GREAT REVIVAL CLOSES SUNDAY

WITH 81 CONVERTS ON SUNDAY,
AND OVER 300 TO DATE,
BIG REVIVAL SWEEPS
TOWARD CLIMAX

The Lockhart-Brooks Revival in the Armory will close Sunday in a great Home Coming and Rally next Sunday. A real Drive is being made for 1000 in the Sunday schools. Following the Sunday schools the various schools will form in parade and march under their own banners to the armory at 10:45 for the big demonstration of the day. Following the Armory meeting there will be a big panoramic picture taken of the one thousand.

Sunday was a great day with eighty-one converts coming out for Christ and the church in Sunday services. On Monday night the Evangelistic party went to Loving and staged a real one night revival with thirty-seven converts, with many prominent people among them. Next Sunday Evangelists Lockhart and Brooks will center all their efforts in the two big services of the day, morning at eleven and the closing Sunday night service. Mr. Lockhart announced that he would yield the afternoon service out of respect to Military funeral conducted by the American Legion.

Friday evening is to be "Business Men's" night and every firm and profession are asked to bring some symbol or expression of their business. It is to be a very novel service and always most interesting. The sermon that night will be "The True Home" and "Dads" will have the right of way.

Last Sunday evening the evangelist said in part:

Evangelist Lockhart preached Sunday night on the text, "All Things Are Now Ready". He showed that men today as in the days of Jesus all "begin by one consent to make excuse." He said, Mr. Moody was right in his statement that all excuses are lies. "Why," said Mr. Lockhart, "you people have become so hardened to the Gospel invitation and have resisted it so long and excused yourselves so many times that even your little children begin to make excuses and take your words out of your mouth and say, 'I'm too young.' How old had a child ought to be when they accept the Gospel. I will tell you. They ought to be old enough to really want to accept and then they should be encouraged. I baptized an old man ninety-one years old, and this year one 85, and one seventy-three, but I don't believe these old men knew any more what they are doing than these bright Sunday school children who come in simple trusting faith. They alike realize they are lost without Christ and they want to accept Him and obey him. Parents don't do it, do not keep your children from doing right. In a few years they won't want to be Christians and they will get up and walk away from the call to the better life and soon they will be on the modern toboggan slide to hell.

I tell you that all things are now ready, and a man says to me, 'Yes I know it is the right thing but I can't understand the Bible.' My friend, you don't live up to what you do understand. The Bible says 'Thou shalt not take the name of God in vain. You can understand that. The Bible says, thou shalt not steal nor lie. You can understand that. The Bible says, thou shalt not commit adultery, you old libertine that are damning your own soul, disgracing your family and ruining their lives, you can understand that. The Bible says 'He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved. You can understand that. Oh no, it is not that you can not understand you simply have not got the manhood and backbone to get up and say I am through with this double life and I am going to put sin behind me forever and in penitence cry out and say, 'What must I do to be saved?' Sir, on the day of Pentecost, Peter preached one sermon, the first Gospel sermon, and three thousand souls were saved. They had heard but one sermon, and three thousand of them understood enough to be saved. You have heard three thousand sermons and still you stand and whine 'I would come but I don't understand'.

Following with rapid fire the evangelist dealt with the man that says, 'I'm waiting for a call, I am good enough, I am too bad, I am waiting for a friend. Too many hypocrites (here the evangelist picked up a song book and said, drawing back as if to throw it, I throw this song book and say, 'look out down there you old hypocrite and let her fly, there would be people dodging all over this audience, and they wouldn't all be church members either) I don't feel like it, I don't believe in your church, not tonight, and I am afraid I cannot hold out. "Now," said Mr. Lockhart, "I may not have touched your excuse but listen to me, I want you to get in mind the excuse you have been giving for not accepting Jesus Christ and if that excuse is good enough to keep you from walking down this aisle tonight and accepting Christ it is good enough for you to build your life on. I want you to take that excuse and have it printed in letters of gold and have it framed and placed in your room where the first thing you see of a morning will be your excuse and the last thing at night. I want you to have a copy in your place of business and like the motto on the wall let this excuse be the guide of your life. And then some day when a little white casket comes gliding into your home as it came late into mine, I want you to turn to your excuse for consolation, and then when you get the yellow envelope with the message in it that mother is dying, turn to your excuse that you gave her for rejecting Christ and find comfort as you then when you come to the last hour of life and your eye is growing dim and your voice is growing husky, turn your eye yonder to your excuse and murmur it over again and as you go down into the dark valley of the shadow of death take your excuse with you and on the morning of the resurrection as you stand before the Lord to receive the judgment of a misspent life bring your excuse and say 'Here Lord is the excuse I have to offer for not accepting your love and salvation. My friend, will your excuse stand that test? If it will hang on to it. If it will not, throw it down tonight, stand on it and walk out down this aisle tonight and accept Jesus Christ. Come just now as we stand to sing."

Meetings at the Armory continue and Sunday night will be the close of the series. Sunday afternoon the Armory was crowded with ladies and girls to hear the message brought by the minister. A double quartette of ladies furnished a beautiful number, and a fine offering was received; a number of conversions occurred at this service. The childrens meeting last night was wonderful—there is no other word to adequately describe the exercises in Bible knowledge acquired by the seventy-five children who answered questions asked by Mrs. Brooks, with out any hesitation, and with one voice. The facts they have learned during the three weeks of the meeting are such as they will never forget. An offering for Mrs. Brooks was received amounting to about thirty-four dollars.

DEATH OF LITTLE ISABEL DOW

A wire from Hon. Robert C. Dow announcing the death of their little baby, Isabel, received last Saturday afternoon, brought sadness to the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dow, who have been anxious about the little one for many weary months. Little Isabel was only two years and three months old at the time of her death. A lovely flower, she entered early in life into a heritage of pain and suffering. For some months it has been known that the little one could not recover, and the faithful mother made a hopeless journey to Mayo Brothers at Rochester, Minnesota, where the diagnosis of home physicians was confirmed. All that human love could suggest was done and at last a visit to Fort Worth was undertaken hoping for some benefit, but the life went out at 12:10 last Saturday.

The body was brought to Carlsbad Monday night on the train from the south and burial was from the Methodist church Tuesday morning at 10:30, after comforting funeral services were conducted by Rev. Douglas. A quartet of friends sang some of the old hymns that breathe of hope and faith and the wasted little form, in its beautiful white bed, was tenderly carried to the cemetery, where it was laid to rest by the side of Mr. Dow's father, who died many years ago. Judge Armstrong, John Wells, Marvin and Carl Livingston, were the pall bearers. So many and such beautiful flowers are seldom seen on an occasion like this, and they were in every instance, the gift of loving hearts.

Little Isabel is gone and the mother's arms are empty and the parents' hearts are sad for their baby, but the Christian faith and hope whispers of a land where death never comes and where flowers never fade, where in God's good time the family will be again united.

"My Lord hath need of these flowers," said, and smiled; Glad tokens of the earth are they Where He was once a child.

"And the mother gave with tears and pain The flower she most did love; She knew she would find her one again In the brighter world above."

A number of folks from Carlsbad and vicinity motored down to Loving Monday night to attend the one night revival services held there. A most successful meeting resulted, with a number of conversions at the close. Persons in age from twelve to sixty-nine went forward and gave evidence of a desire to seek a better life. Among those who went down from here were the evangelist and singer, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Daugherty, Miss Clyde Pearce, Reverend and Mrs. Sellards, C. L. Grant and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Nail, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mahan, and Miss Mahan, Reverends Lowry and Douglas of Carlsbad, Terry of Dayton and Carlton, the Methodist pastor, who regularly serves the church at Loving, Mr. and Mrs. Regnier and daughter, Ellsworth family, W. C. Bates and wife, C. W. Mercer, and others. The meeting was held in the Methodist church and many were unable to get inside the building, but were seated in their cars, where they could hear the preaching.

Brooks, with out any hesitation, and with one voice. The facts they have learned during the three weeks of the meeting are such as they will never forget. An offering for Mrs. Brooks was received amounting to about thirty-four dollars.

DR. CUNNINGHAM BURIED SUNDAY AT MEADOW CITY

Las Vegas, N. M., May 7.—The funeral of Dr. J. M. Cunningham, president of the First National bank was held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from St. Paul's Memorial Episcopal church. Rev. J. S. Moore had charge of the services, which were attended by a large number of people from Las Vegas and from all parts of New Mexico. The casket was buried in floral pieces.

Interment was in Masonic cemetery. The pall bearers were all employees of the First National bank and were Richard Devine, Frank Straas, Sketchley Moore, R. B. Schoonmaker, Lawrence Tamme and Jay Palmer.

Dr. Cunningham was born in Newton-Hamilton, Pa., June 12, 1846. He was a graduate of Hahnemann Medical college, Chicago, and after leaving college practiced his profession in Council Bluffs, Iowa.

In the year 1873 he came to New Mexico and located in the town of Cimarron, in Colfax county, where he practiced his profession and became interested with the late W. R. Morley, at that time locating engineer for the Santa Fe Railway company, and with Hon. Frank Springer, and Charles Springer in the development of the Maxwell land grant, and other real estate enterprises in northern New Mexico.

In 1876 he moved to Las Vegas, N. M., and has been a resident of this community ever since that time. He continued the practice of medicine until 1895. In 1892 he was elected president of the San Miguel National bank and devoted the greater part of his time to the management of that financial institution, which bank became one of the strongest in the territory and state of New Mexico. Two years ago when the First National bank consolidated, taking the name of the former institution, Dr. Cunningham was elected president of the consolidated corporation.

For many years he was also engaged in the cattle business with H. M. Porter, then a resident of Cimarron, N. M., but now a resident of Denver, Colo., their company being known as the Red River Cattle company and their ranches and grazing lands being located in western Socorro county. This cattle business was disposed of more than ten years ago. Dr. Cunningham was also for many years the owner and interested in the development of the Model farm, lying east of the town of Springer, and his son Charles, operated this ranch until it was sold a few years ago.

For more than 25 years he was a member of the board of trustees of the Maxwell Land Grant company, which company controlled and operated the vast estates of the Maxwell Land Grant company in northern New Mexico and southern Colorado.

During the world war he was appointed by Governor Lindsey chairman of the San Miguel county council of defense and he entered this work with his characteristic energy giving liberally of his time and funds during that long and difficult struggle.

He served one term as mayor of the city of Las Vegas. He was also a member of the constitutional convention for the state of New Mexico, which was signed on the 21st day of November, A. D. 1910.

He was a Mason, being a member of Chapman lodge of this city and was also a Knight Templar. On January 12 of this year the Masonic lodge of this city paid him the high tribute of presenting to him a gold medal as one of the oldest and most faithful of its members.

Thirty-nine years ago he was married in Kansas City, Mo., to Miss Belle Burris. To this union were born four children, Charles, Marguerite (now Mrs. John H. Clary of El Paso, Tex.), Helen Cunningham of the home address and Louise (now Mrs. Rosamond Graham, of Berkeley, Calif.). The son, Charles Cunningham, died in September, 1921. Dr. Cunningham is survived by his widow, his children, Mrs. John Clary of El Paso, Tex., Miss Helen of Las Vegas, and Mrs. Rosamond Graham, and four grandsons, namely, John Clary, Jr., and James Clary of El Paso, and Joseph M. Cunningham and Barris Cunningham, residents of Springer, N. M., and sons of Charles Cunningham; also by a brother, W. O. Cunningham, who lives at Kingfisher, Okla., and a nephew, Joseph M. Cunningham, of Carlsbad, N. M.

FLEMING, RANCHMAN, SHOOT HELLMAN, N. M. L. CADET

Cadet E. J. Hellman, whose home is in Oklahoma, was seriously injured this morning at the Fleming ranch about 20 miles northwest of Roswell, when he was shot in the left foot, with a shot gun, which was in the hands of Joe Fleming, who lives on the ranch.

The cadets had started to Pine Lodge this morning to spend several days, in accordance with plans which have been made for some time. At the Fleming ranch they stopped for a drink, and a number of the cadets got off the truck and went to the windmill to get a drink. Without warning Fleming came from the house and began shooting at the cadets. Hellman was standing with his back to the house and was shot in the left ankle. He was brought to Roswell and taken to St. Mary's hospital, where he underwent an operation. At present it is not known whether his foot will be saved or not.

From reports from the cadets, it seems that Fleming had the idea that the cadets were going to do some harm to his place, or turn his cattle out of the pasture. No other indication as to his act is known.

LISTEN PARENTS— WILL YOUR LITTLE ONE BE NEXT?

In 1921 six little fellows of Eddy county between the ages of six months and eleven years died from that universally dreaded disease diphtheria. Many more were afflicted with this disease and saved from death only by the timely and heroic efforts of their family physicians. Every year diphtheria takes its toll and 1922 will not be an exception unless you do something to protect your little ones from its ravages.

Diphtheria is a preventable disease and your child should receive the benefits of recent scientific discoveries. See your family physician at once and ask him to protect your child permanently against this disease, or confer with your Health Officer about the matter.

PICTURE PURCHASED

The Carlsbad Woman's Club, thru its committee, has purchased one of the pictures recently sent out from Santa Fe for exhibition at the different clubs of the state. The picture is a canvas by Rollins, and is called "The Arroyo" and will be hung on the walls of the Club Room. The Committee having the selection of the picture in charge were Mrs. F. F. Doepp, Mrs. George Brantley and Miss Jennie Lion.

Mr. and Mrs. John Garrett came in from their home at Lovington the first of the week, coming first to Roswell and from there here. They were detained here by a car that needed some attention for one thing, and for another were persuaded to partake of a chicken dinner at the home of Mrs. Holly Benson, Mrs. Garrett's sister. Mr. Garrett says that things on his ranch are doing fine and he has met with scarcely any losses of cattle, he having plenty of old grass when the drought set in and when the rains came his pastures greened up at once. They had a pleasant visit with kinfolks, and especially enjoyed the company of the little grandson, John Spencer Windham, leaving for their home Wednesday.

Vernie Ramuz, an old time Carlsbad boy, came in this week from Mexico, and after a few days stay with relatives here and in other parts of the valley will leave for points in Arizona, his exact destination not having been fully decided upon. He was accompanied to Carlsbad by his brother, Philip, of Dayton.

Howard Hester, of Los Angeles, and Fletcher Scaife, of El Paso, who were in Carlsbad to attend the illness and subsequent death of their mother, Mrs. Mary Scaife, returned to their respective homes the latter part of last week.

An automobile accident occurred Sunday afternoon as some young people were returning to their homes from an automobile ride southeast of the city. While on the highway near the Wersell place, the car, driven by Elmer Forehand, ran off the embankment, and was a total wreck. The steering gear becoming locked was the cause of all the trouble. In the car, besides the driver, were Miss Mary Hume, Miss Henrietta Dille, George Thomas, and John Owen Eaken. It seems a strange thing that none of the crowd were hurt, beyond a few bruises. Parties passing brought them to town.

A find that may or may not mean a great deal to some stockman in this vicinity was made at Tansill Dam last Sunday, by Ralph Mahan. It consisted of two cow hides tied up in a gunny sack and when opened were found to be the hide of a Hereford cow, which was branded JH bar on the left side, the ears being marked crop and underloope on the right and swallow fork on the left. The other was the hide of a brown Jersey cow bearing no brand, but having a split in both ears. The hides were turned over to Sheriff Batton who now has them in his possession.

"FARMERS AND RANCHERS DAY" TO BE BIG EVENT

Committees in charge of the arrangements for the "Farmers and Ranchers Day" that is to be held on Friday, May 19, report excellent progress and predict a record crowd for the event. This is the opening day of the Redpath-Horner and Carlsbad is entertaining the farmer and ranchman with the Chautauqua as an added attraction. The entire personnel of the summer circuit will be in Carlsbad for this day and will depart for the trip through over one hundred and eighty nine cities, broadcasting wonderful tales of the City Beautiful as seen on "Farmers and Ranchers day". Through special arrangement with Mr. Horner, who will attend the celebration, free tickets will be given every farmer and rancher present, to the opening program of the Chautauqua; these tickets to be the gift of the city of Carlsbad to the farmer and rancher. Mr. Horner, in an address recently in Kansas City stated that the Chautauqua desired no publicity through the activities of this opening day, only desiring that the people meet the talent and make the day a grand picnic of good fellowship in the "better acquainted" campaign; farmers, ranchers, townspeople and Chautauqua assembling together for a big summer holiday.

The morning will be devoted to shopping, swimming, motoring and sports on the Polo Grounds. All merchants have arranged special sales that will be held for this day only. Cars will be at the disposal of the visitors at all hours. Boy Scouts and Cavalrymen will act as special police. The ticket booths will be placed at prominent locations where the guests will call for their free tickets to the afternoon performance of the Chautauqua. There will be an exhibition Polo game and mounted sports on the Polo Grounds during the morning. At noon lunches will be spread on the Court House lawn. Everyone is requested to bring a picnic dinner but arrangements will be made to serve those who are unable to bring the lunch. Coffee and lemonade will be served by the Chamber of Commerce and the Boy Scouts.

This is a golden opportunity for the promotion of ideals of Carlsbad over one of the largest Chautauqua Circuits and no chances should be overlooked toward making this day a glorious success. The committees will appreciate any suggestions for all additions to the program and the hearty support of all "City Beautiful Boosters."

FIELD DAY AND RODEO AT LOVING.

The Field Day and Rodeo at Loving yesterday took many of our citizens to the pretty little village where they were entertained in fine shape by the hospitable people of the town. Three heaves were barbecued for the occasion and there was plenty of bread, pickles and onions and coffee for the large crowd present both for dinner and supper. The barbecue was under the direction of Tom Fletcher, a past master of the art of cooking beef in this manner and many pronounced the feast the best they had ever eaten. School exercises and a play in the evening, followed by a dance brot the successful affair to a close. A full report will be given with the names of the prize winners in next week's paper. The ball game in the afternoon was the occasion for much enthusiasm on the part of Loving fans, as the score ended 7 to 3 in favor of Loving in their game with Carlsbad's team. This is the second defeat they have administered to Carlsbad recently and have an excellent team when the size of the town is considered.

The Carlsbad band furnished excellent music for the occasion and was loudly cheered by the crowd. Frank Roseler caught the greased pig and the results of the goat roping were as follows:

Thed Dolk, no time. Bill Nymeyer, no time. Andy Teel, 30 1-5 seconds. Lucas Fletcher, 44 3-5 seconds. B. A. Nymeyer, 46 seconds. Shake Woodson 29 4-5 seconds. Jim Farrell 51 seconds. Joe Welch, no time. Joe Arroyo, 42 1-5 seconds.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Riley came in from their home on the Plains last Sunday and on their return took with them Mrs. Riley's father, Mr. Couch, who had been an inmate of Eddy County Hospital for several months. A house was taken in Lovington and the sick man removed there where he will be nearer his relatives and friends.

Stanley Blocker left Wednesday morning for El Paso where, if he likes the conditions, he will enlist in the U. S. Army with the intention of learning a trade. Stanley wishes to become either a mechanic or learn electrical work and many friends here where he was born and grew up are wishing him the best of luck in his new venture. It is rumored that other Carlsbad young men may follow his example.

Mrs. W. K. Jones is up today from Malaga, where she has been at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Hoag, for a fortnight from her home in the north part of the state. Mrs. Hoag has been quite ill but is better at this time and Mrs. Jones and daughter will likely soon leave for their homes.

Never before could you get so much tire worth for $10.90

AR-OWNERS who bought a 30x3 1/2 "Usco" for $10.90 last Fall have discovered this by now—

Nobody before ever got so much tire value in the neighborhood of ten dollars.

They never had to question the quality—with the makers of U. S. Royal Cords behind it.

They couldn't help admiring the price—spontaneously made to meet the new economy times.

A tire that would be high value at more than $10.90.

At $10.90 it is unapproached.

HAY TRADE CONDITIONS OF THE WEEK

The hay markets are generally firm with some price advance in top qualities in the east. Western markets are quiet and featureless and there is a general trend toward cleaning up consumers' stocks preliminary to pasturing. Good weather has not seemed to increase country loadings as most farmers are busy getting in crops.—Hay Trade Journal.

"High School Night" at the union revival services at the Armory, last Friday, proved one of the very interesting nights of the service. The hall was packed with a group of High School boys and girls, who gave songs and yells with a vim that delighted the large audience present and after their songs had been given, with Miss Catherine Purdy as song leader and Carl Loveless and Virgil McCollum leaders of the yells, yells were given for Reverend Lockhart and Mr. Brooks. Afterwards the Junior choir gave a yell for the C. H. S., and the High School responded by yelling for the "Kids".

The auditorium had been decorated in festoons of blue and white, the High School colors, and the magic letters, "C. H. S." were shown in a prominent place, at the rear of the speaker's stand.

About seventy-five persons came down from Artesia to attend the service, Reverend Davis of the Methodist church and Reverend Matthews of the Presbyterian church, being seated on the stage with the other ministers, and making talks at the close of the sermon. Talks were also made by several men from Artesia, and all were in a very happy mood. Several young men and women went forward at the close of the sermon in response to the call.

Some twenty or twenty-five persons, members of the Artesia Christian church, had a picnic on the lawn of the N. T. Daughtrey home on West Fox Street last Friday evening. They were joined by a number from Carlsbad and a fine time with a delicious spread and a friendly gathering of friends was the result.

R. F. Madera and J. H. Zimmerman came in from the Madera ranch across the State line in Culberson County, Texas, Saturday. They have had no rain on the ranch for several months, and have a great many cows down, and things generally are in pretty bad shape, and unless rain comes soon he will have a heavy loss. He recently took about 300 cattle to the Cooksey ranch about thirty-five miles from his home, for pasture.

W. W. Smith was a business visitor to the City Monday from his ranch on Black river.

"Babe Campbell left the first of the week for Gallup, on some business. Campbell is 1st lieutenant of Troop B.

Mrs. E. T. Carter returned the first of the week from a three weeks visit in Webb City, Missouri, where she had a fine time with relatives.

Messrs. Thayer and Middleton were in from Queen the first of the week. They say they still need rain in their vicinity.

C. C. Lewis returns the last of the week from his trip to Chicago where he went with his sheep to the market. Word from him is that he disposed of his stock to a good advantage. A. J. Crawford, who was with Mr. Lewis, did not return with him but will be gone for several days yet.

Word from Mrs. Whitney, sister of Messdames Sam and M. L. Davis and Oscar Mercer, of this city, news of whose serious illness was received here last week, is to the effect that her condition is improving and the likelihood is that she will soon be able to travel and will then be brought to Carlsbad to the home of one of her sisters, to try what effect the climate in this part of the state will have on her health. Many friends here are anxious for her return.

The Tribune office was worked to capacity this week and then some, turning out a large amount of high-class advertising matter for Strawn merchants for Trades Day. In addition to the usual demands. The burden of the work fell upon our Mr. F. L. Perry, and for speedy workmanship and artistic topographical accomplishment, he is entitled to great credit.—Strawn Tribune.

The above "Perry" is a brother of the editor of the Current.

Mrs. John Moore and daughter, Emily, left Monday night for their home in Tela, Spanish Honduras, Central America. They have been at the home of Mrs. Moore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Geer, for the past fifteen months, having been detained here by the serious illness of her mother, who however, is now recovering rapidly and will soon be well again, and latterly by the extremely high water which is reported from Louisiana. Mrs. Moore expects to sail from New Orleans, the last of the week and will go via La Ceiba, to her destination, where her husband is in the employ of the United Fruit Company, as an electrician, having entire charge of that branch of the company's business at Tela.

P. E. O. CHAPTER ENTERTAINS
The local Chapter P. E. O. entertained at the home of Mrs. J. R. Linn Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, honoring "Mother's Day" as is their custom. A fifteen minute devotional meeting was held prior to the regular program, this part of the exercises being conducted by Mrs. Moore. A scripture reading was given by Mrs. McLenathen, hymns were sung and prayers offered. The program consisted of quotations from many sources, all honoring the name and characteristics of "Mother" which were given as answers to the roll call by the members of the chapter.

Several of the guests, who were the elderly ladies of the town, gave readings and tributes to the day, and a delightful afternoon was spent filled with memories of other days and of those who formerly met with us on similar occasions, but who are now numbered with those "loved and lost awhile."

One outstanding feature of the afternoon was the solo sung so sweetly by Mrs. Armstrong, "Amazing Grace", that old familiar hymn of our mothers, in which all joined in the refrain. A beautiful reading by Mrs. A. E. Roberts, "Mary, The Mother of Jesus," concluded the program, and afterwards delicious refreshments of cake, ice cream and yellow and white mints were served. Guests of the Chapter were Mrs. Mary Gilson, Mrs. Stanford, Mrs. Mary Thorne, Mrs. M. B. Wilson, Mrs. James Beard, Mrs. Henderson, of Malaga, Mrs. Sarah Crawford, Mrs. Rayroux and Mrs. A. Moore.

Mrs. W. F. McIlvain was a clever hostess to seven tables of bridge players at her home in North Carlsbad Monday afternoon. The house looked beautiful with a wealth of American Beauty roses as decorations and a delightful time resulted. At the games Mrs. Frank Richards made high score.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LUNCHEON

The Chamber of Commerce luncheon held at the Crawford Hotel yesterday was well attended and a degree of interest manifested that has shown no abatement with the coming of warm weather. Indeed in view of the fact that a number of our prominent citizens were out of town, some at Loving and others at Roswell, and Lovington, the number present was remarkable. The prize was awarded to M. S. Myers, and proved to be a necktie which was given by T. C. Horne. After partaking of an excellent two-course luncheon, speeches were in order. Dr. Ennels, county health officer, was present and in a brief statement outlined the work of the health unit, although as he said, he did not have time to go into details. He told what a full time health officer had to look out for and spoke of what the organization stood for, in regard to sanitation and health. The activities of a county health officer are based on the old saying so familiar to all: "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." The aim of the health unit is to educate the people as to the cause and prevention of communicable diseases. In order to do this, every organization must help. We must see people and explain all these things. While I am not going to tire you with statistics, said Dr. Ennels, "I wish to give you a few facts. In the year of 1921 one hundred twenty-four deaths were reported from Eddy County. One out of every four occurred among children under one year of age. About thirty were from preventable diseases. Among the remainder, thirty out of eighty-six were from preventable diseases. Is not this a wide field of activity for a county health officer? And this is only an average mortality especially of infants. I would like to touch on some vital things for you to think about. Our intention is to show you what a health unit can do, and at the end of a few months we hope to have considerable improvement in health and sanitation in this county."

Judge Armstrong was called on for a speech and in humorous way wondered what the proprietors of the different drug stores would do should Dr. Ennels' ideas prevail. The judge also told about his recent visit to Roswell where he was awarded a new hat by the Kiwanis Club, of that city, and which, he remarked, he needed badly. He is glad to see the same old working spirit among the members that has always stood for success.

John Wells said the various committees had met with unusual success in working for the Chautauqua. He spoke of the double page ad now running in both papers and said that 2,000 copies would be printed and circulated. The Chamber of Commerce will show the Farmers and Ranchers of the county a good time on their day, the 19th. There will be between fifty and sixty artists here on that day, from Kansas City and other points east. Let us show them what we have and they will advertise our town in 182 towns on their circuit, using the word "Carlsbad" as a slogan. He is particularly anxious that the town be put in order and have on its Sunday clothes for the reception of the visitors, meaning as it will so much for Carlsbad. The "Swat the Fly" campaign can be carried on in connection with the regular clean-up work.

Miss Freeman, representative of Redpath-Horner, was introduced and said some very pleasing things about the town and its people from the spirit of whom she said she caught inspiration. She spoke of the different members to be put on at the coming Chautauqua and said that the speakers who were to be here composed a strong part of the program. She spoke of the advertising that Carlsbad would receive through the Chautauqua and said that many persons in Kansas City have asked about the place. She said the only thing she could object to was that the kindly people of Carlsbad were going to spoil all the artists.

Mr. Linn spoke of the advertising that this city is going to get for the Fourth of July celebration, saying that the committee is sending out advertising by every mail. He advised every automobile owner to get a big banner for the back of the car and also small stickers for the windshield, and thus keep the matter before the people, and concluded by saying that Carlsbad will have worlds of people here for the celebration.

Arrangements are complete for the military funeral of Flem Tulk which will occur next Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, the services to be held at the Armory and interment to be made in City Cemetery, by the side of a little sister who died many years ago. The funeral will be in charge of the American Legion, but all classes of citizens have united in doing honor to the dead soldier, who once lived and walked among us. The casket has been lying at the undertakers since its arrival, draped with the flag for which he gave his life, and many have visited the rooms and stood by the remains in silent reverence for the dead soldier. Flowers have been heaped on the casket by hands desirous of showing honor to the dead, and Horace Hutchinson, commander of the American Legion, has taken pains to see that each day a fresh bouquet of beautiful roses tied with the National color, is placed on the casket.

Relatives are arriving each day to be present at the funeral and by Sunday the Tulks will be in Carlsbad, one exception, will be in Carlsbad. Relatives here at the time the paper goes to press are, Mrs. Hillman Queen, and two sons, Vic-

Tulk, the parents, and son, Junious; and Mr. and Mrs. Millard Tulk and children, are expected in today from the ranch near Lovington. Another son, John, resides near El Paso and will be here tomorrow. The full order of exercises will be found in another column of the Current.

Mr. Burley, manager of the Piggly Wiggly at Roswell, came down from there yesterday on business connected with the establishment of the same name in Carlsbad.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Glover and daughter, Mary Idelle, and teacher Miss Cooke, and William Taylor, of Vega, Texas, came in from the Glover ranch southwest of town yesterday, and remained in the city to attend the Gentry Brothers show. Mary insists, however, that she came for new slippers, as she says hers purchased a fortnight ago are quite old.

Madam Thorne will leave in a day or so for the home of her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thorne, at Roswell. She expects to spend a month in that city where she has many friends.

PIGGLY WIGGLY

HAS BUILT A LASTING FOUNDATION BY CREATING A NATION WIDE REPUTATION FOR RELIABILITY

AND ABOVE ALL THAT, WHERE THERE IS A PIGGLY WIGGLY STORE STARTED IT REMAINS. ECONOMY IS THE WATCHWORD OF THE PIGGLY WIGGLY STORES

There does not exist any old fashioned methods of doing business. There does not exist the necessity of a large number of mark-downs and sales to clear the shelves of antiquated, spoiled, or otherwise undesirable merchandise. PIGGLY WIGGLY methods are not so extremely costly and do not require an overhead expense greatly in excess of what it should be. Consequently you receive the benefit of its vast system and its buying power.

PIGGLY WIGGLY has at this time 842 stores and contracts let to establish 2,000 more in the Central States and along the Atlantic Coast.

This vast institution has been built on honest methods and for permanency. CARLSBAD'S PIGGLY WIGGLY store represents that institution and receives the same benefits of their resources.

PIGGLY WIGGLY stores are now established in Clovis and Roswell and a number of other cities in the Valley. Also in the near future plans are to have another store in Roswell, one in Artesia and one in Portales.

You never hear anybody tell you that we have "something just as good," but you see on our shelves the product you want.

And when you leave PIGGLY WIGGLY with your purchases you have a feeling that you have what you went after and what you wanted and not a product that is "just as good." Come in and see for yourself what PIGGLY WIGGLY has done to give you a store where all your desires as to real saving can be realized.

"TAG DAY" FOR VOLUNTEERS OF AMERICA A SUCCESS

Last Saturday being "Tag Day" for the above named organization in this city a number of bright boys and girls were out early with their little banks securing money from our charitably disposed citizens, and pinning a blue star on all who contributed.

After the receipts were checked up it was found that $60.69 had been realized.

Everyone connected with the enterprise was well pleased and especially grateful to the merchants and to Mr. Linn, manager of the Crawford Theatre, whose donated prizes were largely the incentive and rewards for the efforts of the children.

The first prize was won by Annie Lee Thomas who secured $12.80 for her tags. Katie May Stone won the second with $6.21; the third was won by Florence Thayer who collected $5.82; the other two prizes were won by Elsie Ruth Craft and Janie Campbell.

Dr. Bearup and son, Cecil, left yesterday morning for Roswell, where they went to meet Mrs. Cecil Bearup, who was expected to arrive there yesterday from her home in Bay City, Michigan. They are intending to return today.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bearup are in town with their two children, from their home in the mountains, and are taking in the circus today.

"CINCO DE MAYO" CELEBRATED

The Spanish-American people held their annual celebration of May 5th in this city last Friday afternoon and night, with a splendid attendance and an interesting time. The main features of the affair were addresses and songs in the afternoon and at night dancing, which took place on the square in the south part of Canyon street, the square being roped off and seats provided. Music was furnished by local talent and the young folk and older ones enjoyed the night in this pastime. The responsibility of the whole affair rested on Ramon R. Leos, and its success reflected great credit on his management and executive ability.

ATTENTION LEGIONNAIRES

You are requested to meet at the Armory Sunday afternoon, May 14, to attend the funeral of Comrade Film Tulk, which will be held that afternoon.

HORACE HUTCHINSON,
Commander of Bryan Mudgett
Post No. 7, American Legion.

A sad accident happened to Freddie Hiseck the twelve year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hiseck, last Sunday at their home on North Main street. The lad was playing with a ball, throwing it up in a tree and catching it, when a twig was broken loose and fell striking him in the eye, with such force that it is thought the sight of the eye is completely destroyed, and physicians fear it may be necessary to remove the eyeball. Mrs. Hiseck took the boy to Roswell on the evening train Monday, and will remain there with him until he is able to be brought home. He is a fine boy and everyone acquainted with him are sympathizing with him in this sad accident.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shafer, May 2nd, a girl baby. The little daughter has received the name of Marjorie Evelyn, and all parties are happy over her arrival and her parents are receiving congratulations over this their first child. About the best that the Current can wish for the little girl is that she may inherit her mother's kindly spirit to all around her.

Indigestion

Many persons, otherwise vigorous and healthy, are bothered occasionally with indigestion. The effects of a disordered stomach on the system are dangerous, and prompt treatment of indigestion is important. "The only medicine I have needed has been something to aid digestion and clean the liver," writes Mr. Fred Ashby, a McKinney, Texas, farmer. "My medicine is for indigestion and stomach trouble of any kind. I have never found anything that touches the spot, like Black-Draught. I take it in broken doses after meals. For a long time I tried pills, which gripped and didn't give the good results. Black-Draught liver medicine is easy to take, easy to keep, inexpensive."

LESSON FOR MAY 14

HEZEKIAH LEADS HIS PEOPLE BACK TO GOD

LESSON TEXT.—II Chron. 30:1-27.
GOLDEN TEXT.—God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away His face from you, if ye return unto Him.—II Chron. 30:9.
REFERENCE MATERIAL.—II Chron. 30:1-27; II Chron. 30:1-27; II Chron. 30:1-27.
PRIMARY TOPIC.—A King Who Worshipped God.
JUNIOR TOPIC.—Hezekiah's Great Passover.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC.—Putting Religion First.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC.—Wise Methods of Reform.

1. Hezekiah Proclaims a Passover (vv. 1-18).

The way for a stanning and divided people to get back to God and be united, is around the crucified Lord.

1. The Invitation Was Representative of the Nation (v. 2a). The king took counsel with the princes and the congregation to show that the proclamation was the expression of the nation's desire.

2. The Time Was Unusual (vv. 2b-4). There was not sufficient time to sanctify the people, nor to gather them together at the regular time, so they resolved instead of postponing it for a year to hold it on the fourteenth day of the second month. This liberty had been granted before in an emergency (Num. 9:3-13). This flexibility with reference to the holding of the passover shows that God's ordinances were made for man and not man for the ordinances.

3. The Scope of the Invitation (vv. 5-9). It included all of both nations who would come to keep the passover to the Lord God of Israel. "Israel" is now used to include both kingdoms. The effort was to win back the nation which had seceded. The posts who were sent with the message were authorized to supplement the proclamation with urgent exhortation to join as a united nation. This urgent invitation was tactfully put as follows:

(1) It touched ancestral memories—"Turn again unto the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel" (v. 6). Both kingdoms had a common ancestry. (2) Recent bitter experience—"Be not like your fathers, and brethren, who trespassed against the Lord God, and were given up to desolation, as ye see" (v. 7). This was a delicate subject, but their ruin was so marked that such truth could be pressed. (3) Yearning for captive kinsfolk—"Your brethren and children shall find compassion before their captors" (v. 9). (4) The instinct of self-preservation—"So that they shall come again into this land" (v. 9). (5) The forgiving mercy of God (v. 9). God will not turn any sincere seeker away from Him. "Him that cometh unto Me I will in no wise cast out" (John 6:37).

4. Israel's Reception of the Invitation (vv. 10-12). This invitation in Israel met a mingled reception. (1) Some mocked. The urgent and sincere invitation only excited opposition and ridicule. (2) Some with humble hearts came to Jerusalem. This is ever the case. The gospel is a savor of life unto life and death unto death.

II. The Passover Kept (vv. 13-27).

1. Altars Removed (vv. 13, 14). In the time of Ahab (ch. 28:24), these heathen altars were erected in Jerusalem. Before there could be worship of the true God all these traces of idolatry must be removed. This act of the people was voluntary, and shows that a right spirit actuated them.

2. The Passover Killed (v. 15).

3. The Priests and Levites Ashamed (vv. 15-20). The zeal of the people put to shame the priests and Levites. They were stimulated to perform their duties according to the law of God as given by Moses. They even took charge of the killing of the passover, since many of the officers were not sanctified so as to render this service for themselves. Though unprepared ceremonially, yet they took part in this most sacred service and were accepted as worshippers through the intercession of Hezekiah. God accepted the purpose of heart rather than the letter of the law.

4. The Praise of Glad Hearts (vv. 21, 22). They continued seven days with gladness: (1) The Levites and priests sang God's praise daily on loud instruments (v. 21). (2) Hezekiah's comforting words to the Levites (v. 22). He commended them and their teaching of the knowledge of God. (3) They made confession of their sins to God (v. 22).

5. The Passover Prolonged Seven Days (vv. 23-27). The king's object in prolonging the feast was to make as lasting an impression as possible, so as to result in the thorough conversion of their souls to God.

Holy Communion.
In the holy communion we plead the great sacrifice which can never be repeated. As Joseph's brethren held up the blood-stained coat before their father to tell him in a touching way that Joseph was dead, so in the holy communion we hold up as it were the blood-stained coat before the Father in heaven.—The Bishop of London.

The Wicked Flee.
The wicked flee when no man pursueth; but the righteous are bold as a lion.—Proverbs 28.

We have a number of special styles for young and older mothers in our line of

"THE PLACE TO BUY SHOES"

Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Boatman moved into their new house the first of the week and have been busy putting things in order since that time. Mrs. Boatman is planning a housewarming as soon as things are all settled and she has recovered from the fatigue of moving and straightening up. Her many friends will be glad to have the opportunity of inspecting the pretty home which is one of the most complete as regards furnishings and convenience, in the city.

Dr. Lycurgus Black left Monday night for Denver, where he will make a ten days visit with his son and wife, before returning to Carlsbad.

SCOUT NEWS.

Russell Crawford, of Troop 1, has joined the Cavalry. Good luck to you, and here's hoping the horses won't throw you too high.

Scouts James Wallace, Kenneth Davis, Cos Ferris, Wathen McCollum and Lawler Nelson were transferred from Troop 2 to Troop 1, great bunch, and Troop 1 is glad to welcome them.

Troop 1 appointed committees for Chautauqua week. Elmer Forehand will be in charge of the house police and will appoint his assistants. Thomas Beach and Hardy are to be in charge of the cold drinks and refreshments.

Joe Pool, of Troop 1 has moved to Albuquerque. Sorry to lose him but feel sure he will fall in with the Scouts in his new home.

The three Carlsbad troops were well represented at the Scout church services Wednesday night and the sermon was surely appreciated by them. The solo by Mr. Brooks touched a real warm spot in the hearts of the lads and accomplished great good.

All Scouts of Troop 1 are requested to be at their club rooms at 2:30 Sunday afternoon in uniform to attend the funeral of Elton Turk.

(Signed) BERT RAWLINS.

CARD OF THANKS.

The boys of Scout Troop No. 1 desire in this manner to express their thanks to F. E. Hubert for his kindness in carrying them to Roswell where they took part in the Field Day exercises. Mr. Hubert has always manifested an interest in the members of the Troop and they feel very grateful to him.

Ray Soladay made a day's trip to El Paso, Saturday trading off with the regular express messenger and utilizing the couple of hours that the train stops there to advertise the coming fourth of July celebration. He reports a large number of persons from that locality who have spoken of their intention to be in Carlsbad at that time, and also that Pecos is very anxious to send her baseball team here to play our boys or some other team during the celebration. There will also be a couple of tennis matches played if present plans mature.

Plasterers are at work on the new bungalow home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stockwell in the northern part of town, and it will soon take its place as one of the pretty and complete houses in this city of pretty homes. The building contains eight rooms, and roomy closets, so dear to the heart of the housewife, abound. The residence will be pebble dashed outside and Mr. and Mrs. Stockwell are anxiously awaiting its completion.

Mrs. M. R. Smith left the first of the week for a summer visit at the home of her parents at Athens, Texas, and from there will go to Houston, where she will be joined by her brother-in-law and sister, and together they will take a water trip to New York and other eastern cities, expecting to be gone from Carlsbad the most of the summer.

Carlsbad will lose a fine family at the close of school this year in the departure of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hume and their daughter, Miss Mary, a Junior in High School. They expect to locate somewhere in California, but nowhere will they find truer friends than they leave here in Carlsbad.

Mrs. Nat Hiler and two little boys arrived home from Granbury, Texas, getting in Saturday night. Mrs. Hiler has been in poor health for some time and the visit was taken hoping for relief from her ailments, and she seems somewhat improved since her return.

G. W. Shepherd has moved his family from their home at Artesia to this city and they are now very comfortably situated and at home in the Mrs. Gilson cottage on north Halazueno street, arriving last week Thursday.

Johnny Harvey came in the first of the week from Black river, where he has been staying for some months and remained in the city for a couple of days before returning.
