TWENTY-NINTH YEAR.

CARLSBAD, NEW MEXICO, FRIDAY, NOV. 11, 1921.

NUMBER 49.

PIPE LINE TO RAILROAD COMPLETED. BIG TANKS ARE BEING CONSTRUCTED.

Gushing over the top at intervals for the past ten days the Toyah-Bell No. 2 well, twenty miles north of Pecos has continued to attract much attention. This much showing without any special effort to clean out the well has established in the minds of many oil men the conviction that this is the initial well in a great oil field.

Preliminaries to actually bring in the well are rapidly nearing completion and the cleaning out of the sand in the bottom of the hole which is believed to be hindering the flow is to be started Saturday — or as soon as necessary arrangements are completed for taking care of the oil.

Tankage Nearing Completion.

The big steel tanks have arrived and are on the ground. Workmen began to put them up Friday morning with the probability that they will be completed by Sunday.

The pipe line, which had to be run several miles, connecting the well with the Santa Fe railroad track was to be completed Friday night. Surveys have been completed for an eighteen car switch track to be constructed along the Santa Fe railroad tracks between the Arno station and the Arno bridge. Although the loading facilities for the oil had not been completed at the time this paper goes to press, a big wooden tank had been erected and ready to care for a considerable amount of the oil that is coming from the well. The materials for the construction of the loading rack and switch are enroute to the site and work is to be started probably Monday or Tuesday morning.

Pack Sand Prevents Flow.

It is said that about fifty feet of packed sand is in the hole, and all the oil that comes out has to come through this sand, indicating that a heavy pressure of gas is beneath. Gas continues to rise from the well in clouds.

Satisfactory responses to the aspirations of the swab and bailer have been had during all the past week. A flow of about fifteen barrels of what is declared to be a high grade oil has resulted from each swabbing. The oil at present prices, is estimated to be worth $3.00 per barrel. Because of the oil that has been found the well has been able to operate under its own power the past two weeks.

Because of the reported advance of fifty cents on the Pennsylvania crude oil has added further stimulus to other oil men toward further developments in the field. The oil from the Toyah-Bell No. 2 is said to resemble very closely the standard Pennsylvania crude.

Big Oil Men Here.

Many prominent oil men, some representing some of the biggest companies in America have come to Pecos and many leases are being sold daily on the local exchanges. Also many men who reside in other sections of the state but own land in the Pecos territory have come here to look after their interests. Others are coming daily and are figuring with local property owners for sites for various lines of business. The hotels and restaurants are crowded night and day, but the Chamber of Commerce and the hotels are arranging to take care of all who may come. A rooms committee of the Chamber of Commerce is ready to render any service in getting places for all. At the same time the Chamber of Commerce officials are insisting that none of the local people will be too hasty in demanding high prices. It is planned to avoid boom prices as long as possible. — Pecos Times.

LETTER FROM GEO. H. GIVAN.

A letter from Rev. Geo. H. Givan dated Alamogordo, New Mexico, November 2nd, containing a subscription to the Current, was received. It reads as follows: "Please send me the Current for awhile. We are lost without it. Our new address will be number 440, Fifth street, San Bernardino, California. We are leaving here this morning and expect to arrive tomorrow afternoon. We have had a most delightful visit here with our daughter and her family and we are leaving all of them well. Mrs. Givan and I are both feeling very well this morning. I have preached each Sunday and met many warm friends of former years. I hear many good things about Brother Douglas, for which I am profoundly grateful. Give our kindest regards and best wishes to all inquiring friends. Most cordially yours, GEO. H. GIVAN."

Mrs. Sam Lusk returned from a visit to her parents in Roswell, getting in the latter part of last week. During her visit Mrs. Lusk had the pleasure of attending the State Federation of Women's Clubs which convened in that city.

Rev. F. A. Thorold Eller, rector of Grace church, this city, left yesterday for Pecos, where he goes to hold services.

ELEVEN CARLOADS OF ALFALFA HAY BURNED.

Torelli Calvani, the well known farmer of a few miles below Carlsbad, had the bad luck to lose his entire crop of alfalfa hay by fire Friday night. Eleven car loads of the staple went up in smoke, the fire having made such headway when discovered that nothing could be done except watch it burn and keep the dwelling house from catching fire.

The family was away from home at this time, but saw the blaze from a distance and not being certain what it was hurried on to see if they could render any assistance and on arriving at their home discovered their own barn a mass of flames. The loss falls very heavily on Mr. Calvani, as he was depending largely on his hay to finance himself through the winter, and had only an insurance of $150.00 on the barn and contents. No theory is advanced as to the cause of the fire, unless it was from spontaneous combustion.

START MOVE TO GET A NATIONAL PARK IN STATE.

Las Cruces, N. M., Nov. 1.—El Paso was selected this afternoon as executive headquarters for the southwestern National park committee, looking to the establishment by the federal government of a public playground in southern New Mexico along the lines suggested recently by Albert B. Fall, secretary of the Interior. The special committee of the Las Cruces chamber of commerce, consisting of Frank T. French, chairman, H. H. Brook, president of the Elephant Butte irrigation district, Dr. Harry L. Kent, president of the New Mexico college of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, C. F. Knight, president of the chamber of commerce, and Vincent B. May, met at the office of Mark B. Thompson, counsel for the United States reclamation service, today and discussed the proposal at length. After deciding upon El Paso as the hub of operations the committee arranged to meet with officers of the El Paso chamber of commerce next Friday to formulate plans for an active campaign in New Mexico, Texas, Arizona, Kansas, Oklahoma and southern Missouri Branch officers are to be established at once in the cities and towns in west Texas, New Mexico and Arizona.

The national park plan contemplates setting aside parts of the Mesquero and Alamo forest reserves and building a highway from the nearest reservation to connect with the Elephant Butte dam and lake, seventy-five miles north of Las Cruces.

Secretary McKee of the Albuquerque chamber of commerce says in a letter received today by Mr. Brook that the officers of the organization heartily favored the idea of establishing a national park in this part of New Mexico.

THE ELKS CHARITY BALL.

The Elks' Charity Ball Friday evening at Carlsbad was a very brilliant and enjoyable affair, and was attended by over two hundred guests. The Armory was artistically and cleverly decorated in the Elks colors, and refreshing fruit punch was served throughout the evening from a flower decked table on the stage, over which a number of Carlsbad's pretty girls presided. A committee of Carlsbad ladies in handsome colorful gowns welcomed the guests at the entrance in a very charming informal manner. Lane's jazz orchestra from Roswell furnished a delightful program of up-to-the-minute dance music and from the grand march until the last dance at a late hour, the Charity Ball was a gorgeous success. Those who motored down from Roswell for the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hall, Earl Lusk, Miss Aylshire, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Will Robinson, Mary Jane Robinson, Miss Anette Jacobson, Miss Nell Kemp, Rollo Hinkle, Bob Green and R. M. Parsons.—Roswell News.

1,500 BUSHELS ON FOUR ACRES BANNER SWEET POTATO CROP.

Portales, N. M., Nov. 2.—The Portales valley banner sweet potato yield in 1920 to 1921 bushels on four acres, a showing of nearly 400 bushels to the acre, on the Kenyon place one mile east of Portales, raised by G. P. Clark and Claude Jones.

In spite of the handicap for storage facilities, the Portales Valley Sweet Potato Association is making every effort to care for the present crop. They have filled all the storage warehouses, have leased and fitted up three buildings in the Howard block, as curing plants and have also filled the Faggard building with potatoes. Practically the entire crop is now in shelter, and a good quality of potatoes is assured the consumer.

Criticism may not make every critical person prominent, but it has made a reputation for many, and no one has ever reached prominence without being severely criticized. Criticism of your activities is a certain sign that you are doing something.

MINISTERIAL ALLIANCE IN DORSER DISARMAMENT PROGRAM.

At its regular meeting held Monday, the Ministerial Alliance, of this city, unanimously passed the following resolution and appeal in regard to the National Disarmament program, which is occupying so prominent a part in the minds of the people at this time:

"To the United States Delegation to the Armament Conference, care of Chairman Hughes.

"Our appeal for your best offices to limit National Armament.

"Signed: MINISTERIAL ALLIANCE, Carlsbad, N. M., Nov. 8, 1921."

Similar action was taken at the various churches last Sunday, a vote of the members being taken in order to show that they were in sympathy with the disarmament program.

SCOUT NEWS.

Troop No. 1 regrets to lose Carl and Louis Gordon. They departed for Roswell Monday. We are sure they will go on with the good work and Roswell is lucky to secure two such Scouts.

The Scouts will aid in the celebration of Thanksgiving.

Following is a clipping from an address by Dr. Fisher, our National Scout Executive, who is now in Long Beach and will visit New Mexico soon:

Scouting is a school where tuition is free for a class furnished by members of the ordinary schools; it's a combination of material and mental food imparted in a manner that could be given in no other way.

This definition of the movement among boys that had its inception in America about eleven years ago clearly states the governing influence that this organization has on the growing youth, was made by Charles C. Moore, formerly president of the Panama-Pacific exposition, president of the San Francisco council of Boy Scouts, at the Lions and Optimist clubs' luncheon for the delegates to the twelfth regional convention of Boy Scouts at the Hotel Virginia today.

"The boy of today is the man of tomorrow," Mr. Moore said. Leading manufacturers, financiers and commercial heads have recognized the importance of training the youth with a definite object in view. Parents are aware they could not influence the model son to carry out the aims of the Scouts, but let this chap gain the knowledge offered in the association with his playmates and consider the pledge of helping others and then observe the difference in the general makeup of this boy.

Mr. Moore stated his belief that many of those present would have been better citizens had they, too, been granted the opportunity of gaining the fundamentals adopted for practice of the Boy Scouts.

The scoutmaster, who donates his time and services without monetary consideration was classed as a genius by the speaker.

CATTLE INDUSTRY IS LOOKING BETTER.

There is every indication that the cattle industry in this section is going to show a marked improvement during the next few months. While cattle are still low in price the demand is getting better and stockmen generally feel that there is going to be an upward tendency in the price between now and spring.

The financial aid which will be tendered by the War Finance Corporation will be forthcoming soon and this is going to make more money to handle cattle and also take care of distressed loans which have hindered the business during the past several months.

The cattle business has been a great contributing factor to the prosperity of the plains country and the return of fair prices on cattle will help the general financial condition of the country.—Clovis Journal.

ARMISTICE DAY TO BE DECLARED NATIONAL HOLIDAY.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Armistice Day, November 11th, will be declared a national holiday in honor of America's unknown soldier to be buried that day in Arlington.

Congressional action on a resolution requesting the president and all state governors to proclaim the day a holiday was completed today thru adoption by the senate. Issuance of the proclamation by Mr. Harding is expected within a few days.

GRACE CHURCH SERVICES.

Sunday school at 9:45. Morning prayer and sermon at 11. The rector goes to Artesia for services at 7:30 P. M., November 13. "Armistice Day" the subject for Sunday sermon.

Everybody cordially invited and welcomed at all these services.

STATE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION UNDER FIRE FOR POOR BOOKKEEPING.

Irregularities in the department of education have been so frequent and extensive that a special meeting of the state board of education has been called at Santa Fe today to consider the report of the state traveling auditor A. G. Whittier, covering the operation of the department from January 1, 1917 to June 30, 1921.

A traveling account which, during the period, totals $36,713.91; vouchers not itemized totaling $9,143.91; items labeled "differences found" which amount to $7,753.18; the salary of one official which increased 540 per cent in five years; a hotel bill for seven days amounting to $177 for one person with $21 extra for telephone calls during the same time—these are a few of the highlights in the lengthy document prepared by the auditor.

Under the classification of vouchers not itemized are listed expenses by former state superintendent Jonathan H. Wagner, John V. Conway, the present superintendent, Mrs. Ruth C. Miller, director of vocational education, and there is further a miscellaneous column.

Mr. Wagner drew out on unitemized vouchers from the certification fund, $1,880.53; from the contingent fund, $3,716.91, and from the vocational education fund, $785, making a total of $6,322.44 in expense that was not properly vouchered.

Mr. Conway's total is $759.18 and Mrs. Miller's total is $11.98. Under "miscellaneous" the total is $1,119.34.

Referring to the contingent fund, the auditor says on page 28 of his report:

"The fund was handled by Mr. Wagner during his first year very satisfactorily, but during the sixth, seventh and eighth fiscal years, discretion was thrown to the winds and all the rules of properly accounting for monies were violated."

The certification fund, which accumulated through the fees for issuance of certificates to teachers, has been without any check. There is no record of the funds received except the deposit slips from banks, which total more than $30,000 for the period. There are reported to be no books at all for the vocational fund.

Transfers From Funds. To the certification fund, $1,654.30 was transferred from the contingent fund and $8,482.35 from the vocational fund. The record shows that the certification fund paid back $3,995.61 to the vocational fund.

In the items labeled "differences found" the auditor explains that they should be refunded unless adequately explained. Here are some of the items in Mr. Wagner's accounts which are objected to:

He drew a salary of $1,500 a year as executive secretary of a branch when the rules prescribed for 1919 and 1920, $600 per year.

He borrowed money to travel and charged the interest to the state.

He drew six vouchers for paying for the grading of examination papers and presents no evidence of payment.

His settlement voucher No. 67 failed to credit six payments totaling $302.99.

He failed to make out a settlement voucher for the eighth fiscal year but drew $3,857.65.

Mr. Wagner is assumed to have paid these amounts but there is no definite record showing how the money was expended.

On page 23 of the report the auditor says:

Mileage Book Mix-up. "Many mileage books were purchased (by Wagner) and presumably used, as this office is in possession of some thirty stubs, and yet his settlement vouchers favorably have railroad fare charged in each instance for all items, apparently an overcharge."

On a trip to Chicago from February 21 to March 1, 1919, Mr. Wagner spent $117 for hotel bills and $21 for telephone calls. Figuring in the time he must have spent coming and going, he would only have spent seven days in Chicago, making an average of $25 a day for hotel bills and $3 daily for telephoning.

On a trip from October 15 to October 18, 1919, he visited Albuquerque, Belen and Socorro. His hotel bill was $35.

He left the office on June 25, 1919, and returned on July 8. The intervening time, excluding time spent in traveling, was spent in Milwaukee. At most, ten days were spent in the city. His hotel bill was $191.65, with an additional $10 for miscellaneous expense.

Mrs. Ruth C. Miller has been director of vocational education. She was also director of industrial education and supervisor of home economics. The auditor was unable to find her exact total salary.

On page 49 he points out that her salary as director of vocational education has advanced as follows: 1917, $800; 1918, $1,200; 1919, $2,800; 1920, $3,000; 1921, $3,600.

Half for Overhead. On page 36 of this report is this statement:

OUTSTANDING SCHOOL WARRANTS AMOUNT TO $120,130, SAYS JOERNS

Santa Fe, Nov. 1.—Outstanding school warrants amount to $120,130, Educational Auditor John Joerns stated today. Of this the rural schools owe $187,581 and the "independent" districts—the city schools—$133,555.

Joerns characterized the situation as "most deplorable" and charged it largely to the faulty budgeting in the past, slow tax collections and "disregard of the law by some school authorities."

He said: "In order to avoid future delinquencies, it was necessary to allow the schools a proper tax rate. The counties of Bernalillo, Chaves, Colfax, De Baca, Grant, Hidalgo, Lea, Lincoln, Otero and Valencia had fairly good balances on hand September first of this year. These balances have not been deducted from the budget estimates as has been the custom in the past. It is necessary that our schools have sufficient money on hand at the beginning of the school term to tide them over until tax collections in January. Very few of the independent districts show balances sufficient to indicate that they are on a cash basis."

"The situation has become acute and serious in that banks, merchants and others in quite a few counties will no longer cash school warrants. The credit of the schools must be restored. The outstanding indebtedness hereinbefore mentioned has not been included in the budget estimate for the present school year. Some means will, and must be found for the payment of all outstanding claims, if legal."

The county delinquencies range from $551 for Guadalupe to $46,465 for Rio Arriba and the list includes twelve counties. San Miguel has not reported.

The "independent" district delinquencies include Albuquerque, $20,239 for maintenance and $7,427 special.

United States Attorney George R. Craig was asked by the federal board for vocational education in a wire this afternoon to find out whether the alleged careless handling of funds in the state department of education, charged by Traveling Auditor A. G. Whittier, applied to federal aid extended the state.

Mr. Craig said he intended to make a full investigation at once.

Mrs. Ruth C. Miller, whose resignation as director of vocational education was requested by the state board of education, today in a letter to State School Superintendent Conway declared the board had no power to take this action.

Only the State school superintendent, she said, had the right to demand her resignation, or remove her with or without cause—but, she asked, if he proposed to remove her that he first state his grounds in formal charges and give her an opportunity to be heard.

The letter clearly indicated Mrs. Miller did not intend to resign at the board's request.

HAY TRADE CONDITIONS OF THE WEEK.

The rush of hay to the markets last week on account of the threatened strike and the heavy buying from the same cause by both dealer and consumer is having a depressing effect on the market this week. Most markets were overstocked and these accumulations are slow to be absorbed as everyone seems to be well supplied. All markets are weaker in consequence with a steady lowering of values, which will be checked only when the stocks on hand are cleaned up. Poor hay will still make its appearance and continues to be a drag on the market, but good hay moves fairly well.

audit, the direct payments to schools (for vocational education) totaled $56,326.23 as against $56,521.95 for all other purposes, almost an even break. Even adding in ten claims not yet paid, the percentage of amounts actually getting into schools is 56 per cent."

Quoting from Mrs. Miller's expense accounts, the auditor cites her trip to Atlantic City and Washington, lasting ten days. Her mileage cost was $180; Pullman was $39.78; hotel was $183.74; tips cost $13.60; taxi and baggage, $8.90; guests, $53.60 and miscellaneous, $30; making a total of $509.82 for the ten days, and average of $50.98 a day.

The report goes into a vast number of details. It is expected that several days will be spent in its consideration. While no announcement has been made, it is assumed that the meeting of the board will be open. It is understood that Mr. Wagner has made plans to attend. Representatives of the press in Santa Fe have been attempting to secure a copy of the report for several days, but have been denied the privilege until after the opening of the board meeting.—Albuquerque Journal.

NOVEMBER 24 TH DESIGNATED AS THANKSGIVING DAY BY HARDING

Washington, Oct. 31.—President Harding issued a proclamation to-night designating Thursday, November 24, as a day of thanksgiving, devotion and prayer and urging the people to give thanks "for all that has been rendered unto them," and to pray "for continuance of the divine fortune which has been showered so generously upon this nation." The proclamation follows:

"That season has come when alike in pursuance of a devout people's time honored custom and in grateful recognition of favoring national fortunes, it is proper that the president should summon the nation to a day of devotion, of thanksgiving for blessings bestowed and of prayer for guidance in the modes of life, that may deserve continuance of divine favor."

"Foremost among our blessings is the return of peace, and the approach to normal ways again. The year has brought us again into relations of amity with all nations, after a long period of struggle and turbulence. Thankful, therefore, we may well unite in the hope that Providence will vouchsafe approval to the things we have done, the aspirations which have inspired us. We shall deserve prosperity, seeking not alone for the material things but for those of the spirit as well; earnestly trying and helping others asking, before all else, the privilege of service. As we render thanks anew for the exaltation which came to us, we may fittingly petition that moderation and wisdom shall be granted to rest upon all who are in authority, in the tasks they must discharge. Their hands will be steadied, their purposes strengthened, in answer to our prayers."

"Ours has been a favored nation in the bounty which God has bestowed upon it. The great trial of humanity, though indeed we bore our part as well as we were able, left us comparatively little scarred. It is for us to recognize that we have been thus favored and when we gather at our altars to offer up thanks, we will do well to pledge, in all humility and all sincerity, our purpose to prove deserving. We have been raised up and preserved in national power and consequence, as part of a plan whose wisdom we cannot question. Thus believing, we can do no less than hold our nation the willing instrument of the Providence which has so wonderfully favored us. Opportunity for great service awaits us if we shall prove equal to it. Let our prayers be raised for direction in the right paths. Under God, our responsibility is great; to our own first, to all men afterwards to all mankind in God's own justice."

"Now, therefore, I, Warren G. Harding, president of the United States, hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-fourth day of November to be observed by the people, as a day of thanksgiving, devotion, and prayer; urging that at their hearth-sides and their altars, they will give thanks for all that has been rendered unto them, and will pray for a continuance of the Divine fortune which has been showered so generously upon this nation."

"In the witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal of the United States of America."

"Done at the capitol of the United States this 31st day of October, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, and of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and forty-sixth."

(Signed)

"WARREN G. HARDING, By the President."

CHARLES E. HUGHES, Secretary of State.

FUNERAL OF MRS. LOUELLA HUGHES.

Mrs. Louella J. Hughes, mother of Mrs. Perry O'Connor, whose death occurred at noon last Friday, was buried in City cemetery Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, after services at the home in charge of Rev. H. W. Lowry.

Mrs. Hughes was 57 years old, and is survived by only one daughter, having been a widow for many years and Mrs. O'Connor her only child. She had been a patient sufferer for a long time and was taken to the Eddy County Hospital about ten days ago that she might have expert nursing and care; the cause of death is given as cancer. Mrs. Hughes came from Hopkins, Missouri, about two months ago, to be with her daughter, at the last. A large number of friends both of the deceased and her daughter, were in attendance at the burial and manifested their sympathy by the gift of beautiful flowers.

At the cemetery, the P. E. O. chapter, of which order the deceased was a member, held their beautiful ritualistic service at the grave. Pall bearers were H. I. Braden, T. M. Williams, John Lewis, J. R. Linn, F. L. Dearborne and C. D. Rickman.

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. A. E. Renick left Monday night for Riverside, California, where she has a daughter and where she plans to spend the winter. She has not been in the best of health for some years and hopes in the mild climate and new scenes of California to get very much better.

Mrs. Pete Lowenbruck arrived in the city Tuesday afternoon from Los Angeles, California, for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs.
A. C. Geer.

Mrs. Henry Dickson and baby, Beva, left Wednesday morning for El Paso where she intends to visit her mother and sisters and brother, Frank, whom she has not seen for six years.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lamb, of Artesia, spent part of the week in the city, transacting business and visiting with their many friends.

N. P. Nichols, advertising manager of the National Life Insurance company, and whose headquarters are at Albuquerque, was in the city this week on business.

Henry Dickson ran a silver in the flesh part of his leg last Saturday, which broke off when he attempted to remove it and the piece remaining in the flesh has been causing him a lot of pain lately.

Harold, the twelve-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dickson, suffered a bad sprain of the ankle last Monday at school. As is usually the case, the hurt is more painful than dangerous.

The Matney family left Wednesday in their car for Hope where they spent the rest of the week attending the Rodeo and visiting with friends.

Ed Burleson was in from his ranch on Last Chance, transacting business, the first of the week.

Kansas City—The American Legion
today denounced clemency to Eugene V. Debs, demanded the use of English only in the schools, more stringent immigration laws, closer supervision of radicals, better election laws, the punishment of all radicals, and immediate compensation for veterans. Adjournment is expected late today.

Muri Nornhauser returned from Kansas City, where he had been in attendance of the Legion meeting and tells of large crowds and enthusiasm almost unbelievable at the meeting.

Mrs. James Brown, nee Ruth Galton, formerly of Carlsbad, has been at the home of her uncle, Howard Galton, of Otis, for a couple of weeks on a visit. She expects to leave in a few days for Miami, Arizona, where she will remain until after the holidays with her mother, going afterwards to Camp Benning, Georgia, where her husband is stationed,
he being in the 29th Infantry, U. S.
army. Her many friends are unfeignedly glad to see her and would be glad of a longer visit.

Word received here this week told of sorrow that came to one of Carlsbad's former citizens now living in Raton, New Mexico, Mrs. Arlie Nichols. Her father, J. G. Gaines, of Excelsior Springs, Missouri, died last Saturday at that place, after being an invalid for a number of years and at the age of ninety. Mrs. Nichols' friends here are deeply sympathetic in her bereavement.

Of course, you will want to eat dinner with the Methodist ladies at their chicken dinner, at the Armory tomorrow. There will be plenty for all and the ladies are famous for their good cooking. Unless a large number are served nothing will be made with the dinner at fifty cents so make arrangements to get your dinner at the armory tomorrow any time after twelve o'clock.

Mrs. Nellie Baker left yesterday for Los Angeles, California, where she was called in connection with a law suit she has before the court asking damages for the death of her son, Wesley, which occurred in that city some months ago.

Mrs. Margaret Pearce, who was taken to Eddy County Hospital last week for an operation hoping to relieve her and assist her to walk, is improving as rapidly as the serious nature of her long continued illness will permit.

E. M. Kearney, after a business visit to El Paso, returned to his

DARKEN GRAY HAIR WITH HOME RECIPE

This is the age when gray hair is taboo by everyone, and men and women everywhere are seeking ways and means to keep the hair dark.
I have found a successful formula, and I want everyone desirous of darkening their hair to benefit by my recipe.

The best part of my method is that you yourself know exactly just what you are putting on your hair to make it dark, and to keep the gray locks from appearing. The ingredients are to be found in any kitchen pantry in the country. The mixture is harmless. You can make as much as you want at one time, and store it away for future use.
Or you can make it each time you apply it. It is simple to make, easy to apply, and above all, it is harmless.

Send me 25 cents and I will send you this formula in a plain envelope. Try it and be convinced. I am using it right today.

LOCAL NEWS.

David Clements was in Saturday from his goat ranch on Black River, bringing his last crop of mohair, which he stored in town. He had about twenty-seven hundred pounds.

Mrs. Tom Vest and son left for Prescott, Arizona, Monday where they will make their home, the son entering school immediately on his arrival.

R. F. Madera and John H. Zimmerman came in to town from the Madera ranch at about seventy-five miles southwest of town, in Culberson county, Texas. The gentlemen arrived Friday night and returned to the ranch Sunday afternoon.

George Spencer came in Saturday from the Plains where he is teaching school this winter, and reports a successful school with an enrollment of twenty-eight pupils, and all doing well. George says the school teachers of Lea county will not be paid their salaries for this winter's work until about September 1922.

Mrs. McCord and daughter, Hazel, who have been visiting the little girl's grandmother at Waco, Texas, returned to their home in this city, getting in Monday. They had a most delightful visit while away and attended the opening of the Cotton Palace at Waco.

MRS. FISHER ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. H. E. Fisher entertained a number of friends at her very hospitable home in the country south of town last Sunday. Friends had been looking forward to the entertainment with pleasurable anticipations for some time, and the occasion fully justified their hopes. The guests were taken out in autos after the church and found a veritable feast in readiness for them. A twenty pound turkey and a smaller one of the same kind graced the board with the usual trimmings that make a turkey dinner so delightful topped off with pumpkin pie and delicious cake and fruit. Those who shared the pleasure of the day were mostly elderly people, Mrs. Fisher having a warm heart for those who have reached the summit of life's hill and are passing down on the other side. However, there were enough young folks present to add variety to the gathering and keep it from being distinctively an old folks party. Grandma Mercer headed the table, cheerful and happy and bearing her eighty-six years gracefully. Mesdames Stanford, Singleton and A. Moore, Reverend Sellards and wife and daughter, Miss Aurelia Mr. and Mrs. Sam Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Stockwell, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mercer, Misses Stanford and Reno, and Frank Davis and Albert Fisher, beside the host and hostess, partook of the dinner.

Rev. J. C. Jones, presiding elder of the Roswell district, of the Methodist church, south, was an over Sunday visitor in Carlsbad last Sunday. This was the first visit of the elder to Carlsbad this conference year, and his sermon Sunday night was enjoyed by a large congregation.

Miss Lenna Osburn returned Sunday night from the Ellsworth James ranch on the Cap Rock, where, she had spent three pleasant weeks. Ranch life was very delightful to the young lady as well as novel, she having until her coming to Carlsbad lived in a city.

Will Robinson and Mrs. Robinson and daughter, and Mrs. Carl Johnson, of Roswell, were callers at the Current office Saturday. The reporter of this paper has called the Robinsons her best friends for a number of years and was overjoyed to see them again.

CARL GORDON'S FAMILY MOVE TO ROSWELL.

After spending all their married life in our midst, the family of Carl Gordon, left in the early part of the week for Roswell. Mr. Gordon has been appointed and has qualified as chief of police in the Pearl of the Pecos, and his family will enter the social and church life of that city, with the best wishes of a host of friends here in Carlsbad where they have resided for so many years.

Indigestion

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney, Texas, farmer. "My medicine is for indigestion and stomach trouble of any kind. I have never found anything that touches the spot, like Black-Draught. I take it in broken doses after meals. For a long time I tried pills, which gripped and didn't give the good results. Black-Draught liver medicine is easy to take, easy to keep, inexpensive."

Thedford's

LOCAL NEWS

Dr. L. Black returned Friday from a visit to Kansas City and like others who visited the city during the convention reports a wonderful time.

The Elks Charity Ball given last Friday at the Armory was a success as are all the affairs given by the antlered brethren. A large crowd was present, the music was all that could be desired, and best of all, the dance netted between two and three hundred dollars, which will be put to its intended use, in caring for the poor of Carlsbad.

A market will be given by the ladies of the Christian church at Purdy's furniture store tomorrow afternoon and you are invited to attend and get something really nice for your Sunday dinner.

Professor R. W. Trowbridge, of Fort Worth, the gentleman who has been secured as band leader for the proposed Carlsbad band, arrived last night and held first hand instruction last night. The band will play today at the Armistice celebration.

Workmen are staking out the grounds for the foundation of the new Sisters Hospital, to be built east of the present building. It is that they will be ready for the foundation by Monday and after that things will move on apace. The erection of this fine building, which is now anticipated, will be a great thing for Carlsbad.

The family of Ray V. Davis and that of his father, M. L. Davis, Mrs. Filson and Miss Mollie, were entertained at the Roy Worley home last Sunday at a dinner party given in honor of Ray and his wife and children, who are expected to leave next Wednesday morning for their new home in El Paso. The day was pleasantly spent by these old friends, saddened only by the thought of the parting that is soon to occur.

Blue Grass Country

DOWN in Ole Kentucky lie the blue grass pastures. And in the pastures anyone with half an eye can picture the sleek, well-fed thoroughbred horse grazing there.

This thoroughbred is almost a national figure. We boast of him.

Yet, were the region arid, the breeding of the horse would not save his sleekness or strength.

So it is in the pastures of investment. The fare of the electric light and power industry must be wholesome, else it cannot have a healthy growth and work for you satisfactorily. "No starved horse ever pulled a heavy load."

The whole theory of these electric light and power companies has been to give efficient service to the public.

Under state regulation, when charges to the public are under consideration, recognition is given to actual operating cost, with a fair return to investors.

In other words, capital is paid only fixed wages in this industry.

Since the industry must buy money as well as material if the growing needs of the country are to be met, it is essential that the wages of capital should be fairly fixed. Investors cannot be drawn to a pasture if it becomes arid.

Fourteen hundred thousand homes in the United States are unwired and will be furnished with electric service, when needed, by new capital induced to work for "fair wages."

More than 1,500,000 homes, 500,000 factories, 5,000 churches, 60,000 apartment buildings, 15,000 theatres and 5,000 public schools must be built to take care of increased population. Vast new equipment must be added, and a tremendous investment made by the electric light and power companies, to keep pace with the nation's progress.

This can be done only through general understanding of the problems of the electrical industry.

Willard Shafer who was sent to Albuquerque by the government for a throat operation, has returned to this city and has been in Sisters' Hospital ever since his return from that place. His throat was in a terrible condition and he has suffered greatly but is some better at this time.

"Chicken," the Chinaman who formerly run the Carlsbad Cafe, on Fox street, but sold out and left town about eighteen months ago, is back again. He says that he went first to England from here and then on to China and also says that he was on the way about half of the time.

It's funny, but some people never will learn the way to keep a thing quiet is not to tell it.

MUTILATED CATTLE ARE MYSTERY OF N. M. RANGE

Mosquito, N. M., Nov. 2.—A mystery remains unsolved on the Mossman cattle range. Seven head of stock have been found dead some distance out on the range and each one within a half mile of each other. The animals had their noses torn frightfully, their tongues were eaten out, the jugular vein cut and their bags mutilated. There was no other sign of an attack on the body of the animals in any way, shape or form, and most careful examination of the ground showed no sign of an attacking animal or signs of struggle. There are no tracks any place near, and local cattlemen are mystified. When one animal was found the body was all warm and the blood was flowing from the wounds. The stock all belonged to W. C. Mossman of this place and were several miles from the house. Stockmen have come from a distance to look over the ground, and persons who have lived in the valley for years are unable to solve the problem. Watch has been kept thru the night since the find was made and there have been no night prowlers seen.

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE SALE.

Whereas, on September 28, 1921, H. A. Gragg, engaged in the jewelry and repair business in the City of Carlsbad, Eddy County, New Mexico, having on hand assets and liabilities approximately as follows:

Merchandise at first cost	$2325.97
Open accounts	220.04
Tools and equipment	1000.00

TOTAL	$4046.03
LIABILITIES
Owing to creditors	$6882.68

Defect $2636.65 and, realizing his insolvency and desiring to settle with his creditors as speedily as possible and as far as the proceeds of the sale of his assets would go, and at the instance of Edward Ludwig Fuller Jewelry Company, of Kansas City, Missouri, one of said creditors, also realizing the insolvency and inability of said H. A. Gragg to pay his indebtedness, made, executed and delivered to E. L. Pluhner of Kansas City, Missouri, and J. M. Dillard, attorney of Carlsbad, New Mexico, as trustees a trust mortgage to and in favor of all his creditors alike in proportion to the amount of their respective claims on his said assets hereinafter described, possession of which said assets was by the terms of said mortgage delivered to said trustees; and WHEREAS, by the terms and conditions of said mortgage, it was provided that if the said H. A. Gragg should fail to pay or cause to be paid his said creditors all the indebtedness due them before October 10, 1921, then and in that event, said trustees were authorized to make or cause to be made a correct inventory of said assets, merchandise, fixtures and other property and sell the same at public or private sale, with or without notice, in bulk or at retail, as to them may seem best for all concerned; Provided, however, that upon demand in writing of a majority in number of said creditors representing a majority in amount of said indebtedness, it shall be the duty of said trustees to sell all or any portion of said assets, merchandise, fixtures and other property at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, after having mailed to all creditors written notices of the time and place of said sale at least ten days prior thereto, and advertising said sale in such manner as said trustees may elect. And that said trustees shall proceed to collect the notes and accounts, or to sell or dispose of the same in such manner as to them shall seem best for the interest of all concerned; and in case said trustees shall find that any of said notes and accounts are disputed or are against persons of doubtful solvency, they are authorized to settle, compromise or extend the same on such terms as they deem best.

That out of the proceeds of such sales and collections said trustees shall pay: first, the expenses of administering this trust, including taxes, if any, insurance, rents, fuel, lights, advertising, clerk hire, attorney fees, etc., and reasonable compensation to said trustees, and next they shall pay to said creditors the amounts so due them and each of them as aforesaid; but in case such proceeds shall not be sufficient to pay said indebtedness in full, then said trustees shall pay said creditors pro rata in the proportion that the amount due to each of them bears to the whole of said indebtedness; and WHEREAS, said H. A. Gragg has not to this 7th day of November, 1921, paid to said creditors the sums of money due them or any part thereof, and has not paid to said trustees for the benefit of said creditors the sums of money due them or any part thereof.

NOW, therefore, under and by virtue of the authority vested in us as trustees under the terms of said mortgage, which was filed in the office of County Clerk of Eddy County, New Mexico, on September 28, 1921, and is numbered 8492, I will on the 23rd day of November, 1921, beginning at 10 o'clock A. M., in the building now occupied by the Owen-McAdoo Drug Company of Carlsbad, New Mexico, the building said assets, merchandise, fixtures and other property are located in, offer for sale at public sale in bulk and at retail to the highest bidder for cash, the following described assets, merchandise, fixtures and other property covered by and described in said mortgage, to-wit:

1. All his (said H. A. Gragg's former) stock of goods, wares and merchandise consisting chiefly of jewelry, watches, clocks, rings, chains, charms and goods of like character.

2. All tools, tables, raw material, appliances of trade, motors, safes and equipment owned and used in his business of jeweler, all the above contained in the store room where he has been conducting business in the City of Carlsbad, New Mexico.

3. All books of account, book accounts, notes, checks in action and all debts owing to him however evidenced and of every nature whatsoever.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand at Carlsbad, Eddy County, New Mexico, on this 7th day of November, 1921.

NEW CHAIRMAN OF DEMOCRATS IS ELATED AT PARTY GAINS.

Hull Into pre-Election Results to Indicate General Swing Toward Democracy.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Results of yesterday's elections prove that the spirit of the Democratic party "is still militant." Chairman Cordell Hull of the Democratic national committee said today. His statement said:

"Fighting Democrats, who captured numerous Republican outposts in Tuesday's election, have given evidence that the spirit of the party is still militant. A conservative interpretation of the elections indicate that the people are far enough away from the mist and confusion of war conditions and influences to see the merits of Democratic administration; to see and become convinced of the increasing demerits of the Republican administration and to realize that the comprehensive program of reconstruction proposed by the Democratic administration was obstructed and in chief measure defeated by a Republican congress during 1919 and 1920. With the disastrous results to business which have inevitably followed, they indicate a general trend from the Republican party, including sections long under Republican rule.

"Apart from the gratifying outcome in Virginia, Kentucky, Maryland and other localities and the victory in Greater New York, the results in upstate New York cities and in Bridgeport, Conn., following recent Democratic victories in other Connecticut towns, are particularly gratifying because they have been strongholds of reactionary Republicanism.

"The Democratic victories will inspire Democrats to renewed efforts with increasing expectations of success."

Ray Davis, one of Carlsbad's most energetic and industrious business men will leave Wednesday of next week for El Paso, where they go to make their home. Ray is an artist in the best sense of the word, and always keeps abreast of the times in his work, and with his fine social qualities is a general favorite in Carlsbad business and social life. Mrs. Davis also will be greatly missed. An ideal neighbor and friend all who know her and their three fine boys are wishing for them success in business, and social life in the Paso City and as many friends there as they leave behind.

Republican Congressman Scores Tax Shifting Bill

The following extract from the speech of Representative Edward Voigt (Rep., Wis.), who, with forty-nine other Republicans, voted to recommit the tax revision bill in the House, is fairly representative of the sentiment of Republicans in many parts of the United States, especially in the West:

"Now, then, we have the enormous war debt, and for the present at least we must raise at least four billions a year to keep the Government going, and that raises the question. How should this money be collected. In fairness to all of the people of this country, who should pay. I recognize but one principal way to collect taxes, and that is to make every man pay according to his ability, and that ability can best be measured by his net income. Of course, we derive some revenue from the tariff, and minor amounts from other sources, the collection of which may be proper and expedient, but what I mean to say is that in my judgment there is only one fair way for the Government to raise the bulk of its revenue, and that is by a properly graded income tax. Let him pay who makes the money, and the more he makes the higher should be his tax.

"The bill before us does not meet these requirements and therefore I am going to vote against it. I cannot vote for a bill that appears to me to be unfair to the great mass of the American people. This bill lifts the burden from the very rich individuals and corporations and gives no corresponding benefit to those less favorably situated. In fact, when the total burden imposed by this bill is considered, the proportion of the whole tax to be paid by the less wealthy is actually increased. Of course the bill is hailed with joy by Big Business, by the trusts, and the millionaires and multimillionaires."

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. W. B. Kehl and baby left Saturday for the home of her mother in Lakewood, where she will remain for a while before going on to her husband at Albuquerque.

C. W. Shepherd and C. C. Cagle, Ford men from Roswell, were in town a part of the week from their home town.

Rev. J. E. Nicholson, of Loving, and Mesdames Mahan and White of this city, left Saturday noon for Albuquerque, to attend the sessions of the New Mexico Convention of Baptist churches, which convened at the Duke City this week. Reverend Mahan left by train the next evening for the same place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Morris left Sunday night for Rochester, Minnesota, where they went to consult with the Mayo Brothers, for Mrs. Morris' health, which has been bad for over a year, she being compelled to subsist on milk alone. Many friends here await news of the outcome of the expected operation, hoping that Mrs. Morris will soon be well and back with her family and friends again.

"Uncle Joe" Graham and son, Johnson, were in Carlsbad from their home at Lovington, the first of the week. They say everything is all right in their section of the country with the exception of needing rain badly.

Fred Moss was in town the latter part of the week making arrangements for his annual deer hunt which he will take before going on to his work at his new studio at El Paso.

Allen E. Bruce, with headquarters at Albuquerque and representing the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company, was in the city the latter part of last week looking after business for his company.

It's funny how hard it is to make someone else see what is so plain to you.

When a father comes home tired from work there is nothing so refreshing as to have a diminutive reproduction of his mother coming to meet him with outstretched arms, glowing face enshrined with curls and tiny lips puckered up for a kiss. The welcome is so sincere and effusive that daily cares are forgotten in its enjoyment.

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN BRACE
XVII.—OHIO

THE Northwest Territory, of which Ohio is a part, was a bone of contention between Spain, France and England. Spain's claim was based on the voyage of De Soto up the Mississippi river. France, through the explorations of La Salle from the north and the early entry of French priests from Canada, considered this territory theirs. As for England, she rested her claims on the discovery of North America by the Cabots, and in the charter granted to Virginia included all the country lying to the West.

The French were the first to get a foothold in Ohio, but the English pioneers, who shortly began to drift westward, firmly established their settlements in the fertile Ohio valley. After a long period of warfare, in which the Indians played a leading part, the Northwest Territory was finally ceded to the United States by the Treaty of Independence in 1783. And Virginia and other states, which had laid claim to portions of this region turned over their rights to the federal government.

The government of the Northwest Territory was formally created by the ordinance of 1787. People from the East migrated into this territory in such numbers that by 1803 Ohio was taken into the Union as the seventeenth state. The fourth largest state in size of population, Ohio has 24 electoral votes for President, while in area, with its 41,040 square miles, it ranks only thirty-fifth, which shows how densely it is populated. It is noted as the state of Presidents. President Harding makes the seventh Ohioan to fill the presidential office.

The name Ohio is derived from the Iroquois word O-hee-yo, meaning "beautiful river." It was first applied by the Indians of the Five Nations to what we now call the Allegheny river, one of the chief tributaries of the Ohio. Gradually the name came to include the whole river, sometimes even being applied to the Mississippi. Later it was confined to the river between Pittsburgh and Cairo, and appropriately the first state formed on its northern bank was named after it. Ohio is often called the Buckeye State from its large number of horse-chestnut trees. (© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

NEWS OF THE WEEK FROM LOVING

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Weaver of Pecos the first of the week. Otis, and Mrs. Chas Tucker were in.

Richard Carter was the recent purchaser of a fine bunch of weaner calves. He has them on feed at his ranch north of Loving.

Work on the cotton seed mill seems to be progressing rapidly. The foundation is now under way of construction and a shipment of machinery has lately arrived.

Mrs. Arthur Donaldson, who has been quite seriously ill as a result of carbuncles, is recuperating slowly. There have been several others sort of under the weather this week, including Mrs. F. C. Reed, Virginia Rowson and Audrey Stone.

The M. E. Missionary Society will hold a bazaar and chicken pie dinner at Loving, December 3rd.

A straw stack belonging to Rick Carter accidentally caught fire and burned to the ground Monday night.

The Baptist Missionary Society represented by Mrs. Frank Ross and Mrs. G. R. Howard, sold dinner and supper at Morrison and Pardue's store last Saturday. They realized something like twenty dollars.

The grammar grades of the Loving school are practicing on a romantic operetta to be given on the night of November 30th.

Mrs. C. D. Douthitt and little daughter Johnnie are visiting the J. E. Nicholson home this week from Roswell.

The road between Loving and Carlsbad is being subjected to a process of flooding whereby it is hoped that much of the surplus dust may be eliminated and that many of the rough places be leveled up. It is believed that nearly all of the road may be treated in this way, however, not all at the same time.

Mrs. F. C. Reed and children of Roswell arrived here last Thursday evening to visit. Mr. Reed, who recently purchased the Sweet Shop. We are glad to welcome these people to our community and we know they are glad to have been given the opportunity to visit to Loving. They all come here or later.

The operetta, under the above caption given at Crawford Theatre, Tuesday night, with Miss Corinne Higgins in charge, was the most ambitious performance ever undertaken by amateurs in Carlsbad and deserved the large patronage given it for its merits as well as for the charitable object for which it was given. The entertainment was beautifully staged, and the costumes lacked nothing to make them complete in every detail. The personnel of the players is as follows:

Cast of Characters.
Princess Chrysanthemum, Mrs. Harry McKim.
To-To, Yum-Yum, Du-Du, and Tu-Lip, Maiden attendants, Misses Wardie Bates, Jenny Linn, and Frances Moore and Mrs. Claude Sikes.
Fairly Moonbeam, Miss Helen McIlvaine.
Fairies: Misses Nettie Mae Kindel, Dorothy Ryan, Lovena Miller, Emily Hardy and Helen Wright.
Emperor What-For-Why, Bert Rawlins.
Prince So-Tru and Prince So-Sil, who are in love with the Princess, J. S. Oliver and W. J. Ralph.
Top Not (court chamberlain) John W. Wells.
Saucer Eyes (Wizard Cat) Clifford Lewis.
Spirits, William Polk, Rex Vest, William Purdy and Billy Holt.
Court Guards, Rudolf Wilcox and Martin Hubbard.
Ladies and Gentlemen of the Court.

A number of interesting features were given between the acts, one a reading by Annie Prickett, which told of the fifty years struggle of an old man and his wife. The little girl seemed very much at home with her pipe and tobacco, and her rendition of the rather difficult lines was delightful and brought hearty applause from the audience.

Mrs. Claude Sikes gave a little Japanese song, in fine voice and with her usual graceful manner and the colored lights as they were thrown on the singer added greatly to the beauty of the performance.

Ned Godbey gave a Negro monologue that was a scream, he being made up in real Negro style; at the close of his talk he surprised and delighted the audience, very few of whom knew that he could sing, by a beautiful baritone solo. As usual, with Mr. Godbey, everything he did was done well. The male quartette gave a number of songs, being recalled several times and always responding. To many this was one of the best features of the entertainment. The personnel of the quartet is Frank Kindel, Blythe McCollum, John Wells and J. S. Oliver. The fairies were lovely as fairies always are, and did their dances and sang their songs with a charm all their own. The duet by two of the number, Lovena Miller and Emily Hardy, is in a class of its own, for beauty and artistic performance. Lovena has a wonderful voice for a school girl and reached the high notes with a perfection and beauty seldom heard in a girl of her age. Many persons in the audience could hardly realize that so young a girl had such a fine voice and sang with such ease and expression. Emily (Babe) Hardy, who sang with Miss Miller, has been singing for Carlsbad people for some years, although she is still a little girl. She is a favorite with our people because of her natural manner on the stage as well as her fine singing.

The fairies danced and sang, and one number especially, quite captivated the audience; "Peggy O'Neal" a pretty thing which the beauty and grace of the six fairies made still more beautiful and which was roundly applauded.

Solos were given in the course of the play by John W. Wells, Bert Rawlins, J. S. Oliver, Walter Ralph and others, not forgetting our sweet "Princess Chrysanthemum" (Mrs. McKim) who sang as she always does with fine effect and to the great pleasure of those who know her and love her and have been listening to her songs since she was just a little girl.

"Saucer Eyes", the cat, was ably represented by Clifford Lewis, and had rather a prominent part in the operetta, with his "spirits" five boys in red who were an indispensable part of the play.

The stage was elaborately trimmed with the Japanese flower, the chrysanthemum in various colors, and the ladies of the cast had the same brilliant flowers adorning their hair. An immense amount of work was done in order to present this beautiful spectacle, and it is pleasing to announce that the ladies reaped a substantial sum as a reward for their efforts.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wheeler are happy over the arrival of a new daughter, who appeared on the scene Monday morning at an early hour. The other children of the family are pleased over their little sister and the parents are receiving the best wishes of a host of friends for her good health and happiness.

The way women wear their clothing nowadays, Cupid should experience little trouble hitting the mark.

J. Fred Bush returned Wednesday night from a ten day's stay at Hot Wells, Texas, some thirty miles south of Sierra Blanca. Mr. Bush is much improved by his rest and treatment and will take up his work on the run between Carlsbad and Pecos next Monday.

The play which was so successfully given here Tuesday night under the direction of Miss Higgins, is to be repeated tonight at Hope. An especial stage has been erected in the Methodist church at that place and the performers are sure of a large crowd and a good patronage.

HOME AND SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

The Home and School Association will hold its regular monthly meeting the afternoon of Friday, the 18th because of the last Friday in the month being a vacation following Thanksgiving. The exercises are to be held beginning at 3:15 in the Study hall of the high school and an urgent invitation is extended all parents and others interested in the welfare of the schools to be present:

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL

Sunday School Lesson

(By REV. P. D. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 13

PAUL BEFORE THE ROMAN GOVERNOR.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 24:1-2. GOLDEN TEXT—Hearin do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offense toward God and man.—Acts 24:16. REFERENCE MATERIAL—Luke 12:1-12.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Why Paul Was Not Afraid.

JUNIOR TOPIC—The Secret of Paul's Courage.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Defense Before a Roman Governor.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Paul's Defense Before Felix.

1. Paul Accused (vv. 1-3).

Tertullus, perhaps a Roman barrister, formally made the accusation according to Roman law. He began with flattery. He gave Felix the fullest praise when he and all the people knew that he lied; for Felix was one of the worst governors—destitute of morals and justice. He brought a four-fold charge against Paul:

1. "A pestilent fellow" (v. 5). This would indicate a fellow utterly base and corrupt—a plague.

2. An inciter of rebellion, a mover of sedition (v. 5). This they hoped would bring him into conflict with the Roman power.

3. That he was the ringleader of a sect—a schismatical party—a heretic (v. 5).

4. That he had profaned the temple (v. 6).

11. Paul's Defense (vv. 10-21).

In this defense note:

1. Paul's frankness and courtesy (v. 10). Flattery is entirely wanting. He gives recognition of the fact that Felix had been ruler of this people long enough to be able to judge justly, as the habits and ways of the Jews were familiar to him; and then, in a dignified manner, assumes that Felix will render a just decision based upon the facts of the case.

2. The charge of sedition denied (vv. 11, 12). He flatly and scornfully denied this charge, showing its utter falsity, since the time was too short, being but twelve days since he went to Jerusalem, and half of that time had been spent as a prisoner of the Romans. His conduct while there disproved it—he disputed with no man in the temple; neither did he make any attempt to incite the people in the city nor in the synagogue.

3. The charge of heresy (vv. 14-16). This charge he met by a concession and a denial. He admitted that he was of the "Way" which they called heresy, but clearly showed that it was in keeping with the Hebrew religion: (1) he worshiped the same God (v. 14); (2) he fully believed in the same Scriptures (v. 14); (3) he had the same hope of a coming resurrection of the dead (v. 15). He declared that he made as the principle of life a conscience void of offense before God and man.

4. The charge of sacrilege, or profanation of the temple (vv. 17-21). This charge he refuted by showing (1) that he had come all the way from Greece (v. 17) to worship at the feast; (2) that he had not come up empty-handed, but had brought alms for his nation (v. 17); (3) that there were not competent witnesses present to testify as to his behavior in the temple (v. 19); by challenging his enemies to testify as to his conduct in the council (v. 20).

III. Paul Before Felix the Second Time (vv. 22-27).

This is a sort of a sequel to the trial. Wicked as Felix was, Paul's manner somewhat won his favor, though he did not release him. His sentence was indignant imprisonment, which kept him free from his enemies while under Roman protection. Felix sent for Paul that he might hear of Christ from him. Paul behaved himself aright before these sinners in high life. He reasoned of righteousness, self-control and judgment to come, before Felix and his sinful wife, with such power that Felix was terrified and declared that he would hear Paul further at a convenient time. This was a most flimsy excuse for not changing his life and granting justice to Paul. He was so in bondage to sin that he was unwilling to change. Also he hoped that by delaying matters he would receive a bribe.

The Lord Changeth Not.

And I will come near to you to judgment; I will be a swift witness against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the Lord of Hosts. For I am the Lord; I change not.—Malachi 3:5, 6.

Worship.

A main purpose of worship on earth on the part of Christians, who believe that they have to prepare for the sight of God in judgment, is that it is a preparation. Worship is an education for the inevitable future.—H. P. Liddon.

Who Shall Enter.

Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.—Matthew 23:21.

Farm Talk No. 16

"OH, IT DOESN'T PAY"

"QUALITY" is the watchword of those who are striving to improve agricultural standards — Quality in fruit, in field crops, in livestock, in poultry.

But better quality is attained only in proportion to the time, effort and money expended. Left to herself, scientists tell us, nature has a tendency to deteriorate rather than improve. And in every community are found farmers who believe in co-operation with nature — in this respect at least.

When approached with the suggestion that they strive for quality, these contented standpatters invariably make the same stereotyped reply: "OH, IT DOESN'T PAY."

But events of the past year should have opened the eyes of such men. When small, blemished fruit scrub livestock, cull poultry and low-grade hay and grain were a drug on the market, those who had the real "quality" products found a demand to absorb their supply.

If there is any demand at all, the first grade reaps the reward. A period of market depression is the acid test. And the lesson merely points the old, old moral: "There's always room at the top."

ORDINANCE NO. 169.

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR THE DRAWING OF WARRANTS.

Be It Ordained by the City Council of the City of Carlsbad, New Mexico.

Sec. 1. That hereafter all accounts against the City of Carlsbad shall be recorded by the City Clerk in a book to be by him kept for that purpose, with appropriate rulings and headings, showing the number of the account, date of filing, name of claimant, nature of account, amount allowed, number of warrant, date of issue, to whom assigned, and remarks; and as soon as each account shall have been acted upon by the City Council, sitting as an auditing Board, he shall show upon such book the action taken by the said board.

Sec. 2. After such accounts shall have been allowed as aforesaid, they shall be paid in the order in which they shall have been allowed by warrants drawn on the fund out of which they are allowed, and signed by the city clerk and countersigned by the Mayor, and after such allowance by the said city council, no order of said City Council shall be necessary to authorize the drawing and issuing of said warrants.

Sec. 3. Hereafter warrants or orders on the Treasurer of the City of Carlsbad shall not be receivable by any officer of said city for fines, licenses or taxes, but the same shall be paid in accordance with the dates of issuance by the city clerk as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 4. The City Treasurer shall once each month or oftener if requested by the City Clerk furnish him with a statement of the amount of money then in each of the funds of the said City of Carlsbad, and a statement of the warrants, by number, paid by each fund since the last such statement so given to the said City Clerk; and the said City Clerk shall not issue any warrants against any fund of the said city unless there shall be then in the fund, against which the said warrant is drawn, sufficient money to pay the same remaining after all warrants then outstanding against the same have been paid in full.

Sec. 5. All accounts against the City of Carlsbad shall be by the claimant itemized on the blank to be furnished by the said City Clerk and presented to the said City Clerk.

Sec. 6. This ordinance shall go into effect from and after five days after its publication as required by law.

Passed this 12th day of September A. D. 1921.

J. D. HUDGINS, Mayor of City of Carlsbad.

Attest: R. A. TOFFELMIRE, City Clerk.

SOLID FACTS

We do not profess to sell everything on earth cheaper than anybody else — but when the question is legitimate merchandise in our line, we flatter ourselves to be right on top of the heap.

Our Low Prices Admit of no Discount, and the Qualities we give are the Best Premiums you could ask for.

THESE ARE UNDISPUTED FACTS

And there is no lever so powerful as plain and simple facts. This is the reason that we are making and presenting them to the people every day.

WE WARRANT OUR PRICES TO BE RIGHT

That is we absolutely guarantee them at least as low if not lower, equal all-around excellence considered, than can be found anywhere. Our store MUST stand first in the estimation of the purchasing public.

ORDINANCE NO. 102

An ordinance describing the fire limits of the City of Carlsbad and designating the kind of buildings to be erected therein, and for other purposes:

BE IT ORDAINED by the city Council of the City of Carlsbad, New Mexico:

Sec. 1. The following boundaries shall constitute and be known as the fire limits of the City of Carlsbad: Beginning at the center of Canon and Greene streets, in said city, thence west with the center of Greene Street opposite the center of the alley in Block 43; thence North through the center of the alleys in Block 43 and 40 to the center of Mermod street, thence east with the center of Mermod street to the center of Canal Street; thence North with the center of Canal Street to the center of Stevens Street, thence East with the center of Stevens street to the center of Main Street, thence South with the center of Main Street to the center of Mermod Street, thence East with the center of Mermod Street opposite the center of the alley in Block 4, thence South through the center of the alleys in Block 4 and 7 to the corner of Greene Street, thence west with the center of Greene Street to the center of Canon Street, the place of beginning, —all according to the map of the City of Carlsbad on file in the office of the Probate Clerk of the County of Eddy, State of New Mexico.

Sec. 2. No person shall erect or place or cause to be erected or placed any building or part of a building within said fire limits, unless the same shall be constructed of stone, brick, adobe, or concrete, with roof covered with slate, tile or metal, or the center of the alleys in Block 4 and 7 to the corner of Greene Street, thence west with the center of Greene Street to the center of Canon Street, the place of beginning, —all according to the map of the City of Carlsbad on file in the office of the Probate Clerk of the County of Eddy, State of New Mexico.

an approved fire proof roofing. The gutters shall be of metal, and in all buildings erected of stone, brick, or adobe or concrete in blocks of two or more buildings, within said fire limits, there shall be erected partition walls of stone, brick adobe, or concrete at least twelve inches in thickness where such building is two stories or more in height, and shall extend through the roof, and not less than eight inches in thickness, where such building is one story in height, and all party or side walls shall extend at least eighteen inches above the roof.

Sec. 3. No person shall, within said fire limits, repair any wooden building which has been damaged by fire, decay or otherwise to the extent of fifty per centum of the value nor elevate from the ground or otherwise increase the height of any wooden building or any part thereof, nor remove the same nor any part thereof to any part of the same or other lot different from the place where same now stands without being first authorized to do so by the City Council.

Sec. 4. For each and every week during which any building erected, placed or removed or repaired, elevated or made higher, contrary to the provisions of this ordinance, shall be allowed to remain so, the owner and every part owner of such building may be complained of and punished as for a distinct offense, as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 5. No person shall within said fire limits, or within fifty feet thereof, store or pile any wood, lumber, timber or other easily combustible material, upon or within any open space, and there keep or hold the same or any thereof, unless the same is in good faith about to be used in the construction, alteration or repair of some building or buildings, or unless the same is being used in good faith as firewood for heating or cooking, without permission by resolution of the City Council and for every week during which any such lumber, wood, timber, or other easily combustible material is so placed, piled, or stored contrary to the provisions of this article, shall be allowed to remain, the owner and part owner thereof may be prosecuted and punished as for a distinct offense as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 6. No person shall store and keep any gunpowder or giant powder in quantities of more than fifty pounds in any building or place within said fire limits, and no person within said fire limits shall store or keep any fireworks, or anything commonly known as fireworks, without the permission of the City Council, and under such regulations as they may prescribe.

Sec. 7. No person shall have, put or keep any straw, hay or wood shavings in stock or pile within said fire limits without having the same secured closely, so as to protect the same from flying sparks of fire.

Sec. 8. No pipe of any stove, chimney or fireplace shall be put up or used within said fire limits unless the same be conducted into a chimney of stone, brick, adobe or concrete, and in all cases where a stove-pipe passes through the woodwork of a building, it shall be separated from such wood work at least three inches by metal or other incombustible material.

Sec. 9. All pipes of stoves, chimneys or fire places now in said fire limits, not conforming with the specification contained in section 8 of this ordinance, shall be made with perforated double flues, with not less than three inches air space from ceiling through the roof and shall be made to conform to this section within fifteen days after its passage.

Sec. 10. (As amended). It shall be unlawful for any person, persons, firm or corporation to burn any wrapping paper, waste paper, leaves, or other like material, or any trash, within the fire limits of the City of Carlsbad between the hours of 5 o'clock P. M., and 5 o'clock A. M., and then only when the same is confined and burned in an iron or wire receptacle or cage with meshes not to exceed two inches square or two inches in diameter. All such receptacles or cages shall be provided with tops or coverings of iron or wire screen with meshes not to exceed two inches square or two inches in diameter; and the burning of the materials above enumerated, and the receptacles or cages used in burning the same shall be under the jurisdiction of the Fire Chief.

Sec. 11. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, firm, or corporation within the fire limits of the City of Carlsbad to burn any leaves, grass or any trash of any kind whatsoever, between the hours of 3 o'clock P. M. and 5 o'clock A. M.

Sec. 12. No ashes shall be kept or deposited within said fire limits, unless the same shall be kept or deposited in a close iron or earthen vessel or in an incombustible ash-house, thoroughly secured.

Sec. 13. No person shall store or keep kerosene, gasoline or other inflammable oil in larger quantities than 50 gallons in any building or place within said fire limits, except it be placed in an underground tank as permitted by resolution of the City Council.

Sec. 14. Any violation or failures to comply with the provisions or requirements of any of the preceding sections of this ordinance, shall be punished for each offense by a fine not less than five ($5.00) Dollars and not to exceed fifty ($50.00) dollars and costs of prosecution, or by imprisonment in the county jail or town prison for a period not exceeding sixty (60) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court trying the same.

A Merry Clown Doll

This merry gentleman is one of many dolls that may be made of discarded ribbed underwear or stockings. His head is made of a piece of white or pink ribbed stocking and his face painted with black and red paint. For the rest of him two colors are used and he is stuffed with cotton and has a white ruffle about his neck.

Handy Gifts for Men

Every man, young or old, will appreciate a good-looking rack to place within easy reach of his dressing case. The tie rack requires an oblong or oval board, smoothly covered with cretanne and a small nickel towel rack, which is screwed to the front of it. It is suspended by a silk cord fastened at the back with screw eyes.

shall be in full force and effect from and after five days from its publication, which is required by law.

Passed finally this 12th day of September, A. D., 1921.

J. D. HUDGINS,

Mayor of the City of Carlsbad,

Attest: R. A. TOFFELMIRE,

City Clerk.

Approved by me this 12th day of September, A. D., 1921.

J. D. HUDGINS,

Mayor of the City of Carlsbad,

6:30 P. M. — The Senior League wishes all leaguers present at the above hour. Possibly you have been kept away from the previous meetings for some cause or other. We urge your presence Sunday evening.

7:30 P. M. — "God's Call to Duty", will be the subject of the evening message and will be evangelistic in spirit.

We cordially invite all who do not attend church elsewhere to come to our church this next Sunday. It is our purpose to help and give comfort to all who may enter our place of worship.

W. C. T. U.

The local W. C. T. U. held its regular monthly meeting last Wednesday afternoon at the Baptist church. The meeting was extremely interesting from the fact that arrangements were completed for the "Miscellaneous Sale", which is to be given at the William Leck room next to the Boston Store, one week from tomorrow, which is the 19th instant. The ladies will serve a chicken pie dinner at the same time and hope for a liberal patronage. They will serve chicken pie, potatoes, both sweet and Irish, salad, pie and coffee all for fifty cents. They will also have on sale, besides their aprons, cakes and doughnuts, and other good things. They hope for a liberal patronage, in order that they may not have to call on the public again for some time.

"THE HOMELIKE CHURCH."
