The Carlshad Current

TWENTY-NINTH YEAR.

CARLSBAD, NEW MEXICO, FRIDAY, NOV. 25, 1921.

NUMBER 51.

LARGE CROWDS ATTEND RODEO

The big cowboy rodeo is in full swing today as we go to press, the finishing contests taking place this afternoon. Carlshad has witnessed the largest crowd for this three day event that has ever attended a Rodeo in this section, which is mostly due to the well managed plans laid by Barney Hopkins and B. B. Polk, who put the event on, coupled with the right kind of advertising, a big ad having been run in the Current for the past month besides large circulars being distributed. Over one thousand people witnessed the show on Thanksgiving day, cars lining both sides of the track the entire distance.

Trick riding by Miss Bonnie Gray of Los Angeles, California, and the clown work of Ed. Wright, are features which are new in this section.

Over a thousand dollars is offered in prizes and the roping contests are fast and the competition keen.

The time made by each roper for the two days is as follows:

CATTLE SHIPMENTS WERE UP TO NORMAL IN MONTH OF OCTOBER THIS YEAR

Albuquerque, Nov. 18.—According to the figures of the different cattle inspectors of the state, the shipments for the month of October of this year were nearly up to normal. Reports from the secretary of the Cattle Sanitary Board show that over 20,000 cattle left the districts of the state during the month.

Inspector Ernest Best of the Eddy and Chavez district reports that 4,937 cattle were sent out of the state last month. The Cimarron district sent out 1,656; the Springer district 1,705; the Carlshad district, 5,966; the Silver City district, 1,636; the Alamogordo district, 3,707.

Professor Donley and Miss Witt, who had been in attendance at the State Educational meeting at Albuquerque, came in yesterday afternoon. Miss Graham did not yet return, waiting over for a visit with some friends. Prof. Donley tells us that owing to the financial condition of the state, the attendance was much smaller this year than in other years. However, about 1,700 teachers from the various schools were in attendance. Miss Graham, who gave a paper on English, was very highly complimented and the paper had been asked for to be printed in a small booklet. Mr. Donley says that the meeting was most interesting and educational and could not fail of being a great help and inspiration to all who were present.

Arthur House, of Roswell, was a business visitor here Tuesday and Wednesday.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Play practice has begun for the Latin play to be given sometime after Christmas. Members of the Virgil and Caesar classes that are to take part were present Friday evening at the home of their instructor, Mrs. Keyes to practice.

Mrs. Keyes returned to take up her duties Thursday of last week after a spell of sickness. Her pupils were glad to welcome her in the class room.

Isabel Smith has been absent from school for several days. Isabel is suffering from torn ligaments in her knee. Her classmates are anxious for her speedy recovery, as they miss her bright personality.

Freida Hetsig has been absent during the past two weeks. She is having quite serious trouble with her eyes. Her many friends are awaiting the news of her recovery.

Dorothy Dillard, a member of the Freshman class, has been a victim of Scarlet fever. May she speedily regain her health.

Henry Fowler returned to his home in Oklahoma City after a brief stay in our high school. He will be missed by his many new friends.

An enjoyable program was given Wednesday at 10:10 a. m. in the Study Hall. The program was as follows:

America the Beautiful by High School.
A Thanksgiving Song, High School.
Piano duet, Evelyn McFarland, Josephine Williams.
Reading: A Thankful Soul, Laura Louise Barnett.
Vocal solo, Loverna Hiler.
Reading of Thanksgiving Proclamation, Ralph Mahan.
Piano duet, Mary Frances Joyce, Eleanor Flowers.
High School Paper, Georgiana Galton.
Vocal solo, Mary Nette Reed.
Reading: Honas' and La Balyena, Miss Jewell.
Piano duet, Elizabeth Purdy, Elizabeth Albritton.

Play practice has been progressing with good results. The seniors hope to put on the best play yet given in the history of the high school. The play is known as "Jimmy's Aunt Jane." It will be given in the opera house Dec. 22. Please remember this and make no other conflicting engagements.

Basket Ball practice has started at last, much to the pleasure of those girls participating in said sport. The first meeting was called a week ago last Thursday under the supervision of Miss Nichols.

The High School students enjoyed a very entertaining and profitable talk given by M. C. Mimes, President of Howard Paine College at Brownwood, Texas. The speaker was introduced by Rev. Mahan. President Mimes spoke on "The Building of a Life."

Miss Shepard and her Domestic Science class of Freshmen girls gave a very enjoyable picnic breakfast Friday morning at seven o'clock at the Flume.

Mr. Donley and Miss Graham are attending the Teachers' Convention at Albuquerque this week. Mrs. Frank Kindel is doing substitute work during their absence.

We cordially invite those who do not attend services elsewhere to come to our church. We try to show forth the Christ spirit of love and goodwill to all who will enter our church.

Misses Orva Pruett, Warren Collings and Jane Looley, of Pecos, were in town overnight Wednesday, coming from their homes to attend the ball and rodeo. A trio of such pretty girls is seldom seen.

Thanksgiving

AND THOU shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the Lord thy God with a tribute of a freewill offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the Lord thy God, according as the Lord thy God hath blessed thee.

AND thou shalt rejoice before the Lord thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite that is within thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are among you, in the place which the Lord thy God has chosen to place his name there.

AND thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt; and thou shalt observe and do these statutes.

THOU shalt observe the feast of tabernacles seven days, after that thou hast gathered in thy corn and thy wine;

AND thou shalt rejoice in thy feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within thy gate.

SEVEN days shalt thou keep a solemn feast unto the Lord thy God, in the place which the Lord shall choose; because the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thy increase, and in all the works of thine hands, therefore thou shalt surely rejoice.

—DEUTERONOMY, CH. 16, v. 10-15.

WOMAN'S CLUB ART EXHIBIT.

The paintings by New Mexico artists which are on display at the Woman's club rooms this week, are well worth an examination by every one who takes an interest in the achievements of the citizens of our state.

The following painters from various parts of the state are represented by their work:

W. E. Rollins, two pictures; Gerald Casady, four; J. G. Bakos, one; E. G. Eisenlohe, two; Fremont Ellis, two; B. R. Gastra, one; Willard Nash, two; Sheldon Parsons, two; Charles S. Rawles, two; Olive Rush, three; Will Shuster, one; Carlos Viera, one. Beside these, our local artists, Mrs. Lucius Anderson and Miss Hart, have specimens of their work on exhibition. Mrs. Anderson's painting, "Sunflowers," is the property of Mrs. E. P. Bujac, but has been loaned for this occasion. It is framed in a beautiful carved wood frame, the work of Miss Kernode, of our city.

Miss Hart is showing three pictures, among them a wonderful scene "In the Studio," which has received honorable mention in a previous exhibition.

The Woman's club is proud to have the talent of our local artists shown with the other work of New Mexico geniuses and urges everybody to visit the club house some time while the exhibit is here. The pictures will be sent to Artesia on Wednesday, November 30th, but each afternoon until that time, including Sunday, the rooms will be open free to all visitors. The paintings are for sale at prices ranging from $25 to $75, and if any are sold in Carlshad, the club receives 10 per cent of the price.

MAN WHO ESCAPED PEN FOUND IN IOWA PRISON; TO RETURN

Santa Fe, Nov. 15.—Requisition for the return to New Mexico of three persons have been signed by Gov. Mecham. The governor of Texas is asked to return from El Paso George Penodier and S. F. Amatta, both of whom are charged in a justice of the peace court in Eddy county with carrying deadly weapons while engaged in the unlawful transportation of intoxicating liquors.

The governor of Iowa is asked to send back Harold Applequist, who escaped from a road camp in Socorro county, in 1918, when he had served less than a year on a sentence of four to six years for the burglary of a railroad car and robbery. Applequist is now in the Iowa state penitentiary, but the board of parole has voted to suspend his sentence on the condition that he be turned over to a representative of New Mexico, to be brought back to Santa Fe to serve his unexpired term.

Pessimism Has No Place in the Real Spirit of Time of Thanksgiving

After having devoted so much of our time to bemoaning the misfortunes that have come to us as a people during the past year, it will do us good on this Thanksgiving day to stop and look at the other side of the ledger and cast up the account of the good things that have come to us.

Our situation admittedly has not been as favorable in many respects as we could desire. We have had problems and difficulties which naturally aroused dissatisfaction and discontent. We have been feeling mighty sorry for ourselves.

Perhaps Thanksgiving occasion could bring no greater blessing to us as a people than to readjust our perspective and displace pessimism with a new spirit of optimism.

Before we enter into the true spirit of the day it is necessary to put away our hatreds, our gronches and discontents and center our thoughts upon the blessings that have come. If one would give thanks he must realize the fact of having been blessed, and in doing so he minimizes the misfortunes he has experienced. The pessimist is in no position to give thanks. The spirit of optimism will possess us to the extent that we are able to give thanks in spirit and in truth to the Giver of All Good Gifts today.

For the fact remains that, in spite of our difficulties, we are the most prosperous and the most favorably situated nation on the earth and that we have more reasons for contentment and gratitude than any other people.

This Thanksgiving day, if observed in the spirit of those who inaugurated it, is capable of lifting the spirit and thought of the American people to new heights and of ushering in a new era of contentment and happiness.

Thanksgiving day comes to mean today not only an occasion when we may express our gratitude to the Most High for His care and kindness in the past, but likewise a time when by marshaling our blessings before us we are inspired with new hope and courage for the future.

Dr. L. H. Pate, who has been at Mayo Brothers Hospital at Rochester, Minn., for about ten days, is expected to arrive in Carlshad tonight or tomorrow. The doctor has been attending clinics at the hospital.

Mrs. A. W. Fly, sister of Meadames S. R. Carter and Anna Brown, will return tomorrow afternoon from El Paso, where she has spent some weeks. Mrs. Fly is an enthusiast about Carlshad and its surroundings and has nothing but good to say of the town, the climate and the people.

WORK CONTINUES ON SURVEY FOR RED BLUFF DAM

There has been no let up in the effort and interest of those working in behalf of the Red Bluff Irrigation project. Business men of Pecos and vicinity who are vitally interested in the proposition are patiently waiting for further news from Washington. But while they are waiting representatives of the government are busy, according to the best reports available, in making a survey of the Pecos river and that region surrounding the proposed Red Bluff dam site.

According to a statement given a representative of the Enterprise this week by R. G. West, representing the Texas Board of Water Engineers and the U. S. Geological Survey, the Red Bluff proposition is entirely feasible and promising for Pecos valley. Mr. West came to Pecos from Austin Tuesday.

"The proposed Red Bluff project would hold enough water to adequately irrigate all lands now in cultivation in the valley below together with a large acreage added," said Mr. West Wednesday night. "Of course this is merely an estimate based on what information I have at hand, but everyone who is familiar with the river and the proposed site knows that there are great possibilities and resources there awaiting development. I think the project, as proposed, on the large scale outlined, is a splendid one."

In addition to his work of making records for the Red Bluff project Mr. West is installing automatic testing machines at different points on the river and the program outlined for future work here in this section will keep him here two years. Mr. West's most important work here is the installation of a gauge on the Pecos River, just below the Red Bluff proposed site. Data tabulated from the records of this gauge will be furnished Congress in its deliberations on the proposition to loan money on the erection of the big dam.

T. H. Darken, the Geological Survey representative from Denver, who has been ordered to the Pecos Valley to help make a survey of the district, is expected to reach Pecos between Nov. 15th and Dec. 1st. The Chamber of Commerce and the Pecos Valley Water Users' Association plan a meeting to be followed by a banquet on his arrival.—Pecos Enterprise.

Mrs. Harroun and family will occupy the house of Miss Effie Vera Hart while she is absent attending the meeting of the Western States Irrigation Association at Salt Lake City, Utah.

R. Durrill, of Van Horn, Texas, stopped overnight in the city Monday night. Mr. Durrill has been one of the county commissioners of Culberson county for a number of years.

FORMER EDDY COUNTY MAN SMOTHERED IN SAND PIT.

The following from a Colorado Springs paper, was handed to the Current by Clarence Bell, and refers to a former well known citizen of the Black River country, who, however, left here something like five years ago. He at one time lived on what is known as the Paul Grav ranch, about twenty-five miles southwest of town:

J. W. Crain, 60 years old, a teamster of 442 East San Miguel street, was smothered to death yesterday afternoon when he was buried by a wall of sand in a gravel pit at Wood avenue and Monroe street. A band protruding from the sand was seen by W. C. Day, a Rock Island workman, who was returning to his home about 4:30 o'clock.

Aid was summoned and the police and street departments worked frantically for half an hour to unearth the man in time to save him but he was practically dead when he was placed in the Law ambulance and taken to St. Francis hospital. Crain's team had been frightened by the fall of the sand wall and had run away.

Crain had no relatives here, his wife having separated from him more than a year ago. An inquest probably will be held.

The sand pit, which is owned by the Colorado Springs company, was posted with warning signs and it was stated that Crain had been warned away from the pit on several occasions.

The funeral of John W. Crain, who met his death Thursday when a sand bank caved in and smothered him, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from the undertaking parlors, the Rev. C. A. Fulton, officiating.

He was born near Louisville, Ky., February 17, 1865, and spent most of his life in Texas and New Mexico in the cattle business. He came to Colorado four years ago, buying the Zanger farm fifteen miles east of here and living there until a year ago. He is survived by an adopted daughter, Gusie May (Law).

HAY TRADE CONDITIONS OF THE WEEK

Markets in general are very quiet under a continuation of the slow demand throughout the week. Receipts are ample but not enough of quality interest. The lower qualities are in large receipts and as buyers do not want them they become a drag on the market. Good pasture is still reported from many sections and this causes a reduction in the demand. As a whole markets are featureless and dull.—Hay Journal.

CARLSBAD COTTON

Up to last Monday 3300 bales of cotton have gone forward to the different cotton centers from Carlshad. It is estimated the remainder of the crop will be sufficient to make the total reach 5000 bales. There were approximately 8700 acres planted to cotton this year, thus making the yield about three-quarters of a bale to the acre.

MUCH LAND IRRIGATED IN THE SUNSHINE STATE

New Mexico land now irrigated and irrigable land under projects under construction total 945,981 acres, according to a folder issued by the A. T. & S. F. railroad, copies of which have been received by L. M. Lawson, project manager of the reclamation service.

"The cost of the Elephant Butte dam was $5,000,000 and the total cost of the project up to January 1, 1921, was about $10,000,000," the pamphlet states.

Of the Carlshad project the pamphlet states: "The irrigation works consist of a reservoir with a capacity of about 60,000 acre feet, 17 miles north of Carlshad; a distribution reservoir with a capacity of 6,000,000 acre feet at Avalon and a canal system that extends about 25 miles south to Malaga.

"Possibilities for development of water power are great in many parts of the state. It is estimated a hydro-electric plant at the Elephant Butte dam will produce 24,000 horse power, or between 100,000,000 to 150,000,000 kilowatt hours."—El Paso Herald.

CARLSBAD IRRIGATION PROVES BIG SUCCESS

The Carlshad project on the Pecos river in southeastern New Mexico, this year had the largest area ever under cultivation and the best crops since farming began there more than thirty years ago. Over 22,000 acres of the 25,000 acres granted water rights by the reclamation service were in crops, alfalfa leading with 8,500 acres; cotton, 8,000 acres; corn 4,000 acres; the remainder including sorghum grains, forage crops, beans, orchards, gardens. Farmers lately have been giving attention to experiments with dairying and hog and poultry raising, with satisfactory results.—Pecos Enterprise.

PLANNING FOR SEAL CAMPAIGN

The Christmas seal campaign will begin December 1st. Arrangements for it are being made throughout the nation. The proceeds of the sale of Christmas seals are used in fighting tuberculosis. The campaign this year will base its appeal on the striking reduction in the death rate brought about by the work which the seals have helped in a large measure to finance.

At no time of the year does suffering humanity receive greater attention than at the Christmas season and there is no charity more worthy of support than the Red Cross Christmas seals.

Mrs. Howard Moore was hostess to

Thanksgiving Should Mean More Than Mere Feeling of Gratitude for Favors

It is to be regretted that the beautiful and appropriate custom of observing a day of Thanksgiving has become associated with an abundance of material things. If crops have been bountiful, if the harvest has been great, if there has been an overflow of the "good" things of earth, and if the times have been peaceful, reasons for Thanksgiving are supposed to increase correspondingly.

There is something in the outward tradition of Thanksgiving that would appear to justify this stressing of the importance of material things; but there is also something in the real Thanksgiving that would demand the stressing of other things, demand the placing of emphasis upon spiritual matters rather than upon conditions which pertain solely to the physical well being of man.

The real Thanksgiving demands a feeling of deep appreciation for whatever has come, the acceptance "with equal thanks" of the good fortune or the bad fortune of previous months. This Thanksgiving is essentially an internal thing—it can be observed regardless of what one had for dinner that day, and its observance is an affair that should be open to the rich and the poor of the earth.

It may well be that some, on this day of taking stock and expressing gratitude for blessings, can find little of good that has come to them as the world counts good. But these are the ones for whom Thanksgiving may hold the deepest reality. These may say:

"Lord, for life, its love, its hope, its interest, its opportunity for service; for the great and durable satisfactions of living that center about home and work; for deep and abiding memories of joy that bereavement has brought into sharp relief; for all these blessings may I be truly thankful."

"To this prayer may be added by those in prosperity:

"And may I be mindful lest in the excess of good things I become self-centered and forget my obligations to my fellow men."

The Current is sorry to learn of the serious illness of little Dorothy, the blue-eyed daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Dillard. She was first taken with scarlet fever and afterward developed typhoid and has since been quite ill at the family home. Her mother is in constant attendance and many good wishes are hers for the speedy convalescence the little one being a general favorite with schoolmates and townspeople.

Miss Nettie Mae Kindel was a pleasant hostess to the Junior Bridge club at the home of her sister, Mrs. Sam Batton, Thursday afternoon of this week. The young ladies played their favorite game of bridge, whilst and were served a luncheon of two courses. Those enjoying the game with Miss Kindel were Misses Lorene Powell, Wetherly, Helen McIlvaine, Patty and Marian Witt, Georgia Wallace, Frances Moore, Helen Wright, Mesdames William McAdoo, John Snow and Dan Lowenbruck.

JOHNNIE ABERS VERY ILL AT MIDLAND

John Abers, the well known cowboy from near Jal, New Mexico, is reported lying at the point of death in Midland, Texas, from blood poisoning. He came to this city the 12th of the month, suffering with a sore on his lip and had it lanced by a physician, and it was thought he would soon recover. He has been getting worse since then instead of better and it is feared he cannot recover. The trouble began in a small pimple on his lip which he pricked with a pin.

A pleasant little dance was given at the Crawford Hotel dining room guests of Miss Small being the participants, and music being furnished by different ones on the piano. Those dancing were Mr. Davis and Mrs. Parks; Mr. Newton and Miss Standeford; Mr. Russell and Miss Buie; Mr. Long and Miss Taylor; Mr. Atkinson and Miss Small.

Mrs. T. J. Kindel gave a duck dinner to the children at her home west of town Monday, honoring the birthday of her son-in-law, Sam Batton. A pleasant time was spent and a fine dinner is reported.

Tired

"I was weak and run-down," relates Mrs. Eula Burnett, of Dalton, Ga. "I was thin and just felt tired, all the time. I didn't rest well. I wasn't ever hungry. I knew, by this, I needed a tonic, and as there is none better than—

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

... I began using Cardui," continues Mrs. Burnett. "After my first bottle, I slept better and ate better. I took four bottles. Now I'm well, feel just fine, eat and sleep, my skin is clear and I have gained and sure feel that Cardui is the best tonic ever made."

Thousands of other women have found Cardui just as Mrs. Burnett did. It should help you.

Way back in the dark, dim, dreary ages,
When man knew nothing of pay-day or wages,
He used stony weapons and lived in rocky ledges
And when he wooed—he persuaded with stone sledges.

II.
He loved not for grace or for beauty rare,
He wooed alone for his own welfare,
For his mate had to work—and work darn hard,
For he had to rest—he sure was a card.

III.
But today we woo for beauty and graces,
We all want our wives to have smiling faces,
We let her buy powder, some rouge and pink paste,
But they don't solve the real problem in any case.

IV.
Don't let us copy the cave man so harsh,
Stop turning the basement into a marsh,
Send out that washing that's drudgery to your wife,
We will return it looking ever so nice.

When your clothes come back home you'll find our way is best.

MR. SPARKS HEADS STATE BAPTISTS FOR THIRD TIME

The Rev. Buren Sparks, pastor of the First Baptist church of Santa Fe, back from the state convention at Albuquerque, which closed yesterday, was elected president of the state Baptist organization for the third consecutive time.

He reports a most inspiring convention, 350 delegates representing 65 churches, and a state membership of 9,000 making it the largest Protestant denomination in the state. The Baptists raised and expended $75,000 for missions alone in the state last year, and at the present rate of growth a membership of 20,000 is expected in five years. The chief matters discussed were the Montezuma College, on which $50,000 has been expended for improvements and which opens with a summer term in 1922, and the orphanage at Portales, now caring for 58 children with applications from many more. The Baptists have all debts paid and $500 in the treasury. —Santa Fe New Mexican.

Everett Grantham came in Tuesday afternoon and remained here until Wednesday night, when he left for Clovis, where he was to meet Judge Bratton and continue on to Tucuman where Judge Bratton goes to hold court and where Everett will take his place as court stenographer. His many friends in Carlsbad, where he grew up, attended school and graduated, are glad to know that he is to be again employed in the state and that we have a prospect of seeing him at least occasionally.

MEADOWS PASTURES AND STOCK

Pastures and ranges need rain badly in much of the southern Great Plains region and in parts of the Rocky Mountain area, the lower Mississippi Valley, and in the northeast. The rain the latter part of the week in the southern and Middle Atlantic Coast states will be of great benefit. Pastures continue in satisfactory condition in most central, northern and western states.

Fishing parties have been numerous this week despite the cold weather. The water having been turned out of the canal the latter part of last week, much sport and many fish have been obtained at the siphon west of town.

Mrs. E. E. Hartshorn entertained Wednesday, November 2, in the afternoon at her home in Farwell, to announce the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Mabel Alene to Mr. Arthur Johnston of Abilene, Texas. The wedding will occur the latter part of November.

In the chosen game of progressive Hearts, Mrs. Overstreet won the prize for high score. Following the round of games a short musical program was given. Mrs. Lyons sang accompanied by Mrs. W. W. Vinyard at the piano. Miss Nabors and Mrs. Vinyard rendered piano solos.

An ice cream course in the form of hearts, coffee, nuts and mints were served. Mrs. Overstreet offered a toast to the happiness of the bride-to-be. — The State Line Tribune.

WHEN HEARTS ARE TRUMPS

Tragedy if Child Should Have Christmas Come and Go Without an Ecstasy.

IF YOU have no child of your own, you must borrow or beg one for Christmas eve; for it is the time when the world lights its happiness with a child's joy, writes Dr. James I. Vance, in the Illinois State Journal.

Only a child may have the right of way on Christmas eve. If you do not stand in with the children, you must stand aside.

It is the hour when the world makes a cradle its shrine; when not only wise men from the East, but grown-ups from all points of the compass slip down over the hills of memory toward childhood's dawn, saying under their breath: "We have seen his star in the East and are come to worship him."

What a wonderful thing is this yearning of the old world for the happiness of children that climaxes at Christmas! The better side of human nature comes to the front. We throw off our cynicism. Meanness is shamed into generosity, and for a little while on Christmas eve the tightwads of earth have a look in on paradise.

Was there ever a sweeter eagerness, a holier joy, a more heavenly anticipation, than that which all through the house is felt on Christmas eve? Every one is thinking of making somebody happy. The delicious secretiveness of it intensifies the thrill. Care is forgotten. Expectation is ringing the bells. Peace is over all the world. And the hero is a child.

Thank God for children! "Of such is the kingdom of heaven." It is a sin to disappoint a child. Then it must please God when we make the children happy.

If there is no child in your home, maybe there is one on your doorstep, waiting for you to be his saint on Christmas eve. There are certainly some there in the street. They are looking at the toys in the window with wistful faces, and wondering what the lover of children will bring them. It is your time to play, and hearts are trumps!

What a tragedy if a single child in your town should have Christmas come and go without an ecstasy!

BOAR'S HEAD AT CHRISTMAS

Ancient Custom Which is Now Believed to Be Observed Only at Oxford University.

RINGING in the boar's head at Yuletide is not celebrated widely in Great Britain today, and probably the only place where it survives with something of its old-time glory is Queen's college, Oxford university.

The custom is believed to antedate Christianity; in fact, it is said to have come down to Englishmen from the Druids, the Detroit News recalls. Freya, goddess of peace and plenty, was always represented as riding a boar, and the Druid priests are believed to have made yearly sacrifices of boars to this divinity in order to win her good will.

At Queen's the procession of the boar's head forms in the buttery. A soloist, who usually is a former student of the college, heads the line. Behind him march two or three broad-shouldered youths who bear the boar's head, mounted on a silver salver. In the old days the head weighed as much as eighty pounds.

Flags and pennants of the college flutter about the head, which is crowned with gilded sprays of rosemary, bay, laurel and other evergreens. A lemon or an orange, the old Norse symbol of plenty, is placed between the tusks.

Behind the bearers of the salver march the surpliced men and boys of the choir and the organist in a robe of an Oxford doctor of music.

On a dais at the end of the dining hall the provost and the principal guests stand. The provost says grace in Latin; the call to dinner is sounded with trumpets through the cloisters and the procession starts through the cloisters.

Origin of the Word Yule.

Many explanations are given of the origin of the word Yule. One of the most probable is that it is derived from the ancient Gothic word, giul or hlul, the origin of our word wheel. The Yule festival is said to have received its name from being the turning-point of the year—when the sun apparently turns back from the south and begins to set each evening farther and farther to the north until in June it goes down almost in the northwest. In the old clog almanacs of the Middle Ages a wheel is the device used for marking Yule-tide or Christmas.

Chocolate Sea-Foam Fudge.

Put over the fire in a clean saucepan one cupful of light brown sugar, a half-cupful of water and a third of a cupful of grated chocolate and boil without stirring until it spins a thread from the point of a spoon. Have beaten stiff the white of an egg; pour the boiling mixture upon it and stir until it begins to stiffen. Drop from a spoon on waxed paper in little bonbons, or pour into a greased pan before it begins to stiffen and mark into squares with a buttered knife.—The Delicatessen.

ODD SHAPED AND SMALL CARDS ARE DELAY TO MAILS

An official statement from the postoffice department at Washington has been handed the Current by Postmaster J. W. Wells, in which the use of small envelopes and unusual shaped postcards are discouraged by the department, especially during the Holiday season. The notice follows:

The Post Office always needs your assistance but in one particular especially, just at this time.

During the holiday season large quantities of very small envelopes and cards are put into the mails with the result that all postal work is very much retarded and mail disfigurement and mutilation.

This is not generally known to the public and we want you to help us to do a little educating. The minimum size of cards and envelopes should not be below two and three-fourths by four inches for the following reasons:

1. Addresses will be obliterated by cancellation mark.
2. Too small to be run thru facing table, necessitating three extra handlings with consequent delay not only to this but to other mail.
3. Delay in cancellation because of awkwardness in putting through cancelling machines.
4. Delay thru difficulty in sorting.
5. Liability to loss or damage as small sizes do not fit letter packages and can not be tied securely.

These odd and diminutive sized pieces of stationery have come into use in the past few years and only now in any quantities at Christmas time when the whole postal institution is keyed up to top speed and trying to keep on top of the load.

We will greatly appreciate, therefore, your cooperation in helping us to get the public to use stationery of the proper size in order that the handling of all mail may be expedited.

OCTOBER A DRY MONTH

The precipitation at Silver City for the month of October amounted to only .20 of an inch, all of which fell on one day, the 24th. This is less than that of any other year for the past ten years, except in 1917, when it was only .04 of an inch. There were 27 clear days, three partly cloudy days, and only one cloudy day during the month. The highest temperature was 81 degrees, on the 19th, and the lowest was 27 degrees, on the 28th. The first ice and white frost occurred on the 25th.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joyce, in accordance with their yearly custom, entertained a number of friends at their home to a six o'clock Thanksgiving dinner last night. Those sharing the pleasures of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Moore, Mrs. Parks and daughter, Evelyn, of Little Rock, Arkansas, Miss Eloise Lane, Davis Britton, of El Paso, and Dick Harrison, of Port Stockton. For many years Mrs. Joyce has been giving pleasure to her many friends by sharing her lovely home with them, and young men and ladies absent from their own homes at the Holiday Season are sure of an invitation and a hearty welcome to the beautiful and hospitable Joyce home.

The Ellen Richards Club of young girls, Freshmen in the High school, were entertained at the home of one of their number, Miss Anna Bush, Wednesday afternoon after school. The home was prettily decorated in the class colors of orange and green, long festoons of those colors being in evidence on the dining table looped from the chandelier and cut flowers in the same colors were tastefully disposed about the room. Music on the piano and graphophone was given and games added much to the pleasure of the occasion. Refreshments of turkey sandwiches with cranberry sauce, cakes, nuts and candy were appreciated by all present.

A family dinner which was partaken of by thirty persons, all or nearly all of whom were relatives, was given at the home of J. P. Middleton, south of town, yesterday. A very elaborate spread in which turkeys, chickens and other fowls, with salads, pies and cakes of various kinds appeared and best of all was the hearty good fellowship shown to all and by all who were present. After dinner all present went to the Rodeo and so passed a pleasant afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Shattuck are among many others present from their home at Artesia, taking in the roping.

Mrs. Jim Baker left the first of the week for a brief visit at the home of her brothers in Oklahoma.

GRANDMA STANFORD'S TURNIP GREENS.

Grandma came to the Hospital
At dinner time today
With a well-filled basket on her arm;
What was in it, did you say?
Well, just put on yer thinkers:
You can't guess by any means.
'Twas a great, big piece of corn bread
An' some good ol' turnip greens.

When the gods met on Olympus
They had necto, when they'd dine,
In Rome's Bacchanalian revels
They drank pearls dissolved in wine.
Now Epicures eat turtle soup
From Havalina tureens;
But there's nuthin' can beat corn bread
An' good ol' turnip greens.

You ought to see the good things
They bring us on our trays,
I haven't room to name them all
And the extras, Holidays
But all of us, from head to cook,
Behind Hospital screens,
Gave thanks today for "corn bread
An' good ol' turnip greens".

She had grown them in her garden
And tended them with care,
How many, many feeble steps
It had taken to raise, prepare
And cook and bring them to us,
Shut in from Carlsbad scenes;
But, if "the cup of water" counts,
HE counts Grandma's turnip greens.

OTIS NEWS.

Several Otisites are in the mountains hunting, among them Dell and Lloyd Poteet, Bert Slesse and others. Mrs. Lloyd Poteet is spending the time while her husband is absent hunting with Mrs. Dell Poteet and her friends, Mrs. Roy Worley.

Robert Musick is helping Mr. Weaver take the crop report. Mrs. Vernon Middleton and daughter Marjory, returned Wednesday from a three weeks visit to her father and sisters, near El Paso.

Mrs. C. Grandi is convalescing from her recent sick spell and will soon be as well as ever, which is a matter for rejoicing by her many friends made during her long residence in the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Middleton have moved to town. They will be greatly missed by their friends.

The Baptist ladies have something very unique planned for their annual Christmas bazaar to be given December 3. The Seven Ages of Woman will be represented as follows: Babyhood, Childhood, Sweet Sixteen, The Debutante, The Housewife, The Housewife, and Old Age. There will be a pretty booth to represent each age and articles for sale suitable for each with the exception of the last named where there will be an exhibit of heirlooms and other articles of interest. The ladies will also serve a chicken pie dinner at the same time and place. The dinner will be served from 11:30 on. The place is the William Leek building next to the Boston store.

The concert given by the Cameron Male Quartette Wednesday night at the Crawford Theatre, deserved much more of an audience than it received. The members of the troop are all young men with fine voices and the entertainment they gave was pleasing and artistic. The baritone especially, Russell Brennan, captured the hearts of the audience present and all were delighted with his fine singing. Altogether, Mr. Linn is entitled to the thanks of our people for bringing such a fine aggregation to the city. We understand this to be the first one of a number which he has secured for the winter and while the attendance was a disappointment, from various causes, the next number will probably make up for it.

The school at Otis had some fine Thanksgiving exercises Wednesday. This school is always at the front in observing the various holidays of the year. Both teachers and pupils are putting forth earnest endeavor and are enthusiastic in their work with an enthusiasm that spells success.

Colin Gerrells, a former clerk in the T. C. Horne Dry Goods Store, but for the past two years living on his ranch in the mountains, has again taken up his old position in the same store. Prior to leaving for his ranch Mr. Gerrells worked for three years in this popular store and his return is a matter for congratulation by the proprietor and all the patrons and by the selling force of the establishments. Mr. Gerrells has a wide acquaintance with the stockmen as well as in town, is a fine window dresser, and a very popular young man. All of which will be to his advantage as salesman.

J. B. Morris and wife, who have been in Rochester, Minnesota, for the last couple weeks, to consult with the famous Mayo Brothers, for Mrs. Morris' benefit arrived here Tuesday. We understand that very little has been done for Mrs. Morris, the doctors being unable to diagnose her case.

As I am not able to write to my friends in Carlsbad and Los Angeles who so kindly remembered me in my sickness, I wish in this way to extend to them my thanks for their thoughtfulness in remembering my birthday with the gift of handkerchiefs. They are a pleasure to me in my convalescence, and I thank every one.

WOLF IS MAKING LAST STAND IN UNITED STATES

Washington, Nov. 13.—The wolf is gamely making his last stand in America. Bloody fanged from cattle growers stock, and fighting for his existence against the best traps, rifles, poisons and hunters, he has been cut down in number, until today it is estimated by the United States biological survey, that in the western states, his last refuge, there are probably less than five hundred. Hunters are fast getting his pelt, through exciting and romantic adventures. In northwestern Wyoming, Uncle Sam's hunters are now intensifying a drive to clean out what is believed to be less than fifty. Since the drive began last spring, twenty four have been killed.

The old system of laying bounties on the heads of wild animals has been found after years of study and experience to be a failure, Dr. A. K. Fisher, in charge of economics investigations of the biological survey says.

"Since 1890 millions of dollars have been spent in bounties," he declared, "and there has never been a case where the bounty did any permanent good."

The old bounty men, he charged, were in the game more for the money and the living they could get out of it, than for the purpose of ridding the country of wild animals. It was found, he added, that the bounty men after hunting a season, purposely would leave one or two pair of wolves, to raise more wolves for more bounties.

In the beginning of the government's drive with paid hunters, Dr. Fisher further charged, some of the old bounty men proved unfaithful. "Some of them would write up here saying if they could only have the fin of a shark, or the tip of a kangaroo's tail, they could surely lure their game into their traps. That was all pure superstition."

Although the wolf has attacked many persons and hunted man in packs in the steppes of Russia, and other parts of the old world, there is no single case on record, Dr. Fisher reports, where a wolf has attacked a human being in North America.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. James left the middle of the week on their long deferred trip to Hot Springs, New Mex. They will go overland from here stopping in El Paso for a visit with kinfolks and will then go on to their destination. Mr. James will do some painting for his brother in Hot Spring and will likely be gone until the first of the year.

WORLD COTTON SHORTAGE IS FORECAST BY SENATOR

Washington, Nov. 15.—Prediction of a world shortage of cotton next summer was made in the Senate today by Senator Smith, Democrat, South Carolina in a speech analyzing the statistics on cotton consumption for October, made public by the census bureau. Should the rate of consumption for the ensuing months equal or exceed that of October, he said, there would not be a bale of American cotton in existence by next August 1.

In the course of his speech, Mr. Smith digressed to discuss what he said was the failure of congressional action intended to aid the farmers, asserting that it seemed the only hope for the agricultural interests, lay in the formation of their own co-operative selling agencies and the establishment of their own banks. He added that relief legislation thus far had been converted each time into "breadstuffs behind which the interests opposed to the farmers entrenched themselves to destroy the farmers' profits."

Exports and domestic consumption of cotton for October aggregated 1,366,000 bales which according to the Senator, constitutes a record for monthly disposition of the product.

At that rate, he continued, "the exports and consumption between August 11, and next August 1, will be more than 6,000,000 bales and the best estimate of the visible supply can be obtained, shows only about twelve and a half or 13,000,000 bales."

A carry-over of about five million bales was estimated by Mr. Smith while this year's crop he believed he would not exceed seven million bales. He made his figures liberal, he added, but found no way to bring the two totals any way near together.

Mr. Smith reviewed the many "cries" which he said had forced cotton prices down and told the Senate that all of the "menacing things foreseen by the trade, including the rail strike," had been put out of the way.

PACIFIC MUTUAL ESTABLISHES LOCAL AGENCY

A. E. Bruce, Assistant General Agent for the Southwest Agency of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, left Wednesday for his headquarters in Albuquerque, after spending three weeks in Carlsbad looking after the interests of his company here. While here, Mr. Bruce made contracts with Messrs. W. H. and A. Colbert, who will henceforth represent the Pacific Mutual in the lower valley.

Speaking of his trip, Mr. Bruce had the following to say:

"The Pacific Mutual has always materially manifested its faith in the Pecos Valley. Our company has invested several hundred thousand dollars in Pecos Valley securities and that money has been used to develop the Valley. During my stay, I have spent much of my time in looking up our policy holders who have, by recent adverse conditions, been in many cases forced to sacrifice their insurance protection. In every case I have tried with sympathetic fairness to render what financial assistance I could in the reinstating of their protection. We try to look up on every policy holder as a member of our big family and, to that end, try always to render the best possible SERVICE and to have a sympathetic understanding of their problems.

We have $400,000.00 life insurance in force in Carlsbad and I am more than pleased to say that we did not find a dissatisfied policy holder.

The Colberts have had many years of experience in the life insurance business, coming to Carlsbad direct from Waco, Texas, where they have for many years represented the Pacific Mutual. They understand their business thoroughly, are actuated by the desire to render real insurance service to the community and are the type of men we are proud to have represent our Company among the good people of the Pecos Valley."

Concluding, Mr. Bruce said: "Will you please express my most

PARDONS FOR 3 PRISONERS

Pardons were granted by Governor Mechem to Iron S. Rowe, Eddy county; Howard Haynes, Union and Glenn Blake, Union, yesterday afternoon.

Rowe was sentenced to serve from 4 to 5 years, Haynes from one and one-half to three, and Blake from one to one and one-half. Their crimes were not given.

Judge C. R. Brice, the trial judge, saying Rowe was ignorant of the law he broke, and 200 leading citizens of Eddy county recommended clemency for him, the governor said, and a large number of prominent and reliable citizens of Union and San Miguel counties asked the governor to pardon the other two. The penitentiary board also recommended clemency for the three.

The members of the local W. C. T. U. had a very successful apron sale and chicken dinner in the William Lock building last Saturday. A good patronage was accorded them and from the sale of their aprons and cakes and candy, and the delicious dinner served, cleared around one hundred dollars. This goes toward paying the pledge of the union to the Frances E. Willard School for Dependent Girls and for other useful purposes. The union is fortunate in having members and officers who are ever alive to its interests and are willing to labor for its good.

Misss Moritzky, of Malaga, were in town Tuesday and later came up to attend the rodeo.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Glover and little Mary Idelle, were in town the first of the week from their ranch home.

Cranberries Always Have Played Prominent Part at Thanksgiving Feast

It is a tradition in Plymouth that the eating of turkey and cranberry sauce on Thanksgiving day goes back to the first Pilgrim Thanksgiving.

That little band of self-exiled, devoted Christians crossed the stormy sea in the Mayflower and landed at Plymouth Rock on December 21, 1620. Their first winter in the New World was one of great suffering, marked with famine and hardships.

Governor Bradford, in his account of the Pilgrims' first Thanksgiving, does not give a menu of the dinner, but he often refers to the wild turkeys as one of the luxuries of the colony. However, John Josslyn, an English traveler and naturalist, who visited New England in 1638 and wrote an account of its "Barities," says: "Cranberry or bearberry (because bears used much to feed upon them) is a small trailing plant that grows in salt marshes that are overgrown with moss. The Indians and English use them much, boiling them with sugar for sauce to eat with their meat."

That cranberries belong to the traditional Pilgrim dinner is shown by the menu of the "decent repast" served at the first "Celebration of the Landing of Our Forefathers," which was observed on December 22, 1760. This day was celebrated by the Old Colony club of Plymouth with a procession and a dinner consisting of a large baked Indian whortleberry pudding, a dish of sauteed (succotash), a dish of clams, a dish of oysters and a dish of codfish, a haunch of venison, roasted by the first jack brought into the colony; a dish of fowl, cranberry tarts, a dish of fresh fish and eels, an apple pie, a course of cheese made in the old colony. These articles were dressed in the plainest manner (all appearance of luxury, whose memory we shall ever respect).

Turkey, succotash and cranberries still play their part in the Thanksgiving dinners in Plymouth, and five grains of parched corn are laid beside each place in remembrance of the early years of famine.

Walter Ralph will close out his cleaning establishment, and has taken a position with the National Life Insurance Company as county agent.

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 27

PAUL'S VOYAGE AND SHIPWRECK

LESSON TEXT—Acts 27:1-44.
GOLDEN TEXT—I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.—II Tim. 1:12.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—II Cor. 1:10-11; Phil. 4:12, 13.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Story of a Shipwreck.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul in a Shipwreck.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Storm and Shipwreck.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Paul's Power Over Men.

1. A Stormy Voyage (vv. 1-10).
1. The ship. A ship of Alexandria sailing from Myra to Italy.
2. The company. Two of Paul's friends, Aristarchus and Luke, are permitted to go with him. Besides these three there were 273 in the ship (v. 7).

3. The storm. The ship made little headway on account of unfavorable winds. Paul advised that they winter in Fair Havens (vv. 9-12), but his advice was unheeded. The gentle south wind deceived them, so they loosed from Crete, only to be soon overtaken by the tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon. They did everything possible to save the ship. They took up the boat which was towed behind; they bound great cables around the ship to strengthen it for the storm; they lightened the ship by bringing down from the masts and rigging everything that was superfluous; and finally, the cargo and tackling of the ship itself were thrown overboard. All this seemed to be of no avail, so that all hope of being saved was removed. It seemed that wicked men and material forces were combined to prevent the great apostle from reaching Rome. However, this is only apparent, for these very experiences were overruled by God to bring good cheer and salvation to many on the way. We should remember that tempestuous winds, as well as the soft breezes, await God's faithful ones. The presence of storms does not prove that we are going the wrong way.

II. Paul's Serene Faith (vv. 21-26).
To a man who did not know God, the failure of the sun and stars to shine for many days, the falling of all hope, was natural; but to the man of faith, hope still burns brightly. God is just as near to His own in the midst of a stormy sea as in their quiet homes.

Note Paul's behavior:
1. His rebuke for their failure to heed his advice at Fair Havens (v. 21). This was not a mere taunt, but a reference to the wisdom of his former advice urging them to give him a more respectable hearing.

2. Bids them be of good cheer (v. 22). He inspired them with hope.

3. He promises them safety (v. 22). Though the ship would go to pieces, every man's life would be saved.

4. The source of his information (vv. 23, 24). The angel of God had revealed it unto him.

5. The reason of Paul's calm faith (v. 23). "Whose I am and whom I serve."

III. The Ship's Crew All Safe on Land (vv. 27-44).

This was exactly as the Lord had said. We can rest assured that all God has spoken shall come to pass, even though there be a broken ship, brutal soldiers and a perfidious crew. Aside from the fulfillment of God's promise, the most important part of this section is the splendid sanity which characterizes Paul's action on the way. Two things especially mark his sanctified common sense.

1. His vigilance had detected that the sailors had planned to escape. He knew how much they would be needed presently, and at once took steps to prevent their escape. He went straight to the man in charge and said, "Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved." He practiced the truth that genuine reliance upon God is the all-powerful incentive to human action. God's decrees always include the means for their accomplishment.

2. He knew that the famishing condition of the people was not the most favorable for the physical struggle which was soon to be undergone by them when they must struggle through the water to the shore. So he gets them to take a substantial breakfast. He had the good sense to look after that which was necessary. It was no time to talk to these men about their souls, for their bodies needed the main attention. His prayer for that meal had more effect upon the people than his preaching would have had. Let us learn from this the divine method of administration, namely, God overruling while man trusts Him and acts. A vigorous faith manifests itself in reasonable action.

Peopled the Holy City.
And the rulers of the people dwell at Jerusalem; the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem, the holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities. And the people blessed all men, that willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.—Nehemiah, 11:1 and 2.

At War Against the Soul.
Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul.—I Peter 2:11.

EVERYBODY IS TALKING ABOUT HER

Yes, everybody is talking about her. About whom?

THE DAIRY COW.

From Wall Street and the small town banker, from the great mart of trade and the cross roads store, from the industrial center and the most remote hamlet come the same tidings—THE DAIRY COW IS THE SAVIOUR OF AGRICULTURE.

Economists, financiers, manufacturers, statesmen, and, in fact, all students of economic and industrial conditions, unite in the conclusion that agriculture is the foundation of national prosperity and the dairy husbandry is the most stabilizing force in agriculture.

Periods of depression and times of stress serve at least one useful purpose. They teach us relative values of related things, correcting our biased or, at least, imperfectly formed judgments.

And so it has come to pass that the DAIRY COW has at last come into her own.

We seem to be undergoing what may be termed a national awakening, relative to the tremendous importance of the DAIRY COW in our national life. Fathers and mothers, educators, and men of science are learning that the only insurance for strong, sturdy children, both physically and mentally, is a constant and adequate supply of milk and its products in the daily ration.

For old-timers who have followed in the path of the dairy cow, lo, these many years, the recognition that has come to the dairy industry and the prominence it has achieved is indeed a source of profound satisfaction. We can scarcely realize that the weak, insignificant, struggling industry of a half century ago has now become the giant in agriculture.

For years women have been wearing dresses made almost entirely of tin and have supposed that they were wearing silk. Women would no more think of carrying a dinner pail down the street than of flying or who wouldn't deign to soil their soft and lily white hands by handling the kitchen dishes, have been promenading the streets wearing dresses made of old wash boilers and dishpans—for scientists tell us there is much more tin than silk in the goods passed over the counters these days or silk. Isn't it mortifying.

1. A general price reduction of 34 per cent.
2. Hart Schaffner & Marx quality.
3. Our very narrow margins of profit.

CLOTHING prices are reported by the Department of Labor to be 34 per cent less than they were one year ago. That's worth while.

The fine quality that Hart Schaffner & Marx puts into their clothes saves for you because it lasts longer. And because we want to get prices lower yet, we're selling on as small a margin of profit as we can get by with.

You'll find we've effected some big economies for you here this fall. The values will please you.

TWO MEN ARE KILLED AND ONE SERIOUSLY WOUNDED IN FIGHT AT HAGERMAN THURSDAY

Hagerman, N. M., Nov. 17.—Two men are dead and an officer is probably fatally shot as a result of a neighborhood fight over a cow here today. Jerome Deleaven, who shot and killed J. F. Parks in a fit of insanity, was later shot by officers while ambushed in his house. Deputy Sheriff Guy Robinson, who went first to arrest Deleaven, is seriously wounded, one of Deleaven's bullets piercing his stomach.

The shooting occurred this afternoon when Parks went to Deleaven's house to see about a cow that he had in pasture. It was not known that Parks, whose body was found near the Deleaven's house, had been shot until the body was prepared for burial. It was reported first that he had dropped dead of heart failure.

Sheriff Guy Robinson went at once to Deleaven's house to make the arrest and was shot in the stomach before entering the yard, twenty-five yards from the gate. Other officers guarded until dark the house in which Deleaven had barricaded himself. Robinson, who had been shot with a .22 caliber revolver, was in a serious condition.

After darkness fell Sheriff Peck and deputies Rector and Zunwalt entered the Deleaven house, searching for the murderer with their flashlights. They found Deleaven sitting in a corner of the room with his gun in his hand apparently ready to fire. When they again flashed the light on the man he fell over on the floor dead. He had been shot three times.

Deleaven had long been suspected of being insane. He had recently returned from a trip to the Mayo clinic at Rochester, Minn., where he was told that he was mentally sound. No lapses of sanity had been noted until the shooting this afternoon. It is said that he refused to let Parks enter his house when he came to talk business today.

Robinson will be taken to Roswell by train tonight, where he will undergo an operation. It is not believed that he will live. He is a cattle grower and a prominent man in this vicinity. He has a wife and six children. Deleaven is survived by a wife and several children.

DOG KILLS 50-POUND LYNX IN LONG BATTLE

Raton, N. M.—H. B. Hogan, of this city will soon have a beautiful rug as the result of a long battle between his Airedale and a 50-pound lynx, in which the lynx was finally killed. The dog was strolling around the south slope of Raton peak when suddenly he ran across the lynx and the two animals clinched. After fighting for some time they rolled off the edge of a cliff, tightly locked together, and a whirlwind of dust followed their course down the side of the hill.

The lynx was a beautiful specimen and measured 55 inches from tip to tip.

STILL 1,000,000 CASES OF TB.

The fight against tuberculosis is clearly moving toward victory. The death rate from this disease has fallen to the remarkably low level of approximately 120 per 100,000 population. This represents a saving of over 75,000 lives a year as compared with the death rate of 15 years ago, when the fight was started. But, there are still 1,000,000 active cases of tuberculosis in this country and over 150,000 deaths yearly.

WITH THE CHRISTMAS PLANTS

Trees and Flowers Are Believed to Owe Peculiarities to Connection With Jesus.

THE legend of the Glastonbury Thorn is that after the death of Jesus, Joseph of Arimathea came over to England. Shortly before Christmas, he rested on the summit of Weary-all hill, Glastonbury. There he thrust into the ground his staff, and on Christmas eve it was found to be covered with white blossoms. The bush is said to have continued blooming thus each Christmas eve until during the civil wars, when it was cut down. Cuttings from the original thorn are said to bloom in this same wonderful way even yet.

The Silecian children put pennyroyal in their coats on Christmas eve, believing that at the exact hour and minute when Jesus was born it will blossom.

There is a cherished legend in the East that the Rose of Jericho first blossomed at the birth of Jesus, closed at the crucifixion, and opened again at Easter, from which comes its name of Resurrection flower.

Many plants, trees and flowers are believed to owe their peculiarities to their connection with the birth or the childhood of Jesus. "The Star of Bethlehem" is so called because its white starlike flowers resemble the pictures of the Star of the East.

"Our Lady's Bedstraw" received its name because it was believed that the manger in which the Babe lay was filled with this plant.

An old account tells the story in this manner: "The broom and the chick-peas began to rustle and crackle, and by this noise betrayed the fugitives. The flax bristled up. Happily for her, Mary was near a juniper; the hospitable tree opened its branches as arms and inclosed the Virgin and the Child within their folds, affording them a secure hiding place. Then the Virgin uttered a malediction against the brooms and the chick-peas, and ever since that day they have always rustled and crackled. But later the Virgin pardoned the flax its weakness and gave the juniper her blessing," which is said to account for the use of the juniper as Christmas decorations in some countries.

Adeste Fideles

THIS well-known and greatly loved Christmas hymn was used at Benediction at Christmastide in France and England since the close of the Eighteenth century. It was sung at the Portuguese legation in London as early as 1797. The most popular musical setting was ascribed by Vincent Novello, organist there, to John Read, who was organist at Winchester cathedral from 1875-81, and later at Winchester college. The hymn itself has been attributed to St. Bonaventure, but is not found among his works. It is probably of French or German authorship. It invites all the faithful to come to Bethlehem to worship the newborn Savior.—Catholic Encyclopedia.
