DETAILS OF CASE

Facts in the Trial of Mrs. Sarah J. Smith at Los Lunas.

SHE WAS ACQUITTED

Special Correspondence.
Los Lunas, N. M., Wednesday, March 18.—The court early on Tuesday took up the case of the territory against Sarah J. Smith, charged with arson. The offense is alleged to have been committed on the 29th day of October, 1903, in the Metropolitan hotel, Albuquerque, which was then being conducted by the defendant. The case as made by the territory was to the effect that about 6 o'clock in the morning of said day some ten distinct fires were discovered set in different rooms of the building, ranging from a fair sized blaze in one of the rooms to mere scorchings in several others. The character of the fires indicates that the person who started them believed in kerosene as a combustible, as oil was found in each room. In several the fires having been started up on the beds. The usual result, however, was not obtained, as in nearly every case the fires were ineffectual or so closely slipped in the bud by the efficient fire department, under the direction of Chief Ruppe, that they did not more than get started. The witnesses for the prosecution were G. N. Marrow, who testified that he was the first on the scene, having been down to meet the early train that morning; Chief Ruppe, F. H. Kent, George E. Brower and several others, who testified to having smelled and tasted of the kerosene, and of many damaging facts against the defendant. Henry Marvay, who testified that he testified to having left his room that morning at 8 or 9 o'clock to go to his restaurant nearby, and that when he returned during the excitement of the fire found evidence of a fire having been started in his room. The territory also proved that not less than five kerosene lamps were discovered empty and wet with oil and with the burners not screwed on. The defendant denied that there was not more than one lamp in the building, and that she had no oil on the premises. No attempt was made by the defendant to explain how the fires were started, the defense being that Mrs. Smith knew no more about the fires than anyone else, and that her husband on getting up at his usual time that morning placed his hand on the wall and discovered that it was hot and at once called to his wife, the defendant, that the house was on fire, when he rushed out to give the alarm. The defendant testified that she had a colored porter (who died suddenly a short time after the fire), who had charge of the place after 9 p. m., and rather inferred that he might be the guilty party; she also testified to other strangers in the house that night, trace of whom was lost. The motive attempted to be shown was the financial gain to the defendant, the territory showing by Deekmann and Brewer that the defendant had taken out ten policies aggregating several thousand dollars over the real value of the insured property in the building. The defendant had a very plausible explanation for taking out the two policies, saying that Mr. Deekmann had transferred his policy, which she carried in the Roosevelt house and having brought it to her unsolicited after execution, and that Calvin Whiting, who was an insurance agent and also agent for the building, which was owned by the Cooperative Building and Loan association, agreed to have a rear stairway built if she would give him a policy, and that when he had the stairs built she kept her word and gave him a policy he knowing of the Deekmann policy. It appeared on the evidence that the companies adjusted the loss by which Mrs. Smith received some $40 and A. Viviana $50. The case was submitted to the jury at 10 o'clock on Tuesday night and the jury is about half an hour returned a verdict of not guilty. Col. Dobson represented the defendant and Mr. Clancy the territory. The verdict was somewhat of a surprise, though the evidence upon which it was sought to tie the crime to the defendant was purely circumstantial.

The court today tried the case of the territory against Antonio Estrada, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty in a few minutes. The defendant was convicted of a criminal assault upon a young girl in her home in Coholito.

Historic Temple's Changes.
Paris, March 17.—The historic old Temple, once the prison of the Bourbons, and of late years given over to dealers in old clothes, has now added another chapter to its interesting career. Today there was formally opened in the big building a great fair known as the "Foire de Paris," for which preparations have been making for many months. The fair is devoted to an exhibition of the latest novelties in toys and knick-knacks, for which Paris is celebrated. In order properly to commemorate its institution at the Temple the minister of Tornado in Texas.

Dallas, Texas, March 17.—A tornado struck the village of Noland today, demolishing a number of houses and doing much damage. One person was killed.

In Basketball Contest.
Chicago, March 17.—Twenty crack basketball teams are in Chicago to contest for the championship honors of the Central Amateur Athletic union, the tournament to begin this evening in the gymnasium of the Central Y. M. C. A. and continue until the end of the week. The visiting five represent colleges and athletic organizations in various parts of Minnesota, Iowa, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan.

F. M. CLUTE

DEPUTY GREAT INCOME OF RED MEN DEAD AT ACME, ARIZONA.

Col. J. G. Aubright, who is assisting F. M. Clute in organizing Red Men lodges throughout the southwest, sends word to Mrs. Aubright that F. M. Clute, deputy great tribune of the Order of Red Men, died at Acme, Arizona, a mining town near Kingman, Monday night of heart failure. The deceased was a resident of Las Vegas, where a wife and daughter now await the particulars of his death and the arrival of his remains.

Popular Niece of King Edward.
London, March 17.—Princess Victoria Patricia of Connaught received a legion of gifts today on the occasion of her eighteenth birthday. The young princess, who is considered one of the most popular and attractive of King Edward's nieces, will make her debut in court next week. Several times she has been mentioned as the prospective bride of the German Crown Prince or of some other young prince of high degree, but those rumors have come to naught and so far as is known the princess is still heart whole and fancy free.

FATAL EXPLOSION AT WINSLOW, ARIZ.

A dispatch from Winslow received here last night stated that Foreman Tom Williams, of the Winslow Santa Fe shops, had been killed by an explosion, and Machinist Pritchard and Taylor were probably fatally injured.

The men were engaged in heating a piston spider in order to detach it from the piston rod, when the air pressure caused the rod to explode, driving fragments of iron through the body of Williams, killing him instantly. Both his legs were broken and his body was badly mutilated. Pritchard also received a broken leg and other injuries that it is feared will be fatal, while Taylor's head was cut in several places.

Foreman Williams went to Winslow from Los Angeles, where he was employed by the Santa Fe. Pritchard is from Little Rock, Arkansas.

All are members of the International Association of Machinists.

Wisconsin Republicans

Madison, Wis., March 17.—Members of the republican state central committee rounded up today in response to the call of Chairman Bryant for the purpose of discussing the time and place for holding the state convention. It is expected that there will be only one convention for the dual purpose of nominating a state ticket and electing delegates to the national convention in Chicago. The middle of May appears to be in most favor as a time for holding the convention.

JAPAN GENERAL EDUCATED IN AMERICA

New Brunswick, N. J., March 17.—Among the Japanese officers who have received their education in America Baron Kodama is perhaps the most distinguished among the army chiefs in his country. Some thirty years ago he was a student in Rutgers college, and is remembered by many of the older persons here. At that time the sight of a native of Japan or China was quite uncommon, especially as a student in a college, and for this reason the boy attracted considerable attention. It was known that Kodama belonged to one of the very old, powerful and wealthy Japanese families, but it was quite apparent from the time of his entering Rutgers that he was impressed favorably with the democratic, rough and ready ways of American students. He was a good natured young man and very quickly made friends with his fellow students.

For a time Kodama had great difficulty in speaking the English language, although he seemed to understand it well. But before his course came to a close he could speak it fluently. At the time of entering Rutgers he was a little more than seven-

WORK EIGHT HOURS

Machinists and Boilermakers at the Local Shops Receive Important Order.

UGLY RUMORS IN CIRCULATION

For sometime a report has been in circulation, among the machinists and boilermakers of the local Santa Fe railway shops, that an order would soon be promulgated from either the Chicago or Topeka headquarters of the company, ordering a reduction in the working force here, or that the men in the two departments would be put on eight hours work instead of ten hours.

The order came, as expected, this morning and was promptly posted.

Hereafter the boilermakers and machinists will report for work at 8 o'clock a. m. and cease labor at 5 p. m.

The employees of the car department will put in the usual ten hours.

The company, so it is understood, state that the order is in the nature of retrenchment, and that some move was absolutely necessary to curtail heavy expenses.

Ugly rumors reached the business center of the city that a strike will result therefrom, but a telephone message from the shops this afternoon gives the information that everything is quiet down there, and that a majority of the men, as far as the surface now indicates, will accept the situation.

The Citizen was informed, however, that some of the men affected by the reduction in time will quit the service of the company here and seek positions elsewhere.

BACK FROM CAHUAHUA

Mr. and Mrs. Greer, Mrs. Chadbourne and Attorney Wilkerson Returned.

TALK ABOUT ELECTRIC RAILROAD

W. H. Greer, president of the Albuquerque Traction company, and T. M. Wilkerson, attorney for the company, accompanied by Mrs. Greer and her sister, Mrs. M. O. Chadbourne, returned this morning from a week's visit to Chihuahua, Mexico, where the gentlemen were on business and the ladies on pleasure.

Mr. Greer is probably the busiest man in New Mexico. Besides his business interests here, he is manager for the Victoria land and cattle company, having cattle ranging the broadest reaches of the territory. Last night he sat up to see a ranch foreman at El Rincón and another at Elado, and as a consequence arrived here this morning very much done up from loss of sleep.

This afternoon, just after luncheon hour, a Citizen reporter found Mr. Greer lying on a cot in his room at the Alvarado in quest of rest. He said: "You can tell the people that nine cars of steel and two cars of poles for the street railroad have arrived, but the real construction of the road will not begin until all material necessary to the completion of the road is on hand. The generators, wire, cars, motors and lamps were ordered at the same time the steel was ordered, and are expected daily, but the late arrival of any one of these

RAILROAD NOTES

T. D. Leeb has been appointed attorney for the Santa Fe at El Paso.

A. J. Post has signed his willingness to try his hand at firing. He was formerly a machinist in the local shops.

Engineer and Mrs. James F. Campbell of El Paso are visiting in the city of Santa Fe. Their arrival was announced the other day.

Brakeman Jackson, who lost two fingers of his left hand at Springer last June, will go back into the service of the Santa Fe April 1, on a passenger run.

Division Master Mechanic Todd announces that there will be a lay-off in the San Bernardino shop force soon on account of the dry year. Just how many men will be affected is not known.

P. J. Maloney, recently of Gallup, is now firing out of Albuquerque.

Superintendent E. J. Gibson was in the city yesterday, and with his family, are guests at the Alvarado.

Engineer Frederick who was suddenly stricken with some sort of a disease of the brain last Tuesday, died at the Alamogordo hospital.

Manager Pritchard states that the lunch counter of the Harvey house at San Marcial, is going to be remodeled with new paper, paints, lights, etc.

Chief Engineer A. G. Kennedy of the Santa Fe Central railway, has returned to Santa Fe from a trip to this city.

The concert company connected with the Santa Fe library system is the attraction at the opera house, San Marcial, next Wednesday evening.

Switch engine 2188, which is undergoing repairs in the local shops, is being repaired, has been released and is again butting cars about the local yards.

Hutton and Brown have filed their complaint in the district court at Las Cruces to foreclose their lien on the Southern Pacific, involving many thousands of dollars.

The machinists' pay at Alamogordo was raised from $28 to 40c per hour. It is also reported that helpers at these shops have been given a very nice increase in wages.

The flaming headlight says: Conductor Sweet has been making the Albuquerque City passenger.

The freight business of the Santa Fe railway at Santa Fe is quite satisfactory and larger than it was for the corresponding period for the last year. This indicates that business at the Capital City is not decreasing.

The coroner's jury investigating the collision on the Santa Fe at Las Cruces, recently, have returned a verdict concerning the negro porter-brakeman, one severely censuring the company for employing one man for a dual position.

The 225, one of the Santa Fe type of deapods, is going through the breaking in process at the San Bernardino shops, and will be assigned to duty on the Arizona division in a few days. It is an oil burner.

Charles A. Brown, trainmaster of the El Paso & Northwestern, and Miss Irene Rupert, were married at El Paso the other day. Mr. Brown was at one time in charge of the telegraph office at Lordsburg and later was chief dispatcher for that division.

The Hutton Gazette says: Mrs. Palmer McAlister, who has been visiting relatives in Stansbury, Mo., is expected to arrive in El Paso the latter part of the week and will spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. O. Willett, before continuing her journey to Wagon Mound to join her husband, who has charge of the gravel run for the Santa Fe at that point.

W. W. Voaley, a former brakeman employed by the El Paso & Northwestern railway entered suit in the United States court at El Paso for $25,000 damages. He alleges that while climbing a ladder on a freight car at Rodas station on February 26, the hand hold broke, and he fell to the ground. He alleges that as a result of the injuries he has lost considerable flesh.

It is stated on reliable authority that the United States supreme court may not hand down the anxiously looked for decision in the Northern Railroad case during the present term and probably not until after the presidential election. The court will on March 2 take the regular Easter recess for three weeks, and the term will end on the first Monday in June. The court will not reconvene after that time until the regular October term.

The Denver & Rio Grande, Colorado & Southern and Colorado Midland railways have signified their intention to furnish many large and handsome scenic pictures to be utilized in covering surplus space in the Colorado state horticultural exhibit at the World's Fair. In addition to these views the horticultural department is preparing some nicely mounted photographs of Colorado orchards to go with the exhibits.

The machinists at Alamogordo in the employ of the El Paso & Northwestern Railway have just been given a substantial increase by the company. The raise will amount to two cents per hour on straight time and will now stand at 38 cents as heretofore. It is not understood as yet whether there will be a raise in the wages of the other men employed in the shops or not, but it is thought very probable that there will be a raise very soon, covering the brakemen and other shop men.

It is to be remembered that the order promulgated recently by General Manager Mudge of the Santa Fe is in effect at the local shops. This order provides that no one can work as long as a brakeman against wages stands. Sometimes the wages of employees have been garnished for a small amount when pay was certain. Probably more care will be exercised when it is understood that the garnishment means the loss of employment to the victim. Also employees will be more careful in the matter of permitting any occasion for garnishment.

run, several trips last week relieving Conductor Grims, who has been taking a lay off.

Master Mechanic N. L. Bean left Saturday night for San Bernardino and Los Angeles, Cal., where he was called on official business to the general offices. He expects to be absent from the city several days.

The sign of the old Santa Fe station building at San Marcial will soon be covered with a nice growth of grass, and this attractive feature is to be furthered by the placing of a neat iron fence about the oasis.

Senator W. H. Andrews, president of the Santa Fe Central railway, is expected to reach the territory tonight or tomorrow from Pittsburgh, Pa. He is coming via Washington where he consulted Senator Quay upon statehood matters.

Mrs. C. M. Campbell, wife of the Wells-Fargo agent in Los Angeles, passed through the city the other afternoon on her way home from an eastern visit. The Campbells are currently stationed in Las Vegas, where they have many friends.

Al Graves the courteous brakeman on the Santa Fe passenger train, who suffered a severely bruised leg, caused by a fall from the top of a car, several months ago, went to Topeka, Mo. other day to enter the hospital there, where he expects to undergo a surgical operation to remove pieces of splintered bone from the injured member, which now retard the wound from properly healing.

Fireman C. W. Ketchum, who has been spending the time for the past three weeks in the Santa Fe hospital at Las Vegas, is getting about again. Though he is still suffering from the broken state resulting from a fall from the running board of his "ghost."

Conductor J. M. Welser, who recently returned to Las Vegas from Mexico, reports having met there Conductor J. Murray, Conductor Snyder, W. H. Coleman, Mike Jones and others. All doing well in the railroad service, but pining to be in the land of the free.

Business on the Deming and Silver City branch of the Santa Fe railroad seems to be picking up. Superintendent McNally of the Rio Grande division has ordered an engine to El Paso as "pusher" for freight trains going over the hill.

N. M. Rice, general storekeeper for the Santa Fe, with office at Topeka, was in the city yesterday accompanied by his stenographer, E. H. Bartlett. Mr. Rice stopped off while returning from a trip over the coast lines, and continued east last night on passenger train No. 8.

H. L. McCance of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, auditor of the Santa Fe Central Railway company, and the New Mexico Fuel and Iron company, is expected to arrive in Santa Fe tonight and will remain there for several weeks to audit the accounts at the local offices of the above companies.

The Alamogordo Journal says: Thomas L. Wilson, fourth grand vice president of the International Association of Machinists, came to Alamogordo on the limited and expressed himself well pleased in his way Alamogordo, notwithstanding that all of the different grand lodge officers were against us.

A Fine Lecture—The lecture delivered by Mrs. Bertha Kuntz Baker at the reading rooms Saturday night attracted quite a gathering of railroad men and their families, and was greatly enjoyed. The subject of the address was "Reading and Interpretation of Great Authors," and is a subject that is of general interest, and one that should receive more interest than it does. A speaker was entirely familiar with it and those who were present were no doubt greatly benefited by her talk. Mrs. Baker left this morning for the west.

Railway Signal Association—A meeting of the Railway Signal association will be held at the Great Northern hotel in Chicago. The question proposed for discussion are the following in automatic signaling:

1. What is a signal? For example, when an engine or a trainman reports encountering a caution or a stop indication which was one to "train block," "open switch," "broken rail," "deranged equipment due to wreck," or "unknown" should such cases be reported as signal failures?
2. Should the rules require a stop at all home block signals, and should a "waiting time" be specified? How long should the waiting be?

The Deming Headlight says: Ducks and geese are reported to be plentiful at Lake Tancos, but are rather wild from being shot so much lately. Dispatcher Saxton and a party of friends from San Marcial came down Sunday to hunt. The cook at the starry house at Simons had, as he thought, the good luck to bag quite a number of these birds the other day; so he invited a number of his intimates, Murphy, the Chinese inspector, the village barber and a few of the best of 'em, to partake of a game supper. After the birds had been on ice for half a day or more, someone broke up the function by informing the cook that his game birds were "mud hens," and no good. So the supper was called off.

Attempt to Wreck Sunset Limited—A dastardly attempt to wreck the Sunset Limited passenger train was made Monday night at 7 o'clock at the Alamo, five miles west of this city, says the El Paso Herald.

At that hour an east bound freight train approached that switch to take the siding for the east bound Sunset Limited train. On approaching the switch stand the brakeman noticed that the split switch had been pried open and several large rocks wedged between the rails and also between

The frogs. The obstructions were removed and the train moved into the side track.

Had it been the limited that approached, this switch first a disastrous wreck would have followed with a big loss of life, as that train makes fast time at this point.

The railroad officials have a clue to the would-be train wreckers.

New Train a Beauty—The new train which has been put on the El Paso & Northwestern this week is a beauty, says the Lordsburg Liberal. The cars are all new, and were made by the Pullman company. The cars replaced were second hand when put on the road, some of them being old Wagner cars, newly painted. After being used a short time they showed that they were old. They have been put away in the Douglas yard, and will only be used in cases of emergency. The road bought three new trains, although it uses but two. The object of the extra train is to have something to use in case the cars in use need repairs or cleaning, in which case they can be taken off and put in the shop. A special train carrying Vice President James made a trip from El Paso to El Paso last week in five and one half hours.

Open Books of the Rock Island—Judgment was rendered in the circuit court by Justice Dunn against the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad company, commanding the presentation of the company's books and the minutes of the stockholders' meeting, showing the contracts and terms by which the Moore brothers and associates secured control of the Rock Island, says a Chicago dispatch.

The judgment was in the case of U. H. Verner of Boston, representing the minority stockholders, James Hamilton Lewis, counsel for the minority stockholders, stated that the decision would compel the company to let all stockholders know what profits the Moores and associates made out of the reorganization, and would also show what amount the stockholders are entitled to. John S. Miller and J. J. Herriek, representing the company, denied that Mr. Verner or those he represented would profit by the decision and took an appeal and gave bond.

ROCK ISLAND BACK OF IT

NEW ROUTE FROM MANGUM, O. TO TULAROSA, N. M.

The Rock Island Railroad company will build an extension, beginning during the present year, from Mangum, in southwestern Oklahoma, to Tularosa, N. M., a line that will penetrate fourteen Texas counties. This, according to railroad men at Guthrie, is the meaning of the charter granted during the last week here to the Oklahoma, Roswell & White Mountain Railroad company, with $5,000,000 capital stock.

Mangum is the southwestern terminus of the Rock Island in Oklahoma; it has been completed about two years and has made a very paying investment, striding as it does a rich cotton area as well as the unlimited granite deposits in Greer county. The line, chartered this week, runs south-west from Mangum and the route selected takes it through the great Texas cattle belt, as well as the rich coal field in the Mesquero Indian reservation in New Mexico. Such an extension would prove invaluable to the Rock Island and would also bring the country through which the road would be constructed many miles nearer the St. Louis and other eastern markets, and in fact, gives to some of the sections something they have never yet possessed—a railroad.

In Texas the new extension will pass through the following counties: Hardeman, Childers, Cottle, Motley, Hall, Briscoe, Floyd, Lubbock, Hale, Swisher, Lamb, Hockley, Baylor and Crockett. Entering New Mexico in Chaves county the road penetrates the Ruidoso and Carrizo river valleys, one of the richest portions of that territory, and through the Mesquero Indian reservation to Tularosa. A portion of the route through the White Mountain district, picturesque and wealthy in mineral deposits.

The distance from Mangum to the Tularosa mountains is something over 400 miles, and the first survey of the road has been made.

F. M. McNutt has the position of section foreman in Winslow yard, where W. H. Clark, who has taken a leave of absence, Mr. McNutt's place on the Hobson section has been filled by Mr. Smith.

ARIZONA TOWNS

SELIGMAN.

From Williams News.

John Packner, an old timer in these parts, was brought in from Fort Huachuca on Sunday suffering from congestion and cancer of the stomach. He is being treated by Dr. J. I. Clark who holds out little hope of his recovery on account of the patient's age. Packner is about eighty years of age.

Joe Owen was stricken with paralysis on Thursday, March 10th, at his ranch. Dr. J. I. Clark, who is stationed here during the absence of Dr. McNaught in Los Angeles, went out to the ranch on Friday and did what he could for him. On Tuesday of this week the doctor was sent for, the patient having taken a turn for the worse. He rallied slightly under stimulants but finally succumbed on Thursday morning at 5:30. Mr. Owen was well known to every one in this section and it may truly be said of him, that he was a true friend to his friends. The body was brought to town on Thursday afternoon and shipped to Williams on Friday where his remains will be interred today.

WINSLOW.

From the Mail.

Dick Hart and Frank Doss from the L. H. hills were in town the first of the week. Dick says that a sheep man does better in town than in the mountains.

The swell function of the season was that given last Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. Charles Wood, assisted by Mrs. Freeman Stewart, entertained a number of intimate friends at whist.

Bert Ward, while repairing the county post house, unearthed a complete counterfeiting outfit for coinage of $100 bills. It is a matter of speculation as to who has been or was planning to put the bad money on the market.

Julius Krenitz, of Krenitz & Wolf, have completed their irrigation ditch of fifteen miles from the Shevelon to their ranch and the water was so close to them when they got to Clear Creek flume that they had to turn the water in the river or down before they crossed Salt Slough.

Mrs. Catherine Hicks has been a six room residence erected on her property on Third street. The building will be of brick and of the latest architectural design and will cost about $5,000. Judry Bonier of Appleton, Wis., has the work in charge.

WILLIAMS.

From the News.

Mrs. Laura Crowe and Miss Nora Vail departed for a three-weeks' visit at different points in California.

Mrs. Otto Lebeck, who has been residing in Prescott, or some time past, for the benefit of her health, came in last Sunday evening for a visit at home with her husband.

H. M. Kline, formerly of Cleveland, Ohio, but late of Los Angeles, arrived here on the limited and has accepted the position of bookkeeper at Jacob Saltzman's.

John and George Baumgartner arrived here from Wickensburg, near which place they have been engaged for the past three months on their mining properties. They report the outlook for that country as exceedingly bright, there being a number of properties showing up valuable ore, but at present the camp is a little quiet.

At a business meeting of the El Paso League held at the church Wednesday evening the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. R. J. Arrey; head of spiritual department, Miss Helen Carney; Mercy and Help, Mrs. E. O. Polson; Social and Literary, Misses Nina Beck, Rose Carney and Ione Shaw; Secretary, Miss Olive Gattand; Treasurer, Albert Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cummings departed Wednesday for Redlands, Cal., where they will reside in the future. The change is made because of the failure of Mr. Cummings' health, caused by close confinement at his business. For the past three years he has been conducting the ash and coal department at the box factory and this he has disposed of to Will Finkle and Jessie Dunnea, the latter a recent arrival from Oregon. Mr. Cummings still retains his other property interests here and may return later on.

KINGMAN.

From the Miner.

Mrs. Helen Tarr, after a visit of several days in Kingman, has gone to Seligman where she will visit with Mrs. J. S. Withers.

Mrs. Ida Crozier, who has been at the ranch at Truxton for a week or more past, arrived in Kingman, having taken over the ranch and cattle interest of Mrs. Alice Bowers.

W. B. Campbell, who has been very ill for a number of months past, returned from California much improved in health.

Maynard Hart and wife departed for Atchison, Kansas. Mr. Hart has been tendered a lucrative position in one of the banks of that city and deemed it his duty to accept.

Report came to Kingman that Arizona Gilliland, formerly of Chloride, committed suicide at her home in Winslow yesterday. She was a daughter of Mrs. George Fisher of Chloride and had been recently married. No cause is assigned for the rash act.

Samuel C. Hamilton, a son of Samuel Hamilton, formerly of Mineral Park, is visiting in Kingman, and may conclude to take up his residence here. He is a registered engineer and machinist. Mr. Hamilton's father was a well known attorney who resided with his family at Mineral Park about twenty years ago, but who removed to Los Angeles.

Miss Louise Hollister delivered a lecture on "Social Life" at the Methodist Episcopal church the other evening. Miss Hollister is lecturer for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and is a most pleasing talker. While the audience was small those who went speak in the highest terms of the lecture. Miss Hollister was entertained in Kingman several days by Mrs. J. W. Emerson, vice president of the organization of Kingman.

FLAGSTAFF.

From the Sun.

Capt. Green has been notified that company I will be inspected by a regular army officer from Fort Huachuca on Monday night, March 21.

Three of Daniel Wallace's family have been down the last week with severe cases of la grippe but are now slowly convalescing.

Shore grazing permits for the San Francisco mountains forest reserve have been received for the season of 1904. The Black Mesa sheep men received their grazing permits last week.

Mrs. Aris Clark, who has been suffering for some time with ulceration of the ear, which resulted in blood poisoning and who was dangerously affected a year ago, is now slowly recovering and is able to sit up some.

Dr. E. S. Miller was called to Oak Creek recently by the illness of C. S. Howard, better known as "Bear" Howard. The old gentleman has been in poor health since his attack of pneumonia.

Miss Artie Green, who has been a resident of Flagstaff for some time and who is an expert stenographer and typewriter, expects to start for St. Louis next week to remain during the progress of the world's exposition.

John Francis came home from an extended trip to Yuma county and along the Gulf. He is very much interested in government work going on along the Colorado river and seems to think there is a splendid future for that country when irrigated.

From the Gem.

Mrs. Bettie Ross, J. Bellemont and her sister, Mrs. Maud Howard, of Prescott, were visiting here.

J. W. Jones and family returned from the southern part of the territory, where they have been spending the past three or four months.

Charles Babitt and family went to Los Angeles last week on account of the sickness of one of their children. Dr. F. E. Couder of this place accompanied them.

Wm. McNeill of this place has just finished shearing 6,000 head of sheep at Martinez, Yavapai county. The clip will average ten pounds per animal.

We are informed that an automobile line will be established from this place to the Grand Canyon in the spring. An automobile will be kept here for the purpose of conveying people to the Caves, Cliff Dwellings and other points of interest in this vicinity.

Geo. W. McAdams, formerly of this city, but now operating an Indian trading post near Winslow, has been obliged to go to Los Angeles, for a surgical operation, rendered necessary by the formation of an abscess in his head. Mr. McAdams accompanied him. Edgar A. Brown has severed his connection with the Vols Trading company, at Canyon Diablo, to take charge of Mr. McAdams' business.

HOLBROOK.

From the Argus.

Freeman Hathorn left for Canton, Dakota. He takes his boy, who is afflicted with paralysis, for treatment.

James Eakin, member of the firm of Mellini & Eakin, wholesale liquor dealers of Albuquerque, was here interviewing the local dealers.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Zerk was made happy on Thursday by the arrival of a fine new baby girl. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Miss Hattie Hutchison, Blokes, Mississippi, passed through here en route to Keam's Canyon, where she will be employed as teacher in the Hopi training school.

Capt. John T. Hogue returned from Tucson, where he represented Apache county in the convention held there on March 8. The captain will spend a couple of days here visiting friends before returning to St. Johns.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mrs. Mary E. Perry to Wm. Armstrong, to take place at the residence of the bride, on Sunday, April 3, at 4 o'clock. Both the contracting parties are well known here and have

A host of friends. Mr. Armstrong is an old time resident of Holbrook.

Solomon Luna, the well known sheep man of Las Lunas, N. M., passed through on his return to Las Lunas from the Salt River valley, where he has been attending to his numerous flocks.

J. W. Ellips and daughter, Lena, came over from their ranch to meet Mrs. Duett Hunt, who is just returning from her wedding tour in Old Mexico. They left on their return home Thursday.

R. P. Collins, ex-superintendent of the Hopi training school at Keam's canyon, came down from Rocky Ford, Colo., and left for the canyon Friday, where he goes to hire Hopi Indians to work on his sugar beet ranch at Rocky Ford this summer.

FOUND GUILTY

WAS THE INDIAN WHO ASSAULTED MISS LAURA COLLINS.

Los Lunas, N. M., March 15.—A verdict of guilty was brought in against the Navajo Indian, who last year is alleged to have assaulted Miss Laura Collins in Valencia county. The prosecuting witness identified the Indian as her assailant and testified that the trousers he wore in the court room were the same he wore at the time he committed the crime. However, this last statement is a mistake. The trousers he wore into the court room were given him after his incarceration in the Hernalillo county jail by the jailer. Attorney Fields and Coates conducted the defense. The Navajo will be brought to this city Friday evening and on Saturday will receive sentence.

The long standing and sensational assault case of Mrs. Sarah J. Smith took up nearly the entire attention of the court today. A night session was held and the jury, after being out twenty-five minutes, returned a verdict of not guilty. The verdict was a surprise.

On the 25th day of October, 1900, at a creek in the morning, a fire was started in the upper story of the Metropolitan hotel, then occupied by Mrs. Smith, now the landlady at Hotel Elmhurst. Suspicion was strong against Mrs. Smith, and on February 22, 1901, an indictment for arson was returned against her. The motive of the crime was supposed to have been destruction of property for the purpose of securing insurance on personal property. The evidence was entirely circumstantial.

Los Lunas, N. M., March 16.—This afternoon Antonio Estrada was found guilty of assaulting a young girl and sentenced to the penitentiary for five years.

AMONG THE MILLINERS

IT IS LADIES' DAY AND OLD ALL THE MILLINERS HAVE FINE DISPLAYS.

Albuquerque's spring millinery season opened today with every millinery store of the city giving a splendid reception, but contrary to the wishes of the storekeepers and the ladies of the city alike, the weather was so threatening that in most every instance the attendance was light and disappointments were many. However, the season is open and so many beautiful millinery creations are on display that there will be much confusion when the time comes for making selection.

The Gilbert Sisters.

The Gilbert sisters have not made much pretense at decorations, but their hats are many and confusingly pretty. In the window is a bank of artificial roses, artistically surrounded with rose bush foliage. The interior back ground is white, the rear is garnished with poppies, with garland foliage.

Parker & Fleming.

Very similar to her successful opening of last year, Mrs. Parker and Miss Fleming had their parlors darkened for the reception, which began at 2:30 this afternoon. The decorations are white and pink, with the white predominating, and on table the mellow effect of electric lights covered with thin pink paper shades. Piano music was rendered. Mrs. Parker and Miss Fleming were assisted by Mrs. F. J. Thomas.

Mrs. D. D. Coverdale.

The Coverdale millinery parlors, at 228 West Gold avenue, were the scene of a reception this afternoon that was pleasant, pleasing and delightful. The walls were green, the mirrors and tables were done in green and pink, and in the rear is a lattice work of white ribbons, covered with live anemones. Peonies adorned the windows and were set in conspicuous places about the parlors. Beautiful hats were much in evidence. Mrs. Coverdale was assisted by Mrs. A. C. Potter, Mrs. W. A. Williams and Mrs. A. J. Tooten.

The O'Brien Sisters.

The Misses O'Brien began receiving this morning at their second spring reception given in Albuquerque. The decorations were white and gold, with wine colored ribbons and peonies. Grand themes paper enhanced with gilt, circled the mirrors and with streams of crepe paper, finished a very pretty scheme. An orchestra composed of Mrs. De Wolf on the harp and Carl Toian on the violin discoursed music as the guests arrived and departed. The Misses Flora, Mary and Charlotte O'Brien were assisted by Miss Margaret Scheum, Miss Kittie Pichard and Miss Holgren.

Conductor Swallow who was operated for a severe case of appendicitis, at the Santa Fe hospital, Las Vegas, is reported as in a very satisfactory condition.

Railway Mail Service—Another New Mexico Forest Reserve.

NEW MEXICO INCORPORATIONS

A postoffice has been again established at Hot City, Socorro county. It is served from Otero, Otero county.

Railway Mail Service.

The postoffice department has concluded to establish a railway postoffice between Lordsburg and Clinton and as soon as a mail car can be fitted up the service will be established.

Another New Mexico Forest Reserve.

With a view to the establishment of a forest reserve, the interior department has temporarily withdrawn from disposal, except under mineral laws, five townships south and west of the New Mexico prime meridian, in the Las Cruces, New Mexico, land district. This is preliminary to the establishment of what probably will be known as the Big Hatchet Mountain Forest Reserve.

Decided in Favor of Fritchman.

Register M. R. Cicco and Receiver Fred Miller of the federal land office in Santa Fe Saturday rendered a decision in the contest case of W. H. Fritchman manager of the Santa Fe Water and Light company, vs. John L. Zimmerman involving the tract upon which a part of the large reservoir of the Santa Fe Water and Light company is situated. Upon this tract Zimmerman had erected a small log cabin and had made a homestead entry. The contest was a hard fought one and may be taken by appeal to the general land office at Washington. The decision was in favor of W. H. Fritchman and recommends that the homestead entry of Zimmerman be cancelled.

Articles of Incorporation.

The following articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the territorial secretary: The Gold and Cement Syndicate, principal office at Phoenix, Arizona. The incorporators are Walter H. Stearns, Pawtucket, Rhode Island; Patrick E. Hayes, Pawtucket, Rhode Island; and Granville H. Badging of Providence, Rhode Island. Rev. Craig at Flagstaff.

The sermon Sunday morning and missionary address in the evening last Sunday by Rev. H. M. Craig of Albuquerque, N. M., were of a very high order. Mr. Craig is synodical missionary for New Mexico and Arizona, and his constant touch with the field of the two territories gives him a fine appreciation of the need and value of missionary work, which was most strikingly set forth in his Sunday evening address. It was a pleasure to the congregation to have him with us—Flagstaff Sun.

MCKINLEY COUNTY REPUBLICANS

MET AT GALLUP LAST SATURDAY AND ELECTED DELEGATES TO TERRITORIAL CONVENTION.

Stephen Canavan, the assessor of McKinley county, and Clark M. Carr will represent McKinley county at the territorial convention, at Las Vegas, on March 19.

These two gentlemen were named by the McKinley county republican convention held last Saturday at Gallup. Resolutions were introduced and unanimously adopted endorsing the national and territorial administrations.

RAILROAD OFFICIALS

J. W. Kendrick, third vice president of the Santa Fe was an Albuquerque visitor last evening, and while a guest of the city created pleasant interest with local railroad officials. To a reporter he said that he had been on a tour of the coast line and had visited President Ripley and other Santa Fe officials enjoining at Santa Barbara, Cal. He confirmed the report that Joseph W. Walker, well known here as "Joe" Walker, had been appointed superintendent of the Santa Fe lines north of Bakerfield, succeeding A. D. Behlinder, who resigned to go to the Northwestern railroad. Mr. Walker's headquarters will be at Fresno, Cal.

Mr. Kendrick refused to discuss the out-of, but stated emphatically that the Santa Fe would build no new roads the next year. He continued east in private car attached to train No. 8.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Robert Emmet Drama at St. Mary's Hall-Boilermakers' Ball at Elks Hall.

"SHAMUS O'BRIEN" AT THEATER

The great Irish drama, Robert Emmet, was rendered last night at St. Mary's hall by local talent, and the play was never more thoroughly produced even by professionals, than it was by amateurs last night.

There was just enough people in the cast, including peasants, soldiers and jurors, to make it interesting for all stage purposes, and every character was admirably assumed and portrayed.

The Irish patriot, Robert Emmet, was taken by J. O'Connell, and in the conviction scene, when poured out a brilliant defense of himself to the judge and jury, he was indeed par excellence.

W. R. Grimmer was a most excellent O'Leary, an old soldier, while L. Wilson, harrising his attempt to sing, was a fine O'Connell, a spring of the Emerald Isle.

Miss Ethel Galtin took Maria, the wife of Robert Emmet, in fine style, and Miss Catherine Hill was a good Judy O'Dougherty.

Henry Connelly assumed Lord Norbury, the judge and Corporal Thomas to good advantage.

A. M. Kepionna was Dowdall, a friend to Emmet; H. Bourrap was Korman, a traitor, and P. H. Kelly was Sergeant O'Connell.

The music for the occasion was rendered by Mrs. Gildon-Patrick and the St. Mary's orchestra.

Immediately after the performance a handsome doll, which had been on exhibition at J. H. O'Grady & Co's drug store, was raffled, and W. Moore Clayton was the lucky winner.

The Boilermakers' Dance.

At least three hundred couples danced and shared the hospitality of Good Intent Lodge, No. 7, International Brotherhood of Boilermakers and Iron Ship Builders, at Elks' hall last night, and it was early this morning that the tarrying guests, tired but happy departed for their several homes.

The grand march, led by W. J. Kincaid, president of the Boilermakers' union, and Miss Jessie Walde, started at 9 o'clock and circled the spacious hall to inspiring music rendered by the Woodmen orchestra.

The moving column reached entirely around the hall, so great were the numbers in line. The program contained twenty-four dances.

The hall was profusely decorated with streamers and bunting of most every color imaginable, with green predominating. High on the south wall of the hall black and gold stood out the insignia of the union.

During the intermission at 12 o'clock, supper was served in banquet hall.

The following are committees to whom much credit is due for the great success of the affair:

Arrangement—W. J. Taylor, N. Whitfield, W. T. Kacaid.

Food—D. E. Phillips, Prompter; N. Dougherty, Thomas Crawford, H. D. Hasty, L. L. Huestice.

Reception—W. C. Abbott, C. Marion, William Lacy, J. Joyce, A. A. Pike, T. McCormica, O. A. Anderson, L. Gili, Cyrus Alexander.

"Shamus O'Brien" Last Night.

If "Shamus O'Brien," produced at the Elks' theatre last night by the Blankall company, was a fair sample of what the remaining dates on the calendar of the company at the Elks' will be, it is safe to say that a crowded house will greet them every night.

The performance last night was highly commendatory. It was a good entertainment after the first act, but the dullness of the prologue or what might be called such, was not the fault of the characters.

"Shamus O'Brien," in name, fame and sentiment, is extremely Irish, and given last night on the evening of St. Patrick's day, was extremely suggestive of the pride and passion of the Irish people.

Green was much in evidence throughout the scenes and audience.

Miss Hunkall carried the lead role, with Lillian Alwood as the leading lady. Miss Alwood captivated the audience with her expression of pathos and character.

Charles Merkel's dancing made a decided hit with the house.

Tonight "Captain Impudence."

A BIG STRIKE

ON IN NEW YORK

New York, March 18.—Twenty thousand bricklayers and laborers are on a strike, and unless a settlement can be reached at a conference today about the strike will probably spread till about 100,000 men are involved. Employers are considering it improbable that any settlement will be reached, and are preparing for the strike which they believe will follow. Members of other unions, who will be out of work because they cannot proceed with building without the bricklayers, are said to be indignant that the bricklayers should tie up the whole building industry.

Twenty-five hundred lithographers have struck rather than be locked out. They quit when they must sign arbitration agreement or be discharged.

Coal Miners Will Not Strike.

Indianapolis, March 18.—Yellers today completed the count of the votes of miners on the proposition to accept or reject the operators offer of two years wage scale. The vote for acceptance was 98,514, against 47,000.

375. A majority against strike, 51,141.

Shaft House Fire.

Central City, March 18.—The mammoth shaft house and its valuable plant of machinery at the tunnel mine near here were totally destroyed by fire this morning, entailing a loss of $100,000, with no insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

HENRY THURBER

DEAD AT DETROIT

Detroit, Mich., March 17.—Henry T. Thurber, a well-known story of this city, who was private secretary to President Cleveland during his second term, died today. He was operated on for appendicitis two weeks ago.

The death of Henry T. Thurber as announced in the telegraphic dispatches yesterday, said a Detroit paper, "The Citizen today," is a loss to New Mexico as well as to Detroit. Mr. Thurber, who has spent some time here, was a firm believer in a great future for New Mexico. He had a high appreciation of the value of the timber possessed by the American Lumber company in the Zuni mountains and also had great faith in the mineral prospects there. He was well thought of by all who knew him, and was for many years a law partner of ex-postmaster General Don M. Dickinson.

ACCIDENTALLY

BURNED TO DEATH

The Citizen, yesterday, in a short local paragraph mentioned the death of James Rummell, who years ago visited in this territory. The deceased was a Mason, and S. S. Puckette, a half-brother, of Chickadee creek, Alaska, wrote to this territory relative to the death, the letter being addressed to the postmaster at Moscow. The latter forwarded the letter to A. A. Keen, this city, grand secretary of the grand lodge of New Mexico, and the afternoon Mr. Keen informed Mrs. Rummell and the daughter, Miss Mamie, of the death of their husband and father in far-away Alaska. Mr. Rummell was accidentally burned to death, the sad event occurring on February 4, 1904. The deceased was a carpenter by trade, and was 55 years old. The Masons took charge of the remains and burial occurred at Chickadee creek, Alaska, the day following.

OLD "PRINTS" WORK-

ING FOR UNCLE SAM

Richard Powers, in a letter to The Citizen, tells the "doings" of a few Albuquerque old-time printers at Washington, D. C. He says: "Bill Matlock and I are still sticking type for Uncle Sam and the old jobs well. The Williamson also holds down a frame in the big printery; also Berlinger, who worked on The Citizen in 1898, so you see there is quite a good sized delegation of ex-Albuquerque types in the national Capital City at present. All send regards and wish to be remembered to old-time acquaintances."

ERNEST GAMBLE COMPANY

THEY WILL APPEAR AT ELKS' THEATER MONDAY NIGHT NEXT

On next Monday evening at the Elks' theatre the Ernest Gamble company, the third and last of the lecture series secured by the University of New Mexico, will appear in this city. The company consists of three of the most skilled artists who have ever appeared in the west. It is a trio of unusual merit. Mr. Ernest Gamble, the basso, is one of the leading artists of the country. The highest recommendations have been received by the city concerning Mr. Gamble's artistic and wonderful singing.

There is with him the well known pianist, Edwin M. Shonert. This man has been associated with some of the greatest artists of the day. He is of the Leoschelsky school and ranks high with the prominent pianists which it has produced. Miss Bertha Webb is the third link in the chain, and adds before her a far reaching reputation as one of the foremost violinists of the day. She has appeared in concerts of note for several years and is greeted with vast enthusiasm. She is small in stature and so makes her powerful playing even more wonderful.

The program is as follows:

Rabindranath (1820-1894) "Trot de Cavalerie"

Edwin M. Shonert.

Wienlawski (1825-1880) Concert No. 2 "Romance and Finale a la Zingara"

Miss Bertha Webb.

Leslie Stuart "The Bandolero"

Mr. Ernest Gamble.

Chopin (1809-1849) (a) "Marche Fagelre" from Sonata in B flat."

Mendelssohn (1809-1847) (b) "Spring Song" from "Songs Without Words"

Mr. Shonert.

Schubert (1797-1828) "The Bee"

Godard (1849) (a) Berceuse from "Jocelyn"

Miss Webb.

Scotch Medley (a) "The Bonnie Banks of Loch Lomond"

Somersetshire Ballad (b) "Young Richard"

Mr. Gamble.

Strauss, Waltz, "Vienna Bon Bon"

Mr. Shonert.

Masagnoli (1868) Intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana"

Miss Webb.

Clamade (a) "Ole to Bacchus"

Cornelius (b) "The Monstone"

Irish Song (c) "Off to Philadelphia"

J. H. Morrison, cashier of the State National bank of Albuquerque, said this morning that the new bank will not be able to open April 1 as was expected. The vault doors and inside fixtures, which were shipped from the factory some time ago, have become lost en route and will be late in arriving.

A MANILA WEDDING

LIEUT. JOHN BYMINGTON AND MISS ELISE DUCAT MARRY.

The marriage of Miss Elise Ducat, daughter of Maj. and Mrs. Ducat of the 7th Infantry, and Lieut. John Bymington of the 11th Cavalry, took place Friday evening at St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal church, on Calle Nevada, Manila.

The edifice was tastefully decorated with palms, the regimental colors of the bride's father, standing at either side of the entrance to the chapel, while to the right and left was the cavalry guidon.

The bride entered with her father, Maj. Ducat, while the 11th Infantry band played Mendelssohn's wedding march. Miss Ducat, who is a very beautiful young woman, wears a simple white gown, very much adorned and trimmed with lace and ribbons.

She wore a soft tulle veil back from the face, and no jewelry or ornaments of any kind as befitted one so young. Her bouquet was of roses and ferns. The only attendant was Daisy Hubben, one of the prettiest of Manila's belles, who wore a dainty pink silk suit, which was extremely becoming. Bishop Brent performed the ceremony in his usual impressive way.

Lieut. Poole of the 11th Cavalry was the best man and the ushers were Lieut. Meade and Lieut. Luhn of the 11th Cavalry, and Lieut. Stewart and Lieut. Franklin of the 7th Infantry. The bride's gift to her maid of honor was a slender emerald bracelet of solid unmounted by a delay in pearls. The gifts to the ushers were silver cigarette cases bearing their monograms.

A very small reception and supper followed the ceremony, at the May View hotel, where Maj. and Mrs. Ducat have been staying. The guests included besides the bride party only, Capt. and Mrs. Kimball, cousins of the groom, Bishop Brent, Maj. Townsend, Lieut. Larson and Miss Hubbell. Lieut. and Mrs. Bymington have gone to Hong Kong for a few weeks, but will return to Manila in time to join Lieut. Bymington's regiment, which is under orders to go to Port Kaituma next month.

The above article clipped from a Manila paper will doubtless be read with interest by many people of New Mexico as the groom of the romance, with its flavor of military chivalry, was born and educated in the territory and has yet many relatives here. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bymington, former residents of Santa Fe, and was appointed to West point from New Mexico. On receiving his commission he was assigned to a lieutenancy in the 11th Cavalry, United States Army, now stationed at Manila. Perfecto Armijo and Mrs. John Bismarck of this city are uncle and aunt to the young bridegroom.

Diavolo, whose daring loop-the-loop bicycle feat has caused a sensation in the acrobatic world, arrived last night from New York and together with his mechanic, Harry Head, are overhauling the putting together the trap loop-the-loop contrivance. Diavolo will loop the loop once or twice a day at the fair grounds to get in practice, but there will be no regular training as was published. The bicycle on which he will do the feat is on exhibition in the window of the Southern Carnival company quarters.

The John Langille cottages on Hudson avenue have been completed at a cost of $2,200 each.

CAPTURED BY A RUSE.

Frank Sullivan, on trial for robbing E. P. & S. W. Car, was trapped in San Antonio Street Saloon.

At the trial of Frank Sullivan, who is alleged to be implicated in the theft of eleven bolts of fine silk from the El Paso & Southwestern cars, with A. A. Bartlett, who is under indictment, Robert Austin, manager of the Palace saloon, figured as a prominent witness today, says the El Paso News.

Sullivan, so Austin alleged, accompanied Bartlett to the Palace saloon, while the latter proposed to Austin to sell him the silk. Bartlett told Austin it came easy.

This placed the saloon man on the alert and when the couple returned with the goods Bartlett was invited from upstairs into Austin's room, where he was to get $50 for the goods.

Sherriff Boone and Manner Clemente, his deputy, were there, and Bartlett was arrested. Sullivan, who stood outside watching the silk, was also arrested. The trial consumed the entire morning.

Sullivan was found guilty by the jury this afternoon and his punishment fixed at two years in the penitentiary.

Pathetic Last Words.

"Bury me in the cheapest way possible and today. I want to die before I hurt some one. My folks have done all they could, but it is of no use. I am crazy for want of sleep. I dare not live any longer."

Such were the pathetic words found yesterday afternoon in a note left lying on a table in Roommaster Elliot's office by Frank Stone, says the Optic.

The note confirms the theory given as to the cause of Mr. Stone's action. Insomnia, induced by his nervous condition had reduced him to such a state that he was not responsible for his action. He realized, however, that in some unguarded moment, he might lose control of his faculties and do some violence to others. His friends do not believe he would have done so, but it is certain that in the disordered state of mind the idea took hold on Mr. Stone and resulted in self-destruction.

This afternoon Fred Stone, a brother, arrived from Alamogordo. The aged mother, whose home is in California, telegraphed that she would come here to attend the funeral, but later on advised that she was unable to stand the journey. A sister, Miss Lucy Stone, a former teacher here, was communicated with, but she will be unable to come. The funeral was held from the home, 115 Railroad avenue.

Once to Honolulu.

It was officially announced yesterday that Richard M. Harding, for the past six years director of the United States weather bureau in Santa Fe, will leave in June for Honolulu, the capital of the Hawaiian Islands, there to establish a weather bureau. Mr. Harding entered the meteorological service in 1895, and has been stationed at many points in the east. Before succeeding Major H. B. Hersey in Santa Fe he was in charge for eight years of the New York section with its central station at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York. C. E. Loney at present in the weather forecast office at Denver and who was at one time section director of Illinois, will succeed Mr. Harding at Santa Fe. Mr. Harding during his stay at Santa Fe has greatly extended and improved the service of the weather bureau in this territory, so that it has become of great value, especially to farmers and stockmen.

IRA WHEELIS WANTED.

Was Arrested at El Paso for Horse Stealing and Bound Over to Wait Extradition Papers.

Cleora Stewart, sheriff of Eddy county, arrived in El Paso the other morning from the Pecos valley with extradition papers for the arrest of Ira Wheelis, charged with horse stealing. Wheelis was arrested at El Paso several weeks ago and was bound over by the magistrate to await extradition papers from the governor of Texas. He tried for a release on a writ of habeas corpus, before Judge Walshall but failed.

Julius Wetzel's sheep loss.

Last week two natives who were herding a band of sheep for Julius Wetzel, of Holbrook, abandoned the herd near Prescott, and the entire band of 2,000 head is lost or scattered, so there is little chance of ever getting them together again. The coyotes and mountain lions have killed many while hundreds have perished of thirst. The loss is about $5,000. The natives claim they lost the herd.

MAKES FIGHT FOR L.S.E.

Receives Terrible Wound, But Finally Manages to Shoot and Kill His Opponent, a Mexican Desperado.

One of the nervous fights for life that has ever occurred in Arizona took place Wednesday afternoon when K. Brooks Noble, an eastern tenderfoot, after a most sanguinary encounter, shot and killed a Mexican desperado, Domingo Moreno. The encounter occurred three miles east of Douglas, while Noble was bringing Moreno to Douglas on a charge of robbery.

The Mexican attacked Noble with a knife and cut his hands and arms in a horrible manner. Noble made a valiant fight, pulling his revolver and firing, but his hands were so badly mutilated that his aim was uncertain and without effect. They grappled and Noble lost his revolver in the struggle besides sustaining terrible wounds in the head.

Amass of blood, with his strength fast ebbing, he succeeded in recovering his revolver, and, while prostrate upon the ground, used both hands on the trigger and shot his opponent through the base of the neck, killing him instantly.

Noble made his way to a nearby ranch, reported the tragedy and then fainted from want of blood. His wounds are painful, ghastly, but not necessarily fatal.

FALLS UNDER A LIMITED TRAIN

Young Man Who Was Beating His Way Fatally Mangled.

Ray Payne, who formerly resided at Lamar, Colo., was killed in the La Junta Santa Fe yards Tuesday night.

Payne was a young man about 25 years of age and was beating his way on the fast California limited No. 3. As the train was entering the yards it is supposed that the young man's foot slipped as he was about to leave the train, and he fell under the wheels. The head was completely severed from the body.

Payne leaves relatives at Lamar who were notified of the accident.

From a book found in his pocket, his father's address was learned, which is Odell, Neb., and the father was notified.

Payne was known at Lamar as an engine wiper. He left the employ of the company about a year and a half ago.

Coroner Green of Rocky Ford was notified and took charge of the remains.

Fire at Pierce Warehouse—Death of Mother—Adjusting Fire Losses.

From the Journal.

A brand new girl is announced at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Williams.

Patrick Coughlan of Tulare was in Alamogordo. Mr. Coughlan is one of the pioneers of the Tulare valley and owns one of the most valuable farms in that county. Last year he leased his farm to W. C. McDonald of Carlsbad and now spends most of his time in California.

Mrs. Hart, operated on for appendicitis at the Alamogordo hospital last week, is said to be rapidly recovering.

The court house is now rapidly nearing completion. James Quinlivan, the plasterer, thinks he will finish his work Saturday.

At about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon Pierce's warehouse caught fire from the sparks from a locomotive standing near the building. The blaze was noticed almost at its starting by employees and immediately extinguished. It was very fortunate that employees of the Pierce company were at work in the building, as otherwise the warehouse must have burned, causing a great loss to the company.

A lady by the name of Burlington, her son-in-law and daughter, came to Alamogordo from Big Springs, Texas, hoping to benefit Mrs. Burlington's health. She suffered from asthma and was very seriously ill when they arrived here, and died a few minutes after reaching the hotel. The funeral was held Monday morning and the body laid to rest in the Alamogordo cemetery. Pivo sons are working in the railroad shops here.

From the Advertiser.

LAS VEGAS.

From the Optic.

Father Henry Pouget, who has been confined to his home since Friday by an attack which threatened pneumonia, is now considered beyond the reach of the insidious disease. The reverend gentleman is still keeping house, but is beginning to feel much like himself again.

Some of the beggars who go about asking for alms on Saturdays are being treated with questionable generosity. It is said that caused fruits which are no longer in good condition have been given them. Although no serious results are thus far reported, there might easily occur unpleasant circumstances.

Marshall Curtright went up to Watrous to secure the person of Samuel Shannon, an apple tree vendor, who drove into the city with his partner, Fred Snyder, a few days ago.

Sunday, while in a drunken frothy passion cut a valve and a suit of clothes belonging to his partner into shreds. As soon as he could manage it, he hitched up the team and drove out of town. He was captured in Watrous.

The Colorado Telephone company is rapidly pushing the work of putting its new poles. By the end of this week they will all be up and ready for the wiring. A big cable will carry the wires to the west side.

At the bridge the cable will be divided and one half will go over to Gonzales street and up an alley. The other half will be followed up the alley to the south of bridge street. The multitude of connections will be made from these two cables.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

Whereas: John H. Stingle and Evelyn Stingle his wife, on the 22nd day of November, 1901, executed and delivered to the undersigned A. R. McMillan as trustee, their certain deed of trust of that date, which said deed of trust is recorded in the office of the probate clerk and ex-officio recorder of Bernalillo county in volume ten of deed of trusts, page 136, and to which I, hereby made, and did thereby then and there convey to the said A. R. McMillan as trustee, the following real estate situated in the county of Bernalillo, territory of New Mexico, to-wit:

Lot five (5) of block twenty-six (26) of Hurling's Highland addition to Albuquerque as the same is known on the plat thereof filed in the office of the probate clerk and ex-officio recorder of Bernalillo county on the 11th day of December, 1890.

And Whereas: The said deed of trust was made to secure the payment of a certain promissory note of the said John H. Stingle and Evelyn Stingle for the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars, dated November 22nd, 1901 and payable on or before one year after said last mentioned date to the order of Mrs. E. P. Nelson with interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum from date, payable quarterly.

And Whereas: The said deed of trust contained a condition therein that if the makers of said note should fail to pay the same at maturity the said trustee at the request of the legal holder of said note should sell the above described property at public auction to the highest bidder at the front door of the postoffice in the City of Albuquerque, county of Bernalillo, aforesaid, first giving four weeks public notice of the time, terms and place of sale and of the property to be sold by advertisement in some newspaper printed and published in the City of Albuquerque and upon said sale to execute and deliver a deed in fee simple of the property so sold to the purchaser thereof and receive the proceeds of said sale, and out of such proceeds should pay, first, the costs and expenses of executing this trust and secondly, the principal of the note and compensation to the trustee for his services; and next, shall apply the proceeds remaining over to the payment of said debt and interest, and the remainder if any, to the makers of said note or their legal representatives.

And Whereas: There is due, owing and unpaid to said Mrs. E. P. Nelson the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars with interest as aforesaid from the 22nd day of November, 1901, and the said Mrs. E. P. Nelson the legal holder of said note has requested the undersigned trustee to sell said property for the purposes and in accordance with the terms of said deed of trust.

Now Therefore, I, A. R. McMillan, the undersigned trustee in consideration of the foregoing and by virtue of the powers vested in me by said deed of trust, will on the 28th day of March, 1904, at the hour of twelve o'clock noon on said day at the front door of the postoffice in the City of Albuquerque, county of Bernalillo, aforesaid, offer for sale and sell the above described real estate at public auction to the highest and best bidder for cash to pay said promissory note, amounting with interest to the day of sale to the sum of three hundred and eighty-eight dollars and twenty-four cents, and for the payment of costs of advertisement and reasonable fee to said trustee and his counsel.

A. R. McMILLAN, Trustee.

There seems to be a growing sentiment in the United States for the restoration of the whipping post for wife beating and other offenses which are deemed to be a public institution does not seem to abolish. Some states might try it in the interest of collective civilization.

Business Decreases at Clayton Land Office.

The United States land office at Clayton reports a considerable falling off in its receipts for the year from January 1, 1903 to 1904. The decrease is partially noticeable in homestead entries, only half the number now being entered that were filed a year since. Considerable increase in the work of the office, however, is reported because of the unusual number of contents that are being initiated. Mr. F. A. Law, formerly chief clerk of the land office in Pueblo, Colo., has lately been transferred to the Clayton office, and former Clerk Cheever transferred to Washington.

Sierra County's Centennial—Juan Montoya, Sierra county's centennial, was in Fairview Wednesday. Mr. Montoya claims to be between 108 and 107 years old, and it is only of late that his sight and hearing have become impaired. He does not, however, claim to have met George Washington, the Father of His Country, having "laid him down" several years before Mr. Montoya's birth.

Needs Investigating—A business man of Santa Fe has received a notice sent by the American Creditors' Agency, 53 Dearborn street, Chicago, Illinois, asking him to remit the sum of 64 cents which this agency claims he owes to the Equitable Trust company, trustees in bankruptcy for the C. N. C. company, and saying that suit will be brought against him unless the amount of 64 cents is immediately remitted. This case seems to be one inviting the inspection of the postoffice department in Washington. Complaint will be made to the postoffice department and an investigation will doubtless be made and the true lawfulness of this concern will be shown up.

Cold Storage Plants for Mexico.

City of Mexico, March 15.—Cold storage plants with enormous capacity will soon be erected in this city, a concession having been granted the company which has the project in hand. Cold storage is needed in Mexico and upward of $2,000,000 is now in hand for the construction of the warehouses, not only in the City of Mexico but also in Vera Cruz, Tampico and other leading cities of the republic.

SUICIDE AT LAS VEGAS.

Frank Stone, an employee of the Santa Fe, Used a Revolver.

Standing on the platform in front of the quarters of Roadmaster Dan Elliott's office at 6 o'clock this morning, Frank Stone terminated years of suffering by sending a bullet from a 44 Colt's revolver crashing through his brain, says the Las Vegas Optic.

The occurrence has brought the deepest grief to an estimable family and has caused general sorrow throughout the city.

It can scarcely be doubted that Mr. Stone was not in his right mind when he raised his hand against his own life. For years he had suffered from a serious injury to his eyes, from resulting insomnia and from nervous indigestion, also a result of the original injury. The condition of the optic nerve was such as to make occasional aberration was likely. The night before last Mr. Stone had suffered so intensely as to be unable to work. Last night he seemed better. He attended to his duties as night watchman in the Santa Fe yards and of the Gross-Kelly buildings as usual, and during the night chatted with quite a number of the railroad and express men. When No. 8 arrived, in his usual mood, he volunteered his services in unloading express and baggage.

When his work was completed for the night Mr. Stone proceeded to the roadmaster's building in front of which he committed the regrettable act. Forty feet away Yardmaster Denslow and Switchman Lindley were engaged in conversation. They turned at the sound of the shot to see Stone pitch backward from the platform. Running to him, they found the whole top of his head torn off and a smoking revolver clutched in his hand. The bullet had entered just above the right eye, tearing off a piece of skull as big as a musket and exposing the brain. The lead had emerged from the head near the left ear. Death came almost instantaneously.

Mr. Stone came here from Topeka more than twenty years ago. He was reputed one of the most skillful workers in steel and iron on the whole Santa Fe system and quite the most valuable that ever came to Las Vegas. One day a spark of steel fell into his eye which for a time destroyed his sight, and injured the optic nerve. From that time, years ago, Mr. Stone's life must have been very much of the time a burden. The nervous trouble extended over his system. He could sleep but little, he suffered untold agony with indigestion. Still he did whatever work he undertook faithfully, uncomplainingly, and in such manner as to win the commendation of his employers. His trade had to be given up, but nearly all the time since his injury decreased had been in the employ of the Santa Fe. By all with whom he came in contact he was liked and respected.

A wife and two sons, Harvey and Fred, live in the city. To them universal sympathy will go out.

October 18—Superintendents of Bridges and Buildings at Chicago.

November 15—National Convention of Railroad Commissioners at Montgomery, Ala.

The registration books for the city election are located as follows: For first ward, at the office of D. J. Rankin, north Second street. For second ward, at the office of A. Harbeck, South First street. For third ward, at the book store of Newcomer, next to postoffice. For fourth ward, at the office of Justice Boreman on South South Third street.

Passenger train No. 8 of last night had on board thirty natives of Japan, who are contract laborers for the beet fields of Colorado.

Railroad Topics

Switch engine 2344 is doing the good set instead of No. 2313, which is laid up for repairs.

J. G. Gordon and H. S. Shaver, boiler-maker helpers, have drawn their time and will leave for the east.

Engine 938 of the New Mexico division, is in the local shops being treated to a new cylinder head.

W. J. Drome and C. Henderson have resigned at the Santa Fe shops and have accepted a berth at the lumber mill.

Gay LaRue has resigned at the local machine shops and will go with the Denver & Rio Grande at Durban, Colo.

Mrs. Hart, wife of a shop machinist at Alamogordo, was successfully operated on for appendicitis by Dr. George C. Bryan at the hospital there.

The Santa Fe engineers are surveying about the track north of the Las Vegas with a view to replacing bridges and culverts with trestles.

W. H. Brown, district freight and passenger traffic manager for the Santa Fe, with headquarters at El Paso, was in the city yesterday settling grievances of local merchants.

The Chicago & Northwestern railroads have issued a complete war map of the field of operations where Russia and Japan are fighting. The maps are supplied to general agents, who make a nominal charge for them.

William Friedrichs, office boy in the Santa Fe ticket adding department at Topeka, is also at the Santa Fe hospital in that city with an attack of appendicitis. It is expected that it will be necessary for him to undergo an operation.

J. M. Gruber, general superintendent of the Union Pacific railroad, visited Denver Tuesday for the first time since he took the reins of his position and is accompanied by a committee and is accompanied by a company of general officials of the road.

El Paso & Northwestern train No. 14, north bound, on Monday morning, while between Corona and Torrance, met with an accident. A journal under the water car was torn off and the car derailed. The track was torn up about a quarter of a mile. Train No. 3 was delayed about ten hours.

Wm. Lee, car inspector, met with an accident at Winslow the other night. One of the men engaged in filling the water tanks on the coaches dropped an iron hose nozzle from the top of the coach onto Mr. Lee's head, Lee says this is the first time he has been completely "knocked out" for many years.

Officials of the St. Louis & San Francisco railway yesterday announced that a new fast train to be known as the "Hummel" would be put on between Oklahoma City and Quannah, Tex., April 1. It will be a night train and will permit Kansas City and St. Louis passengers to go straight through to Texas without delay.

General Agent A. H. Moffet of the Rock Island has resigned for the purpose of engaging in private business, says a dispatch from Denver. His resignation will take effect next Tuesday. He will be succeeded by Charles B. Sloan, formerly agent of the same road at Denver, but of late years engaged in mercantile pursuits at Pueblo.

According to a telegram received from Topeka, Kansas, R. H. Hetherland will succeed J. H. Carnan as superintendent of the El Paso division of the stock and will probably take up his duties on that division the first of the coming month. Mr. Hetherland has been occupying the position of assistant division superintendent of the Topeka division, and railroad men say that his promotion is well earned.

Officette Goes to Ash Fork—K. H. Gillette, who has served as agent at Winslow for the past two years left for Ash Fork where he will assume the duties of joint agent for the Santa Fe and Paving, vice D. L. Holmes, assigned to other duties and who has recently met with an unfortunate accident. Mr. Gillette's family accompanied him. Winslow will miss Mr. and Mrs. Gillette very much as they were popular with all, both were accomplished musicians and consequently filled quite a niche in the society of that town.

He Wants Damages—In a suit based upon allegation of breach of faith upon the part of the Mexican Central railroad, William McPike, a contractor, formerly in the employ of the above railroad, has entered suit in the United States circuit court at El Paso for $25,000 damages.

The plaintiff alleges that on April 23, 1900, while operating as a freight conductor between Jimenez and Jimenez, he suffered the loss of a leg in an accident.

The railroad company gave him $750 damages on his claim, and, he states, agreed to provide him with employment as long as he could comply with the rules of the service.

This agreement, he claims further, continued in force until November, 1903, when the road notified him that his services were no longer required.

A Remarkable Record—"Kid" Hadlock, a well known El Paso engineer, has made an unparalleled record run of over 5,000 miles, covering two states and territories, on engine 264, attached to the Gould special, says the El Paso News.

The trip was made without the loss of a second in time and with no accident of any character.

TERRITORIAL TOPICS

SAN MARCIAL.

A Dirty Individual—Very Little Water in Rio Grande.

From the Rio.

Mrs. R. E. Tracy returned from a visit to her old home in Iowa last Saturday.

Mrs. J. W. Broyles and her daughter, Mrs. Boush, visited Las Cruces, where the husband of the younger lady is confined in his old home by sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Martin of Rosedale, left for California, where they will spend three weeks and return accompanied by their little daughter.

An aged individual who has long around San Marcial for some time needs a bath so badly that it seems like a real estate movement when he walks along the street, to use an expression previously employed in connection with similar exhibits.

Between El Paso and Las Cruces there is not enough water in the bed of the river to be of any use, and for much of the distance there is no water at all. From Las Cruces northward the whole aspect of the valley gradually changes until Albuquerque is reached, where there seems to be plenty of water for present demands.

DEMING.

The Cliffords Entertain—Telephone Increases—Parents Surprised.

From the Headlight.

Mr. W. G. Rochester left for Kansas on an extended visit to her parents.

Edward Bowden and daughter, Miss Florence, of the American cafe, were in El Paso a few days this week.

Miss Minnie McElhinney is in Silver City officiating as court stenographer for the Grant county district court.

Jackson J. Dewary and wife, nee Miss Polly Lawton, returned from their bridal trip and are now nicely settled in their new little home near the city's former home.

Mrs. Will Chifford entertained a party of friends last Wednesday evening and a very enjoyable time was had by those present. Cards, music and a most elegant lunch.

James S. Waddill, son of Hon. J. R. Waddill of this city, arrived here from St. Louis, Mo., and will hereafter be a resident of Deming. Mr. Waddill is a very pleasant gentleman and will no doubt add greatly to the society of young folks in this city.

From the Graphic.

More people have been in our town looking for locations to engage in business during the past three weeks than at any time for a year or more, and still they come. This indicates that the tide of immigration for the year has commenced.

The Luna County Telephone company has so increased its business and is prospering so that a new operator had to be put on to assist Miss Deemer with the work at the central office. Miss Laura Lawton is the fortunate one to secure this position.

A. W. Anderson of Colorado City, Texas, came in Friday evening with a fine bunch of bulls and sold them to Hon. S. B. Brehm for the same evening. Mr. Brehm is one of the most progressive of our citizens and a firm believer in the benefits to be derived from improved stock on the range, consequently he is in the market early for the best that can be found.

Mrs. Rosa Burkhardt of Cincinnati, Ohio, surprised her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Smith, of this city by dropping in on them last Saturday morning for a short visit. She took advantage of a cheap excursion rate given by the Southern Pacific, and the first they knew that she was coming was the receipt of a postal card the morning she arrived. As her ticket is limited, Mrs. Burkhardt will only be in our town a short time, but her many friends here will enjoy seeing her once more, even for a hurried visit.

SOCORRO.

Vunker's Birthday Much Enjoyed—J. A. Smiley and Family Returns to Socorro.

From the Chieftain.

Col. J. R. Hutchason came down from Magdalena to witness the political affair.

Joe F. Herby entertained the Pang Tunes at his home. The refreshments were light.

Mrs. Emma Ahoyta, wife of Sefertino Ahoyta, deceased, has received $150 on her husband's life insurance.

C. B. Sedillo arrived in Socorro from Parake, where he had conducted a long and successful term of public school.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Davis expect to leave Santa Fe shortly for El Paso, Texas, and the Capital City club has decided to give them a farewell party on Tuesday evening, March 15. The club regrets the intended departure of Mr. and Mrs. Davis very much. Mr. Davis, who is the treasurer of the club, was one of its organizers and with Mrs. Davis he has been an important factor in making it a success. The informal dance to be given in their honor, promises to be the most enjoyable social event yet given by the club.

Friday evening about dusk while walking along Galisteo street near Water street, Joseph Blonger, an old veteran was held up by two men, whose identity has since been discovered and was relieved of a fine gold watch and a small sum of money. The watch was recovered Saturday forenoon as it had been taken by Blonger's assailants to a jeweler to be repaired, and as some friends of Blonger's had informed all friends dealing in jewelry of the affair, it is understood that prosecution will follow. One of the men implicated is said to be Manuel Sandoval.

MOTION FOR REHEARING.

Filed in Case Recently Decided by Territorial Supreme Court, Holding That Property of Pueblo Indians is Taxable.

Judge A. D. Abbott, United States attorney for the Pueblo Indians, has received instruction from Washington to file a motion in the territorial supreme court for rehearing on behalf of the Pueblo Indians, in the case of the Territory of New Mexico versus delinquent taxpayers of Bernalillo County, decided by the court at its recent session. According to the opinion which was written by Judge F. W. Parker, property owned by the Pueblo Indians is taxable and they have a right to alternate it as they wish. The department of the interior considers the matter of such great importance that the case will probably be taken to the United States supreme court and in addition congress will be asked for special legislation to define the status of the Pueblo Indians. In accordance with his instructions, Judge Abbott yesterday morning filed with Supreme Court Clerk J. D. Rena a motion for a rehearing of the case as a probable preliminary to taking an appeal to the United States supreme court.

INCREASES AT ALBUQUERQUE POSTOFFICE

A few weeks ago, through a census taken by the letter carriers, Postmaster Hopkins ascertained that 11,250 people were receiving mail from the Albuquerque postoffice. The increase over a census taken a few years was startling. The four letter carriers were loaded down with heavy mail, and their routes were so long that it was a hardship to carry any one of them.

Mr. Hopkins sent this information to the department at Washington, and petitioned for an additional carrier. This morning he received a letter from Fourth Postmaster General Hieston stating that the request for an additional carrier had been granted and that the city should be redistricted and the new carrier put on Wednesday, March 15. Mr. Hopkins said this morning that the city would be redistricted the next few days, and although there may be slight delays in the delivery of mail the next few days and possibly some little inconvenience to patrons the next few Sundays, eventually, in the course of a couple of weeks, the department will be able to deliver mail more promptly than ever before. One thing, he said, was that the people must be more careful in having their mail addressed to street and number; the city is getting out of its old-fashioned clothes.

BIG SUIT FILED

THE CALEDONIAN COAL COMPANY CLAIMS BIG DAMAGES.

The Caledonia Coal company, vs. Atencio, Topeka & Santa Fe Railroad company, the Santa Fe Pacific railway, the American Fuel company and the Colorado Fuel & Iron company, is the title of a suit filed in the district court of Bernalillo county, and is probably the most important ever filed in the courts of New Mexico.

The Caledonia Coal company claims that it is being discriminated against by the defendants in a coal shipping rate agreement and asks the court for damages amounting to $400,000 and attorney's fees of $50,000.

The plaintiffs allege that the defendants have entered into an agreement, which is in strict violation of the anti-trust law and the Interstate Commerce law, and asks to be reimbursed for losses sustained by reason of such agreement.

The declaration of the suit includes fifteen typewritten pages.

Neill B. Field of this city is attorney for the plaintiffs. The Santa Fe has as yet filed no answer. The case is set to come before Judge Baker at the approaching term of court.

CAUGHT IN NEW MEXICO

PAPERS SERVED ON NARROW STRIP OF LAND.

Quite a lively and interesting incident happened last evening in connection with the arrest of an alleged fugitive from justice, wanted in Dona Ana county, N. M., says the El Paso Times. The complaint sworn out by Judge Spencer's court was based on a warrant presented by Sheriff Lucero of Dona Ana against T. H. and J. S. Zimbleman, the sons of Major Zimbleman, who owns an extensive ranch at Monoga. Sheriff Lucero accompanied Officer Bryant to the ranch after the two young men. It appears that there is a controversy between the Zimblemans and a man named Fandel regarding the boundary lines of their respective ranches and injunction proceedings are pending against the former in New Mexico. The criminal case growing out of the civil suit charges the Zimblemans with stealing timber, which they indignantly deny and say the lumber came from their own property. Officer Bryant knew nothing concerning the civil litigation. At the ranch they only found J. L. Zimbleman, who willingly consented to accompany the officers to El Paso. On the route taken from the ranch for about 100 yards the road passes through New Mexico between the meanderings of the river. As soon as they reached this point on their journey back to El Paso Sheriff Lucero pulled out his civil summons and tried to serve it on Zimbleman, but the latter jumped out of the buggy and ran to Texas, still calling to Officer Bryant to cross the stream and take charge of him. In the confusion the summons fell into the current and was carried away by the current. Zimbleman stoutly maintained that the process in the civil proceedings had not been properly served and he had nothing to do with the paper that Sheriff Lucero wanted him to take. Finally Zimbleman was induced to return to the buggy and they continued their journey to this city. Tom Zimbleman happened to be in town and the two brothers promptly gave bond for their appearance when wanted.

FIRST JUDICIAL COURT.

Case of Manby Versus Manby, Assignee, on Hearing—Criminal Cases Set.—Report of Grand Jury.

Territorial district court was in session at Santa Fe yesterday, Judge John R. McPhee presiding, says the New Mexican. The case of J. R. Manby, a sheep broker of Trinidad, Colorado, versus A. R. Manby, assignee of the business of Juan Santistevan, was on hearing this morning. The complainant claims the sum of $700 as commission from the assignee on money received in the settlement of damages in the shipment of large herds of sheep, the property of the estate of Juan Santistevan and which were shipped over the Rock Island system by the assignee. A. R. Manby appeared for the creditors opposing the claim. Judge N. B. Laughlin is the attorney for the assignee and E. A. Flake for J. R. Manby, the complainant.

On the criminal side of the court, Leon Padia and Antonio Lujan were arraigned upon an indictment charging them with assault upon J. P. Nair or at Madrid February 17th by striking him on the back of the head with a beer bottle with intent to kill. The case was set for the 22nd of March. A. R. Henchman appears for the complainant.

John Alderete of Bernalillo county, was arraigned upon an indictment charging him with stealing cattle. His case was set for March 24th. B. H. Read is attorney for the defendant.

The United States grand jury before being discharged yesterday made the following report: The United States grand jury having examined carefully into all cases to which their attention has been called, taking the testimony of eleven witnesses in six cases, finding three true bills and dropping the other three cases, believing the testimony did not justify our finding true bills against the parties accused, desire to report that we have no further business and respectfully ask that we be discharged. We desire to thank the court, the United States attorney and all the other officials for courtesies shown us.

A suit was tried yesterday in the district court for San Juan county in the case of Charles H. NEW COMBINATION ROAD.

The Burlington-Motat road—San Pedro & Los Angeles railroad—that the line for the greatest transcontinental route in the United States, says a Denver dispatch.

It is now a fixed fact. For three weeks David H. Moffat, William A. Clark, the owner of the San Pedro & Los Angeles line, and J. J. Hill, the big gun of the Burlington, as well as principal owner of the Northern Pacific, have been in daily conference in New York, and now the news comes that the great coalition is accomplished and the splendid steel highway, through the very middle of the country is now a certainty and Denver is to be the great middle distributing point, the executive headquarters of the big combine.

J. J. Hill of the Northern Pacific has for years been figuring on a southern route to the coast as a western outlet for the Burlington road train.

Clark is equally anxious for a connecting link between his road and the Burlington.

And now the Moffat line people have furnished the link.

There remained only the matter of terms in the tripartite agreement which is understood to have been accomplished.

PUEBLO LANDS TAXABLE

An Important Decision Handed Down by Associate Justice Parker.

SOME INTERESTING HISTORICAL DATA

In the appeal from the District court of Bernalillo county in the case of the Territory of New Mexico, plaintiff and appellant, vs. the persons, real estate, land and property described in the delinquent tax list of the county of Bernalillo for the first half of the year, A. D. 1899, case No. 892, the supreme court of New Mexico last week handed down an opinion, remanding the case to the district court for a new trial, in accordance with the opinion, which was written by Associate Justice Frank W. Parker and which is important not only because it defines the status of the Pueblo Indians but is also interesting on account of its historical data and allusions.

The opinion follows:

On the 14th day of June, 1899, a suit for the collection of taxes which were delinquent for the first half of the year 1899 was begun under the provisions of law, and was a blanket suit covering all cases for delinquent taxes.

Among other property on which taxes were delinquent, were the lands and grants described in the transcript in this cause. These grants are the property of the Pueblo Indians. The attorney for the defendants filed an answer to the complaint for each of the Indian pueblos. Plaintiff filed a general demurrer to the answer, alleging that they did not set forth facts sufficient to constitute a defense. The district court overruled the demurrer and ordered the complaint dismissed as to said Indian defendants. Plaintiff appeals.

The single question presented by this record is as to whether the lands of the Pueblo Indians are taxable.

It would be an inviting task to trace the history of these people since the advent of the Spanish conquerors; but, as this court has, in a very interesting opinion, dealt with this subject, we content ourselves with a reference thereto.

U. S. vs. Lucero, 1 N. Mex. 422.

They were found a peaceful, industrious and civilized people, living in towns (pueblos) and following agricultural and pastoral pursuits. In 1689, and within a few years subsequent, the Spanish government granted them their lands. So long as they remained under the Spanish rule, certain restrictions were placed upon the alienation of their property.

Hall's Mexican Law, Sec. 160 and 161.

As late as March 13, 1811, they were exempted from taxation.

Hall's Mexican Law, Sec. 169.

They seem to have been considered by the Spanish as wards of the government and entitled to special privileges and protection.

But a complete change took place in the status of these people when Mexico threw off the Spanish yoke. Among those engaged in that struggle for independence, this Aztec race far outnumbered the Mexicans and its success was due in a large measure to their efforts. It was not natural and fitting that in the formation of the new government they should take a prominent, if not a leading, part, and that they should be placed upon an equal footing as to all civil and political rights. And so we find that the revolutionary government of Mexico, February 24, 1821, a short time before the subversion of Spanish power, adopted what is known as "The Plan of Iguala," (Iguala was the place of the revolutionary army headquarters), in which it is declared that:

"All the inhabitants of New Spain, without distinction, whether Europeans, Africans or Indians, are citizens of this monarchy with the right to be employed in any post according to their merit and virtue," and that "the person and property of every citizen will be respected and protected by the government."

The same principles were reaffirmed in the treaty of Cordova, of August 24th, 1821.

1. Ordenes y Decretos, by Galvan, page 6.

The same principles were reaffirmed in the declaration of independence of October 6th, 1821, 1st page 8.

The Mexican Congress thereafter followed with at least four acts, in each of which "The Plan of Iguala" was uniformly considered as a fixed principle of Mexican law.

U. S. vs. Titchell, supra.

2. Ordenes y Decretos, pages 1 and 92, and 1st, page 65.

This latter act was passed August 18, 1824, only twenty-four years before the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, whereby we acquired this territory and these people.

How far reaching in its consequences this policy and practice has been may be made more apparent when we recall the fact that Maximilian's defeat by the Mexican troops was accomplished under the leadership of General Juarez, a full blooded Aztec Indian, and that the man who has so wisely governed Mexico for these last twenty and more years, as president of the republic, is none other than an illustration, specimen of this Aztec race.

We had then, at the date of the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, a people possessed of all the powers, privileges and immunities of any other citizens of Mexico, and they came to be so endowed as much as any other class of citizens. This, necessarily, and independent of the provisions of the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, which so carefully guards the civil rights of all Mexican citizens within the ceded territory, carried with it the right to take, hold and dispose of their property. Their right of alienation of their property has never been directly passed upon by the supreme court of the United States. The court in U. S. vs. Titchell, supra, decided to express an opinion on this point, it not being involved. This court, in U. S. vs. Lucero, supra, page 428, stated that the Pueblo of Cochiti had sold a portion of its land where the town of Pena Blanca stands, and that the sale was recognized as valid by the Mexican government; but we have been unable to verify the court's reference to the decrees of the Mexican Republic. But it seems clear that they have such right. No limitation on the power is to be found, either in the laws of Mexico, the United States or the Territory. The right of alienation is one of the chief elements of property values, and is possessed by all citizens alike.

The supreme court of the United States in U. S. vs. Joseph, 91 U. S. 618, in passing upon the nature of the title of these Indians, says:

"The Pueblo Indians, on the contrary, hold their land by right superior to the United States. Their title dates back to the grants made by the government of Spain before the Mexican revolution—a title which was fully recognized by the Mexican government, and protected by it in the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, by which this country and the allegiance of its inhabitants were transferred to the United States."

After mentioning confirmation by Congress, 1818, 274, the court further says:

"It is unnecessary to waste words to prove that this was a recognition of the title previously held by these people, and a disclaimer by the government of any right of present or future interference, except such as would be exercised in the case of a person holding a competent and perfect title in his individual right."

It is further urged that as these lands have not been taxed for fifty years, this amounts to a practical construction of the want of power, under the law, to tax. No defect of the law is pointed out, and they are amply to reach all property, not especially exempted in the territory. It is of no force to argue that a taxpayer who, by reason of the misconception of the law by the taxing officer, has escaped taxation for a long period, shall thereby acquire immunity for all time.

It is true, no doubt, that the fact that these people live in communities, separate from the rest of the people, and have local self government, and thus preserve, in a large measure, the characteristics of their ancient civilization, is a fact which appeals most strongly to the mind and causes it to rebel against the conclusion reached here; but when their history is seen and understood and their legal status examined, they are found to possess all the qualifications and rights of citizenship. They are not unlike, in this respect, the shakers and other communicative societies in other parts of the country.

It is a matter of history, gathered by the writer from conversation with early residents of the country, that these people were, after the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo and down to the organization of the territory, and perhaps down to the Act of 1854, regarded by the people as citizens, and as possessors of all the rights of the same. They are reported to have participated in elections, and held office in Pena Blanca and other places in the territory. They sat as grand and petit jurors in this same county of Bernalillo, while Judge H. S. Johnson presided over the same at one term of court at least. It is reported that through the efforts of one John Ward, an agent appointed for them, there was a tacit agreement reached between them and the people of the counties where they resided, that as long as they refrained from voting they should not be taxed. They thus drifted out of the political life of the territory. But no such agreement, it made, was of any binding force, either upon the Indians or the territory.

We conclude, therefore, that the Pueblo Indians of New Mexico, are citizens of New Mexico and of the United States, hold their lands with full power of alienation, and are, as such, subject to taxation. It follows from the foregoing, that the district court erred in overruling the demurrer of the plaintiff to the defendants' answers, and the judgment of the district court will be reversed, and the case remanded, with instructions to proceed in accordance with this opinion. And it is so ordered.

FRANK W. PARKER, Associate Justice.

Dangers of Pneumonia.

A cold at this time if neglected is liable to cause pneumonia which is a often fatal, and even when the patient has recovered the lungs are weakened, making them peculiarly susceptible to the development of consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar will stop the cough, heat and strengthen the lungs and prevent pneumonia. For sale by J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

Gardner vs. Gans.

Saginaw, Mich., March 14.—A purse of $1,000 is the prize for which Joe Gans, the lightweight champion, and Gus Gardner will battle ten rounds tonight before a local athletic organization. Gardner is a hard hitter and shifty on his feet and is counted on to give the champion a lively run for the money. Much interest is manifested in the contest and a large crowd is expected to be present.

No matter how long you have had the cough; if it hasn't already developed into consumption Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will cure it.

In Sixth Missouri District, Greenfield, Mo., March 14.—The republican convention of the Sixth congressional district is in session here today to select delegates to the Chicago convention and to nominate a candidate for congress. W. L. Borne of Cass county appears to be most prominently mentioned as candidate for congress and it is probable that he will be named.

So Sweet and Pleasing in Taste.

Mrs. C. Peterson, 222 Lake Street, Topeka, Kan., speaking of Ballard's Chamberlain's Cough Syrup, says: "It has never failed to give entire satisfaction, and of all cough remedies it is my favorite, and I must confess to my man, friends that it will do, and has done, what is claimed for it—to speedily cure a cough or cold; and it is so sweet and so pleasing in taste." 25c, 50c and $1.00 a bottle at J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

Death at Pulaski, Tenn.

Attorney W. R. Childers telegraphed his family here Saturday telling of the death of his father, which occurred Friday afternoon at Pulaski, Tenn. Mr. Childers was present when his father passed away, having arrived not a few hours previous. The deceased was 80 years of age and was of an old English family which settled in Virginia during colonial days but about eighty years ago removed to Tennessee.

Saved from Terrible Death.

The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt of Barren, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skilled physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. (Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at all druggists.)

Cincinnati Reds Go South.

Cincinnati, March 14.—The players of the Cincinnati club of the National league reported to Manager Kelly to-day preparatory to leaving tonight for the spring training trip to the south. The team will go direct to Dallas, where they will remain in practice until the end of the month. On the return north games will be played at Little Rock, Memphis, Nashville and Louisville.

Cold Cause Pneumonia.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, developed into the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fetter, Marion, Ind., who was entirely cured by use of the Minute Cough Cure. She says: "The coughing and straining so weakened me that I ran down a weight from 145 to 92 pounds. I tried a number of remedies to no avail until I used the Minute Cough Cure. Our bottled this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength. Sold by all druggists."

California Rags Burned.

As the result of burning light coal in an incinerator engine yesterday a C. & N. W. railway car in the local yards charred on the inside and a consignment of California rags are scorched brown and smoking wet.

About 11 o'clock the alarm of fire was sounded and the yards quickly filled with firemen and curious people. The fire department's attention was directed to a car from which smoke was issuing in great torrents. The car was loaded with rags in bales and some place in their depths a fire smoldered and for a long time it burned merrily on regardless of the efforts of the frantic fire fighters. At last, after long and tedious toil the fire was subdued, but not until the rags were very thoroughly wet. Evidently the fire was caused by a spark from the engine.

Children's Coughs Cured.

Mrs. Joe McKeen, 221 East First street, Hutchinson, Kan., writes: "I have given Ballard's Horehound Syrup to my children for coughs and colds for the past four years and find it the best medicine I ever used." Unlike many cough syrups, it contains no opium, but will soothe and heat any disease of the throat or lungs quicker than any other remedy. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

DAVID STRACHAN.

This Old Timer Died This Afternoon from Pneumonia.

This afternoon, at 2:45 o'clock, at his room on North Second street, near Tilleria avenue, David Strachan, a well known citizen, died from pneumonia. He was complaining for the past week, but did not take to his bed until late last Saturday afternoon, as he did not consider himself sick enough to go to bed or even call in a physician. Yesterday he grew worse and a physician was summoned. To-day his condition was alarming, and at noon today a nurse was engaged to look after his wants. Death, however, and fastened its clutches on his life, and a few minutes before The Citizen went to press this afternoon a telephone announced the final dissolution.

The deceased for years resided at Gallup, where he followed coal mining and served several terms as marshal of that town. On leaving Gallup he came to this city, and followed the occupation of a bartender. The deceased was a Grand Army veteran, a member of the Improved Order of Red Men and a member of the Bartenders' union. The body has been turned over to Undertaker Edwards. No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral.

A Favorite Remedy for Babies.

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by all druggists.

COUNTY REPUBLICANS

Met at Court House and Named Delegates to the Territorial Convention.

STRONG RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

Precursor to the call of the county chairman the republicans of Bernalillo county held an enthusiastic convention at the court house this morning and elected delegates to the territorial convention to be held at Las Vegas one week from today, at which convention will be selected six delegates and six alternates to the national republican convention on June 21, 1904.

The convention was called to order by County Chairman F. A. Hubbell, who in his usual happy manner outlined the policy of the party and the objects of the meeting. Secretary Nestor Montoya read the call.

Upon recommendation of the central committee, T. N. Wilkerson was made temporary chairman, Frank Ackerman temporary secretary and Nestor Montoya interpreter. Mr. Wilkerson, in taking the chair, in a few well chosen words, thanked the convention for the honor, lauded the principles of the republican party and predicted success in the coming campaign.

Upon motion the chair appointed the following committee:

Committee on Credentials: J. H. Lucero, J. J. Sherridan, Nicolas Herrera, Jack Robinson, Simon Tafaia, Manuel Baez, J. A. Weinman.

Committee on Permanent Organizing: W. H. Greer, Blavino Vigil, M. Acosta, Herrera, Louis Hild, Jesus Romero, Manuel Gutierrez, W. H. O'Reilly.

Committee on Rules and Order: H. W. Hopkins, Melquiades Martin, David Chavez, Manuel Gutierrez, N. P. Chavez, Felix Giamotti, Desiderio Gutierrez, Alfredo Sandoval.

Committee on Resolutions: J. H. Shingler, Carlos B. Sanchez, Filomeno Mora, C. P. Myers, Thomas Hughes, Nestor Montoya, Daniel Martinez.

At this juncture Mr. Wilkerson introduced Hon. R. E. Twitchell of Las Vegas as speaker of the day. Seldom, if ever, has Mr. Twitchell appeared to better advantage. His speech abounded in wit and wisdom and was listened to with marked interest. His commendation of national and local administrations and his eulogy on Hon. R. H. Rodey in his untiring efforts in Washington was enthusiastically received.

The committee on rules and order reported the order of business of the convention, and the committee on credentials reported the members entitled to seats, which reports were adopted.

The committee on permanent organizing reported as follows, which report was adopted:

Permanent Chairman—H. W. Hopkins.

Vice Presidents—A. A. Koen, Severo Sanchez, Geromino Pacheco, Eugenio Friarri, Jack Robinson, D. J. Metzger.

Secretary—Frank Ackerman.

Interpreter—M. C. Ortiz.

The report of the committee on resolutions reported the following, which was unanimously adopted by the convention:

The Resolutions.

We the republicans of Bernalillo county, in convention assembled, do hereby ratify our adherence and fealty to the time honored principles and policies of the republican party as enunciated at the last national republican convention.

We point with pride to the unparalleled prosperity that has continued to follow the applications of republican principles to the conduct of the affairs of our government, and we especially commend and endorse the administration of public affairs as exemplified by President Theodore Roosevelt in the absolute and fearless manner he has always taken for what he believes to be best for the welfare and happiness of our country.

We express our thorough application of the ability and integrity of our delegate to congress, the Hon. R. H. Rodey, and heartily commend his intelligent and efficient representation of the territory of New Mexico in the congress of the United States.

We endorse and uphold the administration of Governor M. A. Otero as safe, conservative and economical.

We reiterate our confidences in the honesty, ability and devotion to party principles of the Honorable Frank Hubbell, chairman of the republican central committee of New Mexico, and commend him for his zeal and fidelity to the best interests of the party, and point with pride to the magnificent and brilliant victories that have been achieved by the party under his capable and able management.

We most emphatically denounce the action of Frank W. Clancy, present district attorney, for endeavoring to use his political office for the venting of his personal spite and feelings against some of the leading and most highly respected citizens and officials of this county; and, for the sake of personal publicity and applause of the leaders of the party upon the other side, trying his cases in the newspapers in place of the courts, thereby to gain and achieve a reputation as a reformer; and for his utter disregard at all times of the interest, harmony and welfare of the party which elevated him into his present position.

We sincerely approve and endorse the honest, able and efficient administration of the public affairs of our county by our present officials.

We unanimously recommend that the delegates of this county be instructed to cast their votes for Hon. W. E. James and Hon. Miguel A. Otero as delegates to the national republican convention at Chicago.

The convention elected the following to select the names of eighteen delegates from the county of Bernalillo to the territorial convention to be held at Las Vegas on March 19: T. S. Hubbell, George F. Albright, C. G. Chavez, Blad Chavez, W. H. Greer.

While the committee on delegates retired to confer, roasting speeches were made by many members of the convention, closing with a brilliant prayer in Spanish by Hon. Nestor Montoya.

The committee on delegates submitted the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

List of Delegates.

Frank A. Hubbell, C. M. Forsaker, C. F. Myers, W. H. Greer, Severo Sanchez, Nestor Montoya, T. S. Hubbell, Jesus Romero, E. W. Dolson, Thomas Hughes, Blavino Vigil, W. B. Childers, Santiago Garcia, Frank Ackerman, George L. Davis, George F. Albright, S. C. Jackson, Wm. McIntosh, Don J. Hankla.

The business of the convention having been neatly and promptly dispatched the meeting adjourned.

During intervals in the convention the first regiment band rendered several harmonious selections.

Escaped an Awful Fate.

Mr. H. J. Higgins of Melbourne, Fla., writes: "My doctor told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life." This great cure is guaranteed for all throat and lung diseases by all druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

The Good Act of a Brave Man.

It was the nerve and dash with which William O'Neil plunged into Arizona life in 1897 that won him the title of "Bucky." He would bet $2500 or $10,000 on the turn of a card if anybody would take him up, and the reckless manner in which he money the bar took opened the eyes of old timers in Phoenix and did much to fasten the sobriquet which he bore to the day of his death at San Juan hill.

When the Santa Fe railroad was building through the territory a construction gang jumped a spring that belonged to some Navajo Indians. They are among the most peaceable of all the tribes and are supported almost entirely by their sheep.

The little animals were drooping and almost perished of thirst, while the chiefs consulted as to how they might regain control of their water supply. Bucky O'Neil was riding through the country and discovered the pitiable straits of the Indians. He rode straight into the gang of roughs and said: "You will either feed these Indians right and give them their water or I will drive you out." He armed the Indians and told them to get ready to rush the spring unless the gang made way, but the railroad men had no taste for meeting Indians led by Bucky O'Neil and they dropped the game.

Wonderful Nerve.

Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental cuts, wounds, bruises, scalds, sore feet or still points. But there's no need of it. Buckle's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best salve on earth for piles, too. 25c at all druggists.

POLICE COURT

OUT WITH PENKNIFE—THE LINE-MEN'S ASSAULT.

Jose Garcia appeared in Justice Crawford's court this morning and made an affidavit to the effect that Florentio Effer assaulted his brother, Isaac Garcia, by cutting him in the face and back with a knife.

The offense was committed yesterday and was the result of Effer abusing Mrs. Ben Garcia, the above plaintiff's sister-in-law, at her home on South Broadway.

Blas Garcia was present when Effer began abusing Mrs. Garcia and interfered. Effer forthwith assaulted him with a knife. The latter was taken to the Santa Fe hospital and Effer was incarcerated. He will be given a hearing on Monday.

A Brutal Assault.

The assault yesterday of Jim Larrigan and Tom O'Rourke on Charles Stump, which occurred in front of the Washburn store on Second street, was a very cowardly act.

At the trial this morning witnesses to the melee said that Larrigan held Stump's hands while O'Rourke struck him repeatedly over the head with heavy wire connectors. The court gave O'Rourke thirty days in the county jail and Larrigan ten days, with the privilege of paying a fine. All were employees of the Automatic Telephone company.

A Very Close Call.

"I stuck to my engine, although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Holliman, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale, without any appetite and all run down as I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50 cents.

INDIAN SCHOOL NOTES

VISITOR FROM HASKELL INSTITUTE—OTHER INTERESTING NOTES.

H. B. Peerie, superintendent of Haskell Institute, Lawrence, Kansas, spent Thursday and Friday at the school. He has been out to Los Angeles where he made a five weeks' engagement for his Indian band to play in one of the principal parks. He expects to make similar engagements in Pueblo, Colo., and in Denver. This is the only Indian band that has secured recognition in the official program at the coming World's Fair in St. Louis.

Our school band is doing some good work in practicing and will soon be in shape to do some playing.

Superintendent Allen is in the field looking after the interests of the Indians band of Navajo Indians, who have recently been placed under his care by the Indian office.

Our farmer, with his corps of boys, is busy planting and the industrial teacher is fixing up the lawns and sowing new lawns to blue grass.

A number of San Felipe Indians came down to interview Superintendent Allen about the right of way for the railroad across their lands.

Mrs. Wilson, wife of our blacksmith, arrived this week and the family have gone to housekeeping in one of the cottages on the school grounds.

It, troubled with weak digestion, belching or sour stomach, has Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will get quick relief. For sale by all druggists.

VALENCIA REPUBLICANS

IN CONVENTION LAST SATURDAY AND NAMED DELEGATES TO TERRITORIAL CONVENTION.

Last Saturday, at Los Lunas, the republicans of Valencia county met and selected delegates to the territorial convention at Las Vegas.

The following delegates were selected:

J. Francisco Chavez, Solomon Luna, Juan C. Jaramillo, Carl A. Dantes, Martin Sanchez, Carlos Baez, Candido Padilla, Jacobo Chavez, Jesus Canaleja, Federico Sanchez, Lucario Landalaria, Jesus C. Sanchez, Silverio Miraval, Ben Hilo, Narciso Pina.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Be it resolved by the republicans of Valencia county, New Mexico, in delegate convention assembled, that we at this time renew our allegiance to the great republican party and its declaration of principles as set forth at its last national convention and as declared in the territorial convention at Raton in 1902, under which the nation has prospered at home; has increased in glory abroad, and our beloved territory has grown in all that goes to make up a commonwealth, great and respected. That the policy of President Roosevelt in foreign and domestic affairs meets with our hearty approval, especially his attitude in regard to labor strikes and the Panama canal, and we believe that his wise and firm administration of national affairs merits his continuance in the great office which he now holds and that the coming convention at Las Vegas should endorse Theodore Roosevelt as its choice for the presidency of the United States.

Be it further resolved: That the administration of the affairs of the territory under Governor Otero for the past six years merit and should receive the highest commendation, not only from republicans but from all the citizens of New Mexico. Under his administration and by his earnest and untiring work many reforms in the administration of local affairs have been instituted. Our public debt has been reduced and our revenues and taxable wealth increased.

And further, be it resolved: That we have learned with the deepest regret and sorrow of the recent death of Marcus A. Hanna, the official head of the republican party of the union, it is not that party alone which has cause to mourn his death, but the whole country suffered a grievous loss in the taking away of that great statesman, leader in business and honored citizen, and that our respectful sympathy is tendered to his bereaved wife and family in their affliction.

Resolved: That we express our satisfaction with the administration of justice in the courts of the territory, under the able, upright and fearless judges, who constitute the present supreme court of New Mexico.

A Physician Writes.

"I am desirous of knowing if the profession can obtain Herbin's Balm for preserving purposes? It has been of great use to me in treating cases of dyspepsia brought on by overwork or overeating. I have never known it to fail in restoring the organs affected to their beautiful activity." See bottle at J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

PREPARING FOR A STRIKE.

In anticipation of a strike among the bituminous miners of the country, the Chicago & Alton issued orders to store 30,000 tons of soft coal at Chicago, Bloomington, Springfield, Peoria, Woodhouse, Slater, Mo., and other points along the system. Five thousand tons will be stored at Bloomington, and 100 cars are now being unloaded. The fuel will be dumped upon the ground and kept in reserve until a shortage in the regular supply is reported.

Pneumonia Follows a Cold.

But never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heats and strengthens the lungs, and affords perfect security from an attack of pneumonia. Herbin's Balm. For sale by J. H. O'Reilly & Co.

Jacob Levy, who was at Hot Springs, Arkansas, the past month, taking the baths for a bad case of rheumatism, returned home this morning, coming in over the southern route, via El Paso. He stopped at the Majestic hotel, Hot Springs, and just before his departure for home Major Ernest Evans arrived at the resort and will also "sweat out" for the rheumatism. Mr. Levy says Frank Carson, formerly of this city, is in the curio business at Hot Springs.

OFFICIAL MATTERS

Territorial Funds Received—The New Map Should Be Corrected.

ARBOR DAY PROCLAMATION

A postoffice has been established at Langton, Roosevelt county.

Notary Public Appointed.

Governor Otero appointed Marcella Galligan of Logan a notary public for Union county.

Territorial Funds.

Territorial Treasurer J. H. Vaughn has received the following public funds:

From Mark Howell, treasurer and ex-officio collector of Chavez county, $22.58 taxes for 1902, and $235.87 taxes for 1903.

Concerning the New Map.

March 7, 1904.

Hon. Frank Douglass, Division Chief, Land Office, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir: The enclosed is a pretty correct criticism of the new map of New Mexico. I, of course, didn't have time to notice that there were so many errors on it. They are largely errors in spelling, and I consider the map in other respects a splendid one.

I think you had better file this and when the next proof of the next edition is prepared, it ought to be sent to somebody in New Mexico, say an expert in the surveyor general's office there, for correction in spelling, etc.

Very Truly Yours,

B. B. HODDY, Delegate in Congress from New Mexico.

Arbor Day Proclamation.

Executive Office, Santa Fe, N. M., March 11, 1904.

Whereas, Under the laws of the territory of New Mexico the second Friday of March in each year is designated as Arbor Day, to be observed by the public schools, their officers and teachers in the territory, but that the actual planting of trees may be done on such other and more convenient time as may be best to conform to the local climatic conditions.

Now, therefore, I, Miguel A. Otero, governor of the territory of New Mexico, in pursuance of said law and by virtue of the authority in me vested, do hereby designate and proclaim Friday, the 25th day of March, 1904, as Arbor Day, to be observed by all the public schools of the territory as such by the planting and setting out of trees and shrubbery for the beautification and adornment of public school grounds and parks, or in the streets or private homes of citizens of the communities of the territory; and the county superintendents of the several counties throughout the territory are admonished to give notice of said day, and to give particular care and attention to see that the same is observed by the school children under their charge in order that not only they may derive the benefit and pleasure which such observance will give, but that those who come after them may share in the same.

Done at the executive office this 11th day of March, A. D. 1904.

Witness my hand and the great seal of the territory of New Mexico.

MIQUEL A. OTERO.

A FRIEND'S ADVICE.

Will Often Help You Greatly—Read What an Albuquerque Citizen Says.

You may hesitate to listen to the advice of strangers but the testimony of friends or residents of Albuquerque is worth your most careful attention. It is an easy matter to investigate such proofs as this. The evidence must be conclusive. Read the following:

C. G. Lott, for ten years station master in Albuquerque, now retired from active career of 110, residence 315 North Arno street, says: "I had attacks of backache stretching over a period of three years. One of them occurred shortly before Don's Kidney Pills came to my notice, and I went to the Alvarado pharmacy for a box. I knew the cause of my trouble arose from imperfect action of the kidneys, because the behavior of the kidney secretions and their condition fully proved it, but what to do to check the trouble was a mystery. Don's Kidney Pills effectively stopped the difficulty. If everyone in Albuquerque receives an undoubted benefit as I from 'not' remedy, kidney complaint, backache and trouble with the kidney secretions will cease to exist in this vicinity."

Try Again.

'Tis a lesson you should heed,
Try again;
If at first you don't succeed,
Try again;
Then your courage should appear,
For if you will persevere
You will conquer, never fear,
Try again.

Once or twice, though you should fail,
Try again;
If you would at last prevail,
Try again;
If we strive, 'tis no disgrace
Though we do not win the race;
What should we do in that case?
Try again.

If you find your task is hard,
Try again;
Time will bring you your reward,
Try again;
All that other folk can do,
Why, with patience, may not you?
Only keep this rule in view,
Try again.

LOCAL PARAGRAPHS.

The New Mexico Sheep Sanitary board will meet Monday in the office of the secretary in the N. T. Armijo building.

E. N. Rich, of La Jara, Colo., who has been in the city some time looking up a business location, left this morning returning to Colorado. He says that he will return.

Deputy United States Marshal J. M. Wiley returned yesterday from Gallup, where he served summons for the United States district court to convene here next week.

Charles A. Johnson, A. M. Anderson, H. K. Anderson and A. M. Mullin left last night for the Grand Canyon, where they will assist in erecting Harvey's Bright Angel hotel.

Oscar C. Watson, of the Insurance firm of Paul Wunschmann & Co., Santa Fe, is in the city on business. He will return to the Capital City tomorrow morning.

D. J. Leahy, a well known attorney of Baton, accompanied Gov. Otero to the metropolis last night. He is mingling with local politicians today, and will go up to Las Vegas tonight.

Frank J. McGinn, of the Mogollon Copper company, left last night for a trip to the company's properties in Mogollon mountains. He will be absent from the city a couple of weeks.

C. H. Moorehouse, a popular railroad official of Denver, is in the city today on official business. Mr. Moorehouse was, years ago, the efficient local railroad agent, and therefore has many friends here.

Forest McKinley, special land and timber agent for the government, with headquarters and home at Las Cruces, came in from the south this morning. He is here on official duties and will return to Las Cruces tomorrow night.

The Woman's Christian Temperance union will hold a parlor meeting tomorrow at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. G. E. Wilson, North Armijo street. An interesting program has been arranged and refreshments will be served. All members and friends cordially invited to be present.

Prof. W. L. Sullivan, one of the most renowned embalmers in the United States, is in the city a guest of his old pupil and friend, J. W. Edwards. Prof. Sullivan lives at St. Louis, but has recently returned from a tour of the old country. He will remain in the city until tomorrow.

Joe W. H. Andrews, who is one of New Mexico's most prominent republicans and who arrived yesterday from Philadelphia, Penn., was informed this morning that besides Sierra county, the republicans of Leonard Wood county, at their convention the other day, endorsed him and Hon. R. E. Twitchell of Las Vegas as two of the delegates to the national convention at Chicago.

Max H. Ester, a prominent mining man of Socorro, is an Albuquerque visitor today. He is now operating in the Catalina mountains doing development work on some lead property known as the Neapolian group. He and his associates are now making preparations to build on the property a new concentrator. The Neapolian group is within seven miles of the Pittsburgh placer gold fields.

W. S. Prager, a well known citizen of Roswell, is here as one of the Chaves county delegates to the territorial republican convention. He will go up to Las Vegas either tonight or tomorrow morning. After the convention Mr. Prager will return to the city, and, being a member of the territorial sheep sanitary board, he will attend a meeting of said board in this city on next Monday.

That carload of fine vehicles which was received the other day from the Columbus Buggy company by Jacob Korber & Co., will not last long. Behind Oakley Clifford's fine driving mare, "Bird," Mrs. E. L. Washburn occupies a seat in a fine "Stanhope." Jake Levy now rides in a brand new bike wagon, and Dr. Pearce has purchased a new rubber-tire Columbus buggy.

Contractor Archer is building a fifteen apartment house at 708 South second street for John Krick, of El Paso. The structure will cost in the neighborhood of $5,000, and is being built by Mr. Krick as an investment. Why do El Paso capitalists come to Albuquerque for investment? Because the city is being built on a stable basis.

A special meeting of the Red Men lodge will be held tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock at the law office of R. P. Adams, in the Cromwell building. Action will be taken on the recent deaths of F. M. Clute, chief deputy inebriate at Acoma, Arizona, and David Strachan a member of the Albuquerque lodge. By order of the sachem, George A. Blake.

NEW MEXICO GRADUATE.

George W. Reed, Jr., of Military Institute Receives Commission in Philippine Constabulary.

Through the influence of Governor Otero and upon the recommendation of Capt. George Curry, governor of Mindanao, the New Mexico Military Institute of Roswell, has been recognized as a school worthy of furnishing graduates for officers in the Philippine Constabulary.

This is an extremely desirable service and young men completing the thorough military course as offered by the territorial school of arms, will make splendid officers. The constabulary is composed of about 7,000 troops commanded by United States army officers assisted by graduates of the approved military schools throughout the United States.

The first graduate of the New Mexico Military Institute to receive an appointment is Capt. George W. Reed, Jr., who graduated in the class of 1902, and who is now serving as an assistant instructor and tactical officer at the institute.

Captain Reed has received orders to report on board of the steamer Coquit, which sails from San Francisco on April 2, direct to Hong Kong where passengers for Manila will be transferred. Upon reaching Manila, Captain Reed will be commissioned a third lieutenant and assigned to duty in one of the provinces. When Captain Curry visited the institute last fall he spoke in the highest terms of the constabulary and advised the cadets to strive for commissions in that branch of the service, declaring it preferable to the regular army, for young men who are desirous of seeing active service as well as to gain promotion.

Captain Reed is an honor graduate and a thorough military man, having made a special study of military science and garrison duty and has commanded a company for over three years. He is a magnificent specimen of western manhood, standing over six feet in height and weighing 185 pounds. He has no fear of the climate for he has not been ill a day in his life and expects to follow the service as a life work. The commissioning of this graduate shows that the war department appreciates the work that is being accomplished by the Military Institute and opens a splendid field for its graduates. The government is in need of young men thoroughly trained in military science and the Spanish language, both of which are mastered by the graduates of the New Mexico Military Institute. It is expected that several of the young men out of the class of 1904 will receive commissions shortly after graduation.

WALTER "JUAN" DAVIS IN A LAWSUIT

Denver, March 18.—Walter "Juan" Davis, a writer for newspapers and magazines, filed a suit in the district court of Denver today against Harper Bros. Publishing company of New York, asking for $10,000 damages for alleged mutilation of his story "A Spendthrift," which was published in Harper's Weekly of January this year. The story as published was a reduction to about one-half its original length, and in editing, the plaintiff claims, his work was destroyed of its literary features and otherwise badly mutilated.

[Note.—Walter J. Davis represented Santa Fe county in the lower house of the territorial legislature years ago as a democrat. Captain W. E. Dame, now of this city, was the other democratic member in the legislature from Santa Fe county at that time.]

MANCHURIAN BRIGANDS ATTACK RUSSIANS

New Chwang, March 18.—A band of mounted Manchurian brigands swooped down upon the Russian outpost near Pan Chan, a town near Port Arthur. For a time the Russians withstood the attack but finally were forced to retreat, leaving two maxima on the field. Casualties are not stated. The Russian flag which had been flying on the public buildings at New Chwang was hauled down and replaced by French emblem.

REGARDS THE KOREANS NEUTRAL

St. Petersburg, March 18.—A communication from the foreign office is published here to the effect that Russia does not regard Korea as belligerent and will not do so until there is evidence that Korea is actually making common cause with Japan. The communication, after asserting that Russia considers it implicitly a neutral state acting under pressure by Japan and deprived of the power of free action, and Russia cannot therefore regard as valid any treaty to benefit Japan, proceeds: "Should Russian troops encounter Korean forces operating against Russians under the influence of Japanese officers, who are forcing them to act against the wishes of the Korean government, Russians are instructed not to fight them as though they were troops of a belligerent state, but to confine themselves to placing them under arrest."

STRONG DENIALS FROM AN ADMIRAL

St. Petersburg, March 18.—Admiral Sackalburg, who on account of illness has turned over the command of the Vladivostok squadron to Captain Reitsenstein, arrived in St. Petersburg. He gives earnestly a different version of some reports emanating from Japanese sources regarding the events before he left. The cruise of the squadron from February 9 to 15, in Japanese waters, was for its effect on the inhabitants of the population in northern Japan. He denies that he fired on Japanese merchantmen in Sangar straits. He says the ships were captured and a storm coming up the crews and passengers were taken off, one steamer was sunk and the other, a worthless tramp steamer, was allowed to carry the news to the Japanese. There never was a bombardment of Hakodate, which is heavily fortified. He expressed the opinion that the war would be of long duration as the Japanese had made extensive preparations.

Not Confirmed.

St. Petersburg, March 18.—5:30 p. m.—Admiral has received no confirmation of the loss of torpedo boat destroyer Shoroff off Port Arthur.

Protected by United States.

Roswell, March 18.—The United States cruiser Cincinnati took to Cherof, the Korean General Yihak Kamen, and the chamberlain, Haksang, both advocates of the declaration of neutrality of Korea which was submitted to the powers in January, the effect of which would have been favorable to Russia. When the Japanese were victorious at Chemulpo, Haksang was dejected to fly from the country and asked Minister Allen to allow him to go on the Cincinnati. Allen declined unless the Japanese Minister Hayashi had no objections. The latter offered to take him away a Japanese coast, but Haksang was afraid to accept and renewed requests to Minister Allen, to which Minister Hayashi consented.

WHERE CIVILIZATION KILLS.

The latest group of people to be killed off by civilization is that inhabiting the Engano Islands, south of Sumatra. There were 5,000 of them in 1854. There are but 500 left at present.

A Japanese health official went over to learn what was the matter. He found that out of 112 married couples 53 had no children, 17 had only one, eight had only two, seven had three and six had four. Yet the islanders are healthy and strongly built.

The cause of the falling off in the doctor's opinion, lay in too close contact of late with foreigners.

The same thing has been noticed in the Sandwich Islands. Under such circumstances backward races in a few years rush through a development which more advanced nations reach in centuries. Fifteen years ago the Engano Islanders went about without clothes and lived in small huts like beehives. Now they wear Malay costume and live in houses. A quicker overturn cannot be imagined. Primitive races cannot stand such change.

IMMIGRATION STILL INCREASING

The report of the commissioner of immigration for the year ending June 30, 1903, gives no reason to hope for an immediate diminution in numbers, or as improvement in the quality of the foreign hordes which arrive on every steamer. On the contrary there is an increase of 22 per cent over the previous year. The total number of arrivals was 857,046, and of these 230,622 came from Italy, 206,011 from Austria-Hungary, and 130,098 from Russia. These together make up about two-thirds, and the remainder were Germans, Irish and minor races in small numbers.

The immigrants from the three countries which sent the largest representation are nearly all Italians and Slavs, for very few Germans emigrate from Austria-Hungary.

The immigration problem is not the most important one now before congress. The interests of good citizenship demand that it be settled in the near future and settled in such a way that the country may be protected from wholesale foreign pollution.

THE MASONIC SIGN.

A most striking feature of the recent kidnapping in Texas, says the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, in which a railroad employe was carried off by bandits for the purpose of extorting a ransom from his relatives, is the manner of his release. The prisoner, after negotiating every possible means of escape, thought to deliver the Masonic sign of distress. No sooner done than one of the bandits, who was also a Mason, recognized it, and at the first opportunity assisted his fellow-Mason to escape. It will be seen from this how inadvisable, indeed, how useless it is for a Mason to enter upon any criminal career. He is likely at the very moment that his plans are afoot, aching fruitless to see them all fall in ruin at the high sign of a brother member. One can be sure of nothing. The bond of Masonry is more powerful than any other bond. The superlative value of membership in this sworn brotherhood is also shown by this incident. You can never tell when you may need its aids above you, and its strong right arm to support, and wherever you are under the eternal twilight skies of the Arctic or the blazing southern cross, the Masonic sign of distress may deliver you from danger, may shelter you from fire, flood and earthquake, may soften the eye of hate and lower the arm of revenge, spread the table of hospitality, prompt the cup of cheer and open hearts and pocketbooks. But it is tough on the man who goes into the hands of bandits.

LOOKING FORWARD.

HE.
I loved her once, I wonder why?
I grieved because she answered no;
Without her love I longed to die,
She laughed because I told her so.
I foolishly supposed that I
Was worthy of my love and care,
But heartlessly she laughed at me
And turned and left me grieving there.

SHE.

He loved me once, I wonder why
I had the heart to answer no?
He craved my love, as well do I
Recall the day he told me so.
Why was he not content to wait,
Why did he come so soon to woo?
Why didn't men start by being great,
And then come seeking love—hoo-hoo!

Miners Confer with Burns.

Colorado Springs, March 18.—A committee of the Portland miners, representing employees of that property, arrived here this morning and immediately went into conference with President James F. Burns. It is understood that Burns will back the committee, which will recommend all employees of the Portland to withdraw from the Western Federation of Miners, form a new union and ally themselves with the American Federation of Labor.

Charity's Sale.

Charles Chadwick, plaintiff, vs. Josie Chadwick, defendant.—No. 9338.
Notice is hereby given that I, the undersigned sheriff of Bernalillo county, Territory of New Mexico, will, on the 18th day of April, 1904, at the hour of two o'clock p. m., on said day, at the office of Charles Chadwick and Company, being No. 118 West Gold avenue in the city of Albuquerque, Bernalillo county, New Mexico, expose at public sale for cash all the right, title and interest of the said Charles Chadwick in and to the following personal property and chattels, to-wit:

- 1 Roll top desk, 1 safe, 1 heating stove and boiler, 1 letter press, 1 typewriter, 2 rockers, 1 cane seated chair, 1 office chair, 1 desk chair, 3 cupboards, 1 waste paper basket, 10 wooden chairs, 1 dictionary, 11 pictures, 1 flat top table, 1 table cover, 1 desk and stationery, 1 hat rack, 1 imitation desk folding bed, 1 camp bed and contents, 1 folding bed (military front), mattress springs, and bed clothes, 1 dresser, 1 Winchester rifle, 1 guitar, 1 rocker, 1 leather couch, 1 leather seated chair, 1 rug, 1 sofa pillow (moon face), 1 hair brush, 1 hat rack and mirror, 2 window shades, 10 pictures, 1 wash stand, 1 ice chest, 2 chairs, 1 linen closet, 1 side board and glasses, 1 kitchen cupboard, 1 sink, 1 small table, 1 gas stove, 2 baking ovens, table dishes, 1 dining table, kitchen utensils, 2 pictures.

The above described personal property and chattels having been levied upon by me by virtue of and to satisfy an execution issued out of and under the seal of the district court of the Second Judicial district of Bernalillo county, Territory of New Mexico, which execution was duly returned as the above described property was not discovered in sufficient time to enable him to sell the same during the life of the execution, and thereupon, an alias execution issued in and upon the 20th day of February, A. D. 1904, and was directed to me, the undersigned sheriff of the county of Bernalillo, as had been heretofore commanded, by order of the court, for the sum of six hundred dollars damages and with interest to date of sale of $11.50 and $14.05 costs of suit, in pursuance and by virtue of a certain judgment in the cause entitled Charles Chadwick, plaintiff, vs. Josie Chadwick, defendant, being No. 4335 on the civil docket of the Bernalillo county district court, the same being a judgment upon a cross-complaint filed in the said suit by the defendant, Josie Chadwick, as cross-complainant, against Charles Chadwick as cross-defendant, for divorce from the bonds of matrimony and alimony, the said judgment being given to the cross-complainant, Josie Chadwick, for a divorce and the above amount given as alimony in said cause, upon which judgment was duly rendered on the 21st day of December, A. D. 1903, in favor of said cross-complainant, Josie Chadwick, and against the said cross-defendant, Charles Chadwick for the sum of $600.00 damages and $18.05 costs of suit, with interest thereon from the said 21st day of December, A. D. 1903 until paid at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, and also the costs that may accrue.

TORPEDO BOATS.

The practical value of torpedo boats has been a subject of speculation among naval experts of the world for a good many years. Generally speaking, they have received higher consideration abroad than in this country, which accounts for the comparatively small number in our navy. At present the United States has fifty-eight torpedo boats, Japan 104, Germany 140, Italy 166, Russia 229, Great Britain 255 and France 258.

Rear Admiral Taylor, chief of the bureau of navigation, has heretofore been an opponent of the torpedo boat, but is now quoted as saying that the success of the Japanese "proves the value of this craft for just this kind of work."

The Japanese appear to have developed the torpedo to a higher state of efficiency than any other nation. In the China-Japanese war a Chinese fleet protected by a double line of submarine mines, was bottled up in the harbor of Wei-Hai-Wei by Admiral Ho. After two unsuccessful attempts to send in torpedo boats the Japanese finally effected an entrance with seven of the little craft and sank the battleship Ting Yuen. One of the assailants, however, was sunk by a Chinese shell, three went aground, two smashed their propellers on the rocks and the remaining one escaped unhurt, but with the captain frozen to death in the conning tower. The next night the attack was renewed and three more Chinese ships were sent to the bottom.

MILITARY SITES CHOSEN.

The house committee on military affairs has agreed on four sites for military campgrounds, and authorized a favorable report on a bill for their purchase.

Provision, also, is made for the enlargement of the Chattanooga and Chickamauga National park by the acquisition of 10,000 acres of land at a cost of $100,000.

The camp sites selected are: At or near Fort Stan Johnston, Bexarko, Texas, where from 15,000 to 25,000 acres are to be acquired at a cost of $125,000.

Camp Douglas, in Juneau and Monroe counties, Wisconsin, 20,000 acres at a cost of $400,000.

Conewago Valley in Lebanon, Dauphin and Lancaster counties in Pennsylvania, 15,000 acres at a cost of $200,000.

The J. N. Henry ranch, San Luis Obispo county, Cal., 22,000 acres at a cost of $200,000.

The bill provides that no permanent military posts shall be established on any of these sites.

Whether or not Mr. Smoot can be debarred from his seat in the United States senate is a mooted question. But it is very clear that the polygamist practices of many of the high lights of the Mormon church are incompatible with the American idea of the sacredness of the marriage tie and that the whole power of the federal government must be invoked to put an end to them.

The Roswell Record says that if we are admitted to statehood under the name of Arizona, we will have the privilege of coming next to first on the roll of all national conventions. Only Alabama will take alphabetical precedence of us.

Miss Ackerman of the Universe Peace society is going to try to get Russia and Japan to stop fighting. Somebody had better start it first.

NOTICE.

In the District Court of the County of Sandoval, Territory of New Mexico. Trinidad Baca, Maria de los Angeles Gutierrez de Baca, Teresa Gutierrez de Baca, Blas Ortiz, Dolores Ortiz, Clara Olivas de Ortiz, Dolores Ortiz, Guadalupe Ortiz, Lemora Ortiz, Miquela Ortiz, Quiteria Ortiz and Crescencio Montoya, plaintiffs, vs. The Unknown Heirs of Jacinto Palacios, deceased; the Unknown Heirs of Maria Palacios, deceased; the Unknown Heirs of Maria Fernandez de la Padilla, deceased; the Unknown Heirs of Paulino Montoya, deceased; the Unknown Heirs of Juan Jose Silva, deceased; the Unknown Heirs of Pedro Gonzalez, deceased; the Unknown Heirs of Miguel Ortiz, deceased; all unknown owners of the lands herein described, and all unknown claimants of interests adverse to the plaintiffs in and to the real estate herein described, defendants.—No. 26.

You the above named defendants and each of you are hereby notified that the above named plaintiffs have commenced their action against you in the above named court, being cause No. 26 on the docket of said court; that the general object of said action is to secure a partition of the real estate hereinafter described according to the rights of the several owners thereof, and to require you and each of you to come in and set up or prove your respective interests in and to said premises or be forever barred. In case partition of said premises cannot be had without material injury to the interests of the respective owners, then for a sale of said premises and a division of the proceeds thereof between the parties according to their respective rights; and that the plaintiffs' estate in said premises, together with that of their co-owners, may be established against the adverse claims of said defendants. "All unknown claimants of interests adverse to the plaintiffs in and to the real estate herein described"; and that said adverse claims be determined and held for naught, and said adverse claimants be forever enjoined and barred from asserting any claim whatever adverse to said plaintiffs and their co-owners and for all such relief as the parties may be entitled to in law or in equity.

Said real estate is situated in the counties of Sandoval and Santa Fe, in the Territory of New Mexico, and described as follows, to-wit:

The tract of land commonly called "La Malada Grant," and bounded on the north by a line running from east to west one league north of the spring on the said tract of land known as "El Ojito de la Cueva de Rio Mesa"; on the south by the north boundary line of the land of the Indian pueblo of Santa Domingo; on the east by the "Bocas de Santa"; on the west by the Rio Grande, and containing according to the official survey thereof 51,494.3 acres, as will more fully appear from the record of said survey on file in the office of the surveyor general of New Mexico, reference to which is hereby made.

And you are further notified that the plaintiffs' attorneys are McMillin & Raynolds, whose postoffice address is Albuquerque, New Mexico, and that unless you and each of you enter your appearance in said cause on or before the 2nd day of May, 1904, judgment will be rendered against you and each of you by default.

W. E. DAME.

Clerk of said Court.

WOUNDED AND SICK OF PORT ARTHUR

Port Arthur, March 18.—According to information received from Russia at Shanghai, during the fighting at Port Arthur, February 10 and 11, the battleship Albatross was struck by ten projectiles and seriously damaged. Two Japanese battleships and two cruisers have been docked for repairs at Nagasaki and Sasebo, and 2,000 wounded men are said to be in Japanese hospitals. All the Russian sick and wounded at Port Arthur are making good progress towards recovery.

A Yellow Race Theory.

St. Petersburg, March 18.—2 p. m.—The Gazette expresses the hope that the Anglo-French understanding will result in a more friendly attitude on the part of Great Britain towards Russia. A diplomat representing a small European power expressing hope that China will join Japan on the theory that all —e white powers, including the United States, will then be compelled to form a coalition and stop the war which would ruin trade of the whole world with China; but fears Japan realizes the danger and will decline China's aid.

Troops are Withdrawn.

Berlin, March 18.—A correspondent of the Lokal Anzeiger, at Seoul, in a dispatch dated yesterday confirms the previous report that about 2,000 Japanese pioneers are engaged in building a field railroad from Seoul northward and says the railroad from Pusan to Seoul will not be completed before October. The correspondent also confirms the report that the Russian horse artillery has withdrawn for the north bank of the Yalu, and says a part of the cavalry has also been withdrawn, leaving the only weak point at Syon Chyon south of Wiju.

Probably Another Faisheh.

Paris, March 18.—5:35 p. m.—No reports at the foreign office or elsewhere confirming the Bourse rumor of a recent Japanese defeat which probably grew out of unconfirmed Shanghai reports of the defeat of 230 Japanese by Russian forces of 300.

OFFICIAL MATTERS.

A ROSE.

A rose of someone's yesterday—
It fell from out the dusty book
That was by someone cast away
To lie in this forgotten nook.
And here's
