface will be 62 1/2 square miles; average depth, 66 feet; greatest depth, 193 feet; capacity 2,640,000 acre feet or 860,200,000,000 gallons. Perhaps the immensity of these figures can be more readily understood when it is explained that if this quantity of water could be confined upon one acre of ground it would extend in a solid column to a height of five hundred miles.

Tennis Courts and Baseball Grounds Latest Improvements for High School Boys and Girls.

Many of the improvements which have been made during the present term of school, thanks to the efforts of Superintendent Wood and others, who have taken an active part in the good work for the school. During this term two boys' basketball teams have been formed, one girls' team, a new laboratory and full equipment, four new tennis courts, a literary society under the direction of Miss Dysart, and now the work has begun to lay out a fine baseball field. The school at this term has a splendid baseball aggregation and when they get in practice it will be a hard bunch to beat. Some of the trees, which have heretofore been obstructing the boys in their play, will be removed and a fine large baseball field will be the result.

"It certainly is badly needed," said Howell Ervien, one of the crack players of the team, "and heretofore whenever we have wanted to play, we have had to depend solely on the field of St. Michael's college but now, with this fine new field, we can have other teams play return games at our campus and" he added with a smile, "we can usually lick them on home ground."

Mr. Ervien is one of the members who is doing active work in regard to having a good high school team.

ESPAÑOLA VALLEY APPLES SHIPPED TO LONDON.

The Espanola valley which lies from eighteen to thirty miles north of Santa Fe, tributary to the Denver & Rio Grande railroad, is one of the garden spots of New Mexico and as soon as the reclamation service removes its embargo on the waters of the Rio Grande in this section, it will become the most famous valley in the southwest. Even as it is, from time immemorial it has been the granary of this part of New Mexico, and as a fruit and sugar beet producer it stands at the head. Only last fall, C. L. Pollard of Espanola, sold two carloads of Espanola valley apples, 1266 boxes, of assorted varieties, to Boston commission men. When the apples reached Boston they were found to be so superior in quality, coloring and flavor, that they were gobbled up by British commission men and shipped to London where they found a ready market at fancy prices.

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS WINS VICTORY.

Governor Has No Right to Interfere With Expenditures of Chief Law Officer. Austin, Texas, March 27.—Some weeks ago the people of Texas were very much interested in a rather sharp correspondence having color of a dispute between Attorney General Jewel P. Lightfoot and Governor Colquitt. Mr. Lightfoot took the position that money appropriated for his department for the purpose of prosecuting certain kinds of cases did not require the signature of the governor to warrants drawn for this purpose. This custom had been followed during the term of Thomas M. Campbell as governor. Governor Colquitt took a different view of the matter and even before he had been inaugurated wrote Lightfoot stating his opinion and that he would oppose expenditures of the fund except upon his O. K. of warrants drawn. This letter to the attorney general brought on a correspondence which was to a certain extent vitriolic. It was thought at the time by many that Lightfoot had the best of the argument. Recently the contention found its way by regular legal processes to the supreme court of Texas. The ruling just handed down by that body sustains the Lightfoot contention in every particular and is recognized as a victory for the attorney general's department. It is understood that Governor Colquitt says if the law permits one governor to make a contract which binds his successor that he is perfectly willing to accede to the provision. It is generally understood that this ruling by the court has put a stop to a contention that promised more or less friction between the governor and the attorney general's office.

Plays AND Players

A dramatic event of exceptional interest and importance is announced in the coming of Olga Nethersole at the Elks' Theatre on March 29th, in a new play called "The Redemption of Evelyn Vaudray." Miss Nethersole holds a unique position in literature as well as in drama, for aside from occupying the foremost position upon the English speaking stage, her literary achievements are rated among the best in advancing sociological and political reform, as well as in supporting the anti-tuberculosis movement. Last May, in New York City, before one of the largest gatherings of the sociological society, she delivered an address on "Life as our right and labor our privilege," in which she disclosed, elaborately reasonable and pertinent solutions to such great problems as—Tenement house reform—Sweat shop redemption—The relative attitude of capital to labor, and an eloquent appeal for a uniformity in divorce laws. Miss Nethersole has been for many years, probably, the most misunderstood woman before the public, attributed solely to the fact that her efforts to disclose life as it is, rather than as it might be, revealed a realism in dramatic art that staggered the prosaic and provincial critics of the drama; but with persistency and positive deliberation that is characteristic of her as a woman as well as an artist, she has converted many of her severest critics, who now claim her the greatest English speaking actress before the public. Her coming here is heralded with pleasure as it is assurance of a historical treat worthy the consideration of all those who admire a wonderful performance by a wonderful woman.

MINES AND MINING

Mogollon—Following in the direct wake of the late rumors and write-ups concerning the transfer of the old Maud S. mine, at Mogollon, Socorro county, work was inaugurated on the 20th inst. with a crew of five men, cleaning up the shaft preparatory to unwatering the mine. In due course the crew will be increased, and improvements and developments will be launched on a large scale. This property is one of the landmarks of the district and its return to activity will augment the already prosperous condition of the Mogollons. At a meeting of the stockholders of the Maud S. Mining Company, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President and general manager, E. A. Wayne; vice-president, F. W. Vella; secretary and treasurer, Hoval Smith. The clean-up for the first half of March of the Socorro mines produced 10 bars of gold and silver bullion weighing approximately 17,000 troy ounces. The concentrate product has increased both in quantity and value, the latter figures being as high as $7,000 per ton on occasions. The stamps are handling about 150 tons per day, with batteries frequently assaying $38. Work in 500-ft. level is expected to cut Queen lead any day. It is reported experiments will be conducted at the power plant to determine the value of crude oil as a fuel versus wood. Development in the lowest level (17 west) by the Ernestine Mining Company, as well as in the main tunnel work continues in good order. The clean-up for the first ten days of March resulted in 6,920 troy ounces gold and silver bullion. The past week 42 sacks of concentrates were produced from 650 tons of ore crushed. The past week 240 tons of ore were crushed at the Deadwood mines, with 15 sacks of concentrates therefrom. Owing to the recent wet weather, much water has accumulated in the mines and it is being cleared out by means of air lift, the effectiveness of which is superior to pumps formerly used.

Santa Rita—According to the latest market letter of Hayden, Stone & Co., fiscal agents of the Chino Mining company, the total developed tonnage at Santa Rita, Grant county, has reached the enormous total of 44,957,333 tons of 2.3 per cent copper. On 12 1/2 cent copper this gives Chino shares a market value of $5 each. The company at Santa Rita is doing an immense amount of work, with their cyclone drills going day and night. These drills have developed great bodies of ore that seem inexhaustible. The company has ten powerful locomotives in the railroad yards, all of them constantly busy. There are four large steam shovels at work taking out ore, averaging over 2 per cent copper, being placed in a dump by itself to be sent to the mill at Hurley when it is completed. Ore carrying less than 2 per cent is dumped to itself. In addition to the four big shovels, there is a small traction shovel that is moved from place to place as needed. Altogether, with splendid modern appliances, the Chino company is very busy.

Lordsburg—The Twin Peaks company, near Lordsburg, Grant county, has opened a store for the accommodation of the men working for them. Mogollon—E. Craig president of the Ernestine Mining company and operating the Last Chance and Top mines in the Mogollon district, Socorro county, the largest producer of gold and silver bullion in New Mexico, returned to Silver City after an absence of a year spent at his home in England. He was met here by A. H. G. Palmer, manager of the Ernestine, and the two left for Mogollon on Tuesday's auto. Important developments are expected with regard to the Ernestine within the next thirty days. Mr. Craig, to whose perseverance and energy is due the wonderful success in treating the refractory ores of the Mogollon district, stood for Parliament in the election last fall and while he was not elected, he had the satisfaction of reducing a normal Liberal majority from 3,000 to 1,700. Mr. Craig ran on the Conservative ticket and made a vigorous campaign in the district which embraces Creve, a city of 50,000 people. He made over seventy speeches and says he liked the experience immensely, and it is to be presumed the audience did too, judging from the enthusiasm noted in the newspaper account of the campaign. Mr. Craig's father represented this district in parliament for a great many years.

Hell Canyon—Certainly the surface indications signify that with depth the Sunset Mining and Smelting company will develop a valuable mine," said J. T. McLaughlin of this city yesterday regarding a recent inspection he made of the company's properties in North Hell Canyon, twenty-five miles from this city. "There will, however, be no use in monkeying around on the surface," said Mr. McLaughlin, "there is only one thing to do, and that is to go as deep as possible. The copper indications have become better right along as the main shaft has been deepened, and as I say, if surface signs count for anything there is every reason for confidence that a deep hole will penetrate valuable ore in quantity." President Staley of the company, who was in the city yesterday, says that 4,000 gallons of water a day has been developed in the mine, effectively settling the water question. "We have cut over 100 cords of wood and stacked it for fuel," he said, "and we are getting everything in shape for the installation of the steam plant, which we hope to have ready to work in thirty to sixty days. Men are now leveling off the foundation for the boiler and engines." Mr. Stacy says that the water developed is deeply impregnated with copper, staining steel tools green in thirty minutes. At a recent meeting of the company, Alex With, of the firm of Schwarzmann and With of this city, was made vice-president of the company in place of Phil Elckmann of Terre Haute, Ind.—Albuquerque Journal.

Nogal—Colonel J. C. Bender of Nogal, Lincoln county, has shipped a sample lot of ore to the El Paso smelter preparatory to making a carload shipment. Jicarilla—It is reported that Dean W. Bloodgood will start up the Enterprise Placer mine at Jicarilla, Lincoln county, next Monday. The property has plenty of water, the old Hinton well having been purchased.

UNCLE SAM WANTS MORE MALE STENOGRAPHERS.

Position Pays $900 to $1200 a Year But Demand Exceeds Supply Says Secretary Burby. Before leaving the city Saturday evening, John A. Burby, assistant secretary of the 12th U. S. Civil Service District, San Francisco, Calif., conducted an examination here for stenographers and typewriters. There were only four applicants.

Speaking of this matter, Mr. Burby said to a representative of the New Mexican: "Strange to say, there is a scarcity, at least in the West and Southwest, of male stenographers. The positions pay $900 to $1200 a year, and the usual vacations and short hours of government work prevail, but men are found wanting. It may be that they do not hear of the examination in time or that they do not understand the conditions. Papers can be obtained at your local civil service board's office and those who wish to take the examination should consult with the secretary of that board. "As regards the places where appointees must work, this is largely determined by the appointee himself for he is the one offered the position and he may accept or decline just as he chooses. It does seem to me that there are lots of bright young men who ought to be in the government service and who would be if they read the papers more and knew about these positions.

FOOD STORY.

Makes a Woman of 70 "One in 10,000." The widow of one of Ohio's most distinguished newspaper editors and a famous leader in politics in his day, says she is 70 years old and a "stronger woman than you will find in ten thousand," and she credits her fine physical condition to the use of Grape-Nuts.

"Many years ago I had a terrible fall which permanently injured my stomach. For years I lived on a preparation of corn starch and milk, but it grew so repugnant to me that I had to give it up. Then I tried one after another, a dozen different kinds of cereals, but the process of digestion gave me great pain. "It was not until I began to use Grape-Nuts food three years ago that I found relief. It has proved, with dear Lord's blessing, a great boon to me. It brought me health and vigor such as I never expected to again enjoy, and in gratitude I never fail to sound its praises." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. "There's a reason." Look for it in the little book, "The Road to Wellville," to be found in pkgs.

S.S.S. DRIVES OUT RHEUMATISM

The primary cause of Rheumatism results from weak kidneys, constipation, indigestion, etc., forming impure accumulations in the system. These sour and ferment, causing uric acid, which is absorbed from the stomach and intestines into the blood. This changes the circulation from a thick, rich fluid to a thin, acrid stream, depositing inflammatory matter into the muscles, nerves, and joints. The longer the blood is allowed to remain in this impure condition the more severe will Rheumatism become. Gradually the muscles harden and lose their elasticity, the joints begin to stiffen, and frequently calcareous deposits form knots at the finger joints. There is just one way to CURE Rheumatism, and that is to cleanse the blood of the uric acid poison. S. S. S., by removing every particle of the cause and PURIFYING the blood, cures Rheumatism permanently. S. S. S. eliminates the uric acid because it is the greatest of all blood purifiers. It filters out every trace of the sour, inflammatory matter, cools the acid-heated blood, furnishes the material for multiplying the rich, nutritious corpuscles of the circulation, and by its fine tonic effects assists the system to rapidly overcome the effects of the disease. Special book on Rheumatism and medical advice free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

UNUSUAL PRECIPITATION IN THE SOUTHWEST.

Lower Pecos Valley Has Received One of Heaviest Drenchings in Its History. Fort Worth, Texas, March 27.—The rainfall in the southwest has been unusual for the past three months and one of the peculiar things is a heavy downpour in those sections where rain has been very light for a number of years. The Pecos valley country has received the heaviest fall of rain so far known in the history of that section, the entire area having been drenched a number of times in the past 60 days, and the rain of the past week breaking all records. This valley has long been known as one of the dry belts and while the fertility of the soil is unparalleled almost in the country, the main obstacle to agricultural development has been the lack of moisture. In spite of the fact that the section has been dry, considerable development has been carried on and much of the soil plowed for cultivation. It is believed by those who have had wide experience in the work that the cultivation of tracts in various places in the valley and unusual evaporation caused by small irrigation plants is responsible for a change in moisture conditions. Very naturally those who are interested are elated over the unusual rainfall and promises of prosperity which are the result. While there has been greater precipitation in a number of localities, rains have been general over the entire southwest. Cattlemen here from the Pan-handle report an unusual growth of grass as the result of recent rain-falls. One ranger who has been 25 years in that section declares that the pasture outlook is the most promising ever seen. In the Nueces valley, where great irrigation plants have been built, one of these, that of the Holland-Texas company, costing more than $50,000, every pool is filled with water and the storm floods roll over the dams with a quantity sufficient to irrigate two such valleys if it were conserved. In this section of the state it is maintained the precipitation of moisture has been sufficient to insure a bountiful crop without resorting to irrigation. It can truthfully be said that the entire southwest has been thoroughly drenched in the past 60 days.

LOOKING FOR HER LONG LOST BROTHER.

Pathetic Letter Received by Governor William J. Mills from a Kentucky Woman. Dear Sir: As I had thought of writing to some one in the world in order that I might ascertain something about my brother as I have tried so many times to find him but have not succeeded. The Lord put in my mind to write you, the Governor of this place, and I have faith to believe that you will write me whether you can find a man of color who joined the standing army in the year 1875 or 1876. His name was William Blakeman. He was a yellow man at the time with black hair. He went to old Mexico and then went to this place. I have prayed that I might ascertain where he was and dreamed that he died in New London, but I do not know where that is. He has two sisters, Mary Catherine White and Josie Miller. I know you are busy but I pray that you will find out and write to Mrs. Mary White if you know where he is. MARY WHITE.

FUNERAL PROCESSION OF THREE HEARSE.

Family of Five Wiped Out by Murderers' Hands at San Antonio, Texas. San Antonio, Texas, March 27.—An unusual funeral procession was seen here today when three hearses containing the bodies of Louis Cassaway, his wife, and three children were driven to the cemetery. The entire Cassaway family were mysteriously murdered at the family home in Alamo street the other night, the assassin using an axe to dispatch his victims. When the bodies were buried today the father occupied one coffin, the mother and her six months old babe another, and the two children aged respectively three and six the third. The murder of the Cassaway family is the most mysterious that ever took place in this city and so far there is no clue to the person who did the bloody work. Cassaway was the janitor at a negro school and is said to have been a well behaved member of his race. His wife, who was very fair of complexion, was believed to have been a white woman, but those who have known her declare she contained a trace of negro blood, and on that account was divorced ten years ago or more from a cowboy to whom she was married in her girlhood. It is the commonly accepted theory here that the killing was done by some one who, believing that Mrs. Cassaway was a white woman and being insanely opposed to any mixture of the whites and blacks, conceived the notion of wiping out the entire family. In many respects the killing of the family is the most remarkable in the criminal annals of Texas, the murderer leaving absolutely no clue to his or her identity.

OPENING OF COLVILLE INDIAN RESERVATION.

Like Statehood for New Mexico It Has Been Postponed Another Year. Spokane, Wash., March 27.—United States Senator Miles Poindexter, who is in Spokane assisting a citizens' committee in making arrangements for Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's visit here April 7 to 9, has received official notice from Fred Dennett, commissioner of the general land office, that the Colville Indian reservation, (1,400,000 acres), will not be opened to settlement until 1913, or 12 months later than previously announced. The cause assigned is that the allotting agent cannot complete the Indian allotments for more than a year and the land office will require another year to arrange for the drawing. Reply: A petition presented through Mr. Poindexter on behalf of the people of Okanogan, Wash., that a new land district be established with that city as headquarters. Mr. Dennett said that the opening of the reserve would occasion such action, but even then it would not be justified, as the public land in northern Washington is fast disappearing through rapid settlement. This would indicate that Spokane will be the registry center in 1913.

It causes the feet, hands and nose to swell to several times their natural proportions, distorts the features and results in blindness and paralysis. Only 15 operations are known to medical science.

FAVORITE FICTION.

"So glad you happened in, mamma! Harry and I were afraid we were going to be all alone this evening."

"Take a seat, madam; your change will be back in a moment."

"I shall call your attention briefly this morning, my friends, to the following passage in the lesson just read."

"Mrs. Vere de Vere deeply regrets that she will be unable to accept Mrs. Shykes' kind invitation for next Thursday evening."

"All our candles are guaranteed to be absolutely pure."

"Mr. Isaacs, a friend, wants me to find out how much he can raise on this watch."

"Gentlemen of the jury, all I ask for my client is justice."

"I just dote on Shelley; don't you?"

Didn't Want It.

"Will this suit wear well?" Mr. De-Lighter asked the clothing merchant.

"Wear well," repeated the dealer, "why, sir, it will wear so well that, at the end of a year no one will be able to tell it from a new suit."

"Then I don't want it," observed Mr. De-Lighter, as he cast his eye on something cheaper, "I'm going to Europe for a twelve-months' stay, and when I return I don't want to have anything in my possession that I'll have to pay duty on."

Now They Don't Speak.

Miss Davies—He said something to you about my singing last night, didn't he?

Mr. Jones—Well, he did remark how funny the corners of your mouth looked when you sang.

Miss Davies—The idea! How could he have seen them?

Mr. Jones—Why not? He was sitting directly behind you while you sang.—Ally Sloper's Half Holiday.

What She Was.

Mrs. Ellenbert—Is Mrs. Smith her husband's second wife?

Ellenbert—No; why do you think she was?

Mrs. Ellenbert—Why, I have heard several people say he had been married before.

Ellenbert—He has been married before, but that doesn't make the present Mrs. Smith his second wife; he has been married twice before.

A HINT TO THE DRAMA LEAGUE.

The Drama League of America, recently organized, proposes to issue a weekly bulletin which will be sent to every club woman in the country, giving her information as to what shows to shun if she would protect her moral welfare. It may not be out of place here to warn the club women who receive these bulletins to guard them carefully. If the public finds out what plays are listed as immoral they will set all the theaters on fire.

His Maiden Effort.

"Yes," said the pale passenger in the smoker, "I still have the first dollar I ever made."

"Kept it as souvenir, eh?" queried the traveling man.

"Not exactly," replied the p. p., who was just returning from an enforced vacation of three years. "It was such a bum piece of work I couldn't pass it."

Mean of Him.

"So the girl who turned you down is to be married tomorrow? Who is the happy man?"

"I am."

"Oh, then you have made up?"

"No, we have not. Didn't I say I was the happy man?"

PARTICULAR.

"That new guy is quite a dude, ain't he?"

"Something awful! Why, he's not satisfied with trimming his cuffs with scissors of a morning."

"He ain't!"

"Naw. He lathers and shaves 'em."

It's Drawback.

We've noticed that the auto race wherever it takes place uses up a lot of members of the human race.

Artful and Crafty.

"Belle has been going in lately for arts and crafts."

"What's her idea?"

"She declares that it takes both art and craft nowadays to capture a husband."

THE MORAL.

Come, listen to my tale, young maids,
And read the moral true;
For what happened to the girls in it
May also hap to you.
One was a wise and prudent girl,
Who studied things of life
In serious ways and womanly;
Just model for a wife.

She did not idle pleasures choose,
But learned to cook and sew;
All household arts she did acquire,
Turned back on folly's show,
And love of dress and vanities;
She never cared to roam,
But bent all thought and energy
To make a happy home.

The other was a hare-brained flirt,
All curts and frills and whim,
Extravagant, averse to work,
Who laughed at all things prim,
Who pleasure loved, dress just adored,
All idle fancies nursed;
(Now comes the moral of my tale;
'Twas she got married first!

Truth Will Out.

Being called to his feet unexpectedly at the gathering and asked to respond informally to the toast, "The Ladies," Mr. Giffers hemmed and hawed and began:

"My friends, all that I am, all that I have in the world, I owe to a woman—my wife."

Here he was interrupted by that lady herself, who arose and said:

"I told you, when you put that property in my name, you'd give it away first time you opened your mouth."—Judge.

Speaking of Maxims.

The spender, with an ill concealed sneer, handed this maxim to the saver: "Some people are so stingy that they are dishonest."

"And by the same token," responded the saver, with a raw laugh, "some people are so liberal that they are dishonest. Count them up, please, and see, in these days of liberal spending, which side has the majority."—Judge.

Helping Him Out.

"What's the matter, got a cold?"

"Yes, I suppose like every one else you want to tell me what to do for it?"

"No, not particularly. But I can tell you what I use when I have one."

"Go ahead, one more won't hurt me. What do you use?"

"A handkerchief."

MISUNDERSTOOD.

"Make a noise like a frog, uncle."

"What for?"

"Cause when I ask dad for anything he says, 'Wait till your uncle croaks.'"

Explained.

Yes, you'll find highbrows in plenty at a girly-girly show; it's so long since they were twenty, all their hair is gone, you know.

His Happy Home.

"You say you once had a home?"

"Dat's what I had," answered Plo-ding Pete.

"Why didn't you do something to make your folks comfortable and happy?"

"I did. I left."

Trapped.

"I saw the cutest thing today," began Miss Passay, coyly. "It was a painting of the—or—what is the name of that little god that represents matrimony?"

"Well, now," said Mr. Timmid, "you've got me."

"Oh, Mr. Timmid, this is so sudden."—Catholic Standard and Times.

The Worrier.

"You must quit worry and take a vacation," said the suave practitioner.

"My dear, doctor," replied the irritable patient, "if I could get my affairs into shape that would permit me to take a vacation I'd be so relieved that I wouldn't need one."

HER GENTLE HINT.

First Widow—But maybe he was bashful. You should have thrown out some hint that a kiss would not be objectionable.

Second Widow—I did everything possible. I told him I had such a sore throat that I couldn't scream, no matter what happened.

AUTOMATIC WEATHER STRIP FOR A DOOR.

When the floor of an old house are not level by reason of the settling of the walls or partitions an automatic weather strip may be made for doors that have openings of varying widths between the floor and the under side of the door, thus doing away with the unsightly nuts or rags that are sometimes used for the purpose. The strip is made of a piece of wood 3/4 in. thick and 3 in. wide. One end of the strip is fastened to the hinge side of the door, on the inside, with a screw. A piece of wood is cut out and fastened to the other side of the door to act as a "keeper" for the strip. A piece of cloth is wrapped around the strip to make it close fitting and to lessen the noise when opening and closing the door. The movable strip will slip over the uneven surface of the floor and close the opening beneath its edge when the door is shut.—From Popular Mechanics Magazine.

WINDOW SHELF FOR FLOWER POTS.

On the ledge formed by the top part of the lower sash of the window fit a board 7 in. wide into each side of the casing by cutting the ends away. Place a small bracket at each end of the shelf so that it fits solidly against the lower window sash, to support the weight of the plant. One of the brackets is to be nailed to the shelf and the other is held in place with a hinge, the reason being that both are solid and the shelf cannot be put on the window, as one end must be dropped into place before the other. Such a shelf will hold all the plants a person can put on it. When not in use it can be removed without marring the window casing.—From Popular Mechanics Magazine.

A GARDEN PLOW.

The hand plow shown in the sketch is made preferably of white oak, but any kind of hard wood will do. The shovel arm is fastened to the beam with a wood pin or iron bolt. Two braces of iron or wood are bolted, one on each side of and connecting the beam and shovel arm. Several holes may be bored through the center line of the beam so that the draft of the plow may be regulated. The shovel is fastened to the arm with a bolt. Shovel plows, of solid or winged sweeps may be used. A hole is bored through the front end of the beam and a wood handle inserted.—From Popular Mechanics Magazine.

ADVERTISE!

YOUR SALESMAN may speak to twenty persons a day praising your wares. HE BRINGS YOU BUSINESS.

YOUR ADVERTISEMENT in the NEW MEXICAN speaks to thousands every day. IT IS BOUND TO BRING YOU BUSINESS.

THE SUBSCRIBERS to the local paper are the prosperous people of your town. THEY ARE THE PEOPLE WHO BUY.

YOUR ADVERTISEMENT in the local paper helps to build the town. The outside judges Santa Fe by the advertisements in its local papers.

It is a BUSINESS MAXIM universally accepted that advertising pays. That is, if it is done right.

PEOPLE READ ADVERTISEMENTS. Let the "New Mexican" place in its most obscure column that you are selling sugar at one cent a pound and your store tomorrow will not hold its customers. Advertise calico at one cent a yard and you will have to telegraph to your wholesale house for car-load lots.

YOU CAN STIMULATE BUSINESS BY ADVERTISING. Today no business will increase permanently unless by some method of advertising. The fool in his heart will say that there is no virtue in advertising but the wise man knows that the fool is deceiving himself.

AN ADVERTISEMENT in the "New Mexican" DRAWS LIKE A POROUS PLASTER. It cannot fail if it advertises the right goods at the right price.

THE NON-PROGRESSIVE MERCHANT is noted by the fact that his advertisement does not appear in the local papers. The sheriff has an eye on his business and his credit must be poor.

LAST YEAR, the "New Mexican" took in $12,000 in subscriptions. The readers who had that much for the local paper have as much for your store but you must let them know that you are doing business, where, and how you are doing it.

THE ADVERTISING RATES in the "New Mexican" are but a fraction of the rates in other cities. It is untrue that you cannot afford to advertise; the fact is when you feel that you cannot afford to advertise, you cannot afford NOT to advertise.

The "New Mexican" goes into the homes of Santa Fe and it reaches every post office in New Mexico

It pays to advertise in the "NEW MEXICAN"

BACK FROM MEADOW CITY.

the efficient teaching by Sisters Doloritas in the primary room and Sister Ludgers in the grammar grades.
Sister Louise is really doing substitute or relief work and I was permitted to visit her school only a short time. I found the children well graded. Sister Doloritas has grasped the situation of teaching the Spanish-American children the English language. Object lessons and active exercises were alternated with rapid drills on word finding, word pronunciation and the recitation of appropriate selections, that appeal especially to the children of this age.
The children understand what they are reading and reciting. They are "learning to do by doing." Songs were sung in English and were acted out by the children. How I wish I might have had with me the score or more teachers of Spanish-American children whom I have seen wasting time by going through the motions of antiquated pedagogy—teachers leading and children trying to follow but learning nothing a. (a); o (o); do, (do) y (y) u. (u) you, etc. In a sing-song manner, marking time—no progress. They would have obtained an idea from the enthusiastic drill conducted by Sister Dolori-tas.

"The class exercises in reading,
grammar, geography, etc., in Sister Ludger's room were full of enthusiasm; definite in every respect, management and proved the teacher a thorough drillmaster.

"It was a delight to hear those children sing the national airs in soft voice and with proper expression. It was a pleasure to quiz them on arithmetic, history, geography, etc.
They were interested, responsive, accurate and well balanced. I will put them against any parallel grades.

"Tomorrow we visit some outlying district and return to Mora in that evening. Saturday we drive to Wagon Mound and Sunday to Roy, provided the threatening storm does not prevent."

Advanced to Presidential Class.
The postoffice at Fort Sumner, Guadalupe county, will be advanced to Presidential class on April 1. The salary of the postmaster will be $1,000 a year. At the same time, the postoffices of Miami and Winkelman in Arizona will be advanced to first class, with salaries of $1,500 and $1,200 a year respectively.

Gone to Socorro.
Fred Fornoff, captain of the New Mexico Mounted Police, was in Albuquerque last night en route from Santa Fe to Socorro, where he will attend the trial of Beal and Putnam, two members of the mounted police force, who are to be tried on a charge of slaying Clark of Mogollon, N. M., a number of months ago.

Ordered Examined for Promotion.
The many friends of Lieutenant Robert C. Garrett, of the U. S. Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Garrett of this city, who has been stationed at Fort Flagler, Washington, will be pleased to learn that he has been ordered to report at San Francisco, California, for examination for promotion. In other words, Lieutenant Garrett is making good.

Washington, D. C., March 27.—The post office at McCarty's, Valencia county, has been discontinued. Mail will be sent to Seama. The post office site at Fort Sumner, Guadalupe county, has been moved 850 feet south.

WATCHING NEW MEXICO'S PROGRESS AND GROWTH.

J. R. Townsend, Who Spent Several Months in Santa Fe, Writes From Long Island.

The following, from a letter of Attorney J. R. Townsend, of Whitestone, Long Island, is of interest to the many friends he made while recently a resident of this city with his family:
"My subscription, I think, expires at the end of this month. Being interested in the statehood matter, it seems as if I had better renew for at least a year to cover the probabilities.
I was heartily sorry to hear of the deadlock at close of session. I had kept in touch through our city dailies

so far as possible, amplified by your articles. It is unfortunate that one, or at least a few, should wield the power entrusted to them to frustrate the expressed wishes of a community which they do not represent and in which they could have but a slight and modified interest. I give you my sincerest good wishes for early and complete success. I find much gratification in taking by means of your columns a weekly visit among the scenes and people of whom I have such kindly memories. Among the best things you have recently recorded is the consolidation of the Board of Trade and the Commercial Club.
It removes an antagonism which was a great waste of energy. I trust you may see the fruition of many other of the plans you espouse for the progress of the city and community.

I send my kindest wishes to yourself and kind thoughts of my other friends
among your people.

Yours very truly,
J. R. TOWNSEND.
Please note that I have said nothing about your system of assessment and taxation."
