THE CARLSBAD CURRENT, FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1922.

NUMBER 20.

EVERYTHING READY FOR BIG CELEBRATION NEXT WEEK

Carlsbad is all set and ready for the big Fourth of July celebration next week, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. People are already beginning to come to town for the big doings and the hotel accommodations are all taken. However, there will be plenty of places to sleep for everybody as over three hundred cots will be for rent besides the weather will permit of sleeping out of doors and most people will come in cars with their bedding. Masonic Temple will be open to Masons and their families and the Odd-fellow hall will also be open to accommodate members of that order as well as Woodmen members and families. Gibson Brothers store will be a rest room for the ladies, in charge of the Woman's club and every convenience may be had there for women with babies. The central location of this building will make this an ideal arrangement for the ladies. Ice water will be provided by the committee in various parts of the town for the needs of all.

A new attraction has been added to the program. An airplane is coming here those days and will take up passengers for the nominal fee of $5.00 per person. The big free barbecue will be served July 4th and the fish fry the next day. No admission will be charged for any of the water sports or no charge for bathing. The hot weather will make the bathing beach a very popular place those days, besides attractive prizes have been offered for participants in the water sports which insures that event being a success.

The different committees report everything in readiness to entertain the big crowd and Carlsbad will be on her best behavior and try to make everyone feel welcome as well as enjoy themselves during the celebration.

Brunk's Comedians have been showing to large crowds here during the past week, and announcements of their program have been made to include Monday. The shows have been clean in every instance, and free from many things that mar performances of that kind so frequently. The Shriners Club attended in a body last night, seats having been reserved for them in front of the tent. About thirty persons are in the troupe and each is a lady or gentleman. After the show Thursday night, the Shriners enjoyed a dance at the Armory.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Gossett, of Malaga, the 27th of the month. Best wishes are now being offered for his success in life and for his parents who are among our most substantial citizens.

THE HILLS OF OLD WEST TEXAS

(By J. H. Zimmerman)

(Sung to the tune of, "On the Banks of the Wabash.")

There's a charming girl I know in old West Texas,
She's the bravest, sweetest girl I ever knew;
With her dear brown eyes and wondrous auburn tresses
That have made me love this girl so fond and true,
While I "rough it" in the hills of old West Texas,
Cooking beans and "spuds" for cowboys, day by day,
Where the wild coyote is howling on the hillside;
This is where these lonely cowboys need must stay.

Chorus
In the rough and rugged hills of old West Texas,
Near the "Prod L", "9 K", "6 Bar" and "K C",
Where the western wind is blowing o'er the Rim Rock,
With my dear West Texas girl, I long to be.

There are many weary days spent in the saddle,
During wind and rain and hail and sand storms bold,
There are long and sleepless nights of "guard" at "roundups",
With the wild stampede, and dangers that it holds,
Oh, the great and rolling hills with cattle grazing,
While the grand Guadalupe tower miles away,
But I long to leave these scenes and turn my footsteps,
Toward my dear West Texas girl for ever to stay.

YOUTHFUL SLAYER RECEIVES 99-YEAR SENTENCE

(From Pecos Guahar)

Not since the Holmes trial, nearly twelve years ago, has a trial at Barrow drawn such a crowd as the Meadows trial in progress there this week. The crowd was varied, too, some were summoned on a special venire, others as witnesses, while many are merely curious to watch the progress of a trial in which the principals are accused of one of the most revolting killings imaginable. The accused are Andy Meadows and son, Bill. They are accused of killing a man named Ragdale on the Meadows ranch in Andrews county.

The case was called for trial Monday morning and after a motion for continuance, which was overruled, the tedious task of selecting twelve men to sit in judgment began. Progress in choosing a jury was exceptionally fast for a case of this kind, and by night the panel was complete.

From the nature of the questions asked prospective jurors it was evident that self-defense will be the plea of the defendants, who are represented by Lud Williams of Waco, Texas, one of the most noted criminal lawyers in Texas; and Jno. B. Howard, of Pecos, and G. E. Lockhart of Taos, Texas.

Will Meadows was tried first, and Mrs. Rawls was the State's chief witness.

The indictment was read to which the defendant plead not guilty, and the trial began. The State called its first witness, Mr. R. E. E. Estes, County Surveyor of Midland county, who testified that he surveyed the scene of the killing and that he made the map offered in evidence. After a short examination by the defense attorneys he was excused and the State called Mrs. Asa Rawls, widow of the deceased Rawls, alias Ragdale. She testified that she had never lived in La Mesa, that her husband had lived in La Mesa, that he told her that he was going under the name of Ragdale for the reason that he had gotten into some trouble about some whiskey, was sorry that he had changed his name, and should not have done so; that the trouble was not serious. He often went to his mother's home at La Mesa, where he was well-known. She testified that she knew Meadows, both Andy and the son William. That she met them about the 12th day of April, 1922, at the Meadows ranch. That her husband started to work for Meadows on the 13th day of April, 1922, that he was to live at the Meadows ranch headquarters and look after the stock, etc. That he quit working for Meadows on May 15th, 1922. She said that Bill Meadows often came to the house while she and Rawls were there. That he came there on the 4th day of May and stayed all night that night. That on the morning of May 5, she and her husband had started after wood in the wagon; that Bill was at the house when they left, that they had gone a short distance when she remembered that she had left her ring, a small diamond ring, at the house and that they turned and went back to the house to get it. That Bill and the ring were both gone when she got there; that she distinctly remembered putting the ring in a certain place the night before and that it was not there, nor could they find it when they returned. Much testimony was then given regarding subsequent conversation about the ring between Rawls and Meadows. On the afternoon of the 15th of May, there was an argument between Meadows Sr. and Rawls about the ring, and that Meadows and her husband had a fight and that Meadows face was beaten pretty badly by her husband, whereupon Meadows fired her husband and told him to leave the place. They parted however on friendly terms, Meadows promising to pay Rawls for the ring.

That on the morning of the 17th she and Rawls were sitting on the porch and the Meadows rode up in their Ford and Meadows drew his gun down on Rawls. That Rawls asked Meadows if he had brought him some money and Meadows said, "You son of a gun, I have brought you a gun," and shot at Rawls; that she ran in the house just before the shot and that her husband was in the house the next thing that she knew. That Meadows said his bunch then left and said that they were going over to phone the sheriff to come and put Rawls off the place. That she and her husband then decided to walk over to Thornberry's and get off of Meadows' premises; that they had walked about a half mile from the house when they saw Meadows and family coming back in the Ford. That as soon as they got within 100 yards of them the Meadows got out of the Ford and holding a rifle on them told them to stop. They stopped and he said forced them to hold up their hands. That this was about 2 P. M. and the sun was very hot. That he kept them standing there in the sun for almost four hours and would not let them lower their hands. That she was vomiting at this time. Meadows then told Rawls that if he would submit to being tied that he would take him to Andrews. That Rawls said "I will let you do anything to me for my wife's sake, if you will take us to Andrews." Meadows then held the gun on Rawls while Bill tied him, after they had made Rawls lay down on the ground. That after Rawls was tied they got in the car and there Rawls felt very tired. That Rawls sat on the left side of the rear seat and Mrs. Rawls sat next to him, and Andy Meadows sat on the right side of the rear seat with the shotgun in his hand. Meadows looked up and saw Thornberry at Thornberry's place and made us go farther down the road. After we got in the car Bill said to me, "Why did you hold my papa and let that son of a gun beat him with an axe?" I said "Why, Bill, you know that I did not hold him, and that he was not beaten with an axe." Andy Meadows had the shotgun and the other gun was in Bill's lap. Bill hit me in the face with his hand and Rawls then tried to get loose, but could not and Meadows yelled "Hit him Bill or he will kill us all." Bill then hit him a number of times in the face and head with a pair of heavy wire pliers which he took from his pocket. That he knocked Rawls semi-unconscious at the first blow and when I tried to hold my arm over Rawls' head, Andy hit me on the arm with the shotgun barrel and nearly broke my arm. My husband began begging for his life and Meadows told him, "We are going to kill you both and take you to the sandhills." He hit me in the eye and hit Rawls several more licks with the pliers. Rawls crumpled down in the seat and never moved after Bill hit him the last lick with the pliers. I was dazed but heard them mention Thornberry's name and heard Bill say "Let me shoot the son of a gun." (Rawls) and Andy said, "No. Thornberry will hear the shot." But Bill said "I have beat him to death, now let me shoot him," and Andy said "All right," and then I heard the gun fired and I tried to raise my head but could not. "I believe my husband was dead before the shot was fired." I saw Bill walk around the car and then Thornberry came up. And Andy Meadows told him to go yet some water for Bill. Bill was throwing a fit at this time. Thornberry said "Where is the other man?" and Meadows said "He is in the car." Bill then came to and I started to tell Mr. Thornberry what had happened and Bill grabbed for the rifle that was there and said "Damn her,

FINE SITE FOR SCOUT CAMP IN CARLSBAD

The site of the scout encampment to be held at Carlsbad next week is in a beautiful field about a mile and a half north of Carlsbad, the ground covered with Bermuda grass and clover and the camp site is fringed with shade trees.

Close by the camp runs a stream from which water will be obtained for washing, while water for drinking and cooking will be brought from town. Every precaution will be made to keep the camp in a sanitary condition, and one of the leading physicians of Carlsbad will be on duty at the camp at all times.

Two expert cooks have been employed to prepare food for the hungry scouts and they are assured of having food of a quality to satisfy the most fastidious, and in quantity to satisfy the most voracious. The field kitchen belonging to Troop B, Carlsbad's National Guard unit, will be used in the camp.

The camp is located far enough from the Pecos to insure scarcity of mosquitoes and near enough to make the river easily accessible for swimming. Life guards will be on duty whenever the scouts are in swimming.

The attractions of the water carnival will be free to scouts and scouts will be allowed to compete in the swimming and diving events, provided they have the consent of their parents.

Scout Commissioner Graham of Amarillo, will be in camp for four days, beginning July, and will give some special work in scoutcraft.

Forty-eight scouts have already signed up to go to camp, and twelve or fifteen more probably will sign up before Friday night. It looks as though the scouts who go to Carlsbad are in for a week of fun.—Roswell News.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Burden, of El Paso, Texas, will arrive Sunday and be guests of Miss Willie Love until after the Fourth of July.

I will kill her too; she is worse than he is." Thornberry stopped to me to go toward his house. I ran on and had just gotten to the cattle guard when I saw a tall man coming and thought it was Andy Meadows. I held up my hands and waited, but it was Mr. Thornberry and he carried me on home.

This is a short brief of Mrs. Rawls testimony. She appeared to have her feelings under control, and spoke in a clear voice. She seemed to have the scene photographed distinctly on her mind and at no time showed the least hesitation. Mr. Williams only asked her a very few questions, and did not go into the details of the killing with her at all.

Thornberry's evidence corroborated the story of Mrs. Rawls, in every particular since he appeared on the scene.

JUDGE JEFF WORD DIES OF PNEUMONIA

Texas Jurist Ends Career of Fifty Years Spent in Dallas

Judge Jeff Word, 76 years old, well-known jurist of Texas, who had been in Dallas fifty years, died at his residence, 3107 Ross avenue, at 10:15 o'clock Wednesday morning. He had not been in the best of health, but was able to walk from the business district to his home Saturday. The exertion is believed to have brought illness which developed into pneumonia on Monday morning. His condition was not thought serious until early Wednesday, when he began sinking rapidly. Judge Word was born at Holly Springs, Miss., Nov. 26, 1845. With his father, Thomas Jeff Word, he moved to Texas a few years later, where the family settled at Palestine. He married Miss Mary Reeves daughter of Judge Ruben A. Reeves and niece of Roger Q. Mills.

As a young man he began a brilliant law practice as the partner of Judge John H. Reagan of Palestine. After moving to Dallas he continued general practice until a few years ago, when his partner here, Judge J. W. Thompson, died. Since that time Judge Word had specialized in civil matters.

He is survived by his wife, one son, Arthur Word of St. Louis; three daughters, Mrs. Louise Leftwich of Carlsbad, New Mexico, Mrs. William Cavin and Mrs. Olive Titterton of Dallas, and a grandchild, Miss Olive Titterton.

Judge Word was one of the oldest practicing attorneys in Dallas, and was a member of the Central Christian church.

Funeral services will be held at the residence at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, and will be in charge of Dr. Graham Frank. At Greenwood Cemetery, Masonic burial services will be held.

Pal bearers will be: Walker Edwards, D. W. Bowser, W. M. Coombes, Charles F. Clint, F. I. Glenn and Henry Exall Elrod. One of the last requests Mr. Word made before his death was that no flowers be sent.

He was a descendant of a long line of widely-known jurists. His father, who was a prominent lawyer in Mississippi and Texas, twice was a member of Congress. Other members of the family were prominent in politics; however, Judge Word never entered such pursuits. During his practice in Dallas, he had partnerships with Judge Jerome Kearby and his brother-in-law, Frank Reeves, before the formation of the firm with the late Judge Thompson.—Dallas Morning News.

Robert Hamblin left Monday morning for Sweetwater, Texas, to accompany his mother, Mrs. Stanford, to her home in this city. The lady has been quite ill since leaving here and was unable to go any farther on her contemplated trip than Sweetwater, where she has been confined to her bed. Mr. Hamblin and his mother returned yesterday on the train from the south, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Bearup, who have been with Mrs. Stanford and assisted in caring for her.

Messrs. Trevor and R. L. Malone of Roswell, were visitors to the Beautiful this week, coming down Tuesday and remaining until yesterday, announcing their intention of returning for the Fourth. The gentlemen are connected as salesmen and representatives of the Franklin automobile and demonstrated a beautiful model of that car while in the city.

The three men who were apprehended with a car load of whiskey near Artesia and brought to jail here recently were given a hearing a day or so ago and were fined three hundred, two hundred and one hundred dollars respectively. Later they were bound over for trial by the Federal Court. The car was confiscated awaiting a settlement of the case. The liquor was shipped to Santa Fe yesterday, by Sheriff Batton.

Robert Lapsley left the first of the week for Cananea, Mexico where he has a brother who is a practicing physician, and where the Lapsleys intend locating. Mrs. Lapsley will join her husband in a couple of weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Lapsley are young people who are an asset to any community and we regret their departure from among us although hoping that their fondest hopes and ambitions may be realized in the southern republic.

Mrs. Pete Hoover and baby will return to their home in Carlsbad Sunday from a lengthy trip to Houston and vicinity, where Mrs. Hoover took the baby about a month ago, to show her to her grandparents who had never had the pleasure of seeing their granddaughter.

Loving and Carlsbad will play ball at 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Fireman's Park. Batteries: Morris and Stewart, Carlsbad; Montgomery and Nymeyer, Loving.

Never tell another man he is a fool. The truth is often offensive.

DEATH OF A RESIDENT

George Zangellini, a resident of Carlsbad since last November, coming here from Michigan, previous to which time he had made a trip through Canada, died at his home in west Carlsbad last Sunday morning and was laid to rest in the Catholic Cemetery Monday morning, after a high mass had been celebrated by Father Gilbert, of St. Francis church. The deceased was born in Tyrol, and was aged 39 years, nine months and seventeen days. Of relatives in this country, he leaves only a wife, who was with him at the time of his demise, and who had been constant in her attendance during his long illness from tuberculosis. The widow will leave for their home in Michigan as soon as she can arrange her affairs here.

CARD OF THANKS

The relatives of Mr. and Mrs. George Zangellini and Mrs. George Zangellini wish to sincerely thank the many kind friends of Carlsbad for their assistance and sympathy during the illness and death of Mr. Zangellini. My sincere thanks to Father Gilbert for the beautiful services and music rendered and also many thanks for the beautiful floral offerings received.

WIFE.

Carpenters are at work erecting the booths for the concessions for the celebration, which have all been taken up and in every instance, but one, by local people. Several booths will be occupied by food and soft drink stands, and indications are that there will be plenty of places where pies, cakes, sandwiches, etc., may be purchased to satisfy the wants of the thousands of people who will arrive here in time for the celebration. Indeed, many cars are said to be on their way now from various parts of Colorado, Texas and this state, and some think we will have visitors from still further east. Many reservations have been made at the leading hotels and should the weather prove propitious Carlsbad will see a record attendance on the first three days of next week.

Life, for some, is what they don't make of it.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to return our thanks to our friends and neighbors who ministered to us and to our daughter and sister, Velma, during her sickness, death and burial. Such kindness and loving thoughtfulness will ever have our warmest affection and we pray that it may not fail of its reward. The givers of the many beautiful flowers merit and have received our sincere thanks.

LOUIA PIPKIN AND CHILDREN.

DEATH OF MISS VELMA PIPKIN

The death of Velma Pipkin, second daughter of L. R. Pipkin, which was alluded to briefly in last week's paper, brought sadness to every heart in this city, who knew and loved and admired the young girl for her many noble traits of Christian character. The death occurred shortly after noon on Friday following an operation for appendicitis.

The funeral was held on Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock, with Rev. A. C. Douglas and Rev. T. C. Mahan, in charge. Beautiful hymns were sung, one of which was a favorite with the deceased, "I Shall Be Like Him, I Know," and comforting talks were made by both pastors, who spoke of the consistent Christian life which Velma lived.

Anna Velma Pipkin was born in Carlsbad and at the time of her passing, was aged eighteen years, seven months and twelve days. A young lady of high ideals and of the purest and noblest type of character, who had made her peace with her God two years ago, when the Master's call came, she was found ready and answered the summons cheerfully.

The little Baptist church was crowded with friends who desired to pay the tribute of respect to one whom they had held dear in life, and who were desirous of, for the last time, looking upon her beautiful body as it was robed in the majesty of Death. Floral tributes more numerous and beautiful than is often seen on an occasion like this, covered the casket and later the grave in City Cemetery, where beside her loved mother who passed on about nine years ago, the precious dust was deposited. The pall bearers were selected from intimate friends of the family and were Robert Hamblen, Arthur Renick, F. M. Hatfield, Carl Herring, C. L. Schultz, and W. A. Murray.

Following the casket with its lovely occupant, came the flower girls, all intimate friends and nearly all members of the same Sunday School class to which Velma belonged, each having a wreath of exquisite blossoms, and carrying a bouquet. The girls were all dressed in white and were greatly affected by the taking away of their friend and classmate. They were: Misses Connie May Chilesat, Thelma Beckett, Eunice Herring, Lucile Pond, Madge Brown, Mrs. Hilary Boyd.

She leaves to mourn her loss a loving and indulgent father, two sisters and two brothers and scores of friends, to whom the sympathy of the community is extended, the Current joining.

There's a lot of enjoyment on the farm for the fellow who doesn't have to work it.

MRS. ARTHUR LINN HONOR GUEST AT THE FLOWERS HOME

A delightful affair of the week was the morning party on Tuesday given by Mrs. J. F. Flowers, honoring Mrs. Arthur J. Linn, of Washington, D. C., the house guest at the J. R. Linn home.

The living, music and dining rooms were fragrant with spring blossoms, the sweet peas predominating as the main color scheme. During the social hour which passed quite pleasantly with music and conversation, lovely refreshments were served, with dainty butter cup candies adding their charm as a color touch.

The group invited for the morning's pleasure, besides the honor guest, included:

Mrs. Brown Wisdom of Nashville, Tennessee, and Mrs. Myron Clark of Silver City, New Mexico. Mesdames A. J. Crawford, J. R. Linn, Bush, Williams, Houston, Lowry, Gilson, A. M. Thorne, Little, W. J. Lamb, Morrison, A. A. Davis, Steele of Rockwall, Texas, Davis, Love, John Lewis, Rawlins, Penny, Albritton, Douglas, Alice Patterson, Shelby Moore, Barney Burns, Sarah Crawford, Wertheim; Misses Mary I. Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Cunningham and two sons, returned the latter part of the week from a three weeks stay in Nebraska, where at Cozad, their relatives and many friends reside. They tell us that they had the minimum amount of car trouble and the maximum amount of pleasure during their trip, but also say they are glad to be back again.

W. G. Woerner spent the last week in Lovington, Lea County, on business of various kinds.

The world is at peace with everything but itself.

Dainty announcement cards bearing the name of "Betty Ann" and announcing the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Berry were received in Carlsbad Sunday. The baby is the first to be born to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Berry, and the birth took place at the family home in Culver City, California, June 14th. The mother will be remembered as Miss Pearl Roark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Roark, of Carlsbad, and herself a school girl here just a few short years ago. The current and all other friends of the young parents wish them all sorts of good luck with their baby.

Miss Mollie Culppepper is visiting at the home of Miss Elizabeth Shepherd in Roswell going up last week.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. I am sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too. At all druggists. E 55

LESSON FOR JULY 2

EZEKIEL, THE WATCHMAN OF ISRAEL

LESSON TEXT—Ezekiel 21:3-21.
GOLDEN TEXT—See ye the Lord while He may be found; call ye upon Him while He is near, let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him, and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.—Isa. 55:6-7.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—II Kings 17:32, 34; Isa. 51:12; Jer. 1:12; Matt. 23:37-39; Acts 26:18-21, 23, 27-29-31.

PRIMARY TOPIC—The Shepherd and His Sheep.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Ezekiel Watches and Warns Israel.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Facing a Hard Task.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Duty of Warning Others.

1. Ezekiel's Call (vv. 1, 2).

1. Commanded to Stand Up (v. 1). Ezekiel was given a vision of the Almighty God on His throne of glory (ch. 1). Before the vision the prophet fell prostrate upon his face. The essential equipment of a minister for the discharge of his task is a vision of the Almighty.

2. Filled With the Spirit (v. 2). By the Spirit the divine energy entered him and enabled him to execute the commission given to him.

II. Ezekiel's Commission (vv. 3-8).

1. The Moral Condition of the People (vv. 3, 4). (1) A rebellious nation (v. 3). This rebelliousness perhaps referred to their heathen idolatrous practices. (2) Impudent children (v. 4). "Impudent" literally means "hard of face." It means the grossest perversity which caused them to stand up in the presence of the prophets of God without a sense of guilt or compunction of conscience.

2. The Charge (v. 4). He was to deliver the message of God. He was to declare, "Thus saith the Lord God."

3. The Difficulty of His Task (vv. 5-8). He was to deliver the message of God whether they would hear or forebear.

III. Ezekiel's Experimental Qualifications (2:3-15).

Before one can preach to others he must have an experience—must be in sympathetic accord with God and His message.

1. Eating the Book (2:3-3:9). This book contained God's woes upon the stiff-necked and rebellious people (v. 10). In order to speak God's threatenings effectively to others we must inwardly digest and appropriate them ourselves. The eating of the book was in his mouth as honey for sweetness. Though his ministry was difficult and the judgment severe, the prophet was in entire sympathy with God's purpose and found delight in His will.

2. Urged on by the Spirit (3:10-14). In order to strengthen Ezekiel for his task, the wonderful symbolism of God's providential agencies which had been before him in chapter 1 was brought to his attention, assuring him that God would accompany him to his new destination.

3. Entering Into Sympathy (v. 15). In order to minister to a people one must enter into sympathy with them; must show that the message is from the depth of the heart; that to declare the message of woe is a great grief. Ezekiel mingled his tears with theirs.

IV. Ezekiel's Grave Responsibility (3:17-21).

God made him a watchman. Every minister is a watchman over his flock. Two things were required of him:

1. To Hear the Word at God's Mouth. The source of his message was God's Word. So today the minister is to get his message from God.

2. Sound the Warning (v. 17). After he heard God's message he was to speak it out. The same duty is upon the minister today. Cases in point for his guidance (vv. 18-21):

(1) When God says to the wicked "Thou shalt surely die" (v. 18), and the watchman fails to warn him, the wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood shall be required at the watchman's hand.

(2) If the watchman warn the wicked and the warning is unheeded (v. 19), the wicked man shall perish, but the watchman has delivered his soul.

(3) When a righteous man turns to do iniquity and God gives him over to stumbling in his own sin, his past seeming righteousness will be of no avail, but his blood will be required at the hand of the watchman if he fail to warn him (v. 20).

(4) If the watchman so warns the righteous man that he fall not into sin, the man shall be saved and the watchman hath delivered his soul.

Ministers have most solemn obligations, that of discharging their obligation whether men will hear or forebear.

The Wise Shall Understand.
Many shall be purified and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand.—Daniel 12:10.

Being Wise.
It is better to be wise and not to seem so, than to seem wise and not to be so.—Plato.

Honest Error.
Honest error is to be pitied, not ridiculed.—Chesterfield.

Uncle Walt's Story

Walt Mason

BEGINNING THE DAY

"IF A MAN begins the day in a good humor," observed the professor, "everything will prosper with him."

"You talk as though beginning the day in a good humor was as easy as falling off a log," said the low-browed man. "I suppose you have been reading one of those fool sunshine books, and you think a man can be in a good humor just by saying he is going to be. But a man can't control his humors any more than he can control dreams."

"Some days I feel like the original Sunny Sam."

and I just naturally go around shedding light into the dark places, and making everybody glad. At such times the world seems an unqualified success, and the fact that I was born into it does not cause me any remorse. If some prominent citizen backed me up against a fence and asked me what made me feel so gay, I couldn't give him any helpful information. I don't know myself, what causes the chipper feeling. I suppose it must be because my works are in good condition, doing their digestive stunts at the old stand."

"After a few days the glad feeling passes away, and instead of being a Sunny Samuel I become a Mournful Moses. I have all kinds of presentiments of evil. I have a firm conviction that the bottom is about to drop out of everything, and that I'll be mixed up with the wreckage. I take a pessimistic view of everything, and go growling around until even the cows are sick of seeing me, and they give me a lift with their hind feet as a gentle hint that I should come out of my trance."

"If a leading business man asked me to explain my melancholy I couldn't do it. The world seems to be moving along as though nothing had happened. The same old sun is shining on the day shift, and the scented zephyrs are blowing through my whiskers as of old."

"Often a man begins the day wrong, through some accident or unpleasant experience. Then he knows why he has a grouch, but that doesn't help him to get rid of it. This morning I was lying in bed dreaming that I was the only original white hope, and that I was making a heroic effort to bring the laurels back to the Caucasian race. I was just administering in apparent that seemed destined to bring home the bacon, when I fell out of bed and practically ruined my head against the floor."

"I came downstairs in a beastly humor, and after breakfast I went over and picked a quarrel with old Doanville, so that he had to shoo up a tree to escape violence, and all because I was feeling ornery. It wouldn't have been safe for any man to tell me that in order to begin the day right all a man has to do is to begin it right."

"I have gone out from the house to milk the cows in the morning, many a time, feeling as blithesome and glad as a dickybird, and quite satisfied that the day was going to be one round of pleasure. Then a cow would give me a poke in the ribs with one of her celluloid horns, or push her big splay foot into a brimming bucket of milk, and the joyous stuff was all off, and I'd be so sore all day that Aunt Julia would hand me my meals with a pitchfork."

"The other morning I got up feeling so mean that I was ashamed to look in the mirror. I went downtown after breakfast, in the mood to rob a blind organ grinder of his few plucked nickels. Then I went to the post office and got a registered letter. A man who had owed me $2 for five years had an ingrowing conscience at last, and sent the money to me. When I left the post office everybody commented on my winning smile and said 'I was the little sunbeam of the town.'"

Twins Strangely Linked.

Albert Gieserson and Walter Gieserson, St. Louis twins, were members of the same company, and each wore a small diamond ring and a watch and chain in France. Albert lost the stone of his ring and a few days later Walter lost his watch and chain and soon afterward Walter's disappeared. Then Albert was wounded and Walter followed suit. And now they intend to marry twin sisters, Geraldine and Wendine Smalley of Sheldon, Ill.—Indianapolis News.

All Depends.

"Can you support my daughter in the style she's been accustomed to?" asked the father of the young man who sought his daughter in marriage. "Well," replied the young man thoughtfully, "is she strong for a $500 baby grand piano or a $5 talking machine?"

A Good Wish.

Candidate—Election day is also my birthday.
Friend—Good! I hope you will have many happy returns.

APRICOTS KILL BOY WHO TAKES AN OVER SUPPLY

Hope, N. M., June 24.—Acute indigestion caused by eating a large number of apricots brought about the death of Robin Hibbard, aged 14, Thursday afternoon. The boy was ill only about an hour. He had been picking apricots in a nearby orchard, and fell to the ground in convulsions. A physician who was called was unable to give relief.

Rev. Dorsey Mewborn left for Clovis last Friday, where he spent some days, dividing his time between the two places, Carlsbad and Clovis, where there is a protestant organization, but they have no church. The Santa Fe Railroad giving them the use of a building for their services. He returned Tuesday afternoon.

Judge Connor, of Roswell, spent the Sunday in Carlsbad, and attended Methodist church services in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Hays and children will leave the second of July for Sweetwater, Texas, where they will spend a fortnight with relatives and friends.

Sam Montgomery has this week finished a job of moving that had been pronounced impossible by many persons and that in the moving of the large bath on the Wilson place, a distance of half a mile. When it is known that the bath is 100 feet long, 40 feet wide and 29 feet high, some idea of the magnitude of the task may be realized. Mr. Montgomery has been delayed in his work by not having the proper equipment, but he has had equipment made for the purpose and now is ready for a similar job anywhere.

Mrs. John Hiseck and son, Freddy returned from a trip to Roswell, getting in Tuesday afternoon. They make periodical trips to that city and have done so for some weeks having the son in charge of a specialist in Roswell for the treatment of an injured eye.

Mrs. J. J. Kircher and children arrived in the city from Kansas City, Missouri, Tuesday afternoon. They visited a brother of Mrs. Kircher, and A. L. Moore will be in Carlsbad until the middle of August, before returning to Los Angeles.

HAY TRADE CONDITIONS OF THE WEEK

The bad weather of the past week has had a depressing effect on the hay trade and has retarded the delivery of hay to consumers to some extent. Receipts are heavy in most markets and as trade is quiet, there is some accumulation at the terminals, the trade holding off in anticipation of lower prices. New clover and alfalfa have arrived in the Western markets but is generally in heating condition and values are very irregular.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lusk and baby are in from their home on the Plains, visitors at the home of the lady's parents, C. N. Jones and wife.

SURPRISE KITCHEN SHOWER FOR BRIDE

The return of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hall from the northern part of the state, where they went on their honeymoon trip, was the inspiration for a very pleasant surprise and kitchen shower for Mrs. Hall, given by Mrs. George O'Connor at her home. The honoree had not the slightest idea of the affair, and was taken over in the car to the residence, ostensibly to take Mrs. O'Connor and her friend, Miss Belmont, to the show. On arriving, she found her girl friends in possession of the house and the surprise was complete. The young ladies engaged in bridge, and were afterward served light refreshments. In the games Mrs. Sam Lusk made the highest score and was rewarded with a bunch of fragrant sweet peas. Helen Melvain received the booby prize.

After refreshments the presents were brought in and duly admired, mostly all being of aluminum and such things as the bride will find useful in her new home.

The guests were Misses Belmont, Lucius Powell, Maise Gibson, Nellie Lusk, Marian Witt, Helen Wright, Helen Melvain, Margarette Roberts, Willis Lovett, Ova Butcher, Warde Bates, Dorothy Swigart, young married ladies present were, besides the honoree, Mrs. Sam Lusk, John Snow, Aud and Sam Lusk, Joe Livingston, Robert Toffelmire, Dan Lowenbruck, and Mary Mize Mann.

Clarence Horne, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Horne of this place, returned from school last week, and is about the last of our boys who have been attending college, to return. Clarence has been in a Military School at Lexington, Kentucky, and will again return to the same school in the fall. He expects to take up a "Liberal Arts" course at that time. The college is among the best in the country and Mr. Horne shows the result of the careful training he has evidently received.

Miss Dorothy Swigart underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils this week and is recovering nicely from the effects of the work.

Grant Mann, of El Paso, will be a guest of the Melvain and Tipton families during the coming celebration.

The Pardy family returned from their outing on the Rio Grande, getting in Wednesday night. They had an enjoyable time in the White Mountains, where the weather is cool and delightful and where they had fine mountain trout for their breakfast. They all came home refreshed and rested and after the Fourth of July will take a more extensive trip by auto going to California for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Nelson returned last Friday from their vacation trip which they spent in the vicinity of El Paso, and other places southwest. Returning they brought with them a guest, in the person of Mrs. Otis Jones, who with her daughter will be guests of the family until after the Fourth of July.

Mrs. Gordon Simpson, nee Grace Jones, came in from her home in Tyler, Texas, this week, and will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nib Jones, west of the city.

Miss Leola Robinson, daughter of Mrs. Red Smith, returned Tuesday afternoon after a year's stay with relatives in Illinois.

The News, of Roswell, tells of a large number of Roswellites who are planning to come to Carlsbad to the celebration.

Francis G. Tracy was this week appointed a delegate to the fifteen annual conference of taxation which meets at Minneapolis, Minnesota, September 18th to 22d.

SNAKE BITE IS FATAL TO GIRL NEAR ARTESIA

Artesia, N. M., June 25.—The little 2-year-old girl of Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis died on Friday morning as a result of a bite by a rattlesnake. The child was playing in the yard with playmates. The yard was devoid of all weeds and no snakes had ever been seen about the house. As the little girl reached for a rubber ball the snake bit her on the left wrist. The other children screamed and the child's mother soon appeared. Medical aid was summoned, but as the child was four miles from town help there stopped before the physician's arrival.

The child was taken on Thursday evening and died early on Friday morning. Snakes are unusually common in this section of the valley during the past few weeks, especially west of the Pecos river.

Messrs. J. B. Morris, E. R. Lang, Jr. Westfall and S. L. Perry went up to Hagerman last Saturday and engaged the Tennis team of that place in a series of games, in which they came off victorious, and returned in the evening with Victory perched upon their banners. The Hagerman team will play some return games here during the coming celebration.

In addition, you have the advantages of better design and better performance. Studebaker is the largest builder of six-cylinder cars because of these facts.

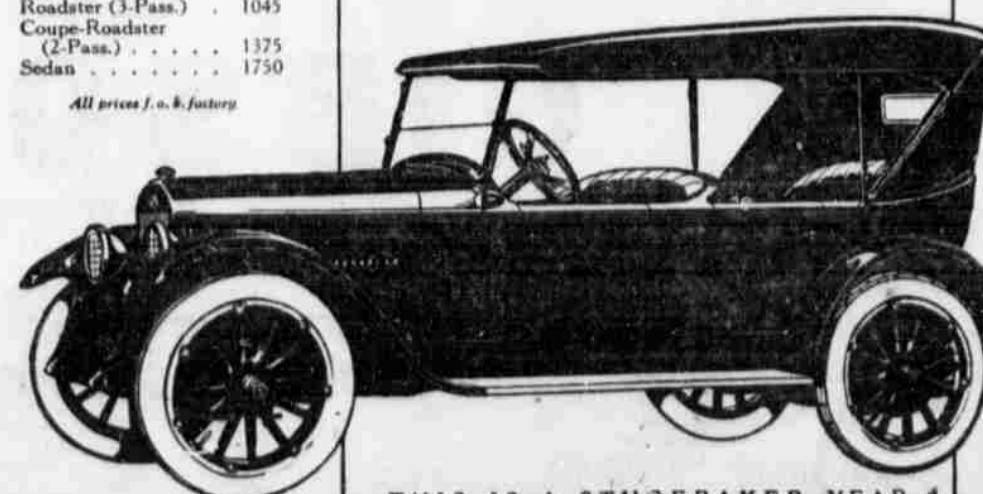

Get acquainted with the Light-Six. Test its riding and driving qualities. Then you will appreciate that the enthusiasm of these owners is based on a performance that is not equaled by any other car of like price—or by many cars of much higher price.

FORM KNOTHOLE GANGS

One of the best things they are doing in the Texas league is to organize "Knothole Gangs." Membership in the "gang" permits the boys to see Texas league games free the coming season. At an organization meeting in Houston a thousand boys attended and signed up. The boys have to pledge themselves to be decent and square and all that before they are accepted. In Wichita Falls the Rotary club is in charge of the boys' organization.

In the center he is holding the horseshoe ready to wing over a fast one.

SWIMMING RECORD LOWERED

The world's swimming record of 6 minutes 55 4-5 seconds for 500 meters, held by Norman Ross, U. S. A., was lowered at Middlesborough, England, recently by J. G. Hatfield, the holder of several British championships, who covered the distance in 6 minutes 15 2-5 seconds. Hatfield was timed by officials of the Amateur Swimming association, and the effort was made in public.

PIGGLY WIGGLY

All Over the World

June 26th, 1922.
Editor Carlsbad Current Carlsbad, New Mexico.
Dear Mr. Editor:
Quite a few asked me to write them when we left, so I thought the best day to reach all was to write a little sketch of our trip and ask you to put it in your excellent paper. We left Carlsbad Tuesday morning, arriving at Van Horn at 3:00 P. M., making the trip of 120 miles on 8 gallons of gasoline and 1 quart of oil. We replenished our gas at 26c a gallon. Leaving Van Horn at 3:30, we arrived at Sierra Blanca, 32 miles, at 5:00 P. M., and as Mrs. Swickard and wife were getting tired, we decided to stop for the night. The next morning we over-slept and did not get away until 8:45, and arrived in El Paso at 11:55, 87 miles. Here we took Madam Swickard to her people and spent the balance of the day resting up. The next morning we visited the firm of the El Paso Butcher & Dairy Supply Co., and the Senior member, of the firm kindly offered to go with us over the city which lasted until noon. After lunch we secured a guide who went with us for a drive over in Jaurez, which was very interesting. It cost us 25 cents to drive over the international bridge and return and the officials were very nice to us, not even asking us any questions or examining our car. After we returned I went up to Judge Grantham's office and visited with him, who was very anxious to learn about the Carlsbad people. The Judge came down and met the wife and daughter Grace, and we invited him in our car and took him to his home where we met Mrs. Grantham, Erma Linn, and after a nice visit with them, we returned to our hotel. The next morning we filled up with gasoline again, 10 gallons, at 25 cents a gallon and started on our way for Hot Springs. We passed through Las Cruces, Rincon, and a few small places. At Rincon we put in five more gallons of gasoline at 33 cents, making the trip on 21 gallons, from Carlsbad to Hot Springs, and our Speedometer showed we had traveled 407 miles. We arrived at Hot Springs at 3:00 P. M., being 127 miles from El Paso. Here we were surprised to find so many we knew, and so many former Carlsbad people. The first one we met was Judge Brice and wife, who were here to get the benefit of the springs. The next party we met was H. B. Johnson, formerly of Carlsbad, now at Roswell. We stopped at the James Apartments and met Mr. and Mrs. James and asked for an apartment, but was told they were full, but one apartment would be vacated the next day, so we at once engaged it. Mr.

James told us that a Mr. Hill had a vacant room and sleeping porch we might get, so we drove over to see, and to my surprise, it was our friend, Hill and wife, who used to run the hotel at Loving. We secured the room and remained there until our apartment at James was vacant, which was Saturday, and now we are nicely located in it. We were very fortunate in securing them as there is quite a demand for apartments. The next Carlsbad man we met was "Ted" Butler who so many will remember as having charge of the Methodist choir. Next was Mr. Merrifield Mrs. Doe Vest's father, and our next Carlsbad man we met was our wagon yard man, Mr. Lester, who left yesterday to be on hand for the Celebration there. Well, I will close, as this is getting too long, by saying we are having a good time. EDWIN STEPHENSON.

HEALTH AXIOMS

The following axioms have been proven repeatedly and are worth our while heeding:

Soap, water, elbow grease, and sunshine are the best disinfectants and disease preventatives known.

A clean back yard is evidence of a well-ordered home.

Flies are not particular—it matters not to them what unscreened privy or sick room they visit before they enter your house and contaminate your food.

Your failure to help eliminate the fly may cost you an untold amount of sickness and death.

You don't need to have flies in the house—you may think you do but you don't.

Sickness is the most expensive burden of mankind. It is our individual duty to help prevent it.

A local wit says it doesn't make any difference whether a woman has anything in her head, provided the husband has plenty in his pocket.

Ancestry has much for which to be thankful. It is not here to see the finish of what it commenced.

There still remains one last resort in our efforts to discourage crime. Punish the criminals.

The child that is born with a silver spoon in its mouth never knows what a lot of fun it could have with a pewter one.

A PRAYER

Lord, I am only a neater, a New Mexico dry farmer. Thou knowest that when wheat was $2.00 per bushel and I had flour and sugar in the house and cake and pie every time I wanted it, I was not satisfied. Thou knowest that I wore a Harding badge and a Barsum button and was faithful in all things to the U. O. P. Even so, Thou knowest that I believed in the Dawn of a New Day and that wool would advance in price, that I would get $3.00 for wheat, 20c per pound for pork. Lord, two years have gone, never to return and I am too poor to buy the necessary Rockefeller for my Henry, but I still wear a Harding badge, but now it is on the seat of my overalls. O Lord, I am thankful for one thing, and that is that Harding has been able to make Jack rabbits taste good in the summer time; I pray Thee that Thou wilt keep them replenished so that I shall not want. Likewise Lord, Thou knowest that I have always believed A. B. Fall to be the greatest Texas statesman who ever owned mines in the domain of Pecos Villa; he was my friend and the friend of Rockefeller, even unto the Wyoming oil fields. I am glad, O Lord, that Thou hast prospered the railroads and that they have been enabled to keep up their freight rates when my cows would not pay the expense of gathering. And I pray Thee that Thou wilt continue to uphold Treasurer Strong and that the State Auditor may be enabled to collect interest for many years on the state funds for his own bank account, for it is in a righteous cause. Teach me to pray.

"Our Father who are in Washington, Harding be Thy name; His Kingdom come, His will be done even in keeping the soldiers out of a bonus; give us each day our daily corn bread that Wilson tried for two years to make us eat and Harding had us eating in three months; and lead us not into temptation to vote for a democrat and Harding's be all the power and Mellon's all the money and Rockefeller's all the oil for ever and ever, and mine the patched trousers. Amen!"

It's useless to put your best foot forward unless you make the other one keep up.

The fellow who runs into debt often finds it difficult to even crawl out.

WAITING FOR NOISES

Many Americans are waiting to hear the guns roar again on the other side of the Atlantic. There is profit in it for them. Others are waiting to hear the roar of the blast furnace, and the sound of the hammer, and the hum of the saw, field. There is profit in these noises and the song of the man in the for them. There is also peace, and happiness, and contentment. We coined money during the last war, but we paid dearly for our riches in the end. And there are those who are ready to coin it again under like conditions. The person who would see the ravages of another war for the sake of personal gain is a poor American. He is not an American at all. He is not even a man. He should be invited to close the door softly behold him as he boards an outgoing ship, and forget to return.

MAKE READY TO MAKE MERRY

OUR GUESTS WILL BE HERE MONDAY
Be Ready To Show Them A Good Time.

FLORSHEIM stakes their reputation on every pair of shoes they make and put the name in the shoe to tell you so. They expect one pair to sell the next, and it usually does.

Florsheim prices are reasonable; the quality is unusual.
