LATE Monday Joe Church of the Bearings, left for his old New York home. He was accompanied by his brother who is a brother after him. Joe said he would return in the spring. We hope so.

ON Thursday evening the little family of Mr. Reynolds, our new and highly respected banker, arrived in town. For the winter they will bivouac in the residence immediately in the rear of Ridge way's store.

LAST Tuesday Brothman regaled his bairnies with a turkey dinner and a catfish supper. John never fails supplying his table with the best the market affords and if our market does not provide anything especially toothsome he imports it.

NEXT Sunday a.m., at 11 o'clock, the Congregational pastor will preach in the Congregational Church, by special request, the funeral sermon of the late Thomas W. Corey.

In the evening at 7, the subject of discourse at the Congregational Church will be "Belshazzar's Feast," a temperance sermon. All are invited.

THE R. R. surveyors are working their way here from Pinos Wells. They expect to take their Thanksgiving dinner in White Oaks. A hearty welcome is in store for them. Their appearance will enhance the appetites of all our people and give a zest to that day for roasting above and below in our grotto and measurement the magnitude presented by the President in his proclamation.

Congratulate us—we are going to have a R. R. post office.
