TWENTY-NINTH YEAR.

CARLSBAD, NEW MEXICO, FRIDAY, NOV. 4, 1921.

NUMBER 48.

PROCLAMATION OF ARMISTICE DAY BY THE GOVERNOR.

Executive Office, Santa Fe, N. M.
The fourth anniversary of Armistice Day is fast approaching. Of all the holidays set aside by custom or law to commemorate landmarks in American history, Armistice Day is destined to become the greatest and most significant, for on this day the warring nations of the earth laid down their arms; and the terrible conflict which led up to its birth, the hopes and aspirations that dawned upon humanity on that day, are of vital interest to the wellbeing of mankind now and for generations to come.

In order that there may be no official restrictions upon the proper observance of Armistice Day in New Mexico, I, Merritt C. Mechem, governor, do hereby declare and proclaim November 11, 1921, as

and a legal holiday in the State of New Mexico.

I respectfully suggest that the American Legion take charge of the ceremonies of the day; that solemn tributes of gratitude be paid to our heroic dead; that we join with the National Government at Washington in mourning at the grave of the unknown American soldier to be buried at Arlington Park, as this unknown youth represents all of our boys who died in the World War, defending our country.

I trust that all churches, lodges, schools, social and civic organizations, labor unions, brotherhoods, and patriotic societies will assist in arranging suitable and dignified ceremonies for the day.

Done at the Executive Office this 30th day of October, A. D., 1921.

Witness my hand and the Great Seal of the State of New Mexico.

MERRITT C. MECHEM.

Governor of New Mexico.

Attest:
Secretary of State.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, the 11th day of Nov. A. D., 1921, being the fourth anniversary of Armistice, has been declared to be a legal holiday.

This day on which the warring nations of the world laid down their arms, there came into the world the dawn of a new hope, of new aspirations and of a lasting peace so that the peoples of the world might be more firmly held together by the bonds of love and fellowship.

In order to forever perpetuate the courage, loyalty and sacrifice of the patriots who offered and gave their services, their lives and their all in the defense of liberty and the freedom of the world, I, M. R. Smith, Mayor (Pro Tem) of the City of Carlshad, New Mexico, do hereby declare November 11th, 1921, as

and a legal holiday in the City of Carlshad, New Mexico.

I suggest that the American Legion have charge of the ceremonies of the day and that all religious and patriotic organizations, lodges, schools, social and civic organizations, join in commemorating this day and that fitting homage be paid to God and to the Heroic Dead.

Done at Carlshad, New Mexico, this 1st day of November, A. D., 1921.

ARMISTICE DAY IN CARLSBAD.

Armistice day is to be observed in Carlshad by a parade and by a mass meeting at the Armory. The Woman's Club is sponsoring the celebration assisted by the Chamber of Commerce, and cooperating with the American Legion. They hope to make this a celebration worthy of the occasion.

It is desired that every auto in town will be decorated with flags and will be ready to fall in line for the parade at ten o'clock Friday morning. The Legion will head the parade, the Boy Scouts will follow and the Cavalry Troop will precede the autos. Cars will line up from the Armory on Canal street headed south. Members of the Troop will act as marshals. At the close of the parade cars must be parked away from the Armory for half a block west and north from the corner. The Carlshad band expects to be ready to help with music.

The exercises will be held within the Armory, with the following program:

Music, Woodmen Orchestra.

Invocation, Mr. Douglas.

"America the Beautiful," Double Quartette.

Brief talk on the purpose of the meeting, Mrs. Bell.

THE FIRST TERRITORIAL BANK HAS BEEN IN BAD CONDITION SINCE LAST JANUARY.

The First Territorial Bank of Lovington closed its doors last Friday afternoon and its directors decided that night to voluntarily put the bank in the hands of the State Bank Examiner. It was well known all over town that the bank was in a precarious condition as a number of its bank drafts had been turned down during the last two or three weeks, yet the actual closing of the doors came as a surprise to many, the general opinion being that the bank would be kept open by Smith & Ricker, financial agents of Kansas City, Mo., who are said to have a mortgage on the building and to have advanced quite a bit of money previously.

There was a strong possibility of this bank closing last winter but at that time the directors paid a fifty per cent assessment and were able to borrow some money which was supposed to put them in a sound financial condition. Most of the business houses of Lovington were hit directly and the rest will suffer indirectly.

There was only about $27,000.00 of individual deposits in the bank at the time of closing, as many people had become suspicious of its soundness and transferred their funds elsewhere.

There is a strong rumor current that some of the bank officials and employees were among those who transferred their funds.

There is also a rumor that the cashier who is president of the Lovington school board, transferred the Lovington school funds to a bank in Roswell a few days prior to the collapse.

Insult was added to injury last Monday when the depositors received notice of protest on their checks, on account of non-payment. The cashier of the bank stated to the editor over the phone Monday evening that Mr. Weiss manager of the Federal Reserve Bank of El Paso, Texas, had ordered this action taken by wire last Saturday. While it is an undisputed fact that this action was legal in every respect, yet the depositors who have lost all their money in the bank and were now called upon to dig up from $2.50 to $5.00 on each check protested, feel that the action was unnecessary and avoidable. It appears as though they caught their best friends down and out and gave them another kick.

The State Bank examiner and a clerk from the Federal Reserve Bank of El Paso arrived Monday afternoon and started to work on the books. No official statement has as yet been made by them or the bank officials as to the reason for closing up but general opinion is that blame will be laid to the general depression in business circles throughout the country and particularly in the stock raising industry. Lovington Leader.

Scout Master Wilmer White is home from camp at El Paso and is in line for work again.

The Strong Man was in evidence at the meeting of Troop 1 Tuesday night, one man lifting five full grown fellows. If you don't believe it be at the next meeting.

Work on the program for next year's encampment will begin soon. Scoutmasters from many points have acknowledged their intention of sending their Scouts here. It will be a glorious affair and we will make Carlshad look like a captured city.

Pride yourselves, Scouts, on your good behavior and doing a good turn daily. Bear in mind that you are a part of this great citizenship and upon you and your conduct depends the future of the country.

UTTER TWO-MINUTE SILENT PRAYER ARMISTICE DAY.

President Harding has issued a proclamation calling on the people of America to utter a silent two-minute prayer at noon on Armistice day, Nov. 11, when the body of an unknown American soldier will be laid to rest in Arlington National cemetery.

For two minutes, beginning at noon, the people are asked to utter a silent prayer to the giver of all good for the valuable and glorious lives and for His divine mercy and blessings upon our beloved country.

215 YEARLINGS TO BE FED OUT THIS WINTER.

J. R. Means and sons, Robert and Hardin, came down from their home at Hope and brought with them 215 white faced yearlings which they sold to the Carter Farm Company and which will be put on feed at their farm in the lower valley. The animals were all about the same size and made a fine appearance in a bunch at the stockyards below town.

ATTENTION ELKS!

R. M. Parsons, the secretary of Roswell Lodge No. 999, R. P. O. E., will arrive on this afternoon's train and will maintain offices at the Crawford Hotel this afternoon and tomorrow where he will be glad to meet all Elks.

LAKEWOOD LOCALS.

J. M. Stroud has sold his store and fixtures to H. D. Cass, who is now in charge of the business, and will continue to run it at the same old stand. Mr. Stroud and wife are preparing to go to Oklahoma where he will embark in the automobile business.

There was a well attended masked ball given at Hotel Lakewood on Halloween night. It was said by those who attended to have been the best dance, and the most enjoyable occasion given in Lakewood for a long time.

F. L. Howard and a crew of hands with trucks are here this week moving the oil rig from the well eighteen miles west of town, and loading it on cars for shipment to Del Rio, Texas.

James Wallace, an old time Lakewood man, now living near Lake Valley, New Mexico, came in Monday for a short visit with his mother, Mrs. J. H. Baker, other relatives and old friends.

Mrs. George McGonagill returned one day last week from Vaughn, N. Mex., where she has been attending Mrs. John Angel, who has been quite sick with typhoid fever. We are glad to state that Mrs. Angel is now able to be up and is out of danger.

A. J. Muzzy, president, and E. A. Roberts, general manager of the Public Utilities company, of Carlshad, were here Monday looking over the company's business at this place.

H. C. Holcomb, Judge Dauron, Mrs. R. A. Larremore and Mrs. B. L. McAlister, were visiting with relatives and friends in Carlshad Tuesday.

Dwight Lee returned Tuesday from the encampment at Fort Bliss. He is delighted with the trip and with the hospitable reception given the boys both at Fort Bliss and El Paso.

Sam Howell who has been caring for some T X cattle near Latham, Kansas, during the winter, returned to his home here last week, and on the following day went on out to the T X ranch.

Mrs. Alice Angel, who has been visiting with her son, Lewis, near Globe, returned to her home in the Sacramento mountains last week.

We regret to have to report that Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lee are both on the sick list this week, suffering with something like old fashioned grip.

J. M. Wood and A. V. Lindsay were business visitors to Hope and Artesia Saturday.

Lester Lindsay, who has been absent in the Panhandle of Texas and other places since last spring, returned to his home here Tuesday.

J. L. Fanning and Lee Standard, who are working on a construction, or bridge train on the Santa Fe, visited homefolks here Sunday.

L. W. Howell, of Lakewood, W. M. Howell, of Roswell, visited with Will Howell at the T X ranch from Friday until Monday, on which date they all went to Roswell for a few days visit.

Reports from Mrs. J. H. Baker, who is at Carlshad taking special treatment, are that she is not improving as fast as her relatives and friends could wish, and they are contemplating taking her to a specialist.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wood were at Carlshad Sunday afternoon to further consult a physician as to Mrs. Wood's health, which has not been good for some time.

The canning season for the famous Lakewood tomatoes is over. Mr. Crozier and his small crew of helpers have canned nearly three car loads of the finest tomatoes in the world, for which they found a ready market, and could have sold many more car loads if they had them.

Washington, Oct. 31.—A conference was held today by republican senators from Pacific, western and middle west states with reference to a policy on tariff in aid of protecting western products. Fourteen states were represented. It was agreed that wool should have a duty of 33 cents, scoured basis. The same schedule for mohair, dry hides, 6 cents. Green hides, 2 cents per pound. Senator Bureum participated in the conference. Tariff on mineral products was also brot up and agreed on.

The object of the conference was to promote united support so as to give western states a square deal.

NEW MEXICO CITIES LET MANY CONTRACTS FOR PAVING ROADWAY.

Many of New Mexico's cities and towns are going in for extensive street paving, according to Lamar Cobb, representative of the Southwestern Portland Cement company, who has just returned to El Paso from a trip to several cities in New Mexico. Some of these towns have paving programs that are far beyond many cities several times their size.

Mr. Cobb states that the city council of Carlshad, on Tuesday, let a contract for 15 blocks of concrete paving in the business section of the city. In speaking of paving in New Mexico cities, Mr. Cobb mentioned Gallup, which has laid 20 blocks of paving during the past 18 months. In the same period Las Cruces has laid seven blocks and Clovis has laid 20 blocks. Clovis has a program calling for the letting of contracts for 50 more blocks of paving in the spring.

Three types of paving are being used in New Mexico, said Mr. Cobb. These are concrete, bituminous and brick.

Roswell, Silver City, Albuquerque, Santa Fe, and Las Vegas all have considerable mileage of paving now. Mr. Cobb says, and contemplate adding considerably to this during next year.—El Paso Times.

CROP REPORT IN STATE SHOWS YEAR GOOD ONE; YIELD UNUSUALLY LARGE.

Las Cruces, N. M., Oct. 28.—Reports from farmers of the state compiled by R. F. Hare, agriculture statistician, show that in spite of the bad months of August and September the yield of crops in the state for the year had been a large one.

The corn crop is estimated at 7,344,000 bushels; spring wheat, 1,890,000 bushels; oats, 2,100,000 bushels; barley 588,000 bushels; white potatoes, 384,000 bushels; sweet potatoes, 284,000 bushels; apples, 494,000 boxes; grain sorghums, 5,832,000 bushels; broom corn, 1,500 tons; beans, 968,000 bushels; cotton, 7,000 bales.

With the exception of beans, the crops of the state in general will yield less than the forecast reported early in September, but this is true all over the country.

OFF TO AMERICAN LEGION CONVENTION.

Major E. P. Bujac and Muri Nornhauser left Saturday night to be in attendance at the Legion Convention to be held at Kansas City this week. Many notables will be present, among them Marshal Foch, and Lord Beatty and many others from abroad as well as from our own land.

Major made an address before the convention, advocating the plan of the government giving land scrip to the disabled soldiers, in lieu of a cash bonus. There are yet millions of acres of government land in the west, some of which has never yet been surveyed, and the speaker advocated the giving of this land in lots of greater or less acreage, according to location. His address was well received and acted upon. Both gentlemen are expected to return this afternoon or tomorrow.

DOES PRESIDENT HARDING PRACTICE WHAT HE PREACHES?

(By Wallace Bassford.)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 29.—When President Harding said in his speech at Birmingham, "Whether you like it or not, if our Democracy is not a lie, you must stand for the political and economic equality of the races," he was uttering a sentiment which will sooner or later have deeper effect in the north than in the south, and he was undertaking the old and impossible task of measuring unlike things with the same yardstick.

Of course the real purpose of the speech was political; he expressed the desire that the white people of the south would divide up on economic lines and forget the race question—which is nothing but the old, old effort to break the solid south. Even Lincoln dreamed of it, and every Republican president since has tried his hand at it—all in vain. The President also urged the negroes to divide their ranks on political questions—knowing all the time they would not do it. He knew that those who take sufficient interest or pride in their new-found rights to vote, still vote more than 99 per cent for the candidates bearing the Republican label.

Conditions in the Southern states demonstrate two things: first, that the Southern white people are not going to have equality of any kind between the races; they couldn't have if they wished, and they will never wish it. The differences, socially, economically and ethically, are fundamental and ineradicable; they go back to creation's dawn and to the Creator; they have always existed and always will. The ipse dixit of a president is uttered, talked of for awhile and is forgotten, while the age-old fundamental obstacles remain. In Egypt, before the Exodus even, an Egyptian writer, speaking of the negro, said: "He is different; his skull is not like ours; it ossifies at the age of puberty, after which the brain does not grow." That is a free translation from the cuneiform characters of the Egyptians. The difference noted then exists now.

If the president's words, quoted in the first paragraph, mean anything, they mean that the negro must be allowed to work on an absolutely equality with the white mechanic or artisan. To be allowed to so work, he would of necessity have to be admitted to membership in the labor unions—the bricklayers' union, the carpenters' union, the steamfitters, the boilermakers, the stonecutters, the tanners, the cigar-makers, the machinists, the electricians, the typographical union. The president says: "You must stand for the political and economic equality of the races." It will be interesting to note if the question will appeal to the great labor leaders of the country with the same force with which it seems to have gotten hold of the president. It is interesting to ask how such equality is possible in the northern cities to which the negro has flocked in recent years, where practically all labor is performed by the members of labor unions, operating under their rules, which require that each member demonstrate before a selected committee his ability to perform skillfully the work properly falling to members of that union. I believe it is true at the present time that all negroes are barred from membership in these unions, and I am informed by union men that there are a few negroes in those cities who could pass the required examinations provided they were admitted to them. Now the question naturally arises will the great unions yield to the plainly expressed determination of the president? Those who have tested the temper of those men in other matters do not think so.

If the president is sincere in his startling utterance, he should show his faith by his works. The world is still judging the tree by its fruit. Something like twenty per cent of the Republicans are negroes; on that basis, twenty per cent of all the president's appointments should go to negroes. They should have two members of the cabinet, while part of the assistant secretaries in the departments should be negroes, and part of the president's office force, a few members of the Diplomatic Corps, two Associate Justices of the Supreme Court, et cetera. But will the appointments be made? No, not one of them—in fact, the negroes will not get at President Harding's hands three appointments that are desired by white Republican politicians. It is reported that the President hasn't even selected a negro chauffeur, and the country will wait breathlessly to see if any of his vacancies in the cadet corps at West Point and Annapolis will be filled with negro boys. Political sincerity like charity, should begin at home; like charity, Ohio, yearns for a negro postmaster.

Before the Armistice Conference begins the President will have time to go to California and repeat the Birmingham speech, merely substituting the word "Japanese" for the word "negroes". Why not?

Dave and John McCollum came in this week from the mountains, bringing with them nine sacks of mohair, their fall clip.

TROOP "H" RETURNS FROM FT. BLISS.

The men comprising Troop "H" who had been in encampment at Fort Bliss, El Paso, Texas, returned Tuesday about noon. They report a fine time with excellent health among the 600 men present from various parts of the state.

All are pleased at the treatment shown them while on their trip, many of the men embracing the opportunity to visit Juarez while in the Paso City. On their return home the men of Troop B were feted at the Crawford hotel, to which all did ample justice. The menu consisted of fried chicken, creamed potatoes, sweet potatoes, pie and other good things that made several persons wish they too were members of the Troop. At the close of the meal, cigars and cigarettes were passed around and a social time was spent, with speeches from various persons, among them Captain West, and Lieutenant Will Miller for the troop.

The mean things you say are gradually forgotten, but the mean things you write may spring up to taunt you at any time.

ADDRESS BY PRESIDENT OF HOME AND SCHOOL ASSOCIATION.

At the last meeting of the Home and School Association, that being the first meeting under the new officers, the following address was made by the president, Mrs. Arin-strong, and as it gives such a good idea of what the association hopes to accomplish through its different committees, the Current is pleased to publish the paper entire:

President's Address.
At the beginning of a new year,
the work of this organization should go forward with renewed energy and on the broadest, most comprehensive plans and platform possible. It is a great work this body has accomplished in the past, but the limit of its possibilities have not been reached.
Its power for good can hardly be estimated until we have a more numerous membership and our activities thereby broadened.

Our finance committee can and will perform a great service in enlarging our membership and procuring at all meetings the maximum attendance. It will likewise provide the sinews of war, for the need of which we are seriously handicapped.

Work, peculiar to the activities of this organization, is the crying need of the hour. No member, no parent, no teacher can afford to do less than his whole duty.

You will expect our programs to be timely, helpful and entertaining.
A great and necessary spur to our latent energies can and will be accomplished through snappy, well-directed program.

The social status of parents and teachers with one object in view, that of bettering conditions generally in behalf of the child and youth, can and must be improved. The social hour, in its proper conception, is capable of wonderfully fine results.
Especially so if we forget all but the fact that we want to help and be helped. By social contact, we learn to know and properly appreciate many persons naturally designed and gifted to be useful to society in some certain particulars. By social contact we take the mental measurement of each other and are thereby enabled to know definitely the work best suited to each individual.

I have no doubt but that a careful and frequent visitation and survey of our schools will, at all times, maintain a proper and sympathetic understanding between teacher, parent and pupil. Reports when considered advisable, will be made for consideration of the association. Inside and outside decoration of all school buildings will have proper attention with a view toward making all rooms attractive and inviting to both teacher and student and with a view toward cultivating a love for the beautiful and artistic.

GRANDMA HILL'S BROTHER DEAD.

"Grandma Hill," the mother of Mrs. John T. Bolton, and probably the oldest woman in Carlsbad, this week received news of the death of her only brother and the last surviving member of her mother's family with the exception of herself.
His name was Thomas Bennison, and the death occurred in Kewanee, Illinois. He was 84 years old, four years the junior of Mrs. Hill, who will be 88 years old should she live until Christmas day.

The deceased had resided in Kewanee since 1865 and his home paper speaks in highest terms of his life as a business man and of late years as a retired citizen.

He, as well as Mrs. Hill, were members of the Primitive Methodist church and was a fine type of Christian business man and will be greatly missed in his home town.

Carlsbad friends sympathize deeply with "Grandma Hill" in the death of her only brother, while feeling sure that the reunion is not far off.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Gorley, received by a number of their friends the latter part of last week, has brought pleasure to many in this city who know and love the Gorley family:

"To announce the arrival of Wilma Lynette, October 18th, 1921, at 9 P. M., weight 6 1-2 pounds."

The happy event took place at the family home near Golden, Colorado, where they have recently located,
purchasing a farm in that section.
Good wishes in abundant measure are the baby's from the friends of her father and mother, whose friends in Carlsbad are numbered by their acquaintances.

ELKS CHARITY BALL NOV. 4

A UNIQUE PARTY.

J. M. Halbert, who has been in Sisters' Hospital for about two weeks realizing the approach of Halloween and wishing to have a part in the festivities commonly indulged in, planned for a party for himself in which he was aided and abetted by his personal friend, Mrs. W. E. Smith. This kind lady dressed the young man up in sure-enough ghostly style, (and every one is aware of her abilities in that line) and about ten or twelve of the boy's most intimate friends of varying ages, similarly attired, graced the occasion. Mrs. Halbert had sent her son a box of Halloween decorations and the room was tastefully trimmed with these and other decorations. After spending an hour with the little fellow, and every one being treated to ice cream cones, the company dispersed. The good Sisters lent their aid toward making the affair a success, and to them thanks are due; fortunately for J. M. there was no very sick patients in the hospital at that time.

A Halloween party in which about fifty of our young people participated, was held at the residence of Frank Jones, in West Carlsbad, Monday night, Miss Gladys Jones being the clever hostess. Many of the guests were masked and dressed in various Halloween costumes and all enjoyed themselves in the games provided for their amusement. Among others, William Mercer secured a big box of candy for planning a fall on a black cat. After the young folks had indulged in different kinds of games, the floors were cleared and the Edison turned on and for a while dancing reigned supreme. Another item of interest was the fine menu provided for the guests: sandwiches, pie, doughnuts, and, as with cocoa and whipped cream, made a fitting finale to the happy affair.

Our people, who are always interested in the Halbert children, will be pleased to learn that little "J. M." who was recently operated on for appendicitis at Sisters Hospital, will be able to join his mother in Roswell, leaving either tomorrow or Sunday night. J. M. has been treated nicely by all our people during his stay at the hospital, and seldom has any one there had so many flowers and other things sent to them by their friends.

HAY TRADE CONDITIONS OF THE WEEK.

Not much change has been shown in the general market situation this week. The threatened rail strike has been called off and a somewhat easier feeling is manifested in most markets in consequence, though no change is shown in the quoted prices. Receipts have been plentiful except in one or two instances and markets generally are fairly steady. The greatest advance in prices is shown in New York City where the offerings this week have been small and demand strong, with all arrivals quickly absorbed.—Hay Trade Journal.

CLAY MCGONIGAL'S BODY PASSES THROUGH HERE.

Relatives of the late Clay McGonigal passed through Carlsbad Saturday morning with his body enroute to Lovington where the interment occurred, coming in from the south Friday night. Word here is to the effect that Mr. McGonigal was working for the government on an Indian reservation in the southern part of Arizona, Sacaton being the name of the place where the accident happened which caused his death. It is said that he was on a load of hay, and in some unexplained way, he caught hold of the wire and was instantly killed.

The deceased, who was well known by all oldtimers in this section leaves a wife and son, two sisters, Mrs. Sid Kyle, of Pecos, and another sister, Mrs. Alfred Boyd of Arizona, and his parents, who reside on the Plains in the Lovington district. His people are prominent among the old-timers and Clay himself is said to have been one of the most magnetic personalities, kindly and ever loyal to his friends. The late Joe Gardner, who died in El Paso a few weeks ago, was a personal friend of Mr. McGonigal and both were prominent ropers.

Many old friends here where he was so well known and where he was familiar with men and conditions for years, deplore his untimely death and extend sympathy to the bereft relatives.

LEONARD ADAMS PASSES AWAY.

James Leonard Adams, an old and highly respected citizen died at the Sisters Hospital last Sunday after only a few days illness, from cerebral hemorrhage. Realizing that the end was near, relatives in Chicago were notified by wire, and started at once, but before arriving here life had fled.

Mr. Adams was born in Ohio and had been a resident of Carlsbad for a number of years, and at the time of his death was 72 years, 4 months and 6 days old. About four years ago he united with the Christian church in this city and was baptized by Reverend Bellards, who also conducted his funeral. An unusually quiet and unassuming man, he yet was loyal to his convictions and made and retained the friendship and esteem of all who came in touch of his influence. He will be greatly missed, especially by the little congregation of "The Homelike Church" of which he was a member. He attended every service, and manifested his devotion to the church of his choice in many ways.

The remains were taken to the church and services conducted there by his pastor assisted by Reverend Lowry, at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon and the remains were afterward conveyed to City Cemetery where a brief committal service was read and the body so familiar to all Carlsbad citizens, was laid to rest. The pall bearers were Messrs Will Purdy, F. G. Snow, George Beckett, E. H. Hemmaway, William Balz and N. T. Daugherty.

The old hymns that he had loved, "Rock of Ages" and "Asleep in Jesus," were sung at the church by Miss Linn, Mesdames Lowry and Purdy and Dr. Lowry and as the casket was lowered, "Nearer My God to Thee," and the mortal remains of James Leonard Adams, brother, friend and Christian gentleman, awaits the general resurrection. "Blessed are the dead, who die in the Lord."

PASSING OF SAMUEL R. BALLARD

Mrs. Lucius Anderson, an old friend of the above named, handed us the clipping which is given below. Mr. Ballard at one time lived in this city, and run the railroad between here and Roswell. He was an uncle of Charley Lewis and many of our people who lived here in the old days, twenty odd years distant, will hold him in remembrance. Mrs. Ballard made a lengthy stay in this city about four years ago, and was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Anderson at that time.

"Samuel R. Ballard was born in Burlington, Iowa, September 20, 1849. Died in Burlington, Iowa, Sunday morning, October 23, 1921. Aged 72 years, 1 month and 3 days. The sad news reached Bethany, Sunday morning of the passing of one of our best friends, Samuel R. Ballard, of Burlington, Iowa. We know that all who enjoyed the privilege of knowing Mr. Ballard will feel an overpowering sense of personal loss. He was one of the most democratic and accessible of men. He was a friend that could always be depended on. His time and money were at the command of the needy and his hospitable home was always an open house. He was a man of good deeds and kindly actions.

"In his going we extend heartfelt sympathy to his devoted wife, who has been such a comfort to many in time of bereavement."—Bethany, Missouri Clipper.

Your Sixty-Three Dollars

WE do not mean to pry into your private affairs, but—have you any money in the bank?

You have. Perhaps only $100. The exact amount does not matter.

Taken all in all there are some 27,000,000 depositors in the banks of this country. These banks have invested, approximately, $1,700,000,000 in public utilities securities.

That makes your financial interest in public utility stock at least $63.

That brings you down to a direct and personal partnership in the power company behind the wires in your house, in your office, in your factory! There are some 1,450,000 American citizens who had faith enough in the future of electricity to invest, first-hand, in the securities of the electric light and power companies. They were investors with vision. You are an investor by chance—but none the less an investor.

While 35,000,000 Americans enjoy electric service in their homes, there are still 14,000,000 homes in the United States not supplied with electric light, more than half of which sooner or later will demand electric service.

It is authentically stated that 1,500,000 homes, 500,000 factories, 5,000 churches, 60,000 apartment buildings, 15,000 theatres and 5,000 public schools must be built and wired immediately.

What does all this indicate to you?

Simply that the electric light and power industry of the United States is little more than at the beginning of its development and activities. It is seeking to extend its service capacity so it may care for demands from these millions of residents promptly and efficiently as the need or desire for service arises.

Mrs. Hughes, the mother of Mrs. George O'Connor, was moved to the Eddy County Hospital the latter part of last week, that she might have the benefit of expert treatment and nursing. We regret to state that she is very low at this time with chances against her.

Rev. T. C. Mahan, of the local Baptist church, has been at home this week since Monday getting acquainted with his family, from whom he has been absent for some time. He will leave again Saturday for Albuquerque, to be present at the opening of the Baptist State Convention.

Miss Bertha, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Shattuck, is in Eddy County Hospital for special treatment this week, and is getting on nicely according to a report from that institution this morning.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mark Shafer left Wednesday morning for Pecos, where he has a store and restaurant similar to the one he is running here. He expects to return this evening.

W. E. Shattuck was taken to Eddy County Hospital Tuesday and on Wednesday morning underwent an operation. His friends have been very uneasy over his condition and it is hoped after he recovers from this his health will be much better.

Mrs. Keen Barr had baby, Grace Ellen, arrived in Carlsbad Monday night from their home in Albuquerque to be in attendance at the sick bed of her mother, Mrs. A. C. Geer, whose condition, we are glad to state is improving each day.

Miss Marguerite Roberts, who represented New Mexico at the opening of the Cotton Palace, at Waco, Texas with her chaperone, Mrs. Glasier, returned home last Monday evening. The ladies are enthusiastic in reports of the fine time they enjoyed in the beautiful and hospitable city of Waco.

Preparation are making for the Hope Rodeo, to be given at that place November 10, 11, and 12, and the committee in charge states that this one will far surpass any other ever given in that section of the country. A number of ropers and riders from Carlsbad will attend and compete.

Mrs. Alice Patterson has returned from Ohio, and has again taken her place in the local telephone exchange and is being welcomed by a host of old friends. Carlsbad people have cause for congratulation in their telephone service, Mrs. Patterson being one of the old dependable operators and Mrs. Collins being another, while the night and relief operators have always been of the best, kindly and accommodating in their rather trying and nerve-racking positions.

Way back in the dark, dim, dreary ages,

He used stony weapons and lived in rocky ledges
And when he wooed—he persuaded with stone sledges.

He wooed alone for his own welfare,
For his mate had to work—and work darn hard,
For he had to rest—he sure was a card.

We all want our wives to have smiling faces,
We let her buy powder, some rouge and pink paste,

A TRIBUTE TO MR. HOLLOWAY.

The following beautiful tribute, penned by Dr. R. J. Boatman, of this city, was forwarded to the West Plains paper and the Current persuaded the writer to allow us to print the same, knowing that our people would enjoy its classic beauty and endorse the sentiments so beautifully expressed:

"Through some mystic hand I have received a copy of your most excellent paper. It brought the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. Gregory Morton Holloway, one of the best men I ever knew. While he made his home in this country, I was his family physician and I always found him a man of honor and utterly without guile. His friends are numbered by the thousands. His life has been painted in richer colors and more tender tints than my pen can tell. He was a man of unvarnished character, a true and confident friend, a good neighbor, a kind father, a loving husband, and a noble citizen. But, alas, his labor and good works with the living are now ended, and the body we have so dearly loved has been consigned to the tomb. Here, cold and lifeless, is the heart which just now was the seat of friendship; here, dim and sightless, is the eye, whose radiant orb beamed with intelligence, and here, closer forever, are those lips on whose persuasive accents we have so often hung with transport. From the darkness of the tomb there reflects a light, in which we can see those sandy objects men pursue only as phantoms. The bubble which seemed to have so much firmness, has burst, and we again see that all below the sun is vanity. In this light, how dimly shines the splendor of victory. But beyond its portals there shines another light; it is the Star of Hope. Father Holloway is not dead; I refuse to believe it. He has simply passed from the activities of his long and useful life to the greater activities of the larger, fuller life far out on the Unseen Shore, beyond the Unknown Sea. He has reached the mystic isle where the craft of those who have sailed before already lie at anchor, and there he has successfully furled his sails in a safe mooring protected from wind and storm. We know that the trees will bloom again, become radiant with their foliage, and vibrant with the songs of birds; the flowers and plants will blossom again, giving forth their fragrance and beauty after a brief winter. This Star of Hope has lifted man from the darkened ages of barbarity to knowledge and happiness; it has infused all the great minds of the ages; it has inspired the poets and master singers; it has guided the hands of the sculptor and painter and it has been the guide that has led millions to a home beyond this mortal ken. How unspeakably pleasant it is to see the silver-haired pilgrim, in the far advanced evening time of life, cheerful, happy, trustful in God and hopeful of men; the winds and storms of life bringing little or no disturbance of his peace; baring the head reverently and bowing it meekly in the presence of great afflictions; and lifting it up rejoicingly when blessings fall upon it; converting by the soft, subdued and beautiful sunshine which he spread around him, the very unpromising elements of the latest autumn into the finest Indian Summer of life; and finally sinking down peacefully to his rest, amid the golden evening sunshine and leaving the sky long after tinted with colorings more beautiful than artists ever conceived.

"Why weep ye, then, for him who, having won The bound of man's appointed years, at last— Life's blessings all enjoyed, life's labors done, Serenely to his final rest has passed While the soft memory of his virtues, yet Lingers, like twilight hues, when the bright sun is set."

RED CROSS WORKER HERE.

Miss Mary Ann Cross, a Red Cross worker, from St. Louis, was here this week in the interest of that organization, leaving Wednesday night. It was at first intended to apply the funds secured to employ a nurse, but that being impossible, the funds are to be used in other important lines. Fifty cents of each contribution to the Red Cross, be it large or small, goes to the headquarters, the remainder is to be kept for local use. Many persons have not understood that and the Current has been asked to mention the fact. The annual Roll Call will begin on Armistice Day and last through Thanksgiving day.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Armistice Day will be recognized Sunday with morning worship in the Presbyterian church, and the sermon will bear upon "The Policy of Peace". There will be church school at ten o'clock, and at seven the young people will study "Bible Inspiration." Wednesday evening at seven-thirty the special interest will be the epistles to the seven churches of Asia as found in Revelation.

FORMING GOOD READING HABITS

If parents wish their children to form good reading habits they must first form such habits themselves. And there is no better way to do this than to bring into the household a periodical that will be of interest to every member of it; that will supply the best reading for old and young. Among the periodicals of this description The Youth's Companion is unique. Not only does it aim to entertain and inform boys and girls in their teens, as its name suggests, but there is not a page in it that parents can pass over with indifference.

The 52 issues of 1922 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and receive:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1922.
2. All the remaining issues of 1921.
3. The Companion Home Calendar for 1922.

All for $2.50.
4. Or include McCall's Magazine, the monthly authority on fashions. Both publications, only $3.00.

WORLD CONFERENCE STARTS NOV. 12

Washington D. C., Oct. 28.—Definite decision to hold the first session of the conference on limitation of armament on the morning of Saturday, Nov. 12, instead of Armistice Day, Nov. 11, was announced today at the state department. It was found impossible to reconcile even an informal gathering of the conference on Armistice Day, with the program of ceremonies connected with the burial of America's unknown soldier.

Some of the liveliest people on earth are those with one foot in the grave.

HALLOWEEN AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The feast of "All Hallow's" was appropriately celebrated at the local Christian church, last Monday night, by the members of Mrs. Sellards' Sunday school class, and a few friends. The room was lavishly decorated in real Hallowe'en colors of black and yellow with the black cat predominating everywhere, while covered electric lights lent the "spooky" air so much to be desired on an occasion of this kind. Owls, those ghostly denizens of the wood, whose hooting is said by the superstitions to announce the presence of ghostly visitors and therefore were very appropriate to an occasion like that, were seen distributed around the room. Large Jack-O-Lanterns adorned the piano and many of the guests were in costume.

An elaborate program was given, opened by Miss Purdy, who gave a fine piano solo and from then on the audience, which filled the church, gave undivided attention to the various performers. Piano solos were also given by a number of young people which convinced all present that the Christian church will have a number of fine musicians in a few years.

An original reading, a parody on "Little Orphan Annie", was given by Miss Clyde Pearce, which was full of all allusions to the various members of the church, and proved the most fascinating bit of the evening, if we except the rendition of Lynn Dillard, who told us about "Seein' Things at Night," in a very charming, natural manner. Mrs. A. Moore gave two readings which received hearty applause.

At the close of the program, a collection was received, which amounted to almost twenty dollars and which will be used toward defraying a debt on the church building. Pie and coffee were then served to every one present and a social hour was enjoyed by all.

REV. HOMER L. MAGEE DEAD.

A wire received Monday by Rev. D. F. Sellards, pastor of the Christian church, announced the death at Pecos, on that day of the Rev. Homer L. Magee, pastor of the church at Pecos for many years, and an intimate friend of Mr. Sellards. The cause of death was tuberculosis from which the deceased has been a sufferer for many years. He leaves beside countless friends, a widow and two daughters, one Miss Julia, who is attending college at Fort Worth, and the other, Miss Mary, who is in high school at Pecos. Bro. Sellards and Bro. Magee have been intimate friends as stated, and the wire requested the Carlsbad minister's presence and assistance at the burial of his brother in the work, but owing to a funeral here he was obliged to decline. Many friends here and in this section of the country will mourn the loss of this fine preacher and good man.

LOCAL NEWS.

N. L. Randolph went up to Roswell Wednesday and made a business visit in that city, returning yesterday.

W. E. Washington is in town this week from his Black River ranch where he has plenty of grass and water.

Dave McCollum, Collin Gerrells and Dolph Shattuck, a trio of cattle men from the Guadalupe, spent much of the week in the city.

Mrs. W. J. Barber is intending to put 1,200 cattle on the Washington ranch the first of the week, she having her range overstocked, and being short of both grass and water.

Rom Holt is in town preparing to ship 600 head of cows and calves to market from his ranch on the Plains. The cattle are being driven in and will probably reach the stock pens today.

Sam Campbell, who left on a trip to Kansas City, for Bill Lusk, accompanying some cattle, wired his wife from there Wednesday that he will continue his journey to various points in Iowa before returning home.

Do you like good, catchy music? Then come to hear Princess Chrysanthemum at Crawford Theatre, Tuesday night, November 8th at 8 o'clock.

The local W. C. T. U. will hold its regular meeting at the Baptist church parlor, next Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock. A full attendance is necessary in order that plans may be formulated for the "Miscellaneous Sale" to be put on by the union the 19th of this month.

ART CLASSES.

Miss Effie V. Hart will teach classes in oil, water color and china painting at her home Canyon street. Children's class from 9 to 10 o'clock Saturday mornings—tuition, one dollar per month.

A party Monday night at the John Heise home in the north part of town was greatly appreciated by the dozen or more boys who were guests there, they being members of Mrs. Heise's Sunday school class of the Methodist Sunday school. Many of the little boys were in fancy costume, appropriate to Halloween, and enjoyed the festivities with games of various kinds provided by their hosts. There was not a dull moment in the entire evening. The house was decorated in seasonable style, grinning Jack-o-lanterns lending their ghostly light on all around. Pumpkin pie, popcorn balls and marshmallows were the refreshments and the boys on leaving for their respective homes, expressed in no measured terms their appreciation of the hospitality of their teacher whose home is ever open for their benefit. Mrs. T. J. Kindel assisted the hostess in serving.

Eunice Herring had a birthday Wednesday at which a number of her relatives and friends remembered her with dainty gifts and her particular friend, Barber Nell Thomas, made special efforts to entertain her, taking her to the picture show and Sweet Shop and offering her numbers of courtesies, which are greatly appreciated.

Tom Gray cattleman, spent a part of the week in town.

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 6

PAUL'S EXPERIENCES AT JERUSALEM.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 21:1-24.
GOLDEN TEXT—God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will we not fear him—Ps. 124:3 (a).
REFERENCE MATERIAL—II Tim. 2:15-17, 23-24, 25.
PRIMARY TOPIC—How Paul's Nephew Saved His Life.
JUNIOR TOPIC—A Boy Tells of a Plot Against Paul.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Paul and His Enemies.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Paul Attacked by a Jewish Mob.

I. Paul's Arrest (21:1-40).

The immediate occasion of this was his effort to remove the prejudice which certain ones held against him. His reception by representatives of the church was most cordial. In order that all the brethren in Jerusalem might graciously receive him, it was proposed to him by the elders that he take a Jewish vow to prove that he was in no way opposed to the law. They recognized that such an act would in no way compromise or involve the Gentile brethren. As to how far this act conciliated the Jews we are not told, but it only enraged the unbelieving Jews, causing them to resort to mob law. These madmen, seized him and dragged him from the temple and beat him mercilessly, intending to put him to death. Paul was rescued from the mob by the Roman guard, stationed nearby. Paul kept himself under control and politely asked permission of the captain to speak to the people. When he addressed him in Greek and quoted his Roman citizenship, the captain granted his request.

II. Paul's Defense (22:1-27).

1. His claim for a rightful hearing (vv. 1-3). (1) His birth (v. 3). He was a Jew born in Tarsus, a city of no mean reputation. (2) His education (v. 3). He was educated in school under the tutelage of Gamaliel, and instructed "according to the perfect manner of the fathers" (v. 3). His zeal (v. 3). He was as zealous toward God as those Jews who were trying to destroy him.
2. His attitude toward Jesus (vv. 4, 5). "I persecuted this way unto the death"—It was one of hatred, as was that of the Jews.
3. How his attitude was changed (vv. 6-10). It was brought about by the intervention of God.
4. The Lord commissioned him to go to the Gentiles (vv. 17-21). It was not of his own will that he preached to the Gentiles, but by the Lord's direct commission.
III. Paul Before the Sanhedrin (23:1-10).

The Roman officer, in order to learn why Paul was arrested, commanded the chief council to assemble, and brought Paul before them.

1. Paul's earnest look at the council (vv. 1, 2). This was a solicitation of their honor to give him a fair hearing, and also a look of conscious integrity and unflinching courage. He protests that his behavior as a persecutor of the church and preacher of the Gospel has been in keeping with the highest principle of national integrity. At this the high priest ordered him to be smitten on the mouth.
2. Paul's stern rebuke of the head of the council (v. 3). "God shall smite thee, thou whited sepulcher"—fair without and foul within. This was a just sentence, no doubt directed by the Lord. Paul's words show that he had the highest respect for the office, but the man now occupying it was not worthy of it.

3. Paul's appeal to the Pharisees (vv. 6-10). Seeing that he could not get a fair hearing, and perceiving that the body before him was made up of Pharisees and Sadducees, he appealed to the Pharisees, hoping to get their attention, for his preaching had something in common with their beliefs. This resulted in a squabble.

IV. The Lord Stood by Paul (v. 11). Paul was in great need of grace to sustain him. He may have begun to question the wisdom of his course in going to Jerusalem, but this assured him that his course was right, and thus comfort was brought to him.

V. The Conspiracy to Kill Paul (vv. 12-22).

More than forty men banded together for the purpose of getting Paul out of the way. They placed themselves under a curse to abstain from eating and drinking until they had murdered him. God defeated their plans without a miracle. This was done by Paul's nephew. Their fatal mistake was that they left God out of the question.

An Influence.

The doors of your soul are open on others and theirs on you. Simply to be in the world, wherever you are, is to exert an influence—an influence compared with which mere language and persuasion are feeble.—Horace Bushnell.

The Glory of the Lord.
God came from Teman, and the Holy one from Mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.—Habakkuk 3:3.

MEETING OF WOMAN'S CLUB.

From various causes the meeting of the Woman's Club held last Tuesday was not as largely attended as usual, but a most interesting meeting was held with the reports from the delegates to the State Federation recently in session at Roswell, occupying much of the time. Another important matter taken up was a protest on the part of a number of Club members as to the destruction of the trees with the contemplated paving and a committee consisting of Mesdames McCollum, Dishman and Ervin was appointed by the president to go before the city council and represent the views of the Club and request that no more trees be removed than is absolutely necessary in the business part of town. The club women have also decided to celebrate Armistice Day in association with the American Legion, a representative of which body met with them on Tuesday. An entire program for this celebration cannot be given in today's Current, but a tentative program will be found in another column of this issue.

Miss Edith Bule, who taught the Sixth grade of Carlsbad grammar schools last year and is now attending the School of Journalism in connection with the State University at Austin, Texas, is making great advancement in her chosen work. In a recent test of 150 students, from which were to be chosen reporters for the College paper, the Daily Texan, Miss Bule was one of three to receive the honor. She has many friends here who regretted that she left the teaching profession, in which she was very successful, who now congratulate her on the honor she has attained in her new work.

HALLOWE'EN IN CARLSBAD.

Hallowe'en was spent in this city much as is usually done, with perhaps more of the regulation celebrations than is usually the case. A number of parties were held, beginning Saturday night when the young folk of the B. Y. P. U. entertained their friends with a "spook" party at the parlors of the church. A fine time was enjoyed by the young people present at these festivities.

The Campfire Girls and Boy Scouts of Troop 2, held a joint celebration at the J. F. Flowers home last Saturday night. About sixty children were present and played games of various kinds and were treated to cake, cocoa, candy and apples, which had been provided in abundance leaving for their homes at eleven o'clock, all tired with the sports, but happy.

MALAGA ITEMS.

Mrs. J. L. Williams was not up but a few days after returning from the hospital until she was forced to take her bed again. As yet Dr. Pate has not told us his decision as to the cause of her illness. Miss Henderson is with her.

John R. Means and two of his sons, Bob and Hardin, of Hope, have spent two days with John R. Plowman and family. Mr. Means has just delivered some steers. This brought them as far as Otis, so they came on down here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Hoag were Carlsbad visitors this week.

Up to Wednesday night the Malaga Gin Company has put out six hundred and seven bales of cotton.

Miss Pearl Henderson says she had quite a pleasant visit at home the past week-end.

Miss Henderson's home is in Artesia.

The young people spent a pleasant evening playing rook Thursday of last week. They always have fun when they are invited to Jesse Plowman's. Those present were: Misses Macie Usary, Elizabeth Johnson and Pearl Henderson. Messrs. Bob James, Bob Lowrey and Elmer Baber.

DEATH OF A BABE

Frank Junior, the four-month-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gentry, died at the family home in La Huerta, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock and was laid to rest Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in City Cemetery.

During the four months of the baby's existence, it had never been well, and constant and unremitting care was necessary to keep the spark of life in the little frame. Tuesday without a conscious struggle, the little soul departed to the land where there is no sickness and no pain.

Reverend Douglas, of the Methodist Church, conducted funeral services at the home and made a comforting talk, about the one who loves the child and carries the lamb in his bosom, and the little babe, no larger and not as heavy as an ordinary doll, in its lovely white robes and beautiful casket, was tenderly laid away, leaving the young parents desolate and the home childless; but He who said, "Suffer the little one to come unto Me" will take care of the baby, and he will be safe eternally.

Not in cruelty, not in wrath, The Reaper came that day, 'Twas an angel visited the green earth, And took the flower away."

Dr. Lyander Black left Saturday night for Kansas City, Missouri, where he will spend some days on a business visit.

LOVING NEWS.

Everything is moving along nicely at this place. The yard at the cotton gin is full of wagons and some of the cotton in this section is being hauled to other gins to be worked up. Everything is crowded here. A filling station is being put in by the firm of Morrison & Fardue, which will prove a great convenience to our people, and which we predict will be a paying institution from the start.

J. C. Wilson and Alvin Allinger went to Pecos last Saturday night and were accompanied on their return by Mrs. J. C. Wilson, who had been visiting her people for a month at that place. Mrs. Wilson's sister, Mrs. Cummings, of Pecos, returned with them and will spend a fortnight with her sister in Loving.

Mrs. A. L. Allinger spent Wednesday with friends in the county seat.

The Jordan home is about ready for occupancy and will make another cozy residence in our little city.

The Methodist Women's Missionary Society met for their regular monthly meeting Wednesday. They are planning for a bazaar to be given December 3rd and have agreed to meet each Wednesday to sew and make fancy articles for sale at that time.

The Hallowe'en supper given Monday night, was a great success, both numerically and from a financial standpoint. The affair was given under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' Association, and the money realized will be used in the purchase of necessary equipment of various kinds to add to the efficiency of the schools.

Work was begun this morning on the buildings for the cotton seed oil mill. They are to be erected on the hill between John Nymeyer's place and the railroad tracks. The seed house is to be 50x100 feet, and the machinery building will be 50x120 feet. This in addition to another smaller building which will be used for an office. A larger force of men has been put on and it is expected that the buildings will be completed and ready for work in as short a time as is consistent with good workmanship.

Altogether, Loving is in a very prosperous condition at this time.

SHOT WHILE HUNTING QUAIL.

Will Collins narrowly escaped being killed while on a hunting trip about five miles up the river yesterday afternoon. He was accompanied by his wife, and Mrs. Barnett and her son, Frank. Collins was struck in the shoulder by a buckshot, which glanced off and went on up, lodging in the back of the neck. He was brought to town and physicians extracted the shot from the wound. At first it was thought that he might have been struck by a load from Frank Barnett's gun, but it developed that Frank's gun was loaded with number eight shot. No other person was visible and the shooting is very mysterious. Collins, true to the old adage, about the impossibility of keeping a good man down, is able to be about again, but will feel the effect for some days.

Among other very pleasant celebrations of Hallowe'en was one given by the B. Y. P. U. at the home of Miss Catherine Chilcoat on Monday night. The affair was in the nature of a surprise party and the honor guest, Miss Chilcoat, was certainly surprised, when on reaching her home after taking supper with a friend, to find the house filled with about thirty shrewd and masked figures. Each person was numbered and a guessing contest was held to endeavor to find the identity of each guest.

After unmasking, games of various kinds were played and a fortune teller read the palms of the young people and created much merriment by so doing. Music, which is always a feature of the gatherings in the Chilcoat home, had its place in the pleasures of the evening. Doughnuts, pie and cocoa formed the refreshments and, at the close of the evening all voted the affair a decided success.

Mrs. Fred West and baby, Harriett, returned Monday from their visit to El Paso.

SIXTH GRADE HALLOWE'EN PARTY.

The Sixth Grade of the Grammar School, Miss Taylor teacher, had a fine time at their Hallowe'en party Monday afternoon. Beginning at the afternoon recess, the boys and girls made merry until the close of school. Refreshments were furnished by the pupils and all together a nice spread celebrated the popular day. Sandwiches, pie of delicious pumpkin variety, doughnuts, popcorn and peanuts, and big red apples and fruit punch made a menu that was fit for any hungry school boy or girl or any one else for the matter of that.

Mrs. M. E. Wilson returned Sunday from Loving where she had been visiting at the home of her son, J. C., and has gone to housekeeping with her daughter, Mrs. Sadie Cheatem.
