THIRTIETH YEAR

THE CARLSHAD CURRENT, FRIDAY, MARCH 3, 1922.

NUMBER 12.

GENERAL BROWN INSPECTS TROOP "B".

(By a Cavalry Member.)

The truth often hurts, but it is sometimes the best policy to face the facts rather than postpone the day of reckoning that must come.

So it is with Troop B. The oldest Troop, the first recognized by the federal inspector has fallen below its standard in the inspection held this week by Adjutant General Brown and Capt. Wilkerson. To this bare statement is attached greater significance than anything that could happen to Carlshad. It means that this next year must show a decided improvement or the Troop will be removed and Carlshad entered upon the records as a community unable to support a military organization. To you, Mr. Business Man, it means the removal of an annual payroll of nineteen thousand dollars. To you, fathers and mothers of the memorial Company B, the perishing of the renowned name of Carlshad's company who established a place in the world war and left the name of Company B an honored one. And with Troop B it must go for Troop B is no other than the old Company revived with new members. To you, fathers of civic and community pride, the failure upon which your ideals are based.

It would have been extremely easy to write a glowing account of this inspection and trust to luck that next year would see a change. But can we refuse to face the issue? Do you realize the seriousness of what is at stake? No you do not or this Troop would not have arrived at this point. No public meeting has passed without the assurance that the entire community was behind Troop B. You say you are, but the question arises: Are you? That trooper in your employ? Do you know that he attended the last drill? Are you behind the movement to the extent that upon greeting him the next morning you say: "How was drill last night? Was there a good crowd?" Or does your conversation take this course: "How was the movie? Did you win that game of billiards?" Certainly it is none of your affair how he spends his hours out of your place of business you will say. It is your affair, however, that he gives you the very best of his efficiency during the day. You will also admit that military training has been proven during the war to be the very best physical and mental training that a young man can procure. Picture the following contrasts for making real business men. "A" belongs to the Cavalry Troop. On Wednesday evenings he attends drill for an hour and a half. At this drill he takes exercises, plays many sports and receives careful and valuable military instruction. Sunday afternoons he is out under the blue skies breathing pure air and taking the greatest exercise known: horseback riding. "B" is not a member of the Troop. He is a kicker and a chronic knocker. He does not believe in the principle of the U. S. uniform and is of the type that frequently wears the suits of tar and feathers during the war. He spends his Wednesday evenings around a pool hall. His mentality does not run high enough for him to play, he just occupies a customer's chair. Sunday afternoons he is generally found in bed engrossed in a Whis Bang or in the vicinity of San Jose. Yes, you will say that some members of the Troop do the same as "B" does. Certainly. But why? Because he is not encouraged otherwise. Does any one take the interest to direct him otherwise. He is not made to realize the advantages he is losing. Does he constantly hear the local Troop boosted? Here is one incident of boosting perhaps he hears. A prominent business man and a member of the Chamber of Commerce who has pledged his support, when approached for the loan of an article that was stored in a warehouse and never used grumbled and growled and cried and slurringly remarked that he did not like to loan anything to "that Cavalry outfit". No he did not like to loan notwithstanding the fact that the Troop contributed annually to his cash drawer and one of his employees who is a member of the Troop rarely attends drills.

Another business man remarked that the Cavalry team never won a game or never seemed to be able to do anything. At a polo game last summer several were spotted parked outside the fence rather than contribute twenty-five cents toward the game. One said he would never come to another game played on that bad field across the river. Whose fault is it that games are forced to be held there? Have you started or assisted in starting a movement to locate a better field for the Troop? This matter has been brought up and discussed annually with the result that we are still on the field and two different teams have refused to play here until a regulation field is built. Perhaps this is the kind of boosting that young man is hearing who won't come out to drill. He is much at fault(?).

There is a law which says an officer of the law may be sent out and bring a member of the Cavalry to drill. He can be taken out of

ALL ABLE BODIED MALE PERSONS 21 YEARS OF AGE MUST PAY POLL TAX.

Carlshad, N. M., Feb. 28, 1922. To School Clerks of Eddy County: Below is a copy of an opinion of the Attorney General in relation to Poll Tax.

The former law exempting from poll tax, soldiers and sailors who had served in time of war, has been repealed. All able-bodied male persons of the age of 21 years or over are subject to poll tax.

Please read the copy of the opinion from the Attorney General and be governed accordingly in collecting poll tax for 1922.

Very respectfully yours,
GEO. M. BRINTON,
Copy of letter from Attorney General to John Joerna, State Educational Auditor.

"In reply to your letter of the 23rd, ultimo, transmitting letter from H. G. Burgess, clerk of the Silver City public schools, submitting an inquiry regarding the definition of 'An able-bodied male person' as used in section 34, chapter 193, laws of 1917, requiring the payment of a poll tax by such persons, I wish to advise you as follows:

It is rather difficult to frame a definition of the term 'able-bodied person' that would be applicable in all cases; as an illustration, one man might have a hand or arm amputated and be able-bodied, while another under the same conditions might not be considered within the definition.

In the case of Sheffrick vs. Town of Houston, 29 Ill. App. 381, in treating this question the following language was used:

"A man who is ordinarily able to perform the labor usually performed by able-bodied men on the public roads is not exempt from liability for a poll tax."

This may not be of much assistance in determining who are and who are not able-bodied, but it is the best definition of an able-bodied person that I have been able to find.

It does not follow that because a person is able to earn a living that he is able-bodied. Your correspondent asks if the loss of a finger, leg, or arm would constitute a disability in the eyes of the law if the person so disabled is still able to earn a living. A person who is not able-bodied may not be so disabled that he is incapable of providing a living for himself. A person may have both legs amputated and still be able to earn his living, and he would not be considered able-bodied.

Your correspondent also asks if the exemption from payment of poll tax because of service in the army and navy in time of war authorized by the laws of 1919 is still in effect. Chapter 165, laws of 1919, which authorized property and poll tax exemptions for ex-service men was repealed by Chapter 133, Laws of 1921, and, therefore, no such exemption may now be allowed.

I am returning herewith Mr. Burgess' letter which accompanied your inquiry.

Very truly yours,
HARRY S. BOWMAN,
Attorney General.

The fire alarm from the Anderson cottage across south from the Sanitarium, on Wednesday afternoon, was caused by the roof catching fire from the flue. The building is occupied by Mrs. Beala and her children, and for a time it looked a little scary. Jim Beala, who has been sick in bed for the past week, seeing that the fire was gaining headway climbed on the roof and quickly extinguished the flames.

a pool hall, a show or even his home. In some organizations they have resorted to this method. It is drastic, but it is successful. Does Carlshad want to see such disgraceful measures taken?

It is not the wish of the writer to paint a bad picture of this matter. Troop B is far from this stage but we must admit it is on the shady side of the hill and now is the time for action to be before it is too late. The men are careless. They do not realize the seriousness and because of the lack of sufficient backing have become disinterested and allowed to slip backwards. They only need encouragement and help. They have an uphill fight. They have worked hard for an athletic fund, to organize teams and construct a real organization. The people HAVE NOT stood behind them. They do not attend their entertainments. The knackers are numerous and those who do not knock are only taking a half-hearted interest and make no effort to encourage others. That's what is needed—ACTION. Drop the speeches and flowery talks of promises of assistance. Don't make the mistake of under-estimating the value of this as applying directly to YOU. It is your town and the town makes you. Don't wait to act as did those sixteen cities in Texas who lost their organizations. The leaders of some of their business men to the war department would make you do some serious thinking. Troop B is merely a National Guard organization but it holds the pride of Carlshad in the palm of its hand. CAN YOU AFFORD TO LOSE IT? IT'S UP TO YOU.

Sitting Bull Falls

Ye mountain cedars scattered round,
With boughs so rough and ragged;
Ye mighty boulders here and there,
How worn and smooth your edges.

As underneath that shadowed rim
So worn by constant weather,
Here nature breathes the solemn words,
For ever and forever.

And far above, on cavern walls,
Where time had jetted under,
Here nature's hand a picture drew
Of magic art and wonder.

So lofty was the silent cliff,
Of mighty domes and ledges,
Formation rock shown old and grey
Proclaimed the passing ages.

Two hundred feet or more above,
As though a solemn duty,
A silver stream came tumbling down
Regardless of its beauty.

Then leaping o'er a cavern high,
With shadows dark and ruddy;
As o'er the margin of the brink,
Poured, constant, sure, and steady.

And here a shining crystal pool;
With surface smooth and level,
Above the mossy covered rim,

Here little fishes hover round,
A welcome for the stranger;
With beautiful colors golden green
And eyes of magic wonder.

So runs this Canyon dark and steep
With rough and rugged border;
In honor named for Sitting Bull,
A mighty, savage warrior.

MARRIED FESSLER-GRANDI

George Antonio Fessler and Miss Elizabeth Mary Grandi were united in the Holy bonds of matrimony according to the rites and ceremonies of the Catholic church, at St. Edward's church, in Carlshad, Tuesday morning, Rev. Father Gilbert, officiating, with a nuptial high mass.

The affair was quite brilliant, the bride and groom belonging to two of our old families, and a great number of relatives and friends of both parties being present to witness the solemn ceremony.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Erminia Grandi, as bridesmaid, while the best man was Frank Fessler, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride was gowned in an elaborate dress of white satin with over panels of georgette elaborately trimmed with pearl beads, and wore a beautiful, filmy veil, held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of carnations and made a charming appearance of delightful young womanhood. Her maid was also gowned in white with a white picture hat, while the flower girl, Josephine Fessler, wore white silk, and hat to match, the ring bearer, Cesarina Calvani a cousin of the bride wearing a dainty orquid, with white hat and accessories of white.

Both bride and groom are too well known to Carlshad people to be in need of any commendation from us. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cesar Grandi, prominent people in the Otis community, and has grown to young womanhood among us, and all are proud to call her friend. Mr. Fessler is an industrious young man in the employ of the Santa Fe as a telegraph operator at Loving, where he has furnished a home for his bride and where they began housekeeping Wednesday. He proved his patriotism by enlisting in the late war and was among those of Carlshad's young men who saw service in France.

They enter the marriage state under the most favorable circumstances and that their life may be happy and successful is the wish of a host of friends, the Current among others. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, at which about sixty relatives and close personal friends partook, and afterward the Mexican Orchestra

GOVERNMENT HAS NO TREES FOR DISTRIBUTION.

Washington, D. C. Feb. 27, 1922. Mr. R. A. Toffelmire, Secretary, Chamber of Commerce, Carlshad, New Mexico.

Dear Sir: Reference is made to your letter of February 23rd.

I regret to advise you that the forest service has no trees for distribution. You probably got this idea last year since at that time we distributed some of our surplus stock from the Gallinas nursery west of Las Vegas. This nursery has since then been closed. At the present time we are only raising a very few trees in the Southwest and these are only for our own use.

I know of no place where you could secure these trees free of charge and you will, therefore, probably have to get such trees as you desire from one of the commercial nurseries.

Very truly yours,
FRANK C. W. FOOLER,
District Forester.

BAND CONCERT.

The Carlshad Band will give the regular weekly concert Sunday afternoon, March 5th, at 2:30 P. M., in the band stand. It is hoped that the weather will be so favorable as to permit a large crowd to be present and enjoy the music. Following is the program for Sunday: March, "Yankee Hustle"; Overture, "The Victor"; March, "Crimson Rambler"; Waltz, "The Princess"; March, "Hammer and Tongs"; Serenade, "A Maiden Fair"; March, "The Gladiator"; Star Spangled Banner.

A cold wave, the most severe of the year, struck Carlshad and vicinity Monday night. The thermometer at the Reclamation Office registered 10 above zero, but there are many in the city who think, judging by their feelings, that the mercury must have been lower than that. At any rate, the plumbers of the city were kept busy for a day or two, looking after exposed pipes.

discouraged sweet music during the afternoon and evening, the young people dancing and all enjoying the day. They received a great many presents from their friends which will aid in the adornment of their new home at Loving.

VALLEY SPORTS

The Hope basket ball quintette made their last bow to the Carlshad fans Saturday night. The team itself is composed of some of the best of the young athletics in the valley and are very clean sportmen on the courts, and it is to be regretted that they are forced to enter 'contests' under such management as they are apparently forced to contend. It is to be hoped that next year they will be able to employ a coach who can qualify at least as a square sportsman and in built of the stuff that can see his team lose rather than employ dishonest practices for a mere score.

There was some question on the last goal thrown in the Cavalry-Hope game last Friday night. The point was awarded by the officials to the Cavalry making the score 13 to 12 in favor of the Cavalry.

The Roswell High School defeated the Battery A in Roswell last Friday night by a score of 25 to 3. The game was a fast one despite the one-sided score.

Pecos High lost to El Paso High Friday night in El Paso in a 100 to 4 score.

The first annual Pecos Valley Inter-Scholastic Basket Ball Tournament will be held on the Roswell High School courts on March third and fourth. This tournament is held under the auspices of the N. M. M. I., and is the official tournament for the district. The winner of the boy's tournament will have all expenses paid to compete in the Albuquerque tournament for the basket ball championship of the state which will be held at the University of New Mexico.

The Pecos Valley district comprises all the High Schools of the eastern part of the state. Eighteen high schools of this part of the state have been invited to this tournament. Both a boy's and girl's tournament will be held. The Institute is offering a handsome silver trophy for the boy's tournament and an exact duplicate for the girl's tournament. The winner of each tournament will have their name engraved on the trophy and the trophy becomes the permanent possession of the school which first wins three consecutive tournaments.

The drawing to determine opponents will be held at ten o'clock Friday at the High School. The preliminary game of the boy's tournament will begin Friday afternoon and of the girls tournament Saturday morning. The semi-finals will be played Saturday afternoon and the finals Saturday night.

The Chamber of Commerce is in charge of the entertainment for the visiting teams.

SCOUT NEWS

Buster Pope, Jim Beala, Dudley Usery and Preston Oliver were held out of scout meeting Tuesday night on account of bad colds.

Troop 1 was greatly honored Tuesday evening by a visit from General Brown, Captain Wilkerson, Sergeant Claggett, Major Bujac and Captain West. General Brown gave the boys one of the best talks that they have had the pleasure of listening to and will long be remembered.

The members of Scout Troop 1, who assisted in the organization of a troop at Pecos last week, conducted themselves in a way becoming to a scout, were thorough in their work, and received the hearty praise of Pecos people. Our boys are indebted to the Pecos citizens for the royal reception given them. Pecos people certainly keep up the reputation of western hospitality.

Barstow, Texas, and Vaughn, New Mexico, are two of the latest heard from who announce their intention of attending our summer encampment.

Perry O'Connor is one of the "new ones" soon to take over the scout program. He is the right kind of a lad and will be a help to the troop.

Boys, get your boats ready for the big race July 4th. A scout race will be one of the features. Remember the words of Colonel Brown, "Whatever you do, do your best, upon you depends the life and liberty of this great America."

A letter from Scoutmaster Postin, of Clovis, states the "scouts" are doing fine, new members added all the time and they will be with us in full force in July camp.

SCHOOL TOURNAMENT

The public schools of Reeves and Ward counties, and of Carlshad, N. M., also, engaged in a tournament of athletic events Wednesday and Thursday, that included tennis and basketball. On account of an amateur cyclone that held forth all day Wednesday, the contest in basketball narrowed down to Carlshad and Pecos, the latter being victor by a score of 19 to 10. In tennis rivalry was more spirited, representations of all schools entering, and the final scores showed honors pretty evenly divided, with the exception of boy's singles, Cap Weyer, of Pecos, towering head and shoulders over all entries—in ability. The contests were marked with genuine sportsmanship and we trust such events will be a more regular feature.—Pecos Gusher.

GENERAL BROWN ADDRESSES BOY SCOUTS

The first troop of the local Boy Scouts attended the regular meeting Tuesday evening and was visited by General Brown, Capt. Wilkerson, Major Bujac and Capt. West. General Brown delivered a short and very interesting talk to the boys on the principles of scouting and their relation to later life. The Scouts proved attentive listeners and were hearty in their applause at the close. Beginning with a humorous bear story, a few of his remarks were as follows:

"Scouting is the beginning of the training of sound, clean men; morally and physically. In Cleveland, Ohio, I witnessed a demonstration and parade, conducted entirely by Boy Scouts. The policing, handling of the crowds, the entire procedure was handled by the Scouts patrols and the huge parade went on without a hitch. They were confident and self-reliant, and the crowds respected them the same as they would have respected the orders of the regular police. Good scouts do good turns daily. In walking down the street they notice a stick or something that might perhaps trip someone and cause them bodily injury. They immediately pick this up. In the road they see a piece of glass that would puncture a tire; they remove. They are developing observation and judgment. They grow to observe every detail and are able to make sudden decisions.

Because of this training of observation, cleanliness and physical development that is taught in the Boy Scouts, the next generation is to see a type of manhood with far greater efficiency than those that were called to the colors in the world war. This early training and age of pep when directed along the right paths can work wonders. The developing of clean minds by the promotion of clean sports and at the same time a physically fit body. Do not be contented if you are as good as the average fellow. Let each one strive to be just a little better than any other. The time is short, don't waste a moment of it. Some of you are nearly beyond the scouting age. The cavalry is the next step in your training. Your training and principals will remain the same with a more advanced course. And so you continue step by step. Your training continues out into the business world. You become a part of a great system. You enlarge on your mental training and find you are advancing step by step as in your scouting work. But you must always continue to have a good physical body to have a sound clean mind."

HAY TRADE CONDITIONS OF THE WEEK

Markets this week have been quiet and under a slow demand, values are barely sustained. Good grades always find a market, but as the receipts usually consist of poor sorts, markets are depressed by accumulations of these sorts. The favorable weather has also had an effect on markets and kept demand down to low levels. The demand for the poorer sorts generally becomes less as spring approaches and this should be remembered when hay is shipped.

CANNING FACTORY, ICE AND COLD STORAGE PLANTS FOR ARTEAIA IS PLAN

Artesia, Feb. 28.—The Artesia Utility Company with a capital of $50,000, has been organized here for the operation of a canning factory, an ice plant and a large cold storage plant. The new company has already started work on the plans for the new buildings and $30,000 of the capital stock has been paid in. The present plans are carried out the three plants will all be under one roof and operated by the same power plant. Construction work on the buildings will be started in about a month.

The Military Affairs committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the officers of Troop B were joint hosts at a four course dinner in the Palace Cafe Thursday evening honoring General Henry Rolfe Brown and Capt. Wilkerson of Santa Fe. General Brown and Capt. Wilkerson have just completed the formal inspection of the local Troop. Among those present were: Miss Ruth Huff, representative of the American Red Cross, Mrs. Walter Craft, Capt. West, Lieut. Miller, Lieut. Campbell, Serat. Claggett, of Albuquerque, Sam Lusk, Mayor Hudgins, F. E. Hubert, Aud. E. Lusk, E. H. Weaver, J. R. Yates, L. E. Foster, E. A. Roberts, Will Craig and Horace Hutchinson.

A few young folk of the city celebrated the close of the school week-end Friday night at the home of Mrs. J. F. Flowers, on North Halaguno street. As is usual on these occasions, the granaola work-out-over-time while the girls and boys enjoyed themselves by "tripping the light fantastic" to its happy strains. At a late hour refreshments were served, Mrs. J. F. Joyce assisting Mrs. Flowers in caring for her guests, who were: Elinor Flowers, Mary Frances Joyce, Blanche Burns and Mary Hume; Harold Gibson, Elliott Perry, Harold Toffelmire, Harold Kersey, and Wallace Thorne.

Unwarring The Nation

"Morale" was a mighty factor during the war. It was the secret of the marvelous success of the American troops.

Morale must play the same part in "unwarring" the nation. The people must provide the morale, the spirit, the encouragement necessary to quicken the onward march of its industrial armies, upon which prosperity is dependent.

Supported by the new-born confidence and good will of their customers and the public generally, the public utilities, with a program which embraces the expenditure of $1,000,000, 000 a year for the next five years, for improvements and extensions, will constitute the "shock troops".

The electrical, traction, telephone, power or gas company, however small the community it serves, as well as the largest city enterprise, is doing its share.

The community's part is to provide the support and encouragement necessary to build the morale for them to "carry on".

ARE YOU DOING IT?

The Public Utilities Company

There will be Bible school at ten o'clock Sunday at the Presbyterian church. Morning worship is to be omitted, the pastor being under appointment to serve at Hope, but he expects to return in the afternoon and conduct evening worship in his own church at seven-thirty. Evening worship is an exception with the Presbyterians in town, and the present announcement is appeal for a full attendance. The choir will serve specially, and young people's meeting will be omitted. The subject of the sermon will be: "The Lost Coin."

Word from Mrs. Alice Patterson, who is now in Steubenville, Ohio, is to the effect that she will probably return here the latter part of next week. She is shipping her household effects and will probably call this home from now on. She will be welcomed by a host of friends here who know and love her.

The "Grandmother's Club" had their fortnightly dance at the Armory Monday night and a good attendance is reported with fine music and an enjoyable time.

NEW MEXICO ASKS BIDS ON $500,000 OF STATE ROADS

Santa Fe, N. M.—The state highway department today called for bids on construction of 11 federal aid road projects in New Mexico to cost over a half-million dollars. The contracts will be let on March 22 and 23, and will cover nearly 150 groups of contracts ever planned to be let at one time by the highway department. The work includes gravel surfacing of parts of the Tesque Pojoque road north of Santa Fe and the widening of the road from Albuquerque north to the Sandoval county line, where the 16-foot concrete roadway will be paralleled with strips of gravel surfacing, making a 20-foot hard road.

The other projects to let follow: 64. West of Deming, on the Deming Lordsburg road, 12 miles. 68. North of Hot Springs, on either end of the Elephant Butte-Springs project, now completed, nine miles.

69. On the Carlsbad-Lovington road, 11 1/4 miles from the east end of project 16, now completed.

74. On the Albuquerque-Sallun road, seven miles, between McCarty and Grants.

78. On the Santa Fe trail, 18 miles, between Las Vegas and Watrous.

79. On the Clayton-Springer road, the stretch between Springer and the west line of Union county, to connect with project 78, now being built in Union county.

80. Between Escondido Oro Grande on the Alamogordo-El Paso road, to connect with project 49, between Valmont and Escondido, now completed.

81. On the Moreno valley road, from Ute Park to Taos Pass, on the Taos county line, 16 miles.

87. On the Deming-Lordsburg, Arizona line, 20 miles, on both sides of Lordsburg, which will complete the road entirely across Hidalgo county. The Moreno valley project will complete another link in the Raton-Taos-Santa Fe road.

DOMESTIC ANIMALS THREATENED BY NEW AND DREADED DISEASE

Washington, Feb. 26.—Domestic animals are threatened by a new and dreaded disease which causes death in from five to seventy-one hours, according to a bulletin issued tonight by the public health service. Efforts are being made to produce an anti-toxin. The description of the disease carried by the bulletin conveys little information to the lay mind.

Suggestions that the organism of the disease is the same which caused "limberneck" in chickens, has not yet been demonstrated, the bulletin says.

MEXICAN METHODIST CHURCH

The following are the services as planned for Sunday and week following:

7:00 P. M. Sermon by Pastor.
7:00 P. M. Tuesday and Thursday night classes in English.
7:30 P. M. Wednesday night Prayer Meeting.

Saturday. Boy Scouts.
All are cordially invited to these services.

How to be happy? "The only sure way to be happy is to have a purpose and to dedicate life to its fulfillment. Unhappiness is merely another name for aimlessness. Work is the only real panacea."

THE FRUIT OF HIS FOLLY

The above is the title of a play to be staged about the 20th by Carlsbad talent for the benefit of the Boy Scout movement. It is a beautiful Comedy-Drama and carries with it a wonderful moral. It is also full of real fun and just such a play as will please everyone. The many benefits that have been given the past few months have crowded the Scouts out of their yearly benefit and caused them to run behind in the maintaining of their club rooms and regular work and considerable funds will be needed this year to put over the big encampment and everyone is asked to keep this date in mind and give the youngsters their patronage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Datoa and daughter, Tara, left last Saturday for a stay in El Paso, partly on business and partly on pleasure.

THIRD CLASS POSTMASTER EXAMINATION

March 11, 1922.
At the request of the Postmaster General, the United States Civil Service Commission announces an open competitive examination to be held on March 11, 1922, to fill the position of postmaster at Artesia, New Mexico, at which a vacancy exists or is about to occur. It is expected that appointments will be made as result of this examination unless it is found in the interest of the service to fill any vacancy by transfer or promotion. This is not an examination under the Civil Service Act and rules, but is held under an Executive Order of May 10, 1921, providing for such procedure.

"SERVICE THAT PLEASURES"

R. B. Knowles, of Artesia, informs us that the Knowles-Monument telephone line is now in first class order for messages to or from Knowles, Monument, Seagraves, or any other of the plains or Texas towns. This has been done at great expense to the company and will be a great convenience to the public as well as a big saving to those phoning to those places by having their calls routed over this line. A reduction in the price is also announced and now it only costs 60 cents to talk from Carlsbad to Knowles and 90 cents from here to Lovington or 95 cents to Seminole, Texas. Charges for calls to other plains towns in proportion.

It is often said that women are catty with one another. I do women who have more time than they can dispose of may be. But the majority of women you meet in the business world are not catty. They are fair and just. It may be they are so because of their contact with so many obstacles. But anyway, the woman who has gone on, regardless of disappointments, regardless of hopelessness, regardless of snags in her path, and can still remain open minded enough and willing enough to reach out in helpfulness to others, and to abandon herself to pure joy and pleasure in being of help to others, deserves well the title of noble, and fine. And what could be more complete than being a fine, noble woman?—Roswell News.

FAIRPORT MAYOR

Pretty Ohio Woman Is Deluged With Proposals; So Far Her Heart Has Resisted Suitors' Efforts
Fairport, O., Feb. 7.—Despite being deluged with marriage proposals during the first month of her incumbency as mayor of this little town, Dr. Amy A. Kaukonen, youthful and pretty, claims she is still able to pay strict attention to the business of being mayor and that thus far her heart has resisted the efforts of her numerous suitors.

Miss Kaukonen says: "One letter beings: 'There is no doubt that when you receive this cold plea from a poor widower with nine motherless children,' wherein one learns a little farther on that the supplicant weighs two hundred and twenty pounds and 'yearns' for some one who can make apple pie, save money and love me.' He also states that he is 'the best cornet player in Bird Centre.'"

"Many of the writers sent their photographs with the letters. One elderly farmer from Kansas wrote that he owns a farm of over a thousand acres and though he has a little hard cider in his cellar if his suit is successful he'll right soon get rid of that and closes by saying that though he'll be 'seventy-five' come next March, to marry the first woman mayor in Ohio would be the climax of my ambition."

"Another said he would be willing to give up his pay envelope every Saturday night and not fight about it either and earnestly requested 'but don't let this get into the papers or magazines.'"

"A few of them wanted me to telegraph at their expense my answer to their generous but urgent offers. A gentleman from Missouri forwarded with his letters sworn affidavit to prove that he was not married at present 'but has hopes.'"

Asked for her views on marriage the woman mayor replied: "As far as marriage goes I believe in only one kind; marriage that is the natural result of true love. Marriage does not interfere with a woman's career. If more people married for love and fewer for money and social positions this world would be far happier."

"No, I have never been in love but expect to be perhaps some day," Miss Kaukonen naively concluded.

6-SHOOTER DAYS WHEN VINCENT WAS ON BENCH

Ex-Judge's Death Recalls Stormy Era In New Mexico Courts

The Current is indebted to James M. Craft for the following true story of how conditions were in New Mexico in the early days:

The sudden death of Ex-Judge William A. Vincent in his law office, a victim of heart disease, recalls the fact that when Mr. Vincent was appointed to the federal bench he was only 26 years old, the youngest lawyer ever elevated to that position and one of the few whose early judicial days were spent in the southwest when guns ruled and the law carried little weight.

"Mr. Vincent was a mere youngster when he opened an office in Santa Fe, N. M., but he was fearless and knew the law. Within a short time he was retained by Gov. Otero and represented that stormy petrel in a case that attracted national attention. During his hearing the governor refused to produce certain papers that the presiding judge, who belonged to an opposing faction, deemed necessary. As a result both the governor and his lawyer were committed to jail for contempt."

De Luxe Meals For Prisoners

The citizens of Santa Fe decorated the jail with flowers furnished it with the best the territory could afford, and arranged to have the prisoners served with de luxe meals. Young Vincent was formally appointed turnkey and given the keys to the town. This unusual demonstration was called to the attention of President Cleveland, who decided it was time to remove the chief justice and institute a regime of law and order. Mr. Cleveland consulted with the leading men of the southwest and all urged him to appoint young Vincent to the bench.

"He is only a lad," replied the President. "But he knows the law and has the courage of a bulldog," was the reply. "Then I'll appoint him," replied Cleveland, and he did, bringing by his act a reign of law and order to the territory.

"The appointment came by wire and reached the young attorney while he was in jail enjoying his imprisonment."

Six Shooters On The Bench

Judge Vincent's youth gave the rough and unruly frontier lawyers the idea that they would run riot, but they found that the judge went to court with two six shooters and that when court convened he placed them on the bench within easy reach. His bailiffs were armed and when trouble promised the sheriff was on the spot with a posse.

"Judge Vincent found that practically every case was heard in Spanish and that the interpreters lied or told the truth in accordance with their own desires. He then ruled that English only should be spoken, with the result that there was for a time constant turmoil. One of his cases lasted eight months—the longest on record. It was that of a Chinaman, unknown to the town, who had cut the throat of a laundryman with a pair of scissors. The testimony was in Chinese, Spanish and English and before it was over the Chinese had learned to speak English well enough to tell his story the second time."

Billy The Kid In Court

"One afternoon the sheriff of the county had been notified that 'Billy the Kid,' the most notorious bandit of the Santa Fe trail, had kidnapped a boy and was holding him for ransom. Judge Vincent ordered the outlaw's arrest and the next day the sheriff had him in court. During the hearing 'the kid' charged a witness with lying, guns were drawn, and the sheriff killed."

"O, it was nothing so unusual," remarked Vincent when telling of the incident later. "I frequently had to drop down behind the desk to save myself. I was always under threat, and danger of gunfire. Judge Vincent's removal from office was as sudden as his appointment and it, too, came by wire. He had been sitting in a case involving the interests of two political factions and the one that lost charged him with packing the jury. They took their grievance to President Cleveland, who, without waiting to hear both sides, removed the judge. Four days later he sent on a letter apologizing and offering Vincent the chief justiceship of two other states."

"It was a four page handwritten letter," said Mr. Vincent in telling of the incident, "but I wired him that I was through with federal appointments. I was rather pleased, though, for it was the first time a president ever apologized to a judge."

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE NEEDS FUNDS AND NEEDS THEM NOW

Cordell Hull, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, announces that the National Committee is in urgent need of funds to supply literature and educational data for which he is receiving requests from all parts of the country. Each dollar contributed now is worth two dollars later on.

"Everywhere there is a revival of interest in the Democratic party and renewed enthusiasm among Democrats," says Chairman Hull. He predicts Democratic success, but emphasizes the point that financial assistance now is invaluable in bringing it about. He hopes that every Democrat who reads this will contribute something. Contributions should be sent to the Democratic National Committee, 441 Woodward Building, Washington, D. C.

He is one of our prominent manufacturers. The other day the traffic officer in Wyandotte stopped him for traveling too fast in his automobile. "What's your name?" asked the officer.

He told him. "How do you spell it?" He told him that, too.

"Where do you live?" "Are you married?" "Have you any children?" "What are their names and ages?"

"Say," screamed the manufacturer, "what's the sense of asking all those foolish questions like that?"

"Well," replied the other, "I applied at your factory once for a job and the bird in the office asked me all those questions and a lot more. I thought they were foolish, too."

Some advertisers probably have not thought of how much more they get for their money when advertising in a newspaper which has a paid in advance circulation than in one which boosts its circulation in every way possible by sending to subscribers in arrears for years, to personal friends and to everyone who will take it out of the post office. A subscriber who thinks enough of a paper to pay for it and kick like a mule when they miss a copy, is the kind of person who always reads every word printed each week and especially the ads. People who are unwilling to pay $2.00 a year for their home paper would not read it if it was sent to them free of charge. The Current guarantees its circulation and we know by the willingness of our subscribers to pay for their paper and by their kicks if it accidentally fails to reach them that they appreciate our efforts to furnish the news of Carlsbad and Eddy county to them each week.

Complaint has been made to the use of the end of main street of town as a dumping ground for all kinds of trash, that persons have accumulated in their yards during the winter and have hauled out to that spot and dumped it. Farther on, is the city's dumping ground, but it seems that it is a little too far for private parties to haul their trash to. The authorities have had their attention called to the matter and steps will likely be taken to prohibit any such doings in the future.

A LEGAL INJUSTICE

In Oklahoma one white man, two boys of 18 and 19 and two negro men have been sentenced to life imprisonment for participation in a lynching.

Unlicensed killing by a mob is a crime abhorrent to everyone; but the crime of making extreme youth responsible for a lifetime of manhood is hardly less so. The three men, presumably, were able to count the cost, to face the consequences of their acts. But what does eighteen years know of self-restraint, of the subduing of passion that the law may take its course?

Punished they should be but the theory of life imprisonment, that the prisoner is "too dangerous to be at large," falls to the ground in the face of the fact that five years from their eighteenth birthday both of these young men will in all probability be totally different persons in mind and in body, in thought, and in intention.

It is a curious commentary on English speaking standards of life and property that the human mole is not old or wise enough to make a contract until he is twenty-one, but quite old enough, after he passes sixteen (in most States), to go to jail for life!—Capital News Service.

The Civil and Criminal Docket for the March term of District Court, of the Fifth Judicial District, was put off the Current press this week. The book contains eighty-eight pages, in all, mostly civil cases, there being only a few criminal cases to be tried. It is hoped that much of the dockets may be cleaned up at this term, which begins March 13th.

Walter Thayer is among the other young men of Carlsbad who joined the regular army this week. He, together with the others, left Thursday for El Paso.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Haines are happy over the arrival of their second child, a daughter, born to bless their home last Thursday. May the little one prove all that her fond parents wish her to become. She has been given the name of Dorothy Edna.

Mrs. Shafer, mother of Mrs. Smith, a teacher in Carlsbad Public Schools, left Tuesday night for New York, being called there by news of the illness of her husband.

BORN:—At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jones on Halaguano street, Saturday, February 25th, a ten pound son to Mr. and Mrs. Walter O'Cheskey. Nurse Jones reported the happy event and added that Walter, senior, was hitting the earth about every ten feet, over the birth of his boy. He has been called John Walter, and the Current wishes for him many years of prosperity and usefulness.

R. F. Madera, accompanied by John Zimmerman, made a hurried trip to Carlsbad from the ranch Sunday. They discovered that one of the windmills used to pump water for the stock was not working properly and the trip was a necessity. When half-way in, their car lights went back on them and the remainder of the trip was rather strenuous, as every one knows who has had occasion to make the journey.

Mrs. A. L. Brown, End baby, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Gage, left Saturday night going to Elida, with the family of F. G. Steig, who conveyed the body of Mrs. Steig to the old home at that place for burial. Mrs. Brown is a friend of the family, and her presence on their sad errand was greatly appreciated. Returning, she stopped at Artesia for a visit with kinfolds.

Rupert Hughes in "The Old Nest" has produced an absolutely new type of picture. This beautiful production is the first to our knowledge that gives a truthful, human and unsentimentalized version of every-day life, with its comedy and its tragedy, its laughter and its tears. It will be here at the Crawford Theatre on March 8th and 9th.

Mother Merce, mother of Mrs. Sam and M. L. Davis and Oscar Merce, has been quite poorly for several days, and does not improve as they would wish. She is upwards of 85 years of age.

DEATH OF MRS. E. G. STEIG
Mrs. Barbara Steig, wife of Fred G. Steig, died at the Sisters Hospital Thursday morning, February 23, 1923, of an internal cancer, from which she had been a great sufferer for a long time. She was brought to the Sisters' Hospital over two months ago, that she might have the benefit of expert physicians and nurses, but it was early seen that no improvement could be expected in her case, she growing gradually worse until death relieved her of her great pain, and the wasted body sank into rest.

She leaves her husband, and a son, Fred Jr., and a young daughter, Miss Lillian, to mourn her who was the light of the home. A devoted Christian wife, mother and friend, her memory is blessed in the home and the neighborhood of Elida, which she cheered with her kindly ministrations to all who were in need or sorrow. Her husband and children have been unremitting in their attentions, and the local lodge of Rebekahs have done all in their power to lighten the long hours of pain and anguish, which are now ended. She was a little over fifty-five years of age.

The body was taken on the north-bound train to the old home at Elida last Friday night, where it was laid to rest Sunday afternoon. The sympathy of many friends is with the family.

A large number of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs accompanied the remains to the train Friday night, and many expressions of sympathy and respect were heard. Floral offerings from the Carlsbad lodges of Odd Fellows and Rebekahs were placed on the casket at Roswell.

OTIS NEWS

Reverend Mahan will preach at Otis next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. We will be glad to see a good crowd present.

Mrs. Smith, of Los Angeles, California, mother of Walter and Carl Smith, and Mrs. Allen Tipton, is visiting in Loving this week at the home of her son, Walter. She has been spending some time with her children and with old friends in the neighborhood, she having lived in the lower valley for a number of years before moving to the Golden State.

The Coterie Club met with Mrs. Roy Worley yesterday afternoon.

Will Morgan is carrying his hand in bandages, caused by carelessness while he was assisting in threshing.

Maggie and Elsie Kircher, daughters of Mrs. Pete Calvani, returned from Ardmore, Oklahoma, last Saturday, where they have been since last September, hurrying their return somewhat in order that they might be present at the Fessler-Grand wedding, Tuesday.

BORN:—Dainty announcement cards to friends in this city announce the safe arrival of Miss Betty Rose Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Brown of 1106 Victoria Ave., Corona, California. The baby weighed eight pounds, and her birth occurred the 15th of February. The parents are well known in this city. Mrs. Brown being before her marriage, Miss Robena Summerfield, a graduate of our schools, and a girl whom everybody loved. Mr. Brown is also popular with Carlsbad people, being a ball player of National reputation. May all good attend the little girl and her parents.

Mrs. Hunick has received word from her niece, Mrs. Fred Kent, of Lamy, New Mexico, that her husband, Fred Kent, was fatally injured while drilling a well on their homestead near that place. He was taken at once to Santa Fe, for expert treatment, but died the day following the injury, and was buried there last Saturday. The message did not give any particulars about how the accident occurred, but later word will likely be received. The young couple were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hunick in the Otis section, about six years ago, and have three small children, who are now fatherless. Mrs. Hunick hopes to have her niece and children come to Carlsbad to make their home.

Mrs. Elizabeth Netherlin died at her home in Artesia last week. She was well known in this city, and was a relative of Hon. Robert C. Dew, who attended the funeral. The mother, daughter and one sister of Mrs. Netherlin were confined to their beds suffering from flu, which prevented their attendance at the services. This gives some idea of the prevalence of the disease which, however, is said to be decreasing in numbers and severity.

Frank and Joseph Shanter, brothers of Mrs. L. F. Diefendorf, who made a visit to Dr. and Mrs. Diefendorf when they were living on their farm south of town, sixteen years ago, on their way from San Diego, California, where they spent the winter, have been visiting their relatives here. The home of the gentlemen is in Boonville, Missouri, for which place they left Saturday morning.

Mrs. W. C. Sellars had had recent word from Mr. Sellars who is now at the home of her son, Dr. Harry Sellars, in Ottumwa, Iowa, which is very encouraging. His health seems to be gradually improving and his friends in Carlsbad are anxiously awaiting word of his complete recovery.

Mrs. L. H. Perry, of Spur, Texas, came in last Monday from her home for a few days stay at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lavery.

Tom Gray was in from his ranch home Thursday, on a business visit.

HEARING THE SOUND THEREOF

W. R. Carter, a former resident of Hagerman, was in town Tuesday. He had been visiting his brother, E. T. Carter, at Carlsbad, and stopped off here to give the place the once-over. Since leaving Hagerman Mr. Carter has resided in several states and has finally drifted back to Kentucky, where he has bought an estate formerly the home of his grandfather. But even that does not wholly satisfy Mr. Carter, and like the wind, he continues to bloweth where he listeth, and you hear the sound thereof but cannot tell from whence he comes nor whither he goeth. The Messenger does not rehome, but we do know he continueth to blow, but his many friends here were delighted to hear the sound thereof. His daughter, Miss Kittie, has attained her life ambition and is now an "old maid" school teacher. And we will wager she is a good one, too.—Hagerman Messenger.

R. M. Thorne and Victor L. Minter returned Saturday from a week spent in Albuquerque, where they attended the sessions of the Masonic Grand Lodge.

The dinner at the Mercer home last Sunday, was in the usual style of this accomplished hostess, and was partaken of by Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Grant, and little son, Mr. West-terter, Miss Mollie Simpson, Mrs. A. Moore, the Fisher family, and Misses Love, Spratt, and Angell. The hearty welcome and unaffected hospitality shown at this home is surely appreciated by all who have had the good fortune to share it.

Bill Campbell was taken to his home from the Eddy County Hospital, where he has been under treatment for a long time. He is improving slowly but surely and when the weather settles, Bill will be around again.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Clark, who came here a few weeks ago from Centralia, Kansas, are now living in the Ralph cottage on Main street. Mr. Clark is doing nicely at this time having gained something like ten pounds in the last six weeks.

M. M. Ferguson, of Davenport Iowa, is in the city, coming on a matter of business and combining a little pleasure as well.

Carpenters are busy at work remodeling the building used as the old postoffice for many years, and will soon have it in shape for the new business which is said to have rented it. According to rumor, it will be occupied by a "Piggy-Wiggy" grocery store from Denver.

Reverend Phillips, in charge of the Methodist Mexican work, came down from his home at Roswell, Friday afternoon, and remained in Carlsbad over Sunday. He conducted services at the Mexican church on Sunday afternoon, and also preached to a fine congregation at the local Methodist church in the morning of the same day.

Friday being the birthday anniversary of Miss Frances Etter, a number of her young friends were anxious to observe it in some way and accordingly asked permission of Mrs. Etter to spend the evening at her home. The evening was pleasantly spent in dancing, with cards, for those who did not care to dance, and lovely refreshments rounded out the happy affair. Those present were: Misses Frances Etter, Elizabeth and Katherine Purdy, Marynet Reed, Henrietta Dille and Ova Butcher; Messrs J. L. Emerson, Carl Wester, Ned White, Herbert Hinson, Francis Perry, and Roscoe Etter.

Mrs. H. H. Dille entertained four tables of bridge players at her home on North Canal street Tuesday afternoon. Despite the inclement weather, the ladies had a delightful time at their favorite game in the home of their friend.

LESSON FOR MARCH 5

JEHOVAH'S MERCY TO A HEATHEN CITY

LESSON TEXT—Jonah 3:1-10.
GOLDEN TEXT—Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.—Isa. 55:7.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Isa. 45:20-22; 49:1-7; Jonah 1:1-2:10; Mal. 1:10, 11; John 3:16.

PRIMARY TOPIC—God Sends Jonah on an Errand.
JUNIOR TOPIC—How God Spared a Wicked City.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jonah's Missionary Adventure.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Missionary Teaching of the Book of Jonah.

That the book of Jonah is historical we believe for the following reasons: First, its record and use in the Scriptures. That the writers of the Bible intended the impression of its historicity is without the shadow of a doubt. The suggestion that it is a parable is absolutely gratuitous. Second, the unbroken testimony of tradition among the Jews is that it is historic. Third, the testimony of Jesus Christ (Matt. 12:39-41). The words of Jesus Christ are final.

1. Jonah's Second Commission (vv. 1, 2).

When called the first time to go to Nineveh, he found the task too great for him. For his unfaithfulness, he was chastised. He repented and God restored his commission. The Lord said to him, "Preach the preaching that I bid thee" (v. 2). God knows how he wants His work done. Happy is the missionary, minister, Sunday-school teacher, who preaches God's Word just as He gave it.

II. Jonah's Preaching (vv. 3, 4).

1. His field (v. 3). "Nineveh was an exceeding great city." Not only was the city large, but its inhabitants were noted for their cruelty.

2. His message (v. 4). "Yet forty days and Nineveh shall be overthrown." This means that forty days were given by God for repentance ere the judgment would fall. God is long-suffering, not willing that any should perish, but that all should repent (II Pet. 3:9). Though He is merciful, yet there is a limitation to it. He says, "Yet forty days."

III. The Repentance of Nineveh (vv. 5-10).

1. They believed God (v. 5). They believed that God was speaking to them through the prophet about their sins and impending judgment.

2. They proclaimed a fast (vv. 5-8). The king and people joined sincerely in this movement. The call was for them to turn away from their sins. Their penitence was genuine, for they not merely put on sackcloth, the visible sign of mourning, but they cried to God (v. 8).

3. They reasoned that God would repent (v. 9). Though they had no assurance that God would have mercy, yet they reasoned that the sending of a prophet and the giving of a time before the fall of doom implied that God would be merciful if they repented. They were wise in so doing. We today know that God will have mercy if we repent (Acts 3:19). What utter folly to go on in sin in the face of the assurance that God will judge.

5. God's mercy shown (v. 10). "God saw their works that they turned from their evil way." God's eye is omniscient. Wherever there is a soul who is turning from sin in penitence, He sees. No one has ever wept over sin unnoticed by God. God rejoices when a sinner repents (Luke 15:10).

In the Book of Jonah we have portrayed the typical history of Israel:

"1. Jonah was called to a world mission, and so was Israel. (2) Jonah at first refused compliance with the divine purpose and plan, and so did Israel. (3) Jonah was punished by being cast into the sea, and so was Israel by being dispersed among the nations. (4) Jonah was not lost, but rather especially preserved during this part of his experience, and Israel is not being assimilated by the nations, but being kept for God. (5) Jonah, repentant and cast out by the fish, is restored to life and action again, and Israel, repentant and cast out by the nations, shall be restored to her former national position. (6) Jonah, obedient, goes upon his mission to Nineveh, and Israel obedient, shall ultimately engage in her original mission to the world. (7) Jonah is successful in that his message is acted upon to the salvation of Nineveh, so Israel shall be blessed in that she shall be used to the conversion of the whole world."—Dr. Gray's Commentary.

The Apostles Work Wonders.
And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people. And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.—Acts 5:12-14.

Death in Life.
For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might make manifest in our mortal flesh. So then death worketh in us, but life in you.—II Corinthians 4:11-12.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too. At all druggists. E 55

LOCAL NEWS.

An alarm of fire about dark Monday, called the department to the north end of town where one of the rent houses belonging to Tom Pope had caught from a defective flue. The fire was quickly subdued by the aid of the department with a small loss.

A. C. Crozier, of Lakewood, was a business visitor to the city the first of the week, and stopped at the Palace while in town.

R. B. Knowles and son were in town Saturday from the plains country, where they had been working on their telephone line, stringing new wires and otherwise improving the system.

Mrs. George Brantley and little son, Draper, are among the sick in Carlsbad this week.

G. E. McDonald, district manager of the Woodmen of the World, with offices at Albuquerque, has returned from Hot Springs where he attended the largest meeting of the organization ever held in the state. Fifty-four candidates were taken into the order making the membership at that place over 100. A new camp will be formed at Gallup soon.

Judge D. G. Grantham, who has been spending some time in El Paso, Texas, where he is engaged in legal work, is expected in a few days to be in attendance at District Court, which will convene the 13th instant. Judge Grantham has a number of cases on for trial at that time and his presence is needed.

Starting the first of the month, Eddy county has a full time health officer, in the person of Dr. R. E. Davis, of Pueblo, Colorado. The appointment was made by the county commissioners on recommendation of the public health bureau. The appointment is only for the remainder of the year, but it is hoped that by that time the benefits of the service will have been so apparent, that it will continue.

Owing to the fact that the Band Concert was not advertised but a small attendance was present Sunday afternoon. The music, however, was all that could have been desired, and lovers of band music speak in glowing terms of the improvement noticed in the playing.

Studebaker

A SIX for the Price of a Four!

You can buy a Studebaker LIGHT-SIX today at a four-cylinder price!

But you cannot buy Studebaker LIGHT-SIX performance in ANY Four.

You get more for your money in the Studebaker LIGHT-SIX than in any other car in the thousand-dollar class. Because:

- (1) Studebaker had the biggest volume in its history in 1921.
- (2) Studebaker sales in 1921 were 29 per cent greater than in 1920 while the total of all other makes was 45 per cent less than in 1920.
- (3) Studebaker is the world's largest builder of six-cylinder cars—builds nothing but sixes.

Studebaker builds the LIGHT-SIX for less than it costs most manufacturers to turn out a four, because it is produced complete in the Studebaker plants.

The average list-price of the better-known fours is $1200. This does not include the high-priced fours. The Studebaker LIGHT-SIX Touring Car lists at only $1045.

Studebaker builds economically and sells at a low price because of continuous large volume, efficient production and skillful purchase of materials.

The new low price of the LIGHT-SIX was established without lowering the quality one iota. Its intrinsic value is unsurpassed in the industry, regardless of price. Today's price of the Studebaker LIGHT-SIX is the lowest at which it has ever been sold.

CAR MORTALITY REMARKABLY LOW

At the outset of 1921 various authorities agreed that at least 600,000 automobiles would be scrapped during the year. National Automobile Chamber of Commerce, and other production figures for the year compared with the increase in registrations show this total to be well under the four hundred thousand mark. Cars are delivering exceptional service. Instead of being discarded at the end of the estimated five-year period, they are delivering at least six years service. The total production of cars and trucks in 1921 was 1,575,686. Registrations increased 1,229,023. It is reasonable to believe that the difference between these two figures or 346,663, represents the number of cars that were junked last year.

from Hart Schaffner & Marx

THERE'S a certain joy about being the first to wear the new season's styles; one feels a leader, not a follower.

To those men, especially those young men who are most particular about the cut and quality of their clothes, we'd be glad to show 1922 models we've selected with the sole idea of providing the most style and highest quality for a given amount of money.

LOVING NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Fessler have returned to Loving from a brief honeymoon, and will take up their residence in the agent's quarters near the depot. Many friends join in wishing them many joys in life as they journey together.

Several people have been quite ill in and around Loving for the past week, including Mr. G. R. Howard, Mae Wright Dickson, Alvin Allinger, Weldon Stephens and Mary Lee Donaldson.

Mrs. Walter Smith is entertaining his mother who is on a visit here from California.

Tom Ball has started grubbing on the Tipton place north of the J. B. Stamp farm.

C. V. Rosson was the recent purchaser of 196 head of fine calves, having bought them from Mrs. Barber of Carlsbad.

There will be a sunbeam program at the Baptist church next Sunday evening. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

The Loving Basket ball team met the Otis team last Friday, defeating them by a score of 8 to 6.

The P. T. A. held a very interesting colonial social in Loving on Washington's birthday, clearing something like thirty dollars.

Brewd Cole was the recipient of quite a severe burn last week when he poured some kerosene in the stove, being unaware of the red coals therein, in the act of building a fire.

Little Kester Tarbutton wandered away from home recently, and for a little while, was the cause of no little amount of worry and anxiety on the part of his parents. However, with the kind assistance of neighbors, so characteristic of Loving people, he was soon located and returned.

Miss Vera Nornhauser spent last week end with Miss Ruth Hepler.

Mr. Frank Ross seems to have fallen a victim to "spring fever," since he is industriously scratching up his yard and the adjoining vacant lots; fencing, laying new cement walks, and preparing in general for the harvest of 1922.

Mr. Templeton, of Roswell, who is employed at the cotton seed oil mill at this place, had the misfortune of falling while at his work and broke his arm.

Hershel Hardy is seriously ill with some kind of stomach trouble. The cotton seed oil mill is now running full blast and turning out hull and cake on schedule time.

They had some trouble at first with a bursted pump and when that was put in shape the cold wave hit them and they were unable to get the fuel oil to run through the pipes to the engine in account of the freeze, but they are straightened out now.

CARD OF THANKS

We earnestly wish to express our deep appreciation for the kindness and condolence extended to us, by our loving friends, during our recent hour of bereavement.

MRS. H. A. WISDOM AND CHILDREN.

Next Wednesday afternoon will be held the regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. of this city, and prominent men of this place and Artesia are expected to be present and address the ladies on matters of interest to them. All interested are invited to attend whether members of the Union or not. The meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church, at 3 P. M., with refreshments at the close.

A bazaar will be held by the ladies of the local Christian church the 18th of this month, which will be two weeks from to-morrow. The full particulars of the affair, which will be something a little different from ordinary bazaars, will be given in the Current of next week, as well as the place of holding.

R. L. Slaughter, a prominent cottonman of Texas, is in town this week.

SOCIAL SERVICE MEETING.

The Social Service Department of the Methodist church, held its first meeting for the year with the superintendent, Mrs. McCollum at her home last Thursday. A literary program interspersed with good music furnished the entertainment for the afternoon. At the close of which a dainty salad course was served to forty ladies. Following is the program:

Opening song with Mrs. Willard Bates at the piano.

Devotional, Mrs. Mudgett and McCollum.

An African Story, Mrs. Tinley. Piano duet, Misses Eleanor Flowers and Mary Frances Joyce.

Study of Havana Cuba, Mrs. Hatfield.

Brief Cuban Story, Mrs. Joyce.

Vocal Solo, Miss Higgins, with Miss Linn, accompanist.

Family Life in Chihuahua, Mrs. Grantham.

Reading, Miss Shepherd.

In an interview with Joseph Wertheim on cotton and regarding his talk made at the last Chamber of Commerce luncheon, a few changes and additions have been made regarding the data.

First: Japan's imports of American cotton in 1921 was 1,097,000 bales and not 1,927,000.

Second: That a total consumption of Japan and Germany is expected to reach not less than nine and one-half million bales. And even if the United States should have a ten million bale crop, Mr. Wertheim estimates the staple crop will bring 20 cents per pound.

Third: England is omitted from the figures because of financial and industrial depression.

Fourth: Consumption for the last six months both exports and domestic were 5,595,000 bales, or at the rate of 13,191,454 bales for the year ending July 31, 1922. Taking the total carry-over in this country July 31, 1921 of 6,374,000, the total available for this year is 14,349,000 bales. If from this be taken the 13,191,454 bales, the indicated consumption July 31, 1922 and exports for the cotton year there will be 1,158,000 bales against 3,448,000, July 31, 1920.

Fifth: It is on these figures that I base my prediction of a strong market and higher prices for cotton this fall.

"The Old Nest," the Rupert Hughes photoplay produced by Goldwyn, in which the camera has caught the very souls of an average American family and transferred them to the screen without a single false note is coming here next week. A photoplay that is making screen history, and will live as long as there are human hearts. It will be shown at the Crawford Theatre March 8th and 9th.

DEATH OF CHARLES C. AYRES

The death of Charles C. Ayres occurred Wednesday morning at 6:30 at the home of himself and sister, on South Alameda street, from tuberculosis, after a lingering illness. He came here from Quanah, Texas, about ten months ago, and was an inmate of the hospital for some weeks; later his sister, Miss Bertha, came here and kept house for him and he seemed in a fair way to recover, or at least, get much better, but took the flu about ten days ago, and sank rapidly until death came. He was about 23 years of age, and had been in the service where he contracted tuberculosis. With him at the time of his death were his faithful, devoted sister, a brother, R. L. Ayres, from Quanah, Texas, and another brother who lives in Roswell.

The remains were embalmed and shipped Wednesday to the old home at Quanah where they will be interred, accompanied by the brothers and sister. During their ten months stay in our midst, they made many friends, who regret the early passing of this fine young man and extend sympathy to the bereaved.

Pecos Boy Scouts were re-organized Wednesday evening at the Methodist church with a membership of 25, the ages being 12 to 19 years. Joe Humphrey was chosen Scoutmaster.

Bert Rawlins, Scoutmaster for the Carlsbad, New Mexico, Scouts, was present at the organization meeting and addressed those present upon scout work. He is one of the pioneers in Scouting in New Mexico. He stated that Carlsbad Scouts would be hosts in July to troops from 15 or 20 New Mexico and Texas cities and towns at an encampment which will last two weeks and possibly a month. ## Importance of Church Attendance

Let us assemble ourselves in the church of God, when services are on.
God has promised to reveal himself in a very special way, in His sanctuary.
It is in those sacred precincts that our lives are corrected, and reshaped.
New resolves are made, vows are strongest when made there.
You Need the Church.
