WISER IN HIS GENERATION.

Little Johnny Knows How to Get Out of His Big Sister.

Johnny (aged six, brother to Amelia)—My sister, Mr. Spooner, will be up directly. She is now engaged in washing supper dishes.

Mr. Spooner—Tell me, Johnny, does she ever say anything about me?

Johnny—She frequently speaks of you as a gentleman whom no woman could help estimating highly.

Mr. Spooner—Of course she knows that my fortune is considerable.

Johnny—I can't say, sir. I am sure she can't get out of recognizing your wealth.

Mr. Spooner—What, Johnny, do you think she would have said?

Johnny—I can't say, sir. I am sure she can't get out of recognizing your wealth.

THE LITTLE WOMAN. She Needs Only Express Her Wishes and They Will Be Observed.

GRAND PREMIUM OFFER!
 A SET OF THE WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS,
 In Twelve Large Volumes,
 Which we Offer with a Year's Subscription to this Paper for a Trifle More than our Regular Subscription Price.

It is a pleasure to be able to increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months. We have made arrangements with a New York publishing house to issue a set of the Works of Charles Dickens in twelve large and handsome volumes. A year's subscription to this paper, for a trifle more than our regular subscription price, will entitle you to a complete set of these works. Charles Dickens was the greatest novelist who ever lived. No novelist before or since his time has been so successful as he, and his works are read by every one who reads. His stories are full of life and interest, and his characters are so real that they seem to be walking and talking about us. The set of Dickens works which we offer as a premium is a complete set of his best works, and is a valuable addition to any library. YOU WANT a San Francisco paper and of course you want a good one. The WEEKLY EXAMINER fills the want completely, for it is the best. It gives you every week not only all the news, but the best literary and miscellaneous matter published on the American continent.

In the first place, it gives every subscriber, one of the four magnificent etchings or paintings described below, and delivers it safely at his address, postage paid.

"The Retreat from Moscow," by Melissonier. "The Roman Chariot Race," by A. Wagner.

"Women and Children First," by C. Napier Hemy. "Christ Leaving the Pratorium," by Gustavo Dore.

Each of these pictures is 2 1/2 x 3 1/2 inches, and they are elegantly reproduced in the EXAMINER, showing every tint and color of the great originals, either one of which could not be purchased for $100.00.

Each subscriber has the choice of any one of these four pictures, which will be mailed him in a tube direct from the EXAMINER office, as soon as the subscription is received.

In the second place, it will give 5,000 premiums, valued in the aggregate at about $125,000 to its subscribers this year. If there are 50,000 subscribers, one in ten will get one of these premiums; if there are 100,000, only one in twenty. But no matter how many there are, each and every one of these premiums—which range in value from 50 cents to $5,000—will be given absolutely without cost to some of those who have paid $1.50 for the WEEKLY EXAMINER for one year.

The EXAMINER is thoroughly responsible, as you know, or as Wells, Fargo & Co. or any bank or commercial agency in San Francisco will assure you, and the leading men of the city will see that its premiums are distributed exactly as agreed and that every subscriber no matter where he is located, will receive just what is assigned to him.

Of course you want your home paper also, and you can just as well as not save a little money by taking the EXAMINER with it. The price of the WEEKLY EXAMINER is $1.50 per year, including the premium picture and your share of the $125,000 list of premiums, which are fully described in the twelve page Premium Supplement, which will be sent free on application to W. R. BRACKER, Publisher, San Francisco, Cal.

The EXAMINER and the LEADER, the combined price of which is $2.50, will be sent you for one year, postage paid, for $3.00. Send the money to the office of the LEADER and your subscription will be promptly forwarded to the EXAMINER, and you will receive therefor the EXAMINER's numbered receipt. You can get a Premium Supplement by applying at this office.
