THIRTIETH YEAR

CARLSHAD, NEW MEXICO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1922.

NUMBER 10.

OFFICIAL COMMITTEES OF THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce held a business session in the club rooms Friday evening to officially install the general and special committees for the year 1922. Besides the standing and regular officers of the body it was necessary to appoint numerous committees for the coming Fourth of July celebration. Three applications had been made for the office of Secretary, the applicants being Howard Moore, L. S. Meyers, and R. A. Toffelmire. The applications were approved by the Board and the office selected by ballot. On the first ballot Howard Moore received two votes, L. S. Meyers five, and R. A. Toffelmire five. The second ballot gave R. A. Toffelmire seven and L. S. Meyers five, Mr. Toffelmire being selected to fill the office for the year 1922. There have been many unfounded rumors and speculations abroad as to the committees and as many changes have been made, no official list has been given out. The Campfire girls, under the guardianship of Mrs. Ira Stockwell, held a pleasant Valentine party at the home of J. F. Dillard, Tuesday night, at which thirty-six boys and girls were present.

The room was artistically decorated with hearts in colors of pink and green, festooned from the corners of the room to the center and which made a pretty appearance under the electric lights.

The campfire girls, eighteen in number, had each invited a boy friend to share the pleasures of the evening with them. The principal game was that of "Hunting Valentines" and Everett Horne proving to have the largest number, was acclaimed King of the Revels, and was crowned in knightly style. Refreshments of jello and whipped cream and wafers closed the evening hours.

Judge and Mrs. C. R. Brice came down from Roswell Tuesday afternoon, the Judge to prepare the docket for the March term of court, and Mrs. Brice to visit with her friend, Mrs. H. C. Kerr.

BOOSTERS FROM CARLSHAD AND ALBUQUERQUE TALK TO KIWANIS TUESDAY

Francis G. Tracy of Carlsbad and W. A. Keleher city attorney of Albuquerque were the principal speakers at the Kiwanis luncheon here Tuesday. Keleher told of the advantages and benefits of the commission form of city government, relating the improvement in general conditions in Albuquerque since the adoption of the plan. Tracy spoke on the community spirit of Carlsbad which has a great irrigation project in operation in the valley. Carlsbad he said, already has commenced work on a paving program on 15 blocks, and will build a new city hall. State Record.

BAND CONCERT

The new municipal band will give their first public concert at the band stand on the Court House lawn, Sunday afternoon, February 19th, at 2:30 P. M. This organization has been working hard for the past three months, under the leadership of Prof. Trowbridge, and the public may be assured that they will hear something that is good in band music.

There was a time when the citizens of Carlsbad looked forward to the regular band concerts with much pleasure and now that they are to be favored again with this source of amusement, everyone should take advantage of this opportunity to come and enjoy the music.

Should the weather be so inclement as to prohibit the outdoor concert, it will be given in the Armory at the advertised hour, 2:30 P. M. This is free to everybody. Following is the program which will be rendered:

March, "Traffic Club," Byer.
March, "Heroes of War," Johnson.
Waltz, "In Loveland," Schuan.
March, "Yankee Scout," Brown.
Baritone Solo, "Dear Heart," Byer, by Carl Wester.
Schottische, "Beatie," Byer.
March, "American Union," Byer.
March, "War Eagle," Berry.
"Star Spangled Banner."

Mr. and Mrs. Joe James have gone to the ranch at Cap Rock, to superintend the placing of the new furniture in the home prepared for Mr. and Mrs. Charley James, who are expected to return from their wedding tour in a few days. The house has been overhauled and redecorated by H. E. James, who returned from there Saturday.

The Carlsbad Auto Company has recently installed a new air-driven gasoline pump, which is the latest thing in pumps of that nature and will pump twenty gallons per minute. It is a centrifugal filler and it is absolutely impossible for any water to get in the gasoline. It has the visible feature, so much in evidence everywhere, and is fully guaranteed by the Underwriters in this city.

BORN:—To Mr. and Mrs. Ed Reames, last Friday, a girl baby. This is the eighth child to be born to Mr. and Mrs. Reames but it received as hearty a welcome as though it were the first and the Current extends good wishes to the little girl and hopes she may live to bless her parents and the world.

N. P. Nichols, H. O. Agency Manager for the National Life Insurance Company, of the Southwest, whose headquarters are in Albuquerque, returned to this city Sunday, and will probably remain in the valley for about sixty days, representing his company in the southern part of the county.

Paul Ares came in from the mountains Tuesday afternoon and spent some few days in town before returning to the ranch.

CAVALRY NOTES

As the inspection date beings to tomorrow, troopers are waking up and the drill and non-com attendance shows a decided gain. The inspection program has been rehearsed to a vivid degree of accuracy and we believe the General is due to witness a record breaking show. Of course, the army captain remains dark horse and we can only hope he is not of the new second lou variety and has not been in Santa Fe long enough to learn any new tricks of the self-important disease that seems to be so common in the northern end of the sunshine state. Granting he does not measure up to this stock we can confidently state that Troop B is going to give a specimen of drill rarely attributed to national guard organizations.

No doubt the troopers have noticed the paper from the office of the Adjutant General that has been placed in the club rooms regarding the activities of other troops. This is an excellent idea for the promotion of interest and we can find only one fault and that the small space given Troop B. Judging our activities by those of other troops mentioned we deserve a page at least. Here are a few of the items:

A page given to the importance of securing recruits and the danger of a unit becoming disorganized if allowed to drop below the standard.

This does not interest Troop B. We fight them off with a stick. Telephone companies in New Mexico report the greatest number of calls during January calling for pay checks. Lets have those pay rolls correctly made. You got instructions on pay rolls. Easily understood. This is another standard joke.

"What we would like to see."
1. Units with a weekly attendance of 90 per cent.
2. Smokers, dances, entertainments, etc.
3. Prizes offered for recruits.
4. Competitive drills.
5. More athletics.
6. More newspaper publicity. (Shelf out the bat-hides. Scribes must live.)
7. Waiting lists in all units.

Troop D Santa Fe is the only troop officially reported that has a waiting list.

(We ask a recount on the votes.)
"It's a pretty sure throw, and they do say it, that Battery 'A' F. A. will be BATTERY A Roswell Go to it Roswell."

We don't see the joke.
Every unit has rifles and pistols and ammunition, shoot it away at a target and get ready to send a good team to Camp Perry next summer. Its up to you.

Company C, Almagordo, has two silver cups they won at Fort Bliss encampment. Other units are after them. They say they are to remain permanently at Almagordo. That's what they say. Up and at 'em.

Headquarters and Service Companies gave a grand Ball in the Armory in honor of the engineers but we believe it was given just to show their brand new Armory, recently repaired. Some bunch in Crusade.

Troop A are to proud to walk now that they have their horses and such stables, they do say they are the best in the state. They make the N. M. M. I. look dilapidated.

(Wonder if they ride them like some we saw at Fort Bliss).

Company B engineers boast of a hand and will turn out to receive the inspecting officers. (Suppose their opening number will be "Name It and Take It.")

It is reported that Captain Fly has been made Postmaster at Deming where Troop C lives. We wonder where he gets the time with a Troop of "Peppies" on his hands. Troop C drills on mounts and claim to be real horsemen and athletics are among them. Look out Battery A.

The matter of putting in an additional fire plug at the corner of Fox and Guadalupe streets was taken up by the council and referred to Alderman Thorne with power to act.

The matter of paving from the railroad tracks to the Pecos river bridge on Green street was taken up by the council. It was moved by Alderman Snow that the city attorney be authorized to confer with the county commissioners and ascertain what proportion of this paving the county would pay and that if the proper arrangements could be made the city engineer be authorized to put this pavement in. Motion carried.

Mr. Thorne reported that Sisters hospital desired to connect with the sewer main for the purpose of draining off the sub-water from the foundation of their new building. After discussion it was moved by Alderman Snow seconded by Alderman Smith that the Sisters hospital be not allowed to connect with the sewer main. Motion carried.

W. J. Ralph is spending this week in the interest of the National Life Insurance Company, of the Southwest, in Artesia. He has recently been advanced to the position of assistant O. manager for that company.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT OF EDDY COUNTY

Eddy county is to have a full time health officer for eleven months at least and it is thought that by the end of that time the office will have proven so beneficial and efficient that means will be raised for its continuance.

It will cost for 11 months as now contemplated $6625 exclusive of literature and prophylactic medicine $4500 of this it is estimated will be received from the half mill levy made for that purpose. Another $1500 is donated by the Rockefeller foundation. $371 was transferred January 1st, 1922 from the City of Carlsbad Health funds, a surplus remaining from last year. Hope Home School Association donates $40.00. Artesia Home and School Association $100.00. Carlsbad $200.00, this brings the amount to $6711.00.

This amount will be added to by the surplus remaining in the County Health fund that was paid in last year which amounted to $1200 or more.

In this way funds are sufficient to carry on the work. It is hoped that it will be functioning by March 1st.

Among other duties depending upon the health officer will be that of examining the school children and reporting on their health and recommending to parents what is needed; examine all dairies and dairy cows; instruct the people in sanitation; quarantine for communicable diseases; keep up with the vital statistics, etc. It will readily be seen that the office is no anecdot.

WATER TO BE TURNED INTO CANALS.

The local office of the U. S. Reclamation Service gives notice that water will be turned into the canals on Monday, February 20, for the irrigation season 1922. The annual maintenance work is still in progress, and there may be a slight delay in supplying water from certain laterals.

The water users are reminded of the law, which provides that water can not be delivered to any water user who owes two installments of construction charges, also water can not be delivered where the installments for operation and maintenance for the calendar year 1919, which became due March 1, 1920, remains unpaid.

BURGLARY

Some light-fingered gentry entered the store of the Peoples Dry Goods company on Canyon street, Tuesday night or rather early Wednesday morning and took between twenty-five and thirty dollars from the cash register. Entrance was effected by breaking a hole in the glass door window at the rear of the store, and unbarred the door. After that entrance was easy. The parties seem to have been familiar with the working of the register, ringing up the drawers with the evident ease of one familiar with such work, making no mistake whatever.

The robbery must have occurred about three o'clock in the morning, as the night watchman had visited the store just before that time and found everything in order, and no suspicious characters around. So far, nothing but the money has been missed, but later developments may prove different. This is the second time in the last couple of years that the store has been burglarized.

Several Scouts will leave Friday for Pecos where they will assist in the organization of Scouting in that city. The High School basketball team will accompany them and on the same day have basketball, tennis and the organization of the troop. The members of the basketball team are Scouts also. Let us put the Scouting over in Pecos in good shape and show them what we are made of and what our organization stands for. This step by our neighbors is paying us a real compliment and boys should show their real worth.

Tuesday's night meeting of Troop 1 was given over to a history of the United States flag and the marks of respect due our National colors.

Troop 2 is having some interesting meetings now and new members are being added as rapidly as the boys can be prepared.

Great interest is being manifested in Troop 3, our Mexican Scouts. Not only do the boys attend, but many of their parents attend the meetings to show their interest in what their boys are doing. Wonder if any of our American fathers and mothers ever responded to an invitation to attend a Scout meeting?

Sunday night was a great event for the Scouts. The three troops assembled at the Presbyterian church and from there marched to the Methodist church where they listened to a splendid talk by Judge Wilson, a great sermon by Rev. Sellards and a beautiful solo by Miss Higgins. Every one of the American Scouts were glad to have the Spanish troop join them at this annual service.

The ladies at Lovins are planning for a program and entertainment at that place, the evening of the 22nd, a more detailed account of which will appear in next week's Current.

JIMMY DUNN GETS 2 YEARS AFTER 'HEART-WIFE' TESTIMONY: HIS LEGAL WIFE IS IN ITALY

"It is very evident to me that you went to Roswell and got this girl before she was 18 years old on the promise of marriage and never intended to marry her; that you kept her, and did not intend to marry her. It is the sentence of the court that you be carried to the United States penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., and be there confined for the period of two years, and that when this sentence is satisfied you be delivered to the immigration authorities."

In this manner Judge W. R. Smith yesterday afternoon sentenced Philip Amico, alias Jimmie Dunn, Italian barber and prize fight manager, charged with violation of the Mann act.

Dunn, who had just completed a long and dramatic plea for mercy after pleading guilty, to two counts of the indictment, bowed slightly as he murmured, "Thank you sir."

His face pale and drawn with emotion, the young man clasped his right hand over his eyes and crumpled into a chair.

Girl Stolidly Listens

Across the room, pretty Estelle Inez Reed, the girl in the case, glanced with wide eyes at Dunn, and then directed her gaze toward the judge. The color which at times had flared up in his cheeks during Dunn's avowal of love was noticeably absent. But she exhibited not the least emotion.

The court turned to another case as a deputy United States marshal escorted the prisoner from the room.

Another deputy accompanied Miss Reed to the marshal's office, where she was informed that her presence was no longer desired.

Thus ended a love story which had its inception back in April, 1920, when the Italian visited Roswell, N. M., to promote a prize fight. There he met dainty Miss Reed, now 18 years old. The government charged that several months later the young woman accompanied the accused to El Paso on the promise of marriage that was not fulfilled. He was arrested on a charge of violating the Mann Act September 8 last entered a plea of not guilty and since then has been in jail.

Among a mass of depositions, submitted by the district attorney's office was a statement from the golden haired New Mexico girl in which she alleged that the man who had promised to wed her had forced her to live a life of shame in El Paso, and that she finally quit him.

Dunn's Note To Girl

Harvey R. Gamble, special assistant to the United States attorney general, also submitted as an exhibit a letter which Dunn is alleged to have written from the county jail to Miss Reed October 28, which read in part:

"So, dearie, the only thing left for us to do is for you to come and see me at once in El Paso, and I will tell you what to do, for now it looks like that if I am to be convicted that my father and brothers will not stand for it, and if I am convicted I look for the worst bloodshed trial that ever was read in a newspaper, because they know that you and I were framed, and they will not stop for anything."

Attorney Gamble called the court's attention to this particular paragraph in closing his case.

It was then that Dunn began his story, with a declaration of love for the girl whom he described as his common law wife.

"You mean to call her your wife?" the court inquired.

"In my heart she was my wife," Dunn replied with a dramatic gesture.

He related how he became acquainted with the young woman. He proposed marriage, but her mother, objected because he thought her daughter too young, he continued.

Says Girl Proposed Marriage

He left Roswell and did not return for several months. When he met Miss Reed in Roswell again, he declared, she told him that if he did not marry her then they never would be married. He did not have enough money, he protested, and unsuccessfully attempted to borrow $10 from a friend.

Then, he told the court, the young woman returned from a visit to her mother and told him that her mother had decided to approve of her daughter's accompanying Dunn, as, he continued, she felt sure that they loved one another and would be married.

They came to El Paso in an automobile and registered at a hotel as man and wife. Here, Dunn said, he met with hard times and never seemed to get enough ahead, after paying board bills, to get married. The girl, he declared, offered to go to work to help meet expenses and did work for a time in a downtown confectionery shop until male waiters attempted to force their attentions upon her and she resigned.

Some time after that he took her to Juarez, where he went to promote a prize fight. He said he left her in a cabaret while discussing business. Returning he could not find her, he continued, and eventually discovered her dancing with another man at a cafe.

Fells Girl With Blow

He said he went onto the floor and took her arm. The man with whom she was dancing, he declared, demanded to know who he was. He said he replied that she was his wife. This led to an argument. Dunn said he struck at the man and hit Miss Reed in the neck by mistake. She crumpled to the floor.

After they returned to El Paso they quarreled, but "made up," he said. Later she left him.

Judge Smith twice interrupted

Dunn's narrative to inquire about the cost of it, and why he never got around to the ceremony.

"Yet in all this time you never got enough money to get married?" said the judge as Dunn finished his narrative.

His Wife In Italy

"Well, there was my first wedding in New York in 1917," replied the prisoner. "I didn't tell Estelle about that at first, because I was afraid I would lose her love. My mother-in-law by my first marriage had written me that my first wife had gone to Italy and got a divorce there. I didn't want to marry Estelle until I heard from the mayor of the town in Italy where the divorce was granted. I wanted to get the divorce first."

"Haven't you received a reply to that letter yet?" the court inquired.

"I don't know, sir. I have been in jail for four months. If there was a reply, I haven't received it," Dunn replied.

In direct contradiction of Dunn's story was evidence gathered by a government agent to prove that Dunn had required the girl to meet other men until she had decided they never would be married and left him.

A manicurist in a barber shop in which Dunn worked is said to have told a department of justice agent that Dunn showed her a letter from Miss Reed and remarked, "That girl is crazy about me." He said that he intended to bring her here to work for him, the statement submitted in evidence read.

W. O. W. STATE MANAGER TAKES LARGER FIELD

G. E. McDonald, state manager for the Woodmen of the World, has been given an extension of territory under his charge to include Arizona and the El Paso district in addition to New Mexico. Mr. McDonald has just returned from a conference with Orson Stiles, representative of the sovereign commander at El Paso, who awarded him the increased territory. Mr. McDonald, who has offices in the Stern building, has been located in Albuquerque since last July. He has been with the W. O. W. in the state for the past ten years. Mr. McDonald announces that he will cover the whole of his new territory within the next sixty days.

Rogers, Massachusetts Republican, stated in the house on January 30 that he believed that the disabled soldiers were getting poorer service through the Veterans' Bureau than they were getting six months ago, and that he also thought that the service of six months ago was not so good as it had been six months before that time. In other words he admitted that the service is poorer than under Wilson, and that it is growing worse.

Rev. Dorsey Mewborn, who has charge of the work among the Spanish-Americans in Roswell and Carlsbad, spent much of the week in the former city returning to his field of labor here Friday afternoon.

LOCAL NEWS.

A crushing defeat was administered to the basketball team of troop B. Cavalry, of Carlsbad Friday afternoon by the Hagerman town team at the courts here. The score was 26 to 6 in favor of the Hagerman team.—Hagerman Cor. Roswell News.

Two classes of juveniles belonging to the Methodist Sunday school, held a party at the class rooms in the rear of the church, Friday evening and had a fine time together. And after they had played games to their hearts' content, ice cream and cake were served and the pleasant affair ended. What made it more pleasant, according to one of the boys statement, was the fact that the boys paid for the refreshments. Mrs. Annie Moore, teacher of the girls class and Mrs. Hiseck, teacher of the boys class, properly chaperoned the bunch.

Three tables of whist players indulged in their favorite game at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bell last Friday night. A very pleasant informal evening was spent, covers being laid for Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sikes, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Foster and Mrs. W. and Mrs. L. E. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Christian and Dr. F. F. Doepp.

Baxter Culp and Charlie Weir were in town from Monument, Mr. Culp coming for a load of groceries for the store at the plains town and Mr. Weir coming along for company. They report everything prosperous in their part of the country, with cattle looking well although some few cattle men are beginning to feed Mr. Culp reports a fine school this winter, with an enrollment of a round twenty-five, and with Amos Monk as teacher. He also says every one in that part of the country seems to be in a good humor and very hopeful as to the future of the country.

A dinner at the M. L. Davis home just west of the city is always an event, and the one given to a number of friends at the home Sunday was no exception to the rule. A chicken dinner, worthy of the name was served to the following guests, are harmonious in praise of its excellence: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Worley, Mrs. Filson Ray Davis, wife and sons, Misses Shields and Filson and J. U. Falke.

Little Margueret Hannah had made all preparation for her annual birthday party and with the assistance of her mother and sister the affair promised to be the equal of those of other years, but, alas,—on the eventful day, last Friday, the little girl "broke out" with chicken pox and the invitations had to be recalled.

The local lodge of Yeomen held a meeting at the home of one of their number last Friday night, which was partly complimentary and partly a reunion of the lodge members. The honored member was Mrs. Arlie Nichols, who recently returned from a summer spent in Raton. A good sized crowd of members of the order were present and enjoyed the meeting with each other and the refreshments served at the close of the evening's pleasures.

Mrs. Jim Dulin and wife, of Jal, New Mexico, are in the city, coming from their home the first of the week.

CORE DRILLING OF RED BLUFF SITE TO PROCEED AT ONCE.

That the core drilling to determine the formation for the reservoir bed of the proposed Red Bluff irrigation project will proceed without further delay is indicated by advice received here by the secretary of the Chamber of commerce from Vernon L. Sullivan, engineer for the Pecos Valley Water Users' Association.

Mr. Sullivan states that the test will be made by a government core drilling machine, requisition for which has been made from the reclamation department.

Bids for this work were called for not long ago, but only one being received the department rejected it and was making ready to advertise again when the above arrangement was perfected.—Pecos Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moritz, son Art, and daughter, Miss Helene, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. Moritz' mother, Mrs. Helmic, remaining only a few hours before returning to their home in Roswell.

HAY TRADE CONDITIONS OF THE WEEK

Markets have shown little change since last week except where receipts have been small, which tended to strengthen values. As a whole, however, there is little activity shown and in some markets, concessions are made in order to move the accumulation of poor hay offering. Good grades move readily and values for these are sustained by lack of supplies.

A class party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Snow last Saturday night in the north part of town, at which twenty-six young folks were present. The personnel of the party consisted of Mrs. Snow's Sunday School class of young ladies and gentlemen, who attend the Christian Sunday School. The average attendance on the regular sessions of the class is about twenty-three, and almost without exception they are all members of the church. This is an unusual record, and speaks well for Mrs. Snow's faithfulness. At the close of the evening Saturday, the young folks were served sandwiches, pickles, cake and coffee. All report a very delightful time.

CLAUDE BROWN WINS CLOSE GAME

From the following report sent to us from Corona, California, newspaper, it seems the Claude Brown who was formerly a base ball pitcher of this city, is back in old form:

With Claude Brown, the slender gentleman from Texas pitching and Bert Stewart from Perris catching, and seven other players with sterling ability and class filling the other positions Corona won a baseball game Sunday afternoon at the City park 5 to 3.

Brown pitched excellent ball for Corona and struck out twelve of the hard hitting Colton sluggers.

Lefty Faulkner, the only member of the Detroit Tigers, (American League Club) that is pitching in this vicinity also must be given credit for his wonderful pitching. He struck out ten of the All Stars and got three safe hits.

Shaulder, "the chief" from the Sherman Institute did some wonderful catching on the first base, one while lying on his back with one hand, completing a double play. Several other catches the chief made were worthy of applause.

The Colton Tigers with blood in their eyes after Bud Sweeney's fearless training went home with their fur turned the wrong way to settle in their zoo and dream of their defeat handed to them by the All Stars.

A great crowd witnessed the game and everyone went home satisfied that Corona can play ball in a pinch.

The line up for Corona was as follows:

SNOWFALL IN THE ELEVATED REGIONS OF NEW MEXICO JANUARY, 1922

SUMMARY: The snowfall of the month average 3.8 inches for the State, which is nearly the normal fall, and gives a total seasonal fall of 7.1 inches compared with a normal of more than 13.0 inches. Eastern and Southern counties, and in general low altitude stations, were practically without snowfall. On the other hand a fair depth occurred over the northwest counties, and the mountainous areas in general, although light over the eastern slopes of the Sangre de Cristo range. The cold of the month was favorable and the stored depth was somewhat improved in all districts, except the Canadian and Northeast, where conditions continue discouraging. Better outlook is noted on the lower Pecos, Gila and Southwest Rio Grande, and San Juan and Northwest.

Snowfall cannot creep the highest southeast mountains but only only light snow over the headwaters the average for the district amounting to 1.5 inches, practically no snow having fallen over lower levels. Stored depth is small, soil moisture is low and the outlook continues discouraging. Cows: About 12 inches at 10,000 ft. Low Vegas: 5 inches appear above 8,000 ft. Jacarilla: No snow in this vicinity, only about an inch during the month. Nogal: About 6 inches above 8,000 ft. Parsons: About 14 inches over the White Mts. Cloudcroft: About 2 inches over the highest mts. Mayhill: About 8 inches at 9,000 ft. Ariz: About 5 inches above 8,000 ft. Pinon: No snow in this vicinity.

CANDIDATE FOR REPRESENTATIVE District Number Nineteen

The announcement of George W. O'Bannon, of Cottonwood, New Mexico, appears in our announcement column for the first time this week. For the information of some of our readers it might be well to state that Cottonwood is a flourishing settlement in the northern part of Eddy county, and this is the first time Cottonwood has ever been known to put forth a candidate for any office whatever. The people of Cottonwood believe that they are entitled to have their candidate elected in view of that fact and they believe the voters in the other parts of the county will be inclined to look at it that way. The office of representative pays only a very small salary, so little that the expenses incurred cannot be paid from it, therefore to take care of the office as it should be conducted it requires a man of some means who has no pressing business to occupy his time and who wants to honestly serve the best interests of the people even though he has to pay out of his private income. In Mr. O'Bannon we find the ideal representative for Eddy and Lea counties. He is an up-to-date farmer who owns and cultivates over 400 acres of fine land who has lived for the past fourteen years at Cottonwood and in that time has accumulated enough of this world's goods to live comfortably for the balance of his days; he is a bachelor and free from family ties and worries; he possesses a pleasing personality; he is far enough advanced in years to be conservative and with enough experience in the school of knocks to enable him to judge what is best for the majority of his constituents; he has a good education; he has been prominent in the affairs of his community for the past fourteen years; he is a churchman; he is a patriot, which is proven by the fact that he allowed his nephew, Glenn O'Bannon who was working for him when the war broke out, full pay all the time he was in the army, besides purchasing over $2,000.00 worth of Liberty Bonds; and above all he is a full-fledged and enthusiastic Democrat, always working for the advancement of his party and contributing to its support. In Mr. O'Bannon the people of this district have all the essential qualifications for a good legislator and while he is a farmer, is fair minded and assures the stock raising interest that he will vote for every measure that will in any way improve that important industry which would be fair to the other interests of the state. While the amount allowed by law for campaign expenses is only $30 yet Mr. O'Bannon plans to try and interview the voters before election. If elected we have every reason to believe Eddy and Lea counties would be justly proud of their choice for representative to the state legislature.

PARK PLAN SEEMS POPULAR IN SOUTHWEST, SAYS BROOK Las Cruces, N. M., Feb. 13.—Letters received by H. H. Brook, chairman of the executive committee of the Southwestern All-Year National Park association, indicate that the movement to establish a new public playground taking in the Mesquero Indian reservation and the Elephant Butte dam and lake, is popular throughout the Southwest.

In accepting the office of third vice president of the park association, B. C. Hernandez, of Albuquerque, collector of internal revenue for the district of New Mexico, says in a letter to Mr. Brook: "With the cooperation of Secretary of the Interior Fall, and our delegation in congress, aided by the delegates of Texas and Arizona, I feel that we ought to be able to put thru this undertaking on short notice."

"I am of the opinion that this is the opportune and accepted time and we ought to pull together in one united and single pull. Therefore, I have great pleasure in accepting the position to which I have been assigned, and will be ready to extend my wholehearted support to the measure."

S. B. Bratton, of Clovis, judge of the Fifth judicial district, says in accepting the office of fourth vice-president, that he believes in the plan to establish a part in southern New Mexico and that he will be glad to assist in every way possible to further the movement.

Z. B. Moon of Hope, representing Eddy county on the executive committee, who is making a tour of southern New Mexico, is planning a trip to cities and towns in eastern Texas.

"Every county in Southeastern New Mexico I have visited in the last three weeks has pledged financial and moral support to the park movement," Mr. Moon said, "and there is every reason to believe that the funds necessary to carry on the work will be forthcoming as it is required." The El Paso and Las Cruces Chamber of Commerce were among the first to make full subscription to the fund.

WALLACE REID RUNS AMUCK! BIFF, BANG! $30,000 GONE Star a Vandal in Cecil B. De Mille's Big Picture, "The Affairs of Anatol."

Securing $30,000 worth of furniture for a single interior setting and then smashing the outfit before the camera produces photoplay realism, but at a well-nigh prohibitive cost. Yet that is what Cecil De Mille did in his Paramount Production, "The Affairs of Anatol," which will be shown at the Crawford theatre next Monday night.

The setting in question serves as a background for a part of the story portrayed by Wallace Reid, Gloria Swanson, Elliott Dexter, Bebe Daniels, Wanda Hawley, Theodore Roberts and other all-star players. It is an ultra-luxurious apartment and Howard Higgin, production manager for Cecil B. De Mille productions, was instructed to spare no expense.

The result was an attractive suite designed by Paul Iribie—furnished with approximately $30,000 worth of furniture. This included a valuable set of Louis XVI chairs, a magnificent carved grand piano, lamps, mirrors, tables, a desk, lounge, pictures and bric-a-brac.

At the climax of this episode, Wallace Reid was instructed to run amuck, smashing everything breakable in the set. The orders were comprehensive and Reid obeyed to the letter. Not one stick of furniture remained in its original shape when the vandalism was complete. Using the small pieces of furniture as bludgeons, Reid shattered everything in sight while the camera clicked just out of range of his blows. Mirrors, lamps, chairs, phonograph and piano were demolished one by one. As a conclusion to the scene, the husky star seized the huge overstuffed divan and hurled it bodily through the French doors at one end of the set.

CARLSBAD, ----- LOVING

VALENTINE TEA A SUCCESS

The tea given by the Baptist ladies at the home of Mrs. Toffelmire Tuesday was attended by an even one hundred persons, and all unite in pronouncing it one of the most enjoyable affairs given this season. The hearty welcome extended to all who entered the lovely home was not the least of its many pleasures. Guests were met at the door by the hostess, Mrs. Toffelmire, and in turn by Mrs. Sellers, who presented a mammoth valentine to each one in lieu of a guest book. After each had written his or her name, they were presented with a souvenir of the happy occasion, in the shape of small red hearts with an arrow running through in conventional valentine style.

The beautiful home lent itself to the decorations as perhaps no other in the city, the portieres being replaced by graduated strings of hearts in bright red, while the same pretty decorations were in evidence everywhere. Cupids adorned the piano and the large decoration over the table, the work of Mrs. W. E. Smith, called forth admiring comments from all those present.

In the pretty dining room, Mesdames Horne and Aud Lusk poured tea and coffee while Mesdames Claude and Archie Nelson, George Price and Jack Williams served the menu consisting of fruit salad, wafers, white cake and red and white mints. The table was centered by a magnificent bouquet of red and white carnations and sweet peas in the same colors were placed about the room. A heart-shaped box received the silver offering.

All in all the tea was quite up to the entertainments given by the Baptist ladies in former years, adding a neat sum to the treasury, which however, was but one of the benefits received, the sociability among the church members of the city being greatly fostered by such affairs.

A CLASS MEETING
Members of the "Railroad" class of the Christian Sunday School, held a supper and business meeting combined at the Ira Stockwell home Monday night, at six o'clock. The Valentine idea was stressed in the place cards, and in various other ways, such as hunting partners by matching hearts, and by the use of heart shaped receptacles for the collection. Each person present was supposed to give as many pennies as the number of inches in their nose, and in this way something over five dollars was realized, to be applied to church purposes. After serving a substantial supper to the twenty-five persons present, the evening was spent in playing clinch and similar games.

A few young folk had a delightful Valentine party at the home of Mary Frances Joyce Monday night and all present enjoyed themselves greatly with games of different kinds, music on the piano and victrola, and also the delicious refreshments of cake and ice cream which rounded out the evening. A valentine box was also a pleasant feature of the gathering and each one present carried home a number of dainty missives. Those enjoying the evening with the young hostesses were: Misses Ida Pearl Morris, Eunice Herring, Pearl Butcher, Ellnor Flowers and Miss Chancy; Wallace Thorne, Carl Loveliss, Elliott Perry, Harold Toffelmire, and Barney Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins Gerrells were blessed on Valentine's Day by the advent of a fine eight pound boy. Collin says the baby is the image of his illustrious father. In looks and we add that if he makes as fine a man as his father all parties will be more than satisfied.

ALFALFA BEING SHIPPED IN LARGE QUANTITIES IN THE ARTESIA SECTION

Artesia, Feb. 9.—Large quantities of alfalfa is being sent out of the local station by the Growers' association and some 35 car loads left last week. The shipments during the present week will probably be heavier and figuring twelve tons to the car, over 400 tons will make up the week's shipments. The best grade is now being sold for $16.00 a ton, which is a much better price than was offered to the farmers during the summer season, and many of them feel that it has paid them to hold the crop in storage until the present time. Large amounts of off-grade hay is also being loaded out and will bring from ten to fifteen dollars per ton.

Sheriff and Mrs. Batton, Mrs. F. E. Little and Mrs. Oscar Mercer drove to Artesia Tuesday and attended the regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, held at that place. The ladies belonging to the union being desirous of information of the prohibition and anti-narcotic laws, desired the presence of the sheriff that they might be more fully acquainted with such laws.

Mrs. Jennie Wright is teaching at Separ, Grant County, New Mexico, beginning her work there the first of the present month.

LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 19

ELISHA AND NAAMAN THE SYRIAN

LESSON TEXT—II Kings 5:1-27.
GOLDEN TEXT—Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases.—Ps. 103:2, 3.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Luke 4:16-20; 5:12-16.
PRIMARY TOPIC—A Little Girl Helping.
JUNIOR TOPIC—A Young Girl's Service.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Elisha Helping a Foreigner.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—How to Overcome National and Racial Prejudices.

I. Naaman's Fatal Defect (v. 1).
He was a great man, but a leper. He was held in high esteem by the king, because through him the Syrians had been delivered from their enemies. He was not only a capable general, but was a very brave man—valorous. Every unregenerate man, regardless of his gifts and possessions, has this one fatal defect. He may be a mighty warrior, a great orator, a gifted writer, a man of profound learning, an honorable statesman, but if he is an unbeliever in Christ, he is a lost sinner—a leper. Leprosy is a type of sin. Note its characteristics:
Lethal, hereditary, infectious, separating, destructive, deceitful, incurable by man.

II. The Faithful Witness (vv. 2-4).
This was a Jewish maid who had been captured by marauding Syrian troops who made frequent incursions into Israel's land for the purpose of plunder. Daniel at a later date was carried away captive, and he likewise was used of God to bless many. Joseph is another example of one who was put into a hard place, but became a blessing to others, even to the saving of his brothers, who sold him. This Jewish maid pointed out to this great man the One who could heal him. Many are the persons who have been pointed to Christ as the Healer of souls by children.

III. Naaman Seeking the Healer (vv. 5-9).

1. He goes with a letter of introduction and great gifts (v. 5). In the East valuable gifts are taken along when in quest of some favor. In this case the value was perhaps $80,000.
2. He goes to the wrong place (vv. 6, 7). The maid did not suggest that if Naaman would be with the king he would be recovered of his leprosy, but with the prophet of God. We should be very careful that we go to the right place with our troubles and sins. Neither the king's power nor Naaman's money could avail anything in this case. The prophet of God can bring greater blessing than kings and rich men.

3. Naaman at the door of Elisha (vv. 8, 9). Elisha, upon learning of the king's embarrassment, sent to him, saying, "Let him come now to me." Naaman appeared before Elisha's door in great splendor. He did not come as a suppliant, but as one who could pay a goodly sum for healing.

IV. Naaman Healed (vv. 10-15).

1. Elisha's message (v. 10). Go wash in Jordan seven times.
2. Naaman's anger (vv. 11, 12). He thought that Elisha should have shown deference to him. People today think that their rank and wealth entitle them to different treatment by God. They turn away from the humble way of the Cross, God's method of salvation. Rich and poor, high and low are alike in God's sight. Reasonings of the flesh must be supplanted by the obedience of faith.

3. Naaman's obedience (vv. 13, 14). Through the earnest entreaty of his servants his pride and prejudice were overcome, and he did what the prophet commanded. The result of his obedience was that his flesh "came again as the flesh of a little child."

4. Naaman acknowledges Jehovah (v. 15). After his cleansing he came again to the prophet and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel." The vital point of teaching in this lesson is how nearly Naaman missed being healed. The three enemies which almost kept him from being healed were: (1) Pride (v. 11). He was insulted because the man of God did not come out to such a distinguished man as he was. (2) Preconceived opinion (v. 12). "I thought." Many sinners procrastinate because they have preconceived opinions as to how God ought to save. (3) Prejudice (v. 12). Others of Damascus are better than Jordan. Countless thousands are lost by these enemies. God has provided only one way to save men from their sins—the way of the Cross.

The Dove and Jesus.

Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, and the Holy Ghost descended in bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.—Luke 3:21-22.

The Unrighteous.

The ways of peace have they not known: there is no fear of God before their eyes.—Romans 3:17-18.

Getting Out of Debt

A young farmer told us the other day that he was going to open an account with us as soon as he got out of debt.

We are glad to hear such good news but the remark set us to thinking.

As a matter of fact, a great many accounts are carried on our books by people who are in debt, some more, some less. If they all waited until they got out of debt before opening an account they would be obliged to forego valuable banking accommodations and we should have to do without just that much good business.

Until it becomes customary to give away farms for a wedding present, the only way for a young man to get started is to go in debt — why debt is the national by-word nowadays.

We are working out gradually, so let us all work together, maybe some suggestion of ours will help or a good word to a buyer for your ranch.

COME IN and tell us your business upon which you want strict confidence.

LIGHT-SIX SEDAN

$1750

F. O. S. South Bend

See This New Low-Priced Sedan!

Two more cylinders make a world of difference.

You notice it when the LIGHT-SIX slows down to a snail's gait in traffic. You notice it when the open highway ahead invites the throttle. You notice it in the greater responsiveness, the greater flexibility, the greater s-m-o-o-t-h-n-e-s-s and in the absence of vibration.

There are new driving pleasures waiting for you in the Studebaker LIGHT-SIX Sedan.

Not only is its motor more powerful, more flexible and freer from vibration than any other light six-cylinder motor ever produced, but the perfect distribution of the car weight over all four wheels gives it unusual riding and driving qualities.

If you have been accustomed to driving a "four," the responsiveness of the LIGHT-SIX will be a revelation. If you are now driving another six-cylinder car, the lack of vibration and perfect balance of this LIGHT-SIX will create new standards of riding comfort.

But, equally important, is the new low price of $1750—an intrinsic value without parallel in the industry!

ENTERTAINED AT METHODIST PARSONAGE

Reverend and Mrs. A. C. Douglas were clever hosts to the members of the official board and their wives, at a chicken dinner at 8 o'clock Monday night. The dinner was all that could be desired, and after the table was cleared the guests lingered long planning for the betterment of the church and Sunday School. Among other talks was one from John Wells on "How The Sunday School May be Developed in Interest and Membership." Mr. Wells is superintendent of the Methodist school and thoroughly conversant with its needs and aims and his talk was much appreciated by all. Miss Annie Prickett gave a reading which added a pleasant note to the meeting.

Judge Armstrong gave a most instructive talk on "How to Develop the Membership in the Line of Giving."

Judge Fred Wilson spoke on "The Place of the Church in Social Life." and Mrs. J. W. Armstrong, leader of the choir spoke of that body and its work and value to the church. Mary Lee Pond and Martha Williams assisted the hostess in serving and the following ladies and gentlemen composed the party that being the entire board of officials, with the exception of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Brown, who were unavoidably detained. Judge Armstrong and wife, John Wells and Mrs. Wells, J. K. McCall and Mrs. McCall, J. P. and Mrs. Prickett, R. M. Patterson and wife, W. P. Mudgett and wife and Judge Fred E. Wilson and wife.

An alarm of fire Saturday morning called the department to the house in west Carlsbad belonging to Mrs. Aubrey Moore, and occupied by the family of Sam Montgomery, where burning grass gave promise of a first class conflagration. Fortunately the morning was quiet, and consequently the flames did not reach the house, had the usual high wind been blowing such would not have been the case. Mrs. Moore wishes in this way to extend her thanks to the firemen for their promptness and efficiency as aids from its numerical vault there are associations connected with the cottage which make it very dear to her.

Frank Davis returned from a trip to the country around Weed and other places in that vicinity.

step into limousines on Fifth avenue, suits whose twin sisters shop in the most exclusive section of New York, not to mention the delicious little frocks whose counterpart have this very day been seen at tea in the Ritz.

Ask for Miss Manhattan's own creations—the youthful New York styles that are both smart and serviceable.

"THE STORE OF QUALITY"

BIRTHDAY DINNER.

No pleasanter gathering at the hospitable Joyce home has ever been held than the one honoring the birthday anniversary of J. F. Joyce which was celebrated by a dinner last night at 7 o'clock. The table was centered by a low centerpiece of ferns, and the beautiful napery, cut glass and silver, added to the beauty of the scene. A surprise feature of the evening was made known when Mr. Joyce lifted up his napkin and found under it one dollar gold pieces to the amount of forty-six, which made known his age and were a gift from Mrs. Joyce. After the fine turkey dinner was disposed of, the guests indulged in card playing and conversation, leaving at a late hour for their homes and all extending best wishes to their host for many more happy birthdays. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ares, Misses Johnston, Chaney and Lane and Lee Hanson.

Mrs. George O'Connor was a clever hostess to five tables of bridge players at her home Tuesday. Decorations featured the Valentine season and the menu also consisted of heart-shaped articles which were good as they were attractive. The guests attending the pretty affair were Mesdames Wertheim, John Barber, L. M. and W. W. McAdoo, Paul Mahan, Rickman, Jackson, Donlev, Fred Wilson, Sam and Aud Lusk, E. A. Roberts, Kindel, Charles Montgomery, Waller, Monroe, Christian, Joe Livingston, Glazier, Love; Misses Georgia Wallace, Jennie Linn, and Lucille McKneeley.

The Fire Department performed a very worthy act as well as safeguarding property in the west part of town, when it burned the high grass in various lots in that part of the city Wednesday night. A general burning would be of advantage and might save the city a bad fire.

A pre-nuptial shower was given at the Roy Worley home Thursday for Miss Elisa Grandi, who will become the bride of George Fessler, the 28th of this month, the ceremony taking place at St. Edward's church, in Carlsbad. The shower was to be of things that would be useful in the home and kitchen of the bride-to-be, and they certainly were of that order. The table was spread, the bride and flower girls centering it, and the table being further decorated in the Valentine colors of red and white. It being a pre-nuptial shower and also a Valentine party, hearts were everywhere. But the little bride and her attendants were so unique in appearance that they deserve more than a passing notice. In forming the figure, a dish mop, measuring spoon, cake pan and funnel were used, and so artistically were they combined with the cheese cloth dusters that at first sight one only saw a bride with a dainty white veil which was supported by two maids in red.

A delicious menu was served, and hearty good wishes were extended the happy guest of honor for a pleasant home in Loving where the groom has a furnished house ready for her coming. The guests were all intimate friends and neighbors and were Mesdames M. L. and Ray Davis, Dell, Lloyd and Raymond Poet, Filson, Worley, Slease, Bates, Frank Hays, Hubbard, Rawls and the grandmother of the honor guest; Misses Filson, Grandi, and Brockman.

The equipment for the new post-office has arrived and a man is expected to come in from the south tonight to set it up, and otherwise assist with the installation. The room is being put in order and it is thought patrons will be calling for their mail at the new office, by the first of March at the outside. The boxes are of the latest style each having but one combination, and locking automatically. There was a full furniture car of equipment.

I never saw a spiritual man in my life that would stand up and ask me: "Do you think there is any harm in the dance?" Why don't you ask me if I think there is any harm in prayer meeting, or if I think there is any harm in family prayer? You know there is not. And whenever you hear a fellow asking if there is any harm in the dance you can reply: "You lying old rascal, you know there is!"

B. Y. P. U. PARTY

The local B. Y. P. U. had a Valentine Party Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Pound, in North Carlsbad. The evening was made pleasant for the young people by games and conversation and delicious refreshments closed the enjoyment. One feature was the cutting of a regular Valentine cake, baked by the hostess which contained a ring, a thimble, a button and a piece of money. This occasioned considerable excitement among the young folk and resulted in Miss Lillie Mae Nelson securing the ring, Frank Barnett the button, Miss Kathryn Chilcoat the thimble and Miss Connie Chilcoat the money.

The Ellen Richardson Club of girls, who are being taught by Miss Shepherd, the principles of Home Economics, were entertained by their teacher at the High school Wednesday night. After the festivities of the evening were over, they posed for a picture which will be a lasting pleasure in the years to come.
